GENERAL STRIKE IS CALLED IN TORONTO

STRIKE TAKES STEPS TO END BIG STRIKE OF CIVIC WORKERS

Many Winnipeg Police and Firemen Going Back to Work—Iron Masters Agree to Accept Railway Brotherhood Mediation—Citizens to Clean Up Streets.

Winnipeg, Man., May 29.—The city government of Winnipeg today took aggressive steps to end sympathetic strikes of public utility and service employees, when the police commission announced that every man wishing to remain in the employ of the city must sign an oath agreeing not to join any sympathetic strike movement in the future. Officials announced that a large number of the regular police force had signed, and that many applicants, including a number of discharged soldiers, would be added to the force.

Officials of three large iron works notified Mayor Chas. F. Gray and Premier Norris that they would accept mediation of the Canadian railway brotherhoods as mediators in a discussion of labor problems with their employees. This far, leaders of the central strike committee indicated their willingness to consider any conciliation conference between the iron works executives and their employees. No announcement has been made by union leaders on the new plan.

To Clean Up City

There were today several developments in progress, which to unprecedented persons indicated the control of a few leaders was being slowly but steadily crushed. City employees who were involved in the sympathetic strike movement were being ordered to appear at their work places in the ranks of applicants who today sought positions in municipal departments.

Members of the citizens' committee were planning today for a general cleanup of the city tomorrow. Business men announced they would aid in the actual work of cleaning all streets and alleys of garbage and refuse and that they were ready to begin cars whenever the city decides to start operations.

Cars on Saturday

Mayor Gray today said that city officials expect to have cars in operation by Saturday and that possibly a few would run tomorrow.

Word was received today from Ottawa announcing that the new civil service bill will include substantial increases for some branches and that there will be no reductions in salaries of federal employees. This is expected to result in many striking government employees applying for their old positions.

Mayor Gray and members of the citizens' committee discussed the advisability of sending a delegation to Ottawa to discuss the strike and collective bargaining problems.

Mail Clerks Go Back

Late today a majority of the railway mail clerks of the Winnipeg division who joined the strike, appeared before Senator Robertson, federal minister of labor, and asked permission to resume their work. They were allowed to return to their old positions. Having made application before the 24-hour ultimatum of the government had expired. Commercial telegraphers, who are on strike, will meet late today at the city hall to walk out issue. Some of the operators have openly announced that they are in favor of returning to work.

It was announced at the city hall this afternoon that more than fifty city firemen have agreed to return to work, despite pressure to the contrary from the union leaders, and that the city police have also agreed to sign a new agreement with the city, in which they will agree not to participate in sympathetic strikes.

Street Commission

A. W. F. Tallman reported to the city council that nearly all of the employees of his department are anxious to return to their work, but that the "fear of intimidation" had been holding them back.

ROBERTSON BLAMES THE ONE BIG UNION

In Message to Premier, Outlines the Situation in Winnipeg.

Ottawa, May 29.—This morning Sir Robert Borden sent a telegram to Senator Robertson asking for a copy of a telegram received by Senator Robertson from the mayor of Calgary and the reply thereto. This evening the prime minister received in reply the following message from Senator Robertson: "Winnipeg, Man., May 29.—Sir Robert Borden, prime minister, Ottawa: Your telegram received. Following is copy of wire received from mayor of Calgary, together with copy of my reply, which, in my judgment, correctly states situation.

"Calgary, May 26.—Several unions ceased work this morning in sympathy with Winnipeg men. From information received here the situation is somewhat obscure. It is claimed on behalf of the men, that the dispute in Winnipeg is with regard to the recognition of the union and the right to bargain collectively while press despatches indicate it is a question of the power of a central committee. If you can enlighten us on this matter it will be appreciated.

"Sgd. R. C. Marshall, Mayor."

"I have been here since Thursday last. Very carefully investigated cause of existing general strike, which the strike committee claimed was called for the purpose of forcing upon certain employers the recognition of workmen's rights to collective bargaining. The employers affected proved conclusively that they have no objection to their employees organizing, and have dealt with committees of their employees elected as representatives of the various craft unions concerned in their industry. Have furthermore expressed perfect willingness to meet with executive officers of these various organizations if desired, but refused to deal with a body known as the metal trades council, which is elected by employees in other industries outside their own. Twenty-four hours before the sympathetic strike was called the premier of Manitoba urged an adjustment of the matters in dispute by arbitration, and in a final attempt to prevent the general strike asked the committee if they would cancel it provided the employers would agree to recognize the metal trades council, to which question a negative reply was given.

"Subsequent events proved conclusively that the motive behind the general strike effort was for the purpose of assuming control and direction of commercial and industrial affairs, also municipal, provincial, and federal activities, so far as they were being carried on in this city, and with the avowed intention of extending that control to a wider field. I have no hesitation in stating that the 'one big union' movement is the underlying cause of the whole trouble, and that the Winnipeg general strike derives no sympathy or support from labor organizations outside.

"Situation quite improved." The above telegram to Mayor Marshall prevented the general walkout that was expected. The striking railway mail clerks here returned to work today before the 24-hour notice expired, which was given to them yesterday and more applications for positions in the postoffice have been received than can be accommodated.

(Signed) "G. D. Robertson."

ARBITRATION IS FLATLY REFUSED TO TORONTO'S BIG STRIKE BEGINS TODAY

UNIONS ORDERED OUT

The following unions are liable to be called out this morning. The list is only approximate.

Garment Workers	3,400
Painters	400
Teamsters	1,000
Stationary Engineers	400
Total	4,700

To this number the street railwaymen may be added by night-fall, increasing the total to 7,000. Besides these are many machinists with whom agreements had been made under a provisional clause. Counting the metal trades and those added to their number, the total number on strike today will be approximately 15,000, with additions every day. A number of other unions which would have participated have been requested to refrain in the public interest. The bookbinders and the members of the Typographical Union are understood to have decided not to go out.

Strike Committee Reject Employers' Offer to Submit 44-Hour Week Demand to Third Party—Request All Locals With Named Exceptions to Cease Work, 10 a. m.

Despite endeavors of the employers to arbitrate the demands of the metal trades for a 44-hour week and the principle of collective bargaining, the general strike committee of fifteen last night officially called the general strike for ten o'clock this morning. The committee was understood to have taken the ground that an offer to arbitrate upon a specific demand was evading that issue, and acted accordingly. The statement handed out to the press reads as follows:

"The general strike committee has received official notification from the metal trades executive at Ottawa that all negotiations have failed to receive from Premier Borden assurance of the 44-hour week and collective bargaining demanded.

Blame Employers.

"In view of this failure, the general strike committee requests all workers in Toronto to cease work on Friday morning, May 30, at 10 a. m., with the exception of the following (then follows a list of workers permitted to continue, as given below). The statement goes on to point out that this list is subject to revision at any time, and also to point out that those named in this list are requested to remain at their posts in order that the general public may be spared as much inconvenience as possible. "This strike," it says, "was caused thru the failure of employers and of the government to grant to the workers what they feel to be their birthright. The committee requests all delegates to the trades convention to attend at the Labor Temple on Saturday, May 31, at 8 p. m."

Will Remain Out.

The civic employees decided last night to remain out of the strike until the waterworks men and employees of other public utilities come out. This was the information given out by W. Williams, president of the union, at ten o'clock. The letter carriers may take a referendum vote upon the strike, and the street railway employees, according to information received, may go out tonight or early tomorrow morning. The electrical workers have nothing to report, and are so reticent that possibilities may be that they will also, go out. The policemen, the fire-fighters and the telegraphers, according to reliable information, will not be among the strikers.

OFFER TO ARBITRATE FOLLOWED HARD FIGHT

Conference Lasted All Day and Premier Borden Firmly Demanded Some Kind of Compromise.

Special to The Toronto World.

