A Great Intrigue,
 —OR, THE—
Mistress of Darracourt.

CHAPTER I.

The old lady, Mrs. Dalton, sat stiffly in the carriage, bland and smiling; Miss Marie Verner, the companion, bent forward with a half amused, half ironical smile; but Lucille Darracourt leaned back with a somewhat dreamy expression on her lovely face. It was not melancholy, it was not apathetic; it is difficult to say what it was beyond thoughtful and somewhat sad.

As they passed under one of the triumphal arches, and the crowd cheered, one man, more observant than his fellows, remarked:

"She's mighty beautiful, but she's mighty proud."

"Proud!" exclaimed a neighbor; "all the Darracourts are proud, and with reason!"

The carriage approached the last and the largest of the triumphal arches, the one near the gate, and the road was lined with villagers, who waved their hats and shouted. Miss Darracourt leaned forward and bowed her beautiful head, and then dropped back, and Miss Verner, who, of course, did not bow, looked sharply from one side to the other, then turned her eyes upon the occasion of the demonstration.

"My dear Lucille!" she exclaimed, with a laugh, "how cool you are!"

"Cool!" said Lucille, letting her eyes rest for a moment on the eager ones of her companion.

"Cool! Yes! Sqw! Ice! Good heavens, look at me! I'm all excitement! Even Mrs. Dalton is moved; aren't you?"

"It is a most touching spectacle," said the old lady, with prim urbanity.

"Most touching," exclaimed Marie Verner, mimicking her; "and, yet, Lucille, you take it as if you had been used to it all your life."

"What would you have me to do?" asked Lucille Darracourt quietly.

"What would I have you do? Anything! Everything!"

"If I were a man, I might get up and take off my hat and thank them; but I am not a man."

"But even a poor, miserable woman might show some emotion," retorted Miss Verner. "But you sit there, and take it all as if you were an empress. Who would think that one month—a week-ago, you were a half-starved pupil in the south of France!"

"We were very well fed," says Lucille, with a smile.

"Bah! I know! But think of it! A pupil at a school at St. Malo, with no expectation of anything better, and now the mistress of—all this!" and she waved her hand to right and left.

"If any thing were needed to prove you are a Darracourt, which, thank heaven, there is not, your demeanor would complete the evidence."

A faint flush spread over the clear, oval face of Lucille Darracourt.

"You forget," she said, "that all this welcome is meant for the heir—the owner—of Darracourt. It is not meant for me, for me myself! If I had been anyone else—old, middle-aged, a man, for instance, they would have shouted just as heartily. It is the owner of Darracourt they are welcoming, not me, Lucille."

"Well, but you are the owner of Darracourt," argued Marie Verner, "and it is for you, and yet you sit there as calm and cool— Oh, good gracious me, what is that?"

It was the Darracourt brass band which, having caught sight of the carriage, had burst forth into disharmony.

Lucille smiled.

"We are near the house," she said, quietly. "That is the brass band."

Miss Verner leaned forward, and as she did so, she saw through the trees which lined the lane a large edifice to the left of the Court.

"What is that?" she asked, pointing her sunshade at it. "That must be Merle Hall, Lucille! See!"

Lucille glanced aside, and just caught a glimpse of the long, white facade shining between the trees.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

"Your worship," he said, "I am grateful to Mr. Selby for leaving to me the task of clearing up the mystery of this painful case. I will not take up the time of the court by addressing you, but will call—"

"Let him free—let him free!" shouted the crowd, but it was quieted by the clerk and the police, and one after another the witnesses, the boy, who found the bodies, and Doctor Campbell, who proved the death of master and man, passed through the witness box. Then, as the crowd grew almost unmanageable, Lord Sainsbury entered and in low, but clear tones read Gibbon's confession.

It was listened to with an almost intolerable impatience, the people looking eagerly from Ralph, who stood gripping the edge of the dock, to the earl and Veronica.

"Nough said!" shouted a woman. "Let 'un go! Let the young lord free, he've been there in that shameful place long enow!"

Old Lord Sebrow, who acted as chairman of the bench that morning, held up his hand and at length succeeded in obtaining silence.

"The crown withdraws the charge, Mr. Graham!"

"Yes, my lord, with sincere regret that it should have been made—"

"Silence, please! Ralph Farrington—"

"Lord Denby! Lord Denby!" shouted the crowd.

"Ralph Farrington, otherwise Lord Denby," said the old lord, making himself heard with difficulty, "it is our pleasant duty to tell you that we find the charge made against you is not proven, in fact, we know that you are innocent of the crime of which you are accused, and we discharge you. You leave this court with a character unstained as far as this case is concerned, and we show the regret expressed by the prosecutor for the crown."

Ralph bowed his head.

"I thank you my lord," he said in a low but clear voice, and his eyes went straight to Veronica.

His words had been almost drowned by the roar of the crowd which disregarding the injunctions of the police, now swayed towards the dock with outstretched hands. One or two of the persons nearest to him had seized his arms and, before they could be prevented, had lifted him bodily from the shameful place and, setting him on their shoulders, bore him into the open air.

Here they were received by the mass of people, who had been unable to get into the court, with an outburst of cheering that was well-nigh deafening. The Lynne carriage was drawn up opposite the magistrates' entrance, and the persons—there were women amongst them—who were carrying Ralph placed him in it, and the mob pressing round it threw up their caps and shouted triumphantly. No doubt not a few of them forgot that he was no longer Ralph Farrington the gamekeeper, "one of ourselves," as they put it, and were under the impression that his acquittal and liberation represented a triumph of the "masses" over the "classes." Another reason for their excessive joy may be found in the fact that Ralph had been a favorite with all—excepting the poachers—and that before the charge of murder he had already been a popular hero in consequence of his rescue of Ada.

"Thank you, thank you!" he said. "I'm as glad as you are that I've been cleared of this charge—"

"Aye, cleared, sure enow!" said a voice, indignantly. "But how would it 'a been if t'other as did it had na met his fate?"

The words struck a note that the speaker had not contemplated, for they recalled the fact that Ralph's cousin, the nephew of the old man who was just then coming towards them, lay dead at Lynne Court. A silence fell as suddenly as that when a mill-wheel stops. A hand had been stretched out from the blue ether to snatch Ralph from mortal peril, but at the same time it had dealt out to the guilty an awe-inspiring punishment.

So in comparative silence they made way for the earl and Veronica. Ralph leant from the carriage and clasped his father by both hands, and they looked into each other's eyes for a moment; then Ralph took Veronica's hand and raised it to his lips.

