[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 20.—Fighting on a huge scale is in progress along the eastern war front, whence the centre of interest has shifted following the let-up in the heavy allied attacks along the Somme in the west.

Evidence is accumulating that the Central Powers are now devoting their main attention to the campaigns in the east, concentrating large forces against Rumania, notably under Field Marshal von Mackensen in Dobrudja and putting all possible available men in the field to stop the Russian march on Lemberg by way of Halicz and the menacing drives of the Russians and Rumanians in the Carpathians and Transylvania.

Teutons Are Attacking.

Both Berlin and Sofia report the development of a great battle on the line the Russians and Rumanians have taken up in Dobrudja to defend the railroad route into interior Rumania from Constantza on the Black Sea. Latest reports from the fighting in Galicia and Volhynia show the Teutonic forces on the offensive and claiming decided advantages over the Russian armies under Gen. Brussiloff.

Petrograd today is silent regarding the operations along the Russian front, reporting merely that there have been no important happenings.

Favorable to Allies.

In Macedonia the trend of the campaign appears to favor the Entente armies. The Serbians are reported in a continued advance along the western end of the line, driving the remaining Bulgarians out of Florina and capturing the highest peak in the Kaimakcalan range, north of Lake Ostrovo.

Greece again appears as a probable new factor in the military field in the Balkans. She is reported to have sent an ultimatum to Germany demanding the return of the Greek troops taken at Kavala by the Bulgarians and sent to Germany for internment.

Comparative quiet prevails in the Somme region. Paris sends news of a German attack at Hill 76, north of the river, which the French were successful in repelling, ejecting such Germans as succeeded in gaining a foothold in advanced positions.

FRENCH CLEAR OUT LAST OF BULGARIANS IN FLORINA; SERBS TAKE HIGHEST PEAK

Savage Resistance Met With From Troops That Remained in Houses—Italian Defeat Claimed by Sofia.

Athens, Sept. 19—Via London, September 20—4:10 p.m.—The Bulgarians have hastily evacuated Viglitsa, towards the western end of the Macedonian front, falling back on Svesda, and are now preparing to make a stand at previously-constructed entrenchments between the Cerna River marshes and Mount Daanou for the purpose of defending Monastir in the comparatively level plain south of the city.

Greek military authorities assert that should these entrenchments be taken, the evacuation of Monastir will be necessitated, as the defence afterward would only be possible from the hills north of the city.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Sept. 20.—12:05 p.m.—The last of the Bulgarians have been cleared out of Florina near the western end of Macedonian front, the war office announced today. After the occupation of the town by the entente forces Bulgarian soldiers held out for a time in several houses, resisting with savage energy. One hundred prisoners were taken in completing the capture of these positions.

The announcement says the Serbians have captured height 2,625, the highest peak of the Kaimakcalan range, after desperate fighting at close quarters. On the left wing the Bulgarians are still resisting on the heights north of Sisoderi.

The text of this announcement follows:

"From the River Struma as far as the region to the west of the Vardar there have been the customary artillery exchanges and engagements between patrols. To the east of the Cerna Serbian troops, following a vigorous offensive movement, attacked Hill 2625, the highest peak of the Kaimakcalan range, which has been defensively organized by the enemy. After a fierce struggle, which developed into hand-to-hand fighting, the Serbian infantrymen came out masters of the position."

The Bulgarians, who suffered very heavy losses, left 50 prisoners in the hands of the Serbians.

"To the east of Florina, in the region of the Broda River, Bulgarian counter-attack, supported by cavalry, was driven back in the direction of Boresnica by the fire of our 75-millimetre guns before the Bulgarians could reach the Serbian lines on our left wing.

"The enemy is still holding out on the heights to the north of Sisoderi and near the Monastery of San Marco.

"In Florina we have cleaned up several houses in which Bulgarian troops were still defending themselves with savage energy. During these operations we took 100 prisoners.

"One of our air squadrons has thrown down numerous projectiles on Monastir."

CLAIM ITALIAN DEFEAT.

[Canadian Press.]

Sofia, Sept. 19.—Via London, Sept. 20.—Official announcement was made here today that the Italian troops on the Macedonian front have been driven back by the Bulgarians, who occupied four villages.

In Eastern Rumania, along the new battlefront south of the railroad from Constanza on the Black Sea to Tzernavoda, on the Danube, a great battle is in progress. It is developing in favor of the Bulgarians, the announcement says.

Following is the statement:

"Fierce fighting continues around Florina. All attempts of the enemy to seize Kaimakfalan height failed as a result of our violent counter-attacks. In the Moglenca valley and on both sides of the Vardar there was weak artillery fire.

"At the foot of Belanchitza plateau our patrols drove off the enemy and occupied the villages of Schoygovo, Manitza, Gorni-Porog and Conli-Porog, where they found much war material abandoned by the enemy. The Italians left many rifles at Corni-Porog. Along the Struma and on the Aegean coast there were no developments.

"Rumanian front: Along the Danube all was calm. The great battle reported on the line Maralui-Manuk-Arabadji-Kokardja-Cobadin-Tusla develops in our favor. On the Black sea-coast calm prevailed."

THE BRITISH STATEMENT.

London, Sept. 20—2:10 p.m.—Following is the official account of today in regard to operations on the Macedonian front:

"On our Struma front our aircraft raided Drama. Bombs were dropped on railway rolling stock and stores.

"There were no developments on our Doiran rfont."

FORMER U. S. MINISTER DIES.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—William J. Calhoun, former minister to China, died last evening at his residence here, aged 68. He had been in ill-health for some months, having been stricken with paralysis. Mr. Calhoun gained fame as a diplomat through his mission to Cuba just preceding the war with Spain and as special commissioner for President Wilson.

Would Restore Temporal Power

German and Austrian Papers Anxious to Have Vatican Represented at Peace Conference—Hope to Draw Pope Away From Italian Influence.

London, Sept. 20.—A movement in favor of re-establishment of the temporal power of the pope is reported by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company to have been inaugurated by Roman Catholic newspapers of Germany, with the idea of drawing the Vatican wholly away from Italian influence. The Cologne Volks Zeitung, a prominent Catholic newspaper, is quoted as saying Germany gives a free hand to German Catholics, and as denouncing the law of papal guarantees adopted by the Italian Government in 1870 at the time of the ending of the temporal sovereignty of the pope.

All Austrian and German Catholic papers are following this lead, the dispatch says. It adds that the movement is believed to have been inaugurated by Cardinal Hartmann, archbishop of Cologne, with the idea of gaining representations for the Vatican at the peace conference after the war.

RUMANIANS SCORE AGAINST ENEMY; BATTLE GOES ON

Inflict Defeats in the Region of Enigea.

Allies Fighting With Powerful German-Bulgarian Army.

Bucharest, Rumania, Sept. 20—Via London, 2:30 p.m.—The official report issued today by the Rumanian war office announces that the Rumanians have gained a success against the German and Bulgarian troops in the Province of Dobrudja. The fighting was in the region of Enigea, 19 miles south of the Constanza-Tzernavoda Railway.

The battle in this region continues, the statement adds, "where the Rumanian efforts are directed against the principal enemy forces according to movements prescribed by command."

FORTY GERMANS REPORTED SLAIN IN PEACE RIOTS

RELATIVES BREAK OUT

Sing Socialist Songs and Suffer Heavily Before Hussar Attacks.

London, Sept. 20.—Serious rioting, in which a number of lives were lost, occurred at Chemnitz Saturday afternoon, according to a Central News dispatch from The Hague.

The dispatch says that the rioting started when the news arrived of the heavy losses of Chemnitz workmen in the Somme battle. Crowds assembled on the streets and sang "The Internationale." They refused to disperse, and were charged by Hussars. Five Hussars were killed, and forty wounded, and about forty civilians were killed and 300, armed with revolvers, were arrested.

RUTHLESS WAR ON BRITAIN IS BEING URGED

"EXISTENCE" TALK AGAIN

Admits Germany Is Facing a Most Difficult War.

USE SUBS AND ZEPPS

Liberal Member Declares the Underseas Campaign Is Only Postponed.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Sept. 19—Via London, Sept. 20.—Major Ernst Bassermann, leader of the National Liberal party, in a keynote speech delivered on Monday before his constituents in the Saarbruecken district, declared that the submarine campaign had been postponed and not abandoned. Major Bassermann advocates the widest possible use of both submarines and zeppelins and the most ruthless methods of warfare.

His Audience Agrees.

The National Liberal leader asserted that his views were shared by Admiral von Tirpitz. Admiral von Koester, Prince von Buelow and Count Zeppelin. He maintained that "in a struggle wherein the existence of Germany is at stake the most ruthless use of all possible weapons is called for." This sentiment was heartily applauded by his audience. Submarines and zeppelins, continued Major Bassermann, were the most effective weapons against "our arch enemy England."

Major Bassermann warned his hearers against trusting for any permanent effect upon American sympathies from England's blacklist policy and the achievements of the Deutschland and other commercial submarines. He warned them also not to hope that the present American protests to England would have any greater effect than their predecessors.

More Difficult Now.

No prospects of peace were held out by the speaker. He told his hearers that it would be a delusion to believe that there was any immediate prospect of an end to the war. On the contrary, he said, Germany was facing a more difficult war than had at first appeared possible.

VON TIRPITZ ANGERED.

Berlin, Sept. 19—Via London, Sept. 20.—Admiral von Tirpitz has been aroused by charges brought against him by Professor Valentin that he furnished incorrect information to the Reichstag during the submarine controversy. Prof. Valentin is employed in the foreign office and the papers print letters which

ALL BRITISH YARDS ARE BUILDING SHIPS NEEDED AFTER WAR

Public Eager To Buy Shares of Shipping Firms.

WORK FOR TWO YEARS

Clyde, Tyne and South Wales at Present Busy on Overhauling Tasks.

[Canadian Press.

London, Sept. 20.—The shipping trade of Great Britain, while suffering considerable losses from enemy submarines, is nevertheless quietly strengthening itself by means of various financial amalgamations of interests to meet the "after war" competition, and by means of fresh tonnage construction, despite the huge increase in cost of material and labor.

The investing public are also showing their belief in the future of British shipping by absorbing all sort of shipping shares privately and on various stock exchanges.

All Yards Busy.

The recent move by the Admiralty in giving certain shipbuilding firms freedom to proceed with construction of mercantile vessels, has led to orders being freely placed in practically all the yards of Great Britain, most of which now have work in hand for the next two years. Overhaul and repair work is particularly brisk on the Clyde, the Tyne and certain South Wales yards; several new vessels are completing and fitting out which were ordered as far back as early in 1914, while several large oil tankers have recently been put in hand.

New Yards Working.

The new shipbuilding project at Chepstowe, for the construction of standardized vessels, is well under way, and the yards are expected to be commenced in the near future. Engineering firms have also been attracted to the district, which is experiencing a sharp rise in land values.

BRITISH GAIN 200 YARDS OF FOE'S TRENCH

In Minor Activities Have Upper Hand During Night's Fighting.

GENERAL'S ORDER FOUND

Warns Men That Wastage of Guns Is Above Production.

AMMUNITION IS ALSO LOW

Duty of All Ranks to Conserve Material, Said Falkenhayn.

London, Sept. 20.—3:30 p.m.—British troops south of Arras yesterday captured 200 yards of German trenches, says the official statement issued today by British army headquarters.

The text of the British statement follows:

"The general situation is unchanged. South of the Ancre the enemy after preliminary bombardment made determinde counter-attacks during the night, which were repulsed.

Ammunition Exploded.

Two hostile gun emplacements have been destroyed by our artillery and an ammunition store has been exploded.

"A successful minor enterprise was carried out yesterday south of Arras, 200 yards of the enemy's trenches being cleared and casualties being inflicted.

"Yesterday afternoon the enemy exploded a mine near Souchez. No damage was done, and we occupied a lip.

Germans Short of Guns.

"A captured document signed by Gen. von Falkenhayn while chief of the German general staff, dated August 24, states:

"'The wastage of guns in the last few months has been considerably in excess of production.

"'The same is true of the ammunition in our reserves of which there has been a serious diminution. It is the duty of all ranks—not only in the artillery—to endeavor to remedy this serious state of things. All ranks must make a most serious endeavor to assist in the preservation of material as indicated above, for otherwise making good the losses and placing formations in the field will be rendered impossible.'"

FIVE KILLED IN MUNITION PLANT

Aetna Company Officials Say Cause Will Never Be Known.

[Canadian Press.]

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 20.—Five men were instantly killed and another sustained fatal injuries when the air dry-house of the Mount Union plant of the Aetna Explosives Company was wrecked near here early today. All the dead were employed in the building, which was blown to pieces. The force of the blast was heard for miles, but with the exception of broken windows, the only damage to the plant was in the building where the explosion occurred. The cause, officials said, will probably never be known.

GERMANS ATTACK HILL 76, BUT ARE FINALLY EJECTED

Gain Temporary Foothold at Advanced Points North of Somme.

Paris, Sept. 20—Noon.—Determined attacks were made by the Germans last night on the French positions at Hill 76, north of the Somme. The Germans gained a foothold at some advanced points, the war office announced today, but subsequently were ejected.

The text follows:

"To the north of the River Somme forces attacked our positions at Hill 76 along a line running from the Clery road to the Somme. Their advance was broken by our curtains of fire and by the fire of our machine guns. The enemy found it impossible to reach our lines on the northern section, while on the southern half certain German detachments which secured a footing in our advanced positions were at once driven out by a vigorous counter-attack delivered by our troops.

"Artillery fighting of a fairly-spirited nature is going on in the sector of Bouchavesnes.

"In the Champagne district, to the east of Soutan hill, as well as in the Vosges, at a point to the northwest of Altkirch, attacks on the part of the enemy upon minor French posts resulted in failure. Elsewhere on the front the night passed in relative quiet."

Greece About to Join Allies; Sends Ultimatum to Germany Demanding Return of Her Troops

Tonight Reported as Time of Expiration for Demand on Germany and Bulgaria for Release of Prisoners Taken at Kavala and Transported to Germany.

(Canadian Press.)

London, Sept 20.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens, under date of September 19, says:

"It is learned on good authority that this morning's conference of Premier Kelogeropoulos and the foreign minister with King Constantine resulted in a decision in principle for a departure from neutrality, with a view to dissipating the Entente's apparent distrust of the new cabinet.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT GIVEN OUT.

London, Sept. 20.—4:20 p.m.—Reuter's Telegram Company says it learns officially that the Greek Government has submitted a very urgent note to Germany regarding the removal to Germany of Greek troops from Kavala, and demanding that they be released.

DEMAND RETURN OF PRISONERS.

(Canadian Press.)

Athens, Sept. 19, via London, Sept. 20, 12:20 p.m.—There is reason to believe that the Greek Government has sent an ultimatum to Germany and Bulgaria, expiring Wednesday night, demanding the immediate return of the prisoners taken at Kavala.

When the deep seaport of Kavala was entered by German and Bulgarian troops the city was garrisoned by the 4th Greek Army Corps. According to an official statement issued by Berlin the entire corps, consisting of 20,000 men, asked the German commander for food and shelter and protection against the Entente forces. The statement said that to prevent any breach of neutrality the Greeks would be transported to Germany to be kept there as guests of the nation.

SAY 1,000 WERE TAKEN.

The German account of the affair differs radically from that given out at the Allied capitals, and from stories sent out from Athens. The number of soldiers transported to Germany, according to these versions was less than a thousand, one account placing the total at 70 officers and 800 men. The remainder of the garrison is variously said to have been transported to Saloniki by the French authorities, and to be encamped on the Island of Thasos. A recent dispatch from Athens reported the arrival of some members of the Kavala garrison in the Greek capital, but no numbers were given.

MAY BE FINAL STEP.

The incident caused a profound sensation in Greece, and the action of the Germans was bitterly denounced by the pro-ally party. Immediately after Premier Kalogeropoulis took office news dispatches from Athens stated that he intended to demand the return of the Greek soldiers from Germany, and that the refusal of this demand would be the signal for the entry into the war of Greece on the side of the Entente Allies.

FAIL TO PROVE MEN LEFT WORK THROUGH FEAR

Crown Told There Were Plenty of Experienced Men on Bridge.

BROKEN CASTING CAUSE

Chief Engineer Declares This Was Cause of Quebec Disaster.

Quebec, Sept. 20.—A number of the workers on the Quebec bridge became alarmed and left work just before the central span collapsed on September 11, with a loss of thirteen lives it was suggested at the inquest of Coroner Jolicoeur on the body of Edwin Jourdonnais, Providence, R. I., one of the victims of the disastrous, this morning.

It was stated in evidence that some of the men on the hydraulic jacks on the south shore, where the span first gave way, went home to breakfast and failed to return to work, as they should have done.

Casting Was Faulty.

Men in charge of the work, however, swore that plenty of experienced help remained to operate the jacks, which were not responsible for the accident, but which was caused by the breaking of a universal socket or casting supporting one end of the span on the girder to which the elevating chains were attached. The much-argued point whether the span itself buckled was settled by expert testimony. It was shown that the steel work gave way, but not until the span was tilted.

The expert testimony went to show that the same method of hoisting the span will be used next year when a new link is prepared, though the socket will be of different material.

The Jury's Verdict.

The jury found that Jourdonnais came to death accidentaliy. The questions of the reliability of the method of hoisting the span was not considered, as it was outside the province of the coroner.

Mr. Johnson said the best possible men were employed in raising the span. He was well satisfied with the work done. Every precaution to avoid accident was taken. The men were experienced bridge workers. They were not provided with life preservers, but there were boats around.

Insurance of Men.

Mr. Johnston was invited to explain the system of insuring the men, and said that because the operatives were insured according to law it made no difference to the careful precautions taken to avoid accidents.

Juryman Monahan said he had been told the agent of an insurance company settled an accident claim for $10 the same day as the collapse while the policyholder was in bed.

"BEST ARMY IN EUROPE," SAYS LORD DERBY AFTER VISIT TO FIRING LINE

Wishes He Could Pick Horse for Race With Same Certainty of Winning as Allies—War Will Proceed All Winter.

London, Sept. 20.—3:55 p.m.—"I wish I could pick one of my horses as a winner with the same certaintry of victory as for the Entente Allies," said Lord Derby, the British under-secretary of war, on receiving the correspondents today on his return from a visit to France where, in company with General Sir Douglas Haig and General Joffre he saw the trials of the "tanks" before they were sent into battle against the Germans. Lord Derby continued:

"We now have a European army with better guns, better rifles and better ammunition than any other country in the world today. But I do not agree with the people who expect the war to end within six months, as it must surely continue over the winter."

STRIKE OF 700,000 MEN HELD OFF TILL FRIDAY

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 20.—Despite the attempted intervention of a committee of businessmen there seemed to be little prospect today of averting a general strike in sympathy with the street railway employees. Labor leaders aver that the proposed general walkout will involve 700,000 workers in all trades. A second conference of the businessmen with the mayor and chairman of the public service commission was called today, but it was the feeling of those most directly concerned that the situation had reached an absolute deadlock.

Union leaders have promised to withhold their order for a sympathetic strike until after Thursday, and in the meantime the city authorities and businessmen will endeavor to find some way to prevent an extension of the labor war, which threatens to tie up a considerable part of the city's industries.

The attempt to operate surface cars last night resulted in the worst rioting since the strike began, but the officials of the transit companies say the service in the daytime is improving steadily.

Throughout the night elevated trains, together with subway trains at points where they are run on elevated structures, were subjected to almost ceaseless bombardments of bottles and bricks, car windows being shattered and a number of passengers injured.

Today there were several attacks by strikers and sympathizers on surface cars and police reserves were repeatedly called out.

"The food difficulties are quite bearable, although annoying, especially in the large towns. In most parts of Germany no milk is given out except to those under nine years of age, and the potato crop has been disappointing. Game is plentiful at present. On October 1, venison, ducks, pheasants and the rest are to be served out on meal tickets only. Our meat allowance is now one-half pound per week, and weighed with the bone.

GREY BATTALION WON A CHAMPIONSHIP CUP IN BAYONET FIGHTING

Capture Trophy After Battling With Seventeen Teams.

FROSTS AT CAMP BORDEN

Brantford Board of Trade Looks Over Troops in Training.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CAMP BORDEN, Sept. 19.—The 147th Grey Battalion bayonet fighting team won the camp championship tonight by defeating the 118th (Kitchener) Battalion by the score of 5 to 2, with two bouts still to be decided. The winners were presented with the Sir John Hendrie cup as emblematic of the championship, by Col. H. C. Bickford, general staff officer, who commended the team for their fine work and stated that Col. Wm. Hendrie, brigadier of the fourth brigade, would also present each member of the winning team with a gold medal.

Lieut.-Col. G. F. McFarland, in receiving the cup, made a very fitting reply and called for three cheers for the general staff officer and the 118th Battalion.

Keen Competition.

In winning tonight the Greys eliminated the seventeenth team in the contest, and the battle was a very strenuous one from start to finish. Sergeant-Instructor Andrew, who has been in charge of the team, had his men traveling at top speed, and the two contests that will be put on tomorrow night will only be exhibitions, and they will not alter the result.

Lieut.-Col. H. C. Osborne, D. A. A., Q. M. G., has ordered about three thousand of the oil stoves for the camp, and the oil companies will have their tank car on the siding on Friday. Also, their wagon which will supply the canteens will be put in operation.

A Heavy Frost.

This morning a very heavy frost was noticeable, but in the evening rain began to fall and the temperature rose perceptibly. One hundred and fifty large oil stoves will be installed in the hospital tomorrow.

The Brantford Board of Trade visited the camp here today, and was met at the station by General Logie, who afterwards showed the party around the camp. The members left late in the afternoon for home.

Pte. Harry Flay of the 157th Simcoe Battalion died in the camp hospital today from pneumonia. He was admitted to hospital on September 4. He was an Englishman, 25 years of age, and was born in Hampshire, England. His next of kin is his mother, whose address is given as Newmilton, Hants, England.

ST. THOMAS IS SURE OF HAVING A UNIT DURING THE WINTER

City Solicitor Is Advised by Authorities.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 19.—City Solicitor W. B. Doherty, has been advised by the military authorities that a battalion will winter in this city.

The unit will occupy the barracks formerly used by the 91st, which is fitted up specially for the housing of troops.

Local Service Company to Campaign For Additional Men.

Permission has been granteed the Service Company of the Engineers to recruit 25 more men to bring the strength of the unit up to 100 men.

A campaign is to be inaugurated to secure the necessary men as soon as possible. These men will not be required to enlist for overseas service. The Special Service Company is only used for home service, and the additional recruits are required to assist in keeping the winter quarters of the troops at Queen's Park in a proper state of repair.

Men not up to the standard required in overseas service are accepted in the Service Company. The eyesight and physical tests are much less severe. The pay is good. A private is paid $1.10 a day with a separation allowance of 45 cents a day in the case of married men. In addition to this a system of engineer pay has been inaugurated, by which a man may be paid amounts varying from 10 cents to 40 cents a day extra, depending on his industry and his special qualifications in certain kinds of work.

Practically all kinds of tradesmen are required, but more especially plumbers, steamfitters, carpenters and men of similar trades.

The headquarters for enlistment are at the Engineers' camp, Carling Heights, where would-be recruits will be taken on at all times.

RETURNED SOLDIERS ELECT A. WILLIAMS PRESIDENT

Corp. Mitchell Becomes Vice-President of Local Association.

At a very quiet meeting of the Returned Soldiers' Association held in their rooms on Richmond street last night, the matter of a new president was discussed and finally settled.

Vice-President A. W. Williams was elected president to succeed Sergt. George Nightingale, the former incumbent, who has moved out of the city to accept a position. Corp. W. E. Mitchell was elected vice-president, and Pte. G. H. Wyatt was made treasurer.

A quantity of correspondence was read, principally from other returned soldiers' associations. Among these was a communication from the Oxford County Association, asking particulars of the recent meetings, and asking that a representative be sent to Woodstock for the flag day that is to be held on Thursday. President Williams and Sergt. Ball were appointed representatives, and instructed to go and give all the assistance possible.

Secretary A. Ritchie was not present at the meeting, as he is in hospital, where he expects to undergo an operation to remove a rifle bullet, which has been bothering him for some time.

WINS HIS MAJORITY AFTER 14 MONTHS' SERVICE AT FRONT

MAJOR HARRY NELLES, son of J. A. Nelles of this city, who has been made a major of 1st Battalion.

LONDON OFFICER BROUGHT 1ST OUT OF ST. ELOI FIGHT

GETS HIS MAJORITY

Promotion Has Followed Exploits fi Young Canadian —Over Year at Front.

Capt. Harry Nelles, son of J. A. Nelles of this city, has been promoted to major, according to a letter received from his brother, Capt. Erie Nelles, now of the 14th Battalion, but who crossed with the 33rd Battalion.

Capt. Harry Nelles' majority is regarded as a remarkable tribute to the efficiency of the young Londoner. Although one of the youngest supernumerary officers attached to the 18th Battalion, he was selected by Lieut.-Col. Alex. Wilson as a company commander when the 33rd Battalion was formed, and was later picked to command the first reinforcing company of the 33rd that was sent overseas.

Fourteen Months' in Service.

For 14 months now he has been at the front, and has so far escaped without a scratch. He has never missed a day's service during that time. After the famous St. Eloi fight, he was the only officer of the 1st left unwounded, and it was he who brought the Western Ontario battalion "out" after the gruelling battle.

Capt. Erie Nelles is in the same brigade as his brother—the 1st—but is now attached to the 14th Battalion.

"DIED LIKE A MAN," TRIBUTE TO LONDONER

Soldier Who Served Under Capt. McKinney Recovers His Memory.

