TOWN TO INVEST SINKING FUND

Will Purchase Victory Bonds and Thus Gain Two and a Half Percent

At a meeting of the Town Council held Tuesday evening the matter of investing the town sinking funds in Victory Bonds was discussed and it was decided that the change would be a good one. The necessary resolution was made authorizing the purchase of the bonds.

The town also decided to purchase an office machine for the town treasurer's office.

The meeting was called to consider the building by-laws and these were all read a third time and passed.

LIVESTOCK BURNED.
Messrs. Court and John Nelson met with a heavy loss on Sunday when the contents of their barn at the rear of their residence on Albert street, was thoroughly gutted by fire. At 11:30 an alarm was rung in from box 25 and the fire brigade was promptly on the scene. The barn was well under way as the barn was well filled with hay and straw. When the first persons arrived the entire interior was a mass of flames and full of dense smoke. A driving horse and a valuable cow were suffocated. Besides the live stock and hay a driving carriage, sleigh, harness, and a considerable quantity of tools were destroyed. The loss will be over $500.

MILITARY MEDAL FOR LOCAL BOY

Lance Corporal Russell Dobson Awarded for Bravery in Discharge of Duty

Mr. George Dobson has received the good news that his son Lance-Cpl. Russell Dobson has been awarded the Military Medal for good work done on the field.

Mr. Dobson no doubt feels proud of his son as Cpl. Dobson is only nineteen and has been serving his country for eighteen months. He was buried by a shell on September 10th, 1916 and on August 16th of this year was wounded in the neck and thigh. A letter received from him three weeks ago states that he is again back in his battalion after being on leave to London.

CAMPBELLTON SOLDIER PRISONER OF WAR

Wounded and Taken Prisoner He Writes Home—Another Letter

Mrs. W. W. Clark has received a letter from her husband, who was wounded and taken prisoner at Lens on the 15th of August.

Mrs. Clark on receipt of a telegram from her son, who is also at the front in France, August 28th, to the effect that his father was a prisoner communicated with Ottawa and the Canadian Red Cross, London, which offices wired that Pte. W. W. Clarke was a prisoner at Lagenzia. Since that time the Montreal Star office, London, sent a list of repatriated men, in which occurred the name, number and address of Pte. Clarke. His many friends are hoping that this is authentic, but an answer to a request for further information has not yet been received.

Pte. Clarke enlisted two years ago, in the 132nd and went to France, after a few weeks in England. He has been in the trenches about 8 months when he was captured.

Mrs. Clark would like to acknowledge the kindness of many friends, and the courtesy of many officials, in the search for her "missing" husband. She also wishes to acknowledge the receipt of letters from Lieut.-Col. Donacher of the 87th and some of the comrades in arms, of Pte. Clarke's. The letter appearing below has been received from a comrade of Pte. Clarke's.

Franc, Oct. 1st, 1917.

Mrs. Wm. Clarke, Campbellton, N. B. Dear Madam—

I suppose you will be surprised to hear from me but I thought you were only fair to send you a few lines in regard to your husband Walter.

On the 15th of August we went over the top with the rest of the boys. Walter and I were always together, but that morning I was put into a different section. Anyway as we were fighting our way through No. 10's Land, my section got all broke up and I laid in a shell hole for a while, and I seem Walter into another shell hole, so I went up to him and he said to me, "I am glad you got here safe, now we will stick together and if anything happens we will be able to help one another."

The enemy was shelling pretty heavy, and we came to conclusion to fight our way along the best we could. So we were just crawling along and shooting a few Fritzies once in a while. Their machine guns forced us to lay down, and hide the best we could, we stayed there about fifteen minutes and we made another move. Then a big shell exploded near us. I was knocked down, in the barb wire and bleeding quite a bit, it took me about twenty seconds to straighten up again, and I began to wander around to see where Walter was, but I am sorry to say I could not see any sign of him at all. I do not know if he got blown to pieces or not, or else went farther ahead. I then was forced to retire and got my wound dressed. No body knows anything about him.

As he was a good friend of mine, and what we called a brave soldier (he was certainly one of them), if he has lost his life that morning, you can be proud of your husband, for he was certainly determined to fight his way through. When I came back from the Hospital I could not find his kit anywhere, he had a lot of little souvenirs with him which he carried in his haversack, I don't think he had any other personal belongings left behind.

Now Mrs. Clark if there is any thing else you would like to know, I will be glad to give you all the information I can, this will be all for this time.

I remain yours,

ONLY ABOUT TWO HUNDRED ENROLLED

Young Men Delaying in Registering at Post Office—Only Two More Days

Up to noon of to-day there had been only two hundred registrations under the Military Service Act. Of this number seventy-five percent are asking for exemption.

So far most of the lumbermen in the lumber camps have refused to register, sign any papers or submit to medical examination. As there are hundreds of men of military age in the woods, this is a very serious matter. After the 10th they will be classed as deserters and if they are to be brought out it will mean strong patrols to do so. Interesting times are ahead.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL

J. W. Fortin, who was recently sent up for trial on a charge of having induced a young girl 14 years of age to leave home on a promise of marriage put one over on the local jailer. While the jailer was making an examination of the prisoners cell the prisoner locked the jailer up and then calmly walked away.

IMPORTANT JUDGMENT IN LAND CASE

Judge Superior Court Gives Judgment in Division of Property

Judgment was handed down a few days ago by the Superior Court at New Carlisle in the case of Daniel Fairservice against Silas Fairservice, both of New Richmond.

Many years ago, Andrew Fairservice, father of Silas and Dan, died without making a will. He left several heirs. Silas purchased the shares of six of the other heirs, which made him with his own share, the owner of seven shares in the estate. After he has purchased these shares, he wrote to his brother, Dan, in the United States, that if he would come home and buy the rest of the shares, that he, Silas, would divide up the property with Dan.

