Sara Bernhardt to be a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

Chevalier Sara.

London, Nov. 15 .- A Paris dispatch to the Chronicle says it is announced that Sara Bernhardt will be made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

British Surveying Party in Peril. CALCUTTA, Nov. 15 .- More than 6,000 Waziris have gathered on the frontier of Waziristan at Janikhel, and are threatening the British party sent out to fix the boundary. An attack is expected by the Liberty of the Press Outraged. DRESDEN, Nov. 15 .- Herr Gradnaur, editor of a Socialist newspaper in this city, has been sentenced to ten months' imprisonment for publishing an article asserting that while serving in the capacity of a noncommissioned officer he propagated Socialism in the army.

The Vienese Worried.

LONDON, Nov. 15 .- The Vienna correspondent of the Standard says the impression that England is tending towards an alliance with France and Russia and an estrangement from the Triple Alliance causes uneasiness and regret, which are reflected in the Vienna press.

That Wedding.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15 .- Although not princes are expected to remain for the celecourt arrangements may prevent the execuion of the plan. The date of the funeral it as likely now to be the 17th as the 20th. "Waleski,"

St. PATERSBURG, Nov. 15 .- The Czar's constant and maked attentions to the Prince of Wales, here called Whaleski, have been much noted, and thought to prelude closer relations between England and Russia. The Prince of Wales and the Duke of York had a grand reception at the Anitchkoff Palace this afternoon. All the generals and staff officers now in St. Petersburg went ablaze with their medals and orders. The gorgeousness of the scene was hardly dimmed by the signs of mourning. The Grand Dukes assisted at the reception, and most of them signed the Prince of Wales' visitors' book. Rosebery and the Lords.

LONDON, Nov. 15. - Lord Rosebery's reference in his speech at Glasgow to the House of Lords is variously interpreted. He declared that he was not a single chamber man, but that he did not despair of solving the problem which America, France and Hungary had solved to the perfect satisfaction of their respective peoples. The Times, in a leader, says it thinks it indicates that nothing will be done prior to an appeal to the country. The Daily News says that the speech disposes altogether of the idle rumor that the Government intends to dissolve Parliament at an early date. The Graphic approves of Lord Rosebery's suggested reform of the House of Lords, but is suspicious of his intentions while the terms of the resolution that will deal with the matter are undisclosed.

Dreyfus, the Spy.

PARIS, Nov. 15 .- Inquiry into the case of Capt. Albert Dreyfus, who is now confined in the military prison on a charge of high treason for having sold information concerning the frontier forts to the Italian Government and otherwise betrayed the military secrets of the Government, has disclosed the existence of a widespread system of spying with which Capt. Dreyfus was connected. Three more arrests have been made as the result of inquiry, the Frenchman. General Mercier, Minister of War, ordered a search of their apartments, with the result of finding of a number of incriminating documents revealing a plot of wide ramifications, and it is expected that a number of arrests in connection therewith will soon be made.

Lord Lansdowne's Brother.

A special dispatch from London says: It has just leaked out that a nullity suit, brought by Lady Edmund Fitzmaurice against her husband, was tried in chambers and decided off-hand. The suit should not have been heard in ordinary course for several months. The lady, who is the daughter of W. F. Fitzgerald, of Litchfield, Conn., and of New York, married Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice in 1889.

The suit was undefended, the allegation being that the marriage was never consummated. Lord Edmund is the only brother of the Marquis of Lansdowne, late vicercy of India, and was Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs in Gladstone's 1880 Government. He recently tried to re-enter from observations taken in the heavens ornment. He recently tried to re-enter Parliament but the Liberal party managers discountenanced his candidacy, as it now appears, because this suit was known in aristocratic circles to be pending.

Twe nty - Cne People Drowned.

LONDON, Nov. 15 .- The British ship Culmore (Captain Reed), last reported at Hamburg, Oct. 1, from Iquique, foundered in yesterday's gale 80 miles off Spurn Head, Yorkshire. Twenty one persons were drowned, including the captain and his wife. Eight of the bodies were washed ashore this morning. It is believed that the British steamer Zande, last reported at Hamburg, Nov. 1, from Saffi, was also lost yesterday. Heavy floods are reported on the Island of Cyprus. A dispatch from terday morning.

Limasol says 21 persons have been drowned and that the number of domestic animals destroyed is tar in the thousands.

The British barkentine Perilla, which was caught in the storm that prevailed in the Channel and the North Sea during the last three days, has been towed to Yarmouth, having lost her anchor and sails. Her mate was crushed to death on Friday by being caught between the wheel and the wheelhouse. Several other schooners were picked up and towed to Yarmouth.

As the results of the violent winds, heavy rains and overflowing rivers, the inhabitants of some of the riverside villas at Eton and Windsor are obliged to approach the doors of their houses in boats. Upwards of 1,000 persons in Bath have been rendered homeless by the overflowing of the Avon. Generally the rainfall continues, but the gales have subsided.

Kissing the Dead Czar.

London, Nov. 15 .- The Daily News correspondent in St. Petersburg says: More than 10,000 sick persons from the provinces have arrived, hoping to be cured of disease by kissing Alexander the Third's forehead. One old couple walked three days from Schliesselburg to the capital. The patience of those wishing to see the body is remarkable. For instance, persons standing at the bourse at midnight on the 13th did not reach the cathedral until 6 o'clock on the morning of the 14th.

Rome, Nov. 15 .- The Prince of Naples started today for St. Petersburg to attend the funeral of Alexander III.

The Tageblatt (Berlin) says that just before his death Alexander III. urged the present Czar not to keep the theaters too long in mourning. "I do not wish," he said, "to have so many become unhappy and lose their bread by my death. Nicholas II. has since given 500,000 responding week of last year. roubles to actors and others made idle by the closing of places of amusement. The Czar, the Princess Alix of Hesse, the Grand Dukes, the Prince of Wales and the British and German embassies were at the station today to receive the Duke of York, the Dake of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and the Princess Irene, wife of Prince Henry of Prussia. The Czar received the Duke of York, who is an old friend, most cordially. Most of the court's time every day is occupied with the reception of royal visitors.

The Eastern Conflict. There seems to be a hitch in the United States mediation in the Chinese-Japanese war. State Department officials remain mute on the matter, and similar silence appears to have been imposed on the legaofficially announced, the wedding of the tions of the contending powers in Washing-Czar and Princess Alix is quite likely to ton. Nevertheless it is understood that no take place on Nov. 23 or 24. The foreign notification has yet been received from Japan of the acceptance of the United bration. This is said to have been Alex. China is said to have given a reluctant assent, hampered by conditions which do not seem to have been complied with. There is an impression in diplomatic circles that the offer of mediation on the part of the United States may fail of its object.

A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Yokohama says that the land forts at Port Arthur, comprising the defenses in the rear, are much stronger than the seaward forts, the enemy having placed in them 100 additional guns. The Japanese expect that if the Chinese make any defense of these positions the engagement will be a sanguinary one. A dispatch from Chamulpo says that the officers of the Corean Government, whose tendencies are pro-Japanese, are framing a constitution to be issued at the beginning

A dispatch from Tien Tsin says it is reported there that Col. Von Hanneken has been put in complete command of the Chinese army. The Daily Graphic has this dispatch from Tien Tsin: Chinese reports emanating from Port Arthur are to the effect that the Chinese still hold two forts at Talien Wan and have repulsed the Japanese after desperate fighting. The Japanese are said to e closing gradually around the Chinese position. At Port Arthur every preparation has been made for the Japanese attack, and the garrison is resolved to offer vigorous resistance. Part of Gen. Sung's army has retaken Kinchow and Mo Tien Ling. The Japanese were routed and pursued for

The Central News correspondent says that Gen. Weiha has been beneaded in consequence of the defeat of the Chinese army under him at Ping Yang.

Every Effort Will Be Made to Prevent the Spoliation of Niagara.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- The refusal of the recent Constitutional Convention to take action looking to a curtailment or abrogation of the powers of the six companies tapping Niagara River to the possible injury of the falls, has somewhat nettled the persons arrested being two Germans and a commissioners of the National Reservation.

Frenchman. General Mersier, Minister of They have appealed to Scerett ry Gresham to enter into an international agreement with Canada to secure the object in question. A meeting of the commissioners was held today, when the question of the spoliation of Niagara was reached.

President Green said it was the function of the commissioners to exhaust every effort to prevent it. He had written to Secretary of State Gresham on the matter, and also to the Canadian Minister of State, and the latter had replied in a most friendly spirit, promising co-operation.

THE SOLAR METER.

A New Navigation Instrument of Great

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. The solarmeter, w. H. Beehler, U. S. N., excites much attention at the Maritime Exchange, where results are determined at a glance, which are otherwise obtainable only by long

The instrument determines a ship's latitude, longitude and compass errors by observations of the sum and stars at all hours of day and night without reference to the sea horizon. One instrument has beeen placed on a North German Lloyd steamer, one is to be placed on the Cunarder Lucania for trial, and one is being placed on the United States cruiser San Francisco. The Gov-ernment has contracted for others for naval vessels.

TRADE IN CANADA,

Advance in the Price of Wheat-Remittances Fair-Produce Generally low.

TORONTO, Nov. 15 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly statement of trade in Canada says: The wheat market has shown more life this week. Ontario wheat is up 3 cents and Manitoba 4 cents. The advance is attributed to higher prices in Europe and the United States. Both Liverpool and Chicago quotations are now the highest for three months, and holders are greatly encouraged in consequence.

The milder weather has had some influence on trade. Orders are chiefly for small lots, but prospects are considered

The sugar market is a trifle weaker owing to offerings of German. Granulated yellows, however, are firm on limited offer-

Offerings of hogs have increased, and packers have reduced quotations. They now pay $5 20 to $5 25 for good car lots; cured meats are low in sympathy.