Ottawa, May 29.—After many hours of strenuous argument and patient negotiation the metal employers offered to submit to arbitration the demand for a 44-hour week. The offer is in writing and has been transmitted to the strike committee at Toronto. It is in effect that the employers will arbitrate provided the men return to work and call off the threatened general strike. The men will work under the old conditions until the report of the arbitrators, but said report is to be retroactive and be considered as coming into effect on June 1.

The definite offer is couched in these words:

"The metal trades employers, in order to avoid the consequences to the public of a general strike, offer to submit to arbitration the question of hours constituting a week's work, provided that the general strike now threatened is definitely called off and that the men return to work under the conditions obtaining in the factories previous to the strike. The results of the award to be made retroactive to June 1.

(Signed) "J. G. Merrick," "Secretary Toronto Employers' Association."

Representatives of the employees took the stand that they had no mandate either to accept or reject the offer of arbitration. They communicated with the Toronto strike committee.

Borden Persisted

This result was due in no small measure to the patient persistence of the prime minister. To the demand of the labor representatives for legislation establishing the 44-hour week and defining "collective bargaining" he replied that the subjects affected "property and civil rights," exclusive jurisdiction over which is vested in the provincial legislatures. He therefore urged employers and employees alike to arbitrate their differences. This for a long time both sides refused until Mayor Church hotly exclaimed that one side or the other must have a rotten case or they would not be so unwilling to submit to arbitration.

It will be observed that the proposed arbitration does not touch the subject of collective bargaining, but it is understood that the employers have practically conceded this point by taking part in today's conference.

Started Work Early.

The representatives of the employers and the workers, together with Mayor Church and the other members of the delegation from Toronto, were on hand at the prime minister's office in the east block at 10 o'clock this morning. The conference continued until 1 p. m., at which time it seemed that no agreement could possibly be reached. During the afternoon the employers and the workers conferred among themselves and with each other, and at 5 o'clock the delegation was again in the prime minister's office in the east block with his colleagues, including Sir Thomas White, Hon. N. W. Rowell, Hon. T. A. Crerar, General S. C. McBurn, and Sir Edward Kemp. The newspaper men were lined up in the hall.

Police Refuse to Give Up Charter

Committee Will Approach Government for Interpretation of Finding.

Toronto police claim that although they are in favor of carrying out the mandates of the royal commission which called upon them to renounce their charter, yet they feel that the report is biased and does not give any evidence in the finding to show that the holding of the charter or affiliation is detrimental to the force as a whole. This was the statement made by one of the officials of the police union late last night after the police had held three meetings in the Sons of England Hall to discuss the findings.

It was also stated that the union will appoint a committee of five to interview the provincial government early next week, for a clearer interpretation of the findings of the report with reference to the charter. In the meantime, the men are holding on to the charter, and it was stated last night that every man was now a "Charterist" no matter what he may have been before the appointment of the commission.

The men on the other hand are pleased with the minority report made by James T. Gunn, their representative on the board. This report, they claim, gives real reasons for the retention of the charter, as opposed to the finding of the majority of the commissioners which in no way indicates any evils which might arise from its being retained.

ORLANDO ACCEPTS ADRIATIC SOLUTION

Fiume to Be Independent State Under the League of Nations.

Paris, May 29.—The Temps says today that an agreement has virtually been reached on the Adriatic question and that President Wilson, who saw the league of nations. This state will be given his consent to the arrangement, which Premier Orlando of Italy has accepted.

According to the Temps the essential points in the agreement are:

1. Fiume, not including the suburb of Suchak forms, with the region to the west, an independent state under the league of nations. This state will be bounded by Italian territory and contain the railroad from Fiume to Laibach.
2. Zara (capital of Dalmatia) and Sebenico (70 miles southeast of Trieste, on the Adriatic) will be placed under the sovereignty of Italy, which renounces any other part of the Dalmatian coast and hinterland.
3. Italy will exercise sovereignty over islands called strategic, namely, Cresco (12 miles southwest of Fiume, belonging to Istria), Lussino (southwest of Cherso and also Istrian) and Lissa (63 miles southwest of Spalato in the Adriatic islands).

Furthermore, says the Temps, the league of nations grants Italy the mandate over Albania, where the treaty of London secured Italy preponderating influence.

PRISONERS MAY STAY.

There is about town a well defined rumor to the effect that the prisoners at the jail are considerably annoyed at the manner in which their institution has lately been brought into public notice by the carelessness of its officials. The latest Vera de Lavelle incident has proved the last straw, and it is possible that a mass meeting of the prisoners may declare for a general "walk-out" if some steps which are taken to prevent a repetition of such events. At a late hour last night, however, it was rumored to the Labor Temple that the strike committee of fifteen had sent a message to the jail requesting them, as a special favor, to remain at their posts.

VERA DE LAVELLE LEFT JAIL BY LADDER EXIT

McCullough's Sweetheart and a Companion Leave Premises Without Difficulty or Hints—Ruth Masten Captured—Vera Still at Large.

"Miss Vera de Lavelle begs permission to decline the kind invitation of His Majesty the King to extend her visit to the Don Castle, as she has pressing engagements elsewhere."

If Vera de Lavelle possesses any sense of humor she must have been keenly disappointed at not being in a position to have some such note as the above when she, with a fellow-girl prisoner, Ruby Masten, made an escape from the Don prison yesterday morning. The two girls by getting over the 15 foot wall of the prison between 1.30 and 2 o'clock made a clean getaway and were not missed by those who were responsible for their custody for fully thirty minutes after the escape. The girl, Ruby Masten, made direct for the city and to parts where she was known. Shortly before 4 o'clock prison guards picked her up on Wilton avenue and conveyed her to the city hall police station. Vera de Lavelle has, however, submerged herself as completely as a submarine boat. It remains to be seen if the authorities possess a deep sea bomb of sufficient strength to bring her to the surface.

Very little is actually known of Vera's getaway and how it came about that "opportunity" was offered her to go out visiting without chaperon. Some of the prison authorities are of the decided opinion that Vera had help outside the prison, both to provide the "opportunity" and to assist her once she was outside the confining barrier.

VERA DE LAVELLE Highly successful in keeping up public interest in the McCullough Case.

FLIGHT TO PLYMOUTH MAY START TODAY

Washington, May 29.—Altho the navy department had received no despatches up to a late hour tonight from Lisbon, where Lieut. Commander A. C. Ross and crew of the scout plane NC-4 are awaiting the start to Plymouth, England, on the last leg of the American navy's trans-Atlantic flight, officials were of the opinion that the NC-4 would "hop off" tomorrow.

The splendid performance of the NC-4 on the other legs of the trans-Atlantic flight caused navy officers to anticipate no difficulty in the Lisbon-Plymouth dash, a distance of nearly 800 nautical miles, most of which, however, will be in sight of land.

ALSO ABOVE REPROACH!

The provincial officers responsible for the escape of Miss Lavelle from Toronto jail have every reason to expect that in any investigation into their conduct they will receive at least as careful consideration as the O.T.A. men got. Indiscretions are bound to happen in any well regulated family.

ENGLISH STRAW HATS

The English makers of straw hats have conquered the world of fashion as far as straw hats for men are concerned; in the United States this demand is just as great, and the purchaser of an English straw there pays one-third more than you would in Canada.

The Dineen Co., Ltd., are showing the very newest designs by Henry Heath, Christy Company and other makers. The Heath straw is worn exclusively by royalty, and the Dineen Company are sole Canadian agents. A splendid lot of Panama and Yongs are shown by Dineen, 140 George street.

THE ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT COMMISSION.

Chief Justice Meredith yesterday handed out his findings on the O.T.A. investigation. Everyone concerned gets what he expected. The license commission gets a suit of June underwear, Inspector Morrison's failure to disclose his ownership of about a third of the stock of the Employers' Detective Agency was "highly improper." Chief Inspector Ayscarr committed "a grave indiscretion" in his financial borrowings from the whiskey detective, Solomon. A lecture is read to The World on its conceptions of journalism, which falls short of any news value. Mr. Cronin's "bad judgment" is dilated upon. The World merely observes that Mr. Cronin's character as a man and reputation as a journalist are quite unaffected by any finding of the commission.