At this the enthusiasm of the crowd, which had not been extinguished but was only smouldering, blazed up again and a cry of sympathy ran through the serried masses. Ralph assisted the earl and Veronica into the carriage, and the old man stood erect—a striking figure at that electric moment—and held up his hand. There were many there who had borne the great Lord Lynborough no great will. He had been a hard, if a just, landlord; he had never shown the least sympathy with the people on his lands, the stranger with in his gates; he had lived the life of a morose recluse. But as they stared at him they were one and all conscious that the man—old as he was—had changed. The austere face had softened, the hard eyes were aglow with a novel sympathy, the once haughty frown had gone and the thin lips, which many had never seen but with a cynical sneer, quivered with emotion. They moved once or twice as if he were speaking, but the words were inaudible, but at last those near him heard him murmur:

War News.

ATLANTIC COMPARTMENT SAFE.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, Aug. 13.

The war between the nations of Europe to-day became further regularized with the formal declaration of war against Austro-Hungary by Great Britain. The strength of the British fleet in the Mediterranean is unknown as no movements of the warships have been made public since the first outbreak of hostilities. It is known, however, that France has the bulk of her fleet in the Mediterranean, so that no apprehension exists regarding the safety of the trade routes through that sea, now that it seems certain that the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau are out of action. The official Press Bureau describing to-day the disposition of the British cruisers in the Atlantic and elsewhere, expressly urges the trade of all nations doing business with Great Britain to send their cargoes confidently and boldly to sea in British or neutral ships in all directions except in the North Sea, where, owing to mines and the probability of naval operations, no guarantee can be given, although yesterday the passenger service was again running. In the field of land operations, little change occurred since yesterday. It must be remembered, when considering all the public reports of the military operations that these despatches emanate almost exclusively from the side of the allied French and Belgian armies. There is nothing whatever from the German and Austrian side relating to military movements and dispositions, and only occasionally a brief item describing the result of past engagements is made public in those quarters. The strict censorship which is exercised over the whole field makes it difficult to estimate the value of the news received. The struggle for possession of the Belgian forts surrounding Liege has recommenced, and the reports of artillery and cavalry engagements are taken to indicate the possible beginning of a great battle on Belgian soil. The bulk of the German forces is believed to be concentrated on the frontier between Liege and Luxembourg, leading to the conclusion that Germany's frontier facing Russia can be only lightly guarded, probably by newly organized armies composed of reservists called to the colors.

CHASING THE GERMANS—THREE MORE BRITISH WARSHIPS HERE.

Special to Evening Telegram.

HALIFAX, N.S., Aug. 13.

Out of the maze of rumor touching affairs war-like off the Nova Scotia coast since the visit of the Essex to this port, there came this afternoon an official statement from an officer of H.M. cruiser Suffolk, now coaling at the Dockyard, Halifax. The gist of the statement was that on Friday last the British cruiser Berwick had an engagement with the German cruiser Karlsruhe off the American coast. The cruisers exchanged shots. The Berwick escaped injury and it was thought the Karlsruhe did as well. On Friday morning the Suffolk came upon the Karlsruhe just as she was in the act of beginning to take coal from the German liner, Kron Prinz Wilhelm. The two German ships separated and took to flight leaving some boats in the water. The Suffolk chased the Karlsruhe from 11 in the morning till five in the evening when she lost the German's smoke beyond the sky line. Meanwhile the Suffolk wirelessly the Berwick who was coming in an opposite direction from the chase, and she headed off the Karlsruhe, and the engagement ensued. The statement of the officer went on to say that this coaling on the sly by the Germans cannot last for ever. They are bottled up over here till the war is over, and sooner or later we will get them. There are two German cruisers in these waters so far as we know, the Karlsruhe and Dresden. On Saturday the Suffolk captured a prize in the German tank steamer Leda, worth $20,000. The Germans did not know that war had been declared, "but we are glad we are captured by British and not by French," they said. The Suffolk towed her prize into Bermuda a day or so ago. The Suffolk picked up the British cruiser Good Hope, by wireless in these waters, and with her will be the Drake and King Alfred. They are heavier cruisers than the squadron of which the Suffolk is the flag ship. The Good Hope is coming to Halifax to-morrow afternoon for coal.

GERMAN CAVALRY DEFEATED.

PARIS, Aug. 13.

An official communication published here to-day, says: "A division of Belgian cavalry supported by a brigade of infantry and by artillery, engaged and defeated, near the fortress of Diest, 18 miles north east of Louvain, a division of German cavalry, also supported by infantry and artillery."

THE BATTLE OF HAELN.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.

Fighting yesterday between the Belgians and Germans in the vicinity of Diest, lasted the entire day and constituted the first considerable battle of the war. It will be known as the battle of Haeln. Shells were still falling at half-past seven in the evening in the roads around Diest.

A SANGUINARY STRUGGLE.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.

The battle which centered around Haeln in the Belgian province of Limburg, extending to Diest, in the north of the Province of Brabant, after passing round Zeelhem, ended at seven o'clock last evening. All the country is now cleared of German troops except the dead and wounded who are thickly strewn about the fire zone. Upwards of 200 dead German soldiers were counted in a space of fifty yards square. The Church, brewery and some houses in Haeln were set afire, and two bridges over the Deme were destroyed by Belgian engineers. Great quantities of booty were collected on the battle-field, and these were stacked in front of the town hall of Diest. Many horses were also captured. The strength of the German column was about 5,000 men.

DETAILS OF THE FIGHT.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.

The Germans had over 10,000 troops composed of cavalry, artillery and a small force of infantry. The Belgians consisted of a cavalry division and a mixed brigade and several battalions, numbering about 7,000. Probably the aim of the Germans was to haul themselves north of St. Troid, at Telenfont, in order to turn the Belgian Army. The Belgian Commander was fully aware of this movement from aeroplane and cavalry reconnaissance. He allowed the enemy to advance, while he manoeuvred the Belgian troops into favourable positions. Fire, deadly at a range of 2,000 metres, played havoc with the German cavalry, which continued advancing on Haeln and Correnacken. The countryside was intersected with hedges and hillocks, nevertheless the two sides met freely. The Belgians displayed great courage and daring. The Germans buried themselves against the barricades, endeavouring to carry them, but the Belgians shot the Germans down coolly and with precision. The attack on the bridges was as savage as on the barricades. German officers could be seen pressing their men forward to meet certain death from the cannon. Men and horses fell like flies, until when almost shattered, the order to retreat was given. The German defeat was complete, and they finally retreated along the banks of the Geste river, in the greatest disorder. The German losses were over 1,000.

