H. M. S. King Edward VII Is Lost MINE BLEW UP BATTLESHIP ENTIRE CREW WAS RESCUED

King Edward VII. Cost Seven and One-Half Millions, and Was of Pre-Dreadnought Type—Admiralty's Statement Gives Only Barest Details.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The British battleship King Edward VII, has been sunk after striking a mine, but the entire crew has been saved.

The loss of the warship was announced by the admiralty in the following statement:

"H.M.S. King Edward VII. has struck a mine. Owing to the heavy sea she had to be abandoned and sank shortly afterwards. The ship's company was taken off without any loss of life. Only two men were injured."

The King Edward VII represented an investment of nearly $7,500,000, and was one of the finest of the last class of pre-dreadnoughts. She was built in 1903 and was therefore only slightly older than the Natal, which was sunk by an internal explosion about a week ago. She probably carried more than 700 men.

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, tonight received the following communique from the Canadian general representative in France:

"Canadian General Headquarters in France via London, Jan. 9.—During the week Jan. 1-7 the general situation on the front of the Canadian corps has undergone no material change. The weather has been mild and unsettled."

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, tonight received the following communique from the Canadian general representative in France:

"Artillery fire has been normal during the week. Whenever the enemy has displayed a tendency to bombard certain sections of our lines the vigorous retaliation of our artillery against his positions has been effective."

Abandonment of the summit of Hirtstein, one of the peaks of Hartmanns-Werkelkopf in the Vosges, was announced by the French war office at Paris tonight. This position, which was one of the peaks captured on Dec. 22, was rendered untenable by the capture of a small section of trench in the lines between Rehlfelsen and Hirtstein by the Germans. This position was situated on a small neck of land connecting the two eminences and to the north of Hirtstein. Possession of mountain peaks is valuable, not for the mounting of guns, but for the posting of artillery observers to direct the fire and they are not held in force as a rule owing to their exposed position. An artillery duel is being continued here. The Germans claim the capture of 20 officers, 1083 men and 15 machine guns here. Their French approach to be pressing an offensive in the Vosges valley, for their report of last night speaks of the conducting of a vigorous bombardment at a point north of Metzeral, forcing the Germans to evacuate a village

PETROGRAD, via London, Jan. 9, 11.47 p.m.—"Russian torpedo boats encountered the Goeben (formerly a German cruiser now the Sultan Selim of the Turkish navy) in the Black Sea," says a Russian official statement. "They withdrew under protection of a ship of the line nearby. A short fight at long range ensued, after which the Goeben fled into the Bosphorus. There were no Russian losses."

FEW KILLED IN NANCY BUT PANIC HAS SPREAD

Thirty Thousand Persons Given Safe Conducts to Leave City.

SITUATION EXAGGERATED

Casualties Thus Far Six Persons Killed and Ten Wounded.

PARIS, Jan. 9.—It is announced that safe conducts have been issued to 30,000 persons to leave the city of Nancy. A special train with some of these residents on board arrived in Paris Friday. Others from Nancy have gone to Dijon and elsewhere.

These statements regarding conditions in Nancy, as the result of the fact that the German shells had begun to hit in the town, were contained in a proclamation by Prefect Mirman of the department of Meurthe et Moselle, in which Nancy is situated, to discredit stories of destruction and panic in Nancy, which have been circulating in Paris and elsewhere. The proclamation, which is entitled "Shame to Sowers of Panic," gives the casualties as six persons killed and ten wounded, and adds that no fires have been caused by the bombardment. The prefect states he believes that the exaggerated rumors were started by persons living remote from Nancy, because anyone near there would know they were untrue.

Only One Soldier Wounded, and No Spoil Was Left—Generals Birdwood and Davies, Aided by Admiral De Roebeck, Performed Task Brilliantly.

LONDON, Jan. 9, 10.29 p.m.—The remaining positions held by the allies on the Gallipoli Peninsula have now been abandoned, according to a British official statement, issued tonight.

Gen. Sir Charles Monro, according to the official statement, reports that only one British soldier was wounded in the evacuation of the Gallipoli Peninsula, that there were no casualties among the French and that all the guns were saved, except 17 worn-out ones, which were blown up.

Brilliantly Achieved. The official communication, issued this evening, says:

"Sir Charles Monro reports the complete evacuation of Gallipoli has been successfully carried out. 'All the guns and howitzers were got away, with the exception of 17 worn-out guns, which were blown up by us before leaving. 'Our casualties amounted to one member of the British rank and file wounded. 'There were no casualties among the French. 'The accomplishment of this difficult task was due to Gen. Birdwood and Davies, and to the assistance of the highest difficulty by Admiral de Roebeck and the royal navy. 'Move was inevitable.

This news has been expected for several days by the keener observers of the near eastern campaign, for the retirement of the troops from Anzac and Suvla Bay three weeks ago left no strategic advantage to the retention of the tip of the peninsula. Nevertheless, the news will be received with a pang of regret by the people of the British Isles as well as the colonies.

Renewed activity of various kinds noted by the Turkish official communications in the past few days has presumably been in the nature of preparations for the final act of the Dardanelles tragedy. Tonight's Turkish official, covering the period of Thursday to Saturday, records increasing effectiveness of the reinforced Turkish batteries, which have been drawing in and concentrating on the allies' remaining positions.

