

THE HAMILTON TIMES

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 29, 1909.

WHICH IS THE "TYRANT?"

Montreal is facing a peculiar situation with regard to its street lighting. When the city contract with the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Co expired last year, the city refused to renew it, and there was some difficulty over the question of price, which, for a time, threatened to leave the city in darkness.

Well, if the United States people are such besotted fools as to place their necks under the heels of tariff cominoes and meekly allow them to make laws with the intention of insulting and bulldozing neighbor nations, they must pay the penalty.

A CONTRADICTION THEORY.

In his Winona speech President Taft vigorously combated the idea that protection had in the slightest degree increased the cost of living to the United States people.

If Louisiana produced no cane sugar and the west no beet sugar a reduction in cost of living would be possible to the extent of over $100,000,000 a year.

The fact of the matter is that the United States farmer is hounded. He is made to believe that the tariff is a great thing for him, while by it he is given over to be plundered by the favored interests.

UNCLE SAM'S LESSON.

The United States tariff club will not avail the pulp and paper trusts and combines. Instead, the tariff-mongers will be given an illustration of how little Canadians care for their envy and greed.

The new United States tariff on paper and pulp was, at the instance of the Pulp and Paper Combine, increased by way of retaliation because Ontario and Quebec Provinces discriminated in the matter of the export of pulpwood cut on Crown Lands.

In view of the situation created by the United States tariff and by Canada's determination not to be bulldozed, the interests controlling the Berlin mills property in New Hampshire are planning to install a print paper mill at La Tuque, Quebec, and the International Paper Company has prepared plans for numerous locations for paper mills in Canada.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley was honored with a complimentary banquet in St. John last night. There is evidently no doubt of the popularity of the Minister of Public Works among those who know him best.

Harry Whitney has reached civilization. From the perhaps not-too-trustworthy reports of interviews with him, it is gathered that he found both Cook and Peary most courteous and considerate, and that he regards both men as fair.

If the Blythe murder case is to establish a precedent for jockeying with and delaying the process of the criminal law in Canada it will prove immensely more disastrous to the Canadian administration of justice than all the murder cases of the last twenty years taken together.

The Peterboro election trial report makes good reading. Wonder who furnished all the money offered as bribes to witnesses to get them to swear to some charges against Mr. Stratton?

We look to see the Financial Post and the Hamilton Times put within black borders the news item about the burning of Hon. Adam Beck's race-horses.—Hamilton Herald.

How clever! Still, had the poor animals been of a longer-eared species, sympathy with our contemporary in its family affliction might have moved us in the direction which it suggests.

The publication of a lot of faked eight-year-old pictures which were worked off on the public as Dr. Cook's "taken at the Pole," will not help either the N. Y. Herald or Cook. Moreover, the public will naturally ask why Cook did not immediately repudiate the fraud, instead of remaining silent until it was discovered and exposed.

It is now stated that there is a fear that the city's great need of money will prevent dealing with the water rates as to conform to the demands of equity and justice. Surely not! This great municipality owned and operated public utility ought not to be made to pay a big dividend by charging extortionate rates, nor by taking from one man twice or three times as much as is charged to others for similar service.

A British cable coming from Tory sources seeks to pave the way for the surrender of the Lords on the budget question by intimating that the King deprecates the raising of a constitutional issue, and on that account the Lords may pass the budget.

NOT IN CANADA'S INTEREST.

It probably never enters the mind of the average Canadian advocate of a return to protection by Great Britain that in event of such a policy being adopted a barrier would be erected against Canadian products.

The Times always opposed the aldermanic discrimination whereby some men were given water at from 2 to 7 cents a thousand gallons, while others were charged 10, 12, and as high as 60 cents. It vigorously denounced the inequity of the system; which, to its disgrace, a by-gone Council got legalized by an immoral act of the Legislature.

In plain words this would mean that the new Unionist policy would erect a tariff wall against Canadian goods, but the Begular reads, it would be only half as high as the wall erected against goods from foreign countries. Is it at all certain that such a policy would contribute to a "substantial development" of Canadian industry?

Having persecuted the Grand Trunk Railway by every form of nagging that it could devise, the latest campaign being with regard to smoke from locomotives, until the company decided to close its round-house there and arrange for changes of engines at Hamilton and other places instead, Toronto is squealing like the proverbial stick pig.

ing to the report the crown prosecutor asked the prisoner: "Could you have got away from him if you wished to?" "No, he was too close," said the prisoner. "Was he following you very closely?" "Do you want to make a case for the prisoner?" asked the Judge; and that line of examination was discontinued.

HAD NO LICENSE.

Stratford, Sept. 28.—An interesting case was aired in the Police Court here to-day, when Mr. A. Brandenberger, proprietor of the local opera house, was arraigned on a charge of conducting a moving picture show and charging admission without a license.

DIOCESES IN WEST.

Rome, Sept. 28.—As a result of the first Plenary Council of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada, proposals have been made to the Vatican for the creation of new dioceses, especially in the Western Provinces, including one for the Bishop of which would reside in Regina.

BY THE GAS ROUTE.

Boston, Sept. 29.—Sitting beneath a gas jet in his office in the financial section of the city, with gas still pouring from a tube which had partially released itself from his mouth, the body of Chas. R. Babson, aged 65, a patent attorney, was found by a scrub woman early to-day.