Nearly all kinds of produce are low, while apples are firm, with good trade reported by exporters. The failures for the week ending the 15th inst, are 33, as compared with 41 in the cor

FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Several Camps in Colorado Reduced to Ashes-Heavy Los Entailed. DENVER, Col., Nov. 15 .- At 3 o'clock fierce wind and dust storm struck the city from the north. Many plate glass windows and awnings were destroyed. The temperature fell 20 degrees in 30 minutes. Before the storm broke dense clouds of smoke could be seen rolling up the mountains around Gold Hill, 40 miles distant. At 6 p.m. wet snow began falling, but it is probably too late to save Gold Hill from destruction.

POULDER, Col., Nov. 15 .- A forest fire, which was started from a camp fire last evening, has been raging all night and today north of the mining camp of Gold Hill, a town of 500 inhabitants fifteen miles from here. A courier arrived at Boulder at 1:30 p.m., reporting that all the buildings at Camp Talcott, a short distance from Gold Hill, were burned except the stamp mill, and that the fire had reached the western portion of Gold Hill, burning the mill of the Prussian mine. Several ranch houses the Toronto court of revision was made on many small camps will be burned. The by $119. residents of Gold Hill who have not come to Boulder have assembled on the top of taking stringent steps to cope with the great destitution.

Three Men Drowned.

Three Children Cremated.

CAKLAND, Tenn., Nov. 15 .- While Jeff Raynor and his wife, who live near Oakland, were picking cotton this afternoon their home caught fire from burning grass and barned to the ground. Their three children, aged 3, 5 and 12 years, perished in the Miners in Deadly Peril. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 15 .- No. 3 breaker boiler nouses and other outbuildings located near the town of Plymouth were destroyed by fire tonight. The loss is estimated at nearly $200,000. There were ten miners in the mine at the time the fire broke cut. They were saved by being hoisted to the surface through a second opening. Blaze in Chatham.

CHATHAM, Nov. 15 .- Early this morning the servant girl at Mr. E. H. Edwards' residence, west side of Victoria avenue, awoke almost suffocated. She gave the alarm, and Mr. Edwards found the fire to be located in the back kitchen. The brigade responded with alacrity and the premises were saved. Damage about $250; covered by an insurance in the London Mutual. Mr. R. O'Hara owns the house.

Erastus Wiman's Appeal. NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- The appeal of Erastus Wiman from the conviction and sentence in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to five years and six months in State Prison for forgery was on the calendar for argument in the general term of the Supreme Court today. Presiding Justice Van Brunt announced that the case would not be reached today, and must therefore go over until the December term.

Great Gale on Lake Ontario. TORONTO, Nov. 15 .- A terrific gale was plowing from the west across Lake Ontario today, and it was dangerous for vessels to venture outside the harbor. The steamer Macassa experienced a rough time in getting over from Hamilton. The decks were swept from end to end throughout the journey, and Capt. Zealand and his crew were gratified that they had no passengers on board. The wind blew 60 miles an hour, but little or no damage was done.

New York's Horse Show. NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- The afternoon attendance was the largest so far this week, and for the first time society turned out and filled the boxes. In the evening there was a blockade of the people in front of the entrance from 8 to 9 o'clock. At the latter hour the garden had some 15,000 people in it, and the sale of admission tickets was stopped. Fully 3,000 people were turned away after that time. Every seat in the garden was taken. The Astors, Vanderbilts, Belmonts, Crugers and other well known families were in their boxes, and men and women of distinction occupied Struck the Cook Crowd.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 15 .- A courier has just arrived from the Arkansas bottoms and reported that he by chance ran into the Cook gang in their quarters. They received him without fear of their whereabouts being reported to the officers. A number of farmers who live near the rendezvous of the gang reported the situation to United States Attorney Jackson, and asked that they be commissioned to lead twenty deputy marshals against the outlaws. The posse was given full authority, and at once started for the gang's quarters. As the farmers are familiar with the country in which the bandits are hidden the report of a battle is expected soon, unless news of the plan is carried to the gang.

Thrilling Account of Mr. Essery's Onslaught on the Foresters.

He Calls Members of the Order "Pups of Jersey," and Threatens an Entire Court.

Then Takes the Brathren to Law and Sticks Them for Costs, Which He Refuses to Pay.

"I have always been a Conservative, and am employed by a Conservative," said a leading member of the Ancient Order of Foresters to a reporter today, "but neither I nor my employer will vote for Mr. Essery. My chief ground against him is that he took advantage of and scandalized our order by compelling our members-many of them workingmen like myself-to go to court and defend themselves, and then refused to pay them their costs after two courts of law had decreed that it was common justice he should do so.

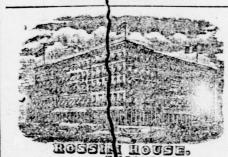

"Let me tell you the exact facts regarding the outrageous conduct for which Mr. Essery was forever expelled from the order. Mr. Essery had managed to reach the chief ranger's chair in Court Pride of the Dominion, and on the evening in question we were proceeding with the usual report of the arbitration committee. A motion was made in the regular way, but Mr. Essery's temper was unusually short that night, and it happened that the brother who made the motion was disliked by him. Mr. Essery refused to accept the motion, and on being remonstrated with by the mover and seconder he exclaimed, 'I will not be dictated to by pups from Jersey,' referring to the portion of England from which the brethren mentioned came. Naturally, the court was soon in an uproar. The language used was such as we had never heard in a court before, and there was not a brother present who was prepared to tolerate it. Several of the brethren jumped to their feet, and demanded that Mr. Essery should leave the chair, or obey the rules of the order. One well-posted brother read the bylaw that he had flagrantly broken, Mr. Essery then seized a chair, and exclaimed: 'The first man that comes near me I will brain him !' No sooner had he done so than two of the officers threw off their coats, seized the battle-axes, and stood guard in front of the infuriated man, prepared to defend the court against friend of the workingmen. Why his threatened onslaught. It has been said that some one wished to throw him out of the window. No one did that, that I recollect of, but there was not a member of the court that did not think he deserved to be put downstairs. A leading member of the court called for peace, however, and took the necessary steps to impeach the rebellious officer. Mr. Essery declined to receive the motion for his impeachment, also, though it was made in accordance with the rules, and it was ranger. "It was then nearly 11 o'clock, and a live here longer than he will. Office and Yard-York Street, just west | motion to adjourn till the following Friday was made. This was carried. On his leaving the hall, Mr. Essery turned on the brethren and said that if the proceedings were not at once dropped he would throw the court and all its members into the Court of Chancery before two weeks elapsed. Instead of doing that, however, he issued a writ for slander against Bro. Moore, from whom he demanded $2,000 because he had denounced his bad language and worse law in the lodge room. Mr. Moore, though a poor man, was compelled by Mr. Essery to go to court to defend himself. It was clearly proved that Mr. Essery had no warrant to take his fellow Forester into a court of law, and he was condemned to pay Bro. Moore's costs. I saw Bro. Moore the other day, and he told me that Mr. Essery has so far not paid a cent of the costs, though it is years since he became liable for them. "At the close of this trial Mr. Essery was summoned before Court Pride of the Dominion on a charge of having taken a brother into a court of law in connection with business that occurred in the court, and in clear violation of the Foresters' laws. The court unanimously sustained the charge, and Mr. Essery was expelled for all time to come from the order. The district meeting at Point Edward decided that Mr. Essery should have a more extended trial if he would pay up all his back dues. This motion was moved by Bro. J. S. Dewar as a fair one towards all parties. But Mr. Essery contemptuously refused to recognize the proceedings, and once more resorted to the law courts. He dragged his brethren into the Court of Chancery before Judge Proudfoot, who decided that he had not a leg to stand upon, and condemned him to pay all costs. Mr. Essery then decided he did not have enough of law. He again dragged the members of the court before the Appeal Court at Toronto, and there, too, it was decided by Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Ferguson that he had acted illegally and that he had no case against his brethren. Again he was condemned to pay all costs. "This took place years ago. But up till the last meeting of the court Mr. Essery had not paid one cent of the $382 he illegally compelled his brethren to spend in defense of the interests of their order. Do you blame me or any other selfrespecting Forester, no matter what his politics have hitherto been, for voting against a man who exhibited so little wisdom or fair play as that? My British blood boils every time I think of his assurance in asking for our votes while he is our debtor and has never apologized to us for the grave wrong he did us."

MR. EDMUND MEREDITH ON MR ESSERY.

From a speech made by Mr. Meredith in the City Hall in December, 1893.) Mayor Essery's conduct during the present term has been intolerable. He has insulted old citizens-men having twice the status in the community that he has. When Mr. Joseph Jeffrey, an old and respected citizen, rose to speak at a meeting of the railway board some time ago Mr. Essery said, "I won't hear a single word from you?" Look at the mayor in the council chamber. Leaving his chair like a baby, and saying he would go away! What did the mayor say last year from this platform. Said he: I will not be a party to any deputation; a simple postcard will do. Deputation after deputation has gone from this council with the mayor at the head of them. There is not a bigger autocrat in the city of London than this man who professes to be a does he attack the press? Simply because the press is independent here. We have two very respectable papers of high standing, and would they sink so low as to attack a man like Mr. Essery without good reasons? Because they express their views they are hounded down by this man, who says lodged there and then with the vice chief they are bought by these corporations. These people are respectable and will

Triptology (From the Pittsburg Dispreca.) Horace Walpole hume. way described as "triptology" Georg. III,'s habit of repeating three tir. any remark he might make. It was emphatic thinking aloud, and the author of "Gossip of the Century" gives this instance of the "triptological" habit. The King was very fond of the Weld family, and frequently stayed at Lulworth Castle, their family seat. One evening he attended a ball there, and the daughter of the house, a handsome woman, danced so gracefully that the King expressed aloud his admiration in the characteristic form:

"Fine woman, fine woman, fine woman! Dances well, dances well, dances well !" The habit ran in the royal family, and his son, the Duke of Cambridge, inherited it. The Duke attended church on Sunday mornings and would express in an audible tone, and with threefold repetition, his approbation of the services and opinion of the sermon. On one occasion the officiating clergyman pronounced the exhortation,

"Let us pray." "Aye, to be sure, why not? Let us pray, let us pray, let us pray," repeated the Duke from his pew.