He asked Dan to come home immediately. Dan did not come for two years. When he returned, he purchased the shares of the three other heirs which, with his own made him the owner of four shares, whereas Silas had seven.

A line was run at the time which was about sixteen years ago, dividing the property in two equal parts, and each occupied a half of the property since then. They each paid one half of the debts.

Dan, some two years ago, asked Silas to give him a title for half of the property. Silas refused stating that he had seven shares, and that he was prepared to divide the property into two parts in proportion to the number of shares that he held, but refused to give him a title for half of the property.

Hence the lawsuit. Dan, retained the services of the Hon. John Hall Kelly, K. C., of New Carlisle, and an action was entered against Silas asking him to give Dan, a title for half of the property. Silas was represented by the firm of Messrs. Bugeaud & Co., of New Carlisle, and they pleaded that they were willing to divide the property not half and half but in proportion of seven shares to four.

By the judgment that has been rendered by the Superior Court at New Carlisle, the Court decided that Dan, was entitled to one half of the property and ordered Silas to sign a title in favor of Dan, making over half of the property to him, and also ordered Silas to pay all costs of the case.

RESTIGOUCHE IS WELL ORGANIZED

Business Men From all Districts Take Deep Interest in Work

The Victory Loan committee of Restigouche county met in the committee rooms here Friday afternoon last and things went through with a swing.

Representatives were present from every parish except Grimmer, and much organization work was accomplished.

The advertising literature has been received and some of it sent out to every section of the county.

The sale of bonds begins next Monday. In order that every man or woman may learn full details of the loan canvassers have been appointed to call upon every person it is thought might buy one or more bonds.

These canvassers are as follows:—Campbellton—Two teams will work this town under the direction of two captains. These teams are as follows: A. R. Andrew, Arch. Ferguson, John Macdonald, P. M. Shannon, W. H. Miller, Theo. McDevitt, W. F. Napier, D. E. Richard, Dalhousie—A. J. LeBlanc, Jas. E. Stewart, Dalhousie Parish—D. A. Stewart, S. S. Harrison, Belmor—Geo. If you cannot go to the front, make your money fight, and incidentally put your money into one of the very best investments proposed in our history.

POOR COP

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK

How Mrs. Kelly Suffered and How She was Cured.

Burlington, Wis.—"I was very irregular, and had pains in my side and back, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and using two bottles of the Sanative Wash I am fully convinced that I am entirely cured of these troubles, and feel better all over. I know your remedies have done me worlds of good and I hope every suffering woman will give them a trial!"—Mrs. ANNA KELLY, 710 Chestnut Street, Burlington, Wis.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough to women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need.

This good old root and herb remedy has proved unequalled for these dreadful ills; it contains what is needed to restore woman's health and strength.

If there is any peculiarity in your case requiring special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for free advice.

DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Jas. Bremner, Jr., with Norbert Legere as his assistant, has been appointed District Representative for the counties of Northumberland, Gloucester, and Restigouche. Mr. Bremner has had a course at the Truro Agricultural College and since he has been actively connected with agricultural work. His early experience was on the farm.

Mr. Legere was recently managing his father's farm at Carquet. He has just completed a three year course at St. Anne de la Rocquette Agricultural College.

Mr. A. G. Taylor has taken charge of the counties of Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska. His office will be in the Agricultural School, at Woodstock. Mr. Taylor has the necessary practical training, the course in agriculture at Truro besides the benefit of special training in potato work. An assistant will be secured as soon as possible.

A revolution in method or any great forward movement in agriculture is not anticipated as the result of the appointment of District Representatives, but we do expect to see as elsewhere that slow, steady, normal agricultural growth in proper lines which is indicative of supervision and assistance, which men with early farm experience and a college training can render and which spells success financially and socially in the rural districts. These men are going to the farmers to assist in every possible manner, and not at all in a dictatorial fashion but through proper methods of co-operation.

Easily Arranged.
"But why are you so agitated and distressed? Surely you have been kissed before?"
"Yes," replied the beautiful girl, with tears in her eyes, "but it was done by some member of my family."
"Oh, well I'm quite willing to become a member of your family."

INTERESTING LETTER FROM MATAPEDIA BOY

Tells of Experiences on Western Front—Some Tight Places.

Aldershot, Eng. Sept. 25th, 1917.

My Dear Sister— I received your long and most highly appreciated letter last night and as ever was over-joyed to hear from you.

I am more than writing letters to-day. I have written one to Mother, Aunt Mary and Donald, and this one to you, so you, see how I spend all my spare time.

I am just about tired of this place, as Aldershot is the home of the British Army in peace time, therefore you can imagine what it is like now. Everywhere is moving with khaki clad men.

You wanted to hear about some of my experiences on the western front. Well, if I was to go into every detail I could write quite a history; but I'll give you a light sketch of where I've been anyway.

I wrote you a story a year in June past, when I was in London on leave. We were fighting over those craters at St. Eloi about that time.

The Northumberland Fusiliers mined in five places, and the craters that those mines made in earth are too big to describe. Then, they went over and captured the German front line, and those five craters in the bargain.

The next day the Second Canadian Division went in and relieved the Northumberlanders; then the real fighting began in earnest.

The Germans would take those craters one night, and we would take them back the next night. Well, it went on that way for about two months. It was something awful the men that was lost there on both sides; out of twenty-nine of us, I saw myself and one other fellow get out of one of those craters alive one night.

It was something awful between the Germans killing our comrades, and the Belgians artillery shooting us in the backs. It was certainly some warm spot. Then they say help the poor Belgians, I say to H— with them. Finally after a long time both sides abandoned these holes in the ground, and things calmed down to the usual trench warfare again.

