EMERSON-CROCKET CASE EXCITES MUCH INTEREST

Only Criminal Case Before York Circuit Court, Which Opens Tuesday

Difficulty Expected in Securing a Jury, So Extra Talesmen Have Been Summoned--Ex-Minister of Railways Denies Rumors of Compromise--Earl Grey and Party to Visit St. John Aug. 13 and 14, and Fredericton the 15th--Big Drive Hung Up.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Fredericton, June 17--Great public interest is attached to the Emerson-Crocket criminal libel case which is to come up for trial in York circuit court tomorrow morning before Judge Landry.

It is understood that twenty-nine additional petit jurors have been summoned in addition to the regular panel of twenty-one, making fifty in all. Each side is allowed four peremptory challenges, but it is likely that quite a number will be challenged for cause.

Judge Landry will lay the case before the grand jury immediately after court opens, whereupon they will retire to examine witnesses and deliberate upon the case. It is quite probable that they will make their presentment before the court adjourns at 1 o'clock.

J. H. Crocket, the defendant, left Saturday evening for Montreal in connection with the case, but will return home tomorrow morning. His brother and counsel, O. S. Crocket, M. P., was in Ottawa last week looking up evidence for the case. He is expected to be ready to fight the matter out to a finish.

Hon. A. S. White, one of Mr. Emerson's counsel, arrived this evening and afterwards had consultation with Harry K. C. crown prosecutor. Dr. Pugsley, senior counsel for the prosecution, will arrive from St. John tomorrow morning.

LOG STEALING CASE UP AT WOODSTOCK

St. John River Driving Company Has Tize Dyer Arrested for Picking Up Lumber That Didn't Belong to Him--Prisoner Admits the Charge, and Swears He Sold Them to B. F. Smith--Other Witnesses Examined.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Woodstock, N. B., June 17--The preliminary examination into the charge of log stealing against Tize Dyer, of Bristol, was held in the council chamber this afternoon, the office of Magistrate Dibbles being too small for the purpose.

The witnesses heard for the prosecution were Lewis Bliss, Tize Dyer, Wm. Burnham, Wm. Hopkins, David Bell, and Deputy Sheriff Foster. Mr. Hartley called Adolphus Lovely and after his evidence the examination was postponed until Wednesday afternoon.

The first witness was Louis Bliss. He resided in St. Mary's Ferry, was boom-master and secretary-treasurer of the St. John River Log Driving Company, formerly the Fredericton Boom Company. All the lumbermen on the river filed marks of their logs with him. He had the marks filed by Smith in 1906. (Marks put in evidence.)

The witness heard for the prosecution were Lewis Bliss, Tize Dyer, Wm. Burnham, Wm. Hopkins, David Bell, and Deputy Sheriff Foster. Mr. Hartley called Adolphus Lovely and after his evidence the examination was postponed until Wednesday afternoon.

To Mr. Hartley witness admitted that it was common for logs to drift under rafts and so float to booms. Tize Dyer sworn said he lived in Bristol and was a common laborer, was working for Smith in 1906, also this year working in Bristol and Bath, the latter village is three miles above Bristol. He rafted spruce logs bought by Smith from Harry Peterson, two-thirds were spruce logs, the 4 logs did not lay in the river, but they from the bank. He rafted the 4 logs and ran them to Bristol. He assisted by Adolphus Lovely and Burnham. Lovely said to Smith that "some lots of prize logs running, said: 'Why not put them on the raft?' He put six in the raft next day. Some of the spruce logs had three hooks. Five joints were run to Bristol. When Thinks Body Should be Exhumed. Dalhousie, N. B., via Dalhousie, N. B., June 17--(Special)--At the Fontaine inquest today R. A. Lawlor called attention of the court that the post-mortem examination made by Dr. Dineen did not go far enough, as the bullets had not been found and were still in the body. It having been proved, he said, that both officers carried revolvers of different calibre, it was essential, in his opinion, that the body should be exhumed.

HEAVY CASUALTY LIST AT BOSTON BUNKER HILL CELEBRATION

Two Dead and More Than 100 Injured--Many Arrests Made.

Boston, June 17--Two deaths and over 100 injured treated at the hospitals, at least one of which is expected to result fatally, and about 100 arrests for violating the city ordinance regarding the use of explosives, marred the festivities attending the 122nd annual celebration today of the battle of Bunker Hill.