AMERICAN SHIPPING DANGERS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.

The risk of American shippers to Europe during the war was set forth to-day in a synopsis of the Maritime and International laws bearing on the liability of capture by the chamber of commerce committee on problems of shipment. The document gives a list of articles and conditional contraband and points out the circumstances under which ships will be seized as prizes of war. It also defines the scope of war insurance and general information on the subject. It sets forth that the liability of goods shipped by American merchants to be captured as prizes of war depends upon the destination of goods, the ownership of the goods actual or presumptive after shipment, the character of the goods, whether they are contraband or not, and the nationality of the carrier. Shipments by Americans made in good faith to neutrals in neutral ports can never be considered contraband, the destination of the goods and not their character makes them contraband.

AMERICA GETTING COAL TRADE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.

that a united movement for chartering of vessels for carrying American coal to foreign ports has commenced. Ten ships have been engaged to carry coal cargoes from Virginia to Las Palmas, Canary Islands, with an aggregate capacity of 10,000 tons. Two other vessels, both flying neutral flags, have been chartered in South America for the River Plate, and another for Rio de Janeiro. A third neutral vessel will carry a cargo of coal to Christiania. This La Palmas and Christiania business is the first to be received by the American exporters and is said to be due to the difficulty experienced in obtaining English coal. Brokers have received inquiries from more than a score of exporters, who are anxious to charter vessels, and it is believed that within ten days a big fleet will be engaged in the coal trade.

A SENSATIONAL MURDER.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.

The mysterious murder of Edward P. Amory, Patent Attorney and Secretary of the Western Railroad Association, who was found choked and beaten to death in his office yesterday, was still unexplained when the police took up the investigation to-day. Amory was killed yesterday morning, and his body left locked in the office of the Association. His woman stenographer vainly tried to get in and at length went home, leaving a note pushed under the door. The body was discovered by Alvin A. Thompson, a clerk, who, having a day off, said he but looked in the office in the afternoon. The police are holding Thompson to investigate his story.

INVENTOR OF A SUBMARINE DEAD.

NEWARK, N.J., Aug. 13.

John H. Holland, the inventor of a submarine boat which bears his name, died of pneumonia last night at his home here, after a month's illness, at the age of 72. Although a builder of war vessels, Mr. Holland opposed war. His idea of the usefulness of the submarine was to have them incapacitate hostile ships without destroying them or their officers and crews. Mr. Holland was born in Ireland.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.

A prolonged Cabinet meeting adjourned just before midnight. President Carrarjal and ministers separating and going in different directions. It is believed they will journey to Villa de Guadalupe and catch a special train which has steam up since 7 o'clock last night and which is still at Buenavista station, this city. It is reported President Carrarjal has transferred authority to Eduardo Etrubide, Governor of the Federal District, and that the latter to-day will sign articles of capitulation with General Carranza. Governor Etrubide returned to the city early to-day, after an auto trip to Tlalapa, a suburb of the capital, where he went to arrange the details of the capitulation. It is thought possible that the articles may have been signed last night.

NEGOTIATES CANAL SAFELY.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.

The first steamship to pass through the Panama Canal, the Cristobel, made the trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific in 11 1/2 hours. The return trip, however, was made in eight and one-half hours, which probably marks the average time which will be consumed by merchantmen when all the machinery of the canal is in smooth operation. The Cristobel made this experimental voyage on August 3rd and 4th, and at the time was drawing twenty-five feet of water. It is reported that everything is in perfect order for the formal opening of the Canal next Saturday when the Ancon, a sister ship of the Cristobel, belonging to the Panama Canal Railway Co. and of 9,000 tons, will make the official trial trip.

Breakdown Caused by Tea and Coffee

"I am satisfied," says a prominent physician, that coffee is responsible in a great degree for the premature breakdown of our active men and women.

"They suffer from caffeine poisoning."

"Of the truth of this, there is not the shadow of a doubt. Our common sense tells us that the daily swallowing of caffeine" (the alkaloid in tea and coffee), "powerfully affecting heart and brain—is followed by nervous depression, and finally by more or less disastrous results."

"I believe if people in general would use a harmless, nutritious drink like Postum as a beverage in place of tea and coffee, their physical and mental condition would be much improved."

Thousands, troubled with nervousness, biliousness, sleeplessness, headache and heart flutter, have done precisely what this physician advises—given up tea and coffee and adopted—

FRIDAY, August 14, 1914.

The Legislature Should Meet.

The news that the British squadron on this side of the North Atlantic is being strengthened will give confidence to the trade. Between Trinidad and Newfoundland it was understood there were four cruisers of the county class, viz. the Lancaster, the Essex, the Suffolk and Berwick. These are given in Whitaker as of 9,800 tons. They carry 14 six inch guns and have 22,000 indicated horse power. Their speed is given as 23½ knots. There was also the Bristol, a light cruiser of 4,800 tons. She carries 2 six inch guns and 10 four inch guns. Her indicated horse power is the same as that of the county class, viz. 22,000, and her speed is given as 25 knots. The three additional ships said to be sent across are the Good Hope presented by S. Africa to the Royal Navy, the King Alfred and the Drake. These ships are much larger than the county class. Their tonnage is 14,100. They carry two 9.2 inch guns and sixteen 6 inch guns. Their indicated horse power is 20,000 and their speed 24 knots. These with the French will keep the German cruisers known to be on this side on the run until they are sunk, captured or dismantled in a neutral port, until the end of the war. We may feel assured that before long the Mediterranean and the route to the Brazil will be cleared and then there should be no great embargo in the way of prohibitive premiums for war risks on our fish. At the present time the uncertainty of the route to the Mediterranean markets and Brazil is having a bad effect on our trade. The financial interests and the trade will gradually accommodate themselves to war conditions and arrange for the payment by the customers in fish buying countries for the fish we may send them when the routes are clear. The uncertainties which will always be present during the war, the enormous number of men who are being taken from productive employment and life, limb and property, and the countless millions of money which will be eaten up by the countries at war, will have a great effect in lessening the amount of capital for industrial undertakings, and in throwing hundreds of thousands of men and women out of work. All this will have a bad effect on trade and employment. We must prepare for hard times and be ready to face them, for they are coming and in a far more severe form than is commonly anticipated. It is a matter of life and death to us that we must win in this fight, or we shall be crushed by Germany, and the last state will be infinitely worse than anything we may suffer by the war. To deal with the situation, to meet increased cost of living, to do our part in the life and death struggle that is upon us, the Legislature should be called together.

