JAMES PITMAN KILLED BY AN OTTAWAY CAR

Former Hotelkeeper Was Struck at Corner of Lyle and Dundas Streets.

NEWS KEPT FROM HIS DYING FATHER

Coroner Ferguson Has Ordered an Inquest Into Tragedy of Saturday Night.

James W. Pitman, a finisher, employed at the Grand Trunk car shops, and formerly hotelkeeper at Clandeboye, whose home was at 777½ Simcoe street east, near Rectory street, was struck by an Ottaway avenue car at the corner of Lyle and Dundas streets shortly after midnight on Saturday night, and so badly injured that he died early Sunday morning. Dr. R. Ferguson, coroner, was notified, and will hold an inquest. The jury viewed the body at 12:30 o'clock today.

There were no eyewitnesses of the accident, so far as can be learned. Mr. Pitman, according to the story told by the street railway employees, was standing on Dundas street, about two or three feet from the car tracks.

Motorman Sennicot, in charge of car No. 58, of the Ottaway avenue line, was bringing his car into the barns for the night. As he approached Lyle street he noticed a man standing there, apparently waiting for the trolley to pass.

The Accident.

Sennicot slowed his car up, he says, as he neared the switch and turned the corner. As he did so, Pitman swayed, and suddenly lurched towards the car. The motorman saw him fall, and reversed, but Pitman was dragged some distance before the car was stopped. He was carried into the company's offices in an unconscious condition.

Dr. Seaborn was summoned by Superintendent Young, and the ambulance was called. The injured man was taken to Victoria Hospital.

He failed to rally, and slowly sank, death taking place shortly after 5 o'clock Sunday morning. His wife was summoned an hour after the accident, and was with him when the end came.

There were few evidences of injury on the body. A bad bruise on the forehead and a couple of others on the limbs were all that were visible. However, Pitman's skull was fractured, and it is thought that this injury caused his death.

Street Railway Statement.

"The man stumbled in front of the car," Superintendent Young informed The Advertiser. "He was standing on the corner, clear of the track, when the Ottaway avenue car came along. When it turned to go into the barns, he lurched and stumbled on the fender, striking his head on the bumper. The motorman had no time to prevent an accident, but he plugged his car and brought it to a stop. We called Dr. Seaborn and had the man sent to the hospital. There were no signs of injuries save a mark on his forehead and a few bruises on his legs. Had he been rolled under the fender or wheels he would have been badly cut up.

"Other motormen complained of this man," said Mr. Young, "and he had narrow escapes from injury two or three times shortly before he was killed. Motorman Lankin identified him as the man who nearly fell in front of his car."

According to information given by the officials, Motorman Sennicot is an experienced motorman. He is working as a spare here, but has had much experience in Montreal, it is claimed by the company.

Another Version.

Another version of the accident is that Pitman was standing on the tracks leading to the barns, expecting the Ottaway avenue car to go east.

When it swung suddenly around the corner going to the barns, he endeavored to avoid an accident, but was struck by the side of the car and thrown on the fender.

Dr. Ferguson, the coroner, took charge of the remains in the morning. The body was removed to Ferguson's undertaking parlors, and Dr. Seaborn will perform a post-mortem on it.

"We will hold an inquest," Dr. Ferguson stated. "The jury viewed the body at 12:30 today. There are few signs of injury on the man's body, and Dr. Seaborn will conduct a post-mortem to discover the cause of death."

The late Mr. Pitman was well known in London, having resided here for more than thirty years. He was born in Woolwich, Eng., coming to Canada with his father, who was a soldier. The family lived for some

WELL-KNOWN GRAIN BUYER IS DEAD

Mr. William Reynolds, of This City, Passed Away After Short Illness.

Mr. Richard Reynolds died at his home, 186 Wortley road, South London, yesterday evening, after a brief illness. Mr. Reynolds was a well-known citizen, having been a grain buyer on the city market for over 40 years. Few men in this vicinity had such a large acquaintance with the surrounding residents. He was born in Cambridge, Eng., and came to this country as a young man, and had lived here ever since. He is survived by his wife and four children: Mrs. W. J. Winter, of Owen Sound; Mrs. A. W. Reynolds, of Guelph, and Miss Dorothy, and Fred N., of this city. The family will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The funeral takes place on Tuesday.

BARNETT CASE WAS RESERVED

Argument Was Heard by the Privy Council on Famous Local Railway Case.

A MESSAGE IS RECEIVED

Plaintiff Had Both Legs Cut Off in an Accident at Waterloo Street Two Years Ago.

The Privy Council reserved its decision in the appeal of the Grand Trunk Railway against the verdict secured by Walter C. Barnett, the Horton street man who lost both legs in a collision between Pere Marquette and Grand Trunk trains a year ago, according to a cablegram received yesterday morning from Mr. John F. Faulds, Barnett's solicitor, who has been in England on the case for several weeks.

Mr. Faulds' message from Queenstown, Ireland, contained only the information that judgment had been reserved and that he will be back here next Saturday. Barnett received a verdict for $6,000 in the Canadian courts, but the company carried the matter to the supreme court of the empire.

It will be remembered that Barnett rode on the tail-end of a Pere Marquette train backing up from the G. T. R. station to the roundhouse at Burwell street. At Waterloo street a G. T. R. caboose standing foul of the Pere Marquette line was struck, both of Barnett's legs being severed.

While he was not on the P. M. train as a paying passenger he secured a verdict against the Grand Trunk.

THINK BEATTIE NESBITT PRACTICING IN CHINA

Police of the Chinese Cities Are Asked To Be on Watch For Him.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 13. — The police in their chase for Beattie Nesbitt, are circularizing China. The latest rumor has it that the fugitive ex-president of the Farmers' Bank is practicing medicine in one of the coast cities of the Celestial Empire. As a result, the chiefs of police of Canton, Hong Kong and like cities have been sent circulars printed in English offering $200 reward for the doctor's apprehension.

ALD. COOPER HOLDS THE CHAIRMANSHIP

Won His Point in Regard to the City Hall Committee.

Ald. Cooper is chairman of the special city hall committee. It will be remembered that objection was made at a meeting of this committee some days ago to Ald. Cooper taking the chair. Mayor Beattie ruled that as Ald. Cooper moved the original motion to name the committee, he could act as chairman if he so elected. Of course, Ald. Cooper elected to do so.

Ald. Richter and some of the others continued their objections, and to settle the matter, the opinion of City Solicitor Meredith was asked.

The opinion was handed to Mayor Beattie today, and in it Mr. Meredith states that Ald. Cooper is chairman of the committee, as his worship had ruled when the committee first met.

The decision will occasion some interesting sessions. Ald. Richter and others are determined that Ald. Cooper shall not be chairman of this committee, and an attempt to remove him as chairman will be made. It will be necessary to call a special meeting for the purpose. Whether or not they can accomplish this remains to be seen. The attempt will be made in any event, and failing, it is possible that Ald. Richter and Ald. Ashplant will resign from the committee.

It looks like a very interesting time for some of the aldermen.

BURNS PROVE FATAL.

Montreal, March 13.—Ellen Birmingham, 17 years of age, who was badly burned at her home on Paris street, Point St. Charles, about one month ago, died last night in the Royal Victoria Hospital. From the first the physicians could hold out but slight hope for her recovery.

BISHOP MOVES TO END TROUBLE

Outside Commission Will Investigate Conditions in St. John's Church.

A MEETING ON THURSDAY

Notices Have Been Received By Members of the Church Asking Them To Be in Attendance.

A commission named by Bishop Williams will investigate the difficulty between Rev. W. T. Hill, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, and the congregation.

Notices were received today by a number of the members of the church, and the officials, asking them to attend a meeting in Cronyn Hall on Thursday evening next to take up the question. The official notice reads as follows:

"Grace Church Rectory,
"Brantford, March 11, 1911.

"The commission appointed by His Lordship the Bishop of Diocese, re the matter of Rev. W. T. Hill, will meet in London at Cronyn Hall, in the executive room on Thursday, March 16, at 8 p.m.

"(Signed) C. C. McKenzie, Convener."

No other information could be obtained regarding the commission, both officials and clergy refusing to discuss the question.

FATHER SCENTS FAKE MARRIAGE

Mr. George Nicholls Thinks His Daughter Has Been Imposed Upon.

NO WEDDING RECORD

May Be Others Mixed Up in the Alleged Bigamy Case and Trouble Will Be Sure to Follow.

Mr. George Nicholl, of 48 Edward street, South London, whose daughter, Miss Mabel Nicholl, has laid a charge of bigamy against William Herbert King, stated to The Advertiser today that as far as he can learn his daughter was the victim of a fake marriage.

"I think there was a whole bunch mixed up in the affair," said Mr. Nicholl. "I have a big stack of letters about this fellow, but as far as I can find out there was no minister in St. Thomas married my daughter to him. I am going to see this thing through."

"As far as I have been informed up to the present time," said Crown Attorney McKillop, to The Advertiser, "no trace of any marriage between Miss Nicholl and King in St. Thomas has been found. I am not in a position to say, however, whether there was a fake marriage or not."

Asked if any steps had been taken to arrest any others who might be implicated, in case a fake marriage was performed, the crown attorney said that the matter had not been gone into yet.

Inquiries are still being made by the detectives. King, it is stated, maintains steadfastly that he never married Miss Nicholl. He will come up for a hearing on Friday.

STUDENTS ARE SEEKING POSITIONS

Are Putting in Applications as Census Enumerators.

Students from Toronto and Montreal, especially, who will be home in June, are applying in great numbers for positions as enumerators, to Mr. Ethelwolf Seatchard, census commissioner, for London.

Already a big batch of applications have been received, the total being but a couple short of the century mark. Some of those who desire the jobs are at present located as far away as Jacksonville, Fla., but the great majority are from the immediate vicinity of this city.

BAD EARLY MORNING BLAZE DESTROYS A WINGHAM BLOCK

The Chisolm Building Wiped Out—Fifteen Thousand Dollars Damage Being Done—Conflagration Caused by Exploding Lamp.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, March 13.—A serious fire broke out here this morning about 3:25, when the Chisholm Block on Front street took fire. It seems that a lamp exploded in the departments upstairs of Mrs. Cosford, a millinery store. The alarm was at once sounded by Nightwatchman Gibson, and the brigade in a few minutes had four streams of water playing on the building. With the water pressure good, and very little wind, the fire was confined to one block, consisting of Hamilton's drug store, McDonald's barber shop, Mrs. Cosford's millinery store, and Fells' butcher shop, which were all consumed, leaving only the bare walls to mark the spot where once stood one of the first brick buildings in this town. The I. O. O. F. Hall was consumed also with its contents. Dr. Chisholm, who owns the building, is in the Northwest at present. Loss to property is about $15,000, and well covered by insurance. Through the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Clegg, the firemen were well supplied with hot coffee, which kept up their spirits while fighting the flames.

VAN CLEVE PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO THREE OF THE ALDERMEN

Didn't Like the Manner In Which Some of His Work Had Been Criticised at a Meeting of the Council Some Time Ago.

In his letter, declining the position of city engineer of London, Mr. Van Cleve expresses his confidence in the city, and assures the council that it undoubtedly has a splendid future. He speaks in glowing terms of it, and thanks the mayor and council for their uniform kindness.

"On the other hand," he continues, "I note by the press reports of your last meeting that my re-engagement was bitterly opposed by two aldermen and a third recorded a negative vote. The two who were strongest in their opposition are both members of the board of works, that committee to whom the city engineer most directly reports. In their zeal for municipal economy as an adjunct of civic righteousness, I fear that the continued hostility of these aldermen would make it impossible for the city engineer to carry on his department in accordance with the standards of business efficiency and engineering prac

WRIT SECURED BY MR. M'EVOY

Fight Begun for Ex-Ald. Gerry to Retain the Gerry Flats in South London.

MR. BECK WANTS LAND

It Is Stated, and the Water Commission Are Trying to Help Him Carry Out His Contract.

A writ of injunction was issued today by Mr. J. M. McEvoy on behalf of ex-Ald. William Gerry, restraining the water commissioners from expropriating his property known as the Gerry Flats for waterworks purposes.

The papers were filled out this morning, and notice was served on the water commissioners.

This will not prevent the session of the arbitrators tomorrow. They met on Friday last, for the purpose of organizing, but little was done. They will meet again on Tuesday, and a price will be set on the land. Mr. McEvoy's notice of writ will be served on them, too, to comply with the legal requirements, but they will proceed with their work of valuation. Their powers are restricted to that, as they

VAN CLEVE WILL NOT COME BACK

Former City Engineer Writes That He Is Through With the Office Here.

ALDERMEN NOT A UNIT

Some of Them Criticised Mr. Van Cleve and Aroused His Ire—Successor Must Be Appointed.

Mr. A. H. Van Cleve will not accept the position of city engineer of London.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the city council he was offered the office at a salary of $3,250 per annum.

It was thought at the time that he would accept, but the debate in the council apparently settled Mr. Van Cleve's mind regarding it.

Some of the aldermen, Ald. Saunders and Ald. Cooper, members of the board of works, were rather outspoken in their criticism of Mr. Van Cleve, and in his letter he states that it was the opposition of these men, together with the fact that one or two other alderman voted against his appointment, that led him to decide not to return.

Mr. Van Cleve thanked the council for their courteous treatment to him during his stay in London, and he declared that he would cherish pleasant memories of his stay here.

The letter will be taken up by the council at their next meeting, on Monday, March 20.

The aldermen have no alternative but accept the refusal, and make an effort to secure a man for the position.

Deputy Engineer Wright is most prominently mentioned in that connection, and a number of the aldermen are desirous of giving him an opportunity to "make good."

He is in charge of the department now, and will continue there until the position is permanently filled.

PASTOR SCORED THE CLUBROOMS

Rev. Mr. Dewey Declared That Some of Them Are Very Bad in London.

SOME ADVICE TO GIRLS

Keep Off the Streets Unaccompanied—Minister Is Against New Barroom Tax.

At the Empress Avenue Methodist Church last night, Rev. George W. Dewey, in the course of an address to young women, scored certain young men's clubs of the city.

"No young man who has any respect for his manhood," he said, "would belong to such clubs. They serve no good purpose. No attempt has been made to deny the charges that have been made regarding the debauchery of young women, and the drinking that goes on in some of them. That, of course, means an admission that the charges are true.

Advice to Girls.

"I would advise the young girls to absolutely refuse to be on the streets at night unaccompanied, as it is a generally accepted fact that girls that are on the streets are there for no good purpose."

Mr. Dewey said that the whole root of the trouble is in the home training, and he urged mothers to train their girls and boys as they should be brought up.

"Girls," he said, "go home at all hours, and no questions are asked. This is not as it should be."

Barroom Tax.

Mr. Dewey spoke most forcibly against the proposed tax of five per cent. on the hotel revenues in excess of $40 a day.

"Surely," he said, "our Legislature is not so poor that it needs to take its revenue to run the province from the poor wretch of a drunkard. I am most strongly opposed to any such measure as is proposed, and would far rather see some law passed to regulate the degraded output of the bar."

NOT GETTING VALUE IN STREET LIGHTING

Council Pays $184.51 Per H. P. For Electricity Used Twelve Hours a Day.

VAN CLEVE GIVES OUT THE FIGURES

Former Head Engineer of the City of London Has Prepared a Statement.

Mr. A. H. Van Cleve, formerly head engineer of London, is of the opinion that the city is not getting value for its money in regard to street lighting. For some time prior to his departure Mr. Van Cleve was preparing data on the subject, and he tabulated it for the benefit of the aldermen. Copies were sent to a number of them, in fact nearly half the council have been supplied.

In it Mr. Van Cleve states that the city is paying 8.03 cents a kilowatt hour for street lighting while ordinary consumers are paying but 4½ cents. He states also that the city is getting but 152,000 candle power under the Tungsten system, as compared with 722,000 under the arc system.

At the rate now paid, the water commissioners are getting $184.51 per horse power, for electricity used less than twelve hours a day.

Mr. Van Cleve has prepared some tables for the benefit of the aldermen, and they will be used when the commissioners and No. 3 committee meet to discuss the lighting contract.

His letter is as follows:

Data in Regard to Street Lighting

I beg to submit to you herewith a tabulated statement setting forth various facts in regard to the street lighting, present and proposed. While I believe that the tabulation will be clear to you, it may be well to state certain facts in regard to the apparatus to be used for supplying current to the street lights, and in respect to the lamps now erected and proposed.

At present there are eight circuits supplying current to the 60 c.p. Tungsten lamps used for street lighting, each circuit being controlled by a constant current transformer having a capacity of 200 lamps. The load on the transformers is not equally distributed, some circuits being overloaded and some underloaded. The total number of lamps now erected on the eight circuits is approximately 1,556. There are about 24 lamps and couplers in stock to be erected, which will make a total of 1,580 lamps. If it were possible to load each circuit with its exact number of lamps there would be 8x200, or 1,600 lamps, in use outside of the business district.

The Business Section.

It is proposed to light the main business section of the city by 80 iron poles, each supporting 5-80 c.p. Tungsten lamps, a total of 400 such lamps. These are not now in place, the said section being lighted by 32 c.p. carbon lamps, erected for the celebration. Such temporary lighting is not considered in this report. It was the original intention to supply these 400 lamps with high tension current, controlled by 2-22 K.w. constant current transformers. In these circumstances there would be no spare transformers, and an accident to one of the transformers would throw a section of the city in darkness until repairs could be made.

A later plan is to furnish current to the downtown lighting on poles from the power circuits at 575 volts. This would leave the 2-22 kw. transformers for use on additional residential street lighting. If one of these were left for a spare, as should be done, we would have the conditions stated in item xv. 6, and this will represent the maximum capacity of the station for street lighting.

You will note that the arc lamps formerly in use were 250 in number, and each was required to have an illuminating power of 2,000 c.p. in accordance with section No. 11 of the agreement with the London Electric Company, dated Aug. 12, 1898. If these lamps did not give 2,000 c.p., it was through the lack of enforcement of such section. The total candle power formerly supplied should therefore have been 722,000, as compared with a maximum of 152,000 under the proposed arrangement of Tungsten lamps.

Listen to This.

The average price paid the London Electric Company per annum in 1909 and 1910 was $28,858. If the utility board were paid at the same rate for the lamps now erected, such payment would be equivalent to a rate of 6.03 cents per kw. hour, or $184.51 per h.p. per annum for current used less than twelve hours per day. If 2,275 lights were provided the rate would be equal to 3.0 cents per kw. hour, or $119.20 per h.p. per annum for current used less than twelve hours per day.

If a private consumer were using 242 h.p. for power purposes at various places with loads of from 1 to 2 h.p. each, he would obtain a flat rate of $10.50 per h.p. per annum, or in other words his annual bill would be $9,805.05. If he could contract for this power on the minimum commercial flat rate, his annual bill would be $7,844.04, and at the minimum differential rate his bill would be practically the same amount. For other detailed figures I will refer you to the table.

The Lighting Load.

I call your attention to the fact that the lighting load should have a power factor of about .90, while the motor load of a private consumer would have a power factor of only about .80, a difference of .1 in favor of the lighting load. A desirable feature of the lighting load is that it does not cross the power load for a considerable part of the year. Another feature of the Tungsten lamp system from the standpoint of the company furnishing the same is the fact that but one wire is required for a given circuit, while for house lighting it is necessary to use pole transformers and a system of secondary wiring. For a proper distribution of the light on the business it is also necessary to carry three primary wires for most of the district to be served. For power purposes, much heavier wiring is required than for the street lighting, as the distribution voltage is much lower.

Should any additional data be required, I shall be pleased to furnish the same.

$1,000 in Gold for a Former London Pastor

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Vancouver, March 13.—Rev. A. J. McGillivray was the guest of honor at a farewell social held in his honor in St. John's Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening. The congregation showed their appreciation of his splendid work by presenting him with a purse containing more than $1,000 in gold. Mrs. McGillivray was presented with a diamond ring, a purse of gold, and a silver cardcase. Many expressions of regret at their departure were heard at the meeting.

Mr. McGillivray was formerly pastor of the New St. James' Church in this city, and is known as one of the best organizers in the Presbyterian Church today. He has been in Vancouver for several years, and has put St. John's Church there in splendid shape. Mr. McGillivray recently resigned to work in another field.

PARENTS NEGLECT THEIR CHILDREN

A Scathing Criticism by Canon Tucker of Certain Conditions in London.

THE HOME IS A SHRINE

But is Only Too Often Grossly Neglected, With the Result That the Children Are Not Treated as They Should Be.

In a sermon on "Home," at St. Paul's Cathedral last night, Canon Tucker took occasion to score some of the alleged conditions existing in London at the present time.

"I ask you," he said, "what do you think of the women who leave their little children to be brought up in the companionship of servants and receive their ideas from the boys and girls of the street while they themselves are away spending the time playing bridge? How does such a thing strike you? It is like Jezebel turning away from the Lord to serve at the altars of Baal. The home is a shrine, and every shrine should have an altar and the mother should be the high priestess of that altar.

Shirking Responsibility.

"What, I ask you again, do you think of parents who, having pledged themselves by assuming the responsibilities of marriage to bring up their children and train them as they should be trained, never teach their little ones to read the Bible and never gather them together in the home for family prayer? I tell you that we need not go out to China, or to Egypt, or to India to see what we may do to build up the empire. Look at the facts we learn about the little girls in our own city being trampled in the very mire of the filth of the streets. What an awful waste of humanity.

The Bad Men.

"What, I ask you, do you think of parents who will allow men whose lives they know are given over to the lowest immorality to be introduced into their homes and welcomed. We see this sort of thing every day. What do you think of the man who enters the home under such conditions to desecrate it. Let us take the word of the apostle, who tells us to put such men away from us.'

"I want to ask you, also, what you think of the man who neglects his wife and family and spends all his spare time at the club? The club may be a good enough place in its way, but it never should take the place of the home."

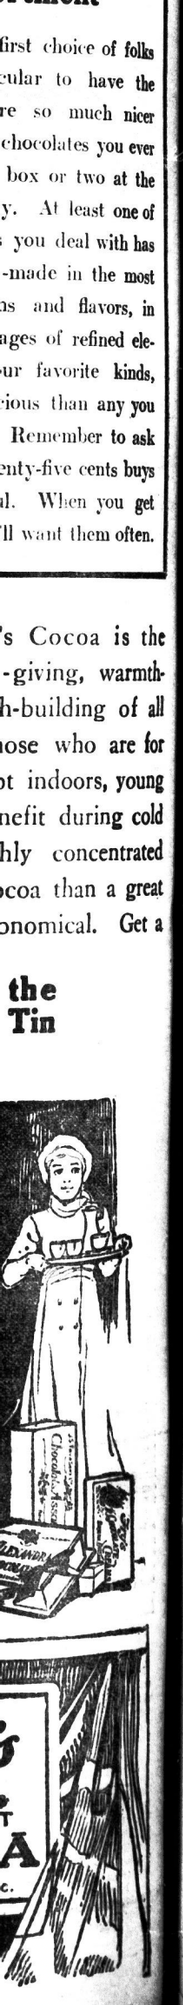

Moving Towards Democracy.

Canon Tucker said that the city, the Dominion the whole empire, is facing great problems today.

"On all sides," he said, "we see dangers menacing the future. We long to put our finger just on the spot where a remedy could be applied for such evils. The whole world is moving on toward democracy. Not that democracy that says that man is born free and equal, for that is not true. Some will always be called to lead and others to serve.

