THE DESERTED BRIDE.

(By Gaöace P. Moraus, Editor of the New-York Mirror.)

*Love me!—No—he never loved me!

Else he'd sooner die than stain
One so fond as he has proved me
With the hollow world's disdain.

False one, go!—my doom is spoken,
And the spell that bound me broken!

Love I him?—Thus scorned and slighted—
Thrown, like worthless weed, apart;
Hopes and feelings scer'd and blighted—
Love him?—Yes, with all my heart!
With a passion superhuman—
Coustancy, 'thy name is woman.'

Love no time can change or fashion— Love?—Idolatry's the word To speak the broadest, deepest passion Ever woman's heart hath stirr'd! Vain to still the mind's desires, Which consume like hidden fires!

Wreck'd and wretched, lost and lonely, Crush'd by grief's oppressive weighs, With a prayer for Clifford only, I resign me to my fate. Chains that bind the soul I've proven Strong as they were iron-woven.

"The annual charges against the Province amount to upwards of £20,000, independently of the Appropriations for Roads and Bridges.

"The inconvenience and losses arising from want of means to enable the Treasurer to make ready payments, which were so long, and so severely felt throughout the Province, have been completely removed by the Act for allowing interest for unpaid Warrants, and very great benefits to individuals as well as advantages to the public service have resulted therefrom.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

THE Committee deeply regret to inform the members and friends of the Temperance Society, that they are again unavoidably compelled to postpone indefinitely their intended public Quarterly Meeting. After many fruitless endeavours to obtain a suitable place for holding the Meeting, they had at length succeeded in obtaining the use of the National School Room for that purpose; but a new and extraordinary obstacle to that design has since suiddenly arisen, which prevents its fulfilment; and the Committee are therefore under the necessity of again deferring the Meeting, till a suitable room can be secured.

By order of the Committee,
G. BILATCH, Secretary.