Ex-Kaiser Is Less Visible Since Learning Peace Terms

Only Part Which Seems To Interest Him Is That Relating To Himself—Empress Is Fearful.

Amerongen, May 29. — Since the former German emperor has been acquainted with the peace terms, he has become even more invisible to the outer world. The only possibility of catching a glimpse of his former majesty is when he crosses the draw-bridge twice daily, going to and returning from his log sawing in the garden of the castle, and then he is only within sight for about 4 seconds.

Replying to a repeated request for a declaration, the former emperor sent the following words:

"Tell the Associated Press that my attitude is unchanged."

The messenger, Gen. Von Estorff, gave the correspondent to hope that anything was likely to be given out for publication. It is virtually impossible to glean anything regarding the former emperor's life or plans, as everybody in the castle is under strict orders to maintain silence.

Apparently there is no excitement among the members of his suite over the terms, the only portion which interests the imperial exile being the clause relating to himself.

The former empress appears to be more affected than her husband, and is evidently under the impression that the powers will succeed in bringing him before a tribunal. There have been no extraordinary movements about the castle lately, the only visitor being Dr. Kraige, who came from Berlin in connection with the liquidation of the personal estate of the Hohenzollerns in Berlin.

Opinion in the Labor Temple yesterday was strong that nothing could be done to avert the call for a general strike at 10 o'clock today. The fact that Sir Robert Borden had intimated that the Ottawa cabinet would not even consider legislation for the eight-hour day was said to be another of the unwelcome moves which had characterized the cabinet during the great labor crisis in the history of Canada. Even the most moderate among the labor men believed that the last hope of averting the crisis had gone.

Uncertainty As To Unions

There was, however, uncertainty as to the locals which would be called

GERMANS MAY SIGN JUNE TWENTIETH

Fifteenth of Month is Earliest Possible Date, But Later Date Probable.

Paris, May 29.—June 15 is the earliest possible date on which the German treaty can be signed if no objections are encountered, but June 20 is the more probable date for its signature, according to a member of the peace delegation who discussed the situation with the correspondent today.

The German counter-proposals have been received with the greatest interest by the members of the peace conference, especially the claims for immediate membership in the league of nations, for a plebiscite to decide the disposition of Galicia and for the fixing of a definite sum for reparations.

The German delegation presented only three copies of the counter-proposals to the secretariat of the peace conference. Twenty interpreters were busy today translating the document from German into English and French.

out today. The post of honor in this connection was allotted to the Brotherhood of Carpenters, and it was stated on all sides that the garment workers would undoubtedly be among the unions to strike. The telegraphers, policemen and fire fighters were still counted out of the list by many interviewed. This opinion was not shared by all, however. One man boldly offered a two to one wager that the telegraphers would be out by tonight. A telegrapher who happened to be near took up the challenge. He produced a $20 note. "I'll take you on," he said, with quiet emphasis. The other man, rather taken back, looked askance at the huge offering presented to him. He quickly made up his mind that he was not quite sure of his argument, and replying, "Put your coat on, old boy," walked away.

R. H. Cox, secretary of the Letter Carriers' Association, stated last night that no order had been issued for a mass meeting, but that if the carriers were to join the movement decision might be made by a referendum vote of the Strike Committee.

The general strike committee has issued the following statement to the press: "The general sympathetic strike, which was called for May 30, will include all the workers with the exception of the following who are requested to remain at their posts—hotels and cafes, water and sewerage, electric, milk drivers, bread drivers, moving picture operators, gas house employees, artificial limb workers, bakers, policemen, fire fighters, sewage disposal plant operators, theatrical stage employees, public school teachers, college professors, clergy of all denominations, doctors and all hospital help.

"The general strike committee by excluding the above from the general strike do so with the express purpose that no harm shall befall the general public. The above mentioned workers have received notice from the general strike committee that they are to remain at their posts. The general convention of all delegates will be held in the Labor Temple on Saturday, May 31, at 8 p.m., at which the general strike committee will report.

To Maintain Order. "The general strike committee are prepared to help civil authorities to see that law and order are maintained in this city by organizing a sufficient number of trades unionists to co-operate for this purpose at the request of the general public.

The deputation at Ottawa interviewing Premier Borden will always have before them the communication sent by the strike committee, which reads as follows: "This communication is pointed by the convention of the trades unionists, do hereby call a general sympathetic strike for Toronto, according to the power given them by said convention. The same to have effect on Friday, May 30, at 10 o'clock a.m., unless the right of collective bargaining and the right of work is granted to the Metal Trades Council thru the action of Premier Borden.

Signed by the Fifteen. "The names of the general strike committee and the organizations which represent are as follows: Harry Gray, meat cutters; E. Blatz, cigarmakers; S. Koldofsky, garment workers; P. Mumford, carpenters; E. R. Bales, carpenters; G. M. Heikler, patternmakers; G. P. Dolan, A. H. King; William Barry, molders; J. Healey, boilermakers; J. A. Young, machinists; W. Poole, A. S. of E. H. Lewis, machinist; P. McCallum, carpenters; W. Berry, machinists; J. Willis, plumbers.

The statement is signed on behalf of the strike committee by H. Lewis and P. McCallum of the press committee, who promised to issue a daily statement to the press at 11 o'clock each morning.

I. O. D. E. PROTESTS FOREIGNERS' ACTION At Montreal Convention, Speaker Says Unfair for Them to Take British Names.

Montreal, May 29.—A protest against the taking of British names by foreigners was made at today's session of the I. O. D. E. convention at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel by Mrs. Daniels. This speaker claimed that the name MacPherson, for instance, should continue to denote Scottish ancestry and should not be assumed at will by immigrants from central Europe.

The question of the war memorial to be established by the I. O. D. E. was referred to this morning. Mrs. Hudson referred to a resolution in a resolution which had been carried unanimously in the national executive and which provided that a fund of $300,000 be raised by the order to promote educational work as a memorial to the Canadian men and women who have died in the war.

CRISIS IN MEXICO HAS RECEIVED SERIOUS HEAR KONEKAMP AT MATHERS PROBE

President of Telegraphers Minimizes Seriousness of the "Winnipeg Breach." Montreal, May 29.—At the Mather's commission, S. J. Konekamp, international president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, made a statement regarding the Winnipeg strike. Mr. Konekamp, general manager of the telegraph union, he said, had stated that the strike showed the utility of collective bargaining since the telegraph operators at Winnipeg had broken their agreement and gone on strike. Mr. Konekamp said two weeks ago he had received word that these operators intended to join the strike and had sent telegraphic instructions to them not to strike.

Government officials are refusing to comment on the news until they receive official confirmation. There seems, however, to be no doubt of its authenticity. Another large industry has been secured for Hamilton: It is the Canadian branch of Partridge & Spencer, England, the largest manufacturer of commercial felt in Britain. The company will be incorporated at not less than $1,000,000.

HAMILTON NEWS. Hamilton, May 29.—That he would give the matter his serious consideration was as far as Hon. F. Macdougall, minister of public works, would commit himself at a wayside meeting held on the Beach road yesterday afternoon, following a motor trip that he and W. A. McLean, deputy minister of public highways, had made with a big city and county deputation for the purpose of having Barton street taken over as a provincial highway instead of Main street.

LABOR COUNCILLORS AT PARTY MEETING. Controller Halford is Criticized for Stand on Appointment of Wm. Cassidy. Hamilton, May 29.—Labor members of the city council had an opportunity tonight to give an account of their stewardship. ONE POPULAR CHORD. That City Engineer Gray should receive an increase of $300, while the increase to the laborers was but 10 weeks was something that those who attended the meeting could not understand. Montreal, May 29.—A vigorous defence of labor demands and unrest as encountered in the west, was put forward by two speakers at the Lay Association banquet held in St. Andrew's hall tonight in connection with the Montreal Methodist conference now in session. The Rev. Ernest Thomas, of Toronto, frankly told the people they had no right to use the epithets "pro-German" "Bolsheviki" and so forth, and he astonished his hearers by declaring that many of these labor people were highly educated.

