

MR. BORDEN SAYS STORY IS UNTRUE

Leader of the Opposition Denies
That He Is to Resign on Friday.

"JUST NEWSPAPER TALK"

This Is the Way He Expressed Himself—Would Not Make Statement Regarding Mr. Monk.

Mr. R. L. Borden, K.C., leader of the Conservative Opposition, denied absolutely the story printed today in the Toronto World to the effect that he would resign the leadership at the caucus meeting in Ottawa on Friday.

He was called up by long distance telephone at the residence of Mr. J. S. E. Armstrong, Petrolia, and in conversation with The Advertiser denied that he would resign at that meeting.

The Monk Speech.

Mr. Borden was also asked regarding the speech of Mr. F. D. Monk, the leader of the French wing of the Conservatives, at Jacques Cartier, last night, in which he took issue with Mr. Borden, and declared that a vote of the people should be taken on this subject before the Government launched into a scheme of naval defence.

This topic Mr. Borden would not touch, as he had not seen Mr. Monk's speech in print, and he considered it unfair to make any criticism or reference to it, until he had the full text of the address.

Story Denied.

"Have you read the Toronto World today?" was asked.

"No, I have not seen the paper, as yet," answered Mr. Borden.

"There is a story published in that paper to the effect that you will resign at the meeting of the party on Friday in Ottawa," said the reporter.

"I never heard of it until you mentioned it," said Mr. Borden.

"It is absolutely untrue," asked the reporter.

"Yes," Mr. Borden replied, "it is absolutely untrue. It is just a newspaper story. I called the meeting myself in Ottawa. It is merely a conference of the party."

The Navy Question.

The Advertiser then sought to get a statement from Mr. Borden on Mr. F. D. Monk's famous speech concerning the naval question.

Mr. Borden said that he had not read the speech as yet, and remarked that it would be unfair to express an opinion under the circumstances.

The reporter gave him the gist of the speech, which was that a vote should be taken before Canada was launched into a naval programme, but the leader of the Opposition would not consent to talk.

"I must know exactly what Mr. Monk said before I make any statement on the subject," he said.

Says He Will Resign.

The Toronto World (Conservative) has the following today:

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—The Conservative caucus called for Friday, in Ottawa, will be a notable event.

There is a question of a discussion over the leadership of the party. A section of the Opposition, while entertaining the utmost loyalty towards Mr. R. L. Borden, personally, are convinced that he will not lead them to victory at the polls, lacking, they say, the power of strong leadership. They base their claim on one or two incidents in the House, when he failed to fasten upon the weakness of the Government, and make his party the mouthpiece of public opinion. Particularly was this the case, they say, during the debate on the resolution on imperial naval defence.

However, it is stated here tonight that Mr. Borden will take first action, and will tender his resignation as leader of the party at the caucus on Friday. Whether it will be accepted or not is, of course, impossible to say. In such a case, Premier McBride, of British Columbia, is believed to be the next in order. There are those who affirm that he will be in Ottawa leading the Opposition before Christmas is here, but in view of the fact that his Government will hardly have then passed through a general election, and with an elaborate railway policy to carry out, this is hardly probable.

INDIANS UP IN ARMS

Trouble Fears on Skeena River—Settlers Sending Families Away.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 9.—Indians on the Skeena River are up in arms at the arrest of the ringleaders in the raid on the Government stores. White settlers are sending their families into Hazelton.

AMBASSADOR TO CANADA

Germany to Have Consul-General With Extensive Power.

London, Nov. 9.—The Canadian Associated Press learns that the German Government is considering the advisability of establishing a new consulate-general at Ottawa, which will be almost ambassadorial in its scope and character. Plans have already been suggested for the erection of a building in which a record and museum of German manufactures and products suitable for the Canadian market might be accommodated.

A BITTER FIGHT ON SUNDAY CARS

Lord's Day Alliance Will Insist
That There Are Not 50-
000 People in London

TWO DEPUTATIONS GOING

Will See Premier Whitney and Will Put Both Sides of the Shield
Before the Premier.

The question of a vote on Sunday cars will be settled in the near future. Tomorrow a deputation from the Lord's Day Alliance will go to Toronto for the other side of the case before Sir James Whitney.

According to the secretary, Rev. G. N. Hazen, the personnel of the deputation has not been decided upon, and it will not be finally agreed upon until this evening.

They will insist, so far as can be learned, that there are not 50,000 people in the city according to the census of Assessment Commissioner Grant, and consequently the vote cannot be taken in view of the London bill.

The deputation will be made as impressive as possible, and it was stated that a large number of alliance workers would make the trip.

Statement for Mayor.

Assessment Commissioner Grant has not yet submitted his report as to the census.

A communication was sent to him by Mayor Stevely. It is understood, however, that a report on the population of the city that report will be submitted to his worship, and will be forwarded to Sir James Whitney as the latter requested.

"I have not yet completed the report," said Mr. Grant. "I expect it to show 50,000 or thereabouts."

When this report has been sent to the deputation of those favoring Sunday cars will go to Toronto, and will lay their side of the argument before the Premier.

It is expected that this will be done the latter part of the week.

LITTLE GIRL'S FOOT CAUGHT IN TRACKS

Terrible Predicament of a Child in Parkhill—A Warning
for Children.

Parkhill Gazette: One afternoon last week a little girl got caught between the track and the sidewalk at the railway crossing on Main street. She stood, making no outcry and without asking for help. Finally she began to cry, and the shoe around her foot was so jammed that she could not get it off. Three or four quickly called and they tried to extricate her. She tried to get out, but she could not. After a few minutes this was accomplished, and the shoe was withdrawn. Then, with considerable difficulty, the shoe was released and it was found that, in her effort to free herself, the child had worked the shoe around so that it was beneath the sidewalk. This made it quite impossible for her to release herself. Her mother, who was standing nearby, saw the predicament and, without hesitating a moment, she ran to the foot of the child, and, without wasting time trying to pull her foot and shoe out, she called attention to the child, which always attracts those who cross the crossing. It would be a good time to impress on every child the fact that if such an accident happens to any of them, the first thing to do is to attract attention to the child's predicament.

"The first thing to do in such an emergency."

"WAN AIG" COSTS TEN: BOOST IN SANDWICHES

Restaurant Men Say They Can Make No Money at the Present Prices.

Egg sandwiches are to be raised from five cents to ten because eggs cannot be bought for less than 30 cents a dozen. Local quick lunch men state that unless there is an immediate drop in the price of eggs the price of sandwiches will rise at once. They claim that with eggs costing two and a half cents apiece, that it is impossible for them to provide the necessary bread and butter, salt, pepper, and the help the wages they are paying and make any money out of the transaction.

No Money in Them.

"There is absolutely nothing in egg sandwiches at the present price of eggs," the proprietor of one of London's largest restaurants told The Advertiser. "We have to handle an enormous lot of them, too. Last week we used one hundred and thirty-five dozen eggs. Of course they were not all for sandwiches, but the great majority of them were. I do not think there is another city in the country where there is such a demand for eggs as there is in London. Everybody eats them. Unless eggs drop in price I and other restaurant men will have to raise the price of egg sandwiches."

TAFT SENDS MESSAGE TO KING EDWARD

Washington, Nov. 9.—This being the sixty-eighth birthday of King Edward, President Taft today sent him the following congratulatory telegram: "I warmly congratulate your majesty on your happy completion of another year and wish for you all health and happiness in long years to come."

ASSESSED FIFTY.

Nigeria—Nov. 9.—John Dashiway, one of the hotelmen who lost their licenses on the re-adjustment of licenses, was up before Police Magistrate Fraser this morning charged with selling without a license. He was found guilty and was assessed $50 and costs.

ANOTHER NAIL IN LORDS' COFFIN

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The House of Lords tonight, by a vote of 157 to 49, rejected another bill which had been passed by the House of Commons. The measure, which went to defeat, was known as the London elections bill, and provided for the abolition of plural voting in the metropolis. The Opposition contended that the bill would have put London on an inferior plane as compared with the provinces.

The British budget entered upon a new stage today when it received its first reading in the House of Lords. There was no discussion of the measure whatever. The budget will come up for its second reading on Nov. 22, when the fateful debate will begin.

JOINT COMMITTEE IGNORES COUNCIL

Not a Member of the Old Body
Is On the Proposed Municipal Slate.

SOME OF THE NAMES

Nothing Official as Yet, But Full List
Will Soon Be Published.

At a meeting of the joint committee of the Board of Trade and Real Estate Owners' Association, the 56 names that had been submitted at a previous meeting were reduced to 40, as was moved by Mr. Henry Macklin at the meeting last week.

Twenty-one Candidates.

From these 40 names the members of the committee will endeavor to select 21 candidates, that will meet with the approval of the different bodies in the city. That report will be submitted to his worship, and will be forwarded to Sir James Whitney as the latter requested.

"I have not yet completed the report," said Mr. Grant. "I expect it to show 50,000 or thereabouts."

When this report has been sent to the deputation of those favoring Sunday cars will go to Toronto, and will lay their side of the argument before the Premier.

It is expected that this will be done the latter part of the week.

The Names.

Among the names submitted are those of J. W. Little, George C. Gibbons, Hon. Adam Beck, J. S. E. Armstrong, Philip Peacock, Rev. J. G. Inkster, Adam McMahon, T. J. Murphy, C. R. Sonerville, Arthur White, John D. Richter, R. J. Young, J. W. McFarrell, Warren Thomson, John Campbell, George McCormick, John Hayman, Frank Leonard, A. B. Green, Wm. Jeffrey, D. H. Howden, Gilbert McLean, John Orchard, Henry Jones, W. Darch, Dr. H. A. McCallum, James H. Brown, R. E. Ewert, John Labatt, R. D. McDonald, and Edwin Paul.

Profound Secrecy.

There is profound secrecy regarding the slate, and half a dozen members of the joint committee were interviewed, but they refused to give a word for publication.

They maintain that the public will be informed in sufficient time, but they refuse to give any information regarding the present standing of the slate.

Not a member of the present council has been placed among the 40 names submitted. Some of the committee are, however, making his name, but so far they have not been able to stampede the committee.

MONK LINES UP AGAINST MR. BORDEN

Quebec Conservative Leader Comes Out Strong Against the Canadian Navy.

Lachine, Que., Nov. 8.—Addressing the electors of Jacques Cartier tonight, Mr. F. D. Monk, leader of the Quebec Conservatives, came out in opposition to Mr. Borden, by declaring that the Government should not start construction of a Canadian navy without first taking a vote of the people on the subject.

Mr. Monk maintained that from a financial point of view alone, Canada cannot, at the present moment, undertake such an undertaking is quite beyond her resources.

Mr. Monk estimated that the maintenance of a navy would cost $20,000,000 a year. He said that no navy at the Canada herself needed no navy at the present time, that the project as far as being of any use to the mother country in order to maintain her naval supremacy, would be useless, and that such an obligation did not exist in Canada, its national obligations as an autonomous and self-governing country being a duty of defence for our own commonwealth.

CRISIS IS ON IN OPPOSITION CAMP

Again Reported That Mr. Borden
Will Resign at Caucus.

TO TEST HIS STANDING

Party Leaders Divided Into Three Sections
on the Naval Policy.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The speech by Mr. F. D. Monk at Lachine, in the opinion of Ottawa authorities, provides a further complication for the Opposition in Parliament. Mr. R. L. Borden, Hon. George E. Foster, and the Liberal Conservative party, are in full agreement with the Government on the question of naval defence. They so declared themselves last session and both have reaffirmed their stand. In the west and in Toronto leading Conservatives have declared against the Government and Mr. Borden's proposal for a Canadian navy on the ground that a direct money contribution to the British navy would be the proper way for Canada to join in imperial defence. Mr. Monk now declares against the Government and Mr. Borden and against any contribution to imperial naval defence by Canada.

Trouble Ahead.

It is held here that there three views are impossible to reconcile and that there is bound to be trouble among the Opposition members. Under the circumstances it is becoming clear that the most interesting event of the session will be the caucus which the Conservatives will hold in secret on Friday next.

It is understood that Mr. R. L. Borden will tender his resignation as Opposition leader before that caucus, possibly three separate for the Conservative leadership. Premier Roblin of Manitoba is known to have been intriguing for advancement in the Conservative party. He is a Liberal in British Columbia is known to have been intriguing for advancement in the Conservative party. He is a Liberal in British Columbia is known to have been intriguing for advancement in the Conservative party.

