A real dressy sweater in shades Lovat, Brown and Camel. See this Special, $2.75 a garment, all sizes.—Swifts.

After reading some of the arguments in favor of the O. T. A. one would think that all the Western Provinces were "hells on earth." Turning to the Moderation League statements depicting present conditions in Ontario, we must hide our own face in shame! However it will all be over after the vote today, and each province will continue the march of progress in its own way.

We have some large bills to pay and need every dollar we can get. Please call and pay your account not later than Nov. 1st.—P. Dodds.

Those citizens who have been sitting on the fence, as it were, watching the antics of the "wet" and "dry" forces in the plebiscite campaign, were assured at the outset that each side would conduct their arguments in a fair, tolerant way and that the campaign would be clean. After reading the literature broadcasted and advertising in some of the daily newspapers during the past few weeks, it is quite evident that the sin of exaggeration and the flaying of personalities were indulged in by both sides.

See Swift's window display of Sweaters, with marked value.

The fifty-first anniversary of the Watford Presbyterian church was celebrated with special services on Oct. 12th, when the special preacher for the day was the Rev. George A. Little, B. A., D. William Fitzgerald handed us a box of big luscious raspberries picked from his garden on Wednesday, October 22nd seems rather late for July fruit but is just another reminder of the California weather we have here in Old Ontario. While we read of our neighbors in Quebec having steady snowstorms, friends up around Superior cutting holes in the ice to fish, we natives of the South-west peninsula (as Kingsville and Leamington say, "farther south than half the United States") calmly walk out amid our flower gardens and berry patch and pick fragrant bouquets and luscious fruit for tea. Now watch it snow!

We have a complete stock of glass, all sizes, also weather strip for cold weather. We will be pleased to show you. P. Dodds.

ENTHUSIASTIC PROHIBITION MEETING IN LYCEUM

A rousing mass meeting in the interests of the Ontario Temperance Act was held in the Lyceum Theatre, on Tuesday evening, when, in spite of unfavorable weather conditions, a large audience gathered and listened with keen interest to the addresses given.

The principal speaker, Rev. Geo. T. Watts, B. D. of London, was delayed en route by battery trouble with his car, and had to wait for another car to be sent out from London to bring him on to Watford and arrived nearly two hours late, but the large audience sat patiently throughout the long evening with their interest unabated.

Sanford Stapleford, President of the local organization, presided over the meeting, and stirring addresses were given by Rev. S. J. Thompson and Rev. H. V. Workman; and a set of lantern pictures, bearing upon the campaign, were shown by Rev. T. De Courcy Rayner, who had already shown them at the Prohibition Rally in the Town Hall, Warwick Village, earlier in the evening.

A meeting of the Prohibition Executive was held Wednesday evening, when final plans for bringing out the vote were completed, and scrutineers appointed for each of the polling divisions.

The workers are confidently expecting an overwhelming majority in favor of the continuance of the O. T. A. in this section of the Province.

Thieves Again Visit P. Dodds' Store

BIG HAUL IN SHOES

About $700 Worth of Best Shoes in Stock Taken from the Store on Sunday Night.

P. J. Dodds' general store was visited by thieves for the second time within two months on Sunday night, when they succeeded in getting away with over 125 pairs of shoes.

Entrance was gained by removing the pane of glass from the cellar window under the hardware department and removing the hinge screws on the cellar door leading to the hardware, from which they walked through to the shoe department.

Only the best lines of ladies shoes and pumps, men's fine shoes and large size boy's shoes were taken. The thieves apparently knew what they were after and selected boxes here and there throughout the stock. The shoes were all removed from their boxes, packed in bags and the empty boxes left in a huge pile in the centre of the floor to greet the eye of Mr. Dodds when he opened the store Monday morning.

Nothing was taken from the hardware dept. but a handful of jack-knives and scissors and a few boxes of cartridges which were probably picked up as an afterthought while leaving.

The whole job was done so systematically and thoroughly that indications point to an organized gang who knew just where to come, how to get in and just what to take.

Police in surrounding cities were notified on Monday morning, but as yet no developments have been made.

This is the second time within two months that thieves have visited the Dodds store. It was entered the last night of Old Home Week in August while the celebration was at its height in a neighboring block and considerable money removed from the till.

METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA CELEBRATE 100 YEARS OF SERVICE

The Methodist Church of Canada is celebrating this year the 100th anniversary of its organization as a separate church. In August 1824 the first Canadian Conference was held at Hallows, Ontario. At this Conference, the Missionary Society was organized and its first Missionaries appointed, "To The Indians and Settlements." The gifts of the first year, amounting, we are told, to $144, made it possible to provide services in destitute settlements and among the Indians. The first missionaries were sent to places no more remote than the Niagara peninsula. Today the Methodist Church of Canada have more than 1000 men and women in the Mission fields at home and abroad. Last year the income of the society was over $1,000,000. In connection with the celebration, a great convention has been arranged for in Massey Hall, Toronto, when 2,500 delegates are expected. Speakers of international repute will be there. The greatest Missionary exhibit will be shown in the basement, and a pageant will be put on, showing the 100 years of glorious service. Railway fare to Toronto will be first class single to Toronto, and 1/2 fare return. The Convention will be held from Tuesday, Nov. 4th to Thursday 6th.

"Squibographs"

A Seattle baby has been named Renfrew in honor of the Prince of Wales.

Canada is willing to sell her equity in Wrangel Island for cold cash or its equivalent in walrus hides.

The Prince of Wales is said to wear at least ten different styles of hats. Unlike many less distinguished men he does not talk through any of them.

Unlike King Herod, the Chinese general who offers a liberal reward for the head of an enemy commander does not insist on having it served on a charger.

Much bloodshed and powder would be saved if the leaders of the warring factions in China would engage in a mah jongg tournament. Winner to take all.

Citizens of eastern cities that recently returned to standard time can now look a clock straight in the face without doing an exercise in mental arithmetic to ascertain the right time.

A prisoner in a Detroit jail was sentenced to serve thirty days, the sentence to date from his committal. As he had been in prison for thirty-five days he is demanding pay for serving overtime.

A monument to the world's "pickle king" is to be unveiled in Pittsburgh next month. It is presumed that it will be composed of "57 varieties" of stone.

A race of rats kept on a strict vegetarian diet at Leland Stanford University became extinct in three generations. Deprived of their breakfast food and cheese the rodents lost all interest in life.

To prevent freezing of water in the radiators of automobiles it is common in the East to add considerable alcohol. This practice would scarcely justify the charge that the cars are operated under the influence of liquor.

The throngs of customers patronizing a Detroit garage aroused the suspicion of the dry law, enforcement officers. Investigation disclosed that it was pumping beer instead of gasoline.