(3) If payment is made by cheque, the cheque must be "marked" by the bank, have war stamp affixed, and be payable at par in Toronto to order of "City Treasurer." (4) If payment is made in cash, the exact amount of change should be tendered; this will prevent delay. (5) Receipts for taxes sent by mail will be forwarded as speedily as possible, if stamped and addressed "return envelope" accompanies remittance.

RUINED CITY RAIDED BY PACK OF WOLVES. During severe wintry weather, accompanied by heavy snowstorms, which prevailed recently, a big pack of wolves descended the snow-clad slopes of Mount Vesuvius, spreading terror among the dwellers in the valleys who barricaded themselves in their houses. Several formidable-looking bears from the forests in the vicinity of Mount Somma entered into alliance with the pack, and made incursions into the villages around the base of the volcano, where they created considerable havoc among the flocks and herds.

POINTED ADVICE. "Oh, doctor," cried a wild-eyed man. "I am dreadfully afflicted! The ghosts of my departed relatives come and perch on the tops of the fence posts in my yard when dusk is falling. I can look out into the gloaming any evening and see a couple of dozen spooks solemnly sitting on top of that many posts, waiting, waiting, waiting. Oh, doctor, what shall I do?" "Sharpen the tops of the posts," briskly replied the physician. "Five dollars, please."

SAVINGS OF CELEBRITIES. Emperor Wilhelm: "What can you expect from a pig but a grunt?" "A word to the wise is sufficient!" Jess Willard: "I would I were a glove upon that hand, that I might touch that cheek!" Queen of Sheba: "Fine feathers make fine birds!" Charles II: "The stars sang together!" Charles II: "Eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow we die!" Sarah Bernhardt: "Age cannot wither, nor custom stale her infinite variety!" "Turn over a new leaf!" Adam: "We have met the enemy, and they are ours!"

TOO MUCH HASTE. Events march on so rapidly that now and then one equals. "Confound it, you've met the enemy, and they are ours!"

Do not be surprised any morning to pick up your newspaper and read the following: "A lease has been taken out today upon all the stars and the space they occupy in the heavens, by the Universe Sign Company, for advertising purposes. This organization has recently been launched with a capital of three billion dollars, and will control sign privileges along all flying-machine routes. By the aid of powerful magnets, placed at just the right intervals in the sky, the stars will be so controlled that they can be moved at will, and thus made to form letters or other devices for sign purposes. It is the plan of the promoters to change these as often as needed, and the scheme is believed to be the most brilliant and feasible in the history of advertising. Powerful searchlights, operated from the various planets, will add to the attractiveness of the display, and will be used to throw such pictures upon the sky as cannot be formed by the stars. The company will operate in connection with the Cloud Sweeper electric vacuum apparatus, whereby the company's sky will be kept free from clouds at all times, thus insuring perfect displays each evening."

STRIKE STRENGTH VARIES IN CITIES OF THE WEST

At Some Points the Strikers Report Gains, at Others They Are Going Back to Work --Citizen Committees Forming.

Brandon, Man., May 29.—The latest addition to the general strike movement here was the brewery and cereal workers' union which struck today. The city council at a special meeting decided to give a special order for work to return to work, so far as was known not one reported for duty. Positions have been declared definitely vacant and will be at once "permanently" filled by others loyal to the city, according to the council's official announcement. As none of the striking telephone employees resumed work at the set time the company is enrolling permanent help. The citizens' law and order league is manifesting the firm belief that everything is quiet and orderly here.

Railway Men Vote. Calgary, Alta., May 29.—It was announced today that the Brotherhood of Railway Workers, including freight handlers, clerks and baggage men had voted last night to join the general strike here in sympathy with the Winnipeg strikers. Electrical workers, telephone operators, and commercial telegraphers voted against a walkout.

Winnipeg, Man., May 29.—Postmaster McIntyre of Winnipeg announced shortly before noon that he had been officially informed the postal workers at Winnipeg have refused to join the sympathetic strike. The strike of some of the Winnipeg railway mail clerks was termed a "fizzle."

METAL MEN'S OFFER FOLLOWED BIG FIGHT

Corridor leading to the private council chamber and eagerly questioned all who went in or came out of the prime minister's office. All the reports seemed to be of a discouraging nature, but at 7 o'clock the conference ended with the satisfactory announcement that the employers were willing to arbitrate the question of the 44-hour week. Earlier in the day they had contended that the short hours asked for by the workers could not be granted without ruin to the industry. The broad principle that the improved condition of the workers the world over required a reduction in their hours of labor. At present the metal workers are stuck to their original demands. To the appeals of the prime minister that they arbitrate the matter, the workers at the conference agreed to agree to what they considered at first refused to consider arbitration at all, but finally yielded. It is now up to the strike committee.

From statements made by the men tonight, it was apparent that the upheavals were of a national character. President Brown said that what they were particularly concerned with, of course, was the Toronto situation, but that they "were in communication with metal trades councils all over the country."

Subscriptions to the "one big union" idea was affirmed by Delegate Peel. The "one big union" principle is sweeping over Toronto, he said, and this is an incident of an economic revolution that is in progress. Delegate Higgins, another metal tradesman, who is a returned soldier, disagreed with this. He said, "is on the other side. They are organized. They want to take the different unions out into the yard one at a time and beat them. We insist that collective bargaining shall be done with the whole allied metal trades together."

A NEW REBELLION IN IRELAND HINTED AT

London, May 29.—An impending new rebellion in Ireland with hints of some imminent drastic action by the government has been the subject of prominent paragraphs and articles in certain of the London newspapers during the last few days. The Daily Mail, which printed a conspicuous article on Wednesday predicting that the rebellion would be more serious than the last, owing to the encouragement given to the Sinn Fein republican movement by Messrs. Walsh, Dunn and Ryan, the American Water House Long is to replace James Macpherson as chief secretary.

MAY QUIT RUSSIA BY END OF SUMMER

British Troops May Be Withdrawn, as Russia Must Be Saved by the Russians.

London, May 29.—Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war, speaking in the house of commons today, foreshadowed the possibility of the withdrawal of foreign troops from Russia by the end of the summer, owing to the favorable situation. As soon as peace was signed, he said, the Rhine army could be reduced from ten to six divisions and still more when it was seen that peace was being effectively carried out.

The British policy, said the secretary, was that Russia must be saved by the Russians, and that New Russia must be a democratic state. The five great powers had decided to make it a condition of their further support and formal recognition of the anti-Bolshevik governments in Russia that those governments must give a clear understanding that their victory would be immediately followed by the summoning of a constituent assembly on a democratic franchise.

Weakness of Bolshevism. Detailing the situation in Russia, Mr. Churchill said that, despite deplorable events in Ukraine and Crimea, throwing the whole of the resources of these fertile regions into Bolshevism hands, the military weakness of Bolshevism was becoming apparent. Wherever the Bolsheviks had been faced with determination they had been repulsed and driven back.

Not Policy But Disease. Mr. Churchill dilated on the extensive work of Admiral Kolchak's army, mainly equipped with British rifles and munitions. Kolchak's advance, he said, already had drawn 20,000 Bolsheviks off the front and sent them to the rear, thus rendering the front within the last three weeks considerably set back. It was a prospect of the whole of north Russia becoming a theatre of purely Russian forces maintaining themselves against the Bolsheviks in the future.

CANADIAN SECURITIES PLACED AS COLLATERAL FOR LOANS IN U. S.

London, May 29.—In the house of commons today Mr. Austen Chamberlain said that dollar securities, now held in the treasury, were being placed as collateral for loans in America. In addition to the deposit Mr. Chamberlain added that securities to the value of $106,101,000 had been purchased by the treasury. Most of these were sold, however.

