RICE WILL SWING

Ottawa, June 11.—The Supreme Court this morning refused the application of T. C. Robinette, Toronto, for leave to appeal from its decision by the Ontario Court of Appeals in the case of Fred Lee Rice, convicted of murder. Rice will now have to swing unless executive clemency is shown, which is highly improbable.

THE INITIAL BAND CONCERT

It was Keenly Enjoyed by Hundreds of Citizens on Tecumseh Park.

An Excellent Program Provided—Was an Ideal Evening—Applause Liberal.

Tecumseh Park presented a very joyous and animated appearance last evening on the opening of the Weekly band concert. It seemed that the whole of Chatham turned out to enjoy a refreshing promenade and listen to the music of the band.

The weather was everything that could be expected and the band was at its best. They provided an excellent program, which was keenly enjoyed by everyone. This deep appreciation of the music which Bandmaster Philip has taken such pains in preparing, was clearly evidenced by the applause which greeted the band after each selection.

The program started at eight o'clock and was concluded at ten, and there was not one of the promenaders who was not sorry when the concert was closed. The City Council made a very wise move when they started these concerts which promise to be even more popular as the season progresses.

The following is the program as rendered—

1. Rule Britannia.
2. Tipperary March (a two step in Irish style)—Fulton.
3. Birds in the Brook—Stuts.
4. Two-step "Dreamy Eyes"—Lamp.
5. "Fairy Tale"—Gavotte—Dalby.
- Intermission.
6. Two step—Black and White—Losey.
7. Melodies from Faust—Gottard.
8. On the Ohio River—Corners' Waltz.
9. A trip to Buffalo (Descriptive)—Bendix.
10. Gallop "Circus Life"—God Save the King.

FINE RECORD

From the honor lists of Toronto University published in yesterday's papers, we are pleased to notice that Mr. E. H. Oliver, in his final examination, fully maintains the splendid reputation which he won for himself by his brilliant stand in the previous years of his course. Mr. Oliver not only obtains the degree of B. A., but is also placed first in first-class honors in classics, a rank which entitles him to the McCaul-gold medal in classics. Through his achievements as a student, Mr. Oliver has conferred no small degree of distinction on the C. C. I., where he received his preliminary training, and on the County of Kent, where he was born, and we trust that his past career is but a bright harbinger of the success that awaits him in the future.

HANDSOME GIFT

W. T. Dockrill, travelling passenger agent for the C. P. R., landed in town the other evening with a picture bigger than himself! It is said that the aesthetic eye of W. H. Harper, the enterprising local agent, has long fondly gazed upon the yawning space on the large wall in the outer corridor of the Hotel Gardner. Whether Mr. Harper whispered his trouble or whether Mr. Dockrill was imbued with delicate intuition will, perhaps, never be known. However that may be, Mr. Dockrill arrived with his accoutrement, and, as a result, the corridor alluded to is now graced by a large and handsome oil painting by Walter S. Palmer, N. A., exhibiting the peak Sir Donald taken from the glacier station on the C. P. R. The mountain is capped with ice and presents a striking appearance, the artist's work being very cleverly done. The glacier station of the C. P. R. is combined with a commodious hotel and is a favorite spot with tourists from all parts of the world. The handsome picture is framed in gilt and is devoid of all the usual unseemly advertisements. It is a tribute to the enterprise of the C. P. R.

The examinations are being held in the C. B. C. About seven students are trying for the silver medal.

CONSERVATIVE BALLOTS WERE VERY DELIBERATELY SPOILED

Revelations in North Grey Recount—Judge Says Ballots Were Evidently Tamped With Since Election Night—Majority Reduced, Notwithstanding.

Owen Sound, June 11.—(Special)—Recount in North Grey has resulted in G. McKay, the Liberal candidate, being elected by a majority of five—a reduction of four on the majority announced by the returning officer, but the revelation was made this afternoon that Ross emissaries had deliberately spoiled four ballots cast for Mr. Boyd, the Conservative candidate, the discovery led Judge Dunean Morrison to say:—"It is a case of the greatest suspicion. I am clearly of the opinion that these ballots have been tampered with since they were counted on election night, and I would allow them for Mr. Boyd, the Conservative candidate, if I were persuaded that I had jurisdiction in the matter. I am, however, of opinion that I am, in law, bound to deal with the ballots as I find them in their present condition."

At 2 p. m. this afternoon the majority for McKay had been reduced to one, and matters began to look desperate for the Liberals, as there were but few more polling sub-divisions to examine. The returns from polling sub-division nipe, in the township of St. Vincent, were then taken up, and it was in this ballot box that the dirty work became apparent.

