Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious

consequences.

Indigestion,

constipation,

headache, nau-

sea, biliousness, and ver-

gical indications, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular,

and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mr. M. A. BROCKWELL,

Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better.

Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recomended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try

very much better, and two boxes cured me.

I am now so years old, but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 24 boxes up to this time, and I would not more be without them than without bread."—H. H.

POETRY.

Old-time Days.

I can see the river gliding, as it used to

Round the shoulder of the meadow,

where the thick-set willows grow,

I can hear it gurgle and ripple, in a gentle

lullaby,

To a little barefoot dreamer gazing up into the sky.

Yonder lies the brown old farmhouse,

crowned with chimney huge and square,

And the barn, beloved by swallows, with its weather-cock in air.

I can hear the river ripple blend with cow bells from the hill,

And the far off clang and rattle of the log frame in the mill.

How I loved to lie a-dreaming in the deep and quiet grass

While I watched the ghost of noon-day

trance, through the field of heaven pass!

I was happy—oh, so happy—while the

purring of the stream

Seemed to weave a little poem to the music of my dream.

Oh, to taste once more the pleasures that I knew in years gone by,

When my heart was full of sunshine as the summer morning sky!

Oh, to feel that outdoor gladness when the days were fresh and long,

And the bluebird climbed to heaven in the leader of his song!

SELECT STORY.

The Heart of a Boy.

IT WAS A BRAVE ONE BUT COULD NOT

STAND THE STRAIN.

"It does not really seem possible," sighed Mr. Simplex, as he folded his napkin, adjusted it accurately under the rim of his plate, and pushed back his chair from the breakfast table.

"However earnestly one may try, it does not seem possible really to reach

the heart of a boy."

His maiden sister, Miss Simplex, sniffed, half scornfully, from behind the coffee urn.

"I am not certain," she said severely,

"that I am prepared to believe in the existence of such a thing as a boy's heart. I dare say the little animals have some sort of a muscular organ

the sun, where he loved to spend his time, dreaming the long, long thoughts of youth.

Poor little Jared! He had an unhappy time at the morning meal, until at last, overcome with the sense of disapproval with which the two "grown ups" regarded him, he had flown from the room, seizing his hat as he ran,

and rushed for refuge to a favorite haunt of his beside a little stream up in the hills.

There is no more pitiful sight in this whole pitiful universe than a boy in trouble. Your little girl, thanks to mother's careful training, auntie's detection, and grandma's loving oversight,

rarely has a chance to get into trouble.

Her little life is carefully mapped out,

her little footsteps sedulously guided into easy, correct and conventional ways, and she grows up into a nice little parrot, or a clever, correctly arranged, finished article, while her brother is being knocked about in a complexity of circumstances, getting licked into shape by the efficient and ready tongue of "Life as He Finds It."

But the licking process is hard, and the boy suffers under it. Who can tell the tormenting thoughts teeming

under the shocky hair—the doubts and wonderments of the bewildered boy soul, and the wild rebellion of the spiritual battles alone for the most part, for few understand the little animal—they're only boys, you know, and do not need the fostering care the little girls must have. Only the mother usually gets down to the little, warm, loving, yearning, wondering heart, and she often, all too soon, lets it go out alone to seek and slay its giants or be slain by them.

Down in the damp grass, under a single of mossy willow, Jared lay and thought. Was it really true that he was a hardened sinner, as Aunt Sarah said? He was sure he loved God who had made the blue sky and green earth and at all events he loved the earth and sky. What had he done that he should repent of and call himself lost.

the dampness keeping it from burning.

"Get it off! Get it off!" the poor fellow shrieked as he saw Jared. The boy was old for his years and uncommonly quick of wit, but his strength was wholly inadequate to move the tree.

He pondered an instant amid the roars of the storm and the screams of the tortured man, and then rushed down

the hill and across the half-plowed field, with its muddy furrows, to where the patient, lumbering, old white plow

horse stood, head down and his low set, mongrel tail turned to the storm. To unspan him from the plough and lead him up the hill was but the work of a minute. The reins had been lengthened with rope, and taking this Jared twisted it and looped it firmly about the tree hooking the single tree into it.

