British Eager To Get At It

Magnificent Spectacle Of March To The Aid of Italy

MANY MEN AND MANY GUNS

Cavalry, Infantry and Artillery Cover Roads for Miles as They Move on to Meet Enemy on Italian Front—Unpleasant Surprise Coming to Austro-Germans

London, Nov. 27.—(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency)—Reuters' correspondent at Italian headquarters describes the magnificent spectacle of British troops marching into Italy, comprising cavalry, artillery and infantry, extending along the roads for miles, with all other branches of the army following. The infantry had been marching steadily for days, making sixteen miles a day. The artillery is equipped with a great number of guns and is accompanied by endless lines of lorries, carts, pontoons and other accessories to a complete army. Telegraphing last evening the correspondent says the enemy is vigorously pressing at three points. First, at Tomba mountain, and Montefenera. The latter, being the spur of the Tomba coast, has fallen, but the heroic defense has rendered the situation stationary. Behind Tomba and Montefenera supplementary defenses were prepared to minimize the loss, if Tomba and Montefenera fell, although a considerable advance might force the Plave. The second point of attack is San Martino, on the Brenna, and the third point is the Asiago Plateau, especially Mount Maletta, where the enemy has maintained a steady pressure. Plans, however, to the grim determination of the Italian infantry, the enemy's attempts have been defeated. The British force are eager to get in to the light and the Austro-Germans may soon be unpleasantly surprised.

TWO MORE FREDERICTON SOLDIERS KILLED

Gunner Walter McAdam and Gunner Allan Wetmore—Brother of Former Also Gave Life in War

Fredricton, N. B., Nov. 27.—Two more Fredricton men have given their lives in action in France—Gunner Walter McAdam, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McAdam, and Gunner Allan Wetmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wetmore. Gunner McAdam enlisted in the 9th Siege Battery upwards of a year ago, while attending the Fredricton High school. He was drafted from England to a battery in France in October and had been at the front not more than one month. He was nineteen years old and is the second member of his family to give his life for the empire, an elder brother, Murray, having been killed while serving with the Canadian field artillery one year ago. Still a third brother had been at the front, Private Alex. McAdam, who went overseas with the 55th Battalion and was wounded five times during two years and six months of service in France. He now lies in England. A fourth brother, Donald, is now with the 9th Siege Battery in St. John. Gunner Wetmore was prominent as an athlete, being one of the best players of the Fredricton High School rugby team. While in England he played on Canadian Rugby teams, against some of the best of the New Zealand teams. Gunner Allan Wetmore also enlisted in the 9th Siege Battery and went to France with the same draft with which Gunner McAdam went. He was the eldest son of A. R. Wetmore, chief engineer of the provincial public works department. Gunner Wetmore was in his twentieth year and was popular with all who knew him. Public sympathy goes out to the members of the bereaved families.

FAIL IN EFFORT TO DRIVE THE BRITISH FROM BOURBON WOOD

Counter Attack Last Night Unsuccessful—Washington Summary Says Week Has Been Very Favorable One For Allies

London, Nov. 27.—British troops have repulsed another German counter-attack at the northeast corner of Bourbon Wood west of Cambrai, according to an official report today from Field Marshal Haig. The announcement follows: "During the night the Germans undertook another counter-attack against our position in the northeast corner of Bourbon Wood. The attack was repulsed. There is nothing of special interest to report on the remainder of the front. The weather is stormy and wet."

GOOD WEEK, SAYS WASHINGTON

Washington, Nov. 27.—"The week just closed has been one very favorable to the allied arms," says the war department's official communique issued today, French Report.

Paris, Nov. 27.—The French last night overcame the resistance of the Germans still holding out on the field of operation in the northeast corner of Bourbon Wood. The French attack on the Verdun front on Sunday, says today's official report. Prisoners were taken in raids on the battle line. The announcement follows: "Active artillery fire is under way north of the Alps, in the sector between Filly and Pinon. "In Champagne one of our detachments last night penetrated German trenches north of Frunay. After having explored the positions and destroyed shelters and captured materials, our men returned to their own lines without losses. This morning we made a successful raid west of Tahure. "On the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) we carried out with success last night an operation in detail north of Hill 944. We reduced a point of resistance, rounding out the gains obtained on Sunday afternoon. On the left bank of the river a patrol action near Bethincourt enabled us to take prisoners, including an officer. "In Lorraine, northeast of Nomeny, we made a raid and brought back captives."

STILL WASTING MUCH IN CANADA

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The feature of the opening sitting of the annual meeting of the commission here this morning was the address of the chairman, Sir Clifford Sifton. Probably his most outstanding recommendation was one dealing with power and water developments. He suggested that an international commission should be named as a means of guaranteeing the best and most economical development and division of power between the United States and Canada.

Sir Clifford also dwelt upon the necessity of eliminating political patronage in connection with forestry work, declaring that there was no branch of the public service that would benefit more by the abolition of patronage. The chairman said that it was a matter of great regret to members of the commission that the Hon. Dr. Beland, one of its members, was still a prisoner in Germany's hands. "We are no longer under the necessity of preaching the doctrine of conservation in general," Sir Clifford said. "The whole world has been taught the necessity of conservation of all kinds of resources by the inexorable necessity of preserving the means of subsistence. It cannot be said, however, that in Canada we have yet arrived at a proper conception of the economic situation of our resources. We still persist in a great degree in the crude and wasteful methods naturally characteristic of a country where resources are absolutely necessary."

How Americans Caught Submarine

Depth Bombs Force U-Boat To The Surface

THE CREW SURRENDER

First Manage To Open Sea-Cocks And Submersible Goes To Bottom—First Burial Service On American Destroyer Since War Began

Base of the American Flotilla in British Waters, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—It is now permissible to give the details of the capture of entire crew of a U-boat sunk by depth charges fired by Americans. The explosives had disabled the U-boat and forced it down, bumping along the bottom of the sea and striking terror in the hearts of the crew, when the commander, in order to lighten her, emptied the tanks. The U-boat responded and rose to the surface within several hundred feet of the submarine destroyer. The submarine's hatch flew open and the Germans scrambled out of the conning tower, on the way they were met by the American destroyer. They lined up along the narrow deck with hands in the air, shouting "Kameraden." The U-boat remained stationary and the destroyer moved close up and heaved a line, which the Germans made fast. This was no sooner done than it became apparent that the crew had succeeded in opening the sea-cocks, for the submarine began to settle, at first slowly, then more rapidly. As she did the Germans leaped into the water and swam towards the American bluejackets jumped into the sea to rescue the injured.

As the last German was lifted aboard the destroyer, the latter attached to the U-boat parted under the strain and the U-boat disappeared. Some of the Germans were given steaming hot coffee and dry clothing and were otherwise made comfortable for the rest of the night. But one of their number, a machinist, had suffered greatly from shock and exposure and died on the way. He was buried with full military honors from the deck of the destroyer, the American commander of the way. JOHNSON DOES NOT FAVOR DOUBLE-HEADERS

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Numerous double-headers will result from any attempt to compress a schedule of 164 games into five and one half months, in the opinion of E. B. Johnson, president of the American League, today. He said that he favored reducing the American League schedule to 140 games, but if the National League decided to retain the 154 game schedule that it would be necessary for the American League to play a like number in order to avoid conflicting dates. "Playing two games for one admission cheapens the sport," said Mr. Johnson today, "and creates in the minds of the fans the belief that they are not getting their money's worth out of a single game of nine innings. Double-headers have done more to injure professional baseball than any other one thing. "Some of the minor leagues have played the double-header card to the limit, and owe much of their financial trouble to that fact."

