

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

JACK PICKFORD IS HIS SISTER'S RIVAL

In "Bill Apperson's Boy," At Imperial Monday, He Scores Tremendously

Jack Pickford, who is now out of work service, is the bright particular star in the first National photoplay of luxe "Bill Apperson's Boy," slated for the Imperial Monday. In this heart-tugging story (an adaptation of the magazine fiction "That Woman," meaning a step-mother) he rises to heights of human emotions and artistry that rival the best work of his famous sister, Mary. In Mark Twain's stories last year Jack Pickford made a great hit, in fact his boy impersonations have all been good, but in this important special feature he sets a new mark for himself. Of course the story is delightful to start with—a dear little yarn about a country boy who lost his mother and had a stepmother whom he refused to call mother. Then strained relations commence but the whole thing ends so sweetly and satisfactorily that tears will be wiped back, in spite of the effort to smile them back, Monday at the Imperial.

DRAMATIC SCENE IN COURT AT DORCHESTER

When Thomas Rumsey Met His Wife, Who Appeared in Court With Chinaman

A dramatic scene was enacted at the county jail, Dorchester, yesterday noon, when Thomas Rumsey of Montreal, husband of the companion of San Toi, both of whom will appear before the Westmorland county supreme court next week, charged with diamond robbery, appeared face to face with his wife who left him in Montreal a few years ago. Rumsey was discovered to be the husband of "Mrs. Toi" by Chief Hildebrand and came to Moncton a day or so ago to be present at the trial of his wife and the Chinaman with whom she was arrested at Sydney. Faced by her husband, "Mrs. Toi" scornfully refused even as much as to recognize him and would not admit their relationship. Finally, however, the woman gave in to speak, wrathfully declaring that if Rumsey gave evidence she would have something to tell the court about him.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey was also taken to Dorchester yesterday and allowed to see and speak to his mother for some time. The boy immediately recognized his father when he arrived here a few days ago. The latter will make arrangements for taking his son to Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey it is learned, came from the Old Country some years ago and settled in British Columbia, leaving there for Montreal, where they separated.

The forthcoming trial of San Toi and Mrs. Rumsey is attracting much interest. The case will likely be brought up early next week. The crown has in the interim secured some new evidence that is expected to have a new bearing on the case.

Mr. Rumsey has asked the Moncton police to notify his employer in Montreal, relative to his prolonged absence from his duties.

ROYALTY INTERESTED IN WOODSTOCK OFFICER'S WORK

Lieut. E. T. It is only a few weeks ago that Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire and staff made a visit to the college for the purpose of seeing these trench models, and his excellency personally interested himself in seeing that the work of Lieutenant Adney would be properly recognized and continued. Lieutenant Adney is employed at the engineers' depot at St. John's, Quebec.

Francis Glenn Adney, who is a freshman at McGill, is winning fresh laurels, in spite of the effort to smile them back, Monday at the Imperial.

OFFER OF $150,000 FOR MONCTON RACE TRACK

An offer of $150,000 is reported to have been made to the city corporation for the race track property at Moncton. If the deal goes through it is said the Moncton track will have the same fate as many other racing plants all over the country and will be split up for building lots.

There is no assurance, however, that the city council of Moncton will favorably consider the sale of the property, but on the other hand, at least some of those interested in the retention of the racing plant are now working toward having a baseball diamond built in the centerfield and general improvements made which would make the place the amusement centre of the rapidly growing railway city.

The possible sale of the Moncton track property was not the reason for the non-attendance at the meeting of the Maritime Circuit here this week of P. A. Belliveau, a live wire manager of the Moncton track. He has been in Montreal and Toronto on a business trip, but, if he was at home, it is somewhat too early definitely to determine the status of the Moncton track as well as some others in which Mr. Belliveau is interested for another season.

THE WINTER FAIR. Amherst News—The Maritime Winter Fair, which has been off the boards since 1916, is returning with greater vigor than ever. The buildings were in the hands of the Militia Department during the war. GOOD TIMES, FEW FAILURES

The Times-Star prints today a review of business conditions in New Brunswick which, despite high prices and gloomy predictions, is of a most reassuring character. There have not been more than a dozen failures in the province during ten months of the year and none of them for a large amount. In fact the showing is a record for the province. This means that the merchants have been prosperous. Prosperity could not come to them if people had not the capacity to buy, and the people, therefore, have also been prosperous with plenty of money to spend.

Mr. Williams also charged the firm of Max Sankoff & Sons, wholesalers, of 100 East 113th street, of selling more than 4,000 pounds of sugar at twenty cents a pound. Complaint of this over-charge was made by J. Meyer, a member of the firm of 645 Madison avenue, who said that his firm made the purchase. It is said that witnesses were present at the sale.

SHARE CONTROL AND PROFITS

Italy, no doubt, awaits with genuine interest an experiment in factory management which is to be made in that country. From time to time similar partnerships of labor and capital have been proposed as a solution to the industrial problems. Just how far they are practical ought to be clearer after the present scheme has had a fair trial.
The lady's face was wrinkling under a white veil in a series of remarkable contortions. In one hand she carried an umbrella, in the other a brown paper parcel. Several passers-by paused to watch her, some of them wondering whether she expected coppers for her performance.
Then a girl acquaintance approached her hurriedly and gazed at her face.
"Why," exclaimed the newcomer, "what on earth is the matter?"
The facial acrobatics ceased, and a sweet smile succeeded.
"With me? Why, nothing!"
"But you look ill! Your face—you were twisting it into all sorts of shapes!"
The lady held out her hands—one with the paper parcel in it, and the other the umbrella.
"I was only trying," she explained, "to work the edge of my veil down under my chin, dear."
Whereupon the crowd dispersed.

PRINCE BECOMES CHIEF OF SIX NATION INDIANS

Unique Honor Conferred on H. R. H. at Brantford—"Chief Dawn of Morning."

(Cor. Toronto Star.)

An aged Indian chief, name unknown, certainly embarrassed the Prince of Wales to the blushing point, in Brantford, when he insisted on doing a sort of native fox trot with him before a smiling audience of palefaces. The ceremony of making the Prince a chief of the Six Nations had just been concluded when this wrinkled ancient brave waltzed up to the Prince, shuffling and gesticulating. He was a befeathered, bearded, warlike warrior figure on the ankles up but his feet looked kind of friendly, for on them he wore a pair of last year's rubbers, two sizes too large.

The Prince viewed him for a few seconds nonplussed and then he began to blush. Some way or other the old man conveyed the Indian name that was being the honor of the next dance. So still blushing the Prince danced or rather he walked, it must be admitted, very joyfully and unselfishly, with the Indian man with the red skin still pawing the air with silent torture beside him.

When the fox trot ended the ancient Indian made a most wild howl, swinging the Prince in the face with the feathers of his headdress.

The Six Nations Chiefs had a great pow wow on a platform erected at the base of the monument to Joseph Brant in Victoria Park. Major Gordon Smith, superintendent of the reserve, was in charge of the afternoon's proceedings, about forty chiefs were at the council, some of them in their old-time finery but the majority wearing store clothes.

Andrew Staats, a Mohawk, speaker of the council, presided.