NON-JURY SESSIONS BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Judgment Reserved in the Case of Davis vs. Shaw.

The sitting of the non-jury session of the high court, at which Hon. Mr. Justice Sutherland has been presiding, was brought to a close at 1 o'clock today. In the case of Rev. Evans Davis against James S. Shaw, an action over the disposal of a lot on Worley road, his lordship reserved judgment.

The case of W. R. Meredith, assignee for the benefit of the creditors of George W. Stevenson, against Ellen Dean and George W. Stevenson, an action on account of the fact that George Stevenson, knowing himself to be insolvent, had given a chattel mortgage to the defendant, Ellen Dean, which he had a preference over the other creditors, and, therefore, according to the plaintiff, was fraudulent. The defendants, however, claimed that it was a bona fide transaction in return for money advanced that enabled Stevenson to carry on the business. His lordship, however, did not give a view of the case, and gave aside the mortgage, and giving a judgment for $500, as part of the chattels had already been disposed of.

BEDFORD DENIES IT

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Edward William Bedford, the Canadian, who was arrested here last month, charged on his own confession with the murder of Ethel Khirade at Hamilton, Ont., has now admitted that there was no truth in his former statement. This was the opinion of the police, the detectives on the case having informed the magistrate that it was known the prisoner had given a wrong name, and that his statement otherwise was incorrect. On being brought up in the Bow street police court today, however, he was again remanded in order to allow the police to make more complete inquiries.

LEASE QUESTION
APPARENTLY DEAD

But Mayor Stevely Will Not Say
That the Negotiations
Are Off.

P. M. CHANGES HANDS

What the Effect Will Be on Company's Policy Not Known, But It Is
Said the Lease Extension Is Wanted.

The extension of the lease of the London Electric Railway, which is owned by the Pere Marquette, is apparently a dead issue.

That the company do not intend to force the city council of 1909 to deal with the question is now only too apparent. Upward of two months they have given no intimation as to their intentions, although the London and Port Stanley boards notified them that they were ready to hear a proposition from the Pere Marquette or any other road.

Just An Excuse.

However, nothing has been heard save that Mr. Cotter has been busy in the east. This is not considered a very important excuse in view of the fact that Mr. Cotter has been in the city on several occasions since the last communication received from him.

Mayor Stevely announced today that he had heard no word from the company. He admitted that it was not possible anything would be done, since negotiations are but a little more than a month away.

"I have heard nothing, nor do I know what they are doing," said his worship today.

He was not willing to make the statement that there was no further likelihood of negotiations being continued this year.

Changes Hands.

As announced exclusively in The Advertiser some time ago, the Pere Marquette has been turned over to other hands and it may be that negotiations will be conducted by other parties.

The Bessemer and Ohio are now in control of the Pere Marquette, and the policy of the company will, of course, be dictated by the new management.

Nothing can be learned as to what their policy will be, but it is understood that they are anxious for an extension, in the section running from the Ohio and Pennsylvania branch of the Pere Marquette.

Again in 1910.

Nothing will be done this year, but it is quite likely that the matter will be taken up after the New Year. An effort will then be made to have the matter extended, but the details of the matter will not be made public likely.

Nothing will be done this year in any event.

RAZORS AT HAMILTONOne Colored Gentleman Charged With Slashing Another.

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 9.—There was a serious affray in the city early this morning at the residence of Benjamin Workman, where a dance was in progress. Charles Smith and Fred Peter, it is alleged, became involved in a quarrel, and the latter slashed Peter's forehead over the head with a razor. Peter, on his complaint Smith was arrested and remanded at the police court this morning. Peter's wound badly cut up. Both parties are colored.

MR. JAMES ROSS DEAD

Was One of the Most Prominent Liberals in Kent County.

Tilbury, Ont., Nov. 9.—James Ross, for many years one of the best-known figures in political circles in Kent County, is dead. He was also a well-known dealer, having been engaged in that business for a number of years. Mr. Ross was a member of the county council from 1901 to 1906, but stepped out when the act was passed regarding the union of each township to sit in the county council. He was a Liberal in politics, and his name was frequently mentioned as a candidate to the Legislature. Mr. Ross was 65 years of age and is survived by a large family.

LATE ISAAC BROOKES

Remains Were Laid at Rest in Wood-

The funeral of Mr. Isaac Brookes was held yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 256 Wellington street, to Woodland Cemetery, and was held under the auspices of Bereford Lodge, No. 2, O. E. S. The services were conducted by Brothers E. Davey and H. Powell, and the regular funeral service was in charge of Rev. Street Methodist Church. The pallbearers were Brothers A. Flavin, E. Preece, H. Powell, C. Bug, R. Askey, and E. Davey, all members of Bereford Lodge. The floral designs were from Bereford Lodge, the Ladies' Aid of Wellington Street Methodist Church, Mrs. Bug, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Askey, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. A. Carrothers, Mrs. E. Hooper, Mrs. Cassidy, Miss Wiley and others.

ANOTHER THEATRE IS TALKED OF FOR LONDON

Syndicate of Greeks Are Trying to Buy Dundas Street Property.

A syndicate composed of Greeks are trying to acquire property on Dundas street, between Richmond and Clarence, for a new theatre, with a seating capacity of 2,500 people. Mr. George T. Hiscox has been approached by the syndicate with a proposal that he either lease or sell them a store which they can use as a main entrance and property on which they can build the theatre. Mr. Hiscox has submitted his prices on certain property held by him about the centre of the block, and the syndicate are considering the proposition, and will let him know inside of a month.

WARM WELCOME FOR
REV. MR. PEATFIELD

New Pastor of First Congregational Church Taken Into Hearts of Londoners
Last Night.

Rev. E. H. Peatfield, who took charge of the First Congregational Church for the first time on Sunday, and Mrs. Peatfield were the guests of honor at a reception held in the church last evening, and were warmly welcomed to the city by the members of their own congregation, and also by a number of city pastors. Rev. W. Stevely, of the China Inland Mission, presided, and addressed the assembly given by Mr. Robert Noble, senior deacon of the church, representing the deacons' board, by Mr. A. Anundson, president of the Sunday school, and by Miss Wright, secretary of the Ladies' Aid. All assured both Mr. and Mrs. Peatfield that the different departments of the church would be pleased to give them their heartiest support.

A Warm Welcome.

Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrew's Church, welcomed Mr. Peatfield on behalf of the Presbyterian churches of the city, and spoke in glowing terms of the excellent qualities of his predecessor, Rev. D. S. Hamilton. Dr. Ross assured Mr. Peatfield of the cooperation he might expect from the members of the Methodist churches of London. Rev. Richard Whiting, who spoke next, also extended a hearty welcome to Mr. Peatfield, and in the course of his remarks said he thought the lining of the Methodist churches would be a great mistake in moving pastors so often as there was no chance given a pastor to do his best in his own day is coming when the present rule will be changed and pastors will be allowed to remain longer and be enabled to do better work.

Rev. W. M. Walker, of the South London Baptist church, and Rev. H. Charles, of the Southern Congregational Church, also gave addresses in which they assured Mr. Peatfield of their sympathy and aid.

Mr. Peatfield's Reply.

In replying, Mr. Peatfield thanked all those who had spoken for their kind wishes and promises of support. He thought his reception a most cordial one, and was sure he would like London. He earnestly prayed that God's blessing might rest on the churches of London, and that their work would be successful.

CAUGHT IN ACT
BOARDING A TRAIN

William Linson Arrested by a C. P.
R. Detective.

William Linson, a "gent" from no where in particular, was observed boarding behind the switch tower at the Richmond street crossing of the C. P. R. express just before the midnight hour. A special plain clothes C. P. R. detective was called out to watch Linson and when, as the train was pulling out, he started to baggage car, he was arrested on a charge of trespass. He was found guilty by Magistrate Love this morning and fined $2.75 or ten days. He will probably be the guest of Governor Carter for the next few days.

Guy Andrus, of 9 Marmora street, went too fast in his auto, according to a policeman, and was summoned. The case was adjourned until tomorrow.

Annie Smith, the young girl who has been on remand for vagrancy, was again remanded for a week.

Three first-time drunks were allowed to go.

THE DOWAGER'S FUNERALRemains of Late Empress of China Taken to the Tombs.

Peking, Nov. 9.—The cortege accompanying the body of the late Dowager Empress of China on its 80-mile journey to the eastern tombs, left the Forbidden city early this morning. The route along which the procession will travel is thronged with people.

A holiday in memory of the Dowager Empress is being observed, but the capital bears a sombre aspect on account of the funeral umbrellas and flags, as a result of the high winds prevailing.

The new imperial guards escorted the foreign diplomats who participated in the procession for a distance of 500 yards. The members of the diplomatic corps signalled the exit of the late ruler by a division in the vote taken with regard to the time that the corps should attend the final rites, some of the diplomats declining to be present at 5 o'clock, but agreeing on 7 o'clock. Owing to the confusion in the arrangements in the end the legion guards, with the exception of the officers, did not witness or participate in the ceremonies.

The heads of the imperial clan, accompanied the coffin in state regalia. The foreigners were greeted at the diplomatic pavilion by Prince Chun, the Chinese regent, and Prince Ching, formerly president of the board of foreign affairs, and now adviser to the naval department.

LONDON MAN WAS STABBED TO HEART

Killed by an Indian While Looking Over Property in the Rocky Mountains.

DETAILS ARE MEAGRE

Scatherd Was Formerly a Pupil at the London Collegiate Institute—Went West Last Spring.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 9.—Trumbull Scatherd, of Calgary, formerly of London, Ont., was, according to a report received here, stabbed to the heart by an Indian while he was looking over some mining properties in the Rocky Mountains. It is stated that his condition is such that he cannot live more than a few days. Very few details have as yet been received regarding the matter, but it was hurried to Calgary Hospital as quickly as possible, and everything done to try and save his life.

A Collegiate Boy.

Trumbull Scatherd was a pupil at the London Collegiate Institute until September of last year, when, with his parents, he went to reside in Calgary. He is 18 years old, and a son of Mr. Edwin Scatherd, formerly of Wytheville. He has distant relatives living in the city and a number of brothers and sisters living in Calgary. A brother lives in Sarnia also.

Along.

A rather daring attempt at sneaking was made yesterday, when two young men obtained entrance to a storehouse in the rear of the residence of Mr. George T. Hiscox, on Queen's avenue, and piled up a great quantity of brass goods and lead pipe. They had there, Mr. Hiscox happened to be in his yard and heard a noise in the building, and on opening the door was just in time to see two young fellows making out through another door. He reported the matter to the detectives, and was asked to furnish an excellent description, and it is expected that arrests will take place shortly. The young men had collected many dollars' worth of brass and lead and had piled it up in a convenient place. They were apparently engaged in collecting more when Mr. Hiscox surprised them.

TWO MORE APARTMENT HOUSES FOR LONDON

It Is Said They Will Be Built
by Messrs. Hiscox and Hayman.

London will in all probability have two more apartment houses next summer. Mr. George T. Hiscox stated to The Advertiser today that he was in house on some of his property. He has been on some of his property. He has several acres under consideration, but has not as yet selected a definite site. Nothing will be done in the matter of building, as it is too late in the season now. Mr. John Hayman, who has already built London's two apartment houses, has under consideration the building of a half-dozen new combinations of rooming and apartment house on Wellington street, adjoining his other property. Mr. Hiscox is said to have a building which will probably be five or six stories in height, and will contain a restaurant, a buffet, and many other modern appointments, which will render it unnecessary for those who occupy suites to go out to dine.

EXPLORER AND EDITOR REMEMBERED BY KING

Shackleton and Robertson Nicoll Made Knights—Canadians Honored.

London, Nov. 8.—Three Canadians are included in the list of birthday honors issued tonight. They are: W. W. Cory, Canadian deputy minister of the interior; Col. Seely, connected with the British Columbia office, and A. B. Perry. Mr. Cory and Mr. Perry are made Commanders of the Order of Michael and George—C.M.G.—and Mr. Seely is made a privy councillor. No peerages are conferred, being the third time one have been granted.

The list comprises six privy councillors, six baronets and a host of knights. Except in the case of Lieut. E. H. Shackleton, the explorer, the rewards are for the most part for philanthropic and political service, in addition to the customary Bath, colonial and Indian honors.

