ANNAPOLIS ACADEMY BOYS WIN 2-1 OVER BRIDGETOWN IN CLOSE MATCH

The fastest and tightest game of the season was played in the Bridgetown rink Monday night when the Bridgetown High School went down to defeat before the fast Annapolis Academy team by the score of 2-1.

Both teams went into it in earnest in the first period and though no scoring was done, the Annapolis goal was in danger a number of times, but Pateman's good playing saved the situation.

After about five minutes of play in the second period Bridgetown scored their first and only goal by a good rush, but this seemed to enliven the Annapolis boys who shortly after tallied their first goal. Annapolis got their second goal in the third period, but as they would, Bridgetown could not score.

John Roberts refereed most satisfactorily.

The line up was as follows: Bridgetown—Henson, goal; Tupper, Mack, defense; T. Beattie, J. Fay, C. LeBrun, forwards; C. Anderson, C. Piggott, subs.

Annapolis: Bateman, goal; Langille, MacIntosh, defense; Riley, Cossaboon, G. MacIntosh, forwards; R. Riley, G. Mahoney, subs.

OUR COAL MAY GO TO ONTARIO

The coking qualities of our Nova Scotia soft coal has been known here for some time. Of late the Dominion Fuel Board has had it under experimentation and will in a short time issue a report on same. The experiments have been successfully carried out at the coking plant recently established at Hamilton, Ontario. Extensive tests were made of the adaptability of our soft coal to this coking treatment with a view to ascertaining its suitability as a substitute for anthracite which we have to import. The tests have proved that our bituminous coal lent itself admirably to this coking process.

It is likely that from these tests that coking plants will be established at Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa and our coal will be taken there for that purpose. Besides it will be carried on here in the Maritime Provinces so that we may be independent of the American market for anthracite coal.

PATHS OF PROGRESS

The action of the Town Council of Amherst in passing a bill to borrow money for the purchase or construction of transmission lines to carry power furnished by the Nova Scotia Hydro-Electric Commission is one of the several indications on the part of public bodies in the Province of a desire to avail of the advantages of cheap power. In Ontario where hydro has been available up to the largest extent the demand is constantly increasing, while in Nova Scotia questions of this kind are just getting beyond the initial stages.

Although this Province has not availed itself so promptly as some other Provinces of resources within its power to develop them yet is time and the outlook for the future now that a decided awakening is taking place, cannot be considered at all bleak. Besides our rivers and streams as sources of supply there is the tremendous untapped energy of the Bay of Fundy tides. This is a phase receiving more than passing notice and there is little reason to doubt that methods will be worked out to secure abundant and cheap power from this source of supply for manufacturing.

It is a self evident fact that our present manufacturing plants must have power at a cheap rate to maintain themselves in business in the face of cheap power developments elsewhere. We cannot depend upon the patriotic buy goods made at home movement. There is little sentiment in business and purchases will chiefly be made in the cheapest market. Though it is a much better policy to buy at home even at a little higher price at all times it is difficult to get everyone to look at matters from that point of view. The dollar which travels hundreds of miles goes out of the local circulation mostly forever, but the dollar spent at home circulates in the home community and assists everybody. In the former case the result is a dead town filled with pessimists. In the latter optimism is the key note with corresponding increase in interests for public welfare.

While there are obstacles not few to the development of the Maritimes they are to be minimized only thru persistent and well directed effort. The question of "Maritime Rights" is largely a catch cry of politicians utilized for party advantage to discomfiture of opponents and later forgotten or side-stepped. Some phases of so-called Maritime Rights are too preposterous to be considered seriously by intelligent people. The path of progress lies in utilizing to the very utmost the advantages we possess.

ANNEXING THE POLE

Springfield Republican: How important the Arctic may become is strikingly shown in the historic quest for the "north-east passage." This was inspired by a real commercial need, but the search only showed the Arctic to be usually too obstructed by ice for navigation to be practicable. The problem has been wholly altered by the conquest of the air, which opens for the first time the possibility of navigation in a straight line between the northern parts of the continents. . . . To cut off a thousand miles or so of distance it will be well worth while to go to the expense of maintaining bases on whatever barren foothold the Arctic may offer.

NEARLY EVERYBODY BUYS ON CREDIT IN THE STATES

A vast majority of the wage earners of the United States have mortgaged their incomes for years to come because of the trend of the people to buy luxuries and the necessities of life on the instalment plan, according to the National Retail Clothier, the official publication of the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers.

"Is this country going time-payment mad?" the article asks. It follows with this list of some of the things that are today being bought on time:

Buildings, life insurance, furniture, furnaces, vacuum cleaners, rugs, window shades, victrolas, pianos, radio outfits, washing machines, gas and electric stoves, electric fixtures and installation, jewelry, clothing, books, bonds, stocks, automobiles, magazines, hand instruments and education. Our statistician has compiled a list of 68 important commodities that are being sold on time payments.

Automobile and musical instrument sales are offered as examples of what is taking place all over the country. There are approximately 14,000,000 registered automobiles in the United States, of which 10,192,000 are passenger cars. Considering this with the fact that there are but 4,000,000 people who file income tax reports of over $2,000 a year with the Treasury Department, the deduction is made that there are two and a half times as many passenger cars registered as income tax reports of over $2,000. This is taken to mean that 6,000,000 persons earning less than $10 a week own an automobile each.

The article concludes with the statement that there were 300,000 pianos sold in America in 1923 or a total of $120,000,000, of which at least 75 per cent. were sold on time. Fifteen million dollars worth of band and string instruments were bought during the year, over half of them on the partial payment plan, while 90 per cent. of the phonograph sold in America were sold on time.

A NEW INDUSTRY

Meeting At Kentville Arranges For Manufacture Of Breakfast Food From Apples.

Kentville.—The Annapolis Valley is to bring to Nova Scotia a new industry. At a large meeting in Kentville Col. J. L. Regan, of Montreal, outlined a proposal for the manufacture of a breakfast food composed largely of apples and wheat, which would have a superior keeping quality and as high a food value as any breakfast food now manufactured. It was estimated that the product, when placed on the market and properly advertised would absorb about 200,000 barrels of apples a year and thereby would be a material factor in further developing the possibilities of the Valley.

The following syndicate was named and will arrange with Mr. Humphrey, the inventor of the process, for his patent and proceed to the formation of a company: George E. Graham, Col. Robert Innes, A. E. McMahon, H. H. Bligh, T. P. Calkin, J. W. Salter, George E. Graham, Prof. W. S. Blair, C. P. Raymond, H. G. Harris, Capt. J. Salter, T. P. Calkin and G. F. Humphrey, were among those who took part in the discussion.

