ELECTRIC RAILWAY DEVELOP.

The information first published by the ADVERTISER that the Blake-Kerr-Cronyn stock in the London Street Railway Compaty, as well as the Masonic Mutual Company's stock had been sold out to a rich parys some conside syndicate, has since been practically confirmed, and it is made apparent that the control of the line goes to new parties who already have the bulk of the stock in the electric railway systems of a number of Canadian and United States cities.

What position the company will take in regard to the proposal to give it electric railway privileges remains to be seen. But it is apparent that it may have to meet another offer from the new company, which asserts that it is yet in the field.

The aldermen have done well to await The altermen nave done well to await developments. They have to dispose of a great natural monopoly for a period of 20 years on the lines yet to be built, and for 33 of the 50 years franchise granted the old company. A false step might mar the prosperity of the city in a very considerable It has been well to make haste degree. It has been well to make hade couply, and to watch the opposing bidders for civic privileges closely. The gentlemen who are competing for the monopoly of our streets on which to conduct an electric milway have not entered the lists for the benefit of their health, and they will make the best bargain possible for themselves. The aldermen, acting for the citizens, should have but one care—the protection of the people. They should see to it that as far as possible the profits from great natural monopolies that every citizen aids in accumulating should be collected for the benefit of the whole people, or at least, by cheap fares and rapid transit in comfortable cars, shared by the taxpayers whose presence here makes electric oading profitable.

A bargain between the old company and the city is now in process of ratification, and will likely be considered at the next meeting of the City Council. Until the bylaw has reached its third reading, it is not too late to amend the agreement in any respect that the aldermen deem to be in the city's interests. It is said that the new company has another offer. Let us see what it is. It may be that it will pay the city to send it to the old company. But by and by there should be some finality to these manipulations. The stage should be reached where the aldermen, having made up their minds what is fair and reasonable to all parties and profiting by the experience of Toronto, the people of which enjoy many excellent privileges through their agreement, should be able to close the bargain, and let the arrangements for the new

What It Means if Factories Are Exempted.

A Total Assessment of $1,169,200 Represented-The Cpinions of Various Firms on the Question-Willing to Pay on Real Estate, But Not on Personal.

Assessment Commissioner Grant has prepared a statement showing the number of hands employed in the various industries of the city and the real and personal assessment on each establishment.

This was done as an aid to No. I committee in determining to what extent these industries shall be taxed. A circular was sent out to the leading manufacturers of the city, inviting their replies to the following questions: I. Should real estate be exempt? 2. Should buildings be exempt? 3. Should machinery and appliances be exempt? 4. Should stock in trade be exempt? 4. Should stock in trade be exempt? 7. Answers have been received from $3 frms to the following effect:

If everything be exempted it will mean a reduction of $1,159,200 in the assessment of the city; if personal property alone be untaxed, as the majority of the manufacturers heard from wish, the reduction will be $455,300.

This Is What The Girls Eay to It.

This is what the ciris say to the To the Editor of the Adventures:

In a recent issue of your paper I read a letter signed Harry M. Fenwick in reply to which will you kindly permit me to use your valuable columns! Mr. Fenwick denies the right of girls to fill positions outside of their homes unless compelled to do so, and even goes so far as to assert that those who do so are lacking in self-respect, a charge he should be very chary of making unless he has very strong proofs to offer. If girls were intended only to remain at home they would not have been given the ability to engage in every description of employment. These powers are bestowed that they may be used and to deny any person or class or sex the use of their God-given powers would be tyranny. The girl who remains at home tither remain idle or employ her time with housework. If the former, she must be maintained by the labor of some one else, which surely cannot add to her self-respect. If the latter, she should be paid such wages as her labor would command elsewhere; otherwise she is merely a slave, a being all the profit of whose labor goes to another. If her parents are unable to pay her, as in the case with people of ordinary means, then she is right to take her labor (her only capital) where it will command the highest price. Mr. Fenwick seems to think a girl should be content to remain at home and receive gratefully her board and clothes as ample compensation for all her time and effort, meanwhile having before her the noble ambition of some day being so fortunate? As to "secure" a husband to provide for her the remainder of her life. Mr. Fenwick says the husband works six days in the week, ten hours a day, and the wife seven days of front welve to fifteen (and if she have a young baby or a sick child, many more), and then, though marriage is called a partnership, the husband pockets all the profits and seen to injustice in his owning everything, while his wife gets merely her board and clothes. On the contrary be really tances be supports her.

