

A. J. SMALL, MISSING THEATRE MAGNATE REPORTED FOUND

TWELVE HUNDRED SMALL LONDONERS ENTRAIN FOR PLAYGROUND PICNIC AT PORT

Generosity of Philip Pocock Is Duplicated by Another Citizen, But Too Late To Be Effective—East-Enders Win Closely Contested Ball Game Against West-Enders—Two Special Five-Coach L. and P. S. Trains Used.

Rivalling the annual school picnic for merriment and general noisiness, a picnic of the children who frequent the eight city playgrounds is being held at Port Stanley today. At 10 o'clock this morning two special trains of five cars each loaded to the brim with 1,200 shouting boys and girls, and not a few parents and several officials, left the Richmond street station for the lakeside.

The children were the guests of Philip Pocock, who supplied them with free transportation. It was first planned that 1,000 kiddies would be given an outing, but so keenly did the little patrons of the playgrounds enter into the spirit of the occasion it was found that far more than that number were gathered at the station when the trains pulled in.

The children were so filled with excitement that it was only with the greatest difficulty that Prof. M. L. Brock and his staff of sixteen helpers kept them in a semblance of order. Separate cars were allotted to each playground, but with the crowd of youngsters resembling a small melee when the cars were first sighted, it was a prolonged and an impossible task to separate the different factions. Despite the general excitement and confusion, however, no one was injured.

Public Health Nurse Reviews History and Work of Soldiers' Aid

As part of the assigned study set by the faculty of public health in connection with the recent post-graduate course for nurses and doctors at the Institute of Public Health, the students were each asked to prepare a thesis on some local public institution. This formed a feature of the course in "Social Hygiene," the lectures on which were given by Col. W. J. Brown.

All the papers were of special interest and were judged on the information which the student had collected rather than on the literary merit. Among the public institutions selected for a basis of these theses was the local soldiers' aid commission, and the paper prepared by Miss Waugh provides such an excellent general review of the history and work done that it is given in full here.

(Thesis Written by Miss Florence Waugh, Student 1920-21, Public Health Class, Western University.)

THE SOLDIERS' AID COMMISSION.

In 1915, at a conference of provincial premiers with the Federal Government in London, it was decided that each province would appoint a commission to co-operate with the Federal Government in the re-establishment of ex-servicemen.

On November 15, 1915, this association engaged Mr. Ed. Lance to take charge of the work among ex-soldiers for London.

The first office of the commission in London was in club rooms of the S. P. A. over the Majestic Theatre on Dundas street.

The S. P. A. organized a reception for the first party of returned soldiers to reach London from overseas and tendered them a banquet at the Teacup House. This was done for each succeeding party up to the end of 1916, when a change was made, and the men were taken to the hospital, where a luncheon was served.

In July, 1916, the work became too great for the S. P. A., who felt they were unable to do justice to it, and they asked the provincial commission that the branch be properly organized to take care of the ever-increasing demands for assistance.

August 3, 1916.

On August 3, 1916, an organization meeting, called by His Worship Mayor George, took place at the Teacup House, taken over by the Soldiers' Aid Commission from August, 1916.

The officers of the commission were: Chairman, George T. Brown; vice-chairman, J. M. Moore; secretary, Ed. Lance; treasurer, Lieut.-Col. A. A. Kingston.

Administrative Staff—J. Warwick.

PREDICTS CITY WILL BE GOOD HUSTLING PLACE

Harry Fowler, Former London Newspaperman, Addresses Rotary Club.

SEES IMPROVEMENTS New Spirit of Service and Co-operation Very Noticeable To Him.

"I am certainly glad to be back in the old town, where exists such a spirit of good friendship, service and co-operation," declared Harry Fowler, addressing briefly the members of the Rotary Club at their weekly gathering at the luncheon hour at the Teacup House today. The speaker, well-known Londoner, has been visiting in the city for the past few days after two years in Philadelphia and other centres of the western states.

"You have a good old town," continued Mr. Fowler emphatically, "and there exists here a good spirit of friendship that I am glad to be back among you. I fancy that old Londoners wherever they may be scattered (Continued on Page Three.)"

LOCAL G. W. V. A. MARKING TIME ON AMALGAMATION

Wait Further Information From Provincial Headquarters On the Matter.

GENERALLY FAVORABLE

The Local Advocates of Unity Claim It Is Urgent and Essential.

No definite attempt will be made by the local officials and executive of the Great War Veterans to sound the feeling of their members on the question of amalgamation until further advice is received from the provincial secretary at headquarters in Toronto, W. E. Turley. Following that, a general meeting will be called for an open discussion of the issue, when no doubt the feeling of the members will be expressed.

All of the four or five returned soldiers' associations throughout the county recognize the fact that a big percentage of the boys who came back from "over yonder" are without identification with any particular organization, and it is felt that a special drive for membership will bring into the ranks as many as 50 per cent of them.

Unity is Essential.

In a recent official statement the provincial committee in Toronto, which is endeavoring to further the amalgamation project explains that the report spread broadcast that they are attempting merely to form a political party is highly erroneous and calculated, they say, by their opponents to defeat unity of all the returned men irrespective of whether they belong to an organization or not.

That they desire to become a "political power" and not a "party" is their insistent contention. That such unity should proceed as speedily as possible, they point out further, is desirable in the near future, when that power can best be used to advantage. "It is pure and simple a case of now or never," explains a defendant of the amalgamation scheme. "If our opponents, and there are several at headquarters, delay the move until a few months hence we may as well give up the project."

An unofficial casual survey of the local rank and file appears more than favorable toward unity.

RANEY DECLARES RUM - RUNNERS' HARVEST WILL SOON FINISH

Department Will Take Immediate Action To Stop Traffic at Border.

Test Case May Be Tried To Establish Exact Interpretation of Act.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—That the 9 per cent beer runners on the Essex border are to have a short season in which to reap their harvest of American dollars is the firm intention of Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general for the province of Ontario.

Mr. Raney is confident that the law as it stood conferred upon his department all the authority needed to cope with the international beer and liquor traffic, despite the recent ruling of Magistrate Gundy at Windsor.

The attorney-general stated that steps were to be taken immediately to stop the traffic on the Detroit River. He admitted that this action would involve the co-operation of the law enforcement officers, but he would not state whether a test case would first have to be introduced into the courts to re-establish the authority of the license inspectors and special constables in this matter.

OFFICERS HAVE POWER

Test Case May Be Tried To Establish Exact Interpretation of Act.

PRELIMINARY REPORT ON TOWN PLANNING IS MADE BY EXPERT

Thomas Adams Will Not Return to City Till the Spring.

Following a conference with City Engineer Brazier Saturday, Thomas Adams, town planner, who was summoned to this city by the town planning commission, returned to Ottawa, and it is not expected that he will again visit London until the spring of 1922. A preliminary report for this city will be submitted to the commission by him this week.

The city engineer's department will work in conjunction with the town planner in planning for London. If the recommendation of the commission was not expected that he will again visit London until the spring of 1922. A preliminary report for this city will be submitted to the commission by him this week.

"We worked out preliminary plans Saturday," City Engineer Brazier informed the commission this morning, "for the information of the commission. Mr. Adams will work in conjunction with us, and will submit a preliminary report this week. This report covers the whole city, including parks, grades, railways, highways, and assessment values."

"That will be all the town planning that we will do this year, and this report will deal with all the existing features of London. With these completed we can go ahead. Town Planner Adams will not come back here until early next spring."

TO THE DOVER PATROL

The Prince of Wales unveiled this beautiful memorial to commemorate the gallant deeds of the Dover Patrol.

PEOPLE OF IRELAND PIN LAST HOPES ON THE DAIL EIREANN TO AVERT WAR

Informal Meeting of the Irish Republican Parliament Is Held Today—Utmost Efforts Are Being Put Forth To Prevent Break in Negotiations—Military Element in Ireland Not Optimistic of Settlement and Look for Early End to Truce.

Dublin, Aug. 15.—The people of Ireland, who have enjoyed a month of peace, found it had today to believe that negotiations between Eamon De Valera and Premier Lloyd George were at the breaking point. They were placing their hopes in the Irish Republican Parliament, which will meet tomorrow to consider the whole correspondence and frame a reply to the prime minister's latest letter.

Suggestion has been made that the Dail Eireann may propose submission of the question to a plebiscite, but this proposal may not come from the Irish Republic, which would prolong the truce as long as possible.

EARLY END TO TRUCE EXPECTED BY MILITARY

Dublin, Aug. 15.—An informal meeting of the Irish Republican Parliament was the chief manifestation today of the activity observable in both Sinn Fein and Dublin Castle quarters as the result of the new turn in the Irish negotiations following the disclosure in the correspondence between Mr. Lloyd George and Eamon De Valera.

The meeting was held at the Menagh House at noon to give the members, many of whom had never met, an opportunity to become acquainted and exchange notes prior to the summoned meeting to be held tomorrow to consider the whole question of the negotiations.

Some of the members of the Dail Eireann have been in prison, others have been fighting with the army of the Irish Republic, and still others were making their first appearance in Dublin since their release from prison or internment camps. They were in all sorts of attire, but all bore the same marks of earnestness on their faces, and showed eagerness to glean any information regarding the negotiations which had not been made public, while discussing among themselves with the greatest interest the letters of the British premier and their own leader.

Four-Day Session.

Sir John Anderson, under secretary for Ireland, on whose shoulders rest the greatest responsibility for the civil administration in Ireland, and who, therefore, had much to do with the initiation of the negotiations, hurriedly returned today from Scotland, where he had been on a holiday to use his influence against a definite break in the parleying. He immediately went into conference with General Sir Nevill MacCreedy, commander of the forces in Ireland, and other officials, in an apparent effort to imbue them with his optimism—for he is represented as still believing that there is a probability of an end to the agreement to give 48 hours' notice of the ending of the truce might commit acts that would jeopardize the continuance of the negotiations.

The military element, on the other hand, is not so optimistic as it is credited with feeling, that the truce is nearing an end. This fear on the part of the soldiers is considered a great danger, one official saying that a soldier with a gun who fears his opponent will not adhere to the agreement to give 48 hours' notice of the ending of the truce might commit acts that would jeopardize the continuance of the negotiations.

The optimists in the Dublin Castle body base their hopes on several factors. The first is that a four-days' session of the Republican Parliament has been arranged for, if the Republican cabinet had decided to recommend immediate rejection of the terms, they argue, one day would have been sufficient, whereas if persuasion and delay were necessary, some days would be required.

LLOYD GEORGE'S OFFER REGARDED BY PRESS AS A GENEROUS ONE

London, Aug. 15.—Reports from Dublin which might indicate what the Irish cabinet had decided to recommend were necessary, some days would be required.

MICHIGAN POLICE TO INCREASE ACTIVITIES TO KEEP OUT LIQUOR

Plans Under Way To Patrol River Front For Miles.

MOTOR CARS SEARCHED

Speed Boats Being Watched by the American Authorities.

Detroit, Aug. 15.—A conference here between Roy C. Vandercok, state commissioner of public safety, Charles P. Campau, Detroit representative of the state public safety commission, and other state officials was set for today to consider plans for stemming the flood of liquor reported to be coming into the United States from Canada across the Detroit River. Upon the conference today will hinge the future activity of state officials, Mr. Campau announced.

Detroit police patrolled the entire river front within the Detroit City limits yesterday and last night, but no arrests were made, and no beer or liquor was seen. Police officials expressed the opinion today that none of the beer or whiskey sent from Canada was being received directly in Detroit.

A careful watch was being kept today of all motorboats on the river.

Forty-Five Japanese SEAMEN DROWNED IN WRECK OF FREIGHT SHIP

Kobe, Japan, Aug. 15.—Forty-five seamen are believed to have been drowned following the wreck of the freight steamer Shosha Maru, which was disabled by a typhoon and battered to pieces on the rocks of the Loochoo Islands. Only one of the ship's personnel is known to have survived.

FIVE LOSE LIVES WHEN ITALIAN RIVER OVERFLOWS

Rome, Aug. 15.—Five persons lost their lives, and a few houses were destroyed, when the Isarco River, a mountain stream emptying into the Adige, overflowed its banks last week.

FREIGHT TRAIN PASSED OVER MAN'S BODY

Robert W. Eairth, C. P. R. Brakeman, Instantly Killed At Hyde Park.

ACCIDENT IS UNSEEN

Train Was Taking Switch At 11:25 For Passenger To Pass.

Robert W. Eairth, 42 years of age, residing at 865 Queen's avenue, this city, and for twelve years employed by the C. P. R. as a brakeman, was instantly killed at 11:25 o'clock this morning at Hyde Park, when C. P. R. train No. 74, composed of 48 freight cars upon which he was working, passed over his body. It is believed that Mr. Eairth slipped beneath the train while attempting to board a car while the train was moving slowly.

There were no eyewitnesses to the accident as far as is known. The body of the dead man was discovered by Conductor D. Fleming of this city, who was in charge of the train, and who at the time was riding on the van.

According to a message received at the local divisional headquarters, the freight train, eastbound, was under orders to pull into the passing-track at Hyde Park to give westbound passenger train No. 21 the right-of-way. Brakeman Eairth was riding the front end of the train, and so got off to turn the switch, which would allow the freight to back into the siding.

It is believed that after he had turned the switch, he attempted to board the train while it was slowly passing, and that in some manner he missed his footing, and fell beneath the wheel. After the train had passed Mr. Fleming discovered the body completely severed.

Mr. Eairth was unmarried. For some time he has been boarding at the home of Mrs. M. Cockburn. As far as it could be ascertained by the officials of the C. P. R., he was a native of Scotland.

(Continued on Page Three.)

ART TREASURES FROM OTTAWA, DETROIT AT FAIR

National Art Galleries Loan Ten Pictures—Detroit I. of A. Sends Three.