"He died like a man" is the simple heartfelt tribute to the memory of Capt. D. J. McKinney, 1st Battalion, one of the original members of that famous unit, paid by Pte. William Heather, a London man, who served under Capt. McKinney after he went overseas with the 33rd first reinforcing company, and was drafted to the 1st.

Pte. Heather is now recovering from wounds received at the battle of Ypres on June 13, where Capt. McKinney, who left London as sergeant-major of the 7th Regiment quota of the 1st Battalion, was killed.

"I was in the attack at Ypres," writes Pte. Heather. "It was some fight, too, but we lost some of our best officers, especially Capt. McKinney from London. He was of the best and was always thinking of his men. He died like a man.

"The Germans got all they asked for that morning, and everything was well timed. Our artillery opened up at 1 a.m., and we were to go over the garden wall at 1:45. We went. We got what we went after, too, and still have it.

"We have been treated with every consideration in the British hospitals. I have had a couple of operations, but will be back at the base next week.

Perfect Heaven.

"We got the very best treatment from the scene of action to the base and in England it's a perfect heaven when we get to the 'blighty' hosrital. Our own Red Cross ladies visit us every week and send us cigarettes and almost everything we like to ask for.

"I am supplied with the good old paper—The Tiser—every week, and they also bring fruit and take us out for auto rides into the country. The theatres give us special matinees every week."

HIGH PRAISE ACCORDED HURON BATTALION MEN

Inspecting Officer Commends Unit's Condition and Personnel.

High praise for the men and officers of the 161st (Huron) Battalion is by no means new, but one of the most striking comments made on the battalion's standing is that of Lieut.-Col. Campbell, assistant general staff officer at Camp Borden. Col. Campbell conducted a recent inspection of the Hurons. These inspections are most thorough and exacting and every officer, non-commissioned officer and man is examined.

At the conclusion of the inspection, which took place on Monday, Col. Campbell made the following observations:

"I am well pleased with what I have seen today. You have a fine soldierly body of men. With only three exceptions, they were in splendid condition. Your officers are a splendid body of men and know their work well. Your non-commissioned officers are exceptionally bright and efficient, and you are to be congratulated on having such a creditable battalion."

CAPT. HAHN WOUNDED

Stratford Officer Reported in Serious Condition.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Stratford, Sept. 20.—Heavy local casualties recorded today, one being killed and two wounded, Pte. James W. Poley, killed September 13; Staff-Capt. James E. Hahn and Pte. George L. Clappison wounded, the former severely.

RETURNED SOLDIERS

The office of the London branch of the Ontario Soldiers' Aid Commission is in the City Hall, London, (third floor). Returned soldiers are urged to make the acquaintance of the Secretary at once.

The public is cordially invited to co-operate with us in getting returned soldiers positions and doing other helpful work for these men and their dependents. Write or phone 965.

DRAFT OF OFFICERS TO FILL VACANCIES LEAVES CITY TODAY

Nearly Thirty Giing by G. T. R. Evening Train.

DOCTORS REFUSE SOME

And Fate of Others Has Not Yet Been Finally Decided.

The long-delayed departure of the draft of junior officers who are to fill up active service units at the front, has been arranged for tonight.

At 7:08 p.m. this evening when the Grand Trunk train pulls out the officers will be aboard. It was intended that the party should leave 30 strong, but medical examinations at the last moment plucked some of them. The fate of others is as yet undecided, but it is hoped to send at least 28. If time permitted, the draft could be brought up to strength, but it is feared that this will not be possible.

The original nmuber of men composing the draft was 24, but 6 officers of the 111th Battalion were added as a result of having to reduce the establishment of that unit. All of these latter officers are going, but the names of the balance are not available.

HOPES TO BRING HIS PLATOON TO STRENGTH

Cyclist Officer Has Ten Out of Required Thirty Now.

Only twenty recruits are needed now for the cyclist platoon which is being raised in this division by Lieut. J. W. McVean. Thirty in all are required for the corps, but ten of these have already been secured.

With these as a nucleus, the officer expects that the corps will be up to strength shortly. The majority of the men have been placed in the towns where they were recruited from, and a campaign for men will be carried on in all parts of the division. Some of the cycles have now been secured and the recruits are beginning immediately on preliminary training. When the corps is up to strength it will be moved to Toronto, going to Niagara in the summer if it is not sent overseas before then.

With the success of the new British drive the demand for cyclists is becoming greater, and it is extremely improbable that they will be drafted to other units, as was the case at the beginning of the war. The work is interesting, as the men do not work as a body but are attached to battalions, divisions, headquarters staffs, etc., from day to day. Some of the work taught consists of signalling, map reading, field sketching and the making of clear and concise reports.

Prospective recruits should apply to Capt. H. Irvine at the Armories or to Lieut. J. W. McVean, who is also stationed there.

Sarnia Man, Now Wounded, Won Imperial Commission.

Second Lieut. W. D. Hay of the Cameron Highlanders, Imperial Service, who has been reported as wounded in the recent Somme fighting, is a Sarnia boy. He enlisted in the 18th Battalion there and fought with Lieut.-Col. E. S. Wigle's command for some time before he was gazetted an officer of the imperial service.

ATTACKS ON VENICE DEPLORED BY POPE

Benedict Rejoices That "Blind Blows" Did No Greater Harm.

[Canadian Press.]

Venice, via Paris, Sept. 20.—Monsignor la Fontaine, the Patriarch of Venice, has published a letter from Pope Benedict, deploring the attempts against the churches and treasures of Venice, and rejoicing that the Church of San Giovanni Paolo escaped "blind blows, only sustaining damage which fortunately can be repaired."

The pope calls the explosion before St. Mark's, the destruction of the Church of Santa Marie Formosa, and the damage to the Church of Gli Scalzi "bitter wounds to my heart," and suggests that his efforts to prevent such misfortunes have failed. He concludes his letter by sending words of comfort to the population of Venice, with the wish that peace will soon be restored.

It is remarkable in effect that so small a factor as a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet takes care of a whole meal. It plainly shows how little is required to keep the stomach in good order provided that little is exactly what the stomach must have. There are food experts who say we may exist on three prunes and a hard cracker for breakfast, but who cares to substitute the toothsome sausage or the appetizing bacon and eggs for a prune?

"A Good Meal Well Digested" Is One Way of Saying "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

THE STORE OF GOOD STYLE

It has always been the privilege of this store to be right in the styles shown. This has not been a matter of chance, but of much sincere study and effort. How well we have achieved this distinction is demonstrated in the present displays of autumn dress fabrics.

An invitation to you could not be more personal than the one expressed in this announcement, for we are thinking of every one of our friends and patrons, and requesting that they make a tour of inspection of the new and beautiful dress fabrics and silks now on display. From the Far East and historic Russia came the inspiration for many of the new designs. The colors from our own magnificent forests and the fabrics for fall show no lack of imagination or artistic ability. Visit the Silk and Dress Goods Sections this week and see the newest and best of these new fabrics. We will tell you of a few here.

Navy Blue Serges and Worsteds

Owing to the steady advance in prices during the past two years and the fact that most of our fall stock was purchased from six months to one year ago, the prices on these stocks do not represent their present value. Many numbers are selling for less than the mill price today; some are old numbers at practically normal prices.

Navy Serge, solid wool, good weight, fast dye, 40 inches ..... 85c yard

Navy Serge, our old standard make, purchased from the English manufacturer over a year ago, all wool, fast dye, 46 inches ..... $1.00 yard

Worsted Serges of superior quality, standard medium twill for ladies' suits and skirts, 52 inches .....$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 yard

Men's Wear Serges—We are still showing a good range of these old standard English makes at practically old prices. The prices on these today are out of reach. Secure your future needs while present stocks last; 54 inches.... $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 and $3.00 yard

SPECIAL 50c

SCOTTIST BORDERERS AT WOODSTOCK FAIR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 19.—168th Battalion band arrived home this afternoon from Borden to take part in the musical programme of the local agricultural exhibition, which opens tomorrow.

The well-known 241st Scottish Borderers are here with the local band.

Lieut. Shaver Going Abroad.

Lieut. Walter Shaver is going overseas. He was elected on special draft. He was a member of the 71st, but was dropped as a supernumerary. He then joined the Mounted Rifles at Hamilton as a recruiting officer.

SIX SUPERNUMERARIES GOING FROM THE 111TH

GALT, Sept. 19.—The six supernumerary officers of the 111th South Waterloo Battalion, Lieuts. A. E. Lamond, J. D. Parsons, H. R. Stone, A. V. Yates, F. W. Landreth and T. Todd, are going overseas at once with the special draft of officers being organized in Military District No. 1.

The Galt officers did not return to London Monday night with the battalion, but remained over today and report on Wednesday morning.

BACK IN CHATHAM AFTER TWO YEARS' WAR

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHATHAM, Sept. 19. — After serving with the Canadian army for nearly two years, during which most of the time was spent at the front, Pte. Joe Iveson, a Chatham soldier, returned to the city today.

He was a member of the 1st Battalion, from which he has now received an honorable discharge. Pte. Iveson is six feet three inches in height, and is known to his friends as "Long Joe."

STRATFORD HAS PROBLEM IN SECURING RINK

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Sept. 19.—Having decided to invite the military to send a battalion of troops here for the winter, with the belief that the skating rink could be secured, the city council is now up against the proposition of accommodation.

It was said that the rink could be secured for $1,000, and this appropriation was made. However, officers of the rink company said today that the matter of letting the rink had never been considered, and that they would not lease it for $3,000.

Some Soldiers Coming.

Posters were placed about the city today, calling for tenders for supplies for the military at Stratford for six months, after October 1. This would indicate that some soldiers were to be located here this winter.

TO RECRUIT CYCLISTS IN IMPERIAL CITY

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, Sept. 19.—Recruiting offices have been opened in the armories here for the cyclist division of the C. E. F. Cyclist F. T. Jones is in charge of the offices, and states that this branch of the service is an interesting and attractive one, and that recruits will be quickly sent overseas. He hopes to enlist a number of good men from this city.

ENGLAND SANCTIONS NAME FOR 241ST

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 19.—Word was received from England Monday by Lieut.-Col. Walter McGregor, commander of the 241st Battalion, that permission had been granted him to call his battalion the Canadian Scottish Borderers.

CREDITS ANTITOXIN WITH SAVING LIFE OF LITTLE LONDONER

Medical Officer of Health So Informs Board.

INTERESTING TREATISE

Precautionary Doses Recommended as Insurance Against Tetanus.

Dr. H. W. Hill, medical officer of health, has given an interesting history of lockjaw, and the methods of combating it. The treatise was presented at the meeting of the board of health on Tuesday afternoon, and is as follows:

Recovery from lockjaw was the unusually happy ending of Eddie di Palmo's experience with a nail through his foot.

Running barefoot on August 19th, this little London lad drove the nail in deep just back of his toes. Nothing much resulted during the next few days beyond the usual pain and discomfort. His parents supposed the trouble was all over, but the lockjaw germs thought differently. On August 28th, about noon, the little lad could not swallow. His jaws were set. Ordinarily the dreaded lockjaw, thus developed, means death. But the parents, making up now in haste for their previous delay, summoned a physician, who recognized that there was but one chance, and that a slim one, tetanus antitoxin, in high doses. Through the local M. O. H. as the law provides, tetanus antitoxin was obtained from the provincial board of health on a telephone call to Dr. McCullough, the chief officer of health for the province. Twenty-two thousand, five hundred units at one dose, some into the affected muscles, some into the veins, some into the spinal canal—and then repeat and repeat daily. Touch and go it was, for the ominous tremors and jerks came on and spread until at times the whole of the little body was twisted with the savage poison. But strong as the poison was the antitoxin was stronger, the high doses gained ground "by sheer weight of numbers" and at last the enemy was routed, and the little dark-haired bambino was restored to the parents' arms.

Early, Often and Powerful.

"Antitoxin, early, often and in high doses," say the provincial experts—and this case shows they are right. Capt. E. Fitzgerald, head of the Hygiene Department of Toronto University, who makes the lockjaw antitoxin (or tetanus antitoxin to give it the expert's name), for free use throughout the province, was immensely interested in this case, and has asked for all the records in it. Tetanus is usually fatal, once the jaws are set, and it is considered a triumph that this case was saved. Nothing but the prompt and fearless action on the part of the attending physician, who thrust 93,000 units of antitoxin between the boy and death.

Had the parents known the dangers of the nail driven into the foot, a modest dose of 1,500 units, given at the time of the accident, followed by another about a week later, would have prevented all the trouble, pain, risk and sorrow. "Never again," say they. "Next time, safety first." Incidentally the provincial board would have saved the other 90,000 units, but this is a side issue.

Precautionary Doses.

Already people who run nails in their feet are taking this small dose at once as a precaution. This is the way all wounds are treated at the front in the great war, because of the large amount of tetanus there. Since this treatment was adopted in France tetanus amongst the wounded has practically disappeared. Lockjaw or tetanus is not the result of the rust on the rusty nail, but usually of horse or cow manure on the nail or the barefoot, or even on the boot through which the nail is driven. This germ, shaped like a tiny drumstick, is one of the very few that resist sunlight and drying. Flourishing in the horses intestine, sometimes in the cow, it is spread broadcast in manure. Taken into the mouth as in dust or milk, it is harmless. But if it enters a deep wound, just the kind of wound a nail makes, it is shut away from the air and grows, making one of the deadliest poisons we know in its growth.

MAJOR-GENERAL LESSARD HERE FOR INSPECTIONS

Puts 153rd Through Stiff Program Today, But Makes No Comments.

Major-Gen. F. L. Lessard, inspector-general of forces in Eastern Canada, arrived in the city at 11:15 this morning, and proceeded at once to Wolseley Barracks.

Major-Gen. Lessard's visit is purely a routine one. This afternoon he inspected the 153rd Battalion. That unit was put through a strenuous course of drill in battalion, company and platoon manoeuvres. The inspector-general had no comments to make on the Wellingtons.

Tomorrow he will inspect the 160th (Bruce) Battalion.

CITY BREVITIES

CHOIR CORN ROAST.—The annual picnic of the Cronyn Memorial Church choir will take the form of a corn roast this evening at Wonderland.

ANOTHER HOLD-UP.—"The juice that failed," otherwise hydro, held up the street railway system for about fifteen minutes shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

FIRST MEETING.—The members of the Aberdeen Mothers' Club will hold their first meeting of the season on Thursday, September 21st. Refreshments will be served.

ANOTHER COLD NIGHT.—Londoners experienced another stretch of coolness last night when the temperature went down to 29. The usual coal order rush followed today.

GRAND TRUNK EARNINGS.—Grand Trunk traffic earnings from September 8 to 14, 1916, were $1,252,629, and for the same week in 1915, $1,044,808, an increase of $208,821.

WRIT FOR $250.—A writ was issued in county court yesterday by Scandrett Bros. against Charles Stevens, to recover $250 the amount claimed due by plaintiffs on a promissory note given by defendant on December 6, 1913.

MEETING ON THIS EVENING.—The regular monthly meeting of the board of the Young Women's Christian Association is being held this afternoon. Important business is under discussion affecting the future of the organization.

EXECUTIVE MEETING.—The executive committee of the synod of the Diocese of Huron meets on Thursday of this week at 11:30 o'clock in Cronyn Hall. Included in the committee are 60 clergymen and laymen from all parts of the diocese.

SEASON OPENED.—The Wortley Road Mothers' Club opened the fall season of its work on Tuesday night by a social evening held in the kindergarten of the school. Miss Brenton, former kindergarten supervisor, was a visitor. A fine musical program was rendered, and light refreshments served.

MAY BE NEW OFFICIAL.—Miss Lukes, who has been prominently identified for some time with Young Women's Christian Association work in Montreal, is in town for a few days. Her name has been mentioned in connection with the general secretaryship of the London association, vacant at the present time.

TO SPEAK ON HOSPITALS.—The first regular meeting of the Simcoe Street Mothers' Club will be held on Thursday, September 21, at 8 o'clock. Nursing Sister Davis of the C. A. M. C., who has spent nearly two years in the service, will speak on hospital work of Canadian nursing sisters in Canadian hospitals in England and France. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

SALVATION CHIEF COMING.—Quite an event in the experience of the local Salvation Army corps will be the visit next Sunday of Col. McMillan. The colonel is second in command of the Salvation Army in Canada, occupying the position of chief secretary. His early experience in army work was gained in Canada, then he was transferred to Australia, where for twenty years he has held positions of responsibility. The colonel will be accompanied by Mrs. McMillan and will conduct three services in the Citadel on Clarence street. In the afternoon his subject will be "Around the World With the Salvation Army."

SAY FAIR EXPENSES AMPLY JUSTIFIED

Baptist Ministers Pleased With Gospel Tent at Exhibition.

A meeting of the Baptist Ministerial Association was held Tuesday to wind up business in connection with the gospel tent this year at the Western Fair. The cost in connection with the tent—for location, tent, furnishings and printing—amounted to about fifty dollars, an expenditure which the association was unanimous in declaring amply justified.

Rev. J. H. Boyd of Adelaide Street Baptist Church had general supervision of the tent, which opened daily at 9 a.m. and was kept open till 10 p.m. Two services were held each day, one at three in the afternoon and another at 7 o'clock in the evening. Between times, the tent was used as a rest and lunch-room and rendezvous. All day long it was filled and sometimes so large were the crowds that it was necessary to open the service before the appointed hour.

People who dropped in to call at the tent remained to pay a visit and returned again and again. Among these visitors were people from Owen Sound, Orillia, all parts of the province, in fact. Many declared the evangelistic tent was "the best thing on the grounds." For one thing, Mr. Boyd reminded that it was one absolutely free attraction. Not a single collection was taken all week.

GROCERS MAY USE CO-OPERATION IDEA IN THEIR BUYING

Discuss High Cost of Living at Local Meeting.

SOME PRICES TOO HIGH

No Definite Stand Taken, but Concerted Action Seems Likely.

Grocers of London may institute co-operative buying in an effort to reduce the present cost of many lines of produce now carried in the retail stores of the city. The scheme was informally considered at a meeting of the retail grocers on Tuesday evening and while no definite steps were taken the formation of such a scheme is generally regarded by the interested grocers as not only possible but more than likely.

High cost of living does not appeal to Mr. Householder, the ultimate consumer, any more than it does to the grocer. Last night's session of the retailers revealed this fact. Every grocer present was able to contribute a little more "experience" to the general story of high prices and scarce goods.

Practically all lines of groceries are scarce and dear now, but this is more especially true of vegetables. There is no reason, say the local retailers, why so many vegetables should be as expensive as they are. They point to the fact that cabbages are bringing as high as $2 per dozen on the local market and the fact that the market does not always meet their requirements in supplying vegetables for the retail trade.

Fruits are another grocery line against which the retailers expect to wage war in an effort to reduce what they consider excessive prices. By pooling their buying it is expected that the fruits and vegetables can be secured not only cheaper than under the present system, but delivery will be immeasurably better and cheaper as the same individual effort to "corralling" vegetables on the market square will be eliminated.

142ND COMMANDER GETS CAPTAIN'S CERTIFICATE

B. C. VOTE RECOUNT HAS BEEN CALLED OFF

Extent of Task Leads Bowser to Concede Defeat.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 20.—The final count of the ballots in Thursday's elections, which had been demanded by E. A. Lucas, for Premier Bowser, was called off by Lucas after the extent of the task had been made known to the premier.

The candidates agreed that they had no desire to put the province to the expense of a final count, and therefore the demand was dropped.

LOTS OF WATER TO NORTH DECLARES OLD RESIDENT

Recalls Old Militia Report on Oxford Street Source.

Apropos London's water shortage of the past summer and the investigations now under way to ascertain possible increased sources of supply, an old resident comes forward with the suggestion that the water sources to the north of the river, along Oxford street and near the Jewish Cemetery, be investigated.

This resident, who lays claim to more than 70 years' residence in London, backs up his statement that there is abundant water there, by referring to an old report made years ago when London was a garrison city of the imperial army Royal Engineers, in garrison here, were sent out to the site he mentions to report on a possible camp site there. They were instructed to test the quality and quantity of the water supply and reported that there was sufficient of the purest water to meet the requirements of 100,000 men.

The Advertiser's information declares that the water supply is indicated by the spring creeks that cross the road in several places on their way to the river, while the purity of the water was indicated by the fact that young Londoners of years ago used to hook speckled trout in hundreds from these streams.

WHITMAN VICTORY SHOWS STATE FOR HUGHES' ELECTION

Progressive Vote Solidly With the Republicans.

THIS IS PERKINS' VIEW

Calder Leads Bacon at Present In Contest For U. S. Senate.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 20. — Republican leaders today attached great significance to the success of Governor Whitman in winning the progressive nomination for governor in yesterday's New York State primary election over Samuel Seabury, who was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for that office. The 3,995 districts thus far counted give Whitman 2,430 to Seabury's 6,589. The governor ran ahead, according to these returns, both in and out of New York City.

The Republican leaders declare that Whitman's victory in the Progressive primaries proves that the bulk of the Progressive vote in New York State will be Republican at the coming national election.

New York Certain for Hughes.

George W. Perkins, the Progressive national leader, who indorsed Mr. Whitman's candidacy in the Progressive ticket, said: "The real effort on the part of the Democrats was to have Seabury carry the Progressive primaries and endeavor to show thereby that Wilson was stronger in New York than Hughes. Mr. Whitman's victory disposes of this claim, and assures the state of New York to Hughes beyond any shadow of a doubt."

Governor Whitman was opposed for re-nomination in the Republican primaries by State Senator William M. Bennett. Returns from 4,331 districts out of 5,719, give Whitman 183,648, Bennett 32,472.

William F. McCoombs, formerly chairman of the Democratic national committee, won the Democratic nomination for United States senator by a majority of about two to one over his opponent, Thomas F. Conway of Plattsburgh, formerly lieutenant-governor.

Calder—Brown Fight Close.

The incomplete returns fail to decide the fight for the Republican nomination for the United States senate between Robert Bacon, former ambassador to France, and William M. Calder of Brooklyn, a former member of Congress. The vote in 4,446 districts out of a total of 5,719, gave Calder today a majority of 4,272, but Bacon's campaign managers claim that later returns from outside New York City would wipe out this lead. Yesterday's election also named candidates for the House of Representatives, state senate and assembly, a chief judge and one associate judge of the court of appeals and a number of county and municipal offices.

OVER 2,000,000 MEMBERS.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The sovereign grand lodge of Oddfellows in session here today heard reports of officers showing the membership of the order to be 2,188,468; total paid out for relief funds $5,975,508; total receipts for the past year, $17,822,992.79, and total expenses of grand and subordinate lodges, $9,860,670.96.

RUTHLESS WAR

passed between Admiral von Tirpitz and Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg in regard to the affair.

From the letters it appears that in a private conversation, Prof. Valentin asserted that Admiral von Tirpitz had misled the Reichstag in regard to the number of available submarines and the possibility of a submarine campaign. The admiral demanded that the chancellor discipline Prof. Valentin. Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, in his reply frees von Tirpitz from Valentin's charges, but decides that the professor is not subject to his disciplinary powers.

SOCIALISTS MEET TODAY.

New York, Sept. 20.—A news agency dispatch from Berlin, published here today, says: Supported by Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the majority of the German people, Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg is expected to weather the storm that will probably break in the Reichstag when that body reconvenes on September 28.

The campaign for a resumption of submarine warfare has been renewed by the Reichstag critics of Bethmann-Hollweg. The submarine advocates, who have never been able to forgive the chancellor for yielding to the United States, are expected to make trouble, and some are already proposing the formation of a coalition ministry.

Three hundred Socialists met here today in a most important session preceding the Reichstag gathering. The Socialists, who supported the chancellor during the submarine disputes, are being urged by their leaders to forget factional differences and present a solid front in view of the coming crisis.

The attention of the whole country is centred on the Socialist meeting.

LONDON BAKERS SAY UNCLE SAM CANNOT CHANGE BREAD COST

Don't Believe Wheat Embargo Is Possible.

BROOKLYN MEN ASK IT

Request Wilson to Call Special Session of the Congress.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 20.—President Wilson will be asked to call a special session of Congress to declare an embargo upon the exportation of wheat, and federal and state investigations of the increase in the price of flour will be demanded by resolutions adopted by 200 brokers of Brooklyn yesterday. It was asserted that flour would be sold at $14 a barrel, and bread at 20c a loaf next spring unless an embargo is imposed.

When the foregoing dispatch was read to London bakers today they declared that Uncle Sam could not accede to the request of their fellow-manufacturers in Brooklyn.

"United States cannot put any embargo on the exportation of wheat for the simple reason that she hasn't got any hard wheat at all this year and all that is used in the production of flour comes from Canada and other countries," declared Fred Parnell of the Parnell Bread Company.

"Furthermore, the miller of today is justified in asking the price that he is for flour. Last year it required four and a half bushels of wheat to produce a barrel of flour. This year it is five. This is due to the fact that the wheat is not up to the standard of last year. There is little No. 1 Northern obtainable and it is because of this that United States can't put on that requested embargo.

Markets Regulate Price.

"Markets and stock exchange dealings regulate the price of wheat. Incidentally this regulation of wheat prices and directly the price of bread. However, as I have said, the prevailing milling conditions now justify the present prices that are being asked and obtained for flour.

"I know that they have been conducting investigations on the other side of the line into the cost of living and foodstuffs, but on the Canadian side of the border the price advance in bread that has been made has been absolutely justified. At selling bread at eight cents the bakers are not making what they should out of it. Everything has gone up in price but bread, because it is on the table three times a day, seems to be one commodity that has been singled out for general abuse.

Bread manufacturers have to make a living as well as everyone else and the advance that has gone into effect here means that they are simply adopting the only means they can of breaking even. There is absolutely no money in a seven-cent loaf now under present conditions.