Sam saw the idea and its dangers.

"If you drag that tree across me," he groaned, "you'll kill me. It must be lifted."

Jared saw that his words were only too true. Something, however, must be done. Sam's shrieks had ceased,

but he was still groaning in agony,

only falling strength hushing his cries.

Down on his hands and knees Jared got, putting his puny shoulder against the trunk of the tree. Had his boy's body been half as stout as his heart he would have lifted it. When all was ready he gave the old white horse the word to go forward. The chain tightened and with strength born of extremity

the boy raised his back, fairly forcing himself beneath the tree, giving it an upward impetus as the horse dragged it forward. He was not able to lift save for a single instant, but that

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 7, 1894.

The Post Office Robbery.

In the early hours of last Saturday morning the post office of this town was entered by burglars, the safe was blown open and the money contents taken away. Entrance was effected through the front door of the drug store, two holes being bored in the door and the catch which holds the bolt of the lock forced off. Admission to the post-office was then gained through the door which connects it with the drugstore. A hole was drilled in the door of the safe, above the lock, a charge of powder applied, and the door was blown open and badly shattered. Fortunately there was not a large amount of money in the safe, but the damage done to the safe will make Mr Rand's loss in the vicinity of $100. It is thought the burglars must have occurred at about 3 o'clock, and persons living in the vicinity claim to have heard the sound of the explosion. However, Mrs Hutchison, who lives next the post-office, and slept probably within thirty feet of the safe, heard nothing, though a very light sleeper generally. Mr Rand's large Newfoundland dog, "Leo," was in the building at the time, but a range to say failed to give the alarm. The burglars visited the blacksmith shops of G. V. Franklin and Geo. Wood, where necessary tools for their operations were procured. The store of R. E. Harris was also visited, entrance being obtained by removing the padlock with which it was fastened. Here the thieves must have been interrupted as nothing was taken. There was a sum of money in the till, and the safe contained about $200.

Revising the Lists.

The work of revising the Dominion electoral lists is now going on throughout Canada and as there seems to be some doubt as to what the qualifications are we may say that it is required:

- That you are a male of the age of 21 years;
That you are a British subject; and of real property amounting to at least $200 in cities; or in towns, amounting to $200; or in villages, townships, &c., amounting to $150; or
That you are the tenant of any real property within the electoral district, under a lease, at a monthly rental of at least two dollars, or a quarterly rental of at least six dollars, or a half-yearly rental of twelve dollars, or a yearly rental of at least twenty dollars; or
That you are the bona fide occupant of any real property within the electoral district, amounting to at least $300, or within any town amounting to $200, or any other place in electoral district amounting to $150; or
That you are a resident of the electoral district, and derive an income of at least $200 annually in money or money's worth; or
That you are a farmer's son not otherwise qualified to vote, and have been a resident with your father or mother for one year previous; or
That you are a fisherman and own real property, and boats, nets, fishing gear and tackle amounting to at least $150; or
That you are in receipt of a life annuity amounting to at least $100 in money or money's worth.

Notes on Schools.

1. Every teacher is required by law to write the Inspector of the District in which he is engaged, on the day the school opens, informing him: (1) The name of the Section. (2) The name of the Secretary of Trustees. (3) The length of time engaged. (4) The name of the last section in which he taught. Failing to give this information in full the teacher is not entitled to Provincial Grant up to the time of giving such notice.
2. Trustees are required to send the minutes of the Annual meeting to the Inspector within one week after such meeting has been held. If at any time such neglect has been overlooked in the past it cannot be so done in future.
3. Let trustees and teachers, who have failed to comply with either of these Regulations attend to the matter at once. The information sought in this way is needed now to be sent to the Education office. It will be to the interest of teachers and trustees to consult again the last April Journal of Education, which gives forms for reporting in such cases, and see whether or not all the information called for has been forwarded.
4. I have not received notice of the opening of schools in the following sections in Kings county, and suppose, therefore, that these have not yet engaged teachers. This may interest those seeking situations:—
Lake George, Sand Hill, Clermont, Fair View, Black Rock Mt., Chipman Brook, W. Hall's Harbor, Baxter's Harbor, Baxter's Harbor Mt., N. Scotts Bay, Scott's Bay Road, Lower Perceux, Town Plot, Lower Horton, Long Island, Lake Paul, E. Perceux Mt., Kellyville and Dalhousie Road.
COLE W. ROSCOE, Inspector of Schools.

