

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph

VOL. XLIII.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1904.

NO. 14.

GOVERNMENT SWEEPS THE COUNTRY AND WILL PROBABLY HAVE A MAJORITY OF OVER SIXTY

Little Change in Quebec, and Nova Scotia Goes Solid

In Ontario, Too, the Opposition Lost Ground, and the West Went Strongly Liberal---General Prosperity Favored the Laurier Administration and Upset the Predictions of a Host of Prophets.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—(Special)—The latest estimate of the election returns is as follows:— Ontario, 40 Liberals and 46 Conservatives out of 86 seats. Quebec, 52 Liberals and 11 Conservatives, with Gagne and Chaboussier, which will go Liberal, to be heard from, making 54 Liberals and 11 Conservatives. Nova Scotia, 18 Liberals and no Conservatives. New Brunswick, seven Liberals and six Conservatives. P. E. Island, three Conservatives and one to be heard from, which may go Liberal. Manitoba, six Liberals and four Conservatives. British Columbia, four Liberals, with three seats to be heard from, which will go Liberal. The Yukon will also elect a Liberal. This will make 143 Liberals and 71 Conservatives, making a majority of 72 out of a house of 214 members. The next house will therefore stand, subject to changes in constituencies, as follows:—

THE SURPRISE IN THE WEST GREAT

Sifton's Election Said to Have Cost $100,000—There Will Be Protests. Winnipeg, Nov. 3.—(Special)—Liberals tonight are well. Victory was unexpected and soon after the returns commenced to come in, and as the majority increased, the thousands in Newspaper Row started out into various processions and made the night hideous. Such a landslide was not expected by the most sanguine. Even the west, which gave every promise of sending a telling majority to support Mr. Borden, has decided in favor of Laurier and the Grand Trunk Pacific. Winnipeg until the last moment promised a big majority for Sanford Evans, the Conservative candidate, and the election of D. W. Bole, Liberal, was scarcely thought probable. His plurality was, however, small, as he polled only 142 votes more than Evans. A. W. Patten, the former member and independent labor candidate, was given the smallest vote. In Brandon it was concluded that Hon. Clifford Sifton would win, as everything that money and influence could do was resorted to. R. L. Richardson, independent, however, gave him a run for his money, and the minister of the interior's majority will not be more than 700. Returns from British Columbia have been slow in coming in, but so far have been solid for the Liberals. Estimates for Manitoba and the Territories are: Manitoba: Liberals, six; conservatives, four; Northwest Territories: Liberals, six; Conservatives, two. Hon. Theo. Greenway, former premier of Manitoba, will represent Laurier in the next federal parliament, but in the time seemed the Sharpe, the Conservative, would win. Nat. B. J., who represented

Portage La Prairie for the Conservatives in the last parliament, will be replaced by J. Crawford, Liberal. Frank Oliver is returned by Edmonton with a telling majority. The vote polled in Winnipeg and throughout Manitoba was the largest in the history of the province and although the campaign was short, both parties were well organized and put up the fight of their lives. The defeat of the Conservative candidates in three or four constituencies is entirely due to manipulation of the Liberal machine and soon after polling commenced it was evident the government would leave no tricks untried to guarantee return to power. In Selkirk, Macdonald and Provancher, several hundred names, all of Conservative voters, were struck off by deputy returning officers and warrants were issued for the arrest of the responsible parties but too late to have the wrong rectified. All these elections will be protested and from the evidence, members will likely be unseated. In Brandon, where Mr. Richardson, independent, was supported by the Conservatives, corruption was evident in most glaring forms and it is estimated that the return of Mr. Sifton cost over $100,000. The great issue throughout the west was the Grand Trunk Pacific, influential real estate men used all their power to influence votes for purely personal benefits. The country districts gave good majorities for the candidates advocating government ownership and operation, but the vote was killed by the townsmen who were led to believe that the various loans scattered through in Manitoba and the west would immediately be benefited to the extent of millions of dollars.

LITTLE CHANGE IN PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

Pretty Solid for Laurier Again—Opposition Not Gain Three—Interest in St. John Result. Montreal, Nov. 3.—(Special)—In the province of Quebec the Conservatives gained six seats and lost three, a net gain of three. The gains were in Charlevoix, Huntingdon, L'Islet, Sherbrooke and Beauport and Pontiac. In Compton Rufus Pope was defeated; in Nicolet Sabinus-Gagnon, who also ran in Gaspé, beat George Hall, the Conservative elected in 1900, and in Montmorency a son of Premier Laurier, Ernest, was elected over P. Chase Casgrain. The result means that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will have 55 supporters out of 65 seats in his native province. In Jacques-Cartier, Mr. Meak was elected by an increased majority. Conservatives are pleased over the election of Bergeron in Beauport. After being in parliament for five terms he was defeated in 1900 and has been unsuccessful in by-elections but he was plucky and again went back to his old constituency. In Compton the defeat of Rufus Pope was a big surprise, though special efforts were put forth by the minister of agriculture to defeat him. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was elected by large majorities in Quebec East and Wright, a seat which includes Hull (Que.) Solicitor-General Lemieux was elected in two ridings, Niolet and Gaspé. To other candidates, Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick and Hon. Mr. Fisher, had heavy majorities. There was no change in Montreal, but the city saw the most earnest election in her history. Gangs of the worst character known to the city operated in almost every division. The only Conservative to be elected was Alderman Ames, in St. Antoine, the only Montreal division won by the party in 1900. He kept the gang of professional persons out of his division by engaging men from the Pinkerton detective bureau, with the result that the crowd was broken up on the eve of the election. The minister of marine, in Maisonneuve, the largest constituency in Canada, had a majority of 2,000. The first results received in Montreal were those announcing the election of the Conservative candidates in St. John. The news given in Windsor Hall, covered by The St. John Telegraph, gave the returns to Montreals and received with great cheering.

ALL LIBERALS IN NOVA SCOTIA

They Make a Clean Sweep; Borden Defeated in Halifax. Halifax, Nov. 3.—(Special)—Every Liberal candidate in Nova Scotia was elected today and the Conservative leader, R. L. Borden, is among those who went to defeat. It is a clean sweep. The majorities are: Gayboro-Sinclair, 465 majority. Halifax-Roche and Carney, 500 and 450 majority. Hants-Black, 80 majority. Inverness-McLennan, 300 majority. Kings-Borden, 1,200 majority. Lunenburg-McLennan, 300 majority. Pictou-McDonald, 400 to 200 majority. Richmond-Finlayson, 400 majority. Annapolis-Pickup, 187 majority. Antigonish-McLennan, 800 majority. Cape Breton-North and Victoria-MacKenzie, 25 majority. Cape Breton, South-Johnston, 300 majority. Colchester-Laurence, 146 majority. Cumberland-Logan, 812 majority. Digby-Copp, 747 majority. Shelburne and Queens-Fielding, 650 majority. Yarmouth-Law, 200 majority. In Cumberland, N. S. Antwerp, N. S., Nov. 3.—(Special)—The present indication is that Logan's majority will be 82. The fight was one of the hottest ever in Cumberland, and the excitement as returns were received was great. Logan came out of nearly every district with a majority, the exceptions being Springhill, which gave Rogers 41, and River Philip, 13. Logan had 147 majority in Antwerp, where both candidates stood during the day.

LATEST RETURNS

The Western Union Telegraph Company at a late hour this morning sends the following: "Corrected figures for Ontario—Liberals, 36; Conservatives, 48; Independents, 2."

