Wesley Tuck After He Is Painfully Injured.

Chatham, Sept. 11.—Forced to drive his car into a ditch, rendered unconscious, and then fired upon, was the experience of Wesley Tuck, as Raleigh Township youth, last Sunday night, according to information received by High Constable Peters today. Tuck was returning from a visit in Blenheim Sunday evening, and when near Mull, two big trucks, which he declares, were loaded with liquor, came up behind his automobile. The first passed him at a fast rate, and the second forced him to take the ditch. The car was wrecked in the plunge, and before Tuck could extricate himself, the men on the trucks opened fire. Tuck was injured by flying glass, and was unconscious for several hours. High Constable Peters believes the men on the truck were rum runners, who believed Tuck to be a prohibition enforcement offi-

Butter Competition.

The butter judged this morning was of a high order, and the judges admitted that there was not a pound of butter in the show which was not worthy of a placing. The outstand-ing feature of the butter-making competition was the fact that practically every first and most of the second awards went to the prairies. This is startling information to the farmers of Canada's premier farming province, who have in the past looked on the western country as a wheat country, and have not dreamed that

Hydro Knight Urges St. Law-rence Scheme Be Developed by People.

DEMAND'S RIGHTS

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Sept. 10.-Firmly but kindly, even humorously, in fact, Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, and at present host to the convention of the Public Ownership League of America, informed his guests tonight that Canada in general and Ontario in particular would fight "with our backs to the wall if necessary" to prevent any increased diversion of Great Lakes waters at Chicago through the drainage canal which carries the sewage of that city to the Mississippi valley. Sir Adam urged the development of the power resources of the St. Lawrence by Ontario, and the adjacent states jointly as a public ownership enterprise in response to pressing demands for his power already existing on both sides of the boundary. The international portion of the St. Lawrence in the vicinity of Morrisburg and the Long Sault Rapids, said Sir Adam, is cap-able of producing 1,600,000 horseof which 800,000 horsep would be owned by Ontario, and 800,-

Children's Day Greatest In Western Fair's History With Over 22,500 Present

Fine Programs Attract Large Crowds Before Grandstand Afternoon and Night.

ATTENDANCE: This Year Monday—22,500 Children's Day is over.

That is, unless they can make Dad

That is, unless they can make Dad take them to the Fair again.

For a year the children will dream and remember Monday, September 10, the day when their anticipations of a really good time were realized.

Yesterday at Queen's Park there was not a discordant note to act against the happiness of childhood, which, as represented by thousands of the school children of London, took possession of the grounds where the huge Western Fair is being held.

Although the grounds were fairly well crowded in the morning, the afternoon saw the children and the grown-ups just pass through the gates in a steady stream with no letup. Before three o'clock there was on the children was to be such a one as he, and spend their lives in acting the fool to amuse others.

The following number was undoubtedly the feature. The Hannefords, an English family of equestrians, who have visited London before in 1921, when they were here with a circus. They are excellent and present a very entertaining and novel act. While the famous comedian of the family, "Poodles," has gone into the movies, his place has been taken by George, a brother, and there is no doubt but that one is as good as the other.

The program concluded with Tom Davies' sensational act, which features a miniature motordroine, in which riders tear around the small circle while it is suspended in the air.

a crowd such as has senden been in the park, wandering around.

Two o'clock saw the start of the grandstand performance before a stand filled with happy boys and girls who, in a never-ending gurgle of laughter, watched the antics of the clowns, who predominated on an excellent program. The directors of the Fair, many of whom watched the performance from the reformance from the performance from the perform the performance from the side lines, were tickled to death with the reception accorded the various offerings and they themselves could not re-strain a hearty laugh as something or other was done which caused their minds to revert to the time when they also were "just kids."

Splendid Program.

The splendid and entertaining program was interspersed with pacing races, which evidently caused many thrills among the youngsters, as their different drivers could be heard all over the grounds. Many arguments were heard as to the respective merits of the entries.

No serious accidents were rejorted, in fact inquiry at the hospital tent elleited the information had to this by the started off the program and got everyone in other words, clowns, started off the program and got everyone in good humor by their crazy antics.

The clown were followed by Bert Hughes & Common of hospital tent in the form of hasonstell to be considered with part of the consideration and Nelson, an elongated Nelson and Nelson, an elongated pair, who carried out their per-formance on stilts, were good, par-ticularly when they carried out tumb-ling, which seemed difficult enough firma. The pair also dance well and do not seem to experience much difficulty in handling their wooden pedal extremities.

The Six Stellas, a bevy of pretty girls clad in green, then do some first-class tumbling, in which all took part. They are very interesting, but their act is more or less of the stereotyped variety.

afternoon saw the children and the grown-ups just pass through the gates in a steady stream with no letup. Before three o'clock there was a crowd such as has seldom been in the park, wandering around.

Two o'clock saw the start of the grandstand performance before a stand filled with happy boys and girls tures a miniature motordroine, in which riders tear around the small circle while it is suspended in the air. Visitors are asked to ride with them, and three hardy persons took advantage of the offer, but to judge from their dazed condition when the ride finished, they will not be so anx-lous a second time.

Fireworks Display. In the evening an extensive fire-works display concluded the day, and as the stands were well filled the directors felt that the money had been well "burnt."

Judging in several classes other than horses also started during the afternoon, notably among the poultry and cattle. These will not be finished until probably tonight.

Many visitors inspected the Art Gallery, where the fine art exhibits were placed, and much admiration was ex-shows.

Taking it all round the first real stay of the 1923 Western Fair was an unqualified success, and the directors were more than optimistic about the remainder of the week.

Dr. Downham, M.O.H., Declares Present Sewage Disposal Facilities Inadequate.

New sewage filter beds in the River Thames were urged at yeserday's meeting of the board of health, by Dr. W. S. Downham, the auch comment was that consisting of work done by returned soldier palents at Westminster Hospital and probable cost is roughly computed to be in the religible root of $100,000. to be in the neighborhood of $400,000. A recommendation that a survey of the situation be immediately considered will go forward to the board of works. City Engineer W. P. Near will be asked to bring in a special report upon the city's entire garbage facilities.

