Emphatic That U. S. Walkout Will Not Affect Government Lines.

RETURNS FROM CHICAGO

Believes That Settlement of Trouble Entirely Up To Board.

Any declaration as to the possibilities for or against a general railroad strike in the United States was carefully avoided by Howard G. Kelly, president of the Grand Trunk Railroad, when questioned Thursday noon as he passed through London en route to Montreal for Chicago, where he attended the meeting of rail chief and executives.

"Everything rests now with the American railroad labor board," said the president, "the conference between the rail executives and the board convened Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and lasted until 9 p.m. of the same day."

No Settlement At Noon In Railmen's Meeting

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Ben W. Hooper of the railroad labor board left the conference of the Big Five union executives shortly after noon and said that the strike had not been settled yet.

Executive committees of the Big Five brotherhoods, the men who possess the power to call off the rail strike schedule for next Sunday, met with their five chiefs today in conferences said to have been called at the instance of the railroad labor board.

Whether the brotherhood chiefs consider this a "satisfactory settlement" of their grievances, which they have asserted after yesterday's session of the strike call, is the question to be decided at the conference of the union leaders this morning.

T. C. Cashen, head of the switchmen, asserted after yesterday's session of the board's investigation, that nothing had been brought out which would affect the strike call.

KING DEMANDS MEIGHEN QUIT FOOLING VOTERS

Proves Ammunition "Gift" From England Cost Canada Millions.

CHARGES WILFUL WASTE

Challenges Truth of Premier's Shell Shipment Explanation.

ORONO, Ont., Oct. 26.—(By Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)—That deliberate deception had been practiced by the Government with regard to the expenditures of public moneys on war stores and ammunition was the statement reiterated by Hon. W. L. Meighen, leader of the Liberal party, speaking here tonight. Mr. King examined the prime minister's public letter regarding shipments of shells coming into Canada and asserted that a great deal of false information must be forthcoming from the prime minister and from Mr. Guthrie, minister of militia, with regard to war stores which are arriving in Canada in spite of the continued operation of the arsenals at Quebec and Lindsay.

Will Be "Revelation."
Mr. King said that the letter issued by Mr. Meighen disclosed a situation infinitely worse than he had supposed and would be a revelation to the people of Canada once its real significance was appreciated. He said that Mr. Guthrie, the minister of militia, had issued a statement to the effect that the war stores arriving in Canada were in the nature of a gift from England, a gift of which he had spoken in the House of Commons in both of the last two sessions.

It now appeared that the war stores being landed in Canada were not a gift at all, but were the prime minister's own words "Canada's own property, being part of the war supplies credited to her own account of supplies furnished England by Canada, which were furnished out of moneys appropriated by the Parliament of Canada and raised through taxation or by loans upon which interest is being paid at the present time, and full repayment remains as an outstanding national obligation."

Represents People's Money.
"Credits arising out of a financial settlement of accounts are to all intents and purposes the same as appropriations by Parliament," said the Liberal leader. "They represent money of the people for which there should be a strict accounting to Parliament. It was against such credits that the present and other vast stores of munitions have been brought to Canada according to the premier's statement."

"The prime minister's statement," said Mr. King, "contradicts the statement of his minister of militia, Mr. Guthrie, all through his interview had led the public to believe that he had told Parliament all about the so-called gifts of war material from England. One might read the Parliament of the minister of militia in fact from beginning to end without anywhere finding mention of any gift of ammunition."

Referred to Equipment.
The cargo of the S.S. Canadian Banner, which occasioned the present discussion, contained nothing but high explosive shells, he said. The only war stores which had been referred to by Mr. Guthrie in Parliament were airplanes, guns and paraphernalia of the kind which is generally referred to as equipment, as distinguished altogether from ammunition. "Did the matter stop there," continued Mr. King, "it would be bad enough, but the actual situation is worse."

Mr. Meighen had said at the beginning and close of his letter that no war material of any kind had been purchased since the armistice. If this were true, why had Parliament been asked to vote in the session of 1920 and 1921 to vote large sums of money for munitions. The minister of militia had said that the money was required to pay for war munitions at the arsenals of Quebec and Lindsay. Not one word had been said to Parliament about any credit on which Canada could draw for stores or munitions overseas.

Appropriated $1,180,024.
In the session of 1920, in addition to moneys for demobilization purposes, Parliament appropriated $1,180,024 for war stores and for munition to be ordered from the arsenals of Quebec and Lindsay. Having regard to the fact that the war was over and that demobilization yet completed, Mr. King said he had asked the minister if it was not possible to reduce this amount by $400,000. He pointed out that the amount asked from Parliament for the training of the militia was greater by several thousands of dollars than the amount appropriated at any time previous to the war.

The minister replied that the large amount was necessitated to keep the French in 1919 in a report to the Government. Mr. Guthrie had asked his supporters in the House to vote against this reduction and the motion was lost accordingly.

Throughout the whole of this debate, said Mr. King, not one word had been said in regard to any credits or possibility of securing munitions from abroad at the present time. Mr. Meighen had made, it was in the spring of 1920, before the estimates of the mil-

Department were under discussion in Parliament, that the financial settlement was made in England, which entitled Canada to draw upon the Old Country for munitions required to meet the needs of active militia.

Cites Premier's Plea.
"What was worse than that," said Mr. King, "the minister of militia that when asked why so large a staff had been employed at the arsenal at Quebec now that the war was over, had stated (I quote his words from un-revised Hansard): 'All our munition is made at Quebec.' In another sentence the minister had added, with reference to the ammunition made at Quebec at Lindsay: 'I doubt if any letter ammunition is turned out anywhere.' Last session the 1921 Parliament had voted nearly one million dollars more for munition and war-like stores. How, in view of these munition charges amounting to nearly two millions in two years, could Mr. Meighen say that no war material of any kind had been purchased since the armistice, or how could he say that not a dollar had been spent on munitions."

It now appears, said Mr. King, that the shipment of high explosive shells which he saw at Lewis was but one of several shipments made to Canada since the spring of 1920 that continuously throughout the present and for the last year or two shipments in whole or partial cargoes had been coming on ships of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine. Mr. Meighen had stated that shipments totalling 2,355 tons had arrived in Canada to be used for the training of the militia of the arm of the Canadian army called artillery.

How Many Tons?
How many more tons, he asked, had arrived during the time that Parliament had been voting money for the very purpose of supplying the militia with everything that was needed?

"Apparently," said Mr. King, "the munitions were coming in such quantities that an effort had to be made to give cause for the slightest ground of anxiety to the motherland."

Secret of the Motherland.
"The case of Ireland certainly is not exactly parallel. We must be guided in our treatment of that problem by an intense desire to penetrate the true secret of the Irish heart and lay aside, once for all, those causes of medieval hatred which prevail to this hour. In solving the problem we give great encouragement to the manner in which difficulties, in many respects similar, have been overcome in the Dominion."

Never Abandon Hope.
Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, stating Sir George Perley, said that in all the vicissitudes of the years past, he believed the royal family had remained anchored to the affections of the Irish people. So long as that were true, he would never abandon hope that a time would come when representatives of Ireland would sit at a table of the Canada Club as members of the great empire.

EULOGIZES PATH CANADA TRENDS TO AD EMPIRE

Winston Churchill Pays High Tribute To Dominion At London Banquet.

SURE OLD FLAG WILL FLY

Evinces Desire To Penetrate True Secret of Irish Heart.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—At the Canadian Club dinner tonight in honor of the Duke of Devonshire, which was presided over by Sir George Perley, Canadian high commissioner, in the absence of the Duke of Connaught, some interesting comparisons between Canada and Ireland were made by Winston Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies.

"I must be careful what I say about Canada," declared Mr. Churchill. "Any word I say might be construed into interference in matters with which we have no concern."

Canada Encourages.
"No, I am not going to worry," continued Mr. Churchill. "That is one advantage of the system on which the empire is built. There is a great economic political struggle going on today in Canada, and not one of us has any right to worry about it. We know that whatever may happen, the old flag will fly. How I wish that in similar elections which will be taking place in the near future we had no cause to worry."

"Canada gives us a feeling of encouragement at the present time in the task we have in hand in regard to Ireland. We see that in Canada there have been many, if not indeed all, the difficulties which exist in Ireland; the great differences in religion, race and language, difference of party grouping, even differences which have led to bloodshed."

"It would be affectionate to suppose that all these differences have been swept away, but in the Canadian constitution they have been reduced to proportions which no longer threaten the integrity of Canada as a nation. It is a great cause for the slightest ground of anxiety to the motherland."

Secret of the Motherland.
"The case of Ireland certainly is not exactly parallel. We must be guided in our treatment of that problem by an intense desire to penetrate the true secret of the Irish heart and lay aside, once for all, those causes of medieval hatred which prevail to this hour. In solving the problem we give great encouragement to the manner in which difficulties, in many respects similar, have been overcome in the Dominion."

MRS. ZARN IS SENT TO MERCER REFORMATORY
Husband and Wife Had Systemized Robbery in Bruce.

WALKERTON, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Fred Zarn of Hanover, formerly of Walkerton, who was remanded last week on a charge of theft, appeared before Judge A. B. Klein this morning and was sentenced to a term of eight months in the Mercer Reformatory, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Zarn, it is alleged, have been living on the proceeds of their thieving and when their home at Hanover was recently searched scores of stolen articles were recovered, many belonging to the residents of other Bruce towns which had been visited by the pair in their car. Mrs. Zarn's husband is now serving three months in the Grey County jail on a charge of theft.

BURGLARS AND HOLDUP MEN BUSY IN WINDSOR
WINDSOR, Oct. 26.—Robbers secured $304.20 in two hold-ups in Windsor Tuesday night and early this morning. A third band was routed when the man attacked fired a revolver shot at them. Police placed one man, John Evansoff, under arrest, and are holding him on suspicion.

Alberta Jacobs, Ford, offered two men a lift while driving his car on Mercer street. He had driven but a short distance when one ordered him to hand over his money. Jacobs was forced to part with $300. The men alighted and told Jacobs to keep on driving. Later Evansoff was arrested.

Two colored men held up Joe Johnson at the rear of his home early this morning. One of them had a gun. Johnson told police that he handed over $4.20.

Wilfred Renaud, Pall avenue, discovered three men trying to force the rear door of his home. He challenged them but they did not move. He then fired a revolver at the band and they scattered.

TRIM DIVIDENDS, "FIRE" LOAFERS, LAWYERS, IS FORD'S ROAD THEORY

Multimillionaire Detroit Automobile Manufacturer, Bares His "Formula" For Successful Railroad Operation.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Abolish the "parasite" stockholder. Make the rolling stock lighter. Discharge unnecessary employees, especially clerks and lawyers. Tolerate no idle men, cars or engines.

This is Henry Ford's formula for a successful railroad as given in a signed article in the current issue of "The Nation's Business," official organ of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Ford, the multi-millionaire Detroit automobile manufacturer, happens to be the only railroad in the United States whose employees will not walk out if the general strike order goes into effect October 30. This road is the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton.

Must Serve Public. "The real purpose of a railroad," Ford says, "is to serve the public. There is no reason why it should be diverted from that service, and set to doing an entirely different thing—putting money into the pockets of stockholders who make no contribution to the road's actual operation. Paying dividends to these people is a burden which should be lifted from the railroad. The greater the over-capitalization the heavier the burden. It bears them down and prevents them serving their purpose. In the end the public pays these dividends. They are a tax on the whole people."

