The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library of the Public
Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives
publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CORRESPONDENCE, &c.

Papers presented by His Majesty's Command.

(No. 1.) Official Note.—Lord Grenville to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the French Republick.

LA Signature des Préliminaires d'une Paix, dont la Conclusion définitive doit terminer la Guerre du Continent, paroît offrir aux Deux Gouvernemens de la Grande Bretagne et de la France une Occasion naturelle et des nouvelles Facilités pour le Renouvellement des Négotiations pacifiques entre eux:— Une Partie des Obstacles qui auroient pu retarder cet Ouvrage salutaire n'existant plus; et les Intérêts dont on aura à traiter depuis cet Evenement n'étant ni aussi étendus ni aussi compliqués qu'ils l'étoient auparavant.

La Cour de Londres desirant toujours employer tous les Moyens les plus propres à contribuer à cet Objet, si interessant pour le Bonheur des Deux Nations, n'a pas voulu omettre de renouveler au Gouvernement François l'Assurance de ses Dispositions constantes à cet egard. Et le Souffigné est autorisé de proposer au Ministre des Relations Exterieures d'entrer sans Délai, et sous telle Forme qui sera jugée la plus convenable, dans la Discussion des Vues et des Pretensions respectives, pour regler les Preliminaires d'une Paix, que l'on arrangeroit definitivement au Congrès futur.

Dés que l'on seroit d'accord sur la Forme de cette Négotiation, le Gouvernement Britannique seroit prêt à y concourir en prenant de sa Part toutes les

THE Signature of the Preliminaries of a Peace, the definitive Conclusion of which is to put an End to the Continental War, appears to afford to the Two Governments of Great Britain and France a natural Opportunity and new Facilities for the Renewal of pacifick Negotiations between them: A Part of the Obstacles, which might have retarded this salutary Work, no longer existing; and the Interests to be treated of being, after this Event, neither so extensive nor so complicated as they were before.

The Court of London, always desirous of employing such Means as are best calculated to contribute to this Object, so interesting to the Happiness of the Two Nations, is unwilling to omit renewing to the French Government the Assurance of the Continuance of its Dispositions on this Subject. And the Underigned is authorized to propose to the Minister for Foreign Affairs to enter without Delay, and in such Manner as shall be judged the most expedient, upon the Discussion of the Views and Pretensions of each Party for the Regulation of the Preliminaries of a Peace, which may be definitively arranged at the future Congress.

As soon as the Form of this Negotiation shall have been agreed upon, the British Government will be ready to concur in it, by taking on its Part such Measures as are the most proper for accelerating the Re-establishment of the public Tranquillity.

(No. 2.) Official Note.—The Minister for Foreign Affairs to Lord Grenville.

Le Ministre des Relations Exterieures de la Republique Française soussigné s'est empressé de mettre sous les yeux du Directoire Exécutif la Note qui lui à été transmise le 1 Juin 1797 (v. st.) par le Lord Grenville, au Nom de Sa Majesté Britannique. Il est chargé d'y répondre.

Le Directoire Exécutif voit avec Satisfaction le Desir qu' annonce le Cabinet de Saint James de faire cesser enfin les Malheurs de la Guerre. Il accueillera avec Empressement les Ouvertures et les Propositions qui lui seront faites par la Cour d'Angleterre.

Le Directoire Exécutif desire, cependant, que les Negotiations s'entament de suite pour un Traité Definitif. Cette Marche Lui paroît préférable à un Congrès, dont le Résultat ne peut qui être fort éloigné, et ne répond point au Desir ardent qu'il a de rétablir, le plus promptement possible, la Paix entre les Deux Puissances.

THE Undersigned Minister for Foreign Affairs of the French Republick, lost no Time in laying before the Executive Directory the Note which was transmitted to him on the 1st of June (O. S.) by Lord Grenville, in the Name of His Britannick Majesty. He is directed to answer it.

The Executive Directory sees with Satisfaction the Desire which the Cabinet of Saint James's expresses to put an End, at length, to the Calamities of War. It will receive with Eagerness the Overtures and Proposals which shall be made to it by the Court of England.

The Executive Directory desires notwithstanding, that the Negotiations should be set on Foot at once for a Definitive Treaty. This Proceeding appears to the Directory preferable to a Congress, of which the Result must be remote, and which does not correspond with the ardent Desire that it has to re-establish, as quickly as possible, Peace between the Two Powers.

(No. 3.) Official Note.—Lord Grenville to the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

LA Cour de Londres a reçu, avec la plus grande Satisfaction, les Assurances des Dispositions du Directoire Exécutif d'acceuilir avec Empressement les Ouvertures pacifiques de la Grand Bretagne, aussi bien que de son Desir de rétablir, le plus promptement possible, la Paix entre les Deux Puissances.

Empressé d'y contribuer en tout ce qui peut dépendre de Lui, le Gouvernement Britannique ne tardera pas d'envoyer soit à Paris, soit à tel autre Lieu sur le Continent dont on pourra convenir, un Ministre pour traiter et conclure avec le Plénipotentiaire qui sera nommé par le Directoire Exécutif.

Le Souffigné est chargé de demander à connoître le Vocu du Directoire sur le Lieu de la Négotiation, à fin qu'on puisse prendre ici une Détermination prompte à cet égard ; et de prier le Ministre des Relations Extérieures de lui envoyer, sans Délai, les Passeports nécessaires pour que le Plénipotentiaire du Roi puisse se rendre au plutot à sa Destination. La Question de signer des Articles Preliminaires ou Definitifs dépendra nécessairement de la Marche et de la Tournure des Négotiations, aux-quelles, il sera apporté apporté de la Part de la Grande Bretagne, le Desir le plus sincère pour le prompt Rétablissement de la Paix.

Translation.

THE Court of London has received, with the greatest Satisfaction, the Assurances of the Dispositions of the Executive Directory to entertain with Eagerness the pacific Overtures of Great Britain, as well as of it's Desire to re-establish, as soon as possible, Peace between the Two Powers.

Anxious to contribute to it in every Thing which can depend upon itself, the British Government will not delay to send to Paris, or to such other Place, upon the Continent, as may be agreed upon, a Minister, to treat and conclude with the Plenipotentiary, who shall be appointed by the Executive Directory.

The Undersigned is directed to desire to know the Wish of the Directory, as to the Place of the Negotiation, in order that a speedy Determination may be taken here upon that Subject; and to request the Minister for Foreign Affairs to send him, without Delay, the necessary Passports, to enable the King's Plenipotentiary to repair immediately to his Destination. The Question of signing Preliminary or Definitive Articles, will necessarily depend upon the Progress and Turn of the Negotiations, to which, on the Part of Great Britain, will be brought the most sincere Desire for the speedy Re-establishment of Peace.

(No. 4.) Official Note.—The Minister for Foreign Affairs to Lord Grenville.

Le Directoire Exécutif de la République Française a vu avec Satisfaction, par la Note Officielle du Lord Grenville, en Date du 8 Juin (v. st.) que la Cour de Londres se montrait disposée à entamer, sans Délai, la Négociation dont elle a fait récemment l'Ouverture. Rempli du même Empressement, convaincu que les Intentions du Gouvernement Britannique sont telles qu'il les annonce, Il a chargé le Ministre des Relations Extérieures soussigné, de faire passer au Lord Grenville les Passports nécessaires pour un Ministre chargé de pleins Pouvoirs à l'Effet de négocier et conclure un Traité de Paix définitif et séparé avec la République Française.

Le Directoire Exécutif a désigné la Commune de Lille pour le Point de Réunion des Plénipotentiaires respectifs.

(No. 6.)

Official Note.—Lord Grenville to the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Le Souffigné a reçu de la Part du Ministre des Relations Extérieures de la République Française sa Note Officielle, avec le Passeporte qui y étoit joint.

La Cour de Londres accepte volontiers la Proposition du Gouvernement François par rapport au Lieu de la Négotiation, et consente à ce que Lille soit désigné pour la Réunion des Plénipotentiaires respectifs: Bien entendu que celui du Roi aura la Faculté d'expédier ses Couriers en droiture de Lille à Douvres par par Calais ; et que les Batimens Anglais, désignés pour maintenir cette Communication, pourront entrer et sortir librement du Port de Calais, et naviguer en toute Sureté entre cette Ville et Douvres.

Au sujet de Passeport, le Souffigné se voit obligé de remarquer que les Termes dans lesquels cet Instrument est redigé s'écartent de la Forme usitée, par la Désignation particuliere, qui s'y trouve, de la Nature et de l'étendue des Pouvoirs, et de la Mission du Plénipotentiaire du Roi

Cette nouvelle Forme paroît susceptible d'entraîner souvent de grands Inconveniens, et, d'après les Termes dont on s'est servi dans le Cas actuel, elle auroit celui de ne pas repondre avec Exactitude aux Pouvoirs et à la Mission du Ministre dont il est question.

Ses Plein-Pouvoirs, redigés dans la Forme ordinaire, embrasseroient tous les Cas ; et en ne lui prescrivant aucune Voie de Négotiation, lui donneroient la Faculté la plus illimitée de conclure des Articles ou des Traités, soit Preliminaires soit Definitifs, selon que cela pourra là mieux con venir au prompt Retablissement de la Paix, seul Objet de sa Mission.

Mais la Cour de Londres ne tient nullement à la Conclusion d'un Traité Preliminaire, et ne donneroit la Preference qu' à tel Moyen, quelque'il puisse être, qui sera trouvé le plus propre à accélérer la Conclusion de la Paix.

Le Plénipotentiaire du Roi sera donc également prêt, et autorisé à entrer sans Délai en Négotiation, sur l'un ou l'autre pied ; sur celui d'un Traité Preliminaire, ou bien, si cela continue à être le Voeu du Directoire, d'un Traité Definitif.

Pour ce qui regarde la Question d'un Traité Separé ; — il n'y auroit aucune Objection à terminer par un pareil Traité ce qui regarde les Intérêts respectifs de la France et de la Grande Bretagne, selon que cela s'est ordinairement pratiqué en pareil Cas : Mais le Roi ne peut laisser aucun Doute sur Son Intention de pourvoir à ce qui est dû aux Intérêts de Son Allié la Reine Très Fidelle. Et par une suite des mêmes Principes, Sa Majesté ne refusera pas d'entrer en telles Explication par rapport aux Interêts de l'Espagne et de la Hollande, qui pourroient paroître nécessaires au Rétablissement de la Paix.

Après cette Explication franche et précise, le Gouvernement Britannique se persuade que le Directoire ne tardera pas de Lui faire parvenir un Passéport pour le Plénipotentiaire Britannique et sa Suite, dans la Forme usitée, et tel qu'il a été envoyé au Mois d'Octobre dernier pour la Mission dont Lord Malmesbury étoit chargé alors.

Dans cette Attente, et pour éviter tout Délai, Sa Majesté a déjà fait Choix du même Ministre pour La représenter dans cette Occasion importante :—Et le Souffigné est chargé de demander à quel Jour le Plénipotentiaire Français pourra être rendu à Lille ; —à fin que le Lord Malmesbury puisse y arriver à la même Epoque.

(No. 6.)

Translation.

THE Undersigned has received from the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the French Republick his Official Note, with the Passport which accompanied it.

The Court of London willingly accepts the Proposal of the French Government with respect to the Place of Negotiation, and consents that Lille shall be appointed as the Place of Meeting for the respective Plenipotentiaries :—It being always understood, that the King's Plenipotentiary shall have Liberty to dispatch his Couriers directly from Lille to Dover, by Way of Calais, and that the English Vessels, appointed for keeping up this Communication, shall be allowed freely to go into, and come out of, the Port of Calais, and to pass in perfect Safety between that City and Dover.

With

With respect to the Passport; the Undersigned finds himself under the Necessity of remarking that the Terms in which this Instrument is drawn up, differ from the usual Form, by the particular Description, which is inserted in them, of the Nature and Extent of the Powers, and of the Mission of the King's Plenipotentiary.

This new Form appears liable to produce, in many Instances, considerable Inconveniences; and, according to the Terms used in this particular Instance, it would have the Disadvantage of not answering exactly to the Powers and the Mission of the Minister in question.

His full Powers, drawn up in the usual Form, will include every Case; and without prescribing to him any particular Mode of Negotiation, will give him the most unlimited Authority to conclude any Articles or Treaties, whether Preliminary or Definitive, as might best conduce to the speedy Re-establishment of Peace, which is the sole Object of his Mission.

But the Court of London does not by any Means make a Point of concluding a Preliminary Treaty, and would prefer only that Mode, whatever it may be, which shall be found the best calculated to accelerate the Conclusion of Peace.

The King's Plenipotentiary then will be equally ready, and authorized to begin the Negotiation without Delay, upon either footing; upon the footing of a Preliminary Treaty—or should such continue to be the Wish of the Directory, upon that of a Definitive Treaty.

As to what regards the Question of a separate Treaty—there would be no Objection to settling, by a Treaty of this Kind, whatever relates to the respective Interests of France and of Great Britain, as has been usually the Practice in similar Cases: But the King can not allow any Doubt to subsist as to His Intention of providing for what is due to the Interests of His Ally Her Most Faithful Majesty. And in purfuance of the fame Principles, His Majesty will not refuse to enter into fuch Explanations with refpect to the Interests of Spain and Holland as may appear neceffary for the Re-establishment of Peace.

After this frank and precise Explanation, the British Government is perfuaded that the Directory will not delay to transmit to them a Passport for the British Plenipotentiary and his Suite, in the usual Form, and fuch as was sent in the Month of October laft for the Mission with Lord Malmesbu. was then charged.

In this Expectation, and for the Sake of avoiding all Delay, His Majesty has already made Choice of the fame Minister to represent Him on this important Occasion. And the Underfigned is charged to enquire on what Day the French Plenipotentiary will be at Lifle, in order that Lord Malmesbury may arrive there at the fame Time.

Official Note.—The Minister for Foreign Affairs to Lord Grenville,

Le Souffigné Ministre de Relations Extérieures a mis, aufsitôt fa Reception, sous les yeux du Directoire Exécutif, la Note Officielle que lui a adressée le Lord Grenville, en Date du 17 Juin 1797 (v. ft.). Il s'empresse d'y répondre conformément aux Ordres qu'il a reçus.

Le Directoire, partageant bien sincèrement les Sentimens pacifiques que témoigne Sa Majesté Britannique, et voulant amener le plus promptement possible Negotiations a une heureuse Issue, persiste a demander que les Negociateurs respectifs s'occupent, aufsitôt leur Réunion, d'un Traité Définitif. Il accepte avec Satisfaction le Consentement de Sa Majesté Britannique à cet égard, exprimé dans la Note du Lord Grenville.

Le

Le Directoire consent à ce que Sa Majesté Britannique fasse, par Son Plenipotentiaire, les propositions ou Stipulations, qu'il jugera convenables, pour Sa Majesté Très Fidèle; comme reciproquement les Plenipotentiaires de la République en feront pour ses Alliés Sa Majesté Catholique et la République Batave.

Le Directoire consent à ce que la Négociation soit ouverte avec le Lord Malmesbury; cependant un autre Choix Lui eut paru d'un plus heureux Augure pour la prompte Conclusion de la Paix.

Le Directoire demande qu'il soit établi en Principe, que chaque Paquebot Anglais, qui aura transporté le Plenipotentiaire ou un Courier, repartira sur le Champ et ne pourra séjourner. Il donera des Ordres pour qu'il soit fourni sans Délai un Paquebot Français à chacun des Courriers, que le Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique expédiera. Il desire toutefois que les Courriers ne soient pas trop multipliés; leur Multiplication ayant été une des principales Causes de la Rupture des Negociations précédentes.

D'après les explications ci-dessus, il devient inutile de transmettre au Lord Grenville un nouveau Passeport; les Restrictions, qu'il craignoit de voir dans celui qui lui a été adressé, se trouvant entièrement levées.

Les Plenipotentiaires Français seront rendus à Lille à l'Epoque où le Lord Malmesbury pourra y être rendu lui-meme.

Translation.

THE undersigned Minister for Foreign Affairs has laid before the Directory, immediately upon its Receipt, the Official Note addressed to him by Lord Grenville, dated June 17, 1797 (O. S.) He loses

no

no Time in replying to it, according to the Orders which he has received.

The Directory, partaking most sincerely in the pacific Sentiments which His Britannick Majesty announces, and wishing to bring the Negotiations as quickly as possible to a happy issue, persists in requiring that the respective Plenipotentiaries shall begin immediately upon their Meeting to treat of a Definitive Treaty. The Directory accepts, with Satisfaction, the Consent of His Britannick Majesty upon this Subject, expressed in the Note of Lord Grenville,

The Directory consents that His Britannick Majesty shall make, by His Plenipotentiary, such Proposals or Stipulations as He shall think proper for Her Most Faithful Majesty, as in return the Plenipotentiaries of the Republick will do for their Allies his Catholic Majesty and the Batavian Republick.

The Directory consents that the Negotiation shall be opened with Lord Malmesbury. Another Choice would, however, have appeared to the Directory to augur more favourably for the speedy Conclusion of Peace.

The Directory requires that it shall be established as a Principle, that each English Packet Boat, which shall have brought over either the Plenipotentiary or a Courier, shall return without Delay, and shall not be allowed to make any Stay. The Directory will give Orders that a French Packet Boat shall be furnished, without Delay, to each of the Couriers whom the Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty shall dispatch. The Directory desires, at the same Time, that the Couriers should not be sent too frequently; the frequent sending of them having been one of the principal Causes of the Rupture of the former Negotiation.

After the above Explanation, it becomes unnecessary to transmit to Lord Grenville a new Passport; the the Restrictions which he apprehended were to be found in that which has been addressed to him, being entirely done away.

The French Plenipotentiaries will have arrived at Lille by the Time at which Lord Malmesbury can himself be there.

Official Note.—Lord Grenville to the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Le Souffigné a mis sous les yeux du Roi la Note Officielle du Gouvernement François qu'il a reçu le 23 du Mois courant.

Sur les Deux premiers Articles de cette Note les Deux Parties sont d'accord. Il n'y a donc rien à ajouter la dessus aux Explications précédentes; en conséquence desquelles Explications, le Lord Malmesbury procédera sans Délai à Lille, pour entrer en Négotiation avec les Plenipotentiaires François, pour la Confèction d'un Traité Définitif. La Remarque du Directoire sur le Choix que Sa Majesté a jugé à propos de faire de Son Plenipotentiare n'étant certainement de Nature à exiger aucune Reponse.

Le Gouvernement Britannique consent à l'Arrangement proposé pour les Paquebots; pourvû qu'il soit fourni régulièrement, et sans le moindre Délai un Paquebot François pour chaque Courier que le Plenipotentiare Britannique se verra dans le cas d'expédier: L'Exercice de son Droit incontestable à cet égard ne devant et ne pouvant être réglée que par sa Discretion seule, dans la vue d'amener la Négotiation dont il est chargé à une prompte et heureuse fin.

Pour ce qui est de la Rupture de la dernière Negotiation, les Circonstances et les Motifs en sont connus à toute l'Europe; et ce n'est pas au Moment d'entamer une nouvelle Discussion pacifique, que le gou-

gouvernement Britannique pense qu'il peut être utile de les rappeler.

Le Lord Malmesbury partira de Londres le 20 ce Mois pour se rendre de suite à Calais; d'où il réglera son Départ selon la Notification qu'il y recevra du Jour où les Ministres François pourront être rendus à Lille.

THE Undersigned has laid before the King the Official Note of the French Government, which he received the 23d of the present Month.