"But, mine dear fren!" groaned Ikey, "you can't die and leave all these expensive medicines wasted." The dying man shook his head tearfully, and maintained, "I won't take it, no, Ikey, it tastes awful."

For some time now been considering a proposal put forward by Senator Ciraolo, President of the Italian Red Cross, for the formation of an International Federation for the relief of peoples overtaken by disaster. This scheme, which has just been circulated to all the States members of the League for their comments, provides for an International Relief Fund, to which all the adhering States would contribute an annual quota proportionate to their political, geographic, economic and financial positions.

SCRAPING THE BILLBOARDS

New York Tribune: In England many of the large advertisers are dismantling their signs in the rural districts. Out there the fight is practically won. Salesmen are keen enough psychologists to realize that a kind of advertising that arouses resentment in a multitude is not beneficial. This valid argument of self-interest will have its effect more and more as it is realized that every one who travels abominates the signs that disgrace the countryside and holds a grudge against the products thus heralded. . . . A law "with teeth in it" is needed to confine the huge ugly billboards to spots where they are not obnoxious. The public is thoroughly sick of them on country roads and railways and city avenues. From every point of view they are bad advertising.

The most convincing proof of the true worth of "Fruit-a-tives" as a medicine for women is found in the letters written by them to "Fruit-a-tives". I started taking "Fruit-a-tives" and this fruit medicine completely relieved me of all my misery!"

CORRESPONDENCE

Middleton, N. S. Feb. 23rd, 1924. Editor of the Monitor, Bridgetown, N. S.

Dear Sir:—I most heartily approve of the changes which have been made in the keeping of our record office since the position of Registrar of Deeds has been filled by Mr. Fred E. Bath. Particularly valuable has been the preparation of the two index books covering a period of years from 1885 to 1905. These indexes have simplified the work of searching to a very great degree and must prove a benefit to the public. The lawyers, when called upon to search, must, of course, charge their clients for the time they are obliged to expend and under the new system the cost of searching to the public will be therefore greatly reduced. There is, however, great need that these indexes be extended. A search to be satisfactory should extend over a period of at least sixty-five years.

I sincerely hope that the Council will make arrangements with Mr. Bath to complete the work, which has been so well begun. Yours very truly, W. G. PARSONS.

SAYS COATING OF VARNISH PRESERVES FRUIT

Atlantic City.—A thin coating of varnish or shellac placed over fruit will eliminate the necessity for preserving, according to William Downie of Cleveland, addressing the convention here of the International Association of Master House Painters and Decorators.

Declaring that people eat varnish every day without knowing it, the speaker explained the manner in which candy is treated to insure its freshness when sold. "For fruit," he said, "all that is necessary is a thin coating of varnish or shellac. It will last for months, retain its original flavor and beauty, and no one need fear that there will be any suspicion of a varnish flavor. In fact, people eat varnish every day and don't know it. Nearly all candy that is made to sell months after it is put in boxes is coated with varnish or shellac. Since varnish comes from trees and vegetables it should not harm any one to be told that he eats it."

Mr. Downie said that fresh eggs will last all Winter if treated with the liquid. "The problem of keeping air outside of the shell is solved by this method," he asserted.

"The rapidly increasing divorce rate," remarked the newcomer, "proves that America is fast becoming the land of the free." "Yes," said his friend, "but the continuance of the marriage rate shows that it is still the home of the brave."

LARGEST FARE OF FISH FOR YEAR

The largest fare of fish to reach Halifax this year was brought in last week by the National Fish Company's trawler Lemberg, Capt. Hansen, which docked at 6 o'clock at the National Fish Company's wharf from the banks with a fare of over 200,000 pounds of groundfish. Leaving Halifax for the Western Bank, the trawler was only out five days. Officers of the ship stated that they met with the best fishing that they have ever experienced. Exceptionally fine weather prevailed during the trip, which greatly added to the extent of the catch.

Here and There

Russia has more libraries, and at the same time, more bookshops than any other country in Europe.

The latest consignment of silk from the Orient for many months, consisting of 5,500 bales, valued at $2,000,000, formed part of the cargo of the "Empress of Russia" recently. A shipment of silk from China, consisting of ten carloads, valued at two million dollars, went forward from Vancouver to New York under special guard over the Canadian Pacific lines recently.

The first of a series of six new seaplanes being constructed for the Canadian Government has just been delivered. The new planes are to be used in forest patrol for the prevention of destruction by fire.

Following the disastrous earthquakes and fires which devastated large areas in Japan, the Canadian Pacific Lines "Empress of Canada" and "Empress of Britain" were thrown open to the accommodation of thousands of refugees, while the officers and men of the vessels did everything possible in organizing and assisting rescue parties.

The world's largest tin can export company, the Tinsmiths of London, has just received a large order from the Canadian Government for 25,000 tin cans for the use of the Canadian Pacific Lines.

For almost twenty years the main portion of the world's supply of salt has been shipped from the Great Salt Lake, Utah, to Great Britain by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The salt production of Canada in 1923 was 1,100,000 tons, which at 25¢ a pound, would be worth $1,100,000.

Canada's wheat crop for the 1923-24 season is expected to be the largest ever. For the twelve months ended July, 1923, Canada exported to other parts of the Empire more wheat than any other country during the same period. The total production of wheat in Canada for the twelve months ended July, 1923, was 1,100,000 tons, valued at $1,100,000.

A wheat crop of 382,514,000 bushels is forecasted in a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The report is based upon the condition of crops at the end of July, and indicates that the Prairie Provinces will produce 257,250,000 bushels of wheat if weather conditions continue favorable. Manitoba, it is expected, will have a total wheat yield of 41,000,000 bushels. Saskatchewan will produce 211,000,000 and Alberta 101,776,000 bushels. Alberta is the only province to show an increased yield as compared with 1922.

A party of five journalists, representing the leading newspapers of Switzerland, who had arrived in Quebec, are the guests in Canada of E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway. They will tour the Dominion in the interest of Swiss colonization. Stops will be made at different points where Swiss people are farming, and opportunity will be given to members of the party to converse with them and get first hand knowledge as to the desirability of Canada as a place for Swiss colonists.

In a letter on "Canada and Land Settlement," published by the Morning Post, Sir Geo. McLaren Brown, Foreman manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says that the agricultural salvation of Western Canada lies in mixed farming, which calls for smaller and more numerous agricultural holdings than wheat growing does, and results in closer settlement and better communication. The bigger and more densely settled the rural population, the more social amenities there are and greater advantages generally, he says.