The Economy of Steam Pipe Covering.

It is estimated by experts that, assuming that it requires an expenditure of fuel of one pound of foal for every even pounds of steam, and taking a pressure of 260° Fahrenneit, the loss per annum every square foot of uncovered save to the every square foot of uncovered when the every square foot of uncovered when the price of coal at 186 per ton, as the foot length of 34 inch wrought iron pipe would be sufficient to be a surface of about ten square feet, which, at $1.02 on each sourse foot per annum, would show a waste of $10.90 a year. By the application of Mineral Wool Covering, at a cost of $3.90, $5 per cent, of this loss issayed. Thus, in one year a saving is effected sufficient to pay the cost of covering and leave a balance to the good of $4.77.

As Mineral Wool is the best non-conductor of heat or cold known, the sectional covering made from this material is the most economical in the market.

-BROWNING

London, Thursday, Dec. 8.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT AS A WHOLE.

Sir John Sparrow David Thompson has completed his Government.

To placate various factions and individu als, he has brought into force a statute passed a couple of years ago allowing the appointment of several minor Ministersmembers of the Government, it is true, but not members of the inner Cabinet, and receiving less salary than members of the Cabinet.

These petty Ministers are Messrs. Clark Wallace, of West York; Wood, of Hastings; Ives, of the Eastern Townships, and Curran, of Montreal.

The unfortunate Member for Elliot, . too heavy to carry longer, is ousted from the Department of Agriculture, and his salary cut off, though with many protestations of affection, and promises of fat jobs in connection with the Chicago Exposition, and even hints of his being called to "the beerage," or at least to the dubious dignity of "Sir." Fine words butter no parsnips, and the downfall of Carling

It was all very well to dissemble your love, But why did you kick me downstairs? Looking over the list of Sir John Sparrow David Thompson's Government. will be observed that Chapleau has disappeared into the Lieutenant-Governor's chair of Quebec, while Hon. Auguste Real Augers steps from the Lieutenant-Governor's chair into the Ottawa Cabinetmost indecent interchange. Angers is to superintend the growing of two-rowed horses, in room of our local statesman, Mr. Carling, who has been dropped. At first sight it may seem a relief from a political nuisance that Chapleau has been got out of public life and "fixed." But will he stay

"fixed"? Time must tell. But assuming that Chapleau, like Carling, had to be either actually or virtually dropped, on what high moral principle is John Graham Haggart or Joseph Philippe Rone Adolphe Caron to be kept in? We fear that no one not possessing Sir John Sparrow David Thompson's fine gifts of casuistry could satisfactorily explain.

The lion's share of the important places goes either to Quebec or to the Lower Provinces. Thus, of Quebecers, Hon. Joseph Alaric Ouimet gets the Department of Publie Works; Sir Joseph Philippe Rene Adolphe Caron gets the Postmaster-Generalship; Hon. Auguste Real Angers odsts Mr. Carling from the place of Minister of Agriculture; while the very sharp Lower Province gentry monopolize he Dominion Premiership and the Ministership of Justice in the person of Sir John Sparrow David Thompson, Hon. George Eulas Foster the post of Finance Minister, with Ontario-the Province which chiefly bears the financial burden of the unfor-tunate Confederation into which in a moment of weakness she was seduced by plausible politicians in the ranks of both parties-is not alone wronged in the distribation of the principal Departments of government. In personnel she is hopolessly overborne by the other Provinces.

Leaving out Ontario's two minor Ministers, Messrs. Wallace and Wood,
"not of the Cabinet," and whose position may be described as that of Very Rev. Head Clerks, and not counting Mr. Carling and Mr. Frank Smith, "without portfolio," without salary and under present circumstances without influence-there remain as representatives of the chief Province of Ontario Messrs. Haggart, Patterson and Bowell! The latter, with some defects, and without the physical vigor necessary to etand out against his more youthful and anscrupulous colleagues, is in many re-pects the best of the lot. He has at least made a good administrator. Mr. Bowell, But John Graham Haggart cught not to but John Graham Haggare dught not be a member of the Government of Canada. As for Hon. James Colebrook Patterson, from the region of Walker's distillery, Windsor—suffice to say the Hon. James Colebrook Patterson was not brought into the Dominion Government to promote the cause of temperance reform.

