THE MAID OF THE MILL. The final games of the Glasgow sec on of the match between Wyllie and Martins were "The Maid of the Mill a game upon which but little "book" has been published, and the spectators were pretty confident that a win would be secured by one or other of the players. Martins had the black pieces in the first of the two games, and in the course of the play he out-maneu ered his opponent and gradually uilt up a splendid position, which left Vyllie's forces in scattered and weak form. He latterly won a man and the game amid the well-deserved aplause of the spectators. The following was the play in the latter portion of the game: Black men on 1, 2, 5, 12 19; king on 31. White men on 10, 13, 21, 28, 30, 32. White (Wyllie) to play: 30 to 25 22 to 18 21 to 27 11 to 7 31 26 15 11 6 15

Martins won. Martins now had to take the white men in the same opening, theoretically the stronger side, but the game ended in a draw. Thus the Glasgow section of the match finished in the "Herd Laddie's" favor, the score being: Wyllie 6, Martins 2, drawn 18.

Fast Steamship Line Between Canada and Britain.

The gratifying intelligence comes from Ottawa today that the arrangements for the placing on the Atlantic of a new line of fast steamships, to run between Canada and Great Britain, has been completed.

Great Britain, Hon. Mr. Chamberlain has cabled to the Canadian Government, agrees to the bargain en tered into between Messrs. Peterson Tait & Co., of Newcastle, for the establishment of the new line. The British Government has resolved to give $350,000 a year subsidy to the new
