ADVERTISING RATES.

Made known on application at office. Address all communications to ADVERTISER PRINTING CO.,
LONDON, CANADA.

"The Advertiser" is an organ of news and of thoroughly independent opinion. The ADVERTISER alone is responsible for opinions expressed in these columns.

"The Advertiser" advocates Constitutional Free Trade, and as early as possible after, free trade with the whole world.

"The Advertiser" looks forward with hope to Canada's future as that of an Independent Canadian Nationality, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the best attainable relations with the United States. As to imperial Federation, sometimes spoken of, the ADVERTISER as yet has seen nothing proposed that bears any stamp of practicability, and in any case infinitely prefers the grander and more really hopeful scheme of a federation of the English-speaking peoples of the world.

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion in the meantime.

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of equal rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and consider the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first. Under the present system there is an unjustifiable waste of men, means and effort. The ADVERTISER will endeavor to promote the movement for Christian union not alone by direct appeal and argument, but by seeking to present the best rather than the worst side of each denomination.

"The Advertiser" advocates Obligatory Voting as much necessary and practicable. Nothing would so much purify electoral contests. Nothing would so much enforce the idea that the franchise is a duty, not a chattel.

God's in His heaven, All's right with the world.
—(BROWNING.)

London, Tuesday, Nov. 24.

LONDON ELECTION TRIAL.

The trial of the petition against the return of Mr. C. S. Hymans as member of the House of Commons for London, takes place at the Court House on Wednesday next.
Judges Ferguson and Robertson are the presiding judges. The majority for Mr.
Hymans was 183.

A WOMAN FOR THE BOARD.

A correspondent suggests that one of the school trustees selected by the City Council next January shall be a woman.
The suggestion is pertinent. The women of the city are as much interested in the proper education of youth as are the men, and a properly-qualified representative on the board would be highly beneficial to the schools. Besides, the overwhelming proportion of the teachers are now women, and there are many questions affecting their welfare upon which a woman could speak with authority. It would be a graceful act if the Council took the hint and selected the best available woman for the position.

NEEDS OF THE PACIFIC PROVINCE.

British Columbia's export trade is chiefly made up of products of the mine and the fisheries, in both of which she has rich supplies. The following is the value of exports for the last fiscal year:

The Mine	$2,930,239
Fisheries	2,274,636
Forest	374,936
Animals and their products	294,648
Agricultural products	5,018
Miscellaneous	20,434

Total...$6,257,158
The province is handicapped by the high tariff, especially in its mining and fisheries industries. If the duty on coal iron and wood, for example, were removed there would be a speedy and enormously increased development of the great staple industries of the Pacific Province.

LET THE QUARRELSOME DO THE FIGHTING.

Rumors of war are still plentiful in continental Europe, and will continue plentiful while every nation of importance remains armed to the teeth, ready at the bidding of the rulers to fly at each other's throats.
The excited condition of Europe may be gathered from the interest which in the last few days has centered on the visit of M. de Giers, the Russian diplomat, to Paris.
It was given out that he simply came to see his grandchild, who is at school in the Parisian capital, but the skeptical public refuses to believe that story, and insists that his visit must have some reference to a Russo-Franco fighting alliance, which has recently been much talked about. It is possible, in the present over-armed condition of Europe, that a hasty word or indiscreet act by any one of the rulers of European countries may result in war. A whole people may be called upon to fight and die in defense of the views of an erratic royal head before they have time to consider the rightfulness or the wrongfulness of the situation. It is difficult to understand the justice of calling upon the common people to sacrifice their lives and their property in defense of hair-splitting quarrels set on foot by, it may be, the stupid bungling of their rulers.

Rev. J. W. Ashman, a well known Anglican preacher, in a sermon at St.
James' Church, South London, yesterday, made a proposition which, if carried out, would do more to repress the spirit of blood-letting than all the agencies which have yet been devised. His view is that if the Czar of Russia, the Emperor of Germany the Prince of Wales, or any other monarch or prospective monarch desires to fight, a settle should be arranged in a royal backyard, where fighting should take place till one of the parties to the conflict succumbed, and the man left should be hanged for murder.
We endorse this view. If the men who arrange the wars, and who strive to stir up the bad blood that leads to international conflict, were invariably made to shed the first blood on the battlefield, they would think twice before they confessed that the arts of peace had been exhausted, and that only by the savage brutality of war could the question at issue be satisfactorily settled.

Arbitration measures would be at a premium if the crowned heads had to face the cannon and needle guns, instead of witnessing the carnage from a far-off hill top.

NON-RESIDENT VOTERS.