JUMPED TO DEATH.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 29.—An unknown man, about 25 years old, early to-day jumped from the upper steel arch bridge into the Niagara and was drowned. He was seen to make the leap by Frank O'Neil, a workman, and by several bridge employees.

STOLE BUTTER.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 29.—Norman Livingstone, convicted on the charge of stealing $10 worth of butter from a Northridge farmer, was committed to the Central Prison in Toronto to serve a term of one year. Livingstone made a plea for leniency, but his previous record went against him.

Just the Thing.

The poet took his silver-mounted pistol from the bureau drawer. "What are you going to do with that?" asked his timid wife. "I'm going to use it to drive the wolf from the door," he answered.

NOT A PARTICLE OF SKIN ON BODY.

Worst Case of Eczema Doctor Had Seen in 40 Years—For Six Months Father Expected His Baby to Die—Blood Oozed Out All Over Her Body—Had to Be Wrapped in Silk and Carried on a Pillow—Now She Is Perfectly Cured.

DOCTOR RECOMMENDED CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My little girl was born two weeks before her time and my wife died four days after the birth of our child and I had to raise the baby on artificial food. Six months after birth she broke out and I had two doctors in a row and then I went to C. and got Dr. B. and he and Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment saved her. He recommended the Cuticura Remedies, or said we were right in making use of them. As nearly as I can remember, we used eight cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment; but you must take into consideration that hers was an exceptional case, for an old girl doctor said that it was the worst case that had come to him in forty years. I have always hinged on Cuticura Soap to keep her skin soft and to give her a pure complexion. James J. Smith, Wood and Metal Pattern Maker, Box 234, Buena Vista, Va., Oct. 14 and 22, 1909.

WHALEBONE CATCH SMALL. A Slump in the Arctic From the Large Record of Last Year. Notwithstanding elaborate preparations and the keen vigilance of thousands of skilled shore whalers the catch of bowhead whales this year will fall miserably short of that of any previous year.

tion of the bone market during the last winter only five whale ships are at work in the Arctic this year, and up to date not a single catch has been made by any of them. Unless the whaling fleet now bound eastward for the shores of Banks Land has phenomenal success it is doubtful if more than 15,000 pounds of bone will be marketed on the Pacific coast this year.

Amusements

De Wolf Hopper and his merry band of players are here again in "A Matinee Idol," but in such a new guise!

Mr. Hopper has a play that certainly agrees with him, for throughout the entire evening he seemed in such a jovial mood that he carried the action of the farce at a more rapid rate than he will do later when he is longer in the piece.

The music is sweet and whistleable and the "gods" took kindly to the songs. A pleasant evening can be spent at the "Matinee Idol" and it will lift dull care from any shoulders.

The Emmanuel Movement.

In the Popular Science Monthly for October, Dr. Homer Gage concludes a discussion of the advantages and dangers of the Emmanuel movement as follows: "As the movement spreads into the hands of those with few qualifications and with greater independence of sound medical counsel, it seems not unreasonable to predict its ultimate failure and general discredit. However, the Emmanuel movement has done good, just as the popular interest in hypnotism and Christian Science has done good. They emphasize and make clear the value of mental therapeutics, and spur the doctor and psychologist to renewed study of its nature, limitations and practical application. It will also serve, perhaps, to recall the practising physician from too cold a materialism; and to prevent a dehumanized scientist from taking the place of the doctor of the old school. It is undoubtedly true that there has been a strong tendency to give undue attention and attribute undue importance to the interesting pathological problem presented in each case, and too little attention to its humanitarian aspect. We must not let the scientist push to one side the Samaritan. Such is the lesson to be learned—more real human sympathy and help from the doctor, but not a 'medicalized clergy'."

VILE TORY METHODS IN WEST PETERBORO.

Witness Swears He Was Filled With Liquor and Offered Large Roll If He Would Make Bribery Charge Against Liberals.

Mr. Stratton Refused to Pay One Cent to Men Who Offered to Make Affidavits and Then Leave the Country.

Peterboro, Sept. 28.—More extraordinary evidence was offered to-day in the course of the hearing of the election petition by Justices MacMahon and Magee to unseat Mr. J. R. Stratton, member for West Peterboro. Four men swore that on October 26th, election day, they received $2 in the back room of the Liberal headquarters from Mr. R. H. Leary, a supporter of Mr. Stratton, practically without a word having passed between them. All had made affidavits denying their original statements. The curious part of their story was that all the men denied having sold their votes. Two declared that they had already voted when the money was paid over, while the third, William Ashley, protested that he had no knowledge why the money was given them. It also came out in the evidence that Ashley had offered to make an affidavit, and leave Ontario, denying that he had received any money, if Mr. Stratton paid him $200, while he implicated a man named Gates, who has yet to be called, by stating that he demanded four hundred dollars. The respondent declined to pay a cent, and so Ashley told his story, which was remarkable for its inconsistencies and contradictions. Yet another of the petitioner's witnesses swore that he had been called to a local hotel, plied with liquor, and then offered a roll of bills if he would make a charge of bribery and corruption, which he declined to do, against the Liberal works, with a view of unseating Mr. Stratton.

NO MONEY TO DISBURSE.

The first witness called was Walter S. Davidson, whose name had in previous evidence been freely associated with Mr. Stratton's committee rooms, and particularly with little room upstairs, i. e., like the previous witnesses, denied that he had been formally appointed by anyone, but it was he who had occupied the office, and when work began to pile up he had instructed Mr. Bryson, Secretary of Ward One, to get extra help. The telephone was placed in one of the smaller rooms, and that really accounted for the constant repairing to that room.