It is necessary to define the manner in which the ballots are supposed to be sealed up after the poll to make the matter clear. All ballots counted by the deputy, and not objected to by either side, are sealed up in an envelope marked "Packet A." All ballots counted by one of the other party, are sealed up and placed in an envelope marked "Packet B." Ballots rejected by the deputy are placed in "Packet C," unused ballots in "Packet D," and so on. In the case of ballots objected to there is a special procedure with reference to each ballot. The deputy must endorse the fact on the back of the ballot, and keep a record of it on a special form over the objection, and initiating the form in each individual case. In a recount packet A is always opened first. The ballots are sorted for the Liberal candidate examined, those counted for the Conservative candidate, and vice versa. The deputy's record for poll No. 9, St. Vincent, read: Boyd, 29; McKay, 40.

Messrs. W. D. McPherson and E. A. Duvernet, who were acting for Mr. Boyd, found nothing wrong with the 40 ballots counted for McKay, but Geo. H. Watson, K. who represented Mr. McKay, after going over the 29 ballots cast for Mr. Boyd, laid aside two which he said should not have been counted because they also showed crosses in Mr. McKay's compartment.

Mr. Boyd had already been given an inkling that there was likely to be something wrong with this poll, and advised Mr. McPherson to look over the other 27 ballots, and to his astonishment, found two more ballots similarly spoiled which Mr. Watson had not taken objection to, and which he says he overlooked. All of these ballots contained perfect crosses, boldly marked opposite Mr. Boyd's name, and faint little crosses made with a different kind of pencil in Mr. McKay's compartment. Two of these suspicious markings were to the left of Mr. McKay's name—one immediately beneath it and a fourth sloping against it on the right side. Strangely enough, the flap of the envelope in which the ballots were found had not been endorsed, and the deputy had not taken the oath as to the correctness of his return.

It is interesting to note that in no case, either in Lennox or in North Grey, were suspicious work has appeared in connection with a recount, has the customary affidavit of the deputy been sworn to.

It was at once obvious that there had been foul play. The ballots in question were counted in the presence of six men—the deputy, the poll clerk and two scrutineers for each side. All gave the returns—Boyd 29, McKay 40. They could not have been tampered with, which objection had been taken, because there was no endorsement on them to that effect, and no record of them as such had been kept. The suspicious crosses, though apparently done hurriedly and in a clandestine manner, were such as could not escape an entire group of six men.

A long argument ensued, the Judge, however, remarking that he did not require argument as to the ballots themselves, which, in his belief, had been tampered with, but as to his jurisdiction to count them for Mr. Boyd in the state in which they appeared.

Counsel for the Conservative argued that the Judge should not reverse the decision of the deputy, who counted them for Mr. Boyd, inasmuch as they bore no endorsement showing that objection had been taken to them at the count on the close of the poll. The deduction, which it was held had been settled by law, was that in the absence of such objections they could not now be in the same state and condition as when originally counted, and that they therefore should stand for Mr. Boyd.

Mr. Watson declined to press for the rejection of the two ballots discovered by Mr. McPherson, and asked only for the rejection of the two picked out by himself.

Judge Morrison, in delivering his decision, said that it was undoubtedly a case of the greatest suspicion. He was clearly of the opinion that these ballots had been tampered with since they were counted on the night of election. He would allow them for Mr. Boyd if he had jurisdiction to do so. He was, however, of the opinion that these ballots had been tampered with since they were counted on the night of election. He was, however, of the opinion that in law he was bound to deal with the ballots as he found them in the present condition and he, therefore, was constrained to reject them.

The poll therefore stood—Boyd, 25; McKay, 40; increasing the latter's total majority from 1 to 5.

The returns subsequently examined did not change this net result.

The strong condemnation by Judge Morrison is all the more striking, since he was the judge before whom the Liberals were most anxious the recount should be heard.

By a most unusual proceeding Mr. McKay, the candidate, who was declared to be elected, took out an order for a recount before him, although he is Junior Judge of Grey. In such cases it is usual for the defeated candidate to take out such an order, and this was done by Mr. Boyd before Judge Creasor, who will hold a recount on Friday, and has ordered the returning officer to produce the ballots before him on that day.

Another curious feature of the case is that the official declaration was delayed until eight days after the poll because some of the deputies had not filled out their statements.

Messrs. McPherson and Duvernet, the counsel for Mr. Boyd, stated that an appeal would certainly be taken. A constitution with other counsel was held and in the light of previous decisions of the court of appeal, it is most certain that these ballots will not be allowed. There will also be appeals on other ballots, which, it is claimed, were improperly counted or rejected, and it is confidently expected that Mr. Boyd will emerge from the contest with a majority of nine.

