Mr. Blake har always been a favorite with British Liberals and Irish Nationalists and while on the other side years ago spoke in favor of Home Rule to a large gathering. There will be considerable surprise it at Mr. Blake's acceptance of this offer. It was understood that he left Canadian politics to attend to his law business and it seems strange that he should hunger again for the same strife he so unsuccessfully followed in Canada. To the observer it looks as if it was the liberal party in Canada and not love of banking money that drove the old leader out of public life.

The reports of Messrs, Davy and McQueen, tenant farmer delegates, who visited the Maritime Provinces last year, were presented to parliament to-day. Mr. Davy's impressions on the whole are favorable. Mr. McQueen on the other hand evidently came to Canada to find fault and was duly, loaded up' by the grits. Mr. says the resources of the Maritime Provinces are abundant. The rivers, lakes and seaboard abound with fish, and woods furnish employment for a large number of hands both in winter and in summer. Coal, iron and gold exist especially in Nova Scotia. He cannot, however, av anything derogatory of the resources and capabilities of the maritime provinces. They are great and capable of great development, particularly in mineral, But the facts prove the remarks that agriculture or farming has for a number of years (but more clearly since the McKinley bill came into operatio), been on the down grade and in a very driptos this depression? Some may say you have nothing to do with this question, it is out of your province and tozenes on politics, but I hold it is so closely associated with our mission and object of our report that we are bound to bring it forward. In answer to the second question, as to the recommending of emigrants to go to the maritime provinces; until there is unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, so that farmers would have a better market and be able to command higher prices for their produce, I must decidedly say no. Mr. McQueen is candid enough, however, to admit that the Sabbath is observed in the maritime provinces mucheletter than factoriand. Appended to the report are several valuable letters recieved by Sir Charles Tupper from Scotchmen settled in New Brunswick Nova Scotia and P. E. Island.