"Where you given any money to disburse?"
 "Not a cent, except for work."
 "How much, thirty or forty dollars?"
 "Mr. Bryson."
 "Did you get any accounts from him?"
 "Oh, I took his word."
 "Did you get any receipt for it?"
 "No."
 "Did you make any return of it?"
 "No, I suppose someone did."
 "Did you pay by cheque or cash?"
 "Cash."

Witness added that he acted entirely on his own responsibility, reporting to nobody. It was election work he thought should be done, and he looked after it. What sums were paid to any particular person he did not know. He never paid Sheppard anything.

Mr. Watson—How was it you and others came to do this work voluntarily?
 Witness—Followers of a good cause.

Proceeding, the witness said that to his knowledge nothing of an illegitimate character was done, and he knew that money was paid for clerical work, because he saw the receipts. Had his own office staff been able to handle the matter they would have done so, and he would have made no charge. Neither Mr. Stratton nor his agent, Mr. Goodwill, had any knowledge of it. He gave his time and money as a voluntary contribution. With regard to the charge that he had paid Aaron Bouskill $2 for his vote by himself, it was without foundation, and as far as he knew, the charge that Dickson, Davidson, J. P. Bryson or Leary had done so was equally false. He was charged with having paid $2 each to Swangi and R. H. Sheppard, but this was foundationless. The witness scoffed at the idea that he had bribed Bryson, or received money to corrupt a voter. "I don't think Bryson could be bought," he said.

TRIED TO CATCH LIBERALS.

Mr. Watson—Did you know that members of the Conservative party sent men to the Liberal committee room to ask for money, and try and catch you?
 "I have seen affidavits to that effect."
 John F. Grimson, Aaron Bouskill, and Wm. S. Wangki, all of whom were alleged to have been bribed by Davidson, were called, but failed to answer.

Mr. Watson explained that owing to the large number of witnesses there was an understanding that they would receive a second notice when they were expected to be in attendance.

Mr. Du Vernet then took up the charges of bribery, thirty-seven in number, in which R. H. Leary is alleged to be implicated. Wm. Ashley a Peterboro voter, was called.

Mr. Du Vernet—Did Mr. Alfred Kingscote call on you?
 Mr. Watson—Of course, objection is noted that there is no agency.
 Mr. Du Vernet—What happened?
 "He spoke to me about the election, and I told him that I had not made up my mind, and he gave me a note for Mr. Leary."

"What was it on?"
 "Just my name and his name."
 "Have you got it?"
 "No; I tore it up."
 "When?"
 "Some time ago."
 "A week ago; after you were subpoenaed?"
 "Yes; I did not think it was anything."
 "Was any sum of money mentioned?"
 "No."
 "What happened?"
 "I went to Mr. Leary."
 "Where did you see him?"
 "In the little room upstairs."
 "Did you give him a note?"
 "No, I put my hand in my pocket, and made a mistake and pulled out a bill, and gave him that. He did not look at it."
 "What happened?"
 "He gave me $2."
 "How was present at the time?"
 "There were people about, but I could not say who they were."
 "Which room was it?"
 "The little room on the right."
 "How did you find out where to go?"
 "Well, I saw men going in and coming out." The witness went on to say that Leary just asked him if he was a voter, and when he said yes, put his hand into his waistcoat pocket, took out two dollars and gave it to him. Since the elections Mr. Glover had taken him to Mr. R. H. Hall's office, and he had been told there that Mr. Leary denied giving any money, and he was asked to sign a declaration that he had not received any. He refused.

WOULD RESENT BRIBERY.

Mr. Du Vernet—Was anything said about money then?
 "Something was said about $2, if I would sign, but I would not."
 To Mr. Watson, Ashley said that he would resent any attempt to buy his vote.
 Mr. Watson—Nobody ever did buy your vote?
 "No."
 Ashley, who described himself as an artist, said that he came from England three years ago. He resented any idea that he had sold his vote.

Mr. Watson—What did you think the money was for?
 "Perhaps to drink Mr. Stratton's health."
 "What did you go to the committee room for? To get money?"
 "Certainly not."
 "What did you go for?"
 "Curiosity; to see how the voting was going."
 "Did you go to the Conservative room?"
 "Yes, in the morning."
 "Did you get any money there?"
 "No."
 "Did you ask for it?"
 "No."
 "What did you ask for?"
 "Nothing."
 "And you got it? Who suggested there that you should go over to the Liberal rooms?"
 "No one."

Proceeding with his cross-examination, Mr. Watson obtained from the witness the statement that he voted at 4.50 p. m.

Mr. Watson—But fifty-three persons voted after you. Is it not a fact that you voted at 3 o'clock?
 "No, about a quarter to five."
 "Did you get a reward from Mr. Bousham?"
 "No."
 "Did you hear about a reward? You have seen the large poster offering $10 reward for information as to bribery by J. R. Stratton or his agent, published by the Liberal Conservative Association of West Peterboro?"
 "Yes."
 "How long after you saw that did you give your story?"
 "I didn't go."
 "Who did you tell?"
 "Nobody."
 "How did they find out, then?"
 "I don't know."
 "Have you had an interview with anyone before you gave evidence?"
 "Not that I remember."

DENIED FIFTY-DOLLAR ITEM.