The dead are: Mrs. Elizabeth Travers, South Boston, an aged lady, who, in leaning from her window to reconstitute with some boys who were firing off cannon crackers, was startled by the explosion of a large cracker, and, losing her balance, fell three stories to the pavement. She was removed to hospital, where she died soon afterwards.

Cornelius H. Tegen, a fireman, was the other victim. He was driving his engine to a fire in the Roxbury district, responding to an alarm caused by fire crackers, when his horses, frightened by the explosions of some nearby fireworks, reared, hurled him to the ground, causing injuries from which he died later at the hospital.

HOW KINGSLEY REACHED GOAL OF HIS AMBITION

New Head of New York Life Insurance Company Steered Clear of Trouble

Married a Daughter of John A. McCall, the Former President, and His Rise Was Rapid Afterwards--When His Father-in-Law Was Under Fire His Son-in-Law Didn't Rush to His Rescue But Cast His Lot With the Reformers.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) New York, June 17--Another of the queer things brought about by the "whirligig of time" was the election today of Darwin Pearl Kingsley to the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Company.

Twenty-two years ago Kingsley went to work for the New York Life and became inspector of agencies in New England. He was transferred a few years later to the home office in New York, and came under the attention of John A. McCall, who was just beginning to be the great power in the company. McCall made him superintendent of agencies. Kingsley clinched his position, after McCall had become president and undisputed king of the corporation, by laying siege to the heart and affections of McCall's daughter.

On December 3, 1885, the marriage of Miss Josephine McCall to Darwin Pearl Kingsley was celebrated. The insurance magnate was proud of his hustling son-in-law and, legend says, remarked to him that some day he might hope to be president of the New York Life. Legend doesn't say whether Mr. Kingsley laughed in his sleeve. It is more likely that he made a little speech--he is very fond of speeches--assuring Mr. McCall that he hoped to merit that great honor by honesty, integrity and strict attention to business.

Pushed Kingsley Along. McCall pushed his son-in-law along. Three years after the marriage he made him third vice-president of the company, and by 1903 had advanced him to the vice-presidency. Darwin Pearl Kingsley had taken the standard of integrity which must be maintained at all times by the man who serves you and the policyholders in this high office.

Kingsley's Beliefs. In the printed slip sent out to the newspapers order that the public might know what manner of man Mr. Kingsley is, occurs this paragraph: "Mr. Kingsley is as far removed as a man can well be from a workaholic of mere success. He sees the great future before men of affairs, because they deal directly with the greatest of all problems, the struggle of life and because the material superiority of the American nation is equally big with spiritual promise. He contemplates physical decay and death, but do not fear it, for he knows that a but infested with vermin is not so conducive to profitable meditation as a modern home with bathrooms, sun-baths and sound rules of hygiene--that the spectacle of 1,000,000 men under arms appeals to the soul less powerfully than that of 1,000,000 men at work, and that the most exalted conceptions of the hereafter will be developed under a programme that stands every man on his own feet, faces him with his own responsibilities, and makes him do justice if he expects to receive it."

ORCHARD FORMALLY ARRAIGNED FOR MURDER AND TRIAL POSTPONED

Caldwell, Idaho, June 17--Harry Orchard, the confessed murderer of former Governor Stunenburg and eighteen other men, was brought today to the scene of the crime which finally landed him within the clutches of the law, and taken before Judge Wood at the county court house. The Haywood case at Boise was adjourned over today to enable Judge Wood to come to Caldwell and enter an order formally adjourning Orchard's trial for the present term of court. The local attorney, Mr. Cox, who has been the attorney for Orchard in this county, was relieved from further duty by Judge Wood this morning and, with the consent of the prisoner, Frank T. Wyman, a Boise attorney, was appointed in his place.

The date of Orchard's trial will not be set until the cases against Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone at Boise are disposed of. Orchard was taken back to the penitentiary at Boise this afternoon.

CAMPBELLTON ELATED OVER RAILWAY DEAL

Project to Make Gaspe an Atlantic Terminal Means Much for the Town--Expect Bridge Across Restigouche and Likely the Purchase of the International Railway by the Atlantic Quebec & Western Company.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Campbellton, N. B., June 17--Great satisfaction is expressed here by business men over the announcement from Ottawa of the sale of the Atlantic & Lake Superior railway to the Atlantic, Quebec & Western Railway Company.