EAST HASTINGS RECOUNT.
Belleville, June 11.—The East Hastings recount was finished this morning. Judge Laizier's official decision was that Mr. Russell, Lib., received 1,962 legal votes, and Mr. Richards, Con., 1,928, giving a Liberal majority of 36, a reduction of 17 from the returning officer's figures.

ROSS GOING TO ENGLAND.
Toronto, June 11.—Premier Ross has finally determined to leave for England on Friday morning, and will sail from New York on Saturday. He will not learn of the result in the Lennox appeal until he reaches the old country.

NORTH WENTWORTH RECOUNT.
Hamilton, Ont., June 11.—The recount of ballots in the North Wentworth election began before Judge Snyder this morning. Up to the present time the votes already recounted has been unchanged.

HOME AGAIN
W. R. Hickey, Bothwell, was in the city to-day. He looks well after his trip to California. Mr. Hickey returned via Vancouver and the Canadian Northwest. At the Clarendon, Winnipeg, he saw Tom Guy, formerly of this city. Mr. Guy is now clerk in the Clarendon. He graduated as a wine clerk from Irish Jack's establishment, this city.

Mr. Hickey says that of all the lands and places he saw, there was none that could compare with our own Kent County. The Bothwell barrister says he saw no place that was any better than his home land.

A CLOSE CALL
Four Maple City young ladies met with what might have proven to be a serious accident last evening. They were out driving in a rig, and had turned the corner at Harrison hall and were coming towards King street when the horse they were driving slipped and fell down. A pile of sand and a large cement mixing board were left in the middle of the street and no lantern was left up to show where they were. The street is quite dark in that vicinity, and the horse stumbled and fell before the ladies saw the danger.

Nothing, serious, however, resulted but the ladies were given a severe fright. One of them was very indignant this morning, and wished the City Engineer's attention drawn to the matter.

TOMATO KING

Robert Mitchell, son of William Mitchell, of this city, has returned from a two years' sojourn at Miami, Florida. Robert, during his residence in the southern state, raised tomatoes for pleasure and profit, and owing to his success in this branch of horticulture has been dubbed the "Tomato King." Mr. Mitchell says he much impressed with the south. He says the people live chiefly on canned goods, which they suggestively call canned goods and houses. The Tomato King says he will return to Florida, as he anticipates being able to make a goodly sum of real money in that state.

ARTHUR LYNCH UNDER ARREST

Taken Immediately on Landing in England and Placed in Prison Cell.

Irish M. P. who Served in Boer Army Must Answer to Charge of High Treason.

London, June 11.—Colonel Arthur Lynch, who fought with the Boers in South Africa, and who in November last was elected to represent Galway in the House of Commons, was arrested this morning on his arrival at New Haven, from Dieppe, France. Colonel Lynch, who was accompanied by his wife, was brought to London, and was afterwards taken to the Bow street police station. Subsequently Colonel Lynch was arraigned at the charge of high treason, and was remanded until Saturday June 14 after formal evidence of his arrest had been presented. The prisoner, who was described on the charge sheet as a "journalist," sat in the dock apparently unconcerned until the magistrate asked him if he had anything to say in reply to the charge. The Colonel, who is tall, erect and of military bearing, then arose, grasped the iron railing in front of the dock, hesitated, and finally almost inaudibly replied, "No, sir." Colonel Lynch, who did not apply for bail, was taken to the cells. When he was Continued on Eighth Page.

The Ottawa Citizen says:-

"Capt. Morrison, D.S.O., whose deeds on the field in South Africa won for him a decoration, having stood to his guns in the late legislative campaign in the capital till the enemy was routed, on Friday laid down his editorial pen to again take up the sword, and on Saturday left to join the coronation contingent mobilising at Levis.

"After the coronation ceremonies are concluded Capt. Morrison will prolong his stay in London throughout the sessions of the colonial conference, studying at close range the doings of a congress destined to have such far-reaching influences upon the future, both of the colonies and of the empire.

"After the close of the conference he will proceed to Scotland and make a study of questions of municipal government and chiefly municipal ownership as that problem is being worked out in Glasgow.

"To all of which the Hamilton Spectator adds:-

"Readers of the Spectator will be glad to know that Capt. Morrison's letters will appear in this great family journal simultaneously with their appearance in the Citizen.

"Cap. Morrison has the knack of looking at things from a Canadian standpoint through Canadian eyes, as was shown in his war letters, and his letters from London will be more valuable to Canadian readers than those of British or American correspondents.

"Through the courtesy of the Spectator the Planet has made arrangements for the publication of these letters 'speak for themselves.

"Capt. Morrison's first letter, prior to sailing, has already appeared in the Citizen and the Spectator. It will be reproduced in Saturday's issue of this great home journal.

