CLOSE NOMINATIONS FOR CITY; ONLY BECK, STEVENSON ON LIST

Both Candidates at City Hall Nomination Meeting, Make No Speeches—List of Nominations For Candidates.

Two candidates, Dr. Hugh Allan Stevenson, labor nominee, and Sir Adam Beck, will contest the city of London in the forthcoming provincial election to be held Oct. 20. No other names were handed in to W. C. Fitzgerald, returning officer for the city, at the nomination meeting called at the city hall yesterday, from 12 o'clock to 2 (standard time) and as the clock tolled the hour Mr. Fitzgerald closed the nominations.

Make No Addresses. Both candidates were present, but refrained from making speeches. The dozen or more citizens present in the hope of hearing the candidates outline their platforms were disappointed. The usual amount of red tape was carefully wound up by Mr. Fitzgerald and his clerk, Alfred Burwell.

The official agents appointed by the candidates were Frank McKay for Dr. Stevenson, and N. P. Graydon for Sir Adam Beck. Henry B. Ashplant and Wm. H. Jackson witnessed the signing of Dr. Stevenson's papers, while Jas. K. Flock performed the same office for the present London member in the provincial house.

Dr. Stevenson's Nominators. Following are the electors who signed Dr. Stevenson's nomination papers: F. C. Wright, Martha Thompson, J. F. Thompson, H. Whistler, W. H. H. Hornick, D. Thomson, Nellie Thomson, Clarence Dye, Geo. Cushman, Wm. A. Page, A. Vinen, Wm. Scrimgeour, J. M. Norris, I. L. Alfred Williams, W. A. Walsh, F. England, J. M. Mallipie, Jas. Murray, Chas. Which blade is yours? Before stropping (magnified) After stropping (magnified). AutoStrop Safety Razor Co., Limited.

You shave with the first blade—unless you use an AutoStrop Safety Razor. Shaving causes the edge to become saw-like, and the blade becomes dull. Stopping re-aligns the edge and brings the blade back to its original keenness. That's why the AutoStrop Razor has such a large sale. Because men realize that no razor can do good work without constant stopping. Stopping—shaving—cleaning are done without removing the blade from the razor. Drop in at the nearest dealer's and ask to see the AutoStrop Razor. There is no obligation to buy; and no obligation to keep an AutoStrop Razor if it doesn't please you. PLEADS NATIONAL DEDICATION TO END INDUSTRIAL UNREST

Rev. Dr. Dickie Says Solution of Political, Industrial Unrest Is in God.

"The great war now over was but humanity's latest and darkest failure and destiny's latest warning that humanity shall never be blessed with a permanent possession of God's kingdom," declared Rev. Dr. Dickie of Chatham, speaking in the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning at a joint thanksgiving service of all the Presbyterian churches in the city.

In the light of the text "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and then all these things will be added unto you," the speaker pointed out how it was not until after three great days of humiliation and prayer on June 13 in Canada and August 4 in Great Britain that the tide of battle was turned to victory for the allies, and the great arch enemy downed.

Forget Mercies Easily. "Yet it is so easy to forget our mercies in a multitude of little worries," he continued "and to lose sight of the crowning deliverance. It is not most criminal for us to think in the midst of the dangers which now threaten us, from political and industrial unrest in the world, that there is for this no solution but in the hand of God."

My plea is for national dedication, because this is the path along which we shall be led to success. The fact that the church leads us along this way, does not lessen the calling. I do not regret that this is a disadvantage, but that great leaders in this movement are churchmen, whose lives are dedicated to the service of God, is a privilege. I speak of the new social order, when he considers industrial, social or political problems, some people say that they have no right to his sphere. I think not. "The true interpretation of such things must be that they are not his, but ours, and that we are to be used as instruments of God's will."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE. DOCTORS AND BOOZE. To the Editor of The Advertiser: In your issue of October 10, under the heading "Says 'Dry Ontario,'" etc., the statements attributed to Wm. R. Wollast, candidate for North Middlesex in the provincial election pending, are so obviously untrue and so grossly misleading that I feel compelled to set them straight. However, I have been prevailed on by some of my ardent temperance friends to reply to them. Personally, I consider them harmless, and the fact that the press generally has ignored them is evidence of their pitiful character. At the same time, I feel some unwary reader might be influenced by the statements, and indeed, such statements can be dignified as arguments. I wish to make the following comments on the statements referred to in the medical profession, that they would not be so readily conferred on them, if they were not so obviously untrue and so grossly misleading. I wish to make the following comments on the statements referred to in the medical profession, that they would not be so readily conferred on them, if they were not so obviously untrue and so grossly misleading.

Scratchy black cats and spooky witches have invaded our Stationery Department and are eager to go forth as invitations, festoon paper decorations, place cards and favors, in the cause of Halloween. Great is their power, indeed, in conjuring up all the elfish spirits of pumpkin-time. This, the first peace-time Halloween in five years, will be one night of joyous revelry, as the spooky witches, which during war-time did not have the heart to celebrate on this occasion, will let loose this year—so prepare now for one of the jolliest Halloweens ever.

PRINCE WILL ARRIVE WEDNESDAY; PARK IS FIRST TO BE VISITED

Civil Welcome Will Be Tendered Him There.

BANQUET WILL FOLLOW

Public Reception at Armories To Begin About 10 o'Clock.

Final details of the reception for the Prince of Wales Wednesday and Thursday of next week are being made today. The local committee and the banquet committee met this morning...

The prince will arrive about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and will proceed immediately to Victoria Park, where a civic reception will be tendered him.

The school children of the city will participate in this reception and the prince will proceed to the Tecumseh House, where there will be a banquet at 8 o'clock.

The larger part of the arrangements have been completed, and these meetings are simply for the purpose of clearing up the details of a general executive meeting likely to be held before the end of the week.

At 10 o'clock the royal business will proceed to the armories, where a public reception will be held.

The prince will be accompanied by the school children of the city and later to meet him at the armories. The occasion will be transformed for the occasion by extensive decorations.

The Majestic Concert Orchestra will provide the music here.

Outside the armories festivities will be at their height. Four city bands will be stationed in the vicinity, and there will be dancing on the lawn in the vicinity of the "Welcome" arch.

A pipe band will take part, too.

The 70th Battalion is arranging to take an active part in the celebration, and will use the occasion to hold a union of its members.

Lieut. I. Towers has sent out letters to all former members of the battalion and they will hold a memorial service for their comrades who fell in France at Canadian Memorial Church Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

ONE ADMITS GUILT, OTHER DENIES, BUT MAGISTRATE DOUBTS

Reserves Judgment For Week in Both Cases.

MUCH WHISKEY SEIZED

Police Got 128 Bottles in the Baggage and Prosecution Followed.

Charles Smith pleaded not guilty and Albert Malsonville guilty, in police court this morning to having 128 quarts of whiskey on a train en route from Montreal to Windsor on Saturday and had their cases reserved until Wednesday.

Windsor, drove 49 miles from their home to Belle River and there bought 128 quarts of whiskey, according to Smith, who, after pleading not guilty, was put on his defence to prove that he had no connection with the liquor.

They had gone there to a friend of Malsonville. Their purpose in going to Montreal was to have a good time. Smith swore that he was with Malsonville when he was going there to secure liquor.

Friday afternoon Malsonville left the Queen's Hotel, Montreal, and did not get back until the train was reached. Sleeping accommodation was secured for himself and his friend in the parlor car. The other man was arrested also and Smith swore that he was with Malsonville when he was going there to secure liquor.

When London was reached, police entered the car and Smith, thinking that he was going to be arrested, jumped out of the window, but was arrested by Inspector Birrell. The other man was arrested also and three suit cases and a club bag, all containing quart bottles of G. and W. whiskey, were confiscated.

Magistrate Graydon was not sure that he could find both men guilty on the same charge, and so reserved judgment.

Deaths and Funerals

BURIED AT WOODLAND. The funeral of William Turner, son of Mrs. Mary Turner and the late Samuel Turner of this city, was held privately at Mount Pleasant cemetery. Rev. John Morris conducted the services.

Mr. Turner, who had been an inmate of the Ontario Hospital for some years, died there on Sunday in his 36th year. He was born in this city.

FUNERAL AT AYLMER. The remains of George Greenham, a returned soldier, who died at Wolsley Barracks on Saturday, were forwarded to Aylmer, where interment was made yesterday.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM ESCOTT. The funeral of William Escott was held on Saturday at Mount Pleasant cemetery. Rev. A. A. Bice conducted the services. The Masonic service was conducted by C. H. Smith, John Graydon, J. A. Smith, J. B. Smith, J. E. Keenleyside, E. Smith and W. R. Grant.

FUNERAL OF H. V. BROWN. They Don't Clean Teeth In Your Way Now—Not the Men Who Know

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

They Now Combat the Film

Dental science has found a new way to clean teeth—a way that combats the film. Able authorities have proved it for years in clinical and laboratory tests. The facts are beyond any question. Leading dentists all over America now urge people to adopt it, and a million or more have done so.

This method, for home use, is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And this week we offer, to every home in this city, enough for a ten-day test. For your own sake you should make that test.

Why Teeth Discolor and Decay

You can feel on your teeth a slimy film. It is ever-present, ever-forming. It clings to the teeth, gets between the teeth, enters crevices and stays.

The tooth brush does not end it. The ordinary dentifrice does not dissolve it. So, night and day, that film may do ceaseless damage. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Also of many other troubles, local and internal.

You Must End It

Millions of people find that brushed teeth discolor and decay. Tartar forms and pyorrhea starts. Statistics show that, despite the tooth brush, tooth troubles have been constantly increasing.

The reason lies in that film. To prevent the troubles you must end the film. Let this ten-day test show you the way to do it.

Now Millions of Teeth Are Kept Whiter

Pepsodent is now applied to millions of teeth every day. The result

Based on Pepsin

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to constantly combat it.

Pepsin long seemed forbidden. It must be activated, and the usual method is an acid harmful to the teeth. What science has now found is a harmless activating method. Now pepsin can be applied twice daily—can be left between the teeth. And five years have proved that this discovery opens a new dental era.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Use like any tooth paste. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Compare the results with your present methods. Remember that those whiter teeth mean cleaner teeth—teeth kept freer from film. Then decide for yourself about going back to former cleaning methods.

Five Minutes To Eleven has not yet come for those who stayed at home

The gallant Canadian army kept right on fighting until five minutes before the Armistice was signed. The last lap of the war for those men was indeed a smashing, glorious finish!

While the fighting ended at five minutes to eleven on the morning of the eleventh of November last year, the war has not yet ended for those of us who stayed at home.

Our "Five Minutes to Eleven" has not yet come. There is a great deal more for us to do, before our war job is finished.

There are still heavy demobilization expenses to clean up. In a few short months we have brought home the troops that were transported overseas during four years of war—four years' transportation expenses crowded into a few months.

Many millions are still required to complete payment of demobilization and for other purely military expenditures.