CLEMENTSPORT

Clementsport.—On Tuesday, 25th, inst., Mrs. Charles Maughan passed peacefully to her long rest. She had been operated upon nearly two years ago and had never been really well since the operation, for some weeks she had been confined to her bed, but her death came unexpectedly at the last.

She leaves a husband, and three sons: Gordon, in Bridgewater, and Vernon and Harold at home; three daughters, Jessie, in Boston; Gladys (Mrs. Geo. Ross) in Clementsport, and Lena, at home. She also leaves a number of brothers and sisters, residing some in the U.S.A. and some in Canada. The funeral took place from her late residence. Interment was in the old church cemetery at Clementsport. The service was taken by the Rector, Rev. A. W. L. Smith, assisted by the Rev. I. D. Lytle.

QUARTERLY MEETING OF CHURCH DISTRICT HELD AT ANNA-POLIS ROYAL
Annapolis Royal.—The third quarterly meeting of this district was held at St. George's United Church, on Wednesday. The afternoon session was devoted to business and the discussion of various courses of study; after which supper was served in the basement of the church by the ladies to the visiting clergy and other guests. An interesting "Children's Hour" followed, at which lantern slides of Bible pictures were shown by Rev. R. B. Thomas, ending with a pretty tableau by the children.

The evening session consisted of a debate on "Personal and Group Evangelism" by Rev. H. H. McNeil and Rev. J. H. Freestone, which proved very interesting. Special music was rendered by Miss Edna Anderson, Miss Uriel Riley and Dr. A. B. Crowe. Among the visitors were Rev. Mr. Hawkins, Rev. Mr. Watts, Rev. J. H. Freestone, or Bridgetown; Rev. H. H. McNeil, of Aylesford; Rev. C. M. Mack, of Bear River, and Rev. R. B. Thomas, of Granville.

WELSH CHILDREN IN FEBRUARY

Children! Would you like to know what your little cousins in the Old Country are doing in February? When they come out of school at 4 o'clock—and that is only noon here—because you remember our big ball of a world is always spinning round towards the East, and so England greets the sun four hours ahead of Nova Scotia—well, when at four o'clock in their afternoon, they come out of school—there is no snow, no sleas, no skis, no snowshoes for them, in fact they have only had one day's snow this Winter, and most of them have never seen the other three joys, and hardly ever any skating. But I will tell you of the children from the school nearest to where I lived in Glamorgan county, South Wales.

Why they are still amongst the green fields, beautifully green—and in the long golden beams of the setting sun—and it sets earlier than with us, because they are farther North—in those golden rays, all the colors are ten times as brilliant. As the boys come over the fields—little fields, you would think them, with grassy banks and high hawthorn and black-berry brambles at the top of the banks all round them, and a gate or a stile to climb over, and they stooped to gather some of the bright little daisies that star the grass. There is hardly any time in all the year when you cannot find those little daisies. They grow from a white tassel of a root and spread out little green leaves like flat spoons, all round in a rosette, and then up comes the funny little round green heads, with stems when full, grown no higher than your fingers, but generally shorter. The children, with their sharp little nails, make a slit in the stem, like the eye of a darning needle, and slip another daisy stem through it, and do the same with that, till they have daisy chains long enough to wind round their hats or their necks. The boys get a thorn stick and put a daisy head on each thorn, making it look as though it were a piece of black thorn in blossom. But that does not bloom till later, when the nightingales have come and are singing for joy—most of the night—and much of the day time.

The boys will go up by the Tynnyth Wood—that is Welsh, and is pronounced Tim-money-th, and it means House of the Mountain. They are finding the first primroses in sheltered places and the blue dog-violets and sweet-scented white ones. Nests, they are ever on the watch for, as they go quietly among the old oaks and beeches, and all the undergrowth of nut-hazel with its long lambtail catkins, shaking out its golden pollen to the little crimson tiny flowers nestling against the stems. There they find the green leaves of the wild daffodil, their national emblem, coming up thickly—and the first scented leaves of the garlic, which might easily be mistaken for lily-of-the-valley leaves. Crowds of green dogs-mercury already carpet the ground, and the wild arums leaves are unfurling.

The girls and little children stream along the road with its high banks through the cutting, full of green loveliness. The first little wild strawberry flowers and golden celandines and bushes of prickly golden gorse.

On their right is a wide view in one place. They linger to look out over the fields and the Taff River, and the Spire of Llandaff Cathedral, which has stood there for nearly a thousand years, and beyond the elm trees the white gleaming Town Hall, law courts and other buildings of Cardiff. The ships on the sea beyond are quite plainly to be seen ten miles off and on a clear February day the coast of Somerset—the Summer seats or saeters, as the Norwegians call their farms, of the Welshmen of long ago, who left their mountain fastnesses when Spring came, to come back to the peaceful art of farming.

How strange the village of little thatched houses all huddled together would look to you—but see, the little garden patches inside their walls or palings are already bright with yellow crocuses, clumps of snow drops polyanthus and wall flower, and the pink flowering currant bushes and scarlet japonica flowers. Overhead there is shining holly, still bright with crimson berries—and the almond trees are full of pink blossom like pale peach flowers.

The boys and girls bowl wooden and iron hoops along the roads and

THE SPREAD IN PRICES

The consuming public has been thoroughly familiarized in recent years with many of the pioneering projects that go to make up the by no means small spread between the prices paid by consumers and those received by producers. A recent illustration of this kind shows a spread from 16 cents to $1.55. This was in Oregon, where a number of farmers with a practical turn of mind had a banquet. They live around a place called Imbler. At their spread they furnished and prepared the food themselves, and it cost exactly 16 cents per plate. The same menu, served in Portland, Oregon, just 250 miles away, is billed at $1.55. Between the farmers' price and the Portland price there was a spread of $1.39 in a single meal. In that $1.39 there is taken up freight or express charges, probably commissions, may be cold storage, wholesale or retail profits—perhaps both—restaurant rent, the cost of preparing and serving the meal, and a certain profit to the man running the business. There is a long line of people in the space between the farmer of Imbler and the man who pays a cheque at the Portland restaurant. There is more than the mere 250 miles of space separating them. As a Toronto exchange says in commenting upon this instance of spread between producer and consumer:—

"The people themselves are not without blame in this matter. In many cases they are calling for service, more service and quicker service. There is a response to the call, and they get more and quicker service, more attention, more deliveries, and each time producer and consumer move farther apart. It will be interesting to see what use the producers of foodstuffs at Imbler, in Oregon, make of the experiment they have been conducting. If they can close up the gap that separates them from the man who eats the meals made from their products they will be blazing a trail that has been prospected by wishers but untraveled by doers."