Indian Veterans Present.

The road leading up to the monument was lined on one side by returned Indian soldiers and on the other by pretty Indian maids, all wearing white, with white and red carnations in their jet black hair, baskets of ferns and flowers in their hands and sashes of fall tinted autumn leaves.

When the Prince had greeted the Indian soldiers and the other by pretty Indian maids, all wearing white, with white and red carnations in their jet black hair, baskets of ferns and flowers in their hands and sashes of fall tinted autumn leaves.

First one would get up and make a passionate oration in his best Mohawk and then another would succeed him. It was great fun, probably from an Indian point of view, but to the palefaces monotonous.

A frightful pushing and shoving was going on all around the platform by people who were unable to see, when some one passed up a camera to a newspaper man to take a picture of the Prince. This attracted the crowd's attention and before long two streams of cameras of all sorts and sizes were passing backwards and forwards from the crowd to the platform and back again. Some of them traveled fifty yards.

Prince "Dawn of Morning," who had been in the crowd, received the name of "Dawn of Morning," being told of his new honor in excellent clerical English by the secretary of the council, an Indian in savage dress with the thin face of an ascetic Monk. The Prince then unveiled a bronze tablet "dedicated to the Six Nations Indians to the memory of the warriors who fell in the great war." It bore a long list of brave names.

Message to Queen.

The Prince was also given a message of love to Queen Mary, who was dressed as a woman in a white which bears the beautiful translation of "the great, great woman, mother of love."

Before the ceremony at Victoria Park the Prince visited St. Paul's, His Majesty's Chapel of the Mohawks on the reservation, the first Protestant church built in Ontario, in 1788. The Prince was greatly interested in the little church. He was conducted by W. F. Cocksbutt, M. P., to the nearby tomb of Joseph Brant, the great Indian friend of the British, and planted a pine tree beside it. As he was leaving Indian boys and girls sang gently, "Abide With Me" in their quaint native tongue and an old Indian woman rushing up to the Prince seized his hand exclaiming, "My great grandfather helped to build this country for George the III."

"I am a Britisher, too," the Prince replied simply.

As the Prince was driving briskly along to keep up with the scheduled time he noticed an old gentleman wearing several medals standing with some ladies and a little girl, probably his granddaughter. The lass in her hand held a bunch of beautiful roses. The Prince's car pulled up with a crash of suddenly applied brakes. He signalled to the child, took her flowers and shook her hand. When the little one ran back one of the ladies, her mother, no doubt, crushed her to her breast and smothered her face with kisses. It was a very pretty incident.

The conversation of two or three Indian maids at the pow-wow in honor of the Prince gives a peculiar slant on the nature of the ceremony and the view of the modern Indian. These girls were dressed daintily in white and were ducky pretty. "This is so unnatural," they repeated several times, until at last they were asked what they meant. "It is forced," they replied. "It gives wrong

"LADIES OF THE JURY"

They Convict Woman and Advise Maximum Penalty in Case of Man

Cleveland, Nov. 1—"Ladies of the jury." This week for the first time in the history of Cleveland's courts a judge began his charge to the jury with these words:

"The jury had been called in the case of Mrs. Goldie Drossos, who told the court at her preliminary hearing Monday that only a woman could understand such love as hers." It was alleged Mrs. Drossos left her husband, Columbus and had come to Cleveland with her three children to live with John C. Buttery, a window trimmer employed with a local concern.

Evidence was submitted as to the guilt of both defendants. Mrs. Drossos told her husband at sixteen to her husband and related several acts of cruelty. She alleged her husband knew of her friendship with Buttery and approved it, and denied any improper relations with Buttery, declaring all he had done for her was from a feeling of "friendly kindness."

Every phase of the moral viewpoint was taken into account by the jury of women, and after an hour's deliberation returned the following verdict:

"The jury stands for the conviction of both defendants and one for acquittal on circumstantial evidence. The majority recommends mercy in the case of Mrs. Drossos because of her infant, whom we advise should be left in her care, and that the two other children be returned to the Columbus authorities to be placed with the father, Mr. Drossos, to pay for their support until such time as Mrs. Drossos proves herself a fit mother. In the case against Mr. Buttery, we recommend the maximum penalty."

Judge Sawicki thanked the women for their service, and called the two defendants before him also Mr. Drossos, the husband. He pronounced sentence, giving each of the defendants the maximum penalty and offered to suspend Mrs. Drossos' sentence if she would consent to return to her husband.

"I will not go back to him," she replied.

"The accused woman was obdurate and the judge sentenced her and her codefendant to pay a fine of $200 each and serve three months in the workhouse."

"Well," remarked the marriage license man the other day, "a chap in my neighborhood for whom I have been waiting to come around for a long time finally mustered up courage to propose and came in the other day for his sentence. I know the young lady quite well, too, so asked her how he finally managed it. She said:

"Well, he stayed around one night till nearly twelve. I gave him a lot of encouragement, but he just couldn't say anything. Finally, after he had got his hat, he said:

"Mabel, do you read the papers?"

"I told him of course I did."

"Ah, have you read about the income taxes?"

"I certainly have."

"And have you heard that after fifty days the government is going to tax marriage licenses?"

"Yes, I read that."

"Well, don't you think that—that we ought to practice economy and hurry?"

INSURE LIVES OF TELEPHONE COMPANY EMPLOYEES

One hundred and fifty employees of the New Brunswick Telephone Company were present at an enjoyable social last evening as guests of the company at a Halloween party and dance held in the top floor of their building, Chipman Hill.

During the supper interval, O. J. Fraser, who was in command of the entertainment, announced that the company had decided to insure all their employees under a group policy in which employees who had been with the company for three months would be given a policy for, in the case of the men, $1,000, and in the case of ladies, $500. These amounts were to be increased each year by $100 until the maximum amounts of $2,000 and $1,500, respectively, were reached. The idea of this system, Mr. Fraser explained, was to increase the efficiency of the staff and make for greater permanency with the company. The announcement was greeted with applause.

Mr. Fraser was assisted in the evening's entertainment by a committee consisting of George McKel, L. Mersereau, J. W. Duncan, Miss M. Driscoll, Miss B. Dunlop, Miss F. Cameron, Miss M. McHarg and Mrs. E. Gillespie. Mrs. O. J. Fraser and Mrs. F. J. Nisbet were for the purpose of locating the feeding grounds of the deer.

FINANCIAL FEWER FAILURES IN PROVINCE THAN IN ANY OTHER YEAR

So Far Only About a Dozen in Whole Province BUSINESS IS BUOYANT

In 1900 They Numbered Fifty and in 1915 Numbered About Seventy—Some of The Causes of The Present Prosperous Conditions

We hear a great deal today about the prosperity of our province and the plentiful supply of money evident on all sides, and this is largely true and not out by undisputable fact. One of the least discussed perhaps but still none the less important factors of our present state of affairs is the healthy financial condition of the merchants throughout the length and breadth of New Brunswick as proven convincingly by the comparatively few failures recorded within the last few years.

The year 1910 found matters considerably improved as told by the story of the failures, for only fifty-one insolvents were recorded. By this time prices were advancing, the markets looked firm, and a better time was noticed even in the uncertainties of a long war still ahead.