Admirers of Marshal Hindenburg recently presented the old warrior with a mess of eels. They would have been of great service to the veteran commander during the war, helping him to squirm out of tight places.

Nothing that Secretary Hughes wore his whiskers cut VanDyke on his return from Europe, a Kansas paper regards it as a warning to the United States to keep out of that continent if it doesn't want to get trimmed.

A French court has decided that girls must have their father's permission to bob their hair. The court also intimated that wives should have their husband's approval before having their tresses sheared. According to this ruling paterfamilias has control of the family pates.

Many of the moving picture comedy artists must be employed as waiters at the Wembley fair. It is estimated that thirty thousand pieces of crockery, weighing nearly five tons, are broken every six days by waiters and patrons of the exhibition restaurants.

A Philadelphia woman, who secured a decree of separation from her husband and possession of the home, complains that he insists on coming to the house every night to wind up the clock. The court advised her to remove the weights from the clock and buy a wrist watch.

Chinese rebels are leaving no stone unturned to win the war. They are dropping bombs on the ancient Chinese wall.

A Seattle couple has accepted a challenge to go out into the woods and live for a week with no other aid but a jackknife. Until the tempter appeared our first parents enjoyed life in the primeval forest for years without either cutlery or clothes.

The "three thousand miles without a gun" so often referred to by after-dinner orators describing the border between Canada and the U. S. does not include the countless miles of red tape at the immigration offices that restrict international intercourse.

For the purpose of demonstrating the latest scientific methods of the essential art of baking, a strictly modern plant has been installed in the Ontario Agricultural College. Good mixers who complete the course may be awarded the "B. D." degree, bachelor of dough.

It is said to be a custom in Turkey where honey is highly prized, for families to take their beehives with them when leaving for a holiday trip. When the driver of a flivver is under his car making repairs nothing more annoying could be imagined than to have the bees "swarm" and attach themselves to his person.

Let Old Timer Worry

We heard Old Timer lamenting the other day as follows: "It can't go on; we're headed for trouble. Folks are living beyond their means. They don't work any more. It's golf or joy-ride, air races, foot races, horse races. Always tearin' around in circles and gettin' nowhere." And so on, the poor old simpleton babbled.

There was a time when we, too, thought that people didn't work enough. We shortened the working day to eight hours, with Saturday afternoon off for most of us. That seemed like cutting down production and adding to the cost of living. Then we began to investigate a bit. We found that production was not being cut down. The workers were turning out as much work in eight hours as they did in ten. One day we had occasion to make a trip to another town. In Old Timer's day we would have jogged across country in a buggy drawn by the old greymare. It would have taken the entire day to make the round trip and transact the business in the other town. Today we jumped into an automobile, flew over the roads at thirty miles an hour, transacted the business and was back in our town office an hour before lunch time, with five hours of the eight-hour day to spare. Our new methods of doing business and getting about have saved us hours every week. We used to go to the well and draw water, now we turn a spigot in the wall and the stream pours forth. We went on long errands; today the telephone carries the message in the time it took us to find our hat. In Old Timer's day it took an hour every morning to clean the old coal oil lamps and trim the wicks; the electric light bulb needs no attention for months.

And so it is, if you'll only stop to think. Of course people don't work long hours as they once did. They don't have to. But the fellow who uses his brains is the fellow who is getting ahead. And today, as always, the brain wins the victory over brute strength and old methods. Don't worry about what the world is coming to. Think how you can get the most out of the brief span that is allotted to you. Do your work with your brain and let the Old Timers worry.

THE GUIDE-ADVOCATE

Many mothers can testify to the virtue of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because they know from experience how useful it is.

MARK TWAIN SAID

"Man can't sleep out-of-doors without freezing to death or getting the rheumatism; he can't keep his nose under water over a minute without being drowned. He's the poorest clummiest excuse of all the creatures that inhabit the earth."

"He has to be coddled, housed, and swathed and bandaged to be able to live at all. He is a rickety sort of thing any way you take him—a regular British Museum of infirmities and inferiorities."

"He is always undergoing repairs. A machine as unreliable as he is would have no market."

"The higher animals get their teeth without pain or inconvenience. Man's come through months of cruel torture, at a time when he is least able to bear it. As soon as he gets them they must be pulled out again. The second set will answer for awhile, but he will never get a set that can be depended on till the dentist makes one."

"Man starts in as a child and lives on diseases to the end, as a regular diet. He has mumps, measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, croup, tonsillitis, diphtheria, as a matter of course."

"Afterward, as he goes along, his life continues to be threatened at every turn by colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, quinsy, consumption, yellow fever, blindness, influenza, carbuncles, pneumonia, softening of the brain, and a thousand other maladies of one sort and another."

"He's just a basketful of pestilent corruption, provided for the support and entertainment of microbes. Look at the workmanship of him in some particulars."

"What is his appendix for? It has no value. Its sole interest is to lie in wait for stray grape-seeds and breed trouble."

"What is his beard for? It is just a nuisance. All nations persecute it with the razor. Nature, however, always keeps him supplied with it, instead of putting on his head."

"A man wants to keep his hair. It is a graceful ornament, a comfort, the best protection against weather, and he prizes it above emeralds and rubies, and half the time nature puts it on so it won't stay."

"Man isn't even handsome, as compared with the birds, and as for style, look at the Bengal tiger—that ideal of grace, physical perfection and majesty."

"Think of the lion and the tiger and the leopard, then think of man—that poor thing! The animal of the wig, the ear trumpet, the glass eye, the porcelain teeth, the wooden leg, the silver windpipe—a creature that is mended all over from top to bottom."

"If he can't get renewals of his bric-a-brac in the next world, what will he look like?"

The Fall Weather Hard On Little Ones

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ontario.

Put Your Contract in the Body of the Note OR YOU MAY BE SORRY

A Smooth Fraud Revealed in Welland, Whereby Twelve Merchants Lose $2,160 Under Notes Given For a Contract that was Never Fulfilled.

The following story from the Welland Tribune-Telegraph will probably be of general interest, but more particularly to business men who are often confronted by smooth-talking stranger-salesmen of various goods or services who pick out a few towns in each district to stage their game.

There is a valuable moral in this story. Here it is: Never give a promissory note for goods that you are to receive or for services you are to receive for if the person to whom you give the note is worthless, he can fail to deliver the goods or the services, he can dispose of your note to a third party—and then you must pay. Your only protection in such a case would have been to embody all the terms of your agreement or contract in the body of the note itself. Where the agreement or the contract is on one sheet and the note on another the note stands on its own feet and means no more nor no less than the words on the face of it.