"There is a possible and practicable system of financing railroads by which those contributing the money will be in positions to add directly to the success of the undertaking. If the brakeman on a railroad were stock in it, he has an additional inducement to competent service. Better service is a valuable by-product, which will come from the ownership of stock. If the railroad is a success, it is due to him and his fellow-workmen and they are entitled to the profit.

"Finance is Failure." "Railroads should not have to go to banks for money. They can be otherwise financed. In fact, finance is the wrong term to use. We talk too much about finance. The first thing is to make a railroad work. Make it profitable for the people who use it as much as they want to. Then there will be no trouble about finance. The trouble is that we start with finance and expect finance to make the road go. Finance can't do that. Finance is a failure.

"Of course, if such a course were attempted we could expect a great outcry for the protection of invested capital. It would be said that people had bought these stocks for the financial benefit of their families, their children. Protection from what? From the necessity of serving the public? The children would be better off if they had to finance themselves.

"Proper financing would, of course, be easier on new roads. On the old ones, however, it is possible to remove the parasite, the non-contributing stockholder, and get the ownership into proper hands.

Remove Physical Burden. "An overgrown mechanical drain, the second step would be to remove the great physical burden of the railroads—needless weight of rolling stock. "Overweight of rolling stock is the prime mistake on the mechanical side of railroads. Engines and cars are four to five times as heavy as they ought to be. A freight train is several times the weight of the load it carries, and a passenger train is twenty times as heavy. The dead weight must be moved whether a train is loaded or empty. The cost of pulling empty trains is needlessly large. Contrast this with the efficiency of the bicycle, which weighs twenty pounds and will carry a man who weighs 200 pounds.

"The third step, an immediate step which should be taken in the operation of any great enterprise, would be that of expediting the journey of the freight carrier. On the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton we tolerate no idle men, idle cars or idle engines. Loaded cars are in the streets and are in efficient operation. They can be made to keep moving.

"If a car takes more time than it should to deliver its load to its destination, it is not, of course, earning as much as it should for the road. It is just as much waste as it would be for a man to take two days on a one-day job. It is more so, because that car is likely to hold another car back. But here is another point. It is lengthening the time of the turnover of the shipper—and that, too, is a waste of money and everything else.

"Most railroads have enough lawyers working for them to operate them if they were engaged in useful work. One of the first things is to dispense with the legal staff. If we managed road needs less of that sort of service. We did just this on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton. The lawyers are mostly in the claims department, which is one of the most wasteful branches of railroad operation. Any small claim against a railroad is very likely to knock about the claims department for weeks or months, to require endless clerical attention, to close the machine, to cost many times as much as it would to pay it. Proper organization would lead, at the time it is first presented, to establishing the facts about it and settling it on the basis of justice. It would keep all this detail off the books. Few claimants would refuse to settle on the basis of the facts.

"I don't like to appear as criticizing any railroad manager, for I have never done so. With their stockholders and their banker bosses who don't know anything about railroading, what can they do? They must be barred from the present system. And you can't do that by paying them $500,000,000 to perpetuate the present bad system, either."

CLAIMS POVERTY OF SOUL BRINGS MISERY TO CHINA

Visitor to Mission Field Addresses Methodist Women.

A gripping story of a recent tour through China and Japan, where she was privileged to visit some of the leading mission fields of the world, was told last evening to a deeply interested audience in Wesley Hall by Mrs. G. Jackson of Walsley at a meeting held under the auspices of the London conference branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church.

"The need of workers is ever increasing," said Mrs. Jackson. "In China there is poverty not only economic, but the poverty of soul and spirit which brings all other poverty in its train. Our workers have gained great prestige among the people, and have torn down many barriers and traditions."

Mrs. Jackson was officially appointed to visit the Methodist mission fields of China and Japan, her tour carrying her almost to the "Poles" before she returned. She attended the world's Sunday school convention a year ago in Tokio, and referred to the generous offer of the use of the Imperial Theatre for the gathering after the great auditorium especially prepared was burnt.

Mrs. Gordon Wright, president of the London conference branch of the W. M. S. presided last evening. Mrs. E. Wyatt contributed a much-appreciated solo.

LEO VOLTERRA, ACCLAIMED FRANCE'S "LUCKIEST" MAN BY PARISIANS

FIVE YEARS AGO HE SOLD FOR $100,000 A RARE THEATRE. HIS WIFE HELPS HIM TAKE CARE OF HIS RIDING OF THEATRE AND RACE HORSES.

BY MILTON BRONNER.
Paris, Oct. 27.—The luckiest man in all of France—or words to that effect—is what the average well-informed Parisian calls Leo Volterra. And he has good reason for his opinion. Five years ago Volterra was peddling programs in a Paris theatre, and today he is a millionaire owner of a chain of theatres, a string of race horses and the tenant of one of the finest houses in the Etoile district of Paris.

Volterra referred to his wife. He is always referring people to his wife, because she is an astute businesswoman, and is a big help in running his various businesses.

"They call him the luckiest person in France," said she. "Maybe so, maybe not, but anyway he is lucky enough—touching wood."

Own Five Horses. "We own five priceless race horses. One of them is Roi Belge, the best horse we have, and the winner of the last Grand National Steeplechase.

"Leo believed in the horse and so did I. Accordingly, we won hundreds of thousands of francs on the race. Maybe it is luck, maybe it is rare judgment. "During the world war, Leo was selling programs in the Olympia Theatre, here in Paris. His earnings were not very large. Five years ago the Olympia was about to be closed, and Leo would have been out of a job.

Leased Theatre. "He gathered together a thousand francs—every centime he had in the world—and took a short lease on the theatre. He succeeded—and prospered. After that he took an interest in the Folies Bergeres. Then he bought the Casino de Paris, which he made into a famous music hall.

"After making a go of the Casino, Leo bought the Theatre of Paris, which he devotes to comedy, and since then he has bought the music hall at Marseilles and the music hall at Brussels. Later on he will open a new music hall in the Montmartre district of Paris.

"He is so busy that if I didn't take a desk down here and help him, I wouldn't see him five minutes a day except at meal time."

GETS ONE YEAR IN PRISON FOR FRAUD

Killingbek Sentenced When He Pleads Guilty.

Johnston Lavura Killingbek, alias Johnston Hill, was sentenced to one year in prison by Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett in police court Thursday morning, when he pleaded guilty to an attempt to obtain money under false pretences.

Killingbek sent a telegram to R. Hill of Lakefield, asking for $200, and signing the name of Stanley Hill, son of the man to whom he sent the wire. Young Hill happened to be at home at the time, and the matter was reported to the London police. Detective Harry Down arrested Killingbek while he was in the act of cashing the telegram.

In court, Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop, K.C. showed that the man had a prison record. He had been allowed to go on suspended sentence on a charge of housebreaking in Peterboro in 1908; in 1910 he served three months in jail for theft; in 1912 he was sentenced to one year in Central Prison for the same offence, and again in 1913 he was sent to the Ontario Penitentiary for three years.

Killingbek stated that when he came out of the penitentiary in 1916 he joined the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and went to France, where he served four months.

When he returned from overseas in 1919 he came to London, where he has since lived.

LONDON LAD, 15, STEALS 2 AUTOS

Poison ivy has forced a 15-year-old boy, who pleaded guilty in juvenile court Thursday morning to stealing two autos, to spend the next four nights in a bare cell in the county jail rather than in a snug white cot at the Children's Shelter. Officials of the shelter told police officers Thursday morning that they could not take him to their institution at the risk of infection to the 20 wards now there.

"Just going for a ride," the boy explained when Detective Thomas Bolton arrested him on the market square on Wednesday, while he was in the act of stealing an auto. Subsequently he confessed to the theft of another car.

At a general meeting of Ward 4 electors in Hyman Hall Wednesday evening, ex-Mayor Charles R. Somerville, the Liberal nominee, was given a rousing reception. Declares Strike Would Threaten Safety of All

Boston, Oct. 27.—The threatened railroad strike would be a strike against every man's job, Edgar J. Rich, general counsel for the Boston and Maine Railroad, declared today at the annual meeting of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts.

"It is a strike," he said, "against the health, safety and welfare of every man, woman and child in the United States, for not only will many be without the means of buying the necessities of life through lack of employment, but all will be obliged to pay enhanced prices for the necessities of life.

"The issue is sharply drawn and must be resolutely met," Mr. Rich said. "It would be not an unreasonable prophecy that next year would be one of prosperity for the railroads of the United States as a whole."

Preparing To Supply N. Y. With Necessities

REPORT FLORIDA TOWN WIPED OUT BY GULF STORM

St. Petersburg Dispatches Declare Water Front Also Has Been Demolished.

BEACH RESORTS WRECKED Tornado Sweeps California, Causing Heavy Damage To Dwellings.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 26.—The entire waterfront of St. Petersburg was wiped out by the gulf storm yesterday, the worst gale the city has ever experienced, according to a message received by the Times Union tonight.

The message, which was sent by a resident of St. Petersburg who went by automobile to Brockville, said that Passaicville was also reported wiped out. "St. Petersburg," the message added, "is badly damaged, and observations coming through indicate 90 per cent of the citrus fruit has been destroyed. Town in total darkness for at least three days."

RAGES 100 MILES AN HOUR. PORT MYERS, Fla., Oct. 26.—(Via Punta Haza Cable Station).—The fiercest gale this section has known in several years raged here for 36 hours, beginning at midnight Monday and attaining a maximum velocity of 100 miles an hour.

Transmission services were prostrated while the property loss for Lee County is expected to total well over a million and a half dollars. Reports from Sanable and Captive Islands said that water covered the entire islands. Estero Island, near here, on which two beach resorts are located, was badly damaged, the cottages and other buildings being wrecked.

TORNADO SWEEPS WEST. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 26.—Numerous houses were unroofed, windows were broken and other damage, as yet unestimated, was done by a strong wind approaching the strength of a tornado which swept through the southern and eastern part of Sacramento, today.

The wind was a path approximately three-quarters of a mile wide through the district.

As Premier of Great Britain

David Lloyd George

As "Grandpa" in His Garden

PREMIER AND MISS MEGAN LLOYD GEORGE.

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE, MRS. CARY EVANS AND BABY.

LONDON, England, Oct. 26.—Premier Lloyd George in private life, free from the cares of state, looks far happier and less enigmatical than when he is confronted with the Irish conference or on his way to a disarmament parley.

Going and coming from cabinet meetings he finds it convenient and a precaution against rain to wear a swagger-looking Inverness cape-coat. Very frequently his younger daughter, Miss Megan Lloyd George, accompanies him to and from cabinet meetings.

So busy has he been of late with his public duties that his little grand daughter was quite a bouncing baby before his second daughter, Mrs. Cary Evans, brought the little tot to meet "grandpa" in his favorite nook for a quiet smoke in the garden of his Downing street residence.

SIFT ILL-TREATMENT OF BRITISH SUBJECTS

Recruits Who Joined Spanish Army Alleged To Have Been Beaten.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Great Britain has asked Spain to allow a British representative to proceed to Morocco to make an independent and impartial inquiry into allegations of ill-treatment by Spanish officers of British subjects who have enlisted in the Spanish Foreign Legion.