CANADA HAS GAINED 129,022 IMMIGRANTS

In The First Ten Months Of Last Year.

Ottawa.—An increase of 105 per cent. in the immigration to Canada is reported during the ten months ending January, 1924, as compared with the corresponding ten months ending January, 1923.

During the past ten months 129,022 immigrants of all nationalities have entered Canada. In the same period in 1923, only 62,849 persons entered the country as immigrants. Of the immigrants coming to this country during the past ten months, 65,171 were British, 18,129 were Americans, and 45,721 were from other countries. August was the busiest month in the immigration department, the influx of nearly fifteen thousand British harvesters swelling the figures, while the total for the month was over 25,000.

A comparison of the two periods of ten months from April to January shows an increase of 120 per cent. in British immigrants, a decrease of 8 per cent. in the immigration from the United States and an increase of 235 per cent. from other countries.

FACT-FOUNDED OPTIMISM WAS TONIC QUALITY OF ADDRESS BY DR. CUMMING

Variety Of Resources, Dependability Of Crops, Unique Orcharding Record, And Rich Possibility Of Dairy-Ing Given As Sound Reasons For Confidence In Future.

Lawrencetown.—Dr. Cumming, of the Agricultural College, Truro, and S. J. Moore, were speakers at the public meeting held in connection with the Lawrencetown Extension School, on Tuesday evening. The address of Dr. Cumming on "The Resources of Nova Scotia" was a notable one. His optimism was a real tonic, and it was an optimism grounded on solid fact.

Confidence in the future of Nova Scotia, reflected in the terms our Government can get in the money market, is based largely on the variety of our resources and interests. Coal mining, steel manufacturing, lumbering, and fishing were instanced. The fifth is agriculture. Is it generally known that, over a term of years, the yield in hay, oats, potatoes, and turnips in Nova Scotia is well above the average for Canada? The reason is we have no real bad years. We have no total crop failure. In the Winter of 1914 and 1915 the people in some sections of the West almost went on their knees to the Government for financial aid to tide them over the Winter. It is said that in some farmers' homes a soup was made of Russian Thistles, so great was their extremity. We always have a fair crop. Our soil may not be so rich, but we have the moisture precipitation without which the richest soil cannot produce a crop. Hail insurance is unknown in Nova Scotia. We have 5,000,000 acres available for cultivation, and, of this, only about 1,500,000 acres has been brought under the plough.

The speaker devoted some time to dairying and showed the wonderful possibilities in that line, and the marked progress made in the last few years.

In competition with the rest of Canada, Nova Scotia butter and Nova Scotia Dairy Cattle had more than hold their own.

Coming to the fruit growing, Dr. Cumming declared this Province was the biggest producer of commercial apples in Canada, and the Province had established an absolutely unique record in that the farmers of the Annapolis Valley had found the secret of producing a bumper crop five years in succession. This fact, with the advantage of a short haul to the markets of Europe, promised a wonderful development for the apple industry in Nova Scotia. New forms of industry are coming into being that will use the inferior grades of fruit. Rounds of applause greeted Dr. Cumming at the close of his inspiring address.

Mr. Moore's address on "Seeds" was also listened to with great interest, and the information he gave was new and helpful.

A PROBLEM TO SOLVE

The Legislature of this Province is in Session. As it appears to us a crucial question is awaiting in answer, viz., are Roy Wolvin in Montreal, and John Lewis in Indianapolis to continue to control the coal and steel industry in Nova Scotia? How long is the living of many of the people of this much abused Province to be at the mercy of these two men? It is not for outsiders to suggest remedies, but they may advise; remedies are for the statesmen who are in the legislature; and they may be assured that an effort should be made to provide a remedy.

No good will come from protesting against existing methods; but the star chamber meetings being held in Cape Breton by satellites of Kings Wolvin and Lewis, are not very complimentary to the principle of freedom of speech and open diplomacy. At the least the Legislature can establish a court before which such problems as now tie up the chief industries can be threshed out in the sight of all men. This is not suggesting a remedy for strikes; it is that the grievances that causes them must be aired in a competent court. And it does not mean that such a court can order men to go to work—but it can order that a mine, or shop, may work if men can be got to work it—a court under the jurisdiction of which a man that wants to work may work, and a man that wants to loaf may loaf.—Eastern Chronicle.

SQUARE RIGGERS' 519 DAYS' TRIP

A stirring sea tale of how the British square rigged Garthway took 519 days from Grangemouth, Scotland, to Algeira, Chili, battling her way around the world when balked by head winds at Cape Horn, was told at New York Sunday by officers of the steamship Ebro, which arrived from South American ports. They said they got the story from Captain Henry, the windjammer's skipper, the third captain the craft had had since leaving Scotland on a journey that logged 21,000 miles.

The sailing vessel's cargo of Scotch brigettes was delivered safely although fourteen months late. The voyage started in July, 1922. In the South Atlantic a hurricane dismasted the windjammer and she was towed to Montevideo and repaired. Reaching Cape Horn the craft fought head winds 32 days, being unable to negotiate the passage into the Pacific.

The vessel then went to Port Stanley in the Falkland Islands, for more repairs, and her captain decided to head east instead of west on the route around the Cape of Good Hope. Entering the Indian Ocean the Garthway finally reached the Southern Pacific, passed to the South of Australia, then finally to her port of destination, almost completely circling the globe. The Garthway is said to be one of 12 British square riggers still on the seas. Nine of the original crew stuck to the ship throughout the voyage.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

Before taking castor oil wash out the mouth with hot water and repeat immediately after. The oil will slip down the throat easily, and nausea is prevented.

A glass of hot water to which a pinch of salt has been added will relieve a sick headache, provided it is taken as soon as the trouble begins.

To preserve the crispness of biscuits keep them in a tin by themselves. If they have become soft, heat them in the oven for a few minutes, and they will crisp again.

To freshen straw matting sponge with strong salt water. Do not use soda to grass or fibre matting, but apply salt water, or sorghum to which a very little ammonia has been added.

To soften shoe or range polish add turpentine. It will prevent rust on the range or stove, besides softening the polish.

Baked potatoes are much improved if, five minutes before serving they are taken out of the oven and wrapped in a cloth.

Besico's Claim For Loss of Vessels During War—Statement by Hon. William Pugsley.

