Most Notable Flight Ever Accomplished

British Non-Rigid Airship Travels 1,285 Air Miles in Less Than Forty Hours — Bad Weather all the Time—Another Entry For the £50,000 Prize Offered by the London Daily Mail

London, March 22—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's, Limited)—The first account is now officially published of a remarkably long distance flight over the North Sea which was performed by a British non-rigid airship, the U. S. 11, during the past few days. The voyage took the form of a circuit, embracing the coast of Denmark, Schleswig-Holstein, Heligoland, North Germany and Holland. The trip was characterized by extremely unfavorable weather, and therefore it ranks as the most notable flight ever undertaken. The total length of the round trip was 1,285 air miles, and the time taken about forty and a half hours.

London, March 22—Another entry for the £50,000 prize offered by the Daily Mail for the first flight across the Atlantic was made yesterday in behalf of Major J. C. P. Wood, pilot, and Captain C. C. Wylie, navigator. They propose to make the attempt in an airplane of 375 horsepower, capable of a speed of ninety-five miles an hour when carrying a weight of 2,832 pounds. Major Wood has had considerable experience as an aviator while Capt. Wylie, in addition to his flying experience, has been navigating destroyers in mid-Atlantic.

Melbourne, Australia, March 22—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's, Limited)—The commonwealth government is offering a prize of $50,000 for the first successful flight from Great Britain to Australia that is undertaken by Australians.

ALL BUT FOUR FILE CLAIMS

Policemen Who Left Force in September File Statements Regarding Back Pay

All but four of the policemen who went out on September 12 last, following a dispute in regard to a police union, have filed statements relative to securing back pay for lost time, which were awarded to them by the Board of Conciliation. All the statements have to be sworn to, and pay will only be allowed in cases of time actually lost. There are said to be a few of the policemen who are asking for full time, as the claim is set forth that they did not work at all. It is understood that there also are a few who worked throughout the entire time they were out and thus have nothing coming to them.

IMPORTANT RULING

Montreal, March 22—That the superior court has no jurisdiction in habeas corpus proceedings arising in relation to an indictable offence, was the important ruling pronounced in a majority judgment of the court of appeal yesterday, when a writ of habeas corpus that had been maintained by the superior court was quashed, on the intervention of the attorney-general of the province, and Samuel Goldberg was ordered to undergo sentence which the writ had released him from serving after conviction for receiving stolen goods.

Ultimatum By the Italian Delegation

Attitude of Italy's Representatives Causes Uneasiness at Paris Conference

Paris, March 22—(By the Associated Press)—What amounted to an ultimatum by the entire Italian delegation, directed to the supreme council, declaring that the Italians would not approve of any peace treaty not including a settlement of the controversy between Italy and Jugoslavia over the title to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast islands, gave great concern to other delegations yesterday. Although the supreme council was occupied with a consideration of the western Polish boundary, the premiers themselves were engaged in trying to find some solution to the very difficult problem presented by the action of the Italians.

It has been known for some time that the Italian delegates were apprehensive that any programme adopted by the supreme council which contemplated the recognition of the Italian-Jugo-Slav controversy to the league of nations, when it is formed, or even its consideration by the supreme council after the completion of the peace treaty with Germany, would seriously jeopardize Italian claims. The fear was expressed by some of the Italian delegates that immediately after the conclusion of the German treaty, Premier Lloyd George, President Wilson and perhaps other leading figures in the council, would leave Paris, and the remaining members of the council would not have full power to deal with Italian demands. The state of mind of the Italian public is reflected in the fact that the Italian public is so excited that it is expected that the Italian delegation will return from Paris speedily with title to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast islands. It is expected that the Italian delegation, according to statements by some of the delegates, will make a demand for the return of the Italian public to the Italian public in the event of a settlement of the Italian-Jugo-Slav controversy.

LIPTON SAILS TO INSPECT YACHT

Liverpool, March 22—Sir Thomas Lipton sailed on the Aquitania for New York yesterday to inspect his challenger, Shamrock IV, and to make preparations for the race for the America's cup. "My yacht is in magnificent condition and I think she will win," said Sir Thomas. "I hope to get her former skipper and part of her crew for the race."

WIENNA WANTS CHARLES TO QUIT THE COUNTRY

Copenhagen, March 22—The Vienna government has once more notified former Emperor Charles that it is desirable that he quit the country, but no pressure has been brought to bear to force him to leave, according to telegrams received here from the Austrian capital. It is declared that the maintenance of a court at Eckartsau, which has been said to be the residence of the emperor, is contrary to the new constitution adopted by the national assembly. Some commentators insist that the former emperor convert his renunciation of the throne last November into an abdication for himself and the house of Hapsburg.

PROTESTANTS SHOULD PROVIDE HOME FOR DELINQUENT GIRLS

A woman was in the police court this morning charged with drunkenness. She pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and told the court that she had secured liquor from a man who was in the residence of Mabel Smith, 150 Brunswick street, where she had been the night before. She said, when put on the stand, that she had a bottle in her pocket and she took it out and gave her three drinks. She became intoxicated and on going on the street she was arrested by the police. Inspectors McAlush and Garnett, on getting this information, took the police court and proceeded to the residence of Mabel Smith in Brussels street; they found the woman and brought her to the court to answer to what had been told concerning her. The evidence of the woman who had been drunk disclosed that Mabel Smith, who is a widow, is a notorious one. Detective Biddiscombe gave evidence that about three months ago the house of Mabel Smith was visited by the police and the woman was in court the next morning on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. There have been several complaints with regard to this residence and it has the reputation of being a resort for disorderly characters. Mabel Smith told the court that she was not in the house at the time the woman was made drunk and knew nothing of the incident, but could not produce witnesses to that effect. Both women were remanded to jail.

WILL DEAL WITH ALIENS

Edmonton, Alta., March 21—No more immigration into Canada from alien enemy countries or of persons of alien enemy extraction, for a period of twenty-one years, and the deportation of all aliens now in Canada unless they can furnish satisfactory proof of loyalty to the dominion and willingness to fight in its behalf, have been declared to be the policy of the Alberta Orangemen, in a series of resolutions passed at the Grand Lodge convention here. The Orangemen also urged the government to prosecute, effectively punish, and permanently disfranchise all defaulters under the M. S. A.

The provincial legislature is appealed to in another resolution to enact legislation for the abolition of all separate schools in Alberta on the ground that they are of doubtful legality.

Battle With Villa Lasted Many Hours

Juarez, March 21—Details of a battle last Wednesday at Bejuquilla del Mar, in which Villa followers were defeated by government troops, were received at headquarters here early today from General Zuzana, commander of the government forces.

According to General Zuzana the battle lasted several hours before the rebels ran out of ammunition and charged, in an attempt to capture the federal train carrying ammunition. ORDERS CAPTURED OF ARCHANGEL THIS MONTH

Bolshevik Minister of War Determined to Rush Things—Allies Confident, However

Archangel, March 21—(By the Associated Press)—The ambitions of the Bolshevik war office for the offensive during the present month, as revealed by prisoners taken by the Allied forces, indicate that Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war and marine, has ordered that all efforts be made to capture Archangel in March. Such a feat, however, seemingly is impossible, and there is no lack of confidence in Allied military circles in Archangel that the American and other troops will be able to check any offensive.

N. B. MEN AT PORTLAND, ME.

Charles Robinson, secretary of the N. B. Returned Soldiers' Committee, received a wire this noon that the following men had arrived per S. S. Araguay, Springfield, Sussex, St. John and St. Stephen. The plan embraces two meetings each at Fredericton, St. John, Moncton and Chatham, and does not include any jumps to Aroostook country or elsewhere outside New Brunswick, except Nova Scotia for the one meeting at Springfield.

It is understood that it has also been definitely decided to hold a meeting during the week of this fall—probably at Fredericton—to organize a permanent racing circuit and horsemen's association which will prevent cheating and bring the harness racing sport to the basis which it must reach if it is to succeed.—J. Appointed British Observer

Major Arthur E. Partridge has been selected by the Royal Aero Club of Great Britain as official observer at St. John's, Newfoundland, for the coming trans-Atlantic flight. During the war Mr. Partridge gave up an important position on the Rochester, N. Y., Press to enter the royal naval force. He took part in some important activities of that service under Commander Porter and steadily won promotion. His selection by the Royal Aero Club of Great Britain is an indication of the confidence reposed in him by those who during the war had opportunity to judge of his fitness for the very important task to which he is now assigned. He is a son of the late Very Rev. Dean Partridge, for some years dean of Christ church cathedral in Fredericton. He was for some time on the staff of the St. John Globe before going to Rochester, N. Y.

GRAND TRUNK SHARSHOLDERS BITTER AGAINST GOVERNMENT

(Continued from page 1) ask, and the government thus paying next to nothing for the whole revision of the future, which in a country where the resources and wealth of Canada must be of untold value. The government say the directors fail to appreciate the Grand Trunk's responsibilities to the Grand Trunk Pacific. We think the answer to that is the government does not appear to give any consideration to the effect of events like those of the last five years which rendered it impossible for the Grand Trunk to carry its responsibilities for the Grand Trunk Pacific. Left Unsaid.

The Grand Trunk is the only railway in Great Britain, the United States and Canada left to be run under the impossible strain caused by the unparalleled war conditions. It is owing to these conditions that the Grand Trunk is in the position described. It is now that the government makes it a condition of relieving the Grand Trunk of the Grand Trunk Pacific liabilities that we sell Grand Trunk at a disastrous loss to second and third preference and ordinary shareholders. Would not a receivership under these conditions be the cause of lasting regret in Canada? Why should such hard and unmerciful terms be dealt out to the Grand Trunk compared with the liberal assistance given the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian Northern? Must not the impression be created that in the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern, Canadian credit and money were involved whereas in the Grand Trunk it is only British investment money that is jeopardized. I have the most heart-rending appeals from thousands of investors in the Grand Trunk. It surely ought not to be a question how cheaply under the guise of legal forms, the Grand Trunk can be bought? Quotes Premier.