Prefer Lower Prices.

"I know that bakers would prefer, if it were possible, to sell their products at a lower price, for that would mean increased and greater business, but it is absolutely impossible under the present circumstances."

WILSON IN CAMPAIGN AFTER WEEK'S LAPSE

Will Meet Attacks of Hughes and Turn on Big Guns.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 20.—President Wilson swung into campaign form today. With his plan for discussing public questions before non-partisan organizations instead of making campaign tours fully decided upon, he actively took up his political plans after a lull of more than a week caused by the death of his sister, Mrs. Anne E. Howe.

Administration leaders here predict that from now on there will be plenty of activity in the Democratic campaign. The attacks of Charles E. Hughes will be fully met by the president himself and members of his cabinet and Democratic leaders who will tour the country.

Vance C. McCormick, the chairman of the Democratic national committee, held an early conference with Mr. Wilson this morning.

HOLLAND PROVIDES MONEY FOR SUBS

The Hague, Sept. 19—Via London, Sept. 20.—The budget for 1917, presented at the opening of the Dutch Parliament today, provides for 800,000 florins as the first instalment for the construction of three submarines, which are to cost 19,000,000 florins each, and a minelayer at 70,000 florins.

The total expenditure in the budget of 1917 is estimated at 200,000,000 florins, but for the extraordinary crisis expenditure of 36,000,000, only 2,000,000 appear in the budget. Should the necessary amount surpass 2,000,000 then a supplementary credit will be asked.

In order to cover the deficiency in ordinary expenses of about 4,000,000 florins, an additional tax on incomes will be levied, which, it is estimated, will yield about 3,000,000.

LOCAL CASUALTIES REFLECTING DRIVE OF BRITISH FORCE

Somme Offensive Adds Six to Lindon Roll Today.

ONE OFFICER IS KILLED

Former City Engineer's Son Dies—Lieut. French Reported as Wounded.

KILLED IN ACTION

Lieut. Thomas Leonard Tracy.

SEVERELY WOUNDED

Pte. William Newman, 15 Rathmine street.
Pte. William Wheeler, Knollwood Park.

WOUNDED.

Lieut. John P. French, Mounted Rifles.
Pte. William John Dicker, 394 Grey street.

WOUNDED AND ILL

Pte. David Gray, 353 Oxford street.

The British drive on the Somme, in which the Canadians have so brilliantly distinguished themselves, is being reflected in the heavier local casualty list each day.

The list for today names six London men, or men who trained here. One was killed in action, two seriously wounded, two wounded, and one reported seriously ill and wounded.

Well-Known Londoner.

Pte. David Gray, late of the 70th, who was reported as seriously ill in No. 13 Stationary Hospital, Boulougne, on September 18, with a gunshot wound in the face, in a telegram to his wife, Mrs. Annie Gray of 353 Oxford street, is a well-known London man. He is a brother of James Gray, of Gray's Limited, and with him in the 70th was Pte. Ronald Gray, son of James, his nephew.

Although well up in years Mr. Gray was determined to do his bit, and enlisted as a private with Lieut.-Col. Towers. He was a carriage painter at John Campbell & Sons, and has a wife and four children here.

Took Lower Rank.

Today's list contains the name of one more officer who trained here who sacrificed his rank that he might reach the firing line. Lieut. John Poyntz French of the Canadian Mounted Rifles is officially reported wounded, but no particulars are given.

He is the husband of Mrs. J. L. French, superintendent of Belvidere Military Convalescent Hospital, and while in London was a captain in the 7th C. M. R., the first mounted rifles organized here. In England he accepted the rank of a lieutenant in the Mounted Rifles so that he might reach the front sooner.

He escaped uninjured until the time of his present wounding, September 15. He and one other officer were the only officers in the corps who escaped uninjured after the engagements of June 2 and 3.

He was not a Londoner, but was well known here. Formerly he was an inspector of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police in Saskatchewan. Besides his wife, two small children also reside here.

Son of ex-City Engineer.

Lieut. Thomas Leonard Tracy, whose name appears in the casualty lists of today, reported officially as killed in action, was a son of Col. Thomas Tracy, former city engineer.

Lieut. Tracy was twenty-five years of age and was only one year old when his parents left this city for Vancouver, where Col. Tracy has since resided.

At the time of enlisting he was attending McGill University, Montreal, where he was taking a course in civil engineering. He enlisted at Ottawa, and asked for a transfer to the 2nd Pioneers, a company of which was recruited in this city.

He left with this unit when it went overseas, but it is known that he was afterwards transferred to the infantry.

Mrs. William O'Brien of 299 Ridout street is an aunt, the only sister of Col. Thomas Tracy.

Went With 34th.

Charles Wheeler of Knollwood Park was officially notified that his son, Pte. William Wheeler, who went overseas with the 34th Battalion, has been severely wounded. The official message says that he was admitted to the Northamptonshire War Hospital at Duston on September 15. His wounds are classified as "wounded in the shoulder."

In a telegram to Mrs. Mable Newman, 15 Rathmine street, Pte. William Newman is also classed as "severey wounded." The report says that he was admitted to the 2nd Southern General Hospital at Bristol on September 14, suffering from severe wounds in the head and shoulder.

Ernest Dicker of 394 Grey street, was officially informed that Pte. William John Dicker, infantry, had been admitted to No. 2 General Hospital at Bologne on September 11, wounded in left leg and side.

BRINGING BACK GIRL FOR DESERTING BABE

Local Police Secure Arrest of Windsor Girl in Toronto.

Dorothy Suchlick of Windsor was arrested in Toronto last night on a warrant sworn to by police here, charging her with deserting her baby three weeks ago by leaving the child on a coach seat on a G. T. R. express train from Detroit.

The woman, it is alleged, left the infant and afterwards took the train for Toronto, and no trace of her had been obtained until a few days ago.

The baby was taken in charge by the Salvation Army Rescue Home and is still being cared for there. It has shown a decided improvement in health since, and will be held there until the courts decide what disposition shall be made of it.

The only marks on the baby's clothing were the letters "D. O. S." worked on the blanket in colored thread, and with this slight clue detectives furnished information to surrounding cities that brought about the arrest of the young woman in Toronto yesterday.

She is only 22 years of age, and during her stay in Toronto has been employed as a telephone operator. It is claimed that she borrowed the money to pay her way from Windsor to Toronto from a friend in the former city and had stated that the child belonged to a sister in Toronto and that she was taking it there.

Detective Egelton left for Toronto at 9 o'clock this forenoon, and will return with the young woman some time today. She will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning charged with desertion of her child.

INFANTILE PLAGUE BAFFLES SCIENTISTS OF STRICKEN LAND

Sweden Has Had Repeated Epidemics of Disease.

ADMIT THEY DON'T KNOW

Transmission by Flies Theory Doubted, Owing to Seasons of Occurrence.

[Canadian Press.]

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 20.—What can be done to cure and prevent infantile paralysis?

This question has been put to all of Sweden's leading authorities on poliomyelitis, as the disease is scientifically known and, their answer has been the same: "We don't know."

This answer is the more discouraging in view of the fact that Sweden, almost alone among European countries, has been repeatedly scourged by the epidemic, and as a result has a number of physicians and bacteriologists who have devoted themselves for years almost exclusively to the study of the disease.

No Certain Conclusions.

While the curve of the disease in Sweden in general has attained its highest point in August and September, there have been marked exceptions to the rule and there can be no certain conclusions as to a seasonal incidence of the epidemic. The last large epidemic in the city of Gothenburg began in October and ran through March, and there have been small local outbreaks in midwinter in latitude 66 degrees north. This, incidentally, is one of the facts that incline the Swedish scientists to doubt the transmission of the disease by flies. They admit the possibility, but consider it highly improbable.

Utterly Helpless.

Dr. Wilhelm Wernstedt of Malmo, one of the country's leading authorities on poliomyelitis, confessed to the correspondent his and his colleagues' utter helplessness against the disease. Their chief efforts at the outset of an epidemic are directed to the achieving of as strict an isolation of afflicted families and districts as possible.

These precautions no matter how thorough are rendered largely nugatory by the fact that, in the words of a report by Dr. Carl Kling, Professor Person and Dr. Wernstedt, "virus carriers are very common, and often in number greatly exceed the clinically positive cases."

"Carriers" Are Healthy.

In three families, in each of which one case of infantile paralysis had occurred, eight healthy members of the families were found to hold forms of the disease in their mouth cavities. Disease carriers are almost inevitably found among healthy members of families where cases of poliomyelitis have occurred.

Nor is this the only unfavorable factor. Investigations by the scientists named proved that the secretions of the mucous membranes of the mouth of a person who had recovered from the disease contained virulent microbes of infantile paralysis 204 days—almost seven months—after the onset of the disease. Investigations with other patients have repeatedly shown the presence of virulent germs of the disease four months, and more after the patient's recovery.

Weakens in 14 Days.

Animal experimentation appears to have demonstrated, however, that the microbe gets weaker soon after the termination of the acute stage of the disease, probably in eight to fourteen days after the onset. Hence, while an isolation of convalescents sufficiently long to permit the virus to disappear utterly is, in practice, impossible, the Swedish authorities advise isolation for some weeks after the disappearance of the acute symptoms.

EIGHTEEN CASES IN NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 20.—Eighteen new cases of infantile paralysis, a decrease of 17 since yesterday's report was issued were shown in the department of health covering the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. today. There were ten deaths, the same number as yesterday.

INADEQUATE SERVICE CAUSES POSTPONEMENT

Disorganization of Traffic Halts Proposed Asylum Sports.

The Hospital for the Insane sports, to have been held today, have been postponed until next week, owing to the impassable condition of the road for about two blocks on Dundas street east and the inadequacy of the street car service. For about a couple of blocks in front of the McCormick Manufacturing plant and west the long-suffering public has been obliged to walk or remain stationary for something like two weeks. East from there to London Junction only one car has been running in the meantime on a stub line. One car would be totally inadequate to handle the crowds that would go out from the city on such a day as this for the sports, hence the postponement.

The paving and laying of new tracks on a certain portion of Dundas street has disorganized more than the street railway system. The main highway to London Junction and from there to the city has been closed for carriages and automobiles, and those who would drive in have been obliged to go round by Oxford street north or seek a highway farther south.

Manager C. B. King of the street railway has assured Dr. Robinson, superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane, that the cars will be in their usual running order by the end of this week. If the promise is kept, a date early next week will be fixed for the sports.

the shortage is greater than here in Frankfort. No sugar is served anywhere, the restaurants providing small packets of saccharine. Fish is dearer owing to the new regulations made by the English with the Dutch, but a new experiment is being made of seal meat. NOT ONE CASE OF DRUNKENNESS FOR POLICE TO HANDLE

Tuesday Passed Without a Single Arrest in City.

PROHIBITION GETS CREDIT

Temperance Forces Expect There Will Be Many Such Sessions.

The fact that not even one drunk appeared in police court this morning bears out the argument advanced by the temperance forces that the going into effect of the Ontario temperance act would reduce drunkenness.

That is, not one charge of drunkenness was entered on the police books yesterday or last night, but two persons who had been sent to jail last week to sober up appeared and were discharged with a warning.

The police could not explain the absence of the usual number of cases for drunkenness unless it could be attributed to the closing of the bars and the doing away with the sale of intoxicants.

The going into effect of prohibition, it is thought by many, will have the desired effect, and will reduce drunkenness to a minimum.

The police court records will be closely watched by the temperance party, which anticipates little trouble will be experienced from drunkenness, and expects to hear of many a police court session without even one such charge.

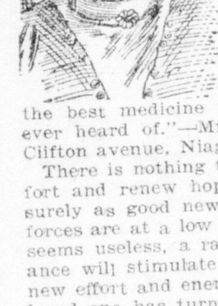

PRESTON MANUFACTURER DIES FOLLOWING STROKE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PRESTON, Sept. 19.—The death occurred today of Harry Erb, who suffered an attack of paralysis while visiting at Crystal Beach two weeks ago. Mr. Erb was born in Preston a half century ago and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Erb, pioneer residents of the town. He was a member of the Solid Leather Shoe Company, of which he took an important share of the management for a number of years. He is survived by a widow, son John and the following sisters: Mrs. (Judge) C. R. Hanning, Mrs. Goodall and Mrs. (Capt.) Frank Moss of "C" company, 111th Battalion. The late Mrs. George Pattinson was also a sister.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER FROM NIAGARA FALLS

Niagara Falls, Ont.—"I was miserable, tired out and dragging around. My legs could scarcely support me. My husband had read about 'Favorite Prescription' and he got me to use it. I used four bottles and the results were surprising. I got stronger, was less nervous, my appetite improved, and I felt like a new person. It is the best medicine for women I have ever heard of."—Mrs. A. C. Brown, 39 Clifton avenue, Niagara Falls, Ont.

There is nothing that will bring comfort and renew hope to the invalid so surely as good news. When the vital forces are at a low ebb and everything seems useless, a ray of joy and assurance will stimulate the weary body to new effort and energy. A letter from a loved one has turned the tide in many a siege of sickness.

Doctor Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., has good news for every suffering woman. Write him today and tell him your troubles, and he will send you just the right advice to restore you to health and bring back the roses to your cheeks, and without charge. His "Favorite Prescription" has been the rescue of thousands of suffering women. Many grateful patients have taken Dr. Pierce's advice.

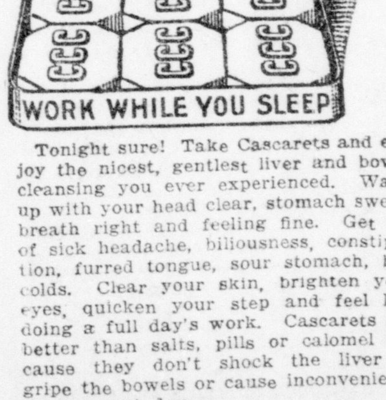

Mothers, if your daughters are weak, lack ambition, are troubled with headaches, lassitude and are pale and sickly, Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just what they need to surely bring the bloom of health to their cheeks and make them strong and healthy.

It is not a secret remedy, because its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Sold in either tablet or liquid form.

They Liven the Liver and Bowels and Straighten You Right Up.

Don't Be Bilious, Constipated, Sick, With Breath Bad and Stomach Sour.

Tonight sure! Take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clear your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarets are better than salts, pills or calomel because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels or cause inconvenience all the next day.

Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children a whole Cascaret anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.

AMALGAMATION OF TWO SOCIETIES IS NOW CONSUMMATED

C. W. C. A. Becomes Part of Red Cross Branch.

ONLY ONE EXECUTIVE

Union of Important Patriotic Organizations Perfected Today.

A most important step was taken today at a joint meeting of the executives of the Red Cross Society and Canadian War Contingent Association, in the completion of the federation of the two societies. Henceforth, the C. W. C. A., instead of a separate organization, will be known as a department of the Red Cross Society, with one president and one executive for both.

The amalgamation took place by the express wish of the C. W. C. A., the view being held that the work was practically one and could be more effectively accomplished by closer union.

Mrs. C. R. Somerville, the capable president, under whom the work of the C. W. C. A. has flourished and developed in a remarkable manner, and who has been working towards this end, has resigned owing to the fact the need is removed of a C. W. C. A. president.

Since the organization of the C. W. C. A. the two societies have worked together month after month with the greatest of unanimity and harmony, each supplementing the efforts of the other.

Another important decision was reached at this morning's meeting. In response to an appeal which has been sent out to Red Cross branches, the executive of the London branch decided to provide for 25 beds in the new C. R. C. S. hospital at Ramsgate at $25 each.

Mrs. Gordon Wright, first vice-president, presided in the absence of Lady Beck. The meeting was the largest which has been held since the spring.

Presidents of auxiliaries and convenors of departments gave most encouraging reports. Workers are returning to town and taking up their duties with renewed enthusiasm, while those who have remained at home have been remarkable for their faithfulness during the hot weather.

Object to Two License Inspectors in Huron.

CONTRARY TO STATUTE

Goderich District Will Endeavor to Increase Mission Giving.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SEAFORTH, Sept. 19.—A stern protest against the appointment of two license inspectors for Huron county was made in resolution to the Ontario Government at the Goderich district financial meeting of the Methodist Church in session here today. The resolution stated that the appointments were unfair to the county and not in the interest of law enforcement and was in opposition to clause 119 of the Ontario temperance act, which specifies that there shall not be more than one inspector for each county.

In discussion it was regarded that party patronage was behind the appointments.

The meeting was addressed by Rev. Dr. A. H. Arnup, missionary secretary of the Methodist Church; Rev. G. N. Hazen, of Sarnia, and Rev. A. P. Elson, of West China. These spoke in the interests of missions. The meeting promised to aim at making an increase of 17 per cent in the amount given for missions last year. The two churches in the district making the largest contributions last year were Wesley and Ontario Street, Clinton, giving $1,005 and $920 respectively.

Rev. A. Lloyd Smith, financial secretary for Victoria College, Toronto, stated that the institution expected a deficit of $23,000 owing to the shortage of students and asked for assistance in meeting this deficit. He said 300 students of Victoria had gone to the war.

Rev. J. W. Hibbert, of Wingham, presented the claims of the conference financial committee concerning the adjustment of the sustentation fund, by which ministers' minimum salaries will be raised to $900 with $100 for home keep.

ENTRIES POURING IN FOR ST. MARYS FAIR

General Special Attractions Have Been Secured For Event.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. MARYS, Sept. 19. — Secretary Lancaster, of St. Marys fair, reports entries coming in fast, for the show which will be held on Thursday and Friday next.

The first day will be used to place exhibits.

Thursday evening is citizens' night, and Friday farmers' day.

Several good special attractions have been secured from outside points for the fair, and band music will be a specialty.

LOST HIS LIQUOR.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 19.—Robt. Hooley, a farmer living just a short distance from St. Thomas, appeared before Magistrate Maxwell today on a charge of stealing a set of harness valued at $25. The prisoner stated that he had been celebrating the coming "dry spell," and had seven bottles of liquor he intended to lay aside for a rainy day. After entering the barns of Chas. Loomis he took the harness, but when he sobered up his seven bottles of whisky had disappeared. As the harness had been returned he was permitted to go on suspend sentence.

FUNERAL AT GOSNELL.

HIGHGATE, Sept. 19.—The funeral of Barbara, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Davis, foreman of the canning factory here, took place Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the Evangelical Church, had charge of the service. Interment was made at Gosnell Cemetery.

CALLED TO GRASS FIRE.—Number 5 fire company, from the fire hall at the corner of Grey and Adelaide streets, was called out at 1:30 this afternoon to a grass fire on West street, south of the Hamilton road. No damage was done.

RUSSIANS ACHIEVE SUCCESS IN PERSIA

Turks Attacked, But Were Routed Back by Counter Blow.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 20—Via London, 3:55 p.m.—A brief sentence in the Russian official statement of yesterday shows that a very considerable success had been achieved by the Russians in Persia. The Turks, after occupying Hamadan, advanced 60 or 70 miles northward in the direction of Kasvin. Then, military advices say, a Russian blow from the direction of Tabriz fell. The Turkish rear, being seriously menaced, the Ottoman troops were compelled to fall back until eventually the Russians reached Kuridjan, 20 miles from Hamadan.

REMOVING DANGER TRAP.

SARNIA, Sept. 19.—Workmen are today constructing new concrete steps on the Cromwell street hill to replace the old wooden ones, which nearly plunged the city in a lawsuit when a lady fell and was injured in making a descent. The case was settled out of court by payment of costs of injuries, and the city council decided to have new steps constructed at once.

YOUNG MAN DIES IN LONDON FROM DREADED SCOURGE

Succumbs to Infantile Paralysis Within 60 Hours.

CONTRACTED ELSEWHERE

All Precautions Taken Locally —Blood Tests Requested.

A sudden death from poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) occurred in London on Tuesday. The victim, Fred Mitchell, was not a resident of London, but came here on Sunday and became sick almost at once. A rather rare type developed, affecting the respiration, and death occurred within approximately 60 hours. According to a report made by Dr. H. W. Hill, medical officer of health, the victim evidently contracted the disease while traveling in Cleveland, Buffalo and other points from which he returned about the 7th of September. He developed the disease about eight days later, which is about the ordinary time so far as has been discovered.

Strict precautions were taken throughout the course of the disease, and no further trouble is expected. Those who were in contact with him in London, fortunately a small number, are under observation. The very prompt reporting of this case gave the health department full opportunity to exercise proper precautions.

In order to put into effect a method of treatment which has had some success in the United States, the health officer requests all those who may have had this disease in past years, who are willing to allow blood to be withdrawn from them for use in treating future possible patients, to report their names and addresses to him.

In this way a list will be formed of those who are willing to allow their blood to be used for the treatment of cases that may develop. The withdrawing of the blood is a quite harmless operation, and those who will volunteer for this purpose may be saving the life of some one unfortunate enough to be attacked by the disease.

FAIR OPENED IN CITY OF CHATHAM

Entries Are Reported To Be Larger Than Ever.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHATHAM, Sept. 19—Indications are that the success of the Chatham fall fair, which opened today, will surpass those of any previous years. Today was given over to preparations for tomorrow, which will be the feature day of the fair, when crowds are expected to attend from all parts of the country.

The West Kent Agricultural Society organizers report that entries this year to the various contests, are greater than ever, and that many valuable prizes are to be competed for.

Keen interest centres round the racing which opens tomorrow. The management has also arranged for a number of motorcycle races, in which will compete professionals from London and Detroit, as well as a number of local amateurs.

Tomorrow's happenings will conclude with an excellent fireworks display.

INDIAN GIRL IN COURT.

CHATHAM, Sept. 19. — Elizabeth Brant, who claims to be a distant relative to the renowned chief, Joseph Brant, of the Mohawk tribe, was arraigned in the city police court today, charged with stealing a coat and umbrella, the property of Mildred Cartwright, from the C. P. R. station, while the latter was purchasing her railway ticket. She was remanded for a week.

FAIL TO PROVE

Charles Montserrat, chairman and chief engineer of the Federal Government commission, which supervised the construction of the bridge, was the first witness. He said the work on the bridge on the morning of the accident had been carried out according to plan. He was on the span until it was connected with the hoisting apparatus. He noticed nothing wrong, everything moving smoothly. After the accident he examined the bridge and found that the southwest casting had disappeared, and indications showed it had broken.

Witness explained by photographs the exact location of the casting and the part it played in supporting the span on the girder which was attached to the lifting apparatus. He said the casting had been under the span for five or six weeks previous to the accident, and had borne a heavier weight and strain than it was submitted to during the hoisting. The hydraulic jacks could not have been to blame because the span's weight was not hinging on to them at the time it fell. He could only suggest that the casting which broke had a flaw in it.

Adopted Safest Way.

J. H. Gignac, a juryman, asked if all the members of the bridge commission were agreed that the safest way of raising the span had been adopted. The witness answered in the affirmative. Mr. Gignac further asked if the jacks might have failed to work uniformly, and Mr. Montserrat demonstrated that the jacks were all carefully gauged to be worked together.

Michael Monehan, another juryman, asked if the span buckled, and Mr. Montserrat said:

"The span buckled in falling because a stress was placed upon it it was not constructed to withstand, but not before the casting broke."

Casting Was Inspected.

To J. M. Francoeur, acting for the family of one of the victims of the accident, Mr. Montserrat said the casting was properly inspected. It was constructed under the supervision of the St. Lawrence Bridge Company, the bridge contractors, by the Canada Steel Company, Montreal.

Answering Hon. Alex. Taschereau, K. C., leading counsel for the bridge company, Mr. Montserrat said the scheme of raising the span had been submitted to a large number of engineers outside of those retained by the company, and had been approved of.

He himself still thought the scheme the safest method of putting the span into position.

Accepts Responsibility.

Phelps Johnson, president of the St. Lawrence Bridge Building Company, Montreal, said the company took the whole responsibility for the accident. The plans had been drawn up by the company's engineers and approved by the Government commission.

AMERICANS CLAIM LAND DREADNOUGHTS ARE ILLINOIS PRODUCT

Thousand Tractors Sent to Europe Without Armor.

RUN ON GREAT BELTS

Maker Declares There Is No Doubt They Can Do Everything Claimed for Them.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The British "tanks," the armored motor cars used in recent assaults on German trenches in Northern France, so successfully as to attract world-wide attention, were built for the most part in Peoria, Ill., in the form of caterpillar tractors, designed many years before the war began to meet some of the difficult problems of modern farming.

Except for their armor, their machine guns and their crews, thousands like them are in use today in the United States, in plowing digging ditches and other labors less heroic than war.

U. S. Army To Be Equipped.

The United States army will be equipped soon with giant armored cars equal in power and effectiveness to those now in use by the British on the French war front.

The ordnance bureau of the war department is having built such cars. The size and design is being kept secret by the army men.

Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of the army staff, admitted this much tonight. He would not tell of the progress on the work of building the cars, whether any had been completed and were being tried out by the army experts, or where the parts for the cars were being made.

M. M. Baker, vice-president of the Holt Manufacturing Company, explained here today that it was machines made by his company at its Peoria plant that had hurdled German trenches, walked through forests and crawled over shell craters in the face of intense gun fire.

Germany Purchaser, Too.

"We have sold about 1,000 caterpillar tractors to the British Government," said Mr. Baker. "We have had nothing to do with putting armor on them or placing machine guns, but some of our men at Aldershot, England, recently were notified that the British Government intended to armor some of the tractors and use them for work other than the usual towing of big guns.

"Germany had some of these tractors before the war began, and, although I do not understand just how it occurred, I believe she may have got others since then. We have sent some to France and some to Russia.

"So far as I know, up until the recent appearance of the motor cars the tractors were used only to tow big guns. I understood that Germany used about forty of them in this work before Liege early in the war, and recent photographs show that the British are using some of them now for the same purpose."

