"Meet you at 4 to look at a bicycle? Of course I can, but I chose my new range instead of a wheel—and I wouldn't change it—it makes the work so much easier."

"That's true enough, but I've kept track of the coal this winter, and your blessed Imperial Oxford has made such a saving that I can afford the bicycle too—don't be later than 4."

"Tom, you're a brick—"

"Not me—it's the stove."

Preface

IN preparing for publication this first edition of TYRRELL'S SOCIETY BLUE BOOK, we have departed somewhat from the popular idea of what constitutes a Blue Book, and included many individuals who may not be strictly in Society. The entries in the Royal Blue Book in England include only those individuals who have been presented at Court, but with no such list to draw from in Canada we have included in this edition individuals who are prominent in the trades and professions as well as the leaders of Society, believing that such a list will be of greatest service to the greatest number.

It is our intention to improve each successive edition of this volume, making it a help to every hostess, and a necessity in every home.

We invite suggestions for the improvement of future editions and thank our numerous patrons who have so kindly furnished us with the information contained in these pages.

... Explanation ...

TO avoid increasing the size of this book beyond the limits of a handy directory for ladies use, and at the same time include all information desirable and valuable in a Blue Book, necessitates the use of a system of abbreviations, to which some slight explanation may be necessary.

The figures in parentheses represent the clubs to which the party belongs, the index to which will be found in the beginning of this book.

Mrs., nee Jones, signifies that the maiden surname of the lady is Jones.

The telephone number is readily distinguished by its prefix - Tel.

The receiving day is given where such a day is fixed.

Other members of the family, if of the same name, are added in small type. If of a different surname, they are alphabetically arranged without reference to their relationship.

NOTE.—You are requested to make a careful examination of this book and immediately communicate all errors of whatever nature you may find, so that the correctness of future editions may be secured. Please send any information you may gather that will aid in keeping the records correct to
