MAY BE BLOOD SHED IN THE GOLD FIELDS

Men Employed by Guggenheims Fighting for Right of Way--Their Opponents Appeal to U. S. Government for Protection.

SEATTLE, Wn., July 3--A special to the Post-Intelligencer from Valdez, Alaska, tells of the preparations for armed conflict between the Copper river and Northern railway forces and the Alaska-Pacific railway men at Katalla. The Copper river railroad, which is known throughout Alaska as the Guggenheim proposition, aiming to tap the Copper river district, is attempting to cross the right of way of the Alaska-Pacific company, known as the Bruner line, which also aims for the Copper River District by way of Lake Charlotte. The Bruner people have applied to Governor Hoggatt of Alaska for the protection of the United States troops, alleging that the Guggenheim forces contemplate an attack upon them. Authorities at Valdez admit that the situation is serious.

TAFT WILL SPEND THE SUMMER AT MURRAY BAY

United States Presidential "Probability" Will Take His Vacation Far from the Madding Crowd--A Mosquito Report.

(From Our Regular Correspondent) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27--Secretary Taft has returned to Washington and will settle down to work on the mass of material that has accumulated during his trip to the west and his visit to his presidential at Sagamore Hill. He came here direct from New Haven after attending the Yale commencement and after completing his work here he will go to Murray Bay, Canada, to spend the summer with his family until September when he starts on his trip to the Philippines. The report that he is spending the summer at the Taft home is not credited by his friends here who declare that the popular secretary is more popular than ever and that his prestige will be greatly increased when he returns to the Philippines after having personally directed the first efforts at self government of the islands. It is also believed that he will undertake diplomatic negotiations with Japan this also will add to his reputation in this country. So confident are his friends that he will get the nomination they are letting his boom rest awhile and the active work will not be undertaken until December when the national republican committee meets and when Mr. Taft will have returned from his trip to the Orient. It is said that the president does not favor active work in the campaign before next fall believing as General Charles has said, that "early homecoming is a boom" but that Mr. Taft is still the favorite there can be no doubt even though it is so persistently rumored that affection for Taft is always reports, it is easy to see, emanate from the opponents of the administration and may be taken with much salt.

MARCONI SERVICE IN GULF OF ST. LAWRENCE MONTREAL, July 3--(Special)--Hugh Allan of the Allan Line today made a statement regarding complaints against the Marconi service. Mr. Allan took the ground that the dispute between Supt. Doure of the government telegraph service and the Marconi people should not be allowed to interfere with the efficiency of the service. It is stated that the Marconi stations in the Gulf are not working yet, with great disadvantage to the steamship companies, while some of the government telegraph lines are giving no service.

MONTREAL STOCKS MONTREAL, July 3--(Special)--Despite tight money the stock market continues strong in tone. The outlook seems much more cheerful and with a return of easier money and given the same bright aspect there is no reason to doubt that prices would rally with a rush. There were transactions in Rio Bonds at 73 7/8; Detroit, 66 1/2 to 67; Montreal, 90 1/2; Montreal Street Ry., 299; Mackay 47 1/2 and Dom. Iron, 24. The impression in the market is that the Ross buying is over for the present, the recent purchases having given that party all the stock necessary for their purposes of control.

CAPTURED BY RAISULI TANGIER, July 3--Kaid General Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the Sultan's body guard, has been made a prisoner by Raisuli, the bandit chief, and will be held as a hostage by the latter until the Sultan agrees to pardon Raisuli on his own terms.

SENATOR KING IN OTTAWA OTTAWA, July 3--(Special)--Senator King of New Brunswick is here today on departmental business.

FORESTERS PAY A HIGH TRIBUTE TO E. P. EASTMAN THEIR HIGH TREASURER

On His Retirement From Office After 23 Years Service He is Granted a Gratuity and Recommended for Grand Cross of Merit.