Mr. Watson—When you were at Davidson's office did you say that if you were paid $50 you would give no evidence?
 "I never said anything of the kind."
 "Didn't you say in the presence of Mr. Davidson and Mr. Glover?"
 "No."
 "Didn't you say that if you were paid $50 you would make a declaration, under oath, saying that you never received any money?"
 "No, sir."
 "What happened?"
 "They asked me to make a declaration, and I refused."
 "How long were you there?"
 "About half an hour."
 "You had another interview at Mr. Hall's office. When was that?"
 "About a week ago."
 "Who asked you to go?"
 "A man named Yates."
 "Did you ask what for?"
 "No. He said something about the subpoena."
 "Who were there?"
 "Mr. J. R. Stratton, Mr. Hall, Mr. Yates, Mr. Davidson and Mr. Leary."

"Did Gates say that if he were paid $400 he would make an affidavit that he received no money from Leary and Davidson?"
 "No, $200."
 "Do you recollect that he said he would say he saw no money paid?"
 "No."

TWO SUMS MENTIONED.

"Do you remember that he said if he did not get the money he would swear he got $5 from Davidson and $2 from Leary?"
 "I do not."
 "Did he not ask for $400?"
 "$400 was mentioned."
 "By whom?"
 "Mr. R. H. Hall."
 "What did Mr. Hall say?"
 "He asked him if it was correct that he would make an affidavit for $400, and Gates said yes."

SAW NO MONEY GOING.

Albert Banker went into the little room after he had voted, but got nothing but conversation. There was no secrecy, and he only went there because he wished to speak to Mr. Leary about the election. He saw nothing to indicate that anything was wrong.

The hearing was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

SECOND ATTACK.

Boy Attacked by Rooster But Saved by Father.

A PRETTY MORNING DRESS.

No. 8543—For morning wear there is nothing that quite takes the place of a comfortably-fitted wrapper. This one is cut on excellent lines, and is adapted to a variety of materials. The front fullness is laid in fine tucks to about yoke depth, and a round collar completes the neck. Full length sleeves ending in narrow bands or shorter ones finished by a frill of lace are both included in the pattern. The fulness is held in place around the waist by a ribbon fitted in front, but a belt of the materials will do as well. Cashmere, challis, albatross and percale are all suitable for reproduction. For 36-inch bust measure 9 yards of 36-inch material will be required. Sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

Vanua, Mich., Sept. 27.—"Teddy" Van Dermoot, the two-year-old son of Frank Van Dermoot, formerly proprietor of the Hotel Cobden, was almost killed by a red Indian game cock owned by his father.

The bird attacked the child, cutting his throat with his long spur and nearly severing the jugular vein. Only the timely arrival of his father, after the crazy rooster, had repulsed the boy's mother, saved the child's life.

In response to the cries of her child, Mrs. Van Dermoot hurried from the house to the rear yard, where she found the bird springing the baby's cage. When she sprang to the rescue the red Indian attacked her, striking at her eyes. At this juncture Van Dermoot came on the scene and killed the bird with an ax handle.

The game cock had attacked the child a few weeks before in the presence of his father, putting a spur in the boy's cheek, and had been locked in a cage for safety. It is supposed the boy climbed a stepladder to the bird's cage, releasing it, to be immediately attacked. Besides the spur cuts on his face and neck the child's breast was lacerated through his clothing.

MONTREAL BIRTH RATE.

Leads All the Principal Cities of the World.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—According to Dr. Laberge, the Medical Health Officer, Montreal, so far as its birth rate is concerned, is at the top of the list, as compared with the leading cities of the world. The annual report of the Board of Health states that the birth rate for 1908 per 1,000 inhabitants was 38.82, being an increase of 2.38 over the preceding year. The death rate was not quite so satisfactory, being 20.70. The birth-rate of the French-Canadian shows the very high rate of 44.04 per 1,000.

A DISAPPOINTED MAN.

John Pritchard heard that there was money going around, but he did not get any, which made him mad, and he had stated that he received money. He told the story to about fifty people. "I think I was badly done by," he remarked. About three weeks after the election he was asked to go down to the White House Hotel, where he met John T. Farish and other Conservatives. After giving him a lot of beer, they offered him a roll of bills to make an affidavit saying that his vote had been bought.

Matthew Clancy also saw a number of men going into the mysterious little room. Mr. W. S. Davidson took most of them in, but for what purpose he did not know.

Anthony Mongover promptly stated when he was called that he got $2.

Mr. Du Vernet—And he hasn't got a vote. I simply call him corroborative that they were handing out $2 bills.

Mr. Watson objected that the evidence was not admissible on the ground that there was no specific charge in connection with Mongover, and their lordships reserved decision on the point.

St. John Liberals Do Honor to Leader in Province.

Hon. Charles Murphy and Hon. W. L. M. King Spoke.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley Dealt With Questions of the Day.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 28.—More than 200 people attended the banquet given by the Liberals in Keith's assembly rooms to-night in honor of Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Mayor Bullock presided, with Mr. Pugsley and Hon. Mackenzie King at his right, and Hon. Chas. Murphy and Senator Gillmor at his left. Regrets were received from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Messrs. Fielding, Brodeur, Fisher, Graham, Aylesworth, Paterson, Oliver, Sir Frederick Borden, and others.

