

TRIPLE TRAGEDY AT MONTREAL TWO MURDERED AND SUICIDE

Italian Maddened by Jealousy Slays His Wife and Her Baby and Then Takes His Own Life After Writing Letter of Explanation.

[G. N. W. Dispatch.]

Montreal, Que., July 12.—Marion Croche, an Italian, crazed with jealousy, murdered his wife and child at 2:40 o'clock this morning in his boarding house at 11 St. Monique street, and then sent a bullet into his own brain. Croche found his wife's head open with an axe and cut his three-year-old child's throat before sending bullets into their heads. The woman was shot in the left breast and baby in the right eye. They were both murdered as they lay in bed, the child in a cot near the bed of its mother. Croche fled between the two beds when he fired the bullet into his own head and his body was found on the floor.

Crazed By Jealousy.

Those residing in the house say the tragedy was the result of jealousy. The couple had been married about four years, but did not get along very well. The husband was 44 years old, and the wife only half that age. The other Italians residing in the house say the couple had a bitter quarrel yesterday over the attentions one of the other boarders had been paying Mrs. Croche, and that as a result of the quarrel the woman left the house early last evening with her child. Croche found her at Bonaventure station and induced her to return home, where the quarrel was resumed, and which resulted in the tragedy early this morning.

When the police of Chabolliez station reached the house in response to a call that murder had been committed they found all three dead. In a note written on a large sheet of wrapping paper, Croche said he had committed the deed, and the woman had signed that she was responsible for what had happened. The police also found in the room a stiletto, a razor covered with blood and a purse containing

TRAGIC DEATH OF CAPTAIN ROLLES

English Aviator Falls While Flying at Bournemouth.

WAS NOTED SPORTSMAN

And First to Fly From Dover to Calais and Return Without a Stop.

(Associated Press Cable.)
Bournemouth, England, July 12.—The Hon. S. C. Rolles, son of Lord Llangatock, hero of the recent channel flight from Dover to France and return, was killed this morning by a fall while flying with his Wright biplane. The machine suddenly buckled up while 40 feet from the ground, was overturned, and the aviator was dashed to the earth.

Captain the Honorable Charles Stewart Rolles was 33 years old and was one of the most popular young all-around sportsmen in England. His death will be a great loss to aristocratic sporting enthusiasts, with all of whom he was a great personal favorite. At ballooning, at motor racing and later in the field of aviation, he had distinguished himself by his utter fearlessness and was satisfied with nothing short of record-breaking in whatever line of sport he took up. Undoubtedly his crowning feat was his round trip across the channel between Dover and Calais in a Wright biplane on June 2 last. The distance between Dover and Calais is 21 miles, and when Rolles did the round trip of 42 miles in 90 minutes without stopping, his performance was a marvellous one, both for distance and time. Rolles was as modest as he was daring, and received the congratulations which showered upon him after his great feat almost with embarrassment.

Was Noted Motorist.
In his youth Rolles was one of the pioneers of motoring in England. He

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR THE IRISH PICNIC

Committee Visited the Lakeside
On Tuesday and Looked Over Grounds.

A deputation from the Irish benevolent society, composed of President S. Stevely, Secretary Ed. J. Carthy, Second Vice-President H. E. Buttery, Third Vice-President J. P. Forristal, B. C. McCann and John Loughlin went to Port Stanley yesterday to make arrangements for holding the annual picnic at the Port on Aug. 11.

After looking the situation over, it is quite probable that the big event will be held at the lakeside the second Thursday in August.

Superintendent Fyett, of the Pere Marquette, met the deputation of the Irish society, and assured President Stevely that the hill would be placed in first-class condition, and that so far as the Pere Marquette was concerned, everything would be done to make the picnic a success.

The residents of the Port are looking forward to the picnic with much interest, and it is most likely that the largest crowd ever assembled at the Port will be present on this event.

While we have not decided that we will go to Port, it looks as if we will," said President Stevely. "We have made quite satisfactory arrangements at the Port, I think, and we are confident that our people will be accommodated."

OFFERS BIG SUM

American Would Give $250,000 for a Hamilton Street Corner.

Hamilton, July 12.—An American millionaire summering at Port Dover has offered the city $250,000 for a corner of the intersection of the two principal business streets. There is no chance of the offer being accepted. A score of the mountain top are without water today, following a breakdown of the pumping plant. It is expected the repairs will be completed before the end of the week. The city officials estimate that the water rates this year will be $15,000 in excess of last year, despite the fact that the city will lose a revenue of $35,000 by reducing the tax on toilets and baths from $2 to $1.

A W.F.A. GAME.
Brucefield, Ont., July 12.—In the final intermediate W. F. A. football match played here last night between the Colonsias, of Niagara Falls, and the Rovers, of Brucefield, the Colonsias were defeated by a score of 2 to 1 before a crowd numbering over 1,000 people. The game was well played by both teams, the Colonsias scoring early in the game, but the Rovers proved themselves great fighters, and won out in the second half. This makes it tie on the round, as the Colonsias won at home by one goal. McCutcheon, of Stratford, was the referee.