The High Court of New Brunswick, I. O. F., resumed its session at this morning with H. C. R. Woods in the chair. A special committee on resolutions relative to the death of the late Supreme Chief Ranger, Dr. E. P. Eastman, M. N. Cockburn and A. M. Belding were appointed. The high court heard with great respect the high chief statement that E. P. Eastman, so long high treasurer of the court, and who was present, was compelled to give up the office. The chief spoke in fitting terms the court regretted, and appointed J. V. Russell assistant treasurer for this session. Mr. Eastman has been treasurer of high court for twenty-three years. M. N. Cockburn, R. H. Davis and C. King reported as the committee on petitions and appeals that no grievances existed among the courts in any part of the jurisdiction. Appreciation was expressed of the very efficient work done by the officers in the past year. Prizes to courts which had won them were presented to delegates from the Tomah, Seaside, Berry's Mills, Quanganog, Progress and Squatook, by P. H. C. R. A. W. Macrae. These courts had won the prizes by adding to their membership. Mr. Macrae paid a tribute to these courts, and mentioned D. Bradley and J. A. Brooks of St. John as especially active in this city. Mr. Macrae expressed the hope that the example of these courts would encourage others in the very necessary propagation work of the order. The delegates were warmly applauded as they received the checks for the prizes which were in cash. Mr. Macrae regretted that there were no companion courts on the list, and hoped to see this state of things remedied. Checks had already been issued to Courts City Camp, Dumbarton, Keswick and George for similar prizes. St. Mary's, Andover and Sunbury, are also probably entitled to them, although this was not yet quite clear to the high executive.

AN INTERESTING DISCUSSION R. A. Borden, for the committee on constitution and laws, submitted their report. They were and should be kept independent. The report was taken up section by section. A. W. Macrae declared with regard to the total disability benefit the rates would have to be increased. As far as the fund benefit was concerned, it might very well be continued, but there are hundreds of members on the total disability list, and to triple or quadruple the rates is to put those totally and permanently disabled on the sick and funeral benefit list. If the word "sick" were omitted and only "funeral" used he would not oppose the resolution. D. G. Lingley suggested that Mr. Macrae move an amendment omitting the words "sick benefit."

HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE H. C. R.--H. W. Woods. P. H. C. R.--D. G. Lingley. H. V. C. R.--Reverly Steeves. H. S. W.--J. W. Smith. H. T.--E. P. Eastman. H. Physician--J. D. Lawson. H. Counsellor--R. B. Hansen.

APPOINTED OFFICERS H. O.--Rev. B. H. Thomas. H. J. S.--R. M. Grindley. H. Organist--Prof. H. G. Perry. H. S. W.--J. W. Smith. H. J. W.--Samuel Thorne. H. M.--Frank Allingham.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER HIRAM IS CRITICAL. Mr. Hiram Hornbeam is attending the Foresters' high court. He is one of the older members of the order, and attendance at high court is an annual dispensation with him. He suggested an amendment that should be given to the old members who have paid for sick and funeral benefits and perhaps received none. He saw the force Mr. Macrae's remarks, but felt that something should be done, and that the matter should be taken up by the supreme court.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER I call'te we kin show you some papers with talkin' about. Well--I guess I'll go an' do a little canvassin' now. Did you know I'm goin' run for high senior beside? I am--By Hen!

COLLINS' FATE NOW HANGS IN BALANCE

The Case Was Given to the Jury This Morning--Chief Justice Tuck Charges Strongly Against the Prisoner--Sharp Passages With Mr. McKeown.