Responding to the toast of the Governor-General, Hon. Chas. Murphy paid a tribute to the guest of the evening. He was a big man, seeing the big future of Canada, and supporting for the future in the public works of the country. His work was not Provincial, but for all Canada. He was popular, and could have his pick of twenty constituencies in the West. Speaking of a recent visit to the West, Mr. Murphy said the grain crop meant one hundred million dollars this year. He spoke of the lumbering, mining and ranching prosperities there, and commended the Government's immigration policy. Mr. Murphy made passing reference to the tariff, laughingly saying he stood with Mr. Dooley, when he said, "They that the tariff looks after will look after the tariff." The speaker went into railway and canal matters. He said the feeling in Canada to-day was for Canada, a nation with the New Brunswick, meaning each. Passing on to his recent tour of the West, he compared the progress shown in twelve years since his last visit. As to Vancouver, he saw no reason why it should not reach across the Pacific and grasp a large share of the trade there. Coming back to New Brunswick, however, and notwithstanding the progress of the West, he was proud of his native Province than ever. He was more convinced than ever that the Eastern ports were to receive a greater impetus from Western prosperity. Some of Alberta's wool exports by the Pacific, but the East was not set up against the West, and the East would take its chance of its share of the business. Hitherto not all the Western produce for export went by Canadian ports, but this was being changed, and he was convinced that before long it would be so. He would not say all would come through St. John; Nova Scotia would share. All to John wanted was what should come to it by means of its geographical advantages. He predicted that in five years there would be five hundred million bushels of wheat grown in the West, and future years would see even this exceeded.

Dr. Pugsley spoke of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statement in favor of all Canadian freight being shipped through Canadian ports. The work being done in St. John was not because Dr. Pugsley represented St. John, but in carrying out Sir Wilfrid's idea. The Minister spoke of the work on the waterways towards reducing transportation cost. On tariff matters, he said, it was the policy of the Government to continue substantially the existing tariff, which Canada's commerce had increased marvelously. Though there might be a feeling against the United States for providing for retaliation against Canada by a maximum tariff, Canada should hesitate to retaliate. From the revenue on her imports from the United States, Canada, with her natural advantages, could so improve her transportation facilities as to hold practically all of Western Canada's commerce and win the trade of the northern line of the Western States. Montreal was carrying 60 per cent. of all the grain carried through the North Atlantic ports, and he believed this would increase.

As to the Empire's defence, Canada should own and man her own navy, to act as part of the Imperial navy.

Speeches were made by Messrs. F. B. Campbell, John Hendry, of the Manufacturers' Association, James J. Logan, A. B. Warburton and others.

A WILD MAN.

He Lives on Berries in Bush Near Prince Albert.

Prince Albert, Sask., Sept. 28.—Bert Jenner, about 25 years of age, formerly well known in this city on account of being employed as porter at the local hotels, is living wild in the woods at Steep Creek, about 12 miles from this city. While in this city he served terms in the local jail for vagrancy. He was suffering from insanity.

After being released last spring from the jail, Jenner took to the woods, and he is living as a wild man, on berries, roots, leaves and raw meat and sleeps out at night wherever he happens to be. Last week, a farmer named McLachlin, in the vicinity of Steep Creek, was hunting in the woods. He noticed a black object emerge from a thicket, and, thinking it was a bear, fired. He missed, and then discovered it to be the man who had gone back to nature. Jenner wore a fur cap, had long whiskers, and hair down to his shoulders. He presented the appearance of a wreck, being filthy.

WANTED: A NAME.

(Chicago News).

The girl who had just got back to town from her summer in the country shuddered as she took her cup of tea. "Did I have a good time?" she repeated. "I think so, but it's all over-obtained by one harrowing experience which befell me. It really was not so very important, but it got on my nerves. I woke early that morning with that creepy feeling you have when something unpleasant is going to happen."

"So I got up and as nobody was stirring about the cottage I went out and began to cut the sweet peas—you know we have heaps of them growing about the place. It is really very nice, because when there isn't an earthly thing to do, when you feel a caller who bores you to death you can always strike an attitude and say, 'Goodness! I nearly forgot I hadn't cut the sweet peas I promised to give Sadie!'"

A STRANGE PEOPLE.

Curious Habits of Malay Inhabitants Only Partly Understood.

Away among the deep forests in the heart of the Malay Peninsula there dwelt a singular people, whose curious habits are only partially understood. An Italian explorer found them so interesting that he spent fifteen years studying their habits and customs, and has some wonderful stories to relate about the Sacai. They live in a barbarous state, spending most of their time gathering poisons from plants, which they prepare according to secrets known only to themselves, for protection against their enemies and for bringing down their quarry in the chase.

Work Day on a Plantation.

The day begins on a plantation when it is yet night. The big bell rings at 4 and 5 o'clock for the "hands" to go to the fields. Mammy starts her small stable assistants around at the "big house" with early coffee about 6.

Without this tiny cup of coffee your true creole gets up on the wrong side of the bed. He has no appetite for breakfast after a ride through the fields and still less for his generous noonday dinner. Supper is served at night, and the dishes are typically Southern, and corn and butter breads, fried chickens and waffles and fig preserves, with "sillybab," that moon-beam mixture that makes modern ices and confections heavy by comparison, for dessert.

Life on a plantation is not dull. There are risks to be taken and a constant stream of visitors from town. There are "sugar house" parties and hog killings, Christmas doings, and Thanksgiving dinners, to say nothing of houseparties and hunts.—Memphis "Commercial-Appeal."

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY IN THE WORLD OF SPORT.

TIGERS HAD ANOTHER FINE PRACTICE YESTERDAY.