Saturday night's French official statement on Dardanelles operations said: 'Our heavy artillery bombarded the Turkish batteries on the coast of Asia. An infantry attack directed against our trenches was easily repulsed.'

'Great Loss' Say Turks. An Amsterdam dispatch says: 'The British as a result of a violent battle have completely evacuated Seddul Bahir, with great loss of life. A detachment from Constantinople. Not a single man remained behind.'

The dispatch adds that newspaper reports from the Dardanelles say the Turkish troops have completely driven the French and British from Seddul Bahir, and that Gallipoli Peninsula 'is now clear of the enemy.'

A semi-official report from Constantinople, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters Telegram Co., claims 'the capture by the Turks of a great enemy camp and nine guns and the sinking of an enemy vessel with troops near Seddul Bahir.'

Constantinople's Version. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 9.—(Via London).—Effective work by Turkish artillery in bombarding allied positions on Gallipoli Peninsula is reported in the Turkish official statement issued today by the war office. The statement says:

'On the Dardanelles front Thursday night there was rather brisk bombardment on our right and left wings. On Friday our artillery for some hours at intervals violently shelled hostile trenches opposite our right wing, causing heavy damage. In the centre our artillery and our bombs destroyed some hostile trenches, and bomb and mortar positions. On our left there was a feeble artillery duel. Two cruisers, a monitor and four torpedo craft assisted the enemy's land batteries.'

'At 3 o'clock in the afternoon our shells caused an outbreak of fire in the enemy's camp near Teke Burnu. 'On the night of Thursday our batteries in the narrow camp near Seddul Bahir, and on Friday the enemy's batteries in the region of Teke Burnu, and a cruiser and a monitor anchored near Teke Burnu and replied unsuccessfully. 'On Saturday our Anatolian batteries effectively shelled the enemy's camp near Teke Burnu. 'A group of hostile troops is in the alleys near Kere Viziere and Mazi-Iman.'

SUNDAY'S RECRUITING MEETINGS

Whether or not the recruiting methods employed in Toronto are good has been the enquiry of a number of critics recently, and the answer was given yesterday at the five recruiting meetings held throughout the city, 115 men responding. At each of the meetings, which were held in Loew's Theatre (two), the Star Theatre, the Park Theatre and the Templars' Khaki Club, enthusiasm ran high, and after listening to the addresses of a number of prominent speakers, recruits came forward eagerly.

for 22; the Star, 21, and, at the evening meeting in the Khaki Club, 42 were recruited. At Loew's Theatre, Dr. Norman Allen occupied the chair, and addresses were made by Miss Helen Losanitch, Mayor Church, J. Benjamin Gould, Colonel Vaux Chadwick, Captain Mayor, Lieut. Price and R. R. Gamey, M.L.A. D'Arcy Hinds presided at the Star, where the speakers were the same. Major Boehm, Sergt.-Major Donovan and A. E. Donovan, M.L.A., were responsible for the large number enlisting at the Park, while at the Khaki Club speeches were made by Hon. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A.; Thomas Hook, M.L.A.; Oliver Hezlewood and Major Boehm.

MAKES STIRRING CALLS TO JOIN THE COLORS

Rousing Recruiting Meetings Held at Loew's During Afternoon and Evening.

WOULD DISMISS FIT

Lieut.-Col. Vaux Chadwick Suggests That Employers Assist in the Work of Recruiting.

Capacity audiences attended the meetings held yesterday afternoon and evening at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre, under the auspices of the Citizens' Recruiting League. Immense crowds formed along Yonge street on either side of the entrance long before the time for the doors to open and a bystander was heard to remark that if all the eligible men in the line were to enlist there would be little work left for the recruiting sergeants. Within five minutes of the opening of the doors the big auditorium was packed. An exceptionally good program of speakers and artists was provided under the direction of D'Arcy Hinds.

Lieut. Price of the American Legion took the chair in the afternoon. Lieut. Price appealed to the men present as a citizen of a neutral country, to rally to the flag which every nation the world over respected as an emblem of liberty, freedom and honor.

R. R. Gamey, in an inspiring address, urged all those who were eligible, to try and realize the state of Belgium and what Germany had done to her, and to consider that but for British honor, that might easily have been the fate of Canada under German rule, and worse.

"No eligible man," said the speaker, "can consider himself free to refuse this call of the empire. You and I are as much concerned by the war, as much concerned in the death of Edith Cavell, as those in London or Glasgow. Any man who refuses to enlist to help prevent atrocities condones with them."

Private Andrews, of the first contingent, who had been badly gassed and has yet to go up north for treatment, still shows signs of his terrible experiences, but his speech was of the most inspiring and plucky character. With graphic gestures he urged the men to enlist and realize how badly they were needed at the front, and characterized the whole German machine as an agency of evil, "but as the devil has been overcome before now, so we are going to overcome Germany, but we need your help."

At a call for recruits in the afternoon meeting several men stood up in various parts of the house, and were invited to the front by the speaker. Other speakers were Private Shanahan and Miss Helen Losanitch, the plucky little Scotch girl who gave an account of some of her experiences during the second Austrian invasion of Serbia.

The military arrangements were under the direction of Lieut. W. B. Livett, of the 10th Regiment. Miss Florence Good and Miss Munro gave recitations and the following artists contributed songs: Miss Hurst, Miss Rossia, Jack Oldfield, Miss Rosch and Norris Manley, William E. Davis, accompanist, also gave assistance.