PORT ARTHUR'S DOOM SEALED

Japanese Have Inner Forts at Their Mercy. FALL LIKELY SOON. Reports Show That the Besiegers Have Paid Dearly for Their Success—Fighting Like Demons on Both Sides.

Ch. Foo, Nov. 3, 4.30 p. m.—Port Arthur is doomed. The correspondent of the Associated Press here has received information, the reliability of which is beyond question, that the Japanese now occupy positions which place the east side of the town at their mercy. The last assault has gained for them positions which insure their ability to enter the main east forts whenever they are ready. It is calculated by the Japanese that if the Russians do not surrender, the latter will be capable of prolonging their final stand at Liaoi mountain and on the Tiger's tail for a much longer time with the mere hope of prolonging the struggle. Long before the second Pacific squadron arrives the Japanese flag will wave over the wrecked citadel. This will end Viceroy Alexieff's dream of an uncomparable. The Japanese have not occupied the main forts and highest points of the east hills, but they occupy in overwhelming numbers positions which will enable them to drive the Russians back whenever they desire. When the Japanese occupy the East Port Ridge they will completely dominate the city. Gangs of the worst character

ST. JOHN BURIES G. T. P. CANDIDATES AND PROVINCE NOW STANDS LIB. 7; CON. 6

All Records Broken by Vote Against the Grand Trunk in St. John, City and County—An Avalanche Hits O'Brien and McKeown—Gibson Beaten in York and White in Kings—Ganong an Easy Winner—Queens-Sunbury a Tough Fight—Loggie Carries Northumberland—How the News Was Received Here.

There has never been such a victory in St. John. Had Canada been moved by the spirit which ruled here, the G. T. P. would have been buried beyond resurrection. The St. John constituencies buried B as far as they lay in their power. The independents and Conservatives combined performed a feat which seemed impossible—they gave Dr. Daniel a much bigger majority than Mr. Blair received in 1900, and the Blair majority has always been regarded as one to astonish. The figures for Dr. Stockton are no less surprising when the former record of the county is considered. The G. T. P. canvass united the electors in defence of the port and nothing could stand against them. Elsewhere in this issue the reception of the news at Conservative and Liberal headquarters is described. The predictions of some newspapers that Messrs. O'Brien and McKeown would have large majorities here look very foolish in the light of the figures. The Grand Trunk candidates were not simply beaten—they were crushed beyond political resurrection. There was in these constituencies a mighty popular revolt against the government's railroad policy, and it was the result of this that carried the government down. Their organization was beaten to a standstill in city and county, and the Grand Trunk party had to look to outside results for comfort. The issue which Mr. Emmerson said was the principal one here resulted in a defeat for the government without parallel in the St. John ridings. New Brunswick generally upset the estimates of many prophets. In Westmorland, Victoria-Madawaska, Ross-Gordon and Gloucester the expected happened, but in Northumberland nearly all Conservative outlookers were wrong. Mr. Robinson's election, yet Mr. Loggie beat him handsomely after a terrific fight. In Kings Mr. Fowler's hold on the county surprised the White forces and the latter proved weak in Albert compared with what they had hoped. In York Mr. Gibson's big majority vote to smash in spite of the Canada Eastern purchase. Carleton county was a disappointment to the opposition as a few days ago Hale's election seemed pretty certain. Indeed the fight there was one with which the Carvell forces have reason to be well satisfied. In Charlotte Mr. Ganong's majority of 190 seems to have been reduced somewhat, but he has enough and to spare. There seems to have been a terrific struggle in Queens-Sunbury, and the absence of telegraph wires kept outside friends of both candidates in suspense until a very late hour. The loss of the St. John constituencies by the Liberals leaves the New Brunswick delegation seven to six in favor of the Liberals if the outgoing parishes in one or two points were as reported at an early hour this morning. Considering the disagreeable state of the weather there probably never was an elec-

ST. JOHN BATTLE COMPARED WITH THE FIGHT OF 1900

Table comparing St. John City results for 1904 and 1900. Columns include Wards, O'Brien (Lib), Daniel (Con), Blair (Lib), and Foster (Con). Rows list Kings, Wellington, Prince, Queens, Sydney, Guys, Brooks, Lorne, Lansdowne, Dufferin, Victoria, Stanley, and Non Residents.

ST. JOHN CITY AND COUNTY

Table comparing St. John City and County results for 1904 and 1900. Columns include Wards and Parishes, Stockton (C), McKeown (L), Stockton (C), and Tucker (L). Rows list Kings, Wellington, Prince, Queens, Sydney, Guys, Brooks, Lorne, Lansdowne, Dufferin, Victoria, Stanley, Simonds, Musquash, Non Residents, and various numbered wards.

GIBSON IS OUSTED FROM THE YORK SEAT

Crockett Wins, and the G. T. P. Had to Do With the Victory. Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 3.—(Special)—Oswald S. Crockett, Conservative, won a notable victory in York today over Alexander Gibson, jr., who has represented the county for the past four years. Up to a late hour complete returns were not available, but Crockett's majority will be substantial. It is needless to say that the result will be a surprise to the candidates. Liberals. They anticipated a sharp fight, but felt sure of the election of their man. The party was well organized, but found an undercurrent working against them which it was impossible to overcome. No doubt Mr. Blair's stand on the G. T. P. bill had a large influence on the result in this county. Gibson carried Marysville by his usual majority, and led his opponent by 100 in this city. In all other parishes, Crockett made large gains. The Conservatives are naturally very jubilant over the result, and celebrated the victory well. The Liberals are greatly disappointed with their failure to carry their man in (Continued on page 2, first column.)

GANONG AGAIN IS CHARLOTTE'S CHOICE

Gillmor Handily Beaten at the Polls by Good Majority. St. Stephen, Nov. 3.—(Special)—Election day passed off quietly in Charlotte. Both parties worked hard from start to finish. The St. Stephen vote was fifteen less than four years ago. The Liberals made a gain here of fifty four votes and are jubilant on cutting down the vote in Ganong's home. Milltown also gave Gillmor a boost as did nearly all the polling places in St. George. St. Andrews and some of the Islands

FROM ALL OVER NEW BRUNSWICK

WHITE'S COVE.

White's Cove, Queens Co., Nov. 1.—The last two nights have sealed the ponds with ice to a thickness of an inch, and the Little Lake, quite an extensive sheet of water, was frozen over this morning. There was also quite a snow flurry today.

Hallowe'en was celebrated last night by the young people in an old-time fashion. The usual occupations were indulged in and in some quarters legal proceedings have been threatened. About the best joke was the swapping of the horses of two well-known parties not on the most friendly terms.

Capt. T. A. Farris' schooner the Flying Yankee, was here Saturday taking in a cargo of hard wood for St. John.

Theophilus Sharp, of Waterborough, who has been in ill health of late suffering from what was said to be typhoid pneumonia is recovering slowly under the care of Dr. M. C. Macdonald.

Mrs. Carmichael, of White's Point, who has been suffering from paralysis, is not very much improved in health.

Rumor has it that several well-known young people of Demers will shortly enter upon the duties of matrimony. It is understood that two weddings will take place there this week.

John E. Austin exchanged his trotting mare yesterday with Harry Orchard for a draught horse.

Fred S. Farris and son Roy, of St. John, are spending a few days hunting. They are guests of Mr. Farris' sister, Mrs. John F. Wright.

J. F. Wright, who has been in the coasting business for the past summer, has arrived home to spend the winter.

Messrs. Palmer and McLoughlin have completed the work on the high water wharf here and the job reflects much credit on the contributors.