Wedding Bells.

PITMAN—MEWS.

On Wednesday afternoon, at 3.30, in St. Paul's Church, Trinity, there was solemnized the marriage of Miss Florence Pittman, youngest daughter of Mrs. William Pittman, to Mr. Alexander Whitford Mews, of St. John's. The day was all that could be wished, bright sunshine and pleasant breeze, and Trinity looked her best. The bride was attended by Miss Albert Eriksen, brother-in-law of the bride, at whose home the reception was held, spared no pains in the decorations, and Trinity looked her best. A arch of evergreen, with flags and flowers and a wedding bell, was at the entrance and strings of gaily colored banners stretched from every vantage point. Hosts of friends gathered at the church to witness the ceremony. Before the service, Mr. Arthur Mews, of St. John's, gave a Recital of appropriate music on the pipe organ, and played the Wedding March at the close. The bride looked charming, and was gowned in ivory satin with overskirt of lace, and wreath and bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations and maidenhair ferns, and was attended by three little flower girls, Mary Lindsay, Marie and Phyllis Eriksen, and by Willie Gen. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Frank E. Mews, of Toronto. During the singing of the hymn, "The Voice that Breathed Our Being," the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Kelson Warr Pittman, of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Whitehouse in an impressive manner. A reception was held at the home of Mr. Eriksen and was largely attended. The presents were many and consisted of things both beautiful and useful. The young couple are well known and are held in high esteem, and the occasion of their wedding brought forth expressions of goodwill from all sides, making the time one of great joy and pleasure to all concerned. The honeymoon will be spent at the Bungalow in the pretty vale of Glenocoche, the Bungalow being the gift of the groom to the bride. The Telegram joins in the general chorus of good wishes and trust the young couple will see very many years of wedded bliss.

Sufferer of Twenty Years States Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a Real Cure.
"I can't remember any time during the past twenty years when my heart wasn't aching. If I bent over, dark specks would come before my eyes, and it seemed as if all the blood in my body wanted to rush to my head." Thus opens the letter of Mrs. Enoch S. Spry, of Putnam P. O., and continuing her interesting statement she says: "Work or exertion made my heart beat terrible, and going upstairs caused such shortness of breath that it fairly frightened me. I tell you how I feel to-day and you can understand what a great cure Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made. I feel strong enough now to work like a man, as for going up stairs on the run, it doesn't bother me at all. I eat and sleep as any well person ought, and as for dizziness which used to frighten me so much, it has entirely disappeared. Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a wonderful medicine. They helped me, and I know every woman that uses them will have comfort and good health. # War News.

GERMAN ADVANCE.
Special to Evening Telegram.
BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.
Huy, March and Houffalès are points held by German cavalry columns moving east toward valley of Ourthe. The French retreat from Muelhausen was well carried out. The proportion of opposing forces was four Germans to each Frenchman. The German field artillery proved far inferior to that of the French.

GOEBEN REPORTED SOLD.
LONDON, Aug. 13.
A St. Petersburg correspondent to the Times says much interest is excited in the conference recently held between the Japanese Ambassador, Baron Montono, and the Russian Foreign Minister, M. Savinoff. The Times regard as a fact the report of the purchase of the German cruiser Goeben by Turkey. The Turkish embassies here believe the news correct.

GERMAN GENERAL COMMANDS.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.
Austrian troops on the Russian frontier were placed under the command of a German general. The news is confirmed of certain dispositions of Austrian forces, the Checs Regiments, being transported to French territory.

ON RUSSIAN FRONTIER.
A St. Petersburg despatch to the Daily Mail reported that newspapers there say that Germany has formed 25 reserve divisions each of 25,000 men and six batteries with 31 reserve cavalry regiments, which constitute the main part of the German forces on the Russian frontier.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris, labelled official ten o'clock Wednesday morning, says that Ponta Mousson, a town in department of Meurthe Moselle, sixteen miles southwest of Metz, was bombarded with heavy artillery from a considerable distance. Shells falling in town streets killed and wounded many inhabitants and wrecked a large number of houses.

SHIPPING AT GIBRALTAR.
GIBRALTAR, Aug. 13.
More than fifty vessels of all nationalities have been stopped, their sailings being prevented.

LIEGE FORTS STILL HOLD ON.
PARIS, Aug. 13.
An official communication issued at Brussels contradicts the reports of Germans strongly re-entrenching their positions in the vicinity of Liege, and adds the cavalry is falling back and that only a part of the city of Liege is being fortified by the Germans. Bombardment was resumed yesterday but the forts hold out.

RUSSIAN FRONTIER FIGHTING.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.
The following official communication was issued on August 10 and 11: The enemy made careful reconnaissance on frontier of Government of Kovono and Sual. A German detachment of four battalions and three squadrons of cavalry and eighteen cannon attacked Eydkuhner, East Prussia, but were repulsed. Communication gives details of a number of small frontier affairs. It is said that Grand Duke Nicholas Michael Ovtch soon will join the active army and it is believed most of the male members of the Imperial army will follow the example. Grand Duke Constantine endowed a hospital of fifty beds, the Grand Duchess Marie and Helene volunteered as hospital nurses.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.
Yesterday at Tirlemont, Belgian Lancers lost twenty-five killed, including the capture of Knopper and Lieut. Count Vander Burch while fighting against 2,000 German Uhlans. The latter lost 20 killed. The Lancers were checked by machine guns but the Belgian infantry stopped the Germans.

AMBASSADOR DEPARTS.
PARIS, Aug. 13.
A despatch from Rome declares that the departure of the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador in Italy, Kabeka Morey de Japon, stated to be for reasons of health, is really due to impossible situation resulting from the failure of his efforts to obtain Italian support for Austria and Germany.

WILL INSURE WAR RISKS.
PARIS, Aug. 13.
To ensure commerce during the war the French Government, it is announced, will cover war risks on importations and exportations by sea vessels under French flag up to 80 per cent. of value, while the total value of cargoes under French flag or flags of allies or neutral States will be covered in consideration of premium.

War News.

BELGIAN AND FRENCH FORCES JOIN.
BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.
Belgian and French troops effected a junction south of Brussels. German advance on the Belgian provinces of Limburg and Brabant have been checked. Germans are bringing up heavy artillery against Liege.