Dr. William Robertson Nicoll, editor of the British Weekly and other publications, is among those knighted.

Sven Hedin, the Swedish geographer and explorer, who recently led an expedition through Tibet, has been knighted Commander of the Indian Empire.

Admiral Sir Edward H. Seymour, who commanded the British squadron which participated in the Hudson-Fulton celebration this fall, and Sir Edward Speyer, the banker, are made privy councillors.

Lieut. E. H. Shackleton, who penetrated nearest to the South Pole, was made a knight.

ROWDY STUDENTS HEAVILY PUNISHED

Three Toronto Varsity "Smart Alecks" Expelled for Session.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—According to the decision of the university caput handed out this afternoon, the evidence against the five students for taking part in the fracas on Hal-lowe'en is not sufficient to warrant their expulsion from the university, but it was enough to cause serious penalties to be imposed.

Three of them will be expelled for the rest of the academic year, another has been fined $50, and the fifth will have to pay the damages done to the roller belonging to the Toronto Cricket Club.

The caput decided the five before them were not ring leaders, though they took considerable part in the doings.

NORTH ESSEX CAMPAIGN QUIETEST ON RECORD

Both Liberal and Conservative Candidates Are Claiming Victory.

Windsor, Nov. 9.—Residents in North Essex declare that the contest for the seat in the House of Commons vacated by the promotion of R. F. Sutherland, is the quietest they have ever known.

In the last election, Mr. Sutherland was returned by a majority of 551. That lead was made up of majorities in every polling district with the exception of Walkerville, which has always been a part of the Conservative district.

Both candidates are confident of victory.

The shortness of time prevents the holding of many meetings. In the interests of Wilcox three public gatherings have been held, while two more have been scheduled for the evening. The Conservative workers seem to be relying on the result of a "still" hunt now in progress, and on the appeal that their candidate is a farmer.

One of the most important factors in the campaign is the appearance of Hon. Mackenzie King, who will be present at a big Liberal gathering in Windsor this afternoon. Last night the tentation of the Conservative element was directed to Walkerville. In the I. O. O. F. Hall Wilcox addressed a good-sized gathering. McKee entertained a large gathering in Windsor.

THE WAY OUT

Change of Food Brought Success and Happiness.

An ambitious but delicate girl, after failing to go through school on account of nervousness and hysteria, found in Grape-Nuts the only thing that seemed to build her up and furnish the peace of mind.

"From infancy," she says, "I have not been strong. Being ambitious to learn at any cost I finally got to the High School, but soon had to abandon my studies on account of nervous prostration and hysteria.

"My food did not agree with me, I grew thin and dependent. I could not enjoy the simplest social affair for I suffered constantly from nervousness in spite of all sorts of medicines.

"This wretched condition continued until I was 25, when I became interested in the letters of those who had cases like mine and who were being cured by eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had little faith, but procured a box, and after the first dish I experienced a peculiar satisfied feeling that I had never gained from any ordinary food. I slept and rested better that night and in a few days began to grow stronger.

"I had a new feeling of peace and restfulness. In a few weeks, to my great joy, the headaches and nervousness left me and life became bright and hopeful. I resumed my studies and later taught ten months with ease—of course using Grape-Nuts every day. It is now four years since I began to use Grape-Nuts, I am the mistress of a happy home and the old weakness has never returned."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in packages. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

BORDEN CLAIMS ALL THE CREDIT

Tells Strathroy Meeting All Good Things Came From Conservatives.

SUPPORTS "FARMER" CRY

But Neely, M. P., Tells Electors of West Middlesex, To Take No Notice of It.

[By a Staff Reporter.]

Strathroy, Nov. 8.—The Lyceum was filled to capacity this evening to hear Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, discuss the issues of the West Middlesex campaign. The electors gave Mr. Borden, on this his first appearance in West Middlesex since he became leader of the party, a very hearty welcome, and listened to him with attention from beginning to end.

Contrary to expectations, Mr. Borden did not touch upon any live topics of the day. He contented himself with dealing generally with the policy of the Liberal party, and declared that the Government had been guilty of maladministration since taking the reins of power. He reiterated in brief the Halifax platform. Mr. Borden claimed that any policies of advancement adopted by the Laurier Administration during the past two or three years particularly had emanated from the Opposition. He also followed the cue given him by the party organizer, and made a special plea for a farmer to represent the riding. The first part of the speech was identical with that delivered before the Canadian Club in London.

Where Was the Candidate?

One feature of the evening's programme was the unexpected absence of Mr. Robert McLaughlin, the Conservative candidate. It was fully expected that he would be present, but at the last minute a telegram was received from him, stating that it would be impossible for him to be present. His absence caused not a little discussion.

The crowd came from considerable distances to hear Mr. Borden, some coming from East Lambton, the neighboring riding, and a number from North Middlesex.

Mr. J. Tohill, of Napier, president of the West Middlesex Liberal Conservative Association, presided. On the platform with him were Major Beattie, M. P., London; George Neely, M. P., East Middlesex; Joseph E. Armstrong, M. P., East Lambton; John Farrell, Forest; John Kerr, Petrolia; R. E. Lesueur, Sarnia; Mayor Dingman, Stratford; Dr. R. Gibson, Watford; president of the East Lambton Conservative Association; Mayor Harry C. Ford, Strathroy, and others.

Mr. Tohill, the chairman, welcomed Mr. Borden to West Middlesex in a brief speech, and Mr. George Neely was introduced. He criticised the automobile legislation proposed in the Legislature by Duncan C. Ross, and declared that such legislation was not only unwise, but impossible of enforcement. He charged Mr. Ross with deliberately bringing forward this question in order to mislead the innocent farmers. Mr. Neely was out of touch with his leader, in that he told the audience not to take seriously the cry of farmer against lawyer. He considered, however, that a farmer, who was not practiced in the art of expression should be given just as much opportunity in the House as a man who could do so.

Hume Elliott, of London, followed in a witty speech, in which he asked the good friends of Duncan C. Ross to keep him in the pure air of Ontario, rather than send him to the polluted air at Ottawa. Mayor Dingman of Stratford, followed, and Mr. Joseph E. Armstrong finished up the series of small fry with his speech on the steals and deals of the Liberal party.

The Opposition Leader.

Mr. Borden was given a rousing reception. He referred to the fact that this was the first time he had ever been privileged to address the electors of West Middlesex, and he was glad to have the opportunity of speaking a word on behalf of the Conservative candidate, Robert McLaughlin. The Liberal press had suggested on more than one occasion that the Opposition was neither strong nor vigorous. The electors of West Middlesex had now a glorious opportunity of adding one more to the Opposition, making it stronger, as the Liberal press seemed to demand. He favored a farmer, he declared. Some of the best counsel and advice he had received since he came to Canada, Opportunity in Canada did not knock at a man's door once in Canada, but walked side by side with him.

DECLARED "NO CONTEST."

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The scheduled 8-round contest between Johnny Dehen, of Brooklyn, and "Paddy" Sullivan, of New York, last night resulted in a fiasco. The "fight" was stopped after seven and a half rounds by Referee Dave Barry, and declared "No contest."

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

MADAME'S WARD

BY PAULINE BEVERLEY.

No one exactly knew what was the matter with Mrs. Deeping, or whether there was anything the matter at all; but she had decided in her own mind that there was, and that was sufficient. I do not think that the doctor had been out of the rectory for a couple of weeks in four times as many years, and the cheerful doctor accepted the situation and made the best of it, as a sensible man would do. Now he only raised his eyebrows and looked at me with a deprecating grimace, while Alice whispered, as I took my seat beside her:

"That's just like mother—she's just always groaning. And if I haven't done anything, it was because there was nothing to do. Show me a better reason than that! Besides, no one who could help it, stands to reason, in weather like this, it stands to reason, in spite of her looking so virtuous, she was asleep herself for two whole hours. Whatever brought you all this distance through the heat and glare?"

This gave me an opportunity of saying why I had come, and I at once delivered madame's message to Mrs. Deeping. She received the information with her usual air of meek martyrdom. Then—for I was full of it—I told them about the letter from Jamaica and Natalie Orme, bringing down upon my head a consequence of a shower of questions, from Alice especially. So curious was she in fact that, when, later on, I rose and said I must be going, she followed me into the hall.

"When will this mysterious young woman with the romantic name make her appearance in Whittlesford, Ned?" she asked me, taking up a pink rose from a bowl on the table and fastening it to my coat. "You haven't told me."

"I don't know," I answered. "Then I wish you did, for I'm dying to see her," Alice declared. "Anything that is new is a sensation to this sleepy place. Must you go? Well, if you must, give my love to madame, and tell her that I shall be jealous of this Miss Natalie Orme."

I laughed, said I would deliver her message, shook hands, and turned out at the open door, I had nearly reached the gate when I heard her call my name. I looked back.

"What is it, Alice?"

"Have you seen Roger Yorke today?"

"No—I want to see him. Why?"

"Because he is in mother's black books. He forgot to send the lotion for that incomprehensible sensation which affects her—spinal cord, I think it is; but it may very likely be something else. If you do see him, tell him to send it—there's a dear boy. There will be no peace until he does."

"All right! I'll tell him to hurry up with it for your sake," I said, and, with another laugh, passed out of the rectory gate.

Mrs. Deeping, with her lotions and her potions, her aches and her pains, was a standing joke in Whittlesford. Her daughter and I had laughed about them ever since Alice was in pinafores and I in round collars.

Chapter III.

I paused for a moment beside the gate, undecided as to which way I should go back, through the village or round by the river. Round by the river was the longer way, but then it was also the cooler. I was in no particular hurry, so round by the river I decided it should be. And it certainly would have been, but that, as I let the gate shut with a clang and turned my face in that direction, I ran full tilt against some one coming the other way. The shock made both of us stagger. Then a merry voice said:

"Halloo, Ned! Steady! You've got a sun-stroke, young man—that's what's the matter with you. Never knew I wasn't big enough to see before!"

CURED OF LAME BACK WHEN 84 YEARS OLD

GIN PILLS DID IT.

Anyone, seeing Mr. Samuel Martin, of Strathroy, Ont., for the first time, would guess his age at about 60 years, instead of his real age of 84. He is as spry on his feet as a cat and is the picture of health.

It is hard to believe that Mr. Martin passed twenty years of his life in a misery suffering from a lame back. He tried nearly all the best remedies and household recipes, but received no benefit from any of them.

Some months ago, seeing Gin Pills advertised, Mr. Martin purchased a box from W. H. Stepler, a popular druggist of Strathroy. The relief which Mr. Martin experienced after he had taken one box was so great that he knew he had found the right remedy at last. He bought and used two more boxes of Gin Pills, which completed the cure.

Age is no barrier to Gin Pills. They never fail to cure Lame Back and Stiff Limbs, because they cure the Kidneys and Bladder, which are the cause of the troubles. Gin Pills also act on the Liver and assist in curing Biliousness.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, at all dealers. Free sample from National Drug and Chemical Co. (Dept. G), Toronto.

I laughed and shook hands. It was Roger Yorke—the person whom in all Whittlesford I think I liked the best—a tall, broad-shouldered, good-looking, sunburned young fellow of about eight-and-twenty, with a pleasant, frank face and blue-gray eyes—big enough to see in all conscience. But I certainly had not seen him, and said so.

"What on earth you were cutting along at such a pace for I don't know," I added.

"It wasn't for the weather. I should 'cut along' considerably faster," he rejoined. "This is the governor's day at Market Wexford. He was off at nine this morning."

"I know," I said. "If I were you, I'd go myself, though, Yorke. Tell Dizarte the journey's too much for him."

Roger Yorke laughed, taking off his hat to push back the hair off his forehead.

"No fear of that, my boy—the doctor knows his book too well. There are about six patients there, and he'll take the whole day to see after them. Here there are sufficient people ill to run a couple of men off their legs. It is the heat, I suppose. I don't remember so much illness in Whittlesford since I've been in it."

"The heat is enough to kill anybody," I returned, sympathetically. "Are you going into the rectory?"

"No; I've been there once today. Why? Have you been there?"

"Yes—I had to take a message for madame. Mrs. Deeping is in great tribulation, as usual."

"Pooh!" said Yorke, lightly. "If everyone were as well as Mrs. Deeping, doctors would be like a drug in the market. There is nothing to worry her. I wish I could persuade her to think so, I'm sure, for her husband's sake—poor old boy!"