MONTCTON, July 3--(Special)--The Solicitor General continued summing up of the crown's case to the jury in the Collins murder trial today. He pointed out that Collins on the stand had admitted that he had done practically everything that was charged against him except the striking of the fatal blow. The Solicitor General's address occupied the time till 10.46 Judge Tuck in charging the jury said the case had been admirably tried on both sides. The prisoner's counsel had left nothing undone that could be done and that no amount of money would have improved the defence. The judge charged rather against the prisoner. Mr. McKeown arose when the judge had finished and said "Your honor could you not have charged more favorably to the prisoner regarding the watch?" The judge replied "What did you wish me to do Mr. McKeown?" Mr. McKeown: "I have no hesitation in saying your honor that you have charged much harder against the prisoner than Judge Gregory did at the former trial." His Honor: "I may have spoken in loud voice perhaps." Mr. McKeown: "I did not touch upon the watch Your Honor, but the learned Solicitor General went into the watch fully and you seemed to me to have strengthened his argument." The Judge: "I did what I thought was right in the matter." The Solicitor General objects to Mr. McKeown making any further remarks or any address in the presence of the jury. Mr. McKeown: "I did not touch upon the watch." His Honor: "Then you ought to have done so." The Solicitor General: "I protest against a further address by Mr. McKeown." His Honor: "I have the right as chief justice sitting here, to have the last words to the jury. Sit down Mr. McKeown you ought not to persist in your remarks." The Chief Justice then turned to the jury and said: "Gentlemen, after you go to your juryroom you cannot be separated or go to your boarding places for your meals but if you fail to agree on a verdict by one o'clock I will make arrangements with the sheriff that food will be supplied you. The constables were then sworn and the jury retired at 12 noon.

MONCTON MEN WOULD NOT WORK IN HALIFAX

MONTCTON, N. B., July 3 (Special)--The strikers, but rather than do so several I. C. R. employees, it is stated, have refused to obey orders, and have been suspended. Two young men, one employed in handling baggage at the depot here and the other employed about the I. C. R. office building in the capacity of a janitor, it is understood were sent to Halifax this week. Upon arriving there and learning the situation they immediately returned to Moncton. The result of this refusal to obey orders was thus suspended. It is stated that the men not the only cases where an effort has been made to get I. C. R. employees here to go to Halifax to take the places of the striking freight handlers, but when the situation was learned the employees refused and were also placed under suspension. The management has been asked by Halifax board of trade to relieve the situation in reference to congested freight.

ST. JOHN LUMBERMEN BUY UNMARKED LOGS

FREDERICTON, July 3--(Special)--The annual sale of unmarked logs rafted at the booms, was held at the office of A. F. Randolph and Sons, this morning. The spruce was bid in by Charles Miller for $125 per thousand. John A. Morrison got the pine at $9.70. Hilary Drexel bought the hemlock for $5.50 and the cedar for $6.70. Purchasers will get all the no mark and mix mark logs to come through the booms this season.

STEAMER DAMAGED MONTREAL, July 3--(Special)--The Richelieu & Ontario steamer Prescott, while trying to make a landing at the foot of the Lachine canal last night, ran into the lock and smashed it. The Prescott was then carried back by the water and collided with the steam barge Hansons of the Pittsburg and Erie Coal Company, which sank with a load of pulpwood. The Prescott was badly damaged and will have to be repaired. In the meantime her place will be taken by the Rapids King.

A BRITISH EXPERIMENT

The most interesting feature of the new constitution of the Orange River Colony is the course of procedure in the event of a deadlock between the two houses of the legislature. It is thus set forth in a review in the Montreal Gazette:— "It is ordained that if the legislative assembly passes a proposed law, and the legislative council rejects or fails to pass it, or passes it with amendments to which the legislative assembly will not agree; and if the legislative assembly, at the next session, again passes the proposed law, with or without any amendments that have been made, suggested or agreed to by the legislative council, and the legislative council again rejects or fails to pass, or passes it with amendments to which the legislative assembly will not agree, the governor may convene a joint sitting of the two chambers, when the members may deliberate and shall vote together upon the proposed law as last proposed by the assembly and upon the amendments which have been made by the one house and not agreed to by the other; and any such amendments as are affirmed by an absolute majority of the total number of the two houses shall be taken to have been carried, and if the majority of the total number of members of the two houses shall be taken to have been duly passed by the legislature. This joint session may or may not be preceded by a dissolution of the legislature, as the governor may deem advisable."