THE AMERICAN INVASION.

The Boston Transcript, in a recent issue, printed an article entitled "The Case of Canada," which shows evidence of much deeper thought and study than do the great majority of American writings on our Dominion.

"I have examined the composition of Strong's Pilekone, and used it for external and internal piles with best results. J. D. WILSON, M. D., Ex-Mayor, London, Ont.

"Price $1.00. For sale by druggists, or by mail on receipt of price. W. T. STRONG, Manufacturing Chemist, London, Ontario.

"Of course there are but few Canadians who share the Transcript's opinion. It is repugnant to the national pride of Canadians, to recognize a probability that their country's name is to be obliterated from the map, and that an intensely patriotic people, proud of their country and their institutions, proud of their descent, and their place as an important portion of the mightiest nation the world has ever seen, must submit to the loss of their identity and the absorption of themselves into a once-kindred, but now alien race, formed of a combination of the worst elements of European and Asiatic nationalities.

Yet it would be well for patriotic Canadians to look the position squarely in the face. If they do so they will find elements of danger where such was least suspected. Take the emigration policy of our Dominion Government for example. That Government is spending thousands yearly to populate our vast prairie territories with the identical classes that have planted and nourished anarchy in the United States.

What could be more natural than that, finding vastly greater numbers of their fellow-countrymen settled in the republic, those in Canada should desire to unite with them? Then the Government encourages and assists the immigration of a people who are absolutely devoid of that first requisite of national greatness—love of country—that they refuse to take up arms, even for the defence of their own families and firesides. Yet again our Government is bringing into the Dominion hundreds of thousands of settlers from "the States," people who are thoroughly permeated with the spirit and the principles of republicanism who, notwithstanding the fact that they have taken the oath of allegiance to Britain, yet remain to all intents and purposes, subjects of the United States.

During the war of 1812-14 the counties bordering on the great lakes were settled to a considerable extent by farmers from the United States. These people were not U. E. Loyalists. They had sided with the colonists during the revolutionary war, and after the independence of the rebel colonies had been acknowledged, seeing that Canada offered greater opportunities and better advantages, they removed here, settling as close as possible to their native country.

When the war of 1812 broke out, these men took sides with Canada's enemies, some openly, some secretly. They acted as spies for the Yankee generals, used every endeavor to entrap and encompass the destruction of the British and Canadian troops. A number of them were sent out of the Dominion, others received varying degrees of punishment. The most bitter vindictiveness and inhuman atrocities were displayed by a battalion of Yankees who had been living in Canada before the war, and who enlisted in the United States' service, under the name of Canadians in order to create the impression that the people of this province were dissatisfied with British rule.

No outrage was too brutal for these fiends to perpetrate, and to them was due much of the bitterness that characterized the struggle. Would it not be to-day, as it was in 1812-14, should the occasion arise? There is every reason to believe it would. We want as few alien settlers as possible. The inevitable consequence of filling our unsettled districts with Yankee settlers will be to Americanize and republicanize those portions of the Dominion. The time may come when the votes of these people will outweigh the votes of loyal settlers and the invasion of Canada will have been accomplished quietly, but none the less surely. This need not be. Canada can be retained for Canadians, to work out her own glorious destiny as an integral portion of the British Empire, instead of being an obscure portion of the Yankee republic, condemned to assist in paying the debts of that nation, to suffer from her unjust laws, mob rule, lynching and burning sentiment, etc. But that we may keep Canada for ourselves, that we may prevent the Yankee from absorbing us, we must be up and doing. And, first, and foremost, Canadians, irrespective of party

THE AGE OF COMMON SENSE.

Success. Common sense is the genius of this intensely practical century. The age of the theorist, the dreamer, the mere book-worm is past. The hurrying world of realities, with its manifold problems, waiting for solution, demands men of action, earnest workers who can transmute their knowledge into power, and who will help progress to take another step forward.

THE TRUSTS AND MARRIAGE.

Boston Globe. President Patton, of Princeton, believes that the time is not far distant when there will not be a thing that we eat, drink or wear that will not be made by a trust, and then, he says: "It will not be long until it will be a financial impossibility for the average young man to get married. The vicious moral for the young man who wants to marry is to get the girl now, before it is everlastingly too late."

HOPES BUILT ON DUNDONALD.

Ottawa Journal. Many of us will be pretty badly mistaken if Dundonald doesn't fit the major-generals to a nicety. His recent public utterances about Canada show that he has a very good conception of the character of the people that he is coming among, and that he is prepared to adapt himself to local conditions. Canada, on its part, will do all honor to an officer whose career has not only shown a high type of courage, but of unusual ability.