The Victory Loan 1919 which is necessary to meet these war obligations is the great objective in the last lap for those who stayed at home.

The Canadian Corps, during the war, never lost a gun,—never once retreated and never failed to take an objective.

Keeping that glorious record in our minds, and carrying that "no surrender" fighting spirit into the new Victory Loan campaign, there can be only one result:—Success, overwhelming and triumphant.

When the figures for the Victory Loan 1919 are totalled up, the result will show the world that those of us who stayed at home have taken another glorious objective on the road to our "Five Minutes to Eleven."

THE BALTIC FLARE-UP.

A few weeks ago the Adriatic question threatened to plunge Europe into a new war. Now it is the Baltic question that holds danger of another struggle. The two cases are somewhat alike. D'Annunzio defied the Allies and seized Fiume for the glory of Italy. Von der Goltz with the only considerable army in Germany holds the Baltic Provinces in defiance of the allied council. He has been outlawed by the German Government, but has paid no heed to this repudiation, and being a true Prussian will not likely be influenced by the hunger blockade the Allies threaten to enforce against Germany. Von der Goltz is determined at any cost that the Finns, Estonians and Poles shall not retain the territory granted them by the Versailles conference, and to accomplish this has joined hands with Lenin and Trotsky in an attempt to seize Riga. Herein lies the great peril to Western Europe, for if the armies of Von der Goltz and the Russian Reds can sweep through the Baltic Provinces they will be in an admirable position for a campaign against Germany. Von der Goltz, as a real Prussian, has no regard for Bolshevism any more than he has for the socialist government that rules at Berlin, but with the ruthlessness of his caste he is quite willing to use the dreadful weapons of Lenin if it will embarrass the Allies and bring fresh turmoil at home that will give the junkers another chance to rule. The whole dangerous business is another spectacular instance to prove that the old Prussian spirit of dishonesty and ruthlessness is still alive and that the allied vigilance must never be permitted to slacken.

NATIONALIZING THE COAL MINES.

If the nationalization of the British coal mines becomes a matter to be settled directly by the British people themselves, there might be better ways of doing it than by making it the issue of a general election, but even with all the confusion that method entails it cannot be charged that there is lack of information to guide the nation in arriving at its decision. There is a tendency today to contrast the output of British coal miners with that of American workmen engaged in the same industry. Like most hasty judgments of that kind some of the essential factors are overlooked. Those who are making such contrasts today do not, for instance know to what an extent British mines have fallen away in equipment during the last five years, or that even now the materials needed to build up are scarce or unobtainable. There are mines in Great Britain today which are producing coal faster than it can be hauled away with the transportation facilities that exist. It will take time to repair the damage of five years of war before even the normal pre-war output can be looked for. Mention might also be made as a factor in the unrest existing among the coal miners, that during the war years the coal industry yielded in profits and royalties a total of $800,000,000. What did the Government's own commission say with regard to the industry? That only a systematic reorganization of the industry would secure at once the cheap coal that the nation needs and conditions of civilized life that the miners demand. The Sankey report stated clearly that the production and distribution of coal are uneconomically organized and burdened by charges that should not exist. The conclusion arrived at was that state ownership must be substituted in order to effect the necessary economies. "Wasteful and extravagant" was Sir Richard Redmayne's description of the private ownership organization of the coal mines. Apparently the commission found that there were other things besides the attitude of labor responsible for reduced output. In the Sankey report nationalization of the mines was recommended "because without it costs would not be reduced, unnecessary expenses would not be eliminated, improvements would not be undertaken, output would not be increased to the highest point practicable, and as a result the purchaser of coal would not obtain as cheap a supply as he had a right to expect."

The most outstanding economic loss in British industry today is the dissatisfaction which is pervading all workers. We speak of confidence as necessary for the investment of capital, but confidence is just as necessary for the investment by labor of what it possesses. That confidence has unquestionably been sadly shaken in Great Britain. Hon. C. G. F. Masterman, writing in the Atlantic Monthly, on social unrest in Great Britain, says that it is not Bolshevism or Socialism or even the war itself that is responsible for the upheaval that is so evident. The real cause of it all he places in the "monstrous inequalities of fortune." While some few thousand persons divide between them some hundreds of millions of the national income, more than 95 per cent of the population die possessed of property so trivial in amount as not to be worth the cost of valuing for estate-duty taxation. Moreover, as he points out, every attempt to provide, out of the vast accumulated fortunes, the money for some mitigation of the lot of the poorest, has been fiercely fought by those who possessed the land, the means of production and the "foreign tribute" of investments abroad. And the few millions of pounds exacted for old-age pensions or national insurance were the cause of greater controversies in time of peace than all the thousands of millions so lavishly scattered in time of war. So it is today. The recommendations of the Sankey commission, which mean greater possible production of coal, reduced cost of production, greatest possible health and safety of the miners and a better standard of living for the workers, are derided and denounced by the Duke of Sutherland and other mine owners as revolutionary, Bolshevik and Socialistic. To their mind neither mines nor miners have any place in life save as instruments for grinding out dividends for shareholders. They are just a few hundred years behind the times in that view.

LABOR AND LIBERALISM.

The aims of the Liberal party and the aims of the Labor party vary little. It is from the Liberal party reforms have come both in Great Britain and in Canada. The aims of Labor, in Great Britain, as set forth by the Right Honorable Arthur Henderson, are democratic aims. He says: "Though there is no divine right of kings and princes, there is the divine right of peoples; and all the peoples of the world are beginning to realize more and more each day that the 'new kingdom on earth' can only be established by a full recognition of these divine rights—the rights of liberty and equality. These are the springs of democratic faith. They are the spiritual basis of real democracy. "The coming of world democracy means the universal reign of freedom and justice, equality and fraternity. It contemplates the creation of a national democratic party founded upon the organized working class movement, and open to every worker who labors by hand or brain." The spirit of the Labor party, as set forth by Mr. Henderson is the spirit of liberty, equality and fraternity. It is the spirit upon which the republic of the United States was formed. "All men are born free and equal" is another way of expressing it. In the early days it is said that Daniel Webster went to market in Washington with a basket on his arm. No man had the spirit of democracy to a greater extent or a greater love for humanity than Abraham Lincoln. But time changes all things, and the bigger and more powerful the country became the plainer became the line defined between "Jack and his master," who in the early days were said to be equal.

Labor has no better friend in Canada than the Liberal leader, the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. His grandfather, W. L. Mackenzie, might have had an easy time of it if he had joined the Family Compact, but he preferred to remain with the Reformers of that day and remedy the evils under which the people lived and suffered.

THE GRAND TRUNK DEAL.

Hegel, the philosopher, once said: "In the history of the world something else is generally brought out by means of the actions of individual men than they themselves aim at or attain, than they directly know of or will; they achieve their own ends, but something farther is brought to pass in connection with their acts, which also lies therein, but which did not lie in their consciousness or purposes." Taking over the Grand Trunk by the Government would only be the first step. The future would be mystery. Many millions of Canadian securities held in England during war times been sold. If Canadian securities are given for the Grand Trunk they too are likely to be sold. Every dollar that finds a foreign purchaser weakens to that extent the tie that binds Canada to Great Britain. It is quite apparent that the Grand Trunk does not want to sell; it is being coerced. The Government coercing it obtained power through the war time franchise act. That act amounted to usurpation. It is not a government that represents the people. If the Government forces the sale it will make Great Britain feel "how sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child." It will be a great mistake as a financial operation and disloyal to Great Britain to forcibly take over the Grand Trunk. Public ownership of railways cannot pay and serve the public. It has failed in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. If added to that, British connection is severed or weakened it will be a national disaster for Canada.

It is impossible to foresee the result of so great a mistake. It has nothing to recommend it, but as Hegel points out, "something they did not aim at or attain, something they did not know of or will" is likely to result. The immensity of the proposition requires caution. "The cautious seldom err."

Parliament should remember its debt to Great Britain and the Grand Trunk. It was the Grand Trunk that enabled Canada to emerge from the woods, and to become one of the finest countries in the world. What progress could Canada have made without British capital? Canada should adopt government control but not government ownership, and, recognizing its great obligation to the Grand Trunk, help it if it needs help, but leave it in the hands of those who now control it.

THE LATEST CLEMENCEAU MOT.

Another piece of M. Clemenceau's wit is delighting the town. At a meeting of the Inter-Allied committee last week there was a question what time they would resume in the afternoon. Signor Tittoni did not want it too early, because he liked to have his siesta early in the afternoon. Mr. Lansing did not want it too late, for he wanted to have his drive in the Bois and then his siesta before dinner. M. Clemenceau then summed up. "The meeting will be at three," he said. "Signor Tittoni can sleep before it, Mr. Lansing can sleep after it, and Mr. Balfour and I can sleep during it."

From Here and There

STEEL EXTRAORDINARY. Steel that may be driven through a piece of wrought iron over an inch thick—that is hard enough to cut glass like a diamond, and yet so flexible that it may be bent without breaking—is described in the Scientific American (New York, August 2), following the announcement of an American company that manufactures all grades of steel. The steel, the manufacturer states, has a wide temperature range, as it may be heated anywhere between 1,650 and 1,950 degrees Fahrenheit, and yet give good results. We read: "The steel seems to have its greatest value when heated to 1,750 to 1,800 degrees, quenched in oil and slightly drawn. The drawing, it is stated, does not seem to affect the hardness of the steel, but it helps the toughness. Many theories can be evolved as to just what this slight drawing is of such assistance to this steel, but metallographically there is no evidence of difference between straight hardened steel and that which has been drawn. The same ening and hardening agent is used in the micro-scope, yet there is a great deal of difference between the two heat treatments. "A point emphasized is that the head of a chisel made of the new steel will not shiver. It is also stated that the head of the chisel can be heat-treated so that it may be filed, yet it will not break out or crack. It will spread, but it will not split, yet the top of the head does not take on a very glassy surface, and seems to have a grip on the hammer-face when it is struck. "It is pointed out that metallographically the steel is peculiar. It seems to have a very fine structure, which is difficult to define. It may be a solid solution, which is generally regarded as austenite, or it may be martensite. It seems under the microscope to have an appearance of a lower magnification of the whole of the structure of steel, yet it has the characteristics of none. Under high magnification of 1,200 diameters the structure appears to be somewhat like martensite, yet the martensite appears to be lamellar rather than the usual 60 degree marking. "The grain boundaries, which are particularly tenacious, have the coloring effect of troostite, yet they do not have the usual troostite formation. The troostite does not seem to form in round spots at the grain boundaries in Seminoe steel, but seems to have the characteristic of broadening out the grain boundary into a dark line. From this stage the entire grain begins to each a little more rapidly and take on a deeper color, but the ground mass of the grain does not appear in the transformation from austenite, martensite, troostite and sorbite as understood as applying to the usual form of alloy steels or carbon steels."

WALKING AT NIGHT.