Large numbers of troops being moved to different places have been stopped by the removal of sections of railroad track to prevent their reaching Petrograd. They were stopped at towns where food could not be obtained. London, Nov. 26.—A despatch to Reuters' limited from Petrograd dated Nov. 21 says: "The commanders at the front continue to send the most ominous despatches concerning the exhaustion of supplies and reports of forthcoming hungry hordes of soldiers invading the centres of population. A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen gives similar reports. It says advice received from Russia describe the situation as more desperate than ever and assert that the country is on the verge of a bloody civil war. According to this despatch, a Russian newspaper, the 'Crisis,' asserts that the Russian army on the northern front have for several days been without food and that soldiers daily are leaving the front in hundreds or are dying in the trenches from cold and hunger. The newspaper adds that institutes due to hunger have broken out on several parts of the line. London, Nov. 27.—The Council of People's Commissaries, according to the Exchange Telegraph despatch from Petrograd dated Sunday, has declared a two months' moratorium from the beginning of the recent revolt. A decree issued by the council creates a special state education committee to replace the ministry of education. All schools are placed under the control of the municipalities.

IRISH REPUBLIC IS BUT A DREAM

Cardinal Logue's Words in Ordering Prayers For Peace, in Armagh Church

Dublin, Nov. 26.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—Cardinal Logue ordered prayers for peace in the Armagh church on Sunday, saying: "Whether due to the demoralization of the world by war or to a fate hanging over unhappy Ireland, blasting the hopes when they seem to brighten, an agitation is spreading here which is ill-considered and utopian and cannot fail to entail suffering, disorganization and danger to the end of disaster, defeat and collapse, and all in pursuit of a dream so sober men can hope to see realized, namely, the establishment of an Irish republic either by an appeal to the potentates of Europe at the peace conference or by hurling an unarmed people against an empire of five millions under arms, a thing which would be ridiculous if it were not so mischievous and fraught with such danger to an ardent, generous and patriotic people."

SPECULATION AS TO THE SOLDIER VOTE

(Continued from page 1) Canadian troops assured me on Saturday that all the soldiers who had visited him during the last week talking over affairs generally not even mentioned the election. "Judging from the lack of interest," he says, "it is a twenty-five per cent vote," and he is a shrewd observer who knows Canada well. A prominent soldier returned from his corps for the week-end told me that the army corps so far is taking practically no interest in the election. The average man knows and cares little about it and if he is to be roused to enthusiasm very live wires will be quickly wanted.

TO AID PURE MILK SUPPLY. Milk or cream offered at cut rates may not be so cheap as appears. Realizing that no public facilities exist here for such work, which has a high educational value and should accordingly be of value to themselves as well as to those served, Pacific Dairies, Limited, will test for quality, free of all charges, any samples of milk or cream brought to them at their modern plant, 678 Main street, in plain containers by interested users of such products. A wingless full taken from a well-shaken can or bottle is an ample quantity. Parties bringing samples are invited to remain and observe the work of testing and are assured that no advance information is sought for or desired. A phone call to 444 Main 2224 or 848 will arrange an appointment, thus possibly saving time. T.F.

DO YOUR HENS PAY? A convenient and simple form (to help tell whether the flock is paying or not), has been worked out by the Poultry Division, Experimental Farm, Ottawa. This form, which may be hung up in the poultry house or the kitchen, provides space for marking down each day the number of eggs laid. It also indicates space for recording the number of eggs and poultry sold or eaten, and space to note whether bought or taken from the farm, and columns for entering cash receipts, expenditures and balances.

The form is a convenient place to keep your poultry account each month, and may be had on application to the Poultry Division, Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Free of cost, providing a duplicate copy is sent to the Poultry Division each month.

WAR MEDALS. May Introduce Bills in U. S. Congress for New Decorations.

American Field Headquarters, France, Nov. 28—One result of the recent visit of American congressmen to the front may be legislation granting a new medal to American soldiers for deeds of bravery.

It was reported today that several of the representatives had announced their intention to introduce bills at the December session of congress providing for two new military decorations.

There was no intention on their part to displace the present congressional medal of honor as the highest of all awards for gallantry in action or of conspicuous services in time of war.

But the congressmen who favor the additional awards believe, and have shown two new medals for recognition of expeditionary army heroes—medals which could be awarded on the field, and the British Distinguished Service Medal and the Military Cross.

As it stands at present, American soldiers' bravery can be recognized only by award of a departmental medal, or after passage of a special act of congress, by the medal of honor.

Legislation creating medals of equal value to the British, French, Italian and other Allied government awards would still further serve to put the American soldier in the comradeship of the men he is to be fighting with henceforth.

BORDER TOWNS DRY. Calais, Nov. 24—Co-operation on the part of Maine and New Brunswick which went into effect a few weeks ago has resulted in a really, truly drought along the borders of the St. Croix. In former years when St. Stephen went on the water wagon it was always possible for the thirsty to find relief in Calais, and whenever the Maine officials determined to dry things on this side of the line, usually for political effect, there was always something to be had across the New Brunswick border. But now, alas, all this has been changed. The drastic prohibition law of New Brunswick which went into effect a few weeks ago has resulted in the closing of all the bars across the line and the town is dry indeed. There is nothing ferocious in the enforcement over there and the man on the job, Inspector Moore, is and has always been a consistent foe to king alcohol. The new law became effective on Oct. 20, and not a single article for intoxication has been since that date.

KALEDINES SAID TO BE THE MASTER OF THE SITUATION
London Post's Petrograd Correspondent Hints at Old Friends of Allies Emerging on Top

London, Nov. 27.—The Russian revolutionists have made a "ghastly failure" of their attempt at administration, according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post, writing under date of Saturday. He adds: "But behind or beyond all this apparently hopeless chaos, the forces which made Russia an empire are not idle and those who know Russian history understand perfectly well how matters will end."

"Even as I write the situation is becoming clear. The elections to the constituent assembly will take place but the constituent assembly will not meet the success of the Bolshevik movement, whatever that movement may really cover, as it already has demoralized the constituent assembly."

"Meaning, I would call attention to the following facts: 'The vast gold reserve of the Russian empire, which was removed from Petrograd to the Kremlin in 1913, was later carried still further into the interior. It is in safe hands. Gen. Kaledines, betman of the united Cossacks is in secure possession, with trustworthy and disciplined troops of all arms, of all those regions of European Russia, the Lower Volga provinces, and Turkestan—the area which feeds all Russia. This union is extending and promises to cover the Siberian corn land."

"General Kaledines, holding the gold reserve, and the bread supply, and the power of the situation, and those he serves will accept dictation neither from Kerensky, Lenin, nor anybody else, least of all from Germany."

"The Allies may safely admit a bowing acquaintance with the curious individualities thrown up from the depths by internal disturbances, but for intimate friendship and future partnership they must look elsewhere, and in the meantime they must wait unconcerned until their old friends reappear above the present turmoil."