Port Williams.

Misses Minnie Fullerton and Jennie Stevens have returned from their outing at Hall's Harbor.
The Misses Eaton, Mary and Josephine, (daughters of Edgar Eaton, now of Brockton, Mass.) are visiting their friends at "The Fort."
Mrs Anne, of Weston, Mass., with two children, has been visiting her father, Wm. Reid, of Port Williams. Mrs Anne has not been in Nova Scotia for 15 years, and speaks of the great improvement in the climate, especially in the winter.

Town Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held in the town hall on Tuesday evening. Present: the Mayor, Coma, Thomson, G. W. Borden, Davison, C. H. Borden and Sawyer, and the Recorder.
Petition read from ninety-two of the residents of the town, asking that the council acquire property on east side of school building extending to G. V. Rand's east line, having a frontage of about 240 feet, for school purposes.
The following bills were read and ordered paid:
J. B. Davison $15.00
F. A. Dixon 3.14
James Bowes & Son 5.50
G. H. Franklin 24.04
A. E. Goldwell 51.87
E. J. Murphy 21.00
Costs in Suit Brown vs. Com. of W. Supply Town of Wolfville 192.27
Petition re purchase of land was discussed and tabled for further consideration.
Mr R. E. Wickwire, on permission being given, addressed the council, re the impounding of his cattle. He stated that the cattle in question were young animals and were not allowed to run at large but escaped from pasture. On motion it was decided that no action be taken.

Geo. W. Borden, chairman of the Poor Com., reported that the Overseers of Poor for Horton had unjustly charged the town with maintenance of Amelia Spencer, and recommended that bill be not paid, after the 21st of May. On motion report was adopted.

Resolved that the bill of the Overseers of the Poor for Township of Horton, for support of Amelia Spencer, up to Mac 21st, be paid.

Resolved that the thanks of the Council be given to Conn. Thomson for the crossing placed by him on Main street.

Resolved that the address presented by the Town Council to the East and Counties of Aberdeen be recorded in the minute book of the council with a minute stating the occasion of the presentation of the said address.

Resolved that the duties of the pound-keeper be transferred to the policeman, and the present pound-keeper be notified thereof.

The Baptist Convention.

The report on foreign missions by R. V. J. W. Manning showed that three missionaries are to be sent to India this autumn, namely, Rev. H. F. Coey and wife, and Miss Martha Clark. The missionaries of the Board in India are Rev. G. Churchill, Rev. L. D. Morse and wife, Rev. W. V. Higgins and wife, Rev. L. C. Archibald and wife, Rev. M. B. Shaw and wife and Miss Gray, Miss McNeill and Miss Wright. Three of the mission stations are in the country or on the coast of their health. The receipts of the board during the year have been $17,004 and the expenditures $15,500 to a present deficit of $1,504. When to this is added $2,000, the balance of the Carey centennial fund, the present deficit is $4,013. The receipts from the churches were larger than the preceding year, but a still larger benevolence was hoped for, even if a charge in the method of raising funds, had to be adopted.

Grateful mention was made of the aid given by the Women's Missionary Union, both for financial support, and the missionary spirit being created and fostered in the churches. Gratitude was also expressed to the pastors throughout the provinces for the quiet but effective aid given to the movement.

