

STORY OF SURVIVOR

Woman Doctor of New York Tells Vivid Tale of the Sinking of Ancona

Sub Only 100 yards Away With Two Cannon Which Fired at the Ship.

Paris, Nov. 13.—Passengers aboard the Italian liner Ancona were compelled to seek safety in the boats while the steamer was subjected to a cannonade from the Austrian submarine, according to a graphic story of the sea tragedy told by Dr. Cecilia Griel of New York to the Havas correspondent at Ferrville.

Dr. Griel's story indicates that the torpedo which sent the Ancona to the bottom, was not fired until the steamer had been riddled by shots from the guns of the submarine.

HEARD CANNON "I was in the dining room of the first class passengers," Dr. Griel is quoted as saying, "chatting with some of the voyagers, when we heard the report of a cannon. There was great excitement on deck and men were running here and there. I asked the ship's doctor what was happening, and he replied that he did not know. Then I went on deck myself. I saw through a slight fog a submarine about a hundred yards distant. It was equipped with two cannon, forward and after, which were being fired rapidly. I went down to my cabin to get my papers and there found my maid, who pleaded with me to save her. A cannon shot interrupted our conversation. A shell entered the vessel through the port hole and killed my maid. I took my valise and small hand bag containing valuables, after slowly putting on my hat and coat and went up to the deck with a life belt."

NEVER STOPPED FIRING "During all this time, the submarine had not ceased bombarding the Ancona, not paying the slightest attention to the women, children and men trying to get away. At this moment

British Sub Sunk by Turks

London, Nov. 13.—An official statement given out to-day by the admiralty announces that the British submarine E-20 has probably been sunk by the Turks in the Sea of Marmora. The statement says: "Submarine E-20, which was on detached service in the Sea of Marmora, has not been communicated with since Oct. 30, and it is feared she has been sunk. The enemy has announced that three of her officers and six men of the crew have been taken prisoner."

FRENCH ARE ADVANCING IN THE BALKANS

Entire Serb Force East of Vardar in Danger From New Offensive.

Saloniki, Nov. 11 via Paris, Nov. 12, 11.35 p.m. (delayed in transmission). Reports of the re-occupation of Valandovo by the Bulgarians are declared here to be untrue. The French are said to occupy strongly the region before Valandovo and Labrovo, particularly Hills Nos. 950 and 516, which command Costorino.

The Bulgarians yesterday fired a number of shells on Kivolak from a distance of three miles, destroying an ambulance. The Gradeko railway station also was 'bombarded' but without result. The French are reported to have progressed beyond the Cerna where they were violently, but vainly counter-attacked. French reconnoitering parties succeeded in advancing up the railroad as far as the Vardar bridge head near Babuna Pass. The bridge was destroyed. The books of the Serbian national bank which had been brought here were sent yesterday to Monastir, indicating that the latter place no longer is in danger of capture by the Bulgarians.

Saloniki, Nov. 11 via Paris, Nov. 12, 5.35 p.m. (delayed). The entire Bulgarian force operating west of Vardar has been endangered by simultaneous offensives undertaken by Serbian and French troops, according to advices from the front received here. The Serbs have retaken the offensive in the Supogora district and are reported to have defeated the Bulgars at Katchanik Pass, inflicting such heavy losses that the invaders were demoralized. Two French cavalry raids are said to have cleared the ground between Kivolak and Veles.

British and French reinforcements are arriving at Saloniki in force and are being sent immediately into Serbia.

True Romance.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 13.—A war romance was revealed when Private Leland Anderson reached his home here last night with his bride, a nurse. Badly wounded in the trenches, Anderson was taken to Huddersfield, where he was nursed by Miss Myr Roberts, a charming Welsh girl. They were married at Miss Roberts' home in Wales on October 19. Anderson was discharged from the army on account of his wounds.

Some Record.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 13.—Lieut. J. M. Phegan, of the 15th Belleville regiment, who is attending the provisional school of infantry here, is one of twenty first cousins who have been engaged in this war. A number of them already have been killed.

MOSTYN E. B. CUTCLIFFE APPOINTED COMMANDER OF BRANT BATTALION

Popular Acting Commander of the 38th Dufferin Rifles Will Lead New 125th to the Front—Sixth Battalion Commander From Brantford and Seventh From Brant County.

Capt. Mostyn Cutcliffe, of the well known firm of Turnbull and Cutcliffe has been appointed to the command of the Brant County Battalion, which is proposed to form for service at the front.

