LEMIEUX PLEADS FOR STATE CABLE

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—(Special).—"This house stands adjourned till February, January 10."

Speaker Sproule corrected himself
before it was too late, and the parliamentary advocates of the vaster vacation heaved a sigh as they realized that their aspirations which had not dared look beyond January 17, had trembled on the brink of being more than realized.

The concluding instalment of the debate on the "spoils system" to-day degenerated largely into a frequent repetition of the "you're another" style of argument. Liberal orators declaimed of the swing of the axe and the fall of the razor edge blade of the guillotine, and J. H. Sinclair, the Jeremiah of Guysboro by the sea, even traced his gory trail back into the mythical age of Tory iniquity "before 98."

To them a sturdy band of ministerial supporters laid bare the sins of the Laurier government, compared with which the peccadilloes of the new administration—if there were any,
which there weren't—were as white
as wool.

It was an inspiring sight.

That Commission Again.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley again brought up the case of the boundary waters commission. The late government's recommendations he said, had been approved by the British government.

The commission was a tribunal, not to act for either government, but to do justice as between the governments of Canada and the United States.

When the house met the premier read a letter from Lord Strathcona telling of the proposed cut in cable rates, and Hon. L. P. Pelletier read a cable from Postmaster Samuels informing him that the cut would go into effect on January 1, 1912.

Hon. Rodolphe Lamieue congratulated his successor on reaping where he himself had sown. It was only the first instalment, he said. There was a movement on foot in Britain for a bolder step.

"We should have a government owned cable. I think the time has come when the cable monopoly should be restrained by the construction by the government of a state owned cable."

An Inherited Weakness.

J. H. Sinclair (Guysboro), in resuming the debate on the "spoils system"
harked back to the time of the Conservative administration, before 1896, presumably to show that the passion for expulsion ran in the blood of the party. Under that government, he said 84 employees of the I. C. R. had been dismissed, and the axe had been kept swinging.

Coming down to the present time
Mr. Sinclair related samples of the dismissals that were going on in Nova

COMPENSATION FOR RAIL- WAYMEN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(Can.
Press).—A tentative bill abolishing the present common law and statutory liability for the personal injury and death of employees in the service of the interstate railroads and substituting definite compensation irrespective of negligence, was completed to-day by the federal employers' and workmen's compensation commission.

The commission intends to recommend this measure to congress. It will, however, hear representatives of both sides
on the merits of the bill, beginning next Thursday.

Canon Ellegood Left $150,000.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—Some surprise
is evinced at the extent of the estate left by the late Canon Ellegood. As shown by the will, the estate consists of about $150,000, largely in real estate, stocks and bonds. The bulk of this estate goes to a niece of the deceased, Mrs. Florence Townsend of Wimbledon, who is a daughter of the late John Crawford of Verdun. Charitable institutions get numerous bequests, $20,000 in all.

May Be Woman Governor.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 7.—"Her Excellency the Governor of California,"
may soon become a familiar title if a bill, swept thru the lower house of the legislature to-day by unanimous vote, finds its way to the statute books. The measure would open every elective office of the state to its feminine citizens.

MANY SPUR LINES TO RADIATE FROM T.N.O.

Premier Promises That Extension to Elk Lake Is Only Start on Big Northern Ontario Plans.

ORILLIA, Dec. 7.—(Special).—That the spur line which the T. & N. O.
Railway intends to build to Elk Lake
next summer, as announced yesterday by J. L. Englehart, chairman of the commission, is only the initial step in a series of spur lines reaching right and left along the whole route
of the main line of the T. & N. O.,
and tapping that part of the province
with a chain of government railway
extensions was definitely stated by Sir James Whitney tonight. "The plans contemplated would," said the premier,
"go a long way towards opening up
the entire northern part of the province for settlement."

An enthusiastic audience greeted the premier tonight. There was none better since the campaign started.

Bubbling Enthusiasm.

The opera house was jammed to the doors, and dozens of people crowded into the aisles and stood on the backs
of seats to get a view of the platform.
Hundreds were turned away from the door. It was a bouquet of white mums that Sir James got to-night, and the presentation was made by little Miss Mona Bailey of Orillia.

Sir James spoke effectively for about an hour and his remarks were punctuated with applause.

J. I. Hartt, the candidate, made a spirited address and was complimented for it by the premier.

R. J. Sanderson, president of the East Simcoe Liberal-Conservative Association, presided, and the speakers
were William Finlayson of Midland,
and J. I. Hartt, the Liberal-Conservative candidate in East Simcoe.

Friend of Workmen.

Sir James was particularly emphatic in commending the investigations that were being made previous to formulating the Ontario act for compensating injured workmen. "I have no doubt that we will get the best compensation for injured workmen act of any country in the world," said Sir James, after explaining that Chief Justice Meredith was investigating similar acts of compensation in different countries.

Sir James referred to the T. & N.
O. Railway as the living link that connects the transcontinental Grand Trunk Pacific with the railways of old Ontario going to the tide waters and thence to the Old Land.

The premier then referred to the numerous spur lines which were contemplated, and of which the one which would be run to Elk Lake next summer was the first.

Premier a Poor Man.

"I have a brotherly sympathy for Mr. Hartt, I understand he is being attacked because he is poor. So am I, but I have always been hoping to get rich and I haven't given up hope yet,"
he said.

"I have said," continued Sir James,
"that there is no such thing as a billionaire, neither is there a millionaire. People say Sir James Whitney is afraid of the school question, but after I explain matters to you, you can decide whether I am afraid of it or not."

"Now what is the trouble?" It is said, and perhaps there may be some cause for it; that instruction in the public schools is conveyed in the French language. In some instances, after the children are old enough to understand the English language, Dr. Mercier is investigating this question and if any cause for complaint is found the government will rectify it, no matter whose corns are trodden on."

For Women's Suffrage.

J. I. Hartt said that altho the ladies cannot vote it wasn't his fault, because he had for a long time been in favor of the enfranchisement of women. He thought the electors of East Simcoe would not be swayed by the argument that a wealthy man
was needed to be their representative in the legislature.

With regard to the development of New Ontario, Mr. Hartt said there was danger in too rapid development
there, on account of so many different nationalities being represented. "The people of New Ontario are satisfied," he said, "and they showed this by electing by acclamation Hon. Mr.
Hearst, the minister of lands, forests
and mines."

William Finlayson of Midland referred especially to the hydro-electric power scheme in Midland and Pentagon, and the great boon it already was to that district. Electric power was actually being supplied to Midland at exactly the same price as in Toronto.

TAFT INCLINES TO GERMANY WANTS ARBITRATION TREATY

President Appears To Have Talked Quite Freely to German Newspaper Correspondent—Will Propose Reductions in Tariff—U. S. Will Not Back Up Shuster.

BERLIN, Dec. 7.—(Can. Press).—The Tageblatt publishes under a Washington date what purports to be an interview with President Taft on the subjects of international arbitration armaments, Mr. Shuster and the trusts.

According to the correspondent,
the president is most anxious for an arbitration treaty with Germany, of whose love of peace he is firmly convinced. He foresees that all nations which sign arbitration treaties with the U. S. will duplicate these among themselves. An international tribunal, he thinks, can be based on this structure, with the necessary executive power to enforce its decisions. The first decision of such a tribunal would give the signal for a successive limitation of armaments, for which there is no other prospect.

President Taft, says the correspondent, believes that the Panama canal
by bringing the nations commercially closer together will work for peace.
The canal will be open to all nations,
with a natural limitation in the case
of war.

After giving the opinion of the president in regard to the trusts
which covered much the same ground
as the recent message, the correspondent says that the president is convinced that reorganization is necessary, and that this should be effected without the disturbance of commercial progress.

Against High Tariff.

The president recognized in the course of an interview that a tariff which was too high favored the building up of monopolies and was a continual temptation to form small trusts, which were often more oppressive to the consumer than the big ones. He was, says the correspondent, conscious that he was elected upon the expectation of an honorable tariff reform. He hopes to submit his proposals on December 10, to the tariff commission.