Then on to 1917, with commodities on the steady upward climb, a stock of merchandise enhanced materially in value almost overnight, and at average dealers was not slow to take advantage of this remarkable opportunity. Some few per cent in giving their customers the benefit of former values, but the majority of the whole did well during 1917, and the number of failures dropped to about thirty, an infallible indication that business was in good shape.

The year 1918 witnessed a continuation of these prosperous times. Trade on the whole was good, prices continually advancing, and the merchants realized another very satisfactory twelve months with a failure list of only about twenty in the province.

With the signing of the armistice our New Brunswick business men looked toward the future with some trepidation. The great question was: Would prices hold, or would the markets slump? It is difficult to place the exact date when the eye to see what the public wants and having it ready for them when they call.

Third. Arranging every department so the busy commuter need not wait. Fourth. Hiring a large enough sales force to handle trade in the most efficient manner. Telling the public by advertising what is to be had and by securing quick turnovers.

SALT FROM DEAD SEA

(New York Herald.)
They are about to do great things in ancient Palestine, now that the Turk has been driven from his stronghold and the country is to be opened to those to whom it rightly belongs, although none of the early settlers remain. Not only are they busy cleaning up the land that the Turk left in a rather dilapidated condition, but it is not unlikely that the clang of the trolley car and the rumble of the subway may be heard in the streets of venerable Jerusalem and its adjacent suburbs before very long. Elevated railroad structures will never be popular in that section because of the heat and the unsympathetic reflection from the ground, which is baked to a turn.
The possibility of a subway is not at all remote, however, for already an enterprising engineer, Albert Hiorth, a Norwegian irrigation expert, has put forward the project of constructing a tunnel designed to relieve the Dead Sea of some of its excessively salty and fetid waters and to bring the waters of the Mediterranean into the lower Jordan Valley and thus provide a vast stretch of land that has held no close intercourse with vegetation in all its thousands of years of history, with electric light and in it, although its suicide inviting depth in places is as much as 1,300 feet. But the low level of the Dead Sea is what Mr. Hiorth depends upon for the success of his scheme, for the tremendous fall of the Mediterranean waters would provide excellent power for his plant on the shores of the Dead Sea, with turbo-electric machinery transforming the water power into electricity, which is to be distributed as light and power throughout the country.

GIVES JUDGMENT IN LORD CASE

Judgment was given yesterday morning, by Mr. Justice White in the Lord case. The case had been instituted by the executors to determine whether certain lands had been validly conveyed by the testator, James A. Lord, to Mrs. Grace Lord. It appeared that the testator had executed a deed conveying certain land in Prince street, Carleton, to Mrs. Lord, but the conveyance remained in the hands of S. B. Bustin. The testator, however, told Mrs. Lord he had given her the property. Subsequently he negotiated the sale of the property to a third party and executed a second deed of the premises, but it was never delivered as the purchaser failed to complete the transaction. The testator then died, both deeds being in the possession of Mr. Bustin, one of the executors. Mr. Justice White held the conversation the testator had with Mrs. Lord constituted a delivery, and ordered that the conveyance be delivered to Mrs. Lord, and the costs of all parties paid out of the estate. John B. M. Baxter for the executors; John C. Belyea for Mrs. Lord.

power, part of which latter would be used for the irrigation of the one-time wilderness.
It is a clear stretch of thirty-seven miles from east to west between the Mediterranean and the Dead Sea, at about 31.15 north latitude. The tunnel that Mr. Hiorth proposes is planned to pass under Jerusalem. The undermining of the ancient and sacred city is one of the audacious and ambitious points in a generally audacious and ambitious programme.
At the lower point of the Jordan Valley it is proposed to direct the Mediterranean waters through pipes down to the level of the Dead Sea and it must not be forgotten that this most remarkable of all inland seas is 1,292 feet below the level of the Mediterranean, with a percentage of salt so heavy that it absolutely prevents any one from sinking

DEMobilIZATION ABOUT COMPLETED

Staff of Concentration Camp Returns—Camps Closed—3,000 Still in England

(Montreal Gazette.)
The arrival on the Melita on Saturday of a group of staff officers was a tangible sign that the process of demobilization of the C. E. F. overseas is practically completed, for this party has had this work in hand for the past nine months. Now the demobilizers are themselves demobilized, with the exception of those who, like Brigadier-General A. H. Bell, are permanent staff officers. The Canadian concentration camp was established at Bramshot, Surrey, last February, and the camp in which thousands of Canadian soldiers had been trained before they went over to France became then the clearing depot for their return home. As the work proceeded, it became necessary to include the Witley camp also for these operations, the two camps being on the same railway line, and a distance of a few miles apart from each other. The various units in the corps were taken in turn, and after they had all passed through this camp, the lines of communication and other details were taken. General Bell stated that there are still about 3,000 Canadians over there, but these have been detained for various reasons, such as the soldier's health or family conditions, and they will be looked after by the camp at Buxton, Derbyshire, of which Col. Paul Hanson has command, and which will be the final unit to come home.

Had Strenuous Service.
Brigadier-General A. H. Bell, C. M. G., D. S. O., who has had command of the concentration camp and its demobilization operations, was on the permanent staff of the militia department at Calgary when war broke out, and when the armistice came he was in command of the 6th Infantry Brigade in France which comprised the 27th, 28th, 29th and 31st Battalions, the latter, from Calgary, being his original unit. This brigade saw some very strenuous service during the closing months of the war, as well as earlier, and during the fighting around Cambrai just a month before the armistice, General Bell was wounded.

Lieut.-Col. D. W. B. Spry, O. B. E., of Winnipeg, who was A. A. Q. M. G., was with the second division in France, and has held a number of administrative positions both in France and England during the past five years. Other members of the staff on board were: Major J. F. Lister, D. S. O., of Toronto; D. A. A. Q. M. G.; Major B. G. Wolfe-Nelson, M. C., of Vancouver; D. A. A. G.; Major Vivian Graham, of Oshawa, Ont., and Capt. W. W. Mitchell, of Winnipeg. Most of these officers had wives and families aboard.

A GERMAN TRIBUTE TO BRITISH EFFICIENCY (From The Review.)
In view of our habit of referring to the British conduct of the war as "mud-dling through," it is interesting to hear von Tirpitz confess that "at the end of July, 1914, we found ourselves in a state of confusion, and that with a talent on the whole not equal to the British gift for improvising methods."

Get Your Money's Worth

Hearing The New Edison for the first time is like opening the blinds to the sunlight.

You expect to hear the familiar "talking machine tone."

Instead—there pours forth the voice, or the music of the instrument, in all its natural beauty—pure and full, and indistinguishable from the living artist.

When you choose an Edison RE-CREATION, you receive the actual voice of the artist or his masterly instrumental performance—nothing more, nothing less.

We know that when you select an Edison RE-CREATION, you are getting your full money's worth because we have proof.

Two thousand musical critics have endorsed our claim that

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

RE-CREATES the human voice and the music of human played instruments without the slightest deviation from the original.

"What the Critics Say", tells the story completely. Ask for a copy; and also for our beautiful new book "Edison and Music" when you come to hear the New Edison.