Modern Greece was the subject of an educational and highly instructive lecture given last evening in Trinity church school room under the auspices of the Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E., by Mrs. H. P. Greenbank, now of St. John. The lecture was accompanied by lantern slides gathered personally by Mrs. Greenbank. The lecture followed along the lines of one previously delivered in the Natural History Society rooms.

District Commissioner Waring and District Scout Master Hamm were at the Boys' Club last evening and made further progress in organizing a troop of boy scouts. Judge Ritchie and A. M. Belding assisted. Mr. Waring presented the boys with a scout record book. No less than ninety boy scouts were doing a good turn yesterday. Sixty-two were distributing circulars for the Victory Loan, and fifteen working for the I. O. D. E. Tonight 100 will be doing special duty for an hour or so. Mr. Waring visited Carmarthen street troop last evening and Mr. Hamm St. Luke's.

A. M. Belding addressed the Epworth League of Queen square Methodist church last evening on Civic Problems, with special reference to a school census and compulsory attendance, continuation of the practical nature of the address, medical inspection, and better housing. Rev. Hammond Johnson, pastor of the church, presided, expressed appreciation of the practical nature of the address, and referred to the need of organized effort to improve social conditions in many directions, especially in relation to child welfare. On motion of William Hawker thanks were tendered the speaker, and Mr. Hawker expressed the hope that the league might be able to lend a hand in promoting needed reforms referred to by the speaker.

RUTH LAW AT WHITE HOUSE
Washington, Nov. 27.—Ruth Law, who has applied to the war department for a commission in the aviation section of the signal corps, called at the White House. She declined to discuss the purpose of her visit, but said she believed the prospect of her getting a commission was very favorable.

TO AVOID ROUGH, COARSE, CHAPPED, BLOTCHY SKIN

Most skins require constant grooming at this season to keep them from becoming unattractively red, chapped, rough or blemished. If such conditions have developed, it is impossible to keep piling on cosmetics which do the most to make the complexion worse than ever.

The secret is to use ordinary mercialized wax, which literally absorbs a spoiled complexion. Apply this wax cold cream, before retiring. Next morning, in washing it off, you'll have away with those little particles of the unsightly white. Repeat for a week or more and you'll have the softest, whiter, smoother, white, spotless and beautiful as a child's. One ounce of mercialized wax, procurable at any druggist's, is all you'll need.

FOUND SALOON IN TAXI
Several army officers, while walking along a road leading to Fort Totten, on Long Island Sound, recently, were accosted by a man operating a taxicab, who said: "Say, boys, do you want a little whiskey or beer? Step right inside; we can fix you up."

The officers accepted the invitation and found that the taxicab was a miniature saloon. The officers then placed their seats under arrest, with four other chauffeurs who, they say, were engaged in trafficking in liquors for soldiers in connection with their taxicab business. The five men were taken to the Flushing police station and later to the federal court in Brooklyn, where they were held for examination.

AT BIBLE STUDENTS' HALL.
Last Sunday afternoon the speaker at Bible Students' Hall delivered a sermon with "The Mills of God," for his subject. He traced the ceaseless operations of the law of cause and effect, in physical, in national and in individual affairs. The unseen yet mighty, tireless, resistless currents of Nemesis or retribution move on beneath the surface and spring into open view whenever power often when least expected. This was graphically illustrated by the legend of "Bishop Hatto and the Rats."

"Though the mills of God grind slowly, Yet they grind exceedingly small. In His patience stands He waiting, With exactness grinds He all."

A condition without law was illustrated by the children's story of the "Land of Topsy-turvydom," where one could never tell what would happen. It is not so in God's universe. Here all is regulated by inflexible law, which brings us to full accountability either in this world or the next. With every downward step a man takes the mills of God grind something of his will power, weakening his character. With every upward moral step the same mills or laws grind a portion from the edge of his depraved tendencies, leaving him stronger and better. Every thought and act men sow will have to be reaped sometime. Under Christ's coming kingdom the mills of God will grind out happiness for the world.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT.

—Chicago Daily News.

We Have The Foe In a Deadly Grip, Says Lloyd George

Addressing a deputation of employers and workmen engaged in shipbuilding who called upon him with suggestions for the best means of obtaining the greatest possible output of new ships, Premier Lloyd George urged better co-operation. "We are fighting for our lives," said the premier. "We have terrible struggle on hand before us, but if we are secure on the seas, well, to use the phrase, we have got them; they cannot escape us. "We have got them in a deadly grip, and, knowing the character of the people of this country as I do, they do not let go, once they have started. That is their historical character, and the German knows it. He is aware that our grip is a deadly one, once we begin, and he is trying to unloosen it. "He is attempting to get us at what he considers is our most vulnerable point, namely, our communications in the sea. He will not succeed. But it depends very largely on you, and you can only get the best results by good-will and co-operation and by throwing the whole of your energy and strength into the task."

MORE OF OUR BRAVE IN CASUALTY LIST

Word that her brother, Charles Duffy, of Nauwigewauk, N. B., had been killed in action was received by Miss Ethel I. Duffy, a teacher in the Washington State Normal School.

Dorchester Boy Gives Life in War.

Word has been received by George Bishop, a member of the maritime penitentiary staff at Dorchester, that his son, Sergeant George Stanley Bishop, previously reported wounded was now officially reported died of wounds. The late sergeant enlisted with the Westmorland and Kent regiment and has made a splendid record at the front. He is survived by both his parents, two sisters and two brothers. Flags were flying in Dorchester on Saturday at half-mast as a mark of respect for the soldier's passing. This makes the sixth precious life which Dorchester has given to the empire's cause.

One of Three Brothers Killed; Father in Klaski Also.

Another Moncton boy has given his life for his country. Private G. A. McLaren is reported in Monday morning's casualty list as killed in action. Private McLaren was son of Charles R. McLaren, of Moncton, at present in Halifax. He went overseas with the 104th and was one of three brothers serving with the Canadian forces in France. The other two brothers enlisted with the 50th and the 67th. C. R. McLaren, father of the three loyal young soldiers, enlisted for home service at Halifax some months ago. Many young men have joined with regret of Private G. A. McLaren's death.

George Conran, of Dalhousie, Prisoner of War.

George Conran, a Dalhousie boy, who enlisted in Boston, and was sent to Egypt, is now a prisoner in Germany, according to a letter just received from the war office in London.

Report of Private Horseman's Wounding Incorrect.

Mrs. J. C. Jonah, Pettitville, has just received a letter from her brother Private Albion Horseman of the 8th Mounted Rifles, stating that both he and his nephew "Billy" Bishop, had come through the last big drive unharmed.

Private Horseman's friends will be glad to know that the report that he was wounded on October 13 was incorrect.

Joseph Semple Listed as Killed.

Fredericton, Nov. 26—(Special)—Mrs. Joseph Semple, of this city, has been informed from Ottawa that her husband, Private Joseph Semple, of St. John, reported missing since August 15 has been officially reported killed in action or died of wounds. The deceased enlisted in the 118th Battalion in St. John and was drafted to France. In civilian life he was employed with The Willett Fruit Co. of St. John. He is survived by his widow—a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mered Brewer of Fredericton.