As to the Two first Articles of this Note both Parties are agreed. On this Point therefore there is nothing to be added to the Explanations already given; in consequence of which Explanations Lord Malmesbury will, without Delay, proceed to Lisle to enter into a Negotiation with the French Plenipotentiaries for the Completion of a Definitive Treaty. The Remark of the Directory upon the Choice which His Majesty has thought fit to make of His Plenipotentiary, being certainly of a Nature not to require an Answer.

The British Government agrees to the Arrangement proposed for the Packet Boats; provided that a French Packet Boat shall be furnished regularly, and without the least Delay, for each Courier which the British Plenipotentiary shall find it necessary to dispatch: The Exercise of his incontestable Right in this Respect being to be governed by his own Discretion only, with a View to bringing the Negotiation with which he is charged to a speedy and successful End.

With regard to the Rupture of the last Negotiation, the Circumstances and the Motives of it are known to all Europe; and it is not at the Moment of entering into a new pacific Discussion that the British

British Government conceive it can be of no Use to recall them to Recollection.

Lord Malinesbury will set out for London on the 30th of this Month to proceed to Calais; from whence he will arrange his Departure according to the Notification he may receive of the Day on which the French Ministers may reach Lisle.

Le Ministre des Relations Exterieures souffigné, s'est empressé de mettre sous les yeux du Directoire Executif la Note Officielle, que lui à adressée le Lord Grenville, en Date du 26 Juin (v. st.) huit Messidor present Mois. En reponse à cette Note il a l'Honneur de déclarer au Lord Grenville que les Plenipotentiaires chargés par le Directoire de la Négotiation sont déjà réunis a Lille, et que les Conférences pourront être entamées, aussitôt que le Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique y sera rendu. Il à été pourvû à ce que les Paquebots ne manquaissent jamais aux Courriers qu'il jugera à propos d'expedier à Londres.

Le Souffigné previent également le Lord Grenville qu'une Copie de la presente Note sera remise au Lord Malmesbury, à son Arrivée à Calais, à fin que rien ne s'oppose à son Départ immédiat pour Lille.

Extracts of a Dispatch from Lord Malmshury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, July 11, 1797.

I HAD the Honor in my last, by Brooks, of the 6th instant, to inform your Lordship, of my Arrival here, of the Manner in which I had been received, and of my having, in the usual Form, exchanged my full Powers with the French Plenipotentiaries.

On Friday the 7th at Noon we held our Second Conference.

I opened

I opened this Second Conference with the French Plenipotentiaries, by saying, that I myself had no Observations to make on their full Powers, which appeared to be conformable to those usually given by the Directory to their Plenipotentiaries, and of course must be considered as sufficient for the Purposes expressed in them; that I, however, had transmitted them by a Messenger to my Court, and reserved to myself the Right of communicating any Objections or Remarks which I might receive by the Return of my Messenger, relative to them.

M. le Tournour, to which, as President of the Commission, I addressed myself, replied, that they had taken precisely the same Steps as myself, that they considered the full Powers I had given in, as in due Form, and sufficient; but that they also reserved to themselves the same Right, in regard to Instructions they might receive from the Directory on this Subject, as I had claimed in regard to my Court.

To this, of course, I assented.

On Saturday the 8th instant I gave in the Projet precisely as I had received it from your Lordship; a Copy of which (A), as it is translated into French, I think it my Duty to inclose.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries proposed that some Time should be given them to take the Proposals I had made into Consideration, and begged of me merely for the Sake of Accuracy, and to help their Memory, that I would be good enough either to let M. Colchen put down on Paper, or myself send them a Note containing the Words with which I wished the Articles left in Blank to be filled up. I readily acquiesced in the latter Mode, and immediately on my Return sent them the inclosed Note (B).

On Sunday Evening I received the inclosed Note (C) from the French Plenipotentiaries, and in consequence of it went to the proposed Conference Yesterday.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries informed me on the Subject of the Project I had given them, and the Note with which I had accompanied it, that as these Papers contain many Points on which their Instructions did not enable them to answer, they had, after having given them a very serious Attention, sent them, with such Observations as they had thought it their Duty to make on them, to the Directory, and that the Moment they received an Answer, they would communicate it to me. But that in the meanwhile, not to delay the Progress of the Negotiation, they wished that several Points which he termed insulated, but which, though not referred to in our Project, were, he said, inseparably connected with the general Subject of Peace, might be discussed and got rid of now if I had no Objection, and that it was with this View they had requested me to meet them.—On my not expressing any Disapprobation to this Mode of Proceeding, One of the French Plenipotentiaries began, by saying, that in the Preamble of the Treaty the Title of King of France was used; that this Title they contended could no longer be insisted on, the Abolition of it was in a Manner essential to the full Acknowledgment of the French Republick, and that as it was merely titular, as far as related to His Majesty, but quite otherwise in the Sense in which it applied to them, he hoped it would not be considered as an important Concession.

I informed him, that on all former Occasions a separate Article had been agreed to, which appeared to me to answer every Purpose they required, and which it was my Intention, as the Treaty advanced, to have proposed, as proper to make Part of this. The Article (the First of the separate ones in the Treaty of 1783) was then read; but they objected to it, as not fully meeting their Views. It was to the Title itself, as well as to any Right which might be supposed to arise from it, that they objected. I could scarce allow myself to treat this mode of reasoning soning seriously. I endeavoured to make them feel that it was cavilling for a mere word; that it was creating Difficulties where none existed; and that if all the French Monarchs in the Course of Three Centuries had allowed this to stand in the Preamble of all Treaties and Transactions between the Two Countries, I could not conceive, after its having been used for so long a Period without any Claim or Pretention being set forth in consequence of it, how it could now affect either the Dignity, Security, or Importance of the Republick—that in Fact such Titles have ever been considered as indefeasible, and as Memorials and Records of former Greatness, and not as Pretensions to present Power—and I quoted the Titles of the Kings of Sardinia and Naples, &c. as Examples exactly in point. I argued however in vain. They treated it very gravely, and made so strong a Stand upon it, that I could not avoid taking it for Reference, which I thought it better to do, than feeling as I did at the Moment, to push the Conversation farther.

The Second insulated Point was a very material one indeed, and which, although it has been adverted to as a Proposal that might possibly be brought forward, I confess came upon me unexpectedly.—It was to ask either a Restitution of the Ships taken and destroyed at Toulon, or an Equivalent for them. They grounded this Claim on the Preliminary Declaration made by Lord Hood on his taking Possession of Toulon; and on the Eighth Article of the Declaration of the Committee of the Sections to him. They said, Peace they hoped was about to be re-established; that His Majesty, in acknowledging the Republic, admitted that a Sovereignty existed in the French Government; and of course that the Ships, held only as a Deposit by England till this legal Authority was admitted, ought now to be restored. I replied that this Claim was so perfectly unlooked-for, that it was impossible for me to have been provided for it in my Instructions, and that I could therefore only convey my own private Sentiments on it, which were, that they could not have devised a Step more likely to defeat the great End of our Mission. One of the French Plenipotentiaries said, that he sincerely hoped not; that without a Restitution of the Ships, an Equivalent might be found to effect the Purpose desired, since their great Object was, that something should appear to prove that this just Demand had not been overlooked by them, and was not left unsatisfied by us. I told him fairly, I did not see where this Equivalent was to be found, or how it could be appreciated; and that considering the great Advantages France had already obtained by the War, and those she was likely to obtain from the Act of Condescension I had already intimated His Majesty was disposed to make in order to restore Peace, I was much surprized, and deeply concerned at what I heard. I trusted, therefore, that this very inadmissible Proposal would be withdrawn. They said it was not in their Power; and One of them, from a written Paper before him, which he said were his Instructions, read to me Words to the Effect I have already stated.

Their Third Question was as to any Mortgage we might have upon the Low Countries, in consequence of Money lent to the Emperor by Great Britain— They wished to know if any such existed, since as they had taken the Low Countries charged with all their Incumbrances, they were to declare that they should not consider themselves bound to answer any Mortgage given for Money lent to the Emperor, for the Purpose of carrying on War against them.

I told them, that without replying to this Question, supposing the Case to exist, the Exception they required should have been stated in their Treaty with the Emperor, and could not at all be mixed up in ours; that if they had taken the Low Countries as they stood charged with all their Incumbrances, there could be no Doubt what these Words meant, and that that if no Exception was stated in the First Instance none could be made with a retro-active Effect.

The French Plenipotentiaries, however, were as tenacious on this Point as on the other Two; and as I found to every Argument I used that they constantly opposed their Instructions, I had nothing to do but to desire that they would give me a written Paper stating their Three Claims, in order that I might immediately transmit it to your Lordship, and on this being promised, our Conference broke up.

Between Four and Five P. M. Yesterday, I received the enclosed Note (D), and I have lost no Time since it is in my Possession in preparing to send away a Messenger, as independent of the disagreeable Subjects brought forward in this last Conference, and which it is material should be communicated without Delay. I am anxious His Majesty should be informed of what has passed in general up to this day, as it may perhaps furnish some Ideas as to the possible Event of the Negotiation.

Projet d'un Traité de Paix.

Soit notoire a tous ceux qu'il appartiendra ou peut appartenir en Maniere quelconque. Le Serenissime et très puissant Prince George Trois, par la Grace de Dieu, Roi de la Grande Bretagne, de France, et d'Irlande, Duc de Brunswick et de Lunebourg, Archi Tresorier et Electeur du Saint Empire Romain, &c. et le Directoire Executif de la Republique Française, desirant également de faire cesser la

Guerre

Guerre qui existe depuis quelque Temps entre leurs Etats respectifs, ont nommé et constitué pour leurs Plénipotentiaires, chargés de conclure et signer le Traité de Paix Définitif, scavoir, Sa Majesté le Roi de la Grande Bretagne, le Lord Baron de Malmesbury, Pair du Royaume de la Grande Bretagne, Chevalier du tres Honorable Ordre du Bain, Conseiller Privé Actuel de Sa Majesté, et le Directoire Exécutif de la République Françoisse lesquels après avoir échangé leurs Plein-pouvoirs respectifs, sont convenus des Articles suivants :

I. Aussitot que ce Traité sera signé et ratifié, il y aura une Paix universelle et perpétuelle, tant par Mer que par Terre, et une Amitié sincère et constante entre les Deux Parties Contractantes, leurs états, Territoires, et Peuples, sans Exception de Lieux ni de Personnes, en sorte que les Hautes Parties Contractantes apporteront la plus grande Attention à maintenir entre Elles, leurs dits états, Territoires, et Peuples, cette Amitié et Correspondance reciproque, sans permettre dorénavant, que de Part ni d'autre, on commette aucune Sorte d'Hostilités, par Mer ou par Terre, pour quelque Cause, ou sous quelque Prétexte que ce puisse être. Il y aura un Oubli et Amnistie generale de tout ce qui a pû être fait ou commis de Part ou d'autre avant ou depuis le Commencement de la Guerre; et on évitera soigneusement tout ce qui pourroit altérer à l'avenir l'Union heureusement rétablie.

D'abord après l'échange des Ratifications de ce Traité, on expédiera des Ordres, tant aux Armées qu'aux Escadres des deux Parties, de fair cesser toutes Hostilités, et à fin d'assurer l'Exécution de cet Article, on accordera de part et d'autre des Passeports de Mer aux Vaisseaux chargés de porter la Nouvelle de la Paix aux Possessions des Deux Parties.

II. Les Traités de Paix de Nimègue de 1678 et 1679, de Ryswick de 1697, et d'Utrecht de 1713; celui celui de Bade de 1714 ; celui de la Triple Alliance de la Haye de 1717 ; celui de la Quadruple Alliance de Londres, de 1718 ; le Traité de Paix de Vienne de 1738 ; le Traité Definitif d'Aix la Chapelle de 1748 ; le Traité Definitif de Paris de 1763 ; et celui de Versailles de 1783, servent de Base et de Fondement à la Paix, et au present Traité. Et pour cet Effet ils sont tous renouvelés et confirmés dans la meilleure Forme, en sorte qu'ils devront être observés exactement à l'avenir dans toute leur Teneur, et religieusement exécutés de Part et d'autre, dans tous les Points auxquels il n'est pas dérogé par le present Traité de Paix.

III. Tous les Prisonniers faits de part et d'autre, tant par Terre que par Mer, et les Otages ou levés ou donnés pendant la Guerre, seront restitués, sans Rançon, dans Six Semaines au plus tard, à compter du Jour de l'échange de la Ratification du present Traité. Chaque Partie soldant respectivement les Avances qui auront été faites pour la Subsistance et l'Entretien de ses Prisonniers dans les Pais où ils auront été détenus, conformément aux Reçus et états constatés, et autres Titres authentiques, qui seront fournis de Part et d'autre ; et il sera donné reciproquement des Suretés pour le Payement des Dettes que les Prisonniers auroient pu contracter dans les Etats où ils auroient été détenus, jusqu' à leur entiere Liberté.

IV. A l'égard du Droit de Pêche sur les Côtes de L'Isle de Terre Neuve, et des Isles adjacentes, et dans le Golf St. Laurent, les Deux Parties seront remises dans la même Situation où Elles se trouvoient respectivement d'après les Traités et Engagemens subsistans à l'Epoque du Commencement de la Guerre. Et dans cette Vue, Sa Majesté consent de restituer à la France en toute Propriété les Isles de St. Pierre et Miquelon.

V. Le même Principe du Status ante Bellum est adopté du Consentement actuel des Deux Parties, à l'égard de toutes leurs Possessions et Droits respectifs dans toutes les Parties du Monde ; sauf les Exceptions qui seront stipulées par les Articles suivans du Traité actuel. Et dans cette Intention toutes les Possessions ou Territoires que l'une des Parties Contractantes pourroit avoir conquis ou pourroit conquérir sur l'autre (et qui ne seront pas spécialement exceptés dans ce Traité), seront rendus à celle des Deux Parties à qui ils appartenoient au Commencement de la Guerre actuelle.

VI. Les Deux Parties sont convenus d'excepter de ce Principe de Restitution reciproque

qui restera en toute

Propriété à Sa Majesté Britannique.

VII. Dans tous les Cas de Restitution stipulés par le présent Traité, les Forteresses seront rendues dans le même état où elles se trouvent actuellement, et il ne sera fait aucun Dommage aux Ouvrages qui auront été construits depuis leur Conquête.

VIII. Il est aussi convenu, que dans chaque Cas de Restitution ou de Cession stipulé par un Article quelconque du présent Traité, il sera accordé un Espace de Trois Ans, à dater de la Notification du Traité, dans l'Endroit ou Territoire respectivement restitué ou cédé, aux Personnes de quelque Description que ce soit, Habitants du dit Endroit ou Territoire, ou Possesseurs de Propriétés en Vertu d'un Titre quelconque reconnu comme valable avant la Guerre, ou qui leur seront dévolus depuis, d'après les Loix qui existoient alors ; durant lequel Espace de Trois Ans ils pourront rester et demeurer dans le libre Exercice de leur Religion, et dans la Jouissance de leurs Possessions et Enfets aux mêmes Conditions et en vertu des memes Titres sous lesquels ils en sont devenus Possesseurs, sans être exposés en aucune Maniere, ni sous aucune Pretexte, à être poursuivis ou traduits en Justice à cause de leur Conduite passée, excepté pour la Decharge de Dettes justes et contractées envers des Particuliers ; et que tous ceux qui dans l'Espace de de Mois après la Notification de ce Traité déclareront au Gouvernement, qui sera alors établi, leur Intention de se retirer eux ou leurs Effets, et de se rendre ailleurs, auront et obtiendront sous le Délai d'Un Mois après telle Declaration, pleine Liberté de partir, et de retirer leurs Effets, ou de les vendre et aliéner tant leurs Biens meubles qu' immeubles, en tout Temps pendant le dit Espace de Trois Ans, sans Empêchement ou Contrainte, excepté à cause des Dettes qu'ils auront pu contracter, ou dans le Cas d'une Poursuite criminelle pour des Faits commis postérieurement à la Notification du présent Traité.

IX. Comme il est nécessaire d'assigner une Epoque pour les Restitutions cy dessus stipulées, il est convenu qu'elles auront Lieu en Europe dans l'Espace d'un Mois, en Afrique et en Amérique dans trois Mois, et en Asie dans Six Mois après la Ratification du présent Traité.

X. Pour empêcher le Renouveau des Procès qui ont été terminés dans les Territoires à restituer en vertu de ce Traité, il est convenu que les Jugemens rendus en dernier Ressort, sur les Procès entre Particuliers et qui ont acquis Force de Choses jugées, seront maintenus et exécutés suivant leur Forme et Teneur.

XI. La Decision des Prises et des Saisies de Vaisseaux avec leur Cargaisons pris en pleine Mer, ou arrêtés dans les Ports de l'union ou de l'autre Pays, antérieurement aux Hostilités, sera remise aux Cours de Justice respectives; de sorte que la Validité des dites Prises et Saisies sera décidée selon le Droit des Gens et les Traités dans les Cours de Justice de la Nation qui aura fait la Capture, ou commandé les Saisies. Et pour prévenir tous les Sujets de Plainte et de Contestation qui pourroient naître à l'Occasion des Prises qui pourroient être faites en Mer depuis la Signature du Traité actuel, on est convenu reciproquement que les Vaisseaux et Effets qui pourroient être être pris dans la Manche ou Mer Britannique et dans les Mers du Nord, après l'Espace de Douze Jours, à compter depuis l'échange des Ratifications de ce Traité, seront de Part et d'autre restitués :—Que le Terme sera d'un Mois depuis la Manche ou Mer Britannique et les Mers du Nord, jusqu' aux Isles Canaries inclusivement, soit dans l'Océan, soit dans la Méditerranée :—De Deux Mois depuis les dites Isles Canaries jusqu' à la Ligne Equinoctiale ou l'Equateur :—De Trois Mois depuis l'Equateur en comprenant tout ce qui est situé à l'Ouest du Cap de Bonne Esperance, et à l'Est du Cap de Horn :—Et enfin, de Cinq Mois dans tous les autres Endroits du Monde, sans aucune Exception ni autre Distinction plus particuliere de Tems et de Lieu.

XII. Les Alliés des Deux Parties contractantes, sçavoir, Sa Majesté Très Fidelle comme Allié de Sa Majesté Britannique, et Sa Majesté Catholique et la Republique Batave comme Alliés de la Republique Française, seront invités par les Deux Parties Contractantes à accéder à cette Paix aux Termes et Conditions spécifiés dans les Trois Articles suivans; dont les Deux Parties Contractantes se garantissent réciproquement l'Exécution, y étant respectivement autorisés par leurs susdits Alliés :—Et les Deux Parties Contractantes sont en outre convenues, que si leurs Alliés respectifs n'y auraient pas ainsi accédé dans l'Espace de Deux Mois à compter de l'échange des Ratifications du present Traité, la Partie qui refusera son Accession, ne recevra de son Allié ni Aide ni Secours de telle Nature qui ce soit pendant la Durée alterieure de la Guerre.

XIII. Sa Majesté Britannique s'engage à conclure un Traité de Paix Definitif avec Sa Majesté Catholique sur le Pied du Status ante Bellum, avec l'Exception de qui restera en pleine Propriété à Sa Majesté Britannique.