Beautifully Knit from the Softest Wool

FINER children's stockings than these cannot be made. For there is no finer wool than the soft, silky Australian lambs' wool from which we spin the yarn.

And there is no better process than ours of knitting that lovely yarn into hosiery.

Little Darling Stockings are made especially for babies and kiddies up to seven. Soft and warm, silken heel and toe. Not a fear of chafing—knit closely, but affording perfect ventilation. You will admit you never saw anything finer in infants' clothes.

Little Daisy Stockings are made in sizes up to twelve years. They have extra strength in heel and toe. There is unusual wear, as you know, in these famous stockings. And there is the protecting warmth that romping, tireless legs must have.

A wide range of colors—dainty shades, and dark—or fast black.

Ask for Little Darling or Little Daisy where you buy your children's clothes. Write to us if they cannot supply you.

A kitchen shower was given at the home of Mrs. Daniel Gram, Millidge Avenue, on Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Sara Hines. The bride-to-be received many useful gifts from numerous friends. An enjoyable evening was spent in games and refreshments were served.

DEATH OF SOLDIER
Pte. Emil Remm died this morning in the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment Hospital, Lancaster Heights, after a lingering illness. He was a member of the 118th battalion and served both in France and Egypt. He arrived back in St. John early in May, but his health was badly impaired and he had been under treatment ever since. He was thirty-one years of age and was a native of Norway. So far as is known he had no relatives.

MRS. MARY J. CAMPBELL
The many friends of Mrs. Mary J. Campbell will hear with regret of her death, which took place this morning, at her residence, 202 St. James' Street, West St. John. She is survived by her husband, John J. Campbell, one son, James, of Halifax; two daughters, Mrs. Nellie, of Charlottetown, and Mrs. Nellie, at home; also one brother, Robert Phillips, of Charlottetown, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. D. J. GIRL IN HIGHLANDER'S KILTS A HALLOWE'EN FEATURE IN CAPITAL

Lively Celebration in Fredericton—Major Deedes to Sail for Home Next Week

(Special to Times)—
Fredericton, Nov. 1.—Hallowe'en was celebrated in lively fashion last night and two arrests were made, both U. N. B. undergraduates who were caught adorning the Arctic rink with paint. The windows of the law office of Havelock Coppen, registrar of the university, were generally ornamented with paint. False alarms of fire were numerous during the night and in the early hours there were many girls and young women parading the streets in male costumes. One young woman wore a Highlander's uniform with kilt.

William Andrews, of Maquapit Lake, Sunbury county, died at his home on Friday. He is survived by three sons, Adam and William of Maquapit Lake, and Hugh of Fredericton, also three daughters, Annie and Mary at home, and Martha of Boston. The funeral will take place on Sunday.

A cablegram states that Major H. G. Deedes and family will sail from England on November 8, on the S. S. Minnedosa en route to Fredericton, where they will reside before leaving. Major Deedes left Canada in the autumn of 1914 with the first contingent as captain in the 12th Battalion. Later he was promoted to be major and went to France with a pioneer battalion with which he served for some time. Afterward he was on duty in England. He graduated from the University of New Brunswick in civil engineering and was with the C. P. R. subsequent to re-enlistment. He is a native of Kent, England.

W. W. Boyce of this city has received a letter from his mother who is living at the family home, East Lynne, England, which states that oil has been discovered on the property. Since the war the government has had prospecting parties all over Great Britain looking for oil, coal and other minerals.

MARRIED IN WEST

Rev. Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) officiated at wedding of Fairville Groom and St. John Bride

A wedding of interest to their many friends in the eastern provinces, where until very recently both resided, was solemnized in Saint Stephen's Presbyterian church, Winnipeg, Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) officiating, when at 4 p. m. on Oct. 25, Anne M., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Storm of 11 Pine street, St. John, N. B., became the bride of Charles E. Humphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Humphrey of Fairville, N. B. Both young people will be followed to their new home in Manitoba by the best wishes of friends and acquaintances in this city. The double-ring service which was used was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the contracting parties, who were unattended. Miss Storm, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a brown tailored model with beaver hat of the same shade. She carried an armful of loose yellow, white and pink roses. Mr. Humphrey will be remembered as one of the wearers of "The Old Red Patch," being a member of the divisional signal section which left St. John under the then Major Thos. Power in 1914. Miss Storm was, until recently, with the firm of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., here. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey will be at home to their friends at 345 Ellice street, Winnipeg.

SPENT HONEYMOON IN HUNT FOR BIG GAME

(Special to Times)
Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 1.—Announcement of the marriage of Ex-Warden Albert B. Neill of Devon and Mrs. Johanna Sewell of the same town is made today. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Ferguson, pastor of the Devon United Baptist church, at the residence of Mrs. H. Cooper, Devon sister of the groom. The marriage took place early in October. Ex-Warden and Mrs. Neill spent their honeymoon hunting big game in Sunbury county. They will make their home at Sunnybank Farm, Devon.

Man In The Street

The snow shovel will soon again come into its own!

Our little snow-storm of yesterday may have been the tail end of the one that swept Carleton-Victoria in the recent election.

A clothes-line in Lancaster was stripped by a thief a few days ago. He got more clothes out of a yard than most people can.

With still more outsiders coming here for positions on the staff, the two sole New Brunswick survivors at Headquarters must feel their posts becoming precarious.

To Be "Mixed" With A Brush.
A case of whiskey seized by Inspector McLaughlin and over this week was labelled "paint." The shipper must have had an idea of its power to crimson noses.

Montrealers at a dance this week rushed the Prince of Wales to the gallery trying to get his autograph. In bridge parlance they were bidding high on royals.

As You Were!
The following story is fresh from the old country:
A soldier was detailed to make an inventory of a farmhouse for an incoming brigadier. Same soldier discovered later, sound asleep on a sofa, the inventory clasped in his hand:
Bottles full, one, serviceable.
Corkscrews, bent, one, serviceable.
Glasses, cracked, one, serviceable.
Carpets, revolving, one, unserviceable.

When the break in their main occurred this week Fairville people were forced to the water-wagon whether they liked it or not.

And residents of Millidgeville say that the author of the proverb about "not missing the water" etc., must have had experience.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 27.
To the "Man in the Street," Evening Times—
At last! Union street pavement is finished—and oh, what an improvement! But—why not follow up the good work with the fire hose so that all may gaze upon and see in reality not a camouflage of adhesive sediment, but a pavement of good solid granite blocks—and furthermore we don't think the Board of Health would object.

HORNE IS TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY

Sends Cable to Germany Asking Government to Take Action to Secure His Release

Fredericton, Nov. 1.—Werner Horne left here this morning for the penitentiary at Dorchester, N. B., to commence serving his sentence of ten years. Handcuffed to Sgt. Nathaniel Jones and with Sheriff John B. Hawthorn in charge of the party, Horne left by C. N. E. this morning before daylight and it was expected that early this afternoon the doors of the penitentiary would click behind the German army officer. A medical examination before departure was held at the jail last night and he was declared physically fit to undergo imprisonment.