"The democracy of the future will be in equality of opportunity in which every man will have the chance to make the best use of his life. As we look away into that future we see dangers and problems, and the greatest danger that threatens is that of anarchy and lawlessness, when every man does what he likes and the evil passions of men and evil men are let loose on the world. What is needed is some centre of authority and law-

That Feeling Of Fullness

Disappears In Five Minutes After Taking a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

A Trial Package Sent Free On Request.

All of the unpleasant sensations attendant upon eating too heartily are instantly relieved by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. Like sticking a pin into a puffed cushion. The reason is simple and easy to understand.

Inflation Of The Stomach From Undigested Food Quickly Relieved By A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

When you take food into a stomach that is tired and over-taxed, the gastric juices do not digest fast enough to digest it properly. So the food becomes sour and at once begins to throw off gases. Your stomach becomes inflated just as surely as if you attached a toy balloon to a gas jet. Then the gases and foul odors issue forth and pollute your breath, making you an object of nausea to your friends. Your tongue quickly becomes coated, and you can taste the foulness that is within you.

Now all this condition is changed almost instantly by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. This little digester gets busy at once—supplies all the digestive juices that were lacking, digests the food in jiffy and opens up the clogged stomach and bowels. It also sweetens and refreshes the mucous lining of the stomach and bowels and restores peace and comfort.

If you will give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a chance, they will not only sweeten your stomach, but also your disposition, and you will never have another stomach ill.

One grain of a single ingredient in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. This gives your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest if they are ever over-taxed. The stomach is no exception to this rule.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere. A trial package will be sent free on request to F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart building, Marshall, Mich.

MONSTER FLOWER SHOW IN THE LOCAL ARMORIES

Horticultural Society Plan Big Exhibition to Aid the Sanatorium.

Preparations are being made to hold a monster flower show in the Armories in August, the proceeds to be devoted to the Sanatorium.

At the meeting of the Horticultural Society on Saturday evening arrangements were made to interest a number of prominent men in the affair in order to make the show a great success.

"We are making preparations for the show," Mr. W. W. Gammage, the secretary informed The Advertiser. "We expect it to be the largest ever held in this city. We are desirous of interesting a number of prominent business and professional people in the affair, as we want to make it a record-breaker. We have not secured the Armories as yet, but we do not anticipate any great difficulty in that. The funds will be devoted to the sanatorium."

In addition to that item of business, the committee made a selection of seeds to be distributed to the members.

The committee are now working on the seeds to be distributed to school children, but have not yet completed their work.

ADDRESS ON SPRAYING

Meeting of Vegetable Growers on Saturday.

A very interesting meeting of fruit and vegetable growers was held in the county buildings on Saturday afternoon. The most instructive part of the programme was the address on "spraying" by Mr. J. C. Harris, of Ingersoll. The prizes awarded for the exhibits of this meeting were as follows: Potatoes, first, W. Trott, second, G. W. Birrell, Rhubarb, first, W. Fuller; second, G. W. Birrell. Carrots, first, W. Trott, second, J. Moulton. Twenty-two new members were enrolled at this meeting.

Her Face and Body Were Litterly Covered With "BOILS."

Mrs. John H. King, Johnston, N.B., writes:—"Last summer I was very much troubled with boils, and my face and body were literally covered with them. A friend advised me to take Burdock Blood Bitters. I got three bottles, and before I had taken all the first one my boils began to go away. I had just taken a few doses out of the last one when they all disappeared. My husband has also used Burdock Blood Bitters with much benefit."

Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still, at the same time, are very painful. They are caused entirely by bad blood, and to get rid of them it is necessary to put the blood in good condition, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal that old and tried remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters.

IF NO DEVIL, WHO'S DOING THE WORK?

Rev. Mr. Bingham's Address in Talbot Street Baptist Church On Sunday Afternoon.

WHY MAN IS TEMPTED

Is a Free-Willed Being, With Power To Do Good or Evil — A Strong Sermon.

"Today men are laughed at for believing in a personal devil," said Rev. H. H. Bingham in the Talbot Street Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. "We have been getting away from the idea of a Satanic personality. But I want to ask, with Gypsy Smith, if there is no devil, who is doing the devil's work? We no longer hold the old mediaeval conception of a devil going about as a roaring lion. Today Satan is incarnate in modern forms. He very often appears in the latest clothes, in a panama hat, with his trousers turned up unusually high to show highly-colored stockings. Often he appears as a stately-looking woman, with painted face and bright clothes, whose only purpose is to drag down those who associate with her. The devil comes too as an angel of light to deceive the very elect. But though he often fools us, we cannot fool his Satanic majesty."

Rev. Mr Bingham was addressing the monthly mass meeting of the Men's Baraca Bible Class, on the "The Struggle of Temptation."

Man's Free Will.

"Man is a free-willed being," said Mr. Bingham. "He possesses the choice of doing good or evil. Hence he is tempted. But temptation is not sin. It is not sin to possess desires or sensations of appetite, but the sin lies in allowing desires to debase and lower us. Temptation arises from the indulgences we gratify or have gratified in the past, and from the power we have in our hands to do right or wrong.

"There are Satanic forces in the struggle of temptation. There are just as many foes without as there are passions within. Temptation crowds upon man every day he lives. The question is, shall we succumb to the Satanic forces or by the grace of God triumph over them. Do not say that you are tempted in your particular environment more than other men. My library may be more dangerous than your workshop. There are temptations in solitude as well as in society. The devil tempts men in the wilderness and in the monastery, as well as in the heart of the city.

Struggle of Temptation.

"The struggle of temptation is always accompanied by suffering. There are helpless women left alone in the world without their husband's care and support, who work patiently in broken health by day and night with their needle to support their children. They are strongly tempted to sell their purity for bread for their little ones. There are men who having done much for others are tempted sorely by the very ingratitude of those they have helped. There is suffering in the struggle of temptation and there is none of us without a struggle. Men scoff at those who try to leave sin. To the black soul it seems a white soul is an offence.

"But there is a sympathy that comes to men in temptation, which we too often overlook. Other men and women are struggling with sin and temptation just the same. We can't express to others the struggle in our own hearts and souls and the burdens which we bear.

"There are women who rather than yield to a life of shame will spend their last strength in living to honor God.

The Only Solace.

"But not in the sympathy of men alone but in the friendship of Christ and his sympathy and saving power can we find solace. No man need yield. No burden is so great that it cannot be borne.

"Then there arises the question of salvation in the struggle of temptation. To change our environment is not the only thing to be done. You can never save a man by merely changing his environment. Though Talbot street were filled with saloons from end to end, that would be no reason why I should enter one and become a drunkard. Heredity and environment are great, but the power of God is greater. We are not saved by more environment, but by the power of God in our lives. The influence, the prayers and the remembrance of their mothers keeps many men from yielding to temptation."

Mr. Bingham made a passing reference to Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter." "I pray God for the time," he said, "when there will be more equality. Why should a man walk in the best society when his heart is as black as those who are down and out? The woman who falls is branded, but the man is allowed to go free. The struggle of temptation is keen and severe, but the power of God is able to effect our salvation."

During the service solos were given by Mr. Ed. Webster and Mr. W. A. McCutcheon, which added largely to the attractive character of the meeting.

BROKE TWO WHIPS OVER TWO WOMEN

Kentucky Female "Whitecaps" Severely Punish Erring Sisters.

[Canadian Press.]

Lexington, Ky., March 11.—Garbed as "Whitecaps," a score or more of women joined with about 100 men in administering a whipping to two women in Morgan County, according to dispatches that arrived here today. The victims of the mob were sisters, Nannie and Mary Combs. The beating was most severe, as attested by the fact that two new buggy whips were worn out on the backs of the women. After that they were forced into a vehicle, sent to the nearest railroad station, and put on a train, under orders never to return.

The Combs sisters were accused of maintaining an objectionable establishment. They had been warned frequently to leave.

NIOBE DESERTER CAUGHT.

Montreal, March 11. Chief Campean has been advised by wire that Ernest Joseph Grise, a volunteer on board the Niobe of the Canadian navy, has deserted ship since March 2.

Last night, Detectives McLaughlin and Richard arrested Grise in a hotel, and he was sent to the cells, pending orders from the naval authorities.

Take One Pill, then—Take it Easy.

Take What Pill? Why, a Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pill, of course. Good for all kinds of pain. Used to relieve Neuralgia, Headache, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Kidney Pains, Lumbago, Locomotor Ataxia, Backache, Stomachache, Periodical Pains of women, and for pain in any part of the body.

"I have used Dr. Miles' medicines for over 12 years and find them excellent. I keep Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in the house all the time and would not think of taking a journey without them, no matter how short a distance I am going. I cannot praise them enough."

Vesta Victoria and Company Tonight.

The Grand Opera House tonight and tomorrow night will be the mecca of every lover of vaudeville in this city, for the aggregation of stars to appear tonight, headed by that wonderful English comedienne, Miss Vesta Victoria, is the greatest that has ever been seen, outside of the very largest cities on the continent. It includes the celebrated Russian pianist, Ovanski, Van Camp, the Holland psychic; Tillie Terris, the famous Australian singer; Johnny Ford, the wonderful entertainer; Frank Bush, the McLaren Scotch instrumentalists, and the only Vesta Victoria. It means a great performance, and once seen will never be forgotten. All the songs in the repertoire of Miss Victoria are rich and overflowing with unctuousness not to the least subtle, but eminently infectious.

"A Stubborn Cinderella."

Lovers of musical comedy will find in "A Stubborn Cinderella" all the requisites that go to make up a thoroughly complete production of this description. The book is by Hough and Adams, and the music by Joseph Howard. These noted writers have collaborated in the construction of one of the greatest successes ever given to the musical comedy stage. The cast of principals is made up of a number of prominent artists; the chorus is composed of attractive, prepossessing and capable young ladies. Chas. A. Goetzler has equipped the production with magnificent scenery and gorgeous costumes. "A Stubborn Cinderella" comes to the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, March 15. Seats selling.

"Madame Sherry."

On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock seats will go on sale at the box office of the Grand for the engagement of "Madame Sherry," the phenomenally successful musical comedy which will appear here Friday evening next, March 17. That the attendance during the engagement of "Madame Sherry" in this city will be relatively equal that of Chicago, where the piece ran through the heat of the summer, and that of New York, where the spacious New Amsterdam Theatre was inadequate to hold the crowds, is almost certain from the number of mail orders that have been received from people who are anxious to enjoy this delightful French vaudeville. For "Madame Sherry" is a novelty in every way. Its comedy is bright and refreshing, and the story is much more plausible and consistent than is found in the ordinary musical farce. Its music is not only enchanting, but every number is the result of some situation in the comedy. In points of production, cast, chorus and special orchestra, "Madame Sherry" represents the last word in perfection.

"The Godess of Liberty."

"The Godess of Liberty" comes to the Grand Saturday next, matinee and night. Mr. Ned Wayburn, who produced this Hough, Adams and Howard musical play, is famed for his rain storm effects, and in Mr. Singer's musical play he has added several realistic touches. There are the flashes of distant lightning, and the dull rumble of thunder; then it draws nearer and you hear the rustle of the breeze in the tree tops of the forest. Finally, with a loud clap of thunder the storm arrives, reaches its height, and a tall tree is made the object for a stroke of lightning. It falls with a crash. The little fire that has been kindled in a hollow stump, sputters and extinguishes when the first fall of rain comes. In fact, Mr. Wayburn forgot nothing in preparing this scene, and it is said to be one of the sensations of the season in the way of scenic and electrical effects. Seats Thursday.

GAS, INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA GO

Out-of-Order Stomachs Feel Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food. Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out of order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Sale of 596 Manufacturers' White-wear Samples, 8 o'Clock Tomorrow at Big Reductions

We have purchased the entire samples of one of the best makers of Ladies' Fine Whitewear at such a liberal discount that we are able to offer the full assortment of beautiful undergarments, consisting of Underskirts, Gowns, Princess Slips, Combinations, Drawers, Corset Covers, Chemises, Aprons and Dressing Sacques; also Children's Dresses, Skirts, Gowns, Drawers, Pinafores, Infants' Slips and Infants' Skirts AT AWAY BELOW REGULAR PRICES.

The total number of garments in this purchase is 596, and includes all prices in every kind of garments: Skirts from 65c to $18.00; Gowns from 75c to $12.50; Drawers from 20c to $5.00; Corset Covers, from 20c to $4.50; Princess Slips from $3.25 to $5.00, and Combinations from $3.50 to $8.75, and the partial list of prices quoted below will show reductions of about one-third off these prices. These have been shown and handled by the travellers in taking orders for the spring season, which is now over with the manufacturer, therefore some may be slightly soiled or somewhat mussed, but in most cases a little pressing with an iron to straighten out the frills, etc., will make them as good as new. In any case they are made to wash and do up, so what matter when you can buy a $1.00 garment for 67c or 75c, a $2.00 garment for $1.37, a $3.00 garment for $2.00, a $4.00 garment for $2.75, a $5.00 garment for $3.50, and so on up to an $18.00 Underskirt for $12.50? Such reductions make double amends for some that may not be clean and fresh, but many you would say were never out of their boxes, and are as fresh and clean as a new pin.

Sale Begins at 8 Tomorrow

Just a word here to those who wait until the afternoon or the day following. Last year we handled this same maker's samples, and practically everything was sold in one day. This means YOU MUST COME EARLY, or you will miss the opportunity so many have been waiting for, and the very garment you want will be picked up by early buyers. This is the Whitewear event of the season. Don't miss it. The partial list of prices given below will give you some idea of the variety:

VERY FEW HEAR AMES AND DOHERTY

The Anti-Reciprocity Meeting at Chatham Proves a Fizzle.

W. KENT CONS. GATHER

Opposition Supporters at Tilbury Addressed by the Two Montrealers.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chatham, March 11.—The West Kent Conservatives had announced that there would be a great rally of Conservatives in the I. O. O. F. auditorium this evening, and it was expected that every true Conservative—especially those living in the city—would be present to hear Mr. Ames, of Montreal, and Hon. Mr. Doherty, of the same place, discuss the tariff agreement, which the Government are about to make with the United States, but at the appointed hour but half a dozen of the faithful were to be found at the hall, and this few were in very strong terms voicing their disapproval of the way things have been going lately with the local organization, or, as a lifelong Conservative put it, disorganization.

"How can we expect to get a crowd when there is so much dissatisfaction with the present M. P. P.?" was the only excuse offered by an office-aspiring member of the rank and file.

A Handful Present.

At 8:50 ex-Mayor Thomas Scullard arrived, accompanied by Mr. Ames, who immediately took a seat on the platform, and apparently began to count the crowd on his fingers.

Mr. Scullard, in introducing Mr. Ames, said that he was very sorry so few had turned out to hear such great men as the speakers of the evening, and he was sure that they would be given some important facts about the reciprocity pact.

Mr. Ames Speaks.

Mr. Ames said that as this was the first time he had ever been called upon to address a Chatham audience, he wished to express his gratitude for the opportunity.

The speaker then began to pick the tariff agreement to pieces. First he ridiculed the Government for the way they had first brought in the bill, without first consulting or discussing it with the Opposition, going back in the history of Canada to other tariff revisions.

Then the speaker made a weak attempt to defend the "let good enough alone" policy of the Opposition, and as an argument said that Canada had advanced more in the last ten years than China had in a thousand.

Mr. Ames said: "Suppose this bargain worked out all right? The United States still have it in their power to ruin us." But he did not give any conclusive proof to back his statement.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was accused of being short of campaign matter, and thus put in this measure to fill the want, and almost in the same breath did the speaker declare that the Premier was one of the best statesmen that Canada has ever had.

Turns to Farmers.

Speaking to the farmers, of whom there were about a dozen present, Mr. Ames tried to show that if the agreement is finally passed, the butter, cheese and beef, which are now known as Canadian in European markets and rated far higher than those from any other country, would have to be sent to those markets as American goods, and be sold at a lower price than is now received.

Mr. Ames' statement that Canada would become a rural annex to the United States did not carry with it much weight.

Mr. Doherty.

Chairman Scullard, before calling on Mr. Doherty, briefly commented on the remarks of the previous speaker.

Mr. Doherty opened with apologies to his ability as a public speaker, and tried to make the little crowd believe that President Taft was the sole dictator of the proposed tariff revision. A big percentage of those present retired in disgust.

Mr. Doherty's address did not seem to have very much behind it, and about 10 o'clock, when the larger part of the crowd had left, he began with more apologies, and thanked the assembly for their attentive listening.

Sulman Absent.

Mr. Scullard at the close of the addresses explained that Mr. Sulman was not able to be present on account of the serious illness of his little daughter.

Tilbury, March 11.—West Kent Conservatives gathered here this afternoon, and listened to anti-reciprocity addresses by Messrs. H. B. Ames and Judge Doherty, Conservative members for Montreal. There was a fair crowd in attendance. Mr. W. C. Crawford acted as chairman.

Mr. Ames began by censuring the Government for the way it went about negotiating the trade pact. He said such a revision of the tariff should be the work of Parliament. He declared that it was a poor bargain for the Canadian farmer.

He said reciprocity was sometimes good, but not when they produced the same things, as was the case with the United States and Canada.

Mr. Ames used the old worn-out argument that Canada would be a dumping ground for the Americans.

Of hogs and horses he said that better prices were commanded in Canada than in the United States, and that reciprocity meant the loss of the Manitoba market for horses.

Judge Doherty, who followed Mr. Ames, said that reciprocity would divide the east and west. He charged the Liberal Government with betraying the country, and claimed the whole situation was engineered and dominated by Taft.

License District of East Middlesex

Notice is hereby given that Mrs. Mary A. Graham, of London Township, has made application for permission to transfer her tavern license, for the premises known as the Hotel Graham, to Benjamin Graham, of London Township, and that said application will be considered at the meeting of the board of license commissioners, to be held at their rooms, 436½ Richmond street, in the city of London, on Saturday, March 25, 1911, at the hour of 2 p.m.

All persons interested will govern themselves accordingly. THOS. DUFFIN, License Inspector.

TRACK LAYERS BURIED UNDER AN AVALANCHE

Half Million Tons of Rock and Earth in Virginia Slide.

Virginia, Minn., March 13.—Death in the form of 500,000 tons of iron ore, rock, earth, ice and snow, Saturday slid down on 30 track layers working in the Norman open pit mine. Only four escaped the avalanche, and three of these are in a hospital, suffering from injuries that may prove fatal.

Ole Johnson, foreman of one of the three changes of men that were caught by the vast mass, is the only one whose injuries are not critical.

The place that was an open pit is now almost a plain of rock, ore and earth, with here and there parts of a body in sight. A few crushed heads protrude from the mass. Arms and legs could be seen at varying angles, as the great lantern of the steam shovels swung over the half-filled pit.

An army of men with shovels worked desperately to recover the bodies. The work was tedious and difficult.

Women and children ran screaming to the pit, and some fell in while looking eagerly for lost friends.

It will be days before all the bodies can be recovered, and all the parts of several may never be assembled. The mass of rock and earth ground many of them into shreds. The only men near the outer edge had a chance to run as the landslide swept into the hole. As far as can be ascertained all the men caught in the slide were Finns and Austrians. Many left large families. Paul Paulson, whose wife died a month ago, left seven children orphans. The little ones formed a group at the edge of the pit tonight.

The miners, who were taking up one of the two tracks in the pit in order to permit the steam shovel to work in another part of the mine, were for the most part bent over with bars and claws when the avalanche swept down. The great mass struck them to earth. Many were flattened in the bottom of the pit, while a few were carried to the surface by the earth as it rolled over in the pit, much as a furrow is turned by a plowshare.

LONDON, MONDAY, MARCH 13.

A LONDON MANUFACTURER ON RECIPROCITY.

Mr. T. S. Hobbs, of the firm in a letter to the Globe, scans the reciprocity agreement with the eye of a successful manufacturer, and sees nothing but good in it. Mr. Hobbs' line of argument is calculated to appeal to his fellow manufacturers, and men whose interests are largely financial and commercial. He recognizes that the Government has been extremely careful of Canadian industry. "What would be said of Sir Wilfrid and his Cabinet," he shrewdly asks, "if, while they withstood the demands of the farmer in regard to what he had to buy, they also declined at the instance of some manufacturer, to give him a better market for what he had to sell?" Manufacturers and financial magnates who are opposing the agreement might ask themselves not only what would be said of the Government in such circumstances, but what would be the political effect upon the farming community. "May it not be," says Mr. Hobbs, "that some at one time Liberals have lost their sympathy for the common people owing to the fact that their whole environment is surcharged with trust interests and corporate greed." This is a palpable hit at certain "Toronto dissentients."

Mr. Hobbs, who can claim some first-hand knowledge of agriculture, contends that the garden province of Ontario will peculiarly profit under reciprocity, as no state in the union has more advantages of situation with relation to the great eastern consuming centres, and no state as near that market has anything like so fertile a soil. He predicts that an impulse would be given intensive farming in Ontario which would largely increase the rural population. Our dairy products, barley, beans, hay, potatoes, and small stuffs generally would find a ready and constantly increasing market next door. Opponents of reciprocity give their case away by their desperate efforts to prevent the operation of the agreement. If at the end of one year the farmer, fisherman and lumberman had been injured by it, surely the country would show its displeasure by thrusting out the Government. Mr. Hobbs thinks the benefits will be such as to dispose the farmer to bear more willingly the burden which is necessary to be borne until Canadian manufacturers are in a position to compete with American. Farm lands in Missouri, Iowa and Illinois are selling freely from $150 to $200 an acre, while better land in Ontario brings only $60 to $80. The explanation is that the United States farmer buys more cheaply and sells his products to better advantage. All the world has Liverpool, but the United States has New York. "Cannot the manufacturer," Mr. Hobbs asks, "so insistent upon protection to his interest, see that he is endangering that protection by refusing to give the producer the manifest advantages of this agreement?" At least one manufacturer is not blind to his own interest.

GLOOM IN GERMANY.

While the pride of patriotmongers in England divides its time between moaning over the imaginary military and naval inferiority of Great Britain, and painting Germany in menacing colors, a wail of pessimism comes from Germany itself. The Duke of Mecklenburg, regent of Brunswick, declared at a shipping banquet in Bremen two or three weeks ago, that under the black, white and red ensign of Germany there was "a wild struggle of competition, a fight of all against all, a division of German interests at the very moment when foreign nations are mustering all their power." He added:

"We see Germany yielding step by step, and many an anxious German eye looks up at the lofty mast with the question, 'When will that flag be hauled down and give place to the Union Jack, the Tricolor, or even the Yellow Dragon?' That is a grave saying, yet I think it should be uttered here by someone who has a warm heart for German trade and German shipping, and the cry should go up before it is too late: 'All hands on deck!'"

The Kaiser's own brother, Prince Henry, shares the duke's gloomy forebodings. Speaking to a corps of army veterans recently, he called upon all patriots to "unite against the internal foe that threatens ruin to the state." "We are living," he said, "in an exceedingly serious and grave political period, in spite of forty years of peace." It is true, he admitted that Germany has no cause to fear "her envious external enemies throughout the world," but he maintained that all the more on that account should Germans be watchful, and, as young and old soldiers, 'gather round the Kaiser in the contest with a domestic enemy who grows continually more threatening." He referred, of course, to the growth of the Socialist party. It polled more votes in the last election to the Reichstag than any other political group, and it has won nearly every by-election since. As a living protest against militarism, the party would be a greater check on aggressive designs by the Government than any foreign power.