Act Like Juggernaut.

Mr. Baker said he did not know how many of the 1,000 tractors sent to England had been armored and put in service as land battleships, nor did he know what equipment the British war office had placed upon cars to be used in this work.

"It is true," said Mr. Baker, "that these tractors can go ahead over almost anything or through almost anything. They can straddle a trench, go through a swamp, roll over logs or climb through small craters, like a car of Juggernaut. It looks uncanny to see them crawl along the ground, just like a huge caterpillar. In a thick forest, if they encountered trees they could not brush out of their way, they could easily be used to uproot them and clear their own paths."

Carry Own Tracks.

Mr. Baker said the tractors sent to England weigh about 18,000 pounds each, develop 120 horsepower and are built of steel. The caterpillar feature, he explained, is of the utmost importance. Speaking broadly, the tractor crawls on two belts, with corrugated surfaces on either side of the body.

The corrugated surface is on the ground. On the inside of the belts, on each side of the body, are two lines of steel rails, making four lines in all. These rails are in short sections, jointed and operated over a cogged mechanism that actually lays them down with their belt attachment as the tractor moves ahead, and picks them up again, so that the car runs on its own self-made track continuously.

Machine Easy to Turn.

The short joints in the rails make it easy to turn to right or left. The body is supported by trucks with five wheels, something like small railroad trucks. These wheels never touch the ground, but run upon the steel rails. In the ordinary tractor about seven feet of belt and rails is on the ground at one time.

Mr. Baker said that the machine would bridge any trench that was not wider than the length of the track it laid on the ground at one time. The "bow" might hit the far side of the trench far below the top, and the "stern" would undoubtedly sink a little, but the tenacity of the tractor, he declared, would enable it to go ahead and climb out.

The width of track used on the machines sent to England, Mr. Baker said, was twenty-four inches. He declared that the ground pressure is about three pounds per suare inch, where a thirty-inch track is used, or less than that of the foot of either man or horse.

Had Been Kept Secret.

He suggested that the British authorities probably had lengthened the track on the tractors used in trench work, giving them even greater power to surmount obstacles.

"We've been making these tractors for the British Government for a long time," said Mr. Baker, "and have not talked much about it. Since their recent use in storming trenches I have seen published reports that led me to believe the secret would come out anyway pretty soon, so I decided it might as well be told now."

OCTOGENARIAN DIES IN NEIGHBOR'S HOUSE

Matthew Macfarlane, Former Merchant of Ridgetown, Expires.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

RIDGETOWN, Sept. 19.—An old resident of Ridgetown and a pioneer merchant died suddenly about noon today, in the person of Matthew Macfarlane. Though about 80 years of age, he was apparently in good health all morning, and was on the street up to about 11 o'clock, when he went to the home of Thomas Craig, Erie street south, and expired in a few minutes after entering the house. Mrs. Macfarlane predeceased him about a year ago.

Mr. Macfarlane conducted a general store here for a number of years, and only a few years ago gave up active business. He was a man well liked by all who knew him, honest in all his dealings. He is survived by one son, Harold, who is studying medicine at Queen's University, Kingston. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

ST. THOMAS PATRIOTIC WOMEN IN SESSION

Mrs. C. St. Clair Leitch Is Elected President.

STORIES FROM WAR ZONE

Lady From British Hospital and Returned Soldier Give Addresses.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 19.—The annual meeting of the Women's Patriotic Association was held in the council chamber of the city hall this afternoon when the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Mrs. M. A. Gilbert; president, Mrs. C. St. Clair Leitch; first vice-president, Mrs. Rev. Elliott, Metcalfe street; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Price Jones.

Following the election and other business, Miss Marion Leitch, B. A., daughter of C. P. Leitch, who spent a year in giving first aid work in British hospitals at Highfield, Hale and Shorncliffe, gave an interesting talk on the noble work being done in this connection. Miss Leitch outlined the work, stating that men seriously wounded are operated upon on railway trains while running 50 miles an hour. Nearly all the "Tommies" were cheerful, and appeared to be glad to think that they had rendered their country service.

Pte. Fleming of Sarnia, a returned soldier, held the attention of the members with a dramatic description of the Canadian soldier's life in the trenches. Pte. Fleming was wounded, his arm being shattered. He elaborated upon the shortage of hospital supplies in the base hospitals in France, and urged every woman to do her utmost to alleviate distress caused by this shortage.

He told of how he lay in the hospital four days before splints could be secured for his fractured arm. Hundreds of similar cases to his had been reported.

The Women's Patriotic Association is affiliated with the Women's War Contingent Association, with headquarters at the McKay home.

BROTHER OF JOHN D. REFUSES TO "MAKE UP"

"Through With John Forever," Says Frank Rockefeller.

Cleveland, Sept. 19.—William Rockefeller, on his first visit to Cleveland in years, failed to bring about a reconciliation between his brothers, Frank and John D., estranged 18 years.

This was made known today by Frank Rockefeller.

"There'll never be a reconciliation in this world between John and me," Frank said, in his office here today.

William Rockefeller returned to New York with his wife last night. They arrived here Sunday morning to visit John D. Rockefeller at his Forest Hill estate.

Frank, an energetic man of 70, today told how William and his wife motored out to his home at Wickliffe yesterday afternoon from Forest Hill. It is believed William went on the mission to bring peace between Frank and John D.

"I was not at home when they arrived at my house," said Frank. "William and his wife visited with my wife, but I didn't see either of them."

Then, for the first time, Frank told his story of the break between himself and John D.

"In 1898 John and I had a row over business. I said at that time, 'I'm through!' and I meant it. I am through. There's not the slightest possibility of a reconciliation."

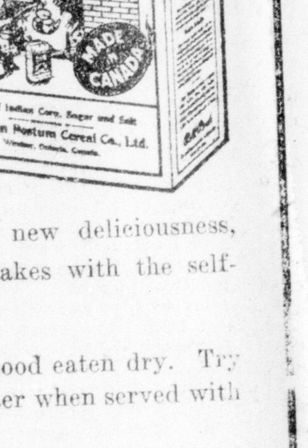

The visit of William marked the first time the three Rockefeller brothers had been together in Cleveland for years. Today Frank said that "a few years ago" William came here to visit both himself and John D.

Family friends had believed that there might be a "get-together" meeting this time between the three brothers, now in the sunset of life. John D. is 77 and William 75. But Frank's face was grim, and his voice determined as he put it:

"No."

The trouble between Frank and John D. became a matter of official record here in the municipal court in 1912 when Frank was testifying in a suit for damages filed against him by his chauffeur.

The Perfect Corn Flakes

New Post Toasties are not only inexpensive but they have a new deliciousness, produced by a new process of cookery—the first to produce corn flakes with the self-developed true corn flavor.

So fine is this flavor that New Post Toasties are wonderfully good eaten dry. Try some that way—you'll appreciate the point, though they're even better when served with cream or good milk.

These New Post Toasties don't mush down in milk or cream, and they are not "chaffy" in the package, like common flakes. They're new in form, new in flavor, and new in appearance. Note the tiny "bubbles" on each flake—an identifying feature.

Put up in wax-sealed packages, New Post Toasties retain their oven-crispness and flavor until served at your table.

Have your grocer deliver a package for tomorrow's breakfast.

SERBIANS CAPTURE TWO MORE TOWNS FROM BULGARIANS

Cavalry Has Reached Rozna, Still Advancing.

FOE FLEEING TO NORTH

Said To Be Evacuating Monastir and Moving Archives to Uskub.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Saloniki, dated Monday, says:

"The Serbian successes in the Florina region continue. They have captured Krushegrad, eight kilometres, and Neokazi, ten kilometres northwest of Gornichevo, while the Serbian cavalry has reached Rozna and is still advancing."

An Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company said that information received there indicates that the Bulgars are beginning the evacuation of Monastir.

It is stated that the Bulgarian archives are being hastily transported to Uskub.

ATTACKS REPULSED.

PARIS, Sept. 19—12:30 p.m.—The Bulgarians on the Macedonian front have made two counter-attacks against the Serbians, but gained no success, it was announced officially here today.

The Bulgarians and Germans have not attempted a counter-action against the French troops which captured Florina. There is no change on the Struma front.

The text of the French official communication on the progress of operations in Macedonia, given out this afternoon, is as follows:

"There has been no change on the Struma front. At the foot of Beles Mountains, Italian troops have engaged Bulgarian forces in spirited combats in the region of Poroj (west of Lake Doiran).

"On the Serbian front there have been violent artillery exchanges, in which each side took part. Two Bulgarian counter-attacks in the sector of Vetrenik were repulsed by the fire of the Serbian cannon.

"On our left wing the enemy has undertaken no counter-activities in the direction of Florina."

TWENTY-FOUR SCIENTISTS ON CONSULTING BOARD

Thomas A. Edison and Others Sworn In as Consulting Naval Assistants.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Twenty-four of America's foremost scientists, comprising the navy's civilian consulting board, headed by Thomas A. Edison, took the oath of allegiance to the United States today as officers of the Federal Government. The oath was administered in the office of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, preliminary to organization of the board under the new law giving it a legal status.

Later the scientists were taken on board the naval yacht Dolphin for a cruise down the southern drilling grounds on the Virginia coast to view target practice manoeuvres of the fleet.

BOMBS DROPPED NEAR BELGIAN TOWNS FINED

New York, Sept. 19.—A London dispatch to a news agency here today says the Germans have fined the Belgian towns of Jemeppe-Sur-Sambre and Moustier-Sur-Sambre $10,000 each because enemy fliers dropped bombs in their vicinity, said a Berne wireless dispatch today.

ARRESTED FOR SMOKING

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—Fifteen boys under 16 years of age, who were found smoking on the streets were gathered in tonight by Detectives Crowthers and Charbonneau, acting under instructions from the juvenile court. They made a tour of the city in an automobile, collecting the youngsters. The boys were not placed under arrest, but their parents were directed to take them to the juvenile court in the morning.

BUYS DORCHESTER FARM.

DORCHESTER, Sept. 19.—Mrs. D. Carroll has sold her farm, concession 5, Dorchester, to James Moore, who has been residing there for some time past.

A BLOOD-FOOD DISCOVERED THAT ENTIRELY OVERCOMES ANAEMIC WEAKNESS

Carefully Investigated Reports Establish Truly Wonderful Results.

Heretofore it has often been a hopeless task for a thin-blooded person to gain either strength or weight. Neither food or medicine in many instances had beneficial effect.

What is practically a perfect blood-food, containing such elements as Iron, has at last been produced, and when taken after meals will put new life and vigor into people that have despaired of ever being strong again.

This truly wonder-working treatment consists of taking two small chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets at the close of every meal.

This wonderful blood-food supplies nourishment, vim, energy—sends a stream of vigorous, strength-making blood to every nook and corner of the body, makes every muscle and fibre sing with new-found life and health.

That gnawing tiredness leaves you—Ferrozone drives it away. Sleepless nights are turned into periods of rest, and you pick up fast. Day by day your appetite improves—this means more food is transformed in nutriment that will build and energize weak organs. The inclination to worry passes away because Ferrozone imparts nerve—tone and bodily strength that prevents depression.

Think it over—Ferrozone is a wonderful tonic; in fact, it is more than a tonic, because it establishes health that lasts. Thousands use it and thereby cleanse and restore the entire system to a perfect condition. You'll feel the uplifting power of Ferrozone in a week—it's bound to help you if you only give it the chance. Sold by all dealers, 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50; be sure of the name Ferrozone. Forwarded by mail to any address if price is remitted to The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

SIX FEET OF WATER SWEEPS THROUGH TOWNS

Two Hundred and Fifty Bodies Recovered in Bohemian Village.

BERLIN, Sept. 19, via Sayville—By the bursting of a dam in the mountains of Bohemia near the German frontier water to the depth of two metres (six feet), swept through the neighboring villages, carrying away trees, wooden houses, parts of bridges, and corpses. The dam was 52 metres wide at the base and 13 metres high. The basin had a capacity of 400,000 cubic metres of water, and was connected with another basin holding 7,000,000 cubic metres.

A dispatch from Hirschberg, Silesia, says that according to dispatches received there 250 bodies have been recovered up to noon Tuesday. These included many children. The disaster came so suddenly that it was impossible to give timely warning to all localities. Messages speak of waves twenty feet high destroying everything in their path over a stretch of twelve or more miles.

UNABLE TO DISCOVER THE SOURCE OF SCOURGE

Infantile Paralysis Still a Mystery to New York Authorities.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Efforts of federal and city health authorities to determine the source of infantile paralysis have been unsuccessful thus far, it was disclosed tonight in an announcement by United States public health officials of the abandonment of the last theory that the rat flea transmitted the disease. Another attempt to trace the disease to dogs and cats, taken from houses where there had been patients, also proved futile. Tests were made in the city laboratories on six such animals, but while they were found to have paralysis, it was asserted positively that none had the same disease from which the children suffered.

Reports of isolated cases of the disease in northern New York and Canada cause no apprehension that it will become epidemic in that direction, as medical authorities express the belief that it can gain no headway in face of the approach of cool weather.

GERMANS ARE SEEKING MONEY IN SWITZERLAND

Bankers Attempt to Arrange Credit of Fifty Million Francs.

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Sept. 19.—Via Paris, Sept. 20.—"A number of German bankers, including Arthur G. von Gwinner, managing director of the Deutsche Bank of Berlin, and Paul Markiewitz of the same institution, have arrived in Zurich," says the Gazette, "with the purpose of obtaining financial concessions from Switzerland before the economic agreement between Germany and Switzerland is concluded. It is understood they desire either to obtain the participation of Switzerland in the new loan, or the opening of a credit similar to the 50,000,000 franc credit opened in Switzerland for French traders under the guarantee of the Bank of France, or a combination of the two plans. The object of the financiers is to prevent depreciation of the mark. This explains the delay in the signature of the economic agreement.

MAYOR OFFERS PARK TO ST. MARYS AT COST

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. MARYS, Sept. 19.—The town council last evening passed a motion to pay $5 more to the Hydro-Electric Radial Association as an extra fee.

Mayor Weir asked the council to take up the matter of buying the Fitzpatrick "triangle" property, situated in the north ward, and bounded by Widder street, Station street and King street. He stated that he had bought the property, which was very suitable for a public park, and he would hand it over to the town at cost, $600, and the council need not finance it till next year. He would plant the park with suitable trees and shrubbery, and guarantee to take care of them for two years at his own expense. The matter was referred to the parks and cemetery committee.

The matter of cleaning up and putting in proper shape for park purposes the old Methodist and English Church Cemetery, which has been closed for several years, was discussed. Mayor Weir stated that if the council would grant permission, he would put the old cemetery into proper shape for a park at his own expense. Referred to cemetery committee.

The mayor brought up the matter of cost of cutting grass and weeds around the streets of the town, which work he undertook without authority from the council. It cost him $26, and he left the matter with the council to deal with as they saw fit.

FALL FAIR AT EXETER HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE

All Exhibits Exceptionally Good—Tag Girls Active.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

EXETER, Sept. 19.—The annual fair was held in Exeter today and proved successful in every way. The weather being favorable, there was a larger attendance than usual. The showing of horses and other live stock was exceptionally good.

The ladies' work compared favorably in quality with that of larger fairs. Exhibits of flowers, fruits and vegetables were good for the amount shown.

The day passed off without any accident.

A noticeable feature of the fair was the large number of young ladies selling tags, buttons, etc., for patriotic purposes.

Gate receipts were over $100. Many people remained to attend the patriotic concert tonight.

COLLARBONE BROKEN IN FALL FROM STOOP

CLANDEBOYE, Ont., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Hiram Windsor, of the second concession, McGillivray, was painfully injured on Saturday when a strong wind slammed a door, knocking her off the steps of the back porch. She fell a distance of about five feet.

Dr. Hamilton of Ailsa Craig was called and found that the collarbone was broken.

DEATH OF GEORGE SMITH.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 19.—After an illness extending over three years the death of George Smith, a widely-known resident of West Oxford, occurred this morning at his home on the Tillsonburg road. Mr. Smith was 60 years of age.

READING COMPANY WILL SOME DAY OWN WHOLE COAL SUPPLY

Will Have Anthracite When Other Fields Are Exhausted.

EFFORT TO DISSOLVE IT

Government Renews Action Under the Anti-Trust Act.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Attorney-General Gregory today filed a brief in the supreme court in his appeal from the decision of a federal district court in Pennsylvania, refusing the Government's plea for dissolution under the Sherman anti-trust act, and the commodities clause of the railroad rate act of the Reading Company, called the "backbone of the alleged monopoly of anthracite."

The combination, the brief says, has a history permeated with illegality and characterized by a deliberate purpose to drive others from the field resulting in increased prices out of proportion to increased production costs. The Government contends in its brief that the Reading Holding Company (the Reading Company) through its subsidiaries, Reading Coal Company, and Reading Railway Company, controls the production, transportation and sale of anthracite coal from lands in the Schuylkill region tributary to the lines of Reading Railway Company, and that this control was acquired and is maintained by other than normal methods of industrial development.

Will Have a Monopoly.

"At the current rate of mining," the brief says, "the coal areas of the companies, thus leagued and combined together, according to the generally accepted calculations of geologists and mining engineers, will outlast by many years those of any competitor. In time, therefore, this combination, if not dissolved, will own or control every ton of commercially available anthracite known to exist and whilst in almost any other branch of industry it is at least possible for a monopoly to be broken by the influx of fresh capital attracted by high profits, against a monopoly of anthracite, the supply of which is limited, there can be no such protection—only the law can afford relief."

The Government makes the usual plea that the several coal companies and railroads constituting the combination be completely separated from each other and erected into independent units.

ATTENDANCE 3,000 AT STRATFORD FAIR

Poultry Exhibit Surpasses Any Previous Year.

Robert Thompson a Big Prize Winner in Agricultural Section.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Sept. 19.—With the weather man doing his best to put a crimp in the well-laid plans of the Stratford Agricultural Society, the fall fair opened here this afternoon. The dull sky and cool atmosphere kept many away, but it is estimated that about 3,000 were in attendance.

A procession, headed by the kiltie pipers, and followed by members of the city council, the Collegiate Cadets and Boy Scouts, marched to the grounds. The kilties gave exhibitions of Highland dancing and mingled with the crowds in quest of recruits. Sergt. Knight appealed to the crowds, and although there was no immediate response, it is believed certain the present campaign will meet with good results.

This afternoon the light and heavy horses were judged. All classes were well filled and some really fine types of beasts were shown.

Poultry a Feature.

The poultry exhibit is a feature of the show, there being easily three times the exhibits of former years. Mr. Tilt of Doone is the principal exhibitor, having 120 entries. Some of the prize birds from the Western Fair are also shown. B. C. Ratz of Tavistock has a large showing of pigeons.

The awards in the dairy produce were well divided, being shared generally by Mrs. J. Trachsell, Shakespeare; Mrs. W. N. McFarlane, Stratford; H. Reinaecker, St. Pauls; Mrs. R. S. Frame, Mrs. D. B. Burritt, and Mrs. S. J. Monteith, Stratford, and Joseph Duval, Tavistock.

In fruit, N. A. Monteith of Downie, Miss J. G. Read of Stratford, John Dempsey, Mrs. P. Kastner of Sebringville, and W. G. Hislop of Stratford shared the honors.

In plums, Ald. J. H. Roberts of Stratford, Miss Hamilton of Stratford, J. C. Monteith and J. A. Humphrey of Stratford took most of the prizes.

Grains and Vegetables.

In grains and vegetables, Rev. Mr. Thompson of Carlingford, Mrs. Trachsell of Shakespeare, F. K. Bell of St. Pauls, J. A. Humphrey and D. Dempsey of this city figured prominently among the winners. For the best exhibition of roots Robert Thompson took first, while first for best collection of potatoes also went to him, as did also that for the best sheaf of white oats.

In the evening the kilties provided a program and there was a fireworks display.

On Wednesday, closing day, heavy horses, cattle and swine will be judged. The fair closes with a big dance Wednesday night.

All schools of the city closed today for the fair.

MAY BE NEW TRIAL OF MAN. EX-MINISTERS

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—The Provincial Government intends to seek a retrial of the ex-cabinet ministers at an early date, it is announced.

Definite action will be taken when Hon. A. B. Hudson, attorney-general, returns from Hudson Bay Saturday and reviews the result of trial.

"The fact that three jurors caused a disagreement on the case has convinced the Government that there is a possibility of a definite decision if there is a new trial," said one cabinet minister tonight.

BATTLE IN RUMANIA STILL IN PROGRESS; FOE CLAIMS A GAIN

Berlin Report Says the Russo-Rumanian Position Is Penetrated at Several Points—Attacks Repulsed, Says Bucharest.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The battle in Dobrudja between the Russo-Rumanian forces and the Germans and Bulgarians under von Mackensen is still in progress, according to an official statement issued today in Bucharest. The statement says that on Sunday night enemy attacks towards Enigea, southwest of Kobadin, were twice beaten back.

The Berlin statement regarding these operations states that the new line taken up by the reinforced Russian and Rumanian troops in Eastern Rumania, between the Danube and the Black Sea, has been penetrated at several points by the Teutonic forces.

The German statement follows:

"Front of Field Marshal von Mackensen: The allied (Teutonic) troops penetrated at several points into the Russo-Rumanian position mentioned in yesterday's report."

The official report from Berlin on Monday said that the Russo-Rumanian forces on the Rachova-Bobadin-Tusla line had received reinforcements. The line held by the Russians and Rumanians paralleled the railroad running from Tzernavoda to Constanza, on the Black Sea coast. The only bridge across the Danube in this region is at Tzernavoda, which is about nine miles up the river from Rachova.

BULGARIAN REPORT.

SOFIA, Sept. 18.—The Bulgarian report regarding operations on the Rumanian front is as follows:

"Along the Danube nothing important occurred.

"In Dobrudja fighting developed on the line of the villages of Maralui, Arabadji, Kokardja, Kobadin and Tuzla, and went in our favor. Following a counter-attack we occupied the villages of Sotului, Chiol and Vasciuol, where we captured five guns and four machine guns.

"On September 15, after a short engagement, we occupied the town of Mangalia (on the Black Sea coast), which was evacuated by the population before the arrival of our troops.

"On the coastal front the night was calm."

LONDON PAPERS DEMANDING CONSCRIPTION FOR IRELAND TO MEET THE NEED FOR MEN

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The application of conscription to Ireland is suggested by the Daily Mail today in an article calling attention to the urgent necessity for obtaining more men for the army—a problem which, it says, has engaged the full attention of the Government. The newspaper suggests two other methods for adding to the army, namely, the raising of the age limit from 41 to 45 years, and the combing out of the young men from exempted occupations, of whom it estimates there are 1,250,000 physically fit who have not yet been drafted into the army.

The Times' military correspondent, discussing the same problem, says:

"There can be only one rule for the Allies, namely, to place in the field every able-bodied man that we can raise. The time has arrived for drastic reform in the administration of the service acts, and if this action is not taken quickly and thoroughly Germany will beat us in organization of her man-power.

"Compulsion for Ireland is necessary if the Irish divisions are to be maintained. As to Great Britain raising the age limit, it is not pressingly needed until three or four million men ensconced in civil occupations and sheltered from service have been combed out."

The Daily Telegraph says the Government is about to appoint a committee for the special purpose of this combing out, of which Austen Chamberlain will be the chairman.

SIX HORSES BURNED IN CHATHAM BLAZE

Fire of Unknown Origin Destroys Bakery Stables.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHATHAM, Sept. 19.—Six horses were burned alive and a delivery wagon consumed in a fire which destroyed the stable and barn owned by Dingman Bros. at the rear of their bakery tonight. One of the horses was a driver, which was entered to compete in the races at the Chatham fair tomorrow.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is believed to have commenced at the rear of the building.

In a few minutes the buildings were a roaring furnace, and in spite of the efforts of the fire department nothing could be done to save the animals. The loss is roughly placed at $2,500. The contents of the building only were insured to the extent of $250.

BIG CHICAGO BANKS MUST EXPLAIN BUSINESS

Judge Landis Wants to Know Their Relation to Smaller Banks.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Judge Landis, in the federal court today ordered representatives of some of the city's richest banks to appear before him to explain their business relations, if any, with small private banks, a number of which have failed recently.

The order was issued during a hearing of the petition in bankruptcy against M. Ginsberg & Sons, private bankers.

Mrs. Emma Tuma, wife of Joseph Tuma, a private banker, who shot himself to death yesterday after a five-day run on his bank, declared today that every depositor would be paid.

Indictments, which were voted yesterday against Michael Michniuk and his son Stephen, and Moses Ginsberg and his son Emmanuel, all bankers, were returned today.

"MAD FOURTH" IN HEAVY SOMME FIGHT

BRANTFORD, Sept. 19.—A cablegram received here today by Mrs. M. A. Colquhoun from her husband, Lieut.-Col. M. A. Colquhoun, officer commanding the "Mad Fourth" Battalion, states that the battalion was in the advance on the Somme. From the cable the assuring news is received that the 4th went through the heavy fighting without Brantford casualties.

Reports here of local officers wounded who are with the 19th Battalion show that that battalion which has a company of Brantford men in it is also in the big offensive. The 19th Battalion is suffering heavily.

TEUTONS PAY RESPECTS.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—According to special dispatches from Athens the German, Austrian, Bulgarian and Turkish ministers have called on the new foreign minister. The diplomatic representatives of the Entente powers, however, still await instructions from their governments and have not yet entered into relations with the new cabinet.

WILL CELEBRATE PROHIBITION.

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—The committee of one hundred will hold a banquet in this city about the middle of next month in celebration of the passing of prohibition law. The guests of honor are to be Premier Hearst and N. W. Rowell, leader of the Provincial Opposition.