> "It is time that something should be done to get this project under way," Mr. Downham advised his colleagues. "The present filter beds in he river are of no avail and garbage is entering the river above Springbank in much the same condition as when it leaves the city exits." New disposal beds would be required, he reported, and the city engineering department would have to make provision for the collection of sewage at one point before relay to the beds

Dr. C. S. Tamlin, inspector of herds and dairies, and Sanitary Inspector R. H. Sanders reported their survey just recently of the butcher shops and the finding of more than 200 pounds of sausage meat in one es-tablishment that failed to measure up to the required standard. The meat was destroyed and the members of the board instructed the officers to impress upon the butcher that next time for him would mean the police

it. There is no misrepresentation, and on this account the shows which are holding forth at Queen's Park deserve to be patronized.

The Advertiser took a walk through the midway with Edward Salter, one of the officials of the exposition, and being met with courtesy at every place of call, decided to ask ques-tions regarding the authenticity of many of the freaks. He did. with the result that he was satisfied that they are all that is claimed.

It is hard to pick out the features of an exposition such as that offered, but one of the most interesting to the adult mind is the collection of miniature rides which are offered here for the first time. These consist of a tiny ferris wheel, merry-goround, and whip for children under six years of age, and from the time they started to operate yesterday afternoon until closing time they were crowded

New Sensations.

Many new things are being offered for the visitor, among them being the Caterpillar, a huge ride that in every respect resembles the insect after which it is named; the Tumblebug, another feature ride; and the Butterfly; all of which are new to London and full of new sensations. Of the freaks it is hard to say which is the best. In the opinion of the reporter, the midgets, six in number are the neatest and most per per, are the neatest and most per-ect. These tiny people are well worth a visit and are interesting in the extreme to talk to. To go to the other end of the scale one has to see the fat people, of whom there are four, running in weight from 600 to well over 700 pounds, all genuine flesh. There is a giant of eight feet tall, and a skeleton, seven feet in height, who weighs $2 pounds.

Lionel, the lion-faced man, is undoubtedly genuine, and a freak such as has never been before exhibited in Canada. There are also two Siamese twins, girls of 21 years, joined together just above the hips.

Diving girls are also present, together with a wild west show, which is one of the best ever seen here. In fact both of these shows are good.

Many other things are offered for the consumption of the visitor to the Western Fair, and it would take much western Fair, and it would take much space to go into each one.

It is sufficient to say that the midway was crowded all day yesterday, and that the advance notices of Johnny J. Jones Exposition did not exaggerate anything that was to be

The Bishop Direction Indicator is an ingenious auto accessory, so designed that it is possible for the motorist to signify the direction he is taking when turning a corner without the inconvenience of signal-ling with one hand. By merely push-ing a button on the steering column, a steel arm with an illuminated arrow at its end is projected to the right or left, according to the direction which is being taken. After the corner is negotiated, the arm is drawn back into the hood of the car.

It seems that this device is a great boon to motorists, safeguarding both the car on which it is used and the one following. It is indorsed by the chief of police of Toronto as well as other police chiefs throughout the province. No visitor to the Fair who is at all interested in autos

TWENTY-NINE MEDALS WON BY CHRISTIE, BROWN & CO., LIMITED

Splendid Record of Well-Known Firm At Numerous World's Fairs and Exhibitions

一裁大勲位功四級載仁親王殿下

VER since 1853, Christie, Brown & Co., Limited, have been celebrated for the superior quality of their Biscuits. Their exhibit at the Western Fair is a reminder that they have exhibited with unrivalled success at many great World's Fairs since the time that the great-grandparents of the present generation were young men and women.

Among the many medals and diplomas which have been awarded to them on these occasions, few are more interesting than the letter of appreciation received in far-off Japan, as a result of an exhibit of Christie's Biscuits in the Flowery Kingdom.

This letter, written in Japanese characters, is reproduced here, with the translation into English appearing below. One of the medals reproduced here was awarded as the result of an exhibit of Christie's Biscuits at the great World's Fair and Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia in 1876. The other was awarded for an exhibit of Christie's Biscuits at the Colonial and India Exhibition at London, Eng., 1886. Lack of space forbids the listing in detail of all the medals won by Christie, Brown & Co., Limited, but in all there are twenty-nine.

It is worth noting that on these occasions, as upon many others, Christie's Biscuits, made right here in Canada, were exhibited in competition with the products of the world's largest biscuit manufacturers. The fact that the Canadian product won such honors against world-wide competition speaks volumes for its quality, and furnishes one more demonstration that Canada has nothing to fear from foreign competition.

The reason behind the success of Christie's Biscuits is knowledge.

The firm was founded by the late William Christie, who served his apprenticeship in Scotland.

In those days, apprenticeship was a most thoroughgoing technical education, and when Mr. Christie established the present firm in 1853 he established it upon a foundation of complete knowledge and also formulated a standard of quality from which the firm has never deviated.

But the only old-fashioned thing about this company is the standard of quality. The firm has kept pace with the times-in fact always in the lead. Their great factory in Toronto is a positive model of up-to-date equipment and modern sanitary methods, where the army of employees, contented with their conditions, do their work cheerfully and efficiently, clad in spotless white uniforms.

When you eat a Christie Biscuit-whether it be a Soda Biscuit or one of the hundreds of other kinds-you can be sure that the crispness and flavor which you so greatly enjoy are the result of the purest materials, mixed, baked and packed by experts under ideal conditions of ' wholesome

Those Who Have Been at Wrangel.

No word has yet come stating what Britain intends London for some time urging that action be taken. He holds that in time to come it will be a point on an air route between Europe and the American continent. It is a strange and almost uncanny coincidence done so for the purpose of finding some other expedition that has been given up for lost.