I went on leave then, and the morning I was to go back to France again the English papers were full of war news. The Germans had broken through the Canadian lines at Ypres and had captured the town. Our Third Canadian Division was holding the line there then and they sure got a bad doing up; but, the Huns didn't get the town.

The naval battle of Jutland also had come off the night before. The reports in the newspapers were that the British Fleet were all sunk.

The papers news was certainly encouraging for a fellow to get back into the fray with on his mind.

Well, I just got back to the front again, when the Second Division was pulled out of St. Eloi, and the First out of Armentiers. We had to go up and take the trenches, and lost ground back again. We took back every inch of it; but, we fought for it! We held the line for five days and nights; that was the worse shelling that I ever got in this war.

This Ypres Salient as it was then called was so far advanced, that the Germans could pour in shells from both sides of us; as well as in front, and almost shoot us in the back; believe me they slung everything they had at us in the shape of lead and iron. We stuck to it like little men, and when they would come over to beat us out the ones of us that wasn't knocked out was always ready for them.

I saw more Huns fall in about ten minutes one day there, then I ever saw in such a short time since. After things got quiet there, they pulled us out of the trenches and started us for the Somme.

The first day on the march, after three hours from the start we crossed the border of Belgium into France. We were never so happy in our lives; as we were to get out of Belgium, and it only took us eight days to get down to the roaring battlefields of the Somme, the first offensive on the western front.

We stopped at the village of Albert on the river Aisne for two days and nights.

The British and French guns were booming away everywhere; now and again the Germans would drop a shell in this village, and knock down a couple of houses. In this village you could look down the valley, and cast your eyes on a million and a half of troops.

That was the most men I ever laid eyes on at once, the whole valley was a moving plain of khaki. I tell you they certainly needed them for the slaughter of men there was something awful.

The 4th and 6th Brigades had to attack the next morning and we the 5th had to go up and stand in support, in case they needed help; but they didn't need any and they did so well that word came through from the army care H. 2. for the 5th Can. Brigade to attack that night. Well, up we went and over the bags. We had to go about a mile and a quarter, and through three of Fritz's Barrages. His long ranged guns were playing in one line, his garrison artillery in another, and his field guns in another.

Then we met his deadly machine guns, when we were going through his artillery fire. A big shell landed about eight feet in front of me, and when I was right on top of it, up it went and I went with it about forty feet in the air. I thought I must be killed; but when I saw that I wasn't I thought I was wounded anyway; but I gave myself a shake, and after a little of the daze worked off, I saw that I wasn't hit at all. I looked ahead and my comrades were still going on; so I ran and caught up to them.

I lost my rifle when I went up in the air; but, as soon as the next man fell, I had another one.

Even then with all the horrors that was going on around me; after I came to my senses a little I couldn't help laugh to think what a narrow shave I had.

We made out good too, we took everything that we went after and had the pleasure of killing all kinds of Germans. We took something like six hundred and eighty prisoners, and our battalion was only six hundred and thirty strong.

When we went in we took more prisoners than we had men; but, out of the battalion the last morning we came out, we had only one hundred and fifty men left.

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

FRUIT-A-LIVES Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE, 85 St. Rose St., Montreal, April 4th. "For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease.

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-lives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no headaches, no palpitation, no heart trouble, no constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-lives" that gave me back my health."

MADAM ARTHUR LAPLANTE, 806, a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

rested for six days about twenty miles behind the lines, and after that marched for five days up in the Vimy area.

We put in a pretty fair winter on the out-skirts of Lens, or in the suburbs rather. The Germans held the main town and do yet. In those mining villages behind the lines—wasn't too bad under the circumstances. The French people were awfully nice, and I soon learned to love them.

Finally the morning came, the 9th for the attack on Vimy Ridge. Ah was prepared, and five minutes before the show you wouldn't think there was any war at all. Every thing was silent. Just at the minute, 20 minutes past 5 o'clock a. m., the whole area began to rock with artillery fire, then the tanks came up and got into the rough too.

There was constant fighting for several hours, when over we went. The result was that Vimy Ridge had fallen in honour of the Canadian troops.

Well, sister dear I don't know how this will suit you, but this is what you asked me for and I ran over it as light as I could.

Hoping to hear from you soon again.

I am as ever,
Your loving brother,
THOMAS McCULLUM

A MERE DROP IN THE BUCKET

Economists profess to be staggered because Canada is adding $150,000,000 more to its debt through the Victory Loan. They forget that Canada has added an amount to its national wealth this season that makes $150,000,000 look very small. The rise in the prices of wheat, oats, barley and other grain has alone involved more than $400,000,000 and the amount of money Canada has received in payment for exports of munitions and products of the farms apart from grains reaches a staggering total.

James Carruthers made the statement to the Victory Loan committee that the value of grain crops this year in the three northwest provinces would reach the huge total of $750,000,000, while Ontario alone raised $150,000,000 worth of wheat, oats and barley, or an amount equal to the present Victory Loan. One billion dollars would hardly cover the value of crops of all kinds in the whole of Canada.

Charles M. Schwab, in a Loretta address declared yesterday.

"Gibson has ruined more business than even handicaps will ever do," he said. "Memories is getting everything. Whenever I see anything in the paper I think of the old man who stopped smoking."

"Why did you give up your pipe?" his partner asked him. "It was your own comfort, apparently."
"The old man died and I improved," he said. "No, it wasn't my comfort after all. You see, if you smoke your own tobacco you like the very old Harry, and if you smoke your friend's you have to see it down so deep that you'll also see 'em'—Belmont's America."

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT FOOD CONTROLLERS' OFFICE.

Canadians who are willing to follow the advice of the Food Controller in order to help to save urgently needed wheat flour, beef and bacon for the soldiers, will find a considerable number of wholesome substitutes.