Hurry Thomson, a Highfield Boy, Had His Ankle Fractured—Yellow and Black Wing Line Now Complete.

The yellow and black pigskin chasers indulged in two hours of the hardest kind of practice yesterday afternoon at the Cricket grounds. Captain Ben Simpson kept them right at it and seldom have the big fellows worked with such enthusiasm. It looks as though the players had got the fever now as nearly all of last year's seniors were out, including Pfeiffer and Isester. The wing line was complete yesterday with the exception of Don Lyon's position, and that will likely be filled by Tony Loftus. Simpson was early on the grounds, and after his arrival there were but few spare moments. That Ben will not stand for any loafing was shown by the way he kept the boys at it yesterday, and although there is only two weeks between now and the first big game with Ottawa, it is a safe bet that the Jungle Terrors will be as hard as nails and in condition to play the game of their lives by that date. In the early stage of the practice the players booted the ball for a while, and "Kid" Smith, the proposed full back, put over a couple of beautiful dropkicks. The team is much improved in the punting line since the opening of the practicing season. Tackling and passing the ball were next on the programme, and for about three-quarters of an hour the team was kept hard at work. The afternoon's work was finished by a short run around the grounds.

The appearance of Isester and Pfeiffer on the field seemed to add ginger to the work of the team. With Izzy back in the game the "big four" composed of Isester, Gray, Wigle and Barron, is now complete, and this husky quartette, that made such an impression last year, will be out to do business in as big a way as ever. While the "big four" were the sensation of the Inter-Provincial last year, even better things are still in BRILLIANT OPENING OF H. J. C. FALL MEETING.

Over Three Thousand Were at the Track Yesterday Afternoon—Six Favorites Won and Finishes Were Stirring.

THE OPENING OF the Hamilton Jockey Club's autumn meeting yesterday was auspicious. Over three thousand admirers of the bang-tails and layers-of-odds were on the grounds and the consensus of opinion was that the entertainment provided left nothing to be desired. About one thousand people came up on the Toronto special, while nearly five hundred arrived on the Buffalo train. The grounds presented a most pleasant appearance after the improvements that had been made this summer, and the track, turf and steeplechase courses were in the best of condition. The members' stand was filled with the elite of the city, and the fair women and fashionable gowns added beauty to the scene of bustle and excitement. Breezy and attractive are the surroundings at the Hamilton Jockey Club, and as for the racing, nothing better than that of yesterday might have been asked in the way of close finishes and exciting contests. About twenty horses finished in several of the races, and the cheering from the lawn and grand stand was eloquent of the interest these races provoked. All the winners, with the exception of Marksmen in the steeplechase, were driven to the finish by short distances. About thirty bookmakers came in and the betting was brisk. On the seven races the talent broke about even although considerable money was lost on Loyal Maid in the sixth race. The 3-year-old was picked for a plunge bet by several of the dopesters and the talent went strong over.

The first race on the programme was one of the best of the day. Simcoe and Charlie Eastman were the favorites and the two provided a rattling finish. Eastman broke in front of the rail, but by the time the first furlong had been covered he had dropped to last place. Pajaroita, Guy Fisher and Madman were in the lead for the rest of the race. In fourth place. The leaders swung wide on the stretch and Simcoe came from behind on the rail and took the lead. Charlie Eastman was at his heels, and in a drive to the wire Simcoe won by a head. Guy Fisher was an easy third. In the opinion of some Eastman was cut off at the furlong or he would have won the race.

In the second race the favorite Galvesca romped home an easy winner. At the barrier Woolcasta was the first to get away and set a fast pace to the stretch, where Galvesca came up from second place to win. The winner, however, struggled pulled away an easy winner. Woolcasta finished second with Kyle in third place. Bob Co., Patsalaga and The General Armstrong finished in a bunch close up.

The third race, a two mile steeplechase, was easy money for Marksmen. He was an odds-on favorite and the betting on him was not heavy. He was easily the class of the field and getting away with a good start he had the length of a jump on the other contenders before half the distance had been gone. He took every jump in beautiful style and exclamations of admiration frequent in the stand. The other three had a race for place money. John Dillon getting second, and Lizzie Flat nosing out Class Leader for show money.

The fourth race, the Sandringham plate, was won by Green Seal, in a drive in the stretch by a length and a half. Prince Ahmed, who won so many races at the Woodbine this fall ran a slow race and finished last. Jersey City was first and kept the lead throughout the race. Pinkola challenged in the stretch but could not overhaul the leader. Prince Ahmed ran out at the second and could not regain the lost ground. Jockey Taplin was called into the stand after the race and examined by Steward Joseph Murphy, who afterwards said the rider's explanation was perfectly satisfactory.

C. W. Burt led all the way in the fifth race and was not menaced at any stage. The wise ones had a little money on Gold Dust and he just managed to get second money from Sight. Bosserrian was well played, and although always close up could not get through.

James B. Brady, at as high as 10 to 1, was in the front in the next race from the fall of the flag. Night Mist was second, a length and a half away. Loyal Maid was the plunge bet and a lot of money was dropped on her by the talent. Otogo was also well backed. Brown Tony finished third.

On the turf John Carroll landed a lot of wise money by a pretty stretch run. Lad of Landon was second, a length behind the leader. First Premier was supported but got nothing more than an early fall.