Mr. Smithers finally read from Sir Robert Borden's speech at Ottawa on Grand Trunk matters when he said if the government laid itself open to the charge of acting unfairly towards those investing capital in Canada, the country would in the end pay much more than it would gain by such injustice.

"We are as always anxious for friendly settlement," concluded Mr. Smithers, "but unless the government is prepared to increase its offer such friendly settlement is impossible."

THE MARITIME CIRCUIT PLANS

(Fredericton Gleaser, Friday.) Opera House Bill Again Makes Hit

That the Opera House retains its popularity was evidenced last evening at the change of programme when throngs of patrons poured into the building to see the new vaudeville acts. The week-end bill is one of the best presented for some time and bids fair to attract record crowds. It is a diversified programme, including an abundance of comedy, a wealth of musical numbers, singing and some acrobatic feats of an unusual type in addition to this is the first episode of the serial, "The Terror of the Range," which promises to be one of the best ever thrown on a local screen. The first chapter is an exciting incident, although by no means far-fetched, and the scenes are good. The leading roles are taken by Betty Compton and George Larkin and both will undoubtedly become popular idols before the termination of the serial.

The first act was that of a tramp directed by Billy Roberts. This did not make much of a hit with the audience as his line of patter was not of the type which goes big in this city. However, he made a number of friends and they evidently appreciated his jokes and witticisms.

The second act was that of Cushing and Irene, who gave a pleasing comedy sketch. The male member sang a pleasing voice and sang a couple of numbers most acceptably, while his partner played accompaniments on the piano. The scene depicted the young lady being put out on the street by the landlord and the offer of inadequate and also asked the director. The third act was a feature to those who appreciate good music. Geo. Bue, a clever xylophone and piano player, gave a recital which was in itself worth the price of admission and which made a decided hit with the large and appreciative audience. He gave a couple of classic selections and intermingled popular and ragtime pieces throughout his programme.

Partly and Donna followed with a unique and pleasing act (which the well-merited applause. The dancing of the former was amusing and well done and his jokes were clean and amusing. The concluding number was that of the Ferraros, two clever acrobats, who held the interest of the audience from their appearance before the footlight until the curtain was rung down. The work of the female member is not only a surprise, but exceptionally good. She was largely instrumental in making the act such a popular success. The male member did not do so well. He gave a recital which was well-merited applause.

A SCHOOL ENQUIRY

An investigation into school matters in the city of St. John would be futile if it concerned itself merely with the question whether this or that teacher was too rigid or too lax in discipline. Now that a beginning has been made, let the discussion take a wider range.

Consider first the school board itself. Does it control the superintendent of schools, or is it in any sense controlled by him? Who is responsible for the action that the provincial board of education is not sufficiently considerate of the St. John board?

There is also the question of vocational training and its relation not only to better school attendance but greater benefit to ninety per cent. or more of the children who must leave school at a comparatively early age.

Consider also a statement by Mr. John Collier, of the People's Institute and the National Board of Censorship of Motion Pictures, whose views should be of interest to those who have motion pictures in school buildings.

When will somebody rise up in educational circles in St. John with a vision such as that of Mr. Collier or Supt. Maxwell?

well? How long will we be content to be utterly unprogressive and wedded to the sacred school house? There is also the question of school attendance. Are all children of school age in St. John at school? A stroll during school hours along the streets where many children live would hardly bear out the assertion that they are.

Dr. Horace L. Brittain, of the Canadian Bureau of Research, picturing the school building of the future, in a series of addresses in Ontario cities says: "In the evening the parents would flock to the school, to attend classes of various kinds, have dances, concerts, theatricals, discuss politics and have other diversions. In short, the school would be the main source of inspiration and relaxation for the whole community."

When Premier Foster has disclosed all the facts in the case the delegation seeking to have the Valley Railway extended from Centerville to Andrews realized that nothing should be done until federal co-operation is secured.

In turning the South End Improvement League into the street superintendent, principals and teachers of St. John schools have put themselves across the path of community welfare work. It is not a creditable thing to do.

Copenhagen, March 21—A despatch received here from Berlin says the Prussian Assembly on Thursday adopted a bill provisionally regulating the Prussian government and that thereupon Premier Hirth formally tendered the resignation of his cabinet.

INFORMATION DEPARTMENT WAS COSTLY

Country Pays $81,414 up to End of Last Year—Canadian Daily Record Cost $94,000, But This Was for Soldiers

Ottawa, March 22—Up to the end of last year, the department of public information had cost the country $81,414. Information to this effect was given to Mr. Kay in the House by the Hon. N. W. Rowell. There are at present twenty-five people employed in the department.

Mr. Kay—"What is the present cost of the department per month? Mr. Rowell—"$4,400 per month exclusive of the cost of printing and cables, which vary from month to month. At the present time, these expenses paid by the department are running about $7,400 per month.

Mr. Kay—"Is it the intention of the government to continue the operation of the department?" Mr. Rowell—"The matter is under the consideration of the government, and an announcement will be made in due course."

In reply to Mr. Tobin, Mr. Rowell said that 2,245,606 persons were registered under the conscription act in 1917. The total cost (including cost of compilation), was $691,250.

Judge Langelier Refuses to Comply With Order of Justice Department and Makes Statement

Quebec, March 21—The Quebec Telegraph published the following today: "In answer to a circular letter, which he received this morning from O. H. Holder, inspector-in-chief of the Dominion police, in which he was asked to place the amount of the fines collected as a result of the condemnation of defaulters to the credit of the receiver general, Hon. Judge Langelier has replied that he will not comply with this until the department of justice has kept to its promise, made before the Newcombe-Langelier incident, that a special certificate would be given to defaulters cleared by the courts."

Glorified Carbon

No, we're not talking about coal this time, the only thing that is "glorified" about it just now is the price.

Scientists tell us, however, that common, every-day coal, and the very finest quality of diamonds—in other words, "Birks' Diamonds"—are traceable to the same original elements.

Just fancy how interesting for a "Birks' Diamond" in all its beauty, brilliancy and perfection to share such ancestry.

"Birks' Diamonds" may be carbon, but they are certainly "Glorified Carbon"—they have made good in the ascent of carbon.

We are showing a truly wonderful array of Diamond Rings just now, all the way from $25.00 to $2,500.00. Some of the platinum settings are veritable works of art.

We show the "Solitaire" setting, the "Side-by-side," the "Three-Stone," the "Five-Stone" or "Half Loon" the "Cluster," the "Marquis," the "Fancy Dinner Ring"—almost every style that's worth keeping.

In a "Birks' Diamond" you can rely absolutely on its quality, cutting, shape, color and freedom from flaws—all that the most exacting critics could desire.

We welcome any inquiries. Our Correspondence Department is at your service.

HOW TO ECONOMIZE IN COAL

It Appears There is More to Consider Than Price in Buying.

Like Gaul, all coal is divided into three parts. Two of which—carbon and volatile matter—will burn and produce heat. The third "ash" including stone, clinkers, etc., is pure waste. Ash will not burn but prevents quantities of the carbon and volatile gases from burning and is an expense to cart away.

You buy coal solely to make heat. The more carbon and volatile matter and less ash the more value in a ton of coal. Most everybody knows this, but general way. But suppose you were offered hard coal at $18 and $16, which would you buy? If you bought at one-tenth of the $18 coal was ash you would have 1,800 pounds of burnable matter to the ton—at a cost of $18.81 per one hundred pounds of burnable matter. Now, say your $16 coal had twenty per cent of one-fifth ash and remember there are many hard coals with much over twenty per cent ash—you would have 1,600 pounds of burnable matter to the ton at a cost of $16.25. The cost is exactly the same except that in one case you would have 600 pounds of ash to remove, in the other only 200 pounds. Showing conclusively that the low price does not make a cheap coal. But how is the householder to know which is the cheapest coal? One way is to buy RADIO coal. It is a clean, free-burning hard coal and has the organization and name of the Consumers Coal Co. behind it. It is inspected, tried and tested on arrival and every load is re-weighed to remove the slack and dust before delivery. RADIO coal at $17.75 less fifty cents discount or $17.25 for cash is the most economical coal in St. John today. It certainly is high in heat value and low in ash and clogs full of satisfaction.

To those who used RADIO before the war the Consumers Coal Co. wish to say that they can now obtain it in all sizes. To those who have yet to know the goodness of RADIO we would suggest try it now. There is no risk for we would gladly remove and refund on any purchase of RADIO coal not being up to the standard we have set for this American anthracite.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Carter-Garland.

Elgin, March 20.—A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride at 9:30 p.m., March 19, when Miss Bessie Adelaide Garland, youngest daughter and child of Mrs. Emmeronze and the late John Garland of this village, was united in marriage to James Leonard Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. L. Carter, of River Glade (N. B.). Mr. Bliss Carter, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Ethel M. Burrows attended the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. A. Burrows in the parlor which had been suitably decorated for the occasion.

The groom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch, and to the bridesmaid a gold pin set with pearls and amethyst. The happy pair after a short honeymoon, will reside in Moncton, where Mr. Carter is employed as a brakeman on the C. G. R. The groom is a returned and honorably discharged soldier. He enlisted in the 8th battery C. F. A. at Moncton in August, 1914. Went overseas in the following month, and to France in February, 1915. He was in the famous battles at Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Hill No. 70, Second battle of Ypres. He was twice wounded. On the last occasion he was sent to No. 2 battle hospital, Reading, England. When sufficiently recovered he was sent home, arriving at St. John on the Grompan, December 24. He is now fully discharged from military service and ready to return to civil life. He has obtained a position as brakeman on the C. G. R. Both he and his bride have a large circle of friends who wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Ellis-McCroy.

An interesting event took place yesterday when Rev. David Hutchinson united in marriage Milford Raymond Ellis, of Shanklin Settlement, St. John county, and Miss Margaret McCroy of this city. The groom was supported by Harry T. Trusswell, brother of the bride, and her sister, Mrs. Selma Nell, while the bridesmaid wore a blue suit with grey trimmings. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will make their future home in St. Martin, St. John county.

Most of the crew of the stranded coal steamer Troja, who were landed here Thursday evening by the government steamer Aberdeen, left for Sydney and Montreal last evening. Two members of the crew and Captain Cairne are remaining in the city to attend the official inquiry, which will be held within a few days.