This announcement was made in the House of Commons today by Cecil Harmsworth, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, in answer to a question by Earl Winterton. The latter asked if the Government were aware of the serious allegations made against Spanish military authorities by British subjects, mostly ex-service men, recently enlisted in the Foreign Legion, who claim that conditions of pay and service, promised by Spanish consuls here, have not been carried out.

Earl Winterton asked further if the Government were aware that some of the British who were protesting, were ill-treated, robbed and sent to Gibraltar, and that others who actually joined the Legion had been kicked and beaten by Spanish officers.

A number of Canadian ex-service men are included in the British subjects who enlisted for service in Morocco. One vessel that sailed from New York during the last summer with recruits for the Spanish Foreign Legion carried 33 men who had seen service in the Canadian forces during the war.

MEIGHEN ANSWERS DISLOYALTY CHARGE

Challenges Crerar To Prove Attack On Western Farmers.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Oct. 26.—(Canadian Press Staff correspondent).—Speaking to an audience of about 3,500 persons in the rink here tonight, Premier Meighen dealt with a charge of the Progressives.

"Mr. Crerar says that I have charged the Western farmers with disloyalty," said the premier, "and he stands in righteous indignation on behalf of the West to defend them against this awful imputation. When Mr. Crerar renounces what I say he usually invents what I never uttered the word 'disloyalty.' I never challenged their loyalty, but I do say that not only those people, but—and more to his discredit—Mr. Crerar himself, has very little regard for the conditions of industrial Canada, very little interest and concern."

The premier went on to quote Mr. Crerar as stating: "If we cannot make shoes as cheaply in Canada as in the United States, they have not reached the time in Canada when we should be making shoes."

This statement showed very little concern for the industrial works of Canada, declared Mr. Meighen. Mr. Crerar was in the position of every recent immigrant to this country, "but the position is far less creditable to him. If his policy was carried out we would have no industrial Canada today, but would simply be a supply depot to the United States," declared the premier.

Speeches were also delivered by T. E. Simpson, candidate in West Algoma, and Hon. R. J. Manion of Port William, minister of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

GALT INTERMEDIATE 12 WIN THEIR GROUP TITLE

Defeated St. Jerome's of Kitchener Wednesday 6 to 2. GALT, Oct. 26.—In the last game of the season, exciting and rough, Galt's Intermediate 12 defeated St. Jerome's of Kitchener, 6 to 2. The locals have been unbeaten to date, and everything depended on today's game, as a win for the students would have tied them with Galt. It was a hard-fought game from start to finish, and it was dusk when the whistle blew. The visitors had a big advantage in the line in the second quarter, and they bucked through continually, but the deadly tackling of the locals kept their gains down. Breen was their star, both at backing and running. The whole Galt team played well, McCulloch's splendid booting figuring in Galt's rout.

Kitchener scored a rouge in the first quarter, and in the second period in trying to break Galt, carried the visitors over the line for a touchdown. A rouge and a kick to the dead line gave Galt two more points, and Kitchener added another, a fumble giving them the ball, and a kick to the dead line counting a rouge, and another kick to the dead line by McCulloch added two more points in the final quarter.

The teams: St. Jerome's. Kitchener. Harrington. Position. Kitchener. Brantford. Halves. McCulloch. Ryan. Halves. Parker. Farrell. Halves. Todd. Vanstone. Quarter. Keenan. Wingle. Outside. Goidie. Scott. Outside. Thompson. McBride. Middle. Kinsman. Brean. Inside. Thompson. Patrick. Inside. Webster. Montague. Flying Wing. Gaskin. Sloan. Subs. Dick Bell. Pannacue. Subs. Cyle Bell. Conroy. Subs. Gardner. Referee—Buckley, G. P. Umpire—Cartledge, Guelph.

Condensed Photodramas Have Action Like Machine Gun

BY JAMES W. DEAN.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Sergeant of the Northwest Mounted Police, asleep in northern cabin.
 Mad dog. Lies into the room by a half-Chinese Chinese smuggler.
 White mouse. Running across sergeant's face.
 Sergeant awakens. Strangles dog to death.
 Chinese villain drops dead. Knife in hand. Thrown by another Chinaman. Revenge for wrong to Chinese girl.
 Sergeant wins pretty girl. Chinese villain had sought her. Had posed as white doctor doing research work.
 Sergeant had saved white mouse from his viciousness.
 Action. Lots of it. Melodramatic. All told in two reels. A Selig-Bork version of James Oliver Curwood's "The Mouse."
 Lewis Stone, Wallace Berry, Ethel Terry and Willard Louis in the cast.
 In action and entertainment "The White Mouse" ranks above the average of five-reel picture.
 As much attention is being paid to cast, direction and location of condensed photodramas as is paid to the multiple-reel feature. That is the chief reason for their inroad upon the market of the lengthy picture.
 Pathé is issuing a series of two-reel dramas in which Tom Santschi is starred. He is supported by Beaulieu Love, Ruth Stonehouse, Edward Hearn and Tom Lingham in "The Spirit of the Lake."
 The field to which the two-reel picture seems to adapt itself most readily is the outdoor drama. That affords opportunity for swift, compact action. Producers continue to shift players about in order to get new effects in films by showing new faces. Ralph Graves has moved his make-up box to the Goldwyn studio. You probably remember him as the tough brother in Griffith's "Dream Street." The list of those who support Graves in his new picture contains no name familiar to this writer.
 Bill Farnum has returned from his prolonged jaunt in Europe. He said he was so impressed with the old Forum at Rome that he wanted to play "Julius Caesar" with the spirits popularity has waned, but I do know that there are more foreign-made films awaiting release by American producers than there has ever been before.

Willard Louis and his pet mouse as they appear in "The White Mouse," a two-reel film version of James Oliver Curwood's story.

 In a little projection room in one of the New York film buildings a man spends eight hours a day viewing foreign film as fast as it can be run off. He has been doing it for days.
 noble, self-sacrificing merchant of Venice.
 Although Miss Mary Hall was not the type of person one would expect in the role of Portia, she gave a very satisfactory interpretation and performance. Her rich voice and clever acting gave forth the jewels of Portia's wit unclouded, and unobscured. She was good both in the courtroom and garden scenes and always was she well supported by Elsie Herndon Kearns, as Nerissa.
 But, Gobbo, good Gobbo, Launcelot must not be forgotten. To him must go the credit for so many of the waves of laughter which ran through the house. He gave a splendidly light interpretation, sometimes perhaps a little overdone, to the clownish role, and once he favored by a sweetly sung solo.
 Then there was Lorenzo, perfect lover to Jessica, played by Daniel Grant and Miss Mable Moore; Haman Clark as Gratiano, so boisterous and yet so subdued when with his lady love, and Salvarino, and Salanio loved, and Edwin Cushman and Paul Gerard.

SHYLOCK LIVES AGAIN IN HAMPDEN'S HISTORIC ART

Shylock the immortal, Shylock cruel, grasping and vindictive; the Jew of the Middle Ages, hated, reviled and perhaps maligned, lived again in all his terrible-ness on Wednesday night, when Walter Hampden enacted the role in "The Merchant of Venice" at the Grand Theatre.
 Mr. Hampden made a wonderful Shylock. It perhaps was the climax of his success in a series of Shakespearean roles played this week. It was so very different from any other character in which he appeared, the transformation was almost startling. One could hardly believe the cringing, miserly, clawing old Jew seeking the lifeblood of Antonio, was but a cloak covering the romantic young lover of Romeo and Juliet which appeared during the afternoon.
 Always did the young actor carry his audience with him, and often he swept it into a maelstrom of applause. Those who watched were always at his mercy, for now they hated him, shuddered at his bloodthirstiness, and in the next moment they would almost pity the broken old man who had lost his daughter, only to once again despise the greed which held duets and jewels in greater esteem than one's own life and blood.
 Even in his first appearance did Mr.

Hampden reach a high pinnacle in his art. His characterization of Shylock, cold-blooded, calculating, seeking under cover of charity to avenge himself on an enemy who hated his race, who spat upon him and who more especially prevented usury on the Rialto, left nothing that could be desired. It is doubtful if his early acting was even surpassed in subsequent and more powerful scenes. This detracts nothing from his perfection, however, for his grief at the loss of his duets and his daughter, followed soon by the joyful discovery of Antonio's losses, and the courtroom scenes, where he glotes and is forced to drain a bitter cup to drugs in turn, were little short of marvellous.
 And then there is Bassanio and Antonio, played by Ernest Rowan and William Sauter, respectively, about whom much could be written. As Bassanio, the lover, Mr. Rowan was a splendid success, although his acting could have been a bit more pretentious in the casket-choosing scene. Little fault could be found with Mr. Sauter's presentation of Antonio. His whole manner, his voice, and pathos not a bit overdone, all went to make an ideal.

WIRTH REVEALS PERSONNEL OF NEW MINISTRY

Independent, Majority Socialists, Centrists and Democrats in Cabinet.

VOTE 230 AGAINST 132
 Government's Viewpoint Regarding Silesia To Remain As Before.

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The Reichstag this evening voted confidence in the new ministry of Dr. Wirth. The vote was 230 against 132. The majority was made up of Majority Socialists, Independent Socialists, Centrists and Democrats.
 Dr. Wirth, who remains German chancellor in the cabinet which takes the place of that which resigned last week, announced the personnel of the new cabinet formed by him as follows:
 Chancellor and minister of foreign affairs—Dr. Wirth.
 Vice-chancellor and minister of the treasury—Gustave Adolph Bauer, Socialist.
 Minister of the interior—Adolf Goeller, Socialist.
 Minister of defence—Herr Gosler, Democrat.
 Minister of economics—Robert Schmidt, Socialist.
 Minister of food and interim finance—Andreas Hermes.
 Minister of posts and telegraphs—Johann Giesberts, Centrist.
 Minister of labor—Dr. Brauns, Centrist.
 Minister of communications—Herr Grauert, no party.
 Minister of justice—Herr Redbruch, Socialist.
 The office of minister of reconstruction was left unfilled for the present.
 Dr. Wirth announced.
Silesian Viewpoint.
 Upon making his announcement to the Reichstag, Chancellor Wirth declared that the new Government's viewpoint regarding Upper Silesia differs in no way from that of the preceding Government. He declared the German Government would protest against the recent decision of the council of the League of Nations concerning Upper Silesia, on the ground of the illegality of the allied supreme council's having referred the question to the League of Nations. This procedure, he said, was not provided for by the treaty of Versailles.
 "The cabinet of a predicament" so named to distinguish it from the "cabinet of fulfillment," which Chancellor Wirth headed last May, was late in reaching the Government bench in the Reichstag this afternoon. The session of the chamber, which has been announced for 1 o'clock, was postponed several times as Dr. Wirth was still without the adhesion of several of the ministers. Numerous large placards were finally posted throughout the building which announced that the sitting of the Reichstag would definitely begin at 4 o'clock.

CLAIM MEIGHEN HAS HIT CAMPAIGN SNAG

Government Supporters Fear Long Campaign Was "a Mistake."