In some respects Wrangel seems about as well known as the island of Yap, which threatened for a week or so to bring an anti-climax to the world war, had never heard of it before.

The British had been on Wrangel long before Stefansson ever thought of heading off in that direction. It was in 1849 that Captain Kellett, a British naval officer, landed there while searching for the Franklin seismograph, the little instrument that marks with unexpedition. In 1881, the British not having made claim to it, an American officer did so. Admiral (then Lieu- earth. tenant) Perry, with the U.S. revenue cutter Rodgers, was in that district on a mission somewhat similar to seismology. He went away down east for a by-election, that of the British in 1849. He was searching for the so that he could get his ear to the political ground survivors of the American polar expedition which sailed when the rumble of a by-election was on. away in 1879 in the Jeanette, which was crushed in the ice northwest of Wrangel.

It was in 1914 that Stefansson, along with the survivors of the wrecked Karluk, spent seven months there, leaving the sanctuary as soon as they could.

that it was discovered by Baron Wrangel in 1827. and his political apparatus registered zero. Wrangel was not a Russian, but a Swede in the employ of the Russian government, and there is nothing to stake at every picnic that will place him in after the show that he ever landed there.

There is certainly nothing worth quarreling about in the possession of Wrangel Island. Canadians think ing needle operate. One is that the only hope for to all the unexplored corners of the globe has called to party. an untimely grave.

From Canada's standpoint there is evidence that There will be enough coal sent across to meet the good, an honorable or a wholesome prospect.

So our splendid little talk on making ourselves independent, and of using Alberta coal or Welsh coal, will subside and cease. The great deposits of fuel will remain in the west, and the task of making it a business to get that coal down here will be shelved until such time as we are ferced into action.

The Small Boy and a Good Time.

There was the lake with all its varying moods. Quiet and cool in the morning, all set for the early dip; beach as though daring anyone to test strength with it.

Then the sand, great stretches of clean white sand, where castles are built and great ditches are dug, only to fall and to fill. The woods, too, filled with tall, stately pines that bowed and tossed to the wind, and the sturdy old oaks that looked at this tossing around with a certain amount of scorn, for they were there to

But the real spot for the small boy was not in any of these things. No, sir, he had discovered a place that dusty country road, at the bottom of a hill. There was a bridge and a muddy stream, some wild apple trees and a little patch of scrub cedar. The charm of the place was that mud turtles grew there, of all sizes, Brantford Expositor's opinion of Wrangel Island. Geneva, Sept. 10.—Watchful waiting, for the moment at least, was considered to be the policy of the League of Nations regarding the Greco-Italian conflict.

This was deduced from the position of a telegram which Count Ishii, as president of the council, sent to the council of ambassadors, saying that the council of the league shared with the ambassadors anxiety to see the dispute settled as soon as possible.

The message voiced the council's happiness, and the documents forwarded by it to the Paris body were useful, and asked to be kept informed on any results of the decision that the entire dispute would be immensely clarified if the Italian government would issue an order immediately for the withdrawl of taken and any discussions which the constraint of the chicken and the restoration of Corfu.

OGILVIE MAY EXTEND CORPORATE POWERS

Special to The Advertiser. Montreal, Sept. 11.—Immediately following the annual meeting, the shareholders of the Ogilvie Milling Company on Oct. 11, a special meeting will be held which, in the phraseology of the notice, is "for the purpose of considering and, if deemed advisable, passing a resolution extending the corporate powers of the company and authorizing the application for supplementary letters patent in confirmation thereon."

In view of the fact that the market price of the company's shares advanced twenty points simultaneously with the issuance of the notice, the inference in the street was that the management is now ready to proceed with the long contemplated plan of separating the investment account, and making the milling end a purely and making the milling end a purely operating company.

According to the theory in the street, the large investment account will be capitalized and the income distributed separately, so that in future shareholders will have their returns from two different sources, while the natural inference is that it will be larger than the twelve per cent now being paid.

Today one of the principal questions to be autonomy, industrial unions and political action. The resolution, as introduced by Toronto Lodge, No. 236, International Association of Machinists, calls on the congress to affirm that the Canadian congress would "become the real center of a virile, active and powerful trade union movement" if it were:

(1) Given the power to increase its per captia and levy assessments.
(2) If each international trade union affiliated with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada establish Canadian departments with well-defined power and autonomy, and all economic and financial activity be co-ordinated through the inter-national officers at the department

Down the Line In All Sports

After being in the race for three years, winning two pennants and just being nosed out last season, the London Mint team gave the fans a chance to thrill over a tight race—between other teams. Bay City has a pennant, but it is doubtful if the natives of this thriving watering-place are unduly excited about it. They would be more thrilled if Bay City were playing for the honor of the Mint League against some other class B organization. That would serve to excite the rest of the fans around the circuit, too. As it happened, the Mint closed shop, and hardly anybody heard the door shut.

The threatened legal entanglements were brushed aside in supreme court when Justice Hagarty denied the application of Harry Wills, negro challenger, for a temporary injunction against the champlonship struggle. The proximity of the title struggle today found an overwhelming majority of critics of the opinion that Dempsey would quickly end Firpo's title aspirations, and win by a knockout. But, in spite of the consensus in favor of the titleholder, experts have shown a growing tendency to recognize the danger in the South American's remarkable strength, his stam.na and the devastating power behind his right-hand punch. Dempsey's superior speed and generalship and his acknowledged hitting nower were the factors regarded as likely to turn the scales in the American's favor. can's favor.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 10.—
Plunging into his final three days of training, Jack Dempsey revealed an amazing burst of speed in five rounds of boxing against four sparring partners today, convincing his admirers that he was ready to defend his title against Luis Angel Firpo at the Polo Grounds Friday night.

The world's heavyweight champion, zatisfied with the power back of his punches, intends to devote the last two days in shaping his judgment of distance.

days in shaping his judgment of distance.