BETTER PROTECTION NEEDED FOR BATHERS AT THE PORT

A Canoe Upset Yesterday and There Was Not a Boat in Sight to Take to the Rescue—A Pointer for the Port Stanley Authorities.

Drowning accidents off the pavilion beach at Port Stanley have started an agitation at the Port for better protection.

Already one child has lost her life there, and it was by mere good fortune that five more lives were not added to the list, all at the same place.

Yesterday, a number of London visitors had a vivid example of the necessity of more protection to bathers along the beach.

A couple of young fellows were canoeing in the lake nearly opposite the Invererie. There was quite a swell going, and the frail craft was upset. They could not right their canoe, and it was thought for a time that the young men were in a serious position.

The apparent helplessness of the young men attracted quite a crowd in a few minutes.

Not a Boat in Sight.
However, it happened that the boys were not in any danger, and they reached shore in safety. Had they been in trouble the crowd of perhaps twenty men could have assisted little. There was not a boat along the beach. To swim out to the lads, and bring them in without a life buoy or anything to assist would have been out of the question, and would undoubtedly have resulted in the loss of the rescuer's life unless he was a remarkably strong swimmer, and a remarkably strong man.

The incident caused a great deal of discussion, and called attention to the lack of protection along the beach. There should be life buoys along the pavilion beach, where hundreds of bathers go in daily.

Signs should mark the depth of the water to keep bathers posted exactly as to conditions where he is swimming. At the present time there is no person patrolling the beach to assist in time of danger.

It is understood that the Port Stanley Council will take the matter up, and will name a man to do this work during the summer season.

MR. A. O. GRAYDON WILL ACT AS CONSULTING ENGINEER

City Council Finds Itself in a Muddle as a Result of the Resignation, and Late Official Has Consented to Help the City Out.

Mr. A. O. Graydon will continue to act as city engineer for some time, in spite of the fact that he is no longer in the employ of the city. The incomprehensible muddle into which the council fell last night left them no somewhat shameful regarding the tangle.

Mr. Graydon's position will be similar to that occupied by Mr. John M. Moore. It will be remembered that the latter resigned, but he acted as superintendent of the waterworks for some time, until the board were in a position to fill the place to their satisfaction. The council is in a similar muddle. When the smoke of battle cleared away, they could not understand in what position they were. It has now dawned upon them that their most important department is without a head, and no person was placed in charge.

A Consulting Engineer.
A number of the aldermen got together and Mr. Graydon offered to give as much time to the city as his health would permit. He made no request for remuneration whatever, but will act in consultation with Assistant Engineer Wright regarding the department. Mr. Wright will be given authority to sign orders, make requisitions, etc., by the board of works.

Mr. Graydon is the most popular (Continued on Page Eight.)

WEDDING BELLS FAILED TO RING GROOM ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY

Pathetic Story of a Young Lady Who Had Made All Arrangements for the Marriage Ceremony—John Roberts Pleads Guilty in the Police Court.

Wedding bells failed to ring yesterday afternoon for a young woman, whose sweetheart, John Roberts, of 423 Fall Mall street, was placed under arrest on a charge of breaking and entering McMahon & Granger's warehouse last week.

Roberts, who is 20 years old, had planned to get married yesterday afternoon, and go on a honeymoon trip on the Grand Trunk express which leaves here at 4:25 for the east.

The girl, it is said, was all ready, and was at her sister's home waiting for Roberts to come and take her to the preacher's house.

In the meantime, Detective Nickle had gone to Roberts' house and arrested him. The girl was naturally greatly shocked over the arrest.

Pleading Guilty.
In court this morning Roberts pleaded guilty to the charge preferred against him, and was remanded for a week for sentence.

Roberts and two small boys were concerned in the attempt to rob McMahon & Granger's. Roberts is regarded as the ringleader in the affair. The entrance to the warehouse was obtained in an unusual manner.

The premises next door were gutted by fire some time ago, and are being repaired. Roberts and the boys went up into the warehouse and came out on a fire escape which connects with McMahon & Granger's.

They then broke in. Had the bookkeeper not returned in the evening to do some work it is unlikely that the burglars would have been discovered.

Thieves at Work.
When the bookkeeper came back Roberts was in the office, and the boys were out in the warehouse collecting goods.

Roberts showed fight and attacked the bookkeeper and got away. One of the boys also got away, and the other was captured. They appeared in the juvenile court this morning, and one was sent to the Mimico Industrial School, and the other was allowed to go on condition that he reports every week to Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid Society.

HEARD DOCTORS CONSULTING WOMAN FLED FROM HOSPITAL

Death of Mrs. Mary Bartlett, of High Street, Is Preceded by a Sensational Escape From Victoria—Locked Herself in Her House and Refused Treatment.

Mrs. Mary Bartlett, a colored woman, residing on High street, South London, died in St. Joseph's Hospital last night from heart disease. The circumstances are somewhat unusual.

Mrs. Bartlett had been ill for some days and last week was taken to Victoria Hospital, where she was to undergo an operation for stomach trouble. The chloroform had been administered to the woman after she had been placed on the operating table, when it is stated that she heard the attending physicians arguing as to whether an operation would be advisable or not.