[Special to The Advertiser.]
 OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—The realization is gradually being borne in upon Government headquarters here that the decision arrived at nearly two months ago to have a long campaign has been a mistake. Premier Meighen, with characteristic dogmatism, believed that he was able, by a protracted campaign of "education" to divert the attention of the electorate from the sins of omission and commission of which he and all the varied governments with which he has been connected have been guilty, and to focus the minds of the people upon the all-important question of the tariff. But Mr. Meighen has already said all he knows about the tariff, and probably a little more, and is finding that 90 days of this subject is fairly dry and uninspiring diet for the public.

Unfortunately for Mr. Meighen, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, will not permit Mr. Meighen to divert the issue to the tariff, even on that issue Mr. King has already demonstrated that the premier has not clearly defined his stand. "Mr. Meighen says he stands for protection," said the Liberal leader at Rockland last night. "And he says he will revise the tariff, but he does not say whether that revision will be upward or downward." Then Mr. King proceeded in unequivocal terms to set forth the Liberal stand on the tariff. "We," he declared, "emphatically stand for a revision, but that revision will be downward in the interests of the producer and consumer. That is our stand."
 Like Triumphant March.

Mr. Meighen followed Mr. King down to the Maritime Provinces. The tour of the Liberal leader was in the nature of a triumphal march through these provinces and he has now entered Ontario confident that his case is approved. He will be joined in Ontario by Sir Lomer Gouin, ex-premier of Quebec, who for fourteen years gave his province good government and who today declares himself a loyal follower of the new federal Liberal chief, and by James Murdoch, vice-president of the order of trainmen and a former member of the ill-fated board of commerce. The presence of Sir Lomer on Mr. King's platform will dispel the rumor which has been circulated in Ontario to the effect that he contemplated bringing about an alliance with the Protectionists of Ontario. From reliable sources it is learned that the Government is making no headway, whatsoever, and will be lucky indeed if it holds what it had at dissolution, namely the three seats.

With the appearance of Mr. Murdoch on the platform the public may secure some information regarding the continued high cost of living. Mr. Murdoch left the board of commerce because his efforts were thwarted by the Government, of which Mr. Meighen was a member. Efforts toward the prosecution of combines in restraint of trade were discouraged, and the people were left to the mercy of exploiters and profiteers. News from the Maritime Provinces indicates that the Liberals will have a very substantial majority there, and that Mr. King will come to the Ottawa River with 81 seats in his possession.
 Steam railroads in 1920 carried a total of 1,234,222,889 passengers.

STRIVES TO HAVE WOMEN ADMITTED TO MASONS

MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—The admission of women into the Masonic Grand Lodge is the novel object of an organization of which Louis Gozou is the North American representative. When interviewed at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel today, Mr. Gozou stated that the move originated with the Masonic Grand Lodge of France in 1850, and has since spread to practically every country in the

HIGHER GRADE CANADIAN WOOL PRICES ADVANCE

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—(By Canadian Press.)—Canadian wools are moving steadily in all but the lower grades. More movement in coarse low combing and low medium combing has been expected for some time, but has not yet materialized. Some low mediums are selling, but slowly.

Quotations have not changed, and range from 18c to 20c for medium, down to 10c for coarse. The Boston market is reported as having been rather quiet during the last week, apparently because of the lack of optimism shown by the clothing manufacturers. Another government wool sale is to be held there shortly. The English market reports activity, but with no increase in prices.

Municipal Taxation.

The amount of taxation levied on municipalities for the conduct of their business is becoming such as to cause considerable thinking and questioning in many quarters.

The career of the late Senator Frederic Nicholls shows that he accomplished in this young country by a man who possesses initiative, determination and a capacity for hard work.

Senator Nicholls at his death was a successful and a wealthy man, and his success was largely the outcome of his early habits of thrift and his intense application of all his energy to the work in hand.

In early years we find him a reporter on a daily paper, but before that he had learned to work and save.

When the late Senator Nicholls turned to the field of electrical development he was destined to become a pioneer in a most remarkable network of enterprise and development.

His career is one that shows the possibilities of Canada for young Canadians who want to grow and expand.

The private company has an advantage over the municipality. The former picks its directors for their fitness for the work, and these directors follow out the plans of the company.

Unfortunately the plans of a municipality change from year to year according to the calibre of the men in public service.

The picture of Canada being compared to Cuba and the Hawaiian territory, when it comes to matching wits with United States, or carrying on business with her, is too far-stretched to appeal to red-blooded Canadians, and there is a tremendously large percentage of red-blood in Canada.

SITUATION IN N. MIDDLESEX

WRITING of conditions in North Middlesex, a correspondent in Parkhill who understands political conditions in that district claims that in the Provincial election the members of the U. F. O. who formerly were Liberals stood loyally for their U. F. O. pledges, and supported the Farmer candidate, James Brown, formerly a Conservative.

"To do this they had in many cases to turn down a man who had been their friend for years, a man for whom, personally, they entertained the liveliest affection. The result of this sacrifice on the part of those who had been lifelong Liberals was that a majority was given for the Farmer candidate at polling booths where the Liberal majority had always been up in the hundreds.

"Now the Federal election is on, and in a riding which has been very decidedly Liberal the U. F. O. members are again asked to vote for a COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL. TYPHOID FEVER

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP. Typhoid fever is another disease that can be prevented by vaccination.

It is a serious infectious disease that lasts from four to eight weeks or longer. Fortunately most cities are protected by careful, regular inspection.

Greater responsibility rests upon the individual in the rural communities where there is no water department. The supply should be tested several times a year, and if there is thought to be any danger it should be treated in the following manner: Make a solution by dissolving 15 grains of pure, fresh chlorinated lime in a quart of water.

This is an excellent plan to follow on camping trips when there is the slightest danger, for the water is then absolutely safe as far as typhoid and similar infections are concerned.

When one is doubtful as to the purity of his drinking water or as to his immunity against the disease it is well to be on the safe side by being vaccinated.

READ YOUR CHARACTER

NO. 19—THE VOICE OF CAUTION. The voice of the extremely cautious person, of the downright secretive person, is, as you might expect, a low-pitched voice.

It is not only low-pitched. It is also a soft voice. Why? Because the soft voice is the sign, or rather the result, of self-control, and naturally the cautious person is self-controlled.

Another point, its tones are rather even and monotonous, and as a rule there is a tendency for the person to talk without moving the lips a great deal.

Did you ever, in the classroom, try to talk surreptitiously to one of your classmates? Of course, you did, and the voice you used in doing it was the voice of caution, wasn't it?

For it must be understood that the voice of caution is one of those signals of character which is purely acquired. It's the result of habit, not of heredity, and when judging people by this measure, you must be careful to judge positively, not negatively.

The Church's Mission. Editor Advertiser: Sir—A commendable effort is being made by all the churches to get the non-churcher out.

And now comes the question whether women will vote for the handsomest case in each contest at the polls. Bah! Good looks have little influence on a woman's decision. Just take a peep at the ornament the average woman took as a husband.

The agitation goes on in several cities about high prices paid in restaurants. Apparently the supposition grows that for 20 cents there should be all things from a T-bone steak to finger-bowls.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review has the following: "The proposal is made that the Provincial Government should provide an emergency fund to meet legitimate expenses incurred in dealing with the bandit problem.

The proposal comes from London, which, because it is a city with an organized police force, has been put to considerable expense in connection with the pursuit of bandits and hold-up men operating outside of London, but in the London district. The police of London have been doing some excellent work in the running down of criminals, and it is well that there is such a force available, but it does not seem fair that the ratepayers of London should bear all the expenses.

This is a matter in which the community as a whole is concerned, and the community as a whole should cooperate.

The Little Boy who doesn't want to run

HOW often have you seen him, standing quietly by, watching his playmates run and jump, or preferring to stay at home when the other children go out? He doesn't want to play because he is "just tired," and yet the wistful look on his little face tells you that he is longing to join the game.

Look to his feet. Perhaps that tired feeling comes from ill-fitting, uncomfortable shoes that cramp his toes or hurt the tender soles. A child cannot explain just what makes him stop his play. He says he is "just tired."

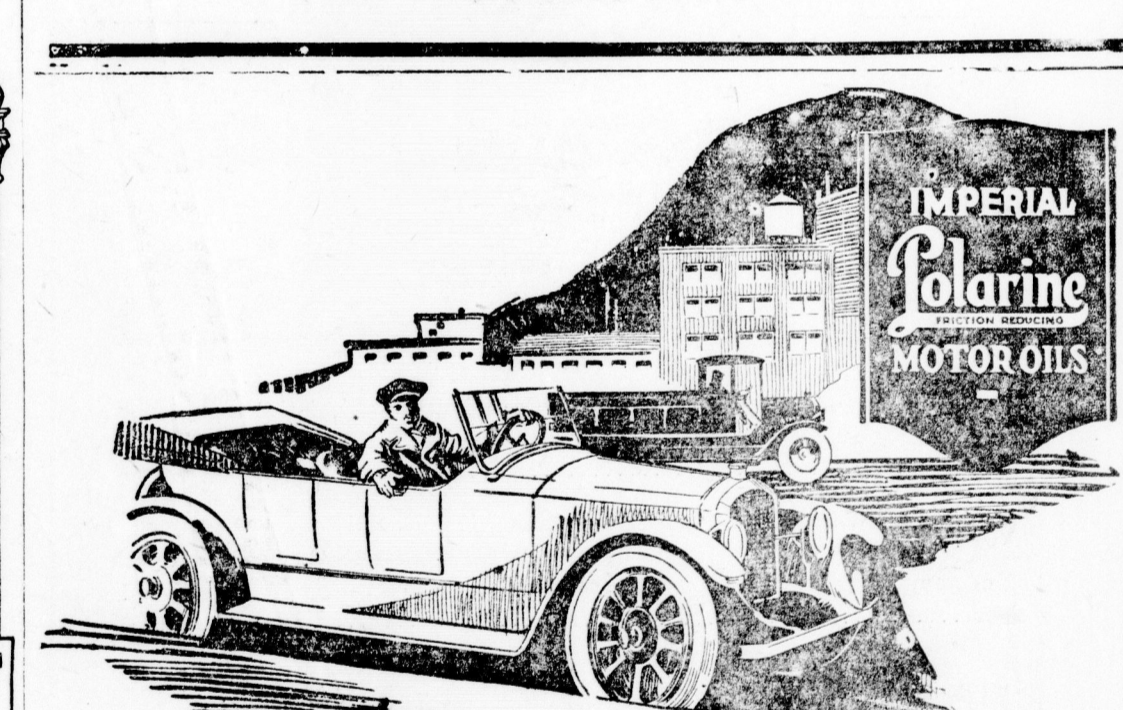

HURLBUT cushion sole SHOES are made for growing feet. They are scientifically constructed to give a correct natural tread and to give room to grow for every toe. Children shod with HURLBUTS are free from foot troubles. And they are economically shod, for the high quality of HURLBUTS insures the lowest cost per day of wear.

Save your child pain in later years by fitting HURLBUTS now.

VICTORIA SCHOOL WILL GET GALLERY

Trustees Seriously Consider Mothers' Club Requests.