That is to say, if the governor feels that an expression of popular opinion is desirable he may dissolve the house before the disputed bill is referred to the joint session. As this constitution was approved by the Campbell-Bannerman government, the Gazette is doubtless right in assuming that they will hear of it when they introduce legislation affecting the house of lords.

NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

Mr. James J. Hill, as a pessimist, is not an impressive figure. He is not taken seriously, even at a time when the troubles of the railroads loom large in the eye of the investor. The Cleveland Leader discusses Mr. Hill and his dismal prophecies in the following entertaining fashion:—

"James J. Hill, in his old age, rich beyond princes and a little weary of the stress of great undertakings, does not talk like the empire-builder and railroad builder of his early prime. It is another voice that speaks now in his name. The Hill who talks of the plight of the railroads as one which will drive them to seek the aid of the national government in raising the money which they must have for improvements is not the bold and confident spirit of a quarter of a century ago. The great railway master of the Northwest is getting out of harmony with the times. He is losing the far vision of his earlier faith in the growth and development and resourcefulness of his adopted country. To suggest that the national government will be asked to lend its credit to railroad companies for a few billion dollars of new bonds is absurd. No one who has the least comprehension of political conditions and the temper of the public can imagine that the country would listen to any such scheme. To suggest that the United States as a nation shall go into the business of underwriting loans for the improvement of the equipment of American railroads is practically to talk of government ownership. The latter would be better supported than any project which contemplated the use of the nation's credit on a huge scale, for the benefit of private corporations. The railroads will have to work out their own salvation. They must cut their cloth according to their means. If they can't get the money needed to lay heavier rails, all at once, they will have more moderate schedules. They can trust the wonderful growth and development of the country to furnish a market, before long, for all securities required under conservative management of solid properties. The resources available today are no measure of the possibilities of the next year. Old age is rarely sanguine. Mr. Hill is nearly 60. His talk begins to show it."

TOO PROSPEROUS

The New York Journal of Commerce quotes the following statement made by a "prominent Montreal banker," and adds that Canada is not alone in the experience noted:— "It looks now as though there might be a commercial setback in Canada before very long, and it will be due almost entirely to the over-prosperity of the country. The Canadian banks simply have not got enough money to meet the demands of the country and they have found it impossible to get anything like enough money in from outside countries. "Accounts which a year ago the leading banks would have been very glad to get are now forced to refuse, simply because they have not got enough funds to enable them to handle them. A few months ago we rather looked for some relief from the money stringency about the beginning of the summer, but it is still as acute as ever and there is nothing to indicate very much relief for some time to come."

The Koreans have appealed to the Hague peace conference against "Japanese barbarity." Anything more barbarous than the condition of Korea when the Japanese entered that country at the beginning of the late war with Russia is would be difficult to find. A man's head was never safe on his shoulders if for any reason any official wanted it taken off. Possibly the methods of Japan are those of the soldier rather than of the missionary, but in the end Korea will be civilized.

Railway officials in Montreal, according to the Herald, declare that very strong representations have been made to the steel rail manufacturers as to the necessity and urgency of a better and more reliable rail, as many of the accidents on the railways are due to the leakage of rails. It is understood, the Herald says, that in order to secure this the railways are willing to pay a reasonable increase in price. The price at present is $28 a ton.

Banks and trust companies in the United States have had a prosperous year and quite a number of them have been enabled to increase their dividends, but despite the larger profits of the year the stocks of such companies have declined radically. The explanation generally offered is that holders of these stocks have frequently been obliged to dispose of them in order to protect speculative issues.

The Manitoba government is giving practical encouragement to the development of the dairy industry by sending out over the railway lines a daily special, with a staff of professors from the agricultural college. The train consists of two cars, a living car and another fitted up as a dairy, equipped with all the latest machinery for turning milk into marketable products, the milk being secured from the districts where the train stops.