When Horne was asked if he had any statement to make for publication before entering the penitentiary he said there was nothing for him to add to the protests he had already made in court, beyond the fact that he was sending a cable to Germany stating his position and requesting that official action be taken by the German government to bring about his release from civil custody.

HALLOWE'EN AT HAMPTON

A very interesting Hallowe'en party and masquerade dance was given last evening at the Wayside Inn, Hampton. Many beautiful costumes were in evidence. An amusing incident happened while a party was being driven to the dance. A young gentleman, thoroughly disguised, was made love to by another young gentleman.

After a long programme of dances was carried out, refreshments were served and the party broke up a little after twelve.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, Hampton, held a Hallowe'en tea and sale in the school room of the Methodist church last evening. The room was artistically decorated in keeping with Hallowe'en and a very dainty supper was served. The young ladies of the church, assisted by the members of the Aid waited on the tables. There was a large attendance and an enjoyable evening was spent. An interesting programme included solos and a ghost walk. The ghosts walked in from outside through the hall, which was dimly lighted, to the platform, after which they sang a "spooky" chorus. About $100 was realized and is to be used for further repairs on the church.

Private Jones was accompanied by a certain town, a young woman they met in the street asked them if they cared to go to her house and have a cup of coffee. On arriving, they were introduced to her mother, who made excuses in regard to her appearance. She remarked: "I'll go and put on the perculator." The sergeant replied: "O, you look all right the way you are."

SIX-HOUR DAY AND HEALTH.
At some future time, in the light of experience gained, a further reduction of the maximum might be found of value to the health and wealth of the state, says the Lancet (London) but in the light of present knowledge, with industry organized as it is today, there are at least three dangers in adopting a universal six-hour day:
1.—Health might be impaired by too little activity for work is even more necessary to health than rest.
2.—The unoccupied time might be spent unprofitably and harmfully, since the working class population have not been accustomed to having leisure hours to devote to mental and physical recreation.
3.—Surplus of output might not be obtained, when economic circulation would cease.
A good broomholder may be made by nailing two reels to the wall about two inches apart. Hang the broom upside down between the reels.

What's the matter with Your Dollar?

In 1914 One Dollar Bought	To-day One Dollar Buys
33 pounds of flour or 5 pecks of potatoes or 4 pounds of bacon or 2 1/2 dozen eggs or 285 pounds of coal	9 pounds of flour or 2 1/2 pecks of potatoes or 2 pounds of bacon or 1 1/2 dozen eggs or 166 pounds of coal

These figures, based on accurate average of prices obtained in 60 cities, show plainly how the dollar is shrinking in value. Is the insurance you considered adequate five years ago, enough to maintain your dependents in comfort now?

Every man who wishes to provide for his dependents must take into account the declining value of the dollar. The amount of his insurance should be increased as money's purchasing power declines.

300,000 Maxwells to Date: 100,000 More This Year

THIS shows the rapidly growing appreciation of the Maxwell.

A desire for a car that has proved its worth in many latitudes and many longitudes.

A liking for the long run tires give, for the definite and extended mileage from gas and oil.

A fondness for a car that expresses reliability in a most decisive way.

This year, more than any before, the 300,000 idea behind the Maxwell has increased in public favor.

And as a result less than 60% of those seeking a Maxwell will be able to have one.

100,000—one-third as many as are in existence today—are being built this year on this continent. That means one every 1 1/2 minutes of the working day.

These new post-war features, which have classified it as the Post-War Maxwell, are well spoken of everywhere. That's but one reason why the drift is towards Maxwell.

Compare it point for point with any car under $1600 and you will more readily understand.

STARTLING REVELATIONS AT REVIVAL MEETING

Confessions of Arson and Other Crimes Are Brought Out.

Blountville, Ind., Nov. 1.—Blountville underwent a change after the advent of the Rev. Carl Tucker, a minister of Winchester, Ind., whose appeals to the people at revival meetings resulted in old bills being paid and confessions of arson and to the poisoning of at least one mule by a farmer to get the insurance money on the animal.

Blountville never was what you would call a wicked city. There are no "bright lights" to draw the unwary. But, as in every other town, there were persons who found it hard to pay their bills, even though they had the money. And there were others who were willing to take money, regardless of how they got it. Farmer Furnishes Sensation.

One of the sensations of the whole affair was the confession of Frank Conwell, a well-to-do farmer. So wrought-up was he over the burning words of the Rev. Mr. Tucker, urging all to repent, confess their sins and make restitution, that he publicly denounced himself, telling how he burned his home to collect the insurance money and how he poisoned a mule that was insured for $225.

According to Conwell, he paid back $688 which he collected as insurance on his home and a live stock insurance company was sent a check for $225, that Conwell said he was paid at the death of the mule. Other debts, amounting to about $1,000, have been paid, Conwell announced.

"Others have done as bad as I have," said Conwell. "Others have got things covered up. They had better uncover these things or they will go to hell. Why do I feel free to tell these things about myself? Because God has shown me the light and now I feel sure of salvation. They might even send me to the penitentiary, but what could that mean in comparison with everlasting life in heaven. It is the Lord's will that I sell my farm. I will sell everything I own. What will I do after that? I will be in the Lord's hands."

HEARS PRICE OF COAL; DROPS DEAD

New York, Nov. 1.—Consumers of coal are advised to take warning from the case of Adam Williams, a farmer in Kansas. The case was reported by a physician in Wichita. Williams went to a coal dealer and asked what it would cost to heat his home for the winter. The coal dealer told him, and Williams fell dead.

Physicians said his death was due to heart failure.

PLOT TO SIEZE WHITEHALL AND WESTMINSTER

Bolshevist Plans in London Revealed — Watchfulness Kills Scheme.

London, Nov. 1.—Bolshevist plans for the seizure of Whitehall and of Westminster, which were laid early during the present year, have just been disclosed. A number of extremists, most of whom are still engaged in Bolshevist propaganda here and in the United States, met and discussed the plans for this pretentious undertaking, which they hoped would be executed by a so-called Sailors' and Soldiers' Union.

One of the plotters since has been sent to prison, where he still is serving a sentence for having made revolutionary speeches. The plot came to naught because of lack of support and the watchfulness of the authorities.

CONSCIENCE WINS

Ring Stolen Eight Years Ago is Returned to Owner.

Brookville, Nov. 1.—Eight years ago Mrs. Robert Dunn of this town lost a valuable diamond ring. No trace of it in spite of every effort, could be secured, and it was presumed to have been lost.

The ring was this week received by registered mail from Vallanova, Pa., accompanied by a note addressed to her, reading: "An herewith enclosing your diamond ring which was stolen from you some time ago. It was given me a few days ago to return to you. I hope you will receive it all right, and pardon the poor unfortunate who took it." The note was signed, "A Catholic Priest."

WILL HAVE THEIR PLUM PUDDING AT LA DICKENS

London, Nov. 1.—For the first time in five years the British are to have their plum puddings served with true Dickens ceremony. During the war the ingredients were so difficult to get and so expensive that it was only a fortunate few who could enjoy the delights of the traditional Christmas fare.

This year the government is taking steps to assure a sufficient supply, also to control the prices of the ingredients. Now plum pudding is assured for rich and poor alike. Saxon fare, rich and solid, served with brandy sauce, and burnt beef, from the king's family to the poorest artisan—except, of course, dyspeptics.