Among the hundred odd charges lodged against A. B. Ingram, whose election to the Commons for East Elgin is protested, are six accusations of paying the traveling and other expenses of voters living in this city. What a relief to candidates and a saving to party managers would the establishment of the "one man one vote" residential franchise be. It would prevent much irritation, save trouble and expense, and remove the strong temptation to party managers to break the law that forbids the payment of traveling expenses of voters. A franchise of Government, which is likely to take place in the near future, will bring the people this boon.

THE HOME MARKET.

The Canadian Manufacturer gives the following, which it calls "A Pointer to Farmers":
"The wider the home market the better the prices for farm products. Where the home market is small prices for farm products are also small."

This is a splendid argument in favor of freedom of trade between Canada and the United States. Take the farmers of Kent, Essex and Lambton as examples. Their best home market for perishable produce would be Detroit. The farmers of Elgin could find a partial outlet for the same class of products in Cleveland. The farmers of Haldimand and Welland would profit if they had the market of Buffalo open to them as well as the market to be found in Toronto, London and Hamilton. And so on along the whole line. The home market idea is good; but it is absurd to carry it to the length of preventing Canadians from engaging in profitable trade with their nearest neighbors. "But would it be profitable?" we are sometimes asked. Without a doubt.
No trade takes place unless there are two parties to it, and the exchange is effected because each party believes there is a profit in it. That is all there is in international commerce.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Consolidated Black Cat Company has been organized on Piget Sound for the propagation of black cats. An island will be purchased and the cats raised for their fur. The seals may go now!

THE extent of the exodus may be gathered from the fact that there are eighteen French-Canadians in the Legislature of the United States, and there are probably twice as many English-speaking Canadians honored. Candidates hold their own no matter where they go. What we need is a chance to keep them in employment at home by the opening up of the countless opportunities to make a living that reciprocity in trade would give.

ASTORIAN act of Christian fellowship was noted the other day when a new Methodist Church was dedicated in Beachville.
After the dedicatory sermon, Methodist clergymen were assisted in the services of the day by Rev. S. McMillen, of Knox Presbyterian Church, Woodstock, and Rev. Donk Wade, of old St. Paul's Anglican Church, also of Woodstock, the latter pronouncing the benediction when the exercises were completed. The new church was erected at a cost of about $4,000.

The corner-stone of the new city and county buildings, Toronto, was laid Saturday afternoon by Mayor Clarke. Rain spoiled the attendance.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

The amateur photographers' contest recently instituted by the Illustrated Buffalo Express has resulted thus far in over 2,000 photographs from all parts of the country.
The contest closes Dec. 14. Every subject accepted is engraved in the finest manner, published in the Express, and is paid for, whether it wins a prize or not. Interest in the contest is increasing, and amateurs in this vicinity would well take part in it.
The conditions appear each week in the Illustrated Buffalo Express.

The December number of the North American Review will contain a symposium on "The Quorum in European Legislatures," apropos of the probable renewal of the Speakership controversy on the assembling of Congress, Dec. 7. This contribution will include statements as to European quorums in reference to the past as issue, by M. Louis Ruchonnet, President of the Swiss Confederation; Herr von Levetzow, President of the German Reichstag; M. Henri Brisson, ex-President of the Chamber of Deputies; M. Jules Meline, ex-Minister of Agriculture; M. Sofus Hogsbro, President of the Danish Folketing; Signor Chiaavassa, of the Italian Senate, and others.
The same number will also contain "The Three Pantheists" by Colonel R. G.
Ingersoll; "The Benefits of War," by Admiral Luce; "A Great Statistical Investigation," by Carroll D. Wright, and "Railway Rates," by General Horatio Forster. Further contributions will appear in the same number from Signor Crispi, ex-Prime Minister of Italy; the dean of St.
Paul's Cathedral, London; T. V. Powderly and Prof. James H. Bryce, author of "The American Commonwealth."

THE DOMINION VOTERS' LISTS.

The London ADVERTISER scores a pretty strong point when it says that it is not right that killing sons of rich fathers should be given votes without question on the sole qualification that their father owns property, whereas hundreds of young men, earning $1 a day, but out of work for a week or two between seasons, are deprived of their right to vote.

BEANPODS RATTLE WHEN DRY.

[Troy Times.]
Bob Burdette tells a good story of the Rev. Lyman Beecher, father of Henry Ward Beecher, told originally by his son.
The older Beecher had been preaching one Sunday at Litchfield, and as he got into the carriage to go home he remarked that he had never preached such a poor sermon before. "Why, father," asked Henry, "I never heard you preach louder." "That's it," responded the old man; "when I have nothing to say I always holler."

