

DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY NEXT; POLLING DATE NOT SETTLED

Prime Minister's Speech at Portage Will Attack the Crerar-Wood Alliance. MR. KING CAUSING MUCH SPECULATION Hinted He is Being Made to Walk the Plank by Fielding-Lemieux Crowd.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Parliament will be dissolved on Friday next. With dissolution, Mr. Meighen, who will step off as the capital on his way to address a manifesto to the country, and the campaign will be under way. The date of polling has not yet been definitely fixed, but it is certain that it will be between the fifth and tenth of December, this enabling a long, educative campaign.

Mr. Meighen's speech at Portage, while embracing all problems and issues with which the country is faced, will deal chiefly with the tariff, and his attack will be directed mainly against the Wood-Crerar Alliance. As the fight in the West is almost entirely between the Government and Radical-Agricultural forces, Mr. Meighen will reserve an analysis of the reply to Mr. King's recent attempt to repudiate the 1919 platform under his Friday meeting in Montreal. This meeting, according to present indications, will be a tremendous gathering. Mr. Meighen will have his three new French Canadian Ministers with him on the platform, and in addition he will be fortified by the presence of Sir Thos. White, the ex-Finance Minister who, it will be remembered, was perhaps the most powerful platform force against the reciprocity pact in the election of 1917, is understood to be again ready to take the stump against the present assault on the tariff. He has written Mr. Meighen enthusiastically endorsing the next Cabinet; and his presence at next Friday's Montreal meeting is expected to exert a tremendous influence at the very outset of the campaign. Following his Montreal meeting Mr. Meighen will tour the Maritime Provinces. He will be accompanied by Mr. Baxter and Mr. McCurdy and probably by one of his French Ministers. On his return to Ottawa he will make an extensive trip through Ontario, recognized as the real battle ground of the campaign. His final three weeks before polling day, in addition to the West that will take him to the Pacific coast.

What of Mr. King? Means while a great deal of speculation is being indulged in here as to the reasons which prompt him to suddenly decide to face the music in North York. Not even the Liberal leader's friends believe that he has the slightest chance of election in this riding and it is even darker here than elsewhere. Mr. King, whose leadership has been dubious for some time, is being made to "Walk the Plank" by the Fielding-Lemieux-Guina combination fighting to gain control of the party. A development of the past week that has been noted with interest is the desertion of Mr. King by the Kingston-Walton, one of the oldest of Liberal papers in Ontario. The Whig, while not going over entirely to the Government, finds itself unable to support the Liberal Party under its present leadership and will be independent throughout the campaign. Its defection leaves the Liberal leader practically without newspaper support in the whole of Ontario, the Toronto Star and the Toronto Globe, both pillars of Laurierism in the old days, have thus far failed to come out separately for Mr. King.

New York Heiress Dies From Wounds

(United Press.) New York, Sept. 25.—Miss Mildred Hansen, granddaughter of the wealthy shoe manufacturer, died here early Sunday from bullet wounds inflicted by her former chum Mrs. Grace Lewis. The mystery that enfolded in the death of the heiress, following the suicide of Mrs. Lewis, remains unexplained. As Miss Hansen lay in Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, hovering near a crisis which nearer passed, she was too weak to make a statement. Just before she lapsed into unconsciousness, her lips moved in a whisper. She exonerated John S. Borland, New York importer, of all blame in the tragedy. Mr. Borland had been with her early Friday morning at the time of the shooting. Jealousy on the part of Mrs. Lewis was held by the Police to have been the cause. This was denied emphatically by Borland who insisted he did not know Mrs. Lewis "well enough for that." Miss Hansen died in the arms of her mother, Mrs. Grace Hansen. Late Saturday Captain of Detectives Sullivan questioned the dying woman to fulfill the formalities of law. "Who shot you?" he asked. "Grace." "Do you know why?" "Miss Hansen shook her head wearily.

CHICAGO CRIME WAVE LAID TO PROHIBITION

Liquor and Love Tragedies Steadily Increase—Bootleggers' Saloons Thriving. (United Press.) Chicago, Sept. 25.—Chicago is the wettest city in America. Fifty per cent of its policemen are bootleggers. Its crime rate is growing. It's supposedly "dry" saloons are packed to the doors. It's liquor and love tragedies are steadily increasing. Its prohibition officials are handicapped and practically helpless. The situation is declared by Arthur Barrage, president of the Chicago Law and Order League to be a "crisis." He says that 3,500 of 5,000 saloons in Chicago are openly selling liquor. During other crises in the history of Chicago—those of 1871, after the Chicago fire, in 1877, during the railroad riots, and 1894 during a R. U. strike—Federal troops were sent to the city, he says. Chief of police Charles Fitzgerald, an ex-newspaperman and trained observer goes far well on better. He says that if his reports are correct every other policeman you see in Chicago is a bootlegger. "Reports that have reached me indicate that fifty per cent of the police department is interested in some way in violating prohibition laws," says Fitzgerald. "Prohibition is not a fact but a fallacy. In Chicago there are more deaths from liquor than ever before prohibition, more of every evil attributable to the use of liquor than in the days before so-called prohibition laws became effective." The chief is expected to make a drastic shake-up in police department effective tomorrow morning.

All Satisfied With Fredericton Fair

Total Attendance Not Quite up to That of 1919—Broke up Saturday Night.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Sept. 25.—The Fredericton Exhibition of 1921 closed at eleven o'clock Saturday night with a day's attendance better than any previous day. The fair went on full blast until the last minute, and the concessionaires did a good business. The total attendance, according to the ticket record, was 31,837. Counting all persons on the grounds the attendance totalled about forty thousand. There was a falling off in attendance of some thing under eight thousand compared with the fair of 1919. The total then was 39,412. The break in the weather above the level of rain, although there was none, except one night, had a serious influence on the attendance from outside points. The fact that the Exhibition followed three others in this town and several in Northern Nova Scotia, also was against a record attendance although the first three days were the most successful held here. The management left nothing undone and the exhibits were of the highest quality. Immediately after "God Save the King" was played by the band Saturday night, the dismantling of the midway and removal of the live-stock and other exhibits began. Two special freight trains got away this morning, one for Chatham and one for Chatham. The latter place got the majority of the race horses. Chatham got the midway shows and many exhibitors as well as race horses.

Charlotte County Ready For Battle

Liberal-Conservatives in Good Position for Coming Election—Premier to Speak.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, Sept. 24.—Hon. J. B. H. Baxter, the new Federal Minister for New Brunswick, is taking an early opportunity to get in touch with the electorate and paid a visit to St. Stephen this afternoon, coming by auto from St. John and returning in the evening. He was congratulated by many friends on his deserved preference, his appointment to a cabinet position being very popular here among the supporters of the Meighen Government. The Minister of Customs found the party here in good position for the coming election, with several strong candidates readily available and the trend of party sentiment leading pretty strongly in one direction. Arrangements were made for a public meeting to be held in St. Stephen on the afternoon of Friday, October 13, to be addressed by Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister, Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Minister of Public Works and Hon. Dr. Baxter.

Balfour Not Going To Washington Parley

Geneva, Sept. 25.—When asked today if he would go to the Washington conference for the limitation of armaments now that Premier Lloyd George is unable to go Arthur J. Balfour, president of the council, said: "I do not think there is the least likelihood of it. They have kept me from home long enough and the Washington conference will last too long, in my opinion."

The Corn cob Comes Into Its Own

Found to Possess Rare and Valuable Properties Needed by Chemists.