Especially fine pictures are being secured for the art exhibition at the Western Fair this year. Matters pertaining to the securing of the extra features are under negotiations with the Detroit Institute of Arts and in a letter received by the secretary of the fair board, they have promised to loan three of their most valuable pieces of work.

W. H. Abbott, director of art exhibits, is corresponding with C. H. Burroughs of the Institute of Arts, Detroit, as to the three selections to be made.

Secretary Hunt has also written to the National Art Galleries at Ottawa, who have always been good in rendering assistance in anything regarding art, and in a letter received from Eric Brown, director of the Art Gallery, ten valuable pictures, the titles of which appear below, have been offered for showing purposes:

"On the Beach," by M. Alberta Cleland.

"Danville Roses," by Frederick S. Coburn.

"Marigolds Cove, Late Evening," by Leon Dabo.

"Maison de Cavalier de la Salle," by Georges Delfosse.

"The Way," by Parquhar McGilivray Knowles, R. C. A.

"The Shining River," by James E. H. Mad.

"Solitude," by Fanny G. Plimmsell.

"Study in Rose and Green," by Mary H. Reid, A. R. C. A.

"The Little Bridge," by Mary E. Waugh, A. R. C. A.

"A Meeting of School Trustees," by Robert Harris, C. M. G. R. C. A.

Two pictures by Paul Peet, a former Londoner, will also be on view.

LORD BYNG PAYS VISIT TO OFFICE

Governor-General Ready To Assume His Official Duties.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—His Excellency the Governor-General, accompanied by Capt. O. H. C. Balfour, secretary, and Arthur F. Sladen, private secretary, paid his first official visit to his office in the east block of the Parliament Buildings this morning. The prime minister called upon him at noon.

JAPAN RECEIVES INVITATION TO U.S. CONFERENCE

Formal Message Is Sent From U. S. Government to Tokio Officials.

Tokio, Aug. 15.—Formal invitation to Japan to send representatives to the conference on disarmament and far eastern questions, to be held in Washington late this autumn, has been received from the United States capital.

B. C. HARVEST IN FULL SWING.

Vernon, B. C., Aug. 15.—The harvest of the Okanagan Valley is moving out rapidly, most of it destined to prairie points. Peaches, apricots, plums and early apples comprise the shipments. Vegetables are a good crop.

LONDON'S BIG BARGAIN DAY ON THURSDAY

Much has been heard recently of the optimistic outlook which the merchants of London have as to the conditions of business and the welfare of the city generally, and it is with this thought and spirit uppermost that the leading retail merchants have set about the making of the preparations for the holding of the 1921 Fall Dollar Day sale.

Recognizing the enterprise and optimistic spirit of the London merchants, the manufacturers and wholesalers have heartily co-operated in the idea of giving to the people of London and district an opportunity to purchase goods at real bargain prices, in many cases at and even below the original cost of production.

In addition to the bargains made available by this fact the local merchants are slashing the prices on goods in stock so that Thursday, August 18, 1921, will long be remembered as a red letter day by the patrons of their stores.

There has been the same old previous similar occasions to provide some additional attractions, but for this occasion the merchants' committee in charge of the organization of the Dollar Day program has decided to cut out this feature and to give the citizens the advantage of the elimination of this expense in better bargains than has been possible to offer before.

BYNG THANKS CITIZENS FOR THEIR MESSAGE

Regrets He Cannot Attend the Western Fair, But Will Come Later.

A second telegram from Governor-General Lord Byng in response to a wire sent him on Saturday by Mayor E. S. Little on behalf of the citizens of London, asking him to attend the exhibition on Tuesday, September 13, was received by the mayor this morning.

"Many thanks for kind message. I most heartily appreciate it. Please convey my grateful thanks to your citizens for same."

In the telegram received on Sunday night the governor-general sent his regrets, and stated that he would be unable to attend the exhibition, but looking forward to a visit to London very soon, when he would renew old acquaintances with his comrades of the great war.

The mayor's wire was as follows: "London, Ont., August 12, 1921. "His Excellency Lord Byng, "Ottawa, Ont.

"Citizens of London, Ont., extend most hearty welcome and good wishes to your Excellency, and wish to assure you of their loyal support.

"On behalf of the council of the corporation and the Western Fair Association, we would respectfully request that if you can find it at all possible you visit London and open our exhibition on Tuesday, September 13, and thus give our people of London and Western Ontario the opportunity of making, and the veterans of the great war of renewing your acquaintance."

"W. M. GARTSHORE, President. Will Come to London."

On Saturday evening a telegram was sent to Lord Byng, signed by Mayor Little on behalf of the city of London, and Col. W. M. Gartshore, on behalf of the Western Fair board, asking his excellency to attend the Western Fair on Tuesday, September 13.

Last night the following reply was received: "Very many thanks for your kind message and invitation. Regret that it will be impossible for me to attend your exhibition on Tuesday, September 13, but am looking forward to visiting London as soon as I can and renewing acquaintance with my comrades of the great war."

BYNG.

THE WEATHER

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Following are the highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 72; lowest, 50.

The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 68; lowest, 47.

BAROMETRIC STANDING.

Saturday—8 a.m., 29.35; 6 p.m., 29.21. Sunday—8 a.m., 29.31; 6 p.m., 29.36. Today—8 a.m., 29.45.

TOMORROW—FAIR AND WARMER.

Toronto, Aug. 15.

Forecasts.

Today—Moderate northwest and west winds; light rain; fair and somewhat warmer.

Tuesday—Southerly winds; fair and somewhat warmer.

The highest and lowest temperatures during the 24 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were:

Station	High	Low	Weather
Victoria	58	52	Fair
Calgary	54	48	Fair
Winnipeg	51	42	Fair
Port Arthur	51	48	Fair
Toronto	51	43	Fair
Kitchener	52	42	Fair
Ottawa	55	46	Fair
Montreal	56	42	Fair
Quebec	59	46	Cloudy
St. John	60	46	Cloudy
Halifax	61	50	Fair

An area of moderate intensity is centered this morning over the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and pressure is highest over the Lake Region.

Rain has fallen in most districts of Eastern Quebec and the Maritime Provinces.

The weather has been fine and warmer in the West, and is now fine and rather cool in Eastern Canada.

LEGLESS MAN BELIEVED TO BE A. J. SMALL

Mysterious Individual Is Found On a Farm Near Des Moines.

IS UNDER SURVEILLANCE

Injured by Train and Not by Gunshot Wounds, As Reported.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Police and relatives here of Ambrose J. Small, missing theatre magnate, are not inclined to take seriously the dispatch from Des Moines, Ia., stating that John Brophy, head of the Brophy Detective Agency of Iowa, has found a man believed to be the missing millionaire.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 15.—A man of mystery, who, according to Frank Hart, former assistant chief of police, has been under surveillance here for six months as Ambrose Small, missing Toronto theatre owner, may be brought from his place of hiding today, Hartly announced.

Hartly said he was certain that the man is the Toronto millionaire, for whom a world-wide search has been in progress since his disappearance in December, 1919.

Hartly said he had been in communication with Toronto authorities, and that someone would be here from the Canadian city either today or Tuesday to verify the identity of the man. He said Mrs. Small might come to Des Moines.

Hartly refused to discuss the condition of the man he claims to be Small, but John Brophy, former chief of detectives, who, with Marshall Miller, former superintendent of police, assisted Hartly in his investigation, said that the man is living in an isolated farm house just outside of the city limits, and that he could be reached in an hour or two by automobile.

Brophy substantiated reports that the man is legless, and said he appears to be dazed. Brophy intimated, however, that he was injured by a train, and not by gunshot wounds, as previously reported.

Brophy said the man believed to be Small was brought to Des Moines more than a year ago. He intimated that he was brought here by John Doughty, Small's former secretary, who is serving a term in a Canadian prison for the theft of some of the millionaire's stocks and bonds.

Brophy said the man was fairly well supplied with money and that he was left in the care of a private family, who promised to keep his whereabouts a secret.

Brophy says it is impossible to engage the man in lucid conversation. He says his replies invariably are "Yes" or "No," and frequently meaningless.

KING STREET CLOSED FROM RICHMOND TO TALBOT ST. FOR WEEK

Bricks Are Being Replaced by Asphalt Paving—Rushing Work.

READY BEFORE FAIR

Watchmen Only Employed Where Danger or Damage to Work Require.

Traffic, which has been partially restricted on King street, between Richmond and Talbot streets, during the past few days, while the old bricks were being torn up to pave this thoroughfare, was entirely prohibited today, according to Engineer H. A. Brazier, who has ordered barricades erected for this purpose.

In addition to this block the pavement on Talbot street, from King to Fullerton streets, will also be resurfaced. It is hoped that the King street block will be opened within a week's time.

Following complaints received to the effect that the street is dangerous to vehicular traffic with no watchman on duty, The Advertiser asked the city engineer for an explanation this morning.

He said: "There are barricades on this thoroughfare, and red lights at night, and there is no need for a watchman at present. We always have a watchman on duty where there is danger to the public and of damage to the work, such as sewers where pedestrians may fall in, or hoodlums may break tile, or for sidewalks where damage may result to green cement work."

"Is it right that you are tearing up this busy street in preparation for Fair Week, as is the time-honored custom?" asked the reporter.

"O, that used to be the custom," replied the engineer, "but for the past few years has a main street been torn up at that time of the year. This job will be completed before Fair Week. It is regrettable, but we will hurry up the job. As the College St., Adelaide, Market, Sudbury College, Sudbury, St. Boniface College, Manitoba, and Edmonton College, Alberta."

MAKE CHANGES IN STAFF.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—The Jesuit Fathers of Canada have made a large number of changes in the personnel of the educational institutions under their control. Among the staffs affected are those of the College St. Antoine, Montreal; Sudbury College, Sudbury; St. Boniface College, Manitoba, and Edmonton College, Alberta.

Perfect Pictures
FROM EVERY NEGATIVE
We mail back your finished work hours after the order is received.
ONE TRIAL WILL CONVINCE YOU.

Cairncross
the Chemists
Four Graduate Dispensers
216 DUNDAS ST. PHONE 880.
"Experts in KODAK Photography."

DISCUSS JUVENILE COURT PROBLEMS

Rotarians Will Invite Illinois State Attorney To Speak Here.

It is not unlikely that Captain Chappell, assistant state attorney for Illinois, will be a visitor to London on his way home to Chicago. A determined effort is now being made to have him include this city on his list, and an invitation has already been extended, should the Illinois official find it possible to accept it. It is proposed that he be here on August 22, when it is hoped he will speak at the noon-day luncheon of the Rotary Club.

OPERATORS OF GAMES AT SPRINGBANK FACE COURT

Four operators of games at the Springbank Amusement Park are before Justice W. H. Chittick this afternoon charged with running games of chance. They were arrested at 11:25 o'clock Saturday night by a squad of constables under Provincial Officer Arthur H. Palmer, and their concessions closed.

HYDRO PARTY TO BOOST RADIALS NOW TALKED OF Liberal Leader Is Critical of Action of Drury Government.

TORONTO, Aug. 14.—The formation of a hydro electric party in the province to back public ownership and the power and radial policies of Sir Adam Beck is predicted by local friends of hydro in interviews given to the press.

Major Alex. Lewis, M.L.A., said: "There will be a hydro electric party formed in the province to rally behind Sir Adam Beck's policy of public ownership is not endangered. These men favor public ownership and will rally to the new party without regard to political affiliations."

Major Lewis said that the actual result of the report might be to somewhat delay the building of the radial, but that the municipalities were too strong to let the scheme to allow the government to definitely solve the scheme.

H. H. Dewar, provincial Liberal leader, was severely critical tonight of the Drury Government for having appointed a tremendously expensive commission to determine something that the Government should have determined itself.

"I think the commission has made a very wise report," said Hugh Blair, "We don't quite realize the tremendous amount of indebtedness that is being created in our municipal affairs. The system of extravagance and unbridled expense is creating a serious situation in my opinion."

SEES GOVT. DEFAT.
TORONTO, Aug. 15.—Mayor Church, today in discussing the Sutherland commission's radial report, said that the municipalities would organize to carry on a campaign and the result would be the defeat of the Government in the Legislature.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.
Victorian—At Montreal, from Liverpool.
Casert—Montreal, Genoa.
Paris—New York, Havre.
Albania—New York, Liverpool.
Taronina—New York, Naples.
Mondana—New York, Rotterdam.
Manchuria—New York, Hamburg.
Saxonia—London, New York.
Lapland—New York, Southampton.
Berengaria—New York, Southampton.

STEAMER SAILINGS.
Aquitania—From Cherbourg, for New York.
Meganitic—Montreal, Liverpool.

DUKE OPENS HOME.
LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Duke of Connaught has opened the nursing home which he has given the Bagshot Hospital, as a memorial to the late Duchess of Connaught.

IMMIGRANTS FOR FOREST DISTRICT ARRIVE TOMORROW

Arrangements for Party Are Already Made—None For London District.

UNEMPLOYMENT EASIER

Many Men Left Jobs On the Farms To Go To the West.

Officials of the local bureau of agriculture and colonization report a small party of immigrants from the old country due to arrive in the city Tuesday. The party of immigrants, the representatives say, are to be taken care of in the Forest district, arrangements having already been completed for some time. There will be none of them for the immediate London area.

It is reported that these and other prospective settlers, arriving from time to time are not brought out through any effort on the part of the Ontario Government. When in Toronto a few days since, R. A. Finn, of the local office was assured, he says, by Harry Tut, formerly of the London Employment Bureau, that all publicity activities on the part of the province had definitely ceased. Mr. Tut is now director of immigration in the city of Toronto.