On another occasion, when the ten commandments were being read, the Duke thus emphatically indorsed the eighth: "Steal! Of course not! Mustn't steal, mustn't steal, mustn't steal."

William IV. did not inherit his father's "triptology," but when any question was brought before him on which he was prepared to express an opinion he would say: That's another matter." On his deathbed, watching through an open window the sun sinking below the horizon, he said to the Archbishop of Canterbury, who stood near: "Ah, my friend, I shall not see another sunset." "We don't know that sire," answered the prelate, "and I pray heartily your Majesty may see many more."

"That's another matter," replied the

Sparkling Specimens of Wit and Wisdom

Gathered in the Westminster Skating Rink Last Night,

As They Were Lavishly Let Fail by Local Conservative Orators.

Between 200 and 300 people braved pneumonia and asylumania at the Essery meeting in Westminster Rink last night, and sat with their coats and hats on and shivered while the speakers delivered their addresses. The temperature in the rink was very cold, and many people had to leave on that account before the meeting closed. The seating accommodation provided consisted of the two dozen seats that the city hall is noted for. Mr. Ed. Flock occupied the chair and was succeeded later by Mr. J. A. Thomas. On the platform were Henry Macklin, Thos. H. Smallman, Ald. Taylor, J. A. Thomas, E. Meredith, Geo. Pritchard, P. H. Bartlett, Ald. Coo and Mayor Essery.

MR. E. MEREDITH. Mr. Meredith is the man who "sized up" Mr. Essery last January, and it was his first appearance in public in favor of the candidature. Among other things, Mr. Meredith said: "This man (Sir Oliver Mowat) is the humbug that has been paraded throughout the country for the last twenty years."

"To defeat Mr. Essery money will flow like water. Gentlemen, money will come down from Toronto to defeat Mr. Essery. Why, gentlemen? Because if they do not defeat Mr. Essery they are defeated themselves. Last election lying and money spending was nothing. They were determined to defeat Mr. Meredith. Emanuel T. Essery, small in statue though he is, will be returned on the 20th of this month, as sure as you are here, by a majority of 400 or 500.

J. A. THOMAS. Mr. Thomas, among other things, said: Any man ought to be sick of Sir Oliver Mowat and his prating. A hypocrite dis-gusts me, and of all people he is one of the worst. Now he is putting on the screws and is getting so brazen about it that he does not hesitate to tell the poor tavernkeeper to vote right or off comes his head." HY. MACKLIN.

Then Mr. Macklin spoke, and ofter denouncing the emigration office he said that the people were being "mulctched" to the extent of $375,000 more than they ought to pay for school books. "I don't mean to say that they whack up with anybody, but it certainly looks very suspicious." He denied that he had appealed to the religious prejudices of his hearers in the East End on Wednesday night, and directly afterwards said, in referring to the separate school question: "The sooner they (separate schools) are done away with the better-done away with in a constitutional way and without hurting or injuring anybody. Instead of being bigoted, we are going in the best interests of the country our Roman Catholic fellow citizens. "Mr. Essery is said by some to be a sort of a crank. Well, cranks are good things. Wheels are moved around by cranks, and the world is turned by a crank, and a crank is a much more desirable thing than a fossil who has no idea of his own at all. He will turn out that aggregation of hypocrites who at the present time infest the Treasury

"A tremendous force is against Mr. Essery. Why ir the name of common sense can such a state of affairs as that occur. Surely, I hope cur Roman Catholic friends will not take such an unwise step. Why, Mr. Essery would not injure one of them; he would not assist in passing a law that would injure one of them; he would not take a single liberty against one of them if he had the power. And he never will have the powar, because the genius of this century will not allow any infringement on religious liberty." "I would like to see politics buried in

London."

P. H. Bartlett, spoke next. Among other things he said: "I think it would be a good thing if the whole Grit party in this country was put through a laundering operation. But, gentlemen, I would not like to be around when it was being done unless some of Mr. Hobbs' disinfectants were near at hand." "If there is a man in this country who needs watching it is the same Mr. Ross. In his younger days he was looked upon as being one of the champion romancers of the Province of Ontario. And I regret to say that that character clings to him yet." "Mr. Ross never had anything more than a second-class certificate in his life. and he got it by reason that there was a dearth of public school teachers at that time. He is one of the most unscrupulous men in the whole political life of Ontario. "If it was in our power, no doubt there are things about Mr. Essery that we would

"This Government is not worthy of the trust of a poodle dog." "If Mr. Hobbs had a little pop gun method about him he would have popped rationally, and he would not have had to ask the ladies at the Opera House to have

"It was a vulgar thing for Mr. Dryden to say that he was a liar, and it was unnecessary, because we all know that all the members of the Government down here are liars, anyhow." "Mr. Ross has not got brains enough to peak about big matters." "We are going to send Mr. Essery down there, and he will make them all sick." "Mr. Ross is not a man at all."

"John Campbell started out with a contrast that he had neither brains nor capital enough to fulfill; he started out to rattle the Conservatives at the official nomination. He was like a snake I once saw in a side show-he was trying to eat himself. I was not mayor of the city of London when John Campbell went to Toronto and got drunk and sat down on his plug hat. "I propose to ask the Legislature to petition the Deminion Government that an application shall be made to the Imperial Parliament to have the Act of Confederation so altered that the great Province of Ontario shall stand in the same position as Manitoba and the Northwest Provinces, as earlier works "On the Consumption of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and like Tissue During Muscular Action." A Toronto Widow Sues a Coachman for $5,000 Damages.

TORONTO, Nov. 15 .- An interesting breach of promise case is set down for trial at the York Civil Assizes. The plaintiff is Elsie Allerstedh, widow, of this city, and the defendant James Droop, a coachman, for-merly of Toronto, but now living at Petrolea. The damages asked are $5,000. Plaintiff alleges that she became acquainted with the coachman in December, 1892, and the marriage was to have taken place on June 7, 1893. She had been employed as housekeeper, which position she gave up at defendant's request in order to prepare for the wedding. The defendant subsequently refused to marry her, and also declines to provide for her child. Defendant denies all the allegations, except that he agreed to marry the plaintiff, but avers that the marriage was proken off by Mrs. Allerstedh, who also released him from all claims.

MARION, Ill., Nov. 15 .- A 12-year old son of R. J. Morray met his death in a singular manner at a school house a few miles southeast of this place late this atternoon. Upon his arrival home from school the lad discovered that he had left his gloves at the school house. He immediately returned for them, but found the door locked. From the surroundings it is supposed he procured a piece of timber, which he placed against the wall of the building to assist him in climbing in through the window. When found a few hours afterwards his body was hanging from the window, his neck having been caught between the sash and the sill. He had evidently climbed upon the timber, raised the lower sash and tried to make au under his feet and the sash fell and caught his feet when found.

THE SUBJECT OF WASTING.

Some of Its Phases and How They Are Cured.

The Wasting of a Consumptive and the Wasting of Babies and Children-Scrofula, Anaemia and Other Forms of Illness Discussed - Coughs and Colds Reveal a Weakened Condition.

In the obituary notices of the late Prof. Hermann von Helmholtz, the German scientist, were references to one of his work Prof. Helmboltz set the theory forth as an established fact that wherever there is muscular action there is also a wasting, or rather a consumption of tissue.

The body is constantly changing. There is wasting going on all the time. Food is designed to counteract this wasting, and if the organs of the body are in a healthy state food does do its work in nourishment. But the digestive and vital organs get out of tune every once in a while, so that an extra nourishment, one that is concentrated and easy of assimilation, is needed in order to keep up a normal condition of health. If this extra nourishment is not taken the wasting which goes on incessantly soon impairs health. One of the first signs of a weakened, poorly-nourished body is taking cold easily. Colds are such common things that people are very apt to neglect them. They do not know that the cold reveals a weakened condition, but after taking cold several times they find it harder work to recover the semblance of health again. The common way to cure a cold or a cough is to take some househod specific. or when a person feels run down in health he thinks he needs a tonic or stimulant. The truth is, however, ordinary specifics and tonics or stimulants, for coughs and colds, afford only temporary relief. They are merely superficial means of relieving the local trouble, but they do not give the nourishment necessary to strengthen the system and overcome the wasting tendencies. It is because Scott's Emulsion promotes the making of healthy tissue, enriches the blood, and gives vital strength that physicians give it such unqualified indorsement. Scott's Emulsion is quick to relieve inflammation of the throat and lungs, and its power to cure the most stubborn cough is unquestioned. But this is only part of its work. Scott's Emulsion makes the system able to ward off disease and other ailments. This subject of wasting is almost inexhaustible. Scrofula results in a wasting of the vital elements of the blood, and anaemia is simply no blood at all. Consumption is probably the worst form of wasting. In all of the early stages of this disease Scott's Emulsion will effect a cure. It requires time to recover after a patient is once into consumption, but there are numerous cases where Scott's Emulsion has cured persons who had got so far that they raised quanti-

The wasting tendencies of babies and children are known to too many unhappy parents. There does not in thousands of instances seem to be any cause for their growing thin, but as a matter of fact their food does not nourish them and the babies and children do not thrive. Now it costs only 50 cents to try Scott's Emulsion, and you will find that it will do more for your baby or your child than all the rest of the nourishment taken. Scott's haggard look in the pinched faces of so

-Hamilton Times: Mr. Marter gave the London people another taste of his quality last (Wednesday) night, his speech lasting till 10:30. He might talk till polling day without seriously affecting Mr. Hobbs' chances of election, for Marter is a wearisome talker.