These observations are occasioned by a most interesting and most unusual case heard in Division Court here on Thursday. In the decision of Judge Livingstone, a Welland merchant must pay $180 for a dead horse, for a violated contract. Locked in his gate is the fate of eleven other Welland merchants who will be touched for a like amount. Two thousand, one hundred and sixty dollars in all is lifted out of the city, and no value in return.

The story begins a year and a half ago, when an organization known as the Free Travel Bureau hit the town. They had a scheme. It was this: The merchant was to give coupons to each cash customer to the amount of 3 cents on the dollar. These coupons could later be exchanged for railway tickets to Port Robinson, Portadown or Porto Rica or, if the customer preferred, the coupon could be exchanged for cash.

Each merchant was to pay $180 to the Free Travel Bureau and in return for it he was to get: 1. The idea; 2. Store and window displays advertising the idea; 3. Local publicity to the value of $300; 4. The necessary coupons and other paraphernalia of the scheme.

All these things were embodied in a contract and one of the conditions of the contract was that a note was to be given providing twelve monthly payments.

After securing the notes the Free Travel Bureau lost interest in the matter. The local publicity stopped abruptly, when a height of $22.57 had been reached—and the whole thing fell through. The Free Travel Bureau went up the spout. The Graham-Rite Company which handled the publicity for the Free Travel Bureau went up the spout, too. The only thing about the whole affair that did not go up the spout was the notes. These passed to a gentleman whose name has a dim suggestion of Scottish origin—Neil Campbell Cameron. Mr. Cameron invited all and sundry to step forward and pay, an invitation which was heartily scorned.

Hence the Division Court. W. G. Smith was selected as representative of the twelve—the twelve apostles, someone observed in court.

The story as disclosed in court was this: Neil Campbell Cameron was the inventor of the Free Travel Scheme. He sold the idea to the Free Travel Bureau, and was to get $10 per victim as a royalty. When the Free Travel Bureau began to turn pale, Neil reached out for the notes and got them. The Free Travel Bureau could not, of course, recover on the notes, because they had violated the contract. Neil could. So it was a highly desirable arrangement from all angles—except that of the merchant.

John Livingstone held that W. G. Smith would have to pay. Eleven others can take their cue.

Welland, of course, is not the only pebble. The argument revealed a decision by Judge Wismer at Orillia dealing with exactly the same matter. So it is likely a large section of Ontario has been honored with the Free Travel Bureau. The dear public has been touched for thousands upon thousands of dollars.

OUR LETTER BOX

Olds, Alberta, Oct 6, 1924
 Editor, Guide-Advocate—
 We wish to thank the committee of "Watford Old Boys Reunion" for the nicely designed membership badge forwarded to us a short time ago. It gave us much pleasure to read from time to time all the letters from those who were "Going Home"; also the copies of the Guide-Advocate containing a full account of the great home coming, also the fine letters written by absent members, one in particular appealed to me, that of R. A. Minnelly of Dumbfries, Sask., recounting the school days in No. 5, Warwick, 2nd line north. Some of my correspondents have described the beautiful memorial services at the cemetery on Sunday and the enjoyable program the following week. We scattered members enjoyed it almost as much and in our mind's eye saw all the kindly faces of other days.

What a fine sum was realized for the Memorial Fund! It is good to know that in all the rejoicing, those who made the supreme sacrifice for us all have not been forgotten. Next July, Calgary plans to celebrate her jubilee in the form of a great "Old timer's parade, stampeade and fair"; that will be an opportunity for Eastern visitors to see something of this great West as it was and is. A great many Americans are already planning on attending, and Eastern Canadians should not fail to come too. The early scenes are fast passing away in the West and it has become an agricultural country with fine barns, silos, and around the farm house are being planted all kinds of small fruits, strawberries, currants, raspberries, and now some plums and crabapple trees have been reaped in the Olds district this season and over the greater portion of Alberta. The trying times after the war, also the aftermath of the great boom are now passing away and a more wholesome period of substantial progress is now gradually setting in. The lesson has been learned in the West as elsewhere that the "get rich quick" idea is only a gamble. But they who come to Alberta cannot but be impressed with the great possibilities of the wealth of our natural resources, rich agricultural lands, underneath mineral coal, oil, tar sands, the northern wilds full of fur-bearing animals and to the west of the Province the great Rocky Mountain water power flowing in every river and mountain stream, enough electrical power going to waste to drive all the machinery in Canada, only waiting to be harnessed, and set to work manufacturing the vast natural products.

Just a word in closing about our own efforts. My husband is engaged in mixed farming specializing in pure bred draft horses, Percheon and Clyde, dual purpose cattle Red Poles of the Jean DeLuluth type, very little known in Eastern Canada, but well known in the U. S. A. and England. The bacon hog also flourishes on our farm to the number of 300 or so this season. We are enlarging our facilities in this class of stock and hope in another year to raise double that number. Eastern farmers naturally think this must entail a great deal of hand labour, not so with our methods. They are first pastured in one fenced field in the early summer, then turned into a field of oats or rye and finally put in a large corral with self feeders and a plentiful supply of water in troughs, they thus finish themselves for market.

If any of the Old Boys and Girls of Watford and vicinity wish to know more of this part of Alberta, we will answer any questions, or better still come and see it for yourselves. The door of the Samis Home, in the Samis District just north of Olds will always be open to welcome you.

MRS. A. W. SAMIS
 (Isabell Shields, formerly of Warwick.)

Editor's Note:—We thank you, Mrs. Samis, for all your kind words on Old Home Week, for all the interesting information you give us "stay-at-homers" back East about the banner province of the prairies. We hope some day to see the length and breadth of our great West from the head of the lakes to the Coast, but until that time comes, we appreciate the interesting letters forwarded us from time to time by our valued subscribers.

Would it not be interesting to have a Letter Box as a steady feature? May we ask all our readers who are far away from the old home town to write to our Letter Box—teach us a little geography about your new home and give us a few pen pictures for our minds' eye of your scenery, your climate, your progress and all other information with which you may be able to enlighten us.

W. M. S. CONVENTION

The annual Convention of the Strathroy District of the W. M. S. was held on Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1924, in the Methodist Church, Mt. Brydges. Mrs. Okell presided with Miss Erma Linton as secretary-treasurer.

Following Miss Linton's report and the reports of the various auxiliaries, Mission circles and bands, an interesting as well as instructive afternoon's programme was given consisting of a devotional half hour led by Mrs. Papineau of Strathroy, an acrostic on Stewardship by Mrs. Stuart of Petrolia and a drill on the blue book by Miss Mather of Melbourne.

Mrs. W. B. Smith superintendent of this district for a number of years was also re-elected with Mrs. Steadman also of Petrolia as assistant, Miss Linton was again elected secretary-treasurer.