Dempsey's characteristic aggressiveness and the snap back of his punches, missing yesterday, was in evidence this afternoon. He faced a brace of new sparring mates today, George West, a British 157-pounder, and Frank Laureate, a welterweight, of Troy, N. Y., in addition to Jack Burke, the light heavyweight, and Alex Trambitis, a middleweight. Burke was in the ring for two rounds, while the others stepped one round each. West was the first to face the champion, and landed often enough with rights to the head to keep Dempsey busy adjusting his headgear, which was knocked to rakish angles.

Burke, taking his turn against the champion for the first time in a week, virtually was in full flight for two rounds. rounds.

New York, Sept. 10 .- The last grand shift of the scenery in the National League begins today, taking the league-leading Giants first to Boston and then overland to Chicago. If the west has it within its power to thrash a team that has once fought its way through that section as if the opposition had been made of the opposition straw, there is a possibility that the Giants may be put to desperate straits before they get home. But that possibility can only eventuate by the Giants being slammed day after day, and either the Cincinnatis or the Pittsburgs, or both, rising in the scale at the same time. the scale at the same time.

Wreaks Havoc On New York. No games won here and there from New York can break its grip on first place, if Chicago, which will be the first western team to meet them, wreaks havoc on the New York com-bination. Perhaps the path of the team will be stormy all through the west. But the present champions have been making a back-to-the-wall fight for the last fortnight, and no game will be won by Chicago or day lapse, with only two games to put them back on edge, is not going to help the Giants in the championship with the Yankees, assuming that both New York teams come through.

FR. FORSTER REACHES GUELPH SEMI-FINALS

Cook Trophy, Scotch Doubles, Play-Off 9 This Morn-

Play Athletics.

In the American League, the Yankees play continually from now on until the latter part of September on their home grounds. Then they go to Boston for a brief stay. They are idle for two or three days, and then play the Athletics at the Yankee stadium, Cctober 4, 5, 6 and 7. This takes them right up to the dawn of the world's series, with active competitors to keep them busy. They will not need to call on teams to give them practice games to keep them in condition.

This strange difference of dates of the New York teams results from the slipping and sliding around off contests so that the Giants might have all possible Sundays on their own field. In other words, the league is commercializing Sunday for all it is worth in New York. That is one criticism that has been made of the organization which once stood against all the baseball world in its objection to Sunday games, and insistence that they were not desirable for the sport. Since then there has been a marked reversal of baseball opinion in regard to Sunday games.

Atlantic City, Y. J., Sept. 16.—Luis Firpo is not exactly a giant, although he is much above average size and a bulkier man in many ways than Dempsey. He isn't going to look down and the champion the way Willard and Carl Morris and Fulton did. If he happens to beat Dempsey it won't be a victory of beef and bulk. It will be strength wallop, ambition and luck over science and even better hitting powers.

For months past "measurements" of Firpo have been sent around the country for publication. Some of these measurements were practically impossible. They had Firpo's biceps taping only 13½ inches, his reach 79 inches. In an normal athlete calf, neck and bloeps are exactly alike in circomference, and the reach with arms extended is exactly the same as the man's height. Firpo being 6 feet 2½ inches tall, his reach, if normal would be 74½ inches. A 13½-inch upper arm on Firpo would be a crippled wing. Of course there are some slight variations from the normal measurement chart.

He was positive that Redtail could not catch him, and that the danger was not as great as it looked to Mrs. Happy Jack, who was watching from their summer home in that very tree.

Not for a second did Happy Jack take his bright eyes from Redtail the Hawk. In this way he was ready for every move that Redtail made. But watching Redtail so closely gave him no chance to do anything else. So it was that he did not see Mrs. Redtail come sailing over the tree tops. She had heard Redtail's scream of anger and had come to see what it was all about. As she drew near she saw Redtail swoop, and at the same time

But if she was unseen by Happy Jack, she was not so fortunate in regard to Mrs. Happy Jack. The latter saw her just as she made ready to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and barked a warning to swoop down at Happy Jack, and that it is too low on one and comma the end that runs into stoppy apostrophe s back yard where Stoppy apostrophe s mother the wash-lady can hang her clothes on it period.

first and find out what it is all about later. So he promptly dodged around the tree, and he did it just in time. Mrs. Redtail barely missed him as it was. But Redtail was where he could watch that side of the tree, and hardly was Happy Jack around there when Redtail swooped at him.

It was then that Happy Jack realized that this was no longer a game to be played for fun. It had become a game of life and death. It had been no trick at all to keep the trunk of that tree between himself and Redtail. But now, with Redtail watching the other, Happy Jack was in a tight place. To dodge one was to offer the other a chance. How Happy Jack did wish he hadn't been so foolish as to show himself to Redtail that morning!

It's No Laughing Matter When Your Hair Starts to Fall.

It may seem so at first, but premature baldness is no joke.

It is a constant source of annoyance and embarrassment; it robs you of all appearance of youth and vigor; it automatically classes you among "the older men". And the queer thing about it is that it is unnecessary and may be easily avoided.

The principal cause of falling hair is dandruff in either the dry or oily form. This condition may be quickly checked by use of Newbro's Herpicide and a chance given to the hair and scalp to function normally and to develop to their full and natural strength. By destroying the cause Herpicide prevents the effect.

For an interesting booklet upon "The Care Of The Hair" and a small trial bottle of Newbro's Herpicide send ten cents in stamps or coin to The Herpicide Company, Dept. 20, Detroit, Mich.

GALT COLLEGIATE REOPENS Special to The Advertiser Galt, Sept. 10.—The collegiate institute reopened this morning with 500 students enrolled. The 'opening ceremonies took place in the assembly hall of the new addition with addresses by Dr. D. Buchanan, chairman of the board, Rev. J. McDonald, and Principal A. P. Gundry. Until other rooms are completed in the new addition the new students will be on a half-time schedule.