H. W. Robertson Killed.

Sackville, Nov. 26—The many friends H. W. Robertson, formerly accountant at the Bank of Nova Scotia in this town, were shocked to hear of his being killed in action. Mr. Robertson enlisted with the Westmorland and Kent Battalion and was quartermaster sergeant of the company which was stationed in Sackville for training. He went overseas with his battalion and gave up his stripes in order to get to France. He was drafted into the 49th Canadian Battalion and had regained his previous rank. Word was received of his death on Friday, from his people in Charlottetown (P. E. I.), stating he had been killed in action the latter part of October. Mr. Robertson had made many friends during his stay in Sackville, who will regret to hear of his death. He was well liked by all who knew him, a young man of splendid qualities, and abilities; but he left all and has given his life for the cause of freedom.

KITCHENER DECLINES TO APOLOGIZE

Kitchener, Ont., Nov. 26—A special meeting of the city council was held this afternoon, called by Mayor Gross, at which he suggested that an apology on behalf of the city be tendered to Sir Robert Borden for the treatment he received on Saturday evening. A majority of the members were of the opinion that events at the Unionist meeting were no worse than what transpired here at New Year's when the city was put under martial law for several days, and also that as the disturbances were created at a political meeting, therefore no action should be taken. No apology will be tendered by the council, was the final decision.

SIR ROBERT AT TWO MEETINGS

Oshawa, Ont., Nov. 26—The appointed meeting place was not sufficient to accommodate the crowds who wished to hear Sir Robert Borden speak here tonight, so he addressed two meetings, one at the Armories and the other at Martin's Theatre. He outlined the steps taken to form the Union government and paid a tribute to the men who had heard the call of the empire above the cry of party. He also paid a tribute to the labor men of Canada and said that there was less labor trouble in the dominion than in any part of the empire. Union government had been formed, said Sir Robert, for the primary and main purpose for carrying on the war to a successful conclusion, as far as Canada is concerned.

Walter Long, colonial secretary, said he hoped the record of this gathering would reach the enemy, who would then see that London, thanks to the British navy, was not a beleaguered city, cut off from the rest of the empire.

Boring Through The German Support Line

British Capture Further Section of Trenches

Bitter Fighting for Bourlon Wood and Village; Another Fine Gain by the French Troops North of Verdun Announced

British Army Headquarters in France, Monday, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—British troops, including some from London, last night continued to bore their way forward through the Hindenburg support line west of Meuse. There was vigorous fighting at close quarters in this region and as a result the British took over a possession of a further section of support trenches 2,000 yards long running east and west just south of Peanville and Inchy En Artois. The British advance in the last few days had made this section of the line virtually unbreakable.

The weather is now bitterly cold, with a shrill north wind and cloudless sky. Visibility is excellent, and large numbers of German troops are reported to be on the march to the north. The weather is now bitterly cold, with a shrill north wind and cloudless sky. Visibility is excellent, and large numbers of German troops are reported to be on the march to the north.

One Great French Blitz. With the French armies in France, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—French troops yesterday in one large bite to the north of Verdun annihilated the numerous sables which the Germans have made in the French line since the Crown Prince's defeat at the end of August. Along a front stretching from Samogneux eastward to the north of Verdun, the French artillery opened heavy gun preparation early on Sunday, which was followed by a series of attacks.

The result of this extremely successful operation is to give the French full freedom of movement in the neighborhood of Hill 844, the north slope of which is the key position. The German artillery continued throughout the night and today to pour a heavy rain of shells on the lost positions, but the French were able to concentrate their gains.

ALLIES NEED OUR MEAT. The Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa, writes to the secretary of the St. John Board of Trade, says:— "Representations made by the allied governments in Europe have brought about a full realization of the urgent needs of the people of that continent for a supply of meat and fats. This applies to the live stock industry in all the necessities of the women and children of the allied countries. The situation, putting it plainly, is that the war depends upon an adequate supply of these foods and Canada and the United States are being depended upon to see that such supply is available.

GHILL STARTS COLD WAS SICK FOUR WEEKS Just Able To Crawl About. Mr. Weldon T. Hawkes, Curryville, N. B., writes: "Last spring I was taken very ill with a severe cold. I got well and it started with a chill. I was sick four weeks, and was just able to crawl about. People all said I had inflammation of the lungs, and I think I did. I told a friend to get me two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and before the first one was taken my cold and cough were broken up, and the second did its work completely. I am raising a family and I find that it is a good medicine for the children."

GAINS AT OPENING OF STOCK EXCHANGE. New York, Nov. 27.—(Wall Street)—Copper, motor and tin stocks are the outstanding features of today's early dealings on the stock market, such issues as American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel, General Motors and Studebaker recording gains of one to two points. Tobacco, shipping and minor specialties also advanced substantially, but rails manifested further irregularity. General Electric also reflected further pressure. Liberty bonds were virtually unchanged.

CANADIAN WHEAT POURS INTO UNITED STATES. Washington, Nov. 27.—Canadian wheat poured into the United States duty free through every custom district on the northern border in largely increasing volume. The department of commerce so announced today. For the nine months ended with last September the United States imported from Canada 21,400,000 bushels, more than 14,000,000 of which came in free after April 18. This was the date on which Canada removed its import duty, which automatically let wheat enter the United States duty free under the tariff law.

CUBA REPORTS SUGAR EARLIER. The following comment on the market situation as regards foodstuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week: One of the interesting developments during the last week has been the report from Cuba to the effect that grinding of new crop cane has already started in one district. This is exceptionally early as it was anticipated operations would not start until about the second week in December. This move is headed with delight in sugar circles, as it seems to indicate a general resumption of production of raw sugar much earlier than usual. With new sugars available in the near future a welcome relief will come to the present situation in which stocks are very tight.

British Shipping As a War Weapon

Ninety Per Cent of Merchant Marine Now Operated By Government

Profits Cast to the Wind—Movement of Men, Munitions, and Food the One Idea—Country Proud of Heroic Seamen

(By Robert Donald, editor of The London Daily Chronicle.)

Before the Lloyd George government came into office about a year ago, only half the British shipping had been requisitioned for war purposes, and the overseas trade was going on as a diminishing business concern.

With the advent of the present government to power the strong arm of the state took over practically the whole of the British mercantile shipping.

Excluding food, Great Britain imported before the war between 35,000,000 and 40,000,000 tons of goods a year.

Such are the restrictions adopted that commercial interest and personal profit have ceased to play any part in the movement of ships.

In the wealthiest homes as well as in the most humble domicile, cocoa has become a necessity—in the first instance because of its invigorating and nourishing effect.

But, placing comparisons aside, every thrifty Canadian housewife knows that the most wholesome, sustaining and health-giving cocoa is from such freight goes to the government as a set-off to the hire. Private management has no longer any commercial interest in cargo.

Dividend-earning ships now get the standard blue book or government minimum rate, and nothing else. This rate, however, provides a reasonable profit, but nothing like the earnings of the free shipping of the world.

Sometimes critics of pro-German tendencies have jumped to conclusions from the most innocent statements in ministerial speeches.

Great Britain is building all the ships she can, to devote them to war services and nothing else.