Clemenceau's Desire to Visit Egypt One Reason For Quitting Politics.

Paris, Nov. 1. (By the Associated Press)—Clemenceau's refusal to stand as a candidate for the Chamber of Deputies in the lower Rhine, Alsace, is regarded as conclusive evidence of his unswerving determination to retire from political life immediately after the elections. There had been much incredulity expressed concerning the sincerity of the premier's decision to retire. His political foes were earnestly desirous and his friends were alarmed, both refusing to believe the announcement as official until it was confirmed.

The political opponents of the premier had caused a rumor to be widely circulated throughout the electioneering campaign that M. Clemenceau's ambition was toward the presidency of the French Republic despite the premier's repeated refusals to allow his name to be put forward by his friends.

A few days ago the premier told friends that he desired to travel in Egypt during the coming winter. "I don't wish to die without seeing the pyramids," he said. "After forty-four years of political life, my hour of rest has come. I am thankful to have lived long enough to see victory wipe out the terrible memory of 1870, which has grieved me for more than forty years."

TOKIO PRESS CALLS FOR STRONGER NAVY

Japanese Editors Discuss U. S. "Insults"; Oil Poured on Troubled Waters by Ex-Senator Burton

Tokio, Oct. 31.—While the Japanese press for a long time appeared to take with great equanimity the anti-Japanese statements made in the United States senate and by various Californians in their home state, the quiet appears to have been broken, and several of the big Tokio papers are now handling the subject without gloves.

Thus the Yamato in a recent issue says that "the utterance of insults against Japan by Americans is due to their contempt for our naval strength," and goes on to urge the adoption of a programme for a stronger navy, while the Osaka Mainichi deprecates the prevalence of what it calls "Japanophobia in America."

Some oil on the troubled waters was poured the other day by former Senator Theodore E. Burton, who is now visiting Japan. At a meeting of the American Peace Society and the Japanese Peace Society in Tokio Senator Burton said in part:

"The objection raised in California to the Japanese are ascribed to racial differences, but this is only an excuse. The real reason is the demand of a powerful element to monopolize the labor of the state and for purposes of political expediency. The California land laws are simply political war cries. My advice regarding California is, first, to avoid excitement, and second, not to take too seriously the loud talk of the jingoes.

"The talk of war between Japan and the United States is futile and absurd. The mutual advantages of trade make war impossible. Imagine the difficulties in the path of a Japanese army in the event of an attempt to penetrate into the interior of the United States. The difficulties would be as great for an American army to attempt the invasion of Japan. Differences must be considered in the spirit of concession. Neither social nor economic progress can be made without concession."

Baron Sakatani, who spoke in reply to Senator Burton, said: "One of the things which serve to irritate the Japanese mind is the frequent introduction into the California legislature of anti-Japanese measures. It seems to the Japanese that the gentleman's agreement is sufficient, because this agreement is honestly kept as a covenant of international faith. If the Americans demand something more than this, it is most difficult for the Japanese to understand, even for those who know the most about America."

PIPING HEAT FROM BOWELS OF EARTH

Italian Homes Heated From Volcanoes—Great Saving

New York, Nov. 1.—Coal bills and musical steamships mean nothing in the lives of the good people of certain cities in Italy, according to Prof. Luigi Luggi, director of the Italian state railroads, who is in New York.

Owing to a coal shortage the Italian government is piping heat from the bowels of the earth in towns near volcanoes, and people with a little volcano in their homes are greeting the innovation warmly.

During the war, the professor said, the people burned the floors and furniture out of their homes and the refuse from orange groves for fuel to keep locomotives moving toward the front. It was then that they hit upon the scheme to heat by volcano.

The highest mountain peak in North America is Mt. McKinley, in Alaska, whose altitude is 29,300 feet, and the highest in South America, Mt. Aconcagua, in the Andes, on the border of Chile and Argentina, 23,080 feet. The highest mountain in the world is Mt. Everest, in the Himalayas, in Asia. Its altitude is 29,292 feet. There are several hundred mountain peaks in the Himalayas 20,000 feet or over, running to an altitude of 28,275 feet.

When Congressman Bowers of West Virginia was chief of the Bureau of Fisheries in Washington, he planted some apple and peach orchards in West Virginia, with trees enough set a rod apart to make a line stretching over 250 miles. His trees which he individually owns produced this year 10,000 barrels of apples, and those that he owns and controls, produced 30,000 barrels. One of his orchards has 45,000 peach trees.

SAVAGES EXTREMELY TENACIOUS OF LIFE

"A curious instance of extreme tenacity of life among the lower races was mentioned to me by Major R. Black, V. A. M. C., now surgeon to the Devon force, and before the war a well-known practitioner in the Midlands," writes Sydney Maude, the well-known authority on Russian affairs, in the Westminster Gazette. "The case occurred at Bakaritsa. Two friends of Mongolian origin in a labor battalion, playing cards and A won more than B liked to lose. Thereupon B got a sharp axe and drove it through A's skull and about one and a half inches into his brain. A was taken to hospital, where Major Black trephined him and repaired his brain. "Next day A demanded his usual rations and wanted to get up and go home to settle accounts with his friend. This was not allowed, but meanwhile B had been arrested and, not wishing to submit to the courts of the Western Barbarian, he hanged himself, and after a period variously estimated at from five to ten minutes of suspension was cut down. The surgeon was again sent for, and found the Russian attendants administering artificial respiration to the man at the rate of about 300 per minute and nearly played out by their labors. This he slowed down to about 20, and after half an hour the man revived and was taken to the hospital ward his friend was in, as no bed was available elsewhere. "On seeing him A became extremely violent, and it required six men to hold him down and prevent his exacting summary vengeance on B, who was still only semi-conscious. However, B, too, made a remarkable recovery, and half an hour later it took twelve men, six to each of the combatants, to prevent the two patients from fighting. Huge and repeated doses of morphia had no effect on either of them, but by arranging a bed in a separate ward for one of them murder was avoided, or at least deferred." With half a dozen crates of live hens waiting on a truck at a New England railway station for the arrival of the train on which they were to be shipped the baggage master said cheerily: "I've fished two eggs out of those crates already, and there's another one."

When little Willie's mother opened the door to the minister her face beamed with joy and welcome, in spite of the fact that it was washing day. "This is a real pleasure, sir," she began. "I've been wanting to thank you for the good you've done our Willie by your evening classes. Home's as different again since he attended the plumbing and gasfitting class!" "This is indeed gratifying—very!" said the minister. "Now, what improvement have you noticed in little Willie of late?" "Well, he's arranged our penny in the gas slot meter so that we get our gas for nothing. You see, he's moved it from the scullery to outside the front door, sir." "But you still have to put your pennies in the slot, my good woman." "Ah, but you see, sir, before he put the meter in the road our Willie wrote 'Chocolate' over the slot!"

The New Motor Car

The Greatest Improvement In Riding Comfort Since The Introduction of Pneumatic Tires

HERE is a brand new type of car, built in Canada by Canadians, for Canadians. It solves the problem which has baffled automotive engineers—how to combine riding comfort with light weight and economy.