High Hay, of Woodstock, who has been spending some days here with his daughter, Mrs. L. P. Farris, and his son, Dr. Charles Hay, who is ill at Mrs. Farris' home, left yesterday for May Queen.

Mrs. Starkey, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. E. White. Mrs. J. F. Wright and Mrs. Ed. Farris, of Mill Cove have arrived home from a visit to St. John.

The steamer May Queen is carrying very heavy cargoes just now, as people are hurrying their produce to market before the close of navigation.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Nov. 1.—The many friends of Mrs. Rebecca Butterfield heard with regret of her death, which occurred last night at her home at Mountville, after an illness of several months, of stomach trouble. The deceased who was about 60 years of age, was a daughter of the late James Wilbur, and leaves two sons—Fred, of Vancouver (B.C.), and Curtis, residing at home, and two daughters—Mrs. Norman Kerstead, of Bangor (Me.), and Miss Agnes Butterfield at home. She also leaves three sisters—Mrs. Moffatt, of Vancouver; Mrs. R. K. Hitchens, of Chicago,

HAPPENINGS IN NOVA SCOTIA

ANNAPOLIS.

Annapolis, Nov. 2.—Harold, son of Policeman G. S. Bishop, while playing football on the Academy grounds yesterday, had the misfortune to break the bone of one of his arms. Much sympathy is felt for the lad, as he was before crippled in one of his limbs.

The bronze statue of De Monis, the founder of this town, now known as Annapolis Royal, has arrived and will shortly be set in position with appropriate ceremonies.

Miss Ethel Johnson, who has been at the Conservatory of Music in Boston for the past two years, delighted the Methodist congregation on Sunday evening by rendering with good effect the solo entitled Come Unto Me All Ye Weary and Heavy Laden, and I Will Give You Rest. Miss Johnson has a fine soprano voice of great compass, and is proving herself a proficient student of music.

Brough, the famous cartoonist, appeared at the Academy of Music last night and, with a few master strokes, outlined some of the candidates seeking political honors.

Annapolis, Nov. 3.—A story coming from Port Clyde of a novel wager that has been laid between a lady and gentleman in that vicinity. If Mr. Ritchie is successful in the election the gentleman is to wheel the lady one half mile in a wheelbarrow, and if not, the lady is to wheel the gentleman one-quarter mile across Clyde bridge on the morning following the election.

A Baptist ecclesiastical council convened at Clementsport on the 24th ult. A large number of reverend gentlemen and lay delegates were present. After the usual formalities A. H. Saunders was ordained to the ministry and inducted to the pastorate of the Baptist church of that place. The Clementsport church is to be congratulated on seeing the services of such a capable and efficient pastor.

The new stern schooner built at Grandville Ferry for L. D. Shafter, of Bridgeport, will be launched on Saturday. She will be named B. W. Mills and will load lumber here for St. John, Cabot, shipped by Pickles & Mills. Capt. Albert Mailman will command her.

The newly schooner Invictus, built in Digby county, under the supervision of Captain Munro, and loaded with lumber at Weymouth, sails this week for Cuba on her initial trip.

DIGBY.

Digby, Nov. 3.—The following are the nominations for councillors in the municipality of Digby, which closed yesterday.

—Hillsburgh—C. H. Parry, Smith's Cove—Frank Jones, Brighton—N. R. Watcott, H. H. Marshall.

—Plymouth—T. W. Cook, James Bragg, Weymouth—W. F. Nicholl, Weymouth Bridge—Randolph O. Payson.

—Caledon—Alex. Daley, John Ross, Roseway—C. H. Denton, Geo. R. McNeill, Sandy Cove—W. H. Eldridge, Tiverton—Heber J. Outhouse, Freepert—Edwin Hains, Westport—J. A. Peters, John H. Churchill.

Where contests will occur it is said there is considerable interest shown. Politics are not as a rule taken into Digby's municipal elections and in several districts two Liberals are running.

In Westport it will be a political fight, Peters being Liberal and Churchill Conservative.

Schooner Nebula, formerly owned by Sida & Cousins, Digby, was sold to Capt.

gratulated on seeing the services of such a capable and efficient pastor.

The new stern schooner built at Grandville Ferry for L. D. Shafter, of Bridgeport, will be launched on Saturday. She will be named B. W. Mills and will load lumber here for St. John, Cabot, shipped by Pickles & Mills. Capt. Albert Mailman will command her.

The newly schooner Invictus, built in Digby county, under the supervision of Captain Munro, and loaded with lumber at Weymouth, sails this week for Cuba on her initial trip.

Digby, Nov. 3.—The following are the nominations for councillors in the municipality of Digby, which closed yesterday.

—Hillsburgh—C. H. Parry, Smith's Cove—Frank Jones, Brighton—N. R. Watcott, H. H. Marshall.

—Plymouth—T. W. Cook, James Bragg, Weymouth—W. F. Nicholl, Weymouth Bridge—Randolph O. Payson.

—Caledon—Alex. Daley, John Ross, Roseway—C. H. Denton, Geo. R. McNeill, Sandy Cove—W. H. Eldridge, Tiverton—Heber J. Outhouse, Freepert—Edwin Hains, Westport—J. A. Peters, John H. Churchill.

Where contests will occur it is said there is considerable interest shown. Politics are not as a rule taken into Digby's municipal elections and in several districts two Liberals are running.

In Westport it will be a political fight, Peters being Liberal and Churchill Conservative.

have arrived. Her son, Andrew, arrived this evening. Mrs. Jas. Lunnin is also in very poor health.

Rankin Burst, our taxidermist, has returned home and is busy mounting several moose and deer heads.

While attempting to take a car of pulp wood from the siding, tonight a freight train forced it over the end of the siding, where it still is.

The late son of Guy Phillips, of Little Lake, fell from a beam in the barn this afternoon, cutting his face and putting out one eye. Father and mother were both away and most of the men of the settlement, who had gone to Fredericton Junction to take in the election tomorrow.

HARCOURT.

Harcourt, N. B., Nov. 1.—Our roads are frozen hard and travel is extremely rough and many are wishing for a permanent fall of snow.

Many men and teams are going to the Mills' mill, which is being cut this year will be much larger than was anticipated in the early fall.

Rev. B. O. Hartman baptized and received to church fellowship, a number of candidates last Sunday at Argyle.

Miss Maud Brown, who has conducted a dress making business here for several years, left yesterday for Beverly Hospital, Beverly (Mass.), and will take up hospital work.

NEWTON.

Newtown, Kings county, Nov. 1.—Arthur Oldfield paid a flying visit here Sunday.

E. Baird, of Hampton, spent Sunday here.

Miss Ella Gale, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Greta Pearce.

Miss Lena Tamlyn is visiting in St. John.

Will Venning succeeded in bringing down a fine deer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitten are the guests of Mr. Whitten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Venning.

Mr. Gerow, of Bloomfield, was here on business this week.

The Women's Auxiliary of Newtown and Smith's Cove will hold an anniversary meeting in the church at Newtown on Friday evening, Nov. 4.

GARDINERS CREEK.

Gardiner's Creek, St. John Co., Nov. 1.—Arthur Sullivan and John Wallace have returned to their home after spending two months in the harvest fields.

The farmers have been busy threshing their crops and have found them a very good crop.

Turner Brothers have removed their portable mill to Black River.

James Armstrong is building an addition to his residence. George Forbes is superintending the work.

Emery Campbell, who has been the guest of Geo. Reid, has returned to his home in St. John.

Nathaniel Beak, of Grand Manan, yesterday for $500 cash, secured for her home.