The real Germany is very different from the one pictured by the English alarmists. The mailed fist is not pointing across the North Sea, but it is being shaken at millions of German subjects.

THE MEXICAN OUTBREAK.

The concentration of 20,000 United States troops on the Mexican border is not an annexation movement, as some excited head-line writers affect to believe. It merely means that the Mexican revolution is a more serious affair than outside observers have hitherto imagined. The Washington Government is evidently in receipt of inside information which has not reached the ordinary news channels. Mexico and the United States run together for 1,200 miles, and the Mexican belligerents are crossing and recrossing the frontier. If it is true, as asserted, that many American sympathizers are aiding the rebels, the American Government is in duty bound to prevent the violation of neutrality. It has also a right to arrange for the protection of the vast American interests in Mexico. It will perform a service at the same time for European and Canadian investors, if there is danger of destructive civil war on a large scale.

The rebellion appears to be recoil from the long, despotic rule of President Diaz, who has been a dictator masquerading under Republican forms. He has been wonderfully efficient and has promoted the material prosperity of his people, but he has ruthlessly repressed all opposition, and robbed the country of the semblance of free institutions. Diaz, now old and feeble, there seems to be no one strong enough to grasp his falling sceptre. The misfortune of his rule is that it has not trained the people in self-government. Their democratic instincts are stirring again, now that the repressive hand of Diaz is relaxing, but they have no regular machinery by which the country can pass smoothly from one regime to another. Unfortunately so advanced a people will find a stable political footing again, but there might be an interval of violence that would be ruinous to foreign investments, unless these had been some external protection. The United States may be trusted to perform this duty impartially. There is a strong community of sentiment among the republics of Central and South America, although they are frequently at one another's throats. The Washington Government has no intention of challenging the newly-created solidarity of Latin America by again seizing a part of Mexico. The aim of United States policy for half a century has been to cultivate the good-will of the southern republics.

The Canadian farmer has no objection to the annexation of the American dollar.

The foot and mouth disease has broken out in England. No wonder, with two elections in a year.

The latest silliness of the reciprocitophobists is to picture the United States as preparing to gobble both Mexico and Canada. This is prattle for children.

The Duke of Connaught is now represented as an immigration agent. It is said his presence at Ottawa will stimulate immigration from Fifth avenue, New York.

The Saskatchewan Assembly sat continuously for 61 hours last week owing to Opposition obstruction. The baby legislatures of the country take themselves quite seriously.

Dr. William Saunders, who retires in his 76th year from the directorship of the Dominion experimental farms, has been a great public servant. Londoners have been always proud of him as a local product. May he have many years of well-earned leisure.

Mr. H. B. Ames, M. P., and Mr. Doherty, M. P., were in Essex on Saturday trying to convince the farmers that the United States market was of no value to them, and that under reciprocity American farm products would be "dumped" on the American market. If that were true, the Canadian Government would be "dumped" by the farmers at the next election. What touching concern Messrs. Ames and Doherty are showing for the interests of the Liberal party!

The latest bulletin of the Canadian department of agriculture gives the world's wheat production last year at 3,651,864,000 bushels, compared with 3,646,105,000 bushels in 1909. The crop in the southern hemisphere—Argentina, Chili, Australia and New Zealand—during the season of 1911, which is closing in those regions is given at 569,161,000 bushels compared with 249,634,000 bushels last year. In the northern hemisphere the areas sown to winter wheat are one to three per cent. greater than a year ago. The new bureau at Rome for the collection of world statistics on agriculture is doing a useful work.

CANADA HAS THEM.

And about the time Sir Wilfrid Laurier was making his speech, Sam Kiser was inditing the following apposite paragraph (Sam, by the way, is strongly in favor of reciprocity, and says so in verse. "Two million Chinese are starving. We suppose the standpat Chinamen are insisting that it would be a fatal mistake to change the existing order of things in China."

"SCREAMS" DYING OUT.

[Montreal Witness.]

The further the pendulum of prejudice swings one way, the further inevitably it will swing the other. If an historical character is blackened enough in one generation, be sure that some other generation will try to change or vary the disagreeable, sooty color with one coat or more of moral whitewash or kalsomine. This suggests that the day cannot be very far off when journalistic screaming will no longer be fashionable, because it will no longer pay. Men have given up the vile habit of "swearing" before now for the same reason. A "round oath" too often repeated ceases to interest or alarm, and only leaves disgust. The most perverse musical taste tires in time of the loudest gramaphone and of that more blatant instrument, the calliope, but which circus managers now seem to have abandoned.

As sure as night follows day, the front page screams, the simulated agony, of yellow newspapers concerning innocent and beneficent reciprocity proceedings will fail to interest even the most unsophisticated, except to disgust them, and all the wild absurdities which are now being told about annexation will recoil upon the editor's head.

A CRUSHING REJOINDER.

Ambassador Bryce's delicate suggestion that Canadians are not more likely to throw away their nationhood than Mexicans and Chilians is perhaps the neatest reply that the Big-wavers have had yet.

WILL COME SOON ENOUGH.

[Ottawa Free Press.]

The proposition for a general election now is an insult to the west, and will be keenly resented there. And in any event, under our system of government, the responsibility rests upon the Government, and the people will judge of that responsibility at the proper time. Moreover, if the idea of the News were adopted, we would have a general election very near. Last year it was clamoring for a dissolution in order to test public opinion on the navy; this year it is the trade agreement which will be the excuse; next year there will be some other excuse. But the Conservatives need not worry. They will get their election soon enough for them.

"THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD."

The recent death of Samuel Walker Foss recalls the poem which made him famous, "The House by the Side of the Road":

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the peace of their self-content;
There are souls, like stars, that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran;
But let me live by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by
The men who are good and men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban;
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife,
But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears
Both parts of an infinite plan—
Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead,
And mountains of wearisome height;
That the road passes on through the long afternoon
And stretches away to the night;
But still I rejoice when the travellers rejoice,
And weep with the strangers that moan,
Nor live in my house by the side of the road
Like a man who dwells alone.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

BRITISH LABOR ECHANGES.

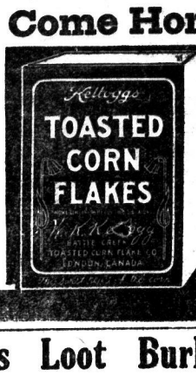

[Hamilton Times.]

The working of the new British labor exchanges in their first year has been very successful. About 450,000 vacancies were notified by employers to the exchanges, and 370,000 of them were filled. From 70,000 to 100,000 persons were applicants for positions about all the time. Contrary to expectation, skilled workmen have benefited by them even more than the unskilled. To help the seekers for work, advances of passage money will be made where necessary.

SENATE FAILED TO GOBBLE US

[From the Kingston Standard, Con.]

"The United States Senate has not only adjourned, but it has adjourned without passing the reciprocity measure. It has, in other words, actually refused to put into effect a measure which the imperialist howlers of Canada tell us would surely result in annexation to the States. No greater sacrifice has ever been made by any legislative body in the world, than this refusal to annex a land of 8,000,000 souls, inestimably rich in its resources and richer still in its possibilities and its future. What the Senate could have been thinking of is beyond us, for according to authorities like Sir William Van Horne and Sir Edmund Walker, and that they are authorities even these gentlemen themselves with all their modesty must admit—according to them the Senate had but to pass the measure and presto, Canada was annexed. Foolish senators, foolish Americans, thus by their legislative failure to lose a kingdom! Their short-sightedness is the blunder of the age—a Waterloo which they have administered unto themselves and for which we as Canadians, safe from the noose for the moment at least, must thank them upon our bended knees. Nevertheless their magnanimity is to say the least astonishing, for ordinarily the American people are not so slow to take advantage of a good bargain. 'Tis it be—and we ask the question more in a spirit of idle curiosity—can it be that these politicians at Washington are more astute than we suppose and have refused to put this tariff bill through because of the numerous protests against it, not on the part of the Canadian people, but on the part of the American people, who feel they have the worst of the deal? We ask the question, as we say, only in idle curiosity, and yet the answer might not be without significance. It is barely possible, just barely possible, that it has not been for nothing that the Americans have refused to 'eat us alive.'"

FEDERALS AND REBELS IN ANOTHER HOT FIGHT

Five Hundred Insurrectos Engage With Government Troops in Northern Mexico.

Douglas, Ariz., March 12.—Thirty-five were killed or wounded in a battle at noon today, when General Blanco, with 500 rebels, came out of the canyon east of Agua Prieta, and was engaged by a federal force of 300. The battle was spectacular and was witnessed by thousands. The rebels withdrew but are expected to attack again tonight.

El Paso, Texas, March 12.—Conditions bordering on panic reign almost throughout northern Mexico tonight.

Stirred by the belief that the revolutionary movement has reached a critical stage, the insurrectos in the states of Chihuahua and Sonora are reported to have reached the height of activity in tearing up railroads and telegraph wires. Numerous towns, according to reports, are under siege by the insurrectos and thousands of women and children, cut off from food supplies, are helpless.

Following the receipt of corrected details concerning the battle at Casas Grandes, a town of about 500 inhabitants, about 150 miles southwest of El Paso, where 80 men were killed last Monday, news reached here of a fight at noon today at Agua Prieta, on the border across the river from Douglas, Ariz. Five hundred insurrectos attacked 300 federal troops, but were repulsed with a loss of 35 dead and wounded on both sides.

The fighting was short and the insurrectos, armed only with rifles, soon scattered under the fire of a machine gun.

Fifteen Americans Killed.

What is believed to be reliable report of the casualties at Casas Grandes says that 15 Americans were killed and 17 Americans were taken prisoners.

The following, at first reported to have been killed, are known to have escaped:

Lieutenant-Colonel Giuseppi Garibaldi, Raoul Madero, brother of Francisco I. Madero, so-called provisional president of the insurrectos; Captain Guitierrez de Lara and Lieutenant I. Valencia, of El Paso.

Captain Eduardo Hay, a Mexican of Madero's personal staff, was not killed, but was taken prisoner; Raoul Madero was wounded.

R. F. Harrington, a former sergeant in the United States army, who lived in El Paso; Robert Lee and Robert Evans, of San Francisco, and Roy Glenn, a boy of Mineral Springs, Texas, were killed.

The names of the Americans killed, or taken prisoners, are not known.

WOMAN SUICIDES.

Stamford, Conn., March 12. — Mrs. Cora Wood, who, it is alleged, shot and killed her husband, Christopher G. Wood, her 11-year-old son Vardemond, and who then fired a bullet into her own breast near the heart, last week, died at the Wood home this morning from the effect of the wound.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Stearns, Ky., March 13.—H. M. Holloway and J. T. Lovett, deputy sheriffs, were shot and killed here last night while guarding the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railroad coal chutes. Both men were shot from ambush. While details are lacking it is believed the shooting is the result of a strike of the firemen on the lines of the railroad.

Burglars Loot Burk's Fall Safe

Burks Falls, March 12.—On Saturday night burglars entered the offices of the Anglo-American Tannery Company and with drills and saws cut a large hole in the side of the big safe from which $1,000 in Bank of Toronto bills of the denomination of $5 and $10 was secured.

No trace of the robbers, who are believed to be professionals, has been obtained.

FOUR DAYS' BATTLE WITH A HURRICANE

Liner From Jamaica Creeps Into Halifax Badly Battered.

Halifax, March 12.—Eleven days out of Jamaica, after battling with a fierce hurricane for over four days, the steamship Boston has put in port with her wheelhouse gone, two of her boats badly damaged, doors smashed and part of her railing washed overboard.

The Boston, Captain Holstead, left Jamaica on Sunday, Feb. 26. She arrived at Turks Island two days later and sailed for Halifax on Tuesday, Feb. 28. On entering the Gulf Stream she encountered a heavy northeast gale, which increased in velocity until it culminated in a fierce hurricane. The waves swept over the ship, fore and aft, and she was compelled to lay to. For 85 hours the ship remained there unable to make any progress. Huge waves swept over her, sometimes covering her completely. The wheelhouse was carried away by a mountainous sea, one lifeboat and a jollyboat were badly damaged, doors were smashed, and part of the railing was carried away. So perilous was her plight and that of those on board that the man who steered had to be lashed to the wheel, and the other members of the crew wore life belts. The storm became fiercer and fiercer, and the vessel was like a toy fighting against great odds. The seas boarded her continuously with terrific force, sending her on her beam ends and carrying almost everything in their path.

The cabin filled with water, and some of the captain's effects, with a quantity of stores, were destroyed.

On Friday the storm abated. When the Boston arrived here her coal bunkers were empty.

BIG RENTS PAID FOR CORONATION

Lady Cunard Secures Asquith's Residence for Ceremony.

London, March 13. — Rents for London houses for the coronation season are rising with the increasing demand for accommodations.

According to the Chronicle, one Liberal peer has refused an offer of $100,000 for the use of his residence for six weeks. Another offer of $90,000 for the tenancy of a house in Hills during May, June and July, was made, but the owner refuses to take less than $100,000.

The private residence of Prime Minister Asquith at No. 20 Cavendish Square, which has been always greatly coveted by reason of its splendid reception rooms, old mahogany staidcase, and walls painted by Sir John Thornhill two centuries ago, has been secured by Lady Cunard.

LACK OF MULES MAY STOP WAR

Not Enough "Mauds" to Go Around in Event of Strife

Kansas City, Mo., March 13. — Horse and mule men are watching the movement with closest interest for commercial interest.

"Prices are war high" now and have been for three years. "It would puzzle the country to get mules and horses to carry on a war," said one of the biggest mule traders yesterday. "The stock is not to be had at any price. There never has been a time when good stuff was as scarce as it is today.

"We could not begin to outfit the army with remounts the way the British had to outfit for service in South Africa. It takes three horses to do the work of one when they are in the field, and mules double up in the same way."

OUTBREAK OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

Britain Again Afflicted—Cattle Embargo Will Certainly Be Maintained Now.

London, March 13. — The foot and mouth disease has again appeared in England.

This time the outbreak is in Surrey.

The movement of stock has been prohibited in a wide area around the seat of the disease.

The embargo on Canadian and other cattle from abroad has been maintained by Britain principally to keep out the foot and mouth disease, which usually costs vast sums of money to eradicate.

BRANDISHED A GUN

Huge Negro Throws a Scare Into the Windsorites.

Windsor, March 12.—Brandishing a 38-calibre loaded revolver and making wild threats to kill the first man who interfered with him, Andrew Leach, a huge colored man, drove off the workmen employed at the Grand Trunk coal chutes here today, and held undisputed possession of the place until Officers Reid and Langlois arrived and took him to headquarters.

RECIPROCITY BENEFITS FOR THE DAIRYMEN

How He Will Gain by Having Entry to American Markets.

Pictou, March 12.—At the close of the short course for farmers, held here all this week, under the auspices of the department of agriculture and the Farmers' Institute, Mr. John Hyatt, a prominent agriculturist, this afternoon gave an address in which he dwelt on the benefits of reciprocity to the dairy farmers in Prince Edward. "At Bloomfield cheese factory," said he, "we handled about five and three-quarter million pounds of milk last year. Call it six million pounds for calculation. That milk realized about eighty-five cents per cwt. If the American market had been open to us we would have realized twenty cents per cwt. more. That would have meant an addition to the income of our own factory of $12,000. Only about one-twelfth of the cheese made in Prince Edward County was made in Bloomfield. Multiply twelve by twelve and you have the amount of gain that would have been realized on the combined output of the factories in the county, $140,000. The total sum collected in taxes through township municipalities in Prince Edward is about $100,000.

"The opening of the American market last spring would, by the increased price obtained for our milk, have enabled us to pay our entire township tax bill, and have left us $40,000 for good roads. I know it by facts obtained from Mr. D. Rassett, Huntingdon, Que. The Huntingdon people are right on the border; they shipped cream to the United States last year in the face of a duty of five cents per gallon. They realized one dollar net for their milk from June to September 30, $1.12 for October, $1.22 for November, and $1.40 for December. If we could have shipped the cream from our milk to that same market we would have received at least 20 cents per cwt more for the milk we produced. With the American market wholly free to our cheese, we would have done still better. Even in the face of the duty of 6 cents per pound on cheese, two of our factories were able to ship some of their product to the United States and to obtain better prices for it than could have been obtained by shipping to the English market, where there is no duty. With the American market open and our cheese increased in price to the extent of half the United States duty now imposed a quarter of a million dollars would be added annually to the income from dairying in this county. Is that worth while?"

DEATH IN SNOWSLIDE

Boarding House in a Colorado Gold Camp Swept Away.

[Canadian Press.]

Denver, Col., March 13.—Four were killed and one injured by a snowslide that destroyed the boarding-house at Gold King mine, near Gladstone, in Southwestern Colorado, yesterday. Wires to that part of the state are working badly, and details are meagre.

The dead are: Mrs. F. O. Drue, Mrs. Carrie Lewis, Samuel Hoar and Maria Fahne.

Residents of Gladstone saw the slide, formed a rescue party and hurried through the deep snow to the scene. When they arrived all were dead except F. O. Drue, manager of the boarding-house. His position was such that he was not released until eight hours later. His feet and hands were frozen. Working beneath the masses of snow and ice, which threatened to come down at any minute, the rescuers late yesterday succeeded in recovering the four bodies.

CHINESE SLAVE GIRLS

Spectacular Raid by Police in San Francisco Chinatown.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, March 13. — A spectacular raid in Chinatown last night resulted in the capture of six Chinese slave girls, said to have been illegally imported and purchased for the sum of $25,000. The girls were removed to the Angel Island immigrant station and will be held to await the action of the Government. It is believed that the girls were smuggled into this port within the last six months, and that they will be deported. Before the hiding place of the girls was discovered the officers chopped through seven blind doors. The door of a secret chamber wherein the girls were huddled was an ingeniously contrived panel containing a portrait of the Chinese emperor.

AN ARTIST SUICIDES.

Portland, Ore., March 13. — Henry Epting, a well-known artist of San Francisco, was found dead on Council Crest in this city yesterday with a bullet wound in his temple. According to a note in his pocket the artist took his own life on account of melancholia.

THE MEXICAN WAR.

Douglas, Ariz., March 13. — Late last night Captain Johnson received a telephone message from Commissario Vasquez that Blanco's soldiers were again advancing on Agua Prieta.

The United States cavalry has turned out and will immediately take up its position on the border.

NEGRO FIREMEN SHOT TO DEATH

Half Dozen Have Been Killed By Strike Sympathizers.

ON SOUTHERN RAILWAY

White Detective Murdered While Guarding Fireman Against Attack.

Somerset, Ky., March 12.—The strike of the firemen on the Queen and Crescent route of the Southern Railway reached a crisis here tonight. Engineers and firemen are refusing to go out for fear of being shot by the pickets of the strikers along the route between here and Glen Mary, Tenn., a total of six men have been killed in the past three nights, two last night, and one this afternoon, besides three who were badly wounded.

While train No. 78, a freight, stopped at Glen Mary this afternoon for water, James Carl, a detective, who was in the cab guarding the life of a negro fireman, was shot and fatally wounded. He was rushed to the local hospital, but is not expected to live. Two negroes, Tom Johnson and Arch Cook, who were firing southbound passenger No. 9, and a freight train, were killed at Glen Mary last night while No. 9 was stopping there to take on the body of a dead negro who had been killed earlier in the evening.

Physicians are being carried on all trains on emergency cases and orders were issued tonight by the railways company not to run negro firemen north of Chattanooga, as it is almost certain trouble would occur if they were sent north.

Non-union firemen are firing the trains out of Chattanooga, on the northern division tonight with the engineers who are willing to make their runs.

PORT STANLEY AMUSEMENTS

Nothing Has Been Done as Yet Regarding Coming Summer.

The deal to sell the Hotel Invererle and the amusement privileges at Port Stanley to an English syndicate will not be closed at the present time.

On Saturday there was a meeting of the shareholders of the Port Stanley Amusement Company at Port Stanley, when Mr. F. G. Rumball, of this city, announced that the English syndicate, for whom he had been acting in the negotiations, were not in a position to close the deal at this time. It was their intention, had they arrangements been made, to make port a large summer resort.

However, other arrangements will be made for the coming summer. The hotel will be leased, it is understood, and the company will continue to handle the amusement privileges, as was the case last year.

Several prominent hoteimen have been mentioned as applicants for the lease of the Invererle, but at the present time no agreement has been made.

Ald. Bennett, who is connected with the Port Stanley Amusement Company informed The Advertiser, that a definite announcement would be made very soon.

OLD IRISH MOTHERS TRUE HOME RULERS

Bishop Dowling Does Not Approve of the Modern Woman—St. Patrick's Celebration.

Hamilton, March 12.—Bishop Dowling, speaking to the members of men's Catholic societies of St. Patrick's Church yesterday morning, said there was too much club, theatrical and political life, and not enough home life. The societies marched to church to commemorate the feast of St. Patrick. Rev. Father Donahue, Boston, Mass., preached. His lordship the bishop remarked that women's clubs and societies were altogether out of place. The women's sphere was in the home, and he told the women to take as patterns the old Irish mothers. They were the true home rulers.

CONSUMPTIVE SYMPTOMS

Removed by Vinol—A Genuine Case Reported From Newark, Ohio.

Newark, Ohio. "About two years ago my wife was in very poor health. For three months she suffered from a bad cough which had settled on her lungs; she was run-down, reduced in flesh, and had all the symptoms of consumption. She began taking Vinol, and before the first bottle was gone she was improved in health—before she had finished her third bottle her cough was gone and she was well.

"We cannot say too much in praise of Vinol."—N. L. Stebbleton. We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

In pulmonary troubles Vinol shows its power for good. It goes to the seat of trouble, heals the inflamed surfaces and cures the cause of the cough.

In hundreds of cases where cod liver oil and emulsions have failed, Vinol has succeeded because it contains all the curative value they do—but its good work is not retarded by useless grease and oil.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Of Interest To Women

USEFUL AIDS IN THE SEWING ROOM

Sweater Buttons.

When purchasing a sweater, purchase a card of common pearl buttons a size smaller than a dime; cut off one sweater button at a time, marking the place it came off, then sew on again, placing exactly opposite outside button, sewing the two together. Your sweater buttons will stay on as long as the sweater lasts; they will always be firm and keep the front of the garment in shape, never pulling off goods and all.

Dress Help.

When making your spring dress that requires a lining buy one of the new boned corset covers and hook to just meet in the back, then build your waist over it. The arm size may be a little too large, but you can easily build it out to suit. I am sure you will find that this will save you a great deal of trouble, for to cut and fit and bone a waist is no easy task.

Buttonholes.

Mark the size of the buttonhole on material with a soft pencil, then work it and after it is worked cut open with your embroidery scissors or a sharp penknife. You will find your work smooth and even and they will not pull out of shape. This is especially good for working on material that ravels easily.

Dried Cherries.

Dried cherries should be used in cookery oftener than they are at present, says the New York Tribune. Soaked over night and cooked in sugar next day, they make a nice sauce, which may well take the place of apples at this time of the year, when the latter fruit is apt to grow flavorless. They may also be used in cakes and sweet puddings instead of currants, or in combination with them. In fact, they may be used in almost any recipe calling for currants. They have a piquancy which the currant lacks.