When completed, the new Victoria School may conform more closely to the idea of the Victoria Mothers' Club of what constitutes a satisfactory community building and really up-to-date school than appeared probable some weeks ago. Yesterday the building committee of the board of education, with the chairman of the board, Mr. T. Coleridge, paid another visit to the building which is in course of construction, in order to further consider the feasibility of recommendations for changes made by the Mothers' Club. These included the leaving open of corridors in the auditorium to make gallery rooms, and thereby practically doubling the seating capacity and the removal of lavatories at the rear of the stage to the basement to make way for a dressing-room with access to the stage, and a kitchen.

Want Real Centre.

"What is the use of spending so much money on the school unless it is to be entirely up-to-date and efficient, both as a school and a community centre?" was the question raised by the Mothers' Club.

The building committee decided yesterday that by running the brick wall up in the auditorium in a certain way and raising with a grill leaving open corridors, the gallery might be achieved.

Without a gallery, only 250 or 275 pupils could be seated at a time, out of an enrollment of 500, when it was desirable to hold an assembly of the school.

The kitchenette was asked for in view of the fact that the auditorium has replaced the domestic science equipment, the pupils in this department to go to the Riverside School centre for instruction. A dressing room to be reached from the stage or platform by a rear door was regarded as essential for dramatic entertainments, both for the school pupils and adults of the community.

The problem of making the further changes urged is being placed by the building committee before the architect of the board of education, Mr. Carrothers.

At the meeting Tuesday evening of the Victoria Mothers' Club reference was made to the desired change in plans, some of the mothers demonstrating their sincere interest by volunteering to further bring the matter before the school board.

Club Members Pleased.

Gratification was expressed by mothers' club members interviewed yesterday afternoon over the manifest desire of the building committee to build for an efficient community centre. The argument may be raised that we have done our part when we have provided an up-to-date building for school purposes. Why does the

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The Cedar Springs and South Harwich Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. I. Mead on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 20, with an attendance of 65 ladies.

The program, which was in the hands of Thames River W. I., was of a very excellent nature, and consisted of papers, "The Time Like These," and by Mrs. William Watson, "What Canada Expects of Her Women"; readings by Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Fleming and Miss Perry; solos by Miss Watson and Miss Fleming; community singing by all the ladies, and a very excellent solo by Mrs. Garnet Thompson of the Cedar Springs and S. H. Institute. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the meeting.

During the afternoon Mrs. Sumner served tea. Among those present was Mrs. Sparling, wife of Mr. Sparling of the First Methodist Church.

THE GRACE COUNTRY CLUB.

The Grace Country Club held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Mabel Reiter on Saturday afternoon with a good attendance. Lunch was served at the close, and a social hour enjoyed by all.

The next meeting of the club is to be held at the home of Misses Jean and Merle Hogg.

Urges To Study Canada's Story

"Keep Eyes on Cross," Miss Guerin's Parting Word to League.

"Keep your eyes as high as the Cross of our church spires, and your lives will never fall below the light that streams from it," was the parting message of Miss Belle Guerin of Montreal, Dominion president, to the London diocesan convention of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, delivered at the close of the complimentary luncheon tendered the delegates by the Knights of Columbus in the Tecumseh Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Miss Guerin paid warm tribute to the inspirational opening address of Mrs. McCann, adding: "I should consider it worth while to come all the way from Montreal for the wonderful address of his lordship the bishop on Catholic education, even if I had to travel back third-class." In conclusion she urged upon the members of the league the desirability of making a study of the history of Canada.

A vote of thanks to the London sub-division executive and hostesses was moved by Mrs. Dunn of Chatham, seconded by Mrs. Cleary of Windsor, and to the Knights of Columbus who provided the luncheon yesterday and a motor drive around the city, by Mrs. Brady of Ingersoll, seconded by Mrs. Jones of Woodstock, and to the Catholic charities in Toronto, who addressed the closing session of the convention later in the afternoon in the Catholic Club, by a special guest of honor of the luncheon.

Confessions of a Movie Star

CHAPTER 5.—I HEAR A VOICE I USED TO KNOW.

NOW, of course, I never, never would have confessed to anyone that I was fairly sick when I learned that a total stranger, and not one of our company, was to follow me around and make violent love to me, and harass me to distraction, and the verge of suicide, in "Love in Leash."

The part of the villain in the play I was about to undertake was not much less important than that of the hero. I didn't want a new man to do it. I wanted somebody I knew. No wonder I was distressed as I wanted to be introduced to Dick Barnes over the phone.

First came Bangs' sympathetic voice.

"Hello-o-o. May I'm so sorry about those green eyes! Better? That's good. Say, I'm going to put Dick Barnes on the line. Ready?" So much was intended for me. What I heard next was not:

"Son, you're now going to meet the finest little lady who ever got into the movie game."

A pause, and then:

"A pause at my end of the wire. That voice! I knew it as well as I knew my own! At last I managed to speak calmly and cordially."

"Mr. Barnes! I'm very glad to meet you!"

The ensuing silence was long. I had about concluded that somebody had cut me off when I heard this:

"Thank you, Miss Scott! I'm so sorry to bother you! But if you'd just give me a hint of your style of business in the tenement interior, I'd esteem it a great favor. Bangs says you're to have it your own way—as usual!"

"They'll shoot the tenement, first? I didn't know. Mr. Barnes didn't—I stammered, stopped. I could not keep my mind on what I was saying.

The strangely vibrant quality of Dick Barnes' voice over the wire which I believe, I had heard, the one voice in the world like it—died—for two happy vacation months. And there seemed no chance whatever that I ever would hear that voice again.

I pulled myself together with a painful effort and put my mind on the rehearsals. I seldom had to rehearse unless extras were to be instructed. I was always willing to work with them. Since they were hired by the day it was part of my responsibility to see that the scenes with them went off right before the cameras.

Dick Barnes concluded our conversation with:

"Unfortunately, I've never seen a picture of you, Miss Scott. You see, I've been abroad for a year. Just landed. Nandy picked me up at our fraternity house. And he hooked me up with your company immediately. I appreciate my luck. Now, you won't object if I get Bangs or Nandy to show me some of your stills, will you?"

"Not at all! Nandy has a-plenty!" I laughed. "Good-bye!" Never had I hung up a receiver with such reluctance. I didn't want to say "good-bye" to the new villain. I wanted to listen to that familiar, vibrant voice.

I was disgusted with myself because I hadn't the courage to ask Mr. Barnes to send a few stills of himself out to my apartment.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS. MR. WHALE ESCAPES

(By Olive Roberts Barton.)

"If you're on my back you'd better get off!"

"DON'T worry, Mr. Whale," said two soft little voices into his ears, and Mr. Whale was so surprised that he didn't even see you, and eyes as though he was dreaming.

All around him in the ocean hungry sharks were snapping their jaws and waiting for a chance to grab some nice bits of him, and now someone or someone was promising to save him.

"I don't know who you are," he answered, "but if you're on my back you'd better get off. I'm going to go down under the water, and you'll get ducked. Thanks for your kind words, just the same."

"That doesn't matter," answered Nabby, "we have magic shoes on, and we can't get drowned."

"The trouble is," answered Mr. Whale, mournfully, "I can't stay under long. I'll have to come up soon to breathe, because I haven't any magic things full of air."

"But we're going to save you," repeated Dick.

"That's what you said," answered the whale sadly. "But how? You are so light I can't even see you, and so light I can't feel you. How can you save a great creature like me?"

"I'm going to throw some ink into the sea," answered the little boy. "As soon as the water gets black, you must dive, and don't come up to breathe, if you can help it until you are miles away. The sharks won't be able to see you, and so they cannot follow. Are you all ready?"

Mr. Whale said that he was, so Nick uncorked his bottle. Instantly the sea got so black that one shark cried out, "I knew it! I knew that rhyme would come true about the world being apple pie, and the sea ink, and the trees turning into bread and cheese. What are sharks to eat?"

"It won't be whale meat for one thing," said another shark. "Mr. Whale's gone!"

WITH THE BRIDES

MILLS—NEELY.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neely, when their youngest daughter, Edna Victoria, was united in marriage to Mr. John McIntyre Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills of this city. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Reid, a dainty wedding luncheon was served, about twenty guests being seated.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette over satin and a bridal veil of tulle with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

The happy young couple left on the afternoon train for a short visit to hair of monkey skin contrasts smartly with short, light aquored hair. Muffs are a trifle smaller and more inclined to be round.

With or without its cape, the winter tailor remains slender. Even though jacket lines tend toward the circular—as many of them do—they mysteriously achieve a slimmness of outline which is distinctly youthful.

FEENEY—HENRY.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Cathedral on Tuesday morning, Oct. 25, at 8 o'clock, when Marguerite, eldest daughter of Mr. J. Charles E. Feeny of this city, a nuptial high mass was celebrated by Monsignor McKeon. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely, attired in a navy blue broadcloth suit, trimmed with beaver collar and cuffs, and wearing a small black hat and a corsage of Ophelia roses.

Miss Phyllis Ashwell acted as bridesmaid, and Gerald Henry, brother of the bride, was best man. The groom's gifts were: To the bride, a diamond cluster; to the bridesmaid, a gold vanity case, and to the groomsmen, a gold watch. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the bride's home, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left for Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Feeny will reside at 330 Cheapside street, London.

ROBERTS—BRAGG.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 26, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 531 Bathurst street, when Lena, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bragg, became the bride of Mr. Alwin Roberts of Toronto, son of Mr. R. Roberts of this city.

The house was decorated with autumn flowers and leaves, and an arch was formed of the colored leaves and ferns, under which the young couple stood.

Rev. Mr. Leichter of Adelaide Street Baptist Church performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very sweet in her gown of navy blue satin and georgette, heavily beaded, and wearing a corsage of Ophelia roses.

Her attendant was Miss Frances Nettleton of this city, who wore a pretty dress of silk, trimmed with Copenhagen. Mr. Kenneth Roberts, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Gertrude Cooper of Belmont played the Wedding March.

Later the young couple left on the evening train for Toronto, the bride traveling in a navy tailored suit and black panne velvet hat prettily trimmed with French flowers.

They will be at home after Nov. 1, at 1048 St. Clarens avenue, Toronto.

SPONGE CAKE.

Dear Miss Grey,—I thought I would write a few lines as I see in today's paper where Ethelyn wanted the words of "Golden Gate" and "Hiawatha's Melody of Love." Have copied same and inclose them.

Here is a sponge cake recipe, asked for by Euphemia Reader: Two eggs (beaten), three-quarters of a cup of fine sugar, twelve teaspoons cold water, one teaspoon vanilla, two teaspoons baking powder; flour to thicken, but not too thick. Bake in a square tin. Will sign, SARDONYX.

Many thanks, Sardonyx, for the songs, and I think Euphemia Reader will like the cake recipe.

WHO WILL SUGGEST?

Dear Cynthia Grey,—Here is another newcomer asking for information re literary work I am not a constant reader of your column, and perhaps my very questions have already been answered, in part at least, if not fully. So in either case I hope I won't cause you too much trouble. I am seeking a collection of readings or prose selections, and recitations, which would be suitable for a mixed audience at literary concerts.

Now, if you or your correspondents can direct me along these lines of literary work, I would be very glad indeed. Yours truly,

STAR.