"And Alice," I added.

"Of course, though I don't think she troubles herself much about it. She is too sensible for that."

He laughed again in his ready, frank way, with an amused look. "What do you think she told me only today? Somehow she upset a bottle of that wonderful lotion that Dizarte charged five shillings for—it's nothing but a spoonful of port wine. Her mother didn't know the difference. I suggested she should repeat the experiment and save the cash, but I suppose it wouldn't do."

"I don't know whether she swears by the lotion or not," I said, laughing; "but I know that just now she was grumbling about it. You forgot to send it."

"By Jove, so I did!" cried Yorke. "Well, it must wait until I'm near the village, if that was his wish. There's enough real illness to keep me busy just now. Where are you going?"

"Back to the Mount, I told him, and by way of the village, if that was his wish. It was; and so we turned and walked off together. There was nothing I liked better than a talk with Roger Yorke."

Five years before he had come to Whittlesford, known to nobody, but old Dr. Dizarte, and it was only by bits and scraps that we picked up his history. His father had been a surgeon in good practice in London, and Roger, trained for the same profession, had expected to succeed him. But Dr. Yorke died from an injury received in a carriage accident, and he was found that he was deeply involved. He had been speculating, and had come to grief over it. The practice had to be sold to clear the heavy debts, and it hardly sufficed to do that. Roger might have struggled on upon bread and cheese for a dozen years, eating his heart out, as he waited for patients, but for Dr. Dizarte. He was an old school friend of Dr. Yorke's, and was in London at the time of his death. He took a fancy to Roger, as most people did, and made him a liberal offer. The Whittlesford practice was a good one, and was becoming too much for him; if he—Roger—liked to come to Whittlesford, he would give him a fair and increasing share of the profits. Roger, glad enough of the chance no doubt, came accordingly, and had been there ever since, living with the old man in his roomy old house, and being treated like his son.

Dizarte was an old bachelor, with neither kid nor kin that Whittlesford knew of, and the general impression was that, when the old man died, the young man would succeed to the practice. And indeed, if Roger had been his son, old Dizarte could not have thought more of him. A fine young fellow he was, with a laugh and a good-natured word for everyone, always cheerful, active and hopeful. Even when he came in to see her, and though he could not persuade her that nothing ailed her but too much self-indulgence and fancifulness, he did contrive to make her believe that her husband would not have the melancholy task of preaching her funeral sermon yet awhile.

We sauntered on slowly under the blazing sun, with coats unbuttoned and hats pushed back. Roger asked after madame presently, and then I repeated her message to him.

"By the way, madame wants you up at the Mount, Roger. Something's wrong with one of the maids."

"Anything serious?"

"Oh, no, I think not! Any time to-day will do. There's no need to hurry."

To Be Continued.

SOLDIERS BREAK JAIL

Four Escape From the United States Barracks at Watertown.

Watertown, Nov. 8.—No trace has been found of four soldiers who escaped from the guardhouse at Madison Barracks Saturday night. They made their exit by sawing off the bars of one of the cells, and a wholesale delivery of the 27 prisoners confined at the time was only prevented by the timely appearance of the sentry. Three of the four who escaped were being held preparatory to being transferred to Fort Leavenworth, where they were to serve sentences varying from two to five years. Bedinger, a negro, was under sentence of five years for burglary, and was in leg irons when he escaped. He is described as a desperate character. Lee and Rochtaschel, both white, were under sentence of two years for desertion, and Ayers, colored, was under sentence of two years for desertion. A posse of 60 soldiers on horseback scoured the surrounding country without avail.

It is believed that the men took a boat and are on Lake Ontario in the hope of reaching Canada.

VAN STUDDIFORD DIVORCED.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 8.—Grace Van Studdiford, who came to this city, was granted a divorce today from Charles Van Studdiford, member of an old St. Louis family. Mrs. Van Studdiford alleged non-support and desertion.

Hidden Skin Troubles

Free Box

Send this coupon and 10 stamps to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, with name of this paper, and free trial box will be mailed you.

Have you on some part of your body a sore, or eruption, or ulcer, or eczema patch which, hidden from the gaze of others, yet causes you hours and hours of pain and inconvenience? Have you tried this, and that, and the other remedy in vain, and are you feeling disheartened and discouraged? If so read the following instances of Zam-Buk's healing power, and apply it to your case:

"I had an ulcerated leg for several years. The ulcers spread all round the limb, which was swollen to nearly twice its normal size. Several doctors treated me. One suggested amputation. None did me any good. Zam-Buk healed the sores!" So says Mrs. Gilmour, of Princess St., Kingston. Or, read this:—

"My mother tried many things for abscesses and eruptions, but in vain. In Zam-Buk she found a complete cure." So says Miss A. Coggill, of Wapella (Sask.).

Sufferers from these "Hidden Skin Troubles" of any nature should profit by such experiences as this. Zam-Buk is seen at its best when applied to cases which under the most ordinary treatment. Write for trial box, and test it at our expense.

ZAM-BUK
THE GREAT SKIN-CURE.

ZAM-BUK AND A MIRACLE OF HEALING

Over and over again Zam-Buk has performed a miracle of healing when applied to sores and skin injuries which have refused to heal under any other form of treatment. Why not let it heal your trouble? Immediately Zam-Buk is applied to a sore or wound or diseased portion of flesh it commences its work in two directions. It anoints the exterior, and its antiseptic properties prevent any germs and bacilli from creating trouble. Then the herbaceous and juices so finely purified and concentrated, penetrate the subjacent layers and stimulate the weakened or diseased cells to active, healthy operation. These cells then put forth their "building" products and replace the diseased outer layer with fresh and healthy tissue. By degrees the whole diseased surface is thus replaced by new healthy skin.

In this way Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, bruises, ulcers, abscesses, itch, eczema, eruptions, pustules, scurvy, salt rheum, blood poison, and other forms of skin trouble. Zam-Buk also cures piles, varicose ulcers, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c per box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. 6 boxes $2.50.

NEAT SURPLUS FROM THANKSGIVING SHOW

Meeting of London Poultry and Pet Stock Association—Reports Presented.

The regular meeting of the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association was held in their rooms, Albion Block, with a very large attendance of members. The report of the Thanksgiving Day poultry show was received, and showed a nice balance on the right side.

A hearty vote of thanks was voted the citizens of London and all who so kindly helped the show by donations of goods and who advertised in the prize list.

The members reported their stock in good shape, and rapidly getting ready for the great Guelph show next month. This show will be, it is expected, the largest in its history. Combined with a new building, and the horse show, in connection with the points to a show of 5,000 birds. It is expected that 700 birds will go from here alone. The next regular meeting will be held on Dec. 2.

HIS PAINS AND ACHES ALL GONE

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED CHARLES N. CYR'S RHEUMATISM.

Statement of a Man Who Suffered for a Year From Different Forms of Kidney Disease and Found a Speedy Cure.

New Richmond Station, Que., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—These cold fall days, when Rheumatism, Sciatica, Backache, and other Kidney Diseases are working havoc in every corner of Canada, thousands will be interested in the statement of Mr. Charles N. Cyr, the well-known barber of this place.

"I had been a sufferer from Rheumatism and Backache for a year," Mr. Cyr stated. "My head also troubled me and it was hard to collect my thoughts. I heard of cures made by Dodd's Kidney Pills and made up my mind to try them. The marvelous effect of the first dose on my system at once raised my hopes and I was determined to take them. I am now a sound and well man. All my pains and aches are gone and I am able to do my work without pain."

Mr. Cyr is only one of thousands whom Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured of Rheumatism, Sciatica and Backache. For Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure sick or disordered kidneys, and if your kidneys are well you can't have Rheumatism, Sciatica or Backache.

$300,000 TO FIGHT FOR BIBLE TRUTHS

Endows a Magazine to Check the "Higher Criticism."

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Free-thinkers and higher thinkers must take notice. The $300,000 endowment of a system of Los Angeles millionaire is to be used by Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Moody Church, to fight for orthodoxy, and anyone who gets in the way is going to be handled without gloves.

A monthly magazine is to be published under the direction of Dr. Dixon. It will be devoted to an old line exposition of the Bible, and to a defence against the rationalistic school of preachers and professors.

It is the first organized effort of any kind to back the Bible, and the check and turn back the growing hosts of higher criticism and to set the current of scholarly thought back into the channel of the ages.

Surface indications show that the new magazine is bound to stir up a lot of controversy and to make a sharp and continuing issue between the old and new schools of theology.

Rev. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute, explained the nature and extent of the new work. "It is the purpose," he said, "to publish a monthly magazine devoted to the defence of the Bible."

HOW TO DEVELOP BUST, ARMS AND NECK

Get separately "two ounces glycerine," "three ounces rose water," and "one ounce tincture cadomene compound" (not cadomene), and five cents worth of borax. Take home, mix the glycerine with tincture cadomene, shake and let stand two hours; then add a teaspoonful of borax and the rose water. Shake well and apply to the neck, arms and bust, rubbing and massaging until completely absorbed; then wash thoroughly with hot water and soap, and dry thoroughly. Apply morning and night regularly for several weeks, and the most beautiful development will begin to reward the efforts. It is believed by experts to be the most necessary and effective prescription ever conceived.

"INSURGENTS" SCORE ON PRES. GOMPERS

Get a Chance to Bring Their Fight on Floor of the Hall.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—President Gompers met with a slight reverse at the convention of the Federation of Labor today, though he started out with the advantage when the credentials of the Nulty faction of Electrical Workers were recommended by the credentials committee. By this move all the "insurgent" delegates were denied representation, including the central bodies and state federations, the charter of which have been revoked, because of standing by Reed faction of Electrical Workers.

A motion of President Tom Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, that the report of the committee be adopted, excepting that part of it relating to contested delegates, carried.

This gives the "insurgents" a chance to bring their fight to the floor of the convention.

Mr. Gompers ruled that no union not in good standing in A. F. of L. is entitled to a seat in the convention. He recommended that the appeals be referred to a committee.

This is regarded as an effort to keep the fight under cover.

Lewis declared the rule of President Gompers an unusual proceeding, conflicting with the principles of organization, and the delegates of the Federation delegates are refused seats under the rule of Gompers, also these states, the delegates of which were revoked. Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Portland, Newark, O. Des Moines, and Cedar Rapids, Iowa, delegates are affected.

USE OF RED CROSS

Illegal Except With the Famous Nursing Society

Toronto, Nov. 8.—As a result of an investigation by the Provincial Secretary's department, following a request of the Cobalt Hospital Board for permission to use the title "Red Cross" for its new institution, it has been learned that the unauthorized use of these words is illegal, under the provisions of a law confirmed by a subsequent act of the Canadian Parliament. Use of the words is prohibited except by the official Red Cross Society and its branches. In view of the fact that the words in question have been adopted by numerous societies and groups, the discovery is considered a wholesale change of names throughout Canada.

KEENWARD DYING

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—At St. Mary's Hospital early today it was said there was no chance for the recovery of John R. Keenward, shot Friday evening when he attempted to escape from Detective Red us, who had him arrested on a big game charge. Keenward cannot survive the day, it is said.

Keenward's first wife and children live in Chubb's County, Ontario. His Detroit wife, who caused his arrest, has been with him the greater part of the time since he was taken to the hospital. Keenward is 24 years old.

A BOUNDARY AGREEMENT.

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 8.—A treaty has been signed by Baron Rio Branco, Uruguayan minister to Brazil, defining the consequences between Brazil and Uruguay of the Lake Mirin and the Jaguarao River. The lake, instead of being the boundary between the two countries, is to be a lake and along the Thibweg or valley of the Jaguarao. Instead of along the southern bank, Uruguay is accorded free navigation between the lake and the ocean by the Brazilian waters of the Amazon, and the Rio Grande. It also secures several islands. Both parties engage not to fortify the lake or river.

The advertising department of the Grand Trunk Railway System are now in receipt of complete figures as to the attendance at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle the past summer. The total number of people who visited the Grand Trunk Building was 265,327. The exhibit is now on its way to Canada, and the company are preparing their plans and exhibits for the International Exhibition at Brussels, which will be held next year. The Grand Trunk will erect a handsome building at this exhibition, which will be equal to any they have constructed for the exhibitions in the past.

Clean Within!