Ottawa.—The claims of several subsidiary companies of the British Empire Steel Corporation against Germany for loss of vessels during the war are being heard by Hon. William Pugsley, Commissioner investigating illegal warfare claims. The claims total nearly $17,000,000 and constitute one of the largest cases before the Commission. In an interview given out, Mr. Pugsley said: "I read in today's press reference to the decision given by Justice Parker, umpire of the Commission between the United States and Germany, and so far as I can judge, he and I have proceeded along the same lines—with this exception, that I have concluded that in all cases of damages resulting in loss of life or injuries as well as injuries to property, instead of allowing interest from the date of loss, I fixed it in all cases to run from January 10th, 1920, this being the date of the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles. "As to the basis on which the damages in case of loss of life should be assessed the rule laid down by me is the same as that held by Judge Parker. The damages must be measured by the loss caused to relatives who were dependent upon the deceased."

WATERVILLE AND BRIDGETOWN HOCKEY TEAMS IN EXCITING CONTEST

Waterville and Bridgetown hockey teams put up an exciting contest in the rink here on Tuesday evening, the local team winning by a margin of one goal scored by Harry McKenzie about a minute and a half before time was called in the final period. During the first half at least of the first period the visitors had a most decided advantage and the local team was kept very sharply on the defensive. After that conditions were more even and scores were tied on three different occasions. Four of Bridgetown's goals were scored by Harry McKenzie, James Little making the other tally.

Allison Cox, of Waterville, was the outstanding player on the ice and scored three goals out of the four secured by the visitors.

K. B. Ewan retired the game most satisfactorily. The Waterville boys were pleased with their trip here but could not understand the very small amount of support given by the public judging from the slim attendance. With only an open air rink in their own town crowds many times that gathered in Bridgetown were readily secured. Counter attractions explain this in part, but not by any means wholly, as attendance through the Winter at hockey games has been rather slim.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE GROWTH AND HARVEST OF TEA

Ceylon And India Produce The Majority Of The World's Product—The Percentage Of Tea-Blends—The Duties Of The Tea-Taster.

We, of a temperate climate, are not apt to look upon the produce of tropical soils as entailing the same prosaic cultivation and labor in the course of its growth, as do the things we coax from old mother earth here. Sometimes we credit warmer, sunnier lands with more prodigality and fertility than the facts would warrant and an enquiry serves to verify age old experience that nothing worth while comes without effort; as we sow so we reap; the business of growing tea is closely allied with the business of growing strawberries. In India and Ceylon, from which countries practically all our tea comes, the plants are grown from seed and then set out in long straight rows on soil which has been carefully cultivated and drained, and fertilized with commercial fertilizer. As soon as these plants have taken root, a cycle of work with the hand hoe which goes on for three years until the bushes come into bearing and then for the ten or twelve years that cropping is continued.

Once a year the bushes are pruned down to a height of two feet and eight weeks after this pruning the first "flush" of young shoots are ready to pluck. In season, these flushes occur every ten days, all the year around in Ceylon and from May to December in India. Coolies, men, women and children, with a small basket attached to their waists, then go around and pluck the bud and a couple of the tender, half developed leaves. These are spread very thinly on trays or shelves to wither. The time this operation requires varies with the weather, but usually one day is enough and the leaf is placed in the rolling machine, an ingenious and effective machine driven by power, the rolling lasts for half an hour, at the end of which time the leaf has become a moist twisted and bruised mass which is transferred to trays where it ferments and its green color gives place to one of copper. Having fermented, the tea is fired, that is, it is spread on trays over charcoal fires or in big iron drying machines and at the end of half an hour or so it has become tea. It only remains for this to be sorted or sized, this is accomplished by passing through sieves of different meshes, giving the different varieties.

The best of the tea comes from the leaf proper, the little round bits of stem coming from the thicker veins of the leaf are usually found only in the coarse cheap grades, broken-pekoe, that which gives the strongest tea comes from the opening bud of the leaf. It would be interesting to know how many of us who have been drinking tea for a long time, can name the different grades. These are, in the order of their expensiveness, Flowery Orange-Pekoe, Orange-Pekoe, Pekoe, and the coarsest of all Pekoe, some of which are all dried again into broken Pekoe.

Quality, however, varies according to the locality where tea is grown. In the East as in the West there are all varieties of soil and this condition has an all important bearing on the quality of the tea and the price the grower gets for it. Usually the dryer soils produce better tea than the low or wetter ones and almost invariably the elevation of the tea fields have a direct bearing upon the quality of the tea. The very best tea comes from the highlands such as the mountain sides of Ceylon. In the low areas near the sea the leaf is inferior and the highest grades from plantations there may perhaps be only equal to the lower grades of a highland plantation in the price it can command.

Blend Percentage.
Ceylon, India, and Siam grow the best tea, that of Ceylon is celebrated for its color and flavor, the India tea for its strength and body. The teas we use are invariably a blend of Indian and Ceylon, in the Maritime Provinces about 75 per cent. Indian and 25 per cent Ceylon, which would indicate that we are a more discriminating tea-drinking people than the English whose favorite blends are in the vicinity of 50 per cent. Ceylon and 50 per cent. Indian, but the Irish are the most discriminating tea drinkers in the world and Irish tea is usually mixed in the proportion of 90 per cent. Indian and only 10 per cent. Ceylon. So it is that we often hear old country Irish people complain of the quality of the teas they get here because they cannot get just the old "taste".

The actual work in connection with the blending of tea is an art that is not easily acquired. Almost without exception all tea-blenders in Canada have been imported from England after having served an apprenticeship of at least seven years in one of the big English tea-houses. It is said that men can never become expert after having reached maturity.

Appropos of blending it will be more interesting to trace the evolution of some brand we are familiar with from the tea fields of India and Cey-

EXCRUCIATING PAINS, CRAMPS

Entirely Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Eberts, Ont.—"I started with cramps and bearing-down pains at the age of eleven years, and I would get so nervous I could hardly stay in bed, and I had such pains that I would scream, and my mother would call the doctor to give me something to take. At eighteen I married, and I have four healthy children, but I still have pains in my right side, as if a farmer's wife with more work than I am able to do. I have taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel that it is helping me every day. My sister-in-law, who has been taking your medicine for some time and uses your Sanative Wash, told me about it and I recommend it now, as I have received great relief from it."—Mrs. NELSON YOTT, R. R. 1, Eberts, Ont.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for ailments common to women. It has been used for such troubles for nearly fifty years, and thousands of women have found relief, as did Mrs. Yott, by taking this splendid medicine.

If you are suffering from irregularity, backache or melancholia, you should at once begin to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is excellent to strengthen the system and help to perform its functions with ease and regularity.

Then the fireworks started, and the subsequent discussion became so heated that His Worship eventually dispatched a messenger for Chief of Police Ellis in the hope that the presence of this official would assist in restoring order. The step had the desired effect, but only temporary, for Councillor Jordan refused to leave the Chamber and again took his seat at the Council Board.