CZECHS AND POLES MUCH MORE FRIENDLY

Paris, May 29.—Advices received here from Prague, Bohemia, indicate that during the few hours of the Premier Paderewski of Poland, when he dined with Mr. Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, a much better feeling between the Czechs and Poles was brought about. The two governments have appointed a special commission of eighteen, which will meet at Cracow and then at Prague to study the Czech problem and endeavor to reach an agreement.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS KEEP UP WITH TIMES

An infantry officer just home tells a story of the gunners. He fraternized a great deal with the artillery, and when in their mess one night mentioned that his birthday was in three days' time, and wondered whether he would receive any parcels from home. He spent his birthday in the front line, as it happened, and at 9 a.m. was started by an intense barrage which was dropped on the enemy front line opposite for one minute. It was the invariable custom of the staff to warn the infantry in the line of our own artillery program, and as he had received no message he rushed to the phone and asked the gunners, "What the — was up!" The only reply he received was, "Good morning. Very happy birthday to you today." Then the receiver was hung up.

PEEVED. "You should make use of your spare moments," admonished the ever-ready giver of advice. "Are you under the impression that I chop them out of the day and give them away?" asked the sarcastic youth.

GRAND BENEFIT AT FORESTERS' HALL

Program in Aid of Philip Broadbridge Gave Good Vaudeville.

An excellent program of songs and vaudeville, under the direction of V. J. Cavers, was tendered to those who attended the grand benefit performance in aid of Philip Broadbridge, held in the Foresters' Hall last evening. The scene of the play was a base hospital behind the lines in France and nurses, soldiers and visiting entertainers portrayed their various parts.

The Bow Wow Quartette charmed the audience with their rendition of "Oh Moon of the Summer Night" and Claude Parker in "Fugue" received the hearty appreciation of the audience. Billy Moore, the silver-toned tenor, made a hit with his singing of "Dear Old Pal" and "Kisses." Eva Warrington in an Italian love song, showed excellent form and the well known minstrel, George Russell, received merited applause. Eleanor Milroy, in "Don't Cry Frenchy," was especially well received, and prolonged applause greeted her at the close. Pete Frobe, the Swiss yodler, made a decided hit in "Sleep, Baby Sleep," while the "Forsyong" Babe displayed her talent in "Hollis" and won the hearts of her audience. Gordon Street and Ralph Gordon, both had refreshing offerings, "Hats Off to the Army" and "Navy" was charmingly rendered by B. Pearson, the playlet, "The Tramp and the Singer," was well supported by the actors, who cleverly portrayed their parts. Ralph Gordon delighted the audience with his lightning sketches and Bob Clark, the ventriloquist, proved himself a master of the art. Moleworth executed a list of magical stunts and George Russell gained recognition in "Alabama Ball."

The program was well arranged and carried out in a creditable manner by the performers with the result that a good-natured and well pleased crowd departed homeward at the fall of the curtain.

TRYING TO AVERT BRANTFORD STRIKE

Midnight Conference Between Metal Trades Council and the Mayor. Brantford, Ont., May 29.—A meeting of the representatives of the iron working manufacturers of the city and the Metal Trades Council together with Mayor MacBride, was held in the city hall this evening behind closed doors with a view of averting the threatened strikes in local plants. The metal trades federation recently presented demands on the employers calling for increased pay, shorter hours and better working conditions. Through non-arrival of a reply by the manufacturers to an invitation from the Metal Trades Council to the employers asking for a conference, there was a possibility of early strike action, cooler heads prevailed and Mayor MacBride was successful in bringing the parties together, the opening session of the conference being held this evening at 11 o'clock. The conference was still proceeding with no indication that any decision would be reached tonight. Another session is likely.

LOCOMOTIVE MEN OUT

Kingston, Ont., May 29.—There is no sign of settlement in strike of the employees of locomotive works. Outside of this strike everything is labor circles here is in good shape. Montreal, May 29.—Eight hundred operatives employed by the Acme Glue Co. went on strike yesterday for a 35 per cent. increase in wages—a 44-hour week and recognition of their union. The company offered a 15 per cent. wage increase but wished to maintain an open shop.

COL. ROBERT BACON, U. S. DIPLOMAT, DEAD

New York, May 29.—Col. Robert Bacon, former ambassador to France, died at 11:30 o'clock tonight at the eye and ear hospital, where he underwent an operation Saturday for mastoiditis. When the United States entered the lists against Germany he was commissioned a major in May, 1917. Going to France as a liaison officer with the French army, he later served on the staff of Gen. Pershing. He was 59 years old.

SHAUGHNESSY DENIES POLITICAL AMBITIONS

Montreal Gazette. Toronto, May 27.—Lord Shaughnessy has no political ambitions. Interviewed tonight just prior to his departure for Montreal he made light of the rumor that had its origin in Ottawa. The federal arena or any other line of political endeavor has no attraction for him, according to his own statement. The story about the possible or probable creation of a Shaughnessy-Gouin coalition ministry he could not interpret as other than a figment of imagination.

"Well," said the young fellow, with a grim smile, "that's just the point—it's my love of family that gets me into jail."

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 30.

Facing the Social Disease.

It is difficult to arouse public interest in the subject of venereal disease which so fully discussed at the Canadian public health conference this week at the university. The meetings were open to the public, and eminent experts from the United States were among the speakers, but comparatively few attended. And yet, according to the statistics, one out of every three families is infected by these foul and deadly diseases.

Some of the facts in the matter are startling and of course they are shocking, but until the public is thoroughly shocked, a thorough abatement of the evil is impossible. The conspiracy of silence has been to some extent broken down, but there are many families, churches and even newspapers which taboo the subject as not respectable and even obscene. But this attitude does not rescue the innocent sufferers from the ignorant who plunge in their folly into deadly risk, nor help to stamp out the contamination whose contagion endangers the life of everyone who mixes with the general public.

In our hospitals of those who go in with other diseases ten per cent, are found to be affected with venereal disease. The fault is not necessarily their own, so easily communicable are syphilis and chancre.

The experience of the army authorities of all the nations at war, has attracted attention to the subject in a marked manner. The casualties from venereal disease were at first greater than from battle. This condition demanded attention and severe discipline was enforced in regard to prevention and prophylactic treatment. More still was done by educational methods and the men were taught all the danger they ran for themselves, their families, and their children thru contracting the disease.

The economic waste attaching to the disease is tremendous. One hospital with 17,000 beds was required in one district in the United States. Prompt action by the authorities brought the plague under control, so that from very high figures the rate of infection came down to two or three in the thousands. One division was reported with a clean sheet. In Toronto the rate has been very high, but in all cases it has been found to be higher outside the army than inside, on account of the greater care taken by the military authorities in the matter of bathing, disinfecting, and the use of disinfectants in the quarters, and the fact that it is necessary to protect the fighting forces. A man just back from the front reported conditions as he had observed them, and stated that he had just had a letter from his brother who was with the army of occupation in the imperial service near Cologne. He stated that one-third of the men were down with the disease. This was thought to be due to the fact that the new army of occupation was without experience in dealing with the conditions.

These diseases are destroying the health and vigor of the nation. Early death is their certain result. Efforts are being made in all civilized communities to do something to stem the evil. In Ottawa this week an effort is being made to organize a national movement similar to that in Great Britain and the United States thru which the subject may be dealt with by legislation, medically, socially, morally, and in every way possible. Improved forms of recreation are held to be a necessary adjunct to any real reform on this line, and much information was disseminated during this week's conference on all these matters.

Proportional Representation.

The Hamilton Herald remarked the other day that it was strange the labor party did not include proportional representation in its platform. The labor party of Toronto and of Ontario, which has a branch in Hamilton, certainly does so. It is one of the foremost planks of labor. Labor knows very well that as long as the old political machines have their way the labor party has very little chance. Nor has any effort towards suitable and honest government much chance with the old machines at work.

Some people think that proportional representation is merely a means of extinguishing party politics. Nothing could be further from the fact. The system would extinguish machine politics, but it would strengthen and purify real party politics.