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Purify the Blood and Prolong Life

If as much intelligent care were given to keeping the body clean and pure within as well as without we would see more healthy, vigorous old men and women. The daily bath does its part by keeping the pores of the skin open so that they throw off much of the body's impurities, but it is even more important that the bowels and kidneys should be kept regular and active.

If the bowels fail, as they often do late in life, to move regularly at least once a day, the waste matter from the food accumulates, decays, poisons the system and upsets the stomach.

If the kidneys are sluggish the impurities which they should filter from the blood remain and cause rheumatism.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills regulate the bowels, stimulate the kidneys and open up the pores of the skin. The result is a body clean within—pure, red blood—good digestion—and a hale and hearty old age.

Three generations have proved the value of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, and their sale is steadily increasing all over the world.

Pure-air oven

retains the turkey's flavor

You should just taste the turkey roasted in the Pandora pure-air oven. None of the flavor is lost, as in ordinary ovens where air becomes "stale," through improper ventilation. Instead, all its rare delicacy of flavor is accentuated to the fullest degree—for Pandora owners' enjoyment.

So perfect is the system of ventilation that air in Pandora oven cannot possibly become "stale" or oven ever smell "stuffy."

GOMPERS' CHARGE TO FEDERATION

Great Gathering of Labor Opened at Toronto on Monday.

SOME STIRRING WORDS

Makes Warm Attack on United States Courts for Buck Stove Company Decision.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—The first American Federation of Labor convention ever held in Canada opened in Massey Hall this morning, with over 500 delegates in attendance. At 10:30 the delegates, preceded by a band, marched to their headquarters at the Prince George Hotel to Massey Hall, where addresses of welcome were delivered on behalf of the city by Mayor Oliver; by Hon. Dr. Reame, of the Provincial Government; and by William Glocking, for the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.

A telegram was read from Hon. Mackenzie-King regretting his inability to be present.

President Gompers, in acknowledging the welcome which had been extended to the members of the convention, said that though this was the first time the convention had met in Canada, they were not strangers to Canada. Turning to the labor situation in Canada, to which President Glocking had referred, he deplored any effort to bring about a schism between the organizations of the workers of Canada.

Gompers' Address.

"I am the last man to attribute ulterior motives to anyone who may differ from me, but it is difficult to reconcile the attitude of those men with the conviction of the workers of the men of labor would not, if I could, our movement would not, if I could, and it could not, if it would, take away the loyalty of Canada's workers to Canada. Whatever the future may have in store for us we do know this, that the common destiny among the English-speaking people is to fight out the battle for civilization and right."

"I venture to say that of the men called upon to officer the international trade unions of America, there are greater percentages of Canadians in executive positions than members belonging to the United States."

He appealed to the Canadian workers to make common cause with the federation for war or for peace.

"The American labor movement is a national movement. We do not underestimate the power of our opponents, but we propose to work out our freedom in our own way. Not by revolution, but by evolution."

Nearly all of the session was taken up by President Gompers in the reading of his annual report. As was expected, he severely scored the decision of the United States courts committing himself, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison to jail for disobedience of an injunction issued by the federal court of Columbia prohibiting the publication of the Buck Stove and Range Company's name upon the "We Don't Patronize" list of the American Federation of Labor. While an appeal on the original injunction was pending, the federal court passed the sentences for disobedience.

Of this phase of the matter President Gompers said: "An unprejudiced, impartial judge might well have deferred a decision in a contempt case alleging violation of an injunction until an appeal upon the validity of the injunction itself was pending, and was being considered for decision by a higher court."

"The language and manner of Justice Wright in delivering his opinion upon the guilt of the men charged with disobeying the terms of the injunction, the fact that he had given his opinion or permitted it to be given out in advance, the whole mockery and formalism of the proceedings, when he had determined on the sentence in advance, all these as well as the matter and manner of the arrangement for the scene and the delivery of the opinion and sentence, indicated the unfitness of the man to wear the judicial robe and occupy the judicial position."

Attack on Liberty.

President Gompers claimed that the sentences passed upon Mitchell and his colleagues constituted an attack on the rights of free speech.

"Even if we had been guilty of unlawful conspiracy and coercion and intimidation, which we were not, surely there should be some more adequate punishment than by a process of injunction. In fact, existing laws do provide greater punishments for these offenses, and we respectfully submit that if we are guilty of the true process of law before a jury of our peers, and if found guilty punished as the law provides, rather than be subjected to the caprice of a judge, who solely determines the sufficiency of the charge, the guilt of the defendant, and who imposes punishment as his whim may prompt."

The report also contained recommendations for the creation of a department of labor in the president's cabinet, the enactment of employers' liability legislation, the extension of the eight-hour law, industrial insurance measures, political action, the proposal to form a federation of labor. This latter subject will be dealt with at the next international conference, which is to be held at Budapest, in August, 1911.

At the conclusion of his address,

STRONG HELP FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

"Fruit-a-tives" Is the Best Kidney Medicine in the World.

If people only realized the danger of Weak Kidneys, and the value of "Fruit-a-tives," there would be practically no Kidney Disease in Canada. When the kidneys become congested (too full of blood) or strained from overwork, they can quickly be made well and strong again by taking a box or two of "Fruit-a-tives."

Pain in the back, frequent headaches, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, coated tongue, constant desire to urinate—these are the common symptoms of congestion of the kidneys. The only possible way to relieve this congestion is to force the bowels and skin to rid the system of more waste matter and thus allow the inflamed kidneys to rest and grow strong again. "Fruit-a-tives," being fruit juices, infused, soothes and stimulates the kidneys, and at the same time rouses the bowels and skin to healthy action. "Fruit-a-tives," by their prompt action on bowels and skin, almost instantly relieves the intense pain in back and promptly takes away every trace of Kidney Disease.

If you are suffering with your kidneys, begin at once to take "Fruit-a-tives" and you will quickly realize the value of these tablets.

At dealers—50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial size, 25 cents—or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

President Gompers received an ovation.

Mr. Frank Morrison, the secretary, then presented his report, which stated that there was $163,303 in the treasury, the balance of receipts over expenditures for the past year being $28,775. There had been 23 strikes during the year, and $2,068,276 had been expended to sustaining members of the strike.

Treasurer J. B. Lennon, in his report, claimed that the "union shop" was gaining ground every day in the United States and Canada.

COOK'S COMMITTEE

Three Experts Selected to Pass Judgment on His Claims.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The board of managers of the National Geographic Society today appointed the following committee to pass on the question whether the North Pole was discovered before 1909, meaning by that, Dr. Cook's claims: J. Howard Gore, formerly professor of mathematics; George Washington University; Rear Admiral John E. Pillsbury, of the navy; and Dr. C. Willard Hayes, chief geologist of the Geological Survey.

A change from the committee which passed on the Peary records is made in that John Mitchell and Frank Morrison to jail for disobedience of an injunction issued by the federal court of Columbia prohibiting the publication of the Buck Stove and Range Company's name upon the "We Don't Patronize" list of the American Federation of Labor. While an appeal on the original injunction was pending, the federal court passed the sentences for disobedience.

Of this phase of the matter President Gompers said: "An unprejudiced, impartial judge might well have deferred a decision in a contempt case alleging violation of an injunction until an appeal upon the validity of the injunction itself was pending, and was being considered for decision by a higher court."

"The language and manner of Justice Wright in delivering his opinion upon the guilt of the men charged with disobeying the terms of the injunction, the fact that he had given his opinion or permitted it to be given out in advance, the whole mockery and formalism of the proceedings, when he had determined on the sentence in advance, all these as well as the matter and manner of the arrangement for the scene and the delivery of the opinion and sentence, indicated the unfitness of the man to wear the judicial robe and occupy the judicial position."

MANUEL'S BRIDE

Rumor Again Says It Is To Be an English Princess.

London, Nov. 8.—It is expected that tomorrow, the King's birthday, will be made the occasion of an announcement that his grand-daughter, Princess Alexandra, daughter of the Duke of Fife, is to become the queen of King Manuel of Portugal. The Portuguese monarch will arrive in England shortly to visit the King, and this gives color to the rumors of a royal romance. King Manuel will celebrate his 20th birthday next Monday.

There is little doubt that an English queen will be seated on the Portuguese throne. In the past, rumor has associated the name of Manuel with that of Princess Patricia, who is alleged to have refused King Alfonso, owing to a change in faith. Others have intimated that the choice of his royal highness would fall upon Princess Beatrice, daughter of the late Duke of Edinburgh, and a niece of the King. In the meantime, Portugal's young king is rumored not to have chosen his eyes to beauty nearer home. The queen-mother and the ministers are much concerned by his attachment for the daughter of the widely-in-savvy Queen Amelie. The love affair and the boy king's attitude did fair to disrupt the matrimonial plans being laid for him.

WO FIREMEN KILLED IN MONTREAL BLAZE

Fourth Floor Crashes to Basement, Burying Crew While at Work.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 8.—Fire, which wrecked the mattress and bedding factory of Rolland Press, this morning caused two deaths, Fireman Thomas Milloy and William Holbrook being caught under a mass of falling wreckage and killed. Capt. Barnett also was buried, and while badly injured he will probably recover. A couple of other firemen who fell with the wreckage were injured, but not seriously. The cause of the accident was the breaking with water of a huge mass of wood fibre on the fourth floor, this with its contents going to the basement, carrying the other floors with it. The building was practically wrecked. The dead firemen were working inside the building when the floors came tumbling down, and had no warning.

BRITISH ELECTION FIRST OF YEAR SURE

No Matter How Lords Act With Budget Government Will Go to Country.

New York, Nov. 8.—I. N. Ford, the Tribune's London correspondent, sends the following: "There are no signs of royal activity in making peace between the Houses of Parliament. The King has his usual routine of social engagements, and he continues to enjoy himself as though there were no constitutional crisis in sight, yet his influence is held in reserve to enable the Government to avoid a general election in January. Whether the budget goes through the Lords or is held up by the three hundred peers, leagued together for its destruction, the election will not be deferred. The ministers themselves will seek a vote of confidence from the country, and will not allow the Lords to pose as the unchallenged champions of democracy."

"If the Lords really want the people to vote on the budget they have only to pass the finance bill and it will virtually become a referendum for the nation in January, without the constitutional issue itself, which is precisely what the extremists on the Radical side want them to do. It is natural for them to suspect that there is a hidden agenda that the country does not like it and considers it necessary to have a fiscal policy conducted with reference to a revival of home industries and the employment of their own people. They reject it they will be called on to legalize by special acts the tea duties, the income tax and other revenue supplied by the budget."

"The treasury cannot be exposed to liability for duties already collected under the resolutions adopted last spring, and the budget will have to be made over and put in operation after conferences between the two Houses. The Lords will refuse to sanction the land section, the licensing duties, and when they sanction the other ad interim arrangements for tidings over the treasury crisis they will impair the force of their intervention, since they will be convicted of pulling the legs out from under the budget. The budget will be rejected, and the balance of power, Tariff reform would probably become unpopular if it could only be carried by the concession of home rule to Ireland."

The result of the general election is not predicted with confidence by the working politicians on either side. The Liberals admit a large loss of seats, but hope to obtain a narrow majority over all functions. The Unionist calculators at headquarters expect a majority over the Liberals and Laborites, but concede that the Nationalist group will be in possession of the balance of power. Tariff reform would probably become unpopular if it could only be carried by the concession of home rule to Ireland."

AUDITOR-GENERAL'S REPORT.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—The first volume of the auditor-general's report is ready for Parliament. It deals with the customs, justice and legislative branches. Mr. Fraser criticizes both the Senate and the Commons for giving leather trunks to a few officials when the service generally gets no such perquisites. He also finds fault with increases in salary in contravention of the act. In the case of the Senate they have been blocked. The Commons had paid them a refund or legalizing legislation is demanded.

FIRE IN FOUNDRY DOES $2,000 DAMAGE

Mr. McCrae's Establishment in Tillsonburg Suffers Severe Scorching.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Tillsonburg, Nov. 7.—Fire was discovered on Saturday evening about 8 o'clock issuing from the windows at the rear of the large frame building used as a foundry by H. E. McCrae.

The firemen quickly responded to the alarm, which was given, and after about half an hour's hard fighting the flames were under control.

The loss of patterns and other machinery, with the damage to the building, will amount to nearly $2,000, which is covered by insurance.

Mr. McCrae is a well-known manufacturer of engines, and had been nearly completed when the fire occurred. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have started in the casting room.