Stromeland and Uncle Toby, of the Dymont Stable, have been turned over to Willie Shields, who will race them for the balance of the season. The remainder of the Dymont horses have been retained by Walter quarters at their own farm at Harris, Ontario. The sprinter Charlie Eastman, who was claimed a short time back, ran in the name and colors of J. W. Schorr yesterday afternoon.

Senator Gibson, the club's President, recently returned from his old country trip, was on hand to do the honors. The officials were: Stewards, Hon. Wm. Gibson, P. D. Crerar and Joseph A. Murphy; judges, J. J. Burke and Francis Nelson; timekeepers, George Gow and W. C. McMillen; starter, A. B. Dade; paddock and patrol judge, Ernest Hall; clerk of the scales and handicapper, F. W. Sixth race—6 furlongs, selling, main course, $400 added—Twilight Queen, 108 (Glass), 5 to 2, 7 to 10, out, 1; Bonhomme, 104 (Garner), 3 to 1, 5 to 5, out, 2; Waponecs, 115 (Dugan), even, 1 to 3, out, 3. Time, 1:13 1/5. Star Thistle also ran.

TORONTO LOSES LAST GAME TO BALTIMORE.

Rochester Wins the Eastern League Pennant and Team Will be Tendered a Testimonial—Pittsburg Wins National Rag.

BALTIMORE, SEPT. 29.—Baltimore defeated Toronto yesterday in the closing game of the Eastern League season by a score of 5 to 1, the Orioles getting to McGinley in five out of their eight innings, but errors played an important part in the scoring. Vandy's wild throw in the first being responsible for the first run, while in the second, Schmidt's triple resulted in a score, and in the third Vaughan's sin of commission gave the Orioles a chance to have a man on third, from where he scored on a sacrifice hit.

At Washington—Chicago hit Gray hard and won handily from Washington yesterday 5 to 1. The batting of Dougherty was the feature. Score: R. H. E. Washington 1 7 3 Chicago 5 11 0 Batteries—Gray and Hardy; Olmsted and Payne.

PITTSBURG CLINCH PENNANT. At Pittsburg—The Pittsburg Baseball Club clinched the 1909 pennant of the National League, though the local team was defeated by New York by a score of 13 to 9. Philadelphia's victory over Chicago assured the pennant for Pittsburg. A wild demonstration was enacted on Forbes' Field at the close of the game. Before the game Manager Fred Clark, of the Pittsburg team, was presented with a purse of gold amounting to $600, the gift of local baseball enthusiasts. Mayor Wm. A. Magee, of this city, made the presentation speech. Yesterday's game was a hitting contest, with the visitors having the better of the argument. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburg 9 12 3 New York 13 13 2 Batteries—Wills, Phillipi, Brandon, Moore, Gibson and O'Connor; Ames and Wilson.

At Chicago—Chicago assured Pittsburg the pennant of the National League by losing to Philadelphia, 2 to 3. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 2 7 0 Philadelphia 3 8 0 Batteries—Reulbach, Schwenck and Archer; Moore and Dooin.

At Cincinnati—Brooklyn won from Cincinnati in the eleventh inning, 4 to 1. The score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 2 7 0 Brooklyn 1 6 3 Batteries—Spade and Clarke; Knetzer and Marshall.

At St. Louis—St. Louis and Boston broke even. Ritchie outpitched Raleigh in the first game, and won 2 to 1 contest. In the second, St. Louis batted Brown and Mattern for five runs in the fifth, winning, 7 to 3. The score: R. H. E. St. Louis 1 6 3 Boston 2 4 0 Batteries—Raleigh and Bliss; Ritchie and Smith.

Second game—R. H. E. St. Louis 7 7 6 Boston 3 10 2 Batteries—Harmon and Bliss; Brown, Mattern and Reardon.

IN THE BIG LEAGUES. At Philadelphia—Philadelphia defeated Cleveland yesterday afternoon 7 to 0. Young's curves were hit hard, and he was taken off the rubber at the end of the sixth inning. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 7 9 3 Cleveland 0 5 3 Batteries—Morgan and Lapp, Young and Easley.

At New York—Detroit's last appearance in New York this season was marked by a 5 to 0 victory, the visitors thus making it three out of four on the series and maintaining their lead of .016 over the Athletics.

Both Donovan and Wilson pitched gilded ball, the Detroit receiving superior support and being invincible with men on bases. Two of New York's errors helped Detroit to runs, the visitors also using two of Wilson's bases on balls to advantage. Score: R. H. E. Detroit 5 4 1 New York 0 5 3 Batteries—Donovan and Stange; Wilson and Blair.

STUDYING THE NOISES. Cause of Every Noise Should Be Sought For. A careful study of noises, their effects and causes should be made by every automobile owner who drives his own car. The man who is not absolutely devoid of "ear" in a short time will learn the true note of his engine when it is running at its best, and any deviation from the regular sound will serve as a warning that something is not just right. If an entirely strange noise manifests itself it must have a cause, and in most cases the cause is a detrimental one. It means some derangement or bad adjustment, and the driver should not be satisfied until he has diagnosed it. Every time he does so it increases his running at its best, and any deviation ensues on the next occasion. The same applies to other parts besides the engine. It may be the transmission gear or it may be in the gear box, or the noise may be caused by worn shackles bolts. Wherever the wear is it will be of an accumulative nature, and consequently the driver should not wait until it becomes excessive, but should at once set about finding it. Sometimes it is a trivial matter, due perhaps to a rattle in the side doors, faulty packing of the acetylene lamp generator, a loose wind shield or something of that sort. No matter what it may be, however, the cause should be sought for.