-Our esteemed local contemporary used to say that Mr. Carling should be supported, on the ground that he was a worker for the city, even if he was no blatherskite. That is what Mr. Hobbs' friends can honestly say-that Mr. Hobbs is a worker for the city, even if he is no blatherskite.

-British Liberal newspapers are pleased because Lord Rosebery reads the Bible and has an aptitude for quotations. His recent speech against the House of Lords bristled with Scriptural passages. He said that he had "kept silence, yea, even from good words." The Liberal party had to pass their measures in "fire andhail, snow and vapor," and he advised them, "having put their hand to the plow, not to look back," nor "to trust in the arm of flesh," but to "keep their loins girded." In thus turning Scripture to account, the present Liberal Premier of Great Britain follows John Bright, whose Biblical and Miltonian refer- it won't be Hobbs. ences showed how earnestly he studied the Scriptures and the works of the blind poet.

HAS ANYONE BEEN LEFT ALONE? Mr. Essery's unruly tongue has in turn attacked Mr. John Campbell, Mr. Carling, Mr. W. R. Meredith, the late Josiah Blackburn, Mr. Thomas Smallman and the late Mayor Harry Becher. In the latter case Mr. Essery had not the manliness to confine himself to the member of the family who was the candidate for the mayoralty. He also attacked Water Commissioner Wm. Jones, the gentleman he described as "the galloping mate" of ex-Mayor Taylor. Who has Mr. Essery not attacked?

THAT WONDERFUL LOAN.

Mr. Foster, Dominion Finance Minister, has returned from England, where, at the public expense and in spite of the fact that we pay Sir Charles Tupper about $20,000 a year to represent us there, he has been floating a loan for $11,000,000. There has been considerable rejoicing among Mr. Foster's friends because he has exhibited a striking capacity to run the country into debt. But there is nothing remarkable about the terms upon which the money has been obtained, when one takes into consideration the condition of the British money market. The English Economist of Nov. 3 contains two paragraphs, close together, which are quoted below:

Tenders for the issue of £66 600 Batley Corporation 3 per cent redeemable stock were opened at the Town Hall, Batley, on Thursday, the 1st inst. at 11 o'clock. and amounted to £166,330, at prices ranging from the minimum, £991, to £101. Tenders at £100 will receive about 50 per cent, of their applications. The average price obtained is £100 3s. 5d. per cent. Tenders for £2,250,000 Dominion of Canada 3 per cent inscribed stock were opened on Oct. 29 at the Bank of Montreal, and amounted to £11,294,000, at prices varying from the minimum of £95 to £99 12s. 6d. Tenders at £97 8s. 6d. will receive about 49 per cent. of the amount applied for and those above that price in full. The average price obtained for the stock is £97 9a. 2d.

town, with a population of about 30,000 ouls, was able to borrow at 3 per cent on Canada. On every £100 which it borrowed it got on the average £2 14: 3d more than Canada did. The St. John's Globe very vigorous manner, after which he turned fairly auggests that it might have been better if Mr. Foster had remained at home and let the bankers handle the whole business

WILL NOT BE RATIFIED.

Mr. Essery having selected himself as special guardian of the Protestant churches in London, Mr. Macklin is determined not to be behind. Mr. Macklin's role is to take special charge of the Catholic community. It is needless to say that there will be no professes to be a friend of the work-

BRITISH FAIR PLAY AND ESSERY ARE STRANGERS.

At the London East meeting Mr. Essery made a personal attack on a member of the ADVERTISER staff who was present in a non-official capacity. The chivalrous man pointed to the city editor of the ADVER-TISER as one who was leaving the meeting when he began to speak because he was an opponent of British fair play. Mr. Rossie turned back when this untruth was uttered and in the mildest of language attempted to vindicate himself. The fact was that while Mr. Essery was charging that the city editor of the ADVERTISER was shirking his duty, another reporter of this journal was at the reporters' table attending to his duties in the usual way, and Mr. Essery knew it. Again, addressing a small gathering of his friends in the South London rink last night Mr. Essery returned to the attack of this journal, and was proceeding to make a series of accusations against it which he knew to be false, when the ADVERTISER representative present, finding patience no longer a virtue, told him that he did not tell the truth, "Mr. Essery," the Free Press report says, "said if it was not for the fact that he was mayor he would take the reporter by the scruff of the neck address, we are told the mayor repeated "that if it were not for his office he would castigate him for his impudence." The member of our staff assailed desires us to say that Mr. Essery's rowdy threats will not deter him from doing his duty in defense of what he believes to be right at all times and on all occasions. If Mr. Essery had decided to engage in physical combat with the young man whom he threatened, he would have fared no better than on the occasion when he undertook to "brain" with a chair his fellow Foresters for refusing to let him ride roughshod over them.

What Mr. Essery is annoyed about is that he is now thoroughly found out. Hence his reckless charges and platform billingsgate. He prates about British fair

(Hamilton Herald, no party paper.) The London nominations came off yesterday without anybody being seriously injured, and at last accounts Hobbs and Essery were sprinting for the winning post as hard as they could go. The impression seems to be growing that whoever is beaten

AN OUTSIDE OPINION.

In one respect there is a difference between Marter and his recently espoused nominee. Marter has, until the present break, been averse to demagoguery, whilst Essery has been a demagogue all his life. He has boxed the compass, politically; he has steered north by south on all questions; he has been everything to everybody, and in his anxiety for notoriety he has not hesitated to make sacrifice for his best friends. If he be defeated in London-and the conditions point that way-it is quite possible that the next time he and Leader Marter meet on the platform, the latter will feel the weight of the most vituperative tongue in London.

A TONGUE ROUGH ON BOTH SIDES. (Today's Toronto Globe.)

Mr. Essery, Conservative candidate for London, professes to believe that the Globe's reports are written by Catholic priests. But, then, Mr. Essery, once said: Mr. Meredith is a traitor. He should not have allowed Sir John Macdonald to turn nim from the path of duty in relation to Ontario's rights. He should have taken his stand for Ontario and said to Sir John Macdonald, 'Hands off, and let Ontario's property alone!' Had he done that he would have been Premier of Ontario today; but he never will be now if he lives as long as Methuseleh and his billygoat combined." He also expressed this opinion about Mr. Carling: "Mr. Carling is a bloated corruptionist, who would load a steamer with beer and a band, and carry gentry around free, and charge the expenditure to colonization roads." And this was his opinion of the Conservative party: "The Bible and beer! If the Tories knew as much about the Bible as they do about beer it would be a God-send to the people." If Mr. Essery could get the votes of all the citizens of London who at one time or other have had to take the rough side of his tongue-and his tongue is rough on both sides-he would have an enormous majority next Tuesday.

Costly Trips by Mayor Essery and His Aldermanic Friends During Last Year.

Over Eleven Hundred Dollars of City Money Spent on Excur sions in 1893—Citizens, Behold the Promise and the Performance.

The Pledge by Mr. Essery. Edmund Meredith, Q.C., in his City Hall address regarding Mr. Essery's broken promises to the taxpayers, voiced the views of a large majority of the citizens of London. Mr. Meredith said:

"What did the mayor (Essery) say last year from this platform? Said he: 'I will not bea party to any deputation; a simple postcard will do.' Deputation after deputation has gone from this council with the mayor at the head of them. Grand Government Rally in the Opera House Saturday Night.

Hon. A. S. Hardy, Newton Rowell, Thomas S. Hobbs, George C. Gibbons, Q.C.,

The last grand rally of the campaign will be held in the Opera House tomorrow Saturday evening in the interests of the Government candidate, Mr. Thomas S.

Mr. Hobbs and his friends are to be commended for securing the Opera House for the immense audience which will flock to hear the speakers, though it was necessary to reimburse the theatrical company who were and thirsting for blood. Pussy had sand billed to appear in the building the same night. In this bleak weather the comfort and accommodation of the Opera House will be appreciated.

The oratorical programme will be a brilliant one. Hon. A. S. Hardy, the able Commissioner of Crown Lands, who made such a favorable impression here in June last, will be the principal speaker. He will be supported by Newton Rowell, of Toronto, the eloquent young Londoner; Mr. George C. Gibbons, Q.C., and Mr. Thomas S. Hobbs, the next member.

Be on hand early and avoid the rush.

A CANADIAN TRAGEDY.

Young Lobb Acquitted of Murdering His Wife-Ontario People At Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 16 .- After a sensational trial, lasting over a week, the jury at the Westminster assizes yesterday brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Sydney Lobb, accused of the murder of his wife.

Lobb was accountant for the new Vancouver Coal Company an Nanaimo, and at times went on drinking bouts. During one of these his wife was found dead from a pistol shot through the breast. The prosecution claimed that Lobb shot her, as from the position of the body it was impossible for her to have committed suicide,

The defense produced medical and other expert evidence, showing there was a possibility that deceased had committed suicide, and also produced witnesses who proved she had threatened to commit suicide on account of her husband's drinking habits. The Lobbs came from Toronto. Mrs. Lobb was a daughter of one of the best known families in that city, and was a social favorite. Lobb was a son of ex-Ald. Lobb. The attachment was formed between them in childhood and was never favored by the lady's friends.

FIREBUGS AT WINNIPEG.