HOSPITALS INADEQUATE - GERMAN CASUALTIES 8,000 TO 10,000.
LONDON, Aug. 13.

A despatch to the Exchange Telegraphs Company from Basel, Switzerland, says: Following the terrible battle at Muelhausen, the hospital facilities proved inadequate for the care of wounded. Not only are all hospitals filled, but schools, churches and hotels are occupied to full capacity. Even then it has been necessary to charter special trains to convey wounded to Milhausen, Studwig and other towns. Latest estimates place German loss from eight to ten thousand.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK.
PARIS, Aug. 13.

Official communication states that the forts of Liege are still holding out and that Belgian troops to the west of the city resumed the offensive and after a lively struggle drove the Germans back and recaptured the ground which they had lost. The Belgians have blown up a number of bridges and railway lines on the German rear in Landen district, thus cutting them from the base of supplies.

DENMARK NEUTRAL.
COPENHAGEN, Aug. 13.
Political circles consider that the neutrality of Denmark must be maintained at all costs, otherwise the economic distress which is already acute will be accentuated. Large quantities of goods are being exported to combatants. Germany removed tariff restrictions but requires that shipments be in large quantities. Export of Danish goods to England commences to-night, the Government ensuring them against war risks.

WILL WANT EXPLANATION.
PARIS, To-Day.
It is declared here the alleged purchase by Turkey of German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, announced at Constantinople, will probably be the subject of a demand for explanations on the part of France and her allies.

PARIS, Aug. 13.
Ordinary traffic on the greater part of French railways, with the exception of the eastern lines, will be resumed soon, it is announced.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 13.
Two German warships were observed off Landsort Island in the Baltic yesterday and to-day. Gotland reports says German war vessels were seen frequently cruising the vicinity. Advice from Finland indicate that the Russian fleet still control the Finland Gulf. A party of Britishers suspected of espionage were arrested yesterday.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
It is officially announced that state of war has existed between Great Britain and Austria-Hungary since midnight.

THE RISKS OF SHIPMENTS.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13.
A confirmation of report that the German tank steamer Leda was captured by a British cruiser was brought here to-day by the steamer Bermudian from Bermuda. Officers of the Bermudian said that when they left Bermuda the Leda was the only prize in the port of New York. The risk of American shippers to Europe during the war was set forth to-day in a synopsis of maritime and international laws bearing on the liability of capture by the Chamber of Commerce committee on problems of shipment. The document gives a list of articles and conditional contraband and points out the circumstances under which ships are seized as prizes.

Fishery Reports.

August 8th. From (South Head of Keels to Knight's Cove Point).—The total catch is 1050 and for last week 330. Thirteen traps and 19 skiffs are fishing. No boats are out, and no bankers or schooners from the grounds have returned. Prospects are good for the fall fishery. Nothing was done during the week with hook and line though the nets did fairly well and the skiffs are getting from 1 to 1 1/2 qts. off trawls daily. The movements of the cod at this season are very irregular, but with the coming of squid the men expect a good fall catch. The fish taken daily are of a large size.

Aug. 8th. From W. J. White (Aquaforte to Caplin Bay)—Codfishery prospects are very poor and no bait is obtainable. The lobster fishery is over, the number landed to date being 1362. The catch is 3075 quintals and for last week 320. Of this amount about 200 qts. were taken by the traps on Monday and the balance during the week. Forty-nine traps, 70 dories and skiffs and 14 boats are fishing. There is no sign of squid yet and most of the people have taken up their trawls.

Aug. 1st. From J. F. Devereaux (Cape Race to St. Shotts)—Prospects are not encouraging for a good voyage, but caplin is still plentiful around the shore. The lobster fishery—a poor one—is closed. The total catch of codfish is 6906 qts. with 1900 for last week. Two boats, 37 traps and 65 dories and skiffs are fishing. Seventy schooners have arrived from the grounds. It looks as if the trap voyage will be much shorter of last years. The trapping time is now very limited, and prospects are poor.

More Fires.

Fires provoke immediate sympathy for the sufferer and also thankfulness for personal escape. Another thought should be whether one is personally and sufficiently protected? An insurance policy with Percie Johnson would provide for you this desired security and at small expense. Have you enough insurance?

Five Pictures at the Crescent.

Features and pictures containing clean and refined performances have placed the Crescent Picture Palace second to none in the city. The week end changes comprises five really good features; the two-reeler is "Just Kids" a remarkable production by the Edis-Juvenile Co., following it "The Ghost" a comedy drama, the fourth reel is a panorama of beautiful scenes sunsets in many lands. "Loaded" is the kind of a comedy that wins out selected only for laughing purposes. Miss Alice Clark is singing that entrancing ballad "Where The Red Red Roses Grow," and it is sufficient to mention that it will be sung only as it was intended. On to-morrow afternoon the usual weekly matinee, a select program for the children.

CIVIC COMMISSION MEETS.—The regular session of the Civic Commission will be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

Description of Liege.

WHICH THE BELGIAN FORCES ARE DEFENDING AGAINST THE GERMANS.

Liege is the easternmost province bordering on Rhenish Prussia and the "Netherland" and has an area of 1,117 miles. The surface is diversified by heights varying from 300 to 2,000 feet and well wooded. It contains rich coal and iron mines. The northern part, called Herveeland, is exceedingly fertile, and highly cultivated. The population in 1900 was 826,175. The capital city at the confluence of the Ourthe and Meuse is 54 miles south east of Brussels. The city has since 1860 been considerably modernized by construction of fine quays and bridges along the course of the Meuse through it. It has numerous striking public buildings, including the Gothic cathedral of St. Paul, the Palais de Justice and the celebrated university, occupying extensive grounds, with special institutes for various sciences, a school of mines, a school of arts and manufactures and an important library.

Liege is one of the largest manufacturing towns of Europe, owing principally to its situation in a district abounding with coal, iron, lead, copper and marble. Cannon and fire arms of every description, steam engines and machinery, hardware of every kind, watches, jewelry bronze and other ornaments, woollens, cottons, etc., are made. Liege dates from the sixth century. The population of the town in 1900 was 173,700.

Judging by the history of recent years, the siege of Liege has proven one of the best examples in Europe of the ring fortress. The ideal ring fortress would be a town capable of ample provisioning and lying within an exact circle of heights of an average of some 8,000 yards distance, each height some 4,000 yards from the next each crowned with a self-contained close work and each such work, with in support of at least two others. Skill and natural conformation of the ground have combined to make almost these ideal conditions around Liege which is the centre or hub of a circle of forts each 7,000 or 8,000 yards from the exact centre of the city, the hub of the wheel as it were, in the majority of the forts, being 3,000 or 4,000 yards, from each other.