XIV. Sa

XIV. Sa Majesté Britannique s'engage pareillement à conclure un Traité de Paix Définitif avec la République Batave sur le Pied du Status ante Bellum, avec l'Exception de qui restera en pleine Propriété à Sa Majesté Britannique et de qui sera cédé à Sa Majesté Britannique en Echange de

En Considération de ces Restitutions à faire par Sa Majesté Britannique, toute la Propriété appartenante au Prince d'Orange, au Mois de Decembre 1794, et qui a été séquestrée faite ou confisquée depuis cette Epoque, lui sera rendue, ou bien elle lui sera pleinement compensée par un Equivalent pécuniare. Et la République Française s'engage en outre à lui procurer à la Paix générale une Compensation équivalente de la Perte de ses Charges et Dignités dans les Provinces Unies; et les Personnes qui auront été emprisonnées ou exilées, ou dont les Propriétés auront été séquestrées, ou confisquées dans la dite République à Cause de leur Attachement ax Intérêts de la Maison d'Orange, ou à l'ancien Gouvernement des Provinces Unies, seront mises en Liberté, ou auront la Permission de retourner dans leur Patrie d'y résider, et d'y jouir de leurs Propriétés en se conformant aux Loix et à la Constitution qui y sont établies.

XV. La République Française s'engage à conclure un Traité de Paix Définitif avec Sa Majesté Tres Fidelle sur le Pied du Status ante Bellum, sans qu'aucune Demande ou Condition onéreuse soit exigée de Part ou d'autre.

XVI. Toutes les Stipulations contenues dans ce Traité, relatives au Temps et à la Maniere de faire les Restitutions c'y mentionnées, ainsi que tous les Privileges y réservés aux Habitants ou Propriétaires des Isles ou Territories restitués ou cédés, seront censés se rapporter également aux Restitutions à faire en vertu des Trois derniers Articles; sçavoir, le

Triezieme,

Triezime, Quatorzieme, et Quinzieme, hors les Cas où l'on pourrait y déroger du Consentement mutuel des Parties intéressées.

XVII. Tous les précédents Traités de Paix faits entre les Parties contractantes et leurs Alliés respectifs de Part et d'autre nommés dans les Trois susdits Articles, qui subsistaient et etaient en force avant le Commencement des Hostilités, seront respectivement renouvelés, excepté en tant qu'on pourra y déroger d'un Consentement mutuel; et les Articles de ce Traité qui regardent la Restitution des Prisonniers, la Cessation des Hostilités, et la Décision à l'égard des Prises et Saisie, se rapporteront également aux Parties respectives nommées dans les Trois susdits Articles, et seront censés être Obligatoires entre elles, aussitôt qu'elles auront respectivement et formellement accédé à ce Traité.

XVIII. Toutes les Sequestrations mises par aucune des Parties nommées dans ce Traité, sur les Droits, Propriétés, ou Dettes des Particuliers, appartenans à une a tre des dites Parties, seront levées, et la Propriété de tout Espece sera rendue en entier au Propriétaire légal, ou bien il lui en sera faite une juste Compensation: Et toutes Plaintes à cause de Domages faits à la Propriété des Individus d'une Maniere contraire aux Usages et Droits de la Guerre, et toutes Réclamations de Droits ou de Propriétés appartenans à des Particuliers aux Epoques du Commencement des Hostilités respectivement entre les dites Parties, sçavoir, la Grande Bretagne et le Portugal d'un Coté, et la France, l'Espagne, et la Hollande, de l'autre; et que, selon les Usages reçus et les Loix des Nations, l'Epoque de la Paix devrait faire revivre, seront reçues, entendues, et jugées dans les Cours de Justice respectives des différentes Parties; et pleine Justice sera rendue par chacune des dites Parties aux Sujets et Peuples de l'autre, de la même Maniere qu'à ses propres Sujets et Peuples.

Et

Et en cas qu'il s'éleve des Plaintes sur l'Execution de cet Article, lesquelles ne pourront être satisfaites par un Arrangement mutuel entre les Gouvernemens respectifs dans l'Espace de Douze Mois après qu'elles leur auront été adressées, les dites Plaintes seront jugées par des Commissaires jurés que l'on nommera de Part et d'autre, avec Pouvoir de faire intervenir un Arbitre de quelque Nation neutre; et la Decision des dits Commissaires sera absolue, et sans Appel.

XIX. Sa Majesté Britannique et la République Françoisé promettent d'observer sincérement, et de bonne Foi, tous les Articles contenus et établis dans le present Traité; et ne souffriront pas qu'il y soit fait de Contraventions se garantissent, generalement et réciproquement, toutes les Stipulations du present Traité.

XX. Les Ratications solemnelles du present Traité, expedies en bonne et due Forme, seront echangées en entre les Parties Contractants, dans l'Espace d'un Mois, ou plutot s'il est possible, à compter du Jour de la Signature du present Traité.

En Foi de quoi, &c. &c.

Project of a Treaty of Peace.

As it known to all those whom it shall or may in any manner concern. The most Serene and most Potent Prince George the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Duke of Brunswic and Lunenburgh, Arch Treasurer and Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, and the Executive Directory of the French Republick, being equally desirous to put an End to the War, which has for some Time past subsisted between the Dominions of the Two Parties, have named and constituted for their Plenipotentiaries, charged with the concluding and signing of the Definitive Treaty of

Peace;

Peace; viz. the King of Great Britain, the Lord Baron of Malmesbury, a Peer of the Kingdom of Great Britain, Knight of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Privy Councillor to His Britannick Majesty, and the Executive Directory of the French Republic; who, after having exchanged their respective full Powers, have agreed upon the following Articles:

I. As soon as this Treaty shall be signed and ratified, there shall be an universal and perpetual Peace as well by Sea as by Land, and a sincere and constant Friendship between the Two contracting Parties, and their Dominions, and Territories, and People, without Exception of either Places or Persons; so that the High Contracting Parties shall give the greatest Attention to the maintaining between themselves and their said Dominions, Territories, and People, this reciprocal Friendship and Intercourse, without permitting hereafter, on either Part, any Kind of Hostilities to be committed either by Sea or by Land, for any Cause, or under any Pretence whatsoever. There shall be a general Oblivion and Amnesty of every Thing which may have been done or committed by either Party towards the other before or since the Commencement of the War; and they shall carefully avoid for the future every Thing which might prejudice the Union happily re-established.

Immediately after the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, Orders shall be sent to the Armies and Squadrons of both Parties to stop all Hostilities; and for the Execution of this Article, Sea Passes shall be given on each Side to the Ships dispatched to carry the News of Peace to the Possessions of the Two Parties.

II. The Treaties of Peace of Nimeguen of 1678 and 1679, of Ryswick of 1697, and of Utrecht of 1713; that of Baden of 1714; that of the Triple Alliance of the Hague of 1747; that of the Quadruple Alliance of London of 1718; the Treaty of Peace

Peace of Vienna of 1736; the Definitive Treaty of Aix la Chapelle of 1748; the Definitive Treaty of Paris of 1763; and that of Versailles of 1783, serve as a Basis and Foundation to the Peace, and to the present Treaty. And for this Purpose they are all renewed and confirmed in the best Form, so that they are to be exactly observed for the future in their full Tenour, and religiously executed by both Parties in all the Points which shall not be derogated from by the present Treaty of Peace.

III. All the Prisoners taken on either Side, as well by Land as by Sea, and the Hostages carried away or given during the War, shall be restored, without Ransom, in Six Weeks at latest, to be computed from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty.—Each Party respectively discharging the Advances which shall have been made for the Subsistence and Maintenance of their Prisoners in the Country where they shall have been detained, according to the Receipts, attested Accounts, and other authentic Vouchers, which shall be furnished on each Side; and Security shall be reciprocally given for the Payment of the Debts which the Prisoners may have contracted in the Countries where they may have been detained, until their entire Release.

IV. With respect to the Rights of Fishery on the Coasts of the Island of Newfoundland, and of the Islands adjacent, and in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, the Two Parties shall return to the same Situation in which they were respectively, according to the Treaties and Engagements subsisting at the Period of the Commencement of the War. And with this View, His Majesty consents to restore to France, in full Right, the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon.

V. The same Principle of the State of Possession before the War, is adopted by mutual Consent, with respect to all other Possessions and Rights on both Sides, in every Part of the World, save only the Exceptions which are stipulated by the subsequent Articles of this Treaty. And, to this Intent, all Possessions or Territories which have or may have been conquered by One of the Parties from the other (and not specially excepted in this Treaty), shall be restored to the Party to whom they belonged at the Commencement of the present War.

VI. From this Principle of mutual Restitution, the Two Parties have agreed to except which shall remain to His Britannick Majesty in full Sovereignty.

VII. In all the Cases of Restitution provided by the present Treaty, the Fortresses shall be restored in the same Condition in which they now are, and no Injury shall be done to any Works that have been constructed since the Conquest of

VIII. It is also agreed, that in every Case of Restitution or Cession provided by any of the Articles of this Treaty, the Term of Three Years from the Date of the Notification of the Treaty, in the respective Territory or Place restored or ceded, shall be allowed to Persons of whatever Description, residing or being in the said Territory or Place, possessed of Property therein under any Title existing before the War, or which has since devolved to them by the Laws then existing; during which Term of Three Years they shall remain and reside unmolested in the Exercise of their Religion, and in the Enjoyment of their Possessions and Effects, upon the Conditions and Titles under which they so acquired the same, without being liable in any Manner, or under any Pretence, to be prosecuted or sued for their past Conduct, except as to the Discharge of just Debts to Individuals; and that all those who, within the Time of

Months after the Notification of this Treaty, shall declare to the Government, then established, their Intention to withdraw themselves, or their Effects, and to remove to some other Place, shall have and obtain tain within One Month after such Declaration full Liberty to depart and to remove their Effects, or to sell and dispose of the same, whether moveable or immoveable, at any Time within the said Period of Three Years, without any Restraint or Hindrance, except on Account of Debts at any Time contracted, or of any criminal Prosecution for Acts done subsequent to the Notification of this Treaty.

IX. As it is necessary to appoint a certain Period for the Restitutions herein-before stipulated, it is agreed, that the same shall take place in Europe within (One Month), in Africa and America within (Three Months), and in Asia within (Six Months), after the Ratification of the present Treaty.

X. For preventing the Revival of the Law Suits which have been ended in the Territories to be restored by virtue of this Treaty, it is agreed, that the Judgements in private Causes pronounced in the last Resort, and which have acquired the Force of Matters determined, shall be confirmed and executed according to their Form and Tenour.

XI. The Decision of the Prizes and Seizures of Ships and their Cargoes taken at Sea or seized in the Ports of either Country, prior to the Hostilities, shall be referred to the respective Courts of Justice; so that the Legality of the said Prizes and Seizures shall be decided according to the Law of Nations, and to Treaties, in the Courts of Justice of the Nation which shall have made the Capture, or ordered the Seizures. And in order to prevent all Causes of Complaint and Dispute which may arise on account of Prizes which may be made at Sea after the Signing of this Treaty, it is reciprocally agreed that the Vessels and Effects which may be taken in the British Channel and in the North Seas, after the Space of Twelve Days, to be computed from the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, shall be restored on each Side:—That the Term shall be One Month from the British Channel and the North Seas, as far as the Canary Islands, inclusively, whether in the Ocean, or in the Mediterranean: Two Months from the said Canary Islands as far as the Equinoctial Line or Equator:—Three Months from the Equator to any Part to the Westward of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Eastward of Cape Horn:—And, lastly, Five Months in all other Parts of the World, without any Exception or any more particular Description of Time or Place.

XII. The Allies of the Two Parties, that is to say, Her Most Faithful Majesty as Ally of His Britannick Majesty, and His Catholick Majesty and the Batavian Republick as Allies of the French Republick, shall be invited by the Two Contracting Parties to accede to this Peace on the Terms and Conditions specified in the Three following Articles; the Execution of which the said Two Contracting Parties reciprocally guarantee to each other, being thereto respectively authorized by their above-mentioned Allies:—And the Two Contracting Parties further agree, that if their Allies respectively shall not have so acceded within the Space of Two Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, the Party so refusing to accede, shall not receive from its Ally any Aid or Succour of any Nature during the further Continuance of the War.

XIII. His Britannick Majesty engages to conclude a definitive Peace with His Catholick Majesty on the Footing of the State of Possession before the War, with the Exception of which shall remain in full Sovereignty to His Britannick Majesty.

XIV. His Britannick Majesty in like Manner engages to conclude a Definitive Peace with the Batavian Republick on the same Footing of the State of Possession before the War, with the Exception of which shall remain to His Britannick Majesty in full Sove-

Sovereignty, and of which shall be ceded to His Majesty in Exchange for

In Consideration of these Restitutions, to be hereby made by His Britannick Majesty, all Property belonging to the Prince of Orange, in the Month of December 1794, and which has been seized and confiscated since that Period, shall be restored to him, or a full Equivalent for Money given him for the same. And the French Republick further engages to procure for him, at the general Peace, an adequate Compensation for the Loss of his Offices and Dignities in the United Provinces; and the Persons who have been imprisoned or banished, or whose Property has been sequestered or confiscated in the said Republick, on Account of their Attachment to the Interests of the House of Orange, or to the former Government of the United Provinces, shall be released, and shall be at Liberty to return to their Country, and to reside therein, and to enjoy their Property there, conforming themselves to the Laws and Constitution there established.

XV. The French Republick engages to conclude a Definitive Peace with Her Most Faithful Majesty on the same Footing, of the State of Possession before the War, and without any further Demand or burthenfome Condition being made on either Side.

XVI. All the Stipulations contained in this Treaty, respecting the Time and Manner of making the Restitutions therein mentioned, and all the Privileges thereby reserved to the Inhabitants or Proprietors in the Islands or Territories restored or ceded, shall apply in like Manner to the Restitutions to be made by virtue of any of the Three last Articles, viz. the XIIIth, XIVth, and XVth, except in those Instances where the same may be derogated from by the mutual Consent of the Parties concerned.

XVII. All former Treaties of Peace between the respective Parties, to whom the said Three Articles relate, and which subsisted and were in force at the Commencement of Hostilities between them respectively, shall be renewed, except in such Instances only where the same may be derogated from by mutual Consent; and the Article of this Treaty for the Restoration of Prisoners, the Cessation of Hostilities, and the Decision relative to Prizes and Seizures, shall equally apply to the respective Parties to whom the said Three Articles relate, and shall be held to be in full force between them, as soon as they shall respectively and in due form have acceded to this Treaty.

XVIII. All Sequestrations imposed by any of the Parties named in this Treaty, on the Rights, Properties, or Debts, of Individuals belonging to any other of the said Parties, shall be taken off, and the Property of whatever Kind shall be restored in the fullest Manner to the lawful Owner; or just Compensation be made for it: And all Complaints of Injury done to private property, contrary to the usual Practice and Rules of War, and all Claims of private rights or property which belonged to Individuals at the periods of the Commencement of Hostilities respectively, between the said parties, viz. Great Britain and Portugal on the one Side, and France, Spain, and Holland, on the other; and which ought, according to the usual practice and Laws of Nations, to revive at the period of peace, shall be received, heard, and decided, in the respective Courts of Justice of the different parties; and full Justice therein shall be done by each of the said parties to the Subjects and people of the other, in the same Manner as to their own Subjects or people.

And if any Complaint should arise respecting the Execution of this Article, which Complaints shall not be settled by mutual Agreement between the respective Governments within twelve Months after the same shall have been preferred to them, the same shall be determined by sworn Commissioners to be appointed on each Side, with Power to call in an Arbitrator bitrator of any indifferent Nation; and the decision of the said Commissioners shall be binding, and without Appeal.

XIX. His Britannick Majesty and the French Republick promise to observe sincerely, and bonâ fide, all the Articles contained and established in the present Treaty; and they will not suffer the same to be infringed, directly or indirectly, by their respective Subjects; and the said Contracting Parties guarantee to each other, generally and reciprocally, all the Stipulations of the present Treaty:

XX. The solemn Ratifications of the present Treaty, prepared in good and due Form, shall be exchanged in _____ between the Contracting Parties, in the Space of a Month, or sooner if possible, to be computed from the Day of the Signature of the present Treaty.

In Witness whereof, &c. &c.

(No. 14 B.) Note from Lord Malmesbury to the French Plenipotentiaries.

Le Ministre Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique, pour satisfaire au Desir qu'ont remoiné à la Conférence de ce Matin les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République Française, a l'Honneur de leur adresser la Note suivante en les priant toutefois de la regarder moins comme une Piece officielle, que comme une Communication confidentielle et verbale, et comme une Preuve de son Empressement à faciliter le Progrès de la Negociation, en leur offrant dès le premier pas, tous les Eclaircissements qui dépendent de lui sur le Projet du Traité qu'il leur a remis.

Si, comme l'assurent les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République Française, il est contraire à leurs Instructions les plus positives d'entrer en aucune Discussion sur la Cession des Objets qui appartaient à la France avant la Guerre, il est inutile de s'appuyer sur l'Article VI. puisque les Compensations que Sa Majesté Britannique aurait demandées par cet Article, en retour des Restitutions qu'elle est disposé à faire pour le Rétablissement de la Paix, devront se trouver d'après cette Déclaration, dans les Cessions à faire, soit par Sa Majesté Catholique, soit par la République Batave.

C'est pourquoi dans l'Article XIII. après les Mots Status ante Bellum, le Lord Malmesbury proposera d'insérer les Mots suivans : " A l'Exception de l'Isle de Trinidad, qui restera en toute Propriété à Sa Majesté Britannique."

Le Lord Malmesbury croit qu'il est peu nécessaire de répéter les Raisons qui l'engagent à insister sur la Conservation de cette Conquête, à moins qu'elle ne soit compensée par quelque autre Cession qui puisse balancer le Surcroit de Puissance résultant de l'Acquisition faite par la France de la Partie Espagnole de St. Domingue.

Quant à l'Article XIV. le Lord Malmesbury propose, qu'après les Mots Status ante Bellum, on ajoute : " Avec Exception de la Ville, du Fort, et de l'Établissement du Cap de Bonne Espérance; et des Possessions qui ont appartenu aux Hollandois avant la Guerre dans l'Isle de Ceylon, et de la Ville et Fort de Cochin, qui seront cédés à Sa Majesté Britannique, en Échange de la Ville de Negapatnam, et de ses Dépendances."

Le Lord Malmesbury réitère aux Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, le Témoignage de son Empressement à concourir avec eux, en tout ce qui dépend de lui, pour amener la Négociation à une heureuse Issue; et les prie en même Temps d'agréer les Assurances de sa haute Considération.

THE Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty has the Honor of presenting to the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, in consequence of the Wish expressed by them in the Conference of this Morning, the following Note: Which he requests them at the same Time to consider, not so much in the Light of an official Paper as of a verbal and confidential Communication, and as a Proof of his Readiness to facilitate the Progress of the Negotiation, by giving them, on the very Outset, all the Explanations in his Power on the Project of the Treaty which he has delivered to them.

If, as the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick have assured him, it is contrary to their most positive Instructions to enter into any Discussion relative to the Cession of those Possessions which belonged to France before the War, it is useless to dwell on the VIth Article: Since the Compensations which his Britannick Majesty might have demanded by that Article, in Return for the Restitutions which He is disposed to make for the Re-establishment of Peace, must, in consequence of this Declaration, be sought for in the Cessions to be made by His Catholick Majesty, and the Batavian Republick.

Lord Malmesbury therefore proposes to insert in the Thirteenth Article, after the Words Status ante Bellum, the following Words: "With the Exception of the Island of Trinidad, which shall remain in full Possession of His Britannick Majesty."