It has been the dream of Campbelltonians and the leading business men of the Gaspe coast that some day Gaspe would be recognized as the nearest port in Canada to Great Britain. With this about to come to pass, and the building of a railway from Gaspe to Port Daniel, it is confidently expected that the next step will be the building of a railway bridge across the Restigouche at Campbellton, giving direct connection with the Intercolonial and International railways. This project has been frequently spoken of before and would certainly be a big thing for Campbellton. It is claimed by those who are in a position to know that the port of Gaspe can be kept open all the year, and it has been pointed out on more than one occasion in parliament that the distance of the Atlantic route can be considerably shortened by making Gaspe the terminal point on this side. In connection with the sale above mentioned, there is considerable speculation as to whether or not the A. Q. & W. Company will purchase the International railway and drop their present project of building a line from Metapedia to Edmundston, and the outcome will be awaited with considerable interest.

EMIGRATED TO CANADA ON FALSE PRETENSES

Immigration Department Offer to Investigate Complaint

It is Alleged That 200 Scotch Laborers Were Induced to Come to This Country to Work on the G. T. Pacific, and That They Didn't Get Employment.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Ottawa, June 17--J. W. Cleland in a press cable has directed attention to the report that 200 Scotchmen were induced to go to Canada on the promise of work on the Grand Trunk Pacific, that they were not able to obtain the work and there is great indignation in Scotland over the matter.

Superintendent of Immigration W. D. Scott stated today that no such complaint had reached the department. "However," he said, "if any of these men wish to lodge a formal complaint to the department we will provide for his or their deportation to Scotland, where they can lay information under the merchants' shipping act, and take proceedings against the men who deceived them."

The provision referred to was inserted in the merchants' shipping act, at the request of Canada, MacKenzie King being sent to England for the purpose of pressing the matter on the attention of the British government. It declares that it is a criminal offence to make dishonest representations to persons for the purpose of inducing them to emigrate.

HELPING INDIANS TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS

TALKS OF WORK ON VISIT TO ST. JOHN

Establishing Tent Sanitoriums on the Reserves--Heroic Work of Nurses--Results of Educational Work Among the Red Men.

Dr. Bryce, of Ottawa, chief medical health officer for the Dominion, was in St. John Wednesday at the Royal. He has just returned after an extended tour of the west, during which he made an inspection of the Indian schools with the object of reporting to the minister of the interior. He also inspected several sanitoriums which he has himself established on the reservations for the treatment of tuberculosis among these people. This he described as one of his pet schemes and he is enthusiastic over the results.

Dr. Bryce, of Ottawa, chief medical health officer for the Dominion, was in St. John Wednesday at the Royal. He has just returned after an extended tour of the west, during which he made an inspection of the Indian schools with the object of reporting to the minister of the interior. He also inspected several sanitoriums which he has himself established on the reservations for the treatment of tuberculosis among these people. This he described as one of his pet schemes and he is enthusiastic over the results.

Dr. Bryce pointed out that these little ones have all of them to learn the English language. They have, however, very retentive memories and it does not take them long to do so. In the more mechanical parts of the curriculum, such as writing and drawing, where nicety and precision of muscular action are necessary, he says the results he saw were such as an Indian could be expected to make.

The system pursued in the boarding schools is that known as the half-time one, that is, the pupils devote a part of each day to learning agriculture or other useful industrial pursuits. An effort is being made to emphasize the importance of industry and with singular success. Dr. Bryce said that the Indian agent on the Pine Hill reservation six years ago conceived the idea of making the boys take up farming as an occupation. In furtherance of this scheme he had part of the reserve surveyed into quarter sections. Fortunately, he had enough influence with the band to induce them to pass a vote in council making a grant of these quarter sections to graduates of the boarding school. After six years of work eighteen have been settled there and fifteen have often married and graduated.

As an evidence of their success as agriculturists Dr. Bryce said that last year these eighteen young men raised 45,000 bushels of wheat with other crops in proportion. The government has granted them a start in life. No money is advanced, however, and it is understood that wheat, corn, and implements are given as they are returned.