Halifax stands to lose heavily on a large civic loan, because of the stringency of the money market, and one of the aldermen says:—"Under the circumstances it is regrettable, to say the least, when viewed from the taxpayers' standpoint, that it is necessary to float this loan at this time, and that large and unnecessary undertakings were begun this year in utter disregard of the present financial condition."

In view of some of the doings at Camp Sussex it is reassuring to read in a Calais letter to the Bangor Commercial that "Capt. George P. Ryder of St. Stephen stated before starting for the annual encampment at Sussex that out of the 42 young men composing his company, 35 do not use liquor or tobacco in any form."

HOW BISHOP TALBOT (MET GLADSTONE)

One of the most entertaining reminiscences in Bishop Talbot's "My People of the Plains" is the story of how he met Gladstone:—"A few years later, when on my way to the Lambeth Conference, I called on three other bishops on Mr. Gladstone himself, driving out from Chester. He had been ill, and when we presented our cards at the door the servant said he feared Mr. Gladstone would not see us, as he had been denying himself to all callers of late. But when he discovered, as he afterwards told us, that we were American bishops, he came down without delay. We asked one of our number, the Lord Bishop of Niagara, as a British subject to present us. When Mr. Gladstone heard the title, 'Bishop of Wyoming,' he manifested quite an interest. 'I am glad you call it Wyoming,' he said. 'I like to hear the old vocal sound. We had a poet about forty years ago, Mr. Thomas Campbell, who wrote "Gertrude of Wyoming." To scan the metre one had to accent the anti-penultimate and any Wyoming. I never liked that.' "Then the Grand Old Man launched forth and asked me many questions. At that time his hearing was seriously impaired, and I have always thought that the mere accident of sitting near him and answering his questions distinctly explained the fact that he honored my diocese and myself with so much of his time and interest. Or perhaps this may have been due to the resemblance which he fancied he saw and which seemed to hold his attention and startle him, between myself and a very dear university friend, young Selwyn, the great missionary bishop. He was particularly curious about the question of woman's suffrage as adopted in Wyoming and Idaho, and also evinced a surprising familiarity with our leading industries. Our visit was not a protracted one, but nothing could have exceeded the graciousness and cordiality of Mr. Gladstone toward us."

ON CREDIT

(Green Bag.) In one of the Upper Peninsula counties of Michigan is a lawyer, not a bad fellow, but possessing the capacity to say the wrong thing at the right time. He was recently employed as attorney for the plaintiff in an action before a justice growing out of an assault. The defendant and plaintiff are laborers, both foreigners, and the defendant, as soon as process was served, anxious to settle, went to the plaintiff's attorney to effect a compromise. He had no money, but was profuse in promises to fix it up "pay day" and told the attorney if he consented to fixing the matter up he would make it right with him personally. Assuming the dignity which pertains to the profession, and filled with righteous indignation over mere suggestions of payment from the opposition, he replied in just anger:—"My dear sir, I am the plaintiff's attorney in this case, and can't accept any compromise without consulting my client, and you must not come to me with such a proposition. I want you people to distinctly understand once for all time that you can't bribe an honest lawyer, on

EARTH WEARY

Pale brow too white for traces of pain. Fruit hands too soft for the world's thorn and rue. Unearthly eyes beneath whose drooping lids There lay too much of heaven shining through.

Pale, weary feet that strove to keep their road. But longer across the poppy fields to roam: Then God looked down—saw anguish in her eyes. And through a poppled sunset led her home. —By Archibald Sullivan, in Appleton's for June.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

THE ANGELO! "The Convict"—"Yes, sir, I think more of that than I do of any other living creature." "The Chaplain"—"Ah, in every man there is something of the angel, if we can but find it." —How came you to be taken much fancy to this rat? "The Convict"—"If once hit the chief warden, sir." —The Sketch.