(United Press.) Washington, Sept. 25.—Comes now the tawny corn cob to claim its place in the sun. For decades, scorned as nothing better than mediocre fuel for farmer, and sniffed at by those in close proximity to one using the cob as a smoking utensil, this product has suddenly been found by the Department of Agriculture chemists to possess rare and valuable quantities. First it was discovered that a waste could be developed from the cob as a binder in the manufacture of enamel and wall board. Then one of the analysts discovered that the residue left, after paste had been developed, contained approximately ten per cent high grade furfural, one of the basic needs in immense chemical industry in manufacture of coal tar products, ranging from dyestuffs to photographic laboratory materials. One of the conditions which has thwarted chemical development in the United States has been the German control of furfural. Before the war Germany demanded $25 a pound for this derivative, a virtually prohibitive price. Corn cob will now permit of a source of this chemical at prices which will permit of chemical production in scores of lines at greatly reduced prices, and may open up a dew and profitable trade for the farmer.

Dominion Lands For Public Shooting

Manitoba Scheme to Provide Huntsmen With Preserves for the Chase.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 25.—The danger of Manitoba sportsmen being deprived of suitable hunting grounds through settlement and the diversion of land into private hands, may be overcome by the setting apart of suitable Dominion lands for public shooting grounds. It will likely be recommended as the result of a recent conference at the Provincial Parliament buildings here on the subject of conservation of bird life. In the northern part of the province, a bird sanctuary now existing will probably be enlarged, if the recommendations adopted as the unanimous opinion of those present at the conference are accepted by the Dominion Government. Manitoba has thirteen game preserves, many of them of great extent, in which carrying firearms, hunting or trapping is prohibited. An enlargement of that known as the Cedar Lake preserve is suggested taking in, in all, an area of from 1,600 to 2,000 square miles. The sanctuaries or game preserves are set apart as breeding grounds. In time to come, whenever it may be found that they do not continue to serve their purpose as principal breeding grounds, they may be set apart as public hunting grounds.

Druggists Raising Great Big Howl

Clain Former Saloon Keepers Are Infringing on Their Rights.

(United Press.) Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 25.—"They shall not take our prescriptions in vain." This is the new credo of the National Wholesale Druggists Association. Big green and red bottles in the corner drug stores too often stand now-days for cherry wine and cordials. According to the Association assembled here, Sunday, for his ends of former saloon keepers have opened drug stores, hired registered pharmacists to sell stock proprietary medicines and tinctures, while the house is sold by the same means.

ARBUCKLE'S HEARING ENTERS THE THIRD DAY

Prosecution Expecting to Produce New and Damaging Evidence Against Film Star.

House Physician's Evidence Today. Defense Contends Dr. Beardley's Evidence Will be Favorable to "Fatty."

(United Press.) San Francisco, Sept. 25.—Rosco (Fatty) Arbuckle Monday will face the third day of his preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Virginia Rappa, the beautiful Los Angeles movie actress, an unusually long time for a preliminary hearing to drag out in a California court. The third day is expected by the prosecution to produce new and damaging evidence against the big film star. Dr. Arthur Beardley, house physician at the St. Francis Hotel, who was first called to treat Miss Rappa when she became hysterical at the notorious Arbuckle Labor Day gin justification party, is slated to give his first testimony in open court on the nature of Miss Rappa's injuries. The State claims this evidence strengthens the case against the comedian. However, the defense also has contended that Dr. Beardley's testimony would be favorable to Arbuckle. The St. Francis physician has been away on a hunting trip since shortly after the fatal party and was inaccessibly to attorneys and their investigators working on the case. The Third Week. Arbuckle, Sunday, entered the third week as prisoner facing trial for murder, two weeks ago Saturday he and his attorney were driven from Los Angeles to San Francisco to face the police who knew of Miss Rappa's injuries. It is expected that the jury will be sworn in on Monday. The St. Francis physician has been away on a hunting trip since shortly after the fatal party and was inaccessibly to attorneys and their investigators working on the case.

GOVERNMENT NOT TO YIELD ON THE ISSUE OF IRELAND'S ALLEGIANCE TO THE KING

Harding's Fingerprints In National Move

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—President Harding submitted to having his fingerprints taken today. They will be kept in the records of the International Association for Identification, now in convention in Washington. Delegates called at the White House seeking President Harding's help for a national registration of American citizens by the fingerprint method. It is proposed to have everybody make a record of their fingerprints, to be kept at post offices.

BOSTON DOUBTS DUTY OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Like His Compliments, But Can't Agree With His Statement: "Boston Is Dry."

(United Press.) Boston, Sept. 25.—The optimistic Boyd P. Doty, fresh from Anti-Saloon League Headquarters at Westerville, Ohio, here to establish a New England league department he discovered Boston is already "dry." Doty has been in town three days and declares in that time he has not heard a single curse word and has not seen anyone under the influence of booze and has not even smelled it on anyone's breath. In short, Boston is closer to a realization of the heavenly state than any large city passed through by Doty since prohibition came. Bostonians, while surprised and pleased to hear such nice things said about the city by an outsider, are trying to figure out just where Doty spent his time. It has been suggested that he spent most of it in one of the local churches retiring at an early hour and this is generally accepted as the most likely explanation. In many cases it is declared drugstores have been fitted up at a cost of thousands of dollars, something like old-time saloons. Association plans to petition the prohibition board to exact close additional supervision over the issuing of permits in order to save medicinal liquor, or business from disruption. All of which recalls the melody "Cheer up little girl, you'll be a druggist by and by." Overworked cops can't see it either. Those of central station arrested 92 men between daylight Saturday and daylight Sunday, and booked them as "drunk," which is the police record for being drunk enough to be pinched. And there are 18 other police stations here, some of which have had to be repeated without conditions, but stating merely that the government declines to discuss the question of separation. With both press and public refusing to recognize the possibility of failure, or that the conference will not eventually be held, it seems likely that the note will not demand an express repudiation of the claim before hand. The date of the meeting is understood, will be suggested as October 4.

Churchill's Speech Dampens the Hope That Peace Conference Will be Held.

General Election Possible in Event of Breakdown in Peace Negotiations.

(United Press.) London, Sept. 25.—The question whether there will be an Irish Peace Conference or return to the former conditions of active hostility will have been decided within the week. Hope is still strong that the conference will be held in spite of the somewhat dampening effect of the week-end speech by Winston Churchill, who declared that the government will not yield an inch on the supreme issue of Ireland's allegiance to the King. "We have reached the end of our tether," he declared. "Our offer goes to the utmost limits that are possible. If rejected we have nothing else to give." The speech aroused the greatest attention and was viewed in the light of a sensational statement inasmuch as Churchill had just come from the discussions at Garloch. It had become manifest, therefore, that the government's reply to De Valera will bring the lengthy correspondence to a climax. Those usually well informed predict that the new note will reaffirm the government's refusal to recognize Sinn Fein delegates as representatives of a Sovereign state, but perhaps offering to discuss the actual status of delegates at the conference. The date of the proposed meeting, it is understood, will be suggested as October 4. Cabinet at Odds. It is still apparent, however, that some difference of opinion exist in the cabinet, one section remaining adamant on the demand that the Irish leader repudiate the idea of a Republic entirely before the Irish delegates are admitted to the conference, and others urging that the invitation be repeated without conditions, but stating merely that the government declines to discuss the question of separation. With both press and public refusing to recognize the possibility of failure, or that the conference will not eventually be held, it seems likely that the note will not demand an express repudiation of the claim before hand. The date of the meeting is understood, will be suggested as October 4.

Briand Facing Three Attacks

Three Groups Going After Him in Chamber of Deputies October 18th.

(United Press.) Paris, Sept. 25.—On October 18, Premier Briand will face three attacks in the Chamber of Deputies, one against his attending the Washington conference, second regarding Franco-British relations and Upper Silesia policy, and third, the Loucheur-Rathenau agreements. On any one of these issues his ministry may fall. But he is forewarned of attack and may succeed in meeting it. If the first attack emanates from the Clemenceau group—Tardieu, Mandel and his followers—Briand's triumph should be easy. But if certain cabinet ministers suspected of attempting to bring down within a few days, then Briand will not go to Washington.