To save wheat flour, barley may be used for soup and barley flour for thickening; corn meal for bread and cereal; oatmeal for cereal and oat muffins. Potatoes may be used in a variety of appetizing dishes, and when they are served bread may sometimes be omitted from the meal. At present the price of corn meal is high, but the new crop in the United States is very large and will be coming on the market soon. The question of price has to be carefully considered by the great majority of people, but those who are urged to save wheat flour, beef and bacon is not economy in cost, but that the soldiers may be supplied with the food which they need.

No Customs
Jean's maiden aunt is a dressmaker, and she is forever exhorting the little girls, who loathe the sight of a thimble, to learn to sew.

"Aunt Bess" was remarked recently, "should every girl learn to sew and make her own clothes?"
"Yes indeed," replied Auntie warmly. "Why do you ask?"
"Well, then, how would you make a living?"
Auntie subdued.

The Institute was formally opened on Thursday morning with an address by the President, Mr. Jas. Carr of the Campbellton Grammar School. He was followed by Inspector McFarlane, who conveyed to the Institute the regards of Chief Superintendent Carter that he was unable to be present, and spoke of the tendency in modern education toward technical and vocational training, the need of teaching increased production, and the necessity for teachers to be ever learning, improving their minds, thereby making themselves more efficient in their work.

This was the first address the Restigouche Institute has been privileged to hear from Inspector McFarlane.

After this, Miss M. L. Wright read an interesting paper on "The Child"—which was discussed by Inspector McFarlane and Mr. R. G. Mowatt. A paper on "The Teaching of History"—read by Mr. F. J. Daley was well received and discussed at length.

The enrollment fee was fixed at fifty cents.

IT GROWS NEW SKIN!

When Zam-Buk is applied to a skin disease it kills the bacteria, and irritation and draws out the inflammation. At the same time it destroys all germs and thoroughly cleanses the diseased part. Thus the harmful extracts set in such a way upon the tissues that they actually grow new skin, which replaces the worn-out tissue and a complete cure is the result.

Mrs. Minnie Carmichael of 77 1/2 Ave. Malcomville, Montreal, writes: "I had suffered with eczema for so long and tried so many treatments that I had begun to think that my case was incurable. I even took treatment in a hospital, but got no benefit from anything. I used Zam-Buk, and in a few days the itching and burning subsided. The inflammation, and in a couple of days the skin was completely healed. The disease, so that there has not been the slightest trace of eczema since."

For ulcers, abscesses, chronic sores, ringworm, scalp sores, salt-rheum, boils, pimples, blood-poison, itching, running sores, bad legs, piles, chapped hands, sore lips, chilblains, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin troubles Zam-Buk is always reliable. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send in stamp (for postage) and free trial box will be sent you.

Addressing Committee: Mr. F. J. Daley, Convener. Miss Annie Hamilton.

Resolution Committee: Mr. R. G. Mowatt, Convener. Miss A. L. McInerney. Miss Kathleen Kirk. Miss Annie Jackson. Miss Mary Gillen.

At the Thursday afternoon session which was held in St. Mary's Hall, Mr. William McIntosh of St. John gave an illustrated lecture on "The Story of Trees," showing about forty-five slides. This was very enjoyable and instructive.

After the meeting was over, the members enjoyed an auto ride to Bel River Bar and Charlo, through the kindness of citizens of Dalhousie.

On Thursday evening a public meeting was held in St. Mary's Hall. Inspector McFarlane presided. Others occupying the platform with him were: His Worship, Mayor Montgomery, Hon. C. H. LaBelle, Rev. J. H. McLean, Father Boucher, Mr. Carr and Mr. Mowatt. The programme was as follows: Address, Inspector McFarlane, Violin Solo, Miss Sheehan, Address, Mayor Montgomery, Solo, Miss Haddow, Address, Father Boucher, Violin Solo, Miss Mattie Cook, Address, Rev. J. H. McLean, Violin Solo, Miss Sherar, Address, Hon. C. H. LaBelle. God Save the King.

The meeting was an interesting one. There was a good attendance of those interested in educational matters. A plea was made for more attractive school surroundings, and for the use of the school-building in the evenings.

Parent teacher associations might be formed to work for the good of the child and the betterment of the community. The need of increased salaries for teachers was strongly emphasized by Mayor Montgomery and Hon. C. H. LaBelle.

The first part of Friday morning's session was taken up with reports from committees. The following Officers were elected: President, Mr. R. G. Mowatt, Vice-Pres., Miss Emma Harquail, Sec'y-Treasurer, Miss Jessie Currie. Additional members of executive Miss Merle Trites, and Miss K. Kirk.

Two resolutions were adopted, concerning the asking of an increased Provincial allowance, and the appointment of a committee to look after the petition.

An excellent paper on "English Composition" was then read by Miss Kathleen Kirk, B. A. Discussion followed this, led by Inspector McFarlane. Next in order came an instructive lesson "Declinal," taught by Miss A. L. Misa. A lesson, "Writing," by Miss Annie Hamilton followed. This was well developed and helpful. Mr. Scott of the Dalhousie School Board then addressed the Teachers. After this the two lessons taught formed the subjects of an interesting discussion. This being finished, Miss Anna Potrier read a paper on "French Composition," which was well received.

At the last session, on Friday afternoon, the following committee was appointed to draw a petition, asking the Provincial Government for increased Provincial allowance, and get affixed to this petition, the signature of every teacher in Restigouche: Mr. R. G. Mowatt, Convener, Miss Hazel Lingley.

FRIENDS OF FRANCE

There are, in the small towns and villages of France, many hospitals which find themselves, after three years of war, in most destitute circumstances.