Our new Three-Point Suspension Springs make this possible.

These are the first springs of their kind and they are made of chrome vanadium steel. They are exclusive with Overland.

Because of these springs, Overland 4 combines the riding qualities of large, heavy, expensive, long wheelbase cars, together with the advantages and economy of small light cars.

With 100-inch wheelbase, Overland 4 has the luxurious riding ease of 130-inch Springbase.

The exclusive, Three-Point Suspension Springs cushion the car so that it rides well on all roads: they reduce choppy rebounds and side swaying, protect the car from road shocks and prolong its life, minimize twisting or racking of frame and body, enable the car to hold the road better.

The car and passengers ride smoothly as though floating, free from road shocks.

But this new riding comfort, possible only with these Three-Point Suspension Springs, is but one of the advantages of Overland 4.

Its light weight makes possible great economy of gasoline and tires.

High quality materials insure durability. All vital parts of the front axle and steering gear and all highly stressed driving gears and shafts are made of alloy steel.

The equipment list of Overland 4 is like that of expensive cars: Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System, Electric Horn — Specially Resilient Upholstery Springs — Demountable Rims — Three Speed Transmission — Slanting Rain Vision Windshield — Tillotson Carburetor and many other high quality conveniences.

In every respect Overland 4 is a quality car. The body is all steel, all enamel, the brightest, hardest, most lasting finish.

Overland 4 has been tested for two years and more than 250,000 miles over the Rocky Mountains, prairies, through deep mud and scorching deserts—through quick, sharp climatic changes. As a result of these tests we were able to judge the car's performance under every condition and to perfect it before offering it to the public.

There is no previous car of any size or price to adequately compare with the character of service Overland 4 introduces.

The farther you ride in it the more you will appreciate it. Come in and get a Booklet. The demand for Overland 4 will be greater than the supply for some time. Overland 4 Touring, $1195; Roadster, $1195; Coupe, $1845; Sedan, $1995. Prices f. o. b. Toronto, War Tax included.

BOUT HELD UP BY MEEHAN'S DEMAND

Western Heavyweight Asks $12,500 to Meet Dempsey in Newark Ring.

New York, Oct. 31.—Prospects of a heavyweight championship bout in Newark early next year, in which Jack Dempsey, titleholder, would defend his crown against Willie Meehan, a pugilist...

Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, who evinced a willingness to negotiate a match if a proper opponent could be found for the champion, unexpectedly left this city for Chicago, and the meeting scheduled for Friday, when it was expected that Promoter Mackay and Manager Kearns would reach some agreement...

In his wake Manager Kearns left disappointment with Promoter Mackay and doubt as to whether Kearns and Dempsey really are anxious to arrange a bout. The champion's manager, before leaving, is understood to have notified Promoter Mackay that he was still open for the proposed Newark bout, but inferred that negotiations in the future, if there are to be any, would have to be carried on over a distance.

On top of this discouraging information Promoter Mackay received a wire from Meehan in answer to one the Newark promoter had sent the sailor last Tuesday in which Meehan's terms for a bout were sought. Meehan's reply was to the effect that he would "take $12,500 for a bout with Dempsey." After recovering his composure Promoter Mackay wired back offering Meehan $1,000 a round for as long as he remained in the ring with Dempsey. The Newark promoter is awaiting a reply to this latter telegram.

In the meantime Mackay, who has not completely abandoned the idea of conducting a bout in which Dempsey will appear for the first time since winning the title, is negotiating for another available heavyweight in the event that Meehan declines the offer.

Elimination of Unearned Increment and Eight-Hour Day Are I.L.P. Planks

(Toronto Star.) In view of the prominence of the Labor group of members of the legislature in forming a government in alliance with the U. P. Here is the platform of the Independent Labor party of Ontario, organized less than three years ago, and under whose auspices all but one of the newly elected Labor members were candidates.

The public ownership of all public utilities and natural sources of wealth. Nationalization of banking and credit systems. Direct legislation through the initiative, referendum and recall. Gradual elimination of unearned increment through a tax on land values. Equal pay for equal work. Abolition of property qualifications for all municipal offices. Abolition of all election deposits. Proportional representation, with grouped constituencies.

THE RING.

Champion in Three Bouts.
That Benny Leonard, lightweight boxing champion, has no intentions of retiring from the ring, was the statement made the other night by Billy Gibson, manager of the title-holder. Gibson, noting the reports of Leonard's arranged fight with George Dixon, who is another important match for the champion, Leonard will exchange blows with older Bartfield, the rugged Brooklyn fighter, in an eight-round session at the Arena A, Jersey City, Nov. 1. Gibson, Dave Driscoll, the Jersey promoter, and Bartfield's representative, agreed on terms for the match. This bout will be one of three which Leonard will fight during his stay in Jersey City. Driscoll has arranged for his second show in the Fourth Regiment arena, Jersey City. Johnny Dundee, the Italian rival, and Mel Coogan, the rookiest lightweight, are scheduled for the two other bouts, while in the Dan O'Dowd of Boston, who lasted eight rounds against Bill Brennan at the opening show of this club, will engage Ed Roberts, the young Staten Island contender.

Boxing Events.
Frederickson, the champion, will be the main attraction in New Brunswick within a fortnight. Since the war, boxing has been at a low ebb in this part of the continent, and general support all over America has been at a low level. In Nova Scotia, the fairly high-class battles have been frequent, and it is said that two or three New Brunswick contenders will soon start staging bouts, Frederickson being seriously thought of.

LIARDS.

Four of the players who will compete for the world's pocket billiard championship at Philadelphia Dec 1 to 13, inclusive, were seen in action at the Rensselaer Recreation Academy in Brooklyn last week. Louis Krueter, Joe Concannon, Ralph Greenleaf, and Charley Stoutburgh played the first games in the tournament, and Krueter and Greenleaf were the winners. Some of the fact that it was the first time several months the players had under championship rules. Krueter defeated Concannon, the New York state champion, in the afternoon of a score of 125 to 98. He made a high break of 15. Concannon's best was 18. It took thirty-one innings to decide the match. In the nineteenth frame Concannon made three scratches in succession and forfeited the entire fifteen balls. The third was accidental. He tried pocket a ball and break the bunched pocket. He was kissed off into the pocket. In the evening Greenleaf won from Stoutburgh by a score of 125 to 5 in ten innings. Greenleaf made a high break of 48. It was the best exhibition of pocket billiards seen in the two games. During the run he was called upon to make several treacherous combinations. His play was excellent, and his table work was all that could be desired. Stoutburgh made a high run of 12.

MacLean Will Go to Pittsburgh.
Harry MacLean, for four years one of the stars of the Cape Breton hockey league, will leave this week for Pittsburgh, Pa., where he has accepted a position with one of the hockey clubs in the city. MacLean has all the qualifications of a star, and he has been in Fredericton, and he formerly played in the United States and was a member of the National Hockey League.

OWLING.