Death Follows Belfast Riots

Orange men and Catholics in Mix-up Last Night, Hurling Bombs.

(United Press.) Belfast, Sept. 25.—Week-end terror in Belfast, with casualties steadily mounting, continued Sunday night. Most sanguinary incident occurred when an Orange crowd threw a bomb into a Catholic school. Member of latter picked up missile and flung it back, explosion killing two Orange men outright and injuring forty or more persons. Two of wounded died later in the hospital, making the death toll from this incident alone at least four persons wounded by explosion of bomb in York Road area. In previous rioting of Friday and Saturday nights contending factions carried off own casualties after troops swept the streets with machine guns and cleared vantage points with aid of armored cars. Saturday night's disturbances reached climax shortly after midnight, after which time the military quelled outbreaks with machine guns. It is announced that one person had been killed and four wounded.

German Tactics Arouse French

Plot Against Unity of France Discovered in Alsace-Lorraine.

(United Press.) Paris, Sept. 25.—The French government is not a little agitated over the sudden deluge of mysterious "yellow letters" which are being regularly distributed by French postman in Alsace-Lorraine containing a questionnaire conceived as a plot against the unity of France and which attempts to separate the two colored provinces through a plebiscite. The letters have been mailed at Baden Baden and thousands already have been circulated to the inhabitants of the two provinces. An enclosure written in German is termed "plebiscite in Alsace-Lorraine" and asks the following: "Would you be re-attached to France? "Would you be attached to a neutral state like Switzerland or Belgium? "Would you be an autonomous state under the dominion of Great Britain which will give you an outlet for merchandise?" It is urged that the questionnaire be filled in and sent to the secretary of the League of Nations. The French press tonight does not regard it as an international incident but asserts that the "effrontery of their German neighbors is simply without limit."

Charlie Chaplin And Carpentier Almost Cause A Stampede

Paris, Sept. 25.—The sight of Charlie Chaplin and Georges Carpentier walking arm in arm in the Champs Elysees almost caused a stampede which was only avoided by their orderly maneuvering into a hotel. Carpentier alone drew a crowd, but with Charlie, it was just too much for the enthusiastic French people. Both sought shelter in Chaplin's hotel and later they appeared on the balcony together and then escaped in an automobile through a back street.

Heir Sought For French Sal's $100,000

Chicago, Sept. 25.—French Sal, one of the romantic and mysterious figures of Chicago's famous First Ward, was buried today. Until $100,000 in stocks and bonds and some money were found in the supposed derelict's dressing room when she was discovered in a gas bath room, several days ago, she faced burial in potter's field and was French people. Both sought shelter in Chaplin's hotel and later they appeared on the balcony together and then escaped in an automobile through a back street. Although a familiar figure to policemen, no one ever knew the old woman's name. The stocks and money are being held by the Governor in hopes that some heir can be found. London, Sept. 25.—The entire town of Heligoland near London, is one of the most popular watering places to come under the auctioneer's hammer in a few days. Among the "effects" to be sold are 10 hotels, six banks, a large number of shops, a motor bus garage, a movie theater, all the streets of the town, the agricultural and building land around the town and all the private homes and all that is left.

Triple Murder May Hide Other Crimes

One Girl Victim of Monroe Tragedy is Still Alive.

Dowagiac, Mich., Sept. 25.—While case county authorities today continued their efforts to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of William Monroe, his wife and 17-year-old daughter, three physicians appearing before the coroner's jury testified marks found on the body of Nova and her ten-year-old sister Ardith, who were beaten with the club with which the others were killed, indicated they may have been subjected to a criminal attack. Ardith's condition is critical. The funerals of the three other victims were held this afternoon.

New York, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Mary Josephine Brennan of 17 West Ninety-eighth street, wife of Michael J. Brennan, merchant marine officer, left a bequest when she made her will on June 17 last that death was close. She died June 31 in giving birth to a daughter named after her, but in her will leaves virtually all her $3,000 estate to the infant. "In case baby should die, too," she will provided, the estate, which is now to be held in trust for her, was to have been divided among her husband and brothers.

"Fatty" Advertised French Cocktail

(United Press.) Paris, Sept. 25.—"The Hole in the Wall," a little bar near the Opera is coining a fortune on the strength of Fatty Arbuckle's recommendation of its cocktails. On display in the bar is an autographed statement by the movie comedian which he signed December 3, 1920, when he was a guest in which he says, "To whom it may concern. My idea of a good cocktail. Ask for it. He knows." The cocktail, however, doesn't live up to its reputation, say those who have tasted it.

Government Has Gone To Utmost Limit

General Election Possible in Event of Breakdown in Peace Negotiations.

French Cabinet May Fall Under Strain

Political Philippic Delivered Sunday by Clemenceau and Premier Briand.

Paris, Sept. 25.—With former Premier Clemenceau delivering a political philippic next Sunday at St. Germaine followed by another speech by Premier Briand in St. Nazaire Sunday afternoon, the autumn break-outting campaign is in full swing and may bring down the French cabinet. Speaking at Vienna, Raoul Pere has emphasized the demand of militaristic political group by demanding still firmer policies regarding Germany. "The country can no longer be paid in words," he declared, "it wants results. We have reached the limit of our concessions. Our allies must understand and will understand if we explain to them frankly and completely the making our relations with them more confident." Brude Post, Sept. 24.—A republic in West Hungary seems to be the latest development there. Colonel Lehar, the famous Kantai military leader, dismissed a month ago by Admiral Horthy, has left for Odenburg, the chief mover in the west Hungarian "putsch" and your correspondent learned today from a reliable source that he intended proclaiming an independent republic in West Hungary.

Robbers Shot And Killed Watchman

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Safe blowers early Sunday shot and killed Edward Bruce Stewart, 61, watchman for S. D. Childs & Company, downtown concern, in an effort to make away with $10,000. Before dawn, however, Stewart frustrated robbers plans by spreading an alarm.

Service Held At Mace's Bay

Sunday School Workers Conducted Interesting Service in the Baptist Church.

A very interesting service was held last evening at the Baptist Church at Mace's Bay by the Sunday School Workers. Those taking part were Charles Wasson, president of the St. John County Religious Council, Robert Reid, Maritime treasurer, L. W. Simms, chairman of the Maritime Executive, J. Shiras Durham an international worker who is spending some time in St. John, and Mrs. Robert Reid.

Charles Wasson presided over the large gathering making an address on the aims of the Council. Mr. Durham gave a very fine address under the three heads, Co-operation, Organization and Education. L. W. Simms spoke on Maritime work telling of the Golden Jubilee of the Society to be held in St. John in October. Robert Reid, as Maritime treasurer made an appeal for finances.

During the service Mrs. Reid sang a solo very acceptably.

WANT BETTER PORT EQUIPMENT

The Board of Trade through its harbor committee, has again pressed upon the attention of the government the need for increased grain conveyor extension for this winter on piers 7, 13 and 14. It has also forwarded a recommendation with respect to providing live stock shipping accommodation for the coming winter at shed D, attached to pier 15. If these suggestions are carried out the port will be in a much better position to handle a record traffic this year. It is expected that there will be some large shipments of live stock through the port this winter if accommodation such as referred to above is provided.

All the indications point to a record season in the matter of grain shipments. A hope is also expressed that there will be an additional demand for Canadian lumber from overseas.

UNITED STATES FISHERMEN FOR THE ELIMINATION RACE

Elsie II, Josephine De Costa, Ralph Brown and Ellen T. Marshall Are All Fast Vessels — Gloucester Men Are Picking the Elsie to Win.

Just one glance at the dimensions of these fishing schooners so far entered for the American elimination race off Gloucester, on October 12th (Columbus Day), is enough to convince devotees of speed under sail that there is a lot of that product bound up in all four. They are typical Yankee "flying fisherman," fine of line, keen, and bound to serve well the purposes for which they were built—the business of getting fish to market in short order.