The main avenue of approach from Germany to Liege is between forts Nos. 1 and 2 and is largely dominated by them, while forts 3, 4, 9 and 10 lie above the river Meuse at its entry to Liege and its exit therefrom. There is not a yard of ground around any of the forts that cannot be swept by supporting fire from one or more of the adjoining forts, and there is a "key" fort the carrying of which would mean domination of the whole situation.

Makes Hair Grow

The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of. If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears. The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed. It destroys the dandruff germ, the little pest that ruins the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

Fire at Princes Rink.

Fire broke out at the Prince's Rink at an early hour this morning, and but that it was discovered and controlled so promptly may have resulted disastrously. About 2.15 the watchman of Harvey's Butterine Factory, which is opposite and quite near the rink, first noticed smoke issuing from the ventilators in the top of the rink, and he immediately sent in an alarm from box 13 in Factory Lane. The Central and East End companies responded hurriedly and on entering the building found a blaze, which was well under way and making good progress in the eastern end. The application of three streams of water extinguished the fire after about an hour, but not before considerable woodwork was destroyed. The direct origin of the fire is not exactly known though there is a theory that it was caused by a cigarette butt that was thrown on the floor and dropped underneath last night during the progress of roller skating, and some dry shavings that were around ignited and a blaze resulted. The rink closed for skaters at 10.30, but the last to leave the place was H. Tilley, who looks after the roller skates. He did not see any sign of fire or smoke. Still the woodwork must have been smoldering slowly then. A great deal of the floor and a portion of the wooden fence that surrounds the skating area was burned. The work of repairs will commence right away and it will not take long to replace the damage. While returning to the East End Hall after the fire, the brass cap came off the wheel of the hose wagon. Any person finding it will know where to return it.

War Notes.

In the refrigerators of the American Liner New York, when she sails from New York for London to-day (Friday), will be 26,000 dozen eggs, the first American eggs for the English market since the beginning of the European war. Eggs now cost 25 cents a dozen in New York.

An investigation of an alleged conspiracy to increase the price of food in New York City was begun on Thursday by District Attorney Whitman, who announced that wholesalers, retailers and others having a knowledge of food prices will be given an opportunity of appearing to tell their version of the upward trend of prices.

A Cape Town despatch states that 5,000 negroes have volunteered for military service, and that the De Beers Mines have contributed $50,000 to the relief fund being raised at Kimberley.

The French Ambassador at Brussels stated Thursday that the French situation at Mulhausen was good, and the general war news from Paris was good. The Liege forts are also still intact.

A despatch to the London Daily Mail from Brussels, says a German spy was caught in close proximity to King Albert of Belgium, when he was at Louvain.

A German warship has been cruising off the North Carolina coast, about 40 miles off to sea, according to the commander of the United States Fish Commission steamer Fess Hawk, which is operating off Beaufort, N.C.

"You look irritated this evening."
"I am—on warm days like this I always suffer from heat rash."

"I am liable to heat rash, too, but it never irritates me; it never has since I began to use Zylex, which at once allays the irritation, physical and mental. And I find Zylex Soap with the Ointment so far to prevent heat rash altogether."

Zylex sells at 50 cents a box;
Zylex Soap at 25 cents a cake, at your Druggists.

Scarcity of Bait.

POOR FISHERY OUTLOOK.

From the fishery reports to date, it will be seen that a general scarcity of bait prevails all over the Island. The non-arrival of squid has been a serious impediment to the bank fishermen as well as to the local trawlers. At this date last year many of the bankers had secured good catches on squid baiting, while now most of them are lying at anchor in the different harbors waiting for these fishes to "strike in."

In one month more the banking season will be closed, as practically all the vessels finish operations in September, the delay, if any, being usually caused by adverse weather conditions on returning from the Straits fishery. With very poor prospects of a supply of bait and the decrease in value of the fish already caught the outlook is not at all promising.

Fine Comedy Act and Pictures.

AT THE ROSSLEY THEATRE.

Last night the Rossleys presented a farce comedy that had the crowd in roars of laughter. "The Fellow Who Looks Like Me," Jack Rossley, as the Plirly Husband, Joe Burkhardt, as the Wide-Awake Servant, and Mrs. Rossley, The Wife, was certainly very funny. The new pictures are the best lot Rossley has had yet. The comedies and dramas are all splendid while the interesting films showing the great English Battleships, the German cruisers, the Naval field guns, the King reviewing his troops, the King and Kaiser together, the French President and the King, the King and Queen of the Belgians, and many others.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Gentlemen,—In June, 98, I had my hand and wrist bitten and badly mangled by a vicious horse. I suffered greatly for several days and the tooth cuts refused to heal until your agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which I began using. The effect was magical; in five hours the pain had ceased and in two weeks the wounds had completely healed and my hand and arm were as well as ever.

Yours truly,

BELGIAN SUCCESSES.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, To-day.
 The Post's correspondent with the Belgian army, sends the following: "The success of the Belgian army is astonishing everywhere. Along the line of outposts the Germans meet with baffling checks. Like an angry dog faced by a porcupine the vaunted Prussian army stands puzzled. I do not wish to exaggerate the facts or to pretend Belgium is winning a series of important battles. The successes so far are all intrinsically small but they indicate the halcyon of success. All dread of the Prussians is gone and that is a most valuable gain. Yesterday I walked some distance with a soldier who was on the way from Brussels to one of the Liege forts. Liege forts are not closely invested when individual soldiers come and go. The Belgians jokingly wonder when the German military skill will begin to show itself. The audacity of Uhlans raids seems to be nothing but the audacity of bewilderment. Like men who pressed from behind contact with Belgian cavalry, the Uhlans show impetuosity. Moreover neither the artillery nor the infantry have shown brilliancy. As an actual fact, the attitude of Germans to-day is almost defensive certainly not offensive in any spirited sense."

NAVAL FIGHT IN FAR EAST.

SHANGHAI, To-day.
 A naval battle has been fought in South China Sea and won by German warships. According to reports received here, two warships carrying many wounded and showing marks of a severe engagement limped into Hong Kong to-day. The reports telling of arrival are not identified definitely, but they were either the British cruisers Hampshire and Minotaur or the French cruisers Duplex and Montcalm. The German ships which are said to have engaged in battle are believed to be the cruisers Goeben and Scarns.