HE SAW IT.

(London Globe.) Sir Robert Ball, the British scientist, is fond of imparting information to the young. Once he was showing a little boy how to study the heavens through the telescope. "That star," said Sir Robert, "please such a great man, the youngster made this staggering reply: 'Yes; I saw it.' As a matter of fact, the star to which the scientist referred takes 90 years to make the circuit."

TOO ILL TO BE NURSED.

(Washington Post.) During our war with Spain a certain hospital had a corps of nurses. An exceptional one was Miss W. W. Savage, a "little thinker" calmly riding in the Tislergarten in July, 1906, "you do not seem to be taking his wounds very seriously," said the scientist. "The answer," was "as this hospital would come to a favorite soldier, and find him lying with his eyes shut on his cot, and this note pinned on the counterpane: "To ill to be nursed today.—John Smith."

SUSPICION JUSTIFIED.

(Indianapolis Star.) "To be unfair, to be prejudiced, to be suspicious, is always to judge wrongly," said Governor Sheldon, of Nebraska. The suspicious man falls into error, and makes a fool of himself. "There was a very suspicious countryman who went to New York to see the sights. Coming to the Metropolitan Museum, he was amazed to find that the admission to this splendid building cost nothing. He mounted the steps and entered. "Your umbrella, sir," said the uniformed official, extending his hand. "The countryman jerked back his umbrella, laughed scornfully, and turned on his heel. "I knowed there was some cheat about it when ye got in free," he said."

A PERSONAL EXPERIENCE.

(The Independent.) Met Henry W. Vaughn the other day, and accumulated the following quite characteristic story of George Ade. As of course you know, Mr. Savage produced "The Sultan of Sulu," "Peggy from Paris," and other comic operas of which Mr. Ade's profile pen was the proud progenitor, and he was writing the Hooper librettist to write another musical comedy for the Savage office. "Can't do it, governor," cried Mr. Ade, shaking his head gloomily; "can't do it; I can't write lyrics to save my immortal soul."

"HOTTEST COON"

IS A GOOD SHOW Excellent Entertainment at the Opera House by Clever Company. A large and enthusiastic audience witnessed the opening production of the Hottest Coon in Dixie at the Opera House last night. The piece is simply a musical farce-comedy and a combination of good specialties. Answered A. Copeland in the leading role made an instantaneous hit and his songs, in the first act particularly, were heartily applauded. "All Wise Chickens. Follow Me," was splendidly done and was twice favored with the house and Mr. Richardson had to respond a second time. The adventures of a colored policeman added to the entertainment which was practically unlimited. The olio was probably the best ever presented here by a colored company. Billy Nichols is certainly one of the cleverest mimics who has visited St. John in many years and was accorded a tremendous reception. Another feature of the evening was the cornet and slide trombone offering by Jackson, and Lucas Rowland's offering was that of a tramp juggler and was followed by Mr. Dolson and Miss Logan in a clever little song and dance turn. The Dixie four also scored. The second act contained some good work which was well received. The chorus, while not very large is a good one and the part singing was nicely done. The Hottest Coon in Dixie will be repeated at a matinee performance today, also tomorrow evening.

Associate Justice Brewer of the U. S. Supreme Court Forecasts Wonderful Achievements in the Coming Years--He Has the Utmost Confidence in the Future--Says "Trillionaires" Are Coming what it means, this one thing of saving time, in our human existence. It gives us more opportunity to think, to study, to work, to accumulate wealth, to carry on trade and commerce, and, moreover, also to devote to helping others and promoting peace and happiness in the world.

NO FEAR OF GREAT WEALTH. "We have millionaires today and billionaires tomorrow. Perhaps we shall have trillionaires next. Let us have them, because their wealth is used for increasing the welfare and happiness of humanity. I do not view with alarm the accumulation of wealth, because I believe that the spirit of humanity and the sense of responsibility is growing among us."