Rushed From Hospital.
One physician, it is said, contended that an operation would be useless. Mrs. Bartlett didn't wait for any more, but scantily clothed as she was, and partially dazed from the effects of the chloroform, made a mad rush off the operating table, and was out in the hall and down the street before any one could stop her.

She ran to her home and immediately barricaded all the doors and windows and nailed some of them up.

Some of her neighbors, who saw her run home, and who knew that she was to have been operated on, went to her house, but for two days she would not listen to any of them, and at times, it is said, was very violent.

Weak and Exhausted.
On Saturday she was very weak and exhausted from her madness and insufficient food, and consented to have a doctor call. She persuaded her to go to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she died last night about midnight. The attending physician stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that death was due to heart disease.

Her escape from Victoria Hospital was made so quickly the authorities are convinced that no one is to blame.

LONDON LIVERYMAN RECOVERED OUTFIT

Horse and Buggy Had Been Stolen From D. C. Carmichael.

Liveryman D. C. Carmichael arrived home from Simcoe this morning with the horse and buggy which was stolen from him last week by William Parker. Mr. Carmichael stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that the horse had been driven very hard, and was somewhat abused.

Parker on Saturday evening about 10 o'clock stopped at a farmer's place near Simcoe, and put the horse in to be fed. People around Simcoe had been notified by the police to keep a lookout for the stolen outfit, and the farmer at once got in touch with Chief McLaughlin. The farmer's place, and Parker, who was waiting for the horse, saw the constable's hat, and started to run. Chief McLaughlin took after him, and in the darkness fell down on a well worn on the road. He was not hurt, but it was some time before he could get out and he lost Parker. Later he overtook him on the road to Brantford, but could get none and went away.

When the chief got back he at once notified the Brantford police to watch for Parker. It was not until some time later that he learned that Parker had gone into Simcoe and tried to get a horse.

Parker, it is stated, was only recently liberated from the penitentiary for horse stealing. He was also arrested on a similar charge some time ago, but the case came to nothing. The local police are confident that he will be arrested very shortly.

LONDON, TUESDAY, JULY 12.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

The Roblin Government has been sustained by nearly its former strength. In a House of 41, a majority of 13 or 14 is more than sufficient.

Mr. Roblin stood before the electors in an unenviable position. Two years ago he declared in a public speech that the public man who hesitates or refuses to have his public record inquired into and examined in the most minute detail is unworthy the support of any people. The author of this pious sentiment not long afterwards refused to permit an inquiry into a charge, which, if proven, would have cost him his seat. He was accused of being a partner in the Eli Sand Company, which had had dealings with the Government in 1908. Mr. Roblin asserted that his interest in the company ceased in 1907; but letters came to light, showing that in 1908 he drew large profits from the company. He made no attempt to explain away this evidence. He was clearly convicted of an untruth. His re-election after such an exposure does little credit to the electors of Dufferin, especially as the Liberals had an excellent candidate, Professor Osborne, of Manitoba College.

The Roblin-Rogers Government has carried the art of organization for election purposes to an unexampled perfection. It is a party machine in the worst sense of the word, but it is supremely efficient on election day. That it has not been overthrown by the moral sense of the people of Manitoba, shows the extent to which it has debauched the province.

A CURIOUS DOCUMENT.

The will of Col. Robert St. George Dyrenforth, of Washington, is exciting amused comment in the United States. The document draws a map of life for the colonel's grandson, Robert Dyrenforth, now 12 years old. At 14 he is expected to graduate from a high school, and at 18, from Harvard University. After six months spent in studying law at Oxford, he is to enter West Point, and qualify as a commissioned officer in the army. When he graduates, he is to complete his legal education, and at 28, after being admitted to the bar, he is to inherit $250,000, provided he has not married or changed his religion. He is warned against women; the colonel ascribed to them an "indirect, artful and parasitical nature."

This extraordinary schedule recalls George Meredith's study, "Richard Feverel." The father of Richard, in the plenitude of his conceit and pendency, undertook to bring up the boy on a system, a theory, with what poignant results readers of that great novel will remember. Colonel Dyrenforth is Richard Feverel's father over again. He has allowed nothing for the individuality of the boy, for his tastes, prejudices, likes or dislikes, or for human nature itself. Will young Robert be ruled by the dead hand of his grandfather? Probably not, if he has a personality of his own. He should be an interesting psychological study.

"COULDN'T COME BACK."

Jeffries, the prize-fighter, is not a man of letters, but one of his phrases is having a wide vogue. When he was coming to his senses after having been knocked down and out, he remarked that he "couldn't come back." He had become flabby, and lazy, and self-indulgent, and he "couldn't come back" to his physical fitness of a few years before.

Many men have uttered the same lament in varying circumstances. Perhaps they yielded to the sway of a bad habit, and pleaded that they "couldn't come back" to rectitude and respectability. Perhaps they threw away precious time, and "couldn't come back" to the opportunities of earlier years. Perhaps they grew hard and cynical, and "couldn't come back" to the hopes and illusions of youth and early manhood. Perhaps they shaped their life so long on a mistaken theory or principle, or under the mastery of a selfish motive, that they "couldn't come back" to a sane and proper conception of what life meant.