WILL BRING TURKEY TO BOOK.

PARIS, To-day.
 The Allied Government opposed to Germany and Austria-Hungary has agreed to bring Turkey to a realization of its obligations as a neutral power in connection with the purchase from Germany of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau.

ANOTHER NAVAL STORY.

LONDON, This Afternoon.
 A despatch to the Chronicle from West Hartlepool says the captain of a Danish steamer, the Huldameak, declares he passed seven sunken German ships 15 miles off Spurn Head at northeast entrance of Humber. Only the masts of the vessels were above water. He believes they are German men of war.

WAR WILL LAST 18 MONTHS.

LONDON, To-day.
 Eighteen months was the laconic reply of Lord Kitchener when asked to name the duration of war, at a dinner given at Mansion House Square.

MARTIAL LAW IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, To-day.
 What practically amounts to martial law was proclaimed this morning by a special issue of the London Gazette, which gives a long list of new rules for the public. Under these, private persons may not light a fire on a hill, may not spread alarming reports, must, when ordered, keep indoors, and at specified times may be ordered to keep all lights out. The authorities may order the destruction of any house of property and finally the power of court martial is given the authorities in certain cases.

GERMAN ARMY RETREATING.

LONDON, To-day.
 An Exchange telegram from Brussels says the right wing of the German army is still retreating, harassed by Belgian outposts. During the night a number of skirmishes accentuated the German retreats.

BOWINGS SHIPS.

The Prospero left Herring Neck at 8.35 a.m. to-day.
 The Portia left Lamaline at 9.50 a.m. to-day.

German Army Division Surrender to French Troops

LONDON, This Afternoon.
 The Paris correspondent to Exchange Telegraph Co. telegraphs official statement issued by Minister of War at the French capital at midnight that on the ridges of Vosges mountains the French troops held their positions on the mountains five days, despite the vigorous attacks of the Germans, who were superior in number. At one point the Germans brought beside their weakened troops some formation of reserves, but the latter were unable to resist the French attack and were obliged to lay down their arms. An entire division surrendered. The French troops held the valley of Bruche.

Here and There.

WAITING FOR SQUID.—Seventeen Lunenburg bankers are now at Carboneau awaiting squid bait. So far none of these fishes have yet struck the land.

SAGONA RETURNING.—The s.s. Sagona left Twillingate early this morning coming south and is due here on Sunday. A message to the Reid Co. from that port states that the ship reached as far north as Nain. Capt. Kennedy reports an improvement in the fishery all along the coast.

LINTROSE PASSENGERS.—The Lintrose arrived at Port aux Basques at 6.30 a.m. to-day with the following passengers in saloon: W. K. Sterling, Miss Sterling, Wm. McDonald, Miss H. Kelly, Miss E. Harkley, Miss M. Kelly, Mrs. C. J. Denty, Mrs. F. V. Chesman, A. B. Baird, Mr. Kohne, Mr. Milona, M. McLusker.

LOYAL AUSTRALIA.

Special to Evening Telegram.
MELBOURNE, Australia, Aug. 13.
 The war spirit has spread rapidly throughout the Australian Commonwealth and there have been numerous patriotic manifestations on behalf of the British Empire. A request is being made to the British Government that the Commonwealth may be allowed to raise a force to be known as the Australian Imperial Expeditionary Force.

DISPOSITION OF GERMANS.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
 The Telegraph's military correspondent at Paris declares that several German army corps are assembled around Metz and extend in the form of a triangle, from Metz to Treves and Luxembourg and the Province of Namur. The German right flank, says the correspondent, rests on the Meuse near Huy, three army corps with supporting cavalry being established on the left bank. This army threatens to attack Brussels or invade France in the direction of Mons in the Belgian Province of Hainault.

RETIRING BUT VICTORIOUS.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
 A despatch from the French Foreign Minister issued by the French Embassy to-day reiterates the statement that the French troops behind Mulhausen have retired but have victoriously resisted an entire German corps.

TURKEY TO BE NEUTRAL.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
 The Ottoman Embassy to-day denied the report that Turkey had purchased the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau. The British Foreign Office has been notified that Turkey would remain absolutely neutral.

THE CHANCES OF WAR.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 13.
 The Japanese steamer Shikoku was seriously damaged to-day and one of her crew killed by a cannon shot fired from the British fort at Hong Kong while the vessel was entering that harbour. The Shikoku Maru paid no heed to the harbour regulations. Warning shots were fired over her bows but she did not stop and a third shell then struck her amidships.

TSING TAU TO BE ATTACKED.

LONDON, Aug. 13.
 A central News despatch from Shanghai says the German Minister at Tokio reports an arrangement between the Japanese Government, and the British and Russian Ambassadors to the effect that Japan will assist the British and French fleet in an attack upon Tsing Tau the German naval base in the Far East. Tsing Tau is garrisoned by 5,000 German troops and reservists. All British subjects have been expelled from there.

A BOASTING GERMAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.
 According to the captain of the German cruiser Leipzig now off this port there are eight war vessels flying flags of belligerent nations on the Pacific Coast each daily expecting conflict with one or more of its adversaries. That he is optimistic concerning the outcome of any engagements in which his command may be involved, may be shown by his remarks to Baron von Schaak, Acting Consul for Germany who visited the Leipzig yesterday accompanied by newspaper men. "I would not take us long. I believe we could dispose of them at the rate of one a day."

SEVERE FIGHTING OF RECONNOITERING PARTIES.

LONDON, To-day.
 The hour of battle which will have much to do with settling the future of Europe is appreciably nearer. Reports of engagements which when the main armies meet will be considered insignificant have been coming in all day, showing cavalry screens, sometimes accompanied by infantry, whose duty it is to find out what is going on, come into contact in Northern Belgium near Healen and on the French frontier near Othain. The meeting of these reconnoitering parties in force resulted in some pretty severe fighting, in which, according to French and Belgian official accounts, the allies scored further successes. The other side of the story is still to be told, for Berlin remains silent. The fact that the German War Office had little to say since the reported capture of the city of Liege leaves the position around the fortress somewhat veiled in mystery. The Germans have resumed their attacks on the forts, but how they are progressing has not been communicated to the outside world.

GERMANS CORNERED IN FAR EAST.