The general opinion is that there will be little opportunity to salvage the coal, although if the steamer remains firmly on the ledge part of it may be saved. E. Lumber Business To Britain Unrestricted

Volume Limited Only by Amount of Tonnage Available, is Prediction—Smithers Makes Statement on G. T. P. to Shareholders.

Ottawa, March 21—Recent advice from Canadian mission in London as to the effect that the timber control will soon be lifted and Canadian lumbermen are advised by the mission to get in touch with the ordinary trade channels, as the volume of business will likely be limited only by the ocean tonnage available.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT ON G. T. P. London, March 21—(By Canadian Associated Press, cable)—A. W. Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk Railway at a shareholders' meeting today gave an exhaustive statement covering negotiations with the dominion government. He urged that the Grand Trunk Pacific should at all events be treated with the same consideration as the Canadian Northern. British investors should receive treatment consistent with the honor and interest of Canada.

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the Legislature of New Brunswick at its next session for the passing of an Act authorizing the Railway Water and Improvement Company to acquire and operate the water system at Glen Falls in the Parish of Saint John and to change the name of the Falls Water and Improvement Company to the Glen Falls Water and Improvement Company. The company will also apply for authority to increase its capital stock and to extend its system to the Parishes of Rothesay and Simonds, also authority to develop and operate water powers on the water courses owned by the company.

THE MARKETS AT A GLANCE

There is a belief in certain sections of the steel and iron trade, and it seems to be fairly well founded, too, that the talk about price reductions coming is being carried on at too great length. It can have only one effect, that of holding back the market. There are firms today who would order one hundred tons of plate, for instance. They have the stocks to guarantee it. Instead of putting it in one purchase, however, the policy is to let the mills have only twenty or so tons at a time, in the hope that at least a large portion of the order will get the benefit of whatever reductions may be made. It is also worth noting that as low as 2 1/2 per cent has been quoted at an American point for a fairly large sized order of plate. April 1st, centrally located. Address Z 62, care Times. 96247-3-26

Want Quickest Peace Possible

Paris, March 21—"The first result to be obtained is peace, and the quickest peace possible," said David Lloyd George, the British Premier, in a statement printed in today's issue of the Excelsior.

"All internal events in every country, allied or enemy," continued the premier, "are dependent upon that peace, which we expect and desire to come at the earliest possible moment. Pending this everyone is living in a state of expectation and uncertainty. Commerce and industry are kept in a kind of stagnation which can only engender disorders.

"I shall, then, remain in Paris, unless something unexpected arises, until the text of the peace preliminaries are definitely drafted and ready for submission to the German delegation, not, let me say, for discussion but simply for signature."

UNITED FARMERS ELECT OFFICERS

Speaker From Winnipeg Predicts Political Revolution With Direct Taxation Succeeding Tariff.

Woodstock, N. B., March 21—The United Farmers were in session this afternoon and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Thomas Caldwell, Florenceville; vice-president, Charles L. Smith, Woodstock; 2nd vice-president, L. M. Anderson, Sackville; secretary-treasurer, C. Gordon Sharpe, Pembroke.

Directors—Frank Riley, Melrose; J. Cory, Red Rapids; T. Wesley Doull, St. Stephen; A. A. H. Ferguson, Centreville; M. H. Young, Millville; J. Inch, Kewick; J. C. Cook, River Chaudiere; John Fulton, Bath; W. F. Phillip, Pembroke; and Charles Patterson, Hoyt. John Kennedy, of Winnipeg, again addressed the meeting, speaking principally on taxation, explaining the difference between direct or local taxes and the unseen taxes by tariff. He also explained the organization for bringing out independent candidates for dominion parliament and commented on the farmers' victory in North Ontario. The condition arising from the war was the farmers' opportunity. He said he supported union government for he knew it meant the breaking up of the old political parties, and when the time came there would be a farmers' leader just as there was a Lloyd George and a Foch. The present form of government, he said, is an autocracy, the cabinet makes the policies and the ordinary member must sanction or be kicked out. After the farmers get control they would have direct taxation on the original value of the land and the resources of the country. Today the wage earner with a big family pays the biggest tax while the great timber limits and the mines and other natural resources were paying no tax but a little royalty. We have had conscription, not of wealth but of life and blood. There are more deaths annually of mothers and children through deprivation of the necessities of life than deaths caused by the war. The speaker predicted the coming of direct legislation embodying the initiative, the referendum and the recall. S. H. Hagerman, manager of the cooperative stores, in a brief speech said the work of the farmer was social, educational and economic, the latter embraced the commercial side. His remarks were along lines of the work accomplished here in spite of a tendency to oppose their efforts. He claimed the work was creditable to himself and satisfactory to the farmers generally.

BEST CANADIAN ARTISTS PAINTED THESE WAR VIEWS

Royal Standard Chapter Given Charge of Official Exhibition—Great Canvases on View—Also Captured German Guns

Actual scenes of war-scarred France and Flanders fields, to be exhibited at the Eastern Steamship Lines' new building at Reed's Point, from Monday, March 24 until the 28th, under the auspices of Royal Standard Chapter, L. O. D. E., will prove a delightful revelation to St. John people.

In addition to a priceless collection of 150 pictures, some of them of mammoth size, there will be mounted in the big building a number of captured German field pieces and some war trappings. The large exhibit, which will be in personal charge of Lieutenant Shouldis of Ottawa, was brought here on the steamer Grampton direct from London, where it attracted many thousands for four weeks. The pictures, all colored by Canadian artists sent to England for the purpose, convey almost a first-hand idea of how the New Brunswick boys and the rest of the Canadians appeared in the battle zone.

The exhibition will be formally opened at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon by Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley, Mrs. Pugsley, Premier Foster and Mrs. Foster, Mayor Hayes and Mrs. Hayes and others will attend the opening ceremonies. It is expected the depot battalion band will be present. The large, commodious building is being beautifully decorated and will present an entrancing scene.

Among the pictures, which depict scenes from Arras to the Rhine, is one 100 feet in length. One remarkable scene is that of soldiers in prayer before the altar of a partially demolished French church. The admission will be twenty-five cents, but on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6, children will be admitted for ten cents. On Thursday evening the Boy's Club will be the guest of Royal Standard Chapter, and on another evening the boys of the hockey team will be its guests. Catalogues will explain all the pictures.

HUGE ORDER FOR US COMES FROM RUMANIA

Woolen Men of Dominion Meet in City to Divide $3,180,000 Contract

Toronto, March 22—Canada is about to supply $3,180,000 worth of woolen goods, for the people of Roumania, and the woolen manufacturers of the dominion are in conference today in the King Edward Hotel dividing up the big contract so that delivery can be made within four months.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Canadian Woolen Manufacturers' Association, but the contract will be divided among all of the manufacturers of woolen goods in the dominion whether or not they are members of the association. President Richard Thomson of the association is presiding at the meeting, at which H. H. Hill, vice-president, and P. G. Yapp, of Hamilton, the secretary are also in attendance.

Mr. Yapp states that the contract was received through the efforts of Sir George Foster, and that the valuable oil wells of Roumania are being hypothecated as security for the payment of the contract price. He added that the goods are composed of woolen clothing and blankets, and that they will be sent out to Roumania on Greek ships, which have already been chartered for this purpose. Seventy-five per cent of the goods will be made in Ontario.

M. A. Wins Debate

Fredericton, N. B., March 21—The Mount Allison team and that of the University of New Brunswick met this evening at the city opera house, the resolution reading, "Resolved that our dominion government should nationalize all Canadian railways, nationalization meaning to own and operate. The U. N. B. took the negative side of the argument and Mount Allison supported the affirmative.

The U. N. B. team was led by G. T. Mitten with Joseph Sears and J. Miles Burpee, while the Mount Allison team consisted of R. D. Milton, leader, F. Rowe and W. G. Guy. The chair was occupied by Dr. G. C. Jones, chancellor of the U. N. B., and the judges were Hon. C. W. Robinson, M.P.F., of Moncton; L. P. D. Tilley, M.P.F., of St. John, and Rev. J. A. McKeigan, pastor of St. David's church, St. John.

The leader of the affirmative led off with his speech and was followed by the leader of the negative. The debate was very interesting and very close. A large part of those assembled believed that the U. N. B. team would be given the decision, but after due consideration on the part of the judges, the decision of two of the three opinions handed into the chairman were in favor of the Mount Allison team.

BOARD OF INQUIRY

Major F. P. May returned yesterday from Fredericton, where he has been presiding over a board of officers appointed to inquire into the damage done to the exhibition buildings during their occupancy by the military. The board consisted of Major May, Major B. Smith, Captain M. W. Burke and Lieutenant Parker, assisted by Captain G. Kerle Logan as legal adviser. The exhibition association was represented by E. A. McKay, president; W. E. Farrell, vice-president, and W. S. Hooper, secretary. The directors presented their claims at the meeting in what was considered to be a very reasonable manner, and the meeting was most harmonious. The bill of damages was forwarded to Ottawa for final adjustment and it is confidently expected that the matter will be arranged without any further difficulty.

FAITH AND WORKS

There are always more pessimists than optimists accounts for the fact that there are so many failures in life. It is a question of "silver." It has been stated that less than ten per cent of those who go into business succeed, and that the rest are failures.

Business men even of optimistic tendencies are asking what will the months to come bring in the way of business and especially profits? The farmer is complaining about lowering prices of foodstuffs and enhanced costs of his household and household necessities, and there is a feeling of unrest with regard to labor conditions in many centres, as well as uncertainty with regard to the future of prices in many staple commodities.

A pantry sale was held today at W. Pedersen's Ltd., in the Market building in Charlotte street, under the auspices of the Royal Arms Chapter, I. O. D. E. The proceeds are for the East End County Hospital. Many generous donations by friends were received, consisting of all kinds of cakes, pies, candy and other dainties. The committee in charge of the sale includes Mrs. J. F. Tilton and Mrs. William Taylor, convenors, assisted by members of the chapter.