President Taft suggested that the law courts offer a remedy to German importers who are protesting that Canadian paper arrangements constitute discrimination.

Referring to the position of W. Morgan Shuster, the American, who is acting as treasurer-general in Persia, President Taft said that he went to Persia in his private capacity and that intervention by the U. S. was excluded.

President Taft thrust the interview showed unmistakably that his sympathies were with Germany.

NAVIGATION SEASON ENDS

Big and Extensive Harbor Improvement That Will Make Toronto a Real Port, Expected by Next Spring.

At two o'clock this morning the Macassa came into Toronto harbor for the last time in 1911 and marked the closing of navigation. The insurance policies for this year ran out at 12 o'clock last night and all vessels which left port after that hour traveled without insurance. The Macassa left Hamilton about 11 o'clock. She was the first passenger boat to enter the bay in the spring and the last to dock
in the fall.

To-night there will be no lights on the gap and entrances to the harbor
after nightfall will be practically impossible. A few sail boats, and an occasional freighter may yet dock,
but they will only be tramp steamers and run into Toronto to lay here overwinter.

For the past three months the vessels running in and out of Toronto have been gradually lessening. The great palace steamers of the Ontario
and Richelieu Navigation Company were the first to tie up. About the same time the larger ferry boats were run into winter quarters and a few days later the Niagara vessels made their last trip.

The closing of navigation this season marks an epoch, next year promise to bring with it many new improvements to the harbor and several new steamers, new companies,
and, in short, a new era in the line
of navigation.

Last of Old Harbor.

Two hundred thousand dollars and possibly thrice that amount will be spent in harbor improvements alone before another season closes. The new harbor commission is planning big things and will doubtless change
the entire aspect of Toronto's waterfront. Channels will be deepened, not merely close to the wharves,
but stretching across to Hanlan's Point, Island Park, the eastern and western entrances.

During the past summer the shallow waters were a constant source of trouble to the big steamers. The water was lower than any year since 1901.
Toronto would have been visited by many large vessels had it possessed an adequate waterway. More than once the Hamilton steamers scraped bottom in the western gap and in bad

A. F. OF L. CALLS FOR FEDERAL ENQUIRY

Methods of McNamara's Are Roundly Denounced, But Organized Labor Believes
That Industrial Conditions
Incited Violence—"Tyrannical Lawlessness" Shown.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(Can.
Press).—Organized labor in America has no desire to condone the crimes of the McNamaras, according to a statement authorized to-night by the American Federation of Labor. The statement, which was issued at the close of a three-hour meeting behind closed doors, denounces the McNam-aras and continues:

"It is cruelly unjust to hold the men of the labor movement either legally or morally responsible for the crimes of an individual member. Insofar as we have the right to speak, we welcome any investigation which either federal or state courts may undertake.
The American labor movements and its friends are loyal Americans and seek to obtain the abolition of wrongs
and the attainment of their rights
within the law."

The statement is signed by every member of the McNamara committee except F. M. Ryan, president of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union, with which the convicted Los Angeles Times dynamit-ers were prominently connected officially. Mr. Ryan returned to Indianapolis early to-day.

"Had he remained, however," said
President Gompers positively. "I am sure that Mr. Ryan would have added his name. He was called back to Indianapolis by pressure of business. He did not see the statement, but I am sure he is in hearty accord with its sentiments."

No Knowledge of Guilt.

As to their knowledge of the crime
to which the McNamara confessed, the committee in their statement assert:

"We here and now, individually and collectively, declare that the first knowledge or intimation of their guilt was conveyed by the press in their confessions of guilt."

"From the outset we assured all contributors and the public generally,
that we would publish an account of the money received, from whom received and to whom paid. A report in full will be made first to the executive council of the American Federation of Labor at its meeting at Washington, January 8, 1912."

Further than this Mr. Gompers would say nothing in regard to the defence money.

"Organized labor of America," the statement continues, "has no desire

Proprietors of Rink Charged With Discrimination—Why Studholme Didn't Meet Duke.

HAMILTON, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—"Poor as I am, I will give the Conservatives every cent they spend for the place, if they will allow me one hour on the platform at Britannia Park tomorrow night, after the premier has spoken," was the challenge thrown out by Allan Studholme, at a mass meeting in Kennedy's Hall to-night.

The challenge was prompted by the peculiar circumstances which have been disclosed in connection with the renting of the rink for Sir James' meeting. The Labor party is to get the place a few days ago but were told by the manager that he was not allowed to let it for public meetings. The Conservatives, however, were able to secure the rink for Friday night, and when this became known the Labor men thought they might get it for Saturday night, but when application was made to William Condon, one of the owners last night, the applicant was curtly informed that "there is nothing doing. You can't have it." The place is owned by William Condon and William Daniels, two hotel men.

Two Labor Rallies.
In spite of the obvious discrimination which has been exercised against the labor men, they have arranged two meetings for tomorrow night. George H. Roberts, the British Labor party whip, will speak in Swales Hall on Barton-street east, and another meeting will be held in Crown Point, in the interests of Wm. Barrett, the Labor candidate in South Wentworth.

Didn't Slight Duke.
In pursuance of its tactics the Spectator to-day attempted to make capital out of the fact that Allan Studholme did not attend the civil banquet in honor of the Duke of Connaught last Friday evening. The Spectator said that Studholme had slighted the Duke by his action. Mr. Studholme in very few words explained the matter to-night.

"Full dress clothes were prescribed for the occasion, and as I am unfor-possesses wonderful reconstructive qualities as a tonic and tissue builder. Many physicians strongly urge its use for the debility which follows maternity and also for nursing mothers. It is positively free from anything of an injurious nature and can be used with perfect safety even for a small child as long as directions are followed.

You can safeguard the children against croup and colds by always keeping Wilson's Invalids' Port at hand. It is pleasant to the taste and its ingredients are of proven value for throat and lung troubles. It is wonderfully successful in the prevention of croup, whooping cough and other fatal diseases of the children.

Always have Wilson's Invalids' Port in the house. In the hour of emergency, when coughs and colds seize your child, you will be glad you have followed this advice.

Dr. J. F. MACAULAY, C.M., Grand Maran, N. B., says: "I used 'Wilson's Invalids' Port' in my own family, my wife being very weak and anemic with no appetite, following maternity, and was highly pleased with results. I gave her in all cases. Especially beneficial in my wife in convalescence from severe La Grippe cases. I would consider it an excellent tonic wine, mild and palatable."

fortunate enough not to have such attire, and am too proud to beg, borrow or steal it. I simply could not go," said Mr. Studholme.

Lockout Cleans Air.
An important feature of to-night's meeting was the appearance of Hiram Dickhout, late candidate for the federal house, who, in very plain language disposed of The Spectator's charge that Allan Studholme had influenced him to run for the Dominion house and had then thrown him down.

"Any statement that Mr. Studholme had anything to do with bringing me out, is absolutely untrue," declared Mr. Dickhout. "Not only did he not try to get me to run, but if I had hearkened to him, I would not have engaged in the contest. He explained to me the obstacles I was up against, and told me that I would lose my deposit, which I did. Others thought different, and I made the race," continued the ex-candidate. He then stated that The Spectator had wanted him to sign a paper implicating Studholme and that he had refused to sign because the contents of the document misrepresented the facts.

Appeal for Studholme.
He further stated that no one had urged him to come to the meeting, and make his statement, but that he did so simply from a sense of duty. Mr. Dickhout spoke at some length, and advised every workingman in East Hamilton to vote for the labor candidates, saying that if Studholme were not sent back to the legislature, it would be an everlasting disgrace to the constituency.