LONDON, To-day.
 The Hong Kong correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Co. says it is reported there that the British fleet in the Far East has succeeded in cornering the German Far Eastern squadron. Weight is given to the report, the correspondent adds, by the fact that shipping along the coast is resuming a normal basis.

GERMAN TROOPS HUNGRY.

PARIS, To-day.
 An official communication says German prisoners who have been questioned give the impression they are broken in spirit and physically weak from hunger. They seem not to have been informed concerning the reason for mobilization. One man asked why war had been declared.

TRADE ROUTES WELL GUARDED.

BRUSSELS, To-day.
 Had a report to-night that the forts succeeded in silencing all the big German guns but little credence is placed on this. It may be that for the moment the invaders stopped onslaught, either to restore or adopt some new means of gaining their object. Lorraine for the present seems to have been left out of the fighting, while Alsace is the scene of engagements between advance guards of the main German and French armies. The Austrian army has commenced to move on Russian Poland. Nothing comes from the Russo-German frontier, but much the same is going on there as in other theatres of war. Russian and German cavalry are busy trying to discover what the main armies are doing. The British navy has now virtually cleared the trade routes and German and Austrian ships are now so closely watched, the Admiralty advises shipowners to send out vessels as usual. The trade routes of the world are arriving at English ports. What is more important steamers with provisions are coming from Scandinavian ports.

RIGHT WING RETREATS.

LONDON, To-day.
 The German right wing still retreats, harassed by Belgian outposts. During Thursday afternoon, numerous skirmishes occurred.

OTTAWA, To-day.

An order is being issued, applying against Austrians in Canada, the regulations lately enforced against Germans. This follows British declaration of war against Austria.

ASQUITH PRAISES THE BELGIANS.

LONDON, To-day.
 A Brussels despatch says the British Prime Minister Asquith, replying to a message from the Belgian Minister expressed admiration for the courage and valor of the Belgians, which he added: "Is the best proof Britain did right in interfering on behalf of Belgium, defending international treaties. The example of Belgium will be of service to all the free nations of Europe."

RUSSIANS SEIZE EIGHTY-FIVE SHIPS.

ST. PETERSBURG, To-day.
 Seventy-three German and twelve Austrian steamships have been seized by Russians.

Where Responsibility Lies.

No matter how large, or how small, a business may be, nobody can deny that its Office is the nerve centre of the firm. Every transaction, important or trivial, must be recorded at the Office. An order is received at the Office, its history is recorded at the Office, and finally payment is received at the Office. If the Office makes an error the firm stands the loss. That's why you must be sure that your office is modernly and dependably equipped for the care of all important papers. To do this effectively you need the up-to-date equipment of the "GLOBE-WERNICKES CO." When sixty offices in St. John's have found this necessity this equipment can surely be of use to you. Mr. Percie Johnson represents this world known firm in Newfoundland.

Avondale Garden Party

The annual garden party in aid of the new Church at Avondale takes place on Saturday, August 15th. The Committee and citizens generally have been very painstaking in their efforts to have the event this year a record success. To replace a large church is a task of great difficulty, but the splendid progress to date is very gratifying to all our parishioners, hence it is that a new spirit seems to animate them for the coming event and we hope success will reward their efforts. The collection and proceeds of the social at Easter that usually augmented the church funds were given to the sealing disaster fund, and an urgent work is necessary on the interior of the church the Committee are straining every effort for a record figure with the present function that they have in hand. Very material assistance from visitors from St. John's and other places fell to their lot other years and the same would gladly be welcomed this year. The affair takes place in Moore's field, and Rev. Fr. Shean and the Church Committee including Messrs. Dr. Jones, George Kennedy, M. H. A. and Patrick O'Brien will be present to welcome visitors and contribute to the success of the event. A dance with refreshments will be held in the hall during the night. There's room for a large number. Avondale, Aug. 12th, 1914. S.

That Wont end Corns

That liquid, that plaster—based on old ideas—won't terminate a corn.

Don't try it. Your druggist has a new way—the scientific Blue-jay. It is so efficient, so easy, so painless that it now removes a million corns a month.

The way is this: Apply Blue-jay at night—it takes only a moment. From that time on the corn will cease to pain.

Forget the corn for two days, then simply lift it out. Blue-jay loosens the corn. In 48 hours you can remove it without any pain or soreness. Folks have proved that, up to date, on sixty million corns. Stop the old-time treatments. End your corns forever in this simple, easy way. Try it on one corn.

Ye Mariners of England

Ye mariners of England! That guard our native seas; Whose flag has braved a thousand years, The battle and the breeze! Your glorious standard launch again To meet another foe! And sweep through the deep, While the stormy tempests blow; While the battle rages loud and long And the stormy winds do blow.

The spirit of your fathers Shall start from every wave— For the deck it was their field of fame And Ocean was their grave; Where Blake and mighty Nelson fell, Your manly hearts shall glow, As ye sweep through the deep, While the stormy tempests blow; While the battle rages loud and long And the stormy tempests blow.

Britannia needs no bulwark, No towers along the steep; Her march is o'er the mountain wave, Her home is on the deep. With thunders from her native oak, She quells the floods below— As they roar on the shore, When the stormy tempests blow; When the battle rages loud and long And the stormy tempests blow.

The meteor flag of England Shall yet terrific burn; Till danger's troubled night depart, And the star of peace return! Then, then, ye ocean warriors! Our song and feast shall flow To the fame of your name. When the storm has ceased to blow; When the fiery fight is heard no more, And the storm has ceased to blow. —Thomas Campbell.

First Aid Class.

The meeting held at the British Hall last night, for the purpose of forming a class to study First Aid to the Injured, was largely attended. Dr. C. Macpherson presided, and after welcoming the candidates and outlining the principles of First Aid and the many benefits accruing from a knowledge of the subject, he called for the election of a Chairman and Secretary for the new class. Mr. Ezra Lodge was chosen as Chairman and Mr. Warwick Smith, as Secretary. Dr. Macpherson then withdrew and left the class to choose their lecturer which resulted in the selection of Dr. M. C. Roberts who will be asked to deliver the course of lectures. The class will meet on Tuesday nights and the first lecture will be given on Tuesday next at 8 p.m. The members of the class signed the roll and displayed a great deal of enthusiasm which was very commendable.

Owing to the number of young men desirous of studying First Aid it is expected that another class will be formed shortly. That the new class will be as successful as their precursors is beyond doubt particularly as they have selected so capable a lecturer to deal with the subject, and have displayed such wholeheartedness in their desire to be of service to mankind.