The ladies of the Church served a very bountiful tea and Mrs. Parnaby welcomed the visitors to Mt. Brydges.

The evening session opened by a half hour of song and prayer. Miss Churchill of Petrolia, read her prize essay and was rewarded with a book, presented by Mrs. Okell.

Miss Lola Clark, lately returned missionary, told of the work in Japan. The following were some of the outstanding points in her address, that being a missionary was not a sacrifice but a privilege; that we should study the ointment as well as our own standpoint before excluding the Japanese from British Columbia; that the only superiority we have over the Jap is not one of race or color, but that which our under knowledge of Christ gives us; that the Japs are watching the outcome of the plebiscite vote in our provinces, a vote which if it carries will not make Canada more christian; that the American films are put before the Japanese as examples of our homes whereas they are but caricatures of them; lastly that we should love one another as I have loved you.

In the absence of Mrs. Gordon Wright, Mrs. Calder of London, reviewed some of the points of the coming plebiscite. One point was this, that the liquor interests would not be bringing on this plebiscite if the O. T. A. were not fulfilling at least a part of its mission.

The meeting closed by singing a hymn and a prayer by one of the visiting ministers.

On The Trail Of The Moose

Have you followed the trail of the lordly moose through the flaming forests of the north and heard him call from the barrens or tracked the fleet-footed deer over newly-fallen snow, with the keen wind in your face while the trees cracked in the frost and the whole forest seemed vibrant with life? If you have you know the real joy of the Canadian autumn, which is never found on the city's streets nor in pulsing marts of commerce, but only in the clean open spaces and the fragrant silent woods.

Now that the leaves are turning crimson and gold you will begin to dream of the little hunting camp in the north woods, of sparkling dewy dawns, tramps through the fallen leaves, blasting camp fires, wonderful autumn nights and the bed of balsam boughs, for there is no tonic in all the world for a tired brain and a weary soul like a hunting trip in the Northern wilds.

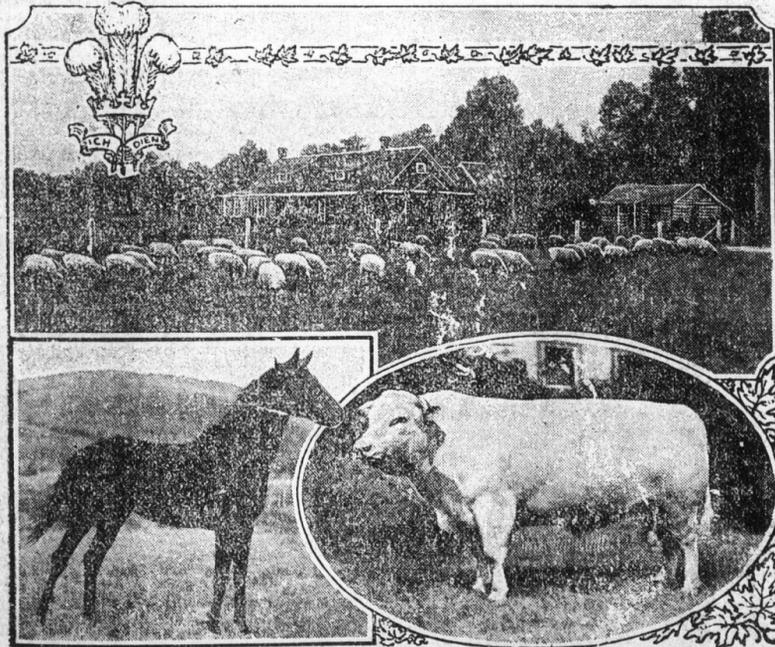

Canadian National Railways tap the choicest of the solitary hunting districts of Northern Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces and if you are going off on a hunt this year go to the nearest ticket office and procure a copy of "Hunting in Canada" which contains full information as to the various districts, accommodation and guides. Then pack up your rifle, sweater and togs and be off. o17-24-31

An Oil of Merit.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal. m

The Commercial Hotel, Wardsville, was totally destroyed by fire early Saturday morning.

The indications of worms are restlessness, grinding of the teeth, picking of the nose, extreme peevishness, often convulsions. Under these conditions one of the best remedies that can be got is Miller's Worm Powders. They will attack the worms as soon as administered and they pass away in the evacuations. The little sufferer will be immediately eased and a return of the attack will not be likely. m

E. P. Ranch Improving Western Stock

 (Left)—"Will Somers," a famous race-horse belonging to His Majesty the King, and loaned to the Prince of Wales, who is keeping him on his ranch at High River to improve the equine stock of Alberta.
 (Right)—"King of the Fairies"—a senior and grand champion Short Horn bull imported and owned by the Prince of Wales and one of the many fine animals on the Prince's Ranch at High River on the Calgary-Lethbridge branch of the Canadian Pacific.

The way to approach the E.P. ranch is from Calgary to High River, 40 miles south, on the Canadian Pacific Railway. From High River one has to drive southwest a distance of 35 miles through one of the richest grain-growing and stock-raising countries in North America. In the distance the jagged peaks of the Rockies dip the clouds and below, well-wooded, are the foothills. The road cuts through the centre of the "Bar-U" ranch and about one mile and a half from the limits of the "Bar-U" the low rambling bungalow where the Prince is now living is seen through a pretty glen. It is a homelike looking place typical of many a rancher's home in "Sunny Alberta." Here his Royal Highness goes "back to the land."

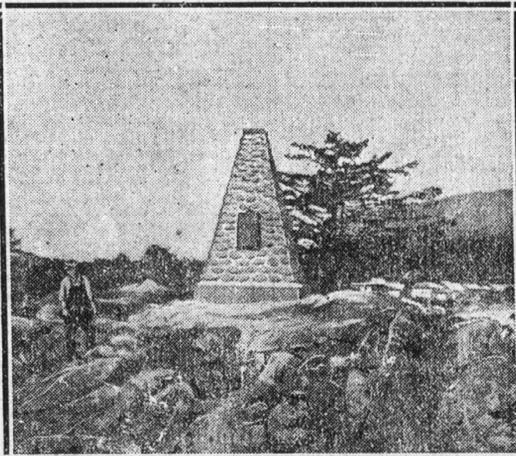

The Prince of Wales has never ceased to exhibit a keen interest in his ranch, and fresh indications are periodically given of the importance he attaches to it and the work it is doing. After purchasing the ranch, and before returning to England, the Prince made arrangements for the shipment of some of the best stock in the British Isles to the Canadian West. Thoroughbred horses came from the Royal stall, Shorthorns from the King's farm, Shropshire sheep from the Duke of Westminster's estate, and hardy Dartmoor ponies from the Devon Moors, a type of animal previously unknown in Canada. From time to time since then fresh additions of the most excellent stock have been made. The work still continues.