Five Alarms and Immense Damage-

Hotels and Stores. WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 16 .- Between midnight and 6 o'clock this morning no less than five alarms of fire were turned in for different fires. Wright Bros.' drygoods, Mitchell's drug store and the offices above in the Western Canada block, corner of Portage avenue and Main street, were completely gutted. Nothing but the walls were left standing. Estimated loss $85,000. While this fire was raging an alarm was rung for another fire at the Grand Union Hotel, which was totally destroyed together with several stores and dwellings adjoining. The fire crossed the street and burned the warehouse of Merrick, Anderson & Co., containing a valuable stock of stoves and hardware. Total loss of this fire estimated at $125,000; insurance meeting to ratify these self-made appoint- ingmen.-E. Meredith, Q.O., in City origin of the fires is supposed to have been PUSSY WHIPPED AN EAGLE. The Bird Measured More Than Six Feet From Tip to Tip, and She Took It Home.

(From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.) CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Nov. 15 .- Charles Wiswell, of Carbonate, Lawrence county, has a cat that is a king of its kind. Besides being a good mouser, this remarkable feline is death to mountain rats, night hawks, and other small game, not long ago bringing home as the result of its prowess a large jack rabbit. But the most remarkable incident in the cat's history har pened a day

It was an encounter with a full-grown bird of freedom, and pussy was the victor. The cat was sitting on a pile of quartz, patiently awaiting the reappearance of a chipmunk, which but a moment before it had chased into a hole, when suddenly the sky above the cat became darkened, and an ominous swish, as if from a rapidly moving body, tell upon pussy's ear. The cat sprang aside with a motion so rapid that the eye could scarcely follow it, and in the place it had occupied but a moment before stood a full-grown bald eagle, its plumage ruffed and accepted the gage of battle, and in less time than it takes to tell it, the famous "cat and parrot" time was being re-enacted. It was a desperate struggle, and although pussy was pretty badly scratched by the eagle's talons, it, when taking the initiative in the fight, secured a decided advantage, having landed on the eagle's back. For few moments the air was filled with fur and feathers, and the ground was all torn up, but pussy held on, and in a short time succeeded in biting through the neck of its antagonist. The struggles of the eagle grew weaker and weaker, and soon ceased altogether, and pussy, exhausted by the violent exertions and sore from wounds inflicted by the eagle's talons, rested for a moment, then, as calm as though sitting on a rug before the kitchen hearth, went carefully over the ruffled fur, made its toiled, and, seizing the body of the vanquished antagonist, drew it with much difficulty to the home of its master. Laying it at the master's feet, the cat purred its satisfaction, and in this way boasted of the victory. The combat was witnessed by a number of people, everyone of whom expressed a desire to buy the cat, but Mr. Wiswell says he would not sell it for the best mine in the Black Hills. The eagle measured six eet four inches from the tip of one wing to that of the other.

It Isn't "The Same As" and it isn't "as good as," no matter what any grocer may tell you about any imitation of Pearline. He makes more money on it-but do you want to ruin your clothes for his profit? The imitations of Pearline are sold at a lower price, naturally, for they're not as good. Some are dangerous, and would be dear at any price.

There's nothing equal to Pearline, the original washing compound, which saves the most work in washing and cleaning, and doesn't do harm. Pearline is never peddled, and offers no prizes. Every package is a prize in itself. Beware of imitations. 374 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

BASEBALL.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE. NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- A majority of the paseball magnates were present in the Tifth Avenue Hotel today when the twentieth convention of the National League reassembled. It is practically acknowledged today that all probability of a change is at present at an end, as far as the number of clubs is concerned. The only clubs that might sell their franchises will not dispose of them for what would be considered a reasonable sum. Should the of hollowware imported by the firm during Thomas. He was a sober, industrious emwould cost $200,000, and such a sum is far of hollowware imported the years 1892 and 1893. beyond what those most in favor of the project would think of giving.

The scheme of forming two circuits-an eastern and a western one-to play separate schedules, and then conclude the series by eastern and western games, and vice versa, while it may eventually come to something, does not appear today to have even the most remote chance of adoption.

The convention on resuming business at once took up the discussion of the disposal of the 10 per cent, gate receipts, which will occupy the undivided attention of the magnates until late in the day.

The evening session of the league commenced at 5 o'clock and lasted until 7:30 o'clock, but according to the statement of Mr. Young little or nothing was accomplished. Harry Wright was again elected chief of umpires, and Henry Chadwick, the veteran baseball reporter, was elected an honorary member of the National League. One delegate from each of the twelve clubs, as individuals, together with Mr. Young and A. G. Spaulding, each subscribed $100 dollars, making a purse of $1,400 for the widow of the late M. J. Kelly, the famous ball player, who recently died in Boston.

ORDERED TO REFUND BETS. ST. Leuis, Nov. 15 .- A decision has been rendered by Justice J. W. Wyatt, of East St. Louis, Ill., which if sustained will knock out bookmaking and race tracks throughout the State of Illinois and possibly in many other States.

H. Barnes claims to have lost $184 at the East Side track during October, 1894. When the case was tried he produced losing tickets representing that amount.

Judge Wyatt ordered the return of the money, saying that that decision was strictly in compliance with the State statute which defines clearly that a person upon proving he has lost an amount equal to or more than $10 upon any gambling device whatever, can obtain full restitution from the parties receiving the same, and if not from them, from the lessees or owners of Seven Men Badly Scalded at Muncie, Ind. MUNCIE, Ind., Nov., 15 .- An accident occurred here this evening by which seven were severely scalded. The injured men are John Gainor, Valentine Gibson, John Curtis, I. Lensy, M. Taylor and John Bowers.

The men were employes of the Muncie Muckbar mill. In the mill are five large boilers, and under these is a mud drum 25 feet long and three feet square. This evening an end of the drum cracked and burst. A stream of hot mud, boiling water and steam was thrown the length of the mill, and the men who was standing in the line of the stream were horribly burned. The flesh on Cainor's face, hands and legs is completely cooked. It is thought that he is burned internally and cannot recover. Gibson and Curtis are also in bad condition. Taylor and Bowers were burned about the face and hands and their bodies were

A TERRIBLE DEATH.

How James Brady, of This City, Met Fate at Chatham.

Fell Between the Cars and Almost In stantly Killed-Apparently Purely Accidental.

A Chatham dispatch yesterday says: About 1:30 this afternoon James Brady, a brakemanona C. P. R. freight train fell between the cars near the station and was instantly killed by the wheels passing over his body He was 35 years of age and unmarried. He lives in London at 715 Maitland street.

The above was the meager intelligence received yesterday afternoon of a fatal accident to a London railroad employe. James Brady, who boarded at Mrs. Catharine Dewan's, 715 Maitland street, was the victim. Brady was employed as brakesman on the C. P. R. "West End Mixed." The train leaves London on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings about 7 o'clock, returning every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and arriving in London about 7:30 p.m. The train left London Wednesday morning on time, with Conductor Albert Harshaw in charge, Joseph Fitzpatrick at the throttle, Newman firing and John Milne and the unfortunate Brady as brakesman. The night was spent in Windsor, and at the usual hour the train pulled eastward. It was pretty heavy, as freight traffic on the read has been unusually brisk of late. At Chatham considerable shunting had to be done, and it was just about completed when poor Brady met his death. Engineer Fitzpatrick was shoving about half a dozen cars out of a spur line, between the station and freight sheds and in the center of the town. The front car was to be dropped, and Brady, who was on top of the train, was seen to go down the steps on the end of the second car to the front. When the spur was cleared the engineer was going to give the cars a "shot" in order to allow Brady to draw the coupling pin. Fitzpatrick was about to do this when he received a signal from Newman to shut off steam. The warning was promptly heeded and the train brought to a standstill but not until after two trucks had passed over Brady's body. The unfortunate man was pulled from under the car and carried to the station, where everything possible was done to relieve him: but it was of no avail. Brady happened-without having spoken a word to his companions. The cause of the accident is a mystery, but it is supposed that in descending the steps Brady missed his footing and fell. The body was taken to an undertaker's. where it was examined. Strange to say, ford, Mass., aged 90. He was commis- the wheels had not broken the flesh, the only appearance of an injury being a black setts militia in 1841, and was a prominent | mark directly across the abdomen. An inquest will be held at Chatham today, when the train hands will be examined.

Brady was about 30 years of age, and had been in the employ of the C. P. R. for ploye, and was highly respected by everybody connected with the read. The remains will be taken to Toronto today for burial.

K. OF L. GENERAL ASSEMBLY. NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 15. - The Knights of Labor listened to an address by Vice-President George Howard, of the American Railway Union, in which he discussed the principles of the union and urged amalgamation of all the great labor rganizations of the country into one association and under one management. Grand Master Workman Sovereign expressed his 'approval of the plan, and hoped means would be found to carry it out.

LABOR NOTES. The operators in the Clearfield district of Pennsylvania have given notice of a reduction in miners' wages, and a strike is Twenty-six expert diamond cutters from Antwerp, who came over in the steamship Friesland, were detained on arriving at

New York on the claim that they were brought in under contract. The New York cloak manufacturers are fast becoming convinced that the strike of their employes is becoming too costly. They are losing business, and it has been suggested by one of the most important of the manufacturers that the committee of seventy be called in to arbitrate the differences. The manufacturers are running short of woolens, and are unable to have their orders filled by the large woolen manufacturers. Upon investigation it was found that Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland and other western cities had bought up practically all the woolen goods in the market. It is admitted that the cloak manufacturing business had fallen off from $12,000,000 to $8,000,000 since the strike

A special from Cleveland says: Chief P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was asked his views concerning the report of the national commission appointed to investigate the great American Railway Union strike of last summer. He said he thought the censure about equally distributed between the A. R. U., the general managers and Mr. Pullman. I have always maintained that a commission similar to the interstate commission should be appointed by the Government for the purpose of settling difficulties arising between corporations and employes. It is the safest and surest way of a settlement. "I don't see how the report can be considered a victory for one side or the other, but simply as a strong plea for harmony between employer and employe. It simply rehearses what everyone already knows, with strong logical recommendations. Unless Congress sees fit to take some action in the matter and enact laws in accordance with these recommendations, there can be no possible benefit derived from it."

