We had awings "He is swimming right into the shark's nothing to intercept the burning rays mouth!" up fore and aft; for, where there was of the July sun, the decks were so hot that the pitch boiled out of the seams. The dinner was over; the sun was slowly sinking in the west, and we had all come on deck, being anxious to get as much air as we could, for the cabin of a sugar ship is generally stuffy. The deep, placid sea was more peacefully calm than I had ever before seen it. Not a flaw, not a ripple, not an undulation broke the tranquil surface of the glass-like sea. Cark Sanfald.