It was a "knock-out" blow that convinced Jeffries that he "couldn't come back." Why do so many persons wait until they get a "knock-out" blow, before they begin to think of "coming back?"

IRRIGATION IN AUSTRALIA AND CANADA.

Vast sums of money have been expended by Australia in attempts at irrigation, but there is little or nothing to show for it. Thus far, $12,500,000 has been expended on irrigation works, the total yearly expenditure on maintenance being $750,000, while the receipts from rent and water rates amount to but $170,000 annually. An area of 1,100,000 acres is traversed by the irrigation channels, but of that only 218,000 acres were irrigated last year. Over half the irrigated area the watered soil was devoted to the raising of native grass, the crop return being trivial.

The ministerial explanation of the disappointing results is that there has been too wide a distribution of the available water supply with more than half of the water lost in long channels which run through acre after acre of unwatered fields. The holdings are too large for the adequate cultivation of the watered sections and the population too limited to make it possible to get people to do the work required.

In contrast with Australia's experience is that of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in Western Canada. As the Montreal Herald points out, there has been no waste of the waters brought in the canals and ditches from the Bow River. The irrigated lands are cut up into small farms of from ten to fifty acres, and by the adoption of intensive agriculture enormous crops are raised. On the other hand, in Australia there is an unaccountable prejudice against using irrigated lands. Vanity, ignorance and indolence have demoralized the Australian farmer, who would rather plod along farming unwatered fields in a climate subject to long spells of drought than increase and make certain his yield by adopting new methods which would give the soil a permanent supply of water. His vanity is gratified by the ownership of a large acreage; he wants a thousand acres if he can only till fifty.

The Australian Government intends to persevere, but Australia cannot hope for years to come to rival Canada as a magnet to the land-seekers of over-crowded Europe.

The Roblin Government is a house built upon the sand, but it didn't fall. The electors of Manitoba returned a bad Government, and are getting what they deserve.

Snow fell in Germany last week. What the world needs is an invention for averaging the weather.

Another Gould couple have been divorced. Both remarried a few days after the decree, but not each other. The Mormons feel they are a persecuted people, when they contemplate the old nobility of the republic.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given the quietus to the story that his western trip foreshadowed an election this year. Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Borden are both doing their duty in meeting the electors when there is no election in the air.

The Toronto News says that Great Britain's trade policy excludes her from the benefits of otherwise possible trade negotiations with other peoples. Will the News name a country that discriminates against Great Britain in favor of any other country? By the favored nation treaties, Great Britain automatically gets the benefit of any reduction of duties in any other country.

To the tragedies of the drowning season must be added the obituary verse published in the Wallaceburg Herald-Record:

He wasn't in the water very long
When something about him went wrong;
Something bothered in his head,
Soon he sank to the bottom, sun-stroked, dead.

He sank and soon the bubbles rose,
Something happened, no one knows,
For he never once came to the top,
And after him the divers had to drop.

THE HOOPSKIRT.

The man who invented the hoopskirt died the other day. How many people now remember the hoopskirt? To most people it is probably known only through the old-fashioned plates and caricatures of the funny artists. Looking at some of these pictures it seems hard to realize that there ever was a time when sensible women allowed themselves to be decked out in such fashions; but, no doubt, some of the styles that are now the vogue will appear as ridiculous fifty years hence as the pictures of the hoopskirt do today.

SLOWER BUT SAFER.

And, after all, the Count de Lesseps found a couple of freight cars mightily handy on which to convey his flying machines to Toronto.

TAKING A CHANCE.

It is hard to understand how Joseph Martin can venture to take time to visit Vancouver, leaving Asquith to run the empire unavowed by the power of the Martineau voice, and unchecked by the vigilance of Joseph's steadfast eye.

USUAL RATINGS.

First Eskimo (with evening paper)—I see that another intrepid explorer is going pole-vaulting with a dirigible balloon. Second Eskimo—Impossible! Why, how will they carry the dogs?

First Eskimo—Canned, probably.

CONSOLATION.

Do not worry because your neighbor has a sideboard worth $10. Perhaps only two three-dollar installments have been paid on it.

WHERE SHALL IT BE?

Miss Carlyle, factory inspector in Toronto, declares there is a girl famine in Ontario. She says 10,000 are wanted by factories of Toronto.

KING'S RIGHT-HAND MAN.

Lord Knollys, who, after serving the late King for forty years, has been appointed private secretary to King George, comes of a singularly long-lived race. His father served as controller of the Prince of Wales' household until his 80th year, and lived for six years after his retirement, and his grandfather likewise attained a great age. His ancestor, William Knollys, who also served in the households of two monarchs, Elizabeth and James I., died at the age of 85, and, according to Dugdale, "rode a-hawking and hunting within half a year of his death." Sir Francis Knollys, the distinguished statesman, died at the time of his death.

WHY PA OBJECTS.

The Young Man-Grace, what is it your father sees in me to object to, darling? The Young Woman (wiping away a tear)—He doesn't see anything in you, Algernon; that's why he objects.