MIR-A-CLE Washing Cream

Washes Clothes Clean Without Rubbing

FORGET everything you ever heard about washing compounds, tablets, fluids or flakes. There has never been anything like "MIR-A-CLE" WASHING CREAM before.

"MIR-A-CLE" WASHING CREAM, if used as per directions, doubles and trebles the efficiency of soap and, furthermore, in the rinsing, "MIR-A-CLE" has the wonderful faculty of making all the soap come out of the clothes, leaving them with a new whiteness that will simply delight you on the very first trial.

So little "MIR-A-CLE" is required that it will cost you less than 5 cents a wash to get your clothes whiter and cleaner than you ever had them before.

Ask your grocer to send you a bottle of "MIR-A-CLE" with your next order, and be sure to let it help you with your next wash.

A small bottle retails for 15 cents. The larger, 50-cent size, is more economical to buy once you are convinced that "MIR-A-CLE" WASHING CREAM is the best wash day help you ever had.

ENGLISH WOMEN HOCKEYISTS ARRIVE IN UNITED STATES

Ruth's Apology Will Have No Bearing.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Babe Ruth, home-run king, will know his penalty for violating the rule against post-season barnstorming by world's series players in about two weeks. It was learned here today. Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, is now preparing his decision. It is understood. The judge said today he had seen nothing but newspaper reports of a proposed violation of the rule, and in any case Ruth's apology would have no bearing on the judge's decision.

Suspension for a part of the baseball season was reported to be under consideration, as Ruth's punishment a short time ago, but Judge Landis refused to give any indication of his decision in advance of its announcement.

Left, Miss K. E. Lidderdale, star of the English Women's Hockey team in action, and Mrs. M. S. Clay, goal tender, blocking the ball.

"You will know we can play the game," says Miss K. E. Lidderdale, star of the stick with the English field hockey players who have just arrived to play the hair ribbons of the Yankee lassies.

But they are a sturdy crew, these English girls, and are the pick of the best players and clubs in all of England. They all possess that masculine type of slashing athletics so familiar to the British woman.

There are thirteen of them in number. The team of eleven members, an official ump from the English Hockey Club, and the team captain, Miss C. J. Gaskell.

Just Between Us
 By C.S.E.

Just now America is in the ascendancy in fighting, but the cycle will sooner or later bring the dominant position to the British Isles again. Those with a gift for seeing into the possible future predict that Britain in another generation will regain her old leadership by producing a new in smother generation and boxers who do different thinking.

It will be a generation though before England can produce this state of affairs, because the war left her depleted of the best of her manhood. There were few of her prominent fighters of before the American ring methods but these already had begun to realize that there was some way. British fight fans had begun to realize that there was some way. British fight fans had begun to realize that there was some way. British fight fans had begun to realize that there was some way.

The Ontario Athletic Commission, which met this week and reported a splendid condition of affairs and much progress in the work of promoting athletics in the schools, the receipts from boxing and wrestling shows, has suggested to the province that three coaches be permanently engaged to promote athletics in the schools of Ontario.

It would be one of the best moves possible. The youngsters in the public schools now have the facilities for athletics, but without proper coaching much of this time and money is a waste. Even if the coaches managed but three days in each school many good school athletes would be started out on the right track. Poor style has ruined more athletes in the making than the lack of facilities.

JACK MAULIFFE IS AFTER HEAVYWEIGHT

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—On a mission to restore the fighting prestige of the Irish Jack Mauliffe, the old lightweight king, is about to sail for the British Isles.

"I'm coming back with a heavyweight champion," the undefeated one said today. "I'm going over to England and Ireland for a good heavyweight and a promising heavyweight. I've been tipped off to several good prospects and I believe I can bring a couple of good ones back."

FORM CAGE LEAGUE AT L. C. I. SHORTLY

A meeting of the bones of the collegiate league will be called shortly to arrange for the formation of an Inter-Form Basketball League. Capt. S. Smyke, director of athletics, announced last night. The new school gymnasium will soon be completed, and the boys will be given the floor as the season as the work is done.

FOURTH THISTLE EUCHRE TOURNEY FRIDAY NIGHT

On Friday evening the Thistle Club will hold its fourth weekly euchre tournament. All bowlers and curlers and their friends are cordially invited. Several high scores were hung up last week, and the race continues keen to compete for the average, a minimum attendance of 60 per cent of nights is required.

GOOD WISHES FOR BLUE NOSE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—"More power to the Blue Nose. May her years be long and may she never know a water bail or a day's ill-luck," is the wish the Tribune this morning expresses for the winner of international fishermen's trophy race. The paper declares that all United States sportsmen will concern in wishing the best to this year's winner, adding: "The Canadian schooner is a true banker, and defeated our little Elsie handsly, and he has carbuncle on his right hand. The swat king is not discussing his affair with Judge Landis. He is to start soon on fifteen weeks in vaudeville."

RUTH BACK IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Babe Ruth is back in town rather "bauged up." The elbow which made him a casualty in the world's series has not healed, and he has carbuncle on his right hand. The swat king is not discussing his affair with Judge Landis. He is to start soon on fifteen weeks in vaudeville.

LEONARD-RICE GO IN DECEMBER

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The prospect of a match for the world's lightweight championship title in London against Champion Benny Leonard is the incentive to a bout with Eddie Rice, twelve-pounder but against Sailor Friedman of Chicago at Madison Square Garden, Friday night.

Peggy Bettinson, matchmaker of the National Sporting Club of London, is offering an offer for a bout with Champion Leonard, it is reported. The proposed bout is planned for December at the event Leonard accepts the London offer.

SOCCER STILL HAS SOME GOOD KICKS LEFT

First of Cup Finals Saturday At Tecumseh Park With Novel Schoolboy International Preliminary.

The first of the final McCutcheon cup clashes between W. O. R. and Public Utilities at Tecumseh Park Saturday will have a schoolboy international, England vs. Canada, as a novel preliminary.

The players will be drawn from the Public School League and the English team will be made up of boys who have played soccer in the Old Country before coming out to Canada.

While Public Utilities are favorites so far, W. O. R. are expected to give the city league champs and last year's winners of the McCutcheon cup a barred race in both games. There are lots of First W. O. R. supporters who figure their team, strengthened as it has been for the cup tie, has an even chance against the Utilities. Even those who are not enthusiastic supporters of the soldiermen say that if Utilities are very many shades of color, they'll be in for a huge surprise.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LEAGUE

St. George's school soccer team won the championship of the northern district Wednesday afternoon, when they defeated Lord Roberts School to one goal, winning the round with eight points.

Lord Roberts and Ryerson schools are tied with seven points each for second place in the district, while Alexandra is last with two points.

The final games will commence Friday with St. George's, Empress Avenue, and Ryerson schools.

LONDON MAY SEE HARD OILS-SARNIA IN A PLAY-OFF

If Petrolia Wins From Sarnia Group Will Be Tied-Wallaceburg Out.

SARNIA, Oct. 26.—The winner of the Sarnia-Petrolia-Wallaceburg intermediate O. R. F. U. district this year looks to be the team to beat in the finals for the championship. Wallaceburg, with three successive defeats to their credit, and another one looming ahead of them for Saturday, is out of the race and cannot be considered for the title in Petrolia. It is pretty generally admitted that the "Green and White" are a mighty hard aggregation to beat on their own lot, though it should be noted that they were defeated in the first of the home and home games. While the locals are called the "Green and White," it is pretty generally admitted that the "Green and White" are a mighty hard aggregation to beat on their own lot, though it should be noted that they were defeated in the first of the home and home games.

Music Is Need In Every Home

Lightens Housework, Drives "Blues" Away, Soothes Brains Fagged by Toil.

Music was employed in France during war time as an aid to nursing the wounded and sick back to health and strength. Even the soldiers themselves in many hospitals had harmonicas, more commonly known as mouth organs. Music served also to keep up the morale of the troops. When the battalions were going into the line they were always accompanied, part way on the march, by their bands. And when they were coming out of the din of battle they were again met by the regimental musicians.

If music was found to be helpful to men under the trying conditions which they encountered in the battle area, would it not be a great help to putting to rout the worries that often crop up in home life?

Makes Work Easier.

If the morning's housework tires the mother out, a little music just before she prepares dinner would help to cheer her. Parents seek recreation at the opera or theatre in the evening when their brains have become fagged by the day's toil. In these days of the phonograph and the player piano, it is an easy manner to bring the opera into the home. Then there is lighter music, such as popular songs, which have catchy airs which one cannot help humming or whistling once they have been heard.

Drives Away Blues.

Once one has been infected with this type of music the blues vanish and one returns to one's work with renewed courage and a light heart. Some of the melodies that are popular today will even have the effect of clothing one's home with new raiment. No matter if it does not contain mahogany furniture the harmonies will elevate one's thought and restore the belief that life holds more than its daily routine. The home will come to be regarded as all that the word "home" means. The idea that it is merely a building in which to eat, sleep and work will be erased.

This is Musical Age.

The phonograph and the piano, however, will not be the only instruments that will win your favor, for the music from the violin, the cornet or other instruments wins favor everywhere. And if one has any thought for the future of children, they will receive a thorough musical, as well as other education, for the year 1921 is in the musical age and at every function nowadays, whether it be a banquet or a convention, music plays an important part.

CLAIMS MOTHER URGED SHOOTING OF STEP-FATHER

Son of Mrs. M. Strickert Gives Evidence At Murder Trial.

STRATFORD ASSIZES

STRATFORD, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Margaret Strickert of Elma was placed on trial at the assizes here today on a charge of murdering her husband, William Strickert, by administering strychnine. The accused had to be assisted into the courtroom, as she is in a very weak condition and scarcely able to stand.

Drs. Kidd and Nichlin told of having found evidence of strychnine poisoning, and Dr. L. J. Rogers of Toronto University department of chemistry said one half grain of strychnine was found in the viscera of the deceased.

Wanted Husband Shot.
Edwin Stafford of Manitoba, son of the accused and stepson of the deceased, was brought to give evidence. He said that before he left home six or seven years ago his mother offered him $200 to shoot her husband. "She was raving at the time," said the witness. "She said to me: 'My dear son, I will give you $200 to shoot this man. He is going to kill me, so help me God.'" This followed a quarrel between husband and wife.

Talked of Poison.
Mrs. Margaret Sellar of Ellice told of how Mrs. Strickert had declared to her in August, 1920, that her husband should be poisoned. This followed a complaint of Mrs. Strickert that when she and her husband separated she was made to sign off her share of the farm. Witness told Mrs. Strickert that she would share in her husband's will, to which she replied: "He has made his will, and has left me well. I wish he were dead. He is coming to get a dose; it is coming to him." Witness said she had no prejudice against the accused.

Suspended Sentence.
In suspending sentence on Dr. J. F. Sebben, convicted of manslaughter, Justice Lennox expressed the opinion that the case had served its purpose as a warning to motorists. It is possible that civil action will be taken by the parents of Royal Smalley, who was killed by Dr. Sebben's car.

Eight Months in Jail.
John Fitzgibbons was sentenced to eight months in the county jail by Justice Lennox today on a charge of indecent assault against Mary Pink.