CLANDEBOYE "NIPPED."

CLANDEBOYE, Sept. 19.—A heavy frost visited this district last night, destroying practically all the garden vegetables and badly damaging the late corn.

BURIED AT EXETER.

EXETER, Sept. 19.—The funeral of Miss Case, whose death occurred at her home, Alma, Michigan, took place on the arrival of the London, Huron and Bruce train Monday morning, and proceeded to the Exeter Cemetery. Miss Case was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Case, London road south.

Pastor in Guelph Apprised His Son Wins Promotion

Walter Gordon Rises From Sergeant to Lieutenant.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GUELPH, Sept. 19.—Rev. Dr. Gordon of Woolwich Street Baptist Church has received word that his son, Sergt. Walter Gordon, a graduate of McGill, has been promoted on the field in France and has been given a commission as lieutenant.

WINDSORITES FLAILED FOR NOT TAKING UP BONDS OF WAR LOAN

Paper, in Stinging Article, Calls Their Patriotism Into Question.

WINDSOR, Sept. 19.—The Record in a sharp editorial tonight rebukes the citizens of Windsor for failure to subscribe to the war loan. The paper calls them "war loan slackers," and says their purses are tight-clasped and bank books sealed.

The article concludes:

"The balance of this week remains for our citizens to take part in the war loan. It is issued in amounts of $100, $500 and $1,000, there being, therefore, a wide opportunity to participate. Let our people think it over, and if by next Sunday they have not done their plain duty let them keep their seats when the national anthem is being sung and let them strike the Canadian and British flags from their residences. They are void of patriotism. They are mere mercenary 'slackers,' hurrahing neutrals."

TEACHER LEAVES EXETER.

EXETER, Sept. 19.—Miss Hamilton, teacher in the high school department, has tendered her resignation, to take effect in one month. Miss Hamilton has accepted a school in Kincardine.

Mrs. Sid Davis of town received word that her mother, Mrs. Harris, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Dalyrumple, in Tuckersmith, had broken her leg, the result of a fall. She is now confined to her bed. About two years ago she met with a similar accident. Mrs. Harris is quite old, but is reported doing nicely.

The Huron branch of the patriotic society is now paying out $5,500 a month and has 355 names on the list of those who are receiving aid.

BURIED AT CLANDEBOYE.

CLANDEBOYE, Ont., Sept. 19.—The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flynn was held to St. James' Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Lowe officiating. The funeral was private.

CORP. WILL McCONNELL DIES OF WOUNDS

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. MARYS, Sept. 19.—Word was received today of the death on September 11 of Corp. Will McConnell, who died from wounds received at the battlefront. He was a member of the 71st Battalion that went overseas. Corp. McConnell was a barber, and was in the employ of R. J. Teskey, who conducts a Queen street shop. His home was in Kincardine. When here he was an active member of St. Marys Alert lacrosse club, and his many town friends express deep sympathy.

HAD WON PROMOTION; IS KILLED IN ACTION

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GUELPH, Sept. 19.—Word was received here today that Sergt.-Major James Barr had been killed in action September 9. He enlisted as a private in the 18th, and won promotion. His wife and two children left for England some months ago intending to return with the husband and father. The family resided at 29 John street.

Pte. Wm. Hunt, 51 Grove street, has been wounded in the head and foot. He was formerly a polisher at the Bell Piano Company.

Miss Orphen, Glasgow street, also received word that her brother, Pte. Edward Orphen, had been admitted to the hospital.

HOCKEYIST FALLS; TWO WOODSTOCKERS KILLED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 19.—This afternoon word reached the city that two more local boys had made the supreme sacrifice. They are Ptes. Charles McMillan and Percy Keene. Charles McMillan was one of the most popular boys of the city. Last winter he played O. H. A. intermediate hockey for this city. His home was in Brussels prior to coming to Woodstock in 1913. He was a member of the 71st Battalion under Col. Sutherland, and went overseas last March. He played soccer and lacrosse equally as well as hockey. He was manager of the staples department of the Grant Anderson stores here.

Percy Keene, before moving to London, where his mother was well known, was an employee of Hay & Co. He was a popular member of the Y. M. C. A.

LANCE-CORP. McINTOSH DANGEROUSLY ILL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Sept. 19.—That her son, Lance-Corp. George R. McIntosh, mounted rifles, was dangerously ill in No. 22 General Hospital at Comieres, being admitted Sept. 17, was the message received by Mrs. Catharine McIntosh today.

Lance-Corp. McIntosh enlisted here with the 71st Battalion, but in England was sent to the mounted rifles. He is 25 years of age and was employed as a baker before enlistment.

FORMER GALT MAN AMONG THE WOUNDED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GALT, Sept. 19.—Lance-Corp. George H. Fowler of Galt, reported wounded today, enlisted at Toronto early in the war and has been serving with an ambulance corps at the front.

In June, 1916, he was slightly wounded in the hip. He is 21 years of age and son of J. W. Fowler of this city. He had lived in Galt several years before going to Toronto to work.

FIVE BRANT COUNTY MEN IN CASUALTIES

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Sept. 19.—Brantford and county is now paying a heavy price in men in the Canadians first big offensive. Two more men have paid the supreme pprice, while three more are wounded. Lieut. Maurice Wilkes, reported missing a few days ago, is now believed to be killed. He is the 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wilkes. He enlisted as a private in the Queen's Own Rifles and won his commission.

Pte. Cecil Birley of Paris went overseas with the 84th Battalion, being drafted to the 75th, was wounded in Belgium early this month and died last Sunday in England.

Pte. T. Mason of 182 George street, is reported wounded today. He is a married man and left here with the 3rd contingent.

Bugler Thomas Brooks is also reported wounded today, having received an injury to the neck. He was born and brought up in Brantford, but was residing in Paris at the time he went to the front with a draft.

This morning's list also officially reports Pte. Fm. Rodwell wounded.

THORNDALE RECRUIT FOR 64TH BATTERY

THORNDALE, Sept. 19. — Herbert Lock of concession 2, West Nissouri, has enlisted in the 64th Battery. Pte. Lock was born in England, but has been living on a farm here with his brother, Thomas Lock, for some years. He also received his public school education at Wyton school, in West Nissouri Township.

CAPT. McDIARMID DIES IN HALIFAX

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 19.—Capt. J. H. McDiarmid, a former principal in one of the public schools, died in Halifax as the result of shrapnel wounds he received at the front. He had just arrived with some other officers who were invalided home, when he took sick and died.

Pte A. McDiarmid, a brother, was killed in action June 3, and still another brother has been wounded at the front. The other brother is Dr. C. A. McDiarmid, a former physician here.

D. W. KARN IS DEAD; HEAD OF PIANO FIRM

Native of East Zorra, of Pioneer Stock—Ran for Parliament.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 19. — Word reached this city today of the death in Toronto of D. W. Karn, who for half a century conducted a successful piano and organ establishment here. Mr. Karn has been living in Toronto for the last few years. His wife predeceased him two years ago. Two daughters, Mrs. T. Drew Smith of Toronto, and Mrs. C. B. Stanbury, now of London, England, survive.

The Karns were old settlers here, the grandfather coming from Pennsylvania. D. W. Karn was born in East Zorra in 1843, where he passed through all vicissitudes of bush life, and finally cleared his own farm of bush.

He was always musically inclined, and is said to have given his first $30 for a melodeon. In this city he held practically every municipal office. He was a staunch Conservative, and in 1892 and 1896 contested North Oxford unsuccessfully.

WINNIPEG MANAGER FALLS TO DEATH

Winnipeg, Sept. 19.—MacRae William Blair, credit manager for R. A. Lister Co., was killed in the Galt Building this morning by falling down an elevator shaft. His wife is undergoing medical treatment in Chicago.

INVENTOR OF TANK HIDES HIS IDENTITY; HAS OTHER PLANS

Is Willing That Credit for Monster Go to Others.

PROMOTED BY CHURCHILL

Lloyd George Says Former First Lord Advanced the Idea.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—While friends are claiming for Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, and Col. Swinton, the credit for the discovery for the tanks which played such an important part in the recent advance on the Somme front, the original inventor remains undisclosed, but the Associated Press is informed by a reliable authority that the new war machine is an adaptation of the caterpillar tractor. According to this authority the invention was brought to the attention of the war office early in the war. Great Britain declined to finance the project unless the machines were manufactured in England.

These armored ships on land are mounted on four caterpillar tractors, which not only make the machine incapable of being capsized, but enable it to cross ditches. The idea of using a caterpillar tractor has been worked on for the last ten years, and the problem was solved finally by equipping the machine with engines of such tremendous horsepower that they are able to pull the heaviest harvest machines and gang-plows over extremely rough ground.

Something Better Yet.

The man who brought the plans to England declines to permit the use of his name, declaring that for business reasons he does not desire to dim the glory of those claiming the credit. He says he has plans for a tractor which will probably be more effective than the "tanks."

David Lloyd George in an interview yesterday gave credit to Winston Churchill for his energy and enthusiasm in promoting the interests of the tank, stating that the credit is due him more than anyone else.

The Times correspondent at British headquarters in France, referring to the part played by tanks, says: "In one short hour they did more military service, killed more Germans in uniform and had greater influence on the war than all the zeppelins have ever done."

"My Kidneys are a constant worry to me."

That is because they are Weak. Let Dr. Cassell's Tablets give them Strength and Activity.

A little strength is worth a lot of drugs in curing kidney trouble. Vital strength, generated in the nerve-centres—the power-stations of the body—is the living force that keeps the kidneys healthy and active.

That explains why Dr. Cassell's Tablets are so good for your trouble. They nourish the nerve-centres, and thus keep the kidneys supplied with all the motive-power, all the strength they need. There is nothing random in that method of treatment; it is wholly scientific. Test it, prove it by taking Dr. Cassell's Tablets. They must help you as they have helped others. Read what a scientist says of them:—

Dr. CHAS. FORSHAW, F.R.M.S., F.C.S., D.Sc., &c., a well known English scientist, writes: "My knowledge of Dr. Cassell's Tablets leads me to the opinion that the ingredients form a remarkably potent medicine (quite safe for young and old) in cases of nervous prostration, debility, anæmia, malnutrition, and many forms of stomach and kidney trouble."

Dr. Cassell's Tablets.

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are Nutritive, Restorative, Alterative and Antispasmodic and of proved therapeutic value in derangements of the nerve or functional systems of old or young. They are the recognised remedy for

Nervousness	Sleeplessness	Indigestion
Nervous Breakdown	Anæmia	Palpitation
Neurasthenia	Malnutritions	Kidney Trouble

Specially valuable to nursing mothers and women at Middle life.

CANADIANS ON OFFENSIVE.

AT LAST the Canadians have had an opportunity to take part, as an important factor, in a great offensive, and they have more than "made good." They have added fresh honors to the glorious name they earned while playing the perhaps more difficult role of defenders of dangerous positions.

Without in any way criticizing Sir Max Aikens' accounts of Canadian activities, one can hardly help wishing Frederick Palmer had been the official observer. He understands the boys so well and his language fits them and their deeds as a glove fits the hand. "No home run was expected from them, but only a sacrifice fly, but they made a home run and brought in all the men on bases." In those few words the whole story is told and even those who are not baseball fans cannot fail to understand.

But even this wonderful achievement, "gained absolutely on time," did not satisfy, for they saw possibilities ahead. To the fact that they were under the command of General Byng must be attributed some of their further success. Had he been a martinet, bound up in red tape, he would have forbidden further advance, but instead he realized that his men had initiative and brains and could be trusted. He encouraged them to strike while the iron was hot and they struck effectively.

Volunteers, offering their lives to protect home and humanity, the Canadians have been itching for a chance to attack and smash the foe. They have bided their time and endured more than tongue can tell in the meanwhile, but now that they have earned their fame in assaults, as well as defence, they will be even more valuable and formidable forces. Failure is an unknown word to them and will so remain.

It is typical of the men that the staff lacked word of the success of their movement, until they had swept past their objective and dug themselves in on advanced ground; they put deeds first and reports last. No finer assurance of their morale could be given than the statement of one of them that they were so busy digging themselves in they had not time to send news. "They thought it would be taken for granted that they had got there."

ENCOURAGING BY LIES.

EITHER THE German espionage system has become useless or there is an attempt being made to instill courage into the hearts of the fighting Hun forces by telling them Britain is growing weaker. Only so could these reports be spread that there was hardly a fresh British division left to take up the struggle.

The British Isles are full of well-trained soldiers. Canada is sending across 50,000 before winter sets in and hundreds of thousands of those now in France have never been thrown into the front firing lines.

With 29 of the 35 divisions of Germans brought against the British withdrawn because of exhaustion, it is no wonder that the ones taking their places require some artificial stimulant. But lies cannot help for long. The shock will be all the greater when the truth is realized—that Britain can bring up more fresh divisions now than Germany has for her whole battle front.

INCREASE OF MOTOR CARS.

DURING fair week it was no uncommon thing to see one thousand motor cars parked in and around Queen's Park, not to mention the hundreds accommodated in other parts of the city. The increase in numbers of these vehicles was one of the striking features of the fair, and one which has given rise to no small amount of thought.

For years, one of the heaviest arguments against local option or prohibition has been that when liquor licenses were cut off hotels would go out of business and the stabling room for horses, already taxed to capacity on busy days, would be reduced and become far from sufficient. The advent of motor cars in such great numbers has rendered this argument useless. There are no statistics to show what proportion of farmers came to London last week in horse-drawn vehicles, but it is quite safe to say that half came in motor cars or trains. The need of stabling is growing less and less every year.

The number of these gasoline-driven machines also has a direct bearing on the advisability of building radial lines promiscuously. Not long ago it seemed most desirable that wherever the amount of business warranted lines, these should be constructed, not only for the benefit of the people living along the route but for the sake of the city into which the cars would bring business. It was then fairly easy to estimate the probable traffic on such lines by the numbers of farms and people who came within touch of the proposed railways, as nearly all could be counted on to utilize the quick transport offered them.

But today a very careful count would have to be made of the automobiles along the route and of the people who were likely to purchase machines in the near future, for owners of cars would give but little business to radial lines. At best the latter would only be available at certain fixed times in the day, while the motor car which stands in its garage is ready at any moment to whirl its owner into the city and back again.

The motor car reached the farmer before the radial lines, and will be difficult to displace in his affections. Of course there will always be some in every community who have not cars, but whether there will be enough of them to assure success to rural radial lines is a question which will have to be satisfactorily answered before the public gives its support to great undertakings.

A QUEEN IN SERVICE.

THERE IS a touching story told by a journalist, Jean de Bonnefon, of the finding of ex-Queen Nathalia of Serbia working as a maid in a hospital, after disappearing from her palace at Biarritz. He says the former haughty queen is performing most menial and tiring duties and requests the location of her retreat be kept secret, as she intends to continue her labors until the war ends.

As to the truth of the story, there may be two opinions, but it is not at all improbable. A strong, healthy woman, with deep love of country, she may easily have decided that by humility and hard work she could better overcome her sorrows and losses and aid her people than by seeking refuge in another land and living on the generosity of friends.

With home and position temporarily gone, and little that she could do in exile to alleviate the sufferings of her fellow-Serbians, service in a hospital where she could at least make living or dying more comfortable for the soldiers who came may have seemed her best opportunity. If her strength is sufficient, she will not suffer by the change, and when the war is over her prestige will have increased rather than diminished. Members of Britain's royal family have been acting as waitresses at refreshment stalls for soldiers in London and have endeared themselves to the nation by such acts.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Up, Guards, and at 'em." Is still a command to be dreaded by the foe.

To call a man a "tank" may take on a new significance since last week's British offensive.

With beef $4 a pound in Vienna, it is easy to understand there are many meatless days.

The Bulgars have been playing a bold and dangerous game, but King Ferdinand has been keeping far from the danger zone.

It is strange that in spite of so many men injured by bulls attacking them every year, farmers still neglect to use a leading pole instead of a rope.

With the extremely heavy loss in British officers, it does seem positions might be found for all those commissioned Canadians who have failed to get appointments.

British Columbia soldiers overseas are said to have voted in favor of prohibition. That will be a sad blow to those who counted on soldiers' help in reopening Ontario bars.

That Mexican peace conference threatens to share the fate of Ford's memorable effort in Europe. The delegates nearly clash over methods of procedure.

Possibly if the wages of Belgian miners, with the prices they have to pay for necessities, were shown to the workmen who are demanding higher pay in Britain, the latter would withdraw their demands.

Major-General Lessard, C.B., is reported to have announced that he hopes to retire to his farm this fall. Without the opportunity for which he is so thoroughly qualified, to lead Canadian forces, he probably considers farming more useful than staying at home soldiering.

LIVING IN THE PAST.

(Ladies' Home Journal.)

It is a sure sign of old age creeping on, say some folks, when the mind instinctively turns back and lives in the past. But is it? If that past is pleasant to dwell upon, is it the part of the mind to forget it? Is it not, after all, a pretty sure sign of a life well lived when in later years one likes to go back into the years past, to let the mind dwell on what has gone before, and when one finds that the friends of early years are still the friends of later life? All life is not lived in the present and future, as the young believe. It is natural that youth has this notion, since no background can exist except through experience. It is as we live in the present and future that later gives us a background to look back upon, and it is something deep and fine and vital that turns the mind back upon the retrospect of a life well spent.

EXPERIENCED BOYS.

The teacher was trying to make his pupils understand that all good comes from one source.

As an illustration he told them of building a house and putting water-pipes with taps in all the rooms, these pipes not being connected with the main in the street.

"Suppose I turn on a tap and no water comes, what is the matter?"

He naturally supposed that some of the boys would answer that the water was not turned on at the main; but they didn't. On the contrary, one boy at the foot of the class called out:

"You didn't pay your water rate!"

The Man and the Miracle

BY ALLISON BURR.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate).

"Nell, I've invited Wilbur Kirk and his mother for the week-end." Mrs. Ames gave her niece a sidewise glance.

"Yes, Aunt Lucy," answered Nell, without enthusiasm.

"We'll be going back to town week after next, and I wanted to have them so you could meet Mrs. Kirk informally here."

"Dear Aunt Lucy, I wish I could make you see how impossible it is for me to like Wilbur Kirk in the way you want me to like him."

"And I wish I could make you see that he is far superior to any young man who has paid you marked attention since you came out last fall."

"But, Aunt, even if I saw all the superiority that you seem to see in him, it would make no difference. It will be something more human than such superiority that will win my heart."

"I suppose you've got some romantic notions about 'cavemen' or some such nonsense."

"Not at all, auntie. I like men who are modern and well groomed, but who make no special parade either of their mental, moral or physical superiority, and that lets out Wilbur and the cavemen, too." Nell's brown eyes brightened mischievously. "And some day I'll present you a nice nephew built along those lines. So don't you worry."

Mrs. Ames shook her well-waved and tightly-netted grey head as Nell, daintily pretty in a white gown and a floppy, rose-wreathed hat, started down a boardwalk toward the postoffice with a handful of letters to mail.

As Nell came out of the little frame postoffice she caught the tinkling sound of Hawaiian stringed instruments playing a lilting melody that was soothing to her restless mood. Following the sound, she went down the boardwalk and found that the musicians were stationed in the centre of a large refreshment pavilion which she often patronized.

So many other people had been attracted by the music that nearly all the tables in the place were filled, but the bustling manager found Nell a small table over near a corner of the pavilion where she had a glimpse of the water front. With the menu card in her hand she sat for a moment dreamily listening to the music and watching the frothy little white caps follow one after another to the water's edge. She was thinking that somewhere there was just such a man as she had pictured to her aunt, and she was wondering when and where she should meet that man. She had quite forgotten about ordering anything until she became conscious that a man had paused expectantly beside her table.

Without looking up she gave a careless glance at the menu card, and asked: "Do you still serve that delicious peach miracle?"

"I beg your pardon," said a man's full-toned voice, and, looking up, she saw, not a waiter as she had expected, but a much-tanned young gentleman in a blue serge suit that covered a well-proportioned figure six feet in height. It was Nell's turn to beg pardon now, and she did it in a state of very pretty embarrassment.

"This seems to be the only seat left," said the young man, indicating the vacant chair at Nell's small table. "Have you any objection to my occupying it?"

"Not at all," said Nell, and she began studiously to scan the menu card.

The hurrying waiters passed easily back and forth among the crowded tables, but one of them with a tray of ices held flat in his upturned hand, looked over his shoulder to catch an order called out by an impatient patron just as he rounded a corner, and the next instant his tray struck the shoulders of the waiter who was leaning forward to take Nell's order. A ball of well-frozen pink ice cream tumbled from the tray and went rolling across the table straight for Nell's lap. When it was on the very edge of the table and Nell and the waiters were watching it in wide-eyed helplessness the sunburned hand of the tall young man opposite shot across the table and grabbed it so firmly that it became a flattened mass of pink mushiness. While the penitent waiters replaced the cloth and provided a fingerbowl Nell and the young man laid aside reserve and laughed lightly about the awkward incident.

"A moment ago I asked you whether you served peach miracle," said Nell, "but you've made it very evident now that you can even stop a miracle already in progress."

"Is that pink stuff 'peach miracle?'" he asked.

"Yes. Did it look the part?"

"I can't say; it's my first experience with miracles, and I had no idea I could get on with them so well." He was saying to himself that Nell herself was a member of the miracle tribe, and his eyes gave out so much of his thoughts that Nell was glad the waiter reappeared then to finish taking her interrupted order.

She decided afterward that silence would be more embarrassing than conversation, so, as they ate their ices, they chatted and enjoyed the music together.

"That music certainly strikes my ear pleasantly," said the young man, "for I've been four months in a mining camp where a metallic graphophone grinding out ragtime was the only thing that even pretended to be music."

Immediately Nell attributed the sunburn to the outdoor life of a mining engineer and drew a pleasing mental picture of the young man opposite in corduroy and puttees. And, as other women have done, she had jumped to the right conclusion.

"Of course one would miss much in such a life," she said, "yet it must be heavenly to miss many of the complications of a more formal life—I mean the things that are little."

"You're right about that!" His eyes flashed responsively. "My aunt, who kindly assumed charge of me when my parents died, was disappointed that I didn't take to one of the learned professions. Maybe it's my tendency to be little that makes me want to dodge the little bickerings and irritating details of a complex life, but I've found out this, if a fellow can't grow big in an outdoor life he hasn't the capacity for bigness."

Nell was sure now that she had met the man of her dreams and she could have wept because her ice cream was all gone and she had no further excuse for remaining, as the musicians were silent for the moment.

"You shouldn't even think the word 'maybe' when speaking of a man who surmounts miracles." She smiled as she said this and the man smiled back, but back of both smiles was a yearning look that told of regret that the time for parting had come. When they rose from the table Nell extended her hand to the young man as a gentle way of saying that their acquaintance was at an end.

"I shall not forget your coming to my rescue," she said sweetly.

"And I shall not forget you," he said. Her eyes fell before the wistfulness in his and she withdrew her hand and left the place without either of them speaking another word.

When she reached her aunt's cottage Mrs. Ames was enthusiastic over a telephone call just received from Wilbur Kirk saying that he and his mother would motor out that evening instead of waiting until Saturday morning. Nell couldn't even manage a polite interest in Wilbur Kirk now, and throughout the dinner hour and the two hours that followed, when they sat on the front porch awaiting their guests, she was so silent that Mrs. Ames finally gave up trying to carry on a conversation with her.

Nell, looking at the moonlight on the water, was dreamily going over in her mind every glance of the eyes and every tone of the voice that had come to her that afternoon from the young man who seemed the embodiment of her ideal.

"There they are!" exclaimed Mrs. Ames delightedly, as a car drew up at the curb.

"I'm afraid we're dreadfully late," said Mrs. Kirk, when they were all inside the drawing-room, "but we stopped at the hotel for a little visit with my nephew, Jack Ainslee, who is just in from South America. Jack insisted upon being a mining engineer instead of a minister or lawyer, as I wanted him to be, and when I see his fine physique and his tremendous manliness I'm glad he had his way about it. By the way, Mrs. Ames, I've asked him to call tomorrow."

"So glad you did," said Mrs. Ames effusively, and Wilbur wondered why Nell turned suddenly to the window just then and gazed outside. He would have wondered even more if he had heard her ecstatically murmuring something about "another miracle."

BREWER ASKED TO BE BURIED IN GERMANY

Lothar Reinhardt of Toronto Leaves Estate of $223,773.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Sept. 19.—The will of Lothar Reinhardt, the Toronto brewer, has been entered for probate at $223,773, much of it in Reinhardt brewery and hotel interests. The widow and four children are beneficiaries. One clause in the will directs that he be buried in Germany beside his mother, a provision which is not likely to be carried out at present.

If He Died---
The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some such statement made about a particular business?

It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls, for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died, creditors would become anxious, inquisitive or even troublesome. Many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business.

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm.

It is possible to so insure "his" life that the storm can easily be weathered and the business successfully carried on without him.

The matter is very clearly dealt with in a book we have published, entitled "Personality in Business." It would be well worth your while to send for a copy and read it. You may have one for the asking.

The glass door saves half the time on bake days

LOOK through the door instead of opening it. The baking is always in sight. Glance at the range as you attend to other work. Now you can feel that you are less tied down to your baking. The clear glass oven-door makes the Pandora of even greater help than it was before.

Somebody has surely told you what a fine range the Pandora is. Among the thousands of friends it has made there must be one who has told you about the sensible ideas for saving time, the fine bakings they get with a small amount of fuel, the way the range withstands the wear and tear that wrecks ordinary ranges.

You already have a good enough opinion of it to investigate it fully, haven't you?