Visitors Will Be Interested In These Fur Coats

Why? Because it is the season's first and choicest selection—and after all, it is the quality that counts in a fur coat, considering it from the standpoint of both durability and appearance. The first coats are always made from the choicest, selected skins-pelts of deep, lustrous, long-wearing qualities, carefully selected. Linings, too, are most pleasing, of lovely silks in rainbow colors. These coats are styled in various ways—and any coat you choose now will be stored by us gratis until you choose to wear it.

Senator E. E. Michener of Red Deer Declares Future Prosperity of Country Depends On Inter-Provincial Trade in Oil, Fuel and Manufactures.

THORNTON'S FREIGHT FIGURE TOO HIGH

"What we want in Alberta is a sufficiently large market to enable us to develop our almost inexhaustible acres of coal. Ontario is our logical customer. But until Ontario begins to absorb our output it would be folly to employ thousands of men to produce fuel which cannot be used. The senate appointed a special committee to inquire into the feasibility of shipping Alberta coal to Ontario at a competitive price, and "What we want in Alberta is a sition in the Sifton government. Senator Michener is in London today on a tour of Western Ontario following the close of the summar session of the senate. In an interview with The Advertiser he de-clared that on the development of interprovincial trade through Can-ada, particularly in the fields of fuel, oil and manufactured products, the future prosperity of the country rests.

The western politician believes Alberta coal can be sold to Ontario consumers at $11 a ton. He predicted that hard and semi-hard coal from the prairie province would soon supplant Pennsylvania anthracite in cellars of Ontario householders and could see no reason why the C.
N. R. should not carry fuel to this province at a figure much lower than that proposed by SirgHenry Thorn-

"The freight rate on Alberta coal should not exceed $6 a ton," Senator Michener said. "This is $3 less than the rate suggested by the president of the C. N. R., which I consider excessive." Immense Fields.

The senator added that the immense coal fields of Alberta will be opened up as soon as Ontario demand justifies extensive operations. He foresees an unsurpassed measure of progress and prosperity for Ontario, Alberta, and all Canada if citizens of this province can be persuaded to use Alberta coal exclusively. Millions of dollars which pour annually into the United States from the pockets of customers here would be diverted to Alberta, he said. The result will be mutually beneficial to Ontario and Alberta. It will precipitate a volume of industrial exchanges unprecedented in the history of the

"Sir Henry Thornton claims the one handicap to a reduced freight rate on Alberta coal is the necessity of sending empty cars back to Alberta," the senator said. "This phase of, the problem could be overcome in time. Ontarlo could exchange her manufactured products with the western provinces, thus developing an active channel of trade with the west that would send Canada forward on the biggest business boom of history. It seems ridiculous that products shipped from as far west as British Columbla should enjoy a lower freight rate than coal shipped from Alberta. It is nothing less than crying shame.

Henry Thornton's announcement that the C. N. R. could not handle Alberta coal at less than $9 a ton to be partly due to representations made by Ontario coal dealers who are loath to sacrifice established relations with Four cases have set down for trial by Judge Talbot Macbeth at a special session of the county court tomorrow McMahen, Granger & Co. have instituted action against Joseph Wolfe for $650 as surety for the indebtedness of W. A. Clark and E. C. Dusty. trading under the name of Clark & Dusty. The claim is under a guarantee alleged to have been writter October 15, 1921. The plaintiffs claim they advanced Clark & Dusty goods and money, and that the balance now exceeds the guarantee.

Wolfe states Clark & Dusty were Essex businessmen, and that they approached him for a guarantee. They htold him that they were obtaining similar guarantees from Robt. M. Birce and Ernest L. Hopgood, and had obtained them from Samuel Atkinson and William F. Haamel.

Wolfe says Clark & Dusty were Wolfe says Clark & Dusty were subsequently burned out, and that the plaintiffs received their assets and insurance, amounting to more than $10,000. The defendant claims that if the plaintiffs had properly applied the insurance they would have no claim. The plaintiffs paid themselves and creditors certain dividends, and reduced their claim to an amount of about $1,000, he adds. He also under-stands the plaintiffs have instituted separate actions against him and Birce and Hopgood, and that they had released Atkinson and Hamel from their guarantees. He claims that if the plaintiffs received judg-ment in each case, they would get more than the amount of their claim. He claims the estate of Clark & Dusty was mismanaged.

ENGLISH MAIDEN SAYS GIRLS HERE GROW OLD QUICKLY

MARVEL AT STYLE

The Prince of Wales, coming to Canada free from officialdom under the title of Lord Renfrew, is going to have no follier nor more carefree time than the four young English girls who are in London at present, including in the tour of the Dominion a day of cattle-judging at the Western Fair. The oldest not yet 18, the youngest

14. the girls are in Canada on a tour arranged by the London Daily Mail. They have been away from home four months, have been constantly on the move from one end of Canada to the other, and have included as well short courses of study along the lines of Canadian agriculture, But they haven't developed even the slightest symptom of homesickness and they have only one re-gret. That is, that they are not able to remain longer and experience a real Canadian winter.

The eldest, a brown-haired, brown-

They are vivid, bright-eyed girls, quite evidently brimming over with the joy of life. Not in the faintest do they suggest the "flapper." In reality, of course, they are the original "flappers," because until the spotlight of American publicity turned upon it the "flapper was an English schoolgirl, with rosy cheeks and a long braid hanging down her back. All the girls have rosy cheeks and long hair. And they haven't fallen victims to the multi-colored sweater craze inspired by King Tut.

"Of course, you're ever so stylish out here," one of them said. "We daren't wear such fashionable clothes in England. We should be afraid of the rain. Our weather is so changeable that we must go in for much plainer and more service-able clothes."

Women Are Attracted in Large Numbers To Why Not Can At Home?" Booth in Women's Building.

Perhaps the most interesting ex-of $211,630; 6,096,967 lbs. of canned hibit at the Western Fair this year, so far as the women are concerned, is the Ontario Government "Why not can at home?" exhibit, located in the Women's Building. This is the first time that this interesting display of canned vegetables and fruits has been brought to London, although it has been appearing at the Toronto exhibition ever since the war. Hitherto the exhibit has been taken to Ottawa, but this year, it has come to London and is indeed worth seeing.