John A. Flett reminded the workingmen that Studholme was confronted with such opposition as no other candidate in the province had to meet, and declared that the Conservatives had set out to crush labor. He said that if the government had been looking after the welfare of the workingmen, it would surely have initiated some measure for their benefit within the last seven years, whereas nothing had been done in that direction. If Premier Whitney was in sympathy as a government adviser on labor mat-

Diamonds and Confidence

When a firm can establish itself in the hearts of the Canadian people within a short period of five years and do the enormous volume of business in diamonds exclusively that we enjoyed the past year, and can see its trade jump in leaps and bounds year by year, there must be much in both the firm and its diamonds to depend on. Stop and consider what this fact means. Isn't it evidence enough for the most skeptical that our values must be exceptional to attract trade away from the oldest established houses? If we retailed diamonds at ordinary prices it would take us 20 years to build up the trade we now enjoy, and this encourages us to offer even greater values.

Our diamonds are not selected by a watchmaker or jeweler who constitutes himself an expert because he carries a handful of stones and sells on occasion, and handles them as a side line on consignment, or on long-term notes, but by a practical diamond expert, who has been a cutter himself.

We deal in precious stones exclusively.

See our \$25, \$50 and \$100 solitaires, weighing almost $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$ and $1\frac{1}{2}$, respectively; blue white and almost perfect cutting, shape and brilliancy.

These are as good value as any diamonds in Canada.

had been done in that direction. If Premier Whitney was in sympathy as a government adviser on labor matters, said Mr. Flett.

Wm. Barrett, labor candidate in South Wentworth, spoke briefly. He declared that a party man had to follow his leader.

BRANTFORD, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Geo. Ross, postoffice superintendent, and C. H. Hunter, public works department, were here to-day looking over sites for Brantford's proposed new post-office. An official report will be submitted and it is confidently expected that this city will secure the new government buildings. The late government offered to provide a new building if the city provided a site, but nothing materialized. The Borden government is being urged to appropriate a building site for that purpose.

HYDRO BYLAW IN PARIS.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—At a general meeting of the board of trade to-day, the advisability of securing hydro-electric service for Paris was discussed. Harry Aeres, government engineer, was present and gave an estimate of some $13,000 to install the system in Paris. It is probable a bylaw will be submitted to the ratepayers in the near future.

SUFFRAGETTES OBJECT.

The Woman Suffrage Association have sent out a letter regarding the meetings of the women's branch of the Centre and South Toronto Conservative Club, where George H. Gooderham said that nine of ten women didn't want the franchise. The suffragettes' letter asserts that Mr. Gooderham assumed to speak for the women of Canada without their permission or consent, and had no evidence to corroborate the truth of his statement. The letter alleges that "the speaker concealed the facts for political reasons."

Prof. Michael Hambourg giving the audience an unexpected treat with his solo Madame Innes-Taylor looked very handsome in white satin gown with touches of pearl emerald and received a large number of beautiful bouquets.

Mrs. Allan Sullivan of Madison-avenue entertained at a musicale this evening for Mrs. George Hees, who wore black satin with pearls and diamonds and a pink satin veiled with grey and diamond necklaces and other ornaments. The decorations were of chrysanthemums and Mrs. Stephen Hees, with the Misses Cotton, was in charge of the tea-room.

The Hon. George A. Cox and Mrs. Cox are giving a musicale this evening for the officers and staff of the Canada Loan and Savings Co. and the Imperial Guarantee and Accident Co. The program will be rendered by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Miss Mary and Mr. Russell Maclean.

ROWELL AT ST. THOMAS

Once Again He Brings Premier as Coward on School Issue.

ST. THOMAS, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—N. W. Rowell, K.C., arrived this afternoon from Sarnia and was met by friends at the depot. Later he was driven about the city, and the Grand Opera House was well filled this evening. Many Conservatives were present out of curiosity and about one-fourth of the audience were in honor of H. S. McDiarmid, Liberal candidate, for West Elgin, opened the meeting with an address, the burden of which was his appreciation of the honor it would be to represent West Elgin in the local legislature.

Mr. Rowell denounced Sir James Whitney as the face of the fact a difficult question and challenged the premier to state whether he agreed with Dr. Reame or Hon. J. J. Foy, on bilingual schools. He declared that Sir James was trying to evade the issue.

Mr. Rowell declined to say whether the license system was more manipulated under one party than the other.

"Not a single patient has ever been refused admission to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives because of poverty."—A statement that throughout a decade—since 1902, when the hospital was opened—has never called for the slightest qualification.

A Doctor's Appeal

Dr. A. S. McCaig, of Sault Ste. Marie, writes—
"I have under my care a young woman 19 years of age who is in the incipient stage of Pulmonary Tuberculosis. Her parents live away back in the country, are poor, and unfortunately have not the means of caring carefully for their children. What would be the chances for having the girl admitted to the Free Hospital for Consumptives at Gravenhurst? I have interested some friends in the case, and they will provide her with clothing and funds to take her to the Sanitarium."

From an Ex-Patient

I am delighted to be able to tell you that I got examined the other day, and the doctor said I was a cure, or just about one. I am delighted to hear such good news, and hasten to tell you. E.B.

"Every needy consumptive must be cared for."—Motto of Trustees.

Tuberculosis, it has been said, "loves a shining mark." It clutches in its relentless grasp the young man just established in his profession or trade, the young mother in her family, the father upon whose working ability the family depend, the young college graduate with anticipations of high achievements, or it cuts off the genius who has already become famous in the midst of his career. The work at Muskoka is to help stamp out this terrible, devastating, home-wrecking disease, for consumption is a home disease. And it is being stamped out. The story of the work at Muskoka during the past ten years is full of encouragement. The young life can be saved—the bread-winner can again bring support to his family. The tears of sorrowing ones can be dried—their loved ones spared them, if everyone will help a little. Will you help, that the work of the

may be further extended—and provision made for the 157 patients now in residence?

Government
Report

Extracts from Report of Provincial Inspector of Hospitals, Dr. R. Bruce-Smith, July 22, 1911.—
There is a larger number of patients under treatment than ever before.

There is every evidence to indicate that the institution is carefully conducted, and that the patients are well cared for.

The dietary is excellent, and the cheerful condition of the patients is indicative of a spirit of hopefulness that must be regarded as highly satisfactory.

The growth of this institution and the increased number of patients emphasize the need for greater financial support.

The patients are provided with wholesome food, the best that can be purchased. The quality of the food is evidently carefully looked after.

"No work has been undertaken in Canada fraught with so great possibilities."—Dr. Wm. Osler.

Rugby

Campbell
Is Captain

Note and Comment

As was previously expected, Peter Campbell follows the footsteps of Jack Maynard and will act as Varsity captain in his junior year. Maynard will be there in 1918 to assist Campbell to land the championship again. Just as Peter helped Jack the season before last, Maynard, the stalwart centre half, was thought to have a chance for the honor, but he will be content to boot out his final year in the rank and file.

There was a precedent for giving the title to Maynard a second time. Eddy Barr leading the team in 1905 and '06. The brothers Biggs were captains in 1902 and 1904, while the record for keeping the glory in the family is held by the Senkiers, Edmund, Harry and Ivan being Rugby captains at Varsity in successive years, '07, '08 and '09 or thereabouts. That was in the days of the old-fashioned scrumming, when there was no such thing as a 34,000 game.

Official figures give the paid attendance at the Varsity-Argonaut final game as 12,070, the general estimate was 15,000, and many had it 18,000, with some as high as 20,000. The excess in estimation was about as usual. No greater or more frequent mistake is ever made than in giving the attendance at such like events. There is a fairly accurate method that might be adopted with accuracy, viz., make your guess and then cut the number in two.

McMaster kept up the best traditions of that university by winning the Intercollegiate soccer championship the season just closed yesterday without a loss, defeating Vics 2-1, Dents 3-2, Vets 8-0 and Knox 1-0, scoring 14 goals to their opponents' 2.