In an area such as Western Canada, which has for years devoted itself to the elevation of the quality of livestock and has become internationally famous for the superior type of its horses and cattle, importations must be of an outstanding distinctiveness to be worthy of special note, but this the E.P. Ranch has effected. At Alberta provincial exhibitions the animals from High River are attractive features.

In its brief history, the E.P. Ranch has come to play an important part in the Western Canadian live-stock industry, and it has done not a little in the development of a more sympathetic understanding for Canadian agriculture in the British Isles. Its establishment was an indication of the importance attached to agriculture in the Dominions of the Empire its continuance and promotion an encouragement to the western live-stock industry, faith in the future, and a stimulus to the attainment of perfection in breeding.

Historic Site at Friendly Cove, B.C.

The historic past of the Nootka section of the West Coast was recalled recently when Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol, of British Columbia, unveiled and dedicated a monument commemorating the explorations of the great English navigators, Captain Cook and Captain Vancouver.

The monument was built under the auspices of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada which is placing similar memorials across the Dominion on sites hallowed by interesting chapters of Canadian history.

A large party travelled on the Canadian Pacific S.S. Princess Maquinna for the ceremony and left the steamer at the cannery wharf, boarding launches for the short run to Friendly Cove. The party included Lieutenant-Governor Nichol, H. J. S. Muskett, his secretary, Judge Howay and Mr. Forsyth, Dr. C. S. Newcombe, the well-known historical authority who wrote the "Circumnavigation of Vancouver Island," Prof. W. N. Sage of the University of British Columbia, Mrs. R. B. McMicking, representing the I.O.D.E., Mrs. and Miss Howay, Thomas Deasy, late Indian agent for the Queen Charlotte agency and a pioneer of 1859, Dr. David Donald, Mrs. Cave-Browne-Cave, and Professor Macmillan Brown, chancellor of the University of New Zealand. Dr. Macmillan Brown is one of the leading ethnologists of the Pacific, and has been spending the summer on the coast investigating the Indians and their customs.

The new monument is seven feet broad by eleven feet high, with a standard size bronze tablet bearing the following inscription: "Nootka Sound, discovered by Capt. Cook, in March, 1778. In June, 1789, Spain took possession and established and maintained a settlement until 1795. The capture of British vessels in 1789 almost led to war, which was avoided by the Nootka Convention, 1790. Vancouver and Quadra met here in August, 1792, to determine the land to be restored under the convention."

A feature of the entertainment provided those who took part in the unveiling ceremony was the Indian dancing, arranged by aborigines from Clayoquot Sound, the Whanish of the early navigators' journals.

Tentative plans are afoot for an elaborate pageant to be held at Friendly Cove, Nootka Island, in four years time to celebrate the 150th anniversary of events commemorated by the unveiling of the cairn.

IN THE PUBLIC EYE
BY Carl A. Class

DO YOU EVER HAVE AN EYE-HEAD-ACHE?

An eye-headache some times accompanied by an earache and burning sensations of the eyes is caused by an over effort of the brain to understand a blurred image that has been thrown on the retina of the eye. In the eye-camera the foci are changed by the eye muscles that swell and reduce the shape of the crystalline lens. When these muscles become weakened an optometrist must prescribe the outer-man-made lenses to bring about this focus accommodation.

LAMBTON LOAN CO. ARE ACCEPTING NOVEMBER BONDS

Interest Paid on Deposit or Conversion Made to Lambton Loan Debentures

The issue of the new Dominion government loan has established the fact that there is an enormous amount of money seeking profitable investment, the possessors of which are often unable to find an avenue which will offer a good rate of interest and at the same time provide the unquestioned security which is vital to the average investor.

In this connection attention is drawn to the debentures offered by the Lambton Loan and Investment Co. of Sarnia, an institution which for almost one hundred years has carried on a financial and investment business which has had few equals in the history of Canada. These debentures are for terms of one, two, three, four or five years bearing interest at the rate of 5 1/2 percent, carrying coupons payable twice a year. They are purchasable at any time and are backed by a capital and reserve of $1,700,000.

One of Best Available
Consideration of these circumstances show that the investment offered by the Lambton Loan and Investment Company is one of the most attractive on the market today and is sure to prove of unusual interest to those who desire to place their money in channels of assured safety and at the same time reap the benefits of an interest rate of 5 1/2 percent. The fact that this strong Lambton institution has served the public since its foundation in 1844 is a guarantee of integrity that cannot be overlooked.

The Lambton Loan and Investment Company is also accepting Government Bonds of November maturity, and will allow interest either on their deposit or conversion to Lambton Loan and Investment Company Debentures.

If advantage is taken of this offer now, it will mean a bonus of four weeks interest. The longer you wait, the less bonus of interest you will receive. The new Dominion Loan has all been taken up, and the present holders of Bonds, maturing in November 1924, will have to find some other outlets for their money, and what better investment could be made than with a Loan Company, whose money is all placed in the surrounding country and consequently helping to build up Lambton County. The Company will be glad to supply any further information desired. A personal call at our office, 191 Front Street, Sarnia, is always appreciated. o17-3

WATFORD OLD BOY MARRIES TORONTO GIRL

Nuptials of Popular Couple Were Solemnized Wednesday Eve in Toronto

Oct. 8th at 8 p. m. in Daven Port Road Methodist Church a pretty scene was enacted, it being the marriage of Dr. Frederick H. Haskett, youngest son of Mrs. Elizabeth Haskett of Watford, and Miss Irene McCleary, only daughter, of Mrs. Catherine McCleary of Toronto.