Lord Malmesbury imagines that it is unnecessary for him to repeat the Reasons which induce him to insist upon the retaining of this Conquest, unless compensation should be made for it by some other Cession which shall balance the augmentation of Power accruing to France, from the acquisition of the Spanish part of St. Domingo.

With regard to the Fourteenth Article, Lord Malmesbury proposes, that after the Words Status ante Bellum, should be added, "With the Exception of the Town, Fort, and Establishment of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Possessions which belonged to the Dutch before the War in the Island of Ceylon, and of the Town and Fort of Cochín, which shall be ceded to His Britannick Majesty in Exchange for the Town of Negapatnam and its Dependencies."

Lord Malmesbury repeats to the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, the Assurance of his Readiness to concur with them, in every Thing which shall depend on him, to bring the Negotiation to a happy Issue; and requests of them, at the same Time, to accept the Assurances of his high Consideration.

Note from the French Plenipotentiaries to Lord Malmesbury.

Les Ministres Plenipotentiaries de la Republique Françoise ont reçu la Note que le Ministre Plenipotentiare de Sa Majesté Britannique leur a fait l'Honneur de leur adresser Hier. En attendant qu'ils puissent communiquer au Lord Malmesbury les Observations dont ces deux Pieces leur ont paru susceptibles, ils croyent devoir l'inviter à se rendre à la Salle des Conférences demain à Une Heure après midi, si ce Moment lui paroît convenable, pour s'occuper avec lui d'Objets particuliers dont la Discussion peut s'isoler et se suivre sans Rétard.

THE Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick have received the Note which the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty did them the Honor of addressing to them Yesterday. They will give to it, as well as to the project of a Treaty to which it relates, the most serious Attention. In the mean time, though they are not yet enabled to communicate to Lord Malmesbury the Remarks to which these two Papers appear to them, they think it their Duty to propose to him a Conference to-morrow, at One o'Clock, if that Hour is agreeable to him, in order to treat with him on distinct Points, the discussion of which may be entered upon separately, and which may be proceeded in without Delay.

They request Lord Malmesbury to accept the Assurances of their high Consideration.

(No. 16. D.) Note from the French Plenipotentiaries to Lord Malmesbury, dated Lille.

Les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République Française s'empresstent de satisfaire au Desir que leur a temoigné le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique, en lui envoyant une Note sur les Trois Points qui ont fait l'Objèt de la Conférence de ce Jour.

1. Ils ont l'Ordre positif d'exiger la Renonciation au Titre de Roy de France que porte Sa Majesté Britannique.

Le Lord Malmesbury est prié d'observer qu'il ne s'agit pas seulement ici d'une Renonciation aux Droits que l'on pourrait prétendre devoir resulter de cette Qualification, mais encore et positivement de la Qualification elle même. L'Etablissement de la République Française, et la Reconnoissance de cette Forme de Gouvernement par le Roy d'Angleterre, ne lui permettraient pas de conserver un Titre qui supposerait en France l'Existence d'un Ordre de Choses qui n'est plus.

2. Les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République sont chargés de demander la Restitution des Vaisseaux pris ou detruits à Toulon.

L'Angleterre a déclaré hautement et formellement qu'elle prenait les Vaisseaux en Dépot pour le Roy de France. Ce Dépot est sacré. Il appartient incontestablement à la République, qui exerce les Droits et la Souveraineté que l'Angleterre attribuoit à Louis XVII. à l'Epoque de la Prise de Toulon. Sa Majesté Britannique ne saurait donc, en reconnoissant la République Française, méconnaître son Droit à la Restitution dont il s'agit, ou refuser de la faire ou d'en offrir l'Equivalent.

3. Les Ministres Plénipotentiaires ont à demander, et demandent la Renonciation de Sa Majesté Britannique à l'Hypothèque sur la Belgique.

Ce Pays avait été engagé pour les Emprunts faits par l'Empereur en Angleterre. Il est devenu Partie intégrante intégrante de la République, et ne peut rester grévée d'une semblable Hypothèque.

Les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République Française prient le Lord Malmesbury d'agréer l'Assurance de leur haute Considération,

THE Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republic lose no Time in complying with the Wish expressed to them by the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty, by transmitting to him a Note on the Three points which were the Subject of their Conference of this Day.

1. They have positive Orders to require the Renunciation of the Title of King of France borne by His Britannick Majesty.

Lord Malmesbury is requested to observe that the Question is not only of a Renunciation of the Rights which might be pretended to be derived from this Title, but further and formally of the Title itself. The Establishment of the French Republick, and the Acknowledgement of this Form of Government by the King of England, will not allow of his retaining a Title which would imply the Existence in France of an Order of Things which is at an End.

2. The Ministers Plenipotentiary of the Republick are ordered to demand the Restitution of the Vessels taken or destroyed at Toulon.

Great Britain has publicly and formally declared that these Vessels were taken in Trust for the King of France. This Trust is sacred. It incontestably belongs to the Republick, which exercises the Rights and the Sovereignty that Great Britain attributed to

Louis

Louis XVII. at the period of the Capture of Toulon. His Britannick Majesty cannot, therefore, in acknowledging the French Republick, deny its Right to the Restitution required, or refuse either to make the Restitution, or to offer an Equivalent for it.

3. The Ministers Plenipotentiary have Orders to demand, and do demand, the Renunciation, on the part of His Britannick Majesty, of the Mortgage on Belgium.

That Country was mortgaged for the Loans made by the Emperor in England. It has become an integral part of the French Republick, and cannot remain burthened with such a Mortgage.

The Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick request Lord Malmesbury to accept the Assurance of their Consideration.

(No. 17.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing-Street, July 13, 1797.

WITH respect to the Demands contained in the Note transmitted to your Lordship by the French Ministers, they have been naturally received here with great Surprise. On the Subject of the Netherlands as connected with the Austrian Loans, it is conceived that any Explanation between His Majesty and the French Government is wholly unnecessary. The Loans raised in England for the Service of the Emperor of Germany, guaranteed by Act of Parliament here, rest, as your Lordship will perceive, by the annexed Copy of the Convention on that Subject, upon the Security of all the Revenues of of all the hereditary Dominions of His Imperial Majesty. They do not seem in any Manner to come under the Description contained in the Sixth Article of the Preliminaries between Austria and France, respecting Mortgages upon the Soil of the Netherlands, on which Ground alone France could have any Pretence to interfere in the Business. Nor is this Subject One which appears to be in any Manner a fit Point of Discussion between His Majesty and the Republick; the King neither forms nor has any Intention of forming any Demand on the French Government for the Payment of any Part either of the Interest or Capital of those Loans. It is to the Emperor alone that His Majesty looks for the Performance of his Imperial Majesty's Engagements to Him, and it is upon the Austrian Government, and upon its Revenues, that Individuals concerned in those Loans have Claims of private Right, and Means of Personal Demand secured to them by the Convention.

On the other Two Points I have nothing to add to the Observations which your Lordship has already made upon them: And we can therefore only wait with Impatience for the Answer to the Projet delivered by your Lordship, which will enable us to form a Judgment on the Intentions of the Government with whom we are treating.

Right Honourable Lord Malmesbury.

(No. 18.) Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, 16th July 1797.

It was at the express Invitation of the French Plenipotentiaries that I met them on Thursday the 13th instant; One of them stated their Motive for wishing to confer with me, not to be in consequence of any Answer they had received from Paris on the Subject of the Projet, which he observed could not be expected so soon, but to resume the Discussion on the Article which he had objected to on my first reading the Projet, and on which they conceived it was possible and even expedient to argue before we entered on the more important Branches of the Negotiation. It was Article II. that he referred to. He objected to the Renewal of the Treaties therein mentioned from various Reasons; First, That many and even most of them were irrelevant to that we were now negotiating; Secondly, That they were in Contradiction to the new Order of Things established in France, as they seem to imply an Acknowledgement that a Portion of the Regal Authority is still existing; Thirdly, That they might be supposed to apply to Conventions and Stipulations, in direct Contradiction to their present Form of Government, and he quoted the Convention of Pilitz in particular. I was about to reply to him and I trust in a Way that would have done away his Apprehensions on this point, when another of them interposed by saying, That their sincere and only desire was that the Treaty we were now entering upon might be so framed, as to secure permanently the Object for which it was intended; that no Article likely to produce this end might be omitted, nor any doubtful one inserted; but that the whole, as well with regard to the past as to the future, might be so clearly and distinctly expressed, that no room for Cavil might be left. This he assured me, in the Name of his Colleagues, was all that was meant by their Objection to renew so many Treaties in which such various Interests were blended, and so many Points discussed foreign to the present Moment. Their renewing them in a Lump, and without examining carefully to what we were pledged by them, might involve us in difficulties much better to be avoided. I replied, that I admitted most certainly all he said, and that it was with this View and on this principle solely that the Renewal of these Treaties was proposed by His Majesty; and that if he recollected (as he undoubtedly did) the different Wars which were terminated by these Treaties, and the many important Regulations stipulated by them, he would admit that the allowing them to remain in their full Force was simply an Acknowledgement of the Tenure by which almost all the Sovereigns of Europe, and particularly the French Republick, held their Dominions up to this Day. That these Treaties were become the Law of Nations, and that infinite Confusion would result from their not being renewed.

He replied, that our Object was evidently the same, that we only differed as to the Manner. I thought the renewing these Treaties in toto would the best contribute to it; while they were inclined to think, that extracting from them every Thing which immediately related to the Interests of the Two Countries, and stating it in One Article, was more likely to attain this desirable Object. The French Minister again repeated, that their First Wish was, that the Treaty we were now making should be clear, distinct, solid, and lasting, and such a one as could not, at any future period, be broken through without a manifest Violation of good Faith. And I again repeated, that nothing could be so consonant to my Orders, or the Intentions of my Royal Master.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries was disposed to dwell on his Objections, which were, that these Treaties were signed when France was a Monarchy, and that any Retrospect to those Times implied a Sort of Censure on their present Form of Government; but this was arguing on such weak Ground, and so incapable of being seriously maintained, that I, to avoid superfluous Contradiction, was very willing to let it pass unnoticed. After a good deal of very conciliatory, and even amicable discussion, which, however, neither Party gave much Way to the other, it was proposed by them that we should return Home, to meet again as soon as was convenient after an attentive and deliberate perusal of the Treaties, in order to state respectively our Ideas on this Subject. I observed, that although I was perfectly prepared to do it at the Moment, and felt almost bold enough to affirm, that no Measure could be devised which would so completely meet our Intentions as an unreserved Renewal of the Treaties they hesitated about, yet I was very willing to acquiesce in their Proposal, with this simple Observation, that if any Delay arose from it, such Delay was imputable to them and not to me. My words were, " Je ne me rends pas responsable des Longueurs dans lesquelles cette Discussion pourrait nous entraîner." The French Minister's Answer was, " Si des Longueurs servent à déterminer des Objets qui pourraient donner lieu à des Querelles à l'avenir, ce sera du Temps bien employé." It was not my Wish to contest this Assertion, and our Conference ended with it.

(No. 19.) Extracts of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, July 16, 1797.

My Lord,

YESTERDAY at the Moment I was preparing to attend the Conference, in which we were to enter into fuller Discussions on the litigated Subject of the Renewal of the Treaties mentioned in the Second Article of the Projet, I received from the French Legation the inclosed paper (A). In about an Hour I returned the enclosed Answer (B), to which I received the enclosed Reply (C); and I am this Moment come from the Conference which has taken place in consequence of it.

I began by saying, that I had solicited this Interview from the same Motive which would actuate every part of my Conduct; that I wished to make my Reports not only correct but conciliatory as far as depended on me, and I now was come in order, if possible, to obtain from them such Comments and Explanations of the Note they sent to me Yesterday, as would enable me, when I transmitted it to my Court, to secure the Negotiation from being interrupted, perhaps abruptly terminated, by the perusal of it. If I understood it right, it meant that the Directory requires as a sine qua non Preliminary, that every thing the King has conquered from all and each of His Enemies should be restored, and that till this Restoration was consented to the Negotiation was not even to begin. I said, if I was correct in this Statement, and the plain Sense of the Declaration would bear no other Interpretation, I must add that it would not only most certainly prevent the Treaty from beginning, but would leave no Room for treating at all, since it deprived His Majesty of every Means of Negotiation; for I could not suppose that it was in their Thoughts to intimate that the Principle of Treaty, as far as it related to His Majesty, was to be One of ail Cession and no Compensation, and yet that was precisely the position in which His Majesty was placed by their Note.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries, who had let me proceed rather reluctantly, here stopt me, and said, that he and his Colleagues were exceedingly happy that I had expressed a Wish to see them before I dispatched my Messenger; that they wished to assure me, that they had thought it dealing fairly and honorably to state what they had received from the Directory in the very Words in which it came to them; that they should be sorry if the Declaration they had been directed to make me, should be of a Nature to interrupt, much less to break off, the Negotiation; that it was the sincere Wish of the Directory that the Negotiation should proceed and end successfully; and that, far from shutting the door to further Discussions, they were perfectly ready to hear any proposals we had to make, and only wished that these proposals should be, if possible, such as were compatible with their most sacred Engagements. I repeated what I had said, that no door was left open if His Majesty was in limine to restore every Thing; and that a Peace on these Conditions would not be heard of by the Country. I observed, observed; that immediately on leaving them, I should dispatch a Messenger; but what that Messenger carried would most materially affect the progress and Issue of the Negotiation; I therefore desired to know whether, in consequence of what I had heard from them, I might consider the strict and literal Meaning of the Declaration not to be a decided Negative (which it certainly seemed to imply) on all compensation whatever to be made to His Majesty, but that proposals tending to this Effect would be listened to. One of them answered, "certainly, and "if they should be found such as it will be impossible "for us to admit, we will on our Side bring forward "others for your Court to deliberate on." Under this Assurance, which at least, to a certain Degree, qualifies the Declaration of Yesterday, I broke up the Conference.

Note from the French Plenipotentiaries to Lord Malmesbury.

LES Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République Française ont fait passer à leur Gouvernement le Projet de Traité, et la Note relative, qui leur ont été présentés le 20 du présent Mois, par le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique.

Ils viennent de recevoir des Communications nouvelles et des Ordres en conséquence desquels ils doivent faire au Lord Malmesbury la Déclaration suivante.

Il existe dans les Traités patents et secrets qui lient la République Française à ses Alliés, l'Espagne et la République Batave, des Articles portant garantie respective des Territoires que les Trois Puissances possédaient avant la Guerre. Le Gouvernement Français, ne pouvant pas se délier des Engagemens qu'il a contractés par ces Traités, établit comme Préliminaire indispensable de la Négotiation pour la Paix avec l'Angleterre, le Consentement de Sa Majesté Britannique à la Restitution de toutes les Possessions qu'elle qu'elle occupe, non seulement sur la République Française, mais encore et formellement sur l'Espagne et la République Batave.

En conséquence, les Ministres Plenipotentiaires soussignés invitent Lord Malmesbury à s'expliquer sur cette Restitution, et à y consentir s'il y est suffisamment autorisé ; si non, et dans le Cas contraire à envoyer un Courier à sa Cour pour en obtenir les Pouvoirs nécessaires.

L'Objet de la Conférence qui devoit avoir lieu ce Jour, se trouvant nécessairement ajourné par l'Effet de la Déclaration ci-dessus, Les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la République ont à témoigner au Lord Malmesbury le Regret qu'ils éprouvent de manquer cette Occasion qu'ils avoient recherchée de s'entretenir avec lui ; Au surplus, dans le Cas où le Lord Malmesbury auroit quelque Communication à leur faire, ils le prient de croire qu'ils se sont toujours empressés de le recevoir et de l'entendre quand il le jugera à propos.

Ils le prient en même Tems d'agréer de nouveau l'Assurance de leur haute Consideration.

Translation.

THE Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick have transmitted to their Government the Project of the Treaty, and the Note relating thereto, which were delivered to them the 20th of the present Month, by the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty.

They

They have just received fresh Communications and Orders, which require that they should make the following Declaration to Lord Malmesbury.

There exist in the Public and Secret Treaties, by which the French Republic is bound to its Allies, Spain and the Batavian Republick, Articles by which the Three Powers respectively guarantee the Territories possessed by each of them before the War.

The French Government, unable to detach itself from the Engagements which it has contracted by these Treaties, establishes, as an indispensable Preliminary of the Negotiation for the Peace with England, the Consent of His Britannick Majesty to the Restitution of all the Possessions which He occupies, not only from the French Republick, but further and formally of those of Spain and the Batavian Republick.

In consequence, the Undersigned Ministers Plenipotentiary request Lord Malmesbury to explain himself with regard to this Restitution, and to consent to it, if he is sufficiently authorized to do so; if not, and in the contrary Case, to send a Messenger to his Court, in order to procure the necessary Powers.

The Object of the Conference which was to have taken place to Day being necessarily delayed by the Purport of the abovementioned Declaration, the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the Republick have to express to Lord Malmesbury the Regret that they feel in losing this Opportunity of conversing together, which they had themselves solicited:—But in case Lord Malmesbury should have any Communication to make to them, they beg him to believe that they will always be happy to receive him, and to listen to him, whenever he may think it proper.

They

They request him, at the same Time, to accept anew the Assurances of their high Consideration.

He has no Hesitation in declaring to them, that his Instructions by no Means authorize him to admit, as a preliminary Principle, that which their Declaration seems intended to establish: Nevertheless, being persuaded that it is his first Duty not to give up the Hopes of Conciliation until he shall have exhausted every Means of obtaining it, and being anxious to avoid, in the Report which he shall have to make to his Court, the possibility of Misunderstanding on a Subject of such Importance, he proposes to them a Conference for To-morrow, at the Hour most convenient to them, after which it is his Intention to dispatch a Messenger to his Court.

He requests the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republic to accept the Assurance of his high Consideration.

(No. 23.) Copy of a Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing Street, July 20, 1797.

My Lord,

Your Lordship's Dispatches by the Messenger Dressins, were received here on the 17th Instant, at Night, and I lost no Time in receiving His Majesty's Commands on the very important Subject of your Letter, No. 9.

I am much concerned to be under the Necessity of remarking, that the Claim brought forward in the Note transmitted to your Lordship by the French Plenipotentiaries, is in itself so extravagant, and so little to be reconciled either with the former Professions of those Ministers, or with their Conduct in the previous Stages of the Negotiation, that it affords the strongest Presumption of a Determination to preclude all Means of Accommodation. If such is really the Determination of the Directory, nothing can remain for this Country but to persevere in opposing, with an Energy and Spirit proportioned to the Exigency, a System which must tend to perpetuate a State of War and Civil Tumult in every Part of Europe.