The outside of the church has also been painted. Rev. Mr. Kerr of Bothwell Methodist Church preached twice on Sunday, and the music was rendered by the Dresden male quartet. On Monday evening a concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid was held in the auditorium of the church. Mr. Allen, soloist of Windsor, Miss M'Niel Dobbyn, reader of London, and Kathleen Webster also gave readings. The pianist was Miss Unsworth. Rev. Mr. Barnard acted as chairman.

Sees Anglo-Japanese Pact Bar Solution of Pacific Problems

LONDON, England, Oct. 26.—The Anglo-Japanese alliance "undoubtedly is the dominating factor which now prevents an unfettered attempt by Great Britain, Japan and the United States to solve the problems of the Pacific," declared Lord Northcliffe to a Reuter correspondent, who interviewed the noted British publisher in Hong Kong yesterday.

According to the correspondent's dispatch, Lord Northcliffe gave this as a reason for his opinion that the alliance placed the United States "outside of the very definite arrangements for the control of China."

"During the last two years," the publisher is quoted as having said, "I have been gradually coming to the conclusion that the Anglo-Japanese alliance, such as it is, has been carried out the compact during the war, and she should be well rewarded for her services. The purpose of the Washington conference is to reach a mutual agreement, but the United States is handicapped by an arrangement already made by Japan and Great Britain concerning the chief problem of the Pacific."

"A prolongation of the alliance seems to irritate public and official opinion in the United States, merely humiliates China and adds nothing to the prestige of Great Britain in Asia."

100,000 Children Are Not Enrolled In Sunday Schools

Speaking At Ontario Religious Education Council, W. J. Cunningham Urges Greater Interest in Work.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 26.—Rousing gatherings featured the continued Ontario Religious Education Council convention here today. This morning at the general session Prof. Fred Langford continued his series on "Educational Evangelism," taking up "Its Methods." Glorification of the Christian life was emphasized. The workers should visualize the goal for which they were working, keeping in the closest possible touch with the home.

Rev. T. A. Halpenny presented a review and outlook. Miss Beulah Lane, W. J. Cunningham and Miss Margaret Trotter spoke on "Ontario's Childhood." Miss Lane reported increased interest in all divisions of children's work. Mr. Cunningham urged them to bring everyone into the Sunday school—adults and children alike. There were, he said, a hundred thousand children under 12 in Ontario who were not enrolled in Sunday schools.

At the afternoon general session Dr. Marion Lawrence advocated the teaching of mission work to the children, not merely the taking up of collections. The children should be interested, and the contributions to the cause would follow.

Rev. T. A. Halpenny outlined the financial needs, the budget being placed at $25,000. Denominational conferences followed, each taking up the general theme from the denominational standpoint. The evening meeting opened with two big suppers, the children's workers' section gathering at the First Baptist Church and the "teen-age workers" at the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Bertha Lane gave a demonstration at the former on "The Interpretation of Bible Stories," and at the latter Rev. George T. Webb gave an address on "The Teacher as an Evangelist." Departmental sessions were then resumed, each of five departments meeting separately. Dr. Marion Lawrence addressed the adult workers on the value of the home in assisting the work of the school.

Mr. Kean gave an interesting account of the beginnings and growth of co-operative societies, especially pointing out their advantage to the workingman. Joseph McGinnis, president, and musical numbers were rendered by Miss Mary Munro and William Shetland.

The provisional directors named were Messrs. Myers, Chippendale, Munro, Avery, Rod Munro, Baker, Welsh, A. Campbell, Doupe, Jarrell, Mrs. R. McLeod and Mrs. Sam Crawford.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING.

BLLENHEIM, Oct. 26.—Trinity Church Harvest Thanksgiving services Sunday and the annual dinner and play Monday evening were a splendid success. The rector, Rev. J. C. McCracken, was unable to be present owing to the illness of his mother at Wingham. Rev. F. G. Newton, rector of St. John's Church, Sarnia, preached to two large congregations Sunday. The choir rendered appropriate music at the services, under the leadership of E. S. Flint, organist. The church was beautifully decorated with fruits, vegetables and grains in season. The annual harvest home dinner was served in the school room, and was followed by a play, "The Minister of Hardacre," put on by the Thamesville Dramatic Club, in the opera house.

DOG GIVES LIFE TO SAVE MASTER FROM BANDITS

Barking of Collie Warned the Owner and Family of Danger.

THUGS MAKE ESCAPE

WINDSOR, Oct. 26.—A collie dog that warned his master, Abraham Nolan, Mercer street and Tecumseh road, that thugs were attempting to enter his home tonight was shot and killed by one of three bandits who held up Nolan.

Barking of his warning, the collie eventually aroused Nolan and his family to their danger. When Nolan stepped into the yard to investigate the reason for the dog's alarm, he was ordered to "stand and deliver," the command being backed up by the muzzle of an automatic pistol.

Seizing the bandit's gun arm, Nolan, aided by the dog which had broken out of the barn, struggled for some minutes in an effort to overpower the thug. The fight finished when the bandit leaped at the throat of the bandit, paying for its loyalty by a death wound from a shot fired by the robber, who made his escape without loot.

INTERESTED IN BOYS' WORK.

INGERSOLL, Oct. 26.—Interest in boys' work in the town is growing rapidly. A large attended meeting of boys was held in the Baptist Church, where they enjoyed a banquet provided by the lady teachers. They were addressed by Osgoode H. MacDonald of Toronto, a foremost worker in behalf of boys. As a result Tuxis Squares and Trail Rangers' Clubs were formed.

PLANNING TO WIPE OUT WHEATLEY CHURCH DEBT

WHEATLEY, Oct. 26.—During the next three or four weeks an important event will take place in the annals of the Methodist Church of Wheatley, the occasion being the church anniversary, coupled with a comprehensive plan to wipe out the church debt of $2,000. This fine church was built in 1914-15, and a pipe organ installed at a cost totalling $18,000. Since that time additional costs, including two pianos, have been added. The outlay at present-day prices would be $30,000 or $32,000.

The church was built during the pastorate of Rev. R. Fulton Irwin, now of Lacknow, and Mr. Irwin will conduct the services on Sunday, Oct. 30, the first of the three Sundays devoted to the anniversary. On the Monday evening following Mr. Irwin will give a lecture on "Present Conditions in Ireland, Their Cause and Cure." Mr. Irwin has an intimate knowledge of his subject, being a native of Ulster.

On Sunday, Nov. 6, another former pastor, Rev. E. A. Fear of Walkerville, who succeeded Mr. Irwin, will conduct the services morning and evening, and on the following evening, Monday, Nov. 7, the famous Hudson male quartet of Detroit will give a concert.

As a climax for the third Sunday (Sunday of the Methodist Church of Canada), will be the speaker for the day. Then on the Monday evening following a chicken dinner will be held. After dinner Dr. Chown will give his impression of world conditions, having only recently returned from Europe, and a first-class program of musical numbers will also be given.

Briand, Victor in Chamber, To Sail For U. S. Arms Parley

PARIS, Oct. 26.—Premier Briand will take passage for New York on Saturday on his way to attend the conference on the limitation of armaments at Washington, with the prestige of one of the greatest victories in his political career, in which he has already fallen from power and been recalled as head of the cabinet six times.

The majority in the Chamber of Deputies, which seemed to be moving away from the premier yesterday after Andre Tardieu's scathing attack on the cabinet, dwindled into a little minority after the premier, in masterly fashion, had replied today to all the criticisms against his administration.

First test of strength came on the question of priority for the order of the day, the premier making the demand. This was voted 239 to 178, many of the deputies abstaining. The premier very independently indicated to the Opposition that personally it was a matter of indifference whether he went to Washington. But he felt that France's interests were at stake, and if the chamber thought some one else were better qualified than he the chamber should send him.

M. Briand, informed the chamber, with special reference to M. Tardieu, that the French delegation to Washington would be quite equal to defending the interests of France on the Pacific, as well as any other question, and would treat all subjects in the broadest spirit possible.

Yesterday M. Tardieu had expressed doubt as to the competence of the French delegation.

The Man of the Hour

In this hour of Canada's most acute national crisis, the country's greatest need is leadership—not class leadership, not sectional leadership, but NATIONAL leadership. A pilot must be chosen possessing the necessary courage, foresight, breadth of vision and determination to lead the nation safely out of the existing economic uncertainty.

And one man stands out head and shoulders above all others as pre-eminently fitted for the task.

Born on a farm near St. Mary's, Ontario, Arthur Meighen is a true son of the people, a toiler who has fought his way to eminence by sheer ability, and force of intellect. Entered Parliament in 1908; appointed Solicitor General in 1914; Minister of the Interior in 1917; and Prime Minister in 1920.

At the Imperial Conference he was acclaimed by the Press of Great Britain as a great statesman, as a strong, virile, vigorous personality—alert in mind, keen and far-seeing in judgment, and with a fearless determination to stand for the right.

Professor A. D. Skelton of Queen's University, and biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote of the present Prime Minister:—"He has already given proof of high administrative capacity. His personal integrity is beyond question."

Of himself Arthur Meighen said to his constituents the other day:—"You know where I stood on this issue in 1908, in 1911, and as in 1911 I stand today."

SCHOOL IN LEEDS BURNS WITH VILLAGE TANKS DRY

Mysterious Fire Causes Heavy Loss in Athens Town.

Brookville, Oct. 27.—The high school at Athens, Leeds county, was totally destroyed by fire early this morning. The blaze was discovered in the basement by a passerby and the volunteer fire company of the village responded to an alarm, but found their efforts futile, as all the water tanks were dry.

They were consequently forced to stand by and see the building burn, until only the stone walls were left standing. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The school was a 2-story stone structure with ten class rooms and about 20 pupils in attendance. Insurance of $20,000 was carried, but this will not cover the loss.

THE FUNERAL WILL be held Friday from the residence of John Nutt, 229 Wharfside road, West London, of Edward J. Shipman, aged 4 years, who died in Cleveland, Ohio, Wednesday. Interment will be made in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Neighbors soon gathered, but the fire had gained too much headway to save anything.

EGGS QUOTED AT 75 CENTS A DOZEN

Price of Live Hogs on Local Market Descends.

This drop in the price of live hogs was the feature of the local market Tuesday. Hogs are now quoted at $7.65 a cwt. The demand is fair.

Eggs are selling at what is usually considered the top price during the winter, 75 cents a dozen. It is expected that if there are any more of these on Saturday's market that the price will take a drop.

Butter is in good demand, but is not quite as plentiful as two weeks ago. The price, however, remains the same.

Potatoes are selling at $2 a bag in five and ten bag lots, and $2.15 to $2.25 a single bag. There are still large shipments coming in from the West.

Old oats are scarce. The few that were offered on Thursday's market were selling at $1.80 a cwt. New oats are quoted at $1.20 to $1.50 a cwt., according to quality.

RELIABILITY

Primarily we underwrite Government and Municipal Bonds. We do not often associate our name with a Corporation's Securities. Consequently, the many investors who have purchased securities from us in the past have had no reason to regret our advice. In short, when they bought investments from us, they received also whatever reputation, integrity and good judgment are embodied in the name of W. A. Mackenzie & Company.

By our underwriting of the 8% Convertible Debentures of The Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited, we have extended the field opened up by us in selling the securities of the King Edward Hotel Construction Company, Limited.