With the departure of several hundred harvesters for the West from London in the month of the month, the situation has eased just a trifle, according to officials of the local employment bureau. A remarkable feature of the recent exodus, however, was that fact that the West was not necessarily out of work. Now and then a distant farmer sends in an application for help to the local department, intimating that his man has picked up a number of plausible reasons are advanced for this movement. Attracted by the probability of a big wage for a reasonably lengthy period, the younger element is being lured forward to a change of environment—new fields of endeavor; a new setting entirely with the possibility of a look at Winnipeg and other of the larger cities en route. That the younger element regarded the trip as a sort of outing is remarked upon.

In the meanwhile the local unemployed situation remains fairly stationary.

COPTIC PRIEST TO LECTURE.
Rev. Father W. S. J. Chalouhiz, priest of the Coptic Church of Egypt, will be in London on his way home to Chicago. A determined effort is now being made to have him include this city on his list, and an invitation has already been extended, should the Illinois official find it possible to accept it.

FELL FROM BUILDING.—While working at Victoria school at 9 o'clock this morning, Elmer Belbeck, Pipe Line road, fell from the building and injured his back. He may be injured internally. The police ambulance was called and he was taken to his home, where he is beyond the second case.

WILL USE BRICKS.—City Engineer Brazier announced this morning that the 75,000 bricks removed from King street, between Richmond and Talbot, this morning, will be used for resurfacing this pavement with asphalt, will be utilized on street crossings throughout the city. Broken bricks removed from the thoroughfare will be used to fill in industrial areas.

CONVICTED OF THEFT.—A juvenile convicted of the theft of a bicycle in juvenile court this morning was remanded. As he came from England recently, investigation officials also looked into the matter, regarding his deportation. No bicycle reported to have been stolen by him was found with the wheels and handle grips missing.

PICNIC ON WEDNESDAY.—The last picnic of the season will be held at Springbank Park on Wednesday afternoon, when the members of Victoria Lodge, 120, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Elks, of Toronto, will be in the park. As the members of C. P. R. Lodge, 415, and G. T. R. Lodge, 240, of the B. R. T., have been invited to attend, it is expected that nearly 200 will be present.

JOHN FARRELL IS BACK.—After a ten-day trip through the greater part of Northern Ontario, J. Farrell, London representative for the department of agriculture and colonization, will return to his office today. Each year the government details a representative to visit that district for the purpose of selecting exhibitors for the Northern Ontario Log Cabin Fair, which is held in the city of Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Farrell is the choice this year. He is incidentally very optimistic over conditions as he found them in the north.

Continued From Page One
PREDICTS CITY
about the continent feel the same."

A Live Center.
"I cannot help but notice improvements since my departure. For one thing, you have some splendid pavements. The old roads are being repaired. The thing of the past. But best of all, there is something really noticeable that never existed before to such an appreciable degree as now, and that is the wonderful spirit of co-operation—the spirit of doing things. You have a good old town, with all its possibilities, and if you can get that idea implanted you will hold the city in the palm of your hand. It will not be a boom town, but a good, hustling place. The Americans employ a fine system of boosting their own. Theirs is the only country where the municipalities were too strong to let the scheme to allow the government to definitely solve the scheme."

H. H. Dewar, provincial Liberal leader, was severely critical tonight of the Drury Government for having appointed a tremendously expensive commission to determine something that the Government should have determined itself.

"I think the commission has made a very wise report," said Hugh Blair, "We don't quite realize the tremendous amount of indebtedness that is being created in our municipal affairs. The system of extravagance and unbridled expense is creating a serious situation in my opinion."

SEES GOVT. DEFAT.
TORONTO, Aug. 15.—Mayor Church, today in discussing the Sutherland commission's radial report, said that the municipalities would organize to carry on a campaign and the result would be the defeat of the Government in the Legislature.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.
Victorian—At Montreal, from Liverpool.
Casert—Montreal, Genoa.
Paris—New York, Havre.
Albania—New York, Liverpool.
Taronina—New York, Naples.
Mondana—New York, Rotterdam.
Manchuria—New York, Hamburg.
Saxonia—London, New York.
Lapland—New York, Southampton.
Berengaria—New York, Southampton.

STEAMER SAILINGS.
Aquitania—From Cherbourg, for New York.
Meganitic—Montreal, Liverpool.

DUKE OPENS HOME.
LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Duke of Connaught has opened the nursing home which he has given the Bagshot Hospital, as a memorial to the late Duchess of Connaught.

IMMIGRANTS FOR FOREST DISTRICT ARRIVE TOMORROW

Arrangements for Party Are Already Made—None For London District.

UNEMPLOYMENT EASIER

Many Men Left Jobs On the Farms To Go To the West.

Officials of the local bureau of agriculture and colonization report a small party of immigrants from the old country due to arrive in the city Tuesday. The party of immigrants, the representatives say, are to be taken care of in the Forest district, arrangements having already been completed for some time. There will be none of them for the immediate London area.

It is reported that these and other prospective settlers, arriving from time to time are not brought out through any effort on the part of the Ontario Government. When in Toronto a few days since, R. A. Finn, of the local office was assured, he says, by Harry Tut, formerly of the London Employment Bureau, that all publicity activities on the part of the province had definitely ceased. Mr. Tut is now director of immigration in the city of Toronto.

With the departure of several hundred harvesters for the West from London in the month of the month, the situation has eased just a trifle, according to officials of the local employment bureau. A remarkable feature of the recent exodus, however, was that fact that the West was not necessarily out of work. Now and then a distant farmer sends in an application for help to the local department, intimating that his man has picked up a number of plausible reasons are advanced for this movement. Attracted by the probability of a big wage for a reasonably lengthy period, the younger element is being lured forward to a change of environment—new fields of endeavor; a new setting entirely with the possibility of a look at Winnipeg and other of the larger cities en route. That the younger element regarded the trip as a sort of outing is remarked upon.

In the meanwhile the local unemployed situation remains fairly stationary.

COPTIC PRIEST TO LECTURE.
Rev. Father W. S. J. Chalouhiz, priest of the Coptic Church of Egypt, will be in London on his way home to Chicago. A determined effort is now being made to have him include this city on his list, and an invitation has already been extended, should the Illinois official find it possible to accept it.

FELL FROM BUILDING.—While working at Victoria school at 9 o'clock this morning, Elmer Belbeck, Pipe Line road, fell from the building and injured his back. He may be injured internally. The police ambulance was called and he was taken to his home, where he is beyond the second case.

WILL USE BRICKS.—City Engineer Brazier announced this morning that the 75,000 bricks removed from King street, between Richmond and Talbot, this morning, will be used for resurfacing this pavement with asphalt, will be utilized on street crossings throughout the city. Broken bricks removed from the thoroughfare will be used to fill in industrial areas.

CONVICTED OF THEFT.—A juvenile convicted of the theft of a bicycle in juvenile court this morning was remanded. As he came from England recently, investigation officials also looked into the matter, regarding his deportation. No bicycle reported to have been stolen by him was found with the wheels and handle grips missing.

PICNIC ON WEDNESDAY.—The last picnic of the season will be held at Springbank Park on Wednesday afternoon, when the members of Victoria Lodge, 120, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Elks, of Toronto, will be in the park. As the members of C. P. R. Lodge, 415, and G. T. R. Lodge, 240, of the B. R. T., have been invited to attend, it is expected that nearly 200 will be present.

JOHN FARRELL IS BACK.—After a ten-day trip through the greater part of Northern Ontario, J. Farrell, London representative for the department of agriculture and colonization, will return to his office today. Each year the government details a representative to visit that district for the purpose of selecting exhibitors for the Northern Ontario Log Cabin Fair, which is held in the city of Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Farrell is the choice this year. He is incidentally very optimistic over conditions as he found them in the north.

Continued From Page One
PREDICTS CITY
about the continent feel the same."

A Live Center.
"I cannot help but notice improvements since my departure. For one thing, you have some splendid pavements. The old roads are being repaired. The thing of the past. But best of all, there is something really noticeable that never existed before to such an appreciable degree as now, and that is the wonderful spirit of co-operation—the spirit of doing things. You have a good old town, with all its possibilities, and if you can get that idea implanted you will hold the city in the palm of your hand. It will not be a boom town, but a good, hustling place. The Americans employ a fine system of boosting their own. Theirs is the only country where the municipalities were too strong to let the scheme to allow the government to definitely solve the scheme."

H. H. Dewar, provincial Liberal leader, was severely critical tonight of the Drury Government for having appointed a tremendously expensive commission to determine something that the Government should have determined itself.

"I think the commission has made a very wise report," said Hugh Blair, "We don't quite realize the tremendous amount of indebtedness that is being created in our municipal affairs. The system of extravagance and unbridled expense is creating a serious situation in my opinion."

SEES GOVT. DEFAT.
TORONTO, Aug. 15.—Mayor Church, today in discussing the Sutherland commission's radial report, said that the municipalities would organize to carry on a campaign and the result would be the defeat of the Government in the Legislature.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.
Victorian—At Montreal, from Liverpool.
Casert—Montreal, Genoa.
Paris—New York, Havre.
Albania—New York, Liverpool.
Taronina—New York, Naples.
Mondana—New York, Rotterdam.
Manchuria—New York, Hamburg.
Saxonia—London, New York.
Lapland—New York, Southampton.
Berengaria—New York, Southampton.

STEAMER SAILINGS.
Aquitania—From Cherbourg, for New York.
Meganitic—Montreal, Liverpool.

DUKE OPENS HOME.
LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Duke of Connaught has opened the nursing home which he has given the Bagshot Hospital, as a memorial to the late Duchess of Connaught.

LONDONER TO JUDGE CATTLE AND HORSES AT CALIFORNIA FAIR

Capt. T. E. Robson Also Invited To Do Same in Toronto.

Capt. T. E. Robson, county treasurer, will judge cattle and draught horses at the California State Fair at Sacramento, California, next month. Shortly after he received the invitation from the officials of this exhibition, he received a letter from the London Exhibition directors asking him to accept a similar post there, but as he had already accepted the first one, he was forced to decline the second bid.

SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMS AT WESTERN UNIVERSITY

Program and Instructions Issued by Department of Education.

Public School Inspector V. K. Greer has received the timetable for Middle School and Junior Matriculation and Supplementary examinations which will be held at the Western University for those students who failed on certain subjects in the regular examinations, and as Toronto, Kingston and London are the only centres, it necessarily follows that Western Ontario candidates must appear here for the examinations.

However, other centers can be established within the province, provided that candidates apply before September 1, and undertake to pay the additional fees for presiding. The candidates in such cases are less than twice the cost of presiding at that centre, the candidates shall pay additional fees for presiding as follows:

Where on any half-day, only one candidate is writing, $3; only two candidates, $2 each; only three candidates, $1 each. These fees for presiding shall be paid to the presiding officer at the time of the examination and shall be for the use of him to the department of education.

In addition these examinations may be conducted at any centre in Canada provided that the candidate or candidates apply before August 25, and undertake to pay all the local expenses, including the presiding officer's allowance, express charges and cost of supplies.

For the September examinations the department of education will pay the presiding officer's allowance at $12 per day, the express charges, and the cost of supplies at the center where the examination is held. The presiding officer shall collect from the candidates the full amount of any other local expenses that he may find it necessary to incur.

For the September examinations, the candidates for candidates who are engaged in teaching shall be the same as for the June examinations, but for all other candidates, the examination fees shall be $2 per paper, with a maximum fee of $15 in the case of the middle school and pass matriculation examinations, and $4 per paper, with a maximum fee of $20 in the case of the upper school examinations. All such fees shall be payable to the department at the time of application.

Following is the examination timetable, as issued by the department of education:

Middle and Junior Matriculation.
Sept. 6—9 to 11:30, French Authors; 1:30 to 4, French Composition.
Sept. 7—9 to 11:30, Geometry; 1:30 to 4, English Composition.
Sept. 8—9 to 11:30, Algebra; 1:30 to 4, English Literature.
Sept. 9—9 to 11:30, Greek Authors; 1:30 to 4, Greek Composition.
Sept. 10—9 to 11:30, Latin Authors; 1:30 to 4, Latin Composition.
Sept. 11—9 to 11:30, Physics; 1:30 to 4, British and Canadian History.
Sept. 12—9 to 11:30, Chemistry; 1:30 to 4, Ancient History.
Sept. 13—9 to 11:30, German Authors; 1:30 to 4, German Composition.
Sept. 14—9 to 11:30, German Authors; 1:30 to 4, German Composition.
Sept. 15—9 to 11:30, French Authors; 1:30 to 4, French Composition.
Sept. 16—9 to 11:30, Geometry; 1:30 to 4, English Composition.
Sept. 17—9 to 11:30, Algebra; 1:30 to 4, English Literature.
Sept. 18—9 to 11:30, Trigonometry; 1:30 to 4, History (1st Course).
Sept. 19—9 to 11:30, Latin Authors; 1:30 to 4, Latin Composition.
Sept. 20—9 to 11:30, Physics; 1:30 to 4, History (2nd Course).
Sept. 21—9 to 11:30, Chemistry; 1:30 to 4, Mineralogy.
Sept. 22—9 to 11:30, Botany; 1:30 to 4, Zoology.
Sept. 23—9 to 11:30, German Authors; 1:30 to 4, German Composition.
Sept. 24—9 to 11:30, Greek Authors; 1:30 to 4, Greek Composition.

Upper and Honor, Mat.
Sept. 25—9 to 11:30, French Authors; 1:30 to 4, French Composition.
Sept. 26—9 to 11:30, Geometry; 1:30 to 4, English Composition.
Sept. 27—9 to 11:30, Algebra; 1:30 to 4, English Literature.
Sept. 28—9 to 11:30, Trigonometry; 1:30 to 4, History (1st Course).
Sept. 29—9 to 11:30, Latin Authors; 1:30 to 4, Latin Composition.
Sept. 30—9 to 11:30, Physics; 1:30 to 4, History (2nd Course).
Sept. 31—9 to 11:30, Chemistry; 1:30 to 4, Mineralogy.
Sept. 32—9 to 11:30, Botany; 1:30 to 4, Zoology.