Again the chief executive of the police was summoned, and at this juncture the affair took on a more serious aspect, for, with the aid of a citizen called upon by the police officer, Councillor Jordan was forcibly removed from the hall. This feat was not accomplished without difficulty, however, and a miniature riot was the result. Chairs were overturned, windows were broken and the speaker was forced to take refuge in flight in all directions.

China Tea

In this country we use very little China tea. The green tea which is so largely used in the United States nearly all comes from China. Its peculiar color and its difference to our black teas lies mainly in the different process it goes through. It is not dried in the sun but in mechanical dryers. It is said to contain a drug which is very bad for the nerves and which is not found in our Indo-Ceylon teas. In China too, tea is grown by very small farmers who use little machinery but hands and feet to work the tea into marketable shape. It is therefore reputed to be deficient in some of the qualities of cleanliness which characterizes the tea tested by machinery. Mixed tea is as the name implies, a combination of black and green.

Ceylon went heavily into tea-growing after the failure of coffee about fifty years ago and from the first her tea commanded a premium on the London market. The plantations are almost all owned by Englishmen and usually consist of two hundred acres or more. All the labor is supplied by the coolies with European overseers. For a long time these tea growers are said to have been operating at a loss until two years ago when they cut the acreage almost in half, since then they have made money.

Oxford.—Rev. R. W. Bennett, D.D., of Oxford, has accepted the unanimous call to become Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, Truro.

EXCITEMENT IN DIGBY TOWN COUNCIL

Digby.—One of the most sensational scenes ever witnessed during a meeting of the Town Council of Digby, was enacted Tuesday evening when, during a miniature riot, Town Councillor Jordan was forcibly ejected from the Chamber and placed in a room of the Town Hall by Chief of Police Ellis.

With the return of the Council to the hall half an hour later and the renewal of the debate in hand, the meeting broke up in disorder.

The trouble began during the discussion by Council of the appointment of Councillor Frank Anderson as Deputy Mayor, and was directly traceable to a statement made in this connection by Mayor DuVernet. Councillor Jordan, who arrived soon after the minutes of the previous meeting had been read, opened the Anderson question, declaring that the honor of the appointment should have been his, as he had received the largest number of votes at the 1923 election.

Mayor DuVernet ruled that, according to the opinion of the solicitor, Frank Jones, which corresponded, he said, with the opinion of the Attorney General's department at Halifax, Councillor Jordan was disqualified under the Towns' Incorporation Act of the Statutes of Nova Scotia on account of not having paid his taxes.

Then the fireworks started, and the subsequent discussion became so heated that His Worship eventually dispatched a messenger for Chief of Police Ellis in the hope that the presence of this official would assist in restoring order. The step had the desired effect, but only temporary, for Councillor Jordan refused to leave the Chamber and again took his seat at the Council Board.

After his departure, the Council settled down to its regular business, but within the half-hour Councillor Jordan again returned, and entering with vigor into the discussion of the appointment of Chief of Police, he succeeded in bringing the meeting to an extremely disorderly adjournment.

Digby.—The sequel to the miniature riot in the Digby Town Council Tuesday evening furnished another sensation Wednesday night when, at the opening of another session, a request made by Mayor DuVernet that Councillor Jordan apologize to the members of Council for his actions the previous night met with immediate and definite refusal from that gentleman.

Once again the chief magistrate of the town called for the resignation of Chief of Police Ellis, but on this occasion the official did not respond. His services, however, were not necessary, as Councillor Jordan soon afterward left his seat. The Council, it is understood, explained his actions of the previous evening as having been due to the fact that he had a bad cold.

Digby now has a new Chief of Police. Acting on charges laid against Chief Ellis in connection with other matters than his refusal to obey the orders of the Mayor, the Council dismissed him from office and appointed Harry Hershey to act in his place both as police Chief and Temperance Act Inspector.—Halifax Herald.

Digby Councillor Denies Charges.

A later communication received by The Herald, Town Councillor Jordan, of Digby, makes sweeping denial of the statements contained in a recent account of a Council meeting held in that town respecting his actions. "False and misleading," he terms the accusations that he was arrested or put in any room. He explains that he was not satisfied with a ruling given by the Mayor and that that official took exception to the fact that he, Councillor Jordan, should doubt his work in the chair.

"Illegally and without authority," he contends, he was removed from the Chamber and asked to step into the office of the Town Clerk, which he did, later returning to the Chamber. The meeting, he says, was adjourned by the Mayor.

When asked to apologize the following night, the Councillor states that he refused because he had nothing to apologize for. He claims that he was within his rights and charges and that the Mayor and the two men who removed him were "very much in the wrong."—Halifax Herald.

Here's What People Say About Tanlac

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick, discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good," says Mrs. Edward Gibbs.

All the advertising in the world and all the sales efforts combined could not have made the great success for TANLAC that has been attained, unless this reconstructive tonic possessed merit of the greatest degree. Over 40 million bottles of Tanlac have been sold and the demand today is greater than ever before.

That TANLAC possesses merit and has brought relief to hundreds of thousands of persons is attested by the great number of testimonials that have been received by the company from people in every state of the Union and every Province of Canada. There are over 100,000 such statements on file with the company, all bearing with sincere praise for TANLAC and what it has accomplished.

Here are excerpts from a few of the 100,000 statements on file: Mrs. Edward Gibbs, Lancaster, Pa. "For 2 years' indigestion deprived me of nearly all the pleasure of living. If it had not been for TANLAC I would still be a sick and discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good."

Mrs. Mary A. Benson, Seattle, Wash. "Following an operation my stomach and nerves seemed to give way and I became almost helpless. As a last resort I tried TANLAC. I began to improve from the very first."

BIG GAME NEED MORE PROTECTION: KILL FALLING OFF

Convictions And Fines Numerous But Laws Need More Tightening Up.

A number of prosecutions for violation of the game laws have taken place recently and it is understood others are to follow including several in connection with cow moose meat in this vicinity. In Halifax Co. there has already been a conviction for illegally having moose meat in possession in close season, the offender being fined $50, while in another case a fine has been imposed for killing partridge in close season. In King's County two convictions for having moose meat in possession in close season were made, the offender in each case paying $50 and costs. In Hunt's County there have been three convictions. In one case a fine of $100 and costs was imposed for killing moose in close season and in two other cases, one for having moose meat in possession in close season and the other for illegal sale of moose meat, fines of $50 and costs were imposed.