FOURTEEN DEATHS

Fourteen deaths were reported to the local board of health during the week, as follows: Senility, three; pneumonia, two; bronchitis, exhaustion, convulsions, peritonitis, myocarditis, carcinoma of stomach, cerebral hemorrhage, mitral regurgitation, infection of lateral sinus, one each.

A PRESENTATION

At a meeting of the clergy of the east end group yesterday a presentation was made to Rev. F. H. Wentworth of two books in view of his coming departure for a new field of labor in Quebec City. The presentation showed the esteem in which he is held by his fellow workers. The presentation was made by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's church.

GREETED BY HIS LODGE

Bandman J. H. McKenzie of the Princess Pat's Band arrived home last night. News of his arrival reached Thorne Lodge, I. O. G. T., and at nine o'clock their regular meeting was adjourned to allow the members to greet Mr. McKenzie, who is a valued member of that organization. The lodge met the bandman on the arrival of the train and pleasant greetings were exchanged.

FAREWELL SOCIAL

A farewell social was held last evening by "The Room-For-One-More Class" of the Central Baptist church, for one of its members, Miss Florence Thorne, vice-president of the class, who is to leave soon for the west. The teacher, Mrs. Herbert Downie, on behalf of the members, presented to Miss Thorne a beautiful Bible and a book with an address. The evening was spent in games and refreshments were served.

Soon after reaching England he was transferred to France and has had a long period of arduous active service.

The secretaries must be from twenty-five to fifty years of age and must have the proper qualifications.

A PARTING GIFT

A very pleasing event was spent at the home of Mrs. Thomas B. Browne, 148 Duke street, St. John West, when the members of Dominion Lodge, I. O. G. T., No. 446, met to say farewell to one of their number, Mrs. Alfred A. Smith, who is proceeding to England on the Minerva to visit her parents. She will return with her husband, who is serving with the 4th Canadian Engineers, in Belgium. The Chief Templar, on behalf of those present, presented to her a gold crescent set with pearls. After partaking of a repast the gathering dispersed with the singing of the hymn "Till we Meet Again."

HIGH SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

The boys of the senior classes of the High school are publishing a little class paper on a fortnightly schedule. The first number was sold yesterday and, of course, found ready buyers among the pupils. The name of the four-page publication is "The Tammany Herald," but there is no editorial explanation why the name "Tammany." The Herald contains the usual number of merry class quips and jibes peculiar to institutional sheets and tells of the late basketball battles between St. John and Fredericton. There are some poetical effusions on coming examinations. In serious mood the Herald's editor hopes to see a class paper awakened by the little paper's efforts and, if financial results warrant it, it is proposed to erect a memorial to the late war. The little paper contains the name of all high school boys and former high school boys who fought in the late war. The little paper contains some clever matter, and there is a budding humorist concealed on its staff somewhere.

DOING A GOOD WORK

The Travelers' Aid work is a human touch that is doing a wonderful amount of good in this city, though nothing much is being said about it. It is a branch of the Y. W. C. A. work with housing headquarters in the Wilson house, near the corner of Union and Mill streets. Miss Hoyt, who is the representative in the Union depot, attends all the trains and through long and observing experience can pick out a lone girl or strange woman traveler in a twinkling. Every day some woman—possibly a mother with a number of wretched children—is taken under Miss Hoyt's care and assisted in finding her destination or facilitated in proceeding further by accompanying her to a quiet place for lunch, re-checking of baggage and so forth. Elderly women are likewise cared for. In case of stop-overs, the Union street premises are made use of. Now that the Y. W. C. A. has ample quarters for permanent boarders in King street, the Union street establishment is amplified in its accommodations greatly.

FIRST HEBREW SABBATH IN NEW SYNAGOGUE

In the new synagogue, corner Carleton street and Wellington Row last evening of sunset and sunrise today, which is the Jewish Sabbath, specially interesting services were held at which Rev. S. Fyne of Ottawa and Rev. J. M. Judson of Montreal officiated. The visiting cantor or ritualistic singer with his trained choir assisted in the services. This forenoon the address was delivered by Rev. S. Fyne, who dwelt upon the brotherhood of man and the charity that each should extend towards his fellow. The visiting cleric's sermon was scholarly and impressive. The attendance was especially large and the congregation delighted with their new place of worship. The formal dedication later is eliciting much interest.

Fairville Soldier Is Dead

Driver John C. O'Keefe Passes Away in England After Illness of Pneumonia

After more than four years service on the battlefields of France and Flanders, participating in all of the big engagements, narrowly escaping death a dozen times, but without sustaining a serious injury, Sgt.-Major John C. O'Keefe, son of Michael O'Keefe of Ready street, Fairville, contracted pneumonia at Shorncliffe Camp and died on March 14. The news of his death was received by his father on Thursday. Sergeant O'Keefe went overseas with the first contingent, infantry unit, under Major Magge, and remained with that battery until after the armistice was signed and they returned to England.

A sad feature was that his relatives were making preparations for his home coming and were ready to welcome him with his English bride of a month. The news of his death has been a severe blow and left his parents almost prostrated with grief.

Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers, Max, who is convalescing from a serious injury sustained in action and who is in a hospital in England; Frank, James and Patrick at home; also two sisters, Mrs. Frank Millin of Boston and Blanch at home.

Sgt. O'Keefe was a well known ball player and played short-stop for the Champion Royals for several seasons. He also played in St. Peter's Y. M. A. baseball league for a couple of seasons and was a member of that organization for some time. He had a host of friends throughout the city who will regret the news of his death and will unite in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

DOGS OF WAR ARE BROUGHT TO ST. JOHN

Alsatian Wolf-Hounds, Used by French as Fox Police Work, and Which Won Honors in War, Are Greatly Admired

The war has certainly caused some peculiar twists and created new conditions in directions least thought of. In some instances they are amusingly interesting. For instance, the dog life of St. John and New Brunswick will hereafter be sprinkled with a new aristocracy, the Alsatian wolf-hound, otherwise known as the French police dog.

Major Arthur Legere, who returned on the Celtic a few days ago brought with him a splendid specimen of this breed, and has it with him in his home, Richmond street. Lieutenant Barnes of Orange street, not only brought a valuable bitch of the same breed, but her ladyship is proudly displaying a litter of the prettiest pups. Dog fanciers are greatly interested in the newcomers.

It is to be hoped that at the final class showing of the local dog show in the Market building next week, these new-arrived police-dogs will have a place. It is quite probable they will figure in future shows and possibly become one of New Brunswick's proudest pet and utility breeds. Most people have learned to admire these little animals through pictures of them in war views and from written praise.

Major Legere states that the dogs now in the city are the first to be brought to Canada. Special permission had to be granted by the British government before they were taken on board. There were some formalities in getting them out of France, too.

JACK HAY MISSING SINCE LAST TUESDAY

Eleven Year Old Lad Has Disappeared—No Explanations Offered and No Reason Known

Jack Hay, the eleven year old son of Mrs. G. T. Hay, 205 Carleton street, has been missing from his home since Tuesday. The lad, when he left home, wore his old clothes, a Norfolk jacket, black pants and black cap with the peak split down through the middle. He is in the habit of leaving home, but has never strayed away during a night, before. The boy has always gone to school regularly and, so far as it is known, he never has had any trouble in school. He attends the King Edward school.

The nearest relatives are in Gaquetown, and it is hardly expected that he would get that far away, as he had no money to speak of. Any information leading to his whereabouts would be very much appreciated by his parents.

SPR. F. S. MacKENZIE HOME

Among the returned men from Halifax this week was Sapper Fred S. Mackenzie, son of Mrs. H. H. Mackenzie of the Loch Lomond road. Spr. Mackenzie is an old St. John boy, but left twelve years ago to take up his residence in the United States. When the call for men became so urgent, Spr. Mackenzie crossed to Toronto, where he enlisted with the York and Simcoe Forestry Corps and later was transferred to the railway troops. Spr. Mackenzie has seen some active fighting while overseas and was gassed. Another brother, Joseph H. Mackenzie, returned on the Carmania. He is a member of the Princess Pat's Band, now at Ottawa. Frank S. Mackenzie, of the Daily Telegraph staff, who went overseas with the C. M. R's, was killed on the Somme. Many friends are extending a hearty welcome to Spr. Mackenzie.

GRANT G. CHILTON, VETERAN OF GREAT WAR, DIED OF INFLUENZA

The death of Grant G. Chilton, son of the late George and Lillian Chilton, took place at his home in Albany, Vermont, on Feb. 17, at the age of thirty-eight years. Mr. Chilton was very well known in this city and vicinity. He had recently come back from overseas service with the C.R.P. He was stricken with influenza a short time ago and was sick only a few days when he passed away. Besides his wife, who formerly was Miss Sadie Ham, of Grand Bay, N. B., he leaves one son, George, at home, and one sister, Mrs. Peters, of Albany, Vermont.

Must Look To Ottawa For Railway Extension

Best Hope For Carrying Valley Railway to Andover Lies in Prospect of Federal Government Taking Over the Road—Delegates Will Act Accordingly

When the up-river delegation interviewed the government in Fredericton yesterday to present their petition for the extension of the valley railway to Andover, it was intimated that the best prospect for the extension lay in the hope that the federal government would take over the road and complete it, as provincial finances could hardly be expected to stand the strain of an expenditure of another $1,000,000. The delegates will direct their attention to their Ottawa representatives.

The resolution presented to the government was as follows:

Whereas, in 1912 the then government of New Brunswick was returned to power pledged to build the St. John Valley railway from St. John to Grand Falls and

Whereas, that government having failed to fulfill its pledge in that respect, the present government was in 1917 returned to power pledged to carry out the work which its predecessor failed to do and

Whereas, the bonds have been sold of said railway from Gagetown to Andover, and the railway has been constructed and is in operation from Gagetown to Centreville, and the money from the bonds sold for that part of said railway between Centreville and Andover is now at the disposal of the government, and the dominion subsidy is also available;

And

Whereas, there is now no apparent reason why the construction of the road from Centreville to Andover should be longer delayed except the desire of the government to evade its pledge to proceed with the same, and the interests of the people of this part of the province are being sacrificed to the exigencies of party politics; and

Whereas, various schemes are now being exploited in the legislature and elsewhere for the expenditure of large sums of money to connect St. John with the National Transcontinental railway, notably the building over and remodeling of the railway from McEwen to Fredericton, while the building of the Valley railway from Centreville to Grand Falls would not only give a better connection than any other with St. John but would give the government of New Brunswick the inestimable pleasure of having for once fulfilled its pledges;

Therefore resolved, that this meeting desires to impress upon the government in the strongest manner possible the absolute necessity of having the railway built from Centreville to Andover without any further delay.