[Amory Here.] My face is wet with the rain, But my heart is warm to the core, But I follow at will again the road that I loved of yore; And the dim trees beat the dark, And the swelling ditches moan, But my heart is a singing, soaring lark, For I travel the road alone. Alone in the living night, Alone from the babble of tongues; Alone with the old night, Away from the night wind in my lungs. And the wet air on my cheeks, And the warm blood in my veins, Alone with the joy he knows who seeks The thresh of the young spring rains, With the smell of the pelted earth, The tearful drip of the trees, Making him dream of the land of mirth That comes with the clearing breeze. 'Tis a rare and wondrous sight To tramp the wet a while And watch the slow delight Of the sun's first pale smile. And hear the meadows breathe again, And see the far woods turn green, Drunk with the glory of wind and rain And the sun's warm smile between! I have made me a vagrant song, For my heart is warm to the core, And I'm glad, oh, glad, that the night is long, For I travel the road all more, And the dim trees beat the dark, And the swelling ditches moan, With the joy of the singing, soaring lark I travel the road alone!

MILLIONS FOR THE DYE WAR.

Germany's expected competition in the manufacture of dyes is being forestalled by the expenditure of millions of dollars by American manufacturers. We are told by the American Exporter (New York, August), quoting a recent bulletin of the American Chemical Society. All that energy and research can do, we are assured, is being directed toward perfection of the royal blue and violet vat dyes. One large corporation has already expended $1,800,000 in experiments. We are informed: "Vat dyes, like indigo, are insoluble in water, certain chemical bodies, but when treated with certain chemicals hold compounds which can be dissolved in alkaline solutions. These compounds on being exposed to the air are acted upon by the oxygen in such a way that the original color, matter forms anew in the fiber which has been dyed, thus what appears to be a liquid as clear as water in the vats is often the source of brilliant hues. Vat colors have their characteristic fastness because of the very insolubility of the original dye-stuffs. Fabrics dyed with them resist the action of washing, of light, and strong soaps. "The great cost of promoting a native dye industry comes in putting to race the laboratory. Of the hundreds of dyes which were manufactured abroad before 1914, there is scarcely one which could not be made by American chemists on the wholesale laboratory scale, however. There are many obstacles which can only be overcome by practice. For example, one of the largest plants engaged in the manufacture of American vat dyes expended in one year $245,000 in developing the factory process of a certain dye. Owing to unexpected difficulties in manufacture, it has been able to produce only $30,000 worth of the dye. These difficulties, however, are being rapidly overcome. "The American dye industry, however, has especially come up out of the tribulation of the world war. Owing to the ability of Germany to dump surplus products on the market before the war, the country virtually enjoyed a monopoly in dyestuffs. The schemes of the Junkers provided that the dye industry of Germany should not only be a means of trade warfare, but should be a basis of military operations, as its huge plants were turned almost overnight into factories for the making of high explosives. The American manufacturers of dyes immediately devoted themselves toward the development of their infant industry, and, although they were handicapped by the fact that toiled, one of the derivatives of coal tar largely used in their art, was needed by the government, they were able within a short time to give relief to the textile mills, which otherwise would have had to close for lack of sufficient colors. They are now able to provide most of the colors required by the various industries of the United States, and are determined that they will finally develop the processes for vat dyes that they will be able to meet all competition. "As these colors are greatly needed, it has been proposed that they may be imported from foreign countries for the next five years under special license. They would be subject to the usual tariff, according to the legislation now being considered by the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives, which has been holding extensive hearings on the dye situation."

CLEAN THE CHIMNEYS.

Cooler weather demands the lighting of heaters and furnaces. Before this is done, however, chimneys, flues and stove pipes should be thoroughly cleaned out and made safe. This is not a difficult matter, and is much preferable to being turned out of the house on a cold night by a fire caused by dirty pipes or chimneys. Some surprises might be caused to the owner of a building damaged by fire from such a cause if the insurance company declined to pay the loss. This the company has a perfect right to do, as it is distinctly stated on all fire insurance policies that the company is not responsible for fires caused by negligence on the part of the insured. The act to amend the criminal code respecting prevention of fire, passed at the last session of Parliament, distinctly states: "Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years imprisonment who by negligence causes any fire which occasions loss of life or loss of property." With the possible loss of insurance and two years imprisonment as a penalty, it is not wise for the householder to neglect his stove pipes and chimneys.

CAYUGA RECITAL. CAYUGA, Oct. 10.—The recital given in the Methodist church by the pupils of Miss Eliza Lent drew a good crowd. The pupils acquitted themselves well, and Dr. Billings assisted Miss Lint by two well-rendered vocal solos. The annual convention of the Haldimand Teachers' Association will be held in the public school, Cayuga, on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 15 and 16. Some good papers are expected. The first of the season's games of soft ball was played on Tuesday evening at the high school team and "Married Men." The latter going down to defeat by a score of 29 to 23. The second game of the season, to have been played on Thursday evening, was postponed until Tuesday next.

DEWS OF EVE No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv't.

"Man does not live for himself alone"

In the Stone Age every man had to protect himself against the rest of the community. Nowadays the community protects itself against the man. It also protects him. In return for this protection the individual must contribute to the common good.

NO man can injure his own body and mind without injuring the community of which he is a part. Alcohol deprives the man of his ability to contribute his full share towards the production and conservation of Ontario's wealth.

Alcohol adds to the burden of fighting and preventing crime. The many should not have to carry this burden for the sake of the appetites of the few. It is not fair to the community—it is not consistent.

You acknowledge the community's right to protect itself in many other ways—why not against the use of the poison, alcohol? For instance:

- 1. For protection of the public health the community compels you to submit to the quarantining of your own children if they contract contagious disease. You must keep your own premises clean and sanitary.
2. For protection against illiteracy the community compels you to send your own children to school.
3. For protection of property you are not permitted to erect a frame building on your own land if it be dangerous to the safety of surrounding property.
4. The law does not permit you to take into your own body habit-forming drugs such as opium, cocaine and morphine.

In Fairness, Consistency and Duty Vote "No" for the Common Good

The common law provides scores of examples of restrictions protecting the community and the individual. You accept as being just and right the restrictions they place upon your own premises, your own family, and your own body. Then why in the name of consistency should the community protect your wealth, protect your family, and your body in the name of consistency, fairness and duty every citizen should vote to retain The Ontario Temperance Act, and against the sale of the so-called "light" beer. To do this—

Low Pay of Jap Factory Girls Amid Worst Living Condition

A Few Companies See That Inhuman Methods Do Not Pay, and Are Improving State of Empl oyes.

The average pay of factory girls of Japan is $4.67 a month, according to statistics.

The matter of a living wage is a changeable quantity; it varies with seasons and localities. In Canada the country of the comparatively high wage, a person who receives only $4.67 a month—is most surely to be pitied. She is just as much to be pitied in Japan.

While the high cost of living in Japan is very low compared with Canadian experiences in that time, $4.67 a month, together with bad working conditions, strikes an average that threatens alike the economic, physical, moral and spiritual life of the worker.

Long Hours.

While the Christian missionaries have helped to better the living conditions of many women in Japan, they have been able to do very little for the 700,000 women and girls who make their living in the big, modern factories. There is little opportunity to reach them. They labor twelve hours a day—in some cases sixteen and eighteen—with an hour or two thrown in to clean up after their work is done. Unless the factory owner or employer is a Christian and makes provision for the moral and physical welfare of his workers, little can be done for them. There is an entering wedge here made by Christian missionaries, and the campaign of the church to expand all its activities is designed in part to take advantage of this opening.

$1.20 a Month for Food.

Out of her $4.67—the average monthly earnings of a woman factory worker—the girl must pay $1.20 a month for food. As that is less than the cost of her food the factory pays the remainder, $3.47 a month. Yet out of this meager pay the average factory girl sends home 50 cents a month, for she earns more money than almost any other class of women worker in Japan.

The majority of Japanese factories run day and night shifts of twelve hours each, with thirty minutes off for dinner and fifteen minutes for rest in the forenoon and afternoon. Holidays are rare and uncertain—two or three in a year at most.

The majority of the factory girls are from 15 to 20 years old, though often girls from 7 to 12 may be found working there. Measures proposed by the Japanese Government to ameliorate the conditions of factory employment, according to the Rev. Sidney L. Gulick, a long a missionary in Japan, have been brought to naught through the refusal of the legislative branch of the government to pass such measures.

Factory Dormitories.

Some of the factories have dormitories in which the girls live. They are carefully kept inside the dormitories. In many cases for fear they will desert. The period for which the girls "sign up" for factory work is three years. Out of every thousand girls, statistics show that 270 work less than six months in the same place, 300 less than one year, 179 less than two years, and 141 less than five years. Only 89 pass the five-year period. The reason for this is that the health of the girls breaks down under the long, hard work and the bad hygienic conditions under which they work and live.

A few companies "Treat Girls Well." The Kanegafuchi Company, the Gunze Seishi Kwaisha of Ayabe, and the Fuji Cotton Spinning Company are said to be very generous to their employees. The terms of employment, wages paid, provisions for health, recreation, bathing, education, and public lectures on ethical and religious subjects compare favorably with the best to be found in Canada.

The Christian valuation of womanhood permeating Japan, has helped greatly toward making the factory living and working conditions much better than they were ten and fifteen years ago. It has been found that ill-treatment of employees does not pay, and that humane reasons more humanitarian methods have been adopted.

secrets, seems to lend itself peculiarly to a masquerade affair, and if such is the intent of the hostess, guests should be requested to come in costume.

Among the many games that may be suggested for All-Hallows Eve Party, none are so welcome as those dealing with fate and fortune. One of the first to be suggested is the "Fortune Hunt."

Hide around the room a ring, thimble and bit of money. To the finder of the ring, marriage is assured, the thimble denotes single blessedness, and the money promises wealth.

Threading the Needle.—Sit on a round bottle laid lengthwise on the floor and try to thread a needle. The first to succeed will be first married.

Another needle game is to name two greased needles for people of the opposite sexes. These are floated in a basin of water, and the future behavior of the couple towards each other is supposed to be denoted in the manner in which one needle clings to or separates from the other.

What would Halloween be without an apple-paring test? Each guest is given an apple and knife, requested to peel apple without breaking the skin; then swing paring around the head and let it drop to the floor over the left shoulder. The letter formed is initial of future mate's name. If all the players start together, the one who finishes her apple first will be soonest married.

Ducking for apples is another time-honored sport for Halloween. In one tub half filled with water are placed apples, to the stems of which are tied bits of paper containing the names of the boys present, while across the room is a similar tub in which the names of the girls are placed. With hands tied behind them, the players endeavor to lift out an apple with their teeth, and, of course, the name attached to the apple is that of the future helpmeet of the "fisher."

Another test of the fates requires great bravery on the part of the fair sex. It consists in walking around the house or block at midnight, having an empty bowl in a symbol of bachelor or spinster life.