The firm will purchase or build another vessel to take her place among their fishing fleet.

News reached here yesterday of a burglary which occurred in Bear River last Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

The store of Wm. Clute was entered through a rear window and a quantity of goods taken. The thief was unable to work the combination. Mr. Clute is offering a liberal reward.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

MURDER VERDICT OF HULL INQUEST

Coroner's Jury Finds Fishermen Were Killed by Russian Guns

MUCH EVIDENCE

Captains and Mates of Fishing Fleet All Agree in Story That Baltic Fleet Fired on Them When Almost in Hailing Distance—Tale of Jap Torpedo Boats a Dream.

Hull, Eng., Nov. 2.—That George Henry Smith and William Leggett were, at about 12.30 a. m., on October 22, while out fishing with trawls aboard the British steamer trawler Cramp, with board of trades marks exhibited and regulation lights burning, killed by shots fired without warning or provocation from certain Russian war vessels at a distance of about a quarter of a mile.

This is the text of the jury's verdict at the coroner's inquest of the fishermen victims of the North Sea tragedy. At the request of the British government, represented by the Earl of Dysart, solicitor of the treasury, this conservative award was rendered by the first court of inquiry preceding the sessions of the International Tribunal.

The government asked the jury not to find a verdict of wilful murder or manslaughter because "delicate negotiations are going on, which should not be made more difficult by the verdict, and to let anyone think they had prejudged the case before having heard both sides."

In consequence the jury simply set forth the facts proved by the evidence of physicians, experts on explosives and the trawlers themselves.

To the verdict the jury added the following rider:

"On this occasion, probably the most momentous in the annals of the British Empire, the jury would record their appreciation of the efforts made by the government's witnesses to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion of the matter which we feel has no parallel in the history of the world."

George's Hall, a large auditorium which had been specially fitted up for the occasion, was quite inadequate to accommodate the crowds that wished to listen to the proceedings. The interest was intense and there was some excitement, but no demonstration occurred. A great number of people gathered in the vicinity of the building to watch the trial, and the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours, and consisted of medical evidence, by which it was proved that the death of Smith and Leggett was the result of shell and machine gun wounds, which occurred in the same space inside the hall was filled. The British Board of Trade, the officers of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased were present. The Russian government did not participate.

SISTERS OF CHARITY RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO FIGHT CATARRH, COUGHS, COLDS, GRIP.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

Peruna for coughs and colds in children.

SISTERS OF CHARITY

Over United States Use Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

From a Catholic institution in Ohio comes the following recommendation from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had cases which threatened to be a serious character."

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then we have become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

SISTER SUPERIOR.

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters all over the United States. A recommendation recently received from a Catholic institution in Detroit, Mich., reads as follows:

Dr. S. D. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir—The young girl who used the Peruna was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after taking two bottles we have her cured. This young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Peruna for catarrh of the throat, with good results. The above is her testimony.

Another recommendation from a Catholic institution in one of the Central States written by the Sister Superior reads as follows:

</

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1904.

LIST OF CANDIDATES ELECTED

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH is published every Wednesday and Saturday at 11.00 a.m. PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. The Telegraph Publishing Company, St. John, a company incorporated by act of the Legislature of New Brunswick. E. W. McCREADY, Editor. S. J. MCGOWAN, Bus. Mgr.

Without parallel in the history of the St. John constituencies is the victory of Dr. Daniel and Dr. Stockton. Though political prophecy is notoriously a perilous occupation (as witness the result in the Dominion) the Telegraph has repeatedly said that Messrs. O'Brien and McKeown would be soundly beaten here.

THE ST. JOHN VICTORY

Without parallel in the history of the St. John constituencies is the victory of Dr. Daniel and Dr. Stockton. Though political prophecy is notoriously a perilous occupation (as witness the result in the Dominion) the Telegraph has repeatedly said that Messrs. O'Brien and McKeown would be soundly beaten here. These gentlemen had the full strength of the government at their back, yet their alliance was unpopular and they carried the banner of the Grand Trunk Pacific. St. John not only defeated them but buried them under majorities sufficient to afford those who would follow in their footsteps. It was in the fight here and in New Brunswick generally that this newspaper was most interested, and there is every reason for gratification over the result, particularly in this city and county, for our conviction was that the government's rail policy was a direct menace to the interests of this port. In Kings-Albert, Charlotte, York and Queens-Sunbury the battle went as we expected.

In St. John, both city and county, men voted the opposition ticket Tuesday who never before in their lives cast a Conservative ballot. The independent element, which stood behind Mr. Blair in the day of his triumph, swung in toto to the support of Dr. Daniel and Dr. Stockton, and to this fact in the main their great success is due. The fidelity of the people here to the interests of the Winter Port and their determination to resist any attempt by it can be seen in the record-breaking figures which appear in another column this morning.

We regret that the defeated candidates, in their speeches last evening, intimated that attempts would be made to punish government employees who voted as they pleased. This line of policy is frequently adopted by men whom the people have rejected, and perhaps it is natural for beaten men to feel this resentment. But it is unwise to show such feeling and only creates the impression that some men do not know how to accept defeat gracefully. When a verdict is as sweeping as that recorded by the people of this city and this county, it is a case of the least said is soonest mended. Men will vote as they please. They may be persuaded; but they cannot be driven, and any attempt to use the mailed fist is certain to react disastrously upon the party having recourse to that method. There have been comparatively few hard words in the campaign, and the general decision will now be that as the jury has spoken no good purpose can be served by growling about the verdict.

THE RESULT

Prosperity is a great political general, and General Prosperity swept the Liberal party into power again yesterday by an immense majority. The exact figures are in some doubt at the hour of going to press, but while the government had fifty-four majority in the last Commons they will have more in the next house, and one estimate from Ottawa late this morning gives them something like seventy, which would exceed even the Liberal expectations. The government was firmly seated in the saddle when the fight was brought on, and plentifully supplied with the sinews of war. The good times which have long prevailed, and the absence of effective Conservative organization in several provinces made the victory a surprisingly easy one. New Brunswick appears to have gone Liberal by one seat, but the fight in this province was creditable to the opposition and St. John is a conspicuous example of a great popular revolt against the government's transportation policy. Nova Scotia, according to the latest figures obtainable, was swept by the government in a manner little creditable to the opposition forces, and the defeat of leader not only lost the province but apparently his own seat in Halifax as well. Prince Edward Island seemingly gives the Liberals but one seat out of four, and that one is doubtful. Quebec, according to the latest figures, is almost as solid as before for while the Conservatives gained in some quarters they lost in others, and their net gain is apparently less than half a dozen constituencies. In Ontario the Redistribution Act and government organization prevented the gains which Conservative organizers had announced as certain there. It had been said that the Dundas seat would have a great effect there, but the event proves, as was not expected, that the militia campaign was not a strong one. The government made gains in Manitoba and took nearly everything in sight in Territories and British Columbia if the estimates of this morning are justified by the complete returns, as presumably they will be. The result is a most sweeping one. The principal matter of regret is that a popular and sound national transportation policy has received so decided a set-back. The people have spoken, and The Telegraph is content to allow the facts to speak for themselves.

CANADA THE ISSUE

Canada was the word used by the Bond government to heat the opposition decisively in Newfoundland. From every platform the deep and dark designs of the opposition to plot with Canadian politicians for the betrayal of the Ancient Colony into confederation were "exposed" in heated language. The Witness has some interesting comment upon Canada as a bugaboo.