The number of recruits at the afternoon meeting was 10. Another capacity audience attended the night meeting, and in addition to a number of addresses by prominent speakers an excellent musical program was rendered.

Miss Helen Losanitch, who is in this country on behalf of the Serbian people, related her experiences when the Austrians invaded her country for the second time. She drew a vivid picture of the hardship and privations suffered by the Serbians and referred to the atrocities which were perpetrated. After thanking Canadians for the help they were giving, she mentioned their contributions to the Red Cross. Miss Losanitch concluded, "Believe me, every officer, soldier, man, woman and child are confident that victory will ultimately rest with the allies."

R. R. Gamey, M.L.A., made a forceful appeal for recruits. He had spoken on the same subject in Germany had been preparing for many years for this war, which was one for freedom and liberty against autocracy. In appealing to the young men he spoke of the atrocities committed in Belgium, and he said these self-same atrocities could happen if the Germans ever came here.

Dismissal of the Fit. Lieut.-Col. Vaux Chadwick of the 15th Battalion in a brief address said that only 150 recruits were now required for the "Pals" Battalion. He pointed out that the unit had made a record in Ontario for recruiting, and with the exception of a regiment in Winnipeg it had been completed most rapidly in Canada. He urged employers to dismiss employees physically fit for service, and asked the women to refrain from entertaining young men fit for service.

HELPS IN RECRUITING

That Number Comes Forward in Answer to Appeal of Major Boehm.

BIG RUSH TO COLORS

Speaker Propheesies That Ten Thousand Will Join in Toronto in Few Weeks.

In answer to a recruiting appeal by Major M. S. Boehm twelve men joined the colors at the Sunday night rally, held in the Templars' Khaki Club building, West Queen street and Doucourt road.

He had the audience stand in classes, those in khaki, men over 45, men rejected and those "who had red blood in their veins." Most of the latter class who stood up remained standing and gave their names to the recruiting sergeants, who came down the aisles.

Major Boehm prophesied that 10,000 men would enlist in Toronto during the next few weeks. He concluded his speech by getting a portion of the women in the audience to rise and promise they would endeavor to get their relatives to enlist.

Lieut.-Col. Vaux Chadwick, commander of the 15th Pals Battalion, stated that his regiment was now up to a strength of 1048. He predicted enough recruits would come forward to bring it up to 1125, its full establishment.

Hon. Thomas Crawford, who was introduced as one of the most active members of the Toronto Citizens' Recruiting League, said he thought some citizens "were disposed to treat rather severely those who had not yet volunteered and put on khaki," and pointed out that it was not always possible to tell by outward circumstances why a man had not enlisted. He believed that it was necessary to let men know they were needed and they would respond readily enough.

Thomas Hook, M.L.A., was chairman. Oliver Hezlewood said that recent investigations had shown that there was no danger of starving Germany, and that the war would last a good while yet. This meant that many more men would be needed from Canada.

Women were urged to get down to manual labor in order to keep the financial status of Canada unimpaired.

The Quilts That Do Not Affect the Head. Because of its tonic and laxative effect LAXATIVE PILLS are the best remedy for constipation without causing nervousness or ringing in the ears. There is only one "Bromo" brand. E. W. GROVES'S signature on box.

Over sixty recruits were secured at last night's meeting in the Park Theatre, ten 1200 people heard Major Boehm of the 14th Battalion make an appeal for the young men to rally to the colors. Eight recruiting sergeants had a busy time at the conclusion of Major Boehm's speech, and several more men were secured before the end of the meeting. All Canadians had good red blood, the speaker asserted, and they only needed to have the matter presented to them in the right light, in order to make them willing to do the khaki.

The address by Col. Vaux Chadwick of the 14th Battalion was one of prizes for Toronto, as one of the best battalions that has been raised in Canada since the outbreak of the war, and that this character would make Canada the greatest country under the sun. "The Monroe doctrine is not worth a snap of the finger if the Kaiser wins the war," said Mr. Donovan. Confidence in the ultimate issue was expressed by the speaker, but he said the Canadians had to secure their finest sons to secure the desired end. "We have only one life to live. Live it nobly, live it for the welfare of your country," he exclaimed.

Sergt.-Major Donovan, of the R.C. D., invited men to join his unit and his remarks were met with a hearty response from the big audience. When the recruiting sergeants stated that sixty men were secured, they intimated that at least that number would pass the medical examination and that the total number of men who signed up for the artillery and infantry units would probably total 100. This was the first of a series of meetings to be held in the Park Theatre, under the direction of Walter Packard of the recruiting league and D. A. Lockie of the theatre.

Those who contributed to the musical part of the program were: Fred Brown, Mrs. Gregg, Miss March Boals, and R. Wilson Kenney.

THREE DROWNED WHILE SKATING ON SATURDAY

Two Bodies Recovered From Bay and Police Are Dragging for a Third.

WENT THRU THIN ICE

Earl Robins, John Smiley and Edgar Rosenberg Ventured Out Too Far.

HAMILTON, Monday, Jan. 10.—Three lives were claimed by the icy waters of Hamilton Bay on Saturday afternoon when three young men were drowned while skating.

They were Earl Robins, aged 16, who resided at 244 Rosslyn avenue; John Smiley, aged 18 years, who lived with his uncle on the Plains road at Aldershot, and Edgar Rosenberg, aged 17, who resided at 100 South James street. The bodies of Robins and Smiley have been recovered, but so far no trace of Rosenberg's remains could be found.