Premier Foster in responding complimented the gathering upon their public spirit and the unanimous way they had gathered together to press their claim. He spoke of the original intention of the Valley railway to be constructed from Grand Falls to a point at or near Robbsey, and the use of the government railway to St. John. He was very emphatic in his statement that if any of those who had supported the construction of the Valley railway between Grand Falls and Centreville, they would, instead of supporting, have strongly opposed the proposition.

He expressed himself to the delegation as being strongly in favor of, and his government as being strongly in favor of, the extension of the railway, not only from Centreville to Andover but from Centreville to Grand Falls, and in this connection he pointed out that while it was possible to obtain running rights over the C. P. R. from Grand Falls to Andover, and thus complete connection with the Transcontinentals, yet the division of freight traffic with the C. P. R. not only on account of running rights between Andover and Grand Falls, but also because of running rights between Westfield and St. John, would be a very unsatisfactory business condition.

While he was strongly in favor of the views of the people of Carleton and Victoria, he also desired to take them into his confidence regarding the money on hand to build the road and the cost of its construction. The distance between Centreville and Andover, only one part of the proposed extension, was about twenty-five miles, and of the original bond issue $4,250,000 covering 170 miles of railway from Andover south, there was but $270,000 left in the hands of the Prudential Trust Company. The diversion of the road to Westfield instead of to Robbsey had made it necessary to

DO YOU WANT PINK CHEEKS?

They Can Be Had by Keeping the Blood Rich, Red and Pure.

Every woman—every girl—wants pink cheeks. They mean not only beauty but good health. When a woman's blood is scanty or anemic, her color fades, she looks debilitated, is short of breath, and her heart palpitates after slight exertion. Sometimes this trouble is accompanied by severe headaches, or pains in the back or sides. This condition is entirely due to weak, watery blood, and can only be cured by making the blood rich, red and pure. For this purpose there is nothing can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which act directly upon the blood, and in this way bring new health and strength to weak, ailing people. Mrs. Anderson, Hearst, Ont., says: "Before coming to Canada from England, I was a sufferer from anemia for upwards of a year. I had been gradually getting paler and weaker. I did not realize that I was sick, but felt constantly tired and worn out. I had no ambition for anything, and grew so white that my mother stage my mother decided that she would get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are a favorite medicine in England as well as in Canada. On the day I commenced taking them I fainted on getting out of bed and another urged me to stay in bed for a few days. I really felt so weak that I was glad to take her advice. I remained in bed for a week, taking the pills regularly, and then I felt that I was able to get up, though not able to go about. From that time I have taken them strength daily, and in a little more than a month I was feeling as well as ever I did. The color returned to my cheeks and lips, and my friends were all surprised at my rapid recovery. I took no medicine but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so that they deserve all the credit for my restoration to health."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in England as well as mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Prudential Trust Company, acting upon investing authority which had been given to them by the former government, had lent a large sum to the Pacific coast concern from which they had been unable to realize, and they were now requesting the government to give them back this money. It would therefore be seen that this money was not available, though it might be anticipated. The estimated cost of the road from Centreville to Andover some years ago was $44,000 per mile; today, in the opinion of the engineers, the cost of its construction would be $1,900,000. Taking from this amount the dominion subsidy, about $1,600,000, and also deducting the $270,000 in the hands of the Prudential Trust Company, it would mean that the province of New Brunswick would have to issue $1,030,000 of railway bonds to pay for the cost of the road asked for.

The interest on these new railway bonds would be at least $75,000 per annum and forty per cent of the gross proceeds of the traffic which would go to the province to pay the interest would make it necessary that there should be a return from traffic of about $800 per mile. There is no doubt that this would be impossible for some time, but he would not say that in the future the traffic would not amount to that much.

Most of them were aware, however, that the province was negotiating with the dominion government to take over the St. John and Quebec Railway and considered that would be very much in the interests of New Brunswick to have this done. He realized that it would be necessary if the extension were constructed to be assured of a subsidy from the dominion government and operation of the road after it was completed, and they would readily understand that it was impossible for him to give them a definite answer today and impossible for some time, but he would begin this year until he had ascertained the views of the federal government and the terms they proposed to do.

Hon. Mr. Tweeddale.

The Hon. Mr. Tweeddale followed the premier and supported his views in every respect. At the same time he took an opportunity of showing by the journals of the house and the resolutions which he had offered in the legislature when a member in 1912, that he strongly opposed the conditions of the contract which did not permit of construction beginning at Andover and Robbsey at the same time, as it permitted of construction beginning at other points along the line.

In the course of the conference, Hon. Mr. Tweeddale pointed out that the only practical way of securing the extension was by having the road taken over by the federal government and then securing the promise of the Ottawa authorities that the work should be done. After the delegation withdrew this suggestion was talked over among the visitors, and it was generally agreed that their next step must be an active campaign in support of local government representation to the federal authorities that the road should be made a part of the national railway system.

Will Unite in the Campaign for Tourists

Provincial Gathering to be Held in St. John in June—Prize Offered for Best Name for New Organization

At a largely attended meeting held at the Hotel de France yesterday afternoon it was decided to arrange for an important provincial meeting in this city on Tuesday, June 3, and Wednesday, June 4, when a big boost to the tourist traffic will be given. Yesterday's meeting was called by the executive of the New Brunswick Tourist Association for the purpose of securing the co-operative effort on the part of all provincial organizations of New Brunswick, particularly the opportunities for sportsmen, better known to make arrangements for a big summer meeting. E. Allan Schofield occupied the chair and R. E. Armstrong was secretary.

The others present included Mayor Hayes, H. L. Garter, A. M. Belding, F. B. Ellis, H. G. Marr, J. Fraser Gregory, William E. Raymond, E. L. Rising, J. E. Secord, A. C. Currie, Harold Rising, H. M. Stewart, T. H. Estabrook, R. R. DeBrisay, J. P. Regan, Thomas Reynolds, W. H. Golding, W. H. C. McKay, J. R. Dunlop, G. L. Warwick, A. H. Wetmore, Alexander Gibbs, Mr. Melanson of the Bathurst board of trade, T. S. Wilkinson of the Fredericton Tourist Association, Harry Allen, president of the New Brunswick Guides' Association.

Mr. Schofield outlined some of the plans considered and stated that the offer for a summer meeting was open to any point in the province, as St. John was not particularly favored. Harry Allen moved, and Mr. Wilkinson seconded that this city be the place of the meeting this year. The motion was carried. For next year's meeting Mr. Melanson urged the claims of Moncton and Mr. Wilkinson those of Fredericton. No action was taken on these proposals, and they will be acted on later.

Mr. Allen told of his success in the United States by means of reels, addresses and literature in making New Brunswick's sporting opportunities and scenic beauties better known. He said much interest in this province had been awakened among American tourists.

Mr. Gregory thought it would not be difficult to obtain the use of the reels used by the Canadian lumbermen during their campaign here.

Mr. Wilkinson promised the co-operation of the Fredericton Tourist Association in the campaign to better advertise the province.

A. H. Wetmore urged the importance of united effort to boom the province. Speaking for the Canadian National railways Mr. Robertson, of that system, said he had the assurance of General Manager Hayes that the railroad would be glad to assist the province in any way. Mr. DeBrisay likewise promised the co-operation of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Mayor Hayes said that St. John always held the latch string out and that the city would do all possible to make the plan a success.

Value of Motion Pictures.

Mr. Golding told of the value of motion pictures in making the resources of the province known as they conveyed a direct and convincing idea that New Brunswick had to offer. He made a number of valuable suggestions.

Mr. Melanson said that Bathurst was prepared to go ahead in the work of promoting tourist enterprise and would co-operate with the rest of the province.

The WALTHAM Guarantee

THE reputation of the guarantor is the all-important consideration in determining the value of a guarantee.

The Waltham Watch Company, established in 1854, was the first company in the world to manufacture entire watch movements.

At the present time the normal staff at the main factory includes 4,500 expert workpeople, hundreds of whom have spent the whole of their working lifetime on Waltham Watches.

The factory equipment includes many marvellous automatic machines developed exclusively by Waltham experts for shaping, drilling, polishing and finishing the myriad small parts entering into high-grade watch mechanism.

Every part is standardized. Guesswork is unknown. Inspection and reinspection is a rigid rule.

The unvarying quality assured by such organization and equipment has resulted in the winning by Waltham of every gold medal awarded since 1854 by the great World's Fairs for supreme watch merit.

And it is these things which give weight to the Waltham Guarantee.

Accused Officer Tells a Strange Story Before a Court-Martial

An incident at the Criterion Theatre, when an officer was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, was described at a Westminster court-martial in London, England.

The officer was Lieut. John E. Bayliss, of the Duke of Cambridge's Own Middlesex Regiment, and he was charged with being drunk and resisting an escort. He pleaded not guilty.

Captain Hamilton, prosecutor, said that Lieut. Bayliss, who was in uniform, was seen at the Criterion Theatre, where he found Lieut. Bayliss lying on a couch in the vestibule apparently asleep. The captain roused him but found that he could not stand.

At the street police station the lieutenant called him "A dirty German," and used very offensive epithets to the other members of the court, besides struggling violently.

Dr. Dane, police surgeon, said the lieutenant was undoubtedly under the influence of drink. He was taken to the Criterion Theatre and placed in a room, and he was charged with being drunk and resisting an escort.

The police in the picture are known on the Y.M.C.A. circuit as Huntington and Francis. The picture is a stage-seats composed of brick.

What Makes Men of Blood and Iron? Do You Know Any of These People?