Of the four, the Elsie II is possibly the most burdensome—and despite the fact, is rated as exceptionally fast. The Ellen T. Marshall most closely approximate the Elsie on paper, while the De Costa and Ralph Brown might be twin sisters, almost alike as two peas. The Josephine Bonetta is well known to Nova Scotia fishermen. She is the only Boston entry so far, and is a trim tidy little vessel, regarded as remarkably fast. On paper the Ralph Brown is keener. However, fine lines do not always argue corresponding speed under sail. The vessel of the four in which

Fair Vale Sunday School Closing

Exercises Enjoyed by Large Number — $50 Voted to Protestant Orphanage.

The closing of the Fair Vale Sunday School for the season of 1921 took place yesterday. There were no class lessons, the whole time being devoted to a review of the seasons work. A number of prizes were presented to the children by the superintendent for continual attendance perfect every Sunday in the year.

The secretary being called upon gave a detailed account of the season's work and attendance. He gave an accurate account of the amount and collections for 1921, which gave those present an opportunity of seeing the advancement made in attendance and collections for the two years.

For 1920 the percentage was—Officers 99.12-13; teachers 44; scholars 46.2; visitors 34; total attendance 55.5 per cent.

For 1921 the percentage was—Officers 99.12-13; teachers 55; scholars 73.7; visitors 94; total collection $57.63.

The superintendent in making his report stated that the members of the school had a great deal to be proud of, the attendance this year, he said, was much larger than last year, which spoke well for the teachers, officers, but particularly the children, who spared no pains to keep the children interested in their lessons and he feels that the scores met with this year would be doubled next. He said he would now take the opportunity to tender his resignation to the officers of the school. He said he felt that the work performed this year had been a great success. He had no hesitancy in saying that on the opening of the school next year they should have even a greater year than this year would be doubled next. Yankees Gained Full Game Lead

Beat Cleveland 21 to 7 Sunday — Chicago Nationals Won Two from Boston.

New York, Sept. 25—(Special)—The Yankees regained their full game lead over the Cleveland Indians in the wild American League pennant scramble this afternoon by winning one of the wildest games of the season by a score of twenty-one to seven. Mays pitched for the Yanks and early in the game appeared on the verge of being driven off the mound. Caldwell and Mays were in the box for Cleveland and were slammed for twenty hits. Mays was hit safely thirteen times by the Indians. A crowd of more than thirty thousand witnessed the game. Babe Ruth struck out on a trip to the plate with the bases full. Ray Caldwell lasted only one inning and a half before the Yanks, and after Mays, one of the heroes of the 1921 series, had been hammered all over the lot. Manager Speaker sent in Clark, a second string pitcher. The final game of the series will be played Monday.

Y.W.C.A. Indoor Outdoor Club

Tennis Tea and Programme Proved Delightful—Proceeds for Association Work.

A Tennis Tea in late September sounds dreary and cold but such is far from a correct description of the entertainment given on Saturday afternoon by the Y. W. C. A. Indoor-Outdoor Club at the Recreational Centre, King Street East. All was brightness and gaiety from the pretty decorations which included Autumn leaves, spruce, ferns and tennis racquets with streamers of the Club colors blue and white, to the animated faces of the members who had worked very hard to make the affair a success.

Tea was served, candy sold and fortunes told and arrangements made for dancing during the afternoon. The attendance was splendid, over two hundred tickets having been sold. The short programme, of which Miss Littlefield was in charge, consisted of dancing by the Ladies Class—a sunshine dance with the small performers attired in yellow; "The Jolly Courtage"—a Polish dance well given in costume by the High School girls, and a "Sunshine Dance" gracefully danced by Miss E. McFadden.

The proceeds of the tea are for the work of the Association.

The decorations of the tea table deserve special mention consisting as they did of a centre piece representing a miniature tennis court whereon Kewpies dressed in gym costume were posed all ready for the game. This court was correct in every detail and was greatly admired.

Mrs. John A. McAvity, President of the Association and Mrs. E. C. Weyman of the executive, presided at the tea table. Miss Littlefield, physical director was general convener, assisted by Miss McKenzie, general secretary, Mrs. J. D. Hunter, Miss Carpenter and Miss McCaughy told fortunes. Pianists were Mrs. J. Pierie, Mrs. Ring and Miss G. Johnston. Wilfred Daisel was violinist.

Other committees were as follows: Refreshment—Mrs. A. Logie, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Seeley, Mrs. Emack, Mrs. O. H. Woods, Misses Gladys Johnston, D. Beyer, G. Radcliffe, A. Parks.

Decorations—Misses J. Pierie, S. Withers, E. McFadden, E. McKinnon, Wentzell, M. Adams, G. Holman, Candy—Misses Nan Coleman, O. Sprague, G. Fowler, M. Patterson, E. Hunt, B. Somerville, M. Henderson, D. Foster, E. Gale F. Tarlow, B. Macaulay, B. Campbell, J. Johnston, G. Lorie, M. Ruchborough, K. Hoyt, M. Hunter, D. Tapley.

The Hunters And Murphys

Hunter is Certainly a Great Golf Name—Murphys Have Done Share in Athletics.

This golf is getting to be more crowded with thrills than baseball. First Quimet proceeds to get put out of the amateur championship, and then this Willie Hunter comes across, the bally old pond and extinguishes Bobby Jones. Mr. Hunter must be some golfer.

The Hunters.

Hunter certainly is a good golfing name. There is this Willie Hunter, who won the British amateur championship, which the prominent delusion we sent over failed to capture, and who has certainly proved himself a good golfer at St. Louis. But Willie is among the juniors of the name. The chief son of the name was Charlie Hunter, the grand old man of golf. Charlie Hunter was a professional for fifty-six years, fifty three of which he spent with the Prestwick Golf Club, where he succeeded old Tom Morris.

Whether Willie Hunter is any relation to Charles Hunter we do not know. He might easily be, for the grand old golfer was the founder of a considerable family. He left four sons. His eldest son, John Hunter, was for many years associated with his father at the Prestwick club and the first winner of the Scottish professional championship. Another son is David S. Hunter, the very able professional of the Essex County Country Club, at Orange, N. J.

And while on the subject of the late Charles Hunter, it may be said that George Low has only the American rights to the declaration that "golf is a humbling game." Hunter is credited with saying this on the other side of the water years ago.

The Murphys.

If the Hunters have been prominent in British golf, the Murphys certainly have done their share in athletics on this side of the water. Their chief habitation has been Yale University. Mike Murphy was for many years the Yale trainer, and never was there a man who knew his business better. Mike's brother, William H. Murphy, succeeded Lee McClung as captain of the Yale baseball team in the early 90's. He afterward played professional baseball with the New York Giants. Ted Coy's eleven, Thomas Murphy, who graduated last June, played both baseball and football for the Blue. And now George Murphy is among the freshmen at Yale and is likely to uphold the family traditions. George made quite a name for himself as an athlete of Pedde Institute and Pawling School.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1921.

MACKENZIE KING'S EMPTY SPOON.

Those who went to the Liberal meeting in Ravinia rink expecting to hear a clear-cut declaration of policy on the important issues before the public must have been badly disappointed, says the Toronto Telegram.

Mr. King apparently knows that he must oppose the policy of protection on principle, because the Conservative party stands for protection. But he is not enthusiastic about it. There is no longer any wild talk about "taxipatriotism" the hydra-headed monster and branch.

Mr. King apparently knows that he must oppose the policy of protection on principle, because the Conservative party stands for protection. But he is not enthusiastic about it.

Some unknown way he is going to reduce the cost of living. He did not go into details. Obviously it can not be done by reducing the tariff and wrecking Canadian industries.