The first victim of the thin ice was Rosenberg, who attempted to skate across the bay about 8 o'clock Saturday evening. He had almost accomplished his task when about 200 yards from the Holy Sandrine Cemetery he encountered thin ice and went thru. Two young men noticed his plight and attempted to reach him, but were unable to owing to the thinness of the ice. There is a strong current in this vicinity, and it is feared in recovering the body, although the police officials are still carrying on the grappling operations in a boat.

Second Fatality. Shortly following the report of Rosenberg's drowning, the police were notified that Earl Robins, 244 Rosslyn avenue, had been drowned at the foot of Wellington street. Robins, along with another young man, broke thru the ice. Their cries were heard by others, who rushed to their assistance. The young man, whose name could not be taken out, was recovered about 8 o'clock Saturday evening. He was taken to the coroner's office and died at noon today.

The third fatality was that of John Smiley, who resided on the Plains road at Aldershot, reported to the police that he had been drowned near Willow Point. He was seen by two police men and Mr. Smiley commenced a search for the body, and at 11:15 was successful in recovering it in the vicinity of Willow Point.

Several others went thru the ice, but were rescued and escaped with a good ducking. The police have issued a warning against skating on the bay until the ice is at least six inches thick.

LAND IS BLOCKED. Caledonia Ratepayers Complain of Fence South of Hughes School.

Residents of McRoberts avenue are complaining of the action of the board of education in blocking up the lane by erecting a fence on the south side of the Hughes School playground.

The matter will be brought to the attention of the civic authorities by the Caledonia Ratepayers' Association.

ENJOYING THE SKATING. Owing to the ideal weather conditions for skating prevalent during the last few days crowds of people in the lake and on the streets of the city were seen skating and patrolling the two rinks prepared for the occasion.

A noticeable feature was the large number of men in military uniform skating and patrolling the two rinks. Many of these were conspicuous by their absence.

RECRUITING PROGRESSES FOR COUNTY REGIMENT

Depots for Acceptance of Recruits Have Been Established at Many Points.

So arduous have the duties of medical inspector for the 12th York County Battalion become that Lieut.-Col. Hillary of Aurora, who up to the present has examined the recruits presenting themselves, will in future be relieved in a measure of some of the work, a number of other medical men being appointed.

Dr. Conn of Agincourt, will be one of these, and Dr. Forbes, Godfrey of Mississauga, and Dr. Lockhart, of Kleinburg, will take a share of the work. The headquarters will, as heretofore, be at St. Paul's Hall, which has now been remodelled. Depots have been established at a number of places out in the county. They are: Agincourt, with Lieut. J. H. Wallace; Richmond Hill, with Lieut. A. J. Hood; Mimico, with Lieut. J. H. Wallace; Aurora, with Lieut. J. H. Wallace; and Newmarket, with Lieut. J. Murray Muir.

A strong campaign is being put on this week and recruiting meetings will be held at a dozen points throughout the county between the city and Lake Simcoe.

MAIL CARRIERS WALKING DELIVERIES ARE LATE

Business Men in St. Clair Avenue Section Send Complaint to Earlscoil Association.

Complaints have been received from several business men in the St. Clair avenue district by the secretary of the Earlscoil Business Men's Association as to the lateness of the hour at which the morning delivery of mails has been made by the postal officials for some time past.

The cause is attributed to the refusal of the civic authorities to allow the postal carriers to use the streets on the St. Clair avenue cars, and the matter is still in dispute between the postal authorities and the city.

In the meantime we receive our business letters around 10 o'clock when we should receive delivery at least two hours earlier," said the manager of one of the largest business establishments in the section.

The matter is receiving the attention of the association.

FEW CHANGES ARE MADE IN COUNCILS OF COUNTY

Inaugural Meetings in Outlying Municipalities Will Be Held Today.

A majority of the township councils throughout the county will hold their inaugural meetings today, when the arrangements of committees and other initial business will take place.

A feature of this year's councils will be the relatively small number of changes made in any of the municipalities. York Township remains the same, and in Humberbrook, over to the west of the county, Italian names will, in Scarborough, two new councillors, Messrs. Heron and Crawford, replace Robt. McCowan and Stouffville, and in Richmond Hill, Aurora and Newmarket send back the same men.

and taking the retreating party under a rain of shells from their 75's. Not far from the place the French guns caused several fires in the German works near Stossel, northwest of Muenster. It is here that an offensive would be pressed against Alsace. Artillery firing marked the operations at other points of the front.

The Germans and Austrians have been driven from the eastern bank of the middle Stripa and two attempts of the enemy to recapture Czartorysk were defeated with considerable losses to him, the Russian official communique on the war announced yesterday. It further adds that in the fighting northeast of Czernowitz on Friday the Russians captured 20 officers, 1175 men, and three machine guns. Other information is not given, the war office merely contenting itself with publishing the results of each encounter and operation.

After considerable fighting Czartorysk remained in Russian hands Saturday, Petrograd officials reports. The entry of Russian detachments into this town drew to the spot considerable forces of the enemy which repulsed the Russian advanced troops, but the foe was afterwards dislodged, leaving three officers and fifty men in Russian hands. Further attempts of the enemy to drive the czar's men from this point failed. The advantage in holding this position is that it gives the Russians the control of a good system of metalled roadways.