TAKE FRESH AIR WALKS.

Tired and nerve racked, haunted by that phantom of melancholia which for want of a better name women call "the blues," the average girl turns to drugs, to stimulants of all kinds or any concoction that will put an end to the nervous chills and fits of irritation, but the one simplest and quickest cure she never tries is plain fresh air and deep breathing.

Walk briskly, and draw in the breath for four steps, then expel it for four steps, and keep this up as long as possible.

It will tire at first; perhaps it won't be more than five minutes before the average girl will be breathing again in regular woman's fashion, with just the top part of your lungs.

But keep at it. Try it walking down to the office in the morning, practice it in the evening, walking at least part of the way home.

Escalloped Chicken.

Boil large, tender chicken until done, remove skin and gristle, and chop meat. Butter a large dish, put a layer of pounded crackers in the bottom, add bits of butter, and moisten with cream. On this put a layer of chicken, season with white pepper, salt, grated onion, peel and nutmeg, bits of butter, and a few chopped oysters. Put over this more of the cracker, butter and cream, and then a layer of chicken. Cover top with the crackers and butter. Bake in hot oven over half hour.

THE VERY LATEST MILLINERY HINT FROM PARIS

New Collapsible Straw Hat Is Just the Thing for Stormy Spring Days

New Folding Hat

There have been folding and collapsible hats and caps of cloth, fur and velvet, but this, which comes direct from Paris, is the first of the kind made of straw. Its shape is as chic as its use is practical, and it adds materially to the comfort and attractiveness of its wearer.

The straw braid of which the confection is made is red and tan mixed. The wings are of black and white satin. It is lined with black satin.

The advantages of the hat, from the viewpoint of the fair wearer, are: Its shape tends to cut the sharp spring wind; the hatless girl can fold it and let the person back of her get a glimpse at the stage; and in case of a sudden shower it can be folded and placed under a coat.

Latest Fashions

The vogue for the separate scarf is certainly not on the wane.

Overblouses, because of their great usefulness, still hold sway.

Among the useful fabrics that find first place in women's favor are the henriettas and soft cashmeres that lend themselves to either a simple or an ornate style.

Handkerchiefs of finest linen are edged with black chantilly lace.

China buttons from Austria are new in the realm of dress trimming.

Grey tulle, embroidered in silver, is a new trimming for dressy gowns.

In hats there is a marked tendency to height in crowns and broader brims.

The stage toe, in a modified form, is to be seen on the finer grade of slippers.

Marquisette blouses are high in favor and may be had in all styles and colorings.

Cotton embroidered in pale blue, pink and delicate tones of yellow, is seen on many of the new lingerie models.

Veils of solid colors, blue and brown, lavender, and even black, have brilliant borders in three to five shades.

Low neckwear will reign supreme the coming season.

Foulards, surah, plain and striped etamine and voile are the favored dress materials.

While a good many willow plumes are sold, yet their vogue among the best dressers is much on the wane. Aigrettes and fancy feathers of all kinds, and it must be confessed of great expense, are much more popular.

The newest street gloves have heavy black stitching on the back and white gloves with black stitching are very popular, for street wear with tailor-made gowns.

Crowns and entire turbans of flowers are seen in fashionable millinery shops.

The Steering Wheel

BY ROBERT ALEXANDER WASON.

Copyright 1910, The Bobbs-Merrill Company.

"Don't get cross about it; I once knew a Sunday school teacher that did. Here, cut that out!" to Ivan, who had begun to jostle up and down.

"What did you say?" she asked.

"I shall have to go now—sweetheart." The word came falteringly, and Dick waited with apprehension.

"No, don't go yet," and Dick's heart gave a leap of gladness; but just then Ivan's patience reached its limit, and he rolled over, leaving Dick suspended by the arm. He gave a last hasty squeeze and dropped to the ground.

Ivan had risen to his feet, and Dick grasped his hand warmly slapped him on the shoulder and said dramatically, "Forth, Ivan forth to glory!"

Ivan started forth to glory, but it was evident that his armor was composed mostly of resignation.

"Are you still there?" asked the girl.

"You can count on me being here until you are rescued," promised Dick.

"Can't you—find—something else to stand on?" was the next question.

"There isn't a single thing here," he replied; "but keep a stout heart. It will soon be over."

After a short silence she asked: "Why did you want to see me tonight?"

"To say good-by," answered Dick, soberly.

"Good-by?"

"Yes, I am going to leave home for good tonight."

Alaska, Africa, the headwaters of the Amazon, flashed before the girl's vision. "Where are you going?" she asked in a low tone.

"To New York," he replied somberly.

"Oh," she responded with a rising inflection.

"I am going to work," he continued, as though work was an adventure which few had undertaken and none survived.

"Work?" she questioned in amazement.

"Yes, I shall start in poverty and rise to wealth. I don't mind the work, but I can't bear to leave you. We've had bully times playing boy and girl, haven't we?"

The girl was forced to swallow. Even New York seemed a long, long way off now. "Yes," she answered.

"Well, I, at least, won't forget them," he said.

She waited a moment and the darkness seemed very empty and the wall very thick. "Dick," she called, "can't you give me a cigar, just to hold for company?"

Did he laugh? He did not; he winked his eyes rapidly and tossed a cigar at the small opening. At the third attempt it slipped in, and he asked, "Did you get it?"

"Yes, it fell right at my feet. It is awfully damp in here."

"Mushrooms need dampness," he replied with what she considered inexcusable irrelevance; but the next moment he whispered, "Silence—someone is coming."

He dropped into the shadow and soon the vague outline of a man approached, walking slowly and humming a foreign air. Dick had dropped so suddenly that the man had passed through the patch of bright moonlight and re-entered the heavy shadow before he had time to examine him, and as he arrived at the proper distance Dick tackled, threw him to the ground, placed his hand over his mouth and instantly rose.

"Great Scott, Emil!" he exclaimed, as he helped the prostrate man to rise. "I didn't know it was you. I beg your pardon, old man."

"Pardon!" the German exploded. "It is not a cause for pardon. This is not a way a guest to treat. For you I haff always the deepest affection and respect had; but this, I cannot forgive it."

"Now, listen, old chap," said Dick soothingly, as he placed his hand on Emil's shoulder. "I don't want you to say anything you'd be sorry for. I am in a peck of trouble, and I look you for an enemy. There is a girl in this—I shall explain all; but— Here, get in here, and don't breathe until I tell you to."

He seized Emil without ceremony, jerked him into the clump of bushes and forced him to the grass just as Ivan crossed the patch of moonlight, taking long walking strides. Immediately after him came the keeper on a run, and for the fourth time Dick made a grand-stand tackle.

As they rolled on the grass, Emil sprang out to lend his forgiven friend assistance. Ivan, who had turned, saw him, and, thinking him one of the opposing force, rushed at him. Emil took Ivan for the "girl in the case," and thought she had gone insane. They grappled fiercely and became so engrossed in their private war, that Dick, who had caught a Tartar, nearly lost his campaign. The keeper was large and powerful, and had seized Dick by the throat in a grip which he could not throw off. Dick struggled skillfully, struck his opponent in the short ribs, and sought to twist himself free; but the grey was turning to black by the time that Ivan recognized Emil, and they rushed to Dick's relief.

In a trice the man was tied hand and foot, and Dick, finding little difficulty in making his ill-used vocal cords rough and coarse, demanded the key.

"I threw id away," growled the man.

Dick searched him in vain, searched the other man, also without success, put a gag in the mouth of the new captive, dragged him into the bushes close to his companion, returned to the den and stood gazing up at the small opening.

"Now we are up against it," he said gloomily to his allies.

CHAPTER XIX.

The Machine Runs Over Ivan and Emil.

It is probable that no previous statement had ever been made in that group without calling forth an attempt to overthrow it; but this one was received in silent acquiescence. Ivan was absentmindedly engaged in tucking his frayed shirts into the top of his trousers, and Emil was stroking the beard which twice that evening had revealed his identity.

As this supine acceptance of their desperate condition became apparent to Dick, he aroused himself and surveyed the den intently.

"Pshaw, this is an easy one," he remarked after a minute. "There is a trap door in the roof. Here, give me a boost."

With their assistance, Dick found no difficulty in clambering to the flat roof, and in a moment he had the trap-door open. "Are you all ready, princess?" he called gaily.

"Goodness, yes," she answered promptly; "but how can I ever get up?"

"That's another one," answered Dick, studying a moment.

He rose, walked to the edge of the roof and said: "Here, Ivan, you're the taller. Help Emil up."

Emil did not wish to go. His physical proportions denoted strength rather than agility, and he was perfectly content to remain on solid ground; but Dick had the magnetic gift of stirring another to action before that other had time to form his own will on the subject. In college games and college pranks this gift had been exercised and developed until Dick had formed the habit of speaking as one having authority; and while he was still arguing in his mind the wisdom of the move, Emil found Ivan pushing at him from below. Dick pulling at him from above, and himself climbing to the roof to take an active part in some transaction, of every premise of which he was utterly ignorant.

Dick escorted him to the open hatchway and called down cheerily: "Look out below. Now then, Emil, take my hand and I'll lower you."

"No," said Emil, recovering himself. "I go not into a hole, when I know not what it on the bottom has."

Dick drew back a pace, placed his arms akimbo, and eyed his friends scornfully. "And so I have nourished a coward in my bosom," he said in hurt surprise. "Do you mean ot say that after all Ivan and I have done this night, you are going to flunk and spoil everything?"

"I am not a coward," said Emil. "I do not at any time flunk; but such a thing as this, it is not the duty of any man to do."

"Then I would suggest that you get down from the roof at once, return to the library, get a book on statistics, and find out the exact number of brave men who have deserted their comrades in the moment of their peril."

"I am not deserting my comrades," protested Emil. "I do not wish to. I wish only to remain with them, and not to descend into a hole on to I know not what."

"Will you kindly inform me why you insisted on coming along?" asked Dick, with polite hauteur.

"I did not insist," earnestly explained the bewildered Emil. "Merely a quiet stroll in the moonlight I was taking; suddenly one whom I thought my friend leaped on me from ambush and hurled me to the ground, while another friend in the guise of a woman attempted to tear out from my face my beard. Then——"

"It is unnecessary to give your unabridged biography," interrupted Dick. "Will you or will you not assist me?"

Emil looked into the murk of the den and hesitated. "Yes, I will go," he said; "but I know it will be injury."

Correspondence

Edited by Cynthia Grey.

Dear Miss Grey: Would you kindly answer the following questions for me?

1. Is it proper for a young man to kiss a girl when calling at her home? If not, what should she say to him when he tries to do so, without hurting his feelings?

2. When a gentleman has asked a lady to go to the theatre with him, is it proper for her to ask where their seats will be, so that she may be suitably dressed for that particular part of the house?

3. Will the coats of summer wash suits be as short as those shown for spring wear? INNOCENCE.

A.—1. Certainly not. Tell him that you are not the type of a girl to encourage this familiarity, and that you are sorry he has so misjudged you.

2. Quite proper.

3. Yes. The little Eton jackets will also be much in favor.

Dear Miss Grey: Would you please answer the following questions as soon as possible:

1. I am a girl of 16. Do you think I am too young to go to the rink at night with a boy friend?

2. Do you think it is unladylike to play crack-the-whip or tag at the rink?

3. Is it right for a girl of 16 to keep company with a young man of 20? A READER.

A.—Not if you go with the consent of your parents.

2. Yes. It is also annoying to the other skaters. A pond or river is the place for these games.

3. If your father and mother do not object. They are the ones to ask.

Dear Miss Grey: I have asked a friend to go with me to spend Sunday with my brother, a short distance out on the Traction line. Should I not purchase the tickets myself? How can I do so in a manner that will not make him feel in any way embarrassed?

In referring to a friend, whose sex I wish to make known, but whose name I do not wish to mention, what term should be used? I detest the phrases "gentleman" and "lady friend," and I have been laughed at for "girl friend."

Thanking you for past helpful answers, I am, yours truly, "IN DOUBT."

A.—1. You might purchase them the day before and pass them over to him when starting. As it would not be a large amount, you need not mind so much if he insists upon purchasing them.

2. You could avoid these terms by saying, "One of my friends, a girl," or "A man whom I know." I can think of no other way.

Dear Miss Grey: Please tell me what will clean gentlemen's dressed kid gloves? Also, what will clean a cream straw hat? CONSTANT READER.

A.—1. If they are light color, rub with cornmeal, or you might try washing with gasoline. Be sure there is no fire near.

2. Scour well with soap and warm ammonia water, using a small brush; rinse with cold water. To bleach, mix a small quanity of oxalic acid with very hot water and go over the hat with a clean brush. Dry before the fire or in the sun.

Dear Miss Grey: Where can I find plates of Puritan girls in Puritan costume? E. W. M.

A.—Get some illustrated book on early New England history.

Dear Miss Grey: Would you please give me John D. Rockefeller's address. Thanking you in advance. JENNIE.

A.—Twenty-six Broadway, New York.

Dear Miss Grey: Please tell me through your paper how to clean a baby's fur coat. Also a recipe for cream apple pie. Thanking you in advance. ANXIOUS.

A.—(1) Get some powdered whiting; dampen it, and rub well into the fur; leave till next day; and then brush thoroughly with a fine clothes brush. (2) Two cups sweet milk, 2 cups of apple sauce, 3 eggs; flavor and sweeten, bake with an undercrust only. This will make two small pies or one large one.

Dear Miss Grey: Would you kindly oblige me through your paper or send me two days' menu for March for a town table, food material easily available, inexpensive and nutritious, and easily prepared?

Breakfast No. 1—Grapefruit or oranges, oatmeal (which should be partially cooked the night before in a double boiler), poached or scrambled eggs on toast, graham gems, coffee. Dinner No. 1—Tomato soup, roast beef with brown gravy, mashed potatoes, beet salad, tapioca pudding. Supper No. 1—Potato salad, sliced ham, canned peaches, tea biscuits, chocolate cake, tea.

Breakfast No. 2—Shredded wheat biscuit, fried potatoes and bacon, toast, marmalade, coffee. Dinner No. 2—Cream of potato soup, broiled sirloin, mashed potatoes, canned French peas, lemon pie. Supper No. 2—Hot beef hash with brown bread and butter, sliced bananas and oranges with cream, muffins, cake, tea.

I think all the items mentioned are very familiar ones, and easy to prepare.

Dear Miss Grey: Kindly let me know at your earliest convenience if a bride's flower should be tied with ribbon, also the bridesmaids'. Thanking you, A SUBSCRIBER.

A.—Yes. White satin ribbon from 2 to 3 inches wide should be used in both cases.

Dear Miss Grey: Will you kindly let me know if it is 29 or 30 years last May since the drowning on the Thames? Also a first-class light layer cake? And oblige, YOUR OLD SWEETHEART.

A.—(1) The Victoria disaster occurred on May 24, 1881—30 years ago this coming May.

2.—One-half cup butter, one cup of sugar (heaping), one-half cup milk, 2 eggs, 1 pint flour, 2 level teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon lemon extract; bake in layers. Use any filling desired. The following is a very nice one: One large tart apple, peeled and grated, 1 cup white sugar, white of one egg; beat all together; flavor with vanilla.

Dear Miss Grey: Could you tell me the first stanza of that piece used by the "Jolly Bachelors" company, the first line of which was, "What can I do to make you love me? Oh, isn't there something," etc. OPAL.

A.—Doubtless one of the local music stores can supply you with this.

When baby is able to sit alone on the floor, let him take his own time about learning to crawl and walk. Instinct will tell him when his little legs are strong enough for their work, and if he errs in the matter it is more likely it will be from trying them too soon than too late. Bowed legs are one of the evils which arise from using the legs too early and too much.

MOTHER EDDY LEFT RICH REAL ESTATE

The Total Value Is Appraised at Almost Three Millions of Dollars.

Concord, N.H., March 11.—A valuation of $2,246,000 is placed on the estate in New Hampshire of the late Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, by the appraisers, whose report was filed in the Merrimack County probate court today by General Henry M. Baker, of Bow, executor of the estate. While the property left by Mrs. Eddy in Massachusetts has not been formally appraised, General Baker estimates it as about $250,000. The total value of Mrs. Eddy's estate therefore is approximately $2,760,000. The amount due the State of New Hampshire as a tax under the appraisal announced today is $123,607. The payment of this tax will be deferred until the disposal of pending litigation over Mrs. Eddy's will.

General Baker announced today that Pleasantview, Mrs. Eddy's real estate in this city, has been sold to Boston friends of Mrs. Eddy, who will preserve the property in a way that would have been pleasing to Mrs. Eddy.

MULLOY AND BRIDE AT THE CAPITAL

Blind Trooper Wedded to Handsome Seattle Heiress.

Ottawa, March 11. — Blind Trooper Mulloy and his handsome bride, formerly Miss Jean Munroe, daughter of a wealthy Seattle resident, arrived in Ottawa this morning.

"We will remain in Ottawa about a week," Trooper Mulloy told the Canadian Press. "Then we will go west to Vancouver, stopping over at Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton, where I have friends, and thence to California, where both my wife and myself have relations."

"What are your plans on your return to England?" asked the reporter.

"I am to take over the secretaryship of the Imperial Mission, a newly formed organization for the promotion of imperial preference," replied Trooper Mulloy.

A NEW YORK STRIKE

All Drivers and Helpers of Adams Express Company Are Out.

New York, March 11.—The strike of express company employees which has been threatened for several days past materialized today, with the failure of practically all the drivers and helpers in the employ of the Adams Express Company in the city to report for work. A considerable part of the company's office forces in the various depots was also affected. The movement of merchandise was checked, not a wagon leaving any of the company's stations.

The men are demanding reinstatement of various employees, who have been discharged or suspended, alleging discrimination against such men because of participation in the previous strike.

AGES OF LIVING KINGS

The Duke of Saxe-Meiningen at 84 the Oldest Sovereign in Europe.

London, March 12.—There are a great number of very old sovereigns among the rulers in Europe. The doyen is the Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, who completed his 84th year on April 2. Next comes Kaiser Franz Joseph of Austria, King of Hungary, who was 80 on Aug. 18.

Then follow Prince Heinrich, of Reuss, J. L., who is 78, the Pope, Piux X., who completed his 75th year on June 2; the King of Roumania, who is 71; Prince Johann of Liechtenstein, who is 70; the King of Montenegro, who is 69; the King of Denmark, who is 68; the King of Servia, 66; the Sultan, 65; the King of Greece, 64; the Prince zu Schaumburg-Lippe, 64; the King of Wurtemberg, and the King of Bavaria, who are 62; the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, 62, and the Prince of Monaco, 61.

Among the reigning princes in middle age are the Grand Duke of Luxemburg, 58; Prince Gunther of Scharzburg-Rudolstadt, 58; the Grand Duke of Oldenburg, 57; the Duke of Anhalf, 54; the King of Sweden, 53; Kaiser Wilhelm, who was 52 on Feb. 27; the King of Bulgaria, 49; the Prince of Waldech and Pyrmont, 45; the King of Great Britain and Ireland and the King of Saxony, 45; the Czar, 42; the Grand Duke of Hesse, 41, and the King of Italy, 40.

The younger monarchs are the Prince zur Lippe, 39; the Duke of Saxe-Altenburg, 39; the King of Norway, 38; the King of the Belgians, 35; the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, 34; Prince Heinrich Reuss A. L., 32; the Queen of the Netherlands, 30; the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, 28; the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, 25; and the King of Spain, who is now the youngest reigning monarch, 24.

TYPHOID DIMINISHING.

Ottawa, March 11. — It is believed that the Ottawa typhoid epidemic has about reached its limit, and that the disease will henceforth diminish in its spread. The official figures today show seven new cases in the last 24 hours, bringing the total up to 883 since Jan. 1. The new station for a secondary application of hypo-chlorite was completed and started working today.

HOUSEKEEPER GETS ESTATE.

New York, March 11.—Mrs. Margaret A. Rowely, for six years housekeeper for the late Dr. Daniel A. Currie, ex-mayor of Englewood, N. J., receives the bulk of his estate, according to his will, which has been probated in Hackensack. The estate is worth about $100,000. Provision is made for the sister and nephew of Dr. Currie. St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Englewood receives $3,000.

A JAP FAVORITE.

Tokio, March 11.—Baron Mumm Von Schwartzenstein, who retired from the post of German minister to Japan because of failing eyesight, left for Berlin by way of Siberia today. The farewell was the most notable that has been accorded an ambassador at Tokio. The emperor sent special representatives to see the baron off at the railway station, and also made him a gift.

INDUSTRIAL UNREST BOTHERS AUSTRALIA

Strikes Getting More Numerous Every Day—Labor Leaders Are Troubled.

Sydney, Australia, March 12. — In common with the rest of the world, Australia is beset with industrial unrest. Strikes are growing more numerous every day, in spite of the fact that Australian administration is in the hands of Labor ministers elected to secure peace between capital and labor.

The disturbance affects all branches of trade, but several cases have occurred in the last few days that have hampered especially the big grain carrying vessels awaiting loading in the port. Whenever a grievance arises in any quarter, the discontented workmen promptly drop their work and wait till their leaders have interviewed the chief of their department. Meanwhile the whole machinery is thrown out of gear. If the chief of the department fails to agree with the complainants there is a prolonged appeal to the courts, and the result is general chaos.

As labor leaders have been able to dictate the laws passed in recent sessions in Australia, it might be expected that strikes would be destroyed by legislation. In practice, however, these laws are overridden, with impunity, and the authorities are reduced to the very undignified position of appealing to the strikers to maintain order.

Both in Adelaide and Sydney ministers have had to go cap in hand to the strikers, with the plea that if peace is restored the interests of the trade unions will be remembered hereafter. The coal miners are especially troublesome, though their methods are mild and they seldom resort to violence. Their leader, Peter Bowling, has been given a term in jail, but had to be released for political reasons.

Two bills for less working hours and higher rates of pay are to receive a referendum decision within a month.

$1.50 WILL SAVE ONE CHINESE LIFE

Rev. F. A. Steven Will Accept and Acknowledge Gifts to the Famine Fund.

Rev. F. A. Steven, of 598 Princess avenue, or Mrs. Steven in his absence, will receive and forward any gifts to the Chinese famine fund, and will acknowledge the same in The Advertiser.

The people of China are mostly living below the poverty line, and any failure of crops brings famine to the doors of the peasant farmers, who depend upon their own grain for food, and also upon the rest of the poorer population, to whom the advanced price of grain, brought from other provinces, means less food, or none. The population directly affected by the present famine may be nearly three millions, and perhaps nearly or quite one million lives would be lost before next May if nothing were done to help them.

The Chinese Government is doing what it can, and considerable sums of money and a shipment of ten thousand bags of flour have been sent by the Christian Herald, in co-operation with the National Red Cross Society of the United States. In the famine of three years ago similar help unquestionably saved hundreds of thousands of lives.

At that time the China Inland Mission set free a number of its most experienced workers for this difficult task of famine relief, and is again doing so now.

It is probable that $1 50 sent now will save an adult life, and $5 carefully administered by those on the spot would keep a home together, and carry a man and wife and two or three children through till the early rice harvest in May.

THE BOUNDARY WATERS

New Members of U. S. Commission Officially Announced.

