CALCUTTA, Sept 3rd—the freight market for England has been dull throughout the week, though the fresh arrivals of tonnage have been only moderate till toward the close, when ships have been coming in more rapidly. For the United States there has been little business doing in vessels on the berth, but one iron ship, chartered sometime since on speculation at a high rate, arrived last week, and has been forced upon the berth at about $1 per ton under the current rate. In the country trade there has been a little done for Mauritius, but business for the other ports is very quiet. For London—Current rates for small parcets are: £2 2s 6d for naticeauer.