IN PHARAOH'S TIME.

Gibbs—What makes you think they had theatres in Pharaoh's time? Didds—Didn't Joseph's brethren remove him from the family circle and put him in the pit?

HOME.

Home is the one place in all this world where hearts are sure of each other. It is the place of confidence; it is the place where we tear off that mask of guarded and suspicious coldness which this world forces us to wear in self-defense, and where we pour out the unreserved communications of full and confiding hearts. It is the spot where expressions of tenderness gush out without any sensation of awkwardness and without any dread of ridicule.

A USE FOR NOSES.

Sir Frederick Bridge's story at the city of London school, recently: "On one occasion the singers were singing an anthem in which the words 'Noses have they, but they smell not' occurred. Dr. Wesley, annoyed at the way in which the altos sang the words, remarked tartly: 'No; they use them to sing with!'"

THE RUSSIAN LIMIT.

In Russia one may marry but five times. Those who come before the altar for the sixth time are banished to their troubles and given a vacation in Siberia.

HEREDITARY POWER.

Heax—Poor old Henpeck has to mind the baby.
Joax—Yes; it's wonderful how that baby takes after his mother.

COMMERCIAL VALUE OF MUSIC.

Diggs—I understand that you encourage your son to practice on the cornet?
Griggs—Yes. He's only been playing two months, but today he came to me to house next door to me for one-half his value.

CURIOSITIES OF SMOEL.

No substance that refuses to dissolve in water has an odor. It is the actual substance itself, floating in particles in the air, that appeals to the nose, and not simply a vibration of the air, as in the case of light and sound. The damper a thing is the more powerful the odor it gives off. A pleasant proof of the fact can be had by walking in a garden after rain. There is no end to the curiosities of smell. It is, for instance, the vapor of a liquid that smells, and not the liquid in the mass itself. If Eau de Cologne be poured into the nostril the nose refuses to recognize any odor there at all.

IN DEADLY PERIL.

This story is told of Jerome K. Jerome, the humorist. Returning from abroad on time, he fell into good company, with the exception of one man, who was what is known as a "walking encyclopedia." This man persisted in giving all sorts of information, much to the annoyance of Mr. Jerome and others. One morning, as the travellers leaned over the rail, admiring the rising sun, the man with the information turned to them and said, almost solemnly: "Gentlemen, if the earth were flattened out, the sea would be two miles deep over the whole world."

Mr. Jerome turned around, seemingly stunned. Then he gave the indignant walking over to the other man, he said, shaking his finger menacingly: "Look here, man, if you catch any fellow trying to flatten the earth, shoot him on the spot. I can't swim."

PASSING MENTION.

Life has annoying incidents. Beyond a single doubt, the pair of shoes you do not like are slow at wearing out.

ECLIPSED.

Fourth of July was once associated with the fame of Gen. Washington, but that was before the Fourth of July twisted up with the nobler identity of another typical Southern gentleman, Col. Jack Johnson.

THERE WITH THE GOODS.

Floorwalker—Yes, sir, this department store is a regular city. How many people now remember the hoopskirt? To most people it is probably known only through the old-fashioned plates and caricatures of the funny artists. Looking at some of these pictures it seems hard to realize that there ever was a time when sensible women allowed themselves to be decked out in such fashions; but, no doubt, some of the styles that are now the vogue will appear as ridiculous fifty years hence as the pictures of the hoopskirt do today.

THE WASTE BASKET.

The waste basket in a newspaper office of any town does more to keep its citizens in good repute than any other agency, except the fear of the law and the hereafter.

LOEB FOR GOVERNOR

Republican Nomination for New York
Going His Way.
Beverly, July 12.—William Loeb, collector of the port of New York, told President Taft today that he would rather remain at his post in the customs service than run for governor of New York this fall. The President told Mr. Loeb that the Republican nomination seemed to be coming his way, and that it would take more than a fishing trip to the Rocky Mountains to stop it.

The former secretary to President Roosevelt left Beverly this afternoon for New York, leaving the impression here that if it became absolutely necessary for him to take the Republican nomination he would do so and would make it a whirlwind campaign. The mention of the New York situation was incidental to talk on general politics between the President and Mr. Loeb. They were together this morning before the President went to the Myopia links for a game of golf with Henry C. Frick, who lives near here, and they lunched together at John Hays Hammond's cottage in Gloucester. After the luncheon the talk was continued. Mr. Taft was anxious to hear something of the situation, as viewed by some one outside of the immediate administration circle.

3,000 YEARS AGO THE EGYPTIANS CURED DISEASE WITH FRUIT

Today, Canadians Are Doing It With "Fruit-a-lives"

—The Famous Fruit Medicine

We are apt to consider the age we live in as the most wonderful age that the world has ever known. It is, in many respects. Yet the ancients surpassed us in some things. Engineers of our 40-story sky-scrapers still marvel at the massive pyramids and the sphinx. So, too, the Egyptian physicians of 3,000 years ago, used fruit juices as a medicine for treating blood trouble, liver and kidney disease and stomach weakness. Their method of mixing fruit juice as a medicine, is also one of the lost arts. A well-known Canadian physician, however, perfected a method of utilizing fruit juices, which is one of the greatest discoveries of modern medical research.