THEIR AWFUL CRIMES.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
Dr. Borden, of Kings county, Nova Scotia, has been unsentenced because one of his supporters paid a carter for taking a voter to his polling place, and Mr. Spohn, of east Simcoe, has been unsentenced because a prominent Reformer endorsed a note to help a Conservative neighbor who had lost a horse, and after endorsing the note asked the neighbor to vote for Mr. Spohn. The two unsentenced men are Reformers, and surely the Reformer who endorsed the note is in the Reform ranks! The act of the East Simcoe Reformer, through which Mr. Spohn lost his seat, is surely more than an offset to the McGreevy-Langevin, Huggart, Chap-lean and Cochrane scandals.

Jealous of Brodie's Fame.
New York, Nov. 23. The man who jumped from the Brooklyn bridge yesterday and was killed was Francis McElrath, an iron molder. His object was to equal Steve Brodie's leap.

What is Scrofula

It is that taint in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly swellings, which cause painful discharges from the ears, nose, or throat, and which, if neglected, may lead to the most serious consequences. It is the origin of all the diseases of the skin, and of many other diseases of the system, and is the cause of all the diseases of the blood.

THE WEEK, one of the ablest papers on the continent.—[Descriptive $3 per Year. Published Every Friday. $2 for 3 Mos.

THE WEEK

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Literature, Science and Arts.

THE WEEK has been greatly enlarged and improved, rendering it still more worthy the cordial support of every one interested in the maintenance of a first-class literary journal. Recognizing with gratitude the generous support it has received since the publication of the first number, it hopes to win the approval of a wider constituency and reach a much larger circle of readers.

The independence in politics and criticism which has characterized

THE WEEK ever since its first issue, more than eight years ago, will be rigidly maintained, and no concession will be made to the pressure of the publisher or the public. Many new and able writers are now, or have been, contributors to its columns, and the constant aim of the publisher will be to make THE WEEK fully equal to the best literary journal in Canada and the United States.

As heretofore, London, Paris, Washington and Montreal letters from accomplished correspondents will appear at regular intervals.

THE WEEK enlarged is the same size as "Harper's Weekly," and the largest paper of its class on the continent.

I regard THE WEEK as one of the most interesting and satisfying literary publications in America; and certainly there has been no period in its history when its excellence was so marked as at present.—[T. W. Longley, Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, Halifax.

preached Sunday by Rev. J. W. Ashman, of England, a powerful and somewhat original speaker. In his morning address he referred to war in the most condemnatory terms. His own plan to prevent a wholesale sacrifice of life would be to place the Emperor of Germany, the Czar of Russia, the Prince of Wales and any other blood-thirsty monarch together in a back yard and let them fight it out, the survivor to be hanged for murder. He thought the sight of the back yard would be enough for any monarch. The musical services were specially attractive, and reflected much to the credit of Mr. Evans, who has taken great pains in the preparing of the musical programme, and also of the choir.

Who was 157

In his sermon Sunday night the Dean of Huron dwelt on the advantages of a liturgical service. "Throughout the Scriptures," said he, "there were passages which anchorized prepared prayers. If one were to be granted an audience with an earthly king, would he not carefully prepare his supplications. With how much more preparation, therefore, should 150 persons be granted an audience with the King of Kings." The dean referred to the Church of England prayers, which he characterized as possessing the utmost simplicity, yet grand and comprehensive, and that they had no existence in the primitive church. It is to be hoped he is better read in other histories than he is in ecclesiastical.

Scotchman's Congregational Church.
For the first time since the office of the new Congregational Church worshiped Sunday in their new edifice. By their united efforts a frame building near the corner of Horton and Burwell streets has been converted into a neat little church, plain but very comfortable, known as the Southern Congregational Church. The interior is seated temporarily with chairs, and will accommodate about 150 persons.

They have already a choir of ten under the leadership of Arthur Allen. In the morning Rev. A. A. McGregor, of Stratford, preached from Isaiah 1:1, 3. During his sermon he urged on parents the necessity of having the children attend church. Rev.

Robert Aylward conducted the services in the evening, notwithstanding the continual downpour of rain, the edifice was filled. Sunday school was also held in the afternoon.

The Coming Reunion.
The entertainment committee of the St.
Andrew's Society met in the office of J.
W. Jones on Saturday night. T. H. Purdon, chairman, and Walter Simpson, secretary. It was definitely decided to celebrate St. Andrew's Day one week from tonight by a reunion supper and attendant night in the Knights of Pythias Hall, corner of Dundas and Clarence streets.

The assembly will be a thoroughly representative one.

For some years the day of the Patron Saint of Scotland has been neglected, but the intention is to make up for lost opportunity. At one time he was vocal and instrumental music, including the bagpipes and some of the best Highland dancing.

President Reid and Secretary McSweeney were appointed a committee to receive visitors and to make further arrangements. It will be a draw night.

A Sad End.
Yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock a young man was found dead in the street.