The church was tastefully decorated with ferns, flowers and ribbons. The organist played during the gathering of the guests, also Lohengrin bridal march, and throughout the ceremony, softly rendered selections by Gattman. The Rev. Geo. Robinson officiated, assisted by the Rev. Geo. Waugh. The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Phillips, (a very old friend of the family), was charmingly attired in a Parisienne gown of ivory crepe romaine trimmed with crystals and seed pearls, with heirloom veil of rose-pearl lace and coronet of orange blossoms. She wore the groom's gift, a platinum wrist watch and carried a shower bouquet of opheelia roses, valley lilies and maiden hair fern. The bride's maid Miss Lottie Lindsay, wore a gown of marigold georgette trimmed with marabou, a black picture hat, and carried a sheaf of autumn baby annuus. Quite dainty was little Grace Harris, as flower girl in acordion pleated orchid crepe dechine, trimmed with swansdown, having gold leaves in her hair and carrying a basket of sweet heart roses. The groom was supported by Dr. O. L. McCormick. Mr. A. S. Deeks and Mr. G. C. Moncur, acted as ushers. During the signing of the register, Miss Georgina Quarrington, in black silk velvet and carrying a bouquet of pink roses, sang "My Prayer." After the ceremony a reception of some seventy guests was held at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. McCleary receiving, was attired in a gown of black lace over satin, black hat and corsage bouquet of Richmond roses. Miss J. Forbes, the bride's aunt, was in navy canton crepe with sand trimming, and pink roses. Mrs. C. B. Hathaway of Palmerston, the groom's sister, wore radio blue canton with corsage of Killarney roses. Mrs. L. E. Chambers was in radium lace over black silk with corsage of pink roses. Mrs. K. L. Haskett, Guelph, in Laquer la vella, carried cream roses. After the reception a buffet luncheon was served by Toronto caterers. The Rev. Mr. Waugh, proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the bridegroom, who proposed a toast to the bridesmaid which the groomsmen responded to.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a rope of pearls; to the singer, also a rope of pearls; to the groomsmen, gold cuff links; to the ushers, gold shirt studs and to the little flower girl a string of pearls. Later amidst showers of confetti and good wishes the happy young couple left for a trip to New York and Atlantic City, the bride traveling in a suit of brown duvetyne, trimmed with fitch, with hat to match. On returning Dr. and Mrs. Haskett will reside at 88 Mavity St., Toronto.

KERWOOD

The members of the Kerwood Mission Circle and the Young People of the congregation of the Methodist church are invited to attend a Halloween Social to be held at the home of Miss Eileen Denning on Wednesday evening, Oct 29th. Come at the witching hour of eight. And let the fairies read your fate; Reveal to none the secret plot. Or woe, not luck will be your lot.

Miss Zelma Conkey of West Adelaide, visited her friend, Miss Nona Wilson.

Mr. Quince Cook of Bridgeburg, is spending several weeks with his parents.

Miss Gretta Richardson, of Watford, spent several days with her cousin, Miss Meryle Freer.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard, of St. Thomas, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Eastbrook over the week end.

Mrs. Milton, of Wyoming, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Cliff Freer.

The anniversary services of the Kerwood Methodist church, were held on Sunday and Monday Oct. 19th and 20th. There was a large attendance at both of the Sunday services. The splendid weather added considerably to the happiness of the day. The services were conducted by Rev. A. Sinclair, of Hensall, who gave two very inspiring sermons which were greatly appreciated by all. The music was provided by the Unity Male Quartette of Sarnia who rendered excellent service. On Monday evening the annual fowl supper took place when a large number sat down to partake of the many good things provided in a most dainty manner by the ladies of the congregation. After the supper, the program was given in the auditorium by the Unity Male Quartette, assisted by a violinist and electionist. The varied program of Quartette music, solos, readings and instrumental selections lasted for two hours and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The quartette consisted of Messrs Henderson, Hastings, Haynes and Summers, whose voices blended perfectly in the numbers rendered. Mr. Fleming, the reader, was encored again and again, his selections were given with a realistic touch and he had no difficulty in securing the wrapt attention of the large audience, both young and old. The violin selections of Mr. Jones were of an excellent order and all felt the entertainer was a master of his art. The various musical items were accompanied with the piano Mrs. Jno. Henderson being pianist. The anniversary occasion was considered a great success one of the best we have ever had. The financial results were not only gratifying but the spiritual benefits of the Sunday services will remain for some time in the hearts of our people and the Monday evenings social privileges and supper will help considerably in furthering the fellowship of our church life. Next Sunday the Kerwood circuit will celebrate the Missionary Centenary inaugural day. Rev. H. P. Parnaby of Mt. Brydges, will preach at Kerwood, 10.30, and 7.30, and at Bethesda at 2.30 p. m.

The monthly meeting of the W. I. met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Thompson on Wednesday afternoon, Oct 15. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Gimblett, was appointed as delegate to the Western Ontario Women's Institute Convention to be held at London, on Nov. 4, 5, and 6th. Twenty eight quarts of fruit were donated to the Hospital for sick children at Toronto, a quantity of which came from the village of Adelaide. Thirty-four pillow covers were donated to the Strathroy Hospital. Suggestions were then made regarding a Recreation Park at Kerwood and it was decided to call a community meeting and see if all the different societies of the village would co-operate with each other in this matter. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Sullivan delighted with piano-forte selections, whilst Mrs. Murby, favored with a vocal solo an dMrs. Brunt and Mr. Thompson gave splendid papers. The afternoon closed with the serving of a very dainty lunch.

Mr. Wm. Waddell and daughters, Eva, Ella and Fernie of London, spent Sunday with friends here.

Children's Day service was observed in St. Paul's Church last Sunday. A very inspiring address was given by Rev. Diehl and suitable music was furnished by the choir.

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo Freer, on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29th. All members are urged to be present as there is much work on hand in connection with the bazaar to be held in November.

OF VALUE TO A PAPER

The newspaper man is blamed for a whole lot of things he can't help, such as using partiality in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving others out, etc. He simply prints all the news he can find. Some people inform him about such things and others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of all your uncles, aunts and cousins, even if he should see them get on or off the train. Tell us about it. It's news that makes the newspaper, and every man, woman and child can be associate editor if they only will. Never apologise to an editor, for if there lives one so dead that he has lost his appreciation of such favors' he is dead, indeed, to every virtue that imparts value to a paper.

There was money to amount to $9.74, nineteen sewing machine bobbins eight of which were threaded, crucifixes, rosaries, medallions, shoe laces, open and closed safety pins, tinfoil, earrings, fragments of glass and crockery, rubber bands, keys, buttons, watch chains, nails, etc.

Injuries received a few days ago when he was struck by an automobile driven by Henry Finan, of Sarnia, proved fatal to Henry Broughton, well-known farmer of Sarnia district, who died in the Sarnia Hospital Sunday night. Finan was arrested soon after the accident following a chase in an automobile by a police officer and a citizen. Finan was arraigned before Magistrate Gorman and was remanded to jail pending the outcome of the injuries received by Mr. Houghton. Finan was formerly employed by the C. N. R. here. He has only one hand, having lost the other in a railroad accident some years ago.

The Home Bank property at Melbourne has been sold to Martha E. Wood, of that village, for $1,700. It was in this building that the Murrell brothers and the Bandit Williams staged a hold-up and killed Russell Campbell, a blacksmith, who went to the rescue of the bank staff, in April, 1921. The records of this bank show reference to the courage of Miss Elizabeth Campbell, a sister of the victim, whose presence of mind in shutting the door of the bank vault prevented a robbery. For this she received $100, while the mother of the dead man was given $50 a month by the Home Bank up to the time of its suspension. The property consists of a frame building on a lot 27 x 132 feet.