CHARACTER IN FEET.

THEY ARE CERTAIN INDICATORS OF PERSONALTY.

At Least So Say Some Artists-How Fashion Distorts Nature-One of the Latest Fads Among the Wealthy

It is said by prominent artists and well known chiropodists that a truly perfect foot, from an artistic standpoint, is as rare nowadays as black-birds in May. When we remember the famous beauties of olden times, whose feet were tenderly cared for and exquisitely shaped, this appears truly deplorable.

There was no question in those artloving days of what kind of shoe to buy so that one's foot would show off to the best advantage. Helen of Troy, to whose beautiful and shapely foot sonnets ininnumerable were written, would have been horrified at the sight of the average modern foot, and would probably have been thrown into convulsions to hear the amount spent each week at the

That our women of the better class are paying more attention to the care of the feet than formerly is an indisputable fact. A prominent society woman on her return from Paris several months ago exhibited to a room full of admiring friends the sweetest, daintiest little plaster cast of a foot, which, she declared, was a counterpart of her own, made by a sculptor of world wide fame. She was at that moment having a life size one carved in marble to be mounted on cerise velvet, and several small ones, one-half the size, struck off in different shades of pale pink, blue and old rose.

It was quite a fad across the sea, so she said, to have your foot photographed as well as your hand or your face—that is, if you were lucky enough to possess one blessd with artistic curves and out-

The secret of this is that persons are beginning to find out what sculptors have known all along, namely, that a foot is as much indicative of personality and character as any other active member of the human form, and after being made aware of what delightful and characteristic charms a graceful, poetic foot indicates, the majority of fashionable women are supremely anxious to preserve the model by statuary or pictures.

Some excellent leading points to remember, if a woman wishes to read the lines in her own pretty feet, are that a full, well rounded heel denotes good breeding, and a straight one, of course, just the opposite. When the heel forms a kind of arch with the instep it is sure sign of blue blooded stock, and if it should extend behind to any marked degree you can make sure that great force of character goes with it.

The arched and high instep, as ing indication of a long line of ancestors, ment, innate delicacy of feeling and true gentleness of character which distinguish the bona fide lady from her common sister.

rapidly remove all natural lines of beauty ity! as an ill-fitting shoe, and as friction is as fatal as pressure, too large a shoe does as much damage as if it were several sizes too small. Have the last used in building your footgear resemble the the vamp ought to come where it will undoubtedly raise ridges and furrows.

In caring for the feet, particular attention ought to be paid to paring the nails, which, according to Dr. Westervelt, should be cut perfectly straight, if anything a little shorter in the centre than on the sides.

The desire among our aristocrats to shaped feet has been increasing for the last few years. When a woman realizes that she can wear an "A" shoe in width or a one and a half in length she then begins to think about the contour of her foot and immediately seeks to remove ers. all blemishes that will disfigure it any way. She visits her particular chiropodist as religiously as her dentist or manicure, and from him learns the proper method of preserving the beauty and softness of skin. Following out her foot doctor's orders minutely and being particular about the make and cut of her shoe, there is no reason why the majority of women who have time and leisure should not be blessed with as artistic pedal extremities as those of Mrs. Secretary Belknap, whom they used to say invariably attracted a group of admirers, who gathered to gaze at her lovely and daintily clad feet whenever she stepped into her carriage. Many of our well-known New York society women can boast of extremely aristocratic feet. Mrs. E. Marcy Raymond, of Fifth avenue, has a noticeably pretty foot, the artistic contour of which is enhanced by the delicate soft grays and tan suedes she wears. Mrs. Edwin Gould's foot is thoroughly characteristic of the charming disposition of its pretty owner, and Mrs. Theodore Sutro's foot is always incased in shoes that not only match each costume, but fit to perfection at every point. The lines in Mrs. Sutro's foot indicate a purely artistic and musical nature, with high intellectual endowments.

Mrs. Frank Leslie can be happy in the knowledge that she is one of the few women whose boot number only reaches to the height of "one," and whose width does not exceed that of a child. The lines in this foot, as read by an expert, denote great power, indicated by the noticeable rise of the big toe, unusual executive ability, a keen intellect, charm of manner, versatility and high breed-

One of the first things you notice about the Marquise de Lanza is her extremely pretty foot. It is exquisite in outline, and Mme. Lanza might well take it as a subject in some of her writings.

Half a truth is not much better than a even the worst cases in a few applications. | whole lie.

Hall's butcher shop on Talbot street was badly damaged by fire on Monday night last. The firemen responded very promptly, and the fire was quickly under control. It is fortunate that the discovery of the fire was made in time to save the block of frame buildings adjoining.

Little Curious Things.

In all Europe there are 51,801 breweries. and they produce 4,980,000,000 gallons of malt liquors annually.

A cubic foot of average newly fallen snow weighs five and a half pounds, and has 12 times the bulk of an equal weight of water.

Astronomers say that if a cannon could be fired on the equator of Jupiter the ball would travel 46 times faster than if fired at our equator.

Waves 20 feet high exert a force of about one ton to the square foot and are strong enough to move bowlders of 15 cubic feet. In 1635, during the great "tulip craze," in Holland, a single bulb of the "Semper Augustus" sold for a sum equal to $2,200. A temperature of 220 degrees below the zero of Fahrenheit has been produced by mixing carbon bisulphide and liquid nitrous acid.

During a great eruption at Cotopaxi, in the early part of the century, a mass of rocks 100 cubic yards in volume was hurled nine miles

According to Muller the total number of words, or rather ideas, expressed by Chinese characters is 43,596.

The age of the earth is estimated from the increment in the temperatures as we penetrate its crust. From data thus produced, Sir William Thompson says that it is at least 200,000,000 years old.

Let me give you together with the refinement of tempera- a piece of advice: The best reform is to make one person better. I need not say who that person should be."

Limited Eternity for Breakfast.

A Salvation Army preacher, in one of his Nothing in the wide world will so talks, exclaimed to his hearers: "Eternity! Why, don't you know the meaning of that word? Nor I, either, hardly. It is for ever and ever, and five or six ever astings a-top of that. You might place a row of figures from here to sunset, and cipher them all up, and it wouldn't begin to tell how many ages long eternity is, model as closely as possible and don't Why, my friends; after millions and trillet the shoemakers persuade you that lions of years had rolled away in eternity. it would be a hundred thousand years to breakfast-time."

innuence of Alcohol on Life.

The British Medical Association, wishing an exact statement of the influence of alcohol over the duration of life, charged a commission with the inquiry. Observations included 4,234 cases of death in five categories of individuals, and here is the average age attained by each class: Abbe spoken of as the owners of prettily stainers, 51-years and 1 month; moderate drinkers, 62 years and 1-2 month; occasional drinkers, 59 years and two months; habitual drinkers, 57 years and 2 months; irunkards, 53 years and 1-2 month. The more advanced age is attained by moderate drinkers and the minimum by abstain-

The Extraordinary Declaration of Mr. Essery.

"I Have Got Them (the Conservatives) Where I Want Them, and They Must Put Up With What I Say Whether They Like It or Not."

At a mass meeting held in Forest in November, 1893, to indorse the candida ture of P. D. McCallum, the P. P. A. candidate for East Lambton, in the bye-election, Mayor Essery, of London, was the prinicipal speaker. The following is an extract from his speech on that occasion, as taken by a shorthand writer. On rising Mr. Essery said:

"I am here tonight, as the mayor of the city of London, and I have come to do honor to P. D. McCallum, the independent candidate. It has been said that I have eft my party. I am still a member of the Liberal-Conservative party. They would like to get rid of me, but they cannot do so; I have got them where I want them, and they must put up with what I say, whether they like it or not."

-Mr. Daniel Ashwell has obtained a permit for the erection of a two-story brick residence at 506 Piccadilly street. The price is $1,500. A. D. Lawrence has also taken out a permit to erect a frame office on Maitland street, near Pall Mall.

-An Owen Sound dispatch says: "The remains of Mr. James A. Walker arrived on Wednesday morning from London, Ont., accompanied by Col. Macpherson, of Ottawa. The funeral was held in the afternoon and was largely attended."

-The quarterly board of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Avenue road, Toronto, has extended a unanimous call to Rev. E. E. Scott, well known in this city and throughout Western Ontario, now of Dunn Avenue Church, Parkdale, to become their pastor in June, 1896. Mr. Scott has acaccepted the call, subject to the usual conditions.

-The concert in the school room of St. James' Presbyterian Church last night was well attended and very enjoyable. The pastor, Rev. M. P. Talling, presided, and introduced the programme, which consisted of anthems by the choir; recitations, Miss Wray Simon; reading, Mr. J. Gray; duet, Mr. Armstrong and Miss Scott; solos, Mr. Simon, and instrumentals by Mr. Burness.

Companions of the Forest, held last night, the selection of district deputy across the river. He was arrested as he for Middlesex was made. The names that went before the committee were Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Cripps, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Gibling and Miss Lily White. Mrs. Gibling, of Pride of the East Circle, was finally chosen. There were several visitors present from other circles. A short programme was arranged in which Miss Maud Gunn, Mr. Lou Hessel, Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Stiling took part.