HOCKEY PLAYERS MEET TONIGHT THE EASTERN RACE TRACKS CLOSE

THIRTY DEATHS AT BASEBALL MAKES RUGBY LOOK GENTLE

And That Is Twelve Less Than There Were Last Season.

NOT A FATALITY IN THE DOMINION

Detroit Contributes Two Victims to Casualty Total of the National Pastime.

During the present agitation against football it is worth remembering that in nearly every eventful sport engaged in yearly by a great number of players, death exacts its toll.

A list of the accidents in baseball resulting in death during the 1928 season shows that baseball was responsible for 30 deaths, which at this is twelve less than last year. Eighteen of these deaths were due to accidents which occurred during actual play, and to which any player might fall a victim. The remaining twelve were indirectly connected with the game.

Majority Were Amateurs. The majority of the 30 deaths were in amateur clubs. Serious accidents are seldom recorded in the big leagues, for probably the same reason which confines most of the deaths in football to prep, school and college football teams are in strict training.

During the years 1926 and 1928 the deaths due to baseball exceeded those from football, and in 1927 the number was the same.

List of Deaths. The following is a partial list of deaths due to actual baseball play for the season of 1928 with dates and character of accident:

May 16—At Gastonville, Pa., William Harrison went to stop a grounder, when the ball jumped up and hit him in the head. Died of convulsions. Age, 17 years.

Aug. 4—At Detroit, Mich., Edward Kloss, while watching a game, was hit in the head with a pitched ball, which caused his death. Age, 35 years.

April 27—At Lamoni, Pa., Leonard de Long, while playing ball, collided with a base runner, and burst a blood vessel.

Hit on Head. June 3—At Zelenople, Pa., John Donaldson died as the result of being hit in the head by a pitched ball. Age, 5 years.

Sept. 2—At Imperial, Cal., George D. Franklin died as the result of being hit in the head by a pitched ball. Age, 20 years.

Aug. 15—At Chicago, Ill., Benson Smith, while watching a game, was hit in the head by a pitched ball. Age, 11 years.

May 28—At Kokomo, Ind., Smith, while playing in a game on May 28, collided with a base runner. He never regained consciousness.

July 17—At Glasgow, Ky., Hewitt Spillman died as a result of over-exertion in practice. Age, 28 years.

Struck Over Heart. July 19—At French Lick, Ind., John Chénault, catcher on the colored Pluto team, was struck over the heart by a pitched ball. Umpire told him to take his base, and as he was half way toward first, he fell over dead.

July 21—At New York, William McNamee died of injuries sustained when sliding into second base in a game with a rival team. He was jumped on by the second baseman.

Sept. 27—At Bristol, Tenn., Alexander Moore received a broken neck from being hit by a swift ball while playing shortstop.

Hit by Pitcher. Sept. 15—At Dayton, O., Charles (Cupid) Pinkney, second baseman of the Dayton Central League team, died as the result of being hit in the head by a pitched ball delivered by Pitcher Hammond, of the Grand Rapids team.

July 31—At Saginaw, Mich., Walter Schwartz, while playing with a scrub ball team, was hit in the head by a pitched ball while on the bat.

Aug. 1—At Big Stone Springs, Ky., Charles Clark, after making a sensational running catch, stumbled and broke his neck. The crowd cheered him as he fell for making the catch. They did not know he was dead while he lay on the ground for several minutes.

Following were the early prize-winners: Four-year-old Morgan stallions—1 Climax, b. s., J. B. Perkins, Cleveland; 2 Deign, b. s., J. Richard Steers.

Four-year-old Hackney mares—1 Lady Rhous, br. m., J. Richard Steers; 2 Lady Rhous, br. m., J. Richard Steers.

Hockey Meeting Tonight

Hockey enthusiasts of the city are asked to turn out to the organization meeting at the Tecumseh House this evening, when officers for the coming season will be elected, and the representative to the O. H. A. executive to succeed Mr. W. P. Irving will be decided on.

Kenny Casselman is slated for the position, it is said, and will probably be the new president.

There is plenty of material in the city, and a good team should be put in the field.

HASKELL WILL ENFORCE LAW. Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 8.—Asked whether he would permit the contest between James J. Jeffries and "Jack" Johnson to be held in Oklahoma, Governor Haskell today said that he did "not know just what the enactments of Oklahoma cover in this regard, but one thing is certain, the laws will be enforced as long as I am governor."

CANADIAN HORSES SWEEP THE BOARDS

Opening Day of Big Horse Show at New York City.

SIR THOMAS UNPLACED

List of Early Prize-Winners in Yesterday's Competition.

New York, Nov. 8.—Members of society not only of New York, but of many other cities, saw the Dominion of Canada carry off the lion's share of the prizes at the first day of the horse show in Madison Square Garden today.

It was a great day for "Our Lady of the Shows," for among the first prizes gathered in by her horsemen was the open class for jumpers, in which 60 horses, representing the cream of Europe, represented by England and America, competed. In this class also, second, third and fourth places go to the horsemen from the Dominion.

Those Attending. Among others noted in attendance were Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Mrs. C. W. Watson, of Fairmont, West Virginia; Miss Clarence H. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Burke Roche Batony, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. McGinnis, of Lancaster, Pa.; William H. Moore, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Joseph E. Widener, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Beck, of London, Ont.; George Pepper, Toronto, and H. K. Bloodgood.

Shortly after the bugle sounded "boots and saddles" this morning the hunters entered the ring, and it was the largest class ever seen in a show ring. The class was won by the Canadians.

In the five classes for hackney mares or fillies there was a light entry. The winner was a rosy and showy chestnut named Chestnut Poll, owned by R. P. McGinnis, Grand View Farms, of Lancaster, Pa. Chestnut Poll also won the championship of the class.

Reserve ribbon went to the three-year-old filly "Oak Park Belle," owned by Crow & Murray, of Toronto, Ont.

The award of the judges gave first place to the Wasp, owned by Crow & Murray, of Toronto, with Jack Hamilton up, and third place to Confidence, owned in the same stable, while Taconite, owned by Junius Morrice, was fourth. Sir Thomas, owned by Hon. Adam Beck, of London, Ont., was one of the competitors, but did not land either of the first three places.

Following were the early prize-winners: Four-year-old Morgan stallions—1 Climax, b. s., J. B. Perkins, Cleveland; 2 Deign, b. s., J. Richard Steers.

Four-year-old Hackney mares—1 Lady Rhous, br. m., J. Richard Steers; 2 Lady Rhous, br. m., J. Richard Steers.

Two-year-old Hackney fillies—1 Gattin Tinker Bell, Williston Farm; 2 Silfid Little, Sandy Point Farm.

Championship cup for 2-year-old Hackney fillies—1 Oak Park Belle, Crow & Murray, Toronto; 2 Night Cap, Irvington Farm.

Four-year-old Hackney mares, under 15 hands 1 inch, in foal in 1929—1 field Venus, Sandy Point Farm; 2 Florham Queen, Geo. Watson; 3 Torington, Lady's Grand View Farm.

Three-year-old Hackney mares, under 15 hands 1 inch—1 Chestnut Pall, R. P. McGinnis, Lancaster, Pa.; 2 Experiment, Wm. W. W. McGinnis, Lancaster, Pa.; 3 Elbertson, Grand View Farm; 4 Kingsland Rosalind, Grand View Farm.

Sportsman Stumbled. Wilfred D. Sefton, of the Corps of Guides, fell when his horse, a bay gelding named Sportsman, stumbled at one of the three water. Sportsman suffered a severe injury to his foreleg, but Sefton was unhurt.

First honors finally went to Wash, an 8-year-old bay gelding, owned by Crow & Murray, Toronto, ridden by Jack Hamilton, Edwin Weatherbe, of New York, captured second honors with Taconite, ridden by Junius Morrice, while Crow & Murray took third honors, also with confidence, ridden by Jack Hamilton.

LONDON AND ST. THOMAS TEAMS ARRANGE GAMES Matched Games Will Be Bowled Here and in Caboose Town Till Christmas.

London and St. Thomas bowlers have arranged for matched games between the two cities. There will be teams from the Ideal bowling alley here, and one from the Ideal and Snyder & Stone's, of St. Thomas. Good prizes have been offered. The schedule is given below.

In each place the first-named team plays on home alleys.

Schedule—First Series. Nov. 10—Stanleys vs. Ideals No. 1. Snyder and Stone vs. Ideals No. 2. Nov. 17—Stanleys vs. Snyder & Stone, Ideals No. 1 vs. Ideals No. 2. Nov. 24—Ideals No. 1 vs. Snyder & Stone, Ideals No. 2 vs. Stanley. Ideals No. 1 vs. Ideals No. 2. Dec. 1—Snyder & Stone vs. Ideals No. 1, Stanley vs. Ideals No. 2. Dec. 8—Snyder & Stone vs. Stanley, Ideals No. 2 vs. Ideals No. 1. Dec. 15—Ideals No. 1 vs. Stanley, Ideals No. 2 vs. Snyder & Stone.

Second Series. Jan. 5—Ideals No. 1 vs. Stanley, Ideals No. 2 vs. Snyder & Stone. Jan. 12—Snyder & Stone vs. Stanley, Ideals No. 2 vs. Ideals No. 1. Jan. 19—Snyder & Stone vs. Ideals No. 1, Stanley vs. Ideals No. 2. Jan. 26—Ideals No. 1 vs. Snyder & Stone, Ideals No. 2 vs. Stanley. Feb. 2—Stanley vs. Snyder & Stone, Ideals No. 1 vs. Ideals No. 2. Feb. 9—Stanley vs. Ideals No. 1, Snyder & Stone vs. Ideals No. 2.

HASKELL WILL ENFORCE LAW. Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 8.—Asked whether he would permit the contest between James J. Johnson's Record Price. Shortstop Costs "Old Roman" $8,000—Also Has Highest Total Mark.

New York, Nov. 8.—The National and American Leagues have purchased $363,000 worth of talent from the smaller leagues for next season, according to the records of the national commission. Of this sum $29,500 has been paid to the balance is to go to the minor league clubs if certain men make good.

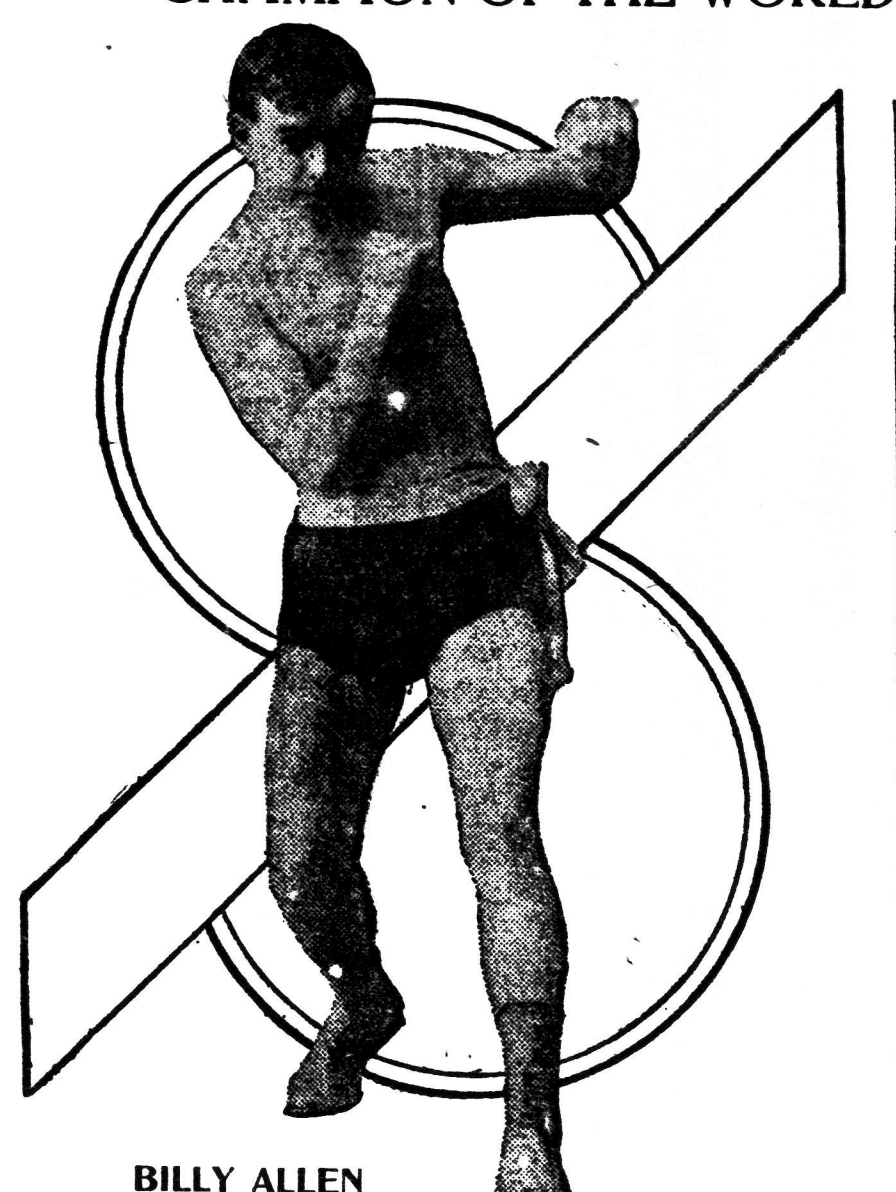

The American League clubs have spent more money for new material than the National League clubs.