In Poitiers, a town of 15,000 inhabitants, there are fifteen hospitals, all trying to support themselves on the pitifully inadequate sum of thirty-five cents a day per soldier which the French Government allows them. Their hospital supplies are exhausted, wounds are dressed with paper; food is scarce; coal last winter was from fifty to seventy-five dollars a ton.

One hospital in Berck-Plage, last winter, had not even a cup of hot broth for the wounded when they were brought in. "My heart will break, I shall die of grief because I must deny these dear wounded the cup of hot soup they need so much," writes one brave old nurse.

The men have no shirts, no socks. There are no warm things for the convalescents, they must go about in their hospital pyjamas for lack of other clothing. Men leaving the hospital go often dressed in nothing but coat and trousers. "Three men left us to-day dressed only in overcoats and trousers, and without a cent in their pockets; if only we had warm shirts, sweaters and socks for them, but there is nothing."

Besides the wounded, there are thousands of destitute refugees begging for food and clothing. Babies are wrapped in newspapers or in rags torn from their mother's clothes. "It is impossible for you to form any idea of the utter destitution of these unfortunate repatriates. They are in a lamentable state after so long a captivity, in which the suffering, both physical and mental, has been most hideous."

"Could you send us a little food for our dear wounded?" pleads one nurse.

"Send us anything, for we have nothing," writes another.

The "Friends of France" would be very glad to receive contributions in aid of these small hospitals, such as warm clothing, hospital supplies, chocolate, ozo, or money. Contributions may be sent to the President, Mrs. Arthur E. Wells, 216 Poplar Plains Road, Toronto—Presbyterian Westminster.

On his eighty-fourth birthday Paul Smith, a veteran Alderbrook hotel-keeper, who started life as a guide and died recently owning a million dollars' worth of forest land, was talking about boundary disputes with an old friend. "Didn't you hear the lawsuit over a title, that I had with Jones down in Malone last summer?" asked Paul, with a twinkle in his eyes. The friend had not heard. "Well," said Paul, "it was this way. I sat in the court room before the case opened, with my witnesses around me. Jones hustled in, stopped looked my witnesses over carefully, and said: 'Paul, are those your witnesses?'"

"They are," said I.

"Then you win," said he. I've had them witnesses twice myself."

Miss Kathleen Kirk. Mr. R. G. Mowatt read a splendid paper on "Discipline," and the subject was discussed. An address, much appreciated by all present was given by Rev. Mr. Coleman, of Dalhousie. A paper on "Patriotism," read by Miss Eliza Miller, followed. This contained many practical and useful suggestions.

It was moved that a vote of thanks be extended to the teachers of Dalhousie, for, excellent arrangements provided for the visiting teachers, and to the citizens of Dalhousie for their hospitality. This was seconded and carried, as was also a motion that the Secretary receive a remuneration of five dollars. The deciding of the next place of meeting was left in the hands of the executives.

With the singing of the National Anthem the nineteenth session was brought to a close.

JESSIE W. CURRIE, Secretary.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This surgical habit causes lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freese applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. The drug does more than a quarter of an ounce of freese, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

THE VICTORY BONDS' VALUE

When the third domestic war loan was launched in March, conditions in the financial markets here and abroad were favorable to a large transaction of that kind.

In the first place this intrinsic worth is founded on surplus or safety as an investment. Backed by the whole taxing power of the Dominion, which can be applied if necessary to the cash, lands, dwellings, factories, mines and other property of all the people, as well as to their earnings or profits, one cannot conceive of these bonds losing their value unless most of the citizens, the firms and corporations "go broke."

The intrinsic merit of the bonds depends again on Canada's ability to produce commodities valuable enough to pay her obligations. With this issue of $150,000,000, the total of domestic war issues rises to $500,000,000.

The Crushed-Coffee Smile

Is naturally a broad and radiant one, because he who wears it has discovered a fine, rich coffee which has none of that bitter "after taste" so common to ground coffees. That is because the bitter chaff and dust have all been removed from Red Rose Coffee, which is crushed—not ground. It is hard to believe that there could be so much difference in coffees until you taste Red Rose Coffee.

The same price as it was three years ago.

NEW CARLEBLE.
The whole community has been saddened by the sudden death of one of our most respected citizens, Mr. John Chisholm which took place on the evening of the 2nd.
He was widely and generally known as a very kind, charitable man, always ready to help someone and thought of others more than himself.
For the past ten years he conveyed the mail from the station to the Post Office and in all that time he never known to miss a trip, outside of sickness, but the evening he died it was quite noticeable he did not turn up.
Mr. George Caldwell a friend of the deceased thought he had better investigate and on entering his home about eight o'clock found Mr. Chisholm had died very suddenly of heart failure about two hours previous. Miss Chisholm happened to be out that evening for tea. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Chisholm. He also leaves to mourn his loss one sister, Mrs. J. O. Shinar to whom he was much devoted, two brothers, James in Michigan and William in Montana and a host of friends who will not soon forget his kind and cheerful face.
The funeral took place from his home on Wednesday the 24th at four p.m. at the Presbyterian Church and cemetery, Rev. E. J. Rattee of New Richmond conducting the service, giving a very touching and inspiring address suitable to the occasion and making special mention of the deceased. Deceased was in his 59th year.

BEAUTIFY THE SKIN
Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands.
At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whiter and beautifier.
Use it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF
Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Dandurine.
If you care for heavy hair that glazes with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustreous, try Dandurine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots loosen and die; the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dandurine from any drug store and just try it.
After President Polonsky had reviewed the United States forces American officers formed a circle about him. He addressed them briefly, speaking in French.
"What did he say?" was the question asked of one non-commissioned officer who stood near the party during the speech, when he rejoined his command.
"I don't know, exactly," was the reply. "But I think he said to give 'em hell."
"That's the stuff!" yelled a number of privates in chorus and the word ran all up and down the long khaki lines amid another outbreak of cheering.