PET DOG WASHERS.

The Queer Trade That Flourishes in the French Capital.

As you walk along certain parts of Paris your attention is sometimes attracted by the barking of a dog, and on such an occasion one of the queerest of the outdoor trades of Paris is seen. Near the water's edge, his black coat flecked thickly with soapuds, stands the dog, and over him, energetically shampooing the soap into the long, hairy coat, stands one of the professional dog washers who haunt the banks of the Seine at stated spots from the Pont d'Iena to the Pont Neuf. These men lather and wash pet dogs while their owners look on from conveniently placed chairs. The fees range from 5 sous to a franc. When the soaping operation is completed, the dog is dropped into the river and encouraged to get rid of the dirt and soap by a swim.

Sometimes the pet will swim straight out, while the fair owner is in agonies of fear, lest some swiftly passing steamer should strike it and end its bathing and swimming days forever. On more than one occasion the dog washer has been driven to plunge in and rescue the bewildered animal lest the infuriated owner should claim compensation for his carelessness. With some Parisiennes this weekly pet washing is a ceremony of importance. The dainty lady, alighting from her smart victoria, goes down the steps to the washing place chosen, preceded by her footman carrying or leading the dog, as the case may be, and seated under a sunshade, she directs the toilet of Fil or Nero with tender solicitude. The toilet des chiens at the fashionable spots includes warm, fleecy towels, a peignoir de bain while the dog's hair is being curled, combed, singed or cut, and a length of ribbon or a selected color to tie round its neck at the finish.

A fee of 5 francs cannot be considered excessive for a "toilet" including a clipping during which Fil or Nero is held firmly by the lady proprietress of the etablissement des bains, while her assistant uses the patent shears. When all has been completed, the victor, wagging his tail with conscious pride, proceeds to the carriage with his proud and happy mistress and drives away in state, yelping at dogs less aristocratic than he.

BASEBALL

BEAT THE BURG.

Peter McAulay's braves, the C. M. C. baseball club, defeated Wallaceburg in a rather one-sided game yesterday. The wagon makers were altogether too much for the men from the glass town.

Roy Miller was in the box for the locals and proved an enigma to the Burgers, who landed safely only three times, all scratches at that. Cook for the visitors pitched a pretty good game but was hit quite freely and became rather dependent if not delirious towards the end of the game.

Through Sowerby's error in the first innings and some good base running Wallaceburg scored a run, but were unable to cover the required distance again until McDougall got a hit and managed to cross the rubber. The other two runs were secured, one in the seventh and one in the eighth.

In the meantime Chatham had been making good use of their time and in the first, through a complication of errors and hits, put four men over that square known to ball players as the plate. The next innings the first three men up went away back in short order. In the third Roy Miller started the ball going with a clean two-bagger and in that innings three more runs were registered.

In the following three innings two runs were scored in each, but failed to count in the seventh and only one was secured in the eighth.

Sowerby made up for his error by sensationally getting with one hand what looked like a sure safe hit. Ripley, Hamilton and Robert also put up a fine fielding game.

The umpire, Harry Philp, gave entire satisfaction to all. It was one of the best umpired games seen on the local diamond for some time.

NEARLY GAVE UP

A Cape Breton Lady Saved at the Last Moment.

A Little Longer and it Would Have Been Too Late—Her Gratitude for Her Deliverance is Unbounded.

Rock Dale, C. B., June 11.—(Special) One of the most thrilling escapes in the history of the Island has just been reported here.

The subject was Mrs. David Riley of this village, and had help not reached her the moment it did, the chances for her recovery were indeed very small.

Mrs. Riley has given the following account of her experience: "I have been a sufferer for the last 8 years with weakness of the body and pain across the back, and I could scarcely lift my weight."

"I took lots of medicines but without any good results. "I always had a dizziness and was gradually growing worse."

"I was advised to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and although I had but little faith in medicine after my many discouraging experiences, I decided to give them a trial."

"With the first box I commenced to feel stronger, and I continued the treatment, and now my back does not trouble me at all, and I am stronger and better than I have been for years."

"If it was not for the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills I would have given up. "I can heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all women suffering as I used to suffer."

The experience of Mrs. Riley is only one of hundreds. "Bad kidney action is at the bottom of nearly all of the weakness, pain and dizziness, with which so many ladies suffer."

Cure the kidneys, and the well kidneys will soon correct all other irregularities and restore perfect health. Dodd's Kidney Pills are weak women's best friend.

Not at All Excited.

In a certain Wisconsin city lives an old German, now past eighty, who has for years been in the hotel business.