"The Newfoundland elections took place on Monday, and the Bond government was returned to power. We have been so busily engaged with our own more immediate affairs, that few of us have given much attention to this election, although our ears ought to have turned, according to the old proverb, at the things the Newfoundlanders have been saying about us. The principal issue, indeed, was union or not with Canada. The Bond party assumed the Opposition of being favorable to union with Canada, but while the government party, which is Liberal, was to a man against such union, it appears that only some of the Opposition members advocated it. Union has certainly been found to be unpopular with the working classes, who have been given some highly spiced food in the way of political literature. The Western Star, for instance, admonished the young men to 'Arise and show to the world that they love their honor and their country, and that in their united strength they are more than a match for the political intruders, who are now, by scheming and blatant falsehood, trying to get charge of the reins of the government with the sole object of selling country into confederation with Canada.' And of the members of the late Tory government the same paper fustigated gravely: 'Voters, the very same unregenerate, unreluctant crowd of heterogeneous stunts, flaccid by a record that entitles them to public execration and not to public favor, are before the country today, with others who have compromised every principle of honesty, and they are now rubbing their noses together in a deep delirium to sell our country to Canada.' No wonder that the cause of Confederation with Canada failed after so lofty an appeal as this. The same paper declared that all the farmers would perish of starvation if Confederation were brought about, and as for the children, an inspired poet wrote:—

"For when death of life deprives us, And we are buried in our graves, Under the Canadian banner, Then the offspring would be slaves. They'll be exiles on Dominion soil, Bereft of Freedom, Home and Friends; Pleas'd as targets before bullets, The Canadians to defend."

NOTE AND COMMENT

And the Globe said Mr. McKeown would have 600 majority! That was a tough fight in York. Another in Queens-Sunbury. St. John county hasn't done the like of that before in a dog's age. The size of the vote cast in St. John on a wet day is without parallel. Conservatives in Nova Scotia seem to be about as numerous as hen's teeth. The G. T. P. cow is to be milked in Portland, but not with the consent of St. John. Probably the local government is not very anxious to bring in those bye elections right now. Portland, Maine, will be a well-contented city today. The people of Canada are too generous. They say Mr. George Robertson met Dr. Stockton yesterday morning and urged him to take his defeat like a man! The majorities in the St. John constituencies beat all records. From 1,000 for Blair to yesterday's figures—what a change! St. John Conservatives as a rule did not know how the country went when they left St. Andrew's rink. A surprise awaits them this morning. There will be general surprise and regret over Mr. Robinson's defeat in Northumberland. A victory for him was very generally expected with confidence. Blair's majority in St. John was 997, but Daniel is credited with 221 more. The newspaper and a half supporting Mr. O'Brien guessed wrong by about 1,700 votes. The list of dead, injured and missing will not be complete until today, but only a few of the figures conspicuous in the last House will be missing when Parliament assembles. Mr. Haib's supporters in Carleton disappointed outland friends. The estimates received in St. John during the closing days of the campaign indicated that Mr. Carvell would be beaten. The Telegraph's estimate from the first was that the St. John seats were surely lost to the Liberals, but the figures of the G. T. P. and the conviction that Canadian ports would be sacrificed gave the opposition its majority here. The Liberals in some places, too, lacked effective organization. Mr. White's defeat in Kings-Albert will be a surprise to his friends. They underestimated Mr. Fowler's hold upon the big constituency. He developed remarkable strength in many places where the White forces were confident. There was a great battle in Sussex. Many of the government prophets were astray in their estimate of Albert.

There is something about the camera that annoys the Grand Trunk's morning campaign sheet. The photograph of the Blair message made certain paid servants of the government fell very foolish. Mr. Blair's signature is well known to most people, and nothing could be more convincing than its reproduction. Pathetic Death of Young Singer in Biddeford Just After Finishing Her Song. Miss Eva Gray, the soprano soloist and the illustrated song singer of the Dot Karrol Company, which is playing an engagement at the Opera House, had just finished singing Good Bye, Little Girl, Good Bye, between the second and third acts of the opening attraction, A Titled Outcast, Monday night, and had stopped from the stage with the appreciative applause of the audience ringing in her ears, when she was suddenly seized with heart disease and in less than half an hour was dead. It seemed to the members of the company that Miss Gray had never sung with such expression before, that she had never thrown her soul into the song as she was doing Monday night, and several of them batted in their dressing for the third act of the play to listen to her voice, which filled the floor and balcony and she was once recalled to sing the chorus of Good Bye, Little Girl, Good Bye. As she left the stage she met the stage manager of the company, Arthur E. Chaire, to whom she complained of sudden illness, and chafing her hand over her heart she said she felt faint and could not return to the stage to acknowledge the applause of the audience.

HER LAST GOOD-BYE

Mr. Chaire advised her to go off once to Miss Karrol's room, where she fell half fainting into the arms of the star and was tenderly laid upon the floor as she was being applied, which, however, afforded her but little relief. A physician was summoned, but without avail, and Miss Gray died in the arms of her friend, Miss Lida Brandon. Miss Gray has frequently appeared in Portland. She comes of a family that has for years been connected with the stage. Her age was about twenty-eight years. Her family name was Gray, and her mother, whose home is in New York city, has for years been quite famous as a character actress. Her stepfather, E. J. Nickerson, was one of the pioneers of repertoire in the east, and he is now the corner soloist at the Grand Opera House in New York. Miss Gray's brother is a member of the musical specialty team of Gray & Graham, which is playing at present in Albany (N. Y.). The dead woman has a husband living in Farmington by the name of Henry Wizard, who is a pianist, and she has a daughter three years old—Portland (Me.) Press.

"HOG'S EYE IS SOT"

Kentucky Description of the Desperate Condition of the Republican Party. Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, comes from Kentucky, and his exuberance of feeling today, while making Democratic claims, made use of a bit of mountain dialect. "The hog's eye is sot," declared the secretary. "It is all over. It sure is, and the Republicans might all just as well stay home. A panic has already started in Washington, and the managers are beginning to wonder about Ohio." Inquiry was made as to what the phrase, "Hog's eye sot," meant. "Mean?" asked Mr. Woodson. "Haven't you heard that before? Why that is old as the hills themselves down the Ohio. It comes from hogtime in the fall. The hog's eye is 'sot' when he's on the back with the knife in his throat, and the glass stare setting in. That's where we've got the Republican party. It's all over but the shouting." The secretary announced that Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, would stay in Indiana for the rest of the campaign, and not come back east until the day after election. "What will be come back then for?" "To get out his tin horn," said Mr. Woodson, "and lead the procession down Broadway."—N. Y. Evening Post.

A Fast Trotting Horse.

Deveras, 2:11, owned by Mr. Antone Wendling, of the Grand House, Brockville, is the fastest horse ever rubbed down with Vaseline, which prominent horsemen consider the best treatment made. Mr. Wendling says: "For brains, straining, swelling and general soreness, Vaseline is unequalled; it has strength, penetrating power and works promptly. Every horse and stock owner should use Vaseline." 25c. per bottle everywhere.

Table listing candidates for Ontario constituencies under Liberal and Conservative columns. Includes names like A. E. Dymott, A. C. Boyce, W. F. Coochatt, etc.

Table listing candidates for Quebec constituencies. Includes names like G. H. Parley, J. E. Sarcel, H. S. Benard, etc.

Table listing candidates for Nova Scotia constituencies. Includes names like S. W. W. Pickup, C. P. MacIsaac, etc.

Table listing candidates for New Brunswick constituencies. Includes names like P. B. Carvell, G. W. Ganong, etc.

Table listing candidates for Prince Edward Island constituencies. Includes names like J. J. Hughes, A. A. Lefurgey, etc.