Where He Got His Nerve.
It was necessary one man to stand up and draw the enemy's fire. A soldier volunteered and fortunately not one of the bullets struck him. When the charge was over the Captain said to the brave fellow, "where did you get your wonderful nerve to stand out there and make yourself a target for the bullets of the enemy?"
The other smiled.
"For five years," he answered, "I was a guide in the Maine woods."

Voluntary System Gave Place to

Conscription Under Lincoln.
It is a matter of record in United States history that President Lincoln, after attempting to prosecute the Civil War with volunteer troops, at last, in 1863, turned to conscription in order to secure the necessary forces. Since Lincoln is regarded as one of the greatest statesmen this continent has produced, it is instructive at the present stage of Canadian history, to see how he dealt with the problems that arose.

The President was warned that grave disorders might follow the enforcement of the conscription law, which it was argued, was in opposition to the constitutional privileges and liberties of the citizen.
Lincoln took the ground that democracy means an equal share in the burdens, as well as in the blessings of a republic, and decided on the firm enforcement of the law. All opposition was firmly repressed.

On entering the present war, the United States profited by past experience and promptly adopted compulsory service.
Now that Canada has adopted a similar course she is in a better position to do her full share and though opposition is unlooked for, repressive measures are provided in the Act A-21.

On Friday afternoon and evening reports on Equal Franchise, Frances Willard Home, Anti-Narcotics and many others, were continued.
Address by Mrs. Livingston, and the Convention closed with "God be with You till We meet Again" and the Benediction.
Hinner on the drill ground.—Sergeant small and fierce—"Did yer 'ead up, Private Red. There ain't no three penny bit's bring about."
Full young recruits from northern parts—"Must I always look up, sergeant."
Sergeant, very loud, very fierce—"Yes, always."
Private Red, pathetically and in almost a whisper, eyes to heaven—"Then good-bye sergeant, I shall never see thee no more."

Her Bible readings and addresses were most impressive, inspiring, and instructive.
She spoke on Women, Woman's Suffrage, equal franchise, Prohibition, and Total Abstinence.
Wednesday Afternoon—Recreation.
On this afternoon we did not have any season and we could do as we choose.
A number of the ladies visited the Calvin State Convention which was being held on the same date as our own Provincial.
On the evening after devotional exercises, we had an excellent quartette by four young men, entitled "Remember Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth," this was heartily accorded, and on returning sang "Overcoming the Sun."
Mayor Grimmer then extended a most cordial welcome to the visiting ladies and after greetings from several of the gentlemen, Mrs. T. A. Clarke, in a very pleasing manner, replied to them and thanked the gentlemen for their kind words of appreciation.
A very interesting and lengthy part of the programme was the "Medal Contest." The contestants being six young ladies of about sixteen years of age; the recitations were all of different manner, and it was rather difficult to know just which was the best, as all were good. Judges were appointed and during the time spent on waiting for decision, the lady who was conducting it insisted that every Society of the W. C. T. U. should have a "Medal Contest" and get the young interested.

Thursday Morning.
After the devotional exercises and the reading of the reports, Mrs. D. K. Livingston, gave an interesting Bible reading; the 18th Chapter of Paul to Romans at Corinth.
In which chapter, Paul enumerates many women from Greek homes.
In the afternoon a paper was read by Mrs. McWha. In which she mentioned a number of great facts, as well as an number of the great women of Canada. Gross failures of the men, women and children of Canada could, in most cases, be traced back to alcohol. This afternoon the Vice President, Mrs. Furry, reported on "Mother's Meetings and Traffic in Women."
Next to Mother, comes Home, and our National Constitution of men, women and children, prohibition should be the law in every land.
Mrs. Abbott, speaker on the food question for Malaga, spoke strongly on the conservation of food.
In the evening after hymn, scripture and prayer, and a solo by Miss Hye, Mrs. Livingston again addressed the meeting.
Her subject being "Women's Suffrage or Equal Franchise."
In speaking of the W. C. T. U. she said "that this Society was built on the structure of Purity, Peace, Total Abstinence, Prohibition, and Equal Suffrage."
Friday Morning.
A great appeal was made this morning to the women of N. B. and P. E. I. for the upkeep of the Maritime Home.
At Truro for young girls. They have about 23 girls at the age of fourteen and a half years. This institute is a great home training school. Our great aim is to make them independent.
This Home is also a great benefit to the unfortunate class of girls; they learn to do kitchen work, dining room work, plain sewing and many other things. If $25.00 was sent from any Society it would furnish a room with the privilege of giving it a name.
After a number of reports from the different departments we had the election of officers, Mrs. D. K. Livingston in the chair.
President, Mrs. Hetherington.
Vice President, Mrs. Perry.
Cor. Secretary, Miss Moore.
Rec. Secretary, Mrs. T. A. Clarke.
Treasurer, Mrs. Lawson.

POOR COPY

DEAR

For Children
Coughs & Colds

Do not allow yourself to just drift along through life. Set before you an aim, some real purpose. Cultivate hope and ambition to accomplish something. Do not be contented to let things happen; make things happen. Whatever your business or occupation aim to excel in it. Financial gain is not all one gets from labor well performed. Your character is elevated and your mind is enlarged, and the satisfaction in having done well is the most real joy. Don't be afraid to set your aim high. Give it with your might. Let the hope of the attainment serve your every act. Turn accidents and circumstances around the attainment of your aim. If you have no aim you reach nowhere. A life without a purpose is a dreary thing, without real joy. Suppose you fail to reach the heights you have set as your standard; you will have gone higher than if you had not striven. You will be more useful of more worth than if you had not tried.

Salted Herrings.