Continued From Page One
TWELVE HUNDRED
close supervision to prevent accidents, no one was allowed in the waters before the races were concluded.

Offer Was Late.
The picnic was supervised by the following instructors: Alexander, J. S. McFarlane and W. Thompson; James P. McMahon and Miss E. Price; Riverview, Miss B. Fitzpatrick and C. McFarlane; G. Wainwright, Chapman, Lord Roberts, Queen's Park, Miss E. Haskett, Mr. Dundas; Burket, Miss E. Foster, W. Lightfoot, and Tecumseh, F. James and Miss K. Braithwaite. The regular staff was assisted by Hon. S. W. Rowell, and that voting will take place in the second week of October.

FIRE RANGER DROWNED.
PORT ARTHUR, Aug. 13.—John McPherson, 42, fire ranger, was drowned in Trout Lake, 17 miles from Port Arthur, yesterday afternoon when a canoe carrying four persons turned over.

ALBERTA JUDGESHIP.
Calgary, Aug. 15.—It is believed that two men to be appointed by the Dominion Government to supreme court judgeships in Alberta will be Hon. J. R. Boyle, late attorney-general of the province, and T. M. Tweedie, M.P. of Calgary.

TECUMSEH MOTHERS' PICNIC.
Avenue Mothers' Club will hold their annual picnic at Springbank Park on Wednesday, August 17.

FIVE LOCAL PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS TOOK O. A. C. COURSE
Five public school teachers of this city have completed elementary or intermediate courses at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, this summer, being over 400 Ontario teachers of public and high schools of the province in attendance. The courses were of five weeks' duration, and each runs for a period of two years before certificates are awarded.

The following teachers from London took the course: Elementary—M. Garret, Port Arthur School; Miss Annie Hozarth, Ealing School, Intermediate—Miss Ruth Hooper, St. George's School; Miss Hattie Chapman, Ryerson School; Miss Miss Grant of Boyle Memorial School.

EXPECT HOUSING REPORT TONIGHT
Special Meeting of Commission To Consider Building Inspector's Statement.

A special meeting of the London Housing Commission was called for tonight, when the report of Building Inspector A. M. Piper on the condition of dwellings erected on Garfield avenue and Pine lawn for the commission will be received. While it has not been received yet, it is hoped that the report of Provincial Housing Inspector E. W. Hammett, who inspected the houses last week, will arrive here this afternoon so that it also may be discussed at the meeting.

EXPECT HOUSING REPORT TONIGHT

Special Meeting of Commission To Consider Building Inspector's Statement.

A special meeting of the London Housing Commission was called for tonight, when the report of Building Inspector A. M. Piper on the condition of dwellings erected on Garfield avenue and Pine lawn for the commission will be received. While it has not been received yet, it is hoped that the report of Provincial Housing Inspector E. W. Hammett, who inspected the houses last week, will arrive here this afternoon so that it also may be discussed at the meeting.

Tonight was selected for the meeting because of the fact that Vice-Chairman D. J. Tallant of the housing commission, who charged that the contractors were not adhering to specifications, must leave the city for a week on Tuesday. Should Inspector Hammett's report not reach London today, it will be held until the next meeting of the commission on the return of Commissioner Tallant.

The report of Inspector Piper, who was instructed to investigate the construction of the houses, following refusal of J. A. Ellis, housing director for Ontario, to send an inspector here, is completed. Director Ellis later decided to send Inspector Hammett to inspect the houses.

Speaking in a life at the city hall after the contents of Inspector Piper's report, which is being kept secret until tonight. While some officials declare it to be a whitewash, others have taken the opposite view.

A Serious Matter.
"As a matter of fact, the houses are not fixed up," a city official who claims to have information, the Advertiser this morning. "But what can Inspector Piper do? If he reports things as they are, look at the liability which the city assumes. This is a very serious matter."

Inspector Piper informed The Advertiser that since he commenced his inspection two weeks ago, many defects in the houses have been remedied by the contractors.

"If I waited another week before I turned in my report," he declared, "they would have everything fixed up according to specifications. The contractors are waiting for the opportunity to get the houses fixed up."

"That is what was needed," suggested The Advertiser. "Yes, sir," replied the inspector. "All we want is that the jobs be up to the specifications."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS
DEATH OF HENRY HASKETT.
Henry Haskett, 456 Piccadilly street, one of London's oldest residents, died in Victoria Hospital on Saturday evening after a brief illness.

Mr. Haskett was a resident of London for the past 75 years, coming here with his parents from County Galway, Ireland, where he was born 89 years ago.

For many years he was one of the leading contractors here, having part of the contracts for the courthouse, the old city hall and the Ontario Hospital. Mr. Haskett was a member of the Victoria Fire Brigade, and was a great sportsman in his day. He was not active in politics, but always took a keen interest in city affairs.

He died on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. after a long illness. He could relate many interesting incidents of the early pioneer days.

Five nephews and two nieces survive him: Robert P. Haskett, James J. Haskett, Thomas H. Haskett and Richard Booth, all of this city, Joseph Booth in California, Miss Mary J. Booth in the Victoria Fire Brigade, and the late William Haskett of London Township. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon.

DEATH OF MARGARET JOHNSTONE.
The death took place on Sunday of Margaret Johnstone, aged 70 years, youngest daughter of the late David and Mary Johnstone, at the residence of her brother, William Johnstone, 107 St. Joseph's street, London. The funeral will be held from the undertaking parlor of J. W. Woodland Cemetery, The Oddfellows, of which Mr. Howard was a member, were in charge of the funeral, and the pallbearers were selected from this lodge. Services were conducted by Rev. H. E. Bray at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF HERBERT KIDDLE.
The funeral of Herbert Kiddle, William street, who died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday, August 12, was held from the undertaking parlor of J. W. Woodland Cemetery, The Oddfellows, of which Mr. Howard was a member, were in charge of the funeral, and the pallbearers were selected from this lodge. Services were conducted by Rev. H. E. Bray at 2 o'clock.

ODDFELLOWS' FUNERAL.
The funeral of Thomas Howard, 590 Oxford street, was held from his residence Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. from the undertaking parlor of J. W. Woodland Cemetery, The Oddfellows, of which Mr. Howard was a member, were in charge of the funeral, and the pallbearers were selected from this lodge. Services were conducted by Rev. H. E. Bray at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF MRS. J. PIERCE.
The funeral of Mrs. J. Pierce, widow of the late J. Pierce, was held from her residence, 20 Byron avenue, this afternoon to Woodland Cemetery at 2:30 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. J. Edmunds of St. James' Church at 2 o'clock.

TEN DOLLARS OR TEN DAYS FOR CRUELTY
Roy Hendershott was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for cruelty to animals, having been summoned on a complaint of Coasgah, a dog who saw him working a horse which had sores on it. According to the officer, Hendershott was driving two horses which were hitched to a wagon loaded with one and a half cords of wood on Saturday last. These horses were noticed by one of the horses' pincers, and found a sore the length of a pencil and an inch wide under the harness. It was a running sore. The other horse was suffering from swellings on its legs. Hendershott was not questioned by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon if he wanted to give evidence, the defendant stated: "I won't give you any evidence."

FORMER BRITISH M. P. DIES.
London, Aug. 15.—Annet last Tuesday of the death of William Tyson Wilson, former member of Parliament for the West Houghton division of Lancashire. He was born in 1855 and was for many years one of the most prominent leaders of the Labor party.

BELIEVES CAMPAIGN FOR 'OPEN SHOP' IS RAPIDLY RECEDING

The Photo Engravers' Union Opens Its Annual Convention in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—The belief that the agitation for the "open shop" was rapidly receding, was expressed in the address which President Matthew Wolf, of the Photo Engravers' Union, gave today at the opening session of that organization's annual convention. President Wolf, credited the open shop as the cause of the present industrial depression, by adding to the instability of general conditions, the existing conditions, however, in the immediate future, seeing the establishment of harmonious relations between employers and employees. Both factions, he declared, were at present sincere in their desire to co-operate towards evolving working agreements that would be fair in the light of changed conditions.

Lower wages, however, he emphasized, could play but a minor part in securing any understanding between the two parties. They involved the admission that the remuneration of the worker should fluctuate with the cost of living, a doctrine to which the American Federation of Labor did not assent.

Accord Sympathetic Support.
"Organized labor co-operation stands for harmonious co-operation between employing and employed interests, and repudiates the doctrine of class hatred. But it does not admit that profits should accrue merely to the one class and a bare subsistence be returned to the other."

"The most important controversy to which organized labor is at present a party is that in the printing press, continued, adding a denunciation of the American printers for their attempt to enforce the 48-hour week in spite of their 41-hour agreements."

"During the war," he contended, "the printing press was the backbone of the nation, and its members were not only not doing so, but were teaching the men that a contract means nothing."

Continuing, President Wolf declared that the struggle did not bear directly upon the engravers' organization, as it consisted of the whiskey, champagne, and other wines, valued at fifteen hundred dollars, were assigned to John H. Jones, St. Thomas, Ontario, to be sold in the city.

No person of that name in the city, he said, was known to the union, and the inspector took charge of the liquor. Later John E. Jones, South Yarmouth, made a demand on the inspector to determine the ownership of the liquor, a couple of weeks ago, and hearing the testimony of John E. Jones, who declared that he had purchased the liquor from a house in Montreal, that the list ordered was prepared by Dr. Jackson, Premier Standish, and his brother to pay for the consignment, the inspector reserved judgment. Before the delivery of the liquor's findings, J. M. McEwen, K.C., counsel for Jones, interfered and asked for a further postponement until the order sent to Montreal could be produced to discover whether it was John H. Jones or John E. Jones who had signed the paper. The order was secured and given the magistrate, but the signature to the order was found to be Jones with a mark between the names which might have been any letter. In other respects the order prepared by Dr. Jackson and the bill of goods in possession of Jones agreed in every particular, and the magistrate gave him the benefit of the doubt.

Crown Attorney McCormick will appear, claiming that the signature to the order alone was not sufficient proof of its genuineness to be admitted as evidence.

GREEKS PREPARING TO OPEN SECOND DRIVE AGAINST THE TURKS
Nationalists Are Expected To Put Up Desperate Fight To Retain Ground.

Smyrna, Aug. 15.—The Greeks have begun a second offensive against the Turkish Nationalists. The latter are retreating rapidly toward Sakaria. River without offering resistance.

SEEK $500,000 LOAN TO RECONSTRUCT BURNED AREAS IN QUEBEC TOWN
Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Seeking a loan of $500,000 under the provincial housing scheme to aid in the rebuilding of destroyed portions of the town of Aylmer, Mayor George Nash left on Saturday afternoon for Quebec, where he will interview Quebec's premier.

MEIGHEN KEPT BUSY SINCE HIS RETURN
Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Canadian Press—Premier Meighen is having a busy day since his return. He is presently attending to a lengthy cabinet meeting, and this morning a number of callers waited upon him. Among those who called upon the prime minister were H. M. Movatt, M. P. for York. Mr. Movatt said that he had merely called to greet the prime minister on his return. He had nothing to say on the political situation.

ESSEX FARMERS WILL BE GUESTS AT BIG OUTING

Party En Route To Falls To See Sports At Dutton.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 14.—Fifty Essex farmers, who are on a pilgrimage to Niagara Falls next week and the Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, will be guests of honor of the executive of the Highland games demonstration at Dutton on Tuesday. Highland pipers and a cadet corps will act as an escort to the honorable minister. A banquet to which 200 guests are invited will be one of the features of the celebration. The park, which will be opened by Mr. Biggs, will be dedicated as a memorial to the soldiers of Dutton and West Elgin who fought in the great war.

Behind in Revenue.
The revenue from the Chautauqua held in the city during the week fell below that of the sum guaranteed, $400. The attendance was considerably below that of a year ago.

Death of Fred Kilmer.
The death of Frederick Kilmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Kilmer, Southwood, took place last night at the Amasa Wood Hospital after an illness of some weeks. His widow and son, Charles, survive. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Charles Cook, Back street, Monday afternoon to Shedden Cemetery.

Street Car Hits Auto.
A street car hit the auto driven by Miss Clark at the corner of Elgin and Talbot streets last evening. The auto was damaged to the extent of a broken wheel and a dented mud guard. None of the occupants were hurt. Miss Clark resides in the adjoining township.

POLICE FRUSTRATE ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Daring Plan To Grab $12,000
Was Nipped in the Bud.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, Aug. 14.—Frustrating an attempt to rob the A. J. Smith Construction Company of $12,000 pay rolls Saturday night, police on both sides of the St. Clair River are tonight searching for men who are believed to be behind the hold-ups, and who, according to Sheriff Maines of Port Huron, are thought to be in hiding along the Canadian side of the river. Doing construction work opposite the city of Sarnia the Smith Company learned men discharged from the company had planned in Detroit to pull off a hold-up of the payroll on Saturday. The timely arrival of the police and a squad of detectives with riot guns ended the attempted hold-up. Tonight, it was said, the men involved in the attempted hold-up had made their getaway, and following a description of them handed to authorities a search is now being continued for them.

BIG LOCOMOTIVES TO USE FUEL OIL

Monster Engines Pass
Through St. Thomas On Way West.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 14.—A couple of monster oil-burning locomotives were brought to the city today over the M. C. R., and consigned from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, to the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road at Chicago. Each of the locomotives has twelve pairs of wheels, six of 5 feet 6 inches in diameter, two small pairs, and a pair about 4 feet, under the cab. The tender has accommodation for 12,000 gallons of water, and a compartment which will hold 4,000 gallons of oil. The oil is automatically sprayed into the firebox. It is considered much cheaper than coal. The oil type is becoming more popular, said a representative of the Baldwin works, who has charge of the locomotives, as their superiority over the coal-burners is being realized, and the day was not far distant when the coal-burner will become a curiosity in railway circles.