This comes about thru the influence of votes that are now either thrown away in hopeless contests or never brought to the poll at all on account of this hopelessness. Under proportional representation every vote counts. The labor man can vote for the labor candidate, knowing that instead of his vote being thrown away, even if he fails to elect his candidate, his second choice or his third choice will help to elect the better man of the other party.

OTHER PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

The World will gladly print under this heading letters written by its readers, dealing with current topics. As long as they are not longer than 200 words and written on one side of the paper only.

AS THE FARMER'S WIFE SEES IT.

Editor World: It seems that a great many of our city friends are taking holidays just now. There are strikes and rumors of strikes. I confess it looks rather strange to country people to see the laboring men demanding an eight-hour day, while we are working from five o'clock in the morning till nine at night, trying to produce something for them to eat.

I have plenty of sympathy with them in their demands for higher wages, in this time of high prices for all necessities, but why any able-bodied man wishes to stop work in the middle of the afternoon is beyond my comprehension. It has been extremely hard to secure help on farms for several years now, and I fear it will be much harder when the eight-hour day comes in force, as it is impossible to keep up to the work on the farm thru the summer months without putting in long days of labor. I am very much afraid that when farmers' hands are up to the eight-hour day someone is going to go hungry.

I wonder what they will do with the remainder of the day. I am pretty sure that the only way to get rid of mischief for idle hands is to find other work for them. I am sure that if for all the men who do some of the discontinued ones not come out to the country, get hold of some land and try to grow something for the food that there is so much need for.

A Fifteen-hour-a-day Farmer's Wife.

PLANS TO COMBAT PLAGUE OF TYPHUS

Economic Council Suggests Using Surplus British and American Hospital Supplies.

Paris, May 29.—The supreme economic council will submit to the government a plan for combating the plague of typhus in eastern and southeastern Europe, which will include the placing at the disposal of the surplus of Red Cross Societies the surplus medical and hospital supplies of the British and American armies. The economic council will also provide transportation while the Red Cross Societies will supply personnel endeavoring to obtain the best medical service that can be secured.

The League of Red Cross Societies is appealing to the societies in Great Britain, France, the United States, Italy and Japan and to 24 national societies in other nations to participate in the campaign against typhus. The appeal says:

"We feel justified in calling on all Red Cross organizations to do everything they can at the present moment to stop the plague."

JUST ONE WAY TO BRIDGE THE CHASM

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

The Associated Press issues the following: The representatives of the allied and associated powers at last have before them the answer of Germany to the terms of the peace treaty.

Under the procedure adopted by the peace congress, the reply of the Germans to the various clauses of the treaty, consisting mainly of counter-proposals seeking to lessen the severity of the allied terms, the members of the council of four will digest the views of the enemy and report back their decision as quickly as possible. This decision is to be final, and Germany then will be compelled either to sign or reject the treaty.

In case of a declination to sign, British, French and American troops are prepared to take such steps as Marshal Foch may deem necessary.

while at sea the old blockade against Germany is ready to be tightened again. A plan of the allies to help Switzerland, in the event of a refusal by Germany to sign, to enforce a more severe blockade against Germany, if necessary, is reported to have failed. Switzerland claiming this would injure Swiss neutrality.

It had been believed possible that on Friday the terms of peace to Austria would be ready for submission by the council of four to the representatives of the smaller nations. This, however, has been found impracticable, owing to the necessity to embody in the treaty the new agreement as regards the Italian claim in the Adriatic region. Nevertheless, the views of the smaller nations will hear the document read Friday, and it is possible that the early week will witness the handing of the treaty to the Austrians at St. Germain.

Unofficial advice concerning the settlement of the Adriatic issue are to the effect that Fiume, the chief bone of contention between the Italian and the other members of the council of four, which Italy desires as her own, but which Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau and President Wilson declined to concede her, is to become independent. Italy reports that it is certain of the Dalmatian Islands, but whether she is to get the seaports of Zara and Sebenico on the Dalmatian coast seems to be in doubt, one report declaring that she will and another declaring she will not.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

By Jane Phelps.

A Distressing Incident.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

I was in a perfect fever of unrest, impatience, and something very like fear. Nell had told us at breakfast that she would not dine at home. I wondered what I should tell his aunt to excuse my absence also when she knew I was not with him. But I had no excuse to make fortunately. Aunt developed a sick headache and went to bed about four o'clock.

I dressed as carefully as I ever had in my life. I knew Blanche Orton's fondness for dress, her exquisite taste, sometimes bizarre taste. I would look as well as possible. I allowed myself just time to reach there by seven o'clock, as I judged that would be her dinner hour. I did not take the car, but walked to the corner and hailed a passing taxi. I would take no one, not even the chauffeur, into my confidence.

As I rang the bell I trembled so I could scarcely stand. When the maid opened the door the sound of laughter and voices nearly caused me to turn and flee. But I had come for a purpose—to help Nell. Had it been for any other reason under the sun I could not have gone. She was ill. I could not but have gone. But the thought of Nell gave me courage.

"Go right upstairs, please, and lay off your things," she said. "You have come for a purpose, and I am glad. But you have not recognized me and I thought me one of the invited guests. I walked slowly up the stairs. I laid aside my cloak, her exquisite if even more slowly down again. Blanche Orton came into the hall.

"I know you would come," he said very low as he immediately crossed to me. "You intended to when you telephoned me."

"And you came because you knew I— I stopped short for two reasons. One that I was taking a good deal for granted, and letting him see it. The other because Nell had joined us, and was presenting Mr. Tearnle, then Mr. Connor. Scott was not there, but Mr. Thompson came in later. There were two women who resembled with all ease until after the wine was served, when they were very talkative and very gay. I never had met women of their type before, and it was as hard, even harder to talk to them than to Tearnle and Connor. But I had come to help Nell, so while refusing to take any wine, I chatted with each of them in turn until the conversation turned upon some mingling proposition. Then I listened.

GENERAL SURVEY OF METAL MINING

Marked Slackening in Mineral Production Follows Signs of Peace.

Nickel Declines in Quantity and Market for Stellite Disappears.

The immediate effect of the peace in Europe upon the mining industry of Ontario is indicated by the first regular quarterly period succeeding the armistice. These are the three months ending March 31 last. This period saw a general and marked slackening in mineral production.

Nickel and copper production show a marked decline, both in quantity and value. The situation, however, is expected to improve over one million ounces, but the effect in valuation is not so great owing to the high price of the metal. Cobalt and nickel now in operation at Porcupine and marked slackening in mineral production.

TO INCREASE TAX ON IMPORT TOBACCO

Smoking in France Will Be Costlier, According to the New Budget.

Paris, May 29.—The ministry of finance, it became known today, proposes to increase the tax on imported tobacco 100 per cent. The tax on French tobacco will be raised 25 per cent.

In outlining his financial policy in a long speech to the senate on Tuesday afternoon, Louis Klotz, the finance minister, declared it was necessary in the first place to pursue a course which, on the one hand, would eliminate all superfluous expense and on the other hand would promote such important production by the state as to be encouraged and developed.

The budget situation, the minister said:

The budget expenses for 1919 will amount to 16,000,000,000 francs of which 10,000,000,000 francs will go to pay the interest on the foreign debt and 4,000,000,000 francs will be for military expenses. Estimating the receipts at 11,000,000,000 francs there remain 5,000,000,000 francs to be found.

Klotz said that the restoration of the budget balance and the decrease in fiduciary inflation would facilitate French payments in foreign countries.