Blackburn, the Providence shortstop, cost Comiskey $8,000, he being the highest-priced player from the minors.

The Washington club has spent only $2,500 for fresh material.

Herrmann, of Cincinnati, has spent $3,500 for talent for 1930.

THEY SAY HE'LL SOON BE CHAMPION OF THE WORLD

You probably never heard of Billy Allen, but it won't be long, say the young fellow's friends, before his name is known from ocean to ocean. Allen is a youngster, breaking into the fight game. He is a featherweight Tommy Ryan known to fame. Already Allen has defeated some of the best featherweights in Canada.

Friends of Allen declare he will be the featherweight champion of the world, the place now held by Abe Attel. It sounds brash to say that a man looked good enough to Hugh McIntosh for that promoter to attempt to sign him for future engagements.

BIG LEAGUES SPEND $363,000 FOR NEW TALENT FOR 1930 Here is the official list of the cash expenditures of the major league clubs for new players:

JOHNSON AFTER VENISON Ban Will Hunt Deer in the Michigan Woods This Season.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 8.—Ban Johnson, president of the American Baseball League, will be one of the many deer hunters in the north woods this season. Last week Game Warden Pierce received a letter from Johnson, requesting a non-resident hunters' license, and asked that one be forwarded to him.

Pierce wired the league leader that it would be necessary for him to secure a license in the county where he intends to hunt, and as Johnson will spend a few days in Iron County, he will need a license there. The fee for non-resident hunters is $25, while residents of this state are compelled to pay $15.

HOCKEY AT STRATFORD. Stratford, Nov. 8.—The meeting of the hockey club, which was to have been held tonight, was postponed until Friday evening. It is expected that intermediate and junior club will be entered in the O. H. A.

MATTY MCINTYRE'S TIGER TEAM HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM JAIL

Havana Police Threaten to Arrest Detroiters When Matty's People Quit in Game With Almendares—Natives Give Tourists a Fine Whaling.

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 8.—The touring Tigers learned a lot of things about the baseball today, not only about the rules, but about the Cuban attitude toward forfeiting. It is no unusual thing for ballplayers to be banished by the umpire, fined by either arbitrator, or manager, or suspended by his club, but it wasn't until today that any of the American League champions had been threatened with arrest if they did not resume playing when ordered to do so by the indicator under.

How It Happened. This is the way it came about: In the third inning of today's game against the Almendares club, the Cuban umpire, whose ideas of the rules are somewhat dilly at best, called a balk on Willett and ordered the native batsman to take his base, though there were no runners on at the time. Allowing the hitter a free trip to the initial sack under such circumstances is something undreamed of in the philosophy of the Reach and Spalding guides, and of the National commission. However, the umpire never has met any of these authorities and he insisted that what he said went.

Matty McIntyre, at the time, they declined to continue the game unless the man behind the plate could indicate a U. S. flag.

Finally the tourists began picking up their bats, telling Mr. Umpire that all was over between them.

But there was to be another chapter to the story. Enter the dusky Havana police force with an ultimatum that unless Matty McIntyre et al. continue the game the whole lot would be arrested and taken to jail. Here was a stunner!

On the one hand the prospect of playing against the handicap of comedy umpiring, on the other the certainty of passing the night in the bastille.

Easy to Choose Here. Anyone who knows Cuban prisons cannot blame the Champions for electing to play it out, even though the arbitrator insisted on handing it to them every angle. Better to defeat by any old score with a good supper and a clean bed than the filthy jail with—but why detail the horrors.

As for the game itself it was a horrible exhibition on the part of the Tigers, who fielded miserably, hit feebly and ran their legs off chasing Willett's curves after they had rebounded from the Cuban's bats. Detroit made but eight errors, just as many as its hits, while the Cubans found Edgar safely 15 times.

COAL $5.50 Will purchase a ton of our large, clean Pea Coal. If we could only convey to you some adequate idea of the value of this coal for the range it would not be necessary to ask you to try it; in fact, we would not be able to supply the demand for this size.

Stove and Eggs, only $6.50 per ton. And pending this it is an immediate return of the lost strength of the supply, the possibility of moving, working without fatigue or fear, in a word, it is the beginning of a new life, to use the expression used by as many of the ruptured who have been saved by the method and the apparatus of Mr. A. Claverie.

All the patients suffering from rupture and residing in London or vicinity, should see and see Mr. A. Claverie when he arrives. It will be the chance of a lifetime to recover health, strength and happiness.

HAMILTON BOOKIE FINED Hamilton, Nov. 8.—William Carroll, a tobacconist, was fined $2 at police court this morning for keeping a common gambling house.

Two charged that he received bets on horse racing, and the principal evidence was given by Levi O'Kelly, who claimed that he placed with Carroll a $2 bet on a horse, and that he could not get his money back.

He stated that Carroll's explanation was that he had no record of the bet. Carroll offered no evidence in his own defense.

PLAYED TO TIE Princess and Victoria in Warm Battle for Soccer Championship.

Princess and Victoria schools played to a tie in the first game of the series for the championship of the Public Schools' Soccer League, at Carling's Heights yesterday afternoon.

Both teams were in fine shape, Murray for Victoria and Clark, Rosa Simpson and Johnson for Princess starring.

R. A. Little, of the Collegiate, was the referee. The next game will be played on Thursday at the Heights.

Had Given Up
All Hope of Living.

Heart Trouble Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905, I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors, but they could do me no good. For seven weeks
I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world could believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better,
but on the fourth day my husband said,
'I believe those pills are doing you good.'
I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then.

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."

ANALYSIS OF STRONG'S
BAKING POWDER

By J. T. SNELL, Professor of Chemistry, Macdonald College,
Quebec, Canada.

W. T. STRONG, 184 Dundas street,
London, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I have recently had occasion to test a sample of your baking powder for alum and acid phosphate of lime. I have found your product entirely free from these substances. I have not determined the efficiency of your powder, but note that Bulletin 174
of the Laboratory of the Inland Revenue Department, not only classes yours among the pure cream of tartar powders, but gives such results on the amount of gas produced per pound of powder as would place your brand among the most efficient powders of its class.

BOY CAUGHT A RUNAWAY HORSE

Len Tozer, of West London, Distinguished Himself the Other Afternoon.

CANDIDATE TALKED OF

Some People Are Red Hot to Have a Man Nominated for Alderman for the Growing Suburb.

Mr. Len Tozer, of West London, distinguished himself the other afternoon when he captured a runaway horse attached to a light concoct wagon.

The owner had left the rig, which contained a quantity of apples. The horse evidently became impatient and started out at a clip that increased as he covered the ground.

Tozer climbed into the rig and seizing the reins brought the animal up in short order. He was rewarded by the farmer.

Mrs. Ralph Tunians, of Urban, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Thomas,
of Wilson avenue, West London.

West London has free swimming baths by the wholesale. While the water is not as clear as it might be it is exceedingly warm, which fact cannot be learned by stepping off the edge of the sidewalk at the corner of Wilson avenue and Dundas street. Numerous are the unsightly holes along the roadside in West London. A few loads of gravel could be placed to advantage at this season of the year, as all the bad spots in the roadway can be more easily located.

The vacant lot on the south side of Dundas street, between Wilson avenue and Wharmfister road, has become a public dump for residents in the vicinity, and it now presents an unsightly appearance, besides being a dangerous spot, as much disease might result from the refuse. A notice has been posted warning people to desist depositing rubbish and garbage there.

Mrs. Arthur Brock, of Buffalo, N.
Y., has returned home after spending an extended visit with her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Wyatt street,
West London.

An elderly lady while wending her way along Blackfriars street yesterday afternoon slipped on some wet leaves on the curb and narrowly avoided a very severe fall. In trying to save herself she wrenched her body, however, and is now suffering much pain.

West Enders are elated over the proposal of the Horticultural Society to beautify the breakwater. While in that vicinity it is to be hoped that the members will have in their pockets a few stray seeds or bulbs and plant them in the once-upon-a-time park just west of Dundas street. A notice when London lost her park ranger
West Londoners lost their park.

The question of placing a candidate in the field for alderman to represent West London seems to have been side-tracked. A young businessman was previously mentioned who possibly would accept the nomination, and would surely be a winner, provided he was approached in a businesslike manner. Although he is a very busy man he would no doubt, if elected, jump into harness and forge his way into the mayor's chair before many years.

"Now west end citizens," writes a correspondent, "do not stand for the guy, but get busy and line up your man. Then lay your plans for a strenuous campaign. Everybody work, and work hard, and your labors will be repaid tenfold. Call a meeting immediately and discuss the advisability of such a move, and if found favorable move, and move quick."

The West London boys who were yesterday found guilty of assaulting the Chinamen last week, have cut off their cigarette money, and will pay it over to Clerk Moult. It is to be hoped that the practice of assaulting people will now be a thing of the past in London. Magistrate Love in levying a fine took the youths' cigarette money away from them for the next month or so, and one of the boys was heard to say that it was a more severe punishment to be cut off from the "dope stick," than to go to jail.

Another boy said "Tip town for mine every night. It costs too much to belong to this club."

Miss Annie Colborne, of 88 Wilson avenue, spent Sunday with friends in Blenheim.

PACKEY M'FARLAND
WON FROM THOMPSON

Beat the Cyclone in Easy Fashion and Loser Landed Repeatedly in But One Round.

Kansas City, Nov. 8.—"Packey" Mc-Farland won the decision over "Cyclone"
Thompson in a ten-round lightweight bout.
The battle was one of a scientific boxer, against a man whose main asset is slugging, and who could not get near enough blows to make it appear that his strength would carry the fight home to
him.

In but one round, the second, was Thompson able to send home enough telling blows to make it appear that his strength would carry the fight home to
him.

But with Packey hanging on and making the most of his wonderful foot-work, the Cyclone could not corner him. After that round there was little doubt as to the outcome.

CONSERVATIVES
NAME J. W. DOYLE

A McGillivray Township Man
Selected at Ailsa Craig Convention

FOR NORTH MIDDLESEX

Contest Narrows to Messrs. Doyle and Pope, and Latter Withdraws.

[By Our Own Man.]

Ailsa Craig, Nov. 8.—At the Conservative convention held in the town hall, Ailsa Craig, this afternoon, Mr.
James W. Doyle, of McGillivray Township, was nominated as the party's candidate to contest the riding of North Middlesex left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Duncan C. Ross.
The Provincial Secretary, Mr. J. W.
Hanna, was on the platform and spoke.

Two After Nomination.

There were sixteen names presented to the convention, but a large number of these nominations were merely nominal, and in the end the contest was between Mr. James W. Doyle, of McGillivray, and Mr. H. C. Pope, of Strathroy. This came as rather a surprise, as it was understood that the names of Mr. Robert Hutchinson, of McGillivray, and Mr. George Lewis, of Metcalfe, would stand before the convention. The choice of the convention was practically a foregone conclusion before the body met, Mr. Doyle carrying practically all of the county votes. The decision was reached on the first ballot, the result standing 68 votes for Mr. Doyle, and 32 for Mr.
Pope. When this result was made known, Mr. Pope moved that the vote be made unanimous.