-The grand jurors for the December session of the Middlesex County Court have been selected by Crown Attorney Magee and Squires Smyth and Lacey. 4 The list is as follows: John R. -The lecture room of the Askin Street Methodist Church held a large and wellpleased audience last night. Miss Neal, teacher of elocution at Alma College, St. Thomas, was the chief contributor to a good programme. Her selections were wide in range and most cleverly handled. Miss Chadwick, Miss Fleming and Mr. Stockwell gave solos, and Mr. Moxon and Mrs. Chadwick instrumentals. The numbers of tne London West Male Quartet were highly appreciated. The concert was and the absence of ladies from the crowds under the auspices of the Epworth League. -Surprises were in order at the King Street Presbyterian Church last night. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church invited the congregation and many friends to a social, and the invitations were generally accepted. After an hour spent in a pleasant way Mr. Arch. Black stepped forward and read an address to Rev. R. Robertson and his wife. It was very kindly worded, and expressed appreciation at the success their efforts had met with. The address was accompanied by a presentation of two handsome easy chairs. Mr. J. A. Mc-Harg also presented Mr. Robertson with a silver-mounted blackthorn walking stick. Mr. D. L. Hardey, leader of the choir, also came in for an easy chair. The recipients were taken by surprise, and thanked the ladies and congregation in general. Mr. Wm. Brown presided. Dr. Gardiner delivered an address, and several selections wero given by the choir.

In Toronto yesterday, before Chief Justice Meredith, Mr. G. C. Gunn, city for the executor of Elizabeth O'Neil's will, asked the advice of the court as to a sum of money bequeathed for the purposes of a house of industry in this city. Mrs. O'Neil was the widow of the late John O'Neil, and at her death some twenty years ago left the sum of $200, which was to be turned over to the city when an industrial home was erected here. The money has been bearing interest since, until now the principal amounts to over $400. Mr. Gunn, for the executor, asked whether the sum should be paid into court or handed over to the corporation. Order made for the money to be paid into court until the home should be erected.

Death of Mr. L. B. Young.

The many friends of Mr. L. B. Young, of Toronto, will regret to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday in the Queen City after a lingering illness from brain fever. Mr. Young was a brother of Mr. C. C. Young, agent of the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway, and Mrs. John Anderson, of this city, and a son of the late Sheriff's Officer Benj. Young. He was born in this city and shortly after shorthand was introduced in this city took up its study. He was very successful and secured a position on the official staff of Ontario court reporters. Mr. Young was one of the most accomplished stenographers on circuit, and had arrived at that stage of experience when he was being intrusted with shorthand work of the highest class. Grand Opera House tomorrow night. You A sad feature in connection with Mr. Young's death is the fact that his mother died a few weeks ago in this city. It was unknown to him, however, and during his entire illness he was looking forward to the time when he would be able to visit London and see her. Mr. Young was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and two young children.

Rev. H. C. Speller, of De Land, Fla., soon after his return from a pleasant vaca--Five young men paid their statute tion spent among Canadian friends, was labor tax in court this morning. A drunk attacked with what is known in the South was discharged, and two young women, as the "dengue fever," which completely who spent the night in the cells on a charge laid him up for over a week. Two of Mr. Speller's children also suffered from the same malady, one of the little ones being quite ill. They have all recovered, but Mr. Speller is finally convinced that he must heed the warning of his physician, who last summer told him he would never be well in the climate of Florida, and, much to the regret of his church and many others in De Land, he decided to resign his pastorate in that place the first week in the present month, his resignation to take effect the first part of February. While the reverend gentiman's numerous friends throughout Ontario will regret the cause that compels him to make the change they would hail his return to Canada-should he so decide-with great pleasure, especially in view of the growth of the denomination here, and the increasing need for able and experienced ministers. An Abuser of the Reporters. At the meeting in the Westminster Rink last night Mr. Essery again attacked the ADVERTISER and singled out George W. Yates, a representative of that paper, as the special object of his invective. After calling him "stabber," Mr. Essery proceeded to assert that caucuses of asylum officials were being held in the ADVERTISER office at nights. The reporter promptly informed Mr. Essery that he was a liar.

"What," he asked in astonishment, as he turned white and trembled to think that his copyright on the English undefiled was being infringed, "do you dare to repeat that ?"

"Yes, I do," answered the reporter, and what is more, you deliberately lied in the East End last night." There was a great deal of confusion by this time and shouts of "Throw him out," "Shut up, you pup," and other similar expressions were heard. The mayor had recovered his breath in the meantime and resumed with a torrent of abuse, which was carefully eliminated from the Free Press report of the proceedings. Several ladies and some men left the rink. In conclusion Mr. Essery said it was only the high -At the meeting of Loyalty Circle, dignity of his office that restrained him from administering chastisement "by the scruff of the neck."

The reporter told Mr. Essery that he need not let his office stand in the way. He could attempt his chastisement then or directly after the meeting. Mr. Essery did not answer this challenge.

Mr. Essery has attacked other reporters than those of the ADVERTISER. In the City Hall last December he accused Mr. Alf. E. Miller, a Free Press reporter, of stealing a telegram off the city engineer's desk. He also at the same time accused the Free Press of being bought up by the Canada General Electric Light Company. Before that he called the Free Press reporters "whisky heads" and several other nice names. The ADVERTISER is not alone in sharing Mr. Essery's abuse.

"You'll let me stay here to-night, sir?" she said, when there was nothing more to be done, as Dr. Rane—who had been out—came in, and passed by the kitchen.
"No need." he answered in his decisive manner. "Be here the first thing in the morning."

Phillis put on her shawl and bonnet, wished him good night, and departed. It was about ten o'clock. Dr. Rane saw her out and went up to the sick room. In less than five minutes he came down again with a white face, opened the front, door, and strode across the road to Mr. See ey's. The latter was in his surgery, in the act of pouring some medicine into a small phial.

"Seeley! Seeley! My wife is gone!" What with the suddenness of the interruption, and the words, the surgeon was so atartled that he dropped the bottle.
"Gone!" he cried. "Do you mean dead?"

"Why, when I saw you at dusk, you told me she was sleeping comfortably!" said the surgeon, staring at Dr. Rane. "Phillis also

"And so she was. She was to all appearance. Heaven is my witness that I thought and believed the sleep then to be natural, and was refreshing her. She must have ded in it. I went up now, and found her-

Oliver Rane put his arm on Mr. Seeley's counter and bent his face to hide his smotion. The surgeon in the midst of his turprise, had hardly ever felt so sorry for anyone as he felt in that moment for his erother practitioner.

CHAPTER XIV.

It was too true. "Mrs. Rane was dead," or even that same night the sad tidings went partially out to Dallory. What with the death of Hepburn the undertaker, and how the doctor's wife—both prominent people, as might be said, in connection with the sickness—something like consternation fell on those who heard it. Dr. Rane carried the news himself to Dallory Hall, catching Mr. North just as he was going to bed, and imparting it to him in the most gentle and soothing manner in his power. Fearing that if left until morning, it might reach him abruptly, the doctor had thus made haste. From thence he went on to Hepburn's. He had chanced to meet Francis Dallory in coming out of See ey's; he met some one else he knew; these carried the tidings to others; so that many heard of it that night.

But now we come to a strange and singular thing that happened to Jelly. Jelly in her tart way was sufficiently good-hearted. There was sickness in Ketler's house: the wife had her three days' old infant; the little girl, Cissy, grew worse and weaker; and Jelly chose to sacrifice an afternoon to nursing them. Much as she disapproved of the man's joining the Trades' Union and upholding the strike, often as she had assured him that both starving and the workhouse, whichever he might prefer, were too good for him, now that misfortune lay upon the house, Jelly came-to a little. Susan Ketler was her cousin; and, after all, she was not to blame for her husband's wrong doings. Accordingly, in the afternoon of the last day of Mrs. Rane's illness, Jelly went forth to Ketler's, armed with some beef-tea, and a few scraps for the half-famished children, the whole enclosed in a reticule.

"I shall take the latch-key," she said, in starting, to the cook, who was commonly called Dinah, "so you can go to bed. If Susan Ketler's very ill I shall stop late. Mind you put a box of matches on the slab

Susan Ketler was not very ill, Jelly found; but the child, Cissy, was. So ill, that Jelly hardly knew whether to leave her at all, or not. The mother could not attend her; Ketler had gone tramping off beyond Whit-borough after Union work, and had not returned. Only that she thought Mrs. Cumberland would not be pleased if she came to hear that Jelly, the confidential servant in charge, had stayed out for a night, leaving the house with only the cook in it, she had certainly remained. At past twelve poor Ketler arrived home, deat beat, sick, faint, having walked several miles without food. Jelly blew him up a little; she considered that the man who could refuse work when his children were starving, because he be-longed to the Trades' Union, deserved rothing but blowing-up; bade him look to Cissy, told him ungraciously that there was a loaf in the pan, and departed. Ketler, ready to drop though he was, civilly offered to see her home; but all the thanks he received in return, was a recommendation to attend to his own concerns and not to meddle with hers.

It was a fine, still night, rather to warm for the illness that had fallen upon Dallory; and Jelly walked on at a swift pace, her reticule, empty now, on her arm. Some women might have felt timid at the midnight walk; Jelly was too strong-minded to feel anything of the sort. She certainly found it a little lonely on entering the Ham, as if the road under the over-shadowing trees, begining now to lose some of their teaves, had something weird about it. But this part was soon passed; and Jelly came to the houses, and within sight of home. Not a soul met she; it was as dreary, as far as human companionship went, as it could be. A black cat sprang suddenly from the hedge, and tore across the road almost touching Jelly's feet; and it made her

She began thinking about Mrs. Rane; quite unconscious of the death that had taken place. When Jelly left home in the afternoon Mrs. Rane was said to be in hanger; at least such was Phillis's opinion, privately communicated; but late in the news had been brought to Ketler's that all danger was over. Mrs. Rane was in a refreshing sleep, and going on safely to

"And I'm downright glad of it, poor young lady!" said Jelly, half aloud, as she turned in at her gate. "Doctors' wives are turned in at her gate. "Doctors' wives are maturally more exposed to the chance of catching infections. But on the other hand / highways badly need repairing. they have the best advice and care at hand."