The exhibit is being shown under the Woman's Institutes Branch of the Department of Agriculture, with Mrs. M. L. Woelard and Mrs. James Allen of Toronto in charge. The object of the exhibit is to encourage Canadians to use more home-grown fruits and vegetables.

A chart hanging conspicuously above the exhibit and forming part of it, shows the appalling amount of canned fruit imported into Canada during the past year: 11,775,685 lbs. of jam at a value of $282,198; 2,084,-815 lbs. of canned from the women's first turns at a value of $21,335,256; 4,298,722 lbs. of other canned or preserved fruits at a value of $475,538, making a total of 28,249,-464 lbs. of fruit, values at $2,815,984.

time, but a quiet siesta, spent in complete relaxation in a lounging chair or hammock, even if one doesn't sleep, means that the warmest part of the day passes her by.

During our vacation days we all idle more or less, for we are relieved of the housework while at a hotel or summer resort, and have long hours to sit on the beach or swing beneath the apple trees. When we come back we shouldn't plunge at once into all-day continuous work, but try to carry methods.

and perhaps dozing, is very different from "resting" by sitting upright doing filet crochet or some other handwork.

On some days, the hottest hour comes around 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and if this is so, save your siesta until then. But ordinarily a good time to take it is immediately after luncheon, before interruption occurs and while the weariness from the morning's work still holds on.

Musical Revue Wins Unstinted Praise of Appreciative Audience.

Theatre-goers who like lots of zip, pep and dash, coupled with tunefu! melodies and splendid dancing, should not fail to see the "Temptations of 1923," which played to a large and highly delighted audience at the Grand Theatre last night, and which will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night with matinees both days.

The revue is billed as a "Happy, snappy song and dance frolic in two acts and twelve scenes," and it is indeed all of that. The costumes are all new and attractive, and the scenery is much better than is ordinarily carried by revue companies. The electrical effects are also all that could be desired.

Danny Murphy, who is the comedy center of the revue, is one of the best comedians seen here in some time, and is the pivot of jokes and ridiculous situations that follow each other in quick succession during the entire evening. Mr. Murphy swings in rapid succession from New York to the Pyramids, and ends his travels in China, where he falls into the arms of the girl of ais heart.

VISIT WESTERN FAIR

Spend Glorious Day at Exhibition Grounds-Are Royally Entertained.

Never did such a day happen for the children attending the Day Nursery as yesterday. And never were they so happy or so tired or so dirty as at 7 o'clock last night, when they arrived back at the creche on King street, having seen all the glories of the Western Fair. First of all there was the wonderful motor ride to the exhibition grounds, the cars provided by the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce. But the ride, beginning at 1:15 o'clock. the ride, beginning at 1:15 o'clock, was brief, and they were soon in all the lovely dirt and noise and excitement of the exhibition. The afternoon was one long round of ice-cream cones, merry-go-round rides, balloons, candy, biscuits, performing elephants and what not. They got every souvenir which was going, and they loved every one twice as much as they had expected. Today will be a dull day indeed, a sort of morning after the night before, but they have their memories, and their little tongues can wag as effectively as many a longer one

ST. MARYS METHODISTS HOLD SPECIAL SERVICES

Special to The Advertiser. St. Marys, Sept. 10.-Sunday was a great day in the St. Marys Methodist Church. The morning and even-ing services were more or less of a special character. In the morning Miss Edith Louch of Gananoque rendered a beautiful solo, and in the evening the men's quartet, composed of W. H. Bishop, H. Dickenson, S. Haley and H. Brown, supplied special music.

In the afternoon it was "Welcome Home" Sunday in the Sunday School. COAT FROCKS THE THING.

The simple, tailored lines of the coat frock recommend it for early fall wear. The one illustrated is made of navy twill, a commendable choice of materials, insuring good wearing qualities, even if the frock receives hard wear. This is especially important when it is the absise of the simple commendance to 400 if possible. Owing to the rather fall-like day this was thought improbable, but it was done. There were 421 present as against 209 a year ago. Miss Edith Louch sang again in the afternoon. Dr. Knowles expressed the hope that the large attendance would be kept up.

True Beauty

Is impossible to those who leave film on teeth

Prettier teeth form one great beauty item. And millions now en-joy them. Every day they are com-bating the dingy coats of film.

This offers you a ten-day test of the method they employ. It is used by dainty people of some 50 nations now. And you will always use it when you once see what it

That cloudy film

The clouds on teeth are due to film - that viscous film you feel. Much of it clings and stays on teeth under old-way brushing.
Soon that film discolors, then forms dingy coats which hide the luster of the teeth.

Film also causes most tooth troubles. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Hardly one in fifty, in the old days, escaped these film-caused troubles.

New-day methods

Dental science has now found two ways to fight that film. One acts to disintegrate the film at all stages of formation. The other removes it without harmful scouring. Those methods were proved effective by many careful tests. Then a new-type tooth paste was Five Thousand Power Shares Change Hands at Advance in Prices.

Reported for The Advertiser by Johnston & Ward.

Montreal, Sept, 11.—The star actor on the Montreal stock exchange during the itorenoon session was Montreal Light, lieat and Power Consolidated. Around 5,000 shares of this stock changed in ands, including a number of large blocks of 500 shares each. The activity in Power attracted a good deal of attention, more particularly owing to the arge blocks which were disposed of. For some time past there have been some large orders for the stock in the market, but it seemed very difficult to execute them. On today's transactions buying appeared to be better than the sedling, and it looked as though certain interests were adding considerably to their holdings. From an opening of 121½ the price slipped out to 122, canada Cement common was the second most active stock on the list, with a turnover of 500 shares, but no change took place in the price, the stock selling at 85 throughout the Session.

