

SYSTEM IS THE BASIS OF BUSINESS
Keep everything in its place.
The best system for business is the NATIONAL CASH REGISTER SYSTEM.
Office: 67 Yonge-street.

TWELFTH YEAR.

FOR-TEEN NEWS OF A NIGHT.

THE COLLISION OF A RAILWAY NEAR WARRAW.

A Barring Ship Wrecked on Rocks, Where the Crew Remained for Three Months The Royal Plate Placed on the rails of a State Passenger given at George's Hall.

LONDON, July 8.—Emperor William this afternoon took leave of the Queen and left for London, where he will occupy a suite of apartments at Buckingham Palace. The chief of the Emperor's visit to London was to present this evening at the grand "Command" performance at the Royal Italian Opera.

The gala opera performance on which was the finest spectacle ever witnessed in London. The interior of the theatre was lavishly festooned with roses, and on the front of each of the two hundred boxes was a bouquet of flowers thrown into a rose. Several thousand pounds were spent for flowers alone.

The royal box, consisting of boxes thrown into a rose located at the centre of the first tier, was a masterpiece of yellow and gold stucco, surmounted by an enormous gilded eagle. The audience was composed of the best known aristocracy. The men were in uniform, or court dress. The women were in the diadems, the display of which was unprecedented. It was after 9 o'clock when the Emperor and the Empress, accompanied by the Emperor's children, arrived at the theatre.

Tomorrow the Emperor and his party and the Royal Italian Opera will give the "Golden Legend" at the Albert Hall, and the same day the Imperial travelling company will depart for London. The great event for London of the Emperor's visit will be the passage from Buckingham Palace to the next of the Emperor and his party on their way to Guild Hall. Business along the route of the procession will be locally suspended, and windows overlooking the route are being high priced.

Served Up in Gold.
LONDON, July 8.—A banquet was given in St. George's Hall last evening, upon which was displayed gold candlesticks and the whole of the table, valued at £1,500,000. Besides a full muster of royalties there were present Lord Salisbury, Lord Kimberley, Lord Hatzfeldt, the Russian Ambassador, Lord Hartington, the Duke and Duchess of Portland.

ALLEGED HOME RULE.
Lord Salisbury Will Appeal to the Country on This Issue.
Dunlop-Dalziel Cables.
LONDON, July 8.—Lord Salisbury has finally decided that he will make his appeal to the country on the question of local government for Ireland, the measure completing the legislative program of the Conservative Party. The other members of his administration constitute the record on which he will base his claims for a new lease of power.

Chief Secretary Balfour is confident that the passage of the Irish Land Purchase Bill will pave the way for the success of the Government Home Rule measure which will be introduced on the resumption of Parliament early in January. Balfour will pay the way for the success of the Government Home Rule measure which will be introduced on the resumption of Parliament early in January. Balfour will pay the way for the success of the Government Home Rule measure which will be introduced on the resumption of Parliament early in January.

Russia in Afghanistan.
LONDON, July 8.—A Calcutta dispatch says that much anxiety has been caused in India by the discovery that Russian marching troops have been seen in the northwestern part of Afghanistan. The exact route is not yet known.

Deaths of Royalty.
LONDON, July 8.—Prince Christian lunced to-day with the Kaiser, the Prince of Wales and other German and English royal personages. After lunch they all embarked on launches and proceeded up the Thames.

Schools for Workpeople.
LONDON, July 8.—The Berlin Social Democrats are so well pleased with their schools for working people that efforts are being made to extend the system to other large cities of Germany.

Fortifying Heligoland.
BERLIN, July 8.—The Emperor has ordered that work on the proposed fortification of Heligoland shall be begun next week. The work will be supervised by the officer who had charge of the fortifications of Meyer.

They Will Try to Agree.
LONDON, July 7.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir James Ferguson said that communications had passed between Great Britain and France respecting the maintenance of the status quo in the Mediterranean, but the communications are not suitable for publication.

The Ritualistic Case.
LONDON, July 8.—The appeal of the Bishop of Lincoln against the decision of the Archbishop of Canterbury in regard to ritualistic practices was heard to-day in the House of Lords for some time, was concluded today. Judgment was reserved.

A Prophecy Fulfilled.
VIENNA, July 8.—Some contastation has been caused at Iskra, a flourishing town in the north of Ireland having intimate connections with the discovery of a ledger among the papers of the town.

Three Children Run to Death.
BOZEMAN, July 8.—William Voigt's house at Bozeman was set on fire by lightning last night and his three children perished in the ruins. Voigt was severely burnt trying to save his children.