The deep snow of last winter made it difficult for moose and deer to move around, and not only were they comparatively helpless against the poacher but they found it in some cases almost impossible to reach their food. As a consequence in several sections of the Province many carcasses were found last Spring, which indicated death through starvation. But the present season has not been so hard on the big game as then. A well known Cumberland County game warden reported recently that he had been making some days patrol during this month and found everything satisfactory. He deemed this a great season for big game and thought moose and deer ought to do well this season. He found quite a few moose and deer were yarding. It ought to be an excellent season also for shore birds, he thought.

For twelve years up to 1921 moose steadily increased in numbers in Nova Scotia and the annual kill of bull moose grew from 495 in 1909 to 1480 in 1921. This large increase could be attributed to the protection of the cow moose and other restrictive measures adopted during the term of office of the present commissioner. When he was appointed in office in 1904 the open season extended from Sept. 15th to Dec. 31st. No one was then required to report the killing of a moose, each person was permitted to kill two moose (instead of one as at present) and the market was open for sale of the meat during the whole season of two and a half months.

There has been a considerable falling off in the reported kill of moose the past two years, which would seem to indicate that bull moose at least are beginning to decrease in numbers. The kill is still however, more than twice as large as it was twelve years ago, and many moose are now killed in parts of the Province where twenty years ago there were none. Other reasons may account in part for the reduced number killed during the past two seasons, but the decrease is taken in game circles as a warning that should be heeded. Provision has been made this season for extending and improving the warden service and more work than ever is being done in the way of patrolling the woods, etc. Some change in the law may be required to afford the moose greater protection. One suggestion made is the prohibition of sale of the meat for two or three years.

Judging from reports from different sections of the Province deer appear to have fared better than moose. They have spread all over the Province, and a warden in the extreme north of Cape Breton Island recently reported deer becoming numerous in his district.

PARRSBORO PLANS LUMBER SHIPMENTS OF 50,000,000 FEET
Six Vessels Already Chartered to Take 2,000,000 Feet, and Busy Season Is Expected.

Parrsboro.—In preparation for the opening of navigation and a busy, if not banner season in the lumber trade, lumber shippers and vessel owners are entering charters for the trips of the season. The Bay of Fundy Lumber Co. had on Monday chartered six vessels, with an aggregate capacity of 2,000,000 feet or more, and the first of these, the Peasecland, started loading last week.

"BORN BLIND"

(Published under the auspices of the Medical Society of Nova Scotia.)

They make a pathetic picture, those children with eightless eyes who grope their way round the playground or are led along the street by a guiding hand, whilst other children run, skip and jump to their hearts' content. Yet even sadder than their blindness is the knowledge that in many cases it was preventable. In a medical investigation of blind children it was found that, out of every hundred, twenty-four lost their sight from ophthalmia neonatorum, an infection of the eyes of new-born babies. It is very rarely that this infection occurs before the child is born; usually it happens during or immediately after the birth. Therefore to say that these children were "born blind" is not true; they were not born blind, but they became blind through neglect of simple preventive treatment which can be carried out by doctors, nurse, or midwife. This treatment, which consists of bathing the eyes of the baby immediately after birth and instilling a few drops of a special antiseptic solution, is simple but needs to be thoroughly and skilfully carried out, for the eye is a most delicate organ, and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a trained person should be in attendance at the birth. At the recent English-speaking Conference on Infant Welfare, held in London, a resolution was unanimously passed as follows:

"That this Conference is of opinion that a great deal of unnecessary loss of sight is still being caused by the failure to secure adequate preventive measures and prompt, skilled treatment for ophthalmia neonatorum, and urges the Ministry of Health to institute an inquiry into the causes of such failure."

If there were further need to demonstrate the urgency of this problem in Great Britain, one has only to turn to the Ministry of Health statistics

DEVELOP LOWER PROVINCES

Under the above caption, the Montreal Star publishes a letter from Ingram Oakes, Halifax, which is worthy of perusal.

"The time has come," says Mr. Oakes, "when the intellectuals of this country should turn their attention to thinking out and testing a sound trade policy. The protection of our key industries may still be a necessity, but a transition from custom tariffs for purposes of protection, to custom tariffs combined with a corresponding inland sales tax on the home-made product for purposes of revenue only should follow, it seems to me, in the course of a period of from five to ten years. What has the talk of the politicians of the Maritime Provinces in regard to Maritime Rights ever yielded? So far as I know, nothing except armories where there are no troops to drill, piers where there is no shipping, grain elevators where there is no grain to ship, ocean terminals where there is no ocean trade, and railways where there is no ocean trade, and railways where there is no freight. Why not stop such nonsense and begin to develop our own natural resources on business principles—to take into consideration our position on the map, the natural genius of our people, and what markets we are fitted to supply? There is an opportunity at this very moment to establish a movement or organization to promote sound methods of building up foreign trade with the Maritime Provinces, and with the whole of Canada, and to establish and stimulate such industries as will attract our young and inventive genius, keep them at home and thus render an immigration policy unnecessary. This is no dream; but we need men of conviction in place of scheming politicians."

LITCHFIELD
Mr. Trueman Hamilton, of Bear River, has been a few days guest at the home of Mrs. Eber Hamilton. Mr. Osher Ellis spent the week-end in Paradise. Miss Violet Burnie is expected home from Boston this week. Mr. Gordon McCaul has a radio installed and large crowds are being entertained every evening with some fine radio music. We have had a delightful winter, although February has been very cold by degrees. The abbreviation of February is F.E.B., which means "freeze every body". We haven't heard of many freezing, but some have been chilled as to freeze their faces in bed. B.Y.P.U. meetings every Thursday evening and great interest is taken in the work. A "sing" will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson on Sunday evening. All are welcome.

A FEW TIPS THAT MAKE FOR SUCCESS
Handle the hardest job first each day. Easy ones are pleasures. Do not be afraid of criticism—criticize yourself oftenest. Be glad and rejoice in the other fellow's success—study his methods. Do not be misled by dislikes. Acid ruins the finest fabric. Be enthusiastic—it is contagious. Do not have the notion that success means simply money-making. Be fair, and do at least one decent act every day in the year.

Worth Its Price

"We have cheaper teas, madam, but I think you'll find 'KING COLE' is worth its price." So said a wise grocer recently to a questioning customer. He was there not merely to serve her, but to serve her well. He might please her purse with the cheaper article but her final judgment of his service would be on the quality of the tea supplied. He wanted a satisfied customer.

This was one of the many merchants using "KING COLE TEA" in their own homes, and so he could say with sincerity: "It is worth the price."

ABOLITION OF THE GRAND JURY

Attorney General O'Hearn Says It Will Mean Saving Of $15,000 To Province.