The report of the home mission board was presented by Rev. A. Coheon. It gave details of work presented in the seven associations of the three provinces—one in P. E. Island and three in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. The year was begun with deficit of $3,000, or more than half the income of the previous year. The number of home missionaries was reduced, no new grants were made, and the year had been one of retrenchment.

Much interesting information was detailed of struggles, disappointments, successes and hopes in the 134 churches comprised in some fifty groups or fields of labor. The sum of $4,229 had been expended; 260 persons baptized and 155 received by letter in these mission churches during the year. There are 84 Sunday schools connected with the mission fields.

The convention occupied two sessions with the question of the separation of home missions from the convention. The discussion was to the effect that no change be made in the constitution; that churches in New Brunswick be left free to work with the New Brunswick convention or with the maritime convention as they choose; and that the home mission board of the convention arrange with the New Brunswick convention, through a committee of twelve appointed by the maritime convention, for carrying forward home mission work in New Brunswick. Rev. John Hughes, Rev. W. E. McIntyre, Rev. Thos. Todd and T. H. Hall spoke for New Brunswick. They agreed to allow the home missions of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island to remain in the maritime convention, provided New Brunswick be allowed to manage its local interests.

Rev. Geo. M. Adams, D. D., Auburndale, Mass., writes: "I recommend K. D. C. very strongly; in my case it has proved singularly efficient; when I could find nothing else to give relief it was a prompt remedy. I should be unwilling to be without it."

Household Economy During the Hard Times.

The great study in the average household at the present time is how to economize.

In large business centres, trade is dull, wages have been reduced, and in order to live comfortably and look well, certain economies must be practiced.

The saving and thrifty housewife, by the use of Diamond Dyes, can save many dollars each year. Many articles of wearing apparel, such as dresses, blouses, wraps, jackets, shawls, coats, vests and pants that have become faded and discolored, can be made to look as good as new, if dyed with the celebrated Diamond Dyes.

For the work of home dyeing, see that you use only the Diamond Dyes; they represent the latest and best scientific achievements, and are the only dyes that can be used with perfect success and satisfaction. Ask your dealer for the Diamond, and be sure you get them.

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 7, 1894.

Local and Provincial.

The Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces meets next year in St. John.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Biggs will please accept the thanks of the ACADIAN for wedding favors.

The house and barn of Mr Barpes Best, at Prospect, were destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

Acadia Seminary and Horton Academy opened on Wednesday. The attendance promises to be good.

Labor Day (Monday) was only observed in Wolfville so far as the schools and bank was concerned.

Rev. S. R. Ackman, of Kentville, will preach in the Methodist church next Sabbath morning and evening.

Mr C. W. Bishop, formerly of Wolfville, sends the ACADIAN a bundle of Brooklyn, N. Y., papers, for which he has our thanks.

It is estimated from accurate calculation that 150,000 persons purchased tickets in Boston and New York for the Maritime Provinces this season.

It is better to spend a little money now in advertising than to sell a lot of shop-worn goods below cost later on. Advertise in the ACADIAN.

The annual fall meeting of the proprietors of the Grand Pore dike is to be held to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, in Borden's hall, Grand Fre.

The induction of Rev. D. J. Fraser has been deferred until the 20th, in consequence to the repairs to St. Andrew's church not being completed until that time.

The remains of Mrs Fielding were brought to Wolfville on Monday, and interred from the Baptist church in Wilcox Bank Cemetery. The ACADIAN extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Half September! The month of fruit and harvest, the dawn of autumn. To the housekeeper it is one of the busiest of the twelve. The savory smell of spices and fruit-preserving will emerge from every dwelling.

If you want a Waterproof Tweed Coat call at Borden's, best value in town.

The members of the Truro Amateur Athletic Association are making active preparations for a grand programme of sports on the 13th of September. Active committees have been appointed, and good arrangements are being made.

The rumor that tuberculosis had broken out at the Experimental farm, Nappan, has proved correct, ten cows having been affected, necessitating their being slaughtered. The test was made by inoculating several suspected animals.

Have you seen C. H. Borden's Paraphrasing window.