Read What They Say About Nuxated Iron As a Tonic, Strength and Blood Builder

Physician Explains How it Helps Put Renewed Vim and Energy Into the Veins of the Weak, Run-down, Infirm and Aged—Often Increases Their Strength in Two Weeks' Time.

When widely known men of the highest calibre come out frankly and publicly endorse a product which they have personally found valuable for building up the system, it is today being used by over three million people annually to help create red blood, power and endurance.

"Living in the open, eating coarse foods and leading regular lives have made blood rich in iron for these strong, healthy, vigorous specimens of manhood. But no such opportunity to become imbued with iron is open to thousands of men and women in civil life whose wearing tasks and iron-impaired food sap their energy and vitality, make them weak, anemic and run-down and often cause their blood to literally starve for want of iron."

Dr. T. Alphonsus Walker, a physician of many years' experience and formerly of the British Naval Medical Service, says: "It is the men of blood and iron—on a par with the war-hardened fellows returning from camp and fields—who will forge ahead in the business and political life of the country today."

Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon, Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, says: "Iron is absolutely necessary to change food into living tissue, muscle and bone. Refined foods and modern methods of cooking have robbed us of much of the iron which Nature intended we should receive. For supplying this deficiency and increasing the red blood corpuscles, I know of nothing more effective than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. I feel convinced that it is a preparation that any physician can take himself or prescribe for his patients with the utmost confidence of obtaining highly beneficial and satisfactory results. The fact that Nuxated Iron is today being used by over three million people annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder, is in itself an evidence of tremendous public confidence and I am convinced that if others would take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak and run-down it would help make a nation of stronger, healthier men and women."

Commissioner Caminetti says: "In the heat of summer, and the rigor of winter and the debilitating weeks of spring time, I have used Nuxated Iron with unvarying success and satisfaction. After weeks of business confinement to office duties, I find in Nuxated Iron the true tonic qualities which help bring one's physical being to that state of fitness which is the desire of every healthy minded man or woman. Nuxated Iron I recommend to

Health and Happiness. Women of today seem to listen to every call of duty except the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my husband wanted me to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. What To Do With The Ottoman Empire

Arthur Whitley Thinks No Part Should Remain in Turks' Hands, and That British Control of Arabs is Advisable

London, March 1.—(Correspondence)—In an interview discussing the question of the future of the Ottoman Empire, Arthur Whitley, who for some years resided in Mesopotamia, said all that was at present known was that the Turks were to be ousted from Europe. The future of Constantinople, Mr. Whitley considers, however, only a small part of the question, the important issue awaiting solution being the disposal of Turkey's Asiatic possessions.

Under Turkish rule the prosperity of any country, Mr. Whitley said, is only hampered by maladministration and this criticism applies equally to non-official Turks and subject races. All the facts go to prove that the Turk is incapable of governing. In my opinion, therefore, no part of the Turkish Empire should be allowed to remain in the possession of its present rulers. The whole country must be brought under the control of the allied nations. Turkey in Europe and the upper part of Turkey in Asia should come under the control of our Allies, Great Britain undertaking the administration of the lower portion of Turkey in Asia, including Arabia. In carrying out these proposals Mr. Whitley considers no difficulty is likely to arise in reaching an understanding with France with regard to Syria. "I believe that an arrangement on the lines proposed," he said, "would bring peace, justice, and well being to the greatly harassed people of a potentially rich and fertile country. For too long the impulse of these people toward progress and development has been kept back and discouraged by an effete and unstable government."

Arabs and British Control.

Going on to speak of that part of the country which he proposed should come under the direct influence of Great Britain, Mr. Whitley pointed out that it included generally the Arab population of the Turkish Empire. For centuries, he said, the Arabs have chafed under Turkish rule, but lack of cohesion amongst them, coupled with religious reasons, have made them submit to it. The Arabs have been further alienated from Turkish rule by the revolt of the sheikhs of Mecca and, in Mr. Whitley's opinion, this fine race will look to Great Britain for protection at the end of the war.

Great Britain, Mr. Whitley insists, must exercise a more active control over that part of Persia adjoining Mesopotamia. He also considers British influence must be increased in Southern Persia down to the shores of the Persian Gulf. The treatment of the Turks has fostered and increased intrigues and suspicion, and Mr. Whitley maintains that only by opening up and developing their country can prosperity be brought to the Arabs and peace between the tribes be established on an enduring basis.

Great Britain's long experience in dealing with the Egyptian Arabs, Mr. Whitley considers, has marked her out as the nation best qualified to handle those Arabs who until recently were included in the Ottoman Empire. Another reason is that the Arabs both respect and have confidence in British rule. "I have myself," Mr. Whitley said, "often heard Arabs express a desire to be governed by the British, and at times they have expressed their surprise to me that Great Britain had not long ago driven the Turks out of the Arab country. For the Germans the Arabs have a special aversion, due to the high-handed manner assumed toward them by German employees."

"At present," Mr. Whitley continued, "four military forces occupy that area which may be said roughly to cover the territory watered by the Euphrates and Tigris rivers after they leave the broken and hilly country below Samarra on the beaches, and nuts of various kinds, gum, sugar-cane, hemp, oil-bearing seeds are also produced, while the live stock includes horses, donkeys, camels, water buffaloes, oxen and sheep in large Tigris, and Hit on the Euphrates, and enter the Mesopotamian delta. This part of Mesopotamia should definitely be made a British protectorate, provided that our influence in upper Mesopotamia is decided and vigorous, for the well-being of the delta depends upon the Euphrates and Tigris water supply. No unfriendly influence must be allowed to operate on the higher reaches of these rivers as in that case it would be possible to deprive the delta of Mesopotamia of its proper supply of water during the low water season.

British in Mesopotamia.

Owing to its low rainfall, Mr. Whitley explained, lower Mesopotamia depends for its development entirely on a comprehensive scheme of irrigation and a wise distribution of the rivers Tigris and Euphrates. In this connection, he referred to the irrigation scheme designed by Sir William Wilcocks, which has brought incalculable benefit to the Arabs. The building of the Hindieh barrage across the Euphrates, he said, insured a perennial supply of water to all those canals taking off the Euphrates, for between twenty-five and thirty miles above the barrage, as well as the richest part of the delta—the country on each side of the Hillah Canal. Victim of German "Kamerad" Trick Has Scar and Gun As Souvenirs

"He's faking," warned the Y.M.C.A. man's companion as they approached a supposedly wounded German officer. The "Y" man had gone over the top with the boys and was serving as a stretcher bearer, so he kept on toward the German. He was within a few feet of him when the officer, who had his hands above his head in regular surrender fashion, made a sudden motion with the right hand, there was an explosion, and a bullet tore through the American's arm.

The victim of this bit of German "strategy" is Alexander P. Watson, of Knoxville, Tenn., who has just returned from France. The "kamerad" gun, which he has brought home as a souvenir, is so small that it can be concealed in the palm of the hand. The short muzzle is entirely hidden by the fingers. The weapon is also fitted with a stock so built that it fits into the curve of the hand as it is held above one's head, and the long trigger is worked with the little finger.

In "surrendering," the wielder of this treacherous mechanism holds up his left hand with the palm forward in the usual fashion, but the right, holding the gun, is extended above the head with the "Y" man. The soldier's action, which was instantaneous, made it unnecessary for the stretcher bearers to pick up this particular "wounded" man.

There was no resistance on the part of the German when Watson finally got this souvenir. A doughboy in a "mopping-up" party at work nearby saw the attack on the "Y" man. The soldier's action, which was instantaneous, made it unnecessary for the stretcher bearers to pick up this particular "wounded" man.

development include petroleum, bitumen, coal, rock salt, and sulphur.

Mr. Whitley considers it essential that Great Britain should control the railway, or railways, connecting the Mediterranean with the Persian Gulf. Now that the German dream of a Berlin-Bagdad-Persian Gulf railway is over, he considers Great Britain should step in and build a railway line between Bagdad, Basrah, and Koweit, which could in time be extended to India through Southern Persia. Apart from strategic reasons, Mr. Whitley considers the opening up of railways should be encouraged on a view to bringing the inhabitants of these parts into touch with the benefits of civilization and development, and at the same time replacing the oppression, injustice, and cruelty that obtain, with peace, justice and progress.

WHY ARE WHISKERS?
WHY NOT WHISKERS?

This Once Infallible Badge of Manhood Has Many Distressing Vicissitudes of Popular Favor

(Toronto Globe)

Why are whiskers? And—contrariwise, as Tweedledum would put it—why not whiskers?

In years gone by whiskers were the honorable badge of manhood. In the early and middle ages no man received recognition as a man unless bearded to the eyes. Even as late as the mid-Victorian era whiskers were accorded a respect that amounted almost to homage. Shorn of his silky beard and moustache, the hero of a Quixote novel would have cut a sorry figure in the realms of nineteenth century romantic literature. Whiskers, which generically include moustaches, beards and those particular forms of shrubbery confined and restricted to growth upon the cheeks, were looked upon in those dear, dead days, as things of beauty; highly gentled appendages to be cultivated with care and trimmed only by the hand of an artist. Smooth faces were reserved for the members of the higher clergy, who, as a class, were not supposed to indulge in the frivolity of fun-trimming.

But within the past decade whiskers have fallen into disrepute and have become a hissing and a byword throughout the land. This has been the result of a hygienic propaganda which cried aloud from the house-tops, in lecture halls and in the public press, that whiskers in any quantity, of any texture, or of any color, were insanitary! that they were menace to the public health; that they were gatherers of germs which they redistributed broadcast by means of the otherwise harmless comb, brush or overbrush oscillation. Thus they were declared utterly undesirable in an age of sanitation carried to the nth degree.

Advent of the Razor.

Dame Fashion—blind as her sister, Mrs. Justice—basing her judgment upon this sanitary, or insanitary hypothesis, thereupon decreed that no attempt should be made to so lay out, or arrange that cranial area lying between the hat rim and the collar that it might present the appearance of a well-ordered garden, with the natural and unalterable features gracefully set about with clumps of neatly-clipped and trimmed whiskers. Thereupon like sheep headed for the sheavers, the vast majority of the nation's manhood fell in line and became victims of the razor, presenting to the world faces as uninterestingly devoid of decoration as the concrete court of an apartment house.