A year ago there was good ice at this time in the local rinks, with the curlers and hockey players getting in a splendid preliminary canter. Now you can play football and laugh at the dealer who sells coal. So there was unnecessary worry concerning anticipated Rugby ties that might have put back the Varsity-Argo game until to-morrow and there would have been no need of loads of loam or the steam roller.

75th Anniversary Of Caer Howell Bowling Club

The 75th anniversary of the Caer-Howell Bowling Club, the oldest club in America, was celebrated last night in the Merchants' Hotel. Some 60 members were present, with the president for many years, Mr. C. P. Mead, in the chair. The occasion happened to be also Mr. Mead's birthday. The guest list was a short one, including the usual toasts to the King and country and Dominion and Ontario Lawn Bowling Associations.

Among those present were: J. E. Coad, president; E. C. Davies and J. Thompson, hon. secretaries; F. E. Coad, past secretary; E. M. Carroll and Geo. Wright, life members.

The various prizes won by the different members during the past season were presented and handsome ones they were, too. Speeches were made by officials in proposing the toasts and in reply by the various winners of prizes and by Messrs. Coad, E. C. Davies and Geo. Wright, life members.

Members of the club seized the opportunity to present Messrs. Wright and Carroll with valuable souvenirs in recognition of their allowing the club the use of the old Caer-Howell grounds.

Barrow Not After Lynch's Job.—NEWARK, N.J., Dec. 7.—Radical changes in the Eastern League are looked for when that organization meets in New York on Monday, according to a statement issued to-night by President Edward G. Barrow. One of the moves will be for a change in the name, which the organization has had for twenty years.

"There is nothing in the rumor that I am after Lynch's job," says Barrow, referring to the National League president. "Tom Lynch is a fine fellow and is deserving of re-election for a longer term. There will be no objection to my re-election for a five year term. I am satisfied with my present salary, $7000, and would refuse an increase."

Mr. Barrow replied vigorously to Charles T. Chapin, the Rochester Club owner, who gave out a statement declaring that Barrow did not know the baseball game regarding post-season games. Chapin insisting that inter-league meant games within the same league.

"The report that the Eastern League overlooked the National Association rule 25 is false," said Barrow. "I consulted matter, and it looks as if Chapin does not know the meaning of the word inter-league. The National Commission would not bother with the matter because it was not an inter-league affair."

"A desire to make the Eastern League a huge success is my sole object in life just now."

RUGBY FINAL FIGURES.

Official figures of the Varsity-Argonaut game give the total attendance as 12,070 and total receipts $14,142, made up as follows:

Main stand 327 at $1.50	$4,905.00
South stand 322 at $1.50	$4,830.00
East bleachers, 725 at $1.00	$7,250.00
Stand, room E, 125 at $1.00	$1,250.00
Standing room W, 111 at $1.00	$1,110.00
Gen. admission, 1265 at 50c	$632.50
Total (12,070)	$14,142.00

The expenses include a large list of incidentals like badges, sign remuneration for gatekeepers, care of field, etc. The main items are:

Rent of field	$200.00
Fee to C.R.P.U.	$100.00
Printing	$5.00
Temporary stand, C.R.P.U.	$100.00
Allowance for new stand	$100.00
Total expenses	$405.00

The total expenses amounted to $4,905.00, leaving a profit of $11,667.50, each team taking one-half.

The Varsity' complimentary list amounted all told to 135 tickets.

STANLEY CUP GAMES WITH SIX-MAN RULE

Contradictory Stories on the Subject—Tumsehl Will Play Games—Toronto Doubtful.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 7.—There has been a lot of differing reports given out as to what the trustees of the Stanley Cup will do in regard to the six-man rule, in as far as it concerns Stanley Cup games. The last report had it that they would insist on the six-man team in all the cup games and would force the western or other league teams to conform to that rule.

Mr. Foran, one of the trustees, denies that they have given out any information whatever as regards their decision in the case.

"We are not going to cross bridges before we come to them," said Mr. Foran. "When the challenges come in then we will decide and not before. Any reports as to our making a decision before that will have no truth in them."

Mr. Foran had heard nothing about the N. H. A. refusing to have the Stanley Cup any longer as representing the championship of the world.

D'Arcy McGee, president of the Ottawa club, also had heard nothing of it. Mr. McGee stated the other day that the Stanley Cup would occupy the same position as before and he re-affirms this statement. There will be no change in the rules governing Stanley Cup competitions, with the exception of the six-man team and that will be decided upon with the arrival of the first challenge.

The circumstances are decidedly unfortunate for the Montreal, but the amateur clubs will be pretty well looked after at the Excelsior rink and the situation of the six-man team is not as bad as it seems. The league will be the same as before and the six-man team will be the same as before.

Both rinks are in readiness for any challenge that might come along, but the fair and mild signs that the weather men is handing out make things look rather blue for immediate ice.

Parties are said to have secured Jerry McGee's rink for the first time, but they are not sure.

There will be no less than 13 junior O.H.A. teams in the city this winter, which means four more than the town juniors are also holding up their end.

Clinton Street Methodist hockey team, met last evening and elected officers as follows: Hon. president, Rev. J. W. Wilkinson; hon. vice-president, J. E. Short; president, C. A. Vico; vice-president, Jack Turner, 781 West Queen (phone 1234); secretary, Harold Wilkinson; captain, seniors, Frank Wilkinson; captain, juniors, Harold Wilkinson. Several teams have already arranged to play on Clinton rink, which has been enlarged and improved this season. There are still hours open for those desirous of securing ice.

Jarvis Street Collegiate Hockey Club was organized yesterday. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Dr. Hardy; president, P. F. Munro; secretary, treasurer, P. S. Mills; captain, E. J. Dupp. The club has been organized in the Eastern in the new rating. Representatives of the three leagues will meet with the National Commission and ratify the peace pact before it is accepted by the Eastern League.

"Among the things that will come before the meeting for consideration will be the proposed plan to re-elect President Edward Barrow for a term of five years. Interference in the scope of the Eastern League meeting will bring together magnates of two countries—United States and Canada."

"The magnates will also be called upon to settle the case of Jack Ryan, who claims that he has a three-year contract with the Skaters, which has two years to run, and he has appealed to the Eastern League for a decision in the matter."

It is also planned to decide upon some change in the opening games in the league. One plan is to have New York and Jersey City open with each other on alternate dates, and to have the same plan put in force in Rochester and Buffalo. The Canadian teams Toronto and Montreal would open in Baltimore and Providence."

Ottawa Ahead $200.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—The annual meeting of the Ottawa Football Club will be held to-morrow night. While unsuccessful on the field, the club has some satisfaction in the good financial showing. Clearing in the neighborhood of $200 over all expenses. Officers for the season of 1918 will be elected, and the delegates to the Interprovincial meeting appointed.

McMASTER WINS FINAL INTERCOLLEGE SOCCER

Defeats Knox by 1 to 0 in Ideal Weather For League Championship.

McMaster won the championship of the Intercollegiate Association Football League yesterday afternoon in ideal soccer weather at the stadium, defeating Knox in a play as many games by 1 to 0. The only goal was scored in the first half by Poole on a pass from Campbell. For winners, Poole and Campbell were most conspicuous, while for Knox, Capt. Taylor, Gaud and Kilpatrick in goal were noticeable. The line-up: McMaster (1): Goal, McGregor; backs, Hisey, Howes; halves, Kelly, Brown, Wilson; forwards, Poole (capt.), Sorten, Campbell, Ashmore and McManis. Knox (0): Goal, Kilpatrick; backs, Lloyd, Gaud; halves, Smith, Ferris, Easton; forwards, Oliver, Robertson, McQueen, Taylor, McFerran. Referee, C. P. Sillis.

Torontos May Drop Their Team For This Winter

The arena question is still a source of much worry to the hockey clubs and enthusiasts of the city. The Toronto team is not sure of its future, and the arena is not yet ready to play at least a few games there towards the close of the season.