"Fruit-a-lives" is the natural cure for Chronic Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Kidney Disease, Pain in the Back, Bad Complexion, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Headaches, Neuralgia, etc. It is sold in 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-lives, Limited, Ottawa.

THE RUSS-JAP PACT

Conditions of Manchurian Agreement Reached United States Government.

Washington, July 12.—The text of the Russo-Japanese treaty was transmitted to the state department today by the Russian and Japanese embassies in this city. The treaty was signed last Monday at St. Petersburg by Mr. Jawolsky, minister of foreign affairs of Russia, and Baron Motono, Japanese ambassador at St. Petersburg. The convention is designed to maintain the status quo between the two Governments in Manchuria, and provides a traffic agreement between the Chinese-Eastern Railway, a Russian concern, and the South Manchurian Railway, a Japanese road. The text of the agreement will be made public simultaneously in practically every important capital of the world on Monday morning.

The negotiations for the new convention had been in progress at St. Petersburg for many months, and the preliminary exchange had been made before Secretary of State Knox submitted to the powers his scheme for the neutralization of Manchurian railways.

This Knox proposal was promptly rejected by both Japan and Russia. As a balloonist Roll had made more than 150 ascensions, crossed the channel several times in balloons, and in 1906, by a journey from Paris to Sherbourg in Norfolk, gained the French aero club's medal.

Roll 100 Feet. In the presence of a great crowd, a majority of whom were ladies and children, and many personal friends of the young aviator, the Wright biplane on which he was flying fell suddenly with terrific speed from a height of 100 feet. It struck the ground close to the crowded grandstand, smashed into a tangled mass and before assistance reached the spot Roll was dead.

The event in which Roll was competing was for a prize for the aviator alighting nearest a given mark. The goal was directly in front of the grandstand where the spectators were massed. He had risen to a good height, then shut off his motor, and was gliding in a broad circle toward the mark. Without warning the tailpiece of the biplane snapped off. The machine gave a sudden lurch, and the framework crumpled up in the air. When it struck the ground it was smashed to splinters. The doctors found that Roll had fractured his skull. The wreck of the machine and the twisted rods surrounded the body so that it was with difficulty that it was extricated. Roll was the tenth victim of the modern science of aviation.

ENTRANCE PAPERS THAT TRIPPED THEM UP

But From All Reports London Scholars Fared Better Than Other Places.

There is woe among the poor plucked pupils who tried the entrance examinations last month, and there is a great deal of interest being taken, not only by the pupils themselves, but by parents and others in the papers. From reports received from the Province, London apparently fared somewhat better than the average. There are few cities or towns, in fact, that can boast of having but 36 per cent fail. In Kingston and other places reports have come that the percentage was nearly 50 per cent of failures.

Teachers Satisfied.
The majority of the teachers here are satisfied with the result. The good pupils passed. The average pupil had a hard time, but there was absolutely no chance for the poorly-prepared pupil. When the standard was lower, and the papers not so difficult, the poor pupil had a chance. This year he had little.

The arithmetic paper was the hard one, of course. The geography plucked a large number, and spelling, as usual, numbered quite a few victims.

That Arithmetic Paper.
The arithmetic paper is given below. It will be noticed the note of instruction states that the first three questions must be absolutely correct, or no marks will be allowed. This caused many of the failures.

Note.—In the case of each of the questions in Part A (viz., 1, 2, 3 (a), 3 (b), and 3 (c)), no marks are to be given unless the answer thereto is correct.

1. A dealer sold lumber at the average price of $35.60 per M feet for one week, as follows: Monday, 98643 feet; Tuesday, 42781 feet; Wednesday, 78042 feet; Thursday, 89784 feet; Friday, 78688 feet; Saturday, 88675 feet. What were his total receipts from the sales for the week?
Answer—$169,687.40.

2. T. Smith, grocer, sold to J. Jones, jobber, the following goods:
200 lbs. tea at 18½¢ per lb.
42 lbs. raisins at 3 lbs. for 25¢.
164 sacks salt at 4 sacks for 15¢.
29 lbs. 4 oz. cheese at 16¢ per lb.
15 cwt. 75 lbs. flour at $2.80 per cwt.
48 lbs. 12 oz. lard at 12¢ per lb.
If J. Jones pays three-fourths of this bill in goods and the balance in cash, how much cash does he pay?
Answer—$25.32.

3. (a) From 5-6 + 4-5 of a pound take 3-4 - 2-3 + 1-20 of a pound.
Answer—1½ lbs.
(b) If 2-3 of 4-5 of a yard cost $1 1-3, what will 6-7 of 3-4 of 7-9 of a yard cost?
Answer—$1.25.
(c) Simplify .88 x .098 - 16 x .0002.
Answer—7160.

4. The pound loaf costs 5¢ when wheat is $1.25 a bushel. What should the 20 oz. loaf cost when the price of wheat has fallen 20¢ a bushel.
Answer—5½ cents.