TRUE ECONOMY

Donald McTavish lay dying. He had been all day about it and his wife had spent weary, though expectant hours at his bedside.

When night had come, however, she felt that she could leave the housework undone no longer. So she went up to her husband and said:

"Aweel, John, I must gang along to the kitchen the noo. I'll leave a light by your bed. Ye'll no be takin' yer departure before I come back. But if ye should Ye'll not forget to blow out the candle afore ye dee, will ye?"

JOHN AND SAM

Most every time I start to read I come across a phrase or so what tells about the Yankee folks a-havin' all the push and go. And then the man what goes to speak he wrings his hooks and tears his hair, and chants about the folks from here a-scampin' in' off to over there.

I sometimes think folks talkin' so has made a big and useless fuss, and caused the Yankees for to think they're smarter than the rest of us.

Let's take a look as all folks should, let's turn the problem up on edge, let's get a block of wood up here and peep beyond the nation's hedge.

Now in United States this year they have elections runnin' through, to see if Coolidge keeps his job or if they tell him, Cal, you're through. They've been a-rantin' six months now, more gleeful than a three-ring show, and still before the final act they've got three weeks in which to go.

For Coolidge lights on La Follette and Davis hits them both a bump, while in between we read the speech from old hard hitter Andy Gump.

They've spilled oil scandals on the map, they've slew the Ku Klux Klan anew, and then they start all fresh again, put mustard in the campaign stew.

Right now in Britain, old and slow, they're linin' up for pollin' day, but they don't do things over there in patterns from the Yankee way. They bust up house and right straight off they drink their 'lectioneerin' broth, because the pollin' of the votes in on a day just three weeks off.

How come, John Bull, that you can go and make your house all over new, and do in twenty days the trick what Uncle Sam takes months to do?

The Yankees say you're slow and old, that you have spavin in the knee, that you can't hop about so spry as them what's in the land that's free. How come, then John, in things like this, that you can be so young and smart, and lect a house to run the place before the Yankees get a start?

Perhaps it's so, perhaps it's not, but 'tain't a-stretchin' truth too far, to guess perhaps the Yanks they ain't no smarter than they think they are. —Ark in London Advertiser.

Ingomar, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a run-down condition and inward troubles. I had pains in my right side so bad at times that I could not walk any distance. I saw about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and have taken five bottles of it. I am better in every way and you can use my letter to help other women."—Mrs. ALVITA M. PERRY, Ingomar, N. S.

Nervous Breakdown Relieved

Toronto, Ontario.—"It is pretty hard to explain your feelings in nervous troubles. I felt low spirited, had pains in my head and eyes, always crying, and did not want to go anywhere. I do knitting and fancy work, and I would get irritable after a few minutes of work. I have been in Canada five years and have been this way ever since I came. I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sleep better and it seems to make me eat, and I must say I am feeling more jolly. I have great faith in your medicine because of what it has done for my husband's sister and she recommended it to me."—Mrs. A. SMITH, 10 Burling Avenue, Todmorden, Toronto, Ontario.

All druggists sell this dependable medicine, and women suffering from these troubles so common to their sex should give it a trial now.

SAILORS DREAD SUGAR

Dynamite is not the worst cargo to a sailor; sugar is. Put hundreds of tons of cane sugar in casks in the hold of the vessel and let the ship steam through a spell of hot weather. The odor is sickening. The sailors cannot get the sweet taste out of their mouths and crave vinegar or lemon juice—anything sour. They lose their appetites and are always glad when a voyage on which the cargo of sugar is over. Coffee is as disagreeable as sugar, in addition to being dangerous. Cotton is a really dangerous cargo. If a little oil happens to touch raw cotton the result may be spontaneous combustion. A single bale of cotton saturated with such an oil as boiled linseed and lying at the bottom of the hold can be compared only to a slow match attached to a bomb. Acids and other chemicals form dangerous cargoes. Carbide of Calcium for example, is more dangerous than dynamite. Acetylene gas is made from this chemical and the gas is constantly given off if the product is exposed to moist air.—Science and Invention.

CLEVER CORNELIUS

Elihu Root tells of a case which in cleverness compares favorably with the famous judgment of Solomon and the remarkable decisions of those old Oriental cadis. A farmer in Mr. Root's native Clinton died, leaving seventeen live turkeys to be divided among his three sons as follows: To the eldest son, one-half; to the second one-third; to the third, one-ninth. This would figure out 8½, 5 2-3 and 1 8-9, respectively. The outlook for some of those turks was decidedly sanguinary; but before an axe was raised a local lawyer, Cornelius Husk, was asked to try his hand at the problem. He settled it neatly and without bloodshed. Driving one of his own turkeys into the yard with the seventeen, he called out the brothers and had the eldest take his half, which he did, taking nine; the second for his third took six, and the remaining brother for his ninth took two. Thus each son apparently got more than he expected, and the lawyer drove his own turkey home again.

Here and There

Immigration to Canada for the month of August, 1924, totalled 20,186, of whom 5,706 were from the British Isles, 1,784 from the United States, and 12,696 from other countries. Immigration for the first five months of the fiscal year totalled 76,719. In the same period 23,861 Canadians have returned to Canada from domicile in the United States.

As an indication that the tide of settlers has definitely set in the direction of Canada, it has been made known by the Department of Immigration and Colonization that 5,000 acres of land near Lethbridge has been sold to ten families of 75 persons from South Dakota. This, it is announced, is only the advance guard of a considerable northward movement from that region.

"We will have a good report to present when we reach the Hebrides", said Rev. Father Alex. MacDougall, a member of the Hebridean commission of inquiry which investigated conditions of Hebrideans in Canada. The members of the commission, after visiting Alberta, reported the new settlers perfectly satisfied with Canadian conditions.

Among the passengers sailing for Europe aboard the Canadian Pacific Steamship "Empress of France" on October 8th, was Geo. A. Walton, General Passenger Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Montreal, who will represent the company on an extensive tour of Europe arranged for the American Association of Passenger Traffic Officers by the trans-Atlantic steamship companies and the railroads of Great Britain and the continent.

Charles J. Pernigotti, a native of Danbury, Conn., has received a commission from the Prince of Wales to paint some of his blooded stock on the E. P. ranch, near High River, on the Canadian Pacific lines in Alberta. Pernigotti, who has attained a reputation as a painter of animals, says the commission was awarded during the Prince's stay at Syosset. He will commence work the latter part of October.

As a result of the survey conducted by the newly formed Graphic Arts Association, printing and allied trades are now shown to constitute the second largest industry in Winnipeg, Man., representing an investment of $10,054,318, and providing employment for 12,000 people. The report shows that during 1923 the sum of $3,619,322 was paid in salaries.