When an open fire is available, the girls and boys enjoy roasting chestnuts together. Each places a chestnut to roast side by side. If one hisses and steams, it indicates a bad temper in the owner; if both equally misbehave it augurs strife. If one or both pop it turns to ashes quietly side by side, a long life of united happiness is surely in store.

Some additional ideas will be given within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lytton Macdougall are spending the week-end with Mr. Macdougall's parents, Shea apartments.

The opening meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Church, was held on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. C. C. Waller addressed the gathering. Mrs. H. Ashby was in the chair.

LEWIS-MAHAR.

A quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahar, when their eldest daughter, Charlotte, was united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Rutherford of Avon, to Herbert E. Lewis of Crampton, second son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis.

The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chine trimmed with lace and pearls, entered on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Miss Edna Mahar, sister of the bride. During the signing of the register, a duet was sung by two girl friends of the bride. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served by four girl friends.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Dear Miss Grey,—I am calling again on your cozy corner. My Mail-Box is coming to life again. What has become of Missy Dinah? Did she never return from that sojourn in Paris? Sheanpole must have picked her flimsy gossamer wings, and can't fly. I can't write you a letter, and can't get a copy of that piece, "When Father Takes the Goat." I guess someone must have mounted that piece, and sent it off without the piece. I am inclosing the words for Cynthia's "Warning." "Answer to the Gypsy's pattern," but I remember she had one to exchange. Where is it still has it to spare? The leaves are falling, and I have been raking them up for the chickens to scatter among in the winter; they do just as well as straw, which seems to be a scarce thing this year.

Ans.—Thank you for the BLIM. I have forwarded it to my friend Sunshine. I will be sure to save the leaves to take the place of straw will no doubt appeal to others interested in winter care of chickens.

Come Right In.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am calling again at your cozy corner. I noticed in the paper a few days ago where a girl signed herself, A Lover in Trouble. Well, I would be ashamed to call myself such a name at her age. I am seventeen and have no thoughts whatever about fellows. I also will join hands with Sister of Tea and Pussy Willow, although I am a little older, and I think there are a few more girls a little older than who aren't thinking about fellows yet.

That is sure some Urge. She makes 'em to the mark, for instance, Scottie frae Dundee. I don't think I would like to come and read those letters, if he really had to.

Do you think I am awfully heavy for my age? I am 5 feet 10 1/2 inches tall, and am not stout at all, but very heavy bone, weigh 145 pounds.

I wonder if you have a piece of pattern is worn out yet. If not could I get it, and I will pass it on to the neighbors. I always read the Mail-Box column, what there is of it so far as, and Winnifred Black. Some of the silliest letters come to Winnifred I ever read. They would send you crazy. It is am sending a recipe for a pie. It is good. Good-bye, Everybody.

NURSE'S SISTER.

Carmel Pie—Brown butter, size of an egg in a skillet, add 3-4 cup of brown sugar and let dissolve; add 2 teaspoons of flour, 1 egg, 2 cups of milk, pinch of salt, 1/2 teaspoon of vanilla. Boil until thickens and put in baked crust.

Also a recipe for removing perspiration. For Perspiration Stains—if a garment becomes badly stained with perspiration put it in soft lukewarm water and wash with common Indian meal instead of soap, and the stain will quickly disappear. Rub it well in to stained place with your hands, then on the washboard. This will remove stains of long standing, and will not injure the most delicate material.

Ans.—Thank you for both recipes, considering your height I do not think you would be too heavy in build. A foot pattern is sent with pleasure.

For Halloween Entertaining.

Several requests have been received by Miss Grey for suggestions for entertaining at Halloween parties, and the following ideas are offered for the benefit of all. The decorations are a primary consideration, and their attractiveness and novelty add much to the enjoyment of the affair. To the hostess residing in the city or town, many unique and novel ideas are suggested, and a roll of orange crepe paper will form decorations of a decidedly attractive nature. There is nothing more grotesque than a few grinning, lighted Jack-o'-lanterns, and for a table centre a medium-sized pumpkin, nicely hollowed out and filled with goldenrod or some of the late garden flowers, with woody vines trailing over the side, answers splendidly. Yellow-shaded lights, autumn leaves, apples and corn, also help to form effective decorations about the room.

Say Chiclets!

When you get your change at the restaurant counter—
—at the drug store or grocer's—
—at the cigar store or fruit store, hand back the odd nickel and get a yellow-and-gold packet of ten Chiclets.

Between your teeth break the seal of candy-coating and enjoy the invigorating peppermint flavor. Note how it refreshes you, sweetens your mouth, drives away thirst. Chiclets—dainty in size and shape—are gum in its most popular form—"Really Delightful."

In packets, ten for 5c. Everywhere. And most stores carry the generous size "Week-End" packet, 25c.

GEERS CELEBRATES RETURN TO CIRCUIT BY BEATING MURPHY

Opening Card at Atlanta Gives Grace Direct a Victory Before Large Crowd.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 13.—Grace Direct won the 2:05 pace for a purse of $2,500, the feature of the opening card of the Grand Circuit races at the Lakewood track here today. The race went to Grace Direct in straight heats, the best time being 2:02 3/4. The popular event of the day was the battle between Pop Geers and Murphy for first honors in the 2:12 pacing event, which Geers won by making two heats and a third. Wood Patch, piloted by Murphy, took second place in each heat. The 2:09 pace went to Lou Todd, driven by Vic Fleming, in straight heats. The 2:30 southern horse races, a feature of the races in this section, drew six entrants, and was won by Edie Burrell, a Tennessee mare, owned and driven by W. W. Tolley, Columbia, Tennessee. The Tennessee mare took the race in straight heats, her best time being 2:13 3/4. The week's racing here, which winds up the 1915 Grand Circuit season, drew a great crowd, despite the sudden turn of weather that made the concrete stands uncomfortable. Western U. Spring Surprise and 13-3 Defeat on St. Michaels

Locals Outweighed and Outplayed Tricky Toronto Crew and Uncovered Wealth of Possibilities For Future in Inter-collegiate Series—Long Kicks and Dazzling End Runs Featured Open Interesting Pastime.

Western U. surprised St. Mike's, the largest crowd of fans that has turned out to a football game in some months, and undoubtedly themselves, in their win over the Toronto outfit by a score of 13 to 3, in the exhibition inter-collegiate game staged at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. The affair was a curtain-raiser in the way of inter-collegiate affairs, and a stand full of fans with a Missouri attitude were shown to their entire satisfaction that Western U. cannot be overlooked when serious possibilities are being thrown around. Some of the football was decidedly bad, but it went to the other extreme for the most part, and both teams played the brand of football that makes interesting watching. Considering that Coach Brock's outfit, the great majority of them, had to have the game explained to them a few weeks back, the best that was expected was a close margin. Instead, a nice blump win was served up, and a game that had the crowd thrilled at frequent intervals with beautiful runs and long boots.

St. Mike's Light. Father Carr's team was light, but their play showed the results of good coaching in a number of clever trick plays and fast passing, and altogether they played a clean, fast game. Dwyer, their left half, was tricky and serpentine in his way through to safety on numerous occasions. The local collegians lived up to their form shown in workouts. For the first two periods their line holding had a collar effect, but luckily the visitors were running into the thick of things instead of finding the holes. At intervals the line holding showed all sorts of promise. The locals' tackling was uncertain at times, but extremely effective when they grabbed anything but the ground. They went through for gains at will almost. Macpherson tricked right through the centre, but their attempts at the end side of the game fell down from lack of good passing and general business. Cline, who was directing the attack, played a marvelous game with hands, feet and head at the wing position. Several times he breezed down the field with runs that brought the crowd to its feet, and in the third quarter, after making a beautiful run from under a puzzling spiral almost to touch, repeated the performance a few moments later, for a try this time. As a booter, Traynor is a whole leather industry in himself, and even in the early stages when his was not protecting him any too well he coolly booted for long ones, two of which in the latter stages of the game should have been bucked over for tries. Father Carr handed the referee's whistle and Mel Brock officiated as judge of play, and both kept the game going full speed, and little got away that mattered in the result.

In the first period the visitors settled down to end runs, but play surged fumbles giving them most of the downs. From side to side, with St. Mike's St. Mike's slid down to the local 25-yard territory and kicked for their first dead line point. London was in St. Mike's premises and alternately at the line-ups were: Western U. St. Michael's. Cline (Capt.) Flying Wing; O'Brien (Capt.) Half Back; Dwyer (Capt.) Quarter; Traynor (Capt.) London O.R.F.U. Lose to Petrolea Hard Oils

Hold Own in First Period, But Against Long Boots of Petrolea Vets Show Lack of Conditioning and Results of Enforced Patching Up by Coach Reid.

[By Staff Reporter.] London lost the second game of the intermediate O. R. F. U. series by a score of 13 to 2, at Petrolea yesterday afternoon. Lack of practice proved to be the stumbling block of the locals. Finally, during the last session of the game, the team-play did not run smoothly, and after the first quarter the Petrolea men had everything their own way. They took advantage of the wind at every opportunity, gaining most of their points by long and good booting, and being in better condition than the Londoners, outpaced and outplayed them. A good start was made by London in the first quarter, when the wind was behind the team. Several good kicks from Henderson, who played centre half, shook the "hard oil" players off their metal at first and caused them to make a number of fumbles. The play was mostly confined to the quarter field at the Petrolea end. But at the latter part of the quarter the aggressiveness of the locals seemed to lag slightly after one point had been chalked to their credit. Then Petrolea gained the assistance

They lost to the Hard Oils of Petrolea yesterday in their patched-up condition. The above collection, among whom are numbered Fitzgerald, Hogg, Weid, McKendrick, Clinger, Fisher, Chester Smith, Coach Reid, Little, Duffield, Henderson and Ferguson, form the basis of a real team that should on paper have the district won. Their defeat yesterday will likely result in a comeback to the game in earnest of some dietary candidates.

The attendance was greater, morning, and at noon a chicken dinner and the enthusiasm shown was better than in any previous year. The ladies were partaken of. In the afternoon the matches contested the gentlemen in the friendly time, and the day was brought to a close on account of the condition of the week on account of the condition of the matches between the two sexes in a close tonight by a fine supper. The Gilbert medal handicap, which was to have been played off this morning was postponed until the latter part of the week on account of the condition of the grounds.

ALLIED CRUISERS ASSISTING IN THE DEFENCE OF RIGA

For Five Days Lettish Troops Have Been Engaged in Beating Off German Attacks—Enemy Repeatedly Repulsed in Efforts to Close Duna River.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 13.—The Letts have recrossed the Duna River in the direction of Wenden and occupied the suburbs of Riga, according to a telegram from the Lettish Press Bureau from Wenden, Livonia, 50 miles northeast of Riga.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 13.—Allied cruisers are aiding in the defence of Riga against German attacks, which for five days have been incessant and stubborn, according to a communication issued by the Lettish foreign office Sunday. Riga is being bombarded by the enemy. The communication follows: "For five days the Lettish troops before Riga have been engaged in beating off incessant, stubborn German attacks. The Germans are bombarding the unfortified town of Riga. Cruisers belonging to the allied powers are participating in the defence."