McClary's Pandora Range

The new booklet just off the press, "The Magic of the Pandora," tells everything in an interesting way. You will agree after reading it that no one should make such an important purchase as a range without knowing what is told in this booklet about the Pandora. Send the coupon to the factory for the copy reserved for you. Before you forget, and certainly before you buy a range, get your copy of "The Magic of the Pandora." Tear out the coupon.

Daily Bible Question Club

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.
(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

Review—"The Things Which Are Not Seen." Reading lesson, II. Cor., iv., 1—v., 4.

Golden Text—We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. II. Cor., iv., 18.

The questions for this week may be used as an original lesson, or as a review of the twelve preceding weekly lessons. The date and title of each lesson, where found, Golden Text and one question from each lesson follow:

July 30—The Word of the Cross. I. Cor., 1; 1; ii., 5. Golden Text: "Far be it from me to glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." Gal., vi., 14.

5. Verses 1-8—If a true Christian is a laborer, or a lawyer, a minister or a miner, or of any other calling, or occupation, can he truthfully say, or not, and why, that he is in his present position by "the will of God"?

August 6—The Greatest Thing in the World. I. Cor., xiii. (Temperance lesson). Golden Text: "Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. I. Cor., xiii., 13.

6. Verse 1—Why is an eloquent man without love, like a brass band with cymbal accompaniments?

London Advertiser COOK-BOOK

Recipes Supplied By Cynthia Grey's Readers.

Ex-School Marm.

Hamilton Sauce—30 ripe tomatoes, 12 large apples, 4 large onions, 2 red peppers or (3 green), 1½ cups sugar, 4 tablespoons salt, 1 pint vinegar. Chop onions, apples and peppers fine. Boil all one hour or until thick enough, and seal.

Smothered Chicken — Cut young chicken up same as to stew. Dry it thoroughly and roll each piece in flour (put on all it will hold nicely), place in a covered baker, sprinkle pepper and salt over it. Pour over it one or two cups of sweet cream; if not, sweet milk and a piece of butter. Bake 1 or 1½ hours.

Jam Layer Cake.—2 eggs, 1 cup brown sugar, shortening size of an egg, 2 tablespoons of sour cream (or milk), in a cup filled up with jam, jelly, or any kind of fruit; 1 teaspoon soda, 2 level cups flour, seasoning to taste.

"Working Housekeeper."—An elderberry wine recipe is being published for you in the C. B. column.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Needs the Recipe.

Dear Miss Grey,—Just a few lines again, as I am in need of a recipe for corn relish, and thought perhaps you could supply me with one. I always make some each year, but as I lent my recipe, I can't make it. I also have about thirty of Taylor's soap diamonds and five Sweetheart coupons, which I am inclosing for "T. S." I hope she gets her cabinet. In return for them, Miss Grey, could you send me a few flags of the soldiers or butterflies, please?

1. What causes a person's pupils (in the eyes) to get larger at night than in the day?

2. Would a black velvet hat with a pink ostrich feather look well with a navy blue suit? Yours as before,

GIRL OF ALL TRADES.

Ans.—This recipe may be what you wish: Eighteen ears corn, 1 cabbage, 4 large onions, 2 red peppers, 2 cups yellow sugar, 3 pints vinegar, ¾ cup mustard, ½ cup salt, tablespoon turmeric; shred the cabbage, chop onions, shave corn from cob, mix all together, add other ingredients, mustard last of all, wet to a paste in cold vinegar, cook half an hour.

1. I do not know.
2. Would look very nice, I think.

Some flags are laid aside for you. Send envelope for 'em.

She May Have It.

Dear Miss Grey,—I would so much like to get the pattern of the crocheted basket sent in by "Lazy Daisy." I would return it to you as soon as I copied it.

I once saw in your page where someone asked for a recipe for creamed salmon, and as it was so different—the one sent—from mine, and as I t'nk mine very good, I thought I would send it in. MODERN PRISCILLA.

Ans.—Send address and it is yours.

The little basket is a very pretty design. Recipes appear elsewhere, under your pen name.

Couldn't Keep Quiet.

Dear Miss Grey,—Have just finished reading your page, and could no longer keep silent after reading "Mademoiselle Inquiette's" letter. I am a farmer's daughter and proud of it. I am sure the farmers around these parts are doing their "bit" all right. She says the farmers are doing their bit if they supply the grain. A great many farmers' sons have gone to the war from around here, in fact all have gone who were free to go, and a great many have gone who were needed at home. A lot of farmers are left without hired men also and the girls have to turn in and help. The farmers' wives and daughters mostly belong to the Daughters of the Empire or some club. They pay their fees at every meeting and hold dances, socials, etc., and have sales of home-made baking on the market, all in aid of Red Cross and patriotic funds. They also knit socks and do all kinds of sewing for soldiers. Now, if the farmers aren't doing their bit, I don't know who are. Of course, I know there are some who don't help much, but you will find them in all classes, not farmers alone. SPITFIRE.

Let It Drop.

Dear Miss Grey,—As regards the question of soldiers' wives and farmers' wives, I think it best that everyone should let the question drop; it's quite true some soldiers' wives waste their money on sporty hats, suits, etc., but I guess many farmers' wives and daughters and other civilians do that, too. But this is not the time to quarrel, but for everyone to pull hard together, each in their own way for victory. I am the wife of a returned soldier, invalided home through his wounds, and I tell you, Miss Grey, I never found the soldiers' money too much to keep my three little ones and myself in more than comfort. As my man always earned good money, and we have been fairly comfortable ever since we have been married. All the money in the world will never give you the comfort and love of a good husband and father, as I know by my own experience. Well now, I will try and be a little use to the Mail-Box and offer a couple of recipes:

Cough Mixture — Two cents' worth each of peppermint, opium, paregoric, aniseed and antimony wine, 1 cup of blackstrap, 1 cup of boiling water; mix blackstrap and boiling water, leave till cool, and then add other ingredients.

Embrocation—Twenty cents' worth of turpentine, 5c of spirits of camphor, 5c of hartshorn, a little vinegar and whites of two eggs, mix or shake well.

I have found these cheap, good, and very useful to use for the children.

RETURNED SOLDIER'S WIFE.

Ans.—Glad to have you add your message, and also to print the remedies for the good of others. How thankful you must be to have the "Soldier" home once more; best of wishes to yourself and the wee-est one.

Who Has It?

Dear Miss Grey,—I noticed where a reader asked for the words of "The Face Upon the Barroom Floor." I have inclosed a copy of the same, and in return would ask if any reader has the words of "Britain Stand True"?

PERTH.

Ans.—I cannot recollect who asked for this, so shall be obliged if the inquirer will send for the copy. And can anybody supply "Britain Stand True"?

Says "Girls Be True."

Dear Miss Grey,—I think the soldiers' wives and the farmers' wives argument has been pretty well threshed out, and have come to the conclusion there are good and indifferent, in every class of people. Cream always comes up to the top anyhow. There is so much good in the worst of us, so much bad in the best of us, that it behooves none of us to talk about the rest of us.

There are so many that do not seem to realize the seriousness of this war. I have heard people say, "Oh, we'd just as soon have German rule." After giving your dearest and best, those remarks hurt. Others have said, "Oh, I don't care if England does get licked; they are too smart; they come out here taking the very bread out of our mouths." Still, nothing is said about foreigners immigrating here, Germans, for instance—they can live in peace, not ridiculed and called greenhorns.

There are some people that hate to admit, and don't seem to realize Canada belongs to England, and the British people have a perfect right to live here. It isn't fair either to judge the English people from a few that immigrate here; they can't send all cream.

Well, Miss Grey, my heart aches for every mother who has given a son. I know how hard it is to give up husband, especially so when there are little ones. I would like to beseech every girl who has a sweetheart at the front to be true to him; don't flirt and give the stay-at-home a good time. The war will be over sooner or later, and how much sweeter and happier the meeting will be if we are all what we should be while they are away. Here's good luck to the Mail-Box.

A SOLDIER'S LANCASHIRE LASSIE.

Ans.—You are a good, brave young woman, and I know there is one man in khaki who need not fear his "Lassie" leaving him for a member of the "arm-chair" brigade!

"Old Maid" to "Matilda."

Dear Miss Grey,—I can't understand why "Matilda" had such poor success with the marshmallow candy. I use Knox's gelatine, but I am afraid she did not beat it enough. The vanilla doesn't make any difference; just put in enough to taste. I will repeat it again: ½ oz. gelatine, 2 cups granulated sugar, a little salt, any flavoring. Soak gelatine in 10 tablespoons of water, heat sugar with 10 tablespoons of water till dissolved; add gelatine to syrup, let stand till partially cold; add salt and flavoring; beat with a flat wire beater until very stiff, when it almost stands, then take a large spoon and beat until you send it back soft enough to settle in a sheet; dust your granite pan thickly with powdered sugar, pour in the candy about half an inch deep, set in cool place to chill, cut in cubes and roll in powdered sugar. This is just the way I did it, and mine turned out fine, but "Matilda" must beat hard until she gets it stiff, say about twenty minutes. If she lived in my town, I might get at her and show her how to make it. Did she try the turkish delight? I hope she has better success next time. With kind regards, Miss Grey. Yours truly, OLD MAID.

Ans.—It's good of you to send these definite instructions for "Matilda," and I, too, hope her second attempt meets with success.

An Irish Reading.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box.—I am very desirous of obtaining a reading. I have heard this reading several times, but have been unsuccessful in obtaining it. I thought some of your readers might be able to tell me the proper name of the poem and where to obtain it. It is about an Irish emigrant, and he sees Ireland in the distance like a bride adorned for the bridegroom's coming, and he says, "Oh, Erin, I wish you the top of the morning." These words occur two or three times in the poem. The Irishman is returning to his native land, and as the ship is nearing land, he looks out and sees Ireland, and he says, "Oh, Erin, I wish you the top of the morning." Also, I should be pleased to get "The Runaway Grandmother," a poem that makes a good reading. We are preparing for a Red Cross concert and wish these pieces for our program. PAT.

Ans.—Shall be very glad indeed to forward either reading to "Pat" if they are sent in.

Does Not Approve.

Dear Miss Grey,—Really, I think it is shameful the way some people think [illegible] wives should act, but I think the best is none too good for them, as they give up their loved ones for their country. I do not believe in war myself because I do not see any sense in men dying just over a dispute. Surely God did not intend wars to be settled like this. I am not a soldier's wife, as I suppose you will think, in fact I am a maiden lady, but I like to give my opinion once in a while. Now for a question or two.

1. Could you tell me what heading muskmelons and watermelons would go under, either vegetables or fruit?

2. Could any of the Cynthians give me the piece, "Don't Turn Me From Your Door, Father," and I would give in return nine satin flags of the different countries. I will sign.

A SPINSTER.

Ans.—1. They are classed as fruit, I believe.

2. Referred.

Oh, That Dare!

In reply to "Kalagen" as to the dare. There are a good many good battalions raised in Canada, and would say NO MEN made a better impression in London than the 70th; after they left the city was dead for a week, for the others, including the 142nd, got cold feet. HAGAR.

NOTES.

"Boo" — Sends twelve Crackerjack coupons amongst others. Who wishes them? I'm sending you some soap coupons that you wished, "Boo." Several readers correspond from your "burg." The flower for October is that of the hop vine.

"Contrary Mary"—(1) Would advise a wool poplin, or some similar wool material, rather than the silk. (2) To be a bookkeeper does not altogether depend on the education. Years of tuition could not make good bookkeepers of some folks. As a rule it is well to have one or two years at high school, or, at the very least, an entrance certificate. (3) The song, "My Little Girl" may be procured at a music shop. (4) See pattern department for dress styles.

"Muggins"—According to The Advertiser's list, Galt fair will be held October 5 and 6. For the mealy bugs on your plants, pick the little webs off with a toothpick, and spray with kerosene and soap emulsion. Be sure not to have this too strong. No, "Muggins," I did not get to Toronto Fair either, but there's many a thing worse than work after all, isn't there?

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

No. 1629—A Popular "Twenty-Minute" Apron.

Just the thing to make "in a hurry," and to find convenient and comfortable ever after. This style is nice for ginghams, seersucker, alpaca, sateen, lawn, linen, drill and percale. The body portion has ample fullness, and the strap extensions secure the back over the fronts. In warm weather, this style will be much appreciated, for it does away with any superfluity of material, and at the same time secures ample protection for the dress beneath, and is comfortable.

The pattern is cut in three sizes, small, medium and large. It requires 5½ yards of 27-inch material for a medium size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—Poor pitching gave Washington a 9 to 6 victory over Cleveland today. Bagby was wild at first, while ragged work by Morton and Beebe added six runs to the visitors' score.

Score—										R.	H.	E.

Bagby, Morton, Gould, Beebe and De Berry, O'Neill; Gallia and Williams.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—A corps of pinch-hitters, mustered into the game in the ninth inning by Manager Rowland, enabled Chicago to defeat Philadelphia 5 to 4 in the first game of the series and keep pace with the leaders. Today's victory leaves Chicago still one and a half games behind the world's champions and half a game behind the Tigers, because Boston beat the Tigers. Weaver's fielding was a feature.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.—A wild throw by Austin in the fifteenth allowed Magee to score from second with the run that gave New York a 4 to 3 victory over St. Louis here today. It was the visitors' first victory here this season. In the fifteenth, after two were out, Magee doubled and Hendrix hit to Austin, whose low throw to first let Magee score.

LEADERS GAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Brooklyn gained a full game on its nearest rival today by defeating Cincinnati, while Chicago whipped the champions, but Boston, in third place, maintained the leader's pace in the National League race. Philadelphia is now two games behind Brooklyn and Boston two and a half.

In the American League Boston increased its lead over Detroit to a full game, as well as in percentage, by its victory today. Detroit hung on to second place, but its margin over Chicago is only half a game.

Big League Clubs Cancel Many More Players Drafted

Waive Selections From Teams in Different Minor Leagues.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—More cancellations of the drafts made here by major league clubs on last Friday reached Secretary John E. Bruce of the National Commission today.

The Chicago Americans canceled on Montreal, the player from which team they had not named, and the Royals revert to Washington for selection. The Chicago Americans also canceled on Richmond (player originally not named). By Washington's cancellation of second choice on Kansas City, Philadelphia Americans have the opportunity of selecting a man from this team.

After Washington had canceled first choice on St. Paul yesterday, Chicago Nationals, second choice, named Cruise of that team, but today they changed their mind and canceled on Cruise, the selection from St. Paul falling to Brooklyn, third choice.

IS "KID" GLEASON REAL MANAGER OF WHITE SOX

The tip is out that Kid Gleason has signed a contract to manage the White Sox next year; that he is practically managing the team right now, and that Comiskey gives him credit for the improvement shown by the club in the past few weeks. The White Sox players have always been strong for Gleason; they were deeply grieved when he was let out some months ago, and now they are highly jubilant over his return. If the White Sox come through with the pennant, however, Comiskey will be placed in an embarrassing position. Rowland is the present manager—nominally at least—and most of the fans will look on him as the skillful pilot who steered the winning ship. How can the Old Roman release a pennant-winner?

HERZOG HAD RIGHT DOPE ON FLAG RACE

"If the Giants do not win the pennant they will have a say where it will go," said Charlie Herzog in Cincinnati several weeks ago. What he said was based on the fact that the Giants still had a long series with each of the other three eastern teams. Then the Giants went to Boston and broke even. They did the same at Brooklyn, and then came the fireworks. McGraw's pets have just defeated the Phillies four straight, which has been a life-saver for Brooklyn.

JABS AT ALL 'ROUND Sports.

Howard Ehmke, the former Syracuse star, will twirl today's game for the Tigers. If he shows as good as he did against Cleveland and Philadelphia, Detroit fans will be satisfied.

To get back into first place, the Tigers must win the two remaining games of the series with Boston. In other Detroit-Boston series, the team that won the first game lost the other two, so the Tigers are hoping history will repeat.

Dick Kerr, the midget left-hander of the Memphis pitching staff and the smallest pitcher who has performed in the Southern League in several years, has been sold to the St. Louis Americans.

Frank Schulte always wished, if he ever had to leave the Cubs, to come to Cincinnati, but the wheel of baseball fortune shuttled him to Pittsburg. Still, he isn't so badly off. He can pal with Schmidt, Hinchman, Wagner, Fischer, Kantlehner and Carey, whose real name is Canarius.

The Athletics are playing good ball with a lot of new recruits in the lineup. It was necessary for the White Sox to score three runs in the ninth inning to win Tuesday's game from the Mackmen. Eddie Collins scored the winning runs with a double when the bases were full.

The Detroit Driving Club has decided not to put on an October meeting on the half-mile track in connection with the shortship circuit. It is likely the meeting will be held at Monroe, Mich., during the week of October 9.

Since Zach Wheat broke his long spell of consecutive hitting, he has been doing great work with the bat. He will likely be leading the National League at the end of this week if he keeps up his present gait. Hal Chase has slumped a little.

E. J. Livingstone, manager of the Toronto N. H. A. Club, comes out with the statement that there will be hockey in the N. H. A. this coming winter, despite the withdrawal of the Ottawa Club. He states both the Montreal clubs are willing to stay in the game.

New York Sun: It is not generally known that George Goulding, the world's greatest and fairest walker, received two cautions from one of the three judges who were on the job at the national championships. The cautions, I understand, were put on by Billy Purdy, who was the only person out of the 30,000 present who thought Goulding was going unfair at any part of the three-mile journey.

If George Goulding's heel-and-toe work is unfair, then it is about time for the A. A. U. to toss the game of walking from the list of events.

Goulding has the indorsement of being one of the fairest walkers we have ever had by such experts as Sam Austin, Frank P. Murray and Al. Copland. The judges at the last Olympic games pronounced Goulding's style faultless. The English experts also admitted after Goulding defeated their best entry at Stockholm that the Canadian's style was absolutely perfect.

The great Les Darcy is not immune from the ills that afflict the pugilistic profession, judging from the appended paragraph from the Sydney, Australia, Referee:

"What's the matter with Darcy?" one is frequently asked, and one has to stop and explain. Darcy had lately been about town in his motor car much more often than was previously his habit. The fact in itself might have excited curiosity. But there is a stronger reason for the question. The Australia middle and heavyweight champion's head is swathed in bandages, with a bulge on the left side as big as a fist. Motor car accident is suggested to the uninformed mind. But the explanation is that our greatest boxer developed a cauliflower ear, and he did not like it. The surgeon operated, and the wound is now healing."

There is a suspicion that K. O. George Brown landed the blow that puffed up Darcy's left ear. In any event the ear was in good condition again when Darcy met Clabby a few days ago.

The Cleveland club, has, at last, decided upon a move that should have been made a few weeks ago. That is to send Pitcher Stan Coveleskie home for the remainder of the year. As the result of overwork in June and sickness in July, Cove has been of little use for the last two months, and it has been unwise to keep using him when it would be far better to have him resting up for next year.

MABEL TRASK WINS $10,000 STAKE IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Finishes in Front in All Heats Without an Effort.

VOLGA WINS FUTURITY

Fred Russell and Ridgemark Are Winners of Other Events.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Mabel Trask, second to Peter Scott last year in the Hoster-Columbus stake for trotters, this afternoon won the $10,000 event, the richest feature of the Columbus Grand Circuit meeting, and did so without effort, though each of the last two heats was stepped in 2:05½. The Cox mare was a 10 to 4 choice over the field, Donna Clay being the hope of those who wagered against Mabel Trask.

Volga won the Horse Review Futurity for 3-year-old trotters.

Humfast, Brescia and Sister Ella were most in favor for the 2:15 trot, but the winner turned up in Ridgemark.

JOHNSTON RESTRAINED FROM STEALING BASES

Jimmy Johnston, Brooklyn's centre fielder, stole over 100 bases in the Coast League, and hasn't even swiped twenty in the National circuit. He hasn't slowed up; is hitting well and getting to first almost as often as in the minors, and surely the big league catchers can't throw so much more accurately than the coast backstops as to account for the difference. Johnston must be restrained and held back by the methods of his club. Robinson's men don't steal many bases, preferring to wait for the batsman to send them 'round, and Johnston, with a club where free baserunning was permitted, would probably have stolen a heap of hassocks by this time.

FRANK BARRIEU BEATS DICK WELLS AT PUEBLO

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Fred Mitchell, formerly of the Toronto Leafs and for the last few seasons assistant to Manager Stallings of the Boston National League baseball team, today signed a contract with the club for three years.

WELL-CONTESTED HEATS AT SHORTSHIP MEETING

MARSHALL, Mich, Sept. 19. — Under favorable auspices the Michigan Shortship circuit opened here this afternoon in connection with the Calhoun County Fair. The three events on the card were well contested, two of the three events being split-heat affairs. The two-in-three system prevailed, and although the oval was in good condition, the time was only fair. Summaries:

Speaker Is 20 Points in Front of Detroit Star

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Last figures on the batting records of Cobb and Speaker show that only twenty points now separate the two. These figures give Speaker 193 hits in 502 times at bat, for an average of .384 to Cobb's 182 hits in 500 times at bat, for an average of .364.

EVERS' SUCCESSOR WILL BE EX-TORONTO LEAF

Unless the Braves can dig up a new second baseman somewhere during the winter, the path seems clear for little Fitzpatrick to hold down the sack next summer. John Evers seems to be definitely through, and Dick Egan has recently announced that this is also his final season. Richard has not only saved his money, but has invested it so judiciously in San Francisco property that he is wealthy. Dick, as a landlord, is said to be good-natured, willing to make repairs and put in gas ranges, and altogether popular with his tenants. A second baseman, though, seems at a disadvantage, compared with a pitcher when it comes to collecting rents. All a second baseman could do would be to threaten his tenants with legal proceedings, while a pitcher could terrify them with a bean ball.

DARKIE TODD CAPTURES 2:30 PACE IN STRATFORD

Takes Three Straight Heats—Winners Ran 1, 2, 3 Each Heat.

STRATFORD, Sept. 19.—The speeding events provided considerable interest at the fall fair this afternoon. The results were as follows:

BROOKLYN GAINS MORE GROUND ON PAT MORAN'S MEN

BRAVES TRIM CARDINALS

Giants Bring Winning Streak Up to 14 by Beating Pirates Twice.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19.—The Reds made hits off Pfeffer in every inning except the seventh today, but threw away their chances to score by reckless baserunning, Brooklyn making it three out of four in the series by winning 3 to 1. Meyers threw out four runners who tried to steal second. In the sixth Wheat drove the ball over the right field wall for a homer with one man on base, sewing up the game.

Batteries—Sculh, Moseley and Hahn; Pfeffer and Meyers.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Boston defeated St. Louis 6 to 3, in the final game of the series today by hard and timely hitting. Egan led the attack with two doubles and a triple in four times at bat, while Maranville made a home run with two men on bases. Fielding features were furnished by Maranville, Collins and J. Smith. The score:

St. Louis	0	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	3	8	0

Batteries—Watson, Lotz and Gonzales; Ragan and Blackburn.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Stolen bases and errors, mixed with hits, was the combination which gave the Cubs a victory here today 2 to 0. Vaughn held the Phillies to three scattered hits.

Score:	R.	H.	E.

Batteries—Vaughn and Wilson; Alexander and Killifer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—New York brought its winning streak to fourteen straight victories here today by winning a double-header from Pittsburg by scores of 9 to 2 and 5 to 1. New York had little trouble in hitting Pittsburg's young pitchers. Benton and Tesreau were effective. Scores:

New York	3	0	0	3	2	0	1	0	*	9	10	0

DEPUTIES CHEER PREMIER'S PLEA FOR THE ALLIES

Briand Defends British and Russians Against Critic.

LATTER IS HOWLED DOWN

Pleads That Country Is Taking Too Much of the Sacrifice.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—8:30 p.m.—A delicate question was raised in the Chamber of Deputies today by M. Roux-Costadau, who asked Premier Briand to see to it that there was not only unity of action on all fronts by the Allies, but also by proportionate effectives.

Protests were made from various parts of the chamber against any discussion of the subject of the proportionate number of troops engaged from the different Entente countries. M. Roux-Costadau, nevertheless, persisted, saying that France could not expect to give the blood of all her children, and that the Allies should make the necessary sacrifices.

Premier Briand, in reply, objected to the question and declared that it was unjust to throw doubt on the efforts of the Allies in such a sacred cause. England, he said, had never said "no" to any demand for aid. Italy had made the utmost efforts she possibly could, considering the difficulties of the mountainous theatre of the war in which she was operating. Russia had sent to France her soldiers from across the world.

Joint Action to Expand.

"Tomorrow," continued the premier, "you will see this joint action expanding still more."

Replying to another speaker, M. Bryzon, representing the Allier department in the old provinces of Bourbonnais, who attempted to calculate the economic value of the men who had fallen in the war, Premier Briand said: "M. Bryzon has suggested that it is possible for the president of the council to bring the war to an end. That is the idea he is trying to propagate and it is my duty to destroy this propaganda. Your country, Monsieur Byrzon, has a splendid past, which should make you love her. This country was seized by the throat after her assailant had passed over the bleeding body of Belgium. To this country, which has the honor to be the champion of right and which has poured out its blood in floods, you say: 'Stop the war! Negotiate peace.'"

Bryzon Howled Down.

At this point the members of the chamber rose, cheering M. Briand and howling down M. Bryzon.

Resuming, the premier said: "You little know France, Monsieur Bryzon, if you think she can sell her blood. What peace would you make for this country at this moment? If peace were made now, it would be a peace of war and a menace to future generations.

"The treacherous blow Germany tried to strike would be repeated. If you wish the joys of triumph, pray ardently for victory. Otherwise, there would be a peace humiliating and dishonorable and such as no Frenchman could desire."

The chamber, which was aroused to the utmost enthusiasm by the premier's eloquence, voted that the speech should be printed and displayed on all public buildings throughout France."