The old gentleman is very fond of card playing, and pitch is his favorite game. One day a couple of years ago a party was sitting about a table playing, and just as the cards had been dealt and sorted and it was up to the old gentleman to bid for the trump a boy rushed into the office and in great excitement said the barn was on fire.

Without showing the least perturbation the old gentleman turned to him, and the following conversation took place: "Did you get out the horse?" "Yes."

"Did you get the buggy out?" "Yes."

"Well," turning to the players, "I bid three."

The Wrong Way.

Fathers and mothers who do not know how and where their sons and especially their young daughters spend their evenings are guilty of a negligence that is little short of criminal and that, too, often leads to sad consequences.

Anticipated.

Stern Parent—I suppose you are aware, young man, that I cease to provide for my daughter when she leaves my roof?

Suitor—Oh, yes! We have settled about that—Bertha and I. We have decided to make our home with you.

New Zealand Like Newfoundland.

There will probably be no inclusion of New Zealand in the Commonwealth of Australia during the next fifty years, if, indeed, it ever takes place.

The schemes has now been condemned by the commission appointed by the New Zealand Government to study the federation question, and the commission's judgment seems well based.

New Zealand is twelve hundred miles from Australia by sea, a fact that neutralizes the military argument drawn from the benefits of a joint defence in case of war.

Again, should New Zealand be brought under Australian control, such a step would imperil the many economic and socialistic experiments being made under the auspices of the New Zealand Government.

The police have not located the prisoner.

CABLE STEAMERS' ESCAPE.

Rosau, Dominica, June 11.—There was another explosion at Mont Pelee, Martinique, on Friday last. The sky was obscured for three hours, but there was no fall of ashes at Fort de France. The sea fell seven feet and remained stationary for some time before the waters flowed back to their normal level. There were no detonations or earth tremors.
The French cable steamer Poyser Querier was lying five miles off the lower crater when the explosion occurred. A dense black cloud rolled down the mountain to the sea. It appeared similar to the cloud that swept over St. Pierre on May 8, when that city was obliterated.
The steamer put to sea and was followed by the cloud, which came within a mile of her. Her decks were covered deeply with ashes and stones.
At the same time there was an enormous cloud over the top of the mountain. It is said that six lives were lost on the land.

Holmes vs. McDonald.—This was an appeal to the general sessions from an order made by Judge Houston, dismissing the complaint of Samuel Holmes, against Daniel McDonald, Sr., for trespassing on Lot 8, con 12, Dover, contrary to the game laws. Holmes is the owner of lot 8, but since the original survey the action of the water and the subsidence of the water had added a number of acres to the original lot, and the trespass took place on the land so added. McDonald contended that the land did not belong to Col. Holmes, but was a part of Lot 7, and was not covered by Holmes' deed and therefore he wasn't trespassing on the property of Holmes but on the lands of the Big Point Gun Club. The Judge held that there was sufficient doubt about Holmes' ownership to prevent him convicting, and dismissed the case. J. G. Kerr appeared for the plaintiff at the county court yesterday. No one for the defendant. J. E. Kerr also put in title deeds and patents from the Crown, showing Col. Holmes' title was perfect. The plan in the original survey, made in 1806, was also put in.

Judge Bell reserved judgment.

The following was the grand jury's presentment: To His Honor Judge Bell, Chairman of the general session of the peace for the County of Kent:

The presentment of the grand jury summoned for the June sessions, 1902, for the County of Kent:

The grand jury beg leave to present and report as follows:

1. The grand jury inspected the jail and found it in a sanitary condition, and in every respect satisfactory, and were pleased to find there were no female prisoners.

2. The grand jury paid a visit to the House of Refuge in the Township of Dover, and found that the condition of the institution was in every way satisfactory. The grounds are well kept. No complaints were made. The grand jury suggest that some couches or lounges be supplied for the sitting room occupied by the women, many of whom are old, and infirm, and require for their comfort something better than hard wooden chairs.

3. The next visit was made to the General Hospital. We found everything exceptional, and the thorough efficiency of the institution. We also visited St. Joseph's Hospital, and we have pleasure in stating that we found it in every department in a satisfactory condition and equal in all its appointments to the General Hospital.

The grand jury also visited the fire hall, and were favored with an exhibition of the speed with which the officers make ready for emergencies, and we consider it in every respect thoroughly up-to-date.

While the grand jury deplore the loss to the county of the valuable services of the late William Douglas, we

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

And Alterations in the Passenger Train Service of the Grand Trunk Ry. System.

It has been rumored for some time past that the inauguration on June 15th of the summer passenger train service of the Grand Trunk Railway System would be marked by important new features. The details of the service have now been sufficiently advanced to permit of information regarding it of a preliminary character being furnished to the public. It is evident that the progressive policy introduced by the present management of the Grand Trunk is to be continued, and that the improvements in the way of additional trains, have been under careful consideration for some time past, and have now only become possible as a result of the substantial improvement of traffic in the districts concerned throughout which the new facilities will be greatly appreciated.