Table listing candidates for Manitoba, Northwest Territories, and British Columbia constituencies. Includes names like Hon. Clifford Sifton, M. Mackenzie, etc.

FORTY MILES OF WAR'S RAVAGES IN MANCHURIA

A Stupendous Spectacle Marks the Vast Lines of the Armies of Kuropatkin and Oyama. The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent: Mukden, Monday, via Peking, Nov. 2.—I have traveled for forty miles along the Russian front. It is a stupendous martial spectacle. The country around is bare, the crops having been for the most part trampled on and destroyed. I saw only one village where any Chinese were living, although I passed through forty towns lately very populous. The villages have fled, not because of Russian cruelty, but because of bullets and shrapnel. The soldiers are using the furniture and rafters of the deserted houses and felling the trees for fuel. I met only a score of Chinese, mostly pedlars. The only woman I saw was an old one searching among the ruins of her home. Chinese translators are now unnecessary, as there are no Chinese in the villages. Those in Mukden understand well enough. Figures resembling vigorous Chinese men dot the fields. These are Russian soldiers in Chinese winter dress. In starting contrast to the cheerful autumn weather are the deserted villages and barren fields, wherein are multitudes of starving dogs and great flocks of crows. The whole country is burrowed by trenches and artillery positions. Some are occupied and many abandoned. In some places the ground is strewn with fragments of shells. Blood-stained boots cut from wounded legs and pieces of cloth are there, too, and Japanese knapsacks. The mud walls of the villages are pierced by loop holes. The soldiers at the front are living snugly in underground bombproofs. Russian graves are everywhere.

The Japanese Line.

The Japanese occupy Hun-Lin-Pu, near the Sha-Ho station, and the line runs westward to Sen-de-Pu, near the Hun River, north to Sha-Ho. On this line the Japanese have one division and a half, being stronger than their opponents. On the railway near Sha-Ho-Pu the Japanese have one division and four batteries. Another battle is expected here along the railway, and the fighting is continuing. The Japanese occupy the south end of Sha-ha-pu. The Russians occupy the north end. Food can be brought to either party only by night. There is a continual taking and retaking of villages near the railway, the shifting of batteries resembling the movements on a chess board. The officers tell vivid stories of the fighting during the middle of October. One regiment lost 1,000 men and all its officers. The bravery of the Japanese is acknowledged. Ten versts east of Sha-Ho-Pu is a high Larger Quarters Needed.

To the Editor of The Telegraph:—Sir,—Will you kindly set at rest any feeling of despair or sorrow which might be caused by alterations which are being made in the Old Chignam House, by stating that the portion of the wall without windows or doors, a straight, plain piece, which can be replaced and made exactly like it was, and in no way can it destroy further. I have made a sketch of how that there will be no difficulty to replace it at a trifling expense, if the building is not torn down in the spring. Yours truly, S. J. GORBELL, President.

Are You Constipated?

You can immediately relieve and permanently cure your constipation with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. One box contains 20 pills. Each pill is coated with a pleasant taste. Get with each box a bottle of Dr. Hamilton's Compound Syrup. THE DR. HAMILTON'S PILL MANUFACTURING CO., ST. JOHN, N. B.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 5, 1904

Special Values in MEN'S OVERCOATS

At these prices we have some very special values in MEN'S OVERCOATS, that we would like to have you compare with those being sold elsewhere from $2.00 to $5.00 higher in price. They are good materials, neat patterns and well made. MEN'S OVERCOATS, OTHER PRICES, $3.95 to $15

J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothier, 199 and 201 Union St.

If Farmers knew how Durable and Inexpensive

Flintkote Roofing

was they wouldn't use any other kind.

Easily Laid and Fireproof

WRITE FOR A SAMPLE.

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited, Market Square, St. John, N. B.

The Eleventh Hour

BY SIR WILLIAM MAGNAY, BART
Author of "The Red Chancellor," "The Fall of a Star," "The Heiress of the Season" etc.
Exclusive Copyright for This Province Secured by The Telegraph

CHAPTER XIII. (Continued.)
She illustrated her description by making his meaning. "Mr. Fauconberg," she exclaimed, "in reproach, half in fear."
He saw her turn, turned and laughed. "Oh, I don't mean in that way, as I meant it at Soothwell the other day. All I am going to say goodbye to is this stupid fashionable world of ours. This! He swept his hand round to indicate the chattering crowd.

Fauconberg, if proof were needed, that the work was distasteful to him. To a man of his temperament, with his restless longing for pleasure, his knowledge of money recklessness, his impatience of dullness and monotony, the work, the life, the environment promised soon to become more irksome than he even cared to anticipate. Was it to be mortified? The tastes and habits, mental as well as bodily, of generations of a family who all lived pretty much the same life and had the same ideas, are not to be uprooted and swept away casually for a whim or a wish. A man's counsel or a woman's face is not the harlequin's wand that can transform an easy-going, pleasure-loving mind into one burning and struggling with the fierce desire to altruism, welcoming fatigue and frugality and danger to health, not in a spirit of bravado or of a craving for novelty, but from a conviction of fitness and equipment for a work as strenuous as it is noble; because the desire for the work precludes, in its very essence, the love of ease and soft living. The sensual earth-man must be killed, he must all chance of reviving, before the man after the divine pattern will can live.

And this was why John Fauconberg was as sure of failure in his half-hearted, wrongly conceived attempt to change the way of his life as that of a man should follow night. He was in the man's goal; following, according to his lights, and he eluded down on him from his forefathers, a gentleman. But the world was strong within him and his world, compelling as it did a certain proportion of the flesh and the devil, was not to be beaten down under his feet simply by living in a colony of good workers which included a pretty girl with whom he was in love. He told himself—for he now had more time than usual for introspection—he was doing the right thing and tried hard to persuade himself that he liked it. But there was no depth or reality in his forced moods. He might fortify the citadel as strongly as he would—and this will come to him occasionally—against those enemies in the Lizard, but there was always the subterranean passage, leading from outside into the very heart of the objective, left open awaiting the first enemy who should light upon it. Could he have cut himself off from all desire of communication, all fellowship with the world, he had been safe; as it was, he could not bring his heart to consent to that, and so might hold out merely on sufferance.

He had, not very willingly, paid his promised visit to Sybilla, who lived with her aunt in Bryson Place. To his relief he found his reception less embarrassing than he anticipated. Sybilla never for a moment seemed inclined to revert to the position which on that unquiet afternoon had been suggested, if not established, between them. She was interested in his work, as the Hotel, and if his obvious fondness for the subject confirmed her own desire to help him, she gave no sign of not taking him seriously. He spoke of a concert which was projected to take place in a popular neighborhood, and she said she would be glad to help him in any way she could. She was interested in his work, as the Hotel, and if his obvious fondness for the subject confirmed her own desire to help him, she gave no sign of not taking him seriously.

CHAPTER XIV.
When I see the most enchanting beauties that earth can show me, I yet think there is something far more glorious; namely, I see a kind of higher perfection peeping through the frailty of a face."
Paul Hascombe was naturally delighted at his friends' almost unbroken reception, and had Fauconberg been the Savonarola of the mission world he could hardly have had a warmer welcome than that which met him on going into residence at the Hotel.

CHAPTER XV.
"White shall not neutralize the black, nor good compensate for evil, but man, absolute man, absolute being, just the terrible choice."
It spoke hopefully, Hascombe thought, for the flexibility and unproved depth of Fauconberg's character that he was able to himself to show Barbara Evandale.

CHAPTER XVI.
"More than in the battle in cleaning grass, is in the soap you use. If you use Sunlight Soap it's the best."
She was looking at Fauconberg, who in turn glanced at Hascombe, and on his

Bargains in Furniture
Parlor Suits, solid walnut frame, upholstered in velour, 5 pieces, $18 and upward.
Fancy Rockers, new designs, at $2.25 up.
Lounges, strong and durable, at $3.50 and upwards.
Parlor Tables, all shapes and sizes, well finished, bevel edge glass, at $2.90 and upwards.
In fact all our goods are sold at Bargain prices.
N. A. HORNHOOK & CO.
O'Regan's New Building, 15 Mill Street

TERRIFIC FIGHTING AT PORT ARTHUR
Almost One Continued Series of Desperate Japanese Attacks and Russian Sorties--Great Damage Done to Fortifications.

Tokio, Nov. 2, 7 a. m.—The official reports of the Port Arthur operations since August 1 form a record of almost continuous fighting of a desperate nature. The Russians first struggled desperately to block every Japanese advance, and then met the concentrated artillery fire of the Japanese with a kind. Latterly, since the Japanese began running parallels and traverses and extending mines, the Russians have been forced to take to the offensive. The Japanese infantry never failed to respond when asked to make an assault on almost impossible positions, and when the troops gained a foothold they generally held it with unflinching determination.
The reports commencing August 1 record the assault and capture of Taku mountain, a general advance following, and then a general bombardment opened August 19, and on August 20 an attack on Panlung Mount. Wire entanglements protected the latter position.
The Japanese artillery first shelled the Pantung fortification and then on August 21 the Japanese infantry charged and were beaten back owing to the deadly fire from the Russian machine guns and the insufficiency of the preliminary destruction of the wire entanglements. The Japanese were also forced to abandon the fort south-east of Keekwan Mountain, which was captured after desperate fighting, owing to the enfilading fire of the neighboring forts.
On the morning of August 22, the Japanese troops forming the centre army changed the east front on Panlung Mountain and soon had captured two-thirds of it. The Russians who continued to hold the kept resolutely, aided by the fire of the west fort, and forced the Japanese to abandon the positions occupied. The Japanese centre, partially reformed, stormed, captured and held the west fort, forced the abandonment by the Russians of the east fort and mastered the entire position.
On the night of August 23, the Japanese, with the right co-operating, attacked the heights northwest of Wang Tai and the north fort east of Keekwan mountain, but the troops were forced to abandon the attack on account of the heavy losses sustained from machine gun fire from every direction. On the morning of August 27, the Russians concentrated their artillery fire, attacked the left Japanese line, and were repulsed.
At the end of the month and the first week in October the Russians continued to attack and shell Pantung Mountain. They managed to seriously damage the new works, but they were unable to hamper the operations of the Japanese miners. By August 29, the Japanese mines had reached within about forty yards of Fort Kuro-patkin, and about two hundred yards east of the northern forts on Keekwan mountain and some fifty yards from Fort Suibing.
August 12, the Japanese discovered that the Russians were endeavoring to mine Pantung Mountain. The afternoon of August 19, the Japanese, using sledge and manual labor, opened a general bombardment, and at 6 o'clock in the evening made assaults on forts Suibing and Kuro-patkin, and on a Russian position on 200 metre hill. The attack was continued at dawn, August 20, with the result that the Japanese occupied Fort Kuro-patkin in the forenoon of that day. They also captured four additional forts south of Suibing mountain and inflicted serious casualties on the retreating Russians. The Japanese attacked 203 Metre Hill from the east, north and west during the night, but further operations of the Japanese failed to reach and secure a foothold on the northwest point of the Pantung Mountain. A detachment of the Japanese managed to reach and secure a foothold on the northwest point of the Pantung Mountain. A detachment of the Japanese managed to reach and secure a foothold on the northwest point of the Pantung Mountain.

Fruitatives
or Fruit Liver Tablets
are the concentrated extracts of fresh, ripe fruits in tablet form. The natural cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles. At your druggist. 50 cents a box.

CONSERVATIVES HIGH FEATHER

Dr. Stockton Receives Ovation in St. Andrew's Rink.

DR. DANIEL ABSENT.

Crowd Formed a Procession and March to Music to His House—City Member Returns Thanks; Says The Effect of the Vote Will Be Far-reaching—He is Cheered Again and Again.

By 10 o'clock it was all over at the Conservative headquarters in St. Andrew's rink. As early as five hours previous the electors had commenced to gather—some manfully endeavoring to suppress certain misgivings as to the fate of their candidate—others exhibiting an inspiring cocksureness in the ability of Messrs. Daniel and Stockton to roll up stunning majorities.

Then the returns began to come in. Never in the political history of this city were they awaited with such a feverish eagerness. Dr. Daniel's triumph was easily assured and the ballot boxes had not long been opened ere thousands of cheering individuals were shaking their hats and other persons' hands and vociferously inquiring what was the matter with Dr. Stockton. As soon as the result was known—when it was unquestionably established that he had at least 600 to his majority, an invitation for him to appear and speak—an invitation of the most strenuous and positive character—was up from the eight packed ranks of electors in the rink.

There was the customary wait—it wasn't long—but when he did step to the edge of the thronged platform the audience's previous vocal efforts were weak and ailing contrasted with the ovation. They hurled a tiger at him, too.

"The verdict rendered today," said Dr. Stockton, raising his hand for silence "is true for the interests of the people of this city and country. (Cheers.) You will remember that four years ago I was defeated by a majority of 600 but judging from the results obtained tonight, there is undoubtedly something wrong with the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. (Cheers.)

"You have all worked hard and unselfishly in behalf of Dr. Daniel and myself and to the Liberals—Conservatives and the independent Liberals of this constituency I offer my sincere thanks, not only for voting personally for my colleagues and myself, but also for the interest and support that St. John is decidedly in opposition to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway scheme. (Applause.)

"It is unnecessary for me to say more than again express my gratitude. The news of this election will go throughout the dominion and amply prove that St. John has at least voted right in respect to the railway bill."

Dr. Stockton then retired out in a moment or so he returned to the front and added:

"I forgot to mention that this afternoon I met that eminent statesman, Geo. Robertson, and he advised me to take my defeat like a man. I desire to say that I am following his advice and I sincerely trust that he will also take his defeat like a man." (Applause and laughter.)

"Where's Daniel?" someone shouted. "How about the man with all kinds of majority?—How big is it?—Three thousand?"

"It's over one thousand," came a glad voice from the platform. "Bring him out—bring him out—Daniel—Daniel—Daniel!"

sents the insult to Lord Dunsford, that she resents the attempt to interfere with her commercial success. The Globe says that so far it concerned that the Conservatives have won in Kings, Charlotte, York (a burst of hurrahs), and possibly Kent. (More of them.) I hope," concluded Mr. Baxter, "that the Globe's statement is more accurate than the statements published during the past three weeks."

Somebody called for cheers for George V. McInerney, the Conservative candidate in Kent. As the echoes died away, an admirer exclaimed: "George will win; make no mistake about that."

Between 8 and 9 o'clock the arrival of the returns dragged somewhat, and the electors were in a mood for diversion. "Hah, hah—hah—hah," a threadbare gentleman near the platform ejaculated. He removed his hat and weakly waved it. He had a fixed smile, and a far-away look in his eyes. "Platform, platform; a speech from you, old chap."

He was seized and hoisted. His expression underwent a change. He was startled and drenched at once. Those on the platform were bending forward to receive him. He was shoved from hand to hand, he plunged downward for a moment, but was again lifted, and pushed relentlessly forward, to be eventually dragged on to the platform. He bowed, and there were chuckles and encouraging nods. He appeared to be studying his hat.

"Gen'lemen," said he, "I think I've as much right to me as you have to yours, if I'm any judge of homeliness. Then he backed away and would not speak again. Great cheers rewarded the oration. "The returns were coming in more briskly. 'How's Foster?'"

"Leading in Toronto, according to a despatch."

"Good boy, George."

"What's Emmerson doing?"

"No word yet."

"Laurier will be out of a job."

By 10 o'clock the electors in response to an invitation to fall in behind the band of St. Mary's church, soon vacated the rink, and marched to be present at the serenade of Dr. Daniel. They knew that he and Dr. Stockton had won, but were not as yet fully acquainted with the result throughout the county.

The enthusiasm, however, reached its height when a despatch was read about 9 o'clock that not one Conservative had been elected in Nova Scotia.

Richard O'Brien, who was cheered to the echo, said they had that night heard some good news and some bad news. Canada is still to be governed by the great Liberal party and later returns may show they have a greater majority than ever. He was glad that not a Conservative had been elected in Nova Scotia and even the gallant Gourley is among the dead and lying in the ditch. Hon. George E. Foster is also among the slain. The Liberals have a majority in Ontario and two seats are expected in Quebec. As to Halifax R. L. Borden has been defeated by over 1,000 majority. Personally, he continued, he had been greatly disappointed in St. John but he was sure the Liberal candidates had been supported by as strong a committee as anywhere in the country. He thanked all those very cordially who had worked so loyally to support him.

HOW LIBERALS TOOK THE NEWS

McKeown and O'Brien Find Comfort in Defeat

SINISTER THREAT

Defeated County Candidate Says Office-Holders That Worked Against the Government Will Be Looked After.

Standing room was at a premium in the Opera House Thursday. For enthusiasm was immense as the returns kept rolling in. Every one rose to his feet and waved his hat when Laurier's majority was announced and also when it was announced that R. L. Borden had been defeated in the city of Halifax.

The candidates for the city and for the county as well as Edward Sears, Michael Donnan and George Needham addressed the meeting. As the returns kept coming in John Keeffe and Aid. Bullock read them to the audience and Frank Munroe chafed them on to blackboards which had been fixed behind the footlights.

The enthusiasm, however, reached its height when a despatch was read about 9 o'clock that not one Conservative had been elected in Nova Scotia.

Richard O'Brien, who was cheered to the echo, said they had that night heard some good news and some bad news. Canada is still to be governed by the great Liberal party and later returns may show they have a greater majority than ever. He was glad that not a Conservative had been elected in Nova Scotia and even the gallant Gourley is among the dead and lying in the ditch. Hon. George E. Foster is also among the slain. The Liberals have a majority in Ontario and two seats are expected in Quebec. As to Halifax R. L. Borden has been defeated by over 1,000 majority. Personally, he continued, he had been greatly disappointed in St. John but he was sure the Liberal candidates had been supported by as strong a committee as anywhere in the country. He thanked all those very cordially who had worked so loyally to support him.

Hon. H. A. McKeown, who also got a very enthusiastic welcome, said it was hardly necessary to express his regret at the result of the elections in St. John. Whatever little personal or political regret he or Mr. O'Brien might feel was lost sight of in the results all over the rest of the country. He was glad that not a Conservative had been elected in Nova Scotia and even the gallant Gourley is among the dead and lying in the ditch. Hon. George E. Foster is also among the slain. The Liberals have a majority in Ontario and two seats are expected in Quebec. As to Halifax R. L. Borden has been defeated by over 1,000 majority. Personally, he continued, he had been greatly disappointed in St. John but he was sure the Liberal candidates had been supported by as strong a committee as anywhere in the country. He thanked all those very cordially who had worked so loyally to support him.

James Thompson, one of St. John's oldest residents, died Monday night, aged 92 years. He came to St. John about 40 years ago, and had since lived in St. John. Mr. Thompson followed tailoring, but retired some years ago on account of old age. He lived with his son, St. John, where all his family also lives. He leaves a daughter, who resides in the states.

Miss Mary A. Halligan. After nearly a month's illness Miss Mary A. Halligan died Tuesday morning at her father's residence, 104 Elm street. She was a daughter of Edward Halligan, and is survived by her father and sister. She was 21 years of age.

Robert Mahony. The death of Robert Mahony took place at Anoka (Minn.) on Oct. 26. He was formerly of this city, and was aged seventy-seven years. He leaves three brothers, John, of Boston, and James and Francis, of this city.

Mrs. Helen B. Black. Mrs. Helen B. Black, wife of Samuel Black, potter, died suddenly Thursday morning at her husband's residence, 131 Westwoodland road. She was the daughter of the late John F. McIlwain, and was forty-one years of age. Besides her husband she leaves four children, the eldest seventeen years of age.

Mrs. Alfred Seely. Frederick, N. B., Nov. 3.—The death took place this morning of Charlotte, the wife of Alfred Seely, auditor of the Gibson Manufacturing Company, who had been ill only a short time with typhoid, and complications ensuing, death came quite unexpectedly. She was a daughter of the late James Robinson, of St. John. Five children survive.

FEAR ENGINEER IS FATALLY HURT

C. P. R. Pacific Express from Halifax in a Bad Accident

COLLIDED WITH ENGINE

Ran Into Open Switch at Oxford Junction, N. S.; Two Locomotives Wrecked, Engineer McAuley Badly Hurt, Others Injured.

The C. P. R. express from Halifax to Montreal crashed into a locomotive on a siding at Oxford Junction (N. S.), on the I. C. R. Tuesday morning. The driver, James McAuley, of Moncton, was in a dying condition last night. Both legs had to be amputated, for they were scalded to such an extent that amputation was the only course.

The foreman, Watson Laurence, of Moncton, leaped from the tender and escaped with a broken ankle and bruised body. These were the only cases of severe injury. The conductor of the express, Jas. Millican, of this city, suffered a slight wrench of the shoulder, but is able to continue on duty. He has now been through four weeks on the road.

Both locomotives are shattered. The one on the siding, so it is reported, was without driver or fireman at the time of the disaster. It was the Fowle freight special locomotive. The cause of the wreck was an open switch. When the express engine first came within sight of the locomotive on the siding, it was an impossibility to stop, as the necessary efforts were made, but nothing could prevent the collision.

The express was just preparing to stop on the siding when the other engine was seen standing on the track ahead. The injured Engineer. The boiler of the latter engine was driven through to the cab of the express engine, and in the midst of the wreckage Mr. McAuley was found. He was quite conscious, and bore his agony with great courage, and bore his agony with great courage, and bore his agony with great courage.

Mr. Russell bet Mr. Payne $10 to $5 that Mr. Emmerson's majority in Westmorland would not be 100, the same amount that it would not be 200, and so on, up to 800, making in all $40 to Mr. Russell. He then offered to bet Mr. Payne $2,000 even money that Mr. Emmerson would be defeated and Mr. Payne accepted the bet, stating that he would deposit the money during the early afternoon with Mr. W. E. Raymond of the Royal Hotel. Mr. Russell later telephoned to Mr. Raymond and heard nothing from him. Mr. Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle, excepting that he received a telegram from Mr. Payne stating that he would take the bet, an offer of Raymond had heard nothing from Mr. Payne, Mr. Russell naturally concluded that Mr. Payne was not serious and the whole affair will be seen in the Chronicle,