Seventeen officers and over 1000 men were taken prisoners by the Russians in the middle Stripa, where Russian units captured an enemy position here and there, according to Saturday's official Russian communique. The Russians have fortified themselves in the centre of wire entanglements in immediate contact with the foe. Several machine guns are included among the Muscovite spoils of war.

Austrian military measures taken up to the end of the week failed to stop the Russian offensive northwest of Czernowitz, their desperate counter-attacks with large forces in the face of the advancing Russians being repulsed with enormous losses. Fourteen officers and over 300 men, with two machine guns, were taken prisoners by the Russians.

H.M.S. King Edward VII., a second-class battleship, and once the pride of the fleet, was sunk by a mine. The crew was saved. This warship was launched in 1903, has a speed of 18 1/2 knots, and was armed by four twelve-inch, four 9.2 inch, and twenty-four smaller guns. She was thirteen years of age and was still a useful vessel, although outclassed by the dreadnought.

The German battle cruiser Goeben, now in the Turkish service, was encountered by Russian torpedo boats in the Black Sea. The boats withdrew under protection of a Russian battleship which exchanged shots with the Goeben at long range. The Goeben fled into the Bosphorus.

The Russian forces in Persia continue their task of dispersing the Turks, Germans, and rebels, who at one time threatened serious trouble to British and Russian interests. It is said that the Russian incursion into Persia has already had a good effect in Afghanistan and on the Indian frontier.

The Austrians have undertaken a vigorous offensive against the Montenegrins and they captured the Villages of Godocna and Godunovo to the left bank of the Tauriak, but they were repulsed everywhere else. The struggle is being continued with desperation.

LEVY WAR ASSESSMENT

Mooney May Be Secured by Direct Taxation on Every Man on Rolls.

Great enthusiasm was manifested by the school trustees and ratepayers of York Township, who attended the meeting held in the township offices on Saturday afternoon to arrange for the organization of the municipality for patriotic and war purposes. A large majority of those present after hearing the remarks of a number of speakers, including W. C. Noonan and Norman Somerville of the Patriotic Fund Association showed their interest by asking questions of the officials and making numerous suggestions.

After the addresses a resolution by W. P. Maclean, M.P., and George S. Henry, M.L.A., was carried. The resolution was that "That this meeting of the school trustees and ratepayers of the Township of York, after hearing the needs of the Toronto and York Patriotic Fund, is of the opinion that the municipal organizations, both county and all others, should levy an assessment sufficient to do their part; and further suggest that the various school sections of the township organize at once to assist in this and all other patriotic activities while the war lasts. Furthermore that they hereby organize the township war auxiliary."

The following were then elected officers of the auxiliary: President, Andrew Grant, Tomordern; vice-presidents, W. P. Maclean, M.P.; Godfrey S. Henry, M.L.A.; secretary, D. W. Proctor, Burnhamstead; assistant secretary, William White; treasurer, Treasurer, Paul J. Douglas; assistant treasurer, W. Caswell. The presidents of the auxiliary organizations in the township school sections will act as an executive.

Reaching the Spring Man. The school trustees of the township were taken up, and the suggestions made were looked after by the committee. Many were in favor of a direct levy being made on the ratepayers, but the majority of the township council to levy the war tax. It is felt that the probability will be levied by the county itself. In view of this fact, it was decided to wait until the war is over.

Why "Clucking Hens" Are the Best for Food

I have been found upon careful investigation that the best fowl for food is a clucking hen. A clucking hen eats far more food than other hens for several days prior to the time that she begins to set in real earnest. And the last few eggs she lays prior to remaining on the nest are richer and sweeter than those laid earlier in her laying period.

Medical and School Board Co-Operation

There appears to be some hesitation on the part of a few of those responsible for the management of the school system of the city, about dividing the work of medical supervision with the medical health department, as has been recommended, with strong reasons for the change. There is always a certain amount of opposition to any change, merely because it is a change, and a few people always think that any change must be for the worse, and that no change is necessary in the ideal conditions to which they have become accustomed. We do not believe the opposition to the proposed improvement has any more serious foundation than these elementary objections.

In a year when economy has not only become a virtue but a necessary principle of existence, any reasonable proposal for the conservation of resources and energies ought to be acceptable. There are so many excellent reasons why the change should be made that it ought to commend itself in any year to the members of the board of education.

The old idea that the board should have a separate proprietary interest in all its officials is one that should not be allowed to weigh against the public interest. There is nothing that is done by any official of the board that could not be equally well done by a joint official of the board and the medical health department. The solid facts presented by the bureau of municipal research form an insuperable barrier to any continuation of the present division of labor if the board is to be regarded as having the public economy in mind as a first aim.

Take one of these reasons alone. At a time when all the 30 nurses employed by the city are most needed, the 37 school nurses are away on vacation; and at the same time, in July and August, the 20 physicians employed by the two health departments are not available to fight infant mortality. At a time when the life of every child is an invaluable asset, there should be no obstacle placed in the way of saving infant life in the city, and there can be no doubt whatever, from the results already obtained, that the additional forces which would be made available in the heated season of the year by the combination of the school and health staffs, would be the means of saving hundreds of lives.