Mr W. J. Balcom, the popular liveryman, is always to the front. The latest addition to his already well-equipped stables is a handsome "Kensington" wagon, which was purchased from Messrs Brown & Munro, and when Mr B. gets his greys on the pole it makes a noble team.

Several rate-payers are asking why the apple tree is allowed to remain in the centre of College Avenue extension. A few evenings since a gentleman had a narrow escape to colliding with it and damaging his carriage. Will not the proper authorities please explain why it is not removed.

Our Ladies' Dongola Kid Boots for $1.75 is the best value. C. H. Borden's.

We understand that the Acadia Creamery is not now able to supply the demand made upon it for cheese and butter. The latter is now made three days in the week, to supply local demand. A large dealer who inspected the cheese on hand one day last week, pronounced it the best lot he had ever seen.

On Monday evening last the residence of Mr and Mrs J. E. Hayes was the scene of a very enjoyable musicale. About fifty guests were invited, and all spent a delightful evening. Excellent music was furnished by the Wolfville Band. The party broke up at about half-past ten with everybody pleased and vowing Miss Hayes a social hostess.

Gaspereau.

Mrs Jonathan Smith, of Whitman, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs I. J. Caldwell.

Mrs Henry Fuller and Miss Lora Fuller, of Kingsport, are visiting at Mrs William Davison's.

Mr Frank Gertride is training Maude C. for the September races.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs J. D. Martin gave a small party in honor of her niece, Miss Hattie Davison, of Boston.

Miss Kate Hardwick, of Boston, is visiting her sister, Mrs Bion Davison.

Miss Mable Caldwell and Mrs Cassie Davison have returned from a two weeks visit in Berwick.

On Thursday afternoon the young ladies of the village were invited to a garden party at Mrs E. A. Davison's. Sixteen were present including Misses Cassie Westcott, (Boston), Bessie Cole, (Boston), Winnie Westcott, Josephine Norman, Lizzie Stevens, May Norman, Flora Benjamin, Adelaide Smithe, (Boston), Gertrude Caldwell, Nora Gertride, Emily Kinnie, Eibel Davidson, Fannie Cole, (Boston), Hattie Davidson, (Boston), Miss Silas Baker, Mrs Fred Davison. Some of the costumes were very pretty and merit especial mention. Miss Bessie Cole was attired in a very dainty walking dress of light brown trimmed with a darker shade. Miss Nora Gertride was dressed very becomingly in blue and white muslin; Miss Winnie Westcott, red crepon with black figure and ornamented with black ruffles; Miss Hattie Davidson, light figured chabrie garnished with coral lace and green ribbon, hair a la "jug-handle"; Miss Cassie Westcott, pink and white striped chabrie, white Leghorn hat trimmed with white ribbon; Fannie Cole, navy blue outing suit trimmed in white braid, hair a la Psyche knot; Miss Smith was arrayed in her usual natural elegance, russet shoes and necktie.

The Nova Scotia Fruit Crop. The president N. S. F. G. A., writes: We can now report with some certainty respecting the Nova Scotia Fruit crop; and although many well-cultivated orchards have a small crop, as a whole there is a good crop of very good quality, which may be estimated as follows: Apples, 120,000 bushels; plums, 110,000 bushels, 10 lbs. each; pears, 5,000 bushels; Strawberries and small fruits have yielded $50,000, and with present prospects for good prices the Nova Scotia fruit crop will give a revenue of $600,000, besides that used for home consumption. Several orchards in Kings county have over 1,000 barrels each, for which the owners can take from $2,000 to $3,000 in the orchard, and some plum growers have been offered $1,000 for their crop.

To the owners of the land herewith described and all of those whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that a certain piece of land situated on the west side of School street in the town of Wolfville, being a portion of the lot of land known as the Foster Estate land, and hereinafter more particularly described, is required by law for the purpose of improving the said street. And the owner or owners of the said land are hereby notified to appoint an arbitrator to act with two other arbitrators to be appointed in accordance with the provisions of section 147 of Chapter I of the Acts of 1888, to determine the sum to be paid for such land by the town.