Washington, March 12.—Formal announcement was made here tonight of the appointment of Thomas H. Carter, of Montana; James A. Tawney, of Minnesota, and Chas H. Streeter, of New Hampshire, as members of the Canadian waterways boundary commission. The commission will at once organize and proceed to take up the probems- presented in differences between Canada and the United States relative to the uses of the boundary waters.

One of the first questions to be given consideration will be in relation to the waters of Niagara River, particularly the use of the falls for power purposes. Another subject that will have early attention is that involved in the construction of power plants in the St. Lawrence, notably the Long Sault project, in which New York capitalists are interested.

The commission was created under the authority of a treaty negotiated with Great Britain. Each country will be represented by the representatives. The decisions of the commission will be final, the United States and Canada having agreed in the treaty to accept as law any finding of the body created by the terms of the instrument.

The work of the commission is regarded as of the highest importance. The use of the waters between the two countries has been the subject of many controversies for a long time. With commercial development on both sides of the line and the adoption by Canada and the United States of policies looking to the irrigation of arid lands conditions developed that called for action.

LANDSLIDE AT COLON.

Colon, March 11.—There was a big slide of earth at the north end of the Gatun lock of the Panama Canal last night. The mass buried a steam shovel and caught a gang of workmen, killing two Spaniards and an Italian, and injuring several others.

CORONATION RENTS.

London, March 13.—It is stated here that wealthy Americans are making high bids for furnished houses in the west end during the coronation days. One Liberal peer is reported to have refused the offer of an American of $50,000 for his London residence for six weeks. Another American offered $85,000 for a house in a fashionable street for a period of three months. The owner refused to accept less than $100,000. It is reported that John Hays Hammons, special ambassador from the United States, will pay $10,000 a week for the Burdett-Coutts mansion.

MANAGER TRAVERS TO REMAIN IN TORONTO

Will Not Go to Kingston Until Farmers' Bank Cases Are Ended.

Toronto, March 12.—Crown officials will shortly be up against a nice little dilemma in regard to W. R. Travers, former general manager of the Farmers' Bank. He's wanted here for the sessions this month and the assizes in May—can he be kept in the Toronto jail until that time?

Seymour Corley, the crown attorney, when asked today if Kingston Penitentiary had a chance of having Travers as a boarder shortly, said:

"Travers will be here until after the Munro case is disposed of."

"But is he wanted as a witness in the other cases which come up in May?" suggested the interviewer.

"Well, we're not crossing any bridges before we come to them," Mr. Corley said. "When the time comes we'll deal with the matter—and the time hasn't come, thank goodness."

Inspector Duncan, when seen today, stated most emphatically that he would strenuously oppose any move to take Travers to Kingston before all the bank cases were disposed of.

"You want him kept here then?" was asked.

"Most decidedly," was the reply. "It is of the utmost importance to the police that she should be available. We are still digging into this bank wrecking—the new charge against Dr. Nesbitt is an example—to say nothing about the preparation of the cases to be tried in May."

"You think you can keep him then?" was asked.

"I won't go into that," said the inspector, "but I'll say this—he'll stay here if I can keep him here."

"What disposition will be made of Travers, pending the May assizes?" was the question asked Sheriff Mowat today.

"He's not my prisoner, except to keep him in jail," said Mr. Mowat. "Judge Winchester gave Inspector Duncan an order to bring him back from Kingston."

"Then, so far as you are concerned, Travers may remain here?"

"There's no use of my expressing an opinion," explained the sheriff. "If he gets back Inspector Duncan is to take him. I haven't the authority to take him."

Judge Winchester's order, granted Inspector Duncan on Feb. 18, provided for Travers to be brought back to "the said court and grand jury to testify touching a certain felony," etc., meaning the Munro case. However, the same order provided for Travers' retention at the jail "at the pleasure of the court."

Obviously, then, whether Travers goes or stays after the Munro case is disposed of depends upon the success or failure of the crown officers in securing a further order from the court having jurisdiction.

CONNAUGHT'S AIDES REACH CAPITAL

Preparing for the Arrival of Royal Governor-General Next Fall.

Ottawa, March 11.—Capt. T. Rivers Bulkeley, M. V. O., Scots Guards, equerry to His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, arrived in Ottawa today for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for the coming of the Dominion's first royal governor. Captain Bulkeley, it is understood, is to be comptroller of the household during the duke's two-year tenure of office. He will remain in the capital for a few days, and is a guest at Government House.

Although the duke will not arrive in the city until fall, there is already every indication that much will be added to the social life of the capital and cause a considerable influx of society people, particularly during the session.

There is reason to state that already many of the best suites at the Chateau Laurier have been spoken for, American social leaders being very prominently to the fore in that connection.

A PEACE AMBASSADOR

Baron de Constant to Talk on Results of Hague Conference.

New York, March 11.—Baron Paul D. Estournolles De Constant, member of The Hague peace tribunal, recipient of the Nobel peace prize, and former French minister at London, arrived today on the steamer La Provence, and, like his fellow apostle, Count Apponyl, a recent visitor, will lecture on international peace.

"I will show," said Baron De Constant affably, "just what The Hague conferences were; the difficulties they met with in contending with differences of languages, races, religions and ideas. Their long labors, their work, great though incomplete, and their achievements. I will comment on their dispositions relating to the rights of man and to the duty of the government to the people."

The baron is insistent on the necessity of preparing a platform for the third conference, and of developing methodically the progress of compulsory arbitration.

"I consider that a French-German rapproachment, with concessions on both sides, is necessary for world peace. The twentieth century places arbitration above war, and above arbitration is conciliation, which will come next."

Nerves Are Exhausted

AND NERVOUS PROSTRATION OR PARALYSIS ARE CREEPING STEADILY UPON YOU.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

You hear of people suddenly falling victims of nervous prostration or some form of paralysis. But when you get all the fact of the case you find that they have had months or years of warning.

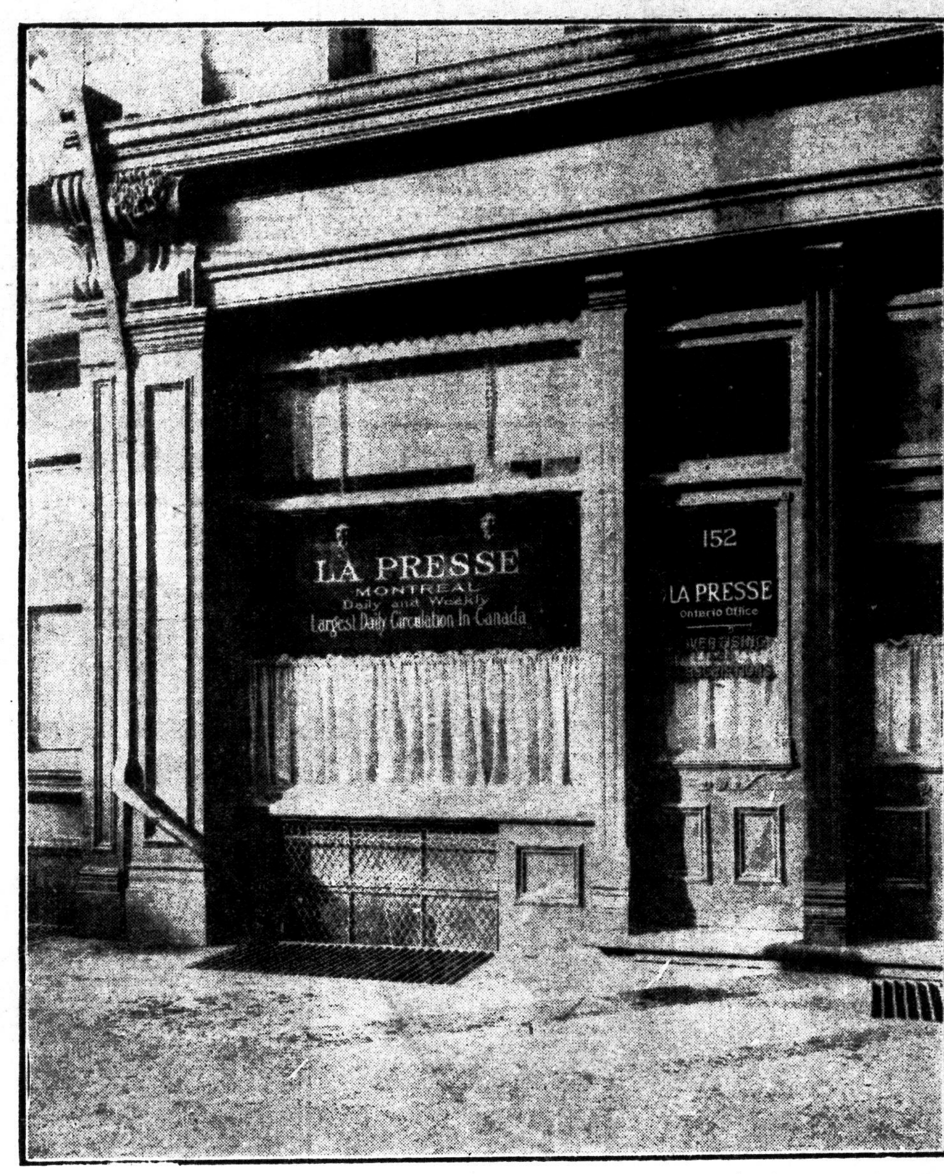

They haven't slept well. There has been frequent attacks of nervous headache. Digestion has failed. They have been irritable, easily worried and excited and have found memory and concentration failing.

Had they but known that these symptoms tell of exhausted nerves or had they realized their danger they would have restored the feeble, wasted nerves by use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great restorative treatment cures by forming new, rich blood and by rebuilding the wasted nerve cells. No medicine is more certain to prove beneficial, for each dose adds to the system a certain amount of rich, red blood.

Nervous diseases come on slowly and can only be overcome by patient and persistent treatment. Prevention is always better than cure, and for this reason you should endeavor to keep the system at high water mark by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at the first sign of trouble. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50; at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

TORONTO OFFICES of LA PRESSE, Montreal

152 King Street West, Corner of York, Toronto

The growing interest of Ontario manufacturers and business men generally in the trade of the Province of Quebec is illustrated in a striking manner by the number of firms that have opened branch offices and selling organizations in Montreal during the past year. Still more important is the extent to which firms in Toronto and throughout the Province of Ontario are using the columns of the French press of Montreal, and thereby bringing their products before the French-speaking population of Canada.

For more than a year past "La Presse" has been making a special study of the needs and requirements of the English-speaking manufacturers and merchants of Ontario with a view to assisting them to open up and develop trade relations with the French-speaking population of Canada, with the greatest advantage and profit. The recent opening of new offices at 152 King street west, Toronto, was one of the most important steps towards the development of a strong organization for co-operating with advertisers and others who feel the need of special service and assistance in the preparation and translation of their advertising copy for the French field, the translation of letters, folders, booklets and other supplementary matter.

Many advertisers have already saved themselves costly mistakes and added greatly to the results of their advertising by taking advantage of the service and advice of Mr. H. W. King, Ontario representative of "La Presse," who is devoting all his time, energy and experience to this work.

Those who are in any way interested will find it worth while to write, or call on Mr. King, at No. 152 King street west, Toronto, and, without incurring the slightest obligation of any kind to discuss the whole question thoroughly with him. The Toronto office is equipped to give every assistance that an advertiser may require in the way of information, suggestions, translation and other service that will make his campaign in Quebec Province most productive and satisfactory.

Firms in London and surrounding points will doubtless find it more convenient to discuss these matters with Mr. King in London, where he will be glad to meet them at any time by appointment.

PRINCIPAL SHAW DEAD

Prominent in Methodist Affairs of the Dominion for Many Years.

Montreal, March 11.—Rev. William Isaac Shaw, D. D., principal of the Wesleyan Theological College, and for many years chairman of the board of Protestant School commissioners, from which he retired a few weeks ago on account of ill-health, died at noon today. He was born in Kingston, Ont., on April 6, 1841. Studying first for the legal profession he abandoned that design and entered the ministry in 1864, and was ordained four years later. In 1894 he was called to succeed Principal Douglas in the Montreal institution.

THE GILIDDEN TOUR

Will Be From Washington to Ottawa and Called "Reciprocity Run."

Washington, March 11.—The Glidden tour, the big annual event in the automobile world, this year will be known as the "Reciprocity Run," and will extend from Washington to Ottawa, starting June 15. The route will be through Baltimore, Wilmington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, New Haven, Providence, Boston, Burlington, and Montreal to Ottawa, arriving there not later than July 1. The distance is estimated at 1,088 miles. A pathfinder car will leave Washington May 1 to cover the route, for the purpose of mapping it, and gathering information of value to the tourists.

The sweepstake prize will be the well-known Glidden trophy, but there will be also two handsome cups, to be known as the "President's Cup" and the "Premier's Cup." Several other trophies will be offered.

One of the features of the "Reciprocity Run" will be the presence as observers of United States army officials from the signal corps, and engineers' corps. Information of considerable value is expected to be obtained by these army officials.

In order to acquaint contestants with the obstacles along the highways from Washington to Ottawa, an illustrated lecture will be given the night before the tour starts. Stereopticon views of dangerous places will be presented.

NURSE INDICTED

Said to Have Stolen Property From a Rich Patient.

Boston, March 11.—On a charge of stealing jewelry and other property valued at $6,162, from Miss Mary J. Lockwood at a hotel in this city, Amelia M. Leonard, alias Emily Burton, a nurse, formerly of Montreal, was indicted today by the grand jury. Miss Lockwood, who was a member of a well known Rhode Island family, died during the winter of natural causes. After her death it was discovered that much of her property was missing. Her nurse, Miss Leonard, was arrested charged with the offense. Several other charges are pending against Miss Leonard.

WATFORD PASTOR CALLED.

DETROIT "ROOKIES" WALLOP VETERANS

Old-Timers Beaten 18 to 11 in Sunday Game at Munroe Camp.

RECRUITS SHOW CLASS

Have Nineteen Hits Off Willett, Donovan, Mullin and Summers.

Monroe, La., March 12.—Taking this afternoon's exhibition as a criterion, there seems to be no great cause for alarm regarding the ability of the 1911 Tigers to hit that baseball. Especially do the junior junglers seem endowed with unusual prowess with the halberd; for they won the Sabbath struggle from the veterans by a score of 18 to 11.

The figures given may or may not be absolutely accurate, for in a battle of this sort a couple of runs one way or the other easily might be lost track of.

It was a splendid exhibition of bright eyes and strong muscles on the part of both victorious rookies and the vanquished veterans, and as a test of the durability of the ball itself couldn't have been surpassed. Except for the fact that there was more hitting and base running, the afternoon exercises might have been mistaken for batting practice. The score:

At last accounts he was on his way to Australia to compete in the handicap at Brisbane, after which he will train for races with Jack Donaldson and Arthur Postle.

SPORT PROGRAMME TO BE CURTAILED

Many Events Found on London List Will Not Be Held in Sweden.

SOME EVENTS RETAINED

More Popular Features Will Be Called as Usual—Two Sculling Events.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 13.—According to officers of the Amateur Athletic Union, there is every likelihood of a curtailment in the list of events to be held in Stockholm, Sweden, next year. The shortness of the period of the festival makes necessary the omission of certain of the sports which were found on the London Olympic programme.

The curtailment will not affect the more popular events, however. Running races at all of the most popular distances are retained, but there is only one walking contest, at the distance of 10,000 meters, as against those of 8,500 meters and ten miles, held in 1908.

The 400-meters hurdle and the steeplechase are omitted. A new event is introduced in a cross-country race at 8,000 meters, a very short distance for a race of this kind. Similar objection could be made to the relay race of 400 meters.

Wrestling Contests.

Graeco-Roman will be the style in the wrestling bouts, this being the style universally used on the continent. In gymnastics a team competition in exercises according to the Swedish system is a new feature. Noticeable innovations in the swimming events will be a 400-meters breast stroke, and a 100-meters race, as well as a diving contest for ladies.

Mention is made in the rowing line of but two first-class events, viz., the eights and the sculls.

CHAMP WOLGAST TO MEET ONE-ROUND HOGAN SOON

Ten-Round Bout Will Be Fought at Harlem River Park April 18.

New York, March 12.—The Madison Athletic Club, of Harlem, which staged the recent Brown-Hogan bout, has just clinched a match between Ad Wolgast and One-Round Hogan. They have agreed to box ten rounds on the night of April 18 at Harlem River Park, and there is no chance for either to back out of an ironclad agreement.

Hogan will decide in a few days which of the two weight propositions he will accept.

Champ on Weight.

Wolgast is willing to let him make 132 pounds at 7 p.m., or 133 pounds at 8:30 p.m. Hogan is trying to figure which limit will be more beneficial. He is resting for a few weeks, but will begin training about the last of this month.

Wolgast will come east immediately after his 20-round bout with George Memsic at Vernon, near Los Angeles, on March 17.

HERE'S A REAL "COME BACK" IN THE WHITE SOX LINE-UP

JIMMY CALLAHAN.

Once more in regular harness, Jim Callahan, ex-boss of the Logan Squares, of Chicago, promises to make things interesting for outfield aspirants in the Comiskey camp this year.

Callahan was a pitcher once upon a time, but he won't work on the mound for the White Sox. No, he'll cavort around centre, the place vacated by Fielder Jones, when that brainy leader forsook the game and listened to the call of his timber interests.

LANGFORD AND M'VEY TO BATTLE IN PARIS

Hugh McIntosh Arranges a Twenty-Round Clash for March 25.

Paris, March 12.—Talk about a fight between Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette has amounted to nothing.

A contest for 5,000 francs has now been arranged between Langford and Sam McVey, which will take place here on March 25. The bout is scheduled for 20 rounds. There was considerable dickering before the match was brought about. McVey signed a contract some time ago with Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to meet Langford here tonight. He afterward backed out of this agreement on the ground that he had signed the contract subject to the approval of Guiller, his manager. The latter objected to the contract because the purse was too small. After a week spent in letter writing, McIntosh offered to give McVey 2,600 francs if he dared merely to appear in the ring with Langford. The match for the 25th was then arranged.

OKLAHOMA WILL BE NEW FIGHT CENTRE

Every Town in State Has Its Athletic Club and Bout.

Chicago, March 12.—"Denver" Jack Geyer, who was a sparring partner of Jack Johnson during all of his training last summer, and who claims the heavyweight championship of the middle west, is after a match with Carl Morris. Jim Flynn, the husky fireman, is also anxious to mix it with the "White Man's Hope."

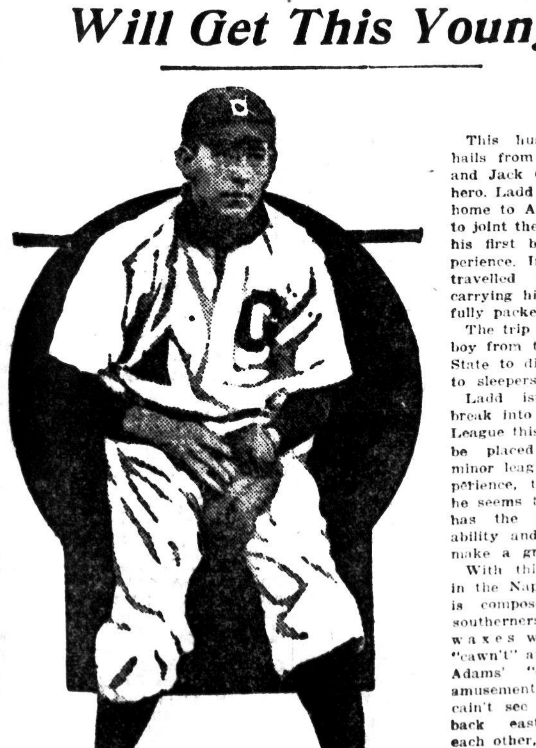

Oklahoma is fast filling up with pugilists and would-be pugilists, and practically every town of any size in the state has a live athletic club, and many matches have been made.

"WHITE HOPE" LESTER OFF FOR AUSTRALIA

Tommy Burns' Find To Meet Bill Lang in a Try-Out Battle.

San Francisco, March 12.—Jack Lester, the young heavyweight boxer whose claim as a "hope of the white race" is backed by Tommy Burns, left here Friday for Tahiti en route for Sydney, Australia, where he is scheduled to meet Bill Lang on April 16. It is possible that Lester will not reach his destination until two days before the fight, but he has expressed confidence that he will be in condition by the date fixed. He will establish training quarters on the steamers on which he will travel.

Some Minor League Team Will Get This Youngster

HAROLD LADD.

This husky six-footer hails from Warren, Me., and Jack Coombs is his hero. Ladd went from his home to Alexandria, La., to joint the Naps and get his first big league experience. Incidentally, he travelled to Cleveland, carrying his lunch, carefully packed by mother.

The trip introduced the boy from the Pine Tree State to dining cars and to sleepers.

Ladd isn't going to break into the American League this year. He will be placed with some minor league, to get experience, the only thing he seems to lack, for he has the physique, the ability and the head to make a great catcher.

With this down-easter in the Nap camp, which is composed chiefly of southerners, argument waxes warm. His "cawn't" and Texas Jack Adams' "cain't" cause amusement. "Ah sho cain't see how you all back east understand each other," said Adams, after trying to figure the Maine boy's pronunciation.

DALLAS BEATEN BY THE GIANTS

Raymond and Shontz Are Hammered for Eleven Hits By Texans.

NEW YORKERS POUND 20

Becker Is Particular Star, With Pair of Homers—Four Men Have Four Each.

Dallas, Texas, March 12.—Although fielding poorly today, McGraw's colts made 20 hits off two Dallas pitchers and won a ding-dong game by a score of 10 to 8.

The locals dented deliveries of Raymond and Shontz for 11 hits, but made most of their runs on misplays. Raymond allowed only four hits in five innings, but had poor support in the first inning. Becker, Manush and Forsyth each made four hits apeice, Becker being the particular star with two clean home runs to the centre field fence and two singles in four times at bat. He also stole two bases. McGraw finished in centre field and dropped an easy fly that let in two runs. Manush scored the runs. Both New York teams returned to Marlin tonight. Score:

Dallas	4 0 0 0 0 0 2 2 0	8	11	2

Batteries—Raymond, Shontz, Gowdy and Hartley; McAdams, Evans, Robertson and Gibson. Umpire, Hansell.

FARRAR WINS BOUT FROM STEWART EASILY

Englishman Takes First Fall in Thirteen Seconds, and Third in Half a Minute.

Farrar, the English wrestler, who claims to have held the championship of the Health and Strength League of England, and who is now conducting classes at the Y. M. C. A., secured two falls of three from Stewart in a match at Cullis' Hall before a small audience on Saturday night.

The winner took the first before they were well started in thirteen seconds, but Stewart came back with the second in 3:10. Half a minute later Farrar took another. In order to complete the programme the men gave a half-hour's exhibition of the different points of the game.

It is probable that another bout will be arranged shortly.

HOT SPRINGS IS WARMING UP

Hottest Day of Season Sees Brooklyns Win Game.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 11.—Good weather continues here; in fact, today was one of the hottest experienced so far by the Brooklyns. Instead of the usual two hours' practice this morning, Manager Dahlen cut it down to an hour, during which the team never had an idle moment. This afternoon they faced a team called the "All-Stars," composed of Hans Lobert, Otto Knabe and Cy Young and many others, winning out in the last inning by a score of 6 to 5.