The vogue in heroes swung to the other extreme. Novelists feverishly reached for their safety razors and pruned their leading males to the bone, taked down their hairless cheeks and chins and presented them to an uninitiated public, with such naive references to their hairless conditions as: "A flush of anger mounted to Richard's clean-shaven cheeks— or: "Sheldon passed his hand thoughtfully over his smooth, firm chin—"

Now, although whiskers became an abomination in the eyes of the prophylactic and hygienic, the efforts to retain and encourage the scalp-locks abated not lessened. No outcry was raised against the man who wasted his substance on nostrils guaranteed to grow hair upon a hard-boiled egg. The bald head was not exalted to a place of honor, nor was the shaving pool extolled as a thing of beauty and a monument to sanitation. The whisker-haters did not carry their theories to the extent of becoming tonsured, and this is emphatically

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. Wash this liquid behind the eye two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom this article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances even where the eyes are in a very poor condition. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations of its kind that should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in thirteity by Watsons Drug Store and others.

ly pointed out by those who still cling to the whisker tradition, who go further, and say that if it is a matter of sanitation the head that is the greater sinner, for they argue, the whisker is subjected to a cleansing process every time the face is washed, while the shampoo is usually but a periodical event, commensurate at intervals of days.

War-Time Reaction.

Since the outbreak of war, in the fall of 1914, there has been a timid attempt to resurrect the old ideals of manly beauty, but as yet the results have not attained the luxuriant proportions of bygone days, when the "Piccadilly-weeper," the "waterfall-lip-fringe" and the "full-lace-curtain" were the vogue. Rather, there has appeared to be an attempt to curtail growth after the fashion of the Japanese dwarf gardens, until the crop, restricted to the upper lip, suggested nothing more lavish than a worn-down nailbrush. Authorities are widely divided upon the origin of this style, but it has been conventionally accepted as stamping the wearer as a son of Mars, although it is not on record that the god of war ever affected a hirsute adornment of this kind. Quite the reverse.

However, the fact remains that, instead of the utterly barren, desert-like faces that used to greet one on one's walks abroad, the majority of masculine faces now carry amidships some tribute to the days when man's crowning glory was his whiskers.

The Ram's-horn—able assistant to the Hot Spot, which makes Chalmers a great car

THERE has been so much favorable comment on the Hot Spot device of the Chalmers that often the Ram's-horn of this great car is overlooked. The Ram's-horn completes the magnificent work of the Hot Spot, the main purpose of which is to fletcherize or "crack up" and heat the gas coming from the carburetor. Having done its work the Hot Spot passes the 100% conditioned gas on to the Ram's-horn. Now here is where an important job begins.

Gas is a peculiar thing. It "sticks in corners," "collects at any angle," goes back to its raw state unless it is handled quickly and scientifically.

So the Ram's-horn, as one might gather from the name, is without sharp corners, has easy bends and entices the gas smoothly into each cylinder. The inside of it is not a rough casting. It is as smooth as glass.

Note the drawing above. See that the distance from the Hot Spot to each cylinder is the same. That is the great secret of the Ram's-horn.

Most cars have a manifold that feeds gas into one cylinder, whatever is left over goes on into number two, the residue to number three and so on.

Cylinder number six is usually "starved" or gets "raw gas."

Thus you see why the Chalmers engine runs so smoothly, why it gets every last bit of power out of gas, why cold weather does not affect its starting, and why it runs cool on a warm day.

If you have not looked over a present day Chalmers you have an incomplete education on the modern motor car. For Chalmers now is considered one of the few great cars of the world.

We couldn't make the Maxwell any better; so we made it better looking

An artist never finishes his masterpiece until he finishes it.

So the new Maxwell, a completed work, is now robed in new garments.

They do not make it run any better. They make it look better.

Mr. Whistler, the famous artist, were he here today and saw a new Maxwell pass on the street, would probably himself give it a second look.

A little touch here, the straightening of a line there, the bringing of a fender a little closer to the wheel, a circassian walnut dash before you as you sit at the wheel, the strength lent by putting the gas tank in the rear, the multiplication of bonnet vents, the adding of three more painting coats, the increased thickness of the seat cushions—these, though but a few of the many changes made,—show the tendency of the new beauty.

It is in the sum of many little things that the full story is told.

The car was first checked off in squares, as a doctor sometimes marks off a man's chest and back to test every square inch of the lungs.

And there was an improvement made in nearly every square.

When the task was done it looked like a different Maxwell.

But it wasn't.

It was the same, sound, go-get-there

Overland

"Well Built"

The admiration for the Overland is due not only to its sturdy and graceful appearance but to its utility as well. Overland success is largely due to the fact that Overland owners have not only bought Overlands themselves but have enthusiastically recommended them to their friends.

LORD SHAUGHNESSY TELLS OF HIS TRIP TO OLD COUNTRY

English People Rising From War Sorrows With Firm Spirit

Unrest Not Bolshevism—Those Who Best Understand Irish Character Think Question Should Rest for Present.

(Montreal Gazette). "So long as human nature remains as it is, fundamentally unchanged, it will be impossible by whatever arrangement, however legal or efficacious, to absolutely guarantee that there shall be no more war in the world," said Lord Shaughnessy, who has just returned from the mother country, to the Gazette.

"At the same time," the chairman of the C. P. R. was careful to add: "The peace treaty and the League of Nations—instruments now in preparation—will, in the general opinion, offer the hope and the certainty, one might say, that peace will prevail in the world for years to come. The best minds are working on these instruments which, while they may not in detail please all parties, are formulated in a way to placate differences as far as possible. There will be conflicting claims; and, indeed, we see that already; but the aim is to bring in peace; to adjust differences, as far as may be; and provide an instrument making for the peace of the world."

"These differences, as between nations, will not jeopardize the treaty or the league."

"I do not think so. Many differences which were expressed at the beginning have already been settled. Of course, so many interests being involved, there would inevitably be varied viewpoints; but the work is proceeding; every point is studied and discussed; and everything will be done that can be done to adjust and reconcile conflicting interests."

Asked if the Great Powers were likely to insist that Germany should not only make reparation, but give indemnities, Lord Shaughnessy said that seemed to be the determination; but, at the same time, care must be taken not to destroy the German industries in any way, for without them the indemnities could not be paid.

Referring to England, Lord Shaughnessy said that the people were rising above the hardships and sorrows of the war in a firm spirit. In this relation, his lordship paid a fine tribute to the labors and zeal of the king and queen, and all the members of the royal family during the war. The king and queen, who always stood high in the people's love, had, in a special degree, endeared themselves to the people by the way in which they identified themselves with the sacrifices, the labors and sorrows of the nation. They had not spared themselves; but had taken their stand with their people in every experience. Many of these were poignant; but their majesties did not shrink; and it was not too much to say that the king and queen were more firmly seated on their thrones, for the warmth of their sympathies, their quiet but efficient interest in all that concerned the people as a whole.

That love with which their majesties were regarded was, as his lordship said, enthusiastically absorbed in the wedding of the Princess Patricia, at which his lordship was present. The streets were black with people, out of sympathy for the interesting event, but the masses cheered their majesties at every turn. The oration was a splendid one; and testified that while other thrones might totter, the throne of Great Britain was firmly established. Unrest Not Bolshevism. "Is there any Bolshevism in England?" his lordship was asked. "I do not think so. There has been unrest, of course, in many parts of the country, due to many causes; but the British working man is not the type to indulge in Bolshevism. He has his own way of expressing his wishes; but not through anarchical forms like the Bolshevik, which appears to have made a desolation of Russia. That unrest will pass, in due course."

The new 1919 "continuous tread" on the Maltese Cross Non-Skid Tire is a real improvement and we want every motorist to give this new-pattern-tread tire a trial.'

would be the part of wisdom to let the matter rest until there was opportunity to go thoroughly and sympathetically into it.

To Seat in House of Lords. Lord Shaughnessy met not a few of the great ones of the earth; had luncheon with Lloyd George, the British premier; and sat in the House of Lords.

Asked if he had made a speech, his lordship smilingly shook his head. "I did not speak, but I listened to speeches."

The people in England were still being rationed; but not in a way to cause any real privation. The people, as a whole, were showing recovery and taking up life again, after the awful experience of the war.

"Would your lordship care to say a word about the taking over of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the possible grabbing of the C. P. R.?" "Not a word," was the reply. "I said something on the other side; but I say rather out of such matters now. Mr. Beatty will attend to such questions."

Asked in relation to immigration, his lordship said that, first of all, the soldiers who were brought home, which would use up the shipping space for some time to come; and, second, there was the question as to the government declaring its policy in this regard. We did not know what the policy was to be. With more shipping, however, and with the assurance of the motor policy, there ought to be, after some time, considerable immigration into the country, which, of course, needs population.

THE REVENUE FROM MOTOR VEHICLES

Gives Ontario a Huge Sum to Spend Annually on the Roads of the Province.

(Toronto Globe). An advanced programme of highway development is undoubtedly justifiable from a financial point of view. The basis of the provincial expenditure on roads in southern Ontario is the revenue from motor vehicle permits. The government has given the assurance that motor revenue will be devoted to this work. In 1918 the fees were substantially increased for that purpose. In 1918 the total revenue from all sources amounted to $1,214,000. This in itself is evidence that an advanced programme is necessary.

On a conservative estimate there is room for 200,000 cars in Ontario, which number will probably be reached by a steady growth, producing a revenue in excess of $2,000,000.

"Road expenditures," says the government, "should not be considered on the basis of the grant total to be spent in a term of twenty years—any more than the bringing up of a family. It is an annual matter, to be met by annual income. If we were to ask the township council to spend on their roads $20,000 in the next ten years, on the first blush it might precipitate a riot. Yet township councils of Ontario are now spending about $2,000,000 a year on their roads—over $50,000,000 in a term of ten years."