"The Germans repeatedly have been repulsed in attempts to force the Duna River."

SITUATION DESPERATE.
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 13.—The situation of the Lettish troops in Riga is desperate, according to dispatches from Helzingfors. The German and Russian troops are expected to force the passage of the Duna River, which separates the main body of Colonel Aivaloff-Bernold's troops from the main portion of Riga, at any moment. The old town of Riga and the port have been greatly damaged. It is said many civilians have been killed or wounded.

MILLION DOLLARS TO BE SPENT ON RUBBER PLANT AT KITCHENER

MONTREAL, July 11.—The Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, Limited, has decided to spend immediately one million dollars on their factory at Kitchener, Ont., for the purpose of substantially increasing the output of the plant.

SOLDIERS PERMITS TO ENTER SWITZERLAND

INTRIGUE BETWEEN RUSSIANS AND GERMANS OF LONG STANDING

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A dispatch to the Manchester Guardian from Berlin reports that the Russo-German intrigue is of very long standing, an eastern adventure having been in the minds of military reactionaries in Berlin since the beginning of the year. It will be remembered, the dispatch adds, that the far-reaching possibility of such a measure almost tempted independent action on the part of German armies in the east at the critical moment of the ratification of the peace treaty in the national assembly at Weimar. For months, the correspondent states, intense recruiting for the army in the Baltic has been going on in Germany, not only for the so-called "iron division" and other German detachments, but also for nominally Russian forces. Russian officers, often Russians only in uniform, are a familiar sight in Berlin and elsewhere throughout the country. Recruits, largely from South Germany, are continually passing through by railway. Many of these wear Russian uniforms, but most of them are in the German field grey with Russian shoulder straps and cockades. In addition there has been an organization of a militia or landwehr from among the residents of the Baltic provinces. Youths have been induced to enlist partly by the romance of military adventure and partly by offers of citizenship in the proposed new state and land upon which they may form agricultural colonies, but the main argument has been the fear of the distress and anxiety awaiting them in Germany if they were demobilized. Their reluctance to return home is intelligible, the more so because the intense political propaganda by their superiors is directed as much against republican Germany as against soviet Russia. The Independent Socialist newspaper, "Frische Luft," retorts in a clear tone that if this army retreats into East Prussia a monarchist and militarist coup is seriously to be feared.

GERMANY SAYS HER TROOPS IN BALTIC NOT AGGRESSORS

BERLIN, Oct. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—An official statement is published, denying formally the allegation in the Lettish appeal to the League that German troops in the Baltic provinces have done everything possible to support Bolshevism and have attacked the Letts from the rear. The German rejoinder declares this statement is contrary to the truth and is an abhorrent measure of agitation against Germany. Germany has not broken the peace, it is declared, but on the contrary has done everything to enforce the terms of peace in the case of misled troops in a portion of the Baltic provinces. It is a matter of record, it is declared, that the Baltic troops (Germans) have not been the attackers, but that their return to Germany has been delayed and hindered by hostile acts of the Letts and Estonians. The statement avers that it is the Letts who are assisting Bolshevism in every way possible, including measures to prevent Russian troops reaching the front against the Bolsheviks.

UMPIRES FAIL TO GET $2,000 FOR WORK IN SERIES

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Instead of holding a formal session here today August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, and the other members of the board, discussed the final details of the world's series by telephone yesterday. Herrmann announced today. The Commission decided to give the four umpires, who officiated in the world's series, the usual compensation of $1,000 and $250 extra, plus the expense of reaching the respective destinations from Chicago, and not to allow the full $2,000 asked for.

TRIAL ON FURTHER CHARGES AGAINST FRITCH CONTINUES

Detroit Doctor, Convicted of Manslaughter, Faces Three More Charges.

DETROIT, Oct. 13.—Dr. George A. Fritch, convicted of manslaughter last week in the recorder's court following the death of a woman on whom he had performed an illegal operation, was placed on trial again today. This time he is charged with performing an illegal operation on a young unmarried woman on July 25, 1912. She was one of the women found in Dr. Fritch's hospital when it was raided several weeks ago. She will appear as a complaining witness. The prosecutor still has two more cases which will follow as soon as they can be brought to trial. These trials will go on despite the outcome of the case started today.

JACKSON WINS 16-MILE BICYCLE ROAD RACE

Does Wind in 46:30 From Scratch at Brantford—Jackson and Wilson Next Up.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 13.—In the fast time of 46:30 from scratch, Herbert Jackson carried off honors in the Harrington Bros. sixteen mile bicycle road race here in glorious weather this morning. The course ran twice around Tutela Heights, with only fair going and much of the course uphill, and the time recorded was more than good. V. Jackson and J. Wilson carried off second and third respectively, while other well-known names who took part were J. Shannon, Cecil Bowman, W. and H. Fulcher and Fred Shaw. All the winners used racing wheels. The race drew out a big crowd.

SLIDE OF GRAVEL SMOTHERED TO DEATH LEAMINGTON MAN

J. W. Smith, Former School Principal, Buried Alive Under Gravel Cave-In.

LEAMINGTON, Oct. 13.—J. W. Smith, who had been principal of the Leamington public school for more than twenty years, was buried and smothered to death in a gravel pit here this morning when a slide of gravel fell on him from above. Ben Ineson, with whom Smith was helping to load a wagon of gravel, escaped with only slight injuries. Mr. Smith was widely known as a ridge fruit grower. He is survived by his wife and three children.

GERMAN PORTS ARE TRYING TO RECOVER SHIPPING INDUSTRY

Doing Everything Possible To Save Something Out of the Wreck.

Hamburg, Oct. 11.—The Hansatic ports and Hamburg, in particular, are doing everything they can to stimulate shipping and save something from the wreck of Germany's maritime prestige. At all the ports old sailing vessels are being re-equipped for service, while Hamburg has appealed to the government for economic relief. Germany's sailing fleet consists of 1,000 vessels of which 82 are being refitted as rapidly as possible. German goods principally from Avon, Santa Catalina Island, Cal., and Clyde Opelt, Jr., son of an Avon hotelkeeper, is believed to be the only youth in the country who goes to school in an airplane. The school he attends is in the San Fernando Valley, in Los Angeles County, fifty miles from home. Of this distance, thirty miles is over sea. Clyde leaves home every Monday morning in an airplane and returns the same way Friday night.

HOLIDAY CATTLE TRADE SLOW AND WEAK AT TORONTO

Large Part of Run Will Be Offered Today—Hogs Lower.

TORONTO, Oct. 13.—The receipts at the Union Stock Yards today amounted to 319 cars—5,065 cattle, 710 calves, 1,601 hogs and 627 sheep. Cattle trade was slow, as is usual on a holiday, and prices weak, to 25 cents easier. A good part of the run will be offered on Tuesday. Calves held about steady, but lambs were much easier. Hogs advanced to $18.25, fed and watered, but packers are bidding a quarter lower on Tuesday's market.

War Expenditure in Australia Was $311,500,000

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 13.—(Reuter Dispatch).—In the Federal House of Representatives, Hon. Mr. Poynton, minister without portfolio, in introducing the budget said that the total revenue for 1918-19 was $44,075,000, while the expenditure was over $245,000,000, of which $21,025,000 was due to the war.

SUBMERSIBLE CRUISERS WILL FORM BACKBONE OF NEW BRITISH NAVY

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The political correspondent of the Evening News says there probably will be a great change in Great Britain's naval policy with the advent of Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty as first sea lord, in succession of Vice-Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, who resigned last week. Vice-Admiral Beatty's friends, says the correspondent, declare that he believes the future warship will be an oil-driven submarine battle cruiser, and that the admiral's plans may be shaped in accordance with this belief. The dreadnaught will not be altogether eliminated, but it will be considered of secondary importance.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO - PHOSPHATE

Guaranteed To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and To Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that the best nerve food is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

Weak, tired people regain strength and vigor; thinness and anasarca give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace dejection and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks.

CAUTION.—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its direct action on the nervous system, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Adv.

MOTORCYCLIST DIES FOLLOWING CRASH IN RACE

Woodstock Track Scene of Accident—Thomas Murray, Toronto, Succumbs.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 11.—The motorcycle and bicycle meet held here today was marred by a fatal accident. Tommy Murray, motorcycle rider of Toronto, lost his life in the first lap of the five-mile side-car race. The judges decided to flag the contestants while they were coming down the stretch at the end of their half-mile at a clip said to be close to 70 miles an hour.

One of the riders caught the flag, and struck out his hand to warn his pursuers that he was stopping. Murray, coming close behind with his head down, did not notice the flag or the action of the driver in front of him, and ran into the car. Murray's car was overturned, and he was thrown in the air. Another car fell on him. When he was picked up it was found his neck and back were both broken. He died on the track two minutes after the accident. He had been a member of the R. A. F. Six months ago he married a Montreal girl, who was present at the track, and witnessed the fatal accident to her husband. The remains are now at Paul's Undertaking Parlors, and will be shipped on Tuesday to either Montreal or to his home in New Brunswick.

LIBERAL CAUCUS TO CONSIDER ATTITUDE TO G. T. R. PURCHASE

Action Should Be Deferred Until Regular Session.

Information Wanted
Opposition Will Ask For Names of Stockholders, Obligations, Etc.

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—The Liberals will hold a caucus on Tuesday morning to consider the attitude of the party in the House in connection with the legislation covering the proposed acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway System. Individual members tonight expressed the view that after bringing down all the information available, and a general discussion of the merits of the railway proposals in the House, the Government should allow Parliament to defer final action until the regular session, which should be called before the end of January or early in February.

They claim that the Government, early in last week, intimated that the session was practically over, and that legislation of such great importance should not be introduced with the intention of putting it through this session, more particularly as Sir Alfred Smithers must secure the consent of the Grand Trunk board of directors.

The resolution made public on Friday will appear on the order paper tomorrow for the first time, and under the rules of the House it is hardly possible that it can be proceeded with before Wednesday, as it is customary to give formal notice of the day on which discussion is to be commenced. It is practically certain that when such notice is given the Liberals will ask for information as to the holders of the Grand Trunk stock to be acquired, the obligations to be immediately and ultimately assumed by the country, including those by the Grand Trunk Pacific receivership.

It is regarded as unlikely that the Government will listen to any suggestion that final action should be deferred until the next session, and the Grand Trunk bill will be pressed through both Houses before prorogation.

Giant Airplane Pays Visit to Edison's Home

Note Is Dropped From "Greatest Machine" To "Greatest Inventor."

MINEOLA, L.I., N.Y., Oct. 11.—Completing its trip from Patuxent, Md., to Mineola by landing here today after a short "stop" from Greenport, where it had been forced to descend for lack of fuel, the giant Handley-Page bomber "Atlantic," piloted by the veteran British aviator Vice-Admiral Mark Kerr, immediately took off again to visit New York and Thomas A. Edison's home in New Jersey.