Dr. Bryce says that one of the most relentless enemies of these people is tuberculosis in its various forms, such as scrofula, lupus and other skin diseases. It is impossible, he added, to induce the Indian to leave home and go to a sanatorium, hence it is necessary to take the sanatorium to them. He has established sanitoriums on the different reserves where the open air treatment is carried out. These are very simple, consisting of large double tents each being in charge of a female nurse. The doctor took occasion to speak in terms of the warmest praise of the heroic self-sacrifice of these young ladies, many of whom have been delicately nurtured in the cities of the east. One of them, of whom he spoke particularly, being a Toronto girl. She was fifty miles from the nearest doctor, surrounded by the band, and she slept in her tent all winter with the thermometer often at thirty degrees below zero with a number of Indian children for companions. One of her duties was to visit all the homes of the Indians as often as possible and wherever she found sickness to try to induce the sufferer to come to the tent.

In this way, he went on, this good angel served two useful purposes--she removed the source of danger from the home and taught the value of cleanliness. And yet, he said, she did not see that she was doing anything wonderful.

The results attained by the open air treatment are such that Dr. Bryce said he intended using his influence to have sanitoriums established on all the reservations.

Speaking of the work of his department, Dr. Bryce said that during the month of May 29,000 immigrants landed at Quebec alone. This, he remarked, is a fairly auspicious opening for the season. Commenting on the complaint prevalent in the east, the scarcity of farm help, he said the same thing is true of the west, where complaint is made that all labor migrates sooner or later towards the cities and towns.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST MONCTON MAN BY WIFE

Mrs. Flewelling Wilbur Tells Shocking Story of Ill-treatment

Will Make Railway Town Prisoners Serving Time Work in Future--Annual Roll Call of Lewisville Baptist Church.

Moncton, N. B., June 17--Evidence of a most revolting character was given in the police court this afternoon by Mrs. Flewelling Wilbur, who had her husband arrested on charge of assaulting and beating her. The complainant was married to Wilbur on May 19 last, and today she finds herself kicked out of her home, according to her own sworn story, the disabused bidding of her husband.

In addition to other things, she alleges Wilbur is a drunkard and a disorderly house. Another proposition her husband made to her, she says, was to go to Boston and kill some one on a large sum of money. The nature of the woman's evidence shocked the police and civil officials.

Wilbur is charged with assaulting and beating his wife, but it is probable a more serious charge will follow. The hearing was adjourned till tomorrow morning.

Wilbur's wife belongs to Cedar Rapids (Mich.), and has no relatives here, having been induced by her husband to come here and marry.

At a meeting of the police committee tonight, it was decided to follow St. John's example and compel prisoners serving time in the lockup to work. In future a yard for prisoners will be fixed up and some kind of occupation given them.

The annual roll call of Lewisville Baptist church was held tonight, Rev. Mr. Cummings, of Amherst, being the preacher for the occasion. More than $800 was raised for church purposes. The membership of the church is nearly 200.

ROUGH ON THE BELL CO.

Accounts Opened to Conceal the Surplus Profits

Shareholders Kept Out of Their Own--Rates for All Services Could Be Lowered--Mr. Shepley Sums Up Results of Inquiry.

Montreal, June 14--George F. Shepley, K. C., has issued a summary of the evidence submitted at the Bell Telephone inquiry, with his comments thereon. "Our summing up," he says, "is that from the standpoint of the Bell Telephone Company there is evidence that would justify this board in saying that its tariffs are more than adequate, that there is no reason to believe that the company is not doing all in its power to give the public the best service possible, and that the individual tolls, local rentals, long distance tolls and local tolls are all susceptible of modification without doing any real injury to the interests of the Bell Telephone Company."

Mr. Shepley spoke at some length and sharply criticized the general policy of the Bell Company, more especially for the "cloud of mystery" which had hung over the efforts of the shareholders to discover the relative profits of the long distance and local service. The crown counsel also scored their methods of bookkeeping, expressing the opinion that accounts had been opened for the mere purpose of putting their credit money which the company did not know what to do with, and that they had been permitted to grow to an unreasonable size, while the company took this money, profits made out of it, and used it instead of distributing it among the shareholders, who were paying no interest to them for its use.

With regard to long distance service, it was the suggestion of the crown counsel that whatever rate was adopted should be based on mileage, not using air line distances, but using the mileage between the different places, so that the people could compute what a message would cost without going to the telephone office to find out.

The board has adjourned until Wednesday, June 19th.