JAIL SENTENCE PASSED UPON GODERICH CITIZEN

Clarence Swartz Convicted of Second Offense Under C. T. A.—An Appeal.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GODERICH, Sept. 19. — Though sentenced to 20 days in jail, Clarence Swartz, former hotel proprietor here, is not in jail. The sentence was the first jail term imposed under the Canada temperance act. Magistrate Kelly heard the case and evoked a new clause or amendment to the Canada temperance act, passed last May, which he contends, calls for a jail sentence for a second offence.

M. K. Cameron, K. C., who defended Swartz, gave notice of an appeal. Eight days are allowed for this purpose, and Mr. Swartz gets the benefit of this interval. Before the act was amended first and second offences drew fines, and a third offence a jail term.

Government Calling Out Men to Protect Property Endangered.

CAIRO, via London, Sept. 20.—The waters of the Nile have reached a very high level, necessitating the enforcement of the decree of 1887, which empowers the government to call on any able-bodied man to assist in work for the protection of the threatened regions under penalty of imprisonment or fine.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE

REGINA, Sept. 19.—At 9 o'clock tonight the jury empaneled to hear the case brought by the crown against Gerhard Ens, a former member of the legislative assembly, of Rosthern, charged with accepting a bribe in connection with the "banish-the-bar bill" in 1913, returned to the court and informed Sir Frederick Haultain, presiding judge, that they could not arrive at a verdict. They were accordingly discharged, after having had the case in their hands for nearly five hours.

IF STOMACH HURTS DRINK HOT WATER

A Physician's Advice.

"If dyspeptics, sufferers from gas, wind or flatulence, stomach acidity or sourness, gastric catarrh, heartburn, etc., would take a teaspoonful of pure bisurated magnesia in half a glass of hot water immediately after eating, they would soon forget they were ever afflicted with stomach trouble, and doctors would have to look elsewhere for patients." In explanation of these words a well-known New York physician stated that most forms of stomach trouble are due to stomach acidity and fermentation of the food contents of the stomach, combined with an insufficient blood supply to the stomach. Hot water increases the blood supply, and bisurated magnesia instantly neutralizes the excessive stomach acid and stops food fermentation, the combination of, the two, therefore, being marvelously successful and decidedly preferable to the use of artificial digestants, stimulants or medicines for indigestion.—Advt.

Austrians May Evacuate Triest

ATHENS, Sept. 19.—Via London.—It is stated in most reliable diplomatic sources here that the Austrians are preparing for the evacuation of Triest.

Von Hindenburg Attempting a Gigantic Task in the East

With the removal of the German general staff from the west to the east front, under the new chief-of-staff, von Hindenburg, additional importance is attached to the operations extending from the Gulf of Riga to the Bosphorus.

On this long battle front the Germans are engaged in a series of struggles, any one of which may prove a decisive factor in the war. Besides attempting to hold the line in Russia almost to the Carpathians alone, they are seeking to help the Austrians and Turks in Galicia, Bukowina and Transylvania, are fighting alongside the Bulgarians in Macedonia and are engaged in an offensive in the province of Dobrudja in Rumania.

HEAVY RAINS AGAIN BLOCK OPERATIONS ON THE WEST FRONT

Chiefly Artillery Activity Along the Somme River.

Germans Try to Regain Ground East of Martinpuich But Are Repulsed.

LONDON, Sept. 19. — Heavy rains along the Somme front have made the last 24 hours devoid of special incident, as incidents are viewed in this war.

Both British official communications issued today say "the general situation is unchanged." Tonight's report says there was considerable artillery activity throughout the day south of the Somme, adding:

"A local attack on our trenches east of Martinpuich was easily repulsed."

"A hostile balloon was brought down by our artillery east of Ransart. In the neighborhood of Hill 60 an enemy ammunition store was exploded by our fire."

The British war office report issued this afternoon said:

"In the neighborhood of Richebourg L'Avoue (northwest of LaBassee), we entered the enemy's trenches at three places, taking many prisoners and a machine gun, and inflicting many casualties. Our casualties were very slight.

"Since last night's report five more of our aeroplanes have failed to return."

Artillery Activity.

Tonight's official communication issued at Paris says:

"There is nothing to report except considerable artillery activity on both banks of the Somme, and on the right bank of the Meuse, in the sector of Fleury-Vaux Chapitre."

Fail in Champagne.

Meanwhile the Germans have made a diversion in the Champagne district, where the French a year ago this month struck their heaviest blow in the autumn offensive of the Allies. Yesterday's reports from the Champagne of notable artillery activity were followed today by the announcement from Paris that the Germans last night made five successive attacks on Russian troops there, in the sector between Souain and Somme-by. The Russians checked each drive with artillery and machine gunfire.

COALITION GOVERNMENT IS URGED FOR GERMANY

Berlin Paper Says People Are Awaiting Reichstag Meeting With Apprehension.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Sept. 20. —A coalition government for Germany is urged by the Berlin Tageblatt in a long leader by Hans Sivkovich, a member of the Reichstag.

"Never since the beginning of the war," he writes, "has the German people awaited with such tension and apprehension the forthcoming meeting of the Reichstag. The period since the last meeting has brought us successes, but also many difficulties, military setbacks and new enemies.

"After two years of fighting, bloodshed and self-denial, the peace for which every heart longs is still at an immeasurable distance. The fighting lust of the enemy has been revived by Russian successes and the entry of Rumania. The whole people stand at the gate waiting and asking.

"The Reichstag leaders will have to listen to speeches stronger than ever on the events of the last few weeks. Therefore, it was wise to consider carefully whether the leaders of all our great parties should not be called together to form a coalition ministry."

215TH BRANT UNIT TO FILL BY DRAFT

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Sept. 19. — There is a persistent rumor around the city here to the effect that the 215th Brant Battalion will be augmented by a draft of two or three hundred men before it leaves Niagara-on-the-Lake to winter here. At present the batalion has about six hundred men, and a draft of the size rumored would bring the battalion close to strength.

RUMANIA FRONTIER SITUATION WORRIES LONDON OBSERVERS

Believed It May Be Necessary To Send Help To Allies.

BULGARIA A TEUTON TOOL

Used for Invasion, Although Not at War With Balkan Neighbor.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The situation of the Rumanian armies on both the fronts in Transylvania and Dobrudja is giving rise to some apprehension here, although the news of the latest events comes largely from enemy sources and therefore is taken with certain reserve.

"It seems possible," says the Times today, "that the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobrudja may soon be in need of help. The actual position of affairs in Transylvania is equally uncertain. Why did Rumania allow herself to leave her Dobrudja front inadequately protected? The fact is that Rumania had no wish to quarrel with Bulgaria. She did not declare war on Bulgaria and to this day Bulgaria has not officially declared war on Rumania.

"But the situation was apparently stamped by Field Marshal von Mackensen with the connivance of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and M. Radoslavoff, the Bulgarian premier. The Bulgarian chief of staff, General Jostoff, died mysteriously and is now believed to have been murdered. The Bulgarian staff was then superceded and the Bulgarian army become merely a wing of the German army, with Field Marshal von Mackensen in control.

"There are two manifest comments on the situation. The first is, if the Rumanians need direct and immediate help the Allies must spare no efforts to supply it, and the second is that the sooner General Sarrail, commander of the forces in Macedonia, is master of Monastir, the better—for nothing will so move the Bulgarians as their ejection from Macedonia."

NO DOMINION ELECTION UNTIL AFTER THE WAR

Hon. Robt. Rogers Says So—Subpoenaed by Commission.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—Hon. Robert Rogers came to Winnipeg with two important announcements today. He stated: "There will be no Dominion elections until after the war."

"I will ask the Galt commission to invite me to make explanation before it of my part in the Agricultural College building contracts in July."

The commission, however, was taking no chances and subpoenaed Mr. Rogers this afternoon.

ICE IN BLENHEIM; CROPS ARE INJURED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLENHEIM, Sept. 19. — The frost was quite severe here last night, especially north of what is known as "the ridge." Many fields of uncut tobacco, beans and corn were damaged. The loss will be heavy to many, but still some got off so far fairly well.

It was noticed in town and there was cinsoderable white frost to be seen at an early hour. The harvest of tobacco and beans had just begun, while only a few farmers have cut corn.

CAPT. NORSWORTHY GETS SECOND WOUND

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, Sept. 19.—A cablegram received today by J. C. Norsworthy informed him that his son, Capt. S. C. Norsworthy had been wounded in the recent severe fighting on the west front. The only particulars were that he had been wounded in both legs and that the wounds were not thought to be serious. Capt. Norsworthy was acting as senior major, second in command, of the 42nd Regiment. In June, Capt. Norsworthy was wounded in the face during the battle of Hooge-Zillebeke.

GERMANS ATTACK TO STOP RUSS ON EAST FRONT

Petrograd Report Says Foe Has Been Repulsed.

BRIDGE HEAD CAPTURED

Berlin and Vienna Claim Minor Success on the Stokhod River.

LONDON, Sept. 19. — The Germans have taken the offensive on the east front in an effort to check the Russian advance. Official statement issued today from both Berlin and Vienna report aggressive action on the Stokhod River, where a Russian bridgehead was stormed and over 2,500 Russians taken prisoner.

The German statement says:

Bridgehead Stormed.

"Army Group of Prince Leopold: German and Austro-Hungarian troops belonging to the command of Gen. von Bernhardi, under the leadership of Lieut.-Gen. Clausius, stormed the strongly-fortified Russian bridgehead north of Zarecze, on the Stokhod, and pursued the enemy to the eastern bank. Thirty-one officers, 2,511 men and seven machine guns fell into our hands.

"Near Perepelniki, between the Sereth and the Stripa, a German patrol, captured two officers and 80 men.

"Army Group of Archduke Charles Francis: A counter-attack on the Narayuvka (a tributary of the Gnila Lipa), in Galicia, brought us further sucess. The number of prisoners has been increased to more than 4,200.

"Lively fighting is taking place in the Carpathians, from Smotreo to the region of Kirlibaba. Several strong Russian attacks have been repulsed. The enemy gained small advantages in the Ludowa region."

Admits Russian Advance.

The Austrian statement, after admitting that the Russians penetrated their front southeast of Ludowa, says:

"Front of Prince Leopold of Bavaria: On the territory in front of Gen. von Boehm-Ermolli's army there have been successful patrol engagements. On the front of the army groups under Gen. Fath at the bridgehead of Zarecze, south of Stobychva the Austrian-Hungarians and Germans under Lieut.-Gen. Clausius traversed four lines lying one behind the other, and captured 31 Russian officers and 2,511 men and 17 machine guns."

The Russian attacks, with the assistance of the Rumanians, are continued in Bukowina. Vienna says all attacks on both sides of the Dorna Watra were repulsed. Berlin reports that the Allies suffered heavy losses.

Russian Report.

Stubborn fighting is in progress between Russian and Austria-German troops in the region of the River Narayovka, in Galicia, says the official statement issued today by the Russian war department. All the Teuton attacks, the statement adds, were repulsed with heavy losses.

The text of the Russian official statement says:

"In the direction of Vladimar-Volynski the enemy launched an attack against one of our advanced platoons, but was repulsed by our machine-gun fire. Ten riflemen of our platoon who escaped injury counter-attacked under command of the sergeant-major, killed some Germans, took one prisoner and put the others to flight. The sergeant-major was seriously wounded.

"In the region to the west of Brody our volunteers and patrols surprised in the night an enemy advanced post without firing a shot, and in a bayonet engagement killed 20 men and took prisoner one officer and twelve men.

"In the region of the River Narayuvka stubborn battles are continuing. Here in Sunday's battle the gallant regimental commander, Col. Gubin and Lieut.-Col. Semicheff were killed."

"In the Carpathians in the region of Shibani and the Pneva Mountain we carried several heights. The mountains are wrapped in white, for snow is falling.

"Caucasian front: Our advance guard as the result of an engagement with Turks occupied a wood near the bridge over the Faipanchai, in the vicinity of Karidjan, which is situated north of Hamadan."

RUMANIANS RETIRE IN TRANSYLVANIA.

VIENNA, via London, Sept. 19.—The war office communication issued today says:

"Eastern theatre—Rumanian front: Southeast of Hatszeg the Rumanians have been driven back in the direction of Petroseny by way of Merisor. We are in close contact with the enemy in the Gergeny and Kelemen Hills."

BUCHAREST, Sept. 19.—Via London, Sept. 20.—The Rumanian War Office communication issued today says:

"On the north and northwest fronts there were skirmishes of slight importance along the whole front, except in the valley of the Streeul River, where the enemy attacked violently with superior forces, in the face of which we fell back slightly."

SARNIA MAN LAYS CHARGE AGAINST YPSILANTI MAN

[Special to The Advertiser.]

YPSILANTI, Mich., Sept. 19.—On complaint made by Howard Barber of Sarnia, who charged that a statutory offence had been committed, Edward Murray was this afternoon bound over to circuit court for trial.

Barber was brought here from Sarnia on a bench warrant to make an affidavit to the charge. Both are young men.

Sixty-Two Altogether Placed on Trial by Germans.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Sept. 19 —According to a press dispatch from Maastricht today, 62 persons have been on trial at Hasselt, Belgium, on charges of espionage, of whom 22 were condemned to death on Friday last.

It is rumored, the advices state, that these persons, including M. Golenvaux, burgomaster of Namur, have already been executed.

SECURES AN INJUNCTION IN LUSITANIA CASES

Cunard Company Asks Court to Determine Interest In Wreck Strippings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Upon a petition of the Cunard Steamship Company, Limited, in which the torpedoing of the steamship Lusitania was described as "the act of a public enemy," and "in violation of the laws of nations and of the laws and usages of war as recognized by civilized nations," the federal district court here today appointed a commissioner to take proofs and report his conclusions as to the company's interest in the wreck strippings for purposes of limitation of liability.

An injunction was also granted by the court restraining further prosecution of suits for damages aggregating $5,883,479, or legal proceedings of any nature in connection with the loss of the Lusitania, until final hearing and determination of the limitation of liability proceedings. Proof of all claims for damages, it was announced, must be presented to the commissioner on or before December 16 next.

WINDSOR SOLDIER FALLS IN FRANCE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 19. — Mrs. James Scully of this city has received word that her son, Pte. P. Scully, has been killed in action in France. Pte. P. Scully was 35 years old, and went to Quebec shortly after the outbreak of the war, and joined the 87th Battalion. Mrs. Scully lost her other son a few years ago by drowning in the Blithe River.

NO BRITISH SHIPS HIT.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Regarding the German admiralty statement reporting an attack by German aeroplanes on British war vessels off the coast of Flanders, the British admiralty reported today that no British ships were struck or damaged by the shells.

NIPPUR TABLET TELLS STORY AFTER FLOOD

Sumerian Epic Related In Valuable Discovery by Dr. Langdon.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 19.—A Sumerian epic that tells the story of the reconstruction of civilization after the deluge has been discovered on one of the famous Nippur tablets in the University of Pennsylvania Museum. Announcement of the discovery and the completion of the translation of the epic was made yesterday by Dr. Stephen H. Langdon, distinguished Sumerian scholar and assistant curator of the museum here.

The epic, according to Dr. Langdon, takes up the history of civilization after Paradise, the fall of man and the flood, and is a sequel to the Sumerian epic which he translated a year ago The fragment which contains the latest story is four and one-half inches long, and one inch thick. It contains about 300 lines of inscriptions. It dates from about 2250 B.C., and hence represents a literature older than that of the Babylonians and the Chaldeans. A search for other fragments will be instituted at once among the university collection.

"The boat or ark is mentioned," Dr. Langdon said, "as well as Lahama, the god of the Deluge. It describes the regeneration of the ancient land of Sumeria at the hands of the god of Wisdom, who decreed that it should be the centre of civilization and the Sumerians the rulers of the world."

THIEVING BY WHOLESALE BY YOUTHS OF PRESTON

Money, Weapons and Ammunition Stolen—Three Remanded to Jail.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PRESTON, Sept. 19.—Police Magistrate, J. J. A. Weir of Kitchener, county juvenile court judge, conducted court in the council chamber, Preston, today, in which six Polish youths were arraigned, charged with various thefts committed recently. Some of these youths were fast gaining a record which would soon place them in the professional class. The one was acquitted, as there was no evidence against him to prove his identity in the various thefts. Two others were let off on deferred sentence, as it was their first offence. The remaining three were found guilty of a second offence and were taken to the county jail to receive sentence on Friday.

The three had broken into a Main street grocery store several weeks ago and repeated the act on Sunday last. They had planned entering the Bernhardt hardware store as well, but their courage failed them. The charges proven were that they entered a residence and stole the sum of $50; also entered the Boy Scout camp and stole a rifle, revolver, 200 cartridges, alarm clock and other articles. From an Italian residence they stole two watches, nine bottles of beer, a dagger and other articles.

25 BOYS DISAPPOINTED BY SMALL PONY SUPPLY

Great Demand In Amherstburg for Bob-lo Pets.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

AMHERSTBURG, Sept. 19. — This year, like every year, the 50 head of pure-bred Shetland ponies used on Bob-Lo Park for the excursionists to use, were all let out to parties in Amherstburg who have signed guarantees that they will be good to the little ponies and will feed and look after them free of charge for their usage, and return them to Fin Watkins when the island opens next spring.

There was a big scramble for the ponies when they were brought to Amherstburg from Bob-Lo, and 25 more applicants were on the spot than there were ponies. The 25 who went home disappointed will have the first choice next fall.

Mr. Watkins felt so sorry for one little chap—who had built a good warm barn, filled it with hay and oats, so sure that he was to get one—who was sadly disappointed, that he imported one from Belle Isle, paying the duty on it and handed it over to the little fellow, whose eyes bulged out when he saw what the kind-hearted horse owner did especially for him. All the little animals now have fine homes for the winter.

STRATFORD GIANT MAY FEATURE IN MOVIES

Lorne Wanzel, "Biggest Man in Canadian Army," Tackles Comedy.

STRATFORD, Sept. 19.—Lorne Wanzel, son of F. W. Wanzel, of this city, will probably in the near future be a member of the Keystone Comedy Company, California, and figure in the film productions of this company. He stated today that he expected to join the company soon.

Mr. Wanzel enlisted with the 110th Battalion last winter, but was honorably discharged on account of his excessive weight. While in the 110th he was sergeant and had the reputation of being the largest man in the Canadian army. His uniform had to be a special order. His friends here are predicting a successful career for him in the "movies." He is only about 20 years of age.

NEW RECTOR INDUCTED AT GRANTON CHARGE

Will Have Charge of Dual Parish of St. Thomas and Holy Trinity.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Granton, Sept. 20.—Rev. John R. Bythell, in the presence of a good-sized congregation, was last evening duly inducted rector of the united parish of St. Thomas and Holy Trinity, Poplar Hill. Prayers were said by Rev. F. C. Ryott of Kirkton and Ven. Archdeacon Richardson officiated in the induction. Messrs. Gilbert Garratt and Wm. McRoberts, church wardens, took their part as required by the bishop's mandate.

At the close of the ceremony the archdeacon, in a short address, explained the object and meaning of induction, and an appropriate sermon was preached by Mr. Ryott. Mr. Bythell comes highly recommended, and he has been heartily accepted here. He was educated at Toronto University, and has done good missionary work in the diocese of Moosonee at Cochrane.

SCANDINAVIAN STATES FIRM IN NEUTRALITY

King Haakon Speaks to Conference Held by Ministers of State.

London, Sept. 20.—King Haakon of Norway, speaking at a dinner given to the Swedish and Danish ministers of state in Christiania, declared that the Scandinavian nations were united in their desire to remain neutral. The dinner at which the King spoke was given in connection with conferences being held by the Scandinavian ministers of state.

King Haakon said that the conferences were only intended to protect Scandinavian interests. The meetings are the outcome of earlier meeting by the kings of Denmark, Norway and Sweden at which it was decided that the nations should co-operate to safeguard their rights.

In Memoriam.

DURHAM—In loving memory of Francis Durham, who died three years ago today, Sept. 20, 1913.

It's three long years today
Since our dear son passed away;
We saw his sufferings, heard his sighs,
With aching hearts and weeping eyes.
We saw his sinking hour by hour,
Yet could not stay death's awful power.
But now he calmly sleeps at last,
All pains, all aches, all sufferings past.
The moon and stars are shining
On a lone and silent grave,
Beneath lies the one whom we love,
But whom we could not save.
—His Loving Parents, Brothers and Sister. b

LIFE INSURANCE FOR WOMEN.

Nearly all the arguments used in favor of insurance for men apply for the most part in favor of insurance on the lives of women. Those women who have others more or less dependent upon them, who are wage-earners, or who have independent incomes, should welcome insurance, both for its protective and investment features. The wife and mother may not today stand in need of protection, but who can tell how soon she may be the sole support of an invalid husband, or of minor children? "You don't need to cross a bridge until you come to it," is a wise old saying, but the life insurance situation can be more happily expressed by another old saying: "In time of peace prepare for war." There is always the danger that one may not be able to get the insurance when it is most needed.

So far as the investment feature is concerned, nothing in the range of business experience is more suited to the needs of women than the endowment policy, the advantages of which every woman should clearly understand.

Rates and full information cheerfully furnished. Special representatives, Mrs. J. Stevely and Mrs. B. C. McCann, 317 Dominion Savings Building. Phone 5520.

FROSTS REDUCING FRUIT SUPPLY ON MARKET HERE

Grapes Cheap But Plums Scarce—Apples Remain Steady.

There were few changes on the local market this morning. Fruit was scarcer owing to the frost of the previous nights. Plums particularly, were scarce, and brought from 30c to 60c a basket. Apples, however, remained steady at 50c to 80c a bushel, while peaches were slightly cheaper, at 50c to 80c a basket. Grapes, too, were cheap, selling at 25c to 30c a basket. Pears were steady, selling for $1 to $1.25 a bushel. There was no change in the price of canteloupes, which sold at $1 to $2.25 a dozen.

Tomatoes rose suddenly, and scarcely any were sold at less than 50c a basket. Potatoes were unchanged at $1.60 to $2.25 a bushel. Cabbage remained high at 50c to $2 a dozen, and carrots were steady at 30c a dozen. Green corn was fairly plentiful, and brought 10c to 15c a dozen.

Hay dropped slightly, few loads selling for more thaa $14.25 a ton, while many brought only $12. Straw was scarce, the price remaining firm at $7.50 to $8.50 a ton. Oats were a little higher at $1.85 to $1.93 a cwt. for old. The new brought $1.60 to $1.68 a cwt. Barley was firm at $1.35, and wheat was unchanged at $1.87 to $2.08.

Butter was steady at 40c a pound for creamery, and 35c for dairy. Eggs were firm at 35c to 36c a dozen, and honey was unchanged at 15c a pound retail. Chickens, alive, brought 16c a pound. Old fowl, alive, sold for 13c to 15c a pound.

Live hogs were unchanged at $11.50 to $11.75, as were fat sows at $9 to $9.25. Dressed hogs were higher at $15.50 to $16 a cwt.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Sept. 19.—Wheat closed ¾c higher for October, ⅞c higher for November, 1c higher for December, and 1⅜c up for May. Oats were ⅝c higher for October and December. May oats closed at 51½c; barley finished unchanged, but flax gained 1¼c in October and November, and 2½c in December.

Lower cables, perfect weather and heavier receipts helped the market this morning. A report that the Greek Government bought a cargo of Argentine wheat at New York, and also the rumor that a big export business had been done, caused the shorts to cover. Wheat took new life and went up nearly 3c in a short time. The feature of the market was the buying of future oats. One of the local commission houses took big lots of all months, presumably hedging on eastern demand. Cash wheat was only with premiums easier in some grades. Oats were in good demand, with premiums from unchanged to ½c better. Barley was fair.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Wheat developed considerable strength today, influenced more or less by London admissions that the armies of Rumania were in a perilous position, and by Russian advices that it was not expected the Dardanelles would be opened in time to allow any shipments this season. Assertions also were current that foreign government were now giving preference to American wheat in order to forestall a possible American embargo later.

Opening prices, which ranged from ⅜c decline to ⅝c advance, with December at $1 49⅞@1 50, and May at $1 50½@1 52¾, were followed by substantial gains all around, but then by something of a reaction.

Liverpool, Sept. 20.—Wheat—Spot was quiet; No. 1 Manitoba, 14s 4d; No. 2, 14s 2½d; No. 3, nominal; No. 2 hard winter, 13s 10d.

Corn—Spot steady; American mixed, new, 10s 4d.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, Sept. 20.—Money was in better demand and discount rates were steady today. The treasury gathered £25,000,000 by various short term issues last week.

The stock market continued dull. Investment business was checked by the approaching French loan, the unsettled railway dispte and the fact that money will be required for commercial undertakings during the fall. Rubber shares and foreign rails attracted attention, but foreign bonds and the war loan drooped, and American securities were neglected.

WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 20—Wall Street, noon.—Professional tactics of the same character that provoked yesterday's reactionary period were employed in the first hour, wiping out most gains and causing numerous loans. Shipping shares continued especially heavy. Marines making extreme declines of 1 to 2 points, with 3½ for Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies. Other severe reversals included Tennessee Copper and International Chemical preferred. Rails, Steel and the more prominent coppers displayed underlying strength. Pressure relaxed on short covering in the second hour, at which time many full recoveries were recorded. Fresh selling developed at midday. Bonds were steady.

MONEY.

London, Sept. 20.—Bar silver, 32⅝d per ounce.

Money, 4½ per cent.

Discount rates—Short bills and three months, 5½@5⅝ per cent.

Paris, Sept. 20.—Trading was quiet on the bourse today. Three per cent rentes, 62 francs 65 centimes for cash.