The selection will prove very popular and he is in the matter of military knowledge and popularity, eminently fitted for the post. The work of recruiting should now go forward with a bound. There is already quite a large nucleus of volunteers in training here and there can be no doubt that the needed total of a thousand or so will be speedily attained.

Capt. Cutcliffe, when seen by a Courier man, said that he had not yet received any official notification and therefore could say nothing with regard to his staff. It is known that in this respect he has already been literally deluged with offers on the part of those anxious to serve, and that the members of one of the local bands have asked to be taken on en bloc.

Capt. Cutcliffe is the son of the late Mr. J.C. Cutcliffe of Mt. Pleasant. His father came to Canada in 1869 from Devonshire, and resided in the city for some five years, and the Captain was born here. Later, the family removed to a farm in the County. Capt. Cutcliffe has spent all his business life here, and at an early age took an interest in military matters. He first of all joined the Dufferin Rifles in 1894 as a private of "A" Company. He showed such adaptability that within two years he became a corporal and then sergeant. Finally he was promoted to be lieutenant of "B" Company, and later became Captain of "H" Company, which in fact he organized. He was also latterly Acting Adjutant and when Colonel Genet left, he received the command of the Dufferin Rifles. He successfully passed a field officers' course at Niagara Camp last summer and holds a Field Officers' certificate. In all departments of military life and activity he has most emphatically made good and without any question will equally do so in his new post.

UNIQUE RECORD. The appointment of Capt. Cutcliffe as the head of a battalion adds still further to the unique record of the Dufferin Rifles in this essential as he is the sixth to be selected from that regiment. The list reads—Col. Howard, Col. E. C. Ashton, Col. M. Colquhoun, Col. Nelles Ashton, Col. H. Genet, and Col. Cutcliffe. In addition Col. Brooks, who is a near-by resident of the city in the county has also a command.

Taking Officers' Training Course

The following Brantford men leave to-day or to-morrow for Toronto to take a course there to qualify for a commission: Lieutenant Harold B. Preston, M. F. Verity, Fred Grobb, F. Bixel, K. Woodyard, B. M. Palmer, H. M. Bell and S. W. Seago; Sergeants: Arthur Hart, Royal Jackson, Alton Hanna, Pte. George Asworthy. The sergeants and privates take the sergeant's course.

JOFFRE IS IN COMMAND OF ALLIED ARMIES

Indications are That This Will Smooth Out All Troubles.

New York, Nov. 13.—The Herald publishes the following: That General Joffre, commander-in-chief of the French armies, has been placed in supreme control of the fighting forces of the allied armies, is indicated by confidential advices said to have been received at the Imperial Russian consulate in this city yesterday. That the French general soon would take this post, if he does not already hold it, has been a report reaching New York from London. More than two months ago, an Englishman, who is in a position to know, asserted during a trip here, that Sir John French soon would be ordered to take his commands from General Joffre.

Strength was added to the assertion by Gen. Joffre's trip to England followed soon by Lord Kitchener's hurried trip to the east. From what has been learned, it is said that General Joffre made it clear to the British authorities that an undivided management would be required to avoid consequences similar to those that happened in the Franco-British operations during the last advance, when British units in the van found themselves unsupported in the vicinity of Loos and might have been a great victory fell short of its goal because "some one had blundered."

It has been reported frequently that there has been friction between Sir John French and General Joffre. It also has been said that between Lord Kitchener and the Grand Duke Nicholas there was some disagreement. With the Grand Duke in the east and Lord Kitchener on his way there, where they might have to co-operate, the fact that they were both under the command of one man, it is said, might have a soothing effect.

It is diplomatically expected an official announcement of General Joffre's appointment as commander-in-chief of the armies of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy soon will be published.

Winston Churchill Intends to Defend His Actions During Last Year.

London, Nov. 13.—Winston Spencer Churchill, formerly first lord of the admiralty, whose retirement from the cabinet was officially announced last night, intends to explain the reason for his resignation at the sitting of the House of Commons on Monday. According to The Times' parliamentary correspondent, Mr. Churchill will review the war operations of the admiralty during his term as first lord and will justify the expedition to Antwerp and the Dardanelles.

"Mr. Churchill's great gifts and vivid imagination," the newspaper says, "have been amply demonstrated in his decade of office and there are few who would venture to predict his permanent withdrawal from public life."