Fine Rally For Union

Men of Both Parties and Many Women At Victoria Ward Meeting—Candidates, Mayor Hayes and Hon. Mr. Baxter Speak

The entire abandonment of party politics and the union of both parties for the more active prosecution of the war, was the basic theme in all the speeches which were delivered in the Unionist rooms in the Victoria rink last night before a large representation of the voters of Victoria Ward. The chair was occupied by His Worship Mayor Hayes and both the Union candidates were heartily applauded. The speeches told the people in clear and unmistakable terms, just what Union government means to the country; the speakers emphasized the necessity of sending reinforcements to France as soon as possible if Canada is to stay in the war. It was emphasized again and again that Canada must not desert the boys in the trenches who are fighting for the people who remain at home.

As one of the speakers put it: "They are making sacrifices of hardship and death for us, we must desert them now when it is absolutely necessary for them to receive support if they are to continue to cover Canada with glory as they have done in the past."

The speakers said that Laurier's policy means delay and not sending reinforcements to the soldiers in the trenches for a year. This delay, declared the speakers, would be fatal to the successful prosecution of the war by Canada, and Canada would be as useless to the cause of liberty and democracy for which Britain is fighting in this war, as is Russia at the present time.

Mayor Hayes

In beginning the opening address, Mayor Hayes, who presided, said that this was the first time that candidates from the two parties who have always been opponents on the election platform, have appeared in the same room at the same time determined to drop party politics and to work together for a common cause vital to the nation's life. He said that the meeting was for the purpose of promoting the election of the men supporting the government whose only object is the prosecution of the war to a successful conclusion.

"The leaders," said he, "of both parties have agreed to place two candidates in the field for the Union government—one of these candidates to be a Liberal and one a Conservative. These candidates are Stanley E. Elkin and Rupert W. Wigmore; they are our standard-bearers, and the principle for which they stand is that of winning the war. We must leave no stone unturned, no step untried that will help those boys in France who have been willing to lay down their very lives that we may enjoy to its fullest extent, freedom and democracy. Many of those boys have died in battle, but there are many who will return to us after the war is over.

"We would not be worthy of the empire of which we are a portion, we would not be worthy of the principles for which we are fighting if we should forsake those men and not do all in our power to fill up the ranks which have been thinned in the gallant defence of our homes here in Canada. At present the supporters of the Union government have only one object in mind and that is the winning of the war.

"After the war we will be as good Conservatives and as good Liberals as ever we were, and if we want a good party fight, let us have it then, but now it is of vital importance that we do our best to win the war and to reinforce the boys in the trenches." Then His Worship introduced R. W. Wigmore.

The Conservative-Unionist

In opening his address, Mr. Wigmore remarked that he was very glad to have as chairman on the platform with him, His Worship the Mayor with whom he had been associated in the common council. He said that he considered himself to be not only a candidate for the Union government, but a representative of the boys in the trenches. He said that it was a great thing to have men who have always differed in politics in the same room listening to speakers from both parties speaking in favor of the same cause.

"Today," said the speaker, "we are united on one of the greatest issues that has ever arisen in this country. I am glad to see the women here tonight; I am glad to see them on our side for that fortifies that victory will rest on our banners. If the women are with us on the right side, the women of Canada are with us today because many of their sons are in France today, many of them are in the hospitals in France and England, and many of them are dead. It is for the sake of the living and of the dead that the women of Canada are supporting Union government today.

"Personally, I would rather have stayed at home, and out of the campaign as a candidate, for I never could have been out of the campaign so far as fighting for the great issue is concerned, but it was put up to me that I could be of more use to my country at Ottawa than I could be in the common council at St. John.

"A man said to me: 'The soldiers in France have made sacrifices for their country, won't you?' I said, 'Yes, I will.'"

Represents Soldiers

"I am not here for any personal reasons, and I don't want anyone to vote for me for personal reasons, but I do want you to vote for me as a representative of the boys in the trenches. When the boys left for France we said to them that we were behind them to the last man and the last dollar. If that had been so, there would be no election. There are those in Canada who are willing to forsake those boys. They say, 'No reinforcements for a year.'

Two Questions to Answer

"There are just two questions in the dominion today. They are: will we send reinforcements or will we get out of the war? There is no need to talk about party at this election. I have no politics today. I am a representative of the Union government; a representative of the boys in the trenches. Laurier's policy means delay and there is not any time now for delay. Sir Robert Borden came forward with a policy which will help the boys in the trenches. The manifesto which Sir Wilfred issued recently said that no more boys should go over for a year. If more soldiers are not immediately sent, Canada will be out of the war just as truly as Russia is out of the war today.

"It is not necessary to defend the actions of the late government, that book is closed. In asking you to support Union government, I ask you to support an administration which will start an absolutely new page in the history of Canada's administration.

"I am glad that the women are in the fight. Why are they in it? Because of the sacrifice that they have made to send husband or sweetheart or son to the front, and in order that those who are dear to them in France may leave and he asked J. A. Sinclair to take the chair. Mr. Elkin was the next speaker and he said that in the Union team Wigmore was the talker and he was the worker. He said that this election was an opportunity for those who are not able to go overseas to do their bit in the war by supporting what they know to be a righteous cause.

"There is no doubt," he said, "that this is the greatest question that has been before the people in the life-time of any one now living. These are a few facts; Canada had done all that can be done by the voluntary system. It is not expected of any nation that her young men will all have the spirit to go to war voluntarily. We are face to face with the fact that 400,000 men went to France to fight our battles, because they knew that we were sports, that we would never desert them.

"Some people say that we should let the Americans relieve our men. When the boys left Canada did they think that we would back them up by sending 'Yankees to help them?' No, they expected that Canada would always help her own boys. There must be enough men at Ottawa to clear up Quebec and make that province do her bit in the war the same as the rest of Canada. Quebec has always been the football of one party or another ever since confederation and it has never before been united over any one issue.

"It is now united in support of Laurier. It is up to the rest of Canada to have a Unionist majority at Ottawa. It is up to the rest of Canada to oppose Quebec and show that province that if it is to be a province of Canada it must stand by the majority.

"One of the devices used in anti-Unionist canvassing is to say that the Liberals have joined the win-the-war campaign have gone from the Liberal party forever. That is not the case. We have merely proclaimed a truce with the Conservatives. We regret that we differ from our old chief, but we think that he has made a mistake and has gone back to his first love, Quebec. He said to his followers that if they vote at the dictates of conscience and he would not the less consider them Liberals on this issue should they differ from him.

"The men who are against selective draft can show no reason and offer nothing to take its place. The vote of the women will counteract the influence of these unreasoning voters.

Underhand Canvass

"There is an underhand kind of alley-way canvassing going on by the Liberals. One of the methods used is telling the soldiers' wives and the women who have one son in the war and another of military age at home that selective draft will take that boy. They tell the farmers that their sons are to go. These statements are not true. The family which has one representative at the front is not required to send more, and if tributes should be made, they mistake there is the right to appeal and to have the matter adjusted.

"Remember that your own right. Every one here tonight ought to go away with this purpose in mind, that he is to make a convert for Union government before Dec. 17. Every one should make a personal effort to bring in force Union government."

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter

When Mr. Elkin has finished, J. A. Sinclair, the chairman, made a few remarks while waiting for J. B. M. Baxter to arrive and address the meeting. He said that in previous elections which were conducted purely on party lines, a question which was often asked was "What will your party do for the returned soldier?" The question which counts today is, "What will you do for the men in the trenches?" If we should do anything for the soldiers after they have returned, surely to heaven we should do our utmost and spare no effort in the interests of the boys who are fighting and dying for us in France.