COTTON PRICES HIGHER ON ENGLISH DEMAND

[Reported by Thomson & McKinnon.]

New York, Sept. 19.—Cotton prices took an upward course, advancing sharply, with the trading active much of the time. Bullish crop news has by no means spent its force. It caused brisk buying on both sides of the water.

Liverpool came better than expected this morning, its spot sales showing a considerable decrease. Trade interests were good buyers of futures in the English market, and there was free purchasing there attributed to the continental demand, and Liverpool has sent many buying orders to this market.

Georgia sent bullish reports regarding picking and ginning, and they were not without some effect, and from other sections of the belt many unfavorable reports continued to be received. In some cases they were accompanied by buying orders.

Speculation in the cotton market is more broad than recently, while on the other hand the weather at the south was generally favorable and a continuation of this is predicted. On the upturn there was a little profit-taking, but offerings were well absorbed.

WAR LOAN

DOMINION OF CANADA

Issue of $100,000,000 5% Bonds Maturing 1st October, 1931.

PAYABLE AT PAR AT

OTTAWA, HALIFAX, ST. JOHN, CHARLOTTETOWN, MONTREAL, TORONTO, WINNIPEG, REGINA, CALGARY, VICTORIA.

INTEREST PAYABLE HALF-YEARLY, 1st APRIL, 1st OCTOBER.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD.

ISSUE PRICE 97½

A FULL HALF-YEAR'S INTEREST WILL BE PAID ON 1st APRIL, 1917.

THE PROCEEDS OF THE LOAN WILL BE USED FOR WAR PURPOSES ONLY.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers herewith, on behalf of the Government, the above named Bonds for subscription at 97½, payable as follows:—

10 per cent on application;
30 " " 16th October, 1916;
30 " " 15th November, 1916;
27½ " " 15th December, 1916.

The total allotment of bonds of this issue will be limited to one hundred million dollars exclusive of the amount (if any) paid for by the surrender of bonds as the equivalent of cash under the terms of the War Loan prospectus of 22nd November, 1915.

The instalments may be paid in full on the 16th day of October, 1916, or on any instalment due date thereafter, under discount at the rate of four per cent per annum. All payments are to be made to a chartered bank for the credit of the Minister of Finance. Failure to pay any instalment when due will render previous payments liable to forfeiture and the allotment to cancellation.

Subscriptions, accompanied by a deposit of ten per cent of the amount subscribed, must be forwarded through the medium of a chartered bank. Any branch in Canada of any chartered bank will receive subscriptions and issue provisional receipts.

This loan is authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada, and both principal and interest will be a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Forms of application may be obtained from any branch in Canada of any chartered bank and at the office of any Assistant Receiver General in Canada.

Subscriptions must be for even hundreds of dollars.

In case of partial allotments the surplus deposit will be applied towards payment of the amount due on the October instalment.

Scrip certificates, non-negotiable or payable to bearer in accordance with the choice of the applicant for registered or bearer bonds, will be issued, after allotment, in exchange for the provisional receipts.

When the scrip certificates have been paid in full and payment endorsed thereon by the bank receiving the money, they may be exchanged for bonds, when prepared, with coupons attached, payable to bearer or registered as to principal, or for fully registered bonds, when prepared, without coupons, in accordance with the application.

Delivery of scrip certificates and of bonds will be made through the chartered banks.

The issue will be exempt from taxes—including any income tax—imposed in pursuance of legislation enacted by the Parliament of Canada.

The bonds with coupons will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000. Fully registered bonds without coupons will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 or any authorized multiple of $5,000.

The bonds will be paid at maturity at par at the office of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General at Ottawa, or at the office of the Assistant Receiver General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, or Victoria.

The interest on the fully registered bonds will be paid by cheque, which will be remitted by post. Interest on bonds with coupons will be paid on surrender of coupons. Both cheques and coupons will be payable free of exchange at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

Subject to the payment of twenty-five cents for each new bond issued, holders of fully registered bonds without coupons will have the right to convert into bonds of the denomination of $1,000 with coupons, and holders of bonds with coupons will have the right to convert into fully registered bonds of authorized denominations without coupons at any time on application to the Minister of Finance.

The books of the loan will be kept at the Department of Finance, Ottawa.

Application will be made in due course for the listing of the issue on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

CONCERTS WILL BE 1916-17 PROGRAM

A. Y. P. A. of Memorial Church Arranging for Series.

Last evening, the executive committee of the Anglican Young People's Association of the Cronyn Memorial Church met to make plans for the coming season's work. The present idea is to arrange a program of concerts and lectures. This is in marked contrast to the program of last season, which was devoted entirely to weekly social evenings for the entertainment of soldiers in training here. Each Monday evening, large numbers of the boys in khaki, sometimes as many as one hundred, gathered in the parish hall, where they were the guests of the young people of the church. Ample proof has been given of the appreciation of the soldiers of this hospitality in the many letters which come back from England and France to the hosts and hostesses, referring to the happy times spent in the parish hall.

BOARD TO DEMAND CLEAN-UP AT PORT AND SPRINGBANK

Better Accommodation Must Be Provided for Citizens.

NO ACTION ON WELLS

Board of Health to Make Report on Macgregor Scheme Later.

The insanitary condition of the lavatories at Springbank and at Port Stanley was the cause of much unfavorable comment at the meeting of the board of health yesterday afternoon, and it was decided to call attention to the proper authorities at once to make improvements. A new system will be installed at Springbank, if the opinions of the board of health have any weight. The provincial board of health will be asked to deal with Port Stanley, and it is probable that the village, particularly along the beach, will be cleaned up, and cleaned properly.

The board decided that the Macgregor wells, the purchase of which is being discussed by the utilities commission, were not before them, and Dr. Hill made no report on the purity of the water. Until the wells are brought under their official notice, no report will be presented. The water in the city taps showed colon bacilli in 20 cc's, but none in 10 cc's. The infection is by no means serious.

Dairy Inspection.

Dr. Tancock reported about the inspection of dairies, and slaughter-houses, and declared that improvements had been made, and the majority of places were in good condition.

Dr. W. S. Downham, assistant to the medical health officer, stated that 106 cases of infectious diseases had been discovered and reported during the month, not including tuberculosis. Of these 49 were measles, 45 whooping-cough, 2 infantile paralysis, 1 chicken-pox, 6 scarlet fever and 3 diphtheria. The measles epidemic is practically over, few being reported at the end of August, and only four families being under quarantine in September. There were 45 cases of whooping-cough. The opening of schools led to the discovery of many of the cases, and Dr. Downham suspects that there are many more.

No Poliomyelitis.

There were two cases of infantile paralysis or poliomyelitis. Of these, one had been discharged, and the other would be shortly. In both cases there was but a small amount of paralysis.

In the isolation hospital, 27 cases had been admitted—7 scarlet fever, 3 diphtheria, 15 sore throat, not diphtheria, and 2 measles. During the same time 13 had been discharged—4 scarlet fever, 19 of sore throat, not diphtheria, and 2 measles, a total of 25. One death had occurred from sore throat.

Miss Barons, the tuberculosis nurse, reported that there were 95 cases of tuberculosis at the dispensary. Of these 25 were new cases, 1 incipient, 10 moderately advanced, and 10 on which diagnosis had been reserved. There were 74 old cases.

The question of allowing persons to connect up with sewers, the cost of the work to be collected in five annual installments came up, and the board approved of the principle. Some of the persons have not the ready cash with which to pay for the work at once, and in this way the burden will be lightened.

SIR WILFRID TO OPEN CANADIAN CLUB SEASON

Will Speak to Local Women on October 12.

The Women's Canadian Club will open its 1916-17 season on October 12. The members of the executive are happy over their success in securing as the speaker of the occasion Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Sir Wilfrid's acceptance of the invitation of the club to address the opening meeting was contained in a gracious letter received by the president, Mrs. Donald McLean, yesterday afternoon. He says:

"I am much honored by your kind invitation and, as you know, my acceptance is one of long-standing. I will be in London on the 11th of October, and I could take your invitation the following day, the 12th, the hour at your convenience. Yours very sincerely.

"WILFRID LAURIER."

Members and prospective members of the Women's Canadian Club are requested by the executive to keep that date free.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.

On Tuesday afternoon the Red Cross work was suspended for a few moments at Hyman Hall while a resolution of sympathy was passed for Mr. Arthur White and family in their recent bereavement. Mrs. White was one of the most faithful and earnest workers at Hyman Hall.

SPLENDID RACES WERE FEATURE AT STRATHROY FAIR

Farmers Motored in From All Over the District.

STOCK WAS HIGH-GRADE

Home Team Won Out in Hotly-Contested Relay Race.

[By Our Own Reporter.]

STRATHROY, Sept. 19. — Chilly breezes and lowering skies failed to seriously affect the attendance at the Strathroy Agricultural Fair Tuesday afternoon, the second day, was fully equal to those of other years. Early in the afternoon auto loads of visitors began to pour in from the surrounding districts and the grounds were soon thronged.

Although it was the second day of the exhibition the crystal palace and horticultural buildings were crowded from the opening moment. Stock and poultry exhibits were well patronized. The majority of the exhibits were quite up to the standard of former years. Grain and seeds, however, were not so good. This is explained by the particularly unfavorable season, which, besides producing stunted growths, did not bring on many of the articles in time to be exhibited. Flowers, however, were good, the exhibits winning the praise of every visitor.

Many In Autos.

More automobiles, both as displays and as vehicles for transportation, were in evidence than ever before. Little trouble was experienced in regulating the traffic on the grounds and everything was managed perfectly. No disorder of any nature marred the day.

The reserved seats were nearly all filled for the afternoon performance, which included the races. A fine program was presented by the band of the Galt Highlanders. Miss Marion Stark and Miss Irene Anderson, pupils of Mrs. A. Henderson of London, were featured in a number of Scotch dances, which elicited much applause from the spectators. Piper M. McLeod furnished the music.

The Relay Race.

An interesting event was the relay race staged by two Strathroy teams and one of Parkhill. A Strathroy team, captained by Allan McNeil, carried off the honors, making the mile course in three minutes and 14¾ seconds. The other members of the team were A. Small, G. McMillan and W. Nichols. W. J. Ward captained the Prangley House team of Strathroy, and W. McLennan the Parkhill team. The purse was for $50.

Fair-taggers, representing the Mary Armstrong Chapter of the I. O. D. E. were busy on the grounds collecting for the Secour Nationale Fund. By the close of the day nearly every one was wearing one of the little French flags, as a token that they had done something toward helping the war sufferers.

Red Cross Work.

Red Cross work was represented also by a number of the women workers, who served lunches at the grounds. Mesdames Bogue, Lindsay and Murphy were in charge of the arrangements. Recruiters from the 241st Scottish Borderers added to the liveliness of the day by a brisk campaign for men. The party was in charge of Lieut. Reaume and consisted of Ptes. Gordon, Wilson and Walborn.

Tuesday being the chief day of the fair an entertainment was given before the grand stand in the evening, as well as in the afternoon. The Galt Kilties were again featured and presented a varied program of patriotic music. Miss Marion Stark and Miss Irene Anderson gave a number of Irish and fancy dances and several Highland reels. An excellent pyrotechnical display concluded the performance.

Veteran Secretary.

Secretary David Evans was in charge of the majority of the work connected with the exhibition. This is his twenty-fifth year as secretary, and although it is likely that he will be asked to fill the position for the ensuing year, he states that it is not probable that he will accept.

Other officers at the exhibition were John Lowrie of Sarnia, who acted as starter; Thomas Rosser of Denfield, judge; Wesley Prangley, Strathroy, judge; James Cox, Strathroy, timekeeper; Q. Zavitz, Strathroy, clerk of the course.

Fast Races.

There were six entries for the 2:50 trial, trotters and pacers, half-mile heats. Mollie Mac, owned by T. McCracken of Mount Brydges, was drawn in the second heat.

Three entries were made in the 2:15 trial, trotters and pacers, with mile heats. Four heats were run off.

The results were:

Ladies' Work.

In ladies' work the chief exhibitors were Mrs. G. McPherson, Forest; Mrs. H. E. Donald, Mrs. Isaac Carothers, Francis Jennings, Miss Nettie Sinclair, and Miss E. McEwan of London.

The principal fine art exhibitors were Miss B. Nesbitt, Helen M. Corbett, Miss C. McLachlan.

Farm Exhibits.

The winning dairy exhibitors were George A. Lipsett, T. W. Curtiss, Angus Lyman, A. Anguish, James Galbraith, Mrs. Ira Downer, Mrs. John Quinney.

Prizes for fruit went to Robert Stevenson, W. E. Buttery, R. M. Buttery, W. G. Buttery.

The poultry prize winners were David Bogue, Duncan Butler, J. R. Smith, F. Dyer.

Henry Capes and P. J. McEwan were the leading pig exhibitors. The winners in the sheep exhibit were R. H. Wilson, Albert Early, J. C. Lamont, R. McEwan, F. McLean, Watt Bros., A. H. McLean, E. H. Dyer, Morgan and Patterson, Robert Morgan.

The cattle prize winners were W. McLean & Son, Fatt Bros., J. Buchanan, W. A. Bryant, Robert McEwan, W. N. Faulds & Son, W. E. Parker, James B. Parke.

BIG PUBLIC SCHOOL CONCERT IS PLANNED FOR SPRING OF 1917

Event Is Being Already Prepared by Supervisor.

LIKING THEIR SINGING

Scholars Take Well to Voice Instruction by Popular Teacher.

A grand public school concert to be held some time during May, 1917, is an event already being planned by the musical supervisor of the London public schools, E. W. G. Quantz. The custom in the past has been to hold the big musical festival every odd year, and, since 1916 is an even year and no concert has been held, precedent is established for preparing for one next spring.

By no means the least pleasant feature of work for the boys and girls of the London public schools is the instruction in singing under the supervision of E. W. G. Quantz. Indeed, it would be hard to discover a feature more generally popular or a teacher more universally liked than Mr. Quantz. An evidence of the estimation in which he is held lies in the salutations which greet him any place he may go in the city. Cheery, youthful voices ring out, "Hello, Mr. Quantz," a sure sign from a very young person's point of view that he is a man well worth knowing, and one to be regarded as a friend, or something even better, "a pal."

Good Progress Already Made.

The perfect understanding which exists between Mr. Quantz and his juvenile classes is doubtless in a large measure responsible for the splendid results he achieves in teaching them to sing. Though the fall term only opened a couple of weeks ago, already progress is being noted in the singing classes.

The work is new only to the primary grades, the little people just out of the kindergarten. Concerning these Mr. Quantz says: "Quite a bit of talent is being revealed. I think on the whole there are fewer monotones this year than former years. By that I mean pupils who can only sing one tone. Yes, there are actually people like that whose one idea of raising or lowering the voice is to sing louder or more softly. Teaching these primary pupils confirms the knowledge that singing of the scale is an innate power to anyone with musical perception.

"In our method we use the scale as the basis of our work, and from it progress to the chord, the natural progression. In the tonic sol fa system, the chord is the basis. Children learn quickly because they are so adaptable and so lacking in self consciousness. For example, this morning I had a class of third and fourth grade pupils who, at the beginning of the lesson had no idea of placing their tones or controlling their voices. By the end of the lesson they were using their head tones very well. This year we are giving particular attention to tone quality."

SAYS PANIC ONLY WILL BOOST PRICE OF COAL HERE NOW

Rush To Fill Bins Alone Would Cause It, Declares Dealer.

CLAIMS NOT DEAR HERE

Other Commodities and Labor Have Gone Up, Why Not Fuel?

"Any prospects of a further increase in the price of coal in the immediate future?" was asked today of a prominent local dealer.

"Not unless the people who can afford to pay for it get panicky and begin filling up their cellars with coal they could just as well get in next March or April," he replied. Then he proceeded to enlarge on the subject from the point of view of the dealer.

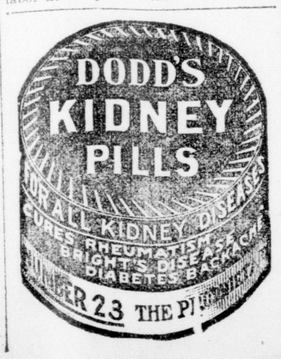

"That sort of thing on the part of the people who can afford to pay for large quantities is what makes it hard for the people who can't. It creates a demand, and, in every line, it is the demand that sends up the price. Of course, it is all right for the dealer, but what I am trying to get at is that it is exceedingly hard on a number of people in the community. A severe winter under such circumstances would mean suffering.

"As far as London is concerned, the dealers here are well stocked up with coal. Personally I am having no difficulty in getting in shipments, and, as far as I know, none of the other local dealers are experiencing difficulty. Where railway facilities are concerned, London is very favorably situated. Coal can be shipped in over any one of half a dozen roads. The M. C. R., Pere Marquette, Wabash, G. T. R. and the C. P. R. all carry coal for London.

"There isn't likely to be any shortage in the cities. If any should occur, it would probably be in the small places where railway facilities are not good.

"What reason was there, anyway, for people to be alarmed when they found on August 31 that coal had advanced 50 cents a ton? Coal isn't dear here by any means, compared with other places. Did the people think that coal was going to remain stationary in price when it had the same reason to advance as all other commodities? Hasn't everything else been boosted away up? Yet the fact that there is an advance in coal makes people at once begin to anticipate trouble.

"They don't take into consideration the advance in the cost of labor, and what this means to the dealer. I'm paying four and five dollars a week more for labor at the present time than I was a year ago. A man has to sell a lot of coal to pay his help, let alone make any profit. At that, the profit is very small here. The labor problem at the mines and right along the line has affected the price. When people are paying more for butter, eggs, bacon and everything else, I don't see why they should expect coal to be the one exception."

EXPLAINS METHODS OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Virgil Strickler Addressed Large Audience at Masonic Temple.

The methods by which Christian Science accomplishes its results were explained in detail before a large audience at the Masonic Temple last evening by Virgil O. Strickler, C.S., of Boston. He emphasized that there is no mystery about Christian Science healing and that the principles are not difficult to understand providing the investigator approaches the subject with an open mind.

"Christian Science," he said, "is producing very definite and very beneficial results and it behooves every thinking person to try and understand how they are accomplished. If it is true that it is teaching people how to rise above sinful appetites and desires and how to be healthy and happy, it is the greatest and most vital thing that can engage human thought. That it does these things to some extent at least is no longer an open question."

True religion, he pointed out, consists of spiritual truth and it necessarily follows that real religion and real science are one and the same. The aim of Christian Science is to destroy erroneous religious beliefs by substituting a knowledge of truth, and to destroy from the human mind all evil by planting good in its place. It would substitute love for hate, unselfishness for selfishness, honesty for dishonesty, and truth for error. It lays especial emphasis upon "bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ," as the Bible commands.

Christian Science healing is accomplished through the activity of right thinking and right living, and in no other way can be demonstrated the principle that heals.

TO PROVIDE SEWERS FOR A BIG NEW AREA IN EASTERN LONDON

Board Requests Report on the District.

FREE LEAF COLLECTION

Experimental Removal Will Be Tried on Queen's Avenue This Year.

At the meeting of the board of works last evening it was decided to provide sewer drainage for the region east of Egerton and south of Dundas.

This section is growing rapidly, and the members of the committee thought that action should be taken. City Engineer Brazier will inspect the district and submit a report at a future meeting.

As an experimental scheme and a guide for other years it was decided to adopt the plan of having city teams haul away leaves within a prescribed area. The area specified was Queen's avenue from Wellington street to Adelaide.

All residents on each side of this street within that area will be notified that providing they rake the leaves and deposit them outside the sidewalk that the city will remove them free of cost.

Cards of notification will be sent out later stating the times of collection.

A deputation waited on the committee objecting to the opening of Gordon street, and the amount assessed, claiming their properties would not be benefitted to the extent they were assessed. They were referred to the court of revision.

A recommendation was made that Langley street from Tecumseh avenue to Windsor be opened, and that the cost be assessed against the property benefitted.

Engineer Brazier was asked to report on the best way to proceed with the work.

Permission was granted to construct a pavement at the rear of Smallman & Ingram's store, the cost to be assessed to the firm, the amount to be about $300.

Those present were Mayor Stevenson, Chairman Palmer, Ald. Webster, Controller Moore, Engineer Brazier and City Clerk Baker.

DOES NOT BELIEVE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE WILL BE TAUGHT

L. C. I. Head Figures Possibility Remote.

TO REPLACE GERMAN

Patriotic Move in Toronto Characterized as Jingoism Here.

Will the Russian language in the near future be added to the curriculum of collegiate institutes and high schools of Ontario? Principal Rogers of the London Collegiate Institute considers the prospect remote.

"It may come," was his reply to a question of The Advertiser, "but I think it is hardly likely for some time."

Nevertheless there is a movement under way in Toronto to introduce the Russian tongue as a part of the course in moderns. The prime mover is a patriotic trustee, Dr. John Hunter, who, in his first enthusiasm, would have banished the German language, in order to discourage the militaristic tendency of the German people from getting root here.

Calls It Absurd.

Chairman William Houston of the Toronto board, characterized the proposal to drop the German language as absurd. He took the ground that the German language had nothing to do with the war, and that there is no more reason for casting out the literary and scientific works of the German authors from our schools than there is for refusing to listen to the music of Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Handel, Wagner and Mendelssohn. They were composers who had nothing to do with the spirit of modern Germany, the "blood and iron" Germany of the modern war.

At the same time Chairman Houston is in favor of introducing the teaching of Russian, and in this he has the support of the majority of the trustees.

The question will be further discussed at a meeting of the Toronto board on Thursday evening.

Up to Department.

When the agitation upon the part of members of the Toronto High School board was today brought to the attention of Mr. Rogers, his comment was, "Neither Toronto nor any other school board has authority to say what shall and what shall not be taught in the schools. That is for the department of education to decide. As far as banishing the German language for fear of its militaristic tendency is concerned, that is jingoism, nothing but jingoism. The London trustees might be in favor of introducing the Russian language here, but this would not be possible without action on the part of the department of education."

While admitting that the action of the Toronto board of trustees might influence the department to the extent of giving consideration to the introduction of Russian, Mr. Rogers still maintained that the prospect was remote, even in view of the argument that Russian would be of particular value to the commercial classes.

ORGANIZING NEW CLASSES NOW FOR FIRST AID WORK

St. John Ambulance Brigade Here Resuming Winter Training.

St. John Ambulance Association First Aid and Home Nursing Classes are to be organized in the immediate future. Several inquiries have already been made of Miss Ella Davis, who is looking after the organization, and the present prospects are that these classes will be even more popular than last year.

A meeting will be held on Friday evening at the Central Young Women's Christian Association rooms, for the purpose of registration and organization. Classes will be held at the present in the Y rooms until larger ones can be secured.

The minimum class will be twenty, while thirty or forty members constitutes a most satisfactory class.

Bring Out Your Hidden Beauty

Beneath that soiled, discolored, faded or aged complexion is one fair to look upon. Mercolized wax will gradually, gently absorb the devitalized surface skin, revealing the youthfully fresh, white and beautiful skin underneath. Used by refined women who prefer complexions of true naturalness. Mercolized wax in one-ounce package, with directions for use, is sold by all druggists.—Advt.

Further classes will be organized as the demand necessitates.

One proof of the value of the training lies in the fact that three young London women who have taken in the courses in first aid and home nursing are now on their way overseas in answer to the call for probationers in military hospitals which recently came to the Canadian Brigade, St. John Ambulance Association. With these three, Miss Florence Hughes, Miss Marjory Whittaker and Miss Lucy Thompson, are 57 other young women representing the association in all parts of Canada. There is also the prospect of a further appeal being made.

LONDON VERY HEALTHY

Whooping Cough Is Most Prevalent of City's Ills.

Whooping-cough is the worst of London's ills at the present time, according to the weekly bulletin of the board of health. There are now 46 cases, 11 of which developed recently, and 30 houses have been quarantined.

Your Dollars Go a Long Way

—In the Hands of The Belgian Relief Committee.

NEVER before has relief work been done on such a huge scale, or with anything approaching the efficiency with which it is being carried on in Belgium. Faced with the appalling task of feeding a starving nation, the Belgian Relief Commission has done magnificent work.

Scores of the ablest and highest salaried business men of the English speaking world have given their time free, to perfect the organization and carry on the work. Operating expenses are phenomenally low. Business methods are applied to every feature of buying, shipping and distributing food—and accounting for every dollar.

The result is that millions of Belgians are being fed at an average cost of around $2.50 per family per month! Compare that with your own meat bill and you will begin to realize what it means.

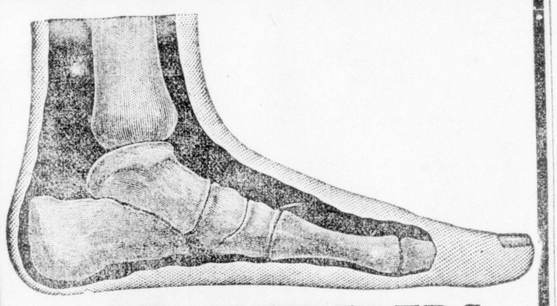

But even this provision is possible only through the generous and sustained contributions of thousands of people. Canada has been doing nobly, as she should. Many have been regularly giving enough to feed one—or several—Belgian Families. How many can you afford to support?

FOOT SUFFERERS, ATTENTION!

For the benefit of all who suffer with their feet, we have made arrangements to have at our store during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, Mr. M. Mok, a Chicago foot specialist, who will advise you, FREE OF CHARGE, what to do for any foot ailment you may have.

Come in and let this specialist examine your feet and explain to you how to overcome and correct such foot troubles as broken-down arches, weak ankles, flat-foot, painful callouses on the soles of the feet, corns, bunions, hot, sensitive perspiring feet, etc.

Examination and Advice are Free and Private.