AN INDUSTRY THAT LIVES IN A FIERCE LIGHT.

Charlie Chaplin's noisy reception in London shows that the motion picture industry is becoming a power in scope. Long ago, American films became established in England and the "stars" so well known in Canada number their myriads of admirers there, too.

But the American motion picture industry cannot retain its place in the field under the weight of events like the Arnikle episode at San Francisco. Loose and lurid happenings will distract the public with American stars. Nobody can understand better than the hard-headed business men back of the American film industry that Chaplin's popularity is as great in the balance against the other disgrace. People who bank in the limelight must expect the same brilliant illumination which revealed their successes to the world will be equally searching in disclosing their failings.

THESE NEED PROTECTION

Mr. Mackenzie King and his political friends are now talking about a tariff for revenue, "with a measure of protection for Canadian industries." Just what they mean by this phrase has not been explained as yet; but unless Canadian industries are afforded an adequate measure of protection, they must go to the wall.

If the industrial statistics of Canada be examined, the main strength of our manufacturing industry will be seen to lie in moderate and small-sized factories, not of a few big companies. The small concerns, struggling to get on its feet, needs protection. Their reductions that come big concerns might survive would put the smaller concerns out of business. The tariff is needed especially for the smaller companies, with relatively high costs, and limited organization. All over the country these modest establishments are struggling to expand, and obtain a stable footing, and their welfare can not be neglected without damaging what is the principal and vital part of our manufacturing. The following figures from the census report of 1918 indicate how thoroughly distributed in the smaller cities and towns are the manufacturing companies that need protection:

Table with columns: Establishment, Value of products. Rows include Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Ottawa, Quebec, etc.

Ten years previous, Canada had about 19,000 manufacturing establishments. The loss in number comes from amalgamations, closings, etc., owing to the coming of larger units of capital in the field. If Mr. King and his friends have their way with this tariff for revenue only the number of these industries stands every chance of being cut down much more and the output very greatly reduced, for the first concern hit by a lowering of tariff protection would be the smallest and least secure. This would be playing the game of the so-called "trusts and combines" of other countries, notably of the United States, by eliminating the small independent the man who courageously stakes his money against the great corporation. Nothing worse could befall Canada than the loss of the small manufacturing companies located in the lesser cities and towns, to which they give vitality.

United States Senator Borah's objection to the German treaty, that it ties his country up with European financial affairs for 40 years, is serious if it is real. The fact that Senators Lodge and New were not greatly impressed with the Tokyo meeting's objection would, however, tend to show that the pact contains nothing to worry about. No senator is more strongly opposed to European entanglements than is Mr. Lodge.

An agreement is said to have been reached between the foreign departments of the United States and Japan over the Tariff question. Japan seems to be making a sincere effort to come into the armament conference with clean hands, which is encouraging for the final success of the conference.

"Subrah Grotto, Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm," is the name of a new secret order. We don't know anything about it, but the name sounds like it might be a military branch of the Ku Klux Klan.

Having been expelled from the British communist party, three world seem to be nothing less for Miss Sylvia Fankhurst, but to join Emma Goldman and Big Bill Hayward in the glad life of Russia.

Voice of the Charmer. Happily, the appalling experiences of Russia during the past four years have no more attraction for the Chinese than for any other race in the world, and China, we believe, will walk in the company of the rest of the family of nations until some form of practical government has been well established in Russia before entering into official relations with her great neighbor, whose leaders march with her own for so many hundreds of miles. The success with which China has resisted Russian blandishments and the intensive Russian propaganda which has been steadily pursued for four years or more, certainly entitles her government and people to a respect, not to say the gratitude, of the rest of the world.—Hongkong Press.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Beauty and Business. The only proper display in a mercantile establishment is that of goods on sale. Anything or any person connected with such a concern which distracts from the merchandise is out of place.

A BIT OF VERSE

AUTUMN.

You take your Summer, you take your Spring, You take your Winter and everything, Give me the Autumn, give me the Fall— That is the dandiest season of all!

Summer's too hot and your Winter's too cold; Spring half the time you are fooled and you're sold; But on the Autumn a man can depend— On a Spring-heel, but Autumn's his friend.

Easy to handle and easy to keep; Colt in the meadow, a-running!— Autumn suits that fellow down to the ground!

Pleasant for sleeping, pleasant for work; Toll like a Trojan and eat like a Turk. None of your sweat, and none of your freeze— Rogalier Autumn it is, if you please!

Roads aren't dusty, roads aren't wet— Start on a Journey you know what you get. Look at the load that a fellow can haul; Weather gets settled along in the Fall.

Life is worth livin' along about now— Honest to goodness, a pleasure to plow! Never a fever, yet, fat in the air— No, you can't beat it, no time and no where!

Just enough warmth, just enough chill, Just enough sunshine up there on the light; Just enough darkness, just enough light; Just enough medium—just about right!

Owner can have same by calling at my office, proving the property and paying for this ad. If she will explain to my wife that I had nothing to do with its being there I will pay for the ad.—Advt. in Chestertown, Ind., Tribune.

Learned One Lesson. Brown—Did your campaign trip in the woods benefit you? Black—Well, it taught me one thing—to appreciate my little apartment in the city where I don't have to fight insects, bugs and mosquitoes, where there is a bed I can sleep on comfortably and a tub in which I can take my morning dip.

That Awful Jamboree! That motion picture magnates were, as we understand it, the guys that discovered the woe in Woburn.—Springfield Union.

Yes, and who put the burn in Woburn? Quod Erat Demonstratum. "There goes a guy who'll take a chance on anything." "How do you know?" "I saw him eating a plate of hash in a one-arm cafe."

Don't Forget This. So, Portland says says the fellows who kick about working in hot weather should remember there are a good many men just now hunting for that opportunity.

A Little Is Enough. "Man wants little here below." Well, when the aspiring mercurial his slivity this we know, He wants but little work. (Boston Transcript.)

Man wants but little here below Nor does he want that long And we agree if that means the Latest popular song.

It's Always Up to Her. That Gotham girl says almost any man can rule a woman—that is if he'll let him.

No Need of Grammar. "They say that man is a writer, but he certainly does murder the King's English."

"Oh, that doesn't make any difference, he simply writes sub-titles for the movies and an occasional popular song."

BY LEE PAPE

We got a intension to our telephons in case anybody wants to telephons from down stairs without going up stairs to do it, and this afternoon our cook Nora made cinnamon buns and I smelt her doing it and went back and looked in the kitchen saying, Give me one while they're hot Nora?

If I do it will be like in your eye, sed Nora. Being a heck of a answer to a polita question, and just then I had a grand idea, thinking, G, H, I, I'll tell her somebody wants to talk to her on the phone and then I'll run and talk to her on the upstairs tone and tell her somebody wants to talk to her around the corner and then when she goes around I'll run down and get a hot cinnamon bun.

And I went in the hall and took the receiver off the hook and yelled, All rite I'll call her, wait a minit. And I called back, Hay Nora, somebody wants you on the fone. I dident hear the fone ring, sed Nora.

I hardly dident, I sed. And I quick ran up stairs and took the other receiver off the hook and listened and pritty soon Nora sed in the down stairs fone, Is this a joke or wat, hello, hello.

Me dinkin' my voice like a lady and saying, Hello, hello, is this you Nora, this is Mrs. Spoony, im jest erround the corner at the drug store, can you run erround a minit and ill tell you all about it.

Who, wat? Wat the divills this? sed Nora, and I sed, Hello, this is Mrs. Spoony, don't you remember me? Not dent, faith, and nobody else does, wait a minit, sed Nora. Me thinking, Gosh I wonder if she suspects anything. Well jest then I herd her coming up the steps heavy trying to come up lile, and I quick hung up the fone and hid in the closet, and Nora opened the closet door showing her suspicious nature and I quick ran out under her arm and down stairs with her after me darning me to stop.