Abolition of the Grand Jury is proposed in a Bill, notice of which was given in the House of Assembly by Hon. W. J. O'Hearn, Attorney General. The Attorney General, in explaining the scope of the proposed measure to the press, said that it would mean a financial saving to the Province of $15,000. British Columbia, he said, had dispensed with the Grand Jury; Manitoba had secured Federal Legislation last year, such legislation being necessary to give the Provincial Statute of abolition the desired effect; and Saskatchewan and Alberta at their formation never introduced the Grand Jury system.

For some time there has been a growing opinion that the Grand Jury was something of a fifth wheel to a coach, that it burdened the system of judicature, caused unnecessary expense, and that its abolition will save the time of a large number of influential citizens who do not try the cases, but merely go over in a supervisory way the earlier inquiries of the Stipendiary Magistrate.

Attorney General O'Hearn, at the annual convention of the Nova Scotia Municipalities held in Amherst last August, in the course of his address delivered before that body, very strongly advocated the abolition of the Grand Jury on a number of grounds and predicted that this abolition would save the Municipalities throughout Nova Scotia $15,000 annually. Mr. O'Hearn also claimed that in England, during the war, the Grand Jury was abolished and that a Bill had been before the Imperial Parliament for its abolition in respect to jury trials at Quarter Sessions.

Don't Dose A Cold ---Use Vicks

External Treatment With Vaporizing Salve Is Best.

Mr. Alex. McDougall, Box 555, Regent St., North Sydney, Nova Scotia, writes: "I had a bad cold in my head, and I tried many remedies, but had no relief until I used Vicks. It is also the best value I ever used for a cold in the chest. Put some Vicks Vapor-Rub on your chest, cover with a flannel and you have a sure remedy. For a cold in the head, melt a little Vapor-Rub, and inhale the vapors. In a short time your cold will be gone."

Vicks Vapor-Rub is an externally applied vaporizing salve. While it acts like a liniment or plaster, it is also inhaled as a vapor, and so gets into the throat and lungs immediately. The cold is often broken up overnight. Vicks is the modern direct treatment for all cold troubles, the successor to goose grease, camphorated oil, liniments, poultices and plasters. Used for croup and children's colds, Vicks gives remarkably quick results and also avoids nauseating internal dosing. Just as good for adults and for skin inflammations, such as cuts, burns, bruises, bites, stings.

At all drug stores 50c. a jar. For a free test size package, write Vicks Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W. Montreal, P. Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada, it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

OBITUARY

Mrs. George Hilsley.

Canning.—The death occurred Feb. 26th at her home, Port Williams, of Alma, beloved wife of George Hilsley. Mrs. Hilsley, who was beloved by all who knew her was the daughter of the late Dr. Masters, of Berwick, and is survived by her husband, one son, Kenneth, of Toronto, and two daughters, Mrs. John Helen, of Punticon, B. C., and Miss Dorothy Hilsley, of Boston.

The service was largely attended and was conducted by Rev. Owen Chipman. Mrs. McLean, of Wolfville, rendered two solos. The pall bearers were Campbell Clarke, George Chase, Fowler Newcombe and Dexter Collins. The floral tributes were very beautiful. The remains were sent to Berwick for interment.

AN IMPORTANT USE FOR ALUMINUM

Because tea deteriorates very rapidly if exposed to air, many tests and experiments have been made to find an effective means of packing it so as to preserve the flavor. The "SALADA" Tea Company first used lead packages but some years ago adopted aluminum foil, as being more durable and lighter than lead, besides of course being absolutely clean and air-tight. This method of packing is admitted to be the best to preserve the flavor of tea. All "SALADA" is sold in air-tight aluminum packages.

PORT WADE

Mr. C. Olmstead, Lic., preached very acceptably to a good sized audience at the U. Baptist Church on Sunday, 2nd.

Mrs. L. Adams is slowly improving we are pleased to state.

We also hear that Mrs. W. Rogers is recovering from her recent collapse.

Mr. W. Letteney is in a poor state of health at this writing.

Mr. Charles Letteney and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Raso, will go to Boston in the very near future.

March is going quietly with its usual prospect of "six weeks' sledding" and lumbering is still booming. Haven't heard anything about maple syrup.

We have had need for some time of an agent of the Social Service Council in this place. We don't know whether a remedy has yet been applied.

As we expect a first class Ferry service between this place and Digby the coming Summer, we accordingly expect an influx of tourists to this beautiful Western end of the Annapolis Valley, where they will find a number of quiet, comfortable homes in which to sojourn for a few months.

LYNN INSPECTOR GIVES THE TIP

That Leads to Round-up of Crooks.

Yoorhis A. Remsen, Well Known in Yarmouth, Responsible For The Salem Clean-up.

Lynn police inspectors are being given the credit today for the tip which resulted in the round-up of six gun men in Salem Friday, who will be arraigned in the Salem District Court on charges of breaking and entering in the night time and larceny on several counts.

Inspector Yoorhis A. Remsen received information Thursday night that two breaks on Lynn stores had been planned by a gang of crooks, which, if they had been successful, would have meant hauls valued at thousands of dollars. The inspector wasted no time. He had a conference with Chief Inspector William H. Kane and Friday morning inspectors Remsen, Wallace and Flanagan left Lynn for Salem, where they co-operated with the police of that city and Peabody in the biggest round-up of thieves in the history of Salem.

Six arrests were made and loaded revolvers and burglars' tools were seized. The police allege that two men held are safe-blowers as well as gunmen.

(Inspector Remsen referred to above, is a native of Annapolis, N. S., and owns a farm in Wellington, Yarmouth County.)

12 MILE LIMIT SHOULD APPLY TO FISHERIES

The Montreal Herald after referring to the announced intention of the Dominion Government to repeal the law giving United States fishermen the right to fish in Canadian waters "as a base of operation, practically for carrying on the deep sea fishing," speaks of the complete use granted by Canada, of her Atlantic fisheries, which she could have maintained as a monopoly, "for a mere bagatelle consideration in the interest of good neighborhood." The editorial goes into the history of this question and says:—

"The question may now arise whether we are to keep the New England fishermen only outside the old recognized three mile limit, or is it hereafter to be a 12 mile limit? It is understood that Great Britain has entered into a treaty with the United States whereby territorial jurisdiction is to be permitted to enable our neighbors to seize suspected rum-runners inside of 12 miles, it would seem to authorize Canada to seize foreign fishing vessels within a similar territorial limit."

To Our CUSTOMERS

Be quick to kick
If things are wrong,
But kick to us
And make it strong.

To make things right
Gives us delight;
If we are wrong
And you are right.

You need your money
And I need mine,
If we both get ours
It will sure be fine.

BUT if you get yours
And hold mine too,
What in the world
Am I going to do.