So much for the Government in general. And now a word respecting Sir John Sparrow David Thompson, by grace of-(what?)-David Thompson, by grace of (what?)— Premier of the Dominion of Canada. A man of cold aspect and somewhat chilling personality. A man possessed of large powers of work and of the executive instinct. Intellectually clear and quick—perhaps superior to Sir John Macdonald in this regard. But Sir John Macdonald did not rule by intellect alone, or mainly, but disposal would result in Mr Carling resign-by a keen knowledge of the weaknesses of human nature, combined with a certain personal magnetism and hail-fellow-wellnet style of accessibility, in which Sir John Sparrow David Thompson is utterly lacking—so lacking that the little Lower Province Administration of which he was once head fell to pieces in a few months.

It is rather unfortunate for Sir John Sparrow David Thompson that he starts his Premiership with a record smirched by the condonation of four great wrongs, namely:

(1) Refusal to allow investigation into the charges against Haggart; (2) refusal to charges against Haggart; (2) Issued allow investigation into the charges against Caron; (3) the last infamous gerrymander; (4) the London Seat Steal. In regard to the last, it may be argued that his degradation of Mr. Carling is equivalent to the bringing forth of fruits meet for repentance; but a retribution or a restitution only partial will not satisfy public opinion.

In some respects, Sir John Sparrow David Thompson is the most dangerous man who could have been chosen Premier of Canada.
On the other hand, the circumstances of his career, and the constant scrutiny and suspicion with which his every word and t will be regarded, may prove a considerable check on his more unscrupulous de

However that may be, we are not in clined to think the Premiership or the Government of Sir John Sparrow David Thompson destined, in the present trans-itional state of feeling, to be of long dur-

THE PASSING OF CARLING.

The humiliation of Mr. Carling is complete. He has literally been kicked out of office, and has only been allowed to stay in the back kitchen without fee or reward as a consequence of the eleventh hour tear eyed protest of his friends in this city The downfall has been rapid, when once it set in. What a warning Mr. Carling's disposal affords to the avaricious and grasping whereseever found. Mr. Carling was defeated in 1891 by Mr. Hyman by a substantial majority, which was subsequently nullified in an election court through the unlawful act of a supporter. The defeated candidate lost nothing by the original result, but rather was the gainer. He was given a life-seat in the Senate, with a special emolument of $1,000 a year, and friend and foe entertained the view that he would be satisfied with the position. But he had been so long the dictator of London that he could not bear the idea of anyone else representing the city in Parliament, and he prevailed upon his friends to let him resign the life seat and once more contest the city. This "hog" game, the ADVERTISER showed at the time, did not reflect credit on Mr. Carling, and it advised him to stick to the certainty, and let some other person have a chance to serve the city in the Even with the prospect of being made Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario if he stood aside, Mr. Carling refused all counsel. He entered the lists against Mr. Hyman, and he was defeated. But it so happened that Mr. Carling and his friends had arranged that the county judge should be the sole authority on all cases of bad votes, and a disgraceful expedient was adopted to thwart the popular will. Two hundred and forty bad Conservative votes were, after evidence, removed from the lists by Mr. Fraser, the Conservative revising officer. The decision was appealed against, and Judge Elliot failed to give judgment before election day. One hundred and twenty-eight men who had been declared not entitled to vote went to the polls. It was announced prior to polling day that Mr. Carling wished to be elected without the bad votes. Doubtless he did, but when it was found necessary to have the bad votes counted in order to secure Mr. Carvotes counted in order to secure air. Car-ling in Mr. Hyman's seat, Judge Elliot promptly decided that they should be counted. This he did in face of the fact hat six judges of the Superior Courts had lecided against his contention, and in vioation of the universal practice in all courts, both here and in Great Britain, that the judge of the lower court shall be guided by the decision of a higher court until such time as that decision is successfully as-

Had Mr. Carling been an honorable man, Hon. Charles Hibbert Tupper Minister of the opportunity of a life time was now Marine and Fisheries. became an imperative duty-in refusing to accept a seat to which, undoubtedly, he was not elected. He could have won for himself the respect not only of all honest Conservatives, but of all Liberals, if he had promptly refused to be a party to the theft of Mr. Hyman's seat. He could have proved his possession of at least one states-manlike quality by resolutely refusing to manlike quality by resolutely retusing to be a party to the wrongdoing of a partizan judge. Instead of that, he greedily grabbed the place in Parliament to which the electors refused to send him, and when it was proposed that a preliminary inquiry should be made into the conduct of Judge Elliot, who had edited the Free Press during the campaign, and had resolutely made up his mind not to do justice if Mr. Cafling were to be the sufferer—that power being given him by the Frauchise Act—the recipient of the stolen seat counselled Sir John Thompson to refuse an inquiry and thus completed the infamy.