While Ontario will benefit chiefly, the advantages will not be confined to that province. A brief statement of the new and altered service follows:

Commencing on Sunday, June 15th, there will be a number of changes in train service which will favorably affect travellers from this district.

In addition to the morning train, 8.32 a. m., for London, Toronto and points East there will be another train leaving Chatham at 2.23 p. m., connecting at London for all points north of Watton, Owen Sound, Goderich and all other towns in that district, making connection also for Toronto. The fast Eastern Flyer will leave at 10.15 p. m. and run as before through to Montreal, Toronto and all eastern points. The fast International Limited will run through from Montreal to Chicago, daily via London, Chatham and Detroit, making fast train service without change between these points.

TELEPHONES ON TRAINS.

"The Overland Limited"—Electric Lighted—contains a novel feature, absolutely new to railroad travel.

Telephone connections are provided at terminal stations, Chicago and San Francisco, and are available for use of passengers three-quarters of an hour prior to departure.

This famous train reaches Salt Lake City 12 hours, and San Francisco 16 hours ahead of all competitors from Omaha.

If you contemplate a trip to any western point the Union Pacific offers you the highest degree of comfort and luxury, with no additional cost and a great saving of time and expense.

The choir may be an aggregation of tuneless yelps, but if the young man has brought any worshipful music in his soul into the church the same uplifting sentiments "Elijah" will sweep the chords of his heart as the organist touches the keys, or as the choir clears its collective throat and sings "Old Hundred."—Ladies' Home Journal.

DOVER.
Owing to the numerous heavy rain-falls the last two weeks the roads are very rough.
Nearly all the corn in the vicinity is up and looking remarkably well. Some of the farmers have their crops cultivated.
The ladies of Richmond Presbyterian Church gave a picnic in Mr. Mc-

Woman's Weakness
A woman's reproductive organs are in the most important and continuous sympathy with her kidneys. The slightest disorder in the kidneys brings about a corresponding disease in the reproductive organs. Dodd's Kidney Pills, by restoring the kidneys to their perfect condition, prevent and cure those fearful, often peculiar to women. Kellar's grove last Wednesday. It was a decided success and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Proceeds, over $75.
Rev. Mr. Knowles, of Chatham, preached a very instructive sermon at Richmond's on Sunday to a large congregation from the old familiar text, Rev. 3 and 20.

DARRELL.
Our football team played against the C. B. C. team on the Darrell grounds Tuesday, 3rd, result, nothing. A good lively game was played, the visiting team being entertained by the ladies of Darrell, after which they started home singing "We are all jolly good fellows."
Crops are looking their best at present; the rains have bestowed a beautiful color to every plant and tree.
Death has again made a call on our neighborhood. Mr. Sam. Wicks passed away Thursday night and was buried in Maple Leaf Cemetery Sunday, the 8th. The deceased was the youngest son of the late Elijah Wicks who died in Chatham last winter. He had an attack of la grippe about two years ago, from which he never fully recovered, and has been failing for some months. The sympathies of friends and neighbors are extended to his bereaved wife and mother in their trouble. The funeral was very large.
We have also to announce the sad and sudden death of Ella, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Peter French, Prince Albert Road. About seven years since she was married to Mr. Dawson Brook, Rheumatism was the primary cause of her death. She leaves a young son of six years and an infant daughter of two days. Death came suddenly June 7th, in the evening. Mrs. F. French arrived a short-time before the end. The funeral took place Monday to the Arnold Cemetery.
We are sorry to hear that Miss Savina Pugh is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. We hope she will soon be better.
Miss A. Jinks is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. Sales, Merlin.
Mr. Bruce Fisher made a visit to his old home last week.

PORT LAMBTON.
A. Dawson has sold his blacksmith shop to Mr. Manley Stubs, of Wilkesport.
M. Sweeney, of the Hotel Victoria, has offered to lease two lots to Mr. Stubs for ten years for locating his blacksmith shop on in order to have room to add a woodwork department and build a shed for farmers teams.
The first band concert of the season will be run from Chatham Monday, June 16.
W. D. Cleary has moved out to his cottage.
J. W. Greece has placed the D. C. McDonald cottage on its blocks in line with the other cottages both sides of it. This adds very much to the front appearance of Bellevue.
The Lake Erie have agreed to make the stop at Bellevue for the cottagers this season, but state that they cannot extend this favor beyond this season.
E. Tomlin, the bustling merchant of Sombra, visited relatives here for the first time since the concert last season, and was very much surprised to see so many fine cottages added to the front already this season.