AERIAL MAIL ROUTE, ST. JOHN'S-MONTREAL... Colonial Legislature Ratifies Concession Granted to a London Company. St. John's, Nfld., May 29. — Newfoundland, which has suddenly found itself the centre of world aviation, soon may be connected with Canada and the United States by an aerial mail and passenger line, it developed today, when the lower house of the colonial legislature ratified a concession granted the Imperial Air Craft Manufacturing Company of London. According to a representative of the company who recently arrived here, service will first be introduced between St. John's and Montreal. He said the distance would be covered in 16 hours. Various expeditions assembled here to attempt a transatlantic flight today found their preparations halted because of the difficulty in obtaining workmen to assist at their airframes. Newfoundlanders are too intent on welcoming the steamer Corsican, returning from overseas, with Newfoundland veterans, to give their attention to things material. At present the keenest competition for the first to "hit top" seems to exist between the Handley-Page and Vimy-Vickers teams. The former is arranging to transfer to their quarters at Harbor Grace 30 truckloads of material which arrived on the steamer Sashem. Altho they found that, due to the recent dock strike at Liverpool, much of their material failed to arrive, they expect not to be seriously hampered. Capt. Jack Alcock, pilot of the Vimy, has installed the two engines which will drive his machine. He said he hoped to make a trial flight next week and to get away before the Handley-Page is ready to take the air.

DRUGGIST CLERKS ORGANIZING... Harry St. Clair Frideford, general organizer for the A. F. of L., is organizing the druggist clerks. He stated that druggists were among the worst paid men in the labor market, and yet they needed brains far above the average among the workers of the world. He instanced the case of a man who had graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy, who was serving behind a counter at one of the leading druggists in the city, and was working 80 hours a week for $20 a week. This man's case, he said, was better than the average. He stated that from investigations he had discovered that the average clerk, who was a pharmacist himself, averaged $5 to 90 hours a week. It was this case of affairs which led to the need of organization on the part of these clerks. Altogether there are about 700 clerks in the trade in Toronto.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE... It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bicarbonate, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids, and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief. But before giving up, just try the effect of a little bisaturated magnesia—the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisaturated magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the biggest of heavy, lumpy feelings that seem to follow most everything you eat. You will find that provided you take a little bisaturated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow, and moreover, the continued use of the bisaturated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way, so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

VERA DE LAVELLE MAKES GET-AWAY

A regular prisoner at the jail, she was awaiting sentence for helping her lover, McCullough, to escape from the same poorly guarded boarding house as she herself succeeded in doing. Such being the case, she was allowed to wear her own clothes and boots and for occupation she was given a job of hanging the washing in the line in the exercise yard. Yesterday morning Vera dressed in her dark cloth suit and wearing black boots presented herself as usual after breakfast to the matron in charge of the laundry. She worked well and willingly and apparently happily, up to dinner time. No one, from her demeanor, would suspect that she hoped to be free of the prison in a few hours. The matrons, who have charge of the women prisoners, paid no more attention to Vera than they did to the other women as they considered her harmless of doing anything against rules. Her behavior whilst a guest of the Don House had been above reproach, and she had led her keepers to the firm conviction that she was a harmless and much-wronged woman. The afternoon session of work commenced at one o'clock and Vera, who had as her help the girl Maudie, was busy time in reporting for work. The yard was full of clothes and by some unaccountable means a fairly large ladder had found its way during the dinner interval to the wall guarding the prisoners. The ladder could not be observed from the laundry, the drying clothes hanging from view. Vera and her companion were by the matron, and apparently without any guard to watch these movements, took from the lines dried clothes and hang out some others. Now it must be remembered Vera had been working in the prison laundry for some time past, and it would not be surprising to her eagle eye and planning mind, that the drying clothes formed a splendid screen for a prisoner operating between the laundry and the prison wall. All that was required was "something" whereby she would mount the 45 foot wall so as to get to freedom. By some as yet unexplained circumstance yesterday afternoon a ladder was placed in a nice convenient, but out of sight position against the wall, but whether the ladder belongs to the prison or was dropped over from the outside—a perfectly easy matter if the prison observation were lax—was a question not yet definitely settled. The ladder, however, was there and Vera and her companion taking advantage of the opportunity and the non-visibility of any matron to guard them, just playfully ran up it and dropped from the wall onto the outside of the prison. The two girls were now free and remained to their individual ingenuity to avoid recapture.

REWARD OF $50 KNIGHTS TEMPLAR HONOR ASCENSION

Service at St. Alban's Sees Grand Turn-Out of Order.

The annual Ascension Day service in connection with the Order of Knights Templar, was held in St. Alban's Cathedral last night, when about 150 members were present. Those in attendance included: Grand Master Charles H. Collins, Eminent Preceptor of Geoffrey St. Aldemar A. C. Fowler; Eminent Preceptor of Cyrene W. Lawrence; Right Eminent Preceptors J. A. Norris, J. A. Cowan, W. Galloway, O. P. McGregor, Harry Montgomery and J. A. Doust. Rev. A. E. Ribourg, who was the preacher, said the festival of the Ascension from time immemorial had been held by the Knights Templar. He traced the history of the order from the time of the crusades, and the determination of the first knights to protect and make secure the pilgrimages from parts of Christendom to the Holy City. From its small beginning the order soon spread throughout the Christian world, but in spite of the sacrifices in wealth and in blood during the centuries, Jerusalem was lost. They now rejoiced that after having been under the rule of the unspcakable Turk, the Holy City was again in Christian hands. He expressed the hope that sometime in the near future the Knights Templar of the American continent might organize a pilgrimage to meet with their British brothers in that sacred land. In the course of his discourse, Rev. Mr. Ribourg said there was no such thing as stagnation or standing still in the life of a true Christian. The Christian life was no calm philosophy, neither was it dreaming things, but doing things, not sighing for the sins of men, but mending them, not deploring wrongs but fighting them.

public will undoubtedly demand an independent investigation into the prison administration and the means adopted for the safe custody of prisoners. After McCullough's sensational escape the only improvement, apparently, made was to block up the window thru which he made his exit from the jail, and the public were assured that everything at the prison was A-1—at least so W. W. Dunlop, the inspector of prisons for Ontario, is reported to have declared. It seems from the Lavelle incident that a new version of Mr. Dunlop's statement will have to be issued.

Acting Mayor Maguire, in an interview last night, said he was strongly of the impression that an immediate investigation into the management of the jail should be made. "It seems to me the jail is wrongly managed," he added. "It is not a jail at all—it's simply a stop-over place." The city is a big contributor to the maintenance of the jail and should find out as quickly as possible what is wrong with its administration.

SPLendid GIFT BY THE I. O. F.

Presentation to Orthopedic Hospital of Finely-Finished Rest Seat.

Yesterday afternoon witnessed another act of thoughtfulness for the returned and wounded soldier by the independent Order of Foresters in the presentation of a large and finely finished rest seat for the use of convalescent soldiers of the Orthopedic Hospital, Christie street, where seven hundred and fifty to a thousand soldiers are being treated for the various injuries received on the firing line of Canada's army in the Great War.

The Supreme Chief Ranger, Mr. W. H. Hunter, on behalf of the Order over which he so ably presides, made the presentation, and in his remarks said that the organization which he represented always took the deepest interest in the welfare of the soldiers while at the front and now that the boys were returning would continue to show the same interest in their welfare.

Mr. George A. Mitchell, Assistant Supreme Chief Ranger, and Superintendent of the Organizing Department, expressed the goodwill which the Order had for the soldiers, stating that the gift was the outcome of a suggestion by Companion Mrs. Canning who lives in the district, and thought that such a convenience would be highly appreciated by those who are being treated in the Hospital.

The audience, as had been expected, representing the Mayor and the City, expressed his pleasure in taking part upon this occasion, not only in his own capacity as a member of the Great Fraternal Organization known as the Independent Order of Foresters.

Clonias Menzies, representing Colonel MacVicar, who was unavoidably absent, accepted the gift on behalf of the hospital, and assured the donors that their consideration and generosity would be fully appreciated by the patients.

The conclusion of the ceremony was presided over by the Quartermaster Trump and Bandmaster Shields conducted the visitors through the institution, who expressed themselves delighted with the splendid rest seats which were being presented in the treatment of the boys who came back physically so marred by bayonet, bullet and shrapnel.

