The Sum Asked From the Electric Light Company.

SOME STARTLING REVELATIONS.

Wright's Important Testimony at the Boodle Investigation.

Ald. Stewart Makes an Admission That He Attempted to Mislead the Electric Light Company by Supplying Fictitious Figures.

When did you have this talk with McGowan?—A. After Mr. Keating's report was received. McGowan's report was delivered to the committee about two weeks ago.

What became of the report after that?—It is in the hands of the committee and will be presented to the council.

Where did you get the idea?—A. Out of my own head.

What was the result of this?—A. I don't know.

It has been stated that the only company who could possibly tender for the sale of current was the Toronto Electric Light Company; that statement has been made by the Toronto Electric Light Company and the Incorporated Company could also tender.

Why the tenders were not opened?—A. The tenders were not opened because the committee was not ready to receive them.

Why were they not opened on that date?—A. Mr. Bertram of Toronto suggested an adjournment, as he had not received the tenders.

Did you ever see any agents of electricity?—A. Yes, I saw them at the time the tenders were opened.

What took place?—A. Wheeler asked me what time the tenders would be opened.

What was the result of this?—A. The tenders were not opened.

Did you see any of the tenders?—A. No, I did not.

Did you see any of the tenders?—A. No, I did not.

CITY BOND TROUBLE ENDED.

THE EXECUTIVE WITHDREW THE BONDS FROM THE MARKET.

Heated Debates at the Meeting of the Committee in Which Aldermen Get Angry.—Solve the Difficult Old-As-Cancelled Question Will be Considered Afresh.

On a division of 6 to 5 the Executive Committee yesterday afternoon decided to withdraw the new Toronto city bonds from the market and cancel all the offers that have been made for their purchase.

This decision was arrived at after a most lively and heated discussion in which several of the aldermen lost their tempers and made uncomplimentary remarks about each other.

Ald. Shaw stated that his own personal honor had been impugned, whereas Ald. Crawford had been insulted. That in thought the honor of the city had been impugned prior to the arrival of Mr. Smith's letter.

The committee met in an evening, but the meeting was adjourned until the afternoon. The meeting was held in the morning session, but in the afternoon he was not allowed to witness the proceedings.

Mr. Smith produced the letter from Mr. MacFen on which the charge is based that cabinetman was sent to England giving the terms of Mr. Smith's resignation. Ald. Shaw met this charge by proving the letter from Mr. MacFen was dated Oct. 22, nearly two weeks after Mr. Smith's offer had been made public.

Ald. Frankland suggested that the bonds be taken off the market and that the committee commence all over again as to their disposal.

Ald. Shaw did not think such a course would be the best one for the city to pursue.

Ald. Hallam favored the suggestion that the bonds be taken off the market and that the committee commence all over again as to their disposal.

Ald. Crawford also favored the suggestion that the bonds be taken off the market and that the committee commence all over again as to their disposal.

The Mayor criticized Ald. Shaw and Ald. Frankland in a kind and charitable manner. He said that the Mayor, Ald. Shaw, Allen, Atkinson, John Smith was entitled to the bonds.

The Mayor's view.

The Mayor said that notwithstanding the letter or the manner in which the Mayor was written, he thought of the two tenders Mr. Smith should have the preference.

Ald. Frankland submitted a resolution that the bonds be withdrawn from the market. A vote was taken on this resolution and it was carried.

The report of the committee reads as follows: "The committee recommend that the action in the council be taken to consider the question as to whether, in the financial condition of the city, it is expedient to issue 4 or 3 1/2 per cent. debentures to take place until the policy is settled by the committee in council."

The annual provincial plowing match, under the auspices of the Ontario and the East York Agricultural Association, took place yesterday on the farm of Mr. William Mackenzie, near Markham.

The plowing was done in every way a decided success, the quality of the work being such that the judges were unanimous in their verdict.

A great gathering of about 2,000 people on hand to witness the plowing.

Such a gathering, said one well-known farmer, does not occur in this county once in a year.

FOURTY-ONE CONVERTS.

Remarkable Scenes at the Moody Revival Meeting. SEVERAL HUNDRED INQUIRERS. Four Thousand Men Were Present Last Night. Cursing and Crevasses Christians - Thimbleful of Heavenly Glory - One of the Devils' Great Lies - Have No Hedge - All Past Sin Forgotten and Forgotten.