Which I dident till I was all the way out in the street. I'm a man in the right, he may love you even though you don't agree with him. But if he is in the wrong, you are his enemy unless you avow his doctrine whole.

BERLIN HEARS REORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENT

Germany and Russia to Put on More Homogeneous Basis.

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Political Berlin in a flutter over an approaching organization of the German and Russian Governments on a broad homogeneous basis.

A sharp tactical turn to the right made by the Social Democratic Party will Germany's numerically strongest party—at the Goerlike convention—overwhelmingly for the party vote, makes it practically certain that the German People's Party will enter Germany's present coalition Government and that the Social Democrats will remain in the man and Prussian Governments.

Hence, composed of the German People's Party, the Democratic Party, the Catholic Centre Party and the Prussians will re-enter both the Government of Prussia and the Government of the Republic will be established on the broadest parliamentary basis since the outbreak of the revolution leaving the extreme reactionaries radicals—to wit, the German National Party and the Independent Social Party—out in the cold of a weak opposition with the dwindling Communists a negligible quantity.

Development is very important as regards both its inner political and foreign political consequences.

So far the leaders of the respective coalition parties have not engaged in formal negotiations regarding the make-up of the coming new Cabinet and it is likely that these will be formed till after the Reichstag and Prussian Diet reassemble, already political circles are speculating on the personal changes in Cabinets.

It is predicted in some quarters that Chancellor Wirth will go. It is argued that he made an irrevocable political faux pas by publishing sensational Weissmann report at Bavaria, which subsequently proved to contain material more than a year old.

If Wirth falls, it will be more likely due to the fact that he killed murdered friend Erberger, ended the support of the radical Left wing of the Centre Party, in which he were leaders, and that his far strength was derived from the confidence and benevolent neutrality of the Independent Social Party, which, though not in the Government was willing to support in his sharp fight against capital property interests in connection with the new tax programme coming before the Reichstag next session.

The impending entry of the man People's Party into the coalition, and the switch to the Right by the Majority Socialists, will give decidedly reactionary complexion Germany's next government, and weakens correspondingly Wirth's position as radical leader.

BERLIN HEARS REORGANIZATION OF GOVERNMENT

Germany and Russia to be Put on More Homogeneous Basis.

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Political Berlin is in a flutter over an approaching reorganization of the German and Prussian Governments on a broad homogeneous basis.

A sharp tactical turn to the right made by the Social Democratic Party will Germany's numerically strongest party—at the Goerlitz convention, an overwhelming four-fifths majority vote, makes it practically certain that the German People's Party will enter Germany's present coalition Government and that the Social Democrats will re-enter both the German and Prussian Governments.

Hence, composed of the German People's Party, the Democratic Party, the Catholic Centre Party and the Social Democratic Party, the Government of Weimar will be established on the broadest parliamentary basis since the outbreak of the revolution, leaving the extreme reactionaries and radicals to win the German National Party and the Independent Socialist Party—out in the cold of a weakened opposition with the dwindling Communists a negligible quantity. This development is very important as regards both its inner political and foreign political consequences.

So far the leaders of the respective coalition parties have not engaged in formal negotiations regarding the make-up of the coming new Cabinets and it is likely that these will not be formed till after the Reichstag and Prussian Diet reassemble, but already political circles are speculating on the personal changes in the Cabinets.

It is predicted in some quarters that Chancellor Wirth will go. It is argued that he made an irretrievable political faux pas by publishing the sensational Weissmann report aimed at Bavaria, which subsequently proved to contain material more than a year old.

If Wirth falls, it will be more likely due to the fact that he like his murdered friend Erzberger, enjoyed the support of the radical Left wing of the Centre Party, in which both were leaders, and that his further strength was derived from the tacit confidence and benevolent neutrality of the Independent Socialist Party, which, though not in the Government, was willing to support him in his sharp fight against capital and property interests in connection with the new tax programme coming before the Reichstag next session.

The impending entry of the German People's Party into the coalition, and the switch to the right by the Majority Socialists, will give a decidedly reactionary complexion to Germany's next government, and it weakens correspondingly Wirth's position as radical leader.

Centenarian Still Enjoying Life

Never Been Ill and Believes in the Open Air Existence for Longevity.

Alexander, Man., Sept. 25.—Still able to take long strolls along the country roads and to visit neighbors for little chats on old times, John McLeod, a resident of this town since 1905, celebrated his 100th birthday recently. Mr. McLeod was never seriously ill in his life and firmly believes that the open air endures he led since he was a child, greatly contributed to his health and consequent ripe and sound old age.

He is one of the very rare Canadian-born centenarians. Mr. McLeod was born on Sept. 16, 1821, at a little settlement called Barney's River, in Nova Scotia. He was raised on the farm and when old enough started farming on his own account at Avonville, N. S.

The centenarian comes from a healthy old stock, his mother living until she was 80 years of age. Two of his sisters are still living, one of them resides at Gloucester, C. B., and is in her 85th year, while another, a resident of Providence, R. I., is 67 years old.

To guard two grammes of radium worth $154,000, owned by the city of Philadelphia, a specially built double steel safe, 30 inches square, is being erected. The stronghold will cost $75,000. The presence of three men holding three different secret combinations will be required to accomplish the lawful opening of the radium safe.

France Awaiting U. S. Withdrawal

Forces on Rhine Reduced to 35,000, But Surplus Kept Intact.

Paris, Sept. 24.—The French War Office has announced that France's contingent on the Rhine has been reduced to 35,000 officers and men, all the forces sent to the Ruhr border several months ago, when an advance was thought probable within 48 hours, having been withdrawn to garrisons in Alsace and Lorraine. These forces will be kept intact, however, for any emergency which may develop, such as the withdrawal of the American Army of Occupation from

Coblenz, which officials here are convinced is only a matter of a few weeks. It is understood that France has reached an agreement with Belgium whereby the French will occupy Coblenz if the Americans withdraw from there.

It is announced that a conference to study the question of the cost of the armies of occupation in the Rhineland will meet in Brussels from October 15 to October 25. The United States, it is understood, will be represented.

The British already are manifesting an unwillingness to extend their occupation zone, owing to the necessity of troop withdrawals in the last few months, several British battalions having been needed for service in Ireland and to guard factories in Great Britain during labor strikes. The British contingent on the Rhine is now officially estimated at 4,000 effectives, as compared with 8,000 in the American area of occupation.

TASK OF RELIEF MADE HARDER BY THE SOVIET

Bolsheviks Reiterate Old Charges About Allied Agreements.

London, Sept. 24.—The latest note received by the government from the Soviet authorities reiterating its old charge that agreements made by France to help Poland and Rumania to over throw it and aid it in being given to General Pastus and Savin.

It does, indeed, promise co-operation with all governments which are sincerely interested in providing relief without ulterior political designs, but it repeats so bitterly the accusation Tolsticher has already made against the French that it is felt in official circles here that it holds out no hope of agreement with the Western Powers.

Time is of supreme importance at the present crisis. In two weeks it will be too late to sow winter wheat, and in a month the Volga will be frozen over, yet only river transport can cope with the immense distances involved.

Acknowledgment is made in the Soviet note of the work being done for the famine districts by the American Relief Commission and Dr. Nathan, but that very expression of gratitude is used as a means of impeaching the disinterestedness of the Noulens Commission's request for permission to investigate Russia's actual needs.

It is felt here that there is real necessity of this investigation. The extent and severity of the famine have not yet been ascertained and the authorities here are loath to begin extensive relief operations on newspaper stories. Moreover, they have no information as to the resources Russia herself possesses and the supplies to the famine districts from other more favored areas.

But apart from all that the latest soviet note is regarded in official circles as an attempt to stir up division between England and France and there is no disposition here to play the Soviet game. The Noulens Commission was appointed by the League of Nations Council, not by France, and its policy has the concurrence of the British government.