Hon. Mr. Baxter was received with a round of applause. He said: "I came here tonight because I used to be a Conservative. If the country is to survive and is to be administered as it ought to be, men must forget what they used to call themselves as politicians for the day of the politicians is past. This is the day for statesmen. What do the straight Liberals offer against the policy of the Union government which is the winning of the war? Is it a fiscal policy? This will be found out later from their platform, but I am willing to predict that they will not offer any fiscal policy and even if they do this is no time to consider it.

"In answer to an appeal for money to improve the harbor shortly after he joined the government, Mr. Carvell made this answer: 'Public works in Canada drafts were to be chosen by the drawing of lots. Is this present act not much better? It takes those who have no other means of support and who are not engaged in business vital to the state. Did not the government do well in putting this act in place of the old one? "We owe a great sacrifice to the men in the trenches and we owe a sacrifice to the men who are lying out there with their faces forever to the east, towards the enemy, and who will never come back to us again."

When Hon. Mr. Baxter had concluded the men and women in the audience organized so as to lend effective support to the Union government. The men's organization elected H. H. McMillan and T. A. Linton as joint chairmen and C. W. Romans as secretary. The women elected Mrs. R. R. Patchell as chairman and Miss Hamm as secretary. They also elected three ward captains, Mrs. James Morrow, Mrs. H. H. McMillan and Mrs. D. C. Malcolm. These women will choose ward committees and a meeting of all the women in the ward is to be held this afternoon for that purpose.

Following this rousing and successful meeting further gatherings are being arranged in the interests of the Union candidates. Those already announced include two to be held on Thursday evening, one in the Star Theatre, North End, and the other in the Seaman's Institute. In addition to those speaking last evening, A. O. Skinner will also speak as representing the Liberal-Unionists.

The fortnightly gathering of the Y. P. A. of St. David's church was a feature of much interest last evening. The entertainment on this occasion took the form of a concert in which the following took part: David Allen, solo; F. J. Funder, solo; Gladys Gibson, reading. There were shown stereoscopic views of church work. R. C. Craikshank read an interesting paper on Our New Canadians, dealing with immigration and the problems in this department which will be presented after the war. Mrs. I. F. Archibald accompanied the vocalists on the piano.

NORTHCLIFFE NOW IS A VISCOUNT

Viscount Reading, Lord Chief Justice, Raised in Peerage to Rank of Earl

Viscount Reading, lord chief justice, has been created an earl, and Northcliffe a viscount, according to an official statement issued in London. The Right Hon. Rufus Daniel Isaacs was created Viscount Reading of Erleigh in 1916; he had already been raised to the peerage in 1914 with the title of Baron Reading, and made a knight in 1910. He was born in 1860, second son of the late Joseph M. Isaacs, a merchant in the city of London. Because of his eminence as a jurist and financier he was appointed chairman of the Alfred financial commission which negotiated a $500,000,000 loan in the United States in the fall of 1916. In September, 1917, he returned to the United States on a special mission from the British war cabinet to convey information, particularly regarding financial affairs, to the Washington government. Alfred Charles William Harmsworth, son of the late Alfred Harmsworth of the Middle Temple, who is known in the Times and Daily Mail among other publications, was born in 1865; he was made a baronet in 1904, and raised to the peerage in 1905 with the title of Baron Northcliffe of the Isle of Thanet. A few days ago on returning to England from the United States where he was head of the British mission for coordinating war work, he declined the portfolio of air minister, and expressed his dissatisfaction with the policies of Premier Lloyd George's government. Northcliffe's letter resulted in the resignation of Viscount Cowdray from the chairmanship of the air ministry because it contained the first intimation to the incumbent that a change was contemplated by the premier.

SISLER IS AN ALL-AROUND PLAYER

Can Play Any Position on Team—Was Not Far Behind Cobb and Speaker in Hitting

New York, Nov. 22—George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns has been pronounced the best all-round player in the major leagues. Sisler was not far behind Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker in the American League batting averages this year, and with the possible exception of "Stuffy" Melvin of the Athletics, he was the leading first baseman. Sisler's claim to the all-round title is based on his ability to cover each of the infield positions and the outfield. He also has shown undoubted skill as a left-handed pitcher. He is a fast runner, and one of the most intelligent players in the game. The White Sox have no such star, although Outfielder Jack Collins can play first base in a pinch. Helman of the Tigers, who covers right field regularly, also has played first base now and then, while Harold Janvrin of the Red Sox, can fill any of the infield positions. Melvin and Schang of the Athletics also possess some all-round quality. Melvin probably could cover second, third and short, although he is best at the initial corner. Schang, a great catcher, has played third base and left field with excellent results. Foster of the Washingtons has done good work at short, second and third. Of the Highlanders, Peckinpaugh is the only player who can be successfully shifted from short to third or second.

A patriotic concert was given last evening in the Centenary church school room under the auspices of the Young People's Society. The following took part: Miss Hilda Galley, Miss Vera Maxwell, Miss Susie Turner, Arnold Young, Miss Rita Brennan, Miss Marjorie Pierce and Miss Hilda Brittain. An offering was given by Chief Justice McKeown.

Annoyed At Publication Of State Secrets

French Papers Irritated By Maximalists' Action
Say Selection Made
Gave Out Those Most Likely To Embarrass Allies — Election Of Delegates to Constituent Assembly Begun

Paris, Nov. 26.—Considerable irritation is shown by the newspapers over the publication of Russian state secret documents by the Maximalists, who are accused of collecting those which they think most likely to embarrass the Allies and supply Germany with arguments. The note of October 9, written by M. Tereschenko, then Russian foreign minister, to Secretary of State Lansing, thanking the secretary for not having David M. Francis, American ambassador to Russia, associate himself on behalf of the government with the step taken by the British, French and Italian ambassadors in denouncing the constitution of a firm power to reorganize the Russian army is considered amusing by the Journal Des Debats. "If Mr. Francis did visit Premier Kerensky with his three colleagues," says the newspaper, "it was only because he received his government's authorization to do so later."

The Temps refers to the same incident as "seeming, but falsely, however, to put the United States in contradiction with the other allies."

Petrograd, Nov. 25.—Yesterday it was demanded that the minister of the treasury and ministry of finance should line up for or against the Bolshevik government. They will report to the election of delegates to the constituent assembly begun today and will continue through Monday and Tuesday. Nineteen lists are in the field, including two women's leagues. In Moscow the elections have been postponed for a week.

Petrograd, Nov. 24.—Rear-Admiral Verbitski, in announcing his resignation as minister of marine, gives as his reason lack of sympathy with the course of the government of the workmen and soldiers delegates relative to armaments. He, however, exhorts his subordinates to continue to carry on the work of the department.

With reference to the order of the military revolutionary committee for the dissolution of the committee for the salvation of the country and the revolution, the secretary of the salvation committee, a mild-mannered woman, who declined to permit the use of her name, said:

"We refuse to dissolve under any circumstances. They did not elect us and cannot dissolve us. We will arrest and confine us in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, but that will only prevent us from performing our duties and cannot deprive us of the right to represent those when elected."