There are many other points to be considered, but it appears to us that the saving of life alone ought to settle the matter. How can any member of the school board set up his punctiliousness against the preservation of the host of little lives which the city statistics confronts us with? Shall we not adopt in its fulness the thought of the bureau and foster the notion that governmental agencies are co-servants, not co-masters, of the people?

The Quebec Bridge

Such progress is being made on the new Quebec bridge that it is expected to be completed within the year. After the tragedy which brought its predecessor to such an untimely end, the present structure is an object of intense interest to the whole engineering world. The immense size of the bridge would of itself give it a spectacular reputation, apart from the notoriety of the former effort. The span between the two piers in the St. Lawrence exceeds that of any other bridge in the world, and it is probable that it will hold the record for cantilever work for a long time to come. The Railway Age Gazette gives one glimpse of some of the dimensions, and its gigantic proportions are indicated by such an item as the account of the assembling of the main posts, which were shipped in sections, 27 of them separately in each post. They had to be handled with great accuracy by the cranes, the splice plates having to be riveted, and each post weighing 1000 tons. Exceedingly careful and accurate measuring is necessary to bring the great arms from either side into perfect alignment.

When the two arms are complete the suspended span will be erected at Victoria Cove, three miles south of the bridge. When entirely erected on the false work it will be floated to the bridge on specially designed pontoons and lifted up into place by 2000-ton jacks placed at each corner. This suspended span is 640 feet long and weighs 6000 tons. If all goes well the bridge should be ready to carry trains late in the fall.

America's New Wheat Basin

New York World, Jan. 9: A direct result of the present war, more pleasant to contemplate than the stories of the chief industry of the huge central basin of North America, Winnipeg in the area of the highest grain production in Canada and far down into the United States spread the rolling miles of wheat region in the world. The figures presented by the American and Canadian Governments for the year just closed tell a romantic story in the area of the highest grain production of the American border states and 600,000,000 bushels of the market was wheat not yet old within the memory of the wheat farmer to the Indian and the buffalo.

Long after our civil war a British traveler wrote an exceedingly interesting book called "The Great Lone Land," describing his struggles with blizzards and starvation in what is now the wheat empire. He did not think much of it as a country for settlement, but time has quickly shown how much he was mistaken. Just as it showed in a few years that our greatest error was to break apart the Rocky Mountains, or Macaulay's westward advance would break apart the Rockies, and we would have had a good free land taken up. There are many impressive chapters in the story of the continent, but there is none more picturesque than the one which is being made in our day by a grain of wheat.

ENGLISH NAVY AND AMERICAN TRADE

Buffalo Evening News: The other day when the British authorities seized the United States mail coming from Europe we were angry. We cried out loudly and rightly, perhaps, against the English-handed proceeding. England has interfered with our rights to a certain extent. But it cannot be denied that, on the whole, the British navy has rendered inestimable service to our commercial interests. She has restricted our trade with Holland and Scandinavia, and our German trade is not so open, and our total sea highways are open and our total volume of overseas trade has grown enormously. Our export returns are the largest in the present time the United States leads the world in exports. This we could not possibly have done had the British navy not patrolled the seas and policed its waters. It is fitting that we insist that certain emergency measures adopted by British ships be revoked as soon as possible. But it is extremely imprudent and foolish to keep dogging a power without whose protection of the seas our commerce would have been reduced to a beggarly trickle.

ready to receive back their fighting children each time they came from a raid or a battle. The huge establishment was vibrating with energy and in the harbor mine sweepers were coming back from their work, while the hydro-aeroplanes were manoeuvring from the deck of their craft and black smoke from the stacks of the cruisers and destroyers was being pumped into the air. Couldn't Find Enemy.

The Arethusa and the light cruiser squadron had just returned from scouting along the German coast. It was said to have ventured out from the Kiel Canal. Nothing had been seen of the German ships, and the British officers—the same who had now received their stars in the famous fights under Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty—were derisive at the idea that the Germans would venture forth. One of the officers was in command of the torpedo subs when they fired the deadly missiles which struck the German cruiser Blucher and sent her to the bottom in the great fight of the 24th January. He pointed out these selfsame tubes and told how they had worked.

Battle Scarred Warship

Scars of battle were all over the ship, which the officers pointed out with the pride that a victor has in his display when he exhibits his trophies. A deck galley amidships had been entirely shot away, a mine shell having exploded in it. This had washed away the upper works were literally peppered with shrapnel, but with two-inch riveted steel plates, so that the saucy Arethusa was again as good as ever.

Battalions of Destroyers

The party now went aboard the latest type of big destroyers which are here ranged in great battalions, with steam up. They are very fast, some are making 37 or 38 knots, and even touching 42 knots on a measured mile, while all of them regularly do 35 knots on regular service. Lying outside of them were the submarines of the D and E type, the latter being sea-going craft of great radius, which are now making distant undersea voyages to the Baltic and the Dardanelles. The smaller class have the trim shape of an eight-oared racing shell, but the new ocean rangers are as ugly as some submarine monster, with steel fin running fore and aft and a camel's hump amidships for a deck. One of the commanders pointed out their fine qualities. "They can stay under water for seventy-two hours," he said, "yes, three days, without any inconvenience to the crew from lack of air. The D boats are good for runs of 24 hours under water, but the E boats make seventy-two hours just as easily. During these long, deep-water runs they thread their way thru the Skager Rack or skirt around Teneriffe and past