The British note to the Soviet authorities complaining of their machinations in the East should be taken the more seriously in that it did not emanate from the Foreign Office alone. It has the approval of the cabinet and must, therefore, be read as the considered judgment of the British government. It was based on a great mass of evidence concerning the underground propaganda of the Bolsheviks, only the most flagrant examples of which were cited in this text.

Unsolved Puzzle Ultimate Fate of General Wrangel

His Refugee Soldiers Wait in Their Huts and Tents at Gallipoli.

Athens, Sept. 24.—The ultimate fate of General Wrangel's Russian army in exile, of whom 20,000 Officers and men still are encamped on the Gallipoli Peninsula, still continues one of the unsolved puzzles of the Near East.

General Wrangel has held together the best of his officers and men from among the refugee army which fled from Russia before the victorious Bolsheviks. He has hoped that his forces would be again needed in Russia to maintain a new government "when the Soviet regime collapsed."

But this a hope deferred, and Wrangel's best fighting men wait in their tents and huts on Gallipoli. Major Jean de Roover, chairman of the League of Nations commission for the exchange of populations between Greece and Bulgaria, has visited the Russian camp and brought away a very favorable impression of the officers and men. He knows something about the Russian fighting man, for he was formerly the Belgian representative with Wrangel's army when it was the bulwark of the anti-Bolshevik strength in the Crimea.

"In this camp, besides 1,500 women and children, there are 8,000 officers, 10,000 soldiers and 2,000 cadets in the military schools. These troops have kept their military organization. Their morale is of the highest and they voluntarily submit to the most strict discipline; for in all their hardships they are inspired by an unquestioning faith in their chief, General Wrangel, and in the greatness of their mission.

"They are encamped under canvas, or in old huts that have no doors or windows, but are always in an irreproachable state of cleanliness. They are fed by France. In addition, General Wrangel is paying them, from the little money he still has—about a dollar a month.

"Wrangel, who succeeded in getting employment as labor corps, in Serbia and Bulgaria for nearly all his Cossack troops, is trying to get Serbia to receive his Gallipoli Army Corps. Five thousand of them are going to be used by Jugoslavia as a frontier-guard.

"As for the other regiments, the government at Belgrade is prepared to offer them its hospitality if funds are put at its disposal which will cover their upkeep for two years. The usia Ambassador of Washington has still several tens of millions of dollars, the remains of funds that were sent him from Russia before the Bolshevik coup d'etat, to pay for the orders for war material. Wrangel is making every effort to get the few million dollars necessary for the carrying out of his scheme raised out of these funds and transmitted to the Serbian government.

"If he succeeds, what will be the ultimate role of this legion? Will it fight again as an army? Probably not. The general opinion in Russian circles is that Bolshevism must go under in an internal convulsion of the country, and that the tyranny of Bolshevism will be succeeded by anarchy. It will be then that elements of order, a framework of administrative and police organization will be needed by the new government to restore calm for the convocation of the Constituent Assembly. This is where the survivors of the National Russian Army hope to be of service to their country."

Capital Besieged By Jobless Clerks

Many Appeal to Members of Congress for Reinstatement, But Get Little Comfort.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—With the return to Washington of members of Congress the wall of the dismissed Government employees is loud in the land. Pressed by clamoring constituents, Senators and Representatives were busy telephoning to departments asking that clerks and others be reinstated or retained.

Soon after 9 o'clock the telephone wires at the Shipping Board were humming with inquiries as to what the board's policy was regarding reinstatement and why so and so was there. Chairman Lasker and all the vice-presidents of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, who are the direct heads of the various divisions in the Shipping Board, offices, are all in New York, and consequently the appeals came to these commissioners who are in Washington and to various subordinates.

Apparently they fell on deaf ears, for the policy of the board to keep as free as possible from politics is working smoothly. The last thing an applicant for a position at the Shipping Board should carry with him nowadays is political influence. A member of the board laid the case squarely before a Senator today when the latter called up and put out feelers regarding certain of his constituents for whom he sought jobs. The commissioner explained quite frankly that the board was firing employees right and left. He referred the Senator to Chairman Lasker's official announcement that nearly 2,000 men had been dismissed and that the board hoped in the near future to replace its force by another 2,000.

The Senator was informed that when the board engaged business men of technical ability to take charge of various phases of the work of the board, it best corporation these men had been promised a free hand. They were told that each would be held responsible for the efficiency of his own department, and that therefore the board would not interfere with him in the selection of his office force. It is understood that President Harding is glad to see his slogan of "more business in government" put into practical operation by Chairman Lasker and his associates, and, at the same time, that efforts of Senators and Representatives to get patronage out of the board via the White House are foredoomed to failure.

At any rate Senators and Representatives who made the efforts to day received little comfort.

Reopen Church at Patterson Village

Patterson Settlement, Sept. 24.—The Methodist Church of this place was re-opened on Sunday, 4th of September, after undergoing extensive repairs.

The inside has been finished with Douglas fir and varnished; a new platform and communion rail; and on the outside a vestibule and steeple. A large bell has also been installed. The vestibule has stained glass windows and doors, which add much to the beauty of this little church.

There were three services of the day, which were largely attended, many not being able to gain admittance. The speakers were: Rev. A. D. McCully of Stanley, N. B., and Rev. A. E. Chapman of Iquo, N. B., both former pastors of this church. Rev. W. Richardson, pastor of the Baptist Church, and Rev. E. Rowlands, pastor of this church, both assisted in the services throughout the day.

Some Bear Story (Northern Light.) Reports of a terrific battle with a bear were brought to town this week by a party of men who had been out at Bartholomew working on the new right of way under the supervision of Mr. Jack Lordon. The men concerned are Hubald Godin of East Bathurst, and Ephraim Dugay of Paquetville. It appears that the bear had been visiting their camp almost every night for about a month and stealing everything that the workmen happened to leave around. There were no rifles in the camp with which to destroy the tormentor and consequently by the men resorted to the trap. On three occasions they succeeded in catching the bear in the trap, but after a heroic struggle on the part of the captive both trap and bear disappeared. On each successive occasion the design of the trap was improved, made stronger, and less like ly to collapse under the herculean gyration of master brain. So far they had only been able to get the draw rope around his neck. On the fourth occasion the bear stepped into the trap again according to plan, but this time the draw rope encircled his body, and as he might be could not free himself from the hold which his captors had on him. In his struggle to free himself, however, he tore up the camp, climbed all over the buildings, and made a perfect wreck of the outfit, before Legay managed to drag him with an axe. The hide of the defunct bear measured five feet four inches wide, and five feet two inches long.

Evidence Finished In The Norris Case

Several Witnesses Heard at Preliminary Hearing Saturday—Case Adjourned.

The hearing of the evidence in the case of Edward P. O'Brien and James Thomas Spellman, held on suspicion of the murder of Albert Norris was concluded in the police court Saturday morning. Magistrate Ritchie will announce at 11 o'clock this morning whether the two are to be sent up for trial.

The hearing of five more witnesses in addition to those previously called, terminated the case offered by the prosecution Saturday. James Roy Shannon, 163 Erin Street, corroborated the evidence given by Leonard Steeves and Judson Totten, Friday afternoon. He said he was with the ones he had seen near where the man was lying.

Shannon was shown some pieces of boards and identified them as the ones he had seen near where the man was lying. Bernard L. Bowes, 121 Erin Street, stated he was in a store at 119 Erin street on the night of Sept. 8. That O'Brien and Spellman came into the store and treated him to a drink from a bottle they had. Spellman bought some oranges while in the store. He noticed at the time that Spellman was quite drunk while O'Brien seemed to be less under the influence.