NONE WILL ESCAPE BY NEW TAX PLAN

Rich Must Pay Their Share As Well As Poor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—An official statement explaining the administration tax revision program was issued today at the White House. It declares that "the aim was to establish methods that would raise the needed revenue within a reasonable certainty, make collections sure, and inexpensive, and properly adjust the burden among all classes of the community."

"It is felt that highly important progress has been made along these lines," the statement says, adding, "there has been no effort to relieve the rich of their share of burdens, but rather to insure that no class will be left an avenue of escape from these."

After reviewing benefits which it is claimed will flow from the tax revision, the statement concludes: "The whole tax reform program contemplates freeing business from what have been found paralyzing and exasperating restrictions, encouraging to the utmost the resumption of enterprise and business, removing every possible incentive to evasion and fraud, and distributing the tax burden with the greatest possible equity among all classes of people, keeping in mind the purposes to impose the larger share on those best able to pay."

WINGHAM HOTELMAN IS RELEASED ON BAIL

[Special to The Advertiser.]
GODERICH, Aug. 14.—W. Lepard, hotelkeeper of Wingham, was arrested today by Chief Constable Allen on authority from High Constable White-side, who held the warrant. He is charged with keeping liquor for sale contrary to the O. T. A. on a charge laid by Inspector Fellow. Lepard was brought before Police Magistrate Reid of Goderich, and on the advice of Crown Attorney Senger bail was allowed. Two townsmen, Amos Tipling and J. J. Cunningham, were responsible to the extent of $3,000 each. The case is the outcome of whiskey sales alleged to have been made at the old boys' reunion here. The case comes up for trial on Wednesday next.

GREATEST EVENT OF SUMMER SEASON

LONDON'S 1921 DOLLAR DAY

SINCE its conception nearly ten years ago, this great semi-annual carnival of value-giving has been an assured success---each succeeding year greater than the one before. To the public it's a long-looked-forward-to bargain event. To the merchants it's an opportunity to clear all broken lines and demonstrate that London is the logical buying centre of Western Ontario.

Greater Bargains, Bigger Inducements Savings For All!

Take note of the values offered---read the announcements---realize in full the satisfaction of YOUR dollar doing something like its pre-war-days' work.

Come With the Crowds. Pleasant Memories of Last Year's Bargains Urge Early Action On London's Greatest Dollar Day

THURSDAY, AUGUST 18

OAK HALL CLOTHIERS,
JOHNSTON & MURRAY,
GRAFTON & CO., LTD.
HUBERT ASHLANT & SONS,
R. J. YOUNG & CO.
METROPOLITAN STORES, LTD.
W. L. MARE,
EVERYBODY'S SHOE STORE,
MISS M. AVEY,
JAMES MCCORMICK,
W. A. O'DELL,
WM. TRAFFORD FURNITURE CO.
ROWLAND HILL.

JOHN H. CHAPMAN & CO.
R. M. BRISCO & CO., LTD.
THOMAS FURNITURE CO.
ONTARIO FURNITURE CO.
JOHN AGNEW, LTD.
D'ALLAIRD MFG. CO., LTD.
ROSS, LTD.
BRICK & DUNDAS, LTD.
STRONG'S DRUG STORE,
R. H. & J. DOWLER,
COWAN HARDWARE, LTD.
THE MORRISON SHOE CO.
KINGSMILL'S, LTD.

THE PURDOM HARDWARE CO., LTD.
GRAY'S, LTD.
ANDERSON'S,
KEENE BROS.,
F. W. WOOLWORTH CO., LTD.
JOHN S. BARNARD,
CASSELLMAN BROS.,
THOS. ROWE,
WM. GURD,
J. GAMMAGE & SON,
ARTISTIC LADIES' WEAR CO.,
TURNER'S SHOE STORE.

JAS. G. STEELE & CO.
THOMSON'S,
THE J. P. COOK SHOE STORE,
FRENCH & CO.,
C. H. WARD & CO.,
OETH, LTD.
ROYAL MILLINERY AND FUR CO.,
STANDARD DRUG, LTD.
W. H. TODD,
R. LEO WATSON, LONDON, LTD.,
MAX GOLDMAN,
THE METROPOLITAN SKIRT AND SUIT CO.

R. S. SIMMONS & SON,
H. CHILDS,
ANDERSON & NELLES,
C. & R. THAYER,
TAYLOR'S DRUG STORE,
DOMINION STORES, LTD.,
DOMINION LADIES' OUTFITTERS,
L. K. LIGGETT CO., LTD.,
OWEN'S SHOE STORE,
PEOPLES SHOE STORE,
A. A. ARTHUR, DRYGOODS,
W. F. BOUGHNER.

Dollar Day visitors to London can secure information from the Retail Committee, Chamber of Commerce, Tecumseh Hotel. Phone 6600. All suggestions pertaining to the improvement of London's retail service will be appreciated.

NORTH OXFORD LIBERALS UNANIMOUSLY IN FAVOR OF CONTESTING RIDING

Candidate Will Be Chosen At Convention in Woodstock On August 27—Liberal Leader Highly Praises the Late John Calder.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 14.—Old-time enthusiasm was manifested at the conference of the executive of the North Oxford Reform Association here today, when, with the Ontario leader, Hartley Dewar, K.C., present, the political situation in North Oxford was discussed and the course to be followed in the coming by-election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Calder decided upon.

Following speeches by many of the old stalwarts and others, it was decided by resolution to hold a convention in Woodstock on Saturday, August 27, at which a candidate will be chosen to contest the riding for the Liberal party.

Hartley Dewar addressed the gathering briefly. He stated at the outset that he had not come to Woodstock to dictate to the executive what action should be taken, but merely to advise the executive. He was more than pleased at the large number in attendance, and especially the representative gathering of farmers from the different divisions of the riding.

Praises Calder.

He referred to the splendid work of the late John Calder in the House and the independent attitude he had assumed on all questions coming before the Legislature. He strongly commended this to whoever the executive might select to take his place.

He took a fling at the Drury Government, and stated that they were not giving the people responsible government, and that was what the Liberal party stood for. W. W. Day of East Nisour, G. F. Mahon and Dr. Sinclair of Woodstock, Miss M. Munro of Emory and a host of others all favored placing a candidate in the field. Miss Munro, when called on, stated that she did not come to the conference to voice her opinion on whether a candidate should be put in the field or not. She had come fully convinced that there should be a candidate.

Strongly Liberal.

North Oxford riding, stated another speaker, with three thousand majority at the last election was not going to lay down to the U. F. O. or any other party. It was still going to show that it was the banner Liberal constituency of Ontario.

A resolution of condolence and sympathy was passed to the widow and family of the late John Calder. The convention to select a candidate will be held in the city hall, and will be called at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon, August 27. Delegates will be selected from the different polling divisions on the evening previous, one delegate being allowed for every thirty-five names on the list.

BURNED BY LIGHTNING.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
SIMCOE, Aug. 14.—Albert Prude, a farmer residing near Round Prairie, lost his fine barn and his season's crops last night, when lightning struck the building. His loss is placed at $5,000, and he only has $250 insurance on the building and $850 on the contents.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, But It
Proves the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bothwell, Ont.—"I was weak and run down, had no appetite and was nervous. The nurse who took care of me told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am getting strong. I recommend your medicine to my friends, and you may use my testimonial."—Mrs. W. J. Brady, R. R. 2, Bothwell, Ont.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, beneficial influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

Genuine
BAYER

Aspirin

Warning! You are not getting Aspirin at all unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets.

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monacacetilacid of Salicylicacid.

BEER-RUNNERS AT BORDER PREPARING FOR A BUSY WEEK

Speedy Gasoline Boats Are Being Made Ready for Work.

Gasoline Boats Being Prepared At Many Points —
Prohibition Agents Plans Being Kept Quiet.

DETROIT, Aug. 14.—Plans of prohibition enforcement officials for dealing with the smuggling of Canadian beer and whiskey across the border here, as a result of a recent Windsor court ruling that the Ontario law does not prohibit export of intoxicants, remained unannounced tonight. The raid which federal agents made late yesterday in Ecorse, a suburb, declared to be one of the "wettest" spots on the Michigan side of the boundary, was not reported during the night nor today.

Little if any beer was brought across the river during the day, so far as could be observed. It was reported, however, to be obtainable in the downtown district at prices ranging from 50 to 75 cents a pint. Plans for a big week-end trade by the downtown river were more or less affected by the reported presence in the vicinity of a contingent of state troops. There was less illumination, and less music in the dance halls in that section. The troops, however, failed to appear in the suspected "wet" spots, and today the remark was frequent that the announcement of their presence on border patrol duty was merely a "bluff."

May Take Charge.

Advices from Lansing were that Col. Roy C. Vandercreek, state commissioner of public safety, expected to take personal charge of the situation, probably Monday. Col. Vandercreek declined to state how many state troopers would be concentrated here.

Officials here today reiterated their belief that much of the contraband that has been cleared from Canada in the last few days is going to Lake Erie ports.

EXPECTING BUSY WEEK.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
WINDSOR, Aug. 14.—So far as actual shipments of beer are concerned, Sunday was as quiet and peaceful along the river front on this side as the most rigid upholder of the blue laws could have desired, and even the redoubtable Ben Spence himself had been in Windsor would have been in no wise offended. True a number of industrious individuals living along the front below Sandwich spent much time in putting their "putt-putt" in order, but who other than a pessimist could find fault with that? Any intimation that the boats were being prepared for a busy week on the river was usually met with a enigmatical smile. It is only fair, however, to say that in most of the boats observed, the carrying capacity would not exceed perhaps a half dozen cases at the most. Still with a net profit of nearly $5 on every case delivered across the river, half a dozen cases would be considered a fair day's pay for most men.

Money in Exports.

The breweries in Windsor and Walkerville freely admit that it is more profitable to sell beer for export than for local consumption. Beer ordered by United States residents is paid for at the rate of $1.50 per case. This means the brewing companies are receiving 75c more per case than was charged before the province went dry, plus the difference of ten per cent in exchange.

On the Ecorse riverfront three men were giving a motorboat a coat of black paint, a labor capable of several interpretations. There seems to be a fad for dark colors in naval decorations along the river. At that point, below the painters another man, an unloquacious soul, was tinkering with a marine engine, while a great fleet of small craft putt-putt-ed between the Canadian and American shores.

There was more caution and less illumination than on Saturday night, but that was all. The mechanical pianos were not playing, and if the barkeepers gave an exhibition of their art, it was done for audiences that were hand-picked. To get good services one had to be known as safe.

The guard post on the river-side of the road, as one makes the curve out of Ecorse to Ford had its quota of beholders Sunday who were loudly speculating on someone "who had got across all right last night and was going to try it again tonight."

Are Pessimistic.
The increased traffic agitates a number of law-abiding people in Ecorse, however. Many quiet residents, even those tolerant toward liquor law evasion, are pessimistic over the present situation and look for serious trouble before the section is cleared up.

"If armed troops do come in," said one houseman, "it means that some of these bootleggers will shoot back—or shoot first."

Ecorse police declared today that they were not "winking at run-runners," but were taking orders from and working in conjunction with the state police.

If there were any state police in Ecorse Sunday they were well disguised. Automobiles passing South Rockwood, near the state line, were halted by the state patrol stationed there and the cars searched for liquor. Macomb county officials Sunday had strengthened their forces to fight the bringing in of liquor from the Canadian side. Every available man of the force of both the police department and sheriff's office has been during the last several days to prevent this traffic, according to officials.

Was Much Smaller.

Authorities of that district today contended that as a result of their vigilance the supply of liquor brought from Canada has been much smaller than that brought to points nearer Detroit.

A force from the sheriff's office early Saturday raided the district near the mouth of Milk River, recognized by both residents and authorities as being the rendezvous of "smugglers and runners." They found only lookouts and liquor awaiting them.

At one place, a two-story house almost hidden by the high marsh weeds, they found only a lookout. The owner, said to be a Pole, answering the name of "Joe," could not be found. "Boss" was arrested, and liquor valued at $3,000 confiscated. Suspecting that much of the 9 per cent beer being ordered for export to United States points is finding its way back to the Canadian shores, license inspectors stationed at Windsor, co-operating with provincial constables, will patrol the river between Sandwich and Amherstburg.

SIMCOE WOMAN HAS $120 STOLEN FROM ROOM

[Special To The Advertiser.]
SIMCOE, Aug. 14.—Mrs. C. A. Cox had $120 stolen from her room at the Norfolk Hotel today while she was in the kitchen at work. The thief, who apparently not only knew about the money, but also the layout of the hotel, gained entrance to the room via a roof. The money was in a cigar box in a drawer and the thief after obtaining it, left the room door open. The police are working on a clue and an arrest is expected shortly.

GRAIN STORES ARE STEADILY DECREASING

OTTAWA, Aug. 13.—A further decrease in quantities of wheat and oats in store at public elevators throughout Canada is reported for the week ending August 5, as compared with the previous week. Wheat decreased 670, 994 bushels to 7,014,117; oats decreased 32,310 bushels to 15,232,900; barley increased 55,208 bushels to 2,889,055; rye increased 46,328 to 2,227,786 bushels and rye increased 13,900 bushels to 129,489.

GENERAL TREVINO IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.—General J. Trevino, director of the federal commission revising army service records, has been formally charged with the murder of General Jose Alessio Robles. Robles was shot last Monday night while driving in his automobile through the residential section of the city. General Trevino is reported to have said that he killed Robles because Robles had called him a coward for refusing to fight a duel.