Carrying ten persons the machine headed straight for New York's financial district, circled three times around the Woolworth building, and then crossed the Hudson. At West Orange, Dr. M. R. Hutchinson, a passenger and former associate of Mr. Edison's, dropped a note, which read:

"Salutations from the air from the greatest land machine in the world to the greatest inventor in the world."

On its return the machine passed over Hill Gate at an altitude of 3,000 feet and then "did" Fifth avenue, Major Maurice Connelly, of the American Flying Club, another passenger, dropped a letter to his colleagues at their headquarters.

RACE SUICIDE CREATES DANGEROUS SITUATION

LONDON, Oct. 11.—(Reuter).—Sir Rider Haggard, giving evidence before the national birth-rate commission, dwelt on the dangers of artificiality, keeping down births which was now widespread in every western nation except, he said, perhaps Russia and Germany. He said he was of the opinion that unless a startling change happened the western races within the next two centuries would be submerged by the teeming myriads of the east. He doubted the effectiveness of appealing to the sense of the empire to stop this race suicide, but thought the state might stamp out diseases tending to sterilize the race, and also subsidize motherhood, and as a desperate last resort the state could directly or indirectly bring up all children, even holding out a kind hand to those not born in wedlock.

$2,750 In Cash Prizes

A TEST OF SKILL AND ACCURACY

The Advertiser's Puzzle Contest

IF YOU CAN COUNT CORRECTLY, ONE OF THE MANY PRIZES MAY BE YOURS. NOTE THE DIVIDEND FEATURE AND SEND IN YOUR SOLUTION.

HOW TO ENTER

This contest is open to present bona fide residents of Ontario.

Anyone in this territory may enter the contest upon payment of not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. This amount will be applied to subscription to The London Advertiser at regular subscription rates. It may be applied on either the morning or evening edition, or both.

You may submit just one solution or as many different ones as you wish. With each solution you must pay not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. The total amount paid, whether you send one or more than one solution, will be applied to one continuous subscription, unless you otherwise direct. If you are already a subscriber the amount, or amounts, you pay will be applied to extending the time you are paid to. If you are a new subscriber the amount paid will be credited to you and your subscription started at once.

Present subscribers, wherever located, will continue to receive the paper through the same channels as now. No change whatsoever will be made in carriers where subscribers receive the paper through carrier service. All carriers will receive notice that the subscription has been paid and be instructed to collect the amount from The Advertiser office. The same will be done where the paper is being received through an authorized news-dealer.

If you send more than one solution at one time send a separate blank with each one and state in each blank the amount you are paying with that solution.

This contest is open to both men and women. You may order the paper sent to someone else if you wish, names and addresses being subject to any changes that later may be desired.

DECIDING TIES

In the event of ties those tying will be required to solve a second puzzle in order to determine who shall receive the prizes. This second puzzle, if one should be required, will be equally as attractive and practical as the first. Under this plan those who win will be assured of receiving the full value of their prizes without having to divide them with other contestants. Should still further ties ensue, a third problem of the same order as the second will be submitted to those again tied to solve. This plan will be continued until all have been eliminated except the actual prize-winners. Should there be no ties on the first puzzle, only the one, of course, will be presented. In the event that a second puzzle is required, one week will be allowed in which to solve it. This will prevent the contest being prolonged for any unusual length of time.

Rates of Subscriptions

On account of this contest all previous subscription offers are withdrawn. The following rates will prevail:

Important Features

The attention of contestants is called to two important features in connection with the prizes.

1. While the amount you pay for subscription to The Advertiser has no effect on your winning a prize, it does affect the value of the first five prizes should you win one of them. The value of each of the first five prizes has a fixed value, to which is added from five to fifty times what the winner pays when they register their solutions. This is explained further in the prize list.

2. The first five prizes may also be increased ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS each by your interesting five persons who are not now regular subscribers to become subscribers. You will receive twenty dollars for each one, whether you secure one or five. Each one of these new subscribers must pay not less than the minimum amount ($2) required of contestants. They may pay up to the maximum ($12.48) if they desire, and they may also become competitors for the prizes if they wish to submit one or more solutions of the puzzle. That is, they may enter the contest under the same conditions exactly as any other contestant, the payments they make entitling them to entry.

The name of each one of these new subscribers must be sent in on one of the accompanying blanks, whether he becomes a contestant or not. The fact that he was secured by you must also be indicated in the proper place provided in the blank, so you will receive credit. You may send in any or all of those five names whenever you wish, either when you send in your own solution or later. Just use one of the blanks for each one, and then there will be no mistake made in regard to your getting due credit.

THE PROBLEM

The problem is to count the circles. Every circle is complete, and intersects or touches one or more circles. There are no parts of circles, or shams or deceptions of any sort in the puzzle. In the event that no one counts the exact number, the prizes will be awarded for the nearest correct solutions. Accuracy and patience are the main requisites to arriving at the correct or nearest correct count. Those who display these qualifications to the best advantage will solve the puzzle best.

To the Shareholders:
We have audited the books of The Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, Limited, at Montreal, Fort William, Winnipeg and Medicine Hat for the year ending 31st August, 1919, and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required; and we certify that, in our opinion, the above Balance Sheet is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the Company.

CREAK, CUSHING & HODGSON,
Chartered Accountants.

In his remarks to the Shareholders, Mr. W. A. Black, Vice-President and Managing Director, called attention to the fact that the profits for the year under review were less than those of the previous year by $322,898.28.

The Capital of the Shareholders invested in the business at the commencement of the year was $9,928,999.06, so that the profits of $1,632,516.58 represent 16.4 per cent on the Capital, not including the Bonds. If the Bonds were included as Capital, the percentage earned would be 13.3 per cent. It will be noted from the Balance Sheet that the Shareholders' Invested Capital at the close of the year amounted to $10,744,516.64.

Mr. Black also stated:
"As a result of the Armistice, there was a material reduction in the volume of business in all Departments. There was also a slight reduction in the percentage of profits on the turnover, which were a little under 2 per cent, as against being a little over that figure last year. This must be admitted as being a very small margin and would not make a reasonable return but for the large volume of business.

The outlook now is for an early return to the sharp competition for export business which existed prior to the war. Duties on flour imports, which were removed in some countries during the war, are being put on again, with the idea of encouraging and stimulating manufacture at home to provide work for their live stock feeding. It is most essential, however, that our own farmers and dairymen be supplied with the necessary feed for their live stock, and the Government may yet find it necessary to take steps to assist the mills in retaining a large export trade in flour if the dairy and stock interest is to continue at least on its present basis."

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

What Has "Got Into" Mother Graham?

"Margaret, come in here a minute, please."
My mother-in-law's voice came softly, almost entrancingly, from her open door. It was so unlike her usual imperative tones that I wondered what could have happened.
She closed the door after my entrance, put her hand upon my shoulder and looked at me intently.
"Is it all right between you and Richard, child?" she asked.
There was a strained look in her eyes, in the lines of her face, which told me even more than her question how intense had been her anxiety over the misunderstanding between Dicky and me. In that rush of comprehension my heart warmed toward the fragile old woman, who had irritated me almost beyond endurance by her unreasonable behavior over Junior's birthday cake.
With a sudden impulse I put my arms around her.
"Absolutely all right, Mother, dear," I said cheerfully. "I couldn't admit it before, but we did have a misunderstanding. However, it had nothing to do with Alice Holcombe, and it has all been cleared up, so there's nothing in it."
"Call him Junior, if you have to," my mother-in-law said, a bit tartly, and I saw that with her relief at the reconciliation between Dicky and me she was glad to put aside any tenderness of sentiment into which she had previously strayed and return to her usual captious, irritating attitude. But I have learned from long experience that this outer-

TOMORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genesee Kemble
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15.
According to stellar testimonies this should be a very interesting day in which the keynote of the year's progress should be sounded. In the vernal connections direct to the activity after a period of delays, obstructions and disappointments, as Saturn fortunately transited by the moon assists the sextile of mercury to mars and mercury parallel Uranus—a combination of intense activity for a sudden and swift impetus to lagging affairs, resulting in prosperity and increase of fortune, which latter also lends his good offices. Venus under favorable Lunar transit transmits some of this beneficent happiness to the home and social realm as well as promoting affectional interests. Be calm and avoid impetuosity.
Those whose birthday it is have the promise of a happy and prosperous year with all phases of flourishing conditions. A child born on this day will be clever, industrious, responsible, kind, affectionate and will make rapid progress in life.

Don't Split Your Vote on October 20th—
a solid four Yes's will be your only guarantee that you will get that sane, fair and just compromise that is needed in Ontario—the sale of light, non-intoxicating beer and wine generally, and the sale of pure spirituous liquors through Government agencies only.

that is your only sure guarantee that you will get careful consideration to your vote on each question.

Don't Split Your Vote on October 20th—support to the limit the broad-minded men and women of the Citizens' Liberty League who conscientiously believe that the unsatisfactory Ontario Temperance Act must be repealed and new legislation enacted more in keeping with the demands of all sections of the people.

Don't Split Your Vote on October 20th—support the labor unions, soldier organizations and thousands of the rank and file of the citizens of this Province who want a more palatable yet absolutely non-intoxicating beer.

Don't Split Your Vote on October 20th—
You can be assured that those in favor of the Ontario Temperance Act as it now stands will vote a solid "NO" to all four questions. The citizens of this Province who desire that changes should be made in the Ontario Temperance Act will actually kill one another's vote and so make ineffective their desire for a change, without they vote a solid "YES" on all four questions. If four voters who desire liquor in some form go to the polls and vote "YES" only to the particular question he or she favors, the following table will clearly show how these four voters will really be casting their vote in favor of retaining the Ontario Temperance Act, with a total of four Yes votes and twelve No votes.

SNAP AND FUN IN "PUTTING ONE OVER," NOW AT PATRICIA

George Walsh, Athletic Comedian, Takes House by Storm in Laugh Film.

George Walsh, athletic comedian, appearing in "Putting One Over," one of the snappiest and funniest pictures ever shown in this city, has taken the patrons of the Patricia Theatre by storm. There is a laugh every minute in the picture.

"Putting One Over" is a picture abounding in mystery due to two young men who are physical doubles; abounding in fun due to one of these men finding himself recognized as the other; abounding in sentiment and romance through this young man falling in love with the fiancée of the other; and abounding in thrills through the battling to defeat a conspiracy which would loot the other young man's estate.

Walsh's bright and breezy impersonation of the motor car salesman who becomes a victim of mistaken identity through the machinations of crooks, is a delight and a joy. His ludicrous attempts to explain his identity and escape from the fate of inheriting millions have taken his audiences by storm.

Thrills aplenty, too, there are in this picture, and the mystery element is worked out with skill. Walsh performs stunts worth seeing and battles with his accustomed fearlessness and abandon until, as usual, he wins the girl.

The singing of three girls in the vaudeville act took well, the harmony being particularly good.