This being the later record of the man, what could be expect? In the eternal decrees of justice there comes a time, even in this life, when men are punished for wrong-doing. During the past week John wrong-doing. Daring the paak week of a Carling knows what the wormwood and the gall of it is. Discarded in his old age by the leaders of his party, compelled to travel all Sunday to reach the ear of and crave the assistance of those who were but yesterday suppliants of his favor, ready to sit the chief to his empty, handed and but the Cabinet table empty-handed and powerless rather than be kicked out in the cold, who will say that John Carling is not being punished, even now, for his sins against this community, for his greed and his selfishness? There cannot be a doubt that Mr. Carling would to-day be a Cabinet outcast if the most unequivocal assurances had not been given Sir John Thompson that such a ing the position to which he has no hone title, thus enabling Mr. Hyman to take the place the citizens have decreed he should hold. This bluff, the last dying threat of the man, was effective. Sir John Thompson is above all else an opportunist. So long as Mr. Carling kicked alone he paid no attention to his objections, but when it became evident that the member for Judge Elliot had friends who were even willing that Mr. Hyman should have the seat to which he was elected, rather than submit to complete discomfiture, Sir John consented to let Mr. Carling hang on the confines of the new Administration.

Mr. Carling's personal anxiety to remain in the Cabinet, even if cuffed, kicked and stripped of all emolument, may be made more apparent before many moons have waned. The story of his downfall is a sad one. His punishment is severe, but none too severe. The question yet unsettled is how long is the discredited usurper to hold the seat of the member-elect for London? And the end is not yet.

PRESIDENT HARRISON, the defeated, con esses in his message that "protection can-not help the farmers." The farmers find that out in every country where the policy of high taxation is tried.

Conservative newspapers now confes that the trade policy of their leaders must be formed in accordance with the legisla-tion brought forward by the new Governnent of the United States. They "look to Washington" every time.

THE Hamilton Spectator is the standing The Hamilton spectator is the standing counsel of that jelly-boned section of the community—it is very small in numbers—that cannot make a living unless the Government keeps in force laws compelling its neighbors to support it.

Ove city contemporary has always declared that Mr. Carling proved a model Minister of Agriculture. Sir John Thompson no sconer got the chance than he sent the "model" about his business. Either Sir John Thompson is a poor judge or the Free Press must have been away off.

THE PASSING OF CARLING.

Often Correspondent Montreal Witness.]
Mr. Carling is to be retained as a member of the Cabinet without portfolio, in other words, he cannot get a portfolio, but has cried for it so much that he is to get the shell without the kernel.

[From the Ottawa Free Press.]

[From the Ottawa Free Press.]
What a pity. All the magnificent puffs that the Tory papers have been giving Mr. Carling during the past six months have been waisted. They have not aved him from eviction from the Ministry. And the report that Mr. Carling is to be the new Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba has raised a row among the Tories of that Province.

ELECTIVE JUDGES PREFERABLE.

[Ottawa Free Press.]

Mr. Angers' descent from the bench to take the Lieutenant-Governorship of Quebec, his partisan conduct while occupying that position, and his new jump from Spencerwood into the Dominion Cabinet, ought to dispel at once and forever the idea that the members of our judiciary are above politics and without partisan blas. It would be far better to have judges responsible to the people directly, than to have the bench filled with incapable partisans, looking for political preferment. It is claimed that judges are responsible to Parliament and that the members of Parliament are responsible to the people. This argument that judges are indirectly responsible to the people only strengthens the cause of those who say they should be responsible directly. Experience in the Elliot-Carling case shows how much redress the public have when a judge commits an outrage for the benefit of the party to which he owes his position. A judge or a licutenant governor has only to show himself a partisan of the party in power in federal politics in order to secure promotion to a higher court or a place in the Dominion Cabinet.

THE PROSPECTIVE TWO-MINUTE TROTTER.
Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, secretary U. S.
M., who nearly two years ago predicted that a trotter would do a mile in 2:05, or better, within the period covered by the end of 1852, and who also predicted that he thought he would live long enough to see the two-minute trotter, has been interviewed again, and thinks now that the shows peed very nearly approaching that of the thoroughbred. Secretary Tracy does not think that the trotting horse will yet show speed very nearly approaching that of the thoroughbred. Secretary Tracy does not think that the trotting horse has yet neared perfection, and he believes that the sensational performances of 1892 have by no means ended the history of the trotting horse in relation to the reduction of records. Gen. Tracy does not agree with Mr. Robert Bonner that the low records made this year are largely owing to the kite-shaped tracks and the bicycle sulkies. Secretary Tracy thinks that most of the credit is owing to the improvement in the breeding and training of trotters, and that mechanical genius must not be given the Hon's share of the credit.

