Ex-Mayor McMurdo.

Ex-Mayor L. B. McMurdo Entertained By Friends.

Ex-Mayor Leslie B. McMurdo, Newcastle, will leave on Monday for Calgary, where he will in future reside.

Mac has proved himself to be a useful and popular citizen and the business men of the town gave a supper in his honor at Miramichi Hotel last night.

The ex-mayor and his friends sat down to the table at 11 o'clock and did ample justice to the excellent meal placed before them.

After supper speech-making began in earnest and lasted till the small hours.

Among the speakers were Mayor Dr. F.
Pedolin, Aldermen T. W. Butler, C. M.
Dickison, S. Russell; Hon. D. Morrison,
Messrs. A. A. Davidson, E. A. McCurdy,
W. J. Jardine, H. B. Moody, Dr. Sproule,
Geo. Bethune, J. E. T. Lindon, William
Irving, S. Gremley, C. C. Hayward, Roy
Morrison and Geo. McDade.

All the speakers spoke of the guest of the evening in the highest terms, as mayor, alderman, business man and fellow

Father Fitz-Henry Was Drowned

Formerly Assistant Priest at Renous and Millerton.

Many will regret to hear of the drowning of Rev. Father R. H. Fitz-Henry, near Kingston, Ont.

The late reverend gentleman was assistant priest to Rev. E. S. Murdock for upwards of a year. He moved from here last July.

Kingston, May 27—The body of a man was washed ashore at the coal works wharf at the foot of Gore Street. It was removed to Corbett's morgue and later identified as that of Father R. H. Fitz-henry, formerly Chaplain of St. Mary's of the Lake Orphanage of this city. Father Fitzhenry disappeared about the end of December last, and it was supposed he was drowned. He belonged to the fathers of the Holy cross, and was ordained a priest about eight years ago.
The deceased was about thirty-three years of age. The remains were taken to Montreal.

citizen, and all predicting a great future
for him in his western home.

Mr. McMurdo enters a fine business in Calgary.

The News joins with his many Miramichi friends in wishing him every success.

Trans- planting Time.

Tomato Plants, 25cts doz.
Red and Early Cabbage 10 "

I have also Cauliflower, Scotch Kale, Brussel Sprouts, etc., all thoroughly hardened off.

THE SOUTH-WEST BRIDGE.

From time to time we hear of the delapidated condition of the South-West Bridge.

This bridge which connects Nelson and Derby is much used by the travelling public and, if the conditions are as reported, should receive the immediate attention of the proper authorities.

A matter of such great importance should not be left until an accident occurs.

Something should be done, repair the old one or build a new one if required. Or at any rate fence off the bridge if it is not safe and protect the lives of the public.

Who will be responsible in case of accident?

COLONIAL STOCK COMPANY COMING

The mere announcement that the Colonial Stock Co. is returning to Millerton for its annual spring engagement of three nights beginning June 19th, should arouse exceptional interest in the hearts of its many friends and patrons, in fact all lovers of high class drama and comedy should welcome the return of this estimable company with enthusiasm.

Its repertoire will consist of new plays never before seen on the stage at Millerton, they will be of the same high calibre as the plays always produced by this company.

Their repertoire will include "Esmeralda" the greatest play of country life ever written. It has been said by all the dramatic critics that it is far superior to "The Old Homestead", a play of international reputation.

"A Fool's paradise" another drama to be produced by the Colonials, is from the pen of the great English play wright, Sydney Grendy, and is founded on the celebrated Maybrick poisoning case.

The comedy offering of the engagement will be "The marriage of Kitty" this is a play that affords an excellent opportunity for the well-liked English Comedian Mr. Frank Oliver, to display his talents as an entertainer. The Colonials produced this comedy under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. of Charlottetown, P. E. I. recently and created quite a furor.

In point of stage settings and distribution of characters this play equals if not surpasses anything ever offered by this company, the parts being particularly well adapted to the individuality of the players.

UNCLE WALT

The Poetic Philosopher.

THE WISE OLD MAN.

The old man sits in his fig tree's shade, and fills himself with pink lemonade, and he smokes his pipe as he glances o'er the thrilling facts of the baseball score. He has no grief and he has no care, and he just leans back in his rocking chair, and views the world with a cheerful smile, for his larder's full and he has his pile.

The plan he has followed you will endorse! He used to work a bald-faced horse; he swung the axe and piled the spade, and he knuckled down at the blacksmith's trade wherever he worked in the field or in town, a part of his roubles he salted down. He saw the folly of spendthrift men, and took to the bank a large brass yen; they burned their money as though with fire; he took to the bank a big tin lire.

And now he sits in his fig-tree's shade and eats ice cream with a wooden spade, and people smile as they look at him; he's fat and sassy and full of vim. And where are the fellows who drew their wage, and blew it in, in the bygone age? Do they sit back in their rocking chairs, serene and happy and free from cares? Have they their fig-trees and stuff to eat? Oh ask the copper who walks your beat.

WALT MASON.

THE HATS.

Girls of bygone days work hats;
Think of it—the stupid flats!
Styles so simple and so crude
We have hurried to desuetude
Nowadays upon their heads
Women carry feather beds,
Footballs, flower pots, laundry bags
Bales of feathers or of rags;
Helmets, pie plates, butter tubs
Jungle growths of trees and shrubs;
Dishes, Saucepans, jardinières,
Sofa cushions, flights of stairs;
Baskets green and pink and brown,
Right side up and upside down;
Pyramid and Eiffel Towers,
Garden plots of gorgeous flowers;
Buckets, barrels, hives of bees,
Boxes meant for fruit or cheese;
Drying frames, with wire and slats
Anything, in short but—hats!

Garden Plants.

Anyone wanting garden plants can be supplied by Mr. Jas. Wallace.

Peabody's Overalls.

Mr. James Robinson is advertising Peabody's famous overalls in this issue. They will stand the test.