Another prominent issue was Spanish River preferred, with over 250 shares to its credit. From an opening of 101½ the price advanced to 101¾. A broken of Spanish River common sold at 31%. A weak spot in the puip and paper group was Wayagamack, which sold down to 49, representing a decline of 5 points from the previous sale. Brompton and Abitibi were neglected. Steel of Canada witnessed a substantial improvement, a number of board lots changing hands at 69, a full force of force in the price of the stock on the list, with a turnover of 500 shares, but no change took place in the price, the stock selling at 85 throughout the Session.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Sept. 11.—Light trading, scattered over a wider range than usual, marked this morning's session on the local stock exchange. Bank of Hamilton and Standard Bank were the most active of their group, while Toronto Rails led the balance of the list, Price changes were small, Standard closing unchanged at 170, Hamilton's range being between 175½ and 176, closing unchanged at the latter, with some delayed delivery stock changing hands at 175. Toronto Rails closed at 81, a gain of 14.

STANDARD MINING EXCHANGE.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto. Sept. 11.—Trading was the same as yesterday, just below average, on the Standard mining exchange this morning. Although the majority of issues were strong, losses were sustained by about half a dozen. Dome Mines continued upward, gaining 25c at 38.00. Vipond gained 2½ at 75, and Teck-Hughes 2 at 115. Announcement of a dividend by Mining Corporation caused that stock to gain 30 at 295. Losses almost equalled the gains, however, Hollinger declining 10 at 11.60, Lake Shore 5 at 335 and McIntyre 10 at 16.50. New Ray lost 3 at 43½, and Hattie, ½ at 12.

Special to The Advertiser. Washington, Sept. 11.—The United States is increasingly becoming a country of common divorce as first returns of the marriage and divorce do, No. 2. 6 do, No. 2. Washington, Sept. 11 .- The United returns of the marriage and divorce census, taken last year by the bureau of the census, reveal.

Complete returns from 21 states show an increase of 35 per cent in the number of divorces registered in 1922, as compared with divorces in 1916, the year of the last similar census taken by the bureau. states, marriages have increased only 7 per cent. The total number of marriages recorded in 1922 in these states was 445 838 and in 1916 418 -620. The increase noted is slight, and officials credit it to the population increase in the six years inter-vening between the two censuses. Out of Proportion.

The number of divorces registered in 1922 in these states totalled 61.073. compared with 45,181 in 1916- This increase is held to be all out of proportion to population increase, or in-crease in the number of marriages, and is held to be a reflection of the spread of divorce among all classes. The rate of divorce in these 21 states jumped from one divorce to 9.2, mar-riages in 1916 to one divorce to 7.2 marriage in 1922. Only three states out of the 21 for which the bureau has complete returns show decreases in divorce, they are New Hampshire, Vermont

FARM CONDITIONS IMPROVE.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Rains of the pass week did much to help plowing for fall Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Rains of the past week did much to help plowing for fall wheat, making the soil much easier to work, according to the report of the Ontario department of agriculture today. Threshing has been active, and in many cases the yield of grain has been much better than was expected. Much of the plowing for fall wheat has been done, and the remainder will probably be finished within the next week or ten days, in order to escape the Hessian-fly. Fruit and perishable vegetables in the northern part of the province are ripening well, this being the longest growing season for some time, in that there has been no considerable damage done by frost as yet. Farm labor is still scarce, and there is an especial demand for men who can handle horses. Fastures throughout the province are reported to be in good general condition, and cheese factories and creameries are handling an increased quantity of milk.

Thanks Members.

Most Worshipful Grand Master W. J. Drope, who it was pointed out by the previous speaker, was the first farmer to be grand master of the Grand Lodge of the Masonic Order in Canada, thanked the members for their kindly expression of esteem, and in replying to the toast to the Grand here tonight by Mayor Fred Billo of Lodge urged upon the younger members present to look upon the more serious things of life, and not to pay too much attention to the dance hall, the movie show and auto, but to take upon themselves the responsibilities of citizenship. He advised the members of the new lodge to go slow in progression, and to practice masonry intact and in safe keeping so that they would be available in future years for historical purposes. In concluding he spoke eulogistilined the benefits to be derived from

Can Solve This Puzzle.

Free Theatre Tickets For Those Who

If you solve this puzzle, you may be among the lucky ones who will get the ten pair of free tickets for Loew's Theatre.

All you have to do is to cut out the pieces which are shown here, paste them together, and you will have the face of a prominent movie actress. When the "scrambled" features are assembled on a card or piece of paper, write the name of the star, along with your own name, and address on it, and send it in to the Movie Puzzle Editor, London Advesier.

Answers received after Thursday, Sept. 14, will not be considered.

Lord Robert Cecil Fears Announcement on Greco-Italian Question Might Complicate Situation.

ASSEMBLY ADJOURNS

Associated Press Despatch.

Geneva, Sept. 11.—Believing that any comment on his part would be untimely and liable to complicate the situation, Lord Robert Cecil has abandoned the plan he announced yesterday of making today a detailed statement on the Greco-Italian conflict, especially from the standpoint of the League of Nations.

Lord Robert had indicated he would summarize the situation to the representatives of the press here.

The council of the league has adopted the attitude that the assembly should take no step calculated to prevent a smooth settlement of the dispute, which the council deems to be on the road to solution. Hence any action by the assembly on questions, such as the competency of the league, will probably be postponed.

At 1:30 p.m. sharp.

Mr. D. H. Porter has been distructed by Mr. C. Archer to sell at the above address his household furniture and effects consisting a part of parlor furniture, rugs, rockers, chairs, tables, etc., dining-room furniture, handsome oak sideboard, oak dining table, rug, chairs, pictures, glass and chinaware, bedroom furniture, large massive brass bedstead, springs, mattresses, bedroom suite, kitchen range, washer and general kitchen range, washer and general kitchen richensils. Mr. Archer is leaving for Chicago, and everything is to be sold without reserve. D. H. PORTER, auctioneer. ague, will probably be postponed. Considers Reconstruction. Today's meeting of the asser Today's meeting of the assembly was devoted to consideration of the Austrian reconstruction, halled by various delegates as a superblachievement, affording inspiration and encouragement that the league could prove of the greatest service to the world in helping toward the solution of other grave problems.