Eight inmates had died, 26 had been discharged and 5 had absconded. Those at present being cared for numbered 80. Intemperance was credited as the cause of 37 of these cases of pauperism, and sickness with the majority of the remainder. The cost of maintenance for the year had been 87,485 59. The receipts totaled $2,785 79. The committee recommended the acceptance of the following tenders for supplies for 1993: Mihell & Gill, tobacco, fish, molasses, soap; James Noble, tea; John Barry, sugar, blue and rice; W. J. Vrooman, coal oil; Wm. Douglas, meat; F. W. Meek, drugs; R. Brock, Joseph Brady and A. J. McInroy, wood. Seven head of cattle and twenty acres additional land will be purchased. BECAME A HUMAN SNAKE. St. Carlos' Queer Fits Caused a Panic, But Calorie Cured Him.

But Caloric Gured Him.

BRIDGEFORT, Dec. 7.—Don Juan St.
Carlos, a snake charmer, now in jail, adopted a neat but unsuccessful trick to get into the hospital. One day last week while at work he fell to the floor all of a sudden and went through some very weird contortions with his body. He squirmed and wriggied like a snake and crawied the whole length of the room, about 150 feet, on his stomach, at a marvelous rate of speed.

Don St. Carlos soon had the entire workshop to himself. Every few moments he would dart his head back and forth and his tongae would protrude from his mouth at a remarkable length. When the jail officials rushed upon him they found him possessed of remarkable strength. This performance was continued every day for some time, but his shamming was exposed by the application of a redhot inon. He confessed and begged to be let up. He took his exposure very meekly and is now one of the mest industrious workmen at the jail.

NOVA SCOTIANS STARVING!

NOVA SCOTIANS STARVING!

Inhabitants of Tunis Eay Without the Necessaries of Life-Failure of the Fishery.

Halfpax, N. S., Dec. 7.—Investigation shows that the reported destitution among the inhabitants of Tunis Bay, Halifax county, about twenty miles from this city, is true. The people depend almost solely on the catch of fish for their living, and this year the fishing there has been practically a total failure.

Seven families are now in actual want for the uccessaries of life, and by the 1st of January twenty more will be without food; others can barely pull through till spring, and none have supplies to spare those without. Relief measures will likely be instituted in this city.

WHY SHOULD I

TAKE A BUSINESS COURSE?

Is a very proper question to ask. The answer is—To better enable you to do business for yourself or others.

It is a fact that cannot be gainsaid that a young man or young woman who is theroughly FAMILIAR with the law pertaining to BILLS, NOTES and CHECKS, who WRITES a LEGIBLE, SPEEDY and GRACEFUL hand, can CALCULATE QUICKLY and ACCURATELY, and can keep a NEAT and RELIABLE set of accounts, as well as write a good BUSINESS LETTER, and have sufficient knowledge of COMMERCIAL LAW to know the LEGAL consequences of his acts, is far better equipped for life's battles then his friend who has no knowledge of such practical things.

Tononyo, Dec. 7,—On account of the bad weather there was a little quietness to the tone of trade at the Western cattle market today, but prices for everything were firm. The mini trade was done in hogs. Receipts were 26 carloads, including 18; sheep and lambs. 250 hogs and the ustal number 3 caives. Receipts for the weed and lambs. 356; ever 1,529 hogs and the ustal number 3 caives. Receipts for the weed and lambs. 356; ever 1,529; weigh fees, $45 03. For the corresponding week last year the receipts were Cattle. 1,310; sheep and lambs. 1,250; hogs, 1,427; weighfees, $25 05.

Butchers Cattle—Trade quiet and firm. Two or three loads of pretty good cattle were taken for the Montreal market at figure ranging at 34c to 350 per cattle was put at from 35c to 35c per lb, and dealers state that choice fat, useful cattle would bring all the way from 36c to 45c but none of these were on offer. This class of cattle will be wanted as Christmas draws nearer.