Byard VanWart, who testified before the coroner's jury, said that he told much the same story as that which he met O'Brien and Spellman as they came out of Bowes' store and went into a nearby alleyway with them where they treated him to a drink. Doctors Basson and Patterson, in turn, at the General Public Hospital testified as to Norris' condition when admitted there and while under medical supervision and driver Earle of the city ambulance told of taking Norris in the ambulance from the Bennett Store, corner of Erin street and Haymarket Square.

The hearing was then adjourned to this morning at 11 o'clock. If the men are committed for trial, their case will come up before the circuit court which sits tomorrow. His Honor, Mr. Justice Barry, presiding.

W. M. Ryan is appearing for O'Brien and G. Earle Logan for Spellman.

Four Accidents Are Reported

Car Owned by James Saunders Badly Damaged at Kinghurst.

A Ford car owned by James Saunders of Quispamsis was badly damaged in a collision with another Ford car at Kinghurst at about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Saunders' car had the front wheels knocked off, the radiator smashed in, and the engine damaged by the force of the impact with the other car, which suffered but little damage. It is alleged that the driver of the car which escaped unharmed, was on the wrong side of the road at the time.

Another traffic accident occurred near Dr. W. W. White's summer residence at Hothey at about four o'clock, when a Ford car, carrying a horse and carriage. The animal was not hurt and owing to the fact that it was of a quiet disposition, the occupants of the carriage also escaped unharmed. Little damage was done either the carriage or car.

On King Street. The left rear wheel of Ford car No. 2834, driven by Winston McAdian, suddenly buckled at the head of King Street at about 3.30 yesterday afternoon, causing the spokes and rim to sever their attachments with the hub. A box was made use of as a jack, and a plank requisitioned as a runner, to run the car up for repairs. While going down King Street, the box suddenly collapsed and other means had to be employed to finish the trip.

On Douglas Avenue. Yesterday afternoon a touring car went into the excavation near the corner of Douglas Avenue and Main Street. No damage was done, but it was nearly an hour before the car was removed from the hole.

Opportunity To Register Closed

The opportunity to register for a vote in the referendum election was October 19 closed on Saturday afternoon and Judge Armstrong had a busy afternoon dealing with late comers. In all over 350 applications were received and of this number 244 were successful in having their names placed on the lists.

Of the number about half a dozen were for a change of place of voting and some two or three from women for a change from their maiden to married names. Quite a number of applications were received from persons who on a search were found to be already on the list. A few applications were refused because of the fact that the applicant had not resided in the electoral district two months before July 5, the date on which the proclamation was issued calling the election. The applications were about equally divided between men and women.

Rally Day In The Sunday Schools

Special Programmes Enjoyed in Many of the Churches Yesterday.

Yesterday was observed as Rally Day in some of the local Sunday schools. Reports were received of a most encouraging nature and special programmes were enjoyed by the large attendance.

Charlotte Street Church. Charlotte street Baptist church observed rally day and large congregations attended all the services. Two stirring sermons were delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Jenner, and all signs point to an active fall and winter's work. The Sunday school had 236 out and this is an exceptionally large attendance for this time of year. The speaker at the Sunday school rally was S. E. Fisher, and he brought a most inspiring message to the scholars.

The school opening was used, first, the saluta to the desk; repeat in unison the school aim, "every member in place every Sunday on time with a studied lesson, liberal offering and a mind to learn the motto, "to try to do some good to some person every day."

The programme included an address by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Jenner; selection by a choir from the school; recitation by Ruth Rockwell; solo by Donald McLeod; exercises by four little girls, and a reading by Miss Muriel Enner.

D. C. Clark, who has been the superintendent of the school for a number of years, presided at the exercises. Loyalty the Topic. Loyalty was the topic chosen by Rev. J. A. MacKegan for his address to teachers and scholars at Rally Day held yesterday afternoon at St. David's. The duty of loyalty to home, church and God was impressed upon those present.

There was an excellent attendance at the Rally Day service which followed the programme prepared by the General Board of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. Robert Reid, superintendent, presided. Taking part in the services were Rev. William Swan and D. W. Harroll, Messrs. assistant superintendents. Badges to Tuxis boys and Trail Rangers were presented as follows: Tuxis Boys—Royden Christopher, Trail Rangers—Donnelly, Donnelly, Gordon Malcolm, Harry Mason, Edwin MacGowan, Harold Phoeney, Donald Smith, George, Turner.

This music was furnished by the boys and girls' choir which sang a hymn very acceptably. Main Street Baptist. One of the most interesting features of the Rally Day exercises at the Main street Baptist church yesterday afternoon was the presentation of prizes to those who had made a perfect attendance during the year, ten having made a perfect record in the main school—nine scholars and one teacher. A number of others only missed one Sunday, and they received honorable mention by the superintendent. A large number were out and the coming year starts off well for the best in the history of the school.

W. J. McAlary, superintendent, presided, and the following programme was carried out: Hymn, 1st Psalm in unison; responsive reading of Acts 22; prayer by pastor; song by primary class; short review of lessons; presentation of awards; address by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson; hymn; benediction.

The following received rewards for perfect attendance of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches: Florence Welch, Marion McLean, Jessie Burk, Wellaway Price, Elva Chapman, Beattie Chapman, L. H. Thorne. The rewards were books, rings, cash and cuff links. D. Morrell, George McDonald and Margaret Akerley, scholars and Mrs. F. W. McAlary, teacher.

Y.M.C.A. Business Men's Outing

Successful Reorganization Held at Loch Lomond—32 Members Enjoyed Outing.

A very successful reorganization outing of the Y. M. C. A. business men was held at Loch Lomond on Saturday. Thirty-two members were present and enjoyed an afternoon of play. An exciting baseball game between the married men, captained by D. King Hansen and the single men captained by Lew Goodge was a feature of the afternoon. The Bachelors carried off the honors after a noisy and boisterous nine innings. Leo L. McKim who twirled for the Bachelors, seemed to have an edge over Goodge, but did not receive the same sensational support from his infield. Ralph Stephenson umpired, very tactfully, bringing his own to a difficult situation. Arguments were rife on both sides as the game progressed but the umpire was imperturbable.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, everyone agreeing that they had had a most enjoyable time. In a letter to a friend, St. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, Bishop of Vermont, thus expresses himself on Prohibition: "Personally, I am a total abstainer, and I am ready to join in a crusade for Voluntary Total Abstinence; but I am strongly and steadily opposed to perfect abstinence of the law."

"I—in the larger places it can't be carried out. Often it's advocates don't seem to care whether it is carried out or not; they have a superstitious belief in the virtue of having a law on the Statute book."

"It leads to all sorts of hypocrisy. It drives the evil underground, and forfeits all opportunity of regulation."

"It breaks down the general sense of the obligation of law—human and divine; here is a law which isn't enforced or observed; why should other laws be regarded as of real obligation?"

Episcopal Opinion On Prohibition

Bishop of Vermont, Himself a Total Abstainer, Believes Arguments Against Prohibition the Most Forceful.

"It works unfairly as regards classes. The rich men have their clubs, where liquor is obtained; for the poorer people, their saloon is under the ban, or because they cannot get a drink in a public house, they form secret drinking clubs and booze till the staff is exhausted."

"The advocacy of Prohibition is commonly mixed up with the heretical and foolish teaching that all alcohol, etc., is in itself evil."

"These judgments—often publicly expressed—are the result of my experience for over 40 years in Boston and in Vermont under various forms of Prohibition. I do not fail to recognize the force of the argument on the other side, that unnecessary temptations should not be put in people's way, and that the State has the right to regulate and in certain cases prohibit what is likely to be commonly and dangerously misused, as with drugs. But I cannot think that these and similar arguments outweigh those which I have put down as against Prohibition."

Faithfully yours, (Signed) ARTHUR C. A. HALL, Bishop of Vermont—Advt.