Can't Fool Him. "I knew a sexton in East Hannibal, N. Y. said the metropolitan business man, 'who was simple minded, and much disturbed in consequence by the neighborhood boys. They persisted in ringing the bell on all sorts of unrighteous occasions, so he laid down the law to them. You needn't think you can fool me, boys,' he told them. 'I'd know whether it was me or somebody else a-ringing that bell, even if I was six miles away.'"

GRIDIRON GOSSIP

From present indications the Ottawa Rough Riders' game with Montreal on Saturday should be a hummer. Ottawa has had some trouble in getting a number of last year's team out to practice, but they are generally coming round and may be all on hand again before very long. George Kennedy, the old reliable, set them a good example when he got into the game on Monday and his appearance will likely have the effect of bringing the others out. Even if they do not reconsider their decisions to retire how-

COMMENT AND GOSSIP

The entertainment provided by the Hamilton Jockey Club yesterday afternoon was on a par with anything seen on the Canadian circuit. The betting was pretty well distributed in the seven races, and although six favorites won, the talent did not make a very big haul.

We put a little bet on Dorothy Webb yesterday. Not because we thought she would win, but just to encourage Hamilton industry.

The Tiger executive certainly made no mistake in electing Ben Simpson captain of the seniors. He keeps the team working when they are on the field, and from the present outlook the players will find it better condition for their first game this year than they have been for some seasons back.

The announcement that Cartmell, the wonderful American sprinter, is going to join the ranks of the professionals will be received here with regret. It was hoped that Cartmell would have another opportunity of bucking up with the speedy Yankee.

With a smell of frost in the air, the barbers reporting a distinct slump in the hair-cutting trade, and an occasional man getting a rib cracked or his head kicked if it is only fair to conclude that the football season is upon us. But if further evidence is needed, Ottawa is prepared to furnish it by looking for the reinstatement of Jack Ryan. Time was when the wires would flash from Kingston: "Chaucer Elliott has been reinstated; play ball!" And Ottawa has furnished a successor to the great and only Chaucer.

Harry Thomson displayed wonderful pluck for a youngster when his ankle was broken yesterday at the Cricket Grounds. Although the pain must have been excruciating, he did not make a sound to show what he was suffering. Happily, Dr. Kappel was on the grounds and everything that medical science could do was done to alleviate the pain.

At End of Kite String. At Worcester, Mass., Ralph A. Cooper, of Boston, who has been experimenting in kite flying at the home of his uncle in Rochdale, near Leicester, took a sail skyward at the end of a group of box-kites he had tied together for experimental purposes.

At End of Kite String. The boy is twelve years old and weighs two pounds. He went to the top of Clark's Hill to the land of that vicinity, near Greenville Pond. He fastened six kites together in the form of a Maltese cross. They measured about nine feet in width and height. The kites were sent up, and it required two boys to hold them. When at a height of 300 feet Cooper relieved his companion and thought he was able to handle them himself.

No Relation. Two small boys, alike as two peas, were watching a man mending his automobile on Park drive the other day. "What's your name?" asked the man. The boys looked at each other and finally one of them spoke. "Johnny Black," he replied.

How to Weigh Without Scales. Some so-called useful hints are amusing, and here is one from a news-paper. It is a method of finding the weight of a pig without weighing it, and this is how you proceed. Take a tape or piece of string, and take the chest measurement; then the length of the animal from the shoulder to the tail. Multiply the chest measurement by itself, then by the length of the body, and finally by 87.5. The result will give approximately the weight of the animal in kilograms.

OTHER MARKETS.—GRAIN AND PRODUCE.—Chicago.—Wheat—Market opened strong and continued so during the day. The advance was due to shorts covering the light receipts, and strength in the southwest markets being the principal cause. The market also showed a bullish influence on a good many people.

The fireflies twinkled in the tall grasses like myriads of tiny stars. "You John Luther Elderberry giggled the pretty girl in the pink subonnet, 'I am surprised.'"

"Suprised at what, Cynthia?" drawled the lanky youth at her side. "Why, at your standing there and kissing a lone, defenceless girl that way? 'Oh, don't worry about that, Cynthia. Here is another way.' And the moon man came out from behind a cloud and grinned until it seemed his face would crack.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PLAYING FOOTBALL

Hey, kids, want to learn to play football? Of course you do, because you're lively, healthy boys, full of enthusiasm and red blood. The Times has secured six stories, written for boys only, which tell just how to play the great fall game.

PASSING THE BALL. Before the team is picked, the individuals must practice passing and catching, kicking and tackling, falling on the ball, making and blocking holes, giving and blocking a straight arm. Passing is important. The game depends as much upon good passing as upon kicking and running. Unless properly passed the receiver can't handle the ball. The pass should be at or below the waist.

At End of Kite String. The boy is twelve years old and weighs two pounds. He went to the top of Clark's Hill to the land of that vicinity, near Greenville Pond. He fastened six kites together in the form of a Maltese cross. They measured about nine feet in width and height. The kites were sent up, and it required two boys to hold them. When at a height of 300 feet Cooper relieved his companion and thought he was able to handle them himself.

No Relation. Two small boys, alike as two peas, were watching a man mending his automobile on Park drive the other day. "What's your name?" asked the man. The boys looked at each other and finally one of them spoke. "Johnny Black," he replied.