5. (a) A room is 36 ft. long and 27 ft. wide. On the floor is a rug which leaves uncovered a border 18 inches wide all around the room. What will it cost to paint the border two coats at 15¢ a square yard for each coat?

DIDN'T REMEMBER BEING MARRIED

But Somebody Had Told Him That Such Was the Case.

Toronto, July 11.—"Were you married to this woman on Dec. 11 last?" asked Mr. Kingsford in today's court, of Reuben Rhodes, recently from Aurora, charged by his wife Eliza with non-support.

"I don't remember it, but I have been told so," replied Reuben Rhodes.

Rhodes pleaded guilty, and in a whispered conversation told his matrimonial troubles to the court. He said that prior to his wedding night on the 11th of December he had been drinking heavily and was in a dazed condition.

He lived with his wife for a few weeks and then left her. A baby was born three months ago, but the husband refused to return. Rhodes agreed to allow his wife $2.50 a week and the couple will live apart.

BREAD PROBLEM STILL UNSOLVED

Toronto Bakers' Case Dismissed Because of Technicality.

Toronto, July 11.—Owing to a flaw in the prosecution of the fifteen bakers on charges of selling light-weight bread, the meat of the question of what constitutes small bread under the Niekie act still remains unsolved.

The magistrate, in the police court, pointed out that the act provides that for purposes of prosecution the weight must be taken from an aggregate of ten loaves, to be seized at the same time and place. As this clause had not been observed, Mr. Kingsford dismissed the case against the Coleman Baking Company.

The other fourteen cases were remanded until Wednesday to give the prosecuting inspector, James Wilson, time to decide whether he will accept the decision or launch fresh prosecutions against the defendants.

GOVERNMENT PROBING EXPLOSION PERILS

Expert From British Government to Help Draft Bill.

Ottawa, July 11.—Today's explosion at Sandpoint has revived interest in the determination of the mines department to introduce legislation with regard to the manufacture, transportation, storage and use of explosives. It has already been stated that a sum of $10,000 was voted at the last session of Parliament for an investigation into the whole subject, but now it is announced that the investigation is under way, an officer of the department being now out on a tour of inspection of all the powder magazines of the Dominion. It is also announced that the British Government has loaned to the Dominion for a period of two months the services of Capt. J. H. Booth, the inspector of explosives of the British Board of Trade, who is probably the greatest expert on the question in the empire. He will sail for Canada on Friday next with Earl Grey, and while in Canada will not only look into the present situation, but will also supervise the draft bill which has been prepared for submission to Parliament to deal with the whole subject. The explosion today is the fourth serious one of the kind within the last two years, the others having been at Ile Perrot, near Montreal, at Victoria, B. C., and at Hull, on May 8 last.

PLENTY OF CASH FOR ART

Lloyd George in Glee Collects Income Tax on It.

London, July 12.—Despite the complaints of the tightness of money and the assertions that capital is scarce abroad, there are no signs of either condition at Christie's, where the record prices for pictures and objects of art were smashed almost daily during the four days' sale of Baron Schroeder's collection, which realized $975,790. During the last seven days $1,785,000 changed hands at Christie's, averaging $255,000 a day since the beginning of the sale. From April 7 until today Christie's sales total $2,748,880, breaking all records except that of the Yerkes sale.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer is keeping tabs on the sales, because he collects the income tax on every pound the sellers realize. The Chancellor of the Exchequer considers the record season's sales a greater windfall to the treasury than the death duties from several millionaires' estates.

At yesterday's sale J. B. Duke, New York, bought Gainsborough's portrait of Raphael France for $24,125, establishing a record for Gainsboroughs. Lawrence's portrait of Master Thomas Barber brought $5,250. Reynolds' portrait of Mrs. Amsinck brought $1,837.

BOYS STOLE BELTS.

Toronto, July 11.—John Marshall, of 540 King street west, aged 17 years, pleaded guilty in the police court this morning to taking three belts from the T. Eaton counters, and was sent to jail for thirty days. George Edmondson and Thomas McQueen, both 14½ years, also pleaded guilty of stealing belts from Eaton's. There were no prior convictions, but both will be sent to jail for thirty days.

MORE CIGARETTES USED DESPITE RESTRICTION

Increased Consumption of Cigars Especially in Domestic Brands.

Ottawa, July 11.—Restriction by legislation of the sale of cigarettes to minors does not appear to have had much effect so far as the total consumption of tobacco in paper covers is concerned. The annual returns of the inland revenue department show that the number of domestic cigarettes consumed in Canada last year was 451,095,138, a compared with 356,756,130 in the previous year. On the other hand the consumption of imported cigarettes shows a falling off, the figures being 35,046 pounds this year and 35,882 last year. The increased prosperity of the people of Canada is shown by the consumption of cigars, which last year reached a total of 205,820,851. The importation of foreign cigars continues to show a decided decrease, proving that Canadian manufacturers are more and more meeting the Canadian taste.

Returns to the railway department indicate that the first quarter of the present fiscal year has been a profitable one on the intercolonial. In spite of heavy expenditure on improvements, there will still be a surplus of from $125,000 to $150,000, with the most part of the year to come. The indications for the tourist traffic for the summer are excellent.