Percy Quinn of the Torontos does not seem to take much hopeful view of the situation. Despite the assurances of the Montreal end of the arena, who still maintain that it will be ready, Quinn cannot see it. He first intended to have his team practice at the Excelsior rink, but the arena is not yet ready to play at least a few games there towards the close of the season.

The circumstances are decidedly unfortunate for the Montreal, but the amateur clubs will be pretty well looked after at the Excelsior rink and the situation of the six-man team is not as bad as it seems. The league will be the same as before and the six-man team will be the same as before.

PETROLEA PREPARING FOR JUNIOR RUGBY FINAL.

PETROLEA, Dec. 7.—The local team have had four excellent workouts this week preparing for the Junior Rugby final game here Saturday with Royal Military College. The team is in good condition, and the rough game they experienced in Hamilton last Saturday, Coach Leckie, altho confident of winning Stanley's game, has not taken any chance or spared any effort to improve the condition of the team. Harry Griffith and Hugh Hayes are mentioned as officials, but nothing is definite as yet. The management have made preparations for three thousand spectators. The R.M.C. players will arrive in Petrolea Friday morning as far as familiarize themselves with the Petrolea grounds.

Allen, Fleming Croak and Tuckwell Were the Winners

Billy Allen of Ottawa showed his class again last night when he put it all over Kid Alberts of New York before the Olympic Club at the Agnes-street rink. Allen was away too clever for the New Yorker, and by clever ducking and foot work he made the Alberts punch the empty air most of the time. Allen scored a clean knock down in the first round with a right hook to the jaw and had a wide margin in every round except the eighth, when Alberts landed a couple of right punches to the head that shook him up a little.

In the semi-final round, Fleming and Bill Tuckwell looked up at 120 lbs. for the title. Fleming was much the cleverer and administered a good beating to Tuckwell, who was unable to stop him. Tuckwell was taken a lot of punishment. Tuckwell was taken a lot of punishment. Tuckwell was taken a lot of punishment.

Croak of Buffalo, who met Daniels, late of England, for 8 rounds in the second preliminary, lived up to his reputation as a corner. He is clever and is there with a punch in either hand. He made things decidedly interesting in the last round.

Fred Daly proved to be a false alarm in the second preliminary, but he was well at 125 lbs. and the bout was to have gone six rounds, but a right to the head sent the second round nearly all the fight out of him, and a minute later a straight left to the jaw finished the job.

Emmett Quinn Says Toronto Will Be Ready.—MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—Mr. T. Watford In Again.—WATFORD, Ont., Dec. 7.—The Watford Hockey Club has taken over the management of the rink here and is expecting a good season. They will put a team in the intermediate O.H.A. and the they have lost several of last year's players, their chances look pretty good. Last season, it will be remembered, the Watford boys had to play off a special game with Preston to decide the winner of the intermediate cup.

EATON'S for Stylish Hats for Men

This illustration shows a Hat to be worn with the Overcoat. It was for this purpose it was designed and made; it has the shaggy effect of the ulster cloths, and, like the ulster, is serviceable as well as dressy. It has an admirable feature of sticking firmly on the head when facing a strong wind or storm, and is proof against all weather. It is a pure fur felt in a dark smoke grey with black silk band and stitched edge, or in a lighter shade of grey with a mixed grey band; is stylish, distinctive and serviceable.

Petrolea Preparing for Junior Rugby Final.
The local team have had four excellent workouts this week preparing for the Junior Rugby final game here Saturday with Royal Military College. The team is in good condition, and the rough game they experienced in Hamilton last Saturday, Coach Leckie, altho confident of winning Stanley's game, has not taken any chance or spared any effort to improve the condition of the team. Harry Griffith and Hugh Hayes are mentioned as officials, but nothing is definite as yet. The management have made preparations for three thousand spectators. The R.M.C. players will arrive in Petrolea Friday morning as far as familiarize themselves with the Petrolea grounds.

Russell Motor Cars

"You've made it an issue—this matter of quality—but give us facts,—facts about the quality of the 'Russell.'"

—said another man recently.

THE Russell is safe.

Will you who select the safest road when you travel and take a Pullman for safety's sake as much as for comfort—will you buy a car that carries any element of risk?

Will you insure your life—insure your home—your store—your factory for the sake of self or family, and then risk life and limb in a car of uncertain quality?

The Russell frame—look at it. Made of best channel steel; not brittle, but springy to ease each shock, and strong, wonderfully strong; rivetted by hydraulic power and re-inforced at every joint and angle.

Russell Front Axle—A solid I beam section.

Russell Rear Axle—A piece of construction that excites the admiration of every engineer who sees it.

Wheels—Of the artillery type, specially made to stand sudden and tremendous shocks.

Brakes—Double-set, giving double security, instantly operated on drums on the rear wheels.

Safety! Is not safety something far more than a passing thought? It is. It should be first—first with every man who goes out into the market to buy a motor car.

Isn't a car that gives such safety, with everything else in keeping, the first car for you to consider?

Let us take you through the factory.

SUSPENSE DWELLING IN TWO RIDINGS ONLY

Election Four Days Away and Practically No Excitement
in Toronto.

With the elections but four days distant, political organizers in the three camps are as busy as the proverbial bee in arranging the eleventh hour meetings of their candidates, and in seeing that the largest possible number of the electorate that dear little electorate from whom all blessings flow are present at each assembly.

Each and every organizer, both provincial and local, announces himself to be absolutely out of the prophetic business. "A prophet is without honor in his own country," they say, "and a political organizer is doubly so, especially if he goes wrong in his predictions."

The narrowest margin given any Conservative candidate in the city at the last provincial election was that accorded John Shaw, who was elected to seat B. North Toronto, by a majority of 822. Hon. J. J. Foy is now contending for this seat against Joseph Oliver.

For seat A. North Toronto, W. K. McNaught, late Conservative member, should have no difficulty in winning over W. Stephenson, the Labor candidate. At last election Mr. McNaught was given a majority of 6246.

For seat B. East Toronto, T. R. Whitehead, Conservative, who won at the last election by 1290, opposes J. B. Reid, Independent Conservative, and James Stevenson, Labor.

WATCHING GOMPERTS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 7.—That the federal government has been watching closely the movements of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was made known here last night, when U. S. Attorney Miller told of a secret Washington conference held between the labor head and Prosecutor Baker of the county about six weeks ago.

The visit was made about the time the county officials were attempting to prevent the federal authorities from gaining possession of the books and records obtained in the offices of the International Ironworkers, when McNamara was arrested. Baker says he will see Gompers again in January.

Gompers Attacks Burns.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Samuel Gompers has issued a formal statement saying: "Detective Burns evidently believes that if he repeats a falsehood often enough, it may become truth. On no other theory would he repeat the falsehood that I knew that the McNamaras were guilty."

MILK GETTING BETTER.

Dr. Hastings, M.H.O., reported to the local board of health yesterday that 86 per cent. of the milk being sold in Toronto is up to the purity standard. The agitation for pure milk was begun eight months ago, when only 20 per cent. was found to be up to the standard.

Dr. M. B. White was appointed as resident physician at the Isolation Hospital at a salary of $1500 a year.

Graham Fund Availed Not.

BROCKVILLE, Dec. 7.—(Special).—The publication of the election returns of the two candidates of the Brockville riding in the recent Dominion campaign shows that the Hon. G. P. Graham's exceeded those of John Webster nearly three to one and yet he was defeated. The ex-minister of railways and canals spent $2186 and his successful opponent only $384.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER WORTH WHILE

WHEN the publishers of SATURDAY NIGHT decided finally to issue a Christmas Number, they realized at once that, in order to ensure the success of their undertaking, special efforts would have to be put forth to make it a first-class production, and in every way worthy of the prestige of SATURDAY NIGHT. First of all, a careful study was made of the leading English annuals, which have admittedly reached a very high standard in character, tone and quality of contents.

We investigated and analyzed and found that by combining the elements of their success with our knowledge and familiarity with the preferences of the Canadian public we should be able to produce a paper that would be creditable from every standpoint and be worthy to be called a "Christmas Number Worth While."