AUSTRALIAN CADETS PAY VISIT TO GUELPH

GUELPH, Ont., Jan. 9.—The Australian Cadets, in command of Lieut. J. J. Symons, are bringing their year's tour of Canada and the United States to a close. They will leave Guelph on Monday afternoon for Vancouver, whence they will sail direct for their Australian homes. Lieut. Symons stated while here that the tour had been a tremendous success from start to finish. They arrived in Guelph on Saturday morning, and were met at the station by the Guelph Collegiate Institute and Public School Cadets, the 29th and 43rd Batteries, the 13rd Wellington Battalion, and a large crowd of people. They were given an official welcome by Mayor Mahoney. In the afternoon they were given a drive around the city ending at the Ontario Agricultural College where they were the guests of Dr. Creelman. They paraded to St. George's Church on Sunday morning, and Lieut. Symons addressed a big recruiting meeting in the opera house at night.

WOMEN'S FINE WORK

LINDSAY GAVE HUGHES A NOTABLE WELCOME

Recruiting Trip Thru Victoria and Halliburton Was Brilliant Success.

CRITICS AGAIN FLAYED

Sir Sam Bitterly Resents Aspersions on Conduct of Soldiers.

Special to The Toronto World. LINDSAY Ont. Jan. 8.—Sir Sam Hughes was given a most cordial welcome today. The streets of Lindsay were lined with sightseers, and great enthusiasm was in evidence. During the past few days the courtesies of Victoria and Halliburton, Sir Sam's constituency, have been striven as never before, the general himself, accompanied by officers from the 10th Battalion, has been recruiting trip thru the riding. The rural inhabitants gathered at every station along the line of railways between Lindsay and Halliburton and in every instance were addressed by the general. Successful meetings were held at Halliburton and Fenelon Falls and the general's special train returned to Lindsay at daybreak Saturday morning for Coboonk. He returned to Lindsay this afternoon and at once proceeded to the armories, delivered an address that will be long remembered. D. Flavelle acted as chairman and brief addresses were made by leading citizens and officers of the 10th Battalion.

MISPLACED SYMPATHY

General Hughes was tendered an ovation when he crossed the border, and the cheering and the enthusiasm displayed by Lt.-Col. Fee and the 10th Battalion, he expressed his pride in the splendid response between the men of Victoria and Halliburton. In referring to the exemplary conduct of the Canadian soldiers, General Hughes remarked that it was necessary to be reminded of the "Dear soldier boys," as if they were not as responsible as civilians. These boys, he pointed out, were the best in the country and why people busied themselves in passing resolutions in their behalf was more than he could understand.

PUNISHMENT NOT NEEDED

In his 45 years' military experience he never found it necessary to punish a soldier. Discipline did not mean repression, Gen. Hughes said his doctrine was to treat the soldiers as men and never as any thing but men. Some men had forgotten themselves, but they were not the only class that had done so. Even the officers might fall, they were men as well as soldiers. There could scarcely be found any class that behaved any better. "It makes me wild," said General Hughes, "to think that some believe that because a man dons a uniform he is forth a criminal or blackguard." Recruits were now coming in in thousands and the intention was to put 500,000 men on the firing line for the great cause of liberty. "Don't let your armchairs with your feet back," said the speaker.

REPLY TO CRITICS

War, Gen. Hughes said, taught us to have confidence in our fighting ability. He was called an egotist and a braggart. He was called a man of war, but he was a man of peace. He was called a man of war, but he was a man of peace. He was called a man of war, but he was a man of peace. He was called a man of war, but he was a man of peace.

COUNTRY'S GOOD RESPONSE

NEW PHONE EXCHANGE IS CALLED "BELMONT"

New Prefix to Be Used for North of Roskill Avenue

A DELICATE OPERATION

Change Will Be Made Monday Night With Little Interruption.

The Bell Telephone Company has erected a large exchange building on Eglinton street, east of Yonge street, to serve the district north of Roskill avenue, which includes the old Town of North York, and has installed a central exchange switchboard of the latest type. The work having been completed, about 100 subscribers will be transferred on Monday evening from the north office on Eglinton avenue to the new exchange, which will have the prefix "Belmont." It is anticipated that the transfer will be made with practically no interruption. Every circuit is now connected with the switchboards in the two widely separated buildings. The reconstruction and enlargement of the outside plant consequent upon such duplication have been carried out without interference to the service.

A DIFFICULT TASK

To effect the transfer, the lines to the old exchange must be cut, and these by the removal of the insulating slips, which how prevent their operation. It then becomes necessary to carefully adjust the relays and other complicated appliances and give attention to many details, that the new apparatus may work smoothly. It is impossible to complete a work of this magnitude and delicacy without some attention reduce this to a minimum. The operating staff will number between 400 and 500.

As Incoming Calls Must Be Distributed Among the Old Lines Will Connect "Belmont" with These Exchanges and With the Long Distance Department

There are now over 58,000 telephones in Toronto, and the normal originating calls for the whole city are between 500,000 and 600,000, of which over 350,000 pass thru more than one exchange, and each of which must be handled by two operators with complex trunking equipment. The whole service of the city requires a staff of about 1500 operators. There are over 2000 employees in all, and the system embraces more than 150,000 miles of wire, about 75 per cent. of which is underground in 2 1/2 million feet of conduit.