"OH, GIRL!" IS LATEST WORD AFTER LOOK AT MAJESTIC'S BEAUTIES

All Eyes Front, As Sennett Bathing Girls Make Bow To London.

"Oh, boy" has lost out as an expression of the unusual. "Oh, girl!" in capital letters, is the new catch word exemplified by those stunning Sennett Bathing Girls, who made their first bow in this city at the Majestic Theatre yesterday afternoon. They came, they saw, they conquered and captivated the lady admirers as well as the male sex, which was a foregone conclusion.

"Bathing Beauties" is a most appropriate term, and the Sennett girls, who are the stars of the Mack Sennett collection of models, on tour for the first time professionally direct from the Sennett studios at Los Angeles, California. The stage setting is also unusual, tastefully harmonized as to color, with the heavy velvet portiers, showing the beach at Santa Monica, California, in the distance, an appropriate setting for the unique entertainment of the girls.

It is Mack Sennett, the comedy producer, to show the late Kaiser from an entirely different angle in "Jack and the Beanstalk." The Kaiser and the crown prince appear as gay lotharios in pursuit of a beautiful girl. At least they think it is a girl; as a matter of fact, it is a man in aviator's disguise. The "girl" vamps von Hindenburg and von Hindenburg and finally escapes with valuable war plans, not to mention a little Belgian girl who was a prisoner of the Hun.

The play has all the laughs to be expected from the producer of the Mack Sennett comedies; also it has some thrills that bring the audience to its feet.

It is played by an unusually strong cast of Mack Sennett players, headed by Bothwell Browne, the female impersonator; Mark Prevost, Ford Sterling and Ben Turpin.

This exceptional performance will be at the Majestic today, Wednesday and Thursday.

The holiday crowds were well pleased with this show and a crowded house is assured for the remainder of the performance. It is advisable for all patrons to come early to obtain seats.

JOHN BARRYMORE IN "RAFFLES" GRIPS HIS AUDIENCE AT GRAND

"Raffles," Perfect Picture, Has All-Star Cast—Fine Vaudeville Headliners.

Record Thanksgiving Day attendance at the Grand Theatre were an indication of the well-merited popularity of the bill presented for the first time last evening.

John Barrymore, returning to the screen in a film version of "Raffles," the world-famous story by E. W. Hornig, once more places himself in the foremost rank of motion picture artists. Five headline vaudeville acts complete the program.

Theatregoers cannot help but be pleased with the excellent all-star cast combine with a well written story to produce a perfect motion picture. It contains all the essentials necessary to a production of importance. The return of John Barrymore to pictures is in itself a treat, and if for no other reason than this, "Raffles" should be warmly received.

The story of "Raffles," the Amateur Cracksman is almost too well known to invite description. The action starts on a steamship where Raffles, posing as a wealthy tourist, is introduced through Mrs. Vidal that a priceless pearl is in the possession of a man on the boat. Raffles cleverly steals it, jumps overboard and swims ashore, but is seen by Mrs. Vidal. He next appears in England with entrée into the most exclusive circles. He steals the top of a diamond necklace, but is recognized at the home of Mrs. Vidal, but she keeps silence for love of him. The rest of the story revolves around Raffles' clever elusion of the detectives and of his subsequent get-away after returning the stolen jewels.

In the vaudeville, Violet and Lewis present some real aerial novelties, Fred Gill and Frances Veak appear in an up-to-date comedy offering "Help Yourself." This act was constructed for laughing purposes only, and succeeds admirably. Will H. Macart and Ethelwynne Bradford present another varied and versatile skit.

Jack George as a "darky preacher" delivers a convincing address on "Why Men Marry." He is entirely inoffensive and genuinely entertaining.

The Eight Vassar Girls are the headline attraction, however, and well deserve the place. Popular and classical vocal and instrumental numbers are offered in solos, duets, trios, quartets and ensemble numbers. The act features Miss Florence Richardson, who never before has the front bench so near Moscow. The dispatch adds that anti-Bolshevik armies are moving toward the heart of Bolshevist Russia, from all directions. It says the Bolshevist organization is disintegrating and that even in Petrograd there are only 9,000 members of the Bolshevist party.

SEVERAL STEEL COMPANIES TRY TO START WORK

Feeling Tense in Youngstown, Ohio, When Attempt Made to Operate.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Steel companies whose plants are operating in the Pittsburgh district continued to report progress toward normal conditions today, which marked the beginning of the fourth week of the nation-wide steel workers' strike. No announcement of additional mills starting up came from anywhere in the Pittsburgh district, but several in other steel centres were reported as having been started up. The committee of men returning to work in plants here and elsewhere has been steady. Strike leaders at the headquarters of the steel workers' national committee, who were in session here, reported that the steel companies reported a steady inflow of men returning to work. The committee there were no defections.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 12.—With the senate investigation of the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburgh district ended, interest in the walkout centered today in actual strike developments, which were few. The senators, after spending three days here, during which time they visited steel communities and held hearings, left last night for Washington. The committee will meet in the latter city at the call of Chairman Kenyon.

Shortly before his departure, Senator Kenyon indicated that the committee was anxious to complete its work and submit a report to the senate as soon as possible. In an endeavor to secure information on the strike, the committee held a Sunday session which lasted until 11 p.m. A variety of testimony was taken, both sides to the controversy being well represented by witnesses.

The quiet which has marked the strike in this district for the past two weeks continued during the early hours today. Employers' representatives maintained that the mills were operating more fully today than at any time since the strike began, while union leaders said the strikers' ranks were holding firm.

FIRST REAL TEST. YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 13.—With the attempt of three companies to resume operations at a number of open hearth furnaces this morning, the steel workers' strike entered its fourth week. It was generally believed the effort to break the strike was the first real test between the two sides.

Officials of the Breker Hill Steel Company were ready to start two open hearth furnaces; the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company three, and the Republic Iron and Steel Company one or more. The Carnegie Steel Company announced that it will make no attempt to operate on a larger scale than during the past week.

DEATH OF FORMER LIBERAL M. P. THROWS DAMPER ON MEETING. WATFORD, Oct. 13.—A damper was thrown over the East Lambton nomination meeting today when toward the close of the meeting the death was announced of R. J. McCormick, who represented East Lambton as Liberal member at Toronto for eight years previous to the election of J. B. Martyn. Mr. McCormick had been ailing for some time, but his death was unexpected.

A Womans' Warning

Why will women continue to drag around in misery, suffering with the ailments peculiar to their sex, that drag them down to misery and despair, with backache, nervousness, the blues, derangements and irregularities, when there is a proved remedy for just such conditions?

For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming these ailments until it is now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

For Twenty Years the Friend of This Woman

Akron, Ohio.—"I am fifty-one years old and going through the Change of Life, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing me lots of good. I felt run-down and weak but since taking the Vegetable Compound I am much stronger and better. I can eat and sleep, am gaining flesh and can do more work than I have for some time. Twenty years ago your Vegetable Compound helped me during childbirth. I wish you would print this in your paper so that other women may read it. There is nothing better for the relief of suffering womanhood than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It does away with sickness and nervousness which is very often responsible for the lack of perfect harmony in the home."

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing, or have head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double) and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water, and a little gentian. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. The nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is very pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

GOOD ADVICE FOR NERVOUS PEOPLE

WHAT WORN, FRAZZLED, UNSTRUNG, "JUMPY" NERVES REALLY NEED.

When you are rundown, out of sorts, tire easily, have lost confidence in your ability to do things, and ambition seems deserted, you are in need of a tonic. Your nerve force has been depleted and your nerves need a stimulant to restore to your system its old-time strength and energy, and bring you back to the old pep that used to make you famous.

Standard Drug Company and many other of the leading druggists in London and vicinity are selling a wonderful nerve remedy called Ferro-Pepine on the positive guarantee of satisfaction or money back. It's amazing how quickly Ferro-Pepine tones up the entire system, calms and steadies the nerves, and puts vim, vigor and vitality into men and women who are fagged out, nervous, despondent and ambitious. Thousands testify to their remarkable value in cases of severe mental depression, nervous prostration, nervous dyspepsia, "trembling," "rigidity," and the generally unstrung nerves that come from excessive work, worry, lack of sleep or overindulgence in drinking, eating, or smoking. They never fail to benefit. If you are blue and feel as though you didn't give a hang, or are positive guarantors of satisfaction or money back. Put one with every meal for a few days, and see what a wonderful improvement they make in your whole nervous system.—Adv.

DENEKINE CAPTURES 3,500 BOLSHEVIKI IN DISTRICT OF KIEV

Russian Commander Reports Victory Against Reds.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—A wireless communication from General Denikine today claims further victories against the Bolsheviki in the direction of Kiev. General Denikine announces the capture of Ostrozhenski Wazhno (a town which cannot be located on available maps) with 1,500 prisoners. The Bolsheviki made an attack upon his army with large forces in the vicinity of Kiev, but were successfully repulsed.

General Denikine captured 3,500 prisoners and occupied Krovit (possibly, Kromy) about 25 miles southwest of Kiev.

General Denikine's forces also occupied the important capital of Chernigoff, about 75 miles north of Kiev. The advance continues.

Recent reports received via Copenhagen placed General Denikine's troops within 30 miles of Kiev on the road to Moscow, and scarcely more than 200 miles from Moscow itself. The Bolsheviki were then reported to be discouraged and surrendering in large numbers, but evidently gathered their forces for a counter-attack in hopes of saving the important railroad and commercial centre.

The capture of Chernigoff, in quite another field of operations, indicates that General Denikine is making headway against both Bolsheviki and Ukrainians in the vicinity of Kiev, and is coming nearer to a junction with the Polish army.

CONVICTED OF HOLD-UP WINDSOR MAN GETS LONG TERM IN U. S. PEN

WINDSOR, Oct. 12.—John Fontain, of this city, who with a confederate, Earl Grizer, held up and robbed a Standard Oil gasoline collector in Detroit of more than $2,000 in cash in August after throwing pepper in his eyes to blind him, was today sentenced to serve an indeterminate sentence of from seven and one-half to fifteen years in Marquette state prison. Grizer received a similar sentence. The charge against the men was robbery, being armed.

"LIB. POLICY MINE," HARTLEY DEWART TELLS BRANT RALLY

BRANTFORD, Oct. 13.—A great rally on behalf of Morgan E. Harris was held here tonight in Victoria Hall, when the Liberal leader, H. H. Dewart, delivered an effective address.

J. W. Shopperson was chairman. Bousing addresses were made by Scott Davidson and Mr. Harris, Liberal candidate.

"I never was at variance with the Liberal policy in the Legislature so far as moral reform is concerned in the three years I was there," he declared. He took part in the formation of the Liberal party at the convention in

BRITISH SOCIALISTS JOIN THE COMMUNISTS

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The British Socialist party has decided by an overwhelming majority to join the Communist International, established at Moscow, and to sever connections with the old International Socialist Bureau.