NEW YORK NATIONALS WALLOP FORT WORTH

Giants Score 13 to 0 Victory in Texas Batfest.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 12.—The New York National regular team hit freely this afternoon and shut out the Fort Worth Texas League team by the score of 13 to 0. Score:

		R.	H.	E.

Batteries—Marquard, Tesreau and Meyers and Schlei; Watson, Burleson and Ritter.

ST. LOUIS BROWNS WIN SECOND GAME

Mound City Crew Evens Up With Cincinnati at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 12.—St. Louis Americans evened with the Cincinnati Nationals in the second game of the series this afternoon. Score, 9 to 6.

PARKDALES WIN FROM GOTHAMITES

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 12.—In one of the most stubbornly contested international hockey games of the season the Parkdales, of Toronto, defeated the Crescent Athletic Club last night at St. Nicholas Rink by a score of three goals to none. It was a brilliant and fast game throughout, and with the exception of the first five minutes the visitors had all the better of the play. The feature of their work was the hard and clever checking which blocked the players at every turn.

Referee — Wm. Russell; assistant referee, E. Garon.

MRS. GIBSON AT CAMP.

Davies, of the Pittsburg Dispatch, writes: This fellow Nagle, who created such a furore out on the Pacific coast as a twirler for the Los Angeles team, appears more than promising. Of course, he hasn't started in to hand 'em yet; nor has he purchased any smoke; but just the same his actions, his delivery and his deportment on the field warrants the belief that he is some pitcher and that he is going to stick in the big show.

Nagle is a tall, rangy fellow with dark hair and eyes. With him is Mrs. Nagle, who, by the way, has already palled up with Mrs. George Gibson and Mrs. Howard Camnitz.

THE BOWLING TOURNEY.

Buffalo, March 11.—The international tournament was resumed today. The best games in the first lot of two-man teams was rolled by Barnes and Kleiger, of Rochester. Their tally was 1,136.

A scorer's error of 100 in addition was found in the totals of Gotham Palace No. 2, of Brooklyn five-man team, cutting down their total score from 2,800 to 2,700. The change moves the Fords, of Detroit, back into eighth place, seventh position being held by Gotham Palace No. 1.

COULDN'T FIND OFFICER TO STOP SUNDAY GAME

Hot Springs' Prosecutor Looks in Vain For Policeman.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 12.—When Prosecuting Attorney J. B. Wood went scouting for officers to prevent the Sunday ball game scheduled between the major league teams here, he could not find a county or township officer anywhere. As a result the games were not interrupted.

The batting of Wheat was the feature of the game this afternoon between Brooklyn and the All-Stars, he getting a home run, triple and two singles in four times up. Manager Dahlen announced tonight the Brooklyn team was now ready to play ball, and that no more hard practice games would be taken on during the remainder of the stay here.

The team leaves here Thursday for an engagement with the Memphis, Southern League team. Score of today's game:

		R.	H.	E.

Batteries—Schardt, Atchison and Erwin and Hackett; Ryan, Bell, Rucker, Miller and Bergen.

AFTER BOXERS IN NEW YORK

Summons Issued for Principals in Moore-Smith Bout.

New York, March 11.—There were indications today that the authorities are planning closer scrutiny of boxing bouts staged in New York City in the so-called athletic clubs. Summons were issued for Tom O'Rourke, manager of the National Sporting Club of America, for Pal Moore and Sammy Smith, principals in last night's lightweight bout, and for "John Doe, referee," and "John Doe, timekeeper." They are returnable on Monday.

Complaints were lodged also against four police captains and three inspectors for alleged negligence in not taking necessary evidence regarding fights.

WEST TO BOWL AGAINST CHAMPS

Londoner Will Meet Rochester Record-Breakers—High Scores of the Week.

McAuliffee is leading in the ten-pin sets on the National alleys thus far this week, with a score of 783 for four games. Dalton is high in the five pins, with 610.

Ingersoll comes to this city for a return match with a city league team tomorrow night. West leaves Tuesday morning for Rochester, where he will play with a Buffalo team against the Flower City crew that set a new world's five-men record a few days ago. He will play in Albany, and later in Buffalo, where he works in the singles and doubles in the N. B. A.

JOHNSON TO RACE A FRENCH AUTOIST

Negro Pugilist to Pilot 90-Horse-power Machine in California.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, March 13.—Arrangements were completed last night for an automobile race between Emil Brouard, the French driver, who is in Chicago now, and Jack Johnson, the heavy-weight champion fighter. The race will take place at either Los Angeles or Oakland within four weeks. It will be for one hundred miles and both contestants are to drive 90-horsepower machines.

YANKEE RECRUITS TO MEET VETERANS

Youngsters Are in Fine Shape and Look to Wallop Old-Timers.

HAL CHASE ON THE JOB

Manager and Team of Firsts Join the Yannigans at Georgia Camp.

Athens, Ga., March 12.—The real work of shaping an American League pennant contender for New York will begin tomorrow with the arrival of Hal Chase and the regular Highlanders. The majority of the veterans will arrive from Hot Springs, Va., early in the morning. If they feel disposed to give the colts a brush in the afternoon, the old fellows will be accommodated. For the rest of the two weeks' stay here daily games between the first and second teams will be in order.

Youngsters in Shape.

In all probability the veterans will find the youngsters more advanced in training than themselves. The weather here has been exceptionally fine for this time of the year. The battery men have had plenty of opportunity to get their throwing arms in working condition. The local squad has had a week of thorough schooling in hitting the ball. So far as fielding is concerned, nothing has been done here except in the game on Saturday with the University of Georgia. The regulars, who have trained only by mineral baths and outdoor exercises, are counted upon as worthy sacrifices by the Yannigans for some time to come.

FRONTENACS LOSE DESPITE A RALLY

Kingston Champions Defeated 5 to 4 By All-Star Team.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 12.—The All-Stars defeated Kingston Frontenacs, the junior O. H. A. champions, on Saturday night by a score of 5 to 4. The All-Stars were always in the lead, they getting the first two goals and leading at half-time, 4 to 2. The superior condition of the Frontenacs told near the finish, and only the final bell saved the All-Stars as the Kingston champions were coming strong. The game was a good exhibition under adverse circumstances, the ice being covered with water and every player was soaked at the finish. The teams:

PRESENTATION TO FLAVELLE.

Lindsay, March 11.—There was an enthusiastic gathering of the Lindsay curlers last night in the rooms of the rink. The occasion was the presentation of a beautiful diamond ring to the father of the curling fraternity in Lindsay, the veteran John D. Flavelle. The presentation was made by President James Boxal in a neat and earnest speech. He voiced the sentiments of his fellow-curlers, and showed how much respect and admiration are felt for Mr. Flavelle. The chaplain, Rev. Canon Marsh, delivered an address, as also did Rev. James Wallace and Secretary J. M. Knowlson.

BEST BATTING TEAM ON PAPER, AT LEAST

What do you think of a ball club with a team batting average of .392?

It is possible to pick one from the baseball guides just issued. Of course it wouldn't be a major league outfit, but it would make trouble for almost any pitcher. Its defence might not amount to much, but for pure, unadulterated slugging, just look over the following:

Forsythe, 1b, Pekin, Three I	.380
Lajoie, 2b, Cleveland, American	.384
Miller, ss, Newton, Kansas State	.361
Phelan, 3b, Kewanee, Central Assn.	.375
Patterson, cf, Quincy, Central Assn.	.411
Cobb, rf, Detroit, American	.385
Conley, lf, Abilene, Central Kansas	.403
Hays, c, Salina, Central Kansas	.423
McGehee, p, Jackson, Cotton States	.406
Team average	.392

GUELPH IS SIXTH IN NEW LEAGUE

Knotty Lee Has Everything in Shape for Organization Session Friday.

EXPENSES ARE LIGHT

Jumps in Some Cases Cost But Dollar a Player—The Men Behind.

Hamilton, March 11.—Knotty Lee, organizer of the new Canadian Baseball League, returned to Hamilton last evening after a jump around the circuit, winding up in Guelph, where he succeeded in placing the sixth club, with the result that the league is now complete, the six clubs having been rounded up as follows:

Hamilton, London, Brantford, St. Thomas, Berlin and Guelph.

Lee has spent the last four days in Berlin and Guelph, and reported this morning that affairs are in a grand position, and that the new league is bound to go. "When we lost Woodstock, giving us our first setback, things did not look any too bright," he said this morning. "However, I was eager to make the new league a go, and decided to drop into Galt and Guelph, and sound the fans there, with the result that the Royal City people have taken hold in grand style and will be in the league with a good strong club, backed by the best people of Guelph.

A Stock Company.

"They are forming a stock company there now, and a committee, headed by Mayor Thorpe and W. A. Mahoney, the well-known architect, are circulating a list and selling shares in the company at $10 each, meeting with every success; in fact, twenty names were secured yesterday for a total of $300, several of the leading merchants taking more than one share. The list will be circulated all over the city, the idea being to get the entire city interested, and as many as possible shareholders in the club, thus assuring their interest at all stages. Mayor Thorpe is very enthusiastic, and Mr. Mahoney has taken direct hold, with the result that Guelph will be there with the bells on. It is the intention to circulate the list for a week, calling the organization meeting next Thursday, in time to permit of delegates being chosen to represent the club at the league organizaion meeting, which has been called for next Friday evening at Berlin, which is the central point."

Berlin Ready.

Knotty met with the same success in Berlin, where matters were at a standstill waiting his return to the Dutch city.

Billy Williams, who was behind the pro. hockey team, has again taken hold, with the assistance of Pop Phillips and Fred Costello, and the trio are ready for business as soon as the league meeting is held. In Berlin, Costello will likely look after the club, securing a good playing manager to run the team.

With the six clubs rounded up, Lee has called the league meeting for next Friday, and the clubs will likely be represented as follows:

Hamilton—Knotty Lee.
London—J. R. Minhinnick.
Brantford—Thomas Nelson and Fred Westbrook.
Berlin—Messrs. Williams, Phillips and Costello.
St. Thomas—Chaucer Elliott and C. Stanley.

The Managers.

Lee will manage the Hamilton club, and Elliott will be found in charge at St. Thomas. Brantford is after Kane, while Berlin is dickering for their manager now. Guelph will either have Charlie Maddock or Bill Phyle, while London will be looked after by Mr. Minhinnick, who is the popular manager of the Grand Opera House in that city.

The next important step in the completion of the organization of the league will be taken at the meeting next Friday, when the league constitution will be submitted and the various agreements entered into, as well as the election of officers. With this done, the clubs will then be in a position to go ahead and secure players, and inside of the next two weeks the baseball map in Western Ontario should present a pretty lively appearance.

Expenses Easy.

"Two of the most important items in the expense account of any ball club are the travelling expenses and the rental for the ball grounds," remarked Lee this morning, "and the success of the new league is assured when one takes these two points into consideration. In the first place, the travelling expenses are very light; in fact, the new league will be just about as compact as any in operation, some of the jumps not running more than a dollar a player, while the clubs are equally fortunate in the matter of ground rental. In Guelph the city is charging $5 a game for the use of the ball park, which means an outlay of $250 for the season, while in Brantford but 2½ per cent on the gate receipts is being taken. St. Thomas is offering free grounds, while in Berlin the arrangements are just about as reasonable, the city council, in addition, offering to build a new grand stand, at an expense of $2,000. London and Hamilton are the only two clubs who will be forced to spend much on the grounds, but they are are best able to do it."

YANKEES DEFEAT COLLEGE BOYS

Arthur Irwin's Yannigans Trim University of Georgia, 14 to 3.

Athens, Ga., March 11.—Arthur Irwin's staff of Yankee yannigans defeated the University of Georgia team this afternoon in a one-sided game by a score of 14 to 3. The New York twirlers used little outside of a fast ball, and probably could have shut out the collegians had they tried.

MONTREAL CITIZENS IN STRONG PROTEST

City Said to Be Robbed of Its Rights By the Tramway Bill.

Montreal, March 12.—At a mass meeting of citizens, held in the Monument National Saturday, a resolution of protest was adopted against the tramways bill, at present before the Legislature. Mayor Guerin presided, and among those who spoke were Messrs. Henri Bourassa, Senator Dandurand, Controllers Ainey and Wanklyn, J. S. Brierley and J. C. Walsh.

The attitude taken by Sir Lomer Gouin and his colleagues of the Provincial Cabinet on the subject of the bill was roundly denounced by all the speakers. It was asserted that the Government had entered into collusion with the representatives of the company to rob the city of its rights. Mr. Bourassa warned all possible investors that he would bend every effort to bring about a repeal of the bill in event of its passing the present House.

NELSON-SCHRAM.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schram, 7th concession McGillivary Township, on Wednesday evening Feb. 22, 1911, when their eldest daughter, Marion Roberta, was united in marriage to Mr. John E. Nelson, of Vancouver, B. C., son of Mr. James Nelson, of Strachan street, Hamilton, Ont. The Rev. Archie Graham, of Parkhill Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father amid the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. I. E. Markle, an intimate friend of the family. The bridal party stood under a beautiful evergreen arch tastefully decorated with pink and white flowers and ribbon. The bride looked charming in a princess gown of white embroidered mull, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white hyacinths and fern. Eva Grace Schram, of Lambeth, cousin of the bride, made a very dainty flower girl arrayed in white. She carried a handsome basket of pink hyacinths and fern, in which the wedding ring was concealed. After the ceremony and congratulations, Dr. John S. Schram, of London, and Mr. Ernest H. Schram, of Burton, B. C., ushered the bridal party and guests numbering 50 into the dining-room, where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of, after which the evening was spent in games, music and singing. A number of phonograph selections suitable to the occasion were also given during the evening. A noteworthy feature of the evening's entertainment was the singing of a solo by the bride's grandfather, Mr. Jeremiah Schram, who is in his 88th year. The young couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents, which testified to the high esteem in which they are held by their numerous friends. The groom's gift to the flower girl was a handsome ring with pearl and turquoise settings. Guests from Toronto, London, Caledon East, Mich., Burton, B. C., Parkhill, Lambeth, Delaware, and other places. After a few weeks spent in visiting their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will leave for the city of Vancouver, B. C., where they will reside.

MANY COULD NOT HEAR MR. TORRIE

Evangelistic Service in Maitland Street Baptist Church Crowded to Door

The congregation was so large at Woodland Street Baptist Church last night that numbers were turned away unable to gain admission. The singing was bright and hearty. Evangelist Torrie preached a strong sermon from the text, "O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? For your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away." Hosea xi. 4. At the close of the service a number went into the inquiry room and professed to have accepted Christ as their Saviour. The meetings will continue each night this week. Tonight at 7:45.

MRS. MELBER'S TRIAL

Woman Accused of Killing Her Boy Appears in Good Spirits.

[Canadian Press.]

Albany, N. Y., March 13.—The state continued its efforts today to prove Mrs. Edith Melber guilty of killing her son Georgie, by giving him carbolic acid in a lonely swamp near Albany, as charged. Buoyed up by the quiet she enjoyed at the penitentiary yesterday with relatives and friends, Mrs. Melber appeared to be in good spirits when she entered the courtroom this morning.

Profiting by the experiences of last week, when men and women fought for admission to the court room, the authorities have arranged to handle the crowds which are expected to storm the city hall so long as the trial is in progress. When the court room is filled the doors will be locked, and only those properly authorized will be admitted.

To prevent a rush at the noon recess Mrs. Melber will have her luncheon served in the building.

LOAD OF UNDESIRABLES ARE UNABLE TO LAND

Steamship Line Carries Company of European Immigrants Back and Forth.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 13.—The immigration authorities are investigating today a report sent them by the Canadian officials at Halifax, that on board the Cranium Steamship Company's liner Volturno, which arrived last evening are seventeen undesirable aliens whom Holland, Germany and Russia will not receive. The Volturno is from Rotterdam and Halifax.

According to the report the seventeen dead-head passengers have been ordered deported from the United States, either on surgeons' certificates, or as likely to become public charges. They are mostly men and Russian subjects. As neither Europe or American wants them the aliens are riding back and forth upon the ocean, the line not knowing what to do with them.

The Cranium Steamship Company, it is said by the immigration authorities has a puzzle on its hands, and finds it cheaper to maintain the banished unfortunates upon its steamer than to keep them ashore, even if such an alternative were possible.

ALLAYS ANXIETY OF MANUFACTURERS

Government Has No Intention of Doing Anything to Hurt Them.

Montreal, March 13.—The anti-reciprocity organization has been actively at work during the past week perfecting plans for the gathering on March 20, which is to be addressed by Hon. Clifford Sifton and Mr. Z. A. Lash. Up to the present time the manufacturers have been leaders in this movement, but a letter was received which will tend to lessen their opposition. A prominent manufacturer of this city, who is very close to Government circles, received a letter on Saturday from a member of the Dominion Government, assuring him that the Government had no intention of doing anything which would prove detrimental to the manufacturing interests of the country. The letter went on to say: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has already spoken and has indicated clearly that the Government has intention of interfering further with the tariff in any manner which will prove detrimental to our manufacturing interests."

The letter further stated that the cabinet had decided not to touch the tariff as it related to manufacturing industries, further than indicated by the pending treaty with the United States.

Among Government supporters in Montreal this, it is said, will disarm the manufacturers, who feared reductions, and will turn their active opposition into a measure of support.

It is pointed out that a similar assurance given by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Oliver Mowat in 1896 was largely responsible for the Liberal victory at that election. The present assurance from the Government will allay the fears of the city voters and of the manufacturers, who believed that all tariffs were to be practically swept away.

EAST LONDON NEWS

MR. W. L. STEEVES WAS SILENT

Pastor of Egerton Street Baptist Church Made No Statement on Sunday Night.

SPIRIT WAS CHANGED

After More Mature Judgment He Concluded to Say Nothing on the Subject and Will Submit to Ruling of Ordination Board.

Pastor W. L. Steeves, of the Egerton Street Baptist Church, refrained last night from criticising the action of the council of the Baptist Association, which refused him ordination as a minister of the church, on Thursday last.

The members of his church were not pleased at the refusal of the association, and Mr. Steeves had announced that he would preach last evening on "Weighed in the Balance and Found Wanting."

The congregation which crowded the little church to the very doors and filled every available chair in the ante-rooms of the church, and the classrooms of the Sunday school, were disappointed more or less when the young preacher rose, and stated that he would not preach on the subject he had announced, and that his attitude in the matter had been very much changed.

A Change of Spirit.

"I am not now in a spirit of retaliation," he said. "I am rather down humbly before God asking his forgiveness for anything I may have wrongly done in this matter. I feel that I have been weighed in the balance of God, and have been found wanting. It is not man who tests us; it is God alone who holds the balance in his hands.

"This has been the severest trial of my life, but it has been a source of great comfort to me to know that my people were with me in sympathy. You have been wondering what I was going to do, but God also has been looking down and wondering what I was going to do. It does not matter what we think, but only how does it please God. And I know that my attitude in the past few days has not been one pleasing in his sight.

"I cannot alone save one of your souls, but God may be able to use me to save some of your souls. Christ could not have used the words I intended to say to save any of you. We have told you in your little disagreements to love one another, and lay aside your little strifes, and today you have been telling me, not by word or action, but silently, to practice what I preach, to put down self, and do the will of Christ."

The End of Saul.

Mr. Steeves then selected his text from I. Samuel, xxxi., 6: "So Saul died." In his sermon he deplored the sad ending by suicide of Saul's misspent life. Saul started out well in life with everything full of promise, and pointing towards success. But he ended wretchedly, as all misspent lives must end. Mr. Steeves contrasted the unpleasant picture of King Saul of Israel's ending with that of Saul of Tarsus. The latter commenced feebly, but finished a glorious work before the close of his life. But behind the life of Saul of Tarsus was the gospel of Jesus Christ. In closing Mr. Steeves appealed for lives to be nobly spent in the cause of Christ and the honor and service of God.

OIL SPRINGS PASTOR AT EAST END CHURCH

Rev. R. J. Currie Preached on Sunday in Hyatt Avenue Church.

Rev. R. J. Currie, B. A., of Oil Springs, Ont., preached two very forceful and eloquent sermons in Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church. The morning subject was "The Kingdom of God," text found in Lord's Prayer, "Thy Kingdom Come." After treating of the kingdom of the world and setting forth the principles of the kingdom of God, the reverend gentleman put up a strong plea for personal work as the means of ushering in the kingdom of God.

The evening discourse was a masterly array of convincing facts, setting for the possibilities in humanity which are still dormant. The text was from John i., 32, "We shall be like Him." Christ was the normal man, and humanity as a result of sin is the abnormal, but by the continued influence of the atmosphere ushered in by Christ sometime the human race shall yet measure up to the great ideal as found in Christ.

SENTIMENT IS DIVIDED

Regarding the Incorporation of Ealing as a Village.

Sentiment seems to be divided, to some extent at least on the matter of incorporating the village of Ealing. It has been said by the opponents of incorporation that Mr. Charles Finch, one of the residents, made a census of some 30 of his neighbors, and discovered that they were almost all opposed to the movement to make Ealing a separate municipality. The anti-incorporationists assert that the affairs of the village cannot be maintained on the taxes it will be possible to secure.

On the other hand, Mr. A. W. Palmer informed The Advertiser today that the work of incorporating the village is being pushed ahead with every promise of a favorable termination, and that it will be accomplished in due time, popular sentiment being in favor of it.

"We are not worrying about the outcome," said Mr. Palmer, when questioned as to the view the residents in favor of incorporation take of the opposition raised to the movement.

BATTLE WITH MADMAN.

Chicago, March 13. — Out in the sparsely settled country at Holland road and Ninety-first street, Mathies Hamill, 69 years old, a flagman employed by the Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific Railroad, fought a desperate battle last evening with a crazed negro. The negro shot him twice with a revolver, and then beat his head with the butt of the weapon, fracturing his skull. At the hospital where the victim was taken it was said he could not live.

THE AMERICAN TROOPS ARE NOT FOR MEXICO

United States War Secretary Makes Statement Over Situation — Rebels Take a Town.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 13.—"I do not believe there will be any movement of our troops into Mexico." This was the statement here today of J. M. Dickinson, United States secretary of war, who plans to sail for Panama this afternoon.

"There can be no excuse for intervention," continued the secretary, "unless the Mexican Government prove negligent in protecting the persons or the property of foreigners, and such negligence would have to be firmly established, in my opinion, before any such step could be taken. There are no conditions now existent to give us such warrant.

"In order to maintain the neutrality laws, it has been deemed advisable to send troops to the border, and on account of the immense length of the frontier, and the fact that the Rio Grande can be crossed at almost any point, a larger number of troops has been dispatched than would otherwise prove necessary."

Rebels Take a Town.

El Paso, March 13.—A special dispatch to the Herald today from Navojoa, Sonora, states that there was an engagement at that place Saturday between 150 insurrectos and fifty federals. The insurrectos succeeded in capturing the town with a loss of one killed and two wounded.

The federals rallied near the town, and are awaiting reinforcements. It is said, however, that the insurrectos had burned the railroad bridge to prevent the arrival of more federals.

London, March 13.—Speaking on behalf of the foreign office in the House of Commons today, Under Secretary Thomas McKinnon Wood stated that there was no reason to suppose that British subjects and interests in Mexico were in danger. Nor was there, according to the information of the foreign office, which was watching the events in that country, any reason to think that the Mexican Government would be unable to protect British subjects and British interests should they be affected.