Wholly Canadian in Character

The result is that, by the very nature of its pictorial and literary features, Christmas SATURDAY NIGHT is at once placed on a par with the best British annuals. A purely Canadian spirit and expression has been secured by having it composed almost entirely of the work of our foremost native artists and writers.

The names of Arthur Stringer, Agnes C. Laut, Nellie L. McClung and Bliss Carman are ample criterion of its notably high literary quality. Only the leading American publications can afford to pay for the contributions of these writers. Their work in this number has been ably supplemented by the skill of such artists as J. W. Beatty, R.C.A.; C. W. Jeffreys, R.C.A.; A. H. Howard, R.C.A.; W. S. Broadhead, and others.

Rich in Pictorial Interest

Certainly Christmas SATURDAY NIGHT is strong in pictorial features. Of special interest and attraction are the ten pages of reproductions of the best paintings owned in Canada, by Canadian and foreign artists, reproduced in sepia tone. In addition there are eight or ten pages of Christmas cartoons by well-known English illustrators. Four pages in four-color process. An illuminated frontispiece by A. H. Howard, R.C.A., containing a Christmas message of peace and good-will; seascape, water-color, by St. Thomas Smith, R.C.A., one of the most noted marine painters in the world. "Piloting Her Home," by W. H. Y. Titcomb. "Sweethearts," by F. Souleacroix.

Three Supplementary Plates

"The Dawn of Majuba," by R. Caton-Woodville, in the new color process, showing the victorious Canadians after the battle of Paardeburg. "More Heavens Than One," by A. Kemp Tebb (photogravure). This picture alone would cost about $3.00 if bought at a retail art dealer's. "A Faithful Guardian," by Arthur J. Elsley, in process reproduction.

Fight Home Rule To the Last Gasp

Bonar Law Says It Will Bring Not
Peace But the Sword—Agitation
Fast Waning.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(Can. Press).—At the opening at Bootle, Lancashire tonight of the Unionist campaign against home rule, the opposition leader, Andrew Bonar Law, said that his party had determined to fight the proposal to the last gasp. Many people, he said, favored home rule because they were tired of the Irish problem and glad to see it out of the way. The duty of the Unionist was to convince them that it would bring Ireland no peace, but the sword. Ireland wanted less politics and more industry. Mr. Redmond and his friends were promising Ireland more politics and less industry. They were wise in trying to get home rule while they could, continued the speaker. This was their last chance, as every year the demand for it was diminishing in Ireland. Another ten years and the agitation will have died out. He declared that it was utterly impossible to pass the bill in this parliament.

The body of Frederick Rush, aged 45, was pulled out of the slip at the foot of Princess-street to-day. He was a deckhand on the steamer Prince Rupert and was walking along the wharf to his boat late last night and fell in. His wife lives in Toronto.

Real Estate Agent Loses.

James Pienemore, 445 Yonge-street, asked Winyard, Gove and Co., real estate agents, to sell some Oakville property for him. Before the agents sold it, the owners had died. The agents, in court yesterday, demanded commission. Judge Morson dismissed the action, commenting that it was a monstrous demand.

GERRARD LINE EQUIPMENT

City Engineer Rust reported to the controllers yesterday that the rails on the new Gerrard-street line will be laid early next spring, but that as yet no provision has been made for operating, and asked the board to make a decision as soon as possible.

"If the city is to operate we should at once call for tenders on the cars required," he said, "as it will take five or six months to build them. We also need a snow plow and a lot for the erection of a car barn, besides electrical equipment and a transformer station."

But the board laid the matter over to consider later.

A Marvel Of Healing

Salt Rheum of Ten Years' Standing

Healed as if by Magic.

Hands Cracked so Could Not Work

—Cures Effected by

Dr. Chase's Ointment

It does not take long for Dr. Chase's Ointment to prove its magic healing power. A single night is often sufficient to produce the most startling results.

Internal treatment for skin diseases is nearly always disappointing. By applying Dr. Chase's Ointment to the diseased parts, relief is obtained almost immediately, and gradually the sores heal up and disappear. Here are two letters which will interest you:

Mrs. Chas. Gilbert, Haystack, Plantation Bay, Nfld., writes: "I was a sufferer from Salt Rheum for ten years, and had about despaired of ever being cured, so many treatments had failed. Reading of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment, I commenced using it, and was entirely cured by eight days. I want to express my gratitude to Dr. Chase's Ointment, and to recommend it to all sufferers."

Mr. Stanley Merrill, Delaware, Ont., writes: "For years I was troubled with my hands cracking, often becoming so sore that I could hardly do any work. I got some of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and happily find that one or two applications of same to the affected parts since using the ointment for some hands."

Couple, and Father Callaghan
To Be in Limelight.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—A Protestant minister and a Roman Catholic priest will be the principal witnesses on Monday when hearing takes place on the formal inscription for judgment following the desistment of Eugene Hebert from defending the judgment originally annulling the marriage of himself and Emma Marie Cloutier under the provisions of the Ne Temere decree.

Rev. Mr. Timberlake, the Methodist pastor, who married the Roman Catholic pair will be the Protestant minister and Rev. Father Callaghan, chancellor of the Roman Catholic diocese, will represent his church, producing as a portion of his evidence a copy of the famous decree under which the wedding was declared null and void.

Both ministers were present at court this morning when the case was adjourned to Monday. They are expected to make proof of the marriage and the stand of the defendant, based upon the decree.

Not content with getting judgment formally following the desistment of the husband, who retired from the fight because of lack of funds to fight his wife's opposition, George V. Cousine, the attorney for Mrs. Hebert, wants the testimony taken, owing to the principle at stake.

Has Not Resigned.

Premier Whitney was greatly annoyed yesterday morning when a report from The Ottawa Journal was pointed out to him which stated that Hon. J. J. Foy had resigned from politics. The premier sent the following telegram to The Journal:

"The statement in your newspaper of yesterday that the Honorable Mr. Foy had resigned is utterly untrue. It is a falsehood manufactured without any foundation whatever and with all confidence I ask you to put the matter right before the public at once."
(Signed) J. P. Whitney.

Mayor on Georgian Bay Canal.

At the luncheon of the Empire Club held yesterday afternoon, Mayor Charles Hopewell of Ottawa was the chief guest and gave an address on the proposed Georgian Bay Canal, which he characterized as the greatest project of national importance in the Dominion. Mr. Hopewell dealt with the subject from various angles and pointed out the commercial value of such a waterway.

CANADIAN FAILURES

Statistic For November Reflect Stability of Business.

The November record of commercial suspensions in the Dominion of Canada as reported by R. G. Dun Co. makes a somewhat less favorable exhibit than the same month last year, especially as regards number, which this year was 109, with liabilities aggregating $656,461, as against $810,257 a year ago.

Compared with November, 1909, however, when there were 107 defaults involving $1,077,351, the comparison is distinctly in favor of the past month. Taken as a whole, the November failure record reflects the prevalence of general stability among Canadian business concerns, for while the number is greater than in the same month last year, it is not above the average, and the amount involved is considerably below that of the corresponding month in the majority of recent preceding years.

Steel Trade Shows Improvement.

The Iron Age says November was record month this year in volume of orders for pig iron and finished material; hopeful view based on belief decline in prices has been arrested.

Don't Want to Pay Yet.

The C.T.R. has asked the city for $200,000, as its share of the grade separation thru Parkdale. When the city engineer asked that the city order this payment, "Controller Spence said the understood the railroad was to carry the work to completion before the city made payment, and the city solicitor will be asked to report."

WILL HAVE TO HURRY.

The Canada Foundry Company, which secured from the city, August 10, a contract to construct a new bridge on Weston-road, which was to be completed on November 22, but on which no work has yet been done, has been notified by the city engineer that the penalty for non-completion will be enforced.