"If it had not made the policy of the Liberal party my policy, I would not have accepted the leadership of the party," he said. "The questions are to be solved by the honesty and integrity of the party and the honesty and integrity of the leader in support of that policy."

He said the Liberals were telling what they were going to do as a party. "Did you ever hear of the prohibition or even the temperance policy of Hearst's party?" he asked. The strife was such that there could be no addition in the Conservative party of this.

How Much Tobacco Will My Heart Stand

A Question Vital to Every Man Who Smokes or Chews

IT MAY COST A PRECIOUS LIFE TO FIND OUT BY EXPERIMENT.

habit make it easy for yourself by getting Nicotol tablets and taking them as directed. The habit really kills you, and its departure is a pleasure equal to its indulgence.

If you want to know how much easier it is to quit the habit with Nicotol than without it, go twenty-four hours without tobacco and note what an effort it costs you; then begin using it as usual and you will find it is a pleasure to quit. At the end of a week discontinue smoking or chewing for a day, and it is probably true that you do not desire to resume. At least your desire will be greatly diminished, and another week or two should make it not only possible, but a pleasure, to quit.

Not—Dr. J. H. Hopper, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital, under whose advice Nicotol has often been used, said when this statement was shown to him: "I have known Nicotol to conquer the tobacco habit in less than ten days' time, and I can therefore recommend it highly." When the doctor's statement was shown to one of our leading druggists he said: "Nicotol is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit, way ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

THE LOCAL MARKET

Potatoes have started to come in by the load. They are expected to take a further drop, as many are being shipped in at a comparatively low price.

Butter and eggs were quite plentiful on the local market. Although the sales were slow, the prices remained steady.

A few grapes were offered by the dealers. They are up in price a little, being quoted at 50 cents, and the Rogers at 60 cents.

Hay was not overly plentiful this morning. The quotations remained steady.

Many tomatoes are still being offered, but the demand is slow.

Table with columns for various commodities like Oats, Wheat, Barley, and their respective prices per bushel or ton.

at 11:30: December opened 1/4c lower at $1.18 1/2, and May 1/4c lower at $1.21.

Flax opened unchanged for November and December.

There were 606 cars of all grains inspected on Monday, of which 367 cars were contract grades of wheat.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Lower quotations on hops and grain pulled down provisions. Lard, however, made a sharp rally.

COTTON. Washington, Oct. 14.—Cotton continued during September amounted to 491,213 bales and lint and 23,222 of lint, the census bureau announced today.

New York, Oct. 14.—The cotton market was very active and excited at the opening today owing to a big advance in the Liverpool market over the holiday and very bullish weather and crop advice from the South.

London, Oct. 14.—Closing prices to be reported.

Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—Oats opened unchanged for October; December opened 1/4c lower at 77 1/2, and May 1/4c lower at 70 1/2.

Barley opened 1/4c lower for October.

SCIENCE SAVES LIVES OF BABES POISONED BY THEIR MOTHER

Treatment of Chicago Specialist is Proving Successful. FATHER IS OVERJOYED. Older Sister May Feel Effects of Poison for Years, Expert Says.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The two little Luikart sisters, whose struggle against death at the Columbus Hospital has gripped the sympathies and interest of the nation, probably will live once more to frolic with their "daddy" in the yard of their Royal Oak home.

Dr. Thomas A. Carter, the poison expert, today reported a "noble response to treatment" and said the recovery of 5-year-old Edna is assured.

The smaller girl's color is as vivid as the paint on her beloved toy automobile. As the mother superior placed a finger on Shirley's tilted nose and wagged it, the elder sister's cheeks brought a smile of satisfaction to the doctor's face.

Edna's arrival here last week, but on the doctor's last visit her playfulness brought a smile even to Shirley's faded lips. For when the physician came into the sickroom there, Edna's arms clung about his neck as if she never intended to let go.

"Oh, I can't be spoken for," white Roy Luikart, the children's father, stood by and grinned cheerily—he has ever been certain that his babies would get well.

"But she'll get a rope and tie you to my bed," Edna shouted. "Then you'll have to stay, I guess. Now say 'Good morning' to Shirley." Shirley's interest in things appreciably mounted.

She played with Dr. Carter's wrist watch and asked him if she could buy it because she liked to look at it light up in the dark, "like when I rub a match on my hand."

"O-o-o-o," Shirley laughed. "Edna cried at the doctor with the big industrial machine for her. She hasn't laughed for the longest time."

Shirley, the elder sister, was lying still, a wee smile fluttering about her lips. Dr. Carter stroked to her and played his little game again.

U.S. FLAG ON SEA "IN GRAVE DANGER"

Congress Must Back Merchant Marine, Senator Warns.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Congress must come to the rescue of the American merchant marine soon or the American flag will be once more seldom seen upon the commercial seas, in the opinion of Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the senate commerce committee, which is in charge of legislation with regard to the American merchant marine.

Thus far it has developed that there are two policies regarding the future of the merchant marine: Government subsidy with government control, and private enterprise, unrestricted and uncontrolled, with government co-operation in shipbuilding.

As soon as the peace treaty is out of the way it is hoped that hearings may be opened and the question threshed out.

Know the Tire You Buy. You can't tell the value of a tire by its looks. The unused tire is a riddle. Its sleek and unscarred surface tells no story. Its real value is hidden. Nor can you tell the value of a tire by its price. The price may be too low. It may not allow of building a good tire. The price may be too high. It may be far above the value you will get. But there is one reasonably safe indication of a tire's value available to everyone. That is the service that tire is rendering in general use. On this basis, we believe you will come to Goodyear Tires. More Goodyear Tires are used than any other brand. They have received, and are receiving, the most severe test a tire can be given. If you will talk to men who drive cars, you will find a strong majority for Goodyear Tires. A majority based on this very test of actual experience. It will probably surprise you how many hard-headed men of your acquaintance are buying Goodyear Tires for the value which is in them. Ask the Goodyear Service Station Dealer to tell you the experience of the men to whom he sells tires. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited. MADE IN CANADA.

"Tinker Bob" Stories

LADY DUCK A REAL MOTHER. The next thing was to build the real throne in the midst of the forest dwellers who had never before tried to make thrones.

"I was on my way to tell you I have 40,000 workers on the job, but one of those Fox children came and pulled down one side of the wall and killed 100 of my workers."

"I'll see about that." Chief Forke sneered. "The very idea of you building a throne! Chief Forke sneered. But no one else knows how, so I guess you had better start."

"Thank you, Chief Forke. I will work away—to begin building a throne for King Tinker Bob in the forest."

ALL FAT PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW THIS

The world owes a debt of gratitude to the author of the now famous Marmola Prescription, and is still more indebted for the reduction of this harmful form.

"I was just playing," said he and began to cry. "Quack, quack!" said Lady Duck. "I will whip you."

"I will whip you," said Lady Duck holding the little fox with one wing and giving him a sound spanking with the other. Now the Driver Ant went back to work.

Cultivate the saving plan. Try opening a savings account in The Bank of Toronto. It will be surprising how little you will miss what you lay aside, and how quickly your savings, together with the interest they will earn, will accumulate to a substantial sum.

Where does your salary go? THE months go by with dizzy rapidity and you find at the end of a hard working year, that you are no better off than you were at the beginning.

Year after year it will be the same if you don't take immediate steps to stop the outward flow of your earnings.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

Let— Ontario's Golden Era Continue PROGRESS—PERFORMANCE—PROMISE

If we have given worthy service during the trying time of war, may we not be relied upon to serve the nation faithfully and well in hastening the time of still greater prosperity and happiness? As we have begun, so we will continue, fearless in the discharge of duty and ever alert in the service to the people.

FINANCE In 1904 the income of Ontario was $4,464,000; in 1913 it was $11,188,302; in 1918 it was $19,270,123. This has been accomplished without resorting to direct taxation—apart from the war tax, which has been repealed.

AGRICULTURE The Agricultural industry in Ontario is in a prosperous and thriving condition. Appropriations in 1904 amounted to $475,000; in 1919, $1,675,000. Last year the value of the farm products of Ontario was $550,000,000, and the value of the combined farm assets was one and a half billion dollars.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC Hydro is to-day the most extensive public-ownership enterprise of its kind in the world. Since its inception Hydro-Electric has saved to the consumers of electric power in Ontario over fifty millions of dollars.

EDUCATION Ontario's educational system is designed to provide the most efficient training possible for the boys and girls who are to become the future citizens of the state. Under the leadership of the Minister of Education has been devised a worthy expenditure has been devoted to accomplish this purpose.

LABOR Ontario's industrial leadership in Canada has been maintained by broad and effective labor laws. Under the Workmen's Compensation Act $10,000,000 has been paid out in awards.

HEALTH Ontario's public health service is not excelled on the continent. Public health education, child welfare, sanitary engineering service, and the free distribution of antitoxins and serums have conserved life and prevented epidemic.

HIGHWAYS Good roads add wealth and comfort to rural life. The highway improvement programme of the Ontario Government is applied to both urban and rural districts. A complete system of roads, including provincial roads, provincial county roads, county roads and township roads, with a mileage of 12,500 miles, has been worked out and will be constructed.

WAR WORK Ontario gave in men 232,895; in contributions $54,532,188; in Victory loans $540,465,550. Ontario provided 50 per cent of Canada's war effort. The Ontario Government spent in war work over $10,000,000; maintained in England the most efficient military hospital in Europe; furnished club houses for the soldiers in London and Paris; made gifts of food and guns to the Mother Country; made large grants to the British Red Cross, Belgium relief and other worthy patriotic objects.

PROMISE: Greatest possible assistance to Agriculture—Faithful enforcement of the Referendum—Support of Hydro-Electric; cheap light and power for the farmer—Convert railway branch lines into Hydro radials—Good roads in every part of Ontario—State pension fund for mothers—Direct representation of Labor in the Cabinet—A minimum wage—Housing accommodation—Legislation implementing the findings of the National Industrial Conference—Consideration to returned soldiers with Cabinet representation—Educational progress, technical and agricultural instruction—Improved transportation in Northern Ontario—Timber conservation—Encouragement in mining development—Enlargement of Ontario's free public health service.

PORK PACKERS ASK A FURTHER HEARING ON PRICE QUESTION

TORONTO, Oct. 13.—The pork packers are anxious for another hearing before the board of commerce on the selling price question, and applied to Judge Robson to let them be heard again either here or at Ottawa. Judge Robson will come here tomorrow and give them the hearing. The board and shoe makers were still before the board today. After hearing

TRAIN DEMOLISHES TAXI-CAB, PASSENGER AND DRIVER ESCAPE

KITCHENER, Oct. 12.—A taxi-cab was demolished and the driver and one passenger hurt in a smash with a G. T. R. passenger train at the Lancaster street crossing here this morning. The taxi driver had slowed up to allow the Elmore train to pass and started to cross the tracks as soon as the train went by. He did not notice the approaching 9:15 westbound train, and the crash came just as the taxi