The natural Step upon the present Occasion would therefore have been to direct your Lordship to terminate at once a Negotiation, which, on the Footing now proposed by the Enemy, affords neither the Hope nor the Means of any favourable Conclusion. Nothing being left for Treaty, where, as a Preliminary Step, one Party is required to concede every Thing; and all compensation from the other is absolutely and at once precluded. His Majesty's Servants have, however, observed, that in the Conclusion of your Lordship's Conference with the French Plenipotentiaries on the Subject of the Note in Question, the President of that Mission informed your Lordship, that it was not intended to resist all Compensation for the immense Extent of Restitution demanded from His Majesty, and for the other obvious circumstances of disadvantage to this Country in the Situation of Europe, as resulting from the War; and even added, that he and his Colleagues would eventually bring forward Proposals on this Head for the Deliberation of the King's Government. It appeared possible that some Advantage might perhaps arise to the great Object of Peace, from grounding on this Declaration a further Proceeding, such as might afford to the Directory (if they are so disposed) the Means of replacing the Negotiation on a more practicable Footing. With the View therefore of leaving nothing untried which can contribute to restore Peace on any suitable Terms, His Majesty has been pleased to direct that your Lordship should for that Purpose ask another Conference with the French Plenipotentiaries. In this Conference your Lordship will remark in such Terms as the Occasion must naturally suggest to you upon the indefensible Spirit and Tendency of the Demand Demand now made by France. You will observe that France, treating in Conjunction with her Allies, and, in their Name, cannot with any Pretence of Justice and Fairness, oppose her treaties with them as an Obstacle in the Way of any reasonable Proposal of Peace in which they are to be included. In a separate Negotiation, to which they were not parties, such a plea might, perhaps, have been urged; but in that case France would have been bound to offer, from her own Means, that Compensation which she did not think herself at Liberty to engage to obtain from her Allies. And such was, in Fact, as your Lordship must remember, the Principle on which His Majesty offered to treat last Year, when he was really bound, by Engagements to Austria, similar to those which are now alledged by France. But it never can be allowed that France, Spain, and Holland, negotiating jointly for a Peace with Great Britain, can set up, as a Bar to our just Demands, the Treaties between themselves, from which they are at onceable to release each other whenever they think fit.

You will further remark, that even if, contrary to all Reason, such a Principle could for a Moment have been admitted on our Part, still even that Principle, inadmissible as it is, could only apply to public Treaties, known to those who agreed to be governed by them, and not to secret Articles, unknown even to the French Plenipotentiaries, or concealed by One of them from the Knowledge of the others.

You will add in explicit, though not offensive Terms, that the Whole of this Pretence now set up by France is incontestably frivolous and illusory; being grounded on a Supposition of a State of Things directly contrary to that which is known really to exist. It being perfectly notorious that both Spain and Holland, so far from wishing to continue the War, were compelled by France to engage in it, greatly against their own Wishes; and to undertake, without the Means of supporting it, a Contest in which they had nothing to gain, and every Thing to lose. It never therefore can be allowed to be a Question of any possible Doubt, but that the Directory, if they really wish it, must already have obtained, or could at any Moment obtain, the Consent of those Powers to such Terms of Peace as have been proposed by His Majesty. If, however, France, from any Motive of Interest or Engagement, is in Truth desirous to procure for them the Restitution of Possessions which they were unable to defend, and have no Means to reconquer, the Project delivered by your Lordship afforded an Opening for this: those Articles having been so drawn as to leave it to France to provide a Compensation to His Majesty, either out of her own Colonies, or out of those of her Allies, respectively conquered by His Majesty's Arms. The Choice between these Alternatives may be left to the Directory; but to refuse both is, in other Words, to refuse all Compensation. This is nevertheless expressly declared not to be the Intention of those with whom you treat. It is therefore necessary that your Lordship should demand from them a Statement of the Proposals, which, as they informed you, they have to make, in order to do away this apparent Contradiction, which the King's Servants are wholly unable to reconcile by any Suggestion of theirs, even if it were fitting and reasonable for them to bring forward any new Proposals immediately after the detailed Project which was delivered on the Part of this Country at the Outset of the Negotiation.

Since that Project is not acceded to, we have evidently, and on every Ground, a Right to expect a Counter Project, equally full and explicit on the Part of the Enemy. You will therefore state to the French Ministers distinctly, that the only Hope of bringing this Business to a favourable Conclusion, is by their stating at once plainly, and without Reserve, the Whole of what they have to ask, instead of bringing ing forward separate Points one after the other, not only contrary to the avowed Principle of the Negotiation proposed by themselves, but, as it appears, even contrary to the Expectation of the Ministers themselves who are employed on the Part of France. There can be no Pretence for refusing a Compliance with this Demand, if the Plenipotentiaries of France are disposed to forward the Object of Peace: And the obtaining such a Statement from them is, as I have before stated to your Lordship, a Point of so much Importance, in any Course which this Negotiation may take, that it is the King's Pleasure that your Lordship should use every possible Endeavour to prevent their eluding so just a Demand.

After what has passed, it is, I fear, very doubtful whether such a Counter Project would be framed on Principles such as could be admitted here, but it would at all Events place the Business on its real Issue, and bring distinctly into Question the General Points on which the Conclusion of Peace, or the Prolongation of War, will really depend.

I am, &c.

(Signed) GRENVILLE.

Right Honourable Lord Malmesbury.

(No. 24.) Copy of a Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing-Street, July 20, 1797.

My Lord,

THERE are Two separate Points on which it is necessary for me to say a few Words to your Lordship, in Addition to the Instructions in my other Dispatch, on the General Subject of the Negotiation.

The First relates to the Assertion of One of the French Ministers, that the Portuguese Ships and Troops were at Toulon. The Fact is very immaterial as to any Conclusion that could be drawn from it, to affect the Situation or just Claims of the Court of Lisbon; because your Lordship well knows, that it is a Principle universally recognized in the public Law of Europe, that when One of the Parties, in a Defensive Alliance, furnishes to his Ally the stipulated Succours, those Succours remain entirely at the Disposal of the requiring Party. to be employed wherever he shall judge proper, subject only to the Limitations of the Treaty which before existed; and if the Amount of those Succours is not encreased beyond that engaged for, nor the Means of using them extended by new Facilities, the Party furnishing the stipulated Assistance is not understood to violate the Laws of Neutrality.

But the Fact, in this Case, would not bear out the Assertion, even if the Argument to be drawn from it were more conclusive. The Troops of Her Most Faithful Majesty having been, as I apprehend, no otherwise employed than in the Two Campaigns carried on by Land, upon the Southern Part of the Frontiers of France and Spain.

The other point relates to what was said to your Lordship about the Treaty of Pilnitz. It would certainly not require much Argument to prove that the Renewal of several Treaties enumerated by Name and Date, and the latest of which was concluded in 1783, does not imply a Renewal of another Treaty supposed to be concluded in 1791. But what is more material to the present Case is, that your Lordship should take this Opportunity to explain, in the most distinct and unequivocal Terms, that if any secret Treaty was in fact concluded at the Interview at Pilnitz, between the late Emperor and the King of Prussia (which is, to say the least, very doubtful in point of Fact), this at least is certain, that His Majesty was no Party to such Treaty; and not only was not then included in it, but has never since adhered to it, nor even been apprized of its Contents. The publick Declaration which was made at that Interview, shews on the Face of it that

His

His Majesty was no party to it; and it is, indeed, notorious that it applied to Circumstances which were done away long before the War broke out between Austria and France, and that the subsequent Negotiations for the Maintenance of Peace between those Powers turned on points wholly distinct from those supposed to have been referred to in the pretended Treaty of Pilnitz.

This Explanation, however little connected with the present Negotiation, seems to be called for by the Allusion made to you upon the Subject; and, indeed, on a point on which so much Misrepresentation has prevailed, it is useful not to omit the Opportunity of stating the Facts as they really are.

I am, &c.

(Signed) GRENVILLE.

Right Honourable Lord Malmesbury.

(No. 25.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lille, 25th, July, 1797.

My Lord,

I HAVE the Honour to acknowledge your Lordship's Dispatches, No. 19 and 20, of the 20th inst. which were delivered to me on Saturday the 22d inst. by the Messenger Major.

It was impossible that the Claim brought forward in the Note inclosed in my No. 9, could have produced on your Lordship's Mind any Impression different from that which you describe, and I am happy to find that the Conduct I observed, when it was first delivered to me, was such as put it in my power to execute with great Consistency the spirited Instructions your Lordship now sends me.

Immediately on the Arrival of the Messenger, I proposed an Interview with the French Plenipotentiaries, and we met on Sunday the 23d, at One P. M.

K

I could

I could not obey His Majesty's Orders in a Manner more likely to command Attention, and to impress those who heard me with a just Sense of the Mixture of Firmness and Moderation with which His Majesty was pleased to conduct this important Negotiation, than by employing not only the Substance, but as far as was practicable in Conversation, the very Words of your Lordship's Dispatch, No. 19; and if I should attempt to relate minutely what I myself said in this Conference, it would in Fact be little more than a Repetition of them.

I began by observing, that I was certain the French Plenipotentiaries must be fully prepared for what I now had it in Command to say: I reminded them that I had taken upon me to affirm when we were last assembled, and immediately before I dispatched my Messenger, that the requiring such a Preliminary as that proposed in the Note, was putting an End at once to all Negotiation, and that I was sure Peace on such Terms would not be heard of; that the Orders I was then about to communicate to them would prove that I had not made this Assertion lightly, or in consequence of any hasty Opinion of my own, at the same Time that it would also appear that my Royal Master was as anxiously and as sincerely inclined to listen to all reasonable and admissible Conditions, as He was determined to repel and reject all such as were of an opposite Description. I then, my Lord, took up my Arguments on the precise Grounds set forth in your Lordship's, No. 19. I neither omitted any Thing, nor inserted any Thing of my own, which could at all alter its Spirit; and I only varied from the Letter inasmuch as was necessary to make it applicable to a Conference.

My First Object was to state, in as forcible a way as possible, the utter Inadmissibility of the Pretension set forth in the Note, the frivolous and illusory Reasons alledged for bringing it forward, and I observed that, if it was persevered in, it must be lead to this necessary Conclusion, that there did exist when it was framed an Intention on the part of the Directory to break off the Negotiation in the Outset. My Second Object in point of Reasoning, though a very primary One in point of Importance, was either to prevent the Negotiation breaking off at all, or if this was not to be prevented, to endeavour to be so clear and explicit in my Language, and to draw the Line so distinctly between such Sacrifices as His Majesty might be inclined to make in order to restore so great a Blessing as Peace, and those to which the Dignity of His Crown and Interest of His Subjects would never allow him to attend, as to make it impossible that by any future Cavil or Subterfuge the Interruption of the Treaty, if unfortunately it should be interrupted, could be imputed to any other Cause than the exorbitant demands of the French Government; and the better to insure this purpose, I explained to them that His Majesty having already in a detailed Projet stated freely and fully His Conditions, and these Conditions having been at once rejected by a sweeping Claim on the Part of the French Government, it was not fitting or reasonable, neither could it be expected that any new Proposals should originate with His Majesty: And that on every Ground the King had a Right to expect a Contre-Projet from them, stating at once plainly and without Reserve the Whole of what they had to ask, instead of bringing forward separate points, One after another, directly contrary to the principle on which we had agreed to begin the Negotiation, and which, from their being insulated, could only tend to protract and impede its progress.

On the First Point, on the Inadmissibility of the preliminary Conditions as proposed by the French Government, One of the French Plenipotentiaries said, it was impossible for them to do more than to take it for Reference, that the Instructions they had received when the Directory sent them the Note, were precise and positive, and that they had received none since. He therefore had on that Point simply to request of me, that I would state in Writing the several Grounds on which His Majesty rejected this Proposition, in order that the Report transmitted by them to the Directory might be correct; and he assured me, that if I did not think it proper to put in Writing all the Arguments I had used to them in the Conference, they would have no Scruple of employing those I omitted in such a Way as was the best calculated to give them Weight, and to use the French Minister's own Expression, to place the Negotiation once more on its Legs.

In regard to the Second Point, he had no hesitation in agreeing with me, that the best Method, and indeed the only One, which could accelerate the Whole of the Business, was for them to give in a Contre-Projet, neither did he attempt to disprove our perfect Right to expect One from them before we made any new Proposals. But he said, that it was not necessary for him to observe that as long as they were bound by their Instructions not to give way on the Proposition, I had now so decidedly rejected, that it was impossible for them to move a Step without new Orders from the Directory; that they would ask for these Orders immediately, and lose no time in acquainting me when they were received.

I observed, that in our last Conference he had intimated to me they were empowered to come to some Explanation with me on the Subject of Compensation to be made to His Majesty for the great Cessions he was disposed to make; that, at the time, I conceived these Explanations were of a Nature to qualify the wide claim stated in the Note, and that if I had abstained from pressing him further at the moment, it was from perceiving a Reluctance on their Part to bring them forward:—That, however, if they really had such Proposals to make me, and if they were of a Nature to meet in Substance and Effect fect the Basis laid down in the Projet I had given, I should be well disposed to listen to them.

One of the French Ministers, after some Hesitation and a Sort of silent Reference to One of his Colleagues, said he thought as Matters now stood, it would be much better to wait their Answer from Paris:—That it was a very important period, a Crisis in the Negotiation, the Result of which probably would be conclusive as to its Fate, and that it seemed to be of more Consequence to make this Result as conformable to what he hoped I was convinced were as much their Wishes as mine, than to waste our Time in Discussions which were useless, not to say more, till this was ascertained.

I confined myself in my Reply to saying, I had no Objection whatever to giving to the French Plenipotentiaries a paper, stating the strong Motives on which His Majesty rejected the proposition made in their Note of the 15th; and that as I, on my part, had considered it a Duty to make my Reports as conciliatory as was consistent with Truth and Correctness, so I heard with great pleasure the Assurances he gave me of their intending to observe the same Line of Conduct.

That as we seemed perfectly agreed as to the propriety of their producing a Contre-Projet, I had nothing to say on that point, except to express my most sincere Wish that it would soon appear, and when it did appear, be such a one as would lead to a speedy and satisfactory Conclusion of the Negotiation.

(No. 26.)

Note from Lord Malmesbury to the French Plenipotentiaries.

Le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique a fait passer à Sa Cour la Note qui lui a été remise le 15 de ce Mois par les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, et ayant reçu les Ordres

Ordres du Roi son Maître à ce Sujet; il s'empresse de leur ré-iterer par écrit, conformément au Desir qu'ils lui en ont temoigné, les Réflexions suivantes, qu'il leur a déjà exposées de vive Voix d'après ses Instructions les plus positives.

Il observe d'abord, que demander, " comme Préliminaire indispensable de la Négociation pour la Paix avec l'Angleterre, le Consentement de Sa Majesté Britannique à la Restitution de toutes les Possessions qu' elle occupe, non seulement sur la République Française, mais encore et formellement sur l'Espagne et la République Batave, c'est vouloir établir une Condition préalable qui exclut toute Réciprocité; refusé au Roi toute Compensation; et ne laisse aucun Objet de Négociation ultérieure.

Que la République Française, autorisée par ses Alliés à négocier en leur Nom et formellement les Articles de la Paix, ne sauroit opposer ses Traités partiels avec Eux à des Propositions raisonnables; puisqu'il est reconnu, que les Parties contractantes, conservent toujours le Pouvoir de modifier, d'un consentement mutuel, les conditions auxquelles Elles se seront respectivement engagées, toutes les fois que leurs Intérêts communs pourront l'exiger; — par conséquent, la Proposition faite au Roi d'une Restitution générale et gratuite, comme Preliminaire indispensable, supposerait nécessairement à Sa Majesté Catholique et à la République Batave, des Dispositions bien moins pacifiques que celles qui animent la République Française.

Que d'ailleurs, d'après ce qui s'est passé dans les premières Conférences, le Lord Malmesbury a toujours cru devoir s'attendre à ce que le Roi son Maître fut compensé des Sacrifices qu'il était porté à faire pour la Paix, par la Conservation d'une Partie de Ses Conquêtes; et il pouvoit d'autant moins prévoir quelque Obstacle à l'Occasion des Articles Secrets des Traités qui lient la République Française, que le Principe de Compensation fut reconnu par une Déclaration formelle et positive faite au Nom du Directoire Exécutif, et communiquée dans une Note Officielle en Date du 27 Novembre 1796, Déclaration postérieure à la Confection de ces Traités.

C'était donc à fin d'applanir autant que possible toutes les Difficultés, que dans le Projet du Traité que le Lord Malmesbury a remis aux Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, on laissa à la France l'Alternative d'établir cette Compensation sur ses propres Possessions, ou sur celles de ses Alliés. — Or, le Refus absolu de cette Alternative, paraît écarter le seul Moyen possible de concilier tous les Intérêts, et d'arriver à une Paix juste, honorable, et permanente.

Le Lord Malmesbury, persuadé que telle ne fauroit être l'Intention du Gouvernement Français, espère d'après les Raisons qu'il vient de leur exposer, qu'on ne continuera pas à insister sur une Condition à laquelle Sa Majesté Britannique ne pourra aucunement Se prêter.

Il prie de nouveau les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française d'agréer les Assurances de sa haute Consideration.

Translation.

The Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty has transmitted to his Court the Note which was delivered to him the 15th of this Month, by the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick; and having received the Orders of the King his Master, on this Subject, he hastens to repeat to them, in Writing, conformably to the Desire which they have expressed to him, the following Reflections, which he had already stated to them verbally, in consequence of his most positive Instructions.

He

He observes, in the first Place, that to require “ As an indispensable Preliminary of Negotiation
 “ for Peace with England, the Consent of His Bri-“ tannick Majesty to the formal Restitution of all “ the Possessions which he occupies, as well those of “ the French Republick, as further and formally “ those of Spain and the Batavian Republick,” is to wish to establish a previous Condition, which excludes all Reciprocity, refuses to the King all Compensation, and leaves no Object of ulterior Negotiation.

That the French Republic, formally authorized by its Allies to negotiate the Articles of Peace in their Name, cannot fairly set up its partial Treaties with them, in Opposition to reasonable Proposals of Peace, since it is universally understood that the Contracting Parties always preserve the Power to modify, by mutual Consent, the Conditions by which they may be engaged to each other, whenever their common Interests may require it:—Consequently, the Proposition made to the King of a general and gratuitous Restitution as an indispensable Preliminary, would necessarily impute to his Catholick Majesty, and to the Batavian Republick, Dispositions far less pacifick than those which animate the French Re-publick.

That moreover in consequence of what passed in the first Conferences, Lord Malmesbury has always thought himself entitled to expect that the King His Master would find a Compensation for the Sacrifices
 He was ready to make for Peace, by retaining a Part of His Conquests; and He was the less able to for-see any Obstacle, on account of the Secret Articles of the Treaties which bind the French Republick, as the Principle of Compensation was acknowledged by a formal and positive Declaration, made in the Name of the Executive Directory, and communicated in an Official Note, dated the 27th of November,

ber 1796; a Declaration, posterior to the Completion of those Treaties.

It was, therefore, in order to remove, as much as possible, every Difficulty that, in the Project of a Treaty, which Lord Malmesbury has delivered to the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, the Alternative was left to France to settle this Compensation on its own Possessions, or on those of its Allies: But the absolute Refusal of this Alternative appears to do away the only possible Means of conciliating every Interest, and of arriving at an honourable, just, and permanent Peace.

Lord Malmesbury, persuaded that such cannot be the Intention of the French Government, hopes, that in consequence of the Reasons herein stated, a Condition will not be insisted upon, to which His Britannick Majesty can by no Means consent.

He again requests the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick to accept the Assurances of his high Consideration.

Lisle, 24th July, 1797.

(No. 27.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, Sunday, August 6th, 1797.

My Lord,

I fully expected, when I received the inclosed Note on Friday, that the Conference proposed was to acquaint me with the Instructions the French Plenipotentiaries had received from the Directory, on the Note I had given in near a Fortnight ago, as an Answer to that in which the Restitution of the Whole of His Majesty's Conquests from each of His Enemies is required as an indispensable Preliminary to all Negotiation.

I was therefore surpris'd and disappointed, when I had taken my Place at the Conference, to hear from the French Plenipotentiaries that the Letters they had received that Morning from Paris did not bring any specifick Reply to my last Note, but only went to inform them that the Directory had taken the Subject into their most serious Consideration, and would acquaint them as soon as possible with the Result.