Civil Servant Recruits Draw Only One Salary

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—An order-in-council has been passed providing that from November 1 civil servants enlisting for overseas service will draw their pay as civil servants only during the employment of substitutes. It is also provided that in those cases where civil service pay is continued the amount of military pay will be deducted. In any case only those in the service at the beginning of the war will leave under these conditions for service overseas. When the war broke out the Government undertook to continue the salaries of their employees while on active service, but this has proven very expensive, as in many cases a substitute has had to be employed while the absentee was drawing his salary as a civil servant and his pay as a soldier.

WITH ALL HONORS

Body of Sir Charles Tupper Will be Received at Quebec To-morrow.

Military Guard of Honor, Also Aldermen of Quebec Will Attend.

Quebec, Nov. 13.—With full military, civil and municipal honors the body of the late Sir Charles Tupper will be received here to-morrow Sunday morning, when it arrives on the liner Metagama that is now on the last stretch of her trans-Atlantic voyage, steaming up the St. Lawrence. It is expected the boat will dock here about 3 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The ceremonies of taking the bodies of the late surviving father of Confederation from the dock to the I. C. R. station at Levis, whence it will be taken to Halifax for burial, will be wholly appropriate to the standing of the illustrious Tupper whose role was so prominent in Canadian history. When the Metagama docks to-morrow, she will fly her flags at half mast and the flags on the immigration and other public and private buildings on the route of the procession will also fly at half mast. A military guard of honor comprising some one hundred men under arms will form the immediate escort of the body while the entire route, stretching over a mile, from the Metagama's docks to the Levis ferry boat will be lined with troops under arms, this bodyguard will be made up among the troops actually leaving here for overseas service.

A number of federal ministers are expected to attend, among whom the Hon. M. Caugan, members of the provincial legislature will follow the cortege and the municipal officers will also attend.

As the exact hour of the arrival of the Metagama will be governed by weather conditions, no definite hour has been set, but it is expected it will be arranged to take place Sunday.

Last night the city council unanimously decided that the members will attend in a body and arrange to participate in the demonstration at whatever hour it is to take place. The council last night adopted a resolution expressing the sorrow caused by the death of Sir Charles Tupper.

Little Sister Did It.

Toronto, Nov. 13.—Pedestrians in the vicinity of College and St. George streets Thursday, witnessed a rather unusual incident when a little tot of not more than seven, pushing a go-cart, with baby sister in it and hide brother tugging behind her, attempted to cross the car tracks. In the middle of the tracks, one of the wheels of the go-cart dropped off. A street car was rapidly approaching and the wheel of the little tot's go-cart lay right in its track. With the go-cart on three wheels, the kiddie shoved baby sister and brother to safety as the car sped on. She then hurried back to the car tracks and casually put out her arm for the motorman to stop the car. When the car stopped, she picked up the lost wheel, walked over to her go-cart and with the aid of a passing chauffeur was soon on her way again.

STORM-CENTRE OF BRITISH POLITICS GOES WITH CHURCHILL

No Person Has Been Subject to More Criticism Than Late Lord of the Admiralty, Called Cynically the "Duke of Antwerp and Gallipoli."

New York, Nov. 13.—An association of Press cable from London, says, the figure in British politics has been the target of more criticism since the war started than Winston Spencer Churchill, who has just resigned from the post of Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in the British cabinet, and is now about to join the army in France. Mr. Churchill assumed the least important position in the cabinet, that of the chancellorship of the duchy of Lancaster when the coalition ministry was formed last May after having held the most important post of the cabinet. Incidentally Mr. Churchill's change of office did not reduce the flood of criticism which starts as a rule from public statements which older men call at least indiscreet. He will be 41 on Monday, Nov. 30, but according to his critics he does not acquire discretion with years. Rightly or wrongly Churchill has been blamed if solely responsible for the inadequacy of the British relief of Antwerp, a military movement that brought little relief to the Belgians and ended with the interment of a large part of the British marine expedition in Holland. Similarly he has had the brunt of the public censure for the attempt to force the Dardanelles without the help of the army, a failure which up to date has produced a British casualty list of approximately 100,000 men. It is logically unreasonable to place upon his young shoulders the complete responsibility for both of these undertakings which could not have been made without the approval of big older cabinet associates, but public criticism is least of all things logical and he is termed with unrelenting cynicism "the Duke of Antwerp and Gallipoli."