The province can do its obligations to roads in the same way. County councils will probably make provision for their roads during the reconstruction, and will be encouraged to do so. But it is a fact that the present basis of provincial subsidies, the normal demand on the province will be about $2,000,000 a year. The present basis of provincial subsidies, the normal demand on the province will be about $2,000,000 a year.

The charge on the province for provincial highways is 70 per cent of the outlay, and it is anticipated that federal grants will relieve this to some extent. Without materially exceeding the estimated revenue from motor cars, it is apparent that an annual expenditure on provincial highways of from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 for a few years, a part to be raised by loans, if necessary, is safely within the resources of the province.

It is to be remembered that the highway improvement act, the principle of aid to county roads, was adopted before revenue from motor cars was a factor in the situation, and for a period, at least, until the basis of a system of highways has been reached, our expenditure should not necessarily be strictly limited to the income from motor cars.

To establish and assume a system of provincial highways does not in itself constitute a liability. The highways are here now and must be maintained in any event. The provincial expenditure will necessarily be limited to the amount which can reasonably be devoted to the work annually.

Saloniki, March 21—Thousands of Greeks who were deported during the war are returning to their homes in Eastern Macedonia in a wretched condition because of the failure of the Bulgarian government to provide food and clothes for them, according to a report made by the American Red Cross by the officer in charge of the organization's work in Macedonia.

Built in Canada For Canadian Conditions.

Day by day National Motor Trucks are wiping out old notions of what motor truck service ought to be—establishing new records of efficiency, reliability, and economy.

And here's the reason. National Motor Trucks in their entirety are the product of specialists. Each part is built by a specialist. The National engineers have drawn upon the best "motor truck brains" of the entire world. Combining standard features with the scientifically correct National designs produces a maximum of motor truck value which, we believe, has never been equalled. WHERE MONCTON STANDS

Moncton, March 21—A largely attended meeting of the Moncton board of trade, this evening, the Government railway situation as it affects the maritime provinces was again discussed.

Communications were received from Colonel Cantley and Mr. Hanna, of the Canadian National board. Colonel Cantley said that while arguments have been advanced to the contrary he was as yet not convinced that the headquarters quarters would be better located in Toronto than in Moncton. He promised to exert his influence for protection of the interests of the maritime provinces so far as possible.

Mr. Hanna asked that the board of trade and other interests spend judgment until he has further opportunity of talking matters over—particularly as the situation is unchanged and will remain so for further personal discussion.

A. B. Copp, M.P., wrote from Ottawa that Hon. Mr. Carvell seems very sympathetic but can give him "no definite assurance that our interest will be protected." After an extended discussion a committee consisting of E. A. Reilly, Captain J. E. Masters and F. E. Demaison was appointed to prepare a communication to Mr. Hanna and report to another meeting of the board Monday night.

WILLARD GETS SUM OF $200,000

Richard Guarantees $100,000 and "Movie" Firm Will Pay Similar Amount

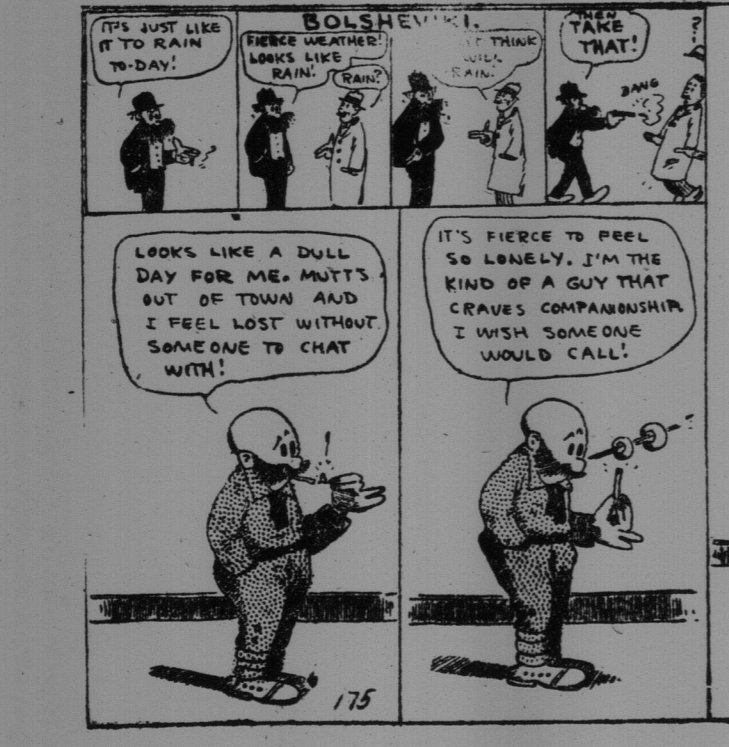

New York, March 22.—At an informal conference here tonight the managers of Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey discussed the heavyweight championship contest, scheduled for July 4, with promoter Tex Rickard preparatory to arranging for preliminary training. Willard was represented by Ray Archer, while Dempsey's plans were explained by Jack Kearns.

Both managers stated that they were in this city prepared to engage sparring partners for their principals, and each carried a list of heavyweight boxers from which it was expected they would be selected.

According to the champion's manager, Willard has already begun light physical work and is a trifle below 270 pounds in weight. He is particularly desirous of getting sparring partners of about the height and weight of Dempsey, and in order to be acceptable they must be fast, hard-hitting, two-handed punchers.

The champion will do all of his work at his home in Lawrence until six weeks before the bout, when, according to the terms of his contract with Rickard, he will move to the scene of the titular battle. In the interim, however, Willard will find time to star in a moving picture drama in which he will appear as the hero. He will be filmed during his actual training work, will take part in a ring battle and presumably will at some stage of the picture rescue the beautiful heroine from impending danger. Willard's stipend for submitting himself to

WILLARD NOW SEEKS SPARRING PARTNERS

Champion is Down to 268 and Will be in Fine Condition for Bout, Says His Secretary

New York, March 22.—Jess Willard, world's heavyweight champion, is confident of retaining his laurels in his bout with Jack Dempsey, July 4. The tall Kansan is convinced of his own invincibility, at least as far as Dempsey is concerned. Ray Archer, secretary to Willard, made his declaration yesterday when he arrived here from Chicago. Archer added that Willard is prepared to wager his own end of the purse and an additional $10,000 that Dempsey will not succeed in gaining the title. Willard's bet, if it is made, will involve $10,000 of the champion's resources.

According to Archer, Willard will surprise ring followers with his condition on the day of the bout. The champion, it is said, has planned a course of rigorous training which will bring him as near the shape he enjoyed when he won the title as it is possible to be, considering the easy and inactive life Willard has been living.

The champion, Archer said, weighs 268 pounds now, despite reports to the contrary. Willard has been popularly supposed to have weighed nearer to 300 pounds. Willard will take up serious

SPOILS LIFE FOR TURK PROFITEERS

Food Commissioner Cuts Prices by Selling to Retail Buyers—Dinner
Costs $1.50

Constantinople, March 21—Of greater interest to the general public here than is the presence of the troops of the Entente Powers, or even Turkey's future, is the war the Food Commissioner, Howard Heins, is conducting against the profiteers.

The arrival in Constantinople of three shiploads of wheat has enabled Mr. Heins, selling to retail buyers, to force the price of a bag of flour weighing seventy-five kilograms from thirty-eight lire (Turkish) to seventeen lire, thus greatly relieving the distress of the people.

Enough grain already is in this country to last until within a month of the next harvest. Indeed, Constantinople now has more food than has London.

Profiteering in food, however, continues. Sugar is selling at the equivalent of $1.60 a pound; beans, fifty cents a pound; oil, $10 a gallon; coal, $125 a ton; milk, seventy-five cents a quart.

Dinner Costs About $1.50
A dinner costs from 1.3 (Turkish) to 1.10, the equivalent of about $1.50 American money.

Reports indicate that Roumania is suffering more than either Turkey or Bulgaria.

The policy of feeding friends first is being followed by Mr. Heins, and supplies are steadily going forward to Constantinople. However, transportation inland is very difficult, because of the fact that the Germans stole or destroyed 75 per cent of the railroad rolling stock and equipment.

Southern Serbia also is in great need of quick relief.

While endeavoring to handle the food situation, the commission is also re-establishing the mail service. During the last two years there has been no mail received by Americans in Turkey. Now, however, they are again getting in touch with the world.

Americans Start Mail Service.

The American government has begun a weekly courier service between Constantinople and Paris. Letters require three days from Constantinople to Bucharest by way of Constantinople, and three days from Bucharest to Paris by way of Vienna and Budapest.

At the same time the railroad from Salonica to Agad is being re-opened from Sofia here, coincidental with the re-opening of the line from Constantinople to Cairo by way of Aleppo and Jerusalem.

Vessels are plying frequently between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean. The trade blockade having been lifted, British, French and Italian traders are here.

Second-Hand Planes
Have Come to Stay

Occasional Death of an Aviator
Will Not Deter
Venturesome Youths

(Columbus Despatch.)
A New York concern has purchased ten million dollars' worth of airplanes and airplane parts from the British government. The machines and parts are in Canada, but it is said they will be brought to this country and disposed of to persons who desire to purchase second-hand airplanes. All of which is evidence that at least one big concern believes the airplane has "come to stay."

The United States government also has on hand several million dollars' worth of airplanes and parts, and for which it now has no use. This great volume of planes and material will sooner or later find its way to the market at ridiculously low prices compared with the original cost. Already there are several commercial firms figuring upon taking much of it, with a view to distributing it to persons who desire to go into the flying game. So it seems it will not be a great while until second-hand airplanes will be as common as second-hand automobiles.

At the same time we are told that the aviators who took part in the war will not be in the market for the machines; that the men who have learned to fly and who have had experience in the same are not enthusiasts in the matter of planning. Even Orville Wright, who ought to know more about planes than any other man in this country, says the present plane is not practical for ordinary use, and he does not look for general employment of planes until a type is devised that can be landed with less risk than those now made.

But there will be a demand for these second-hand planes just the same. There will be persons to buy them and to use them. The occasional death of an aviator will not deter venturesome youths from taking a flight, and in good time these same venturesome youths will work out types of planes that will be safer and more easily handled.—Columbus (Ohio) Despatch.