The ninth of Mr. Moody's revival meetings held yesterday afternoon in Massey Hall was as successful as any of those previously held. The attendance was as large, the devotion deep, the prayers as earnest and the singing as sweet.

At 8.30 Mr. Moody, who had been waiting for some time, stepped to the front of the platform and said: "I know that My Redeemer Lives and Ever Prays for Me. My Hope is Built on Nothing Less Than Jesus' Blood and Righteousness, and Wants 'I'm Not Ashamed to Own My Lord'."

a congregation almost entirely composed of men. How they sang the choruses of the sacred songs was a revelation to many. Some hundreds of students were in the upper gallery. As soon as the building was filled the choir sang the following hymns: "To the Work," "Awake, there comes a whisper," "Come, calling you," "Sing the bells of heaven," "In the shadow of His wings," "Whiter than snow," "Jesus is my life," "My Redeemer lives and ever prays for me," "My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness," and "Watts' 'I'm Not Ashamed to Own My Lord'."

Christ the Seeker. Mr. Moody was heard with almost breathless attention. He spoke of the cross, the lost, the impenitent, the Good Shepherd going after the lost sheep, and His joy in its recovery. God is now seeking the sinner, not to uphold His name, but to save. How God seeks was manifold, He was seeking through that meeting.

Toward the picture to the wall. A gentleman in Brooklyn, given to disposition, turned his mother's photo to the wall because she had been the wife of the wayward man. Other homely but effective illustrations were given. He exhorted all to seek the Lord and immediately He should be found, to the joy of the angels. Why, He would wash every harp in heaven so that He might hear the welcome cry of the poor sinner.

Scripture Examples. The story of blind Bartimeus and of Zacchaeus was told and spiritualized. The only reputation Christ had at that time was as a street preacher. He came to the city to be crucified. "I would to God some Zacchaeus would be converted in Toronto. It would turn the heads of the angels." He would restore of goods in plenty to the poor.

THE BURIAL OF AN EMPEROR.

Impressive Ceremonies at the Funeral of Alexander III, of Russia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—The most solemn of religious services were held at noon yesterday in the church of Livadia to which the body of Alexander III, was removed the previous night.

The services were attended by Emperor Nicholas, the Czarina and the Prince and Princess of Wales, the representatives of various foreign powers, and many others.

The Czar was deeply affected. At the conclusion of the services and after the royal visitors present and the troops had viewed the body, the populace were formed in line and filed past the coffin to take a farewell look at their dead ruler.

Many of those who looked upon the face of the dead Czar were visibly affected, and expressions of sorrow were heard on all sides.

The cortege left the church at 8 o'clock. The procession was headed by the chief of the palace police and the master of ceremonies, both mounted, followed by numerous troops of soldiers.

Following the coffin came the Czar and his suite, the Prince of Wales and the Russian Grand Duke, then the Czarina and the Grand Duchess in mourning coaches.

The entire route of the procession was lined with troops. Upon the arrival of the cortege at Yalta prayers were offered for the repose of the soul of the dead Emperor, and salutes were fired from the shore and the ships in the harbor.

The coffin was placed on the train, and the cruiser Panaiter, which was carrying the Czar's remains, departed for the Crimea.

JOE THEASTON'S RELEASE.

His Friends Now Contend That He is Innocent. Attorney Clarke is endeavoring to secure the release from penitentiary of Alfred Theaston, alias Thackney, on the charge of the murder of Emma. It will be remembered that Theaston was sentenced to the Kingston penitentiary for a year as a result of a conviction in July last on the charge of obtaining $500 by means of a check which he had drawn at different times as Mr. Bennett, Carter, and Thackney, and the name of the last name he got when he married Theaston in Windsor while he had a wife living in Toronto. Theaston was formerly a smith in Toronto.

LOW SPIRITED AND WEAK.

An Enfeebling Condition Far Too Common Among the Women of Canada. Low spirited and weak is a condition that afflicts many women in this country. They are old in appearance when they should be in the prime of womanhood.

They are martyrs to headaches, easily tired and indolent to exertion, and are pale and yellow in complexion. They are nervous and irritable, and are unable to do very much of the household work. My appetite was bad and I suffered from indigestion.