MR. CHURCHILL HAS RESIGNED FROM CABINET

Intends Going to the Front, So He Tells Premier in a Letter.

London, Nov. 12.—It is officially announced that Winston Spencer Churchill, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, has resigned from the cabinet and will join the army in France.

MR. CHURCHILL'S LETTER. The following letters have passed between Premier Asquith and Mr. Churchill: "When I left the Admiralty five months ago I accepted an office of few duties at your request, to take part in the work of the War Council, and assist the new Ministers with the knowledge of current operations."

"I make no complaint that your scheme should have been changed. My work in the Government comes naturally to a close."

"I have a clear conscience, which enables me to bear my responsibility for past events with composure. Time will vindicate my administration of the Admiralty and assign to me my share in the vast series of preparations and operations which give us command of the seas."

"Signed) Winston Churchill." THE PREMIER'S REPLY. Premier Asquith replied to Mr. Churchill as follows: "I had hoped you would reconsider your decision, and regret to learn from your letter that you have not felt able to do so."

"THE HOUSE OF QUALITY AND GOOD VALUE"

WITH THE SOLDIERS

ORDERS IN EFFECT NOV. 13TH SATURDAY.
Duties—Captain of the day, Capt. G. D. Lee. Subaltern of the day, Lieut. B. N. Barrett. Next for duty, Sunday, the 14th, Captain of the day, Capt. T. A. Taylor. Subaltern of the day, Lieut. D. S. Bartle.

Quartermaster's Dept.—Capt. H. Duggan, the Battalion Quartermaster, has just arrived from Oshawa where he has left the half battalion at that place comfortably settled down. They were given a rousing reception, and the ladies of the town tried to outdo their sisters in Brantford with the dainty pies, etc. temptingly served to the hungry men and the ladies did enjoy themselves to their heart's content. The quarters there are every thing to be desired, and the messing arrangements are of the best and rapidly working into precision before he left. The arrival of Capt. Duggan to put the finishing touches to the excellent work performed by his assistant (Q. M. S. Tombs) is a welcome addition to the staff at Brantford.

Medical Officer.—The Battalion Medical Officer, Capt. A. J. McGarity also arrived to-day from Oshawa. The presence of the Doctor with the Staff is an added stimulus to the already thriving exactness of detail insisted upon by the O. C., as the sanitary arrangements and health of the troops must be the first consideration in any well organized battalion, and Capt. McGarity is an adept in his profession. His assistant, Lance Sergeant Bromley, has been conducting the medical officers duties in the absence of his captain at Oshawa, and merits all praise for his splendid devotion and admirable manner in which he has upheld the confidence the medical officer placed upon him. Capt. McGarity has no complaints, but his presence with us will surely be marked.

Discharged from Hospital.—Sergt. W. J. Coon Privates N. Bailey, E. Heath, O. Fraser, J. Bain and Stephen Pearce. No men were admitted to Hospital to-day.

Paymaster's Dept.—Pay Sergeant J. R. Miller left for Oshawa to-day to take muster roll of the half Battalion stationed there preparatory to writing up the semi-monthly pay cheques, which will be distributed the early part of next week.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS
FIGHT IN EAST AFRICA

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—A German flag which Winnipeg soldiers hauled down from the Governor-General's palace in Bakabo, German East Africa, when they captured the city is on display here in Winnipeg.

Major John S. Leitch, a Winnipeg officer, had charge of the operation the day the town was occupied, and also received the enemy's flag, and also the sword of the commanding officer, who surrendered to him. The Major went to England with the first Canadian contingent, but was transferred, along with 290 other Canadians, to the Royal Fusiliers, in the Imperial Army. They were sent to Africa, and took part in the operation against the German East African army.

Bokabo was stormed and captured on Sept. 22. In writing home to his wife regarding the battle, Major Leitch said: "In the operations mentioned I had command of the firing line both days. My company was the first to land from the ships, and had to drive back the enemy and occupy the shore and ridges, so as to cover the safe landing of the balance of the troops.

"The hill we stormed was a high one. Our Company led the charge, and we had to cross nearly a mile of open plains, then wade through a marsh and river up to the necks and then go up the hill and at the Germans. The company did splendidly. It took here perfectly, and in the charge, yelled his '——' and went right for the foe."

Bakabo is situated on Lake Nyanza, and the operations against the Germans were carried out by means of small gunboats and several regiments of infantry. The work is very difficult, Major Leitch writes.