Centuries ago, Brixen, a Hollander of Brixen, made the then astonishing discovery that salt would preserve fish and that salted fish could be kept and exported. Before his time herrings had to be consumed within a few days of their capture. Brixen salted them. In 1399 William Brixen salted the first hundred of herrings, and, having salted them, he packed them in barrels. This exercise of common sense resulted in a singular development of the resources of the country. The Brixen fisheries were so prominent 500 years ago as they are now, and Holland had for a time almost a monopoly of a market which she was able to create and to supply. Brixen had not to wait 800 years to have his claim to public gratitude recognized. Charles V. had a statue erected to the mackerel salter who became the benefactor of his country. Queen Mary of Hungary, however, paid him even greater honor. During her residence in Holland she discovered his tomb and, seated upon it, ate a salted herring.

Smelting in Bulacan.

A primitive iron smelting industry, evidently of Chinese origin, exists in Bulacan, a province of the island of Luzon. Magnesian and hematite ores, found in the locality, are smelted by the natives in smelting furnaces of blast furnace of soft clay bricks set in clay, each furnace being seven and one-half feet high and five feet in external diameter, with a conical inner cavity, tapering from forty to twenty inches. The furnace has a single clay tuyere and a Chinese double acting hand blower made from a hollow tree trunk fitted with a feather packed wooden piston. An average charge is fifty-five pounds of ore and ninety-five of charcoal, no flux being used. The iron made is cast directly into molds for plowshares and plow points, and the product of a furnace is about 600 pounds of castings daily.

The Chief's Error.

Goron was chief of the Paris police when the following incident took place: Lombroso had written a book in 1888 on criminality among women. He wrote the story, and when it was finished wrote to Goron to send him "forthwith" some portraits of Parisian women criminals. anxious to please the writer, the package was made up and started on its way to Italy. When the book came out Lombroso sent a copy, handsomely bound, to Goron, who saw the girl's picture on the first page. "It was a scholarly book," said the chief, "and would have had a large sale but for an error on my part. The picture came out of the wrong drawer of my desk. They were not criminals at all, but women who had applied for hucksters' licenses, and a picture had to be printed to make good a police mistake."

The Hat as a Symbol.

In Mexico, the hat is the symbol of a man's standing in the community. The grades of old Spain, enjoyed the privilege of standing covered in the royal presence. The result was that these viceroyalties, in the state and splendor of their hats; and the common people followed this example. In the end, the hat became a distinction on the heads of the men as the mantilla on those of the women.

The Cautious Elephant.

Ancient chronicles tell us that the Romans sometimes tested their military valour by sending an elephant out on them and then watching to see whether the cautious beast would cross. The author of "From Jungle to Zoo" in explaining the difficulties of transporting wild animals by rail, gives a more modern example of the elephant's cautiousness.

"The keepers generally place a heavy platform from the door of the train to the ground, by a few elephants will venture on it. In one case the men sent in a trained elephant first in the hope that the newly-captured animal would follow. The new elephant stopped dead, however, threw up his trunk, and made it evident that he would go no farther."

"They offered him all kinds of food and address books, but he refused; and then the trained elephant came out and then again with a trunk, but the hope that the other would follow in the excitement of the moment. But it all had no effect whatever; there the balky one stood, refusing to budge. At last the train left to right and from right to left with his little crafty ears."

"After two hours of hard work, when the men were exhausted and streaming with perspiration, the elephant suddenly turned and set the inclined platform, and threw it away. Then, lifting up first one huge foot and then another, he swung his trunk into the truck and settled down at once to a good meal."

The Zuyder Zee.

A bill providing for the drainage of the Zuyder Zee was recently introduced into the Second Chamber of the Netherlands Parliament. The bill provides for a dam across the upper part of the Zuyder Zee extending from the province of North Holland to the island of Wieringen and thence to Plaam on the Friesland coast. The total distance is twenty-four miles, but the dam, including the island, will be sixteen miles long. It is estimated that it will require three years and about eight million eight hundred and forty thousand pounds to execute the project.

In the Arctic Circle.

A new Arctic meteorological station, equipped with wireless telegraphy, has been established at the mouth of the Yenisei, and will send daily reports to the official observatory at Petrograd.

A Hat.

A Scotch ladle was showing a woman tourist an old abbey. On leaving him with her thanks.

Whereupon the canny Scot remarked:

"Well, my lady, when ye gang hame if ye see that ye have lost your purse, ye mair recollect that ye have not had it too long."

A "Sidereal Day."

In answering a correspondent who asked the meaning of the term "sidereal time" the Irish Times explains that this is the only truly scientific manner of recording time and is that which astronomers and navigators use. A "sidereal day" is the precise time taken by the earth in revolving on its axis and is twenty-three hours, fifty-six minutes and four seconds. Our sundials, however, record a very different day.

If you set up a sundial in a garden and observe when it is noon today and again tomorrow you will find that it exceeds the "sidereal day" by three minutes and fifty-six seconds. The difference is due to the distance that the earth has traveled on its orbit while it has been revolving on its axis. The orbit motion makes it necessary for the earth to turn nearly four minutes longer in order to bring any place to the same position with regard to the sun that it had on the previous day.

The Novice's Mistake.

In "Pleasant and the Flying Service" C. G. Grey tells about a strange entry in the official report of an officer who had recently joined the service and was sent to sea a seaman through his test for the English navy. He had to go up as a passenger with the constructor's pilot and to keep a log of what occurred during the test.

This is what he put down: "9:05 a. m. left slip; 9:10 a. m. altimeter shows 300 feet above sea; 9:12 a. m. curious phenomenon. Met a seagull flying backward."

"That meant that the machine, flying at the rate of about eighty miles an hour, overtook in a seagull which is a fast flyer—going at about forty miles an hour, and that up in the air, with out any background to give a proper sense of direction, the bird looked as if it were flying toward them tall first. Probably the officer knows better now."