I could not avoid expressing my Concern and Surprise that there existed any Hesitation whatever in the Mind of the Directory on a Point, which, although a very important, was certainly a very simple one:—That to allow it to remain in Doubt whether His Majesty was to have any Compensation or not, was in other Words to leave it in Doubt whether the Directory sincerely meant Peace or not:—And that, although I was very far from wishing for any improper Haste, or not to move in a Matter of such Magnitude without becoming Prudence and Deliberation, yet I could not forbear lamenting that more than a Month had now elapsed without our having advanced a single Step, notwithstanding His Majesty had, in the very Outset of the Negotiation, manifested a Moderation and Forbearance unprecedented under similar Circumstances:—That anxious as I was not to prejudice it by any Representations of mine, I must say, this Delay placed me in a very awkward Position, as I really did not perceive how I could account for it in a Way at all satisfactory, at the same Time that it was quite impossible for me to suffer a longer Space of Time to pass over without writing to my Court.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries expressed his earnest Wish that I would write immediately; he was confident this Delay would be seen in its true light; and added, “ Si nous n’avançons pas à pas de Géant, j’espère que nous marchons d’un pas sur.”—And another of them repeated this Phrase.

I expressed my sincere Hope this might be the Case, but it would have been much better proved by the Communication of the Counter Project they had

in a Manner pledged themselves to procure, than by any vague and indeterminate Assurances of what might possibly be the Result of the present Suspension of all Business. They observed to me, that the Counter Project would of course be (virtually) contained in their next Instructions, and that their only Motive for wishing to see me was, to convince me that this Delay had neither originated with them, nor been occasioned at Paris by any Want of Attention to this important Business, or from any Cause not immediately and closely connected with it.

I desired to know from them when they thought it probable they should receive positive and explicit Instructions, whether in Three, Four, or Five Days? They said, it would be probably Eight or Ten. And one of them observed, that as our not meeting more frequently gave Rise to many idle Rumours and false Reports, he would propose to me, if I had no Objection, to meet every other Day at Two o'clock: That it was very possible that in our next Two or Three Meetings we might have nothing material to say, but that we should get better acquainted with each other, and in our Conversations mutually suggest Ideas which might be of Use.—I readily consented to this.

I had a Confederate again this Morning. As I was very desirous of being enabled to transmit to your Lordship some more satisfactory Account as to the Motives of this Delay, I again pressed the French Plenipotentiaries on this Point. Each of them repeated what they had said before, and on my endeavouring to make them feel how impossible it was that His Majesty should not be hurt at this Demur on so very simple a Point, One of them said, you ought to augur favourably from it; your Note was a Refusal to agree to what was stated by the Directory in their Instructions to us as a sine quâ non: If the Directory were determined to persist in this sine quâ non, they would have said so at once—"Je

“vous assure qu’il nous auroit promptement renvoyé “Courier,” were his words:—The Time they took to deliberate indicates beyond a Doubt that they are looking for some Temperament, and it scarce can be doubted that one will be found.—I said I was well pleased to hear him say this; but that still he must be aware that it would not be an easy Task for me to make my Dispatches To-day either interesting or satisfactory.

Another of the French Ministers said that he really believed that this would be the only great Impediment we should have to encounter, that every Thing would go on quickly and smoothly, and that I must admit the present to be a very important and difficult Point in the Negotiation. I agreed with him entirely as to its Importance, but could not acquiesce as to its Difficulty.

I am very sorry, my Lord, that in such a Moment, and after waiting so long, I should not be able to send you more explicit and decisive Assurances; but it is not in my Power to compel the French Negotiators to move on faster. All I can do is by my Conduct and Language to take care that no Part whatever of the Imputation of Delay should attach to me. I have, at every Conference I have held, always declared my Readiness, to proceed, and I shall not fail to repeat this every Time we meet.

Right Honourable Lord Grenville, &c. &c. &c.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lille, August 14th, 1797.

My Lord,

IN consequence of the Resolution we had come to, to meet on the Days of the Arrival of the Post from Paris, our Conferences for this last Week have taken place regularly every other Morning, except on Thursday the 10th of August, which being being the Anniversary of One of their National Festivals, the French Legation could not attend.

I have in mine, No. 17, given your Lordship an Account of every Thing which passed in these Conferences, up to that of the 6th. On the 8th nothing was said at all worth transmitting, except an Intimation flung out by by One of the French Plenipotentiaries, that it would be necessary to take into Consideration the Rights of Neutral Nations on this Occasion. But as he spoke very vaguely, and in general Terms, I did not choose to press him for an Explanation, as I consider it more judicious to avoid Discussions on separate and collateral Points, and not to enter into Negotiation till the Whole can be brought under Deliberation at once.

What passed on the 12th was rather more interesting. The Return of Mr. Wesley afforded me a very natural Opportunity of expressing the Impatience with which an Answer to my last Note was expected by my Court; that Three Weeks had now elapsed since its Transmission, and that although I by no Means wished to insinuate that due Attention had not been paid to so very important a Subject as that on which we were treating, yet I could not but greatly lament, that Day after Day should be allowed to pass away without our proceeding at all in the great Business for which we were met. One of the French Ministers said, That it was impossible I could lament this Delay more than they did; that they had already declared to me that it was occasioned by a Wish not to create but to remove Difficulties; and they could assure me positively, that the French Government had no other Object in View, and that I should find, when once we began fairly to negotiate, we should proceed very rapidly.

I replied it was indeed very material to make good the Time we had lost. The French Minister answered, you would not call it Time lost if you knew how it was employed. On my expressing, by my Manner, a Wish to be informed, he went on; by saying we will not scruple to tell you, though we feel we ought not yet to do it officially, that we are consulting with our Allies; that we have communicated to them all that has passed here; we have stated that, unless they mean to continue the War, they must release us from our Engagements, and enable us, to a certain Degree, to meet your Proposals.

The Conference of To-day is this Moment over. One of the French Plenipotentiaries informed me, that he had received this Morning a Letter from the President of the Directory, assuring him that in Four or Five Days they would receive their final Instructions; and he added of himself, that he trusted these would be such as would enable us to continue our Work without any further Interruption. I said, I hoped these Instructions would be in Substance a Counter Project, as I did not see how any Thing short of One could enable us to proceed so rapidly as he described. He agreed with me entirely, and assured me, that both he and his Colleagues had repeatedly stated the Necessity of a Counter Project being sent them; and he observed, that he really thought the French Government might have foreseen every Thing which had passed, and been prepared with one; and that this would have saved a great deal of valuable Time. As I could not myself have said more, I readily gave a full Assent to what I heard.

(No. 30.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing Street, August 19th, 1797.

AN Expression mentioned in One of your Lordship's last Dispatches to have fallen from One of the French Plenipotentiaries, leads to the Presumption that it is intended, on the Part of France, to bring forward some Proposal about the Navigation of Neutral Powers in Time of War. Your Lordship will best judge of the proper Opportunity of expressing

His

His Majesty's decided and unalterable Resolution on this Point, not to admit of any Proposal for treating with his Enemies on the Subject of the Rights or Claims of Neutral Powers.

The only Remark with which I have to trouble your Lordship by this Messenger, relates to an Expression in the late Message of the Directory to the Council of Five Hundred, which, if literally taken, conveys an accusation against His Majesty's Government, that some Delay has arisen on the Part of this Country in the Negotiations at Lisle. This is so avowedly contrary to the Fact, that it must be considered as impossible that such a Charge could be intended to be made by a Government which had at that Moment delayed for Three Weeks making any Answer to His Majesty's distinct and liberal Proposals of Peace, and whose Plenipotentiaries were daily apologizing to your Lordship for this unbecoming, and as they almost confess, unaccountable Delay; but as the Point is too important to be left unnoticed, it is the King's Pleasure that your Lordship should present a Note, remarking upon the Sense to which these Words are liable, expressing your Persuasion that such cannot be the Intention with which they were used, but asking on the Part of your Court an Explanation to that Effect, which cannot be refused without a Violation of every Thing which Truth and Justice require on such an Occasion.

Ami de l'Humanité, cherchoit à conclure avec plus d'Empressement encore, lorsque, tout à coup, ranimant leurs Espérances, comptant sur une Dissolution générale par le Defaut de Finances, sur la Destruction de Gouvernement, sur la Mort, ou l'Exil des plus braves Généraux; et sur la Dispersion et la Perte des Armées, ces mêmes Puissances coalisées ont mis autant de Lenteur dans les Negotiations, qu'elles avoient montré d'Ardeur pour terminer.

IN short this Cause is in the same Despondency in which all good Citizens, and particularly the Defenders of the Country are, at seeing deferred at the very Moment when its Conclusion was thought to be near at hand, and after having bought it with so much Blood and so much Suffering—a definitive Peace with the Heads of the vanquished Coalition at length solicited in good Earnest, when its Conclusion was expected, and which a Government, friendly to Humanity, were still more earnest to conclude: When, all on a sudden, buoyed up with new Hopes, reckoning upon a general Dissolution of the Government by the falling of its Finances, upon its Destruction, upon the Death or Banishment of its bravest Generals, and upon the Dispersion and Loss of its Armies, these very same coaliced Powers have thrown as much Delay into the Negotiations, as they had shewn Anxiety to bring them to an End.

(No. 32.)

Copy of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, August 22, 1797.

My Lord,

IN my Conference of this Morning, I took an Opportunity of remarking to the French Plenipotentiaries on the very unfair and extraordinary Assertion which had appeared in the Message of the 9th Instant, from the Directory to the Council of Five Hundred,

viz, " que les Puissances coalisées ont mis autant de
 " Lenteur dans les Negotiations, qu'elles avoient
 " montré de l'Ardeur pour les terminer." I observed to them that I had Orders from my Court to ask a precise Explanation, whether this Accusation of Delay was meant to apply to the Manner in which His Majesty had conducted the Negotiation at Lisle, and if it was so meant, to declare that no Accusation was ever more destitute of Foundation, nor a wider Deviation from the real Fact. I said I was perfectly ready to abide by their Determination on this Point, convinced that it was impossible for them not to acknowledge that the Delay (if there had been any blameable Delay) rested with the French Government and not with His Majesty. The French Plenipotentiaries admitted this to be most strictly true; that the Phrase I had quoted was an ill judged one, and mal redigée; but that it could not in any Point of View whatever be construed as applying to England; and they were ready to say, that when it was written,
 the Directory alluded solely to the Court of Vienna;
 that they could assure me they had been very faithful in their Reports, and that when they said this it was saying in other Words, that I had carried on the Negotiation with as much Expedition as possible, and that if it had proceeded slowly for this last Month, the Slowness arose on their Side and not on mine.

I said I could not for an Instant call in question their Feelings on this Point; it was the Insinuation conveyed in the Message, and which had gone over Europe, that it was necessary for me to clear up, and to know whether the Directory thought and felt as they did. One of the French Ministers, with very strong Expressions, assured me the Directory certainly did think and feel like them; that no unfair or insidious Allusion was meant, and added, " que ce " Message étoit fait pour stimuler les Conseils." I went on by observing it was very essential for me to have this fully explained, and that I should give them
 in

in a Note to this Effect; they requested I would not, it would lead to disagreeable Discussions, and would not answer the End I proposed. They would take upon themselves now to assure me in the Name of the Directory that nothing at all similar to the Construction I put on the Phrase was intended, and that as soon as they could receive an Answer to the Report they should make of To-day's Conversation, they would say the same from the Directory itself.

I hope, my Lord, I have, therefore, by obtaining this very precise and formal Disavowal of an Intention to fix any Imputation of Delay on His Majesty's Government, fulfilled the Object of my Instructions on this particular Point. If when the French Plenipotentiaries speak from the Directory, the Disavowal should not be equally satisfactory and complete, I then will not fail, according to your Lordship's Order, to give in a Note.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) MALMESBURY.

(No. 33.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, August 23, 1797.

THE Four Conferences I have held with the French Plenipotentiaries, since I last wrote to your Lordship on the 14th instant, will not, I fear, furnish very interesting Materials for a Dispatch.

Our Conference of this Morning was principally employed in what I have related in my other Dispatch; but the French Plenipotentiaries assured me, that by Thursday, or at the latest by Saturday, they expected to receive their long expected Messenger.

(No. 34.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, August 29, 1797.

I AM extremely sorry to be forced to announce to your Lordship, that fresh Delays occur in the Progress of the Negotiation.
M 2 your

The French Plenipotentiaries informed me at our Conference Yesterday, that the last Answer from Holland was so unsatisfactory that the Directory had ordered the Minister for Foreign Affairs to return it to the Dutch Ministers at Paris; that the Dutch Ministers could not take upon themselves to alter it in the Way the Directory proposed, but had been obliged to refer to their Government for new Orders; and that therefore, supposing no Time to be lost in Deliberation on this Subject at the Hague, it would be at least a Week from To-day before any farther Account could be received here.

After lamenting this unexpected Procrastination of our Business, I expressed a Wish to know what the Dutch Answer had been, what Objections the Directory had made to it, and the Alteration they were desirous it should undergo.

One of the French Plenipotentiaries said, it had not been communicated to them, but that he understood it was complexe, louche, et peu satisfaisante.—That the Directory expected it should be clear and distinct, and such an one as would enable them to send such Instructions here, as would allow us to go on with the Negotiations in a Way to recover the Time we had lost.

(No. 35.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lille, September, 5, 1797.

My Lord,

I SHOULD have considered what has passed in our Conferences since I last had the Honour of writing to your Lordship by Mr. Wesley, as in itself too unimportant to authorize me to dispatch a Messenger, but that in general I think it my Duty never to leave your Lordship more than a Week without hearing from me; and I was also glad of an Opportunity to acknowledge the Receipt of your Lordship's Dispatch, No. 23, which was delivered to me by the Messenger Shaw, on the 31st August, at 10. P. M.

Nothing but common Conversation passed in our Conferences of the 30th August and of the 1st September. In that of the 3d the French Plenipotentiaries confirmed what they had taken upon themselves to assure me on the 22d August, in consequence of the Representation I had your Lordship's Orders to make on the Expressions employed by the Directory in their Message of the 9th August to the Councils, and which Expressions appeared to fix an Imputation of Delay on His Majesty's Government, in the Progress of the Negotiation. They said that they had reported to the Directory what I observed on this Subject, and that they were now charged to repeat what I had already heard from them, and to declare that no Intention similar to that I supposed ever existed on the Part of the Directory.

In our Conference of this Morning, although I had Reason to expect that the Answer from the Hague was arrived at Paris, yet it was not admitted by the French Plenipotentiaries.

(No. 36.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, 9th September, 1797.

I NEED not say that the Two Conferences which have been held since I dispatched the Messenger, Brooks, were not likely, under the present Circumstances of this Country, to afford any Thing extremely important or interesting.

In That of Thursday the 7th, One of the French Plenipotentiaries began, on my entering the Room, by announcing a Wish that the great Event which had taken place at Paris, should not interrupt for a long Time our Negotiation, or destroy the pleasing Prospect we had of its soon terminating successfully; and from his Manner I clearly saw he meant to convey the Idea

Idea that it was his Opinion it would not. I endeavoured to discover whether he spoke in consequence of any private Intelligence he had received from Paris, or simply from his own private Judgement, and I found it was entirely from the latter.

In our Conference of this Morning, he said they were still without any Letters from M. Talleyrand (which rather surpris'd him); but he could assure me, with Certainty, that by Monday they should be empowered to go on with the Negotiation, and that I might safely say so to my Court.

(No. 37.)

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing Street, September 11th, 1797.

Your Lordship's Dispatches, by the Messenger, Shaw, were received here this Morning.

It would be premature in the present Moment, to enter into any reasoning on the Effect which the extraordinary Events at Paris may be expected to have on the important Negotiation with which your Lordship is charged. A very few Days must now probably shew, in the most unequivocal Manner, what are the Views which are entertained by the now predominant Party at Paris, respecting the Question of Peace or War with Great Britain: And it becomes His Majesty's Government to wait the Event with the same Desire for Accomodation on reasonable Terms, and the same Firmness, with respect to undue and insulting Demands, which has actuated every Part of the Conduct held by your Lordship.

(No. 38.)

Copy of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, Monday, September 11, 1797.

My Lord,

ON my going to the Conference this Morning, the French Plenipotentiaries informed me that the whole French

French Legation was recalled, and that Messrs. Treilhard and Bonnier d'Alco were appointed in their Room. They said, their Orders were to communicate this Event to me immediately, and at the same Time to add, in the Name of the French Government, that this Alteration, in the Choice of the Negotiators, would not produce any whatever in the Disposition of the Directory, to bring the Negotiation to a happy Issue.

I assured them I was extremely sorry to hear that they were recalled. That we had hitherto acted together so cordially, that it was to be lamented any Circumstances had arisen which made the French Government think it advisable to put the Negotiation into other Hands.

That I received with Satisfaction what they told me as to the Sentiments manifested by the Directory, relative to the Negotiation, and that I could assure them, they were such as certainly existed in the Breast of my Royal Master.

I then suggested to them, whether it would not be proper to give me an Official Note on this Occasion, since it made a very marked Period in the Negotiation; and as they perfectly agreed with me on the Propriety of this, they sent me that I now enclose.

I consider this Event as so material, that I do not lose a Moment in dispatching One of my Servants to England, as I have at present no Messenger with me.

I have the Honour to be. &c.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Liste, 17th September, 1797.

My Lord,

THE new French Plenipotentiaries, Messieurs Treilhard and Bonnier d'Alco, with their principal Secretary M. Derché, and Two private Secretaries, arrived here at Five o'Clock A. M. on Wednesday the 12th Instant. At Eleven A. M. they sent M. Derché to acquaint me with their Arrival, and to inquire at what Hour I would receive their Visit. In consequence of my saying whenever it was convenient to them, they came immediately, attended by Messieurs Le Tourneur, Marer, and Colchen.

On taking Leave, M. Le Tourneur came forward and said to me, in his Name and that of his Colleagues, that they could not terminate their Mission without expressing the Satisfaction they had felt from the Openness and Candour (Loyauté et Franchise) with which I had acted during the Whole of the Negotiation, or take Leave of me, without expressing their sincere personal Regrets; that the Recollection of my Conduct would always be agreeable to them, and that it had given me the strongest Title to their Esteem and good Wishes.

After giving the new Plenipotentiaries as much Time as was necessary to return to their own House, I sent Mr. Ross to ask at what Hour I might return their their Visit; and, in consequence of their Answer, I went to them, attended by Lord Morpeth and Mr. Ellis.

I took an Opportunity of returning the Compliment M. Le Tourneur had made me; and I must in Justice repeat my Lord, what I have already said, that his Conduct and that of his Colleagues has, in every Point which has depended on them, been perfectly fair and honorable, and in no Instance contrary to the Principles they announced, and the Professions they made. It is therefore impossible for me not to regret them, and not to consider the Change of Negotiators at least as a very unpleasant, if not a very unfortunate Incident.

(No. 42.)

Copy of a Dispatch from Lord Malmesbury to Lord Grenville, dated Lisle, 17th September, 1797.

My Lord,

I SHALL endeavour in this Dispatch to give your Lordship as circumstantial an Account as my Memory will allow me to do, of what has passed in the Two Conferences I have held with the new French Plenipotentiaries.