A Member of the Ontario Board of hand."

It was striking one. Letting herself in with the latch-key, Jelly felt for the box of matches, passing her hand cautiously over the marble table. And passed it in vain; no matches were there.
"Forgetful hussy!" ejeculated Jelly, apostrophizing the unconcious Dinah. So Jelly crept quietly upstairs in the dark, knowing she had matches in her own chamber; and in a minute came upon another of the negligent Dinah's delinquencies. She had omitted to draw down the blind of the large window on the land-

"She has been out at that back-door, talking to people," quoth Jelly in her warth. "Just like her! Won't she catch it from me in the morning!" Turning to draw the blind herself, she was suddenly arrested, with the cord in her hand, by something on the opposite landing, at Dr. Rane's. Standing there, dressed in something white, which Jelly at the time thought looked like a nightgown, was Mrs. Rane. The landing was faintly lighed, as if by some distant candle; but Mrs. Rane was perfectly visible, her features and even their expression quite clear. The first thought that crossed Jelly was, that Mrs. Rane was delirious; but she looked too still for that. She did not move; and the eyes gazed with a fixed stare, as it seemed to Jelly. But that she herse f must have been invisible in the surrounding darkness, she would have thought Mrs. Rane was staring at her. For a full minute this lasted: Jelly watching,

Mrs. Rane never moving.
"What in the world brings her standing there?" quoth Jelly in her amazement.
"And what can she be staring at? It can't

But at that moment Jelly's bag slipped from her arm, and fell on the carpet. It caused her to remove her gaze from the opposite landing for a single second—it really did not seem longer. When she looked again, the place was in darkness; Mrs. Rane and the faint light had both dis-

"She has no business to be out of her bed -and the doctor ought to tell her so if he's at home," thought Jelly. "Anyway, she must be a great deal better; for I don't think it's delirium.

She waited a short time, but nothing more was seen. Drawing down the blind, Jelly picked up her bag, and passed on to her own chamber-one of the back rooms on the first floor, where she slept undisturbed until morning

A Terrible Experience. Mr. Geo. Tribe, of Staffordville, Ont., a pretty village near the shores of Lake Erie, went through an experience lately that he will never forget. He tells it in his own words: For three years I suffered from skin disease in its worst form. I tried Kennedy's Medical Discovery and the Cuticura remedies, and doctored one year with the best physicians in the land, but got no benefit; they pronounced my disease a Scaly Eruption, but failed to remove it. It came on in red blotches and spread over my body; the skin became dry and formed hard, white scales; the itching was intolerable, but I am now completely cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. I can truly say that I owe my good health to B. B., and I advise all sufferers to use this splendid medicine.

A Wonderful Cure.-Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's VEGE-TABLE DISCOVERY. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly, to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DIS-COVERY, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one half the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilicus habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little affect. But since using three bottles of the VEGETABLE DISCOVERY the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know." 3 There are 248 cases pending in the English divorce courts, as against 319 listed at

The Prophet Was Unappreciated-Ushers and Ticket-Takers in Trouble.

New York, Nov. 15 .- Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, who last week placarded himself throughout Harlem as "the Canadian astronomer and weather prophet, who has gained great renown by his weather prophecies," and who announced that during the current week he would discourse to the Harlemites on "The Cause of the Deluge," and "Mars, Where Man Came From," has departed, and several ushers and a ticket-taker mourn his loss.

He was to have told last night, in Madison Hall, "where man came from," but the prophet failed to materialize. He sent a little note to Proprietor Martin, of Madison Hall, saying that from the slim attend. ance of the night previous and the evident apathy shown by Harlemites to know whence they came compelled him to give up his lectures. But the question with the ushers and the ticket-takers is not "where man came from," but "where money is coming from." AT HIS MOTHER'S FUNERAL

A Forger Who Eluded the Police for Two Years Arrested at the Bler. [From the New York Times.]

Jacob C. Abresdie was arrested yesterday afternoon at the funeral of his mother on a warrant issued by Judge Lippincott, of Jersey City, in September, 1892. Abresdie is charged with having forged name to a check of Max Ams & Co., Greenwich street, by whom he had been employed as a bookkeeper.

Abreside had eluded the police since the warrant was issued. Gustave Grafmuller, junior partner of the firm of Ams & Co., learned Monday of the death of the missing bookkeeper's mother, who had long beer an invalid, and whose condition had been aggravated by the conduct of her son. Mr. Grafmuller thought Abresdie might attend the funeral. He brought the warrant to the East Sixty-Seventh street station and told the facts to Capt. Strause.

Capt. Strauss sent a policeman with Mr. Grafmuller to the house, whence the body was to be taken to Fresh Pond, L. I., for cremation. They waited at the curb until the party came out to enter carriages. Among the first to appear was Abresdie, with his wife leaning on his arm. The arrest was made just as the fugitive was following his wife into a carriage. He suppose the Sultan of Turkey has his wept like a child as he was led away to the "Den't 'Phale' To Be There." So the young girl wrote to her lover by way of postcript to an invitation. "I'll be there," he said to himself, "for there is no such word as 'phale' in my dictionary.' Mothers, do not fail in your duty to your daughters. Many a girl's health is imperiled by functional irregularities at her critical period of life. That is the time to take a brief self-treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It purifies and enriches the blood, gives healthy activity to the kidneys, stomach, bowels and other tablished in Berlin. The vehicles take organs, and insures robust health. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea-the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. OSGOOD,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE,

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

-On Wednesday evening Mr. William Patterson of this city, and Mrs. Jane Hinds, of St. Thomas, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride, Manitoba street, St. Thomas, by Rev. R. McIntyre.

-The sociable last night in the Palace Dancing Academy attracted a large party of dance-lovers, who were furnished varied programme with bright music by Dayton's orchestra. Mr. Jas. McCormick as master of ceremonies saw to it that all enjoyed themselves.

-It is said that more ladies and children have been entertained and delighted with "The Burglar," which will be the attraction at the Grand Monday next, than with any other play of recent years. This is but natural, for not only is "The Burglar" of a decidedly healthy tone, but combines all the sentimental qualities which never fail to win an audience. The character of little Editha is beautifully and charmingly con-

A dispatch received here last night from Strathroy in regard to the prisoners Nathan Fyfe and Percy Thompson, who were discovered on Sunday night placing obstructions on the G. T. R. track near the above town, says: "Constable Robert Logan bought the two prisoners to Strathroy today, and they were arraigned before P. M. Noble and elected to be tried by him. They pleaded guilty to the charge laid against them. On their behalf Lawyer John Cameron asked for a remand for a week to enable the prisoners to obtain a petition from the citizens of Strathroy, which might influence the magistrate to some extent to miligate their sentence. The request was granted and the prisoners were taken back to London." They will be taken to Strathroy on Wednesday for

The City Hospital.

A regular meeting of the City Hospital Trust was held at the hospital at 3 p.m. yesterday. Col. Lewis (chairman), Mayor Essery, James Gilmour, T. H. Purdom and Medical Superintendent J. D. Baltour were present. The auditor's report for the quarter ending Sept. 30, was received and filed. The superintendent's report were submitted, showing that 21 patients have been admitted and 27 discharged since last meeting. There are 61 patients at present in the hospital. The superintendent was instructed to make application at the next meeting of the council for $16.000, the sum estimated necessary to erect the proposed additions to the City Hospital. Miss Annie Essex, city, applied to be placed on the staff of nurses. Granted. Dr. McLeay, city, will succeed Dr. New as house surgeon at the hospital for the balance of the year, the latter having resigned.

Walks and W ays. The Board of Works held their regular meeting in the city hall last night, with Ald. Thomas Jones (chairman), Dreaney. Ald. Thomas Jones (chairman), Dreaney, Shaw and Garratt, Engineer Graydon, Secretary Bell and Commissioner Owens in attendance. Mr. Walter Richards, of Dufferin avenue, appeared before the committee in reference to an electric light in the Agricultural Hall on the Fair Grounds. The hall had been leased to the Robin Hood Drill Corps, but no lamp was put in. The light will be placed, the drill corps to pay for its use. D. Campbell applied for the opening of Colborne, between Victoria and Regent streets. Referred to the assessment commissioner. Mrs. M. M. Patullo asked commissioner. Mrs. M. M. Patullo asked on behalf of the Women's Christian Association that a sewer be constructed from the Aged People's Home to the river. "The necessity for the sewer is great, and the consequences of the work if not done may be of a very grave character,' read the communication. The request was laid over for a week, awaiting a full meeting of the committee. The local "cabbies" presented a document containing the consent of nearly all persons owning property in front of which it was proposed to allow hacks to stand. Ald. Dreaney objected to a hack standing at the northwest corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, as it would interfere with traffic. He moved that the hack be placed back 75 feet from the corner. Lost. A protest from Manager Inglis, of the Bank of British North America, against allowing two hacks to stand in front of the premises, was filed. In connection with the proposal to pave Dundas street, from Richmond to Ridout, Engineer Graydon stated that the cost of the work, with a six-inch concrete foundation, would be $12,300. ### MR. ESSERY'S ESTIMATE OF MR. W. R. (NOW CHIEF JUSTICE) MEREDITH.

"Mr. Meredith is a traitor. He should not have allowed Sir John Macdonald to turn him from the path of duty in relation to Ontario's rights. He should have taken his stand for Ontario, and said to Sir John Macdonald 'Hands off, and let Ontario's property alone!' Had he done that he would have been Premier of Ontario today; but he never will now if he duced the sensational comedy, "Down lives as long as Methuseleh and his billy-goat combined.