Hockey Argonauts Pacing Famous Horse Burned to Death

ARGOS BEAT RIVERSIDES FOUR OVERTIME PERIODS

Losers, Four Goals Behind, Came Strong in Third and Tied Up Score.

There will be many good hockey games played at the arena before the finish of the season, but it is doubtful if a more hair-raising and thrilling contest will be staged than that of Saturday evening when Dr. Jerry Lafamme's Argonauts were extended into four overtime periods to pull out a 9 to 7 win from the speedy Riversides. Maybe the hockey all the time wasn't right up to the beat standard of senior O.H.A., nevertheless the uncertainty of the overtime periods produced excitement among the huge crowd of spectators such as is never seen except at the big finals.

The going was rough all the way, and the work of the Argos was very dirty, and in this regard, they got away with it. The last period was a penalty with it through the game. Lafamme was always his object of defense and Jerry took a dozen pokes and jabs and returned in kind only once. Stewart and Applegham mixed it up all night, and in the last period the feud developed into a fist fight and both got a rest. Resnor got a dislocated collar bone from Knight's check and Young went off for Argos for two periods of six-man hockey.

Argos started in four corners to Riversides in the first. Two of the scores came on which Collett on the penalty bench, for which Collett on his knees in making a stop. Three of the four were on good combination work up the ice, the last by Knight coming at the end of a nice long rush. In the second Argos again outscored the white shirts by three to two, leaving the score 7 to 3 with one period to go, and Riversides supporters were ready to cheer over their lost wagers. For two periods the Riversides had been afraid to get close to Argos' heavy defense, and when Frank Knight drew a penalty for throwing his stick their chance came. Riversides ran in three, shooting from closer in, then Knight came on and went off again for boarding Crane, and the Argos stopped at 10-3. Riversides supporters raised the roof when Merrick scored with only three minutes to go in the period.

Three overtime periods of fast up and down hockey were played with no score, but in the fourth Riversides cracked with two past Collett in quick succession. Gilbert in goal for Argos was immense all night, and next to him was the aggressive for the Argos. Note and Dopp were most aggressive for the Argos. Note and Dopp were most aggressive for the Argos. Note and Dopp were most aggressive for the Argos.

The biggest crowd of the season was in attendance, and the crowd enthusiastically appreciated the amateur brand of hockey as displayed by the local senior O.H.A. teams.

Line-up and Summary. Argos (9): Goal, Collett; Defenses, Knight, Resnor, Lafamme, Merrick, Applegham, Young, Stewart, Dopp. Riversides (7): Goal, Collett; Defenses, Knight, Resnor, Lafamme, Merrick, Applegham, Young, Stewart, Dopp.

WANDERERS AND OTTAWA RIVERSIDES IN THE N.H.A.

Frenchmen Beaten on Their Own Ice When They Had Chance for Three-Cornered Tie.

At Montreal—The Wanderers defeated the Canadiens by 5 to 3 Saturday night, and thus again assumed the lead in the N.H.A. The Wanderers proved the better team from the start, but were unable until the final twenty minutes to gain a lead on the Frenchmen, and the game was interesting throughout. For forty minutes it was a fast pace for both teams, then signs of exhaustion were noticed, and frequent changes were made in the line-up. The Wanderers carried their lead in the final period, and won in a burst of speed that the Canadiens could not withstand. Rodgers, who lined up with the Frenchmen, was given a rather hostile reception by his former team-mates of the Wanderers.

At Ottawa—The champion Ottawa broke Quebec's winning streak, and their own string of losses, Saturday night, when they defeated Quebec by a score of 4 to 2. The game was one of the fastest and flashiest ever seen in the capital. Ottawa took the lead in the first period, 1 to 0, when they scored on a long shot. In the second, Dufford and Darragh increased it, 2 to 0, when Gerard tallied following with goals, that made it 4 to 0. Just before the close of the second period Crawford scored for Quebec. Ottawa, in the third, Crawford again scored—the last goal of the game. George Boucher, the football star, made his debut on the Ottawa line. Defenses, Dufford, Darragh, Merrill; wing, Dufford, Darragh; centre, Dufford, Darragh; forward, Dufford, Darragh, Merrill; goal, Dufford.

"B" COMPANY DEFEATS "C" IN HOT CONTEST. Highlanders played hockey at the arena on Saturday afternoon. The game was a hot one, and the "B" company, managed by Lieut. Donald Mackay, defeated the "C" company, under Captain Peckover, 6 goals to 3, after 40 minutes of hard, earnest hockey. Two periods of overtime were played. The two companies of Highlanders were also in attendance, and they made the rafters ring with their cheering.

Moore Upsets in English Soccer

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The soccer games decided today in the English and Scottish leagues again resulted in many surprises. The Barrow-Manchester United game at Tur Moor, which was the star attraction in the northern league, was a large crowd, and resulted in a victory for the home team by a score of 7 to 1. Everton and Manchester City both won their games, which makes the race for first position in the table very exciting.

Greek Defeats Finn Cross-Country Race

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Nek Glanokopoulos achieved the cross-country victory for the season yesterday when he defeated Hannes Kolehmainen in the race for the national title held over the Van Cortlandt Park course. The race was a stern one from the beginning to the end, with several ambitious amateurs fighting every step of the way for the crown. Not one of the New York A.C. men put in an appearance, and the team was entirely composed of the Irish-American and Milrose teams, the former winning.