"MOUNTAIN OF GOLD" JUST PLAIN PYRITES

Nothing in Reported Rich Find of Gold in British Columbia.

Ottawa, July 12.—The directors of the geological survey have received a report from Stewart, at the mouth of the Portland Canal, which would seem to give the death knell to the stories cabled to England, which have caused such a furor over there as to the discovery of a mountain of solid gold, etc.

The report is not an official one from a member of the survey staff, it comes from a gentleman in whom Professor Brock has the utmost confidence, and it is to the effect that the find is a ledge of low grade pyrite zone, with no gold confined to the surface. Thus it would look as if the men who stampered from England upon the receipt of the cables a couple of weeks ago will have their journey for nothing, unless they choose to devote their time to cultivating the golden orchards of British Columbia.

HE FEIGNED MADNESS

Young Man, Able to Deceive Court, Was Later Unmasked.

Berlin, July 11.—A curious scene took place in a police court where a young man, who had been several times sentenced for theft, again came up for sentence. He had showed signs of madness, and a medical examination was ordered, and he was put into an asylum. He had no desire to remain in the asylum, however, and informed the director that his madness was feigned, and asked to be taken before his judges.

The experts, who persisted in declaring that he was mad, invited him to give an exhibition of feigned madness. The accused bounded from the dock foaming at the mouth, and rolled in front of the judge. The spectators in court shouted "Enough," and the realistic scene came to an end. The prisoner, exhibiting a speech and returning to his seat with a smile on his lips. He was sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment.

New York, July 11.—Hundreds of negroes gathered at the Grand Central station this morning to welcome Jack Johnson on his arrival here from the west. The Twentieth Century Limited, bearing the champion, was delayed over three hours by a wreck near Albany, but only a few of the welcoming crowd were able to get on board. The police would not permit a parade in honor of the champion, fearing trouble.

Miss McCulloch was a Toronto young woman and very popular. She was in an accident about two years ago and was severely bruised about the head.

Neither of the brothers could swim, but the older one managed to scramble to shallow water.

HEAVY DOWNPOUR SPOILED MARKET

Buyers and Sellers Scattered for Shelter When the Rain Fell.

RASPBERRIES COMING IN

Sold at 15 Cents a Box, Retail, Today—A Few Strawberries Were Offered.

Up until 10 o'clock the market assumed a fairly busy aspect this morning, but with the downpour of rain there was a general scattering for shelter, and the market was a somewhat deserted appearance.

Only two loads of hay were offered for sale. One was old hay and went for $13 a ton, and the other new hay at $9 a ton.

Raspberries are coming in a little more plentifully, this morning's supply selling at 15 cents a box retail, and 14 cents wholesale. The rain will do a certain amount of good, but the crop has suffered too long a dry spell to prolong the season very much or increase the crop to any appreciable extent.

A few strawberries of poor quality sold at 11 cents a box. There were practically no butter or eggs brought in this morning, and prices remain unchanged.

A few loads of dressed pork went off at $11.00 to $11.50 a cwt. This is a noticeable drop in price which has been expected for some time.

Wagon Broke Down.

For a large part of yesterday traffic on the Mount Pleasant road was seriously impeded by the breaking down of a wagon with a large red boiler. It was a serious matter to several funerals, some of the horses almost refusing to pass the obstruction. Nothing of a serious nature occurred, but many horses took fright and ran furiously for a considerable distance, almost beyond the control of their drivers.

TRADES AND LABOR

CONVENTION CALL

Big Gathering of Labor Men

Will Be Held in Fort William

On September 12.

The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has issued the following circular:

The twenty-sixth annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will convene in the auditorium, city hall, Fort William, Ontario, beginning at 10 o'clock Monday morning,

Sept. 12, 1910, and continuing on Tuesday and Wednesday, 13th and 14th September, in Fort William. On Thursday, 15th September, the convention will convene in the Pines Labor

Temple, Port Arthur, and will continue in session from day to day until the business of the convention has been completed.

The east and west have chosen to meet in the Twin Cities of Fort William and Port Arthur, and it will be a pretty tribute to the enthusiasm and loyalty of the organized wage-workers of these new and progressive cities to have a large representation of delegates to grapple with. The past year has been replete with matters of vital interest to the workers, and the opponents of organized labor are still very active, as will appear from the systematic endeavor being made in Canada and Great Britain to weaken immigration regulations that were imposed for the protection of the working classes.

Among other matters calling for immediate attention are the following:

1. The Immigration laws.

2. The Zolotov Bill, to destroy international trade unionism, which may be brought forward again next session.

3. The Eight-hour Bill and its present position. Determined opposition has been made to this bill, and labor must keep alive to secure its passage.

4. The act respecting co-operation.

5. Effect of the amendments to the Industrial Disputes and Investigation

Act.

6. The Technical Education Commission.

7. The Anti-Combines Bill in its relation to the trades-union movement.

8. Proposed amendments to the Elections Act to make election day a public holiday, etc.

9. Payment of wages on railways fortnightly, and many other features.