Teach Children Thrift.

We Americans are notoriously the most thrifty of peoples. You have heard how much we throw away. We are too prone to think of thrift as stinginess. We have a seaman through his test for the English navy. He had to go up as a passenger with the constructor's pilot and to keep a log of what occurred during the test.

This is what he put down: "9:05 a. m. left slip; 9:10 a. m. altimeter shows 300 feet above sea; 9:12 a. m. curious phenomenon. Met a seagull flying backward."

"That meant that the machine, flying at the rate of about eighty miles an hour, overtook in a seagull which is a fast flyer—going at about forty miles an hour, and that up in the air, with out any background to give a proper sense of direction, the bird looked as if it were flying toward them tall first. Probably the officer knows better now."

The City of the Doves.

When mighty Amru went to conquer Egypt he camped on the east bank of the Nile opposite Memphis, that great twenty mile long capital of mud bricks whose western verge was the pyramid and whose mud brick houses have all vanished. Amru crushed the Egyptians and came back to get his camp to move over and occupy Memphis. A dove had built its nest in the folds near the top of his tent. Blood bathed Amru, the ruthless, would not let his tent be disturbed. A new city started about his tent. It grew northward toward the Nile. It is today Cairo, Memphis is only a name.

Can You?

Here are a few things that you can not do:

You cannot jet down the square roof of two.

You cannot sneeze or yawn with your head under water.

You cannot state the number of buttons on your clothes.

You cannot draw an envelope by only looking at the paper in a mirror.

You cannot put your left foot and shoulder against a wall and then raise the other foot.

And yet you think you are clever—London answers.

What Was Different?

Mrs. Tittle—What a beautiful world it must have been when there were only Adam and Eve in it! There was nobody to do any nasty things about them.

Mr. Tittle—But, then, they had no body to talk about. Mrs. Tittle—Well, I guess, after all, the world has improved since their time.

Ahead of the Times.

"The trouble with my boy Josh is that he's always ahead of the times," remarked Farmer Cottosel.

"What has he done?"

"Went to town to see about a position. He found a strike in progress and joined the strike before he got the job."

Our Vanishing Forests.

The ax and the saw are busily busy, chips are flying thick as snowflakes, and every season thousands of acres of priceless forests, with their underbrush, soils, springs, climate, scenery and religion, are vanishing away in clouds of smoke.—John Muir.

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If clear, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When pouring, eyes, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach empty, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of its little bowels without crying; and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has the directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

IMPORTING SEEDS AND FERTILIZER

New Brunswick Department of Agriculture Laying Plans for Next Season's Harvest

The situation in Europe is serious. The boys in the trenches are however, demonstrating that the war can be won if the necessary supplies and reinforcements are forthcoming. Men are necessary but almost equally important is a steady reliable supply of proper foodstuffs. Europe is looking more and more to America for this supply because of the distance being so much less than from other parts. The demand will be increasing the effort required to meet this demand will be great but not so great as that being put forth by the men in France. The agricultural sections of America will be attracted to their utmost to assist the demand. By a united and intelligently directed effort only can the requirements be met. Many sections can produce large quantities of crops where as climate conditions decide for several with one European limited possibilities, but able to produce many crops abundantly we can assist by producing to the limit all the potatoes, grain, butter, cheese, beef, pork, and poultry that is possible. Labor is scarce and expensive, the seasons may be not too favorable but our conditions are far better than those under which many other labor.

The 1915 crops was some 200,000 tons. We must not hesitate however about laying plans for the greatest possible acreage for 1916. We may not be able to directly export wheat, sugar and fat, but we can supply substitutes thus setting free from other parts large quantities.

The Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Greater Production Committee are working co-operatively in order to secure seed and fertilizer for New Brunswick. It has been decided to contract for 15,000 bushels of oats, 4,000 bushels of wheat, 1,000 bushels of barley, 2,000 bushels of buckwheat and 1,500 tons of 3-3-5 fertilizer. The grain will be for distribution in the early spring of 1916. Larger quantities of grain are required in order that we may insure production in an adequate supply of fertilizer. Undoubtedly the supply for 1916 will fall far short of the demand and in order to partially meet the situation the above mentioned purchase has been made. If the demand for chemicals warrants action the Department will not hesitate to purchase in the best market a quantity sufficient to meet the demand. The fertilizers will be sold on cash basis or by arrangement through any local bank.

Mr. Chas. Bann, of Hartland, has been engaged to look after the distribution. His headquarters will be the Department of Agriculture, Fredericton, but mail or telephone enquiries to the Agricultural School, Woodstock, will reach him quickly.

The situation is one which we hope never to meet again and the successful conclusion is only assured if each one conscientiously does his or her part. Active co-operation with the Committee and the Department will assist very greatly.

The Dance and Entertainment prepared by the ladies of St. River on Thursday evening has been postponed until some later date owing to the inclement weather and bad condition of the roads.

CHILD INJURED.
Yves, the little daughter of Mr. Hugh A. Marquis met with a severe injury this week while playing in Mr. D. A. Stewart's yard with other children. The children were playing about a dump cart when the little girl climbed up on the shaft, the other children climbed up on the box of the cart when it came down on the shaft, crushing the little Marquis child severely. An first it was feared that she was fatally injured but at last report she was progressing favorably.

NOT THERE
"Judge," said Mrs. Staven to the magistrate who had recently come to board with her. "I'm particularly anxious to have you try this chicken soup."

"I have tried it," replied the magistrate, "and my decision is that the chicken has proved an alibi."

COSTLY DRESSING.
Mrs. Washington Terrace consented to be interviewed.
"What? Dress on six hundred a year?"
"She made on very expensive and she wanted the question wide."
"Why, I wouldn't dress my salad on six hundred a year," she said.