W. M. C. I. League.
The Birds of Wisdom got very much the best of their argument with the Owls in their first string last night, or the Owls Clear with a score of 111, and McCurdy with 105, closely followed by Garvin with 98, contributed to a string that closely bordered on the five hundred mark. The Hawks had Powder hitting them for 106 and Kelly getting by the ninety mark. This string gave the Owls a lead of thirty-six pins. The second string followed the lead of the first and went to the Owls by fifty-four pins. In this string Moran and McCurdy took 108 and 107, respectively. This with Clear's 96 and Garvin's 98, gave the Owls a total of 488.

For the Hawks, their anchor, Jarvis, was the sole man to pass the ninety mark. The third string went to the Owls by twenty-five pins. In this string McCafferty, Cleary, McCurdy and Garvin all got by the ninety mark. For the Hawks, McAuliffe and Jarvis got busy in the eighth box and landed spares which put them past ninety. The Owls therefore got all four points.

Challenger to Tower Over American Defender With Huge Sails—Time Allowance to U. S. Boat.
New York, Oct. 31.—Since the New York Yacht Club has consented to race Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, for the America's Cup next summer, every detail in connection with the challenger has been under the closest surveillance. The boat has been on this side since 1914 only the scantiest information about her has been allowed to reach the ears of the yachting critics. Very few except some close friends of Lipton, have had a chance to get a peep at the challenger under-body, for she has been closely boxed up at the foot of Twenty-seventh Street, South Brooklyn, and both night and day has been under the closest surveillance. Still a few bits of important information regarding her rigging and the amount of canvas she is expected to carry have leaked out, and singularly enough, they floated along from the Old World.

having the mast restopped about eight feet further aft. In order to prevent the alteration the yacht would have to be hauled out into the cradle and underbody would have to be loosened for two months' time and it would be impossible when Watson made the remarks. So the Shamrock II had to carry her defect in the three races, in the second one of which she was only defeated by a slim margin. It was the clever work of Charley Barr, skipper of the Columbia, that saved the cup from a trip across to its original home. Edward VIII's Narrow Escape.
In the trial races at home before she started for America, Shamrock II had Shamrock I as a trial boat and the racing of the pair showed that over the thirty mile course the new boat was anywhere from ten to twelve minutes faster than the old one. The partisans of Shamrock II were delighted, and so when the time came in order that there should be a real tryout a three-cornered series was arranged between the Shamrock I and the famous trawl Sybarita. The races were held on the water-line, and the famous trawl Sybarita carried a place on the deck of Shamrock II. In the first race, and when the yachts were jockeying at the starting line he was seen walking around unconcernedly, although there was a wicked jump to the sea.
It was a perfect sailing day with a breeze strong and true, but all of a sudden a squall came tearing out of the westerly end of the Solent and hit the Shamrock II with a rattle and a clang. In an instant there was a loud crash when mast, sails, rigging and everything aboard the yacht toppled with a roar over the side, leaving the king, the skipper and crew standing on the deck. Seeing the danger the sailing master of the sister ship wheeled around intending to come to the assistance of the stricken one, but the squall struck Shamrock I, breaking off her gaff and blowing her topsail to pieces, so that the mainmast was hanging in a dangerous condition. A majority of the yachts around were mistimed, but fortunately no one was hurt. King Edward all the time kept his place in deck, and although blocks and rigging were strewn all around him, he escaped without a scratch.
The QUESTION OF PICTURE CENSORSHIP
(Montreal Herald.)
A reminder of the good effects of the strict moving picture censorship which is maintained in this province comes from the fact that at the convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Detroit this week, Bishop E. V. Shawler

You can pay more than 7c for a cigar but you can't get a better cigar than the Pippin.
We claim it the best 7c cigar in the land.
Four of them cost a quarter.

A skin soft, clear, delicate in coloring

No other beauty speaks so instantly

A LITTLE flash of envy, yes—but just as surely, just as instantly, every one of us has felt the attraction that a lovely complexion always exerts.

And, if your complexion is dull and lifeless—without charm—how little all other attractions count! If you are bothered with blackheads, if your skin is marred by little blemishes, even if the pores have become enlarged, how completely your appearance is spoiled.

When other girls have lovely skins, how hard it seems for you not to have this greatest of all charms—a skin that is clear and dazzling.

Do you know that there is nothing that so responds to the proper treatment as your skin? That if you commence this very day to give your skin the right treatment for its needs, you will begin in a few days to notice its improvement?

Your skin is the most changeable feature you have. No matter how much you may neglect it, every day it is being made over, even without your help. New skin is continually forming as old skin dies. It is this new skin that responds so quickly to the proper treatment. You can keep it free of the blemishes that marred the old skin. Its freshness need never again be spoiled by neglect.

Blackheads can be corrected. Conspicuous nose pores can be reduced. Pale, sallow skins can be stimulated to have lovely color.

For every kind of complexion trouble you can find out first the cause of the condition, then the remedy, based on the fundamental rules of skin hygiene.

The cause of oily skin and shiny nose

Take one of the most common of skin troubles—an oily skin and a nose that will get shiny. Do you know what causes this condition?

A certain amount of oil in your skin is necessary to keep it smooth and supple. This oil is constantly being produced by the glands of the skin. When it is too abundant the result is an oily skin and a shiny nose. You can relieve this embarrassing condition by using the following treatment for it as frequently as is necessary:—

With warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

Use this treatment as often as your skin requires it, nightly if necessary. The first time you try it, it will make your skin firmer and drier. Before long, you will notice a marked improvement.

Why blackheads form

Think how constantly your face is exposed to dust and dirt. Unless the skin is thoroughly cleansed, tiny particles of foreign matter clog the pores and blackheads are the result.

Blackheads are a confession that you are using the wrong method of cleansing for your type of skin. By following the Woodbury treatment, you can keep your skin free from them.

Apply hot, wet cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcloth, work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear, hot water, then with cold. Dry the skin carefully.

Make this a daily habit and you will soon notice a marked improvement in the clearness of your skin.

To remove blackheads already formed substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in the treatment above. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

The new steam treatment for pale, sallow skins

Then, a pale sallow skin. Do you despair of ever rousing yours? Try the new steam treatment. See how just one treatment brings the color to your cheeks.

Steam penetrates the skin in a way water alone cannot do. It enables you to cleanse thoroughly the pores that have become clogged, to stimulate inactive blood vessels and give the skin new color.

To make your skin soft and colorful, one night a week fill your bowl full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the bowl with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape. Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin in an upward and outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

The other nights of the week, cleanse your face thoroughly in the Woodbury way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with cold.

These are only three of the famous Woodbury treatments for the commoner skin troubles. Get the famous booklet of treatments and see for yourself how thoroughly the needs of the different types of skin have been studied. As you read the different treatments, you will feel that they must help your skin.

The whole success depends on yourself

But the whole success of any Woodbury treatment depends on the regularity and persistence with which you keep it up. Remember that you cannot completely correct in a day or a week the results of years of neglect.

But you will notice in a few days the good a Woodbury treatment does your skin. The very first treatment will leave your skin with a slightly drawn, tight feeling. This only means that your skin is responding to a more thorough and stimulating kind of cleansing than it has been accustomed to. After a few nights this drawn feeling will disappear, and your skin will emerge from its nightly treatment with such a soft, clean, healthful feeling that you will never again want to use any other method of cleansing your face.