Stockers—There are no stockers coming in As high as 35c would be paid. There is a slow demand from farmers for stockers to feed for Hogs—The hog trade is locking better and the demand is good; the bighest price paid for exit. 25c. The hogs weighted off cars: rough, heavy hogs range about the same as last qualified from the stockers and a throw 35c to $50, and are badly wanted; light fat have a good demand, at from $5 to $50. See the see and Lambs—Trade is firm at last week's quotations; there is good inquiry for choice lambs, but poor stuff moves only slowly. Live Stock Markets.

THE STREET RAILWAY DEAL.

The Announcement in the "Advertiser" and to Stay.

The news of the London Street Railway deal, which was published exclusively in the Advertiser yesterday, caused a good deal of excitement in the city. Many were disinclined at first to believe the rumorist but its foundation has now been pretty well assured.

The shareholders of the company are not inclined to discuss the transaction; in fact, some of them say they know nothing of it. Mr. Thomas H. Smallman, who is one of the principal shareholders, said last evening, after he had classed over the author of the said of the

He mad the greater respect for them, and said Miss Carrie was engaged to marry a young man in Kingswille. The had a friendly regard for young Prout, and had accepted conventional courtesies and attentions at his hands. Prout was not satisfied with her disinterested respect, and insisted upon making love to her. She explained why she could not listen to him. She had refused to see him, but permitted him to call again, and he was her escort to evening entertainments, with the understanding that she was not to be his sweetheart, and he was not to talk of love. Tuesday night he broke his promise, and she told him finally that she must not see him any more. Yesterday morning she told her manager what she had done, and he commended her good sense.

"Quitted the regiment!"

"He has sold out, this two months past."
Arthur Danesbury was perfectly confounded. He was quite unprepared for the intelligence. "What could have been his motive?" he resumed.

"Why, the fact is, he could scarcely do otherwise," cried the colonel, dropping his voice to a confidential tone. "He was over head and cars in dobt, and went in bodily fear of arrest. He wanted the proceeds of his commission to clear himself. Supplies from home were stopped, he said."

"He has been supplied too extensively from home," was the pained answer of Arthur. "Another year or two of his extravagance would have ruined us. When he was tast down, I believe my father warned him that in future he would receive no more than his allowance."

"Ay, that's just what I understood. Lieutenant Danesbury was awfully fast; there's no denying it."

69 DUNDAS STREET.

Lionel joined Mr. Pratt, making his home at Danesbury House.

Robert came down to the marriage of his brother William, and took the opportunity to press for more money for his extravagences, but Mr. Danesburyrefixed to supply it. He could no longer afford to do it, and peremptorily informed Robert that he must make his allowance and his pay—not a despicable income—suffice for the future.

Robert returned to town; and there—and three—the infatuated man put false bills in circulation and obtained the proceeds, forging his father's business signature, "John Danesbury & Sons," and making thouse, Roberts, Curtis, & Co.

The news came upon Mr. Danesbury like a thunder-bolt. What he would be called upon to make good and save exposure, unless he suffered Robert to be prosecuted as a felon, amounted to £1,000; but it was not the loss of the money that crushed him. The facts stood out, broad and Hideous: son of his had committed a crime, for which he was liable to nearly the worst punishment of the law; but a low years previous, it would have been the worst. Many a man, for a far less offense in amount than this, had heard the awful sentence passed upon him, that he should be hanged by the neck until he was dead.

"Father," asked Arthur, when the first shock was over, "what is to be done?"

"The sorrows of my old age are telling upon me." walled Mt. Danesbury in a husky tone. "May by not become too heavy for me to bear?"

"We must seek out Robert."

"Seek him out and bring him home. I question if he wilk allow you readily to find him."

"Bring him home, did you say?" returned Arthur.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured,—Gentiemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time traveling for Mesars. Waiter Woods & Co. Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vedetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vedetable Discovery, believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of dyspepsia. (Signed.) T. S. That a straight, honest business always turns out best in the end. Interesting Legal Bartle in Progress at Osgoode Hall.

Toronto, Dec. 7.—Ever since it was announced that the chancery judges would take up the unfinished docket of the Toronto Assizes this week at Osgoode Hall. The bar has set its face against the proposal, for the members had settled down to the idea that these cases would go over to the next court, and had sent home the witnesses. When Justice Meredith opened court this morning, B. B. Osler said the constitution of the court did not admit of what was being done, but he was overruled on the several points raised. Mr. Osler has several cases on the list, but is determined not to proceed now, and they will no double be struck from the list. Then there will be an appeal in January to restore them to the next list.

The other lawyers are evidently following Mr. Osler, for not a case was ready and all of to-day's list that was reached was struck off.