CHARGE AGENT WITH DELIVERING BOOZE TO FICTITIOUS PERSONS

Case of Daniel Wilson of Lakeside Has Been Adjourned.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
WOODSTOCK, Aug. 13.—Daniel Wilson, express agent at the village of Lakeside, appeared in court here today charged under the Dominion statutes with delivering liquor to fictitious persons. Inspector Killing had been conducting investigations in the neighborhood of Lakeside for some time before the expiration of the date on which liquor could be imported into the province. On the night of the last day he visited Lakeside station and seized fourteen cases addressed to different persons. These have been held at the Woodstock police station, but no owners appeared to claim them. As a result of this investigation the inspector summoned Wilson. Evidence was taken yesterday, and the case adjourned for a week. The fourteen cases were confiscated and will be sent to the department in Toronto.

In connection with the above cases, Albert Ackersville of Stratford was also charged with receiving liquor. He had been arrested in Stratford and was out on $500 bail to appear today. He failed to put in an appearance and his bail was forfeited, and a warrant issued.

CAN FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING EXPLORERS

CHRISTIANIA, Aug. 13.—A dispatch from Hammerfest, the northernmost town of Europe in Norway, reports that the expedition sent by the state count, Knudsen, to rescue Knudsen and Tessen, who were represented as missing from the last Amundsen north polar expedition, has returned without finding trace of the two men at Cape Wild, where they were supposed to have been.

SPRAYED ORCHARDS ARE PRODUCING A GOOD AVERAGE CROP

Value of Caring For Trees Is Demonstrated Around
Ingersoll.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, Aug. 14.—Conditions this year in regard to the apple crop throughout the county are said to show a distinct triumph for spraying. Many of the well-known fruit growers have called attention to the fact that the apple yield will be very light but have added that the crop will be largely confined to the orchards in which spraying and scientific pruning have been followed. It is believed that these orchards will produce an average crop. Scores of orchards which have received no special attention will be practically without fruit, it is said.

Will Invite Premier.
In the course of a meeting Saturday night in which many details were under consideration the Ingersoll North and West Oxford Agricultural Society decided to invite Premier Drury to attend the Ingersoll Fair on October 4. It was also decided to increase the prizes for the races, and in a number of classes for horses and cattle. Oxford County was a recognized dairy district. It was decided to offer more special prizes for dairy cows. In view of the activity of the society the fair this year is expected to be the most successful ever held here.

Pole Was Smashed.
A telephone pole on Thames street near the river last night when it was struck by an automobile. The car, which skidded on oil that had been placed on the street, was driven by a Londoner. No one was hurt, and the car was not seriously damaged. Hon. Dr. Cody of Toronto, who will attend the formal opening of Ingersoll's new sixteen-roomed central school, accepted the invitation extended by the board of education has been received. An invitation was also extended to the minister of education, and the date of the opening will largely depend upon his reply.

Aid to digestion, teeth and nerves—plus real LICORICE flavor

—an Adams product, particularly prepared

Yarrows Warn Labor To Be More Reasonable

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Canadian Press.—Yarrows, the famous shipbuilder in Glasgow and Vancouver, B. C., announce that the Glasgow yards will close in November next. "We believe," says the firm, "that prosperity will return when everyone realizes that commercial undertakings can only be conducted successfully in accordance with economic laws." Two years ago this firm announced that they would gradually diminish the output of the Clyde works and increase the production at Vancouver. The reason given was the constant labor troubles.

The Times remarks that the action of Yarrows will stimulate the unpleasant but necessary process of improvement in the relations between the employer and the employed. This firm was well known for the good treatment of its workmen. The statement of the Yarrows says nothing against high wages.

Singers' Sewing Machine Works in Glasgow, employing 1,000 people, are reopening Monday after being shut down for some time.

SOUTH DELAWARE

SOUTH DELAWARE, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shapland and daughter Phyllis of Detroit spent a few days at Donald Campbell's recently. Miss Mary McFarlane has returned from Toronto after taking a course in physical culture. Miss Velma Kaiser of New York is visiting at her home here. Willard Boley of London is spending his holidays at Richard Prior's. Gordon Parsons has sold his racing mare (Jessie Eel).

FURNITURE SALE

London's Greatest Furniture Event

OFFERS FOR TUESDAY'S SELLING A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR THOSE YOUNG COUPLES WHO ARE JUST FITTING UP THEIR HOMES.

Comfortable Upholstered Chairs Greatly Reduced

Included in the assortment are tapestry, mohair and plush coverings. In many cases we have the chair and rocker to match, but most of them are odd pieces. Every piece is well finished, some having spring seats only and some Marshall loose cushion seats and spring arms. The following is a partial list:

Chair and Rocker to match, regular $165.00 each. Special, each	$75.00	Rocker only, regular $50.00. Special	$32.50
Chair and Rocker to match, regular $130.00 each. Special, each	$65.00	Chair only, regular $40.00. Special	$27.50
Chair and Rocker to match, regular $150.00 each. Special, each	$86.00	Chair only, regular $70.00. Special	$55.00
Chair only, regular $50.00. Special	$36.50	Chair only, regular $30.00. Special	$19.75

No extra charge for the convenience of our club plan on any of the above chairs.

97-Piece Dinner Set, $29.95

An English semi-porcelain, in plain white, with gold band, that sells regularly for $36.00. $5.00 will deliver it to your home on our club plan, while $2.00 weekly pays the balance.

Oak Living-Room Suite

Chair, Rocker, Table

$47.75

Each piece is built with care by expert craftsmen from the finest of solid oak, finished in either wax, golden or fumed. The chair and rocker have genuine leather-covered seats, built up on steel coil springs. The table is 25x38 inches. The regular price of this set was $71.00, and was good value at that.

Special club terms for tomorrow only, $10.00 first payment, $2.00 weekly.

3 Snaps in Couches

One covered in tapestry and two in leather.

Regular $37.00. Special	$27.00
Regular $32.00. Special	$21.35
Regular $20.00. Special	$13.35

Sold on club plan without any extra charge.

An Extraordinary

Value in

REED CHAIRS

$9.85

Regular $16

This is positively one of the best bargains we have offered during our August Sale. There's about 20 of them, all in the one design and finish, which is fumed. Should you wish it, you may purchase this chair without extra charge on our club plan, $2.00 as a first payment delivering it to your home, balance $2.00 weekly.

THOMAS

London Advertiser

Published by
THE LONDON ADVERTISER COMPANY, LIMITED,
London, Ontario.

MORNING. EVENING.

3670 TELEPHONE NUMBERS 3670

From 9 p.m. to 5:30 a.m., and holidays, call 76, Business Department; 75, Editors and Reporters; 1174, Composing Room; 76, Circulation Department.

ADVERTISING BRANCH OFFICES.

Toronto Office—F. W. Thompson, 100 King street west, Room 20.

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVES

Charles H. Eddy Company.

New York—Fifth Avenue Building.

Chicago—People's Gas Building.

Boston—Old South Building.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

City—Delivered.

15 cents per week; $5.00 for six months; 65 cents per month; $7.00 for one year.

By Mail, Outside City—$5.00 per year, $2.75 for six months, or 50 cents per month for short-term subscriptions.

To the United States—$6 per year, $3.50 for six months, or 65 cents a month.

Foreign subscriptions, $12.00 per year.

SUBSCRIBERS, PLEASE NOTE.

All subscriptions are payable in advance and at full price.

Insurance of your remittance by using postal note, money order or registered letter. Subscriptions are started only with current issues. Three days notice required to make change of address. Be sure to give both old and new addresses. Renew promptly and sign your name plainly.

Subscriptions sent by mail are not acknowledged unless requested. Receipt of remittance is shown by your label being changed inside of six days.

ADVERTISERS, NOTE.

Circulation audited by A. B. C.

Report furnished advertisers on request.

London, Ont., Monday, August 15.

THE ARTS OF PEACE.

"We of the British Commonwealth will believe that the interests of no class, no party, no nation, may override the common interests of all."

In these words Lord Byng, the new Governor-General of Canada, summed up Britain's attitude and creed on the occasion of setting foot in the Dominion.

Nothing could be more concise, clear-cut or democratic, and it was well that those entrusted with framing legislation for the people and responsible for its administration were present to hear this policy so fearlessly declared. In it there was not the slightest touch of ambiguity, and no subtle politician can obscure its meaning.

It is to be hoped that the advent of the victor of Vimy as the representative of the King will inaugurate a new era of peace and prosperity in the history of Canada. He voices the democratic spirit which since particularly characterized the British people since the loving process of the great war, and he comes here, as he declares, to co-operate with the people in building up the country by liberal methods, and placing it on the high plane to which its greatness entitles it.

To the duties of peace Lord Byng suggests as a valuable adjunct the comradeship forged in the war. This comradeship is a pearl beyond price if made use of in a true and Christian manner, and may be utilized as a powerful instrument for good. As pointed out by Premier Taschereau, Lord Byng commanded the Canadian army "at one of the critical periods of the war, at the hour when our soldiers achieved immortal fame," and by these glorious bonds he has secured the attachment not only of his comrades in the war, but of every true Canadian.

The arts of peace will now claim the attention of the gallant general, and there is every reason to hope that he will be triumphant in peace as he was dauntless in war. As the premier of Quebec said, "The victory of civilization depends rather upon the farmer and workman than the soldier, and to winning this battle the new governor-general means to apply himself. Every man, woman and child in Canada wishes him success."

A WAR OF ONE BATTLE.

The difference between the late war and all our others before it is that its battles are not remembered. No name stands out like Waterloo or Queenston Heights or Bannockburn or Blenheim or Trafalgar.

The Battle of the Marne may be instanced, but that was a French affair. We know that a tremendous engagement began on July 1, 1916, when in one part of their line the British lost 60,000 men in twenty minutes, but on the whole gained ground. Does any name belong to the German breakthrough or near breakthrough of March 21, 1918? Not many know exactly where it happened, that greatest reverse ever incurred by a British army.

Some returned soldiers remember one battle, some another. Sometimes the survivors were too few to commemorate adequately a victory or defeat, as the case might be. Vimy, Messines, Paschendaele, Festubert, Chemin des Dames, etc., are names of dolorous magic to those directly engaged, and to some extent interest larger circles. But it is the whole horrific business that occupies the general mind rather than the memory of the several battles.

No doubt we are as yet too close up to the War. Later, history will fasten securely upon the salient events and hammer their names into the consciousness of men. Yet even so, it is to be suspected that the German War will always stand distinguished more or less from all others not only by its magnitude, but by a continuity which makes it seem like one long battle in a nightmare.

A WISE DECISION.

"Unwise and economically unsound" is the verdict of the Sutherland investigating committee on the proposal of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario to construct a system of radial railways at a cost of about $45,000,000. In adducing reasons for this finding the report alleges that the data put forward in favor of the scheme was compiled by inexperienced men, and is therefore of doubtful reliability. If this allegation is well founded it is in itself sufficient to condemn the entire project, for to embark on any such scheme without being absolutely familiar with the rocks and shoals to be encountered, and without accurately weighing the cost, would be sheer madness.

Ontario has enough on her hands at the present moment without plunging into an unknown sea of troubles, and it would be well, as the committee suggests, to wait for the safe arrival in port of some of the other ventures which have been launched before setting out on a new trip without chart or compass. The elaborate and costly system of highways which is now in progress has not sufficiently advanced to fully demonstrate its utility, let alone the cost, and in addition to this drawback several of the proposed radial lines would parallel the lines of the Canadian National Railways and compete with them.

Apart from these weighty reasons, the future of radial enterprises both in this country and in the United States has still to be explored, and the aftermath of the war is yet too heavy upon us for fresh burdens to be incurred which there is any substantial ground for declining.

The argument that the radials would be a municipalities' enterprise, and would entail no burden on the province, will not hold water, for experience proves that the province has to stand behind such undertakings in order to ward off disaster. We therefore think that the committee has acted wisely and in the best interests of the people.

TORY TACTICS.

Out of all their planning and patching together of the elements which they have managed to rescue from the political dust-bin, and finding how the nation persistently refuses to be impressed by such artifices, the Tories are adopting different tactics; they have fallen back on the old devices of vilification on the one hand, and self-glorification on the other. Both the campaign of calumny against all who do not conform to the high-and-dry Tory ideals, and the propaganda for the beatification of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, are being skillfully directed from Ottawa. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson has been appointed hide-hunter-in-chief in Ontario, and now and then emerges from the woods to discharge a venom-tipped shaft at the premier of the province.

Mr. Drury's armor is, however, quite proof against such attacks, and anyone who reads the speech which he delivered at Goderich the other day cannot fail to be impressed by the honesty with which he placed the whole of the Lake of the Woods issue before his hearers, and the strength and lucidity of his defence against the calumnious attacks of his detractors. In traversing the history of the control of these waters, and the part that Backus has played in the matter, he concealed nothing, and there is nothing that he need be ashamed of. There is an old saying that half the truth is worse than a lie, and Hide-Hunter Ferguson is an adept in the use of this weapon.

Premier Meighen ought to exercise more discretion in the choice of his emissaries, if he desires to gain even the smallest portion of the ground he has lost. The propaganda which has for its object his elevation to the stained-glass window standard will not go down. True, he has received the freedom of London and of Edinburgh, but these honors were bestowed on the premier of Canada, not on Mr. Meighen. Their object was to honor Britain's eldest daughter for her staunch help in time of trouble, and this distinction can never be usurped by any individual, no matter how eminent. So the sooner this flood of fulsome adulation ceases the better it will be for the credit of those by whom it is inspired.

A MOTHER'S TRIBUTE.

