the spring.

J. A. Garlick, druggist has removed to his new residence on Turnberry St. south. It is a neat and comfortable house, and may he live long to enjoy it.

Knights of the Maccabees and the Anci-ent Order of United Workmen, have jointly rented that large and spacious hall over S. Smale's tailoring and fur-nishing store. It is now fitted up in excellent style and will be open this (Fri-day) evening, by the Order of Maccabees. Neighboring tents are invited. The day) evening, by the Order of Maccabees. Neighboring tents are invited. The Forresters will meet on Monday and the Ancient order of Workmen on Tuesday evening of this week, the 19th and 13th respectively. Lucknow. (Crowded out last week) The bridge in front of the Sentinal office that went down with a crash last week has been repaired. R. McCarrol has built a very fine steam saw mill and commenced to run it this week. It is doing very good work. Mr. Thos. Reid, formerly of Belfast, has opened a new and attractive stock of groceries in the store next door to

of groceries in the store next door to eron & Campbell's bank.

PESONALS.-Mr. T Smith, formerly of Lucknow, and now Emerson, Manitoba, is visiting friends here. He speaks highly of the great North-west, and any one intending leaving here for Manito ba, would do well to consult Mr. Smith, as he has large tracts of land to dispose 86.60; G. Hill, gravel, $8; J. Laithwait, drain M. C. $3.25; Clerk, postage, &c., one year $11.41; Clerk, salary, $100; A. of at reasonable rates.—Councillor Mc-Hardy has returned from a visit to Toronto, where he has been recuperating in expectation of the coming election.— Mrs. McKid who has been visiting her Reeve, do, $22; J. The collec-tor's time for tax was extended to 25th this week. - Miss Isabella Campbell has returned from Beaverton, where she spent the summer at her brother-in-law's, the Rev. John McNabb.

December and no longer. The business of the day being nearly through, the ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO D. E. Side Line was again brought up, and CAMERON, Esq. -The leading members and adherents of St. Peter's Church, Lucknow, to the number of twenty-five, headed by the incumbent, Rev. James Carrie, waited on Mr. D. E. Cameron, the efficient leader of the choir, at his roindence on Friday evening last, and pre-sented him with a handsome pair of vases, a silver cake basket and celery dish. Mr. Camerom has been leader of by J. Wetnersid F. L. S., and the field notes, and that the reeve attend to the matter at once. Moved in amendment by J. Cox, seconded by J. Whitely, that T. Wetherald be employed to finish surveying side road between lots 20 and the choir since its organization, and under his careful training the choir has now the reputation of being the most efficient in the Diocese of Huron. Mr. Cameron's musical talent is appreciated 31, as we consider that he should finish his work before we employ another and put on extra expense. The Reeve denot alone in Lucknow but in the surput on extra expense. The Reeve de-clared the motion carried. The Council rounding towns. The presentation was accompanied with the following address adjourned to meet again per Statute.— JAS. PATTON, Clerk. which was read by the Rev. Jas. Carrie:

To D. E. Cameron, Esq. DEAR SIR, -- We, the members and adherents of St. Peter's Church, Lucknow, are duly impressed with a sense of our obligations to you for the varied services Among the Globe's list of "Answer's to rendered to the church, but more espe-cially to its choir, from its inception till Correspondents" the following appeared the other day. It will serve to refresh the present time. We are well aware the other day. It will serve to refresh that it is a difficult matter to bring a the memories of many people on a matchoir to a state of efficiency, and we feel ter of historical as well as political inconvinced that you have done your ut-most to bring St. Peter's choir to that terest. state, and spent much of your valuable time in order that you might feel satisfied with your work If you should feel that the choir is not exactly what you would desire it to be, we can assure you that we are highly pleased with the result might pay it to Riel by instalments. of your exertions, and in order to give ex- Sir John's object, of course, was to keep

"When the eyes say one thing and the tongue another," says Emerson, "the practical man relies on the language of the first." How many inclinations that are dissembled by the lips are confessed by the eyes ! How often a hectoring attitude or a mouth Knox, use of hall for Council, $45; Reeve for services as such, $22; Dep'ty full of threatening words is betrayed by a quailing eye ! That restless eye belies the proud boast of the tongue. That aggressive, ferocious eye is a flag of warning, before which the turtle-dove voice should not lull us into security. "Each man carries in his eye the exact indication of his rank in the immense scale of after a long discussion it was. Moved by J. Beacom, seconded by J. Peacock men." He may try to dissemble his that Mr. Passmore, surveyor, Toronto, be employed to survey side line between rank, but before one who is learned in the language it is vain to attempt to lake shore and 8th con., between lots 30 and 31, and plant stakes at corner of carry on the deception long. There are each lot, according to the evidence taken by T. Wetherald P. L. S., and the field some who have a wonderful power of veiling the expression of the eye, but they cannot always be on their gurad; the hidden lights and smouldering flames will flash out at times, revealing the secret of the citadel, whether there be strength or weakness within, genius or imbecility. The reason why this man is obeyed and that one is not, is because the one has the eye that commands obedience and the other has not. It is not the eye itself, of course, that does this, but the power behind it-the trained will, the sense of power, the intrepid mind, which gleam through the eye, and in rare instances can charm down insanity in man or ferocity in beast. - [Phrenological Magazine.

Cabinet Changes.

There is no doubt as to the fact that Now that the greater portion of the Sir John Macdonald sent $3,000 to Arch-Canada Pacific has been taken off the bishop Tache, of Manitoba, out of the Government's hands, the Department of public funds in order that the latter Railways will be again amalgamated with the Public Works department. Sir Hector Langevin will be Minister of the combined Department. The Premier will
