strange case in my mind. I felt no doubt that the Pole had murdered his bonefactor for the money or papers he had about him., I questioned the clerk at the desk again, as to who had seen Mr. Harmon the night of the supposed suicide. No one, was the answer. I then gave as good a description as I could of the Pole, and the clerk at once remembered that such a man had come in about 10.30 p. m., had looked over the register, going away soon after. This proved to my mind clearly that the Pole, having ascertained the number of Mr. Harmon's room, quietly walked up to it, and had left by the fire escape after locking the door on the inside. It was certainly a cleverly planned and executed murder.

Beginning with the issue of November 6th, 1890, when the ADVANCE entered upon its Seventeenth Year of Publication

The publisher made an important change in the terms on which the paper is furnished to Subscribers. These include 1st. Strict adherence to the system of cash in advance for all subscriptions.

2nd. The reduction of the price of the paper to

One Dollar a Year

It is to be particularly understood that all outstanding subscription accounts due after November 6th, 1890, are to be settled on the old terms, viz., $2 per year, the advertised credit rate. I have made special arrangements with the

One Dollar and Sixty Cents a Year

I have made the foregoing changes in the business of the ADVANCE for two reasons. The first is because many patrons who have been given credit, have abused the privilege to such an extent as to make the business of publishing the paper a non-paying one, and it is neces-sary, in my own interest and that of those who do pay, that I should no longer continue to furnish the AD TANCE to those non-paying subscribers.

The second reason is, that I. wish to meet the competition of the city weeklies, which are made up from the type of the dailies and, therefore, cost little for production in comparison with a local paper like the ADVANCE, the type of which must be set up especially