Chat From Over the Sea.
The Education Bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons to-day. The flow of lava from Mount Vesuvius has increased. The lava has now reached the Anchorage line. The lava has now reached the Anchorage line. The lava has now reached the Anchorage line.

The Dudley Jewels.
LONDON, July 8.—Edward Wilkinson, clerk, confessed to-day that he was instrumental in stealing the Countess of Dudley's jewels which were stolen at the residence of the Countess. Wilkinson says he had two accomplices, one of whom is dead. One of the accomplices, according to Wilkinson's story, attracted the attention of the servant, who was carrying the jewels case, while the other stole the jewels. The latter, he says, was subsequently sold at Amsterdam, and the Wilkinson received $10,000 as his share of the robbery. Wilkinson was remanded to enable the police to make further investigation.

So All for Home To-Day.
LONDON, July 8.—Hon. Messrs. Merrett and Sneyd arrived in London last night from France and left this afternoon for Liverpool, whence they will start for the Irish Parliament to-morrow. Merrett expresses complete satisfaction with the result of his mission. He says that the temporary loan of four million dollars, which he negotiated with the Credit Lyonnais and the Banque de Paris et de Pays Bas, will enable the Government to proceed with its program of public works, etc.

Poison in the Mincefoot.
BERLIN, July 8.—The carpenter named Nume at Witten, after partaking freely of mincefoot at dinner, was taken with symptoms of poisoning and was soon prostrated in January. His wife, the mother and the father and two children have died from the effects of the poison, while the mother and three remaining children are in a dying condition.

Bark on Fire at Sea.
LONDON, July 8.—A dispatch from Australia, New Zealand, reports that the bark Campana, bound from Callara to Chili, recently caught fire at sea. After an effective effort to extinguish the flames, the captain steered his course for Bluff Harbor, where a tremendous barometer overtook her and drove her on to the uninhabited Auckland Island. The crew reached the shore by swimming, and spent 100 days there, suffering terribly from exposure and starvation.

IT IS AS "FALSE AS HELL!"

PLEASANTIES INDULGED IN THE HOUR YESTERDAY.

Minister Powell Denies that He Gave His Order—Deepening and Enlarging the St. Lawrence Canal—The Retention of Mr. Oler.

OTTAWA, July 8.—In the House to-day Sir Hector Langview said in reply to Mr. Conway's question as to the Public Works Department in the Tarte enquiry in order to elicit all the facts. If it were found to inculcate any one they would assume the role of public prosecutor.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Oler's Retention.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the retention of Mr. Oler, who
was appointed to the position of Minister
of the Interior in the late Government.
Mr. Oler's retention was supported by
several members of the Opposition, who
claimed that he was a man of high
character and ability.

Deepening and Enlarging the
St. Lawrence Canal.
OTTAWA, July 8.—The House to-day
discussed the proposed deepening and
enlarging of the St. Lawrence Canal.
The project was supported by several
members of the Opposition, who
claimed that it was a necessary
measure for the development of the
St. Lawrence Valley.

SEA KILLING.

A New Prayer Book and Other Important Matters Discussed.

BALTIMORE, July 8.—The central conference of American rabbis was in session here yesterday. The deliberations were concluded last night. It was decided to meet next year in New York city. There was lively discussion regarding the necessity for a new prayer book. Rev. Max Heller of New Orleans said a prayer book compiled by the rabbis of the United States would be a great benefit to the Jewish people.

Rev. Dr. Max Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

Papers treating on the question of the cir-
cumcision of proselytes to the Jewish faith
were read by Rev. Dr. Heller and Dr.
Schwab of Chicago were read by Secretary
Seligman. These papers, which were referred
to the committee, will be discussed at the
annual convention.

Rev. Dr. Heller of Albany, N.Y.,
presented a paper on "Cremation, from the
Jewish Standpoint," in which he said crema-
tion is the only rational method of disposing
of the dead.

THE OPERATOR IN A CHAIR.

And Endeavored to Blow Open the Station Safe—During Burglary at Stratford.

STRAITFORD, July 8.—About 1:30 this morning, as Mr. E. H. Kinder, night operator at the G.T.R. station here, was about to enter his office at the station, after having turned the key, he suddenly perceived a man upon the stairs, who was sending him and pushed him into the ticket office. They then defended that he should at once open the safe, two of them holding him between them, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.

The burglar, who was wearing a dark
coat and a hat, pushed him into the ticket
office, and ordered him to open the safe.
The burg