The assembly adjourned until to

The assembly adjourned until to-morrow after hearing an address from Sir Henry Strakosch, of South Africa, the celebrated economist, emphasizing the importance of the Austrian reconstruction project's suc-cess as the basis of further usefulness of the league. This followed an address by Gustave Ador of Swit-zerland, president of the financial mmission, on the reconstruction of

M. Ador remarked that the proach had been often levelled against the league, that it had never one anything beyond laying down broad humanitarian principles and formulating recomme resolutions. He pointed to the record of 1922, saying that the mere fact that the Austrian question was being discussed by the League of Nations arrested the fall of the Austrian many

Count Dietrichstein, head of the Austrial Adegation, eloquently presented a vertical control of the country o sented Austria's appreciation of the league's assistance, and promised continued efforts on the part of Austria to insure the even greater success of the reconstruction.

Declares Settlement Act Has Proven Disappointing

Associated Press Despatch.

London, Sept. 11.—Considerable attention is being drawn by letters in the newspapers to the subject of overseas settlement. Dr. R. J. MacNamara, former minister of labor, in the course of a lengthy letter says he is sure that all parties in the forthcoming imperial conference will tackle the question of working the empire settlement act with thoroughness and determination. He hopes that he will not be deemed imperiment if he tries to set down the essential facts of a grave and urgent problem to the solution of which he designs to contribute.

Dealing with details of unemployment, Dr. MacNamara points out that the latest figure stands at 1,228,200 and that a seasonal depression will be due shortly. The immediate problem, he says, is to de-

Two Staffs at Miniature Post-Ald. McKay Will Not Comoffice Kept Busy Explainmit Himself to 30-Mill Rate ing Postal Service.

Judging by the interest displayed by Monday visitors to the Fair in the postal exhibit in the Government Building, the idea of bringing the inner workings of a postoffice out where everybody can see them is greatly appreciated by Londoners.

The officials in charge of the booth were kept busy all yesterday afternoon and evening explaining the many postal devices, the proper way to pack fragile articles for transmission through the mails, and other points of general interest to people who evinced a sincere desire to acquaint themselves with the various phases of postal work. Politely but firmly Ald. Frank Mc Kay, Labor councillor, declines to "sign up" for Mayor Wenige's 30-mill tax rate. Incidentally he suggests that those members of the council who have already taken the "oath of allegiance," Ald. Watt, and Ald. Drake, could have fixed the 1923 rate much nearer 30 mills if they had desired.

"Take for example the grant to the Western University," Ald. McKay reminded. "They did not oppose that, a matter of half a mill. Ald. Burdick and myself were the only members of and myself were the only members of the council who did register disapproval."
Ald. McKay feels he cannot tak quaint themselves with the various phases of postal work.

A miniature postoffice is conducted in the booth, mail is sorted and stamped, despatched and received the same as in a regular office. All Fair mail is distributed from the exhibit and the officials make five collections from the Fair buildings each day. and the officials make five collections from the Fair buildings each day.

Two staffs are being maintained during the week and thoroughly expert officials give frequent talks on postal service work. The staffs consist of: First staff—G. W. Grimshaw, in charge; A. C. Williamson and C. W. Bapty. Second staff—Dan Mc-Arthur, in charge; P. J. Flaherty and C. J. Lee.

VACATION QUESTION WAITS FOR COLBERT

No Debate On Holidays For All Civic Employees Pending Labor Alderman's Return.

Should all city employees have regular annual vacations at the ex-pense of the ratepayers? This is a question still reserved for debate in question still reserved for debate in the city council.

While City Engineer W. P. Near has prepared a report as to the probable cost if the outside workers are permitted to take holidays, all discussion or action is halted pending the return to the city of Ald. John Colbert, now attending the Dominion Trades Congress in Vancouver.

It was Ald. Colbert who first introduced the subject for consideration in the council, basing his claim upon a clause in Mayor Wenige's famous inaugural address.

PUBLIC HEALTH COURSE HERE VERY EXHAUSTIVE

The General Medical Council of Great Britain have recently adopted a standard for all British universities for the degree of D. P. H. or the Diploma of Public Health. This course requires a period spread over 12 months with 360 hours of lectures and laboratory work and 240 hours of field work, making a total of 500. The course offered at the University of Western Ontario in comparison to the British standard covers more subjects and occupies more time. Lectures and laboratory work here require 300 hours, while the field work 480, which makes the total 1,280 hours. In addition to the subjects required by the British standard, Western University requires psychology, sociology, personal hygiene, physiology, mental hygiene, prenatal hygiene, venereal diseases, tuberculosis, etc. The General Medical Council

Miss Boissineau Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

The pimples on my face.
The pimples were hard and small and festered, and my face was disfigured for a while. They oftentimes caused me to lie awake hours at a time as the irritation was so great.

"I tried different remedies but without any relief. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after the first application I could see an improvement. I continued using them and was completely healed after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Oint-ment." (Signed) Miss Rose Bois-sineau, 12 Bellevue Ave., Saulte Ste. Marie, Ont.

¶ September, like June, is a month of weddings and the establishment of new homes. ¶ At such times the daily newspaper is a good shopping adviser to the bride and her friends. To the new housewife it is a permanent signpost, pointing in the direction of comfort and economy. At this time special offerings will be found for trousseaus and the family linen chest; silver for the table and china for the pantry. ¶ Rugs for the living rooms and halls, pictures, bedding and complete furnishings of every description are in the papers this month. T Household appliances to save labor and offset the servant problem. The newest and best of these always appear first in the daily newspapers. T Food for the larder, oleanly packed in box and carton; service for all the days of the week - washing, cleaning, for the best of these things right in our columns. The bride who begins married life by studying the advertisements in her own daily newspaper is already a long way towards obtaining perman-ent peace of mind and economy of expenditure.