ALEXANDRA SCHOOL

A Short History of the Alexandra School, Some of Whose Pupils are Shown Here.

ALEXANDRA SCHOOL, situated at the corner of Darling and Peel streets, used to be known as the old East Ward School. It was remodelled some nine years ago and now contains twelve spacious rooms and a kindergarten. The school roll contains the names of some 600 pupils, and there are fourteen teachers. Mr. W. E. Foster, the Principal, came to Brantford from Guelph in 1908. He started teaching when quite a young man, having charge of a county school in South Simcoe. Later on he was in Barrie eight years as principal, then at Merrittton in a like capacity for about four years, a few months in Guelph and then here. Mr. Foster has demonstrated in a marked degree the qualities which make for a successful discharge of his duties, and he has very able associates in Miss Bunnell, Mr. Woltz, Miss Gotherpe, Miss-Howden, Miss Grace, Miss Bell, Miss Morice, Miss Holtermann, Miss Hunt, Miss Stedman, Miss Ritchie, Miss Wilson and Miss Elsie Senn.

There is a strong cadet corps in the school, and they drill every Friday afternoon and oftentimes after school at nights. They have ranked well in the shooting, winning first prize last year and this—Lloyd Colquhoun and Hugh Sisson. On Friday afternoon when the boys are drilling the girls do knitting and calisthenics.

The offices at the school are exceptionally fine. There is a large rest room for the lady teachers, and the principal's office is the best in the city, and for that matter probably in the Province.

The Diamond
From the Sky
By ROY L. MCCARDELL
Copyright, 1915, by Roy L. McCardell

And Arthur, in the foolish impulsive generosity of his nature, promised.
The relief he felt at seeing Blair alive placed him in the mood to promise anything that Blair might ask.
Then, too, with an inward shame, he realized that after all he was an impostor and stood in Blair's way, and yet he could not bring himself to be despised of Blair should he tell him the Stanley secret.
The spirits of Blair rose correspondingly. With Arthur gone, suspicion would forever rest upon the hidden fugitive! Blair heaved a sigh of relief and then said to Arthur, "You do not know my mother's cousin, Mrs. Burton Randolph, who gives the grand ball in Richmond tonight. Come, let us have one fling, one good time together, in memory of the old days at Stanley hall before you go to the west. I will introduce you under any name you choose." There is a stunning young New York widow—lots of money and style about her—I want you to meet.
She's just my style and I want your approval of her."
Arthur hesitated a moment and then realized that if the pursuit were still hot on his trail the last place he would be sought for would be at a high society function. So he shook hands with Blair and exclaimed heartily:
"I'll go, Blair! One good fling before I go west to make my fortune.
And if I make it, Blair, I promise you that you shall share it."
For Arthur all his generous impulses were now founded on the desire to

Hagar's Half Servant, Half Bodyguard, Luke Lovell.

recompense Blair for the heritage he had, unknowingly till now, deprived him of, and Arthur was young. For him the strong, brotherly affection he bore for Esther and the desire in his heart to do justice to Blair were now the main motives of his life. And he would have this farewell joyance with Blair.
Blair took him first to Abraham Bloom's private "club," and here, despite Arthur's wisest counsels, counsels the wisdom of which he now wondered at himself, Blair plunged again at roulette and lost the money he had got on his watch at the pawnbroker's and half of what Arthur had got from the same source on the diamond from the sky, of which, of course, Blair knew nothing.
Up to Richmond that night of Mrs.
Randolph's ball came Hagar. She brought with her Esther, from whom she was resolved never again to be parted. Hagar brought also as half servant, half bodyguard her lieutenant in her gypsy queenship, Luke Lovell.
Tom Blake, the detective, returned to Richmond at her summons and met her. It took but few inquiries with the means at Blake's command to locate Blair Stanley, cutting a swath in Richmond's gayest circles. It was with surprise Hagar learned, and a happy surprise, too, that Blair Stanley was alive and seemingly uninjured she while Arthur had believed he had killed him.
Later in the evening Blake brought her word that Arthur was with Blair under an assumed name and that it was evident was going to the Randolph ball with Blair that night.
On many occasions the thrifty Hagar had turned such fashionable functions as the Randolph ball to good account.
She knew the idle rich welcomed the diversion of the impromptu appearance of a gypsy fortune teller on such occasions. As a gypsy fortune teller she determined to appear and confront Arthur and get the diamond ere he left Richmond to make his way in the world.

Roumania and the European War