Asked if the newspaper reports of the situation were exaggerated Mr. Wood said:

"Some of them are, I think."

JAMES PITMAN KILLED

years at St. John, N. B., and Halifax, N. S., later coming to London.

He was engaged in many occupations in London, and was for years bartender at the Grigg House and other hotels. Pitman also conducted a pool room for years on Richmond street.

Kept Hotel.

About five years ago he purchased the hotel at Clandeboye. Three years ago he sold out, coming back to this city. Since that time he had been employed at the Grand Trunk car shops, in the finishing department.

He is survived by a wife and little daughter Hazel. The news of the accident came as a great shock to the wife. She had been up with her little girl, who was ill with the grip, and when notified of the accident, after 1 o'clock in the morning, she almost collapsed. The daughter was left with some neighbors while Mrs. Pitman went to the hospital to be with her husband.

Father Is Very Ill.

A pathetic feature of the accident is that Pitman's father, James Pitman, 104 Wellington road, is very ill, and is probably dying, and cannot be told of the accident to his son. Some weeks ago he was taken ill, and as he is 79 years of age, little hope is held out for his recovery. A sister, Mrs. Scott, resides at 98 Wellington road. The family kept all knowledge of the death of his only son from the father for fear that his end would be hastened by the sad news.

The mother, who is 80 years of age, was told of the accident, and while she bore up wonderfully well, the family is worrying greatly over her condition.

The Survivors.

Besides his father and mother, seven sisters survive—Mrs. L. Scott, Wellington road; Mrs. H. Parsons, Westminster township; Mrs. Rockwell, Port Huron; Mrs. Taylor, Detroit, and Mrs. Sinclair, Zone, Kent County.

Deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias here.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. R. Gunne, rector of Christ Church, and interment will be made at Woodland Cemetery.

RIOTING AT GALVESTON

Stabbing of a U. S. Private Leads to Fierce Race War.

Galveston, Texas, March 12.—The stabbing of Winfield Joel, a private in Company 144 of Fort Moultrie, is responsible for a riot in which troops from the First Provisional Regiment in Camp Crockett, negroes and Mexicans, police and firemen participated at an early hour this morning.

Two houses were fired and one demolished. Joel sustained a dangerous wound in the left side. Police Officer Frank Reagan received several knife stabs, and several of the soldiers were beaten with police clubs.

Col. C. J. Bailey, commanding the First Regiment, came to the city in an automobile and took charge of the provost guard of fifty men, which cleared the streets of soldiers and marched them to camp.

Four others were arrested and jailed, and a civil and military investigation is now on. It appears two or three soldiers became involved in a fight and Joel was stabbed. His comrades heard of it and a mob of them attacked the Mexicans and the negroes.

They literally wrecked every piece of furniture in one of the houses, then set it on fire and entered the other houses and fired a second house. The police and fire department responded and the soldiers cut the fire hose, unhitched the horses from the police patrol wagon and disarmed several officers.

Twenty soldiers are in the guard house, and of the 1,250 men in camp only fifteen were permitted to go outside the reservation today.

The several thousand Mexicans in the city portends more trouble, and threats are being made by the soldiers to clear out the negro settlements.

VESTA VICTORIA LIKES SIR WILFRID

English Vaudeville Star Has a High Regard for the Premier of Canada.

IS DOWN ON "BILL" TAFT

Doesn't Like the Manner in Which the President of the United States Wreathes His Countenance.

"Entree vous," said a roguish, laughing voice in answer to a knock at the door of Miss Vesta Victoria's private suite at the Tecumseh Hotel this morning to a representative of The Advertiser, who stood no further upon the word of "Entree," but entered at once. Miss Victoria, observing that the caller was a stranger, hastily apologized for, as she stated, her execrable French, and after asking her caller to be seated, said:

"I am glad to see you, for I feel every inch a Canadian, although this is my first tour through the Dominion—need I say, much to my delight? The obligations were of the long ago, but let that pass. I am here, thanks to Col. William A. Thompson, who has my tour under his management. I want to see and know Canada, for without wishing to get into any commercial argument, still I may say that I have quite a number of really valuable interests in the Dominion."

"Indeed," replied the reporter, forgetting for a moment the real mission of his visit, which was to treat of matters artistic. He determined to find out how the fair English performer stood on the question of reciprocity.

Likes Sir Wilfrid.

"Really, I suppose, what I have just said regarding the certain interest I have in Canada has suggested your question, but pray don't force an issue. While I am a constant reader of newspapers, still I am in a manner verdant, when the question of politics is brought up. However, I will say in parentheses that while I do not know Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the famous Canadian premier, only by reputation, still I like him very much. I believe that what he is doing in fathering the reciprocity bill through the Canadian Parliament, is for the country's good. Great men, you know, are born, never developed, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier is a master of things political, and he perhaps can see farther in the future than most men, and can understand the fruitful results which will come from the bill in the future."

Down on Taft's Face.

"And how about Mr. Taft?" asked the reporter.

"I don't like to discuss the President of the United States, because I have so many true and loyal friends citizens of that glorious country; but, to be candid with you, I do not like to see a fat man with a face continually wreathed in smiles. It looks somewhat inane to me, as though he were saving to the world of beholders, 'Look at me. I am entirely peaceful in the knowledge that I have not an enemy on the earth.' Well, to such a man, with a thought like this, I would advise him to take a peep at once into the looking-glass, where he will see his own worst enemy. This may perhaps be somewhat epigrammatical, but it has the merit of originality, some compensation at least for the unburdening of my thoughts."

Her Popular Songs.

"How is it, Miss Victoria, that all your songs at once become favorites of the public?" asked The Advertiser.

"Well, you see," replied she, "I am a bit of a student of metaphysics, and I therefore study all my songs carefully from cause to effect, just the same as the scientist looks for the little things in nature to develop the great results. The story must have a humorous value, and a sensible one as well. It must have life, interest and spontaneity. After that, I get the melody, and if the two go together well, and are pleasing to the ear and understanding it 't is accepted, but if there is a jangled, jingling out of tune, then it goes quickly to the waste basket."

"What are your most popular successes," was asked the star.

"Indeed," Miss Victoria replied, "I have been fortunate in having so many that I can hardly pick one out as being greater than the other. The London audience will hear some of my favorite ones, such as 'Poor John,' 'The Twins,' 'The Widow of Experience,' 'Skating,' 'The Artist's Model,' 'The Arcadians,' and a number of others.

WINGHAM.

Wingham, March 13.—The last services were solemnized over the remains of the late Jennie Sneath this afternoon in the Wingham Baptist Church, Rev. Geo. Victor Collins officiating. The hymns were sung by choir and congregation, which deceased had picked out before her departure. The Rev. Mr. Collins spoke very highly of her life and her patience while sick. He chose for his text, II. Timothy, vii: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." The pallbearers were picked out from the Sunday school by the pastor, and were: Wm. Hayles, Roy Munday, H. Lamont and Clarence Blackhall. The floral tributes were very beautiful and were as follows: B. Y. P. U., Wingham, wreath; Sunday school, cross; Mrs. Pingle, Wingham, spray; Miss Dodd, Wingham, spray; Mr. and Mrs. John Rich, London, anchor; Mr. and Mrs. Layton, Pidd, London, spray; Mr. G. M. Millar, London, sheaf; the Cunningham family, of Clinton, large spray; the Sutherland family, of Hensall, large spray; Mrs. Graham and mother, of Alisa Craig, sheaf, and many from other friends.

In the evening the Rev. Mr. Collins preached to a large congregation a memorial service of the late Miss Fisher, which included a sketch of her past life. Special music by the choir under management of Mr. John Henry Christie was rendered.

The condition of Mr. Wach, who was stricken with paralysis a week ago, is slightly improved. His daughter, Mrs. Shovilla, of Regina, is at home in attendance.

Mrs. John Rich and daughter Lavina, who have been visiting friends in Guelph and other points, returned home to attend the funeral of the late Miss Sneath.

The Curry brothers, who lately started up a livery stable here, are about to purchase some fine horses.

Mrs. Wallace Hough was called away to attend to her father, who is very sick in Donnybrook.

The little Boyce boy who met with an accident last week, is improving nicely.

The Walker & Clegg furniture factory here are rushed with orders, and turning out some very nice furniture. They lost some very valuable lumber through fire which happened in the G. T. R. freight sheds last fall.

SASKATCHEWAN HOUSE IN A DEADLOCK

Regina, Sask., March 12.—At midnight on Saturday the Saskatchewan House concluded a sixty-one hour sitting, the longest ever held in the province. On Saturday morning the Premier said that if the present deadlock continues a dissolution would take place or a bill be brought in for amendment to the rules of the House. Mr. Haultain, in reply, said all constitutional precedents were opposed to dissolution.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

DAIRY PRODUCE STILL IN VERY GREAT DEMAND

Roads Are Bad and Offerings Today Were Rather Light.

Owing to the fact that the condition of the country roads was none too good, and also that many of the farmers are now occupied with syrup-making, the market this morning was comparatively small. A few loads of hay sold for from $12 to $13 per ton. Several loads of straw also sold at $6 per ton. One or two loads of oats brought $1 per cwt. Grain was not plentiful.

The demand for dairy produce is still very strong. Good butter is exceedingly difficult to secure, and readily brings 28 and 30 cents per pound. Eggs are worth 20 cents wholesale and 23 cents retail. Other market prices show little change. The quotations:

A TEA MEETING

Held in the First Presbyterian Church Last Friday.

A very unique and unsuccessful tea meeting was held by the men of Centennial Methodist Church last Friday evening. An enjoyable supper of good things provided by the masculine element of the church was served in the dining-room of the building, which was gaily decorated with flags and bunting. The gentlemen were complete masters of ceremonies, and they waited on the tables with unusual and surprising skill. Five or six hundred persons sat down to tea.

Afterwards a very excellent programme was presented, entirely by male talent. Among the numbers were: songs, by Mr. C. Blyth, Mr. Taylor, Master Ted Williamson and Rev. Geo. W. Dewey; readings, by Mr. Hannah; an address, by Rev. H. A. Graham; and selections by the male quartette. Mr. Bert Weir very kindly acted as accompanist for the vocal selections and also gave a well-rendered instrumental. The affair was one of the most successful social entertainments which have been held in the Centennial Methodist Church for some time.

KING GEORGE IN THE POLICE COURT

Not August Head of Empire, But Merely an Inebriated Redskin.

HENRY GEORGE UP TOO

But He Was Not the Single Taxer, Who Died Some Years Ago—A Live Day at Carling Street Mill.

It was worth "the price of admission" to see Magistrate Graydon sit up and take notice at the police court this morning when he discovered the name of King George on the blotter. The court strained his eyes in a second attempt to make sure that he had read the name right, and then in a whisper inquired of Sergeant Birrell if it wasn't a mistake.

"That's the name he gives," said the sergeant, as he pointed out a husky-looking Indian who sat quietly in one corner of the cage waiting for something to start.

The magistrate ran his eye on down the blotter and saw under "King George," the names of Henry George and Nicodemus Ireland.

"Ha, we are indeed entertaining notables this morning," said the court, as he proceeded to business.

An Awful Joke.

"Mr. Ireland," he remarked, "is the gentleman with the green tie, I suppose."

It was true. Mr. Ireland had a tie of a rich emerald hue, and he was apparently proud of the fact. He stood up with King George and Henry George.

"You are all charged with being drunk and disorderly at the Grand Trunk depot," said the court, "and you, King George, are charged with carrying a weapon."

The Indians all remarked sotto voce that they didn't know.

"Don't know," replied the red man laconically.

"Where did you get it?" asked Sergeant Birrell.

"Don't know," said he of the royal name.

A Bad Indian.

"I think you are a dangerous man to be at large," said the magistrate. "You might have shot some of these other men when you were drunk and fighting as you were. I am going to have this pistol taken away from you."

"No," said the Indian.

"Yes," said Chief Williams. "I will add it to my museum."

Constable Logan, of the Grand Trunk, was called and told the court that on Saturday afternoon the Indians got in a car down at the depot and started a free fight.

"It was a pretty warm fight," said the constable. "Henry George was bleeding when we arrived and stopped the fight."

"I am going to fine you all $2 each and costs or ten days," said the court.

The cost amounted to $4 50, and as the red men were shy of cash they are Governor Carter's guests for ten days.

Thomas King, another Indian, who was with the party at the depot, but ran away before he could be arrested, was taken down on the streets later. He said he wasn't in the fight, and was let go with a warning.

The revolver that King George had was an old-fashioned five-shooter, and was fully loaded.

JOHNSTON ADMITTED HE STOLE LETTERS

The Youth Was Remanded by Judge Macbeth Until Saturday.

Hector Nelson Johnston, the youth who is charged with stealing letters from the postoffice at Thamesville, where he was employed in the store of Postmaster Duncan, pleaded guilty and was remanded until Saturday next before Judge Macbeth at the court house at noon today. He was committed for trial after a preliminary hearing by Squire W. H. Chittick on Saturday afternoon.

The only witness called was Postmaster Duncan, of Thamesville, with whom the prisoner boarded. He told of missing a number of letters and suspecting Johnston. On one occasion a short time ago, he said, three letters found in the young fellow's pockets by people who searched them while he was absent were handed over to the witness. They contained small amounts in stamps.

Comes From Kent County.

The boy, who comes from Kent County, and whose father died some years ago, has lived with his father's sister in Thamesville. His mother was employed, until her wedding last november, as a cook in local hotels.

She was present at the boy's hearing this morning, when he admitted taking the letters. One contained fifty cents in stamps and another nine cents. The third contained an old razor, investigation into the loss of which ultimately resulted in the boy's arrest. He had never been in trouble before.

It is said that he was working in the store, but received no salary. The minimum sentence, if any is imposed, is three years in Kingston.

FLYER STOPPED TO SAVE DRUNKS

Engineer Told Two Inebriated Persons What He Thought of Them on Sunday.

A MOST UNIQUE ARREST

Officers Pursued the Men in a Yard Engine, and Caught Them West of the City.

One of the most unique arrests ever made in London was effected yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Birrell, of the local force, and Constable Thomas Shortt, of the Grand Trunk depot.

According to the story told in the police court today, Orwell Smith and James Gannon, two well-known characters, together with some friends, accumulated a number of bottles of whiskey yesterday afternoon and started westward on the G. T. R. tracks to have a good time.

By the time the party reached the Cove bridge they were unable to walk very straight, and decided to rest before they ventured to cross the high bridge.

While they were waiting on the tracks and discussing the situation, the afternoon flyer came along, and, although the engineer sounded the whistle continuously, the drunks were too earnestly engaged in conversation to heed the warning.

Stopped the Train.

The only thing the engineer could do was to run over the men or stop the train. He stopped, and, it is said, in forcible language told the drunks what he thought of them and got them off the tracks, and then proceeded to the city.

On his arrival, he reported the matter to Constable Shortt. He immediately got in touch with Sergeant Birrell, who happened to be at the station, and they secured a yard engine and made all speed westward.

Drunk on the Tracks.

When they arrived they could only find Smith and Gannon, who were once more on the tracks, and barely able to walk.

Gannon and his pal were loaded into the yard engine in short order and rushed to the city. The patrol wagon was called, and they were taken to the station. In court today they were each remanded for a week.

"Had they been walking on the tracks at night," said Sergeant Birrell to The Advertiser, "they would most certainly have been killed, as the engineer could not have seen them in time to stop."

GOLD MEDALS FOR THE LOCAL BOWLERS

Have Been Donated by Mr. Henry Butt, of England.

Mr. Henry Butt, of Western-Super-Mere, England, has forwarded eight gold medals for competition in the four big bowling tournaments in Ontario this coming summer—Eastern Association at Ottawa; the Ontario at Niagara; the W. O. B. A. at London and the Dominion at Toronto. Each association will be given two medals, to be given to the winners of the doubles competition.

President J. S. McDougall and Secretary Dr. J. N. Wood, of the W. O. B. A., have suitably acknowledged the gifts. Mr. Butt visited Canada some years ago with the first British bowlers who toured the province, and remembers his trip with a great deal of pleasure. Two years ago he gave a handsome trophy for competition among the winning rinks in the various tournaments.

"The medals are very handsome," said Mr. McDougall. "I am sure the bowlers of the W. O. B. A. appreciate them very much."

STOLE AN OVERCOAT GIVEN SIX MONTHS

Douglas McConnell Sentenced by P. M. Graydon.

Douglas McConnell, the Pall Mall street youth who was found guilty last week of stealing an overcoat from the Harrison House, was sentenced to six months in the Central by Deputy Magistrate Graydon today. Mr. E. C. Scatcherd, who appeared for McConnell, stated that the youth has unfortunately been addicted to the use of drugs, and could hardly be held responsible fully for all that he did.

"He certainly acted as if he were under the influence of drugs or something," said the court. "The theft was one of the most stupid kind. I will send McConnell where he can be treated for the drug habit, and trust that he will be cured. I sentence him to six months in the Central."

It is stated that an uncle of McConnell's came and asked the court recently to send the youth down for fifteen years.

BODY WAS VIEWED BY PITMAN JURY

The jury which will investigate the death of James Pitman, the victim of Saturday evening's accident, viewed the remains at Ferguson's undertaking rooms at noon today, and then adjourned until tomorrow at noon, when they will visit the scene of the accident. The evidence will be heard at the police station on Wednesday evening. The jury is composed as follows: Samuel Wheaton (foreman), John S. Smith, Herbert H. McCall, Thomas Egelton, Alex. McLean, Arthur Brown, Chris. Cremaine, Arthur Markham, Robert Shepard, T. Beer, C. Fysh, J. B. Cartwright, H. Weston, John Taylor and James Ryan.

ORGAN RECITAL

Special Musical Service Follows Sermon of Rev. Mr. Whiting.

Rev. Richard Whiting, B. A., of the First Methodist Church, delivered a very impressive sermon last evening on the subject, "True Millionaires." Following the service an organ recital was given by Mr. A. D. Jordan, and Miss Jessie Strong. The following programme was excellently rendered:

Messe de Mariage ...... Bueliman
Entree du Cortege
Benediction Nuptiale
Offertoire
Invocation
Laus Deo (Lortic)
Sposaligio (Annees de Pelerinage) .... Liszt
Marche Pittoresque ...... Kroeger

The attendance was unusually large and all present were delighted with the recital.

CORPORATION TAX CONSTITUTIONAL

United States Supreme Bench Decides It Is Legal.

IT MEANS BIG REVENUE

Income to Uncle Sam Annually Will Approximate Twenty-Five Millions.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, March 13.—At 12:25 Justice Day began to deliver the decision of the supreme court on the constitutionality of the corporation tax. The effect of the decision was not apparent in the beginning of the decision. He first announced that it was within the power of the Senate to insert the corporation tax provisions in the tariff law, which originated in the House, and of which the tax provisions are a part.

The provisions of the law stated that the tax was a "special excise tax, with respect to the carrying on or doing business." It was to be paid by "every corporation, joint stock company, or association, organized for profit, and having a capital stock represented by shares, and every insurance company," organized under the laws of the United States or of any state or territory. It was provided that the tax should be equivalent to 1 per cent per annum upon the entire net income over and above $5,000 received from all sources," exclusive of the amounts received as dividends upon stock or other corporations, joint stock companies, or associations, or insurance cmpanics, subject to the tax."

The law provided also that returns should be made by those taxed to the treasury department, to be used as a basis for assessing the tax. These were open to inspection, but in 1910 Congress enacted legislation, providing that the returns should be open to inspection only upon rules and regulations approved by the President.

The decision has assured an additional source of income to the United States Government that will approximate $25,000,000 annually.

LOCAL ITEMS

David Higgins, the talented author-actor, appeared at the Grand on Saturday night in his own play, "His Last Dollar." The cast is a strong one and the play pleased greatly. Two fine horses are carried by the company, an especially strong scene being presented in the finish of the all-important race.

Detective Rider Ill.

Ex-Detective Rider, of 196 Albert street, is seriously ill with pneumonia. His condition is regarded as extremely critical.

A Loving Cup.

A very handsome loving cup, the gift of Mr. William Morris, the great vaudeville producer, to Miss Vesta Victoria, the English comedienne, is on exhibition in the windows a Richmond street druggist. It is a fine bit of work, and attracted a large crowd today.

Jones vs. Shore.

The arbitrators appointed to deal with the case of Jones vs. Shore have not yet handed down their decision. The plaintiff is suing his aunt for damaging a farm which the former purchased while the latter resided thereon.

Not the Balmorals.

The members of the Balmoral Club wish it distinctly understood that they are not guilty of such disorderly conduct as was referred to in the daily papers of last week. They also wish to state that their club rooms are open to the inspection of public officials at any time.

Special Services.

At the Colborne Street, Mettsdioh At the Colborne Street Methodist Church Sunday night Rev. F. E. Malott conducted special services of an evangelical nature. Large congregations were present at both the morning and evening services. The services are being continued this week.

A Hamilton Pastor.

Rev. A. E. Mitchell, of Hamilton, a brother of Rev. Thomas Mitchell, of this city, preached on Sunday in the New St. James' Church. At both the morning and evening services large congregations were present. In the evening Mr. Mitchell preached a strong sermon, showing the improvement in general conditions in the world that has taken place in the last few years, and contrasting life today with that of even a hundred years ago.

Mr. Graydon Again.

It is again rumored that Mr. A. O. Graydon will be offered the position of consulting engineer by the city council, with Mr. Wright as city engineer. Now that Mr. Van Cleve has definitely made up his mind not to return, there is an opportunity for reorganizing the department. Some of the aldermen are in favor of calling for applications for the place.

Safeblowing Cases.

The detectives state today that there is nothing new whatever in connection with the safe-blowing in this city on Friday night. They think that the Keenleyside Oil Company's safe was first operated on and that all that saved the safe at Hyatt Bros.' office from being blown up was the fact that the safe-blowers ran out of nitroglycerine. There was a considerable sum of money in Hyatt Bros.' safe, but the robbers were unable to open it, as apparently they had nothing but hammers and chisels with which to work.

Shoemakers' Union.

Local Shoemakers' Union, No. 88, employees of the Cook-Fitzgerald Company, held their annual election of officers the other evening. Under the direction of Mr. Fred Huntington a pleasing musical programme was presented by the musical committee. Among the numbers were: Piano solo by Mr. Carpenter; selections by quartette, Messrs. Arthur Legg, Doherty, Tayler and Carpenter, solo by Miss Eva Godbout; song by Mr. John Espy, and violin selections by Mr. Volkes. A pleasant evening was spent, which was enjoyed by all.

LADY TAKEN ILL

Mrs. H. M. Peterman, 287 St. James street, was taken violently ill on Sunday morning, and it was thought that she was suffering from coal gas poisoning or ptomaine poisoning. A physician was hastily summoned, and although the case was quite serious for a time the lady recovered.

None of the other members of the family were at all affected.

"There was no smell of coal gas in the house," Mr. Peterman stated. "We could not recall that Mrs. Peterman had eaten anything likely to cause her such an illness. So we are still puzzled to know what really was the trouble."

HARD BLOW FOR MEDICAL COUNCIL

Official Journal Comes Out for the Toronto University.

OVER LICENSE QUESTION

Says Usefulness of Body as at Present Constituted Has Vanished.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 13.—The Ontario Medical Council has to face a particularly heavy blow from the youngest of the medical journals of Canada, the official organ of the Canadian Medical Association, whose publication was determined on at the last annual meeting.