Lady Bonham Carter, a daughter of former Premier Asquith, has refused an invitation to become a candidate for member of Parliament, which had been extended to her by the Westminster Liberal Association. It is interesting in this connection to note what Mrs. Asquith has to say about her stepdaughter in her recently published and much-discussed autobiography. Her admiration is marked, as the following extract indicates:

"My step-daughter Violet—now Lady Bonham Carter—though intensely feminine, would have made a remarkable man. I do not believe there is any examination she could not have passed, either at a public school or a university. Born without shyness or trepidation, from her youth upwards she had perfect self-possession and patience. She loved dialectics, and could put her case logically, plausibly and eloquently, and although quite as unemotional as her brothers, she had more enterprise and indignation. . . . Her gift of expression was amazing, and her memory unrivaled. My daughter Elizabeth and she were the only girls except myself that I ever met who were real politicians, not interested merely in the personal side—whether Mr. B. or C. spoke well or was likely to get promoted—but in the legislation and administration of parliament; they followed and knew what was going on at home and abroad, and enjoyed friendships with most of the young and famous men of the day. Violet Bonham Carter has, I think, a great political future in the country, if not in the Commons. . . . With gifts as conspicuous as hers she must inevitably exercise a widespread political influence."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

London, thy name is Optimism.

One county constable on the road is worth two in the bush.

Sir Philip Gibbs is of the opinion that Old England is still able to sit up and take a little nourishment.

The movement to substitute the term "beverage dispenser" for "bartender" has failed. What about "barrierist"?

A slight drop in the cost of living is reported for July. This is a drop which is welcomed by all, even the O. T. A.

Although Silesia is in a state of solution the mixture has not settled. It will have to be well shaken before being taken.

Windsor is determined to keep up its reputation for having the "best cellars," and accordingly, it is going to see to it that coal is both cheap and plentiful.

Although Detroit has been willing to pay almost any price for Canada's freewater, it thinks the price being asked by Sir Adam Beck for nature's product is much too high.

It is estimated by Government officials in the United States that approximately $500,000,000 a year goes into the pockets of bootleggers. John Barleycorn is a very lively corpse in the U. S. A.

"Do you believe in capital punishment?" was the question put to the Ethiopian ecclesiastical dignitary visiting the city. "No, I do not believe in it, but I do not believe in murder, either, and we cannot indulge it." This is a reply worthy of a descendant of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

LETTERS

TRIBUTE TO MR. LANCE.

Re S. A. C.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—On reading your valuable paper of yesterday's date, I noticed a letter written by a veteran of the Great War regarding the continuation of the S. A. C. in this city, and I should like to add a small letter to back this veteran's statements.

I may say I quite agree (as many others will) that to discontinue the work of the local branch of the S. A. C. in this district would mean a severe blow to the returned men of this city in general, as the S. A. C. under the secretaryship of Ed. Lance, has done some very valuable work for the veterans, both straightforward and just, without favoritism.

But I am sure that in May, 1918, a discussion arose regarding replacing Mr. Ed. Lance by a returned man, the reason for this action being that certain men considered he was not doing his duty fair. A committee of three were appointed to investigate and report on the matter, and myself being appointed chairman of this committee, it was held over for six weeks, to enable any man who had complaints to make regarding Mr. Lance's work to do so, and these were to be scrutinized by this said committee and reported on. Not one single complaint was handed in, in writing, to me during the prescribed time, and so Ed. Lance was allowed to continue in his good work.

In conclusion I may say that during the four years it has been my privilege to know Mr. Ed. Lance, I have always found him to be most straightforward and fair in all his dealings with the returned men, dealing with each individual case without showing any favoritism, and I most certainly will be one to uphold the continuation of the S. A. C. under the secretaryship of Ed. Lance, whilst any veteran needs advice and assistance.

Thanking you for space in your paper, I am, Sir, very respectfully,

W. E. CAPEWELL.

OTHERS' VIEWS

The Girl Homesteader.

[Toronto Star.]

Canadians have heard with pride of the accomplishments of Miss Mary Hazlett, the Saskatoon stenographer.

She went counter to the advice of a brother who would have her farm on the prairies, and, leaving the office, became a successful farmer.

She has been in the Dominion for four years, living alone throughout the period, and is now on her way to be married to a man who will return to the farm with her husband. The people of Ontario join with Canadians generally in wishing her luck. She has the kind of settler that will make good anywhere. Miss Hazlett thinks that governments should offer facilities for settlement to homesteaders. But governments should not go beyond the permissive stage. There are few girls of the Mary Hazlett type. Were governments to actively encourage single women to go it alone on prairie farms, they would be helping to create a class of failures and tragedies that would follow. The prairie is a lonely place at the best, and pioneer farm life makes demands on strength and character. Team work is best on the prairies and for that matter under all ordinary conditions.

VANDALISM.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

Possibly the time will come when the hand of the vandal will stay the hand of the vandal wherever social progress is such that the masses go picnicking in automobiles. In the meantime, public roads, and private property abutting on roads, will be littered with corn tans and "leavings" to the sorrow of persons who cannot enjoy a landscape the foreground of which is picnic plates mixed with newspapers and cracker boxes, and the middle distance cracker boxes mixed with newspapers and picnic plates.

MR. BOOTH AND BUSINESS.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

Mr. Booth of Ottawa is acknowledged by all who know him to be one of the most capable and most clear-headed men of business in the Dominion of Canada, and because of this fact and also because of the high esteem in which he is held in Quebec by so many of our people who have had commercial relations with him, the Telegraph made it its business to be the first newspaper to notice his arrival here and to publish an interview with him. Mr. Booth has had many interesting things to say here both about Quebec in particular and business in general, and perhaps none of his remarks are of interest to more people in the community at the present time, than those dealing with the building situation. He refers to the error committed by labor generally in being unwilling to admit the reduction that has already occurred in the cost of living, and to accept proportionately lower wages in consequence, and in this same connection he states that he has already spoken to labor in his own employ pointing out to them that something must be done to help along construction, and telling them that if labor would come down the retailers would come down. He remarks that he has pointed out many instances where the retailers have come down in their prices. But that one article remains high and make this the excuse to maintain their position. In the meantime capital is lying idle, construction is retarded, and unemployment is becoming general. If employment is becoming general, if labor won't fall in line to cut down the high cost of things, business will go from bad to worse and become practically stagnant, which will mean no work and no pay for labor, hence hunger and want, for which they will be responsible. This is a great pity for all concerned, but unfortunately it is true, and pity 'tis, 'tis true.

THE SILVER LINING

By Fullerton Walde.

PLAYING THE GAME.

One of Leonard Wood's pet phrases, that we often heard from him at Plattsburg, is "playing the game."

No matter who uses it, it means a lot. But from a man of action it has a special significance because the driving force of a life is behind it.

The wounded man who crawled across a field under fire and saved his buddy played the game. The public that let the home-returning hero languish in a hospital and never dropped in to clasp his hand and ask if there was anything he wanted, was not playing the game.

Every deed of courage, especially the quiet, unobtrusive kind, is a star for someone else to steer by. When you see what another has done you are likely to say "I can and I will." You can play the game indoors as well as not. You can play it on a sickbed as well as on a battlefield, and some have played it better there. You can play it in the dismal, distasteful drudgery you have to face today.

Sometimes it feels as though fate plucked you out and me particularly, to lead us knockout blows. But lots of the rest (if we only knew) are being walloped just as hard, and maybe a whole lot harder.

When we were children—do you remember—used to get up blocks on end and a file, and we tipped the first one over, and the whole line tumbled down. If you or I fall down in the grand game of living we may knock over a lot of others. We live and die not to ourselves alone. For the sake of some who love and many who depend on us we must keep up going and not give up or out or in.

Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

POETRY AND JEST

OLD ROADS.

[G. S. B.]

If you turn west from the sunken river,

And toll through the trees up the mountain side,

You will come upon traces of old roads, fashioned

By folk that long ago lived and died. Here are the stones of their leaf-choked sluceways,

And here are the tracks that their wheels have worn,

And the broken spans of their rotted bridges

Amid a tangle of weed and thorn.

They wind on, these roads, past roof-trees fallen;

Past cairnlike chimneys, forsaken and cold;

Past upturned orchards where yet in vain men seek for the harvest apples that hang out their gold.

Where by these roads now the tireless fowler,

Seeking for grouse,—through the thickets may stray;

Men once went trudging with cumbersome flintlocks,

Bound for a muster or training day.

Along these roads to the springtime sowing,

With a whistle men strode in days gone by

Now the only music amid the stillness

Is a hidden woodbird's grieving cry.

There, round the hearths that were warm for someone,

Clings lilacs in riot and matted grass;

There, where the baymakers passed at sundown,

The shy, wild shapes of the forest pass.

NOT DISTANT ENOUGH.

[Puch.]

The Escort—Who's that fellow that seems to know you?

The Lady—Only a second cousin once removed.

The Escort—Um! Well, he looks as if he wanted removing again.

MUST BE.

[Buffalo Express.]

Sweet Young Thing—Who is this Saint Salvem everybody's talking about nowadays?

Second S. Y. T.—I thought he had something to do with the weather, but I suppose he's the man who invented the office chair.

A MIDSUMMER PARABLE.

[New York Times.]

A stout alone wall rears high between the dirty road and the garden green; inside the flowers dance, say and gild, out in the dust the world runs mad.

Playing at "Ladies" the blossoms fair curtsy and nod in the censored air. While the stout stone wall stands high to screen the wicked world from the garden green.

Velvet phlox with tutored grace sway in this sheltered, scented place, and heliotrope and mimosaette, thread through a puppet minute.

Graciously, carefully, lest perchance too abandoned become their dance, silken, imperial hollyhocks tread a measure with four o'clocks.

And all the while the wall stands guard lest wanton winds should blow too hard.

Out by the high road, with eyes askance, a daisy is doing the shimmy dance.

FAMILY SECRETS.

[Boston Transcript.]

First Innocent—My mamma has a double chin.

Second, Ditto—My papa says my mamma's all chin.

TO EARTH.

Oh, fortunate the waiting that shall end in wonder.

And blessed now the patience that is in thy hiding;

For now are the herded clouds and the wild rain's thunder

Over the roof of thy quiet seeds hiding.

We too, O earth, shall need thy blessedness of waiting

For the green flowering of pastures, when the panting

Storm shall cease; though blood be the rain that is abating,

And men be the seeds of our wild planting.

WHEN USING WILSON'S FLY PADS

READ DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THEM EXACTLY

Best of all Fly Killers 10c per Packet at all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores

Eyes Inflamed?

If your eyes are inflamed, weak, tired or overworked, if they ache, if picture shows make them feel dry and strained, get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets from your druggist, dissolve one in a fourth of a glass of water and use as an eye bath from two to four times a day. Bon-Opto allays inflammation, invigorates, tones up the eyes.

Note: Doctors say Bon-Opto strengthens eye sight 50% in a week's time in many instances

Ice cream—smooth and delicious every time for the milk and sugar is perfectly blended when made with Borden's EAGLE BRAND Condensed Milk

Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

TWO WOMEN ASK KING TO GRANT CLAIMS TO SEPARATE EARLDOMS

Countess of Loudoun and Viscountess St. Davids Seek Revival of Titles.

PETITION TO LORDS

Attainders On Both Coveted Honors Recall Beheadings of Noted Characters.

London, August 14.—Two women each claiming the right to an earldom, have presented petitions in the House of Lords asking the King to grant their claims. Edith Maud, in her own right Countess of Loudoun, asks that the abeyance in the earldom of Warwick and the baronies of Montacute and Pole of Montagu be determined in her favor, and her sister, Elizabeth Frances, Viscountess St. Davids, is asking the King to determine in her favor the abeyance in the earldom of Salisbury and the baronies of Montague and Mortimer.

The petitions further ask that if the earldoms and baronies are affected by the attainder of Margaret, Countess of Salisbury, or any other attainders that the King direct the introduction of a bill into Parliament to relieve the petitioners from the effects of the attainders.

In explaining the history of these two earldoms the London Times says: "The claims of the Countess of Loudoun and of her sister, Viscountess St. Davids, arise from the marriage in 1532 of Francis Hastings, afterwards second Earl of Huntingdon, to Catherine, daughter and co-heir of Sir Henry Pole, Lord Montagu, son of Margaret, Countess of Salisbury, daughter and sole surviving heir of George Plantagenet, Duke of Clarence and Earl of Warwick and Salisbury by creation of 1471. The duke was attainted in 1478, which extinguished all his titles, but the earldom of Warwick was bestowed on his son, who in turn was attainted and beheaded in 1499.

Won Earldom, But Lost Head.

"The earldom of Salisbury was ultimately conferred on the duke's daughter Margaret in 1513, when the attainder against her brother of 1478 was repealed. She was, however, herself attainted in 1539 and beheaded in 1541. Her son, Lord Montagu, had been beheaded for high treason in 1538 and attainted in 1539. His daughters were, however, 'restored in blood' by act of Parliament in 1555, but the titles extinguished by the 1539 attainders were not restored.

"The ninth Earl of Huntingdon's daughter Elizabeth married the Earl of Moira in 1752 and succeeded her brother, the tenth earl, in 1789, in a number of baronies by writ, and when her great-grandson, the fourth Marquess of Hastings, died in 1868 these baronies and any claim which might exist to the attainders referred to above devolved upon his four sisters, of whom the present claimants represent the eldest, who was in her own right tenth Countess of Loudoun in the Peerage of Scotland, through the marriage of the first Marquess of Hastings with the sixth Countess of Loudoun.

"Lady Loudoun is unquestionably heir of line to the Duke of Clarence. The question to be decided by these claims appears to be whether the earldoms are capable of falling into abeyance between co-heirs after the fashion prescribed for baronies by writ of practice.

"Another Record of Violence.