In that of Friday the 14th, after communicating to me the Arrêté of the Directory appointing them to succeed Messieurs Le Tourneur and Maret, and empowering them to continue the Negotiation with me, One of them began by making the strongest Assurances of the sincere Desire entertained by the Directory for Peace. He observed, that if this Desire had manifested itself so strongly at a Moment when the Two great Authorities of the Country were at Variance, it must naturally become stronger and be exerted with more Effect when all Spirit of Division was suppressed, and when the Government was strengthened by the perfect Concord which now reigns between all its Branches: That the first and most material Point to be ascertained in every Negotiation was the Extent of the full Powers with which the Negotiators are vested ; that I should find theirs to be very ample : and that, as it was necessary to the Success of our Discussions that mine should be equally so, they had it in Command to present a Note, the Object of which was to inquire, whether I was authorized to treat on the Principle of a general Restitution of every Possession remaining in His Majesty's Hands, not only belonging to them, but to their Allies ; that I was not unacquainted with their Laws and with their Treaties ; that a great Country could not on any Occasion act in Contradiction to them ; and that, aware as I must be of this, I could not but expect the Question contained in the Note, neither could I consider the Requisition of an explicit Answer, previous to entering upon the Negotiation, as arising from any other Motive than that of the most perfect Wish, on the Part of the Directory, to bring it to a successful, and, above all, to a speedy Conclusion.

I replied, that if after what I heard I could allow myself to hope for such an Event as he seemed to think probable, or give any Credit to the pacifick Dispositions he announced on the Part of the French Government, such Hope must arise solely from the Confidence I might place in his Assurances ; since the Measure itself now adopted by the Directory was certainly calculated to make a directly contrary Impression on my Mind ; that I could not conceal from him, that far from expecting such a Question, its being now put surprized me beyond Measure, and still more so, when from his Comment upon it I was to infer, that he wished me to consider it as tending to promote a speedy Pacification ; that the Question expressed in the Note he had delivered (for he had given it to me, and I had read it over as he ended his Speech) was Word for Word the same as that put to me by his Predecessors so long ago as the 14th July ; that on the 15th I had, from my own Authority, given an Answer, and that this Answer I confirm'd fully and distinctly by Order of my Court on the 24th July; that these Notes had to the present Hour remained unnoticed, and a delay of Two Months had occurred; that the Reasons assign'd for this Delay were, as I was repeatedly told, a decided Resolution on the Part of the French Government to listen to the reasonable Proposals made by His Majesty; but that being bound by their Engagements with the Court of Madrid and the Batavian Republick, and wishing to treat their Allies with due Consideration, they were desirous of Consulting with them previous to any positive Declaration, and obtaining from them a voluntary Release from those Engagements sufficient to enable the French Plenipotentiaries here to admit the Basis His Majesty had established, and to ground on it all future Discussions which might arise in the Course of the Negotiation; that if he had read over the Papers left, undoubtedly, in his Possession by his Predecessors, he would find what I stated to be strictly true; and that of course it could not be difficult to account for my Surprise, when, after being told that he and his Colleague were to take up the Negotiation precisely where they found it, it now became evident that it was to be flung back to the very Point from which we started, and flung back in a Way which seem'd to threaten a Conclusion very different from that he foretold.

I shall not attempt to follow the French Minister through the very elaborate and certainly able Speech he made in Reply, with a View to convince me that the Enquiry into the Extent of my Full-Powers was the strongest Proof the Directory could furnish of their pacifick Intention, and the shortest Road they could take to accomplish the desired End. It was in order to give Activity to the Negotiation, (activer was his Word), and to prevent its stagnating, that this Demand was made so specifically; and he

intimated to me, that it was impossible for the Directory to proceed till a full and satisfactory Answer had been given to it. I interrupted him here, by saying, their Manner of acting appeared to me calculated to decide the Negotiation at once, not to give it Activity, since it must be known, I could not have Powers of the Description he alluded to; and even supposing I had, the admitting it would be in Fact neither more or less than a compleat Avowal of the Principle itself, which once agreed on, nothing would be left to negotiate about. The other French Plenipotentiary interposed here, by saying, that would not be the Case; many Articles would still remain to be proposed, and many Points for important Discussion. I said, every Word I heard seemed to present fresh Difficulties. Without replying to me, the first-mentioned Minister went on by endeavouring to prove, that the Avowal of having Powers to a certain Extent, did not imply the Necessity of exercising them; that it was the Avowal alone for which they contended, in order to determine at once the Form the Negotiation was to take; that the Note, and the Time prescribed in it, were in consequence of the most positive Orders from the Directory; and that if I drew from it a Conclusion different from the Assurances they had made me in the Name of the Directory, I did not make the true Inference. I replied, that, although the prescribing the Day on which the Question was to put me as the Term within which I was to give my Answer to it, was both a very unusual and abrupt Mode of proceeding, yet as a Day was much more than sufficient for the Purpose, I should forbear making any particular Remark on this Circumstance: That as to the Inference to be drawn from the positive Manner in which they appeared to maintain the Question put to me, I really could not make it different from that I had already expressed: That the reverting, after an Interval of Two Months, to a Question already answered, and which Question involved involved the Fate of the Negotiation, certainly could not be considered as wearing a very conciliatory Appearance : That in regard to my Answer, it could not be different from that I had given before : That my full Powers, which were in their Hands, were as extensive as any could be, and it did not depend on me to give them more or less Latitude ; but that in fact their Question went not to the Extent of my full Powers, but to require of me to declare the Nature of my Instructions ; and on this Point they certainly would forgive me if I did not speak out till such Time as the Circumstances of the Negotiation called upon me to do it.

The French Minister strove to prove to me, what he had before attempted, that the claiming a Right of Enquiry into the Nature of the discretionary Authority confided in a Minister, by no Means implied an Intention of requiring of him to act up to it to its utmost Limits. I observed, if no such Intention existed, why institute the Enquiry ? and if it did exist, why not say so at once ?—He said, what we now ask is little more than a Matter of Form ; when you have given us your Answer, we shall follow it up by another Step, which we are ordered to take. I said, my Answer was given Two Months ago ; that, although I was ready to give it them again, and in Writing, as One to their Note, yet, as it could not be different, I did not see why they should not proceed immediately to the other Step, by which I was told the Question was to be followed up. It would be premature, said the French Minister ; but in drawing up your Answer, do not forget the Force of the Arguments I have used, or in your Report to your Court, the Assurances we have given of the earnest Wish of the Directory to terminate the War.

I replied, that I still must maintain, that from the Manner in which they thought proper to define full Powers, I could see no Distinction between acknowledging the Power and admitting the Principle ;
and

and that the Question itself could not be put with any other Intention—(Your Lordship will observe, from the subsequent Notes which passed between us, that I was perfectly grounded in this Assertion);—that in my Reports, they might be fully assured I should act up to that conciliatory Spirit, which, from the earliest Period of the Negotiation, had always decided my Conduct; and that, inauspicious as Appearances were, I certainly would be careful not to make them look hostile. At the Word hostile, both the French Plenipotentiaries were most warm in their Protestations, that nothing could be less so; that the Idea of the Negotiation breaking off was as far from their Thoughts as from their Wishes. I said, that although I heard this with Pleasure, yet I could not avoid adverting to Facts, and that, when instead of an Answer, and the favourable Answer which I had every Reason to expect, I received only the Repetition of a Demand, which had been already satisfied Two Months ago; I certainly could not think this a good Omen. If it did not bode an immediate Rupture of the Treaty, it assuredly did not announce a near and successful Termination of it. The above-mentioned Minister persisted I was mistaken; that the Business would end speedily; that Speed was their Wish, and Speed with Peace for its Object.

On breaking up our Conference, I said, that I took it for granted we should meet again at the usual Hour, on Sunday. He said, that it perhaps might not be necessary, but that they certainly would let me know in Time; and this conveyed to me the first Idea of what has since taken place.

I inclose your Lordship the Note A, I received in this Conference from the French Plenipotentiaries, and the Answer B, which I made to it Yesterday Morning at 10 A. M.

At 6 P. M. the Note C was transmitted to me; to which at 8 P. M. I returned the Answer D, by Mr.

Mr. Rofs, whom I sent in order that he might bring me the Passports I asked for; but at a Quarter before 10 P. M. M. Derché, Secretary of the French Legation, delivered to me the Paper marked E; and this Morning at 9 A. M. I replied by the Note F, which immediately produced that marked G.

The Notes sent me by the French Plenipotentiaries speak for themselves; and it is unnecessary to enter into any Reflexions on them. I am willing to hope that the Answers I have made were such as became the Situation in which I stand, the Importance of the Cause intrusted to me, and the steady but temperate Conduct which the Spirit of my Instructions injoin me to hold.

It was my Wish to give every Opening to the French Plenipotentiaries to recal the violent Step they had taken; and, if possible, to convince them of its extreme Impropriety. And it was with this View, and with a most anxious Desire not to exclude all Hope of the Restoration of Peace, that I determined on suggesting the Idea of our meeting once more before I left Lille.

This Meeting took place To-day at Noon: I opened it by observing, That the several Notes they had received from me since the preceding Evening had been too expressive of the Surprize I felt at the Measure the Directory had thought proper to adopt, to make it necessary for me to enlarge upon it in this Conference; and indeed my sole Motive for suggesting that it might be for our mutual Satisfaction that it should be held, was, because this Measure appeared to me to be in such direct Contradiction to the very strong Assurances I had so constantly and repeatedly heard from them, and to the pacifick Intentions with which they declared they were sent, that it was my earnest Wish (before I considered their Conduct as forcing me to a Step which must so materially affect the Success of the Negotiation), to be perfectly certain that I understood clearly and distinctly distinctly the precise Meaning of their official Notes. On their admitting that nothing could be more reasonable than that I should, on so important a Point, require Explanation, or more satisfactory to them than to give it me (as far as lay in their Power), I proceeded by saying, that it appeared to me that I was called upon to produce immediately my full Powers, or rather my Instructions (for however different these were in themselves, in their Demand they seemed constantly blended), and that if either I refused to consent to this, or if on consenting to it, it was found that I was not authorized to treat on the Principle they laid down, I was then in the Space of Twenty-four Hours to leave Lille, and return to my Court; and that I was required to obtain full Authority to admit this Principle, if it was wished the Negotiation should proceed. This I said appeared to me to be the evident Sense of the Notes, and I begged to know whether I had mistaken it or not. One of the French Plenipotentiaries said, "You have understood it exactly; I hope you equally understand the Intention of the French Government, which is to accelerate Peace by removing every Obstacle which stands in its Way."

I replied, that having now no Doubt left on my Mind as to their exact Meaning, and being quite sure notwithstanding the Observation they had made, que j'avois saisi la véritable Intention de leur Note, it would, I feared, be a very unprofitable Employment of our Time to argue either on the Nature of the Principle they announced as a sine quâ non, to even a preliminary Discussion, or on the extreme Difficulty of reconciling the peremptory Demand with which they opened their Mission, to the pacifick Professions that accompanied it; that if they were determined to persist in this Demand, it was much better to avoid all useless Altercation; and nothing in that Case remained for me to do, but to ask for my Passports, and to signify to them my Intention of leaving France at an early Hour the next Morning. They said, they had their Hands tied by an Arrêté of the Directory, and were bound to observe the Conduct they had followed by the most positive Orders; and although we remained together some Time longer, not a Hint dropped from them expressive of a Wish that, instead of going myself for new Instructions, I should either Write for them by a Messenger, or obtain them by sending to England One of the Gentlemen who are with me. I endeavoured by every indirect Means to suggest to them the Necessity of adopting some such Modification, if they meant that their Wishes for Peace, in the Expression of which they were this Morning more eager than ever, should meet with the slightest Degree of Credit; I again brought to their Recollection that I was authorized to receive any Proposal, any Contre Projet they tendered to me, but that they must be aware that it was not possible for me to alter the Order I had received, or to assume an Authority with which I was not invested. I dwelt particularly and repeatedly on my being competent to take any Thing they said for Reference; but this availed nothing, except drawing from One of them a Remark, that the full Powers which authorized a Minister to hear Proposals, were widely different from those which would enable him to accede to them; and that it was such full Powers that the Directory required me to solicit.

An easy Answer presented itself to this Mode of Reasoning; but I saw no Advantage to be derived from prolonging a Conversation, which, after the positive Declaration they had made, could lead to nothing: I therefore ended the Conference by declaring my Resolution to begin my Journey at a very early Hour the next Morning, and by saying, that immediately on my Arrival in England I would make an exact Report of every Thing that had passed since their Arrival.

I trust, my Lord, I shall not incur Censure for having declined to offer in distinct Terms to wait at Lille till I could know His Majesty's Pleasure on the peremptory Proposal made to me : But when I considered the Nature of the Proposal itself, the Avowal that this would not be the last, nor perhaps the most humiliating, Condition required of us, and the imperious Style with which I was enjoined to depart in Twenty-four Hours, it was utterly impossible for me to assume a Language or affect a Manner that could be interpreted into Solicitation or Entreaty : I felt myself called upon to treat the Whole of this extraordinary Proceeding with Calmness and Temper; and notwithstanding the deep and poignant Concern I must feel at an Event which I fear will remove all Probability of an immediate Pacification, I trust that in the Expression of this Sentiment I have not used a Language unbecoming the Character with which I am invested, or the Greatness of the Sovereign and Country whose Dignity and Interests it is my primary Duty to consult and to maintain,

I have the Honor to be with great Respect, my Lord, your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant,

Les soussignés Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la Republique Française, chargés de traiter de la Paix avec l'Angleterre, ont l'Honneur d'assurer le Lord Malmesbury, Ministre Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique, que le Gouvernement Français veut aussi sincèrement, aussi fortement que jamais, une Paix désirée par les Deux Nations; mais ne pouvant conclure qu'une Paix balée sur les Loix et les Traités qui

THE undersigned Ministers Plenipotentiaries of the French Republic, commissioned to treat of Peace with England, have the Honour to assure Lord Malmesbury, Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty, that the French Government wishes as sincerely, as strongly as ever, a Peace, desired by the Two Nations: But, unable to conclude any other Peace than such a one as is founded on the Laws and on the Treaties which bind the French Republic, persuaded that, to arrive at this End, it is necessary to explain itself with entire Frankness, and desirous of giving to the Negotiation the greatest Rapidity, the Executive Directory has expressly charged the Undersigned to demand of Lord Malmesbury, whether he has sufficient Powers for restoring

in the Treaty which may be concluded, to the French Republick and to its Allies, all the Possessions which, since the Beginning of the War, have passed into the Hands of the English.

The Undersigned are equally charged by the Executive Directory to demand from Lord Malmesbury an Answer in the Course of the Day. They request him to accept the Assurances of their high consideration.

Le soussigné Ministre Plenipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique reçoit avec beaucoup de Satisfaction l'Expression du Desir sincere pour la Paix, que les Ministres Plenipotentiaries de la Republique Françoisé lui ont annoncé Hier au Nom de leur Gouvernement. Il a l'Honneur de les assurer que le Roi son Maître est animé du même Desir, et n'a rien de plus à Cœur que de mettre Fin aux Malheurs de la Guerre.

Quant à la Question que les Ministres Plenipotentiaries de la Republique Françoisé adressent au Lord Malmesbury sur l'Etendue de ses plein Pouvoirs, il croit déjà avoir fait à ce Sujet la Reponse la moins equivoque dans les Deux Notes qu'il à remises à leurs Predecesseurs le 15 et le 24 du Mois de Juillet. Cependant, pour eviter toute Mesentendue, Il renouvelle la Declaration qu'il à faite Hier, savoir, qu'il ne peut et ne doit traiter que d'après le Principe des Compensations; Principe qui à été formellement lement reconnu comme Base d'une Traité également juste, honorable, et avantageux aux Deux Puissances.

Le Lord Malmesbury prie les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la Republique Françoise d'agréer les Assurances de sa haute Consideration.

THE undersigned Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty receives with great Satisfaction the Expression of the sincere Desire for Peace, which the Ministers Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick announced to him Yesterday in the Name of their Government. He has the Honour to assure them that the King his Master is animated with the same Desire, and has nothing more at Heart than to put an End to the Calamities of the War.

With regard to the Question which the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick addressed to Lord Malmesbury, concerning the Extent of his full Powers, he considers himself as having already given the most unequivocal Answer upon this Subject, in the Two Notes which he delivered to their Predecessors on the 15th and 24th of July.

However, to avoid all misunderstanding, he renews the Declaration, which he made Yesterday; that is to say, that he neither can or ought to treat upon any other Principle than that of Compensations; a Principle which has been formally recognized as the Basis of a Treaty equally just, honourable, and advantageous to the Two Powers.

Lord Malmesbury requests the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick to accept the Assurances of his high Consideration.

Les Ministres Plenipotentiaires de la Republique Française chargés de traiter de la Paix avec l'Angleterre, ont l'Honneur d'accuser la Reception de la Reponse du Lord Malmesbury à la Note qui lui a été remise dans la Conference d'Hier.

Il resulte de cette Reponse et des Deux Notes des 15 & 24 Juillet aux quelles elle se refère, que le Lord Malmesbury n'a pas de Pouvoirs pour consentir à la Restitution de toutes les Possessions que Sa Majesté Britannique occupe, soit sur la Republique Française, soit sur ses Alliés.

En conséquence, en réitérant au Lord Malmesbury les Assurances les plus positives des Sentimens du Gouvernement Français, les Souffignés lui donnent Connoissance d'un Arrêté du Directoire Executif, portant que dans le Cas où Lord Malmesbury declarera n'avoir pas les Pouvoirs necessaires pour consentir à toutes les Restitutions que les Loix et les Traités qui lient la Republique Française rendent indispensables, il aura à se retirer dans les Vingt quatre Heures vers sa Cour pour demander les Pouvoirs suffisans. Le Lord Malmesbury ne peut voir dans cette Determination de Directoire Executif qu'une Intention de hâter l'Instant où les Negotiations pourront être suivies avec la Certitude d'une prompte Conclusion.

THE Ministers Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick, commissioned to treat of Peace with England, have the Honour to acknowledge the Receipt of the Answer of Lord Malmesbury to the Note which was presented to him in the Conference of Yesterday.

It appears from this Answer, and from the Two Notes of the 15th and 24th of July, to which it refers, that Lord Malmesbury has not Powers for agreeing to the Restitution of all the Possessions which His Britannick Majesty occupies, whether from the French Republick, or from its Allies.

In consequence, while they reiterate to Lord Malmesbury the most positive Assurances of the Sentiments of the French Government, the Undersigned apprize him of a Decree of the Executive Directory, which signifies that, in Case Lord Malmesbury shall declare himself not to have the necessary Powers for agreeing to all the Restitutions which the Laws and the Treaties which bind the French Republick, make indispensable, he shall be to return, in Four-and-twenty Hours, to his Court, to ask for sufficient Powers. Lord Malmesbury can see in this Determination of the Executive Directory nothing else than an Intention to hasten the Moment when the Negociaion may be followed up with the Certainty of a speedy Conclusion.

The Ministers Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick request Lord Malmesbury to accept the Assurances of their high Consideration.

They think it right to observe to him, that he does not appear to have seized the real meaning of their Note ; that it by no means contains Refusal to continue the Negotiations, but, on the contrary, the Means for giving them Activity, and for following them up with a Success, no less desirable to the Two Nations, than it would be flattering to the Ministers charged with the Conduct of them.

Il croit ne pas pouvoir mieux répondre qu'en leur soumettant à son Tour les Observations suivantes.