"Its usefulness as at present constituted is gone," is a conclusion reached by the editor, who proceeds to reorganize it in a thorough manner. Incidentally, directly at variance to the position taken by the other two medical journals, the bill of Toronto University, which would enable it to confer a license to practice independent of the council, is wholly upheld.

Upholds That Bill.

The editor says in part as follows:

"Whatever good it accomplished, and unquestionably it filled a place in medical history, its usefulness, as at present constituted, is gone, and it must undergo a complete reorganization. Times have changed, and when medical schools became parts of great universities, as in the case of Toronto and Queen's, the medical council, if it had been well advised, would have assumed a conciliatory attitude towards institutions which could have but one object in view, that of raising standards and placing medical education on the highest level possible. Instead of doing this, it went on its way, fondly believing that the universities were still to be suspected, and taking a position of superiority that would not allow them to consult with those who alone were competent to decide what are really the great requirements of a first-class medical association.

"The council has always claimed that its examinations are really a practical test of a student's knowledge, and yet such universities as McGill, Toronto, and Queen's, insist that many of their best students fail, while notoriously weak ones pass. It could not be otherwise under the system of examination followed.

"The cleavage between the university and the council has at last become clearly defined, and after years of patient suffering the University of Toronto, a provincial institution, has turned; and, if rumor be correct, will endeavor to regain its right to license, and incidentally have the same right conferred upon the other universities, if they keep up to the proper standard. No doubt this action was provoked by the action of the medical council in attempting to deprive Victoria, Trinity and other obsolete medical faculties of representation.

"At all events, the council should be reorganized, its numbers reduced by cutting off four 'homeopaths' and the representatives of Trinity, Victoria, and the Royal College at Kingston. Indeed, it would be wise to reduce largely the number of representatives of the profession at large."

POLICE ON GUARD AT G. T. R. DEPOT

Swains and "Johnnies" Had No Fun With Show People on Sunday.

The youths who loiter about the Grand Trunk station on Sunday afternoons for the purpose of making "witty" remarks to actresses who are passing through the city, were in a very docile mood yesterday. This was owing to the presence of three police officers, Acting Sergeant Bolton, P. C. McRoberts and P. C. Fysh.

For some time complaints have been made of the actions of these young men, and the company determined to put a stop to such proceedings.

Orders were sent out prohibiting young men from loitering at the station, and the orders were enforced by the presence of the three policemen, and some special Grand Trunk officers.

The result was that the crowd was smaller than has been the case for some time. It was also an orderly crowd, the girls not being molested in any form whatever.

VAN CLEVE

tice which prevail elsewhere. When men who are not engineers go beyond those legislative and financial functions which are theirs to discharge, and pass upon questions of engineering design, the position of the city engineer is a most unfortunate one."

Cause of the Trouble.

In view of this fact, Mr. Van Cleve stated that he would not accept the position. He thanked the council for their generous offer.

The aldermen Mr. Van Cleve refers to are Ald. Cooper and Ald. Saunders. Ald. Eckert is the gentleman who recorded the negative vote.

At the last meeting of the council a warm debate took place regarding Mr. Van Cleve occasioned by the work now being done on Richmond street to connect the King and Richmond street sewers. The estimated price of the work was $475, but both Ald. Cooper and Ald. Saunders claimed that it would cost at least double that amount, if not treble. A very large excavation was made for the manhole, and it occasioned much comment. Figures are being prepared on the cost of the work at the present time, and will be submitted to the council at its next meeting.

Both Ald. Cooper and Ald. Saunders claimed that Mr. Van Cleve was extravagant in his ideas, a much too expensive man for the city.

PARENTS NEGLECT

abiding citizenship. Where is a more admirable place for solving the problem than the home?

Parents Are Rulers.

"The parents are the natural rulers and the children naturally look up to them for instruction, and we must look to the homes for the results we desire. The great development of the future will be along industrial and commercial lines, city trading with city and man with man, and capital seeking investments. This will require confidence between man and man. Such confidence will not be found in public places, but in the home, which is the natural place for its development. Men need to be loyal to men and to manhood, and understand that that means the respecting of the rights and privileges of their fellowman.

Solution in the Home.

"The solution of our whole list of problems lies in the home, and that is the place to put our finger on the whole remedy both of present and future evils. The Lord came on earth and He sanctified family life, and it is there that we can most effectively deal with all our national, imperial and universal problems."

OBITUARY

The death took place on Saturday evening, March 4, of Lotta McIntosh, wife of John McIntosh, 4th concession, East Nissouri. Deceased had been married only three years, living at first in this city, where she made many friends. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Hayes, of London Township, and leaves beside a husband and baby daughter, her mother, six sisters and two brothers, viz.: Mrs. Jones and Mrs. McDonald, of Granton; Mrs. Myers, of Wilmington, Ohio; Mrs. Scott, of this city; Mrs. Wilkes, of Hamilton, and Jennie, John and Russell, who reside with their mother on concession 15, London Township. The funeral was held on Tuesday, the 7th inst., to St. John's Cemetery. Service was conducted at the house by Rev. Hanason, of South Presbyterian Church, and at the cemetery by Rev. J. C. McCracken, of Birr.

The death occurred in Victoria Hospital yesterday of James Stanley Patrick, son of the late James Patrick, of Lambeth. Deceased was in his 22nd year, and had been ill for some time. He is survived by two brothers and one sister, Cecil and Clayton, of this city, and Mrs. A. W. Johnston, Chelsea Green. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from Smith, Son & Clarke's undertaking rooms to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and Rev. Mr. Tiffin, of Lambeth, will conduct the services.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza J. Snook was held this afternoon from the undertaking parlors of George E. Logan to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Appleyard.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan, wife of Mr. Charles Sullivan, died in Victoria Hospital on Friday evening. She was 27 years old, and besides her husband leaves a family of small children. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning from the family residence, 453 Charlotte street, to St. Mary's Church, and interment will be made at St. Peter's Cemetery.

The death occurred in this city on Saturday afternoon of Fanny E. Braddon, of Dutton, after a brief illness with pneumonia. The funeral was held to the Grand Trunk station on Saturday evening, and interment will be made at Dutton.

Personal Mention

Mrs. George Robinson has gone to Florida and will not receive again this season.

Mrs. J. R. Kilbourn, of Lambeth, who met with a very serious accident last week, is improving slowly, but will be confined at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. Lowe, Simcoe street, for some time.

Mrs. Henry A. Gran, accompanied by her children, left this morning for her home in Cochrane, Alta., after spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barker, Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Chancey Smith, of this city, are leaving today to attend the funeral of a brother of Mrs. Smith's in Owen Sound.

Ex-Ald. R. Abram has returned from a visit to his brother, John Abram, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, of 498 Ridout street, left yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. Clark's aunt in Lansing, Mich.

WRIT SECURED

have nothing whatever to do with the legal aspects of the case.

A Legal Test.

The action of Mr. McEvoy will throw the whole matter into the courts, and will test the validity of the action of the water commissioners in moving to have arbitrators named to fix a price on the land.

"My client has placed no valuation whatever on his land, as he has no desire to sell," Mr. McEvoy stated to The Advertiser. "We certainly object to arbitration proceedings for many reasons, and we intend to carry our case to the courts to discover whether or not a man has any rights whatever. This land is not necessary for water purposes. The commissioners are not taking this action for themselves, but on behalf of Hon. Adam Beck who promised to deliver to the city a perfected water scheme, including land, buildings, machinery, etc., for a certain sum of money. He has not bought our property, nor attempted to do so, and now he wants the water commissioners to take the property that belongs to us in order to make his contract good. I do not think that is fair to my client, nor is it fair to the city.

Mr. McEvoy's Interpretation.

"My interpretation of the act under which proceedings were taken is that the commissioners have only power to take the land actually needed for water purposes. They want to take all our land, not for that purpose, but for park purposes, an altogether different matter, and by no means provided for by the act.

"We have named no arbitrator. We have objected to the proceedings from beginning to end, and we intend doing so. The three men named have been selected by the county judge, and they do not in any sense represent us. We do not want to sell, nor are we going to, until we are compelled to do so."

City Solicitor Meredith has been handed the notice of injunction, and he will represent the city in opposing Mr. McEvoy's motion.

The Objection.

The latter has filed his objections to the jurisdiction of the board of arbitration, and they are as follows:

1. That the water commission were not expropriating for water purposes, but for water and park purposes.

2. That the act only provided that they could take such an amount of the property of any person as was necessary to supply the water they required, and they were seeking to take more.

3. That the commissioners were not seeking to expropriate for themselves, but were seeking to expropriate for a third party who had already bargained with them to sell and deliver the water, and that they had paid a large sum of money already to this third party, and that the real purpose of the third party to perfect his title was that he might hand this over to the water commission.

Not a Rendering Works.

In the account of the safe-blowing affair at the Keenleyside Oil Company's offices on Florence street, it was stated that the place was a rendering works. This is incorrect, as no rendering whatever is done on the premises.

STANDARDIZE HOLIDAYS

A British M. P. Has Bill to Change the Calendar.

London, March 13.—Robert Pearse, M. P., will introduce into the House of Commons a bill for reforming the calendar and standardizing the dates of all holidays. Should this bill become a law the first day of the year would be excluded from the calendar and called New Year's day. The next day would be January 1.

This would give 364 days in the months of the year. The 364 days would be divided into four quarters of 91 days and each quarter would have 30 days in each of the first two months and 31 in the third. In leap year the additional day would not alter the calendar, but would be treated like New Year's day. It would come as an additional holiday between June 31. June being the third month of the quarter would have 31 days and July 1.

The bill also fixes Easter Sunday on the same day of the month every year; April 14 is suggested. The effect would be to place Ash Wednesday, Whitsunday, Derby Day and other festivals on the same recurring days. August 1 would always fall on Monday, as would Christmas day.

The bank holidays under the arrangement would be: New Year's day, Easter (April 14), Whitsuntide (seven weeks after Easter), August 1, Christmas Day.

The scheme has been approved by the International Congress of Commerce and Industrial and Commercial Associations. It is declared that the standardization of the holidays of Europe would be an enormous saving to the commercial world.

WIRELESS PEACE IS NOW REIGNING

Troubles Between German and British Shipping Have Been Adjusted.

Berlin, March 13.—Wireless peace now reigns between the mercantile shipping of Great Britain and that of Germany by the conclusion of an arrangement whereby in future there will be free exchange of radiograms between British ships and the 150 German vessels which carry wireless installations.

The trouble dates back to the Berlin international conference of 1906, when the principle of obligatory communication between all systems was accepted apart from the British reservation in regard to communication from ship to ship; but all the states represented except the United States and Italy. In the interval America has introduced legislation extending the principle of compulsory communication to wireless telegraphy in her territory. Italy is prevented from giving in her adhesion by her contracts with the Marconi Company, and the British Government could not accept this principle out of consideration for the Marconi Company, which at great cost had equipped many British ships with wireless apparatus and in organization and numbers had the predominant position.

In the four years that have elapsed since the international convention immense strides have been made in wireless telegraphy, and the clauses of the convention dealing with technical questions and the regulation of wireless traffic stand in need of revision. The right to refuse communications is now no particular advantage to British ships, all countries having equipped their mercantile fleets with wireless apparatus, and the foreign stations are now at least as numerous as the British. Germany, Austria-Hungary, France, Holland, Denmark, Spain and many other countries have ship stations of various systems, so that there is no longer a question of ship to ship communication injuring the Marconi Company, as the foreign ships are no longer dependent on the company.

SEES WEAKENED BONDS

Former Rainy River Member Opposed to Reciprocity.

Toronto, March 12.—D. C. Cameron, former Liberal member for William and Rainy River in the Ontario Legislature, and now of Winnipeg, is opposed to the reciprocity agreement. Interviewed tonight he said:

"So far as my own personal interests are concerned I see no harm in the treaty, in fact, I believe it would benefit the lumber industry, in which most of my capital is invested in British Columbia.

"But speaking from the Canadian national standpoint, I am distinctly opposed to reciprocity. I think it would tend greatly to weaken the bonds between the eastern and western parts of Canada. It would mean a closer union between the Canadian and American west, and a corresponding breach with the east. Though no ill effect might be noticed immediately, the influence of the treaty would show itself in time.

"I do not wish to speak as an authority, but I think my views are practically the same as those of most people in Winnipeg."

THE LAW'S LONG ARM.

Montreal, March 12.—Four years ago Maxime Demontigny, after securing two watches and chains on approval from a jeweler named Buisson in this city, decamped without paying for them and went out to California.

On Tuesday he came back to the city, and Buisson, seeing him on the street, had him arrested.

Demontigny was brought in court yesterday morning charged with having stolen $200 worth of jewelry. He made a very pathetic appeal to the judge, saying that he was an honest man and had simply forgotten to pay for the watches, and "would not steal anything for the world."

He was unable to give bail and was locked up pending his trial on Thursday next.

AMERICAN CITY BUILT IN CHINA

Project of Oriental Capitalists Regarded as of Much Significance.

Washington, March 13. — United States Government reports from time to time are bringing news of the progress of a singular enterprise in South China, near Hong Kong. This is nothing less than the construction of a complete model city, after the plans of an American city, with wide streets, electric lights, gas, waterworks, sewers, street cars and even a board of aldermen designed to be as rotten as any, of course.

A number of Chinese capitalists took up the matter several years ago and commenced the construction of the place in 1909. Their primary idea was that they would make of it a home for Chinese who had made their fortunes in foreign lands and had become accustomed to modern comforts. Of these many are returning to China, and it has been noted that soon after they get home it is almost invariably true that they get very tired of the Chinese method of living. As they have the money it occurred to the native capitalists that they would build a place for these new nabobs to live, provided they were willing to pay the price.

The new city is called Heungchow. It is located on the Bay of Vehli, to the westward of Hong Kong.

A large number of buildings had been erected, when suddenly a question arose as to the attitude of the general government of China toward the innovation. This appears to have crippled the credit of the promoters, and work on the more costly improvements stopped. It has been intimated in some of the reports that there is a nice little Chinese hold-up in the situation, and that as soon as the enterprise has paid a trifle of royalty in the direction of Pekin, the general government will not further question the project.

It is the intention of the people behind the new city to make it an open and free port, like Hong Kong and Shanghai, only it will be purely Chinese and not partly foreign as those cities are. This plan, if carried out successfully, will make the place a commercial centre of such magnitude as to interfere with the prosperity of Hong Kong. American Government officials consider it of the highest significance that the idea of such a city should have entered the heads of the Chinese at all, and they predict large results from it, if this place proves a financial success. It will mean virtually the beginning of the end of the present native style of living in China it is believed, and the general adoption of sanitary ideas now strange to most of the natives.

DECOY TELEGRAMS

Financier Russell Alleges They Were Used to Lure Him.

Montreal, March 13.—A new move the cause celebre of David Russell, the well-known Montreal capitalist and financier, against the Pinkerton Detective Agency, was made yesterday, when, in accordance with a recent decision of Judge Guerin, Russell's lawyers filed particulars of his claim for upwards of $250,000 damages for alleged conspiracy, by which Russell declares an attempt was made to have him sent to an asylum as insane.

Among the new particulars is a telegram sent to Mr. Russell at New York, and alleged to have been sent by Chief Detective Carpenter, and two other telegrams sent to him there, to which, it is alleged, Detective Carpenter's name was forged, and a copy of an alleged decoy telegram, which it is alleged was sent to Russell at New York by McNamara, one of the defendants.

The rest of the particulars consist of dates of the independent investigation made into the matter by Mr. Russell, and the new detectives he set to work when he had relinquished the Pinkerton people. Russell's claim is set forth in detail in the bill of particulars. His total claim amounts to $250,000, of which $100,000 is for compensation for injury which he alleges was done his credit as a businessman, $50,000 for compensation for personal injuries through humiliation amongst his associates, and $50,000 as exemplary damages.

PERSONALITY MAKES MEN WHAT THEY ARE

Professor Law of Knox College at First Presbyterian Church.

Prof. Law, of Knox College, Toronto, was the special preacher at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday. He delivered two very powerful addresses during the day. The services were attended by very large congregations.

In the evening he took as his text, "To the pure, all things are pure." The subject suggested a great question and the answer. It meant that personality, not circumstance, made men what they are. A man's nature is the fountain from which all good or bad springs.

The physical world reflects the personality of humanity. To the dyspeptic, the world is bitter, to the jaundiced eye yellow. That goes through the whole aspect of the great world outside.

"The world is really the world plus ourselves," declared Prof. Law. "The world also reflects man's tastes and habits. To the clodhopper there is nothing high or noble in it. To the mere scientist, the world is a great machine, without mind or spirit behind it. To the religious man, it is God's world, reflecting His care and love everywhere.

"It is wonderful how the world reflects our dispositions and temperaments," declared the preacher. "It is really wonderful how sweet the world is to a sweet nature—how bitter the world is to the bitter man. To the frivolous man, the world is but a place for frivolity. To the earnest man it is a place for earnest work and noble endeavor. The world is really kind to the kind man, and bitter to the bitter man. The small things of life, even our eating and drinking, may be made holy or brutal by the spirit within us. In our social relations, no man can harm your soul unless he makes you hate him. There is no substitute for a good heart."

FIRE IN OIL WORKS

Half a Million Dollars Blaze in Subsidiary Plant of Standard Oil.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, March 13.—A $500,000 fire which started on Saturday in the plant of the Pratt Oil Works, a Brooklyn subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company, is still burning today, and a force of two fireboats and three companies of firemen are engaged in an endeavor to keep the blaze confined to the wharves and storage plant. The firemen are hampered in their work by the constant explosions of five-gallon cans of naphtha which were stored on the piers.

According to officials of the oil company the fire started when a tugman threw a shovelful of hot ashes into the river close to the dock, igniting some oil which was floating on the surface.

CAN'T AVIATE THERE.

San Francisco, March 12.—A report was brought here yesterday by the steamer Mongolia from the orient that Aviator J. C. Mars was prohibited by the British authorities from making flights at Hong Kong. The British Government has strict regulations against the use of aeroplanes within the sight of fortifications.

Mars, who left here in January, gave exhibitions in Honolulu. It is said that he planned to make Hong Kong the scene of his most ambitious work on the present tour.

HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE.
COULD NOT CROSS THE FLOOR PAIN WAS SO GREAT.
Miss Hazel Hess, Winchester Springs, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with my kidneys for five years. They were so bad, at times, I could not cross the floor for the pain. The doctor could not do me any good and a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I bought six boxes and now I have been cured for over four years. I will recommend them to every sufferer."
No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to filter out of the blood are left in the system. Then how important it must be to see to it that this system of sewerage be not clogged up.
Doan's Kidney Pills are a purely vegetable medicine, realizing quick, permanent relief, without any after ill effects. A medicine that will absolutely cure backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble.
Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

FIFTY GO TO DEATH UNDER EASTERN ICE

Rescue of Two Girls By Another —One Instance of Heroism

Boston, March 13.—Fifty persons, a majority of them children under 12 years of age, went through thin ice to their death in New England and Maritime Provinces of Canada during the winter just closing. There were seven double drownings. Many instances of heroic attempts to rescue were recorded, some of which resulted fatally to the would-be rescuers.

Josephine Plzroski, 13 years old, looking from a window of her home, while changing her wet stockings, saw three other little girls fall through the ice in the Chicopee River. In her bare feet the child scampered over the snow and plunging into the water rescued two of the children. Her collie dog sought to save the third but she struggled so hard the dog was forced to leave her to die.

ROYAL WIDOWS WARM FRIENDS

Duchess of Edinburgh Entertains Princess Beatrice in Her Villa in Nice.

Nice, France, March 13.—Princess Henry of Battenberg has accepted the invitation of the Duchess Dowager of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha to stay with her at Nice. There is a special tie between the only daughter of the Czar Alexander III. and the "baby" of Queen Victoria's family. The young Duchess of Edinburgh arrived in England in 1874. She came to Clarence House "a narrow little villa on the edge of a public drive"—to find a course marked out for her that appeared at first sight quite intolerable.

The Queen of England was in deepest widow's weeds. There were no royal nights at the opera, and no balls at Buckingham Palace.

Grand Duchess Marie found herself years older than the Princess of Wales, who was in reality nine years her senior. To this lady she had, of course, to give precedence—a fact not realized before she left St. Petersburg.

Princess Beatrice was just fifteen; she was far too young to worry about burning questions of court-ordering. She was delighted with Marie's brilliant talk.

And so it came to pass that a friendship—which has outlasted years and defied both time and change—had its beginning between Marie of Russia and Beatrice of England. Both ladies are widows now, both have found the hollowness of earthly rank and imperial glory. It does not require vivid imagination to supply the theme of conversation which will occupy the royal sisters-in-law as they sit on the terraces of the Villa Saxe-Gotha watching the sunsets.

PERISHED IN FLAMES

Charred Bodies of Three Found in Fire Ruins of Cottage.

Ravenna, Ohio, March 13.—Three men perished in the destruction by fire late last night of a cottage at Sandy Lake, a summer resort four miles southwest of this city. They are George F. Doughitt, of Ravenna, a lawyer, 50 years old, owner of the cottage; Wm. Vargo, 55 years old, also of this city, a carpenter; and Harry Clark, 30 years old, a laborer, of Breakneck Creek, Ohio. The three men had been making repairs Saturday and Sunday at the cottage. Their charred bodies were found in the fire ruins. It is thought they were asleep when the fire broke out, and were enveloped in flames without a chance of seeking safety.

FIRE CHIEF ILL.

Hamilton, March 13.—A. B. TenEyck, chief engineer of the fire department, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital last night for treatment for a severe attack of the grip. For nearly two weeks the chief has been in poor health, and last week he took a short rest, but evidently resumed his duties before he should have and Saturday he suffered a relapse and his physician ordered his removal to the hospital.

The news of the chief's illness caused much surprise, as he was driving around attending to his work until Saturday, and only the officers of the department and a few friends knew that he was not in the best of health.

Assistant Chief James is in charge of the department. Chief TenEyck is reported much better.

DEATH IN STEERAGE

Six Passengers Succumb on Voyage From Greece to America.

New York, March 13.—The Greek steamer Patris made port yesterday with a record of six deaths in her steerage during the voyage across the Atlantic. Pneumonia and spinal meningitis each claimed three victims, two of whom were brought here for burial. The others were buried at sea. Three men and three women succumbed.

The vessel, with nearly 800 passengers aboard, of whom 683 are in the steerage, was detained at Quarantine for further investigation. The two bodies were transferred to Swinburne Island. The Patris sailed from Piraeus and Patras and encountered rough weather on the trip.

MARY'S CONTRIBUTION.

Ottawa, March 13. — The Laurentian branch of the Daughters of the Empire will place a box for contributions to the Queen Mary coronation fund in the Carnegie library here from the 15th to the 25th of the present month. Members of the league will be present to take down the names of contributors, and it is expected that Ottawa will contribute a large amount to the fund.

ARRANS GOING HOME.

Ottawa, March 13. — The Dowager Countess of Arran and her daughter, Lady Winifred Gore, who have both been visiting here since Christmas, are sailing for their home in England at the end of the week, and will be accompanied by Lady Beatrice Cecil, who has been the guest of their excellencies since the beginning of January.