"The earldom of Salisbury was granted to the Duke of Clarence's nephew Edward, son of Richard, Duke of Gloucester, even before its late possessor had perished amid the malice. That of Warwick, while given anew to his son, was, after a fresh attainder, conferred on John Dudley in 1547 and again extinguished by his attainder (as Duke of Northumberland) in 1553. It was again created in favor of his son Ambrose, who had been restored in blood 1558. In 1561, on his death in blood 1558, in 1561. On his death in 1590 it was considered to have become extinct and was granted anew to Robert Lord Rich in 1518. His male line failed and in 1539 the earldom of Warwick was granted to Earl Brooke, whose descendant, the present Earl of Warwick, enjoys the title.

"The earldom of Salisbury, vacant after the attainder of 1539, was granted to the ancestor of its present possessor in 1605, and was only merged into the marquessate of the same name in 1789."

When you pay 28 cents for a half-pound package of Red Rose Tea (Crimson Label) you get exactly the same tea for which you

A PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

THE FASHIONS

[By Eleanor Gunn.]
(Copyrighted by the Fairchild Company.)

A BLOUSE THAT MASQUERADES AS A DRESS.

One senses that an effort has been made to cater to the woman who is prejudiced against the separate blouse and skirt idea, in designing blouses for fall. Many of them when worn with skirts which are appropriate have little to distinguish them from a dress. Take the models illustrated. The first is a dress, the second a blouse, but either of these might be one or the other.

Recent additions to blouse collections for fall introduce crepe back satin as a new material. Some interesting trimming details have been added, including a wide number of imported novelties, worked out in a soutache passementerie. An odd embroidery is also shown, one that has been worked out to repeat the spirit of a fabric "crepe Lazard." This is a heavy satin-faced crepe with a canted pebbled back, and is frequently used for incidental trimming. A glossy embroidery with the same pebbled appearance is used for sleeve decorations.

"Mat Work" of Georgette Stripes. Another unique trimming is what is called "mat work" treatment of fine stripes or tubes of georgette. These are used in contrast color to the satin foundation of the blouse, and are drawn through ladder stitching, so that they are crossed with another color. Other of the satin blouse stress the popularity of black and white, with embroidery in wool, or with silk and beads. Soutache novelties are applied to many of the new models, and are generally used against georgette. They combine several colorings in their make-up sometimes in coin dot circular patterns, sometimes in arabic and fan shapes that suggest the Egyptian. The colorings of the braid passementerie are generally caught up by pipings or further embroideries on the waist.

Sixteenth Century Sleeve. Among the models that take up the idea of the slashed sleeve, or one with a contrast inverted pleat to run its length, are those known by such romantic names as "Juliet" and "Rosalee," the former applying to the pleat, the latter to the slash. The sleeve types are derived from those popular during the sixteenth century. Another source of inspiration are the Rumanian and peasant embroideries, worked in marcelized threads, plain red, or a combination of red and blue, in simple arrangements against white or flesh-colored blouses. The use of peasant colorings in the embroidery of lace for the collar and cuffed tucked-in blouse, should be mentioned. The blouse is of bias, with a panel of heavy flat mesh lace, serving as the vestee, embroidered in soft blues and red. These are repeated in the georgette collars and cuffs.

WESTERN ONTARIO WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Address News For This Column to
The Editor of Woman's Page.

BELMONT OPEN AIR CONCERT

The program will be given on the school grounds on Thursday evening, August 18, at 8 p.m., and will consist of the following: Mr. O. A. Smiley of Toronto, one of Ontario's best entertainers; Miss Hausch of Chicago, violinist; Mr. Carman Learn of London, baritone soloist, and the Belmont brass band.

Refreshment booths on the grounds. In case of inclement weather the program will be given in Knox Church.

BIRW W. I. MEETS.

The August meeting of the Birw W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Perce Ferguson, the president, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. Walls occupied the chair. Final arrangements were made for the garden party to be held at the home of Mr. Max Kade on August 17. The proceeds of the garden party are for the new Children's Hospital in London. The day being set apart for entertainment of the children special attractions and treats were provided for them.

Ross, Limited

ARE NOW REMODELLING
FURS AT SUMMER PRICES
PHONE 1319:
196 DUNDAS STREET.

AT CUPID'S CALL

BY MAY CHRISTIE.

Copyright, 1921, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

LII. EVE'S CALCULATIONS

With the roll of bills grasped tightly in her hand, Eve Rochester crept silently up the thickly-carpeted staircase and regained the safety of her own room.

"Whew! Thank heaven that's finished!" Closing the door stealthily, she drew a long, deep breath. "A clever bit of business! But—risky—horribly risky! I wouldn't do it again for five thousand dollars, nor for five thousand, either!" Which comment goes to show that Miss Eve Rochester was not yet the hardened criminal type for which at times she held a snaking admiration.

"The safe thing to do is to go up to town tomorrow morning and get rid of the bills," she reflected. "Carrington is so jussy that it's possible he might decide to search the entire house. Then the fat would be in the fire, with a vengeance."

Eve crossed the floor and very deftly raised a corner of the carpet near the window. She stuffed the wad of bills underneath the thick material. "There! That'll do until tomorrow morning! Then off to dear old New York!"

She hurried into bed. In view of tomorrow's inevitable discovery, it wouldn't do to be prowling round one's room at this ungodly hour! The walls might possibly have ears.

It was curious that Eve felt not the slightest qualm of compunction over her calumny of Mary Drew. Deliberately she had planned to throw the entire suspicion of the robbery on Mary's innocent head. It was typical of Eve that her conscience should be peacefully slumbering while her active brain was working on various schemes to further her own self-interest.

PERSONALS

Miss Minnie Kestle of St. Johns, is visiting with friends at Bothwell.

Miss Marjorie McNeill of Arva, sails on Thursday next for Scotland, where she will spend some months.

Misses Ada and May Fairbairn of South London, are taking a trip up the lakes as far north as Duluth.

Miss D. Kennedy has returned to her home in Peterboro after spending a holiday in Toronto and London.

Miss Helen Glen of Chatham leaves today for Muskoka. She is accompanied by her aunt, Miss Anderson, of London.

Miss Margaret Dewar of this city has recently returned after spending a week's vacation in Detroit and Sarnia.

Mrs. John L. Whiting, with her sister, Miss Sampson, has returned from a continental trip and are at present in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald and daughter Winnie, who are at this city are for their summer home at Round Lake, Havelock.

Mr. Fred Graham, 43 Wilson avenue, London, Ont., is spending his holidays at 688 Lakeshore avenue, Hanlan's Point, Toronto.

Miss Lenore Coughlin, teacher at the Institute of Musical Art, is seriously ill at her home, 277 1/2 Fall Mall street, with an attack of summer flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wilkin of Denfield announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Lena Edna, to Earl L. Ritchie of Parkhill, and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie of Parkhill, the wedding to take place shortly.

Miss Dorothy Ritter has returned from Stratford, having attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss MacPherson, who sails with her husband for their future home in China, where they will be engaged in missionary work.

Mrs. George Coghlan of Sioux City, Iowa, is visiting relatives and friends in London and vicinity, this being her first return here in more than 30 years. Before leaving for the west Mrs. Coghlan lived on St. James street, and Mr. Coghlan (now deceased) was an employee of the London Free Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dougherty and Mrs. Edna Kelliker, with her little daughter Ruth of Cleveland, who are taking a leisurely motor trip through Western Ontario, stopped over a couple of days to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLaughlin, Ottawa avenue. They continued their trip Thursday morning.

Mrs. W. H. McLaughlin was the hostess of a delightful informal entertainment given at her home Wednesday evening last in honor of her niece, Miss Gladys House, of Cleveland.

The rooms were prettily decorated with gladioli, and about 25 guests were present. Mr. Thomas Warner presided at the piano, and the young people danced on the lawn, while the older ones conversed. After a social time had been spent the evening was brought to a close when dainty refreshments were served by Miss Aethia Thompson and Mr. John Simpson.

Use MURINE EYES
SUN WIND DUST & CINDERS
Recommended by DRUGGISTS & OPTICIANS
WRITE FOR FREE EYE BOOK, MURINE CO. CHICAGO

also would like 2 satchets? I have a one-piece corset waist pattern if some one would like same. My name is with Miss Grey. Please send me Motherless Miss Grey address and Sunshine. I fear my letter is too long Miss Grey. MARY

Ans.—The pattern is on its way to you. Mary but there are no satchets in at present. Please remember in future to write on one side of the paper only. Thank you for sending mite for the hospital fund.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in Saturday's paper where Dippy had some slips of Lady Washington to give away, so please send her enclosed letter. I have some nice house plants, so if any one would like some slips I will be glad to send them.

Enclose find mite for hospital. CANAAN. Ans.—Your letter is on its way to Dippy. Thank you, Canaan, for offer of slips, also for hospital mite.

Dear Miss Grey,—Inclosed find 10 cents for S. C. H. fund. Please send me Dutch romper pattern, I am sending self-addressed stamped envelope for same. I will return pattern as soon as I get one cut off. Thanking you in advance. MRS. W. H. Ans.—I am sorry, but there isn't a romper pattern in at present, but maybe some of the readers will send one in for you. Thank you, Mrs. W. H., for hospital dime.

Butter Fingers.—Many thanks for their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

also would like 2 satchets? I have a one-piece corset waist pattern if some one would like same. My name is with Miss Grey. Please send me Motherless Miss Grey address and Sunshine. I fear my letter is too long Miss Grey. MARY

Ans.—The pattern is on its way to you. Mary but there are no satchets in at present. Please remember in future to write on one side of the paper only. Thank you for sending mite for the hospital fund.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in Saturday's paper where Dippy had some slips of Lady Washington to give away, so please send her enclosed letter. I have some nice house plants, so if any one would like some slips I will be glad to send them.

Enclose find mite for hospital. CANAAN. Ans.—Your letter is on its way to Dippy. Thank you, Canaan, for offer of slips, also for hospital mite.

Dear Miss Grey,—Inclosed find 10 cents for S. C. H. fund. Please send me Dutch romper pattern, I am sending self-addressed stamped envelope for same. I will return pattern as soon as I get one cut off. Thanking you in advance. MRS. W. H. Ans.—I am sorry, but there isn't a romper pattern in at present, but maybe some of the readers will send one in for you. Thank you, Mrs. W. H., for hospital dime.

Butter Fingers.—Many thanks for their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

ANCHOR. Ans.—I refer your question, re stovepipes and sheep's wool to our experienced readers. I never heard of anyone leaving their name and address on a cottage, but surely you know the old adage, "Fools' names and fools' faces" are always seen in public places. Your suggestions were very good, but a little late, as our quilt has already been started. Will you make a block?

Ans.—We all have been wondering what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her the address if she writes me for it. Have any of the readers used a big drum or fixture on stovepipe to make more heat? If so are they good? Do they help much to warm a room where only pipe runs through? Miss Grey, or anyone, do you think it improper for a person to leave their name and address on summer cottages just for curiosity, or is it wrong to leave one's name so public? Can any of the readers tell me how to wash and dry sheep's wool before putting it in a quilt. I will try and send in some satchets soon, also red hollyhock seeds. I would be so glad to get a small root of red, also white chrysanthemum. I sent out white, also ivy, last spring. Received a slip of one from a writer from Mount Brydges, but it did not grow; if she sees this, wish she would please send a small root of one. Hope the ones I sent her grew.

what has happened to you, Mammy. We are quite anxious for news of Coon Hollow. Let us hear from you soon with directions. Thank you, Amethyst, for hospital dime. There are no slips in the Mail-Box.

Fools' Names, Etc. Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I guess everyone is busy these days, as so few letters in the Mail-Box. Someone was asking a short time ago where she could get the stamped canvas to hook rugs. I can give her

TWELVE

LOWER PRICES FOR HYDRO ARE UP TO ENGINEERS

Sir Adam Discusses Situation Regarding Power For Detroit.

Admitting that he has received a telegram from Mayor James Couzens of Detroit, as reported, stating that $26 per horsepower for hydro-electric power is too high, Sir Adam Beck informed The Advertiser Saturday afternoon that the proposal to supply power to Detroit had not yet been laid before the Hydro-Electric Power Commission by its engineers.

"Negotiations have been conducted by the engineers," he stated, "and the scheme has not been laid before the commission. If the negotiations cannot be put through, that's all there is to it."

"Would you consider lowering your price?" asked the reporter.

"That is up to the commission. The Detroit engineers came to us. We did not start this thing. Mr. Dow of the Edison Company says he can supply the power just as cheaply. If that is so why does he not supply it to the millions of people there who are paying one-third more than the consumers of Windsor, right across the border, are paying for hydro? That answers Mr. Dow."

"The Windsor city council objected to supplying Detroit with hydro-electric power, as you know, because it placed the businessmen of Detroit on the same basis as themselves. At the present time they are paying almost double for their power."

Visit Our Leather Goods Department
COOK'S Shoe Store
London & Port Stanley Railway

EFFECTIVE JUNE 12, 1921.
To St. Thomas only: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To Port Stanley and St. Thomas: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To Port Stanley only: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To St. Thomas only: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To Port Stanley and St. Thomas: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To Port Stanley only: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.
To St. Thomas only: 1:15 a.m., 4:20, 6:20, 11:20 p.m.

NEW PRICE FOR LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
THE SATISFACTORY
COAL
EGG $16.50 a Ton
SMITHING COAL, $16 a Ton.
Delivered Anywhere in London.
ORCHARD'S
45 YORK STREET. PHONE 384.

FANCY BEADS
Big range of Fancy Beads, red, amethyst, blue, green, pink and black. Prices.....$2.00 to $7.50
C. H. WARD & CO.
Diamond Merchants and Jewelers.
386 RICHMOND STREET
Phone 1084.

LONDON OPTICAL CO.
Richmