The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Société du Musée
du Séminaire de Québec

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol $\rightarrow$ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Société du Musée
du Séminaire de Québec

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole $\rightarrow$ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

why do you run
you run too far did she get up
why do you sob
you are a pet be not so bad

bid him get up ask him to go the sun is set the sky is red why do you nod

you nod as you sit you sit all too low you run all the day
you are a bad boy did you bid him run did you ask him in did the boy get up did she run too far

There is like to be a fine crop
 Let us look around us
 What a fine plain is here
 We may see ten or twelve

 Hark how the birds sing
 How sweet are their notes

Whose fine hat is that
 The house is new built
 The park is full of deer
 Shall we go to yon wood
 With all my heart
 It is a sweet place
 How thick the trees grow
 I wish the nuts were ripe

It is time we were at home
 I fear it will rain
 The sky grows dark
 It may be a great storm
 Let us go to the shade
 It will not last long
 The clouds break off
 The sun peeps out

APPENDIX.

OF READING.

A good child will do as he is bid.

Mark the child that does well, and do so too.

Do thou to all men as thou wouldst wish they should do to thee.

Do not tell a lie.

THE GOOD GIRL

Ann Rose was a good girl, but Tom Rose was a bad boy. Ann learned her book, and did as she was bid.

Ann and Tom one day got some pence from a friend. Ann did not go and buy too much fruit, as Tom did sometimes, but kept her money to buy a doll.

That same day, as Tom and Ann stood at the door, a black man came up and asked for something to buy bread. When he held his hat to Tom, Tom made game of him, which was very rude; but Ann gave him the money she had.

The poor man was so glad when she gave him all this,

this,

that the tears came into his eyes for joy, and he thanked her ten times over; but shook his head at Tom and told him he had a hard heart.

As she came home from school one day, a great mad dog run at her to bite her, and would have hurt her much, had not the black man come by just at the time, and beat down the dog with his crutch, and then went home with her.

How well it was for Ann that she made this poor black man her friend! I hope, too, all good boys and girls mind how they treat poor folks for they cannot tell but one of them may prove a friend when they least think of it.

To be good and kind to all,
will make all whom we know love us.

HYMN.

Come, let us praise God,
for he is great; let us bless God, for he is very good.

He made all things; the sun to rule the day, the moon to shine by night.

He made the great elephant, and the whale, and the little

The little birds sing praise to God, when they warble sweetly in the green shade.

I will praise God with my voice: for I may praise him, though I am but a little child.

A few years ago, and I was a little infant, and my tongue was dumb within my youth.

And I did not know the great name of God, for my reason was not come into me.

But now I can speak, and my tongue shall praise Him; I can think of all his kindness and my heart shall love Him.

Let him call me, and I will come unto Him; let him command, and I will obey Him.

When I am older I will praise Him better; and I will never forget God, so long as my life remaineth in me.

THE GOOD BOY.

There was once a good boy who took so much pains to learn his book, and to read and spell, that while some boys could scarce tell an ~~from~~ ^{from} man A, he would read his book all through, and tell what each of the words mean.

He did not play as he went to school, and lose his time; but made as much haste there as he could, and when school was done, went straight home.

His friends, when they saw how good he was, did all they could to please him, and gave him fine gold books. He read all the tales in them, and then told them to the good boys and girls he knew.

When he came from school, he did not bring boys and girls in at once, but went to his friends to ask leave to play with them; and in all things was so good, that he went by the name of the king of the good boys.

His name was James Bright, and when the good boys and girls came to see him, they sat by the fire and did not make a noise, or dirty the room, but each told a tale in his turn.

When James had leave from his friends, they would play at blind man's buff, but that was when there was no fire in the room.

For it was not right that boys and girls should play at

it is that when there is a fire in the room.

Poor Bob Short will have cause to think of that ; for once he was at play so, and while he was blind, all the boys went out of the room that he might not find them, and he went too near the grate, and his clothes caught fire, and he was burnt so much that he was lame all his life.

LESSONS FOR CHILDREN.

Charles, what a clever thing it is to read. A little while a-go you know; you could only read little words, and you were forced to spell them: c-a-t, cat; d-o-g, dog. Now you can read pret-ty stories, and I am going to write you some.

Do you know why you are bet-ter than puss: puss can play as well as you, and can drink milk, and she can lie up-on the car-pet, and she can run as fast as you, and faster too, a great deal, and she can catch mice, which you cannot do. But can puss talk? No. Can puss could read? No. Then that is the reason why you are better than puss—because you can talk and read. Can Pierrot, your dog, read? No. Will you teach him? Take the pin and point to the words. No—he will not learn. I never saw a little dog or a cat learn to read. But little boys can learn. If you do not learn Charles, you are not good for half as much as puss: you had better be drowned.

HYMN.

The Fa-ther, the Mo-ther, and their chil-dren, make a family; the father is the master there-of. If the family is numerous and the grounds large, there are servants to help to do the work; all these dwell in one house, they sleep beneath one roof, they eat of the same bread, they kneel down together, and praise God every night and every morning with one voice, they are very closely united, and are dearer to each other than strangers.

If one is sick they mourn together, and if one is happy, they rejoice together.

tice, and the sound of the bell

God, in company. If one is poor, his neighbours help him ;
if he is sad, they comfort him.

This is a village, see where it stands enclosed in a green shade and the tall spire peeps above the trees. If there be many houses, it is a town, and is governed by a magistrate.

Many towns and a large extent of country, make a kingdom: it is enclosed by mountains, it is divided by rivers, it is washed by the sea: the inhabitants thereof are countrymen, they speak the same language, they make war and peace together, a king is the ruler thereof.

Many kingdoms and countries full of people, and large continents, and different climates, make up this whole world—God governeth it.

The people swarm upon the face of it like ants upon a

All are God's family, he knoweth every one of them, as a shepherd knoweth his sheep ; they pray to him in different languages, but he understandeth them all, and heareth them all, he taketh care of all, none are so great that he cannot punish them,

none are so mean, that he will not protect them.

Negro woman, who sittest pining in captivity and weeping over the sick child, though none see thee, God seeth thee; though no one pitieth thee, God pitieth thee: raise thy voice, forlorn and abandoned one; call upon him from amidst thy bonds, for assuredly he will hear thee.

Nations of the earth fear the Lord, families of men call upon the name of your God.

'GOOD RESOLUTIONS.

Though I'm now in younger days
 Nor can tell what shall befall me
 I'll prepare for every place
 Where my growing age shall call me

Should I e'er be rich or great,
 Others shall partake my goodness,
 I'll supply the poor with meat,
 Never showing scorn or rudeness.

Where I see the blind or lame,
Deaf or dumb, I'll kindly treat them,
I deserve to feel the same,
If I mock, or hurt, or cheat them.

If I meet with railing tongues,
Why should I return the railing?
Since I best revenge my wrongs
By my patience never failing.

When I hear them telling lies,
Talking foolish, cursing, swearing,
First I'll try to make them wise,
Or I'll soon go out of hearing.

What though I be low and mean,
I'll engage the rich to love me;
While I'm modest, neat and clean,
And submit when they reprove me.

If I should be poor and sick,
I shall meet, I hope, with pity;
Since I love to help the weak,
Though they're neither fair nor witty.

I'll not willingly offend,
 Nor be easily offended ;
 What's amiss I'll strive to mend
 And endure what can't be mended.

May I be so watchful still O'er my humours and my passion,
 As to speak and do no ill,
 Though it should be all the fashion.

Wicked fashions lead to hell ;
 Ne'er may I be found complying ;
 But in life behave so well,
 Not to be afraid of dying.

Be you to others kind and true,
 As you'd have others be to you;
 And never do nor say to men,
 What'er you would not take again.