FORESTERS ENJOY A FINE EXCURSION ON THE RIVER Much Business Transacted at Last Evening's Session of the High Court.

The Foresters excursion to Watters' Landing yesterday afternoon was one of the most successful out of the city for years. Between 400 and 500 ladies and gentlemen, accompanied by the Carleton Cornet Band, went in street cars to Indiantown and boarded the steamer May Queen, which left for the river at 2:30 o'clock.

Supreme Vice-Chief Ranger Clarke was the next speaker. He referred to a former visit to the high court, in Moncton, and told a very humorous story in connection therewith. He paid an eloquent tribute to Judge Wedderburn, and expressed regret that the judge had been compelled to retire. Mr. Clarke made a very humorous opening address, that kept the high court on the broad grin in a merry laughter, with a string of very funny anecdotes.

SENATORS ARGUE WITH 'TIM' HURST OVER DECISION ON LA PORTA'S SHOOTING

In a free hitting, loosely played game at the hilltop ground, New York, last week, the Yankees had all the best of it and defeated Washington, 10 to 7.

Home runs were made by 'Hal' Chase and Conroy, and nearly every other man on the two teams got away with at least one hit. Outside of the 'warfare' features, 'Jim' Castilian and his crew furnished a most interesting 'series' with T. Hurst, umpire, which resulted in club tickets for the Senatorial manager and his pitcher, 'Tom' Hughes.

By the close score of 4 to 3 the St. Rose's defeated the F. M. A.'s on the Shamrock grounds in a five inning game last evening. The game was called in the sixth on account of darkness, after the Fairville boys had brought in two runs.

From the first the game was close, the runs coming in one by one. In the fifth inning, with the score 4 to 3 and two bases occupied, the F. M. A. had a chance to win, but Hazel retired the side by striking out after Best got out of first, and the game was lost. The attendance was fair.

The South End League last evening the Victorias were defeated by the All Stars by a score of 7 to 0. The features of the game were the pitching of Kearns, who has twelve strike outs, and a home run by Howe. The All Stars, including first baseman for the Victorias, was knocked out, being hit with the ball. This evening the Royals and E. D. C. will play.

The weight and measurements of the two men, together with the principal facts in connection with the match, are as follows:

Squires Burns, 5 ft. 10 1/2 in., Height, 172 lbs., Weight, 172 lbs., Chest, 42 1/2 in., Waist, 32 1/2 in., Thigh, 23 in., Arm, 15 1/2 in., Forearm, 11 3/4 in., Wrist, 7 1/2 in., Hand, 9 1/2 in., Neck, 16 in., Reach, 75 1/2 in.

Cricket. A team of Massachusetts cricketers, known as Mr. Thorpe's eleven, will tour the provinces this summer. They are to leave Boston on July 20, coming here direct, and would like to play in St. John on July 20, and go on from here to Fredericton.

Two Men Overcome By Heat Yesterday--Shambattle on Thursday.

Sussex, N. B., July 2.—The weather was very fine today here and made it most agreeable for the troops in camp. The heat was almost intense this morning and not a few felt it necessary to find comfort under the shade of trees.

Dominion day was an excellent one for the soldiers to load themselves with liquid ammunition and a great many of them availed themselves of the opportunity.

HAD TO GO

Two or three generations ago Dr. Samuel Reed was one of the prominent physicians of Boston. His large practice included many patients outside of the city limits, and these he visited in his buggy.

One day he bought a new horse, with which he was much pleased until he discovered that the animal had an incurable and could not be made to cross one. As, at this period, it was necessary to cross some bridges in order to reach any of the surrounding towns, the doctor decided to sell the horse. He did not think it necessary to mention the animal's peculiarity, but he was much too honest to misrepresent him, and, after some thought, produced the following advertisement, which he inserted in a local paper:

"For sale--A bay horse, warranted sound and kind. The only reason for selling is because the owner is obliged to leave Boston."