The lands required as aforesaid are described as follows: Beginning on the west side of said School street, and on the east boundary line of the said Foster Estate lands, at a point thereon fifteen feet (15 ft.) southerly from lands of Margaret Gray, thence by said Margaret Gray's south line, one hundred and eighty feet (180 ft.) more or less to lands of James Porter, thence by said Porter's eastern line northerly fifteen feet (15 ft.) to and Margaret Gray's land, and thence by said Margaret Gray's south line easterly to said School street. By order.

AN HOTEL MAN'S STORY.

The Proprietor of the Grand Union, Toronto, Relates an Interesting Experience.

Suffered Intensely From Rheumatism—Six Doctors and Mineral Springs Failed to Help Him—How He Found a Cure—His wife Also Restored to Health—Advice to Others.

From the Toronto World. One of the most popular officers at the recent meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada was Rev. L. A. Bette of Brockville, Grand Chaplain for 1893-94.

Rev. Mr. Bette spent some time in Toronto, and among other points of interest visited the "World" office. It seems natural to talk Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to anyone coming from the home of that world-famous medicine.

The conversation with Mr. Bette turned in that direction, when he told the "World" that he had that day met an old friend whose experience was most remarkable.

The friend alluded to is Mr. John Soby, for many years proprietor of one of the leading hotels of Niagara, but now a resident of Toronto, and proprietor of one of the Queen City's newest and finest hotels, the Grand Union Hotel, opposite the Union depot.

Mr. Soby freely gives his testimony to the good done by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few years ago rheumatism with its attendant legion of aches and pains fastened upon him, and he was forced to retire from business.

"For months," said Mr. Soby, "I suffered and could find no relief from doctors or medicines. The disease was always worse in the spring and fall, and last year I was almost crippled with pain.

From what trouble was your wife suffering?" asked the reporter. "Well, I can't just tell you, but she is a very good woman, and I don't think she did it. It's just the same with half the women. They are sick, weak and dispirited, have no appetite, and seem to be fading away.

These pills are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a weakened condition of the blood or a shattered nervous system. Sold by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or six boxes for $2.50.

She is Still Well. Many people thought that Mrs. Reany's recovery was only temporary—a pleasant disappointment—she is better than ever.

SHELBURNE, Aug. 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary.

The boy on the farm will soon be the farmer. It is well that his earlier impressions of the calling to which he belongs will be such as to make him believe there is no place like the farm, instead of believing it to be the place from which he will escape as soon as he is old enough.

Little Johnny—I think Tommy D.'d wouldn't have so many accidents on his bicycle if he'd go slow instead—Mother—Say so slowly. Little Johnny—Yes'm—if he'd go slowly instead of fastly.

THE WHITE RIBBON.

"For God and Home and Native Land." Conducted by the Ladies of the W. C. T. U.

President—Mrs J. F. Tufts. Vice-Presidents—Mrs J. W. Caldwell, Mrs R. Reid, Mrs L. Sleep.

Recording Secretary—Miss T. Knowlton. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Knowlton. Treasurer—Miss Annie S. Pich.

Next meeting in Temperance Hall, Thursday, Sept. 13th, at 3.30 P. M. The meetings are always open to any who wish to become members.

Gospel Temperance meetings, conducted by members of the W. C. T. U., are held every Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, in the vestry of the Methodist church. All are welcome.

The Press as an Evangelist. (CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.) Have you ever given your grocer, your butcher, your milkman, your dressmaker, your house-cleaning, your doctor, your friend, your pastor a good loaf of temperance bread in the shape of clipping, paper, leaflet, or book?

We have at our peculiar service the "The Union Signal"; for the Y's and their friends the "Young Woman," formerly called the "Oak and Ivy Leaf"; for the boy and girl graduates of the L. T. L., the "Ad. Vigilant"; for the younger children, the "Young Crusader"; for the use of our rank and file, the rich output of the Woman's Temperance Publishing Association, in books and leaflets, touching all our lines of work, besides the wide field covered by temperance literature from the multitude.