I used several medicines with no beneficial results and at last was advised to try Williams' Pink Pills. I used them for some time and am again enjoying the very best of health.

My friends and family are all well and my general health is better than it has been for some time. I consider Pink Pills an invaluable medicine and recommend them to the thousands of women who are suffering as I was.

In all cases of this kind Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the only remedy that will cure them. They enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves and drive out impurities. Every woman who suffers from any of the above troubles should try Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Refuse all substitutes and imitations.

Rapid Promotion. The friends of Mr. A. E. Hagerman, late secretary of the Ontario Bank, will be pleased to learn of his appointment to the management of the West and branch of the Ontario Bank. The appointment is a creditable one and is a recognition of Mr. Hagerman's long and successful career in the banking institutions. Mr. Hagerman was formerly in the lumber business.

A Toronto Woman's Death. Mrs. Basford, wife of Architect E. P. Basford, superintendent of the construction of the new government building at St. Paul, Minnesota, and daughter of the late Patrick Murphy, died of cholera suddenly at the table in her husband's home, Tuesday evening. She ate supper with the family, looked and appeared in every way as healthy as usual. Suddenly she complained that she was not feeling well and in a couple of minutes dropped over dead.

The Faces Brought Back. William E. Lacey and his wife, who conducted a baby farm in Glanville-avenue and against whom a verdict of manslaughter was returned by a coroner's jury, returned voluntarily from Buffalo with Detective Verney yesterday and will be arraigned before the Police Magistrate this morning.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, which might have been avoided if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting the best medicine. Dr. J. K. Keen's Cholera Remedy, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

Why She Committed Suicide. Mrs. Mary Stock, who had committed suicide by hanging yesterday, told the Magistrate that she married a second time under the impression that she had a right to do so, as she had secured a separation from Stock. The prisoner was remanded for a week for sending in a writ.

Owing to the great demand for the Toronto Sunday World second edition has been published, containing the article French versus Anglo-Saxon Immorality.

INCITING TO IMMORALITY.

The Authorities Take Action With Respect to the Alleged Indecent Pictures Exhibited on the Walls.

F. W. Stair, manager of the Academy of Music, and Joe Price, bill-poster, were charged at the Police Court yesterday morning with exhibiting immoral pictures. The defendants were formally remanded until to-day, when the Magistrate will not dispose of the case but send it to the assizes.

The Magistrate said: It is time that something was done to stop these objectionable pictures being posted. He thought that posters of men and women on railway tracks, under crushing machines, and before ripaws and other evidences of cruelty were the cause of a great deal of the crime before the courts. The pictures of partially dressed women were less degrading than those of safe-blowers and many kinds of cruelty. In England there was an officer whose duty it was to suppress all these matters, and it would be as well if there was such an officer in Canada.

Diamond Cutters Strike. The following cable despatch was received by Messrs. A. & E. Ellis yesterday from their London office:

"General strike of cutters in Amsterdam. The diamond cutters in Amsterdam, who employ about 10,000 men, have struck on Monday. The cause of the strike is the proposed increase of wages. The diamond cutters in Amsterdam are some 12,000 people employed at the industry, many of whom are foreign powers. Mr. Ellis does not know yet what is the cause of the strike.

Kilguy's Living Pictures. Toronto has had a couple of exhibitions of living pictures since the craze commenced, but in a few weeks the original Kilguy pictures will be shown here. This will be the same production of living representations of the old masterpieces as given in New York last season. The same models will be used in a mythological, biblical and classical subjects, and the same mechanical and electrical effects used.

Swallowed Wire Nails. Edward Hales, carpenter, 329 Dundas-avenue, was admitted to the General Hospital yesterday suffering from a peculiar ailment. He had been at work on a building and while looking upwards he swallowed two or three wire nails which he had in his mouth. One of the nails lodged in his throat, and an operation had to be performed before it could be dislodged.

Wants a Bill of Costs. Mrs. Sebastopol, who recovered a verdict of $750 against Thomas Ware at the Spring Assizes for breach of promise of marriage, yesterday applied to the court to have her solicitors, Fraser & McEwan, rendered her a bill of costs. Although she consented to allow her solicitors to deduct $800 from the verdict on their compromise she now demands a bill of costs.