Before we underwrote these Mount Royal Convertible Debentures, you may be sure we thoroughly investigated every phase of the enterprise, and, particularly, those matters pertaining to the security and interest and dividend-paying powers of the hotel and its management. We are convinced, so far as it lies within human power to form convictions, that every investor's money in this enterprise will be safe.

We know positively that in no other city of Canada is there so crying a need for hotel accommodation. We know positively that no other city in Canada has one-quarter of the tourist and commercial traffic passing through it. Montreal is Canada's greatest seaport; it is a transcontinental terminal and the pivotal attraction and distributing point for tourist traffic, conventions and similar sources of revenue.

The Directorate of "The Mount Royal" is strong. It comprises fifteen of the most successful business men in Canada. So able a group of men would never invest in, or associate themselves with, a company the success of which might be in doubt.

In short, you may invest in the 8% Convertible Debentures of The Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited, with the assurance that your money is safe—your 8% interest certain, and your profits good for a profit from your Common Stock Bonus.

The price of the Debentures is par and interest, carrying a 30% Common Stock Bonus. Send your order now or write for full particulars. Address:

HER OLD SKIRT DYED, MADE BABY A PRETTY COAT
 Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her old, worn, faded things new. Even if she has never dyed before, she can put a new, rich color into shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hanging, everything. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run.
AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR
 Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Grey, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.
 Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or grey. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Webb's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this oldtime recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a very little cost. Everybody using this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

 Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Grey, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.
 Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or grey. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Webb's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this oldtime recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a very little cost. Everybody using this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

U.S. ORDER AIDS
RUM-RUNNERS TO EVADE DRY LAW
Prevents Department of Justice Lending Helping Hand To Prohibition Agents.
CUSTOMS STAFF LIMITED
68-Year-Old Deputy Sole
"Arm of Law" in Miami Harbor.

(Copyright, 1921, by The London Advertiser and The Associated Press.)
Red tape, with political influence and official jealousies and rivalries, is an outstanding hindrance to prohibition enforcement in the United States.
This evil works more harm in Florida
than elsewhere, because it has blocked all efforts to close the floodgates against liquor from the Bahama Islands.
Investigation has disclosed that the department of justice had effectually curbed rum-running along the Florida east coast until "Order No. 68" was issued—in confidence to all operatives—
on April 30, 1921.

This practically prevents agents of the department of justice co-operating with prohibition enforcement agents,
who are under the treasury department.
And prohibition agents in Florida are all too few to stop smuggling.
Order No. 68, in substance, absolutely forbids any department of justice
agent from assisting himself, giving aid, arresting, or in any way assisting in
the apprehension of bootleggers, whiskey smugglers, or enforcing the eighteenth amendment, except under three specified emergencies:
That the local enforcement agent
must be out of reach.
That the department of justice operative must get explicit orders to aid.
That he must first refer the case to
his next highest superior.

Nearly Lost His Job.
A department of justice operative in Florida told of nearly losing his job for giving aid in the capture of some whiskey-runners not many months ago.
In spite of order No. 68, he made a report to Washington, involving some men high in national politics.
"I was severely criticized for it,"
said the department of justice agent.
"The department told me to mind my own business."
Federal courts rarely impose big fines or jail sentences for violations of the liquor laws.

Bootleggers in Miami are so sure of their immunity that they have boasted to federal agents of their operations.
While an investigator was in the office of L. E. Howe, department of justice agent in Miami, a bootlegger entered and demanded that Howe arrest a fellow bootlegger whom he accused of double-crossing him.
"He robbed me of ten per cent commission last week when we shipped a load of alcohol from Nassau to New Orleans," said the indignant bootlegger.
He also told Howe that the bootlegger who had double-crossed him was about to ship another load of liquor,
and he named the probable time of shipment and the place of destination.
When the bootlegger left the investigator asked Howe why he didn't arrest
the man for implicating himself as a rum-runner.

"What's the use?" said the federal agent. "The would repudiate what he has just said, and then he'd say he was trying to bribe me and that I got sore because he wouldn't pay as much as I wanted."
There is another "arm of the law" in Miami helpless against rum-running—the custom office. It is in charge of Deputy Collector David Tyre, who has two assistants. One is an office man and he and Tyre are chained to their desks with office work.

Aged Man Works Alone.
The second deputy, Thomas J. Whitten, who is 68, is left to roam around the waterfront and do the best he can at searching incoming boats for contraband liquor.
All boats smuggling liquor come in at night. Steamers with legal cargoes also come in frequently at night. There is no quarantine station outside the port of Miami, and ships come into the Bay unloaded as much of their cargo as they wish, and then the captain phones
Whitten and tells him to come down.
The customs office has no water craft
for boarding steamers. Collector Tyre says he needs more men and a boat.
"Scores of small craft, motor equipped, are leaving the docks daily bound out to sea," says Tyre, "and we have no means of going aboard them."
They are shipping out to foreign ports without clearance papers. Such violation carries a penalty of $1,000 fine and a year in jail. But we are helpless."
It is these boats, skipping to Nassau without necessity of clearance papers, that are bringing liquor in up and down the Atlantic coast. No checkup is ever made to determine what vessels are complying with the law.

Low Fines Imposed.
A year ago an ambitious department of justice agent, M. S. Bopst, former naval intelligence officer, started a campaign against rum vessels clearing from Miami without manifest papers.
Bopst arrested about 30. They drew fines averaging about $10—instead of the $1,000 prescribed by statute. Bopst resigned from the service.
Owners of small craft are making fortunes in whiskey smuggling. Small craft that can make high speed and run in shallow water are necessary for rum-running.
(This rum deluge disclosure will be

FARMERS PROTEST NEW PLAN OF GAS REFEREE
TORONTO, Oct. 26.—A deputation of farmers appeared at the Parliament Buildings to protest against the announced intention of Ontario Gas Referee George Henderson to revise the basis upon which farmers are paid for natural gas taken from their properties
by Niagara Falls.
At present the usual standard contract allows the farmers annual rental together with a free supply of gas up to 400,000 cubic feet a year with a charge of 20 cents per thousand in excess. The referee now proposes to charge for all gas used and leave the matter of rental to arbitration. The farmers hold that in adopting this course the referee is exceeding his powers.
The complaint was laid before the premier and Hon. Mr. Mills, who promised to consider the matter.
Herbert Spencer, the philosopher, used to wear ear muffs, to shut out the noise of the city.

Will Not Grant Ex-Emperor Charles Refuge in England.
LONDON, Oct. 26.—Under no circumstances will former Emperor Charles of Hungary be allowed to come to England.
Arrangements might be made,
it was said, for him to be exiled
in some remote British possession. If no other place seems available, but in view of his airplane adventure from Switzerland last week, England is considered too close to Hungary to be a place of permanent exile.
Foreign office advisers today stated that Charles was still being held by the Hungarian Government troops who captured him,
and that he will soon be transferred to an allied guard and placed on a British gunboat in the Danube to await a final decision by the council of ambassadors.

MAN IDENTIFIED AS PETITE COTE BANDIT
Five Witnesses Declare Russell Robinson One of 5 Thugs.
WINDSOR, Oct. 26.—Arrested at Portage La Prairie, Man., Russell
Robinson, 26 years old of Maidstone Township, was this afternoon identified in the local police court by five witnesses as one of five bandits who held up and robbed the Merchants'
Bank at Petite Cote, of $15,000 in July.
Vital Benoit, proprietor of the Wellington Hotel, Sandwich west, who was shot at as bandits attempted to rob him of $1,000, which he was depositing at the time of the hold-up,
did not hesitate in identifying Robinson
as one of the thugs.
"That is one of the men," Benoit
said, in reply to a question of Crown Attorney Uehring, "and he is the man who shot me."
Robinson was on trial on a charge of robbery while armed. As a result of Benoit's testimony, a second charge of attempted robbery may be preferred by the crown. Magistrate Gundy deferred further hearing until Thursday.

DRURY PLEDGES AID TO RELIEVE UNEMPLOYMENT
TORONTO, Oct. 26.—The Drury Government gave a deputation from the City of Toronto definite assurance today that it would bear one-third of the excess cost of carrying on municipal public works during the winter months
as measures of unemployment relief.
The deputation stated that there was about $15,000,000 worth of work that could be done if it was deemed advisable to go on with it.
The city was represented by Dr. Hastings M. H. Property Commissioner
Daniel Chisholm, Finance Commissioner
George Ross, and City Solicitor Scott.

"DANDERINE"
Grows Thick, Heavy Hair
35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff,
Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.
Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous and just twice as abundant.

Detroit Surgeons Remove Bul-

POLICEMAN MAY RECOVER
"Be Good To Margaret," Is

of Life.

DETROIT, Oct. 26.—Carl Bates, former Highland Park patrolman, who shot himself Monday night in Royal Oak Depot following his betrayal in a love affair, will recover, in the opinion of Highland Park General Hospital surgeons who Wednesday removed a bullet imbedded 28 hours in his back.
Bates' condition took a turn for the better Wednesday. His lapses into semi-consciousness and unstrung condition made an operation Tuesday impossible.
Bates attempted self-destruction because he says he was betrayed by Margaret Tool, former switchboard operator in Highland Park City Hall,
who led the former patrolman a chase from Detroit to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where Bates found she had been married
while he courted her here.
If Bates recovers a large part of the credit will be due to his mother, Mrs. Clara Bates, who spent the night at his side, lending him courage to endure his pains and attempting to create in him a desire not to die.
Mrs. Bates, a slim little woman with a kindly wrinkled face, whiskered sends her encouragement while her own heart was almost breaking.

"Carl, honey, you know that I forgive everything," the heart-broken mother whispered over and over again
by her side. "You and I are going to

BACKACHE OF WOMEN
The backache is often called the main-spring of a woman's life. What can she do, where can she go, so long as that deadly backache saps every particle of her strength and ambition? She cannot walk, she cannot stand, her housework is a burden, or the long hours require are crushing. She is miserable. The cause is many times some derangement
of her system, and backache is a common symptom. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable remedy for backache, as for more than forty years it has been relieving women of America from the ailments which often cause it.

ing to forget the girl and the unhappy past."
"You will be good to Margaret—you will take care of her if I die?"
queried the sick man. "Tell her that I forgive her and don't want her to come to any harm."
Five years ago, Carl, a red-cheeked country boy, left a small village in Illinois and came to live in Detroit with his father and mother.
When he was 7 he joined the Highland Park police force. Margaret Tool, a pretty switchboard operator at the Highland Park city hall, was his first sweetheart. Carl fell in love with her at first sight, and the attraction seemed to be mutual. Meetings between the young couple became so frequent that the police inspector criticized Carl for missing his sweetheart while he was on his beat.

Early in May Chief Seymour of the Highland Park force warned Carl that if he didn't tend more strictly to business he would be suspended. On May 31, following numerous complaints, Carl was forced to resign. At the same time the girl gave up her job.
"Margaret was Carl's first sweetheart," Mrs. Bates said Thursday night. "He loved her so much that he couldn't see anything wrong with her. I often asked him why he didn't bring her to the house. I felt badly when he told me that he was married and was living in Glendale avenue. I believed that he was really married until he went away."
"Carl didn't know anything about women," said Mrs. Bates, the tears running down her cheeks. He was such a good boy until he met her. He thought that she was good. He never did anything to hurt me until he fell in love with her."