Among those present were Mr. W. H. Hunter, Supreme Chief Ranger; Mr. Geo. A. Mitchell, Assistant Supreme Chief Ranger; Mr. Harvey S. Lloyd, Mr. D. Dixon, Pte. N. L. Wilson, Alderman MacGregor, Companion Mrs. Canning, and Mr. George L. Wilson.

GREATER THE CASH, BETTER THE SAINT

Later Day Bishop Admits Census of Congregation's Income.

The case of Bishop McGuire, of Independent, Mo., against Bishop Evans of Toronto for accounting of certain funds alleged to have been diverted by the latter for the use of the church when he succeeded from the reorganized church of the Later Day Saints, was resumed before Chief Justice Sir Glenholme Falconbridge in the non jury assizes for the month of May.

Bishop McGuire, recalled to the stand yesterday, identified a questionnaire sent out in 1917 to secure full disclosure of the property of every individual in the church, which was composed mostly of women, members of the ladies' auxiliaries of the two churches.

For the purpose of seeing how much the traffic would bear, suggested Mr. Smyth, K.C. "I would not put it that way," replied witness. "The idea was to secure, if possible, a more general compliance with the temporal law in which each individual conducts his business on the stewardship basis."

The idea, said witness, was to bring about a general equality. He admitted also that if they did not comply with this regulation they were not as good "saints" as some of the other ones.

A. F. McLean, president of the Toronto branch of the reorganized church, stated that some 400 active members had left when Bishop Evans resigned to go with him. The ladies' organizations, said witness, in reply to a question, were independent and could spend their money as they saw fit. The surplus from the church meetings had gone to Bishop Evans, said Mr. McLean, which was perfectly right.

Counsel accused witness of attacking the defendant by implication in his answers, and challenged him to state his accusations outside the witness box or to put them in writing, under threat of an action for slander or criminal libel.

James Alexander Wilson gave evidence regarding a cheque for $100 from his mother given to Bishop Evans for a "tithing." It had not appeared in the books in the "tithing" account.

Death Watch Currell Will Be Tried at General Sessions

Ernest Currell, former member of Frank McCullough's death watch and now awaiting trial for the alleged aiding and abetting of the murderer's escape, was brought up for trial before Judge Costello in the court of general sessions. The grand jury brought in a true bill against the guard some time ago, but the case was held over for some time on account of the absence of his counsel, Hugh John Macdonald.

STOLE AUTO WHEELS

In the sessions yesterday Judge Costworth fined Joseph Ferguson $50 or two months in jail for the theft of two sets of auto chains and two wheels from the Grace Motors with whom he was employed as a mechanic. It was stated that accused was on the way back to return the stolen goods when he was arrested.

PROSPECTS DWINDLE FOR GOOD FRUIT CROP. Dominion Expert Predicts Heavy Reduction From First Estimates of the Peach Yield. St. Catharines, Ont., May 29.—The very brilliant prospects for a large crop of fruit which arose during the earlier part of the spring on account of the profuse blossom on the trees have during the last few days been considerably reduced owing to the great prevalence in peaches of leaf curl in all the stoned fruits of the brown rot, said W. A. McCubbin of the Dominion field laboratory of plant pathology, after a careful investigation in a statement to the Canadian press this morning. "Very few orchards have escaped leaf curl entirely and in many cases 75 to 90 per cent. of the leaves are affected. Judging from past experience the presence of so much leaf curl will mean a heavy drop in the peach yield. Immense numbers of blossoms of plums, peaches and cherries have been destroyed during the last few days by the brown rot fungus."

BUILDING BOOM NOW ON IN BRANTFORD. Permits Have Already Been Issued for 125 Houses—Also a Hundred Applications. Special to The Toronto World. Brantford, May 29.—A building boom seems to be striking this city, particularly with regard to homes. Permits have already been issued for 125 homes, and there are over 100 applications for loans from the housing commission in addition. To date $37,000 in permits have been issued—more than the total for 1918 and 1917—and the activity has resulted in such a shortage of brick that an old brickyard is being put into shape, and all others are working to their full capacity. The latest proposal is for the erection of a modern apartment house here, local financiers having the matter under consideration.

FRESH ADVANCES IN WALL STREET

Trade Reports Showing Return of Prosperity Are Powerful Stimulus.

New York, May 29.—The course of the stock market, aside from occasional intervals of comparative dullness, continued to show a steady upward movement, extending to many branches of the industry.

Much of the activity and great volume centered in specialties, representative issues, including investment trusts, and especially local traction, featured by the shipping proving the only commodity exception.

Traders described the fresh encouragement from the monthly report of the federal reserve board, which confirmed the optimistic reports of country-wide recovery, extending to many branches of the industry.

Advances from agricultural centres were being met by recent optimistic forecasts, and the mercantile agencies emphasized the magnitude of grain exports, especially of iron and steel, and a variety of other important commodities.

WEST SHINING TREE STANDS ON MERITS

Mining Editor World: An anonymous writer in The Toronto Globe of May 23 attacks Ontario's newest gold camp, that of West Shining Tree. He shows ignorance of conditions, past or present, governing it.

I will wager he has never properly investigated its possibilities and altho he starts out so confidently to malign it. He may be confusing East Shining Tree, situated on the boundary line between Sudbury and Nipissing districts with West Shining Tree and Wasaukuk lakes; East Shining Tree was before the public during the Gowganda boom.

I will also wager that he is interested in some other gold camp along the Timiskaming and northern Ontario railway and in property and stocks which he wants to get rid of before Shining Tree absorbs still more interest from the public.

"West Shining Tree," let him get the name right, is a name which he has used for this new field already attracting the big fellows, will detract interest and trading from less attractive fields.

Let me name twenty properties which I have sampled in West Shining Tree and challenge our Cobalt knocker to name two or three competent mining engineers to make a thorough examination of the camp, particularly the properties I have in mind. If the report is favorable he pays, if it is unfavorable to the camp I pay all expenses.

I am familiar with every gold camp in Ontario and can say without fear of contradiction that West Shining Tree has more surface gold showings, more than any other camp yet discovered.

Samples taken by way of channel cuts from large veins crushed in a mortar and panned in a gold pan show consistent values, veins from 2 feet to 20 feet wide may be sampled and panned at various places that would give a fair fall of free gold in assays of quarterings of the same samples show the rock to be valuable free milling ore running from $4.00 to over $20.00 per ton.

The government official records should convince our Cobalt critic that the geological conditions are all that can be desired for a gold camp of the high order.

The only danger the writer can see is that the prospector is liable to be carried away, in the ever increasing rush, will boost his prices and terms to such an extent that capital will fight shy of the camp until things settle down. There is already a tendency toward this. "Gold, so much sold drives some men mad."

Capital should be encouraged by long options with working conditions for development, and corresponding long time payments, with a small amount down at say sixty days or thirty days after examination. This shows that the owner has confidence in his claims and is willing to take a fair chance in the actual development of the property.

It will be noted that the man who is moderate in his prices and terms is generally the best to sell; this gives him a chance to go out and get more. The area is large and West Shining Tree should be a big camp, and the end of the summer should show other valuable discoveries at considerable distance from the centre of the present camp.

The Ontario government roads department have men getting ready camps and stables along the road that had been cut out when the war began. This road will forthwith be built and graded so that heavy loads may be hauled over it. When the road is finished the camp will be only about two hours by motor from the National railway. I hope our unknown Cobaltier will sign his name to the next knocker; there is no place in Canada for a knocker, especially the kind who keep under other valuable discoveries at considerable distance from the centre of the present camp.

N. S. CAR DEAL OFF

Hamilton, Ont., May 29.—The deal by which the American Car and Foundry Company was to take over the National Steel Car Company of this city has been called off. Sir John Gibson, president of the National Car Company, made this announcement this afternoon.

"The price agreed upon was satisfactory," he said, "but the American company did not go far enough in its undertakings to the shareholders, payments being made contingent on the profits of the operating company. The shareholders did not consider this sufficient guarantee for parting with the big plant. We will continue to operate it and hope to share in some of the big peace orders."