Roan Hat Brings Top Price

Roan Hat, the noted race pacer, brought top price at the Old Glory sale in Madison Square Garden this week. After spirited bidding he was knocked down to W. C. Eckert of Reading, Pa., for $4,000.

The old gelding seems to improve with age. Last year he sold for $1,100 and during the season just ended he won a score of races and $9,000 in purses for J. H. Bronson, his new owner. He has a record of 2,007, and Mr. Bronson said he was confident he would best 2,00 next season. He sold the gelding because he was retiring from the horse game. Roan Hat is by Hal De Facto and Maud C. He is ten years old.

While a great many horses were sold for extremely low figures the average price was much better than on previous days of the sale.

A reunion was held last evening by the members of The King's Daughters, the reuniting of the friends of a social circle of the guild were all well remembered. Those taking part were Misses Dorothy Clayton, Mildred Galley, Fred Jenkins, Miss Millard and Mrs. A. P. Crockett.

15 TIMES THE MONEY

was spent on doctors' bills, without any benefit, was spent in Zam-Buk, which effected a complete cure!" says Mrs. Fred Gervais of 126 Bligny St., Montreal.

"A rash broke out on my baby's skin, and she became very fretful and lost weight. I took her to a doctor, who gave me some lotion to apply, but it did not do baby any good. I then took her to another doctor, but with the same result.

"Then a friend, who saw the condition baby was in, brought me some Zam-Buk, which she so highly recommended that I commenced using it. In one week's time baby looked much better, and before a month had elapsed she was quite well again.

"Baby is now the picture of health, and I think it wonderful that $2 worth of Zam-Buk brought about this cure when $20 spent in doctors' treatments did no good whatever! I certainly advise other mothers here to experiment with less remedies, but to save their little ones unnecessary suffering and themselves needless anxiety and expense by using Zam-Buk in the first place."

Zam-Buk is also best for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, boils, ulcers, abscesses, bad legs, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns and scalds.

THE GARDEN OF ALLAH
MAKES STRONG APPEAL TO LYRIC PATRONS

Vastly different in every respect from the usual film drama or love romance, the film version of Robt. Hitchens' celebrated novel, "The Garden of Allah," made a decided impression on those who had the pleasure of witnessing this excellent feature at the Lyric yesterday. It is a production of the Lyric, which with every care to fidelity of the wonderful story by an all star cast of players headed by the famous actress, Miss Helen Ware and Thomas Santschi. The love interest is the main point for reflection in the drama, and which point is remarkably brought out, remarkably because the theme is as old as the world itself, but in "The Garden of Allah" it is clothed in an entirely new dress, making it outstanding and most inspiring.

A succession of bona fide native Bedouins, etc. etc. A feature of much more than passing interest is presented in the desert sand storms. Just how this story line could not help but be successful. Those who admire good strong acting, a clear well defined and unusual plot, mounted with frequent and surprising touches with a touch of sensation scattered here and there should by all means see "The Garden of Allah." Get to the Lyric before the cast represents the very acme of pantomime.

The different writers for the moving picture magazines and trade papers say that this feature is undoubtedly the greatest love story ever written. The film is a masterpiece of the art, and is carried out with ease and grace characteristic of clever artists and a good director. Mention should be made of the many fine scenes submitted by the Lyric pianists, Miss M. Cole. The various selections rendered fitted into each and every scene and had a tendency to bring out the finer points of the picture which otherwise would have been lost sight of.

AMATEURS PRESENT
DRAMA IN FINE STYLE

"In Spite of Aunts, Played in St. Peter's Hall, Proves Success From Every Standpoint"

"In Spite of Aunts," a four act drama, which was presented in St. Peter's hall, Elm street, last evening under the auspices of the St. John Young Men's Association, was a success from every standpoint. The hall was filled to capacity, and the frequency and quality of applause eloquently showed how much their efforts were appreciated.

The lines of the play called for quite heavy acting times, and the manner in which they were interpreted by the cast won unanimous praise and commendation. There was a hitch in the performance from the rise of the curtain until it dropped on a happy scene at the conclusion. The cast was exceptionally well balanced, and the success achieved was due to the unexpected efforts of individual talent.

Frank T. Doherty, in the juvenile lead, gave a clever portrayal of a rather difficult role, touched here and there with true sentiment. In the last act his good work showed up most effectively.

John U. Haggerty, as a wanderer, gave a wonderfully clever performance. His part called for strong acting, but the manner in which he accomplished it won well merited praise and his work stood out in fortunate contrast with that of any of his associates.

J. J. O'Toole in a comedy role made a decided hit. His part could not have been allotted to a better actor, and his many funny actions and sayings kept the audience convulsed with laughter. Every time he appeared on the stage he was greeted by applause, thus testifying to the appreciation of those present for his clever interpretation.

Gerard McGovern as Andrew Dexter played opposite to Mr. O'Toole and it would indeed be hard to find a better combination. It was his final appearance on the stage, and he won a good

German Agents Drop Them in Public Reports to Worry Relatives of American Soldiers

(New York Times.)

The German rumor-mongers have started a campaign the purpose of which is to frighten the near relatives of the soldiers of General Pershing's army and to stir up feeling against the British. The latest scheme is for German agents to go into hotels, theatres, restaurants, saloons, and other public places and carelessly drop on the floor what appears to be genuine letters from American soldiers in France. Every letter paints conditions on the west front in black colors, and in the effect that the government in Washington is withholding news of severe losses among Pershing's men.

Here is a copy of a letter which was picked up in a Broadway cafe and turned over yesterday to the federal authorities:

Solsheim, France, Oct. 23, 1917.

Dear Sister Lillie: I hardly know if this will ever get to you, but as Joe promised to sneak a few lines to you, I am all right, Sis, and tell Mr. and Mrs. Baker that we had one tough battle last Friday, about 183 soldiers U. S. killed and nearly five hundred taken prisoner. I don't know if a hundred or so were captured and I don't know if we had one killed every day, we put up a game fight, but those English chaps are doing cowards work, we are doing very well, so kind, too. Must not get caught writing this so don't expect a long letter.

Hope you and dear mother are both well, and pray for me night that I may soon return to you again. I close with kisses.

Your Brother Jim.

Am in Chemin des Dames hospital, left arm shot off to shoulder, don't tell mother, love off this part.

Another persistent rumor-monger, is to hold a party for the relatives of the military transports has been blown up at sea and all on board lost. From all parts of the city news of this nature is being circulated and many are already finding that the report is false and agents of the secret service are now at work trying to find those who are responsible for the circulation of the story.

The authorities announce that any person who can give information that will lead to the detection of these rumor-mongers should communicate with the United States marshal at the Federal Building, the Department of Justice in the Park Row Building, or the United States Secret Service, at the Customs House.

share of the plaudits by his clever acting. A. E. Trainor essayed the part of the villain in a manner which won well merited praise. While his share of the applause was not the nature of the applause of a greater tribute could not be paid his clever interpretation.

Andrew Moon, a country boy, made a hit. His part, while not lengthy, was quite difficult to portray and the many laughs for which he was responsible made a convincing evidence that he had succeeded.

Miss Emma Conlogue in the leading feminine role was pretty and girlish and won instant favor with the large audience. Her part was most happily cast and she was never seen to better advantage.