Mr. James Roberts, of Parkhill, president of the North Middlesex Conservative Association, was the chairman of the meeting, and associated with him on the platform were the presidents of the different municipalities. The gathering was called to order at 2 o'clock, with very good representation of the Conservative persuasion in attendance. Before the business of the convention was undertaken a resolution proposed by Mr. J. C. Cameron, of Strathroy, and Mr. George Stanley, of Lucan, to the effect that the convention bind itself to support the nominee of the convention, was passed.

The Nominations.

Nominations were made as follows:
Mr. James W. Doyle, McGillivray
Township; H. C. Pope, Strathroy;
W. G. Barton, Parkhill; R. Danlop,
Napier; J. C. Knapton, Parkhill; John
Belling, McGillivray; George Lewis,
Metcalfe; W. E. Stanley, Lucan; Geo.
McGillivray; John Drummond, McGillivray;
J. H. Lawton, Parkhill; Dr.
Hugh Lang, Granton; J. C. Cameron, Strathroy.

Confidence and Caution.

Most of the nominees voiced their unwavering confidence that North Middlesex was destined to fall into the hands of the Conservative party.
Now and then one arose to preach caution, as Mr. J. C. Cameron, who remarked, "North Middlesex for the Provincial House at least, belongs to the Conservative party. But we must make up our mind that there can be only one man, and though he may not be a particular friend, it will be disastrous if we should go home and sulk because we have not received what we want."

Well-Trained Nominees.

Mr. J. C. Knapton professed his pleasure at the nomination. "I cannot stand, however," he said, "I expect to be nominated as the elected mayor of the flourishing town of Strathroy, and that is far more important than being a member of Parliament."

"We are facing an election," said
Mr. Hutchinson, "where our opponents will put up a hard fight, and we must each do our part."

Aggressive Mr. Lawton.

Mr. J. H. Lawton was the only member of the convention who seemed in the mood for hostilities. "It is well known," he said, "that the men who do not want professional men to represent them; they have the brains themselves, and they are going to hold the place. Mr. Lawton then wandered off into a tirade against the automobile driver, the exact connection being rather hard to discover. "We are going to make them get off the road," he continued; "that's the sort of legislation we want, and if Duncan Ross had done something like that he might have stayed here a little longer."

Mr. H. C. Pope, on being called upon to speak, said that he "would be proud indeed to carry the banner of Middlesex to victory, for victory it must be in the coming election. Yet, while I place myself in this position, there is a man enough in me, I think, to support any ally any man you may decide upon."

The Candidate.

"It is only a year," said Mr. Doyle,
"since I was the nominee of this convention, but I did not look an uphill fight then, but I was in the hands of the party. It does not seem quite as hard a fight now—and again I say, if the Conservative party thinks I am the man, I am here to stay. If they do not see fit to give me the nomination, I will still be a fighter."

Mr. Pope Withdraws.

When the result of the ballot was made known, Mr. Pope arose and said:
"I may say, without any equivocation of any kind, that I have the greatest pleasure in moving that the nomination of Mr. Doyle be made unanimous."

Mr. Doyle, in replying, thanked the members of the party for their support, and he said that he would continue to count on it.

Hon. Mr. Hanna.

The speech of the Hon. Mr. Hanna was noticeable more for the agility he displayed in eluding any subject that might be of a controversial nature, than for any other reason.

"We are here together, as members of the Conservative party," said Mr.
Hanna. "We are gathered here because of the by-election in North Middlesex.
This riding is open," he continued, "not on account of Providence, and not on account of the party at Toronto. The reasons are of the sort of legislation that is being carried on in the Government will appreciate it, if, when you deposit your ballot at the polls, you will say whether or not you approve of

CHIN---CHIN

What is it? Where is it?

Chin is the new town on the main line of the C. P. R. in the center of 200,000 acres of the famous "Sunny Southern Alberta" Farm Lands.
The only market within 13 to 18 miles for that hustling class of Canadian American Farmers all of whom are independent and many of whom are wealthy.

We are more largely responsible for the rapid development of this famous wheat country than any one else, having sold over 300,000 acres, and we are now establishing this new town of Chin—a market for our customers. They need it.
They ask for it and will help to build it.

No town was ever platted with such a large and prosperous agricultural backing.

Business and Residence lots in Chin are guaranteed by us to increase 50% in value within four months and we predict 200% in two years.

Warner was started by us four years ago when the country around was not half as thoroughly developed and its real estate values have increased three or four times.

Chin real estate is a good, sound, profitable investment and its business openings and possibilities are many and large. Residence lots range from $25 to $200;
Business lots from $100 to $500.

Chin is not to be simply a good business town. We have planned to make it a comfortable place in which to live by donating cities for a School, Church, Parsonage, City Market and we are going to put in a city well. There are openings for many lines of business.

Back of Chin.

Is a country where the average yield per acre, of wheat, oats and barley cannot be equalled by any state in the Union—spring wheat running from twenty to fifty bushels per acre, winter wheat from twenty to sixty-five bushels, oats from sixty-five to one hundred and thirty-five bushels, and barley from thirty to sixty bushels. The cost per acre to raise an average crop of wheat is $8.00.
Take an average yield and the market price, and figure out what the net return is to the owner of a section of land. This indicates the resources back the town of Chin.

A Fifty Per Cent Increase Assured

Four months from the date of the first payment registered, the prices of lots throughout the town of Chin will be advanced one half regardless of any condition that may exist at that time. This fact assures every purchaser a profit of at least fifty per cent as he can at once re-sell his lots for sale by our company.

There is no chance to lose and absolutely 50 per cent to gain and possibly considerably more.

Remember the positive 50% increase in four months and write at once for full descriptive literature and plat.

ADMIRAL FISHER
RAISED TO PEERAGE

Has Been Admiral of Great Britain's Fleets Since 1895.

London, Nov. 9.—Admiral Sir John Arbuthnot Fisher, Lord commissioner of the admiralty, and first and principal aide de camp to the King, was today elevated to the peerage in connection with King Edward's birthday.

Sir John Fisher has been admiral of the British fleet since 1895. He was born in 1841, and entered the British navy school when thirteen years old, working his way up through all the grades. When the channel fleet was reorganized in 1907 Admiral Fisher had a serious difference with Lord Charles Beresford over the command of the channel fleet in connection with the activity of the Fisher faction.

J. Corbett, who died a few days ago. The son of a prominent Boston family, Corbett lived a jolly life, and finally got into trouble with the Boston police. Although vindicated, he could not bear the humiliation caused by his arrest, and left the city. Though private detectives and lawyers engaged by the family have tried continually to find him, they have had no success.

Pastor Leaving St. Thomas.

Rev. J. W. Hoyt has resigned the pastorate of the Centre Street Baptist Church, St. Thomas, and will leave for Jackson, Mich., in December. His resignation has been accepted, and he will preach his farewell sermon Sunday evening, Dec. 5, the following Sunday entering upon his new duties as pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Jackson.

M. C. R. Time Changes.

A new timetable will go into effect on the M. C. R. Nov. 21. The most important change will be that the American Express which has been run as a special for the past two months will be made a regular train running daily except Mondays. A meeting at Detroit tomorrow will be held to decide other local changes.

Dr. Crawford's Itinerary.

Dr. Walter Crawford, son of the late Sergeant Crawford, of the London police force, and now medical missionary in Africa, is still on furlough in Canada. Dr. Crawford will preach missionary sermons on Sundays and address missionary meetings on Wednesdays in the churches of Elgin, Kent and Essex, from the 14th to the 20th of this month, inclusive. As far as Elgin is concerned his appointments are: Nov. 14, St. Thomas, Trinity Church, 11 a.m.; Trinity Sunday school, 3 p.m.; St. John's Church, 7 p.m., Nov. 15.

Edwards Davidson.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davidson, at high noon today, when their youngest daughter, Dorothy Evelyn, was united in marriage to Palmer G. Edwards, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Manning, pastor of Dundas (Centre) Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. On their return from a trip to Toronto they will reside at No. 7 Carfax Crescent, city, and will be at home to their friends after Jan. 1, 1910.

"Septimus."

"Septimus," a four-act dramatization of W. J. Locke's book, by Philip Little, was the attraction at the Grand last night, with Mr. George Arliss in the leading role. The audience was a fair one, and all were delighted with the superb acting of the splendid cast.

The play may be termed a whimsicality, because the role of Septimus is, despite its undercurrent of sincerity, whimsical. To those who have read the book, the character of Septimus will be familiar, albeit the play differs widely from the Locke version.

Septimus is an English society man, who has a turn for inventing. Beyond a doubt, either in the book or the play, he is an ass. As to the true character of that animal, he is more honest than a great many others, and on some occasions exhibits a degree of common sense which belies the general belief in his denseness. Septimus is a good fellow, but almost every man who left the house last night did feel that he was an ass, while most of the ladies voted him a "good man."

There's public opinion for you. Septimus Dix is acquainted with a young lady named Emmy Oldrieve, played by Emily Stevens. He is joked about by everybody, has most peculiar, though gentlemanly, manners; no aptitude for business, but a good head for inventing. Emmy is inclined to be despondent, and the warnings of her family, makes up with an actor, who is seeking a divorce from his wife. "Emmy is sadly imposed upon," she finds her lover false—in fact, he marries a wealthy widow and leaves for the continent. Her condition is such that the truth will soon be known. She has no woman to go to—in her extremity she flies to Septimus, and confesses her position. She is wishing for death, when Septimus comes to the rescue. And greater love than this no man can have. He offers to marry her to save her reputation. They will live apart, and in a year or so will obtain a divorce. Then they fall in love with each other. Septimus believes Emmy is above him in intellect and beauty. She, on her part, believes it impossible that a man who would make such a noble sacrifice would condescend to marry her. Consequently, they are kept apart, though man and wife, until finally a friend interferes, and brings them together.

The presentation of such a story on the stage is indeed startling. The subject is handled delicately, but openly. A smirk or a wink would make the play repulsive. But as it was presented last night it was polished, even if before cast was a remarkable one. Mr. Arliss, who has played widely different roles, in "The Devil," "The Darling of the Gods," and "The Second Mrs. Tansley," was superb as Septimus. His reading is perfect. In the whimsical, trying part, in which he was on the stage for three hours, he gave his audience an impressionation which brought the written character into being. Nothing was overdone, nothing neglected. In this English play this eminent English actor excelled.

Miss Stevens as Emmy, gave a splendid interpretation of an arduous role. Perhaps she was a little commonplace in her confession to Zora Middleton. But despite this her acting was a treat, and she gave worthy support to the star.

Mr. Henry Wenmar as Sypher, Mr. Cyril Young as Wiggleswick, Miss Roismore as Zora, were all excellent.

The staging was rich, and in exquisite taste.

THE GREATER RECONSTRUCTION SALE AT DIAMOND HALL STORES

The first week of the first sale ever held by Diamond Hall was a greater success than our most extravagant estimate of what we might expect from the jewelry-buying public of London and Western Ontario.

Those who attended our sale were surely impressed by the crowds of people who, like themselves, believed in the integrity and honesty of the concern to give true values as advertised.

20 PER CENT DISCOUNT

Off everything in our two entire stocks at both stores.

We apologize for the lack of attention given some patrons during our busiest spells, but we hope with the provision we have made for this week to do better.

TO OUR EAST END BUYERS

We can assure the same bargains on everything advertised in the daily papers.

If it is more convenient to your locality, do your purchasing at our East Store, corner Dundas and Elizabeth streets, where, as at our up-town store, you may find many pieces at not only 20% off, but below actual cost price, and at 50% off.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS BOUGHT NOW

May be secured by a deposit, providing the balance is paid by the end of this month, Nov. 30.

PROVISION AHEAD

Provide ahead of time for the many little things you intend to make as presents at Christmas. Your purchasing power at our stores is greater by 20%, and in many cases much more, during this sale than it will be when it is closed.

SPECIAL OFFERS CANCELLED

The special prices enumerated in the daily papers will be cancelled when the next list is advertised. This means you will have nearly three days to make your choice, providing someone else does not get it first.

comes to the Grand on Friday next, Nov. 12. "The Cash Girl" is a big hit and filled with love comedy; a very interesting story is told graphically, but comically. The costumes are bright, new and colorful; the scenery is picturesque, and the cast all that can be desired. There are ten original songs here introduced by a brilliant chorus of pretty girls, and the performance is first-class, new, novel, and decidedly an innovation in the theatrical business. Seats tomorrow.