With the approaching close of the tourist season, plans are being laid for the continuation of construction work at the Chateau Frontenac, the Canadian Pacific Railway's palatial hotel in the city of Quebec. Some of the interior decorating and the completion of rooms of the main corridor in the Chateau had to be left unfinished when the present tourist season opened, but it is expected that work on these parts of the hotel will commence very shortly. The billiard room and other rooms in the basement will also be completed as soon as possible.

Oaths of Other Days.
"By the mass" was a common oath in England before the Reformation. A collection of Elizabethan oaths could be made from Shakespeare's plays, and Mr. Wylf, has collected Restoration and post-Restoration oaths. "Strike me speechless," "Burn me if I do," "Stab my vitals," "Split my windpipe," "Gads my life," "Gadsook," "Marry come up," are some of them. "O, Jeminy," which occurs in Wycherley's "Country Wife"; "I'll lay my life," which occurs in Farquhar's "Beaux' Stratagem" and "By the Lord Harry," which occurs in Congreve's "Old Bachelor," have all survived (says M. A. B.) to the present day.—London Tit-Bits.

True Philosophy.
"You eat a small lunch."
"Can't afford more."
"Too bad."
"Oh, well, it gives you a better appetite for dinner."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Home Seeking.
"I wonder if they take children in these apartments."
"They must. Some of the rooms aren't big enough for a grown person."

BEAUTIFUL CRIMSON LEAVES

Whither thou goest, bright crimson leaves,
Fluttering along in such grand array,
Hurrying and scurrying on the breeze
Joyous to join the rainbow fray?
Tired of trembling on the bough,
Kissed by the sun and dew's soft breath,
Brilliance and beauty has lured you on,
Hurrying you to the Gates of Death.

Whither thou goest, dear Crimson Leaves,
Joyous and happy, and free and gay?
Knowest thou not that thy bloom will fade,
Crumpled and sere ere another day.
Eager as youth, for a joy that calls,
Deceiving a faith that no ill believes,
Falling to death in the endless whirl,
Beautiful, beautiful, Crimson Leaves!

—Annie Salisbury Newell.

MONEY

Money buys motor cars,
Laces and things,
Diamonds and rubles;
For princes and kings;
Money buys raiment
And foodstuffs and wine
But money won't buy you
A character fine.

Money can dress you
And feed you and hire
Servants to bow to
Your slightest desire.
Flatterers and fawners
Will smile as you spend,
But money won't buy you
A genuine friend.

Money is nothing
But purchasing power;
It is good to possess
For the need of the hour
But who would be welcomed
At every man's door,
Whatever his fortune
Must have something more.

Money will take you
As far as it can,
But money has never
Yet fashioned a man.
Give all the world's money

To one who is base,
You will still see the leer
Of the brute on his face.

Toil for the money
And go for the goal,
But still keep a thought
For the good of your soul
Be friendly and kindly,
Be gentle and true,
And make o' yourself
What no money can do.
—Edgar A. Guest.

A DAY WITH THE YOUNGSTERS

Little Six and Half-past Three,
Take my hands and come with me
Down along the pastcher way
Where yer daddy used t' play.

Here's a whistle whittled out
Of a weepin' willow sprout—
Hold it so an' press yer thumb.
Blow an' watch the fairies cum.

Here's some dandyion! Blow
Hard like this an' then you'll know
If yer mother's wantin' you—
Cross my heart and honest true!

See that wren a-fussin' round
On the fence an' on the ground
Like she didn't want us here?—
Guess she's got sum babies near.

Cowpath turns right here, now git
Down like this an' mooth a bit
Sost the folks can't see us, then
Mebbe call us home again.

That's enuff my beauties bright!
Now we're out of mother's sight—
Dirty, loose and wild an' free
Jist like daddy used to be!

Here's the crick, the singin' stream
Where yer daddy used t' dream!
Take this bent pinhook an' fish—
Let your daddy lie an' wish!

Now my chums we'll take a swim—
Hang your clothes from yonder limb;
Careful now, my buddies—there
Now you've gone an' wet yer hair!

Now, you'll ketch it, yes sir-e-ee
Somehow mothers allus see!
Try t' dry it hard's ye kin,
Mothers knows where boys have been.

See the shadders stretchin' out
Mindin us t' put about—
Say it's time the chores was dun—
Cracky but we've had some fun!

Home agin' along the way
Where your daddy used t' play—
See your mother's feigned surprise
See the tears in gramma's eyes!

WILLIAM J. CROZIER

William John Crozier, 75, died on Thursday night at his residence in Sarnia, following only one day's illness. Note and Comment

In answer to all the jokes about wrong numbers, a girl at central says that if some people swallowed their hot potatoes before they called central there'd be no wrong numbers.

A returned missionary reports that Herschell Island Eskimos show a preference for Scottish music in their gramophone records, but that in all other respects they are rapidly becoming civilized.—Orillia Packet.

It has occurred to us that our readers at a distance could do us and others a much appreciated service by sending us marked copies of newspapers containing reference to boys or girls, young or otherwise, who formerly resided in this district. Two things should be observed in doing so, however; namely, to mark the article plainly with pen or pencil and to write the name of sender somewhere on the head or margin of the paper.

An automatic gear-shift has been patented. The driver has no gears to handle, except when shifting into reverse. As soon as the car is started the shifting is automatic, sliding from first to second and then to third as the speed increases. The gears automatically shift back as the car slows down. The device is considered of inestimable value to drivers in crowded city traffic.

All But Printers.

The Minnesota State prison is so short of printers that it will have to have its little paper, The Prison Mirror, printed outside. It is said there are ministers, doctors, lawyers and professors aplenty, but only two printers, and one is too old to work. Does this mean that printers are more law-abiding than other classes, or are they cleverer at getting away with it?—Clinton News-Record.

The opening of the fall season brings the usual round of church activities, bazaars, bake sales, pink teas, etc. In the cities these functions assume large proportions, with correspondingly simpler affairs in the small towns and villages. We wonder as the various committees meet to plan these annual events if due consideration is given the local merchant who has to pay express, cartage and taxes on all goods sold. People who make a living from buying and selling commodities which people want should be helped and not hindered by diversion of trade, for in turn churches look to them for liberal support for all the various branches of the modern church organizations. Last year in one of our large cities a bishop who saw results in a large way condemned the practise of holding large bazaars which certainly had the effect of depressing trade. Those who pay high rentals for buildings should be supported by his or her own towns-people, providing they carry on in an honorable way. Un fortunately these bazaars are put on near the holiday periods when the dealers have purchased heavy stocks of Christmas goods, which they do not wish to carry over. If fairs must be held, should not the committees Stop, Look and Listen before they rob Peter to pay a Paul?—Ex.