Qu'ayant déjà fait, par sa Note du 24 Juillet, & d'après les Ordres exprès de sa Cour, une Réponse à la Question qui vient d'être si inopinément renouvelée, Question qui ne portant en Apparence que sur les Limites de ses Plein-pouvoirs (qui sont des plus amples) exige en effet la Déclaration de toute l'Etendue de ses Instructions :—et ne pouvant être autorisé en aucun Cas, hormi celui de la Rupture des Négociations, de quitter le Lieu de sa Destination sans les Ordres exprès du Roi son Maître ; il n'a pû regarder une Note portant, d'après un Arrêté du Directoire Exécutif, " qu'il avait à se retirer dans les Vingt-quatre Heures vers sa Cour," que comme une Démarche peu propre à accélérer la Confection de la Paix.—Cependant, pour répondre aux Assurances des Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, et pour témoigner son Désir de bien saisir leur véritable Intention, sur laquelle il serait très-fâché de se méprendre, il croit qu'il pourrait être plus satisfaisant de se réunir encore une Fois ; et dans le Cas où les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française se trouveraient du même Avis, le Lord Malmesbury leur proposerait que cette Réunion eût Lieu de meilleure Heure que de Coutume, afin qu'il se trouvât à Terns de prendre le Parti que pourra exiger le Résultat de leur Conférence.

THE undersigned Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty has the Honour to acknowledge the Receipt of the Note which the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick transmitted to him Yesterday, through the Hands of the Secretary
Gene-

General of their Legation, He thinks he cannot answer it better than by submitting to them in his Turn the following Observations.

That having already by his Note, dated July 24, and in Obedience to the express Orders of his Court, given an Answer to the Question which is now so unexpectedly renewed, a Question, that in Appearance relates solely to the Limits of his full Powers, (which are in the most ample Form), but which does in Fact require a Declaration of the whole Extent of his Instructions; and not being authorised to quit the Place of his Destination without the express Orders of the King his Master, in any Case except that of the Rupture of the Negotiation; he could not help considering a Note enjoining him, in consequence of a Decree of the Executive Directory, to return to his Court in the Space of Four-and-Twenty Hours, as ill calculated to accelerate the Conclusion of Peace: Nevertheless, to answer the Assurances of the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, and to testify his Desire to seize their real Meaning, with respect to which he should be very sorry to deceive himself, he thinks that it would be more satisfactory to meet once more; and if the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick should be of the same Opinion, Lord Malmesbury would propose that this Meeting should take place at an earlier Hour than usual, in order that he may have Time to take such Steps as the Result of their Conference may render necessary. He desires the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick to accept the Assurances of his high Consideration.

Dispatch from Lord Grenville to Lord Malmesbury, dated Downing-Street, Sept. 22, 1797.

My Lord,

I HAVE had the Honour of laying before His Majesty your Lordship's Dispatches, in which you have given an Account of the extraordinary Conduct of the new Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick, of the Answers given by your Lordship to their unjustifiable Demand, and of your consequent Departure from Lisle.

I have the Satisfaction to be able to assure your Lordship that His Majesty has been pleased to express His entire Approbation of your Lordship's judicious and temperate Conduct in the unprecedented Situation in which you were placed, and of the Manner in which you expressed yourself, both in your official Notes, and in your Conversations with the French Plenipotentiaries, as well as of that in which you have conducted yourself during the whole Course of the Negotiation, which seems too likely to be now brought to its Close.

As it appears, however, that some further Answer will probably be expected by the French Government to their late extraordinary Demand, notwithstanding standing the full and conclusive Reply given in your Lordship's Notes, I have received the King's Commands to transmit to you the inclosed Draft of a Note, which it is His Majesty's Pleasure that your Lordship should transmit to the Plenipotentiaries at Lisle, by a Messenger whom I shall direct to be in readiness for that Purpose.

Right Honourable
Lord Malmesbury.

(No. 51.) Note from Lord Malmesbury to the French Plenipotentiaries.

LE Soussigné a rendu à sa Cour un Compte fidèle des Circonstances qui ont interrompu l'Exercice des Fonctions importantes qu'il avait plu au Roi son Maître de lui confier. Sa Majesté a daigné honorer de son Approbation entière les Réponses que le Soussigné a déjà faites à la Demande extraordinaire et inattendue que les nouveaux Plénipotentiaires de la République Française lui ont adressée dès leur Arrivée à Lille.

Mais pour ne laisser aucun Doute sur la Nature et l'Objet de cette Demande, le Soussigné a reçu l'Ordre exprès de déclarer au Nom de Sa Cour ;

1. Que les Plein-pouvoirs que Sa Majesté a jugé à propos de lui accorder pour traiter et conclure la Paix sont conçus et rédigés dans la Forme la plus ample, autorisant le Soussigné pleinement et sans réserve à signer tout Traité de quelle Nature et sous quelles Conditions que ce fut, dont il pourrait convenir avec les Plénipotentiaires Français, en se conformant toujours aux Instructions qu'il aurait reçues de la part de Sa Cour.

2. Que ces Plein-pouvoirs ont été reçus et reconnus pour suffisans, tant par les Plénipotentiaires avec lesquels il a traité jusqu'ici, que par le Directoire lui-

lui-même ; et qu'il ne peut en conséquence y avoir Lieu à aucune nouvelle Discussion sur cet Objet déjà terminé par un commun Accord, et qui d'ailleurs n'est susceptible d'aucune Difficulté ou Doute quelconque ; tout ce qui a été fait à cet égard étant entièrement conforme aux Usages établis depuis long-tems, et reconnus par toutes les Nations de l'Europe.

3. Que la demande du Directoire se rapporte donc réellement, non pas aux Plein-pouvoirs du Soussigné mais à l'Etendue de ses Instructions, dont le Directoire ne pouvait, en aucun Cas, lui demander la Communication qu'en autant que le Soussigné pourrait la juger utile au Succès de la Négociation ; et que bien loin d'être dans le Cas de donner des nouvelles Explications quelconques, le Soussigné avait tout Lieu de croire, d'après les Communications réitérées qui lui ont été faites par les Plénipotentiaires Français, qu'il recevrait incessamment un Contre-Projet, de Nature à faciliter la Marche ultérieure de la Négociation suspendue depuis plus de Deux Mois.

4. Que la Cour de Londres a du être bien plus étonnée encore du Contenu de la nouvelle Demande faite au Soussigné ; cette Demande portant sur des Conditions Préliminaires qui avaient déjà été rejetées dès le Commencement de la Négociation, et dont les Plénipotentiaires Français s'étaient en Effet départis, per l'Annonce formelle des Mesures dont le Directoire s'occupait pour s'arranger en conséquence avec ses Alliés.

5. Que ce n'est donc qu'en consentant à traiter sur la Base du Projet détaillé avec tant de Franchise, que le Soussigné a remis dès les Premiers Jours de son Séjour à Lille, ou bien en lui faisant passer un Contre-Projet d'une Nature conciliatoire, conformément aux Assurances qu'il en a reçues depuis si long Tems, qu'il paraît possible de continuer la Négociation, dont les Plénipotentiaires l'ont si fortement assuré que le Directoire ne désirait pas la Rupture, malgré malgré la Démarche adoptée à son égard, Démarche que le Soussigné s'abstient de qualifier, mais qui n'a pu manquer de produire ici l'Impression des Dispositions les moins pacifiques de la Part du Directoire.

Le Soussigné est chargé d'ajouter, que Sa Majesté verrait avec un vrai Regret la Certitude de ces Dispositions, si peu compatibles avec le Désir ardent qui l'anime, de pouvoir rendre la Paix aux Deux Nations; mais que si sans y avoir contribué de Sa Part, Sa Majesté doit encore se trouver dans la Nécessité de continuer la Guerre, elle se conduira dans toutes les Occasions d'après les mêmes Principes, en faisant tout ce qui peut dépendre d'Elle pour le Rétablissement de la Paix, mais en persistant toujours à défendre, avec une Fermeté inébranlable, la Dignité de Sa Couronne et les Intérêts de Son Peuple.

Le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Majesté Britannique prie les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française d'agréer l'Assurance de sa haute Considération.

Translation.

THE Undersigned Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty has rendered to his Court a faithful Account of the Circumstances that have interrupted the Exercise of those important Functions which His Majesty has been pleased to entrust to him. His Majesty has deigned to honour with his entire Approbation the Answers which the Undersigned has already made to the extraordinary and unexpected Demands which the new Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick addressed to him immediately upon their Arrival at Lisle.

But in order to leave no Doubt respecting the Nature and Object of this Demand, the Undersigned has been expressly ordered to declare, in the Name of his Court :

1. That the full Powers with which His Majesty had thought proper to furnish him for negociating and concluding a Treaty of Peace, are conceived and expressed in the most ample Form, authorizing the Undersigned fully, and without Reserve, to sign any Treaty upon which he might agree with the French Plenipotentiaries whatever its Nature or Conditions might be ; conforming himself in all Cases to the Instructions which he might receive from his Court.

2. That these full Powers have been received and recognized as sufficient, as well by the Plenipotentiaries with whom he has hitherto treated, as by the Directory themselves, and that there is consequently no Room for any new Discussion upon a Subject which has already been closed by common Agreement, and which moreover is not liable to any Doubt or Difficulty whatever ; every Thing which has been done hitherto upon this Subject, being entirely conformable to Customs long established and recognized by all the Nations of Europe.

3. That the Demand of the Directory therefore, in Reality, refers not to the full Powers of the Undersigned, but to the Extent of his Instructions, of which the Directory could not, under any Circumstances, require any Communication, further than as the Undersigned himself might judge such a Communication conducive to the Success of the Negotiation ; and that very far from being in a Situation to be called upon for any new Explanations whatever, the Undersigned had every Reason to expect, from the repeated Communications which had been made to him by the French Plenipotentiaries, that he should immediately receive a Contre-Projet, of a Nature to facilitate the further Progress of the Negotiagotiation which had been suspended for more than Two Months.

4. That the Court of London had good Reason to be still more astonished at the Substance of the new Demand made to the Undersigned ; a Demand relating to Preliminary Conditions which had already been rejected at the very Commencement of the Negotiation, and from which the French Plenipotentiaries had in Effect departed, by a formal Notification of the Measures which the Directory were in consequence taking for the Purpose of coming to some Arrangement with their Allies.

5. That it is therefore only by consenting to treat upon the Basis of the Project, detailed with so much Openness, which was presented by the Undersigned a few Days after his Arrival at Lisle, or by returning a Contre-Projet of a conciliatory Nature, agreeably to the Assurances which he received so long ago, that it appears possible to continue the Negotiation, which the Plenipotentiaries have so strongly assured him that the Directory did not wish to break off, notwithstanding the Measures lately adopted with respect to him : A Measure which the Undersigned forbears to characterize, but which could not fail to produce in this Country the Impression of a Disposition by no Means pacifick on the Part of the Directory.

The Undersigned is directed to add, that His Majesty would see with real Regret the Certainty of the Existence of such a Disposition, so little compatible with the ardent Desire with which he is animated to restore Peace to the Two Nations ; but that if, without having Himself contributed to it on His Part, He should again find Himself under the Necessity of continuing the War, He will conduct Himself upon every Occasion agreeably to the same Principles, doing every thing which can depend upon him for the Re-establishment of Peace, but persisting persisting to defend, with an unshaken Firmness, the Dignity of His Crown, and the Interests of His People.

The Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty requests the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick to accept the Assurance of his high Consideration.

(No. 52.) Note from the French Plenipotentiaries to Lord Malmesbury.

LES Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, chargés de traiter de la Paix avec l'Angleterre, ont reçu la Note, datée de Londres, qui leur a été apportée par un Courier extraordinaire, de la Part de Lord Malmesbury. Ils ont l'Honneur de lui répondre, que leur Note du 29 Fructidor, à laquelle ils se réfèrent, présentait la double Assurance de l'Intention formelle du Gouvernement Français de continuer les Négociations de la Paix, & de sa Détermination constante de n'accéder qu'à des Conventions compatibles avec la Dignité de la République Française.

Une Paix, dont la Base serait contraire aux Loix, ou aux Engagemens pris avec les Alliés, ne saurait remplir l'Espoir de la Nation. C'est un Point dont le Directoire Exécutif, ne s'est jamais départi, & sur lequel ses Sentimens n'ont jamais varié.

Le Lord Malmesbury ayant formellement déclaré dans ses Notes des 15 & 24 Juillet, & en dernier Lieu du 17 Septembre, qu'il n'avait pas les Pouvoirs nécessaires pour restituer les Possessions Hollandaises & Espagnoles, occupées par les Troupes de Sa Majesté Britannique, le Directoire Exécutif a donné une nouvelle Preuve de sa loyale Franchise & de son Désir d'accélérer la Conclusion, en invitant le
Lord

Lord Malmesbury à se retirer vers sa Cour, pour obtenir des Autorisations, sans lesquelles il ne peut pas conclure ; Démarche nécessitée par les Déclarations du Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique, & sur laquelle il est impossible de faire prendre le Change à tout Esprit juste.

Les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française prient le Lord Malmesbury d'agréer les Assurances de leur haute Considération.

THE Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, commissioned to treat of Peace with England, have received the Note, dated from London, which has been brought to them by an extraordinary Messenger, from Lord Malmesbury. They have the Honour to answer to him, that their Note of the 29th Fructidor, to which they refer, offered the double Assurance of the settled Intention of the French Government to continue the Negotiations for Peace, and of its constant Détermination not to agree to any other Conditions than such as are compatible with the Dignity of the French Republick.

A Peace, of which the Basis should be contrary to the Laws, or to the Engagements taken with its Allies, would never satisfy the Hopes of the Nation. It is a Point from which the Executive Directory has never departed, and upon which its Sentiments have never varied.

Lord Malmesbury having formally declared in his Notes of the 15th and 24th of July, and in the last Instance in that of the 17th September, that he had not the Powers necessary for restoring the Dutch and Spanish Possessions, occupied by the Troops of His Britannick Majesty, the Executive Directory has given a new Proof of its Openness, and of its Desire to accelerate the Conclusion of Peace, in requiring Lord Malmesbury to return to his Court, for the Purpose of obtaining the Authority, without which he cannot conclude; a Measure rendered necessary by the Declaration of the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty, and upon which it is impossible to give a wrong Impression to any thinking and impartial Mind.

The Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick request Lord Malmesbury to accept the Assurance of their high Consideration.

LES Ministres Plénipotentiaries de la République Française, chargés de traiter de la Paix avec l'Angleterre, ont l'Honneur de faire sçavoir au Lord Malmesbury, qu'ayant adressé Copie de sa dernière Note à son Gouvernement, le Directoire Exécutif leur a prescrit de déclarer en son Nom, qu'il n'a pas cessé de vouloir la Paix; qu'il a donné une Preuve non équivoque du Sentiment qui l'anime, lorsqu'il a ordonné aux Ministres Plénipotentiaries de la République de réclamer une Explication cathégorique sur les Pouvoirs donnés par le Gouvernement Anglois à son Ministre Plénipotentiare; que cette Demande n'avait, et ne pouvait avoir, d'autre Objet, que d'amener

enfin la Négociation à une Issue prompte et heureuse.

Que l'Ordre donné aux Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République de rester à Lille après le Départ du Lord Malinesbury, est une nouvelle Preuve que le Directoire avait désiré et prévu son Retour avec des Pouvoirs qui ne seraient pas Illusoires, et dont la Limitation ne serait plus un Prétexe pour retarder la Conclusion de la Paix.

Que telles sont toujours les Intentions et les Espérances du Directoire Exécutif, qui enjoint aux Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République de ne quitter Lille, qu'au Moment où l'Absence prolongée du Négociateur ne laissera plus de Doute sur l'Intention de Sa Majesté Britannique de rompre toute Négociation.

Qu'en conséquence le vingt-cinq Vendémiaire courant (16 Octobre vieux style) est le Terme fixé pour le Rappel des Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française, dans le Cas où à cette Epoque le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique ne serait pas rendu à Lille.

Le Directoire Exécutif éprouvera un vif Regret qu'un Rapprochement déjà entamé deux fois n'ait pu être consommé ; mais sa Conscience et l'Europe entière lui rendront ce Témoignage, que le Gouvernement Anglais seul aura fait peser le Fléau de la Guerre sur les Deux Nations.

Les Ministres Plénipotentiaires de la République Française prient le Ministre Plénipotentiaire de Sa Majesté Britannique d'agréer les Assurances de leur haute Considération.

The Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, charged to treat for Peace with England, have the Honour to inform Lord Malmesbury, that having sent a Copy of his last Note to their Government, the Executive Directory has directed them to declare in its Name, That it has never ceased to wish for Peace; That it gave an unequivocal Proof of the Sentiment which animates it, when it ordered the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the Republick to require a categorical Explanation as to the Powers given by the English Government to its Minister Plenipotentiary; That this Demand had, and could have, no other Object but to bring the Negotiation to a speedy and successful Issue:

That the Order given to the Plenipotentiaries of the Republick to remain at Lisle after the Departure of Lord Malmesbury, is another Proof that the Directory had desired and foreseen his Return with Powers that should not be illusory, and the Limitation of which should no longer be a Pretext for delaying the Conclusion of Peace:

That such are still the Hopes and Intentions of the Executive Directory, which enjoins the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the Republick not to quit Lisle till the continued Absence of the Negotiator should no longer leave any Doubt of the Intention of His Britannick Majesty to break off all Negotiation:

That consequently the 25th Vendémiaire (16th of Octobre Old Style) is the Period fixed for the Recall of the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick, supposing that, at that Time, the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty shall not have arrived at Lisle.

The Executive Directory will feel the greatest Regret that a Reconciliation, already twice attempted, should not be perfected; but its Conscience, and the Whole of Europe, will bear it Testimony, that it is the English Government alone that will have inflicted the Scourge of War upon the Two Nations.

The Ministers Plenipotentiary of the French Republick entreat the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majesty to accept the Assurances of their high Consideration.

Que ce n'est qu'en conséquence de l'Injonction formelle et positive du Directoire, qu'il a quitté Lille : que ses Pouvoirs n'étaient ni illusoires ni limités, et que rien n'a été omis de sa Part pour accélérer la Négociation, qui n'a été retardée que par les Délais du Directoire, et qui n'est aujourd'hui suspendue que par son Acte.

Pour ce qui regarde la Reprise des Conférences le Soussigné ne peut que se référer à sa dernière Note, où il a désigné avec Franchise et Précision les seuls Moyens qui restent pour continuer la Négociation : observant, en même Tems, que le Roi ne pourrait plus traiter en Pais Ennemi sans avoir la Certitude de voir respecter pour l'avenir dans la Personne de son Plénipotentiaire les Usages établis parmi toutes les Nations civilisées, à l'égard des Ministres Publics, et principalement de ceux chargés de travailler au Rétablissement de la Paix.

THE Undersigned having laid before the King's Ministry the Note of the Plenipotentiaries of the French Republick, is directed to observe to them,

That it is only in consequence of the formal and positive Injunction of the Directory that he quitted Lisle; That his Powers were neither illusory nor limited; And that nothing was omitted on his Part to accelerate the Negotiation, which has been only retarded by the Delays of the Directory, and which at this Moment is only suspended by its Act.

With regard to the Renewal of the Confernces, the Undersigned can only refer to his last Note, where he has explained with Frankness and Precision the only Means which remain for continuing the Negotiation; observing, at the same Time, that the King could no longer treat in an Enemy's Country, without being certain that the Customs established amongst all civilized Nations, with regard to Publick Ministers, and especially to those charged to negotiate for the Re-establishment of Peace, would be respected for the future in the Person of His Plenipotentiary.