Undertaking establishment by Coroner Smith to hold an inquest on the body of Wm. J. Barrett. The latter was a young man 23 years of age, living on Carling street and employed as a cutter at John Marshall & Co. He was arrested some time ago on a charge in connection with a charge of seduction made against him by a young woman named Ellen Hughes.

On Wednesday last he was released, and he married the girl. The same evening he was arrested on the body of at Burkholder's drug store and swallowed a dose. He told his relatives he had poisoned himself. Medical aid was procured, but it was of no avail. He suffered from the rain until Sunday night, when death released him. It is thought his mind was unhinged, owing to the accusation under which he rested.

At his trial his actions were confirmed by the opinion. The young man was well liked by his associates and re-spectably connected. The jury returned morning, however, the remainder and adjourned wife and four little girls left Argyllshire, Scotland, to seek a home in the new world having left an only son, a lad of 16, behind at school. After having embarked on their journey, they were driven back to the Isle of Mull by French cruisers, which in those troublous times infested the sea. They remained on the island a year and embarked in 1805 for British North America, landing at Montreal after a six week's voyage, carried their effects over the Lachine Rapids by batteau to Lake Ontario, when they took a vessel to Niagara, thence by portage to Lake Erie and vessel again to old Fort Malden, and thence by batteau again to the Selkirk settlement at Baldoon, a few miles west of Wallaceburg. Here they settled, but within a few weeks the father, mother and oldest daughter were stricken with fever and all died within five days of each other, leaving the four young girls to the tender mercies of strangers.

Margaret McCallum Johnson, the subject of this sketch, the third youngest of these children and the last survivor by many years, who died a few days ago, aged 85 years, was the daughter of Daniel Mc-Callum, son of a physician of Argyllshire, Scotland. Her life was indeed an eventful one. All the incidents of the war of 1812 were still fresh in her memory. She was on the River Thames near Chatham and witnessed the invasion of the country by General Harrison previous to the battle of the Thames, in which her husband took part, and after the battle again saw the army retreat across the border into the United States. She was also in General Hall's house in Detroit at the time of the surrender to General Brock, her only brother, Hugh McCallum, being one of the sighters, who was subsequently awarded a silver medal for his gallantry during the struggle. In 1817 she was married to Jas.

Johnson, a native of Northumberland, England, by whom she had ten children, namely Lionel H., Mary, William, Daniel, Elizabeth, Margaret A., Eliza, Charles J., Harriet L. and Sarah H., all of whom survive her except Lionel H., who died in 1852, and William H., who was killed at the battle of 7. In 1857 they celebrated their golden wedding, all their children being present. They lived together about 57 years when Mr.
Johnson died in 1874. Mrs. Johnson lives in a neat little house in the rear of the night of the night, the night of the footsteps of the Indian have crossed their threshold, and the morning found the elderly sleeping quietly on the hearth stone, and to the credit of the poor Indian the declaration of the deceased is that she never knew one to betray the trust reposed in them by taking anything that did not go to them.

Abused His Widowed Mother.
James Barrett, who lives on Piccadilly street near William street, was charged at the Police Court yesterday with being neglectful of his mother. He is 20 years of age, and has no trade. He has been in the Police Court about a dozen times on charges of burglary, assault and disorderly conduct. At one time he was taking a course at the military school and was dismissed for bad conduct. Barrett is very fond of the bottle, and on Saturday evening he went to his home drunk and began abusing his widowed mother. She ran for protection to the house of a neighbor, John Connell. A policeman shortly afterwards arrested Barrett. On previous occasions he had abused his mother (who supported him to a great extent) in a shocking manner. The charge of vagrancy was dismissed and a fine of $10 or twenty days imposed for being drunk. The magistrate imposed on the prisoner's mind that he would go to the Central Prison the next time he was brought up.

The Market Brawl Again.
Richard Rawlings was once more before the Police Court yesterday in connection with the two charges preferred against him by the market clerk of breach of the market bylaw, and he will come up again next Monday morning.

One case was dismissed owing to the fact that Ebenzer Adams, of Carleton place, witness for the prosecution, and on whom a summons had been served, did not put in an appearance. Mr. Rawlings was charged with buying potatoes from Robert Allen, of Carleton place, and the defendant had written him a letter asking him to bring him in four or five loads of potatoes, and in pursuance of this request he brought one load and decided that if Rawlings would take them at the price stated in the letter he could have them. On the market the transaction was completed and the potatoes delivered to Rawlings and the money paid.

The magistrate stated that his opinion was not at all favorable to the defendant, but he would wait one week to have the letter produced. The case was therefore enlarged until next Monday.

Evry's Cocoa—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.
—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Evry has produced a beverage
