J. L. STEWART. EDITOR.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 4, 1873.

The Clerkship of the Legislative appointed in pursuance of a promise made by the Government to the Legislative Council, last session, when Mr. Botsford consented to resign. The appointment dates from August 1st, 1872.

We may anticipate the retirement (on a satisfactory retired allowance) of the present clerk of the House of Assembly,

And is this the end of a quarrel that was expected to lead to the abolition of the Legislative Council? Mr. Botsford was dismissed from office three years ago, and Mr. Bliss, Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, appointed in his place.

Mr. Botsford refused to recognize the authority of the Government, as he claimed to hold his office direct from the Queen, and the Council declined to accept the services of Mr. Bliss. There were, therefore, two gowned and spectacled gentlemen standing at the foot of the throne at the opening of Parliament ready to receive from the hands of Col. Harding the manuscript of his reply to the address. That sensible veteran proved himself wise in state craft by handing the document to his secre-

President. Mr. Botsford entered upon the duties of the office as usual, and Mr.

Bliss regularly attended. At the end the signatures of both clerks, and Mr.

Bliss was paid the salary, and Mr. Botsford's contingent account, in which his own and assistant's salaries were

It was a big row altogether. Begun under the reign of Attorney-General

Wetmore, and bequeathed to his successor, it promised to become chronic.

dec 30 55 Kink street. 41 King Street. WAREHOUSE55 GERMAIN STREET. WE regret to announce to our subscribers and friends the total destruction of our Printing Office, in New York, on Christmas Eve. This event will necessarily cause a postpone ment in the delivery of our January Reference Book. We have, however, duplicated Manuscripts of the entire work, in our numerous branches, so that although the fire is a very great calamity to us, the delay in issuing the book is the chief feature involved in it. We shall immediately commence the work again, and respectfully ask the indulgence of subscribers under these calamitous circumstances. The preparation of new type, the press-work, composition and binding, will, with every exertion we can make, occupy time, but we think that we may safely promise that the delay will not exceed two months at the utmost, and in the meantime the detailed information on our Office Records (the foundation of all the ratings) is freely at the services of subscribers.

Respectfully yours,