SEASONABLE RECIPES.

Rackliffe, aged 22, and an almost successful attempt to conceal the alleged crime by placing the body in the powder house at the Paris Hill mine, and discharging a quantity of dynamite, the Maine man, who has been arrested today and lodged in the county jail. He will be arraigned in court tomorrow.

Alphonse Wauger, the insane Frenchman, is now a patient at the General Public Hospital. Where the unfortunate dynamite, the event of his discharge from the hospital, is as yet a problem. The population is nearly 15,000, of whom about 2,000 are new arrivals, unable to get houses to live in. Building permits are more than 200,000 a month and bank clearings more than $1,000,000 a week. It is simply impossible to meet many customers who have cleared up from $10,000 to $50,000 during the last three years with little or no capital."

E. W. Pond, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), who was in the city Friday, speaking of the work of the St. John railway, said that at Crockett Mill about three miles above Fort Kent, he had about 1,500,000 feet of lumber, and expected to be finished by the end of the month. He said the greater part of his drive, had already gone down. The water was at fair driving pitch. There was quite a jam, he said, at Grand Isle, and also at Vanburen, where the St. John Lumber Company were engaged. Conditions were better than last year and everybody was fairly well satisfied.

The Herald, of Newcastle (Pa.), June 14, contains a flattering reference to the intruder came out, looked around and entered the place. Shortly afterward the intruder came out, looked around and entered the place.

Everett claims he made him a prisoner by placing a plank against the door and went to telephone for assistance. As he reached the telephone, he says, the explosion occurred and he immediately fled. He says there were eleven sticks of dynamite at the house at the time and only six of them exploded. The explosion tore a hole two feet deep in the ground and scattered pieces of the building 100 feet away.

LABORERS MAKE COMPLAINT ABOUT PAY

Men on Submarine Signal Station Work Claim a Grievance.

Complaint is being made of the manner in which the laboring men are paid for work in connection with the building of a station house at Tiner's Point to be used in connection with the new submarine signal service, told of the Telegraph some weeks ago. The work is being carried on by the government, and it was stated yesterday that a Carleton man who is in charge, engages carpenters at $2.50 a day and laborers from the vicinity of Lunenburg.

It is claimed the understanding was that these laborers were to receive $1.75 a day. On Thursday, however, when the pay envelopes for the first fortnight's work were handed round, it was discovered that while some of the carpenters received the stipulated $1.75, several had been paid at the rate of only $1.25 a day. The complaint is made that all were paid the same amount. It is likely the matter will be brought to the attention of the department of marine and fisheries.

"Has her marriage to the count really been indefinitely postponed?" "Yes; there was some little misunderstanding about it, I believe."

"But does the misunderstanding amount to much?" "Only to about $200,000 I believe."--Philadelphia Press.

MILK DEALERS MUST TAKE OUT LICENSE ENORMOUS INCREASE OF CANADIAN MANUFACTURES

At a meeting of the board of health Friday afternoon it was decided to proceed against the milk dealers who have failed to take out licenses. The time given them to comply with the regulation expired May 1, and so far only eight have taken out the necessary documents.

Last year there were ninety licensed dealers. An invitation to comply with the law will be issued to the tardy ones, who will be given ten days' grace. If at the end of that time they have failed to take out papers, Judge Ritchie will be called upon to arbitrate.

It was reported that the Scoles house in St. Martins was released from quarantine Wednesday and that the Ingraham house would be released today.

Some time ago the board applied to the department of railways to grant a site for the milk can washing plant in the I. C. R. yard. An answer has been received to the effect that they cannot see their way clear to grant the request. The answer is not, however, regarded as final, and when Deputy Minister Butler visits the city in the near future, he will be waited on by a committee of the board, who will ask him to reconsider the decision.

When the secretary reached the banquet hall looking somewhat pale, but smiling as he strode down the long line of 2,000 banqueters, under the gaze of 2,000 other guests, seated in the boxes and balconies, the diners and spectators arose and cheered lustily. The banquet, except for the visit to Fort Snelling, was the only function which the secretary attended.

Secretary Taft could not begin his dinner speech for some moments because of prolonged cheering by the vast audience. While standing it was plainly evident from his manner that he felt weak. Perspiration stood out on his forehead, but his voice was strong so long as he was heard in all parts of the Auditorium.