The opening band concert excursion of the season will be given Monday June 14th. Chatham, Dresden, and Wallaceburg will be pleased to hear of the early opening of these excursions this season. The dance floor is being put in good order. The covering for the floor will be completed by the 16th and the grounds will be well lighted up. A spectators floor ten feet wide will be added to the dance pavilion and nobody but those participating in the dance will give the village people and summer resorters one hour of amusement after the excursion train leaves at 10 p. m. It is expected that the excursion train will arrive at eight o'clock, thus giving the excursionists two hours for band music and dancing.
A. Skirving, the L. E. & D. R. R. detective, visited our village Tuesday.
Miss Edna Johnson spent Sunday with her aunt in Port Huron.
Miss Tillie Jackson has returned home from Detroit.
Miss A. C. Burns, of Cincinnati, has arrived to prepare for the summer resorters. The carpenters are adding an addition to the Ohio Cottage, which will accommodate 50 guests this season.
Miss A. Morris and her sister, Mrs. McAuley, of Chatham, are spending a few days at home.
Byron Aikins is visiting friends at Tupperville.
James and Chester McDonald report a pleasant time with friends at Bethel last week.
Mr. Chamberland, who has charge of the St. Clair Flats shooting ground for the Canada Club, visited Lambton last Thursday.
Wm. McNarnie, who built the new residence for Customs Officer Mickle, has finished his work and Mr. Mickle is moving in. This is a fine addition to the river front residences.

RUTHERFORD.
Rain in abundance now.
The boys practice football three times a week.
The Township Council met here the last Saturday in May. Business was done in a satisfactory manner.
John Goulet and Wm. Christner spent last Saturday at our town.
Ray and Miss Ethel Stebbins and Mr. and Mrs. Healy attended the wedding of Miss Wilcox, North Thamesville, June 5th.
Simon Burns has purchased a windmill.
Mr. Wallen is venerating his house.
Mr. Bunts has purchased some cattle.

An Interception.
The prayer meeting was held at good Brother W.'s house on the hill. The meeting had progressed, and prayer and remarks and hymns had occupied the time. The act of closing had almost arrived. The dominie in a low voice said: "Now there is just a moment left. Jan't there some one who would like to fill in that moment before we close?" There was dead silence when in the twinkling of an eye a door on the clock flew open, and out popped the head of a little bird, which said, "Cuckoo!"

Prunes.
Dr. Hanson, writing on the subject of prunes, says: "A pound of prunes is equivalent as food to a gallon of milk and costs but a quarter as much. It is about equivalent to a pound of bread, but is far more healthful. Considered from an economic standpoint, no fresh meat, fish, milk or eggs can be provided for the same moderate cost, and none of them contains, even approximately, the same aggregate of nutritive elements."
Douglas Jerrold in School.
Douglas Jerrold wrote "Black Eyed Susan" when he was twenty-one and contributed to Punch lectures the immensely popular "Carnegie Lectures" not long afterward. But at nine years of age young Jerrold had been scarcely able to read, and it was not until he was apprenticed to a printer, after serving for some time as a midshipman at sea, that he showed either desire or capacity for intellectual improvement.

Two Mindedness.
High mindedness and right mindedness may profitably be supplemented by "two mindedness," which has been defined as the habit of taking into account what is urged on both sides and trying to combine the essential parts of the two opposing arguments into one higher truth. Magnanimity, honesty, breadth—a trio of qualities worth possessing and the last by no means the least.

Pinching the Sympathy.
Grimes—Doesn't it disgust you to see a youngster trying to make a man of himself by imitating the wiles of his elders?
Harris—Not at all. I cannot help sympathizing with the boy, he evidently so thoroughly enjoys making a fool of himself.

Forgot Himself.
She—My husband is a brute.
Friend—All men are brutes, my dear.
She—Mine is simply abominable. I asked him if he did not think you as pretty as I, and he said "Yes."
Nothing is so grand as truth; nothing so forcible, nothing so moral.—Landon.

A RICH WIDOW.
His death, though it would grieve her, had one consoling touch. The thought "How soon he'd leave me!"
Was merged with this: "How much!"

Fine Straw Hats

This straw hat stock has found room for every right new style in sailor and fedora shapes. Staple proportions are here in plenty, and so are the swagger wide-brimmed things that young men take so kindly.

The whole stock—English and American—was bought as only cash and long experience can buy, and every price ticket attests the fact. Both sailor and fedora shapes range from 25c upward. Nearly a dozen styles are here at a quarter and as many at 50c. To-day we note a few of the finer straws—all with fine silk bands and good leather sweatbands—