YORK COUNTY

LIVELY BLAZE UP IN N. TORONTO LAST NIGHT

Horses and Cattle Command Good Prices in Country—Suburban Notes in Brief.

NORTH TORONTO, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—There was a lively blaze at 2082 and 2084 Yonge-st., Davisville, shortly after 6 o'clock to-night, when fire in the frame row of stores owned by J. H. Kerr of Victoria-ave., entailed a loss of $2000 in buildings and a third of that amount in contents.

The row originally contained three houses, which were recently altered to make four stores, and the two south were occupied by the Kerrs and a laundry. These were gutted and contents destroyed. No. 2088 was unoccupied, and No. 2088 was occupied by J. Parsons as a saddlery shop. The flames were breaking thru the roof when Chief Collins and his brigade arrived, but fire having made headway when discovered, The Kerrs and the Davisville brigades responded, and the men worked for nearly three hours before the flames were subdued. Blankets were placed over the roofs of adjoining houses, and the flames kept in check. Mr. Parsons lost $300 worth of stock, $50 in bills, and $8 in silver. Mr. Chinaman lost everything. The buildings were among the oldest in town, having been built before the rebellion, but within the last few years transformed into business places. Eglinton St. E. No. 288, will hold their installation of officers to-morrow night, in their lodge rooms. The occasion will be one of more than ordinary pleasure and will be followed as usual by a banquet.

WEST TORONTO.

Happy Function Out in the Western Ward Yesterday.

WEST TORONTO, Dec. 7.—St. John's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding to-night at 7 o'clock when the pastor, Rev. T. Beverley Smith united in marriage Harry Wynn of the Port Arthur News, and formerly of West Toronto, to Miss Beatrice Emily Rydman, only daughter of Mr. Samuel Rydman of 1864 Dundas-street. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and orange blossoms and carried a magnificent bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Mary Ward of 23 Gorevale-avenue, in yellow-flowered silk, who also carried flowers. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Sam Wynn of Regina, Sask.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father and the young couple left later for their new home at Port Arthur. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wynn have a host of friends in West Toronto and the good wishes of all will follow them in their new life.

Any Conservatives who would volunteer their services as scrutineers for the elections on Monday will please report at the committee rooms, 1532 Dundas-street.

The Hummels Presbyterian Church, St. John's-road, are holding their annual bazaar and sale of work on Saturday afternoon in the new schoolhouse, 1111 York-meadow. The sixth anniversary services of the founding of the church will be held the following Sunday, when Rev. Dr. Andrew Robertson of St. James' square, Presbyterian Church will preach in the morning and Rev. Prof. Kilpatrick of Knox College will be the special preacher at the evening service.

Traffic was to-day reopened on Keele-street north, which has been closed for about a month for repairs. A new block pavement has been laid from the subway north to the Union Street Yards and the heavy traffic which occupies this street will no longer have to use the west side of the street only, as has been the case for many months.

Another agitation meeting of the Ratepayers' Association was held to-night in the public library auditorium to protest against the Toronto Street Railway and the present conditions of transportation in Ward Seven.

WANT STATION ON C.P.R.

A petition was in circulation at T. A. Paterson's sale in Scarborough yesterday and largely signed, requesting the Canadian Northern officials to consider the advisability of putting in

We are continually striving to introduce something new, something better, in suits and coats at $15 hats what you'll get in the Saturday and Sunday Specials at Hobberlin's watch 7 o'clock tomorrow

a station at either the Kennedy-road crossing or at a point further west near Wallace W. Thompson's. It is said that the Kennedy-road crossing would serve the largest number, but that the road further west offers fewer difficulties and is likely to be adopted.

GOOD CATTLE PRICES.

At the credit auction sale of horses and cattle out-in Scarborough Township, belonging to T. A. Paterson, near Ellesmere, yesterday, milch cows and springers brought good average prices. Twenty head of cattle were sold, averaging about $55 each. They were all in good condition, and a number in full flow of milk and under other conditions with a greater amount of coarse feed in the country better prices even would have prevailed. One team of horses were sold and these brought about $400. Small pigs were sold at $10 each. This is the condition of affairs generally reported thru the country. There was a good turn-out, the sale being conducted by John H. Prentice.

CREDIT SALE.

On Saturday, Dec. 9, a credit sale of farm stock, implements, furniture, etc., will be held on lot 31, concession 8, Pickering Township, belonging to S. F. Lapp. The sale will commence at 1 o'clock. Lunch will be provided. No reserve. Terms, cash or credit. John H. Prentice, auctioneer.

CHRISTMAS STAMPS IN STORES AND HOTELS.

To facilitate the easy procuring of Christmas stamps by shoppers, this little messenger of healing, issued in aid of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, has been placed for sale in the leading department stores, drug book and other stores throughout the city.

In the past two years large numbers of stamps have been sold in the principal hotels in Toronto, and these are again co-operating this year. Stamps may be found for sale at the King Edward, Queen's Prince George and the Waverley House, the principals in all cases supporting the campaign most enthusiastically, giving every possible assistance to the helpers. In all public places where stamps are being sold, the salesladies will be recognized by the uniform of a nurse.

The pupils of the public schools take on at times a tremendous amount of enthusiasm, and this applies in all sections of the city. In the York-street School, 445 worth has already been sold by the children, and an order placed for an additional $25 worth. A little Chestnut-st. boy, living in the heart of the ward, sold $8.50 worth almost at sight.

F. OF L. CALLS FOR FEDERAL ENQUIRY

to condone the crimes of the McNamara. It joins in the satisfaction that the majesty of the law has been maintained and that the culprits are commensurately punished for their crime.

An "Awful" Commentary. Partly condoning the crime of the McNamara, however, the statement says, in the following breath: "And yet it is an awful commentary upon existing conditions when any one man among all the millions of workers can bring himself to the frame of mind that the only means to secure justice for labor is in violence, out-gunning the law."

"It is cruelly unjust to hold the men of the labor movement either legally or morally responsible for the crimes of an individual member. No such moral code or legal responsibility is placed upon any other association of men in our country."

"Insofar as men have the right to speak, in the name of organized labor, we welcome any investigation which either federal or state courts may undertake. The books, accounts and correspondence of the federation are open to any competent authority, who may desire to make a study or an investigation of them."

While not defending the crime of the McNamara, the committee condemned the "kidnapping" of the McNamara, who, they say, "were arrested in Russian style, not American." In the method of arrest they find "high-handed irregularity and tyrannical lawlessness," and W. J. Burns, the detective in the case, is severely criticized.

Organized labor properly expressed its condemnation of violence in having the Los Angeles disaster, it is claimed.

The statement is signed by Samuel Gompers, president and chairman of the committee; Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation; and the committee and six of the seven remaining members of the committee.

Delightful Places for Rest and Treatment. Along the Grand Trunk lines are several good places where a few days' or weeks' rest is all that is needed to ward off a severe illness. To those who are in a nervous condition, or need a higher altitude, we recommend the "Algonquin Park," the highest in Ontario.

For those who need the Mineral Bath Treatment, try St. Catharines, Preston, Chatham or Mount Clemens, all within a few hours' journey. Ask your physician what he thinks about it, and then consult C. E. Horning, at northwest corner King and Yonge-sts., for your ticket and palace car reservations.

Montreal Phone Users Satisfied? MONTREAL, Dec. 7.—(Can. Press)—According to City Attorney Archambault, little interest is being taken by users of telephones in the civic petition now before the board of railway commissioners to order telephone rates lowered. Only fifteen complaints have been filed, and in view of the thousands of telephones in use in the city, the attorney hardly thinks that the board will act on such meagre evidence.

Francis Dagger of Toronto, an expert, has been assisting the city attorney in his work. The rates demanded by the city are $50 instead of $55 per telephone annually for business service, and $20 instead of $25 for private service.