When through the printed temperance matter, now so freely pouring into our hands from the presses of our land, we create a demand for more, we will have it. There is a great deal said about the undesirable class of reading matter forced upon the people. This is false. The people clamor for certain things and they get them. The newspaper men keep one hand on the pulse of his public and with the other make a paper to correspond.

Behind the evangelistic work of the press is the evangelistic work of the individual, and when every white-ribbon woman, and every temperance friend, has learned to read for temperance so as to glean the best temperance teachings and place them where they will reach others, then temperance evangelization through the press will be speaking on demand for temperance literature will create supply and this creates further demand, and who shall say what the press evangelist shall not accomplish.

Blessedness of Forgetting. If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbor's faults. Forget the slander you have ever heard. Forget the temptations. Forget the fault-finding, and give little thought to the cause that provokes it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points that makes me fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels of histories that you may have heard by accident, and which if repeated, would seem a thousand times worse than they are.

Choose a Manly Man. Mary Hallock Foote writes: When I asked our wise doctor at home what sort of a physician I should choose in the West (meaning to what school he should belong, since some schools are so much better represented than others in the West), he answered briefly, as if the question made him tired: "First, get a man."

So I think we mothers might say to the girls, if it were at all possible that any girl would ever ask the question what are the best masculine qualities conducive to a wife's happiness: "First, get a man. Manliness in the highest sense of the word is surely the natural, and therefore must be the lasting bond in marriage.

The late Dr. Johnson once met a swell to a passage where there was only room for one to pass at a time. They stopped and looked at one another for a few seconds and then the swell said—Do you think I will get out of the way for a fool? I don't know, I am sure, said the Doctor, but if you won't I will, and accordingly stepped to one side and let the swell pass.

Prize Proprietor—Yes, I want a man to feed in the penitentiary. Hungry Waiter—Thank I see you at the penitentiary.

Scraps for Odd Moments.

A tax on dogs was levied in Rome during the reign of Nero.

There's a lesson to be learned from the pin, my son. It is given a head so it may not go too far.

Garfield Tea cures sick-headaches. He—if I should propose to you what would be the outcome? It would depend entirely on the income.

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff. There goes one of the greatest writers of fiction that we have in this country. Who is he? The weather clerk.

Garfield Tea is sold by all druggists. Professor, would you advise me to make a poet or a painter of my son? A poet—paper's cheaper than canvas.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc. I'll tell you what, said Mr. Swatters the other evening, if you want to bring out what's in a man give him a sea voyage.

Minard's Liniment for sale every where. I had great luck to-day, said Maggins. How was that? I went to the races and left all my money home in my other trousers.

Minard's Liniment relieves Neuralgia. Why don't you send your husband to the water cure? Great goodness! What's the use? He never tastes it no more 'so if it was poison.

Ayer's Serraparilla will cure your catarrh, and remove that sickening odor of the breath. The following appears in a small provincial paper: The bridegroom's presents to the bride was a handsome brooch, besides many other things in cut glass.

To act on the liver, and cleanse the bowels, no other medicine equals Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Why Jennie, you married, of all girls? Yes, my dear. It is those frocks that look over the shoulders. I couldn't do it myself, and I couldn't afford a maid.

A good man is the best friend, and therefore someone to be chosen, longer to be retained, and indeed never to be parted with, unless he cease to be that for which he was chosen.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Desnoes & Co., 271 Queen Street, East, Toronto, for a free trial package.

Knowledge makes humble; ignorance makes proud; knowledge talks lowly; ignorance talks loud; knowledge is modest, cautious and pure; ignorance is boastful, conceited and sure.

Parents Must Have Rest. A President of one of our Colleges says: "We spent many sleepless nights, in consequence of our children suffering from colic, but this never occurred now. We use Scott's Emulsion and it quickly relieves pulmonary troubles."