Miss Regina Kiernan as a haughty aunt acted her part in a manner which won commendation from all present. While her lines would not tend to place her in popular favor, the manner in which she acted was not lost on the appreciative audience.

Miss Isabelle Gormley in a character part handled the role in a manner which extracted everything possible from it, and the many plaudits of those present was convincing testimony that she had given a fine performance. The part was a difficult one and in addition was long, but she did so well that her lines did not become tiresome and she made a decided hit.

Miss Josephine Gosnell won new laurels. Her work was effective throughout, and she acted her part in a most pleasing manner, and contributed in making the play such a grand success.

One of the most amusing character parts and one excellently done was that of Bella Ann by Miss Helen MacDonaid. She was one of the hits of the evening and she evoked many a hearty laugh and was enthusiastically greeted.

Miss Mildred McAloon, a winsome little maid, acted her part in a highly commendable manner.

During the evening St. Peter's Y. M. C. orchestra furnished pleasing selections, under the direction of Eugene McBrine. Between the acts solo songs were sung by the Misses Florence Kiernan, Mildred White and Lydia McCluskey. Miss Kiernan has a beautiful voice, which was well suited to the lyric roles she sang. The other young ladies also possess good voices and all won well merited applause and were called upon for encore.

The stage settings of the play were unusually good, the costumes were dainty and the lady members were witchingly pretty.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Few people realize that over 800,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually in making Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these herbs all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their medicinal properties are at their best.

The watchword in preparing these herbs is cleanliness, the process of percolation is perfect. All utensils and tanks are sterilized and the medicine is pasteurized, clarified and filtered before it is bottled for the consumer.

It is this wonderful combination of herbs, together with the skill and care used in the preparation, which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

BAN JOHNSON HAS MANY SUPPORTERS

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Officers of the American League were deluged today with messages, some of them approved and many of them criticisms over the announcement of B. B. Johnson, president of the league, that exemptions for 144 players in the league would be asked from the national government.

Baseball men were divided in their opinions. President Tener of the National League, denounced it as unpatriotic. August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission and president of the Cincinnati club, favored the move if necessary to maintain baseball at its present standard.

Those who had expressed themselves tonight were: For exemption—August Herrmann, James Dunn, owner of the Cleveland club; A. R. Fenney, president of the Three I's league; Thomas J. Hickey, president of the American Association; Edward G. Barrow, president of the International League; James Price, president of the Newark club, and A. C. Anson, former manager of the Chicago National club.

Against—K. Tener, president of the National League; Joseph Ruppert, president of the New York Americans, and Benjamin S. Minor, president of the Washington club.

President Johnson today insisted that the ball players and club owners might as well have the test now and know whether they were going to be able to keep the men.

A total of fifteen recruits were secured in the province last week. The county totals follow: St. John, nine; Antigonish three and Hantsville three.

Dangerous Stomach Acids That Make Your Food Ferment and Sour—Cause Gas and Indigestion

The Contents of an Acid Stomach should be Neutralized and Sweetened—Not Artificially Digested, Say Physicians Medical authorities everywhere are practically agreed that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, gastric catarrh, bloating, nausea, etc., are caused not by a lack of digestive juices or by imperfect digestive organs, but by an excessively acid condition of the stomach.

Nearly everyone who has stomach trouble, they say, carries about a glassful or more of this powerful hydrochloric acid in their stomach which is constantly irritating and inflaming the delicate stomach lining, souring their food, creating gas and causing the distressing symptoms frequently mistaken for dyspepsia and indigestion.

Instead of forcing the sour acid food from the stomach to intestines with peppin or other artificial di-gestents, the acid in the stomach should be sweetened or neutralized with a little magnesia—not the ordinary commercial magnesia carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk—but pure bicarbonate of magnesia which can be obtained from drugists anywhere either in the form of 3-grain tablets or powder. A couple of the tablets or a teaspoonful of the powder in a little water right after eating will neutralize all the excess acid in the stomach and prevent its fermentation, will soothe, cool and heal the sore, burning and irritated stomach lining and the stomach will then easily digest its usual food without trouble of any kind.

Bicarbonate of Magnesia, unlike most forms of magnesia, is not used as a laxative and is harmless to the stomach. It is used daily by thousands of "acid stomach" people who now enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

the following two years annexed many islands. Last year Spencer, accompanied by his older brother, Willie, invaded the amateur ranks at Newark, and made a surprising showing. He turned professional at the beginning of the 1917 campaign and soon established himself in the professional ranks. He defeated Kramer in four out of five one-mile match races, besides taking into camp such creditable performers as Gouillet, Grenda McNamara, Spears and Verri. Arthur Spencer will be teamed with his brother in the coming race, while Kramer's riding partner will be Oscar Egg, one of last year's winners. Thirteen other combinations will start, and the men are paired as follows: Alfred Gouillet and Freddy Hill, Eddie Root and Marcel Dupuy, Bob Spens and Francisco Verri, Bobby Walther and Paul Suter, Alfred Grenda and Charles Piercy, Eddie Madden and Frank Corry, Clarence Carnen and George Wiley, Jake Magin and Willie Hanley, Percy Lawrence and Lloyd Thomas, Victor Linart and Mike DeBates, Vincenzo Madonna and Tom Bello, Tom Smith and Fred Weber, and George Chapman and Willie Eager. Every team that finishes is assured of a prize. There will be an hour sprint every afternoon from 2.30 to 3.30, and in the evening there will be a two-hour sprint, from 8.30 to 10.30. A new track is being constructed. This is being built up to the arena boxes, which means a wider riding surface.

CABLE COMES FROM LIEUT. G. E. LOGAN

Officer Reported Dead Is In London Hospital

Grief Turned To Joy—Encouraging Word Also From R. M. Anderson—Lengthy List of Casualties Received From Ottawa

That Lieutenant G. Earle Logan of this city, who on November 22 was reported as having died as the result of being gassed, is not dead, is the information received in the city this morning. His wife received a cablegram from him this morning stating that he was in a hospital in London and that he was improving. The cablegram was not dated, so that it was impossible to ascertain just when it was sent, but likely it was written yesterday afternoon. It is quite evident from the reading of the message that Lieutenant Logan was unaware of the fact that he had been reported dead.

When Mrs. Logan was advised that he was dead she was in doubt, as she had received a cablegram from him at the time stating that he had been gassed and admitted to a hospital. The cablegram received today reads just as though Lieutenant Logan had thought that perhaps his family would be worrying over his condition and that a message telling of his improvement would help to lessen their anxiety.

To have been reported dead and then in the course of a few days to learn that the soldier is still living is not an unprecedented thing these days of warfare. The case has happened more than once throughout the province in at least one case in our own city. The news that Lieutenant Logan is living will be learned by his relatives.

Better News From Son.

R. J. Anderson, general foreman, C. P. R. elevator, West St. John, this morning received a reassuring cable from his son, R. J. Anderson, who was reported in the casualties a few days ago. Today's news is more reassuring. The brave soldier had been reported gassed and admitted to Field Ambulance Detachment No. 6 on Nov. 11. He now cables that he is in the Canadian Convalescent Hospital, Worthingham, Berkshire, England, wounded and gassed, but not serious.