SEEING NORTH TORONTO. Hon. J. J. Poy and John Shaw yesterday looked over the ground that would be affected if the Metropolitan Railway has its way as to switches and entrance into the city. Mr. Poy thoroughly familiarized himself with the situation. Mr. Shaw and the attorney-general also surveyed the devastation wrought by fire at the Aged Women's Home.

THE TUMULT DIES, LEGISLATORS PACK GRIPS

Scotland. There was Roderick Sullivan, caretaker of the public building at Canoe, David S. Hender, in the fisheries service, and John M. Rogers, a postmaster, against whom there was no charge of partisanship, removed in order to replace him with a man who had been dismissed by the late government for proved partisanship.

The postmaster, he said, should secure and produce the signatures of the men who asked for dismissals. It should not be made a star chamber matter.

Carrying Out Pledges.

The reason for the expulsions Mr. Sinclair saw in the extravagant pre-election promises of the government.

Referring to the promise of free medical attendance to the Atlantic coast fishermen, Mr. Sinclair declared it had led to the ministry being known as the "Lydia Pinkham administration."

The premier had had two good opportunities. The first was in the formation of his cabinet, but he had yielded to the anti-British party in Quebec.

Hon. F. D. Monk: "There is no anti-British party in Quebec."

"Oh, yes, there is," thundered Mr. Sinclair. "Your leader, Mr. Bourassa, in his speech at North Bay talked of your flag, your King. He would not even own George V. as his King."

The second opportunity of the premier was to rescue his party from the spoils system, which had been denounced by one of its own ministers as the "meanest system."

Hopes for Reform.

W. S. Middlebro (North Grey) expressed a hope that Canada would one day reach the ideal stage reached by the civil service of Great Britain. It would relieve members on the government side from the onus of patronage, which, from the selfish party standpoint, meant depriving himself of the services of the man who would be of most use in winning his election and disappointing sixteen or seventeen others. Taking things as they were, he felt sure no private member would ask for dismissals unless the facts were personally known to him or unless he had corroborative evidence.

The number of dismissals by the new administration was paltry compared with those of the late government, and none were without just cause. He utterly failed to see why officials of the postoffice department should be treated in a different manner to other officials.

Fowler Explains.

G. W. Fowler (Kings and Albert) explained that Hon. Wm. Pugsley's assertion that he had never been a "to the victors belong the spoils," was based on an imperfect report. He had declared that competency for the office was the only basis for selection, this condition being complied with in the party which had the first call. In this sense he said, "to the victors belong the spoils," was a misquoting of the postmaster of Bath. Mr. Fowler reminded him that the first dismissal in his constituency by the late government was of a woman.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley reverted to the question of the change in the Canadian members of the board of trade commission. The appointment by the imperial government was merely a formal matter, and the men were to all intents and purposes appointed.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier: "The home government did not take that view."

Pugsley's argument was that they probably felt some constraint about the matter. As a matter of fact, he continued, the British government had approved of the appointments. They had notified the British ambassador at Washington, who had communicated with the Canadian government, and they had notified their appointees to proceed to Washington to confer with the American representatives in the organization of the commission.

"Now what have my honorable friends done?" asked Mr. Pugsley. "In the face of the order-in-council appointing these persons?"

Hon. F. D. Monk: "There was no order-in-council."

Mr. Pugsley: "You will find a minute of the council and the formal order-in-council in the House of Commons."

He enquired what Mr. Monk's explanation of the confidential nature of the commission would mean. If there were a change of government, in four years, would it mean that these gentlemen appointed on the recommendation of the Borden administration, should resign or be dismissed?

Mr. Monk: "Would the hon. gentleman deny that they have a representative character?"

In effect, continued Mr. Pugsley, the Canadian government had asked the British government to revoke their approval of the recommendations which had been duly conveyed to the government of Canada, and then the British ambassador.

In answer to a question by C. A. Wilson (Laval), as to whether the Canadian Copyright bill would be founded on the bill just passed by the imperial parliament, Hon. Martin Burrell said that the latter bill had not been received, but that it was, it would be given careful consideration.

Improved Fisheries Service.

Hon. J. D. Hazen, in answer to a question of J. H. Sinclair (Guysboro), said he believed the outside fisheries service might be reorganized with benefit to the service. For instance, there were defects in the present method of appointing fisheries inspectors. He was collecting information with a view to action.

Hon. R. L. Borden announced that the government intended to introduce the measure to establish a tariff commission at the present session.

Hon. Jacques Bureau raised a laugh by asking whether the minister of justice was aware that, according to newspaper report, the notorious Bill Miner was in the vicinity of Ottawa, and whether steps would be taken towards his capture.

The ex-minister was twitted by the premier with his new-found zeal in the matter.

The house agreed to refund the fees, less cost of printing and translation, of private bills undisposed of at the last session, owing to the sudden dissolution.

Protection of Children.

A bill of Robert Bickerdike (Montreal, St. Lawrence), to amend the Juvenile Delinquency Act, received its second reading, with an amendment. The bill provides for the same protection to the children of other religious denominations as to the children of Roman Catholics and Protestants, as the Jews being the class aimed at.

The amendment gives the court discretion as to the stability of the committee of three of the same race and religion as the child appointed under the act. In the discussion in the committee H. B. Ames (Montreal, St. Anne) objected that the terms of the measures were too wide. There were a great many religious denominations, Hindu, Buddhist, Chinese or other.

Mr. Bickerdike thought the wider the measure the better.

City Will Ask For Special Legislation

Regulation of street traffic was one of the problems that came before the legislation committee yesterday.

A joint meeting of the committee, the police commissioners, the Motor League representatives and the team owners will be held at an early date, when the matter will be thoroughly threshed out.

The city solicitor reported that the city could not dictate as to the system of lighting to be used in boarding houses and hotels.

The following memo of suggestions for legislation to be asked for at the coming session of the legislature was provided by City Solicitor Johnston.

Authority is required to issue debentures without a vote of the people to the amount of $100,000 cover expenditure in connection with completion of the repairs to and in the extension of the waterworks intake pipe.

To enable cluster lighting to be extended and underground wires to be installed on the local improvement plan.

To regulate the size of building lots within a radius of five miles of the city.

To enable all city and town councils to enforce fair wage clauses in contracts done by contractors.

For power to compel private individuals when dedicating lands for public highways to make the same a city width than 66 feet, when the city considers it necessary.

To validate proposed notice to the Toronto and Scarborough Railway terminating franchise within the city limits.

To provide that the local improvement sections of the Municipal Act, as consolidated last session, shall apply to all classes of work that may be done as local improvements, and that all such works may be done until a vote to the contrary has been taken by the electors.

To amend the Land Titles Act to authorize the registration of agreements with plans for sub-divisions of lots.

To amend the Line Fences Act, so as to prevent the erection of spite fences.

To amend the Municipal Act, so as to prevent erection of garages within centre districts, to be specified by by-law.

PROCESSES OF MANUFACTURING PULP.

Three processes were used to manufacture into woodpulp the six hundred thousand cords of pulpwood used in 1910. These are the mechanical or grinding process and the two chemical processes, which depend upon the use of sulphite and soda. Statistics supplied by the forestry branch of the department of the interior show that wood used by the mechanical process formed over three-quarters of the total during 1910, a greater percentage than at any time in the past. Unlimited supply of clean water is a necessity in the manufacture of wood by the mechanical process so that Quebec is the province best adapted for it. Spruce furnished over four-fifths of the wood used for mechanical pulp. Balsam contributed one-sixteenth, with small quantities of hemlock and poplar making up the balance. The sulphite process accounted for one-fifth of the pulpwood and was used slightly more in Ontario than in Quebec. Nearly 70 per cent of the wood used in this process was spruce, mostly from Ontario. Balsam furnished thirty per cent, about three-quarters of which was produced by the wood used in this process. A small quantity of poplar in the process. Barely two per cent of the total amount of pulpwood was manufactured by the soda process, although Canada has the distinction of having the oldest soda mill in America. Quebec manufactured over three-quarters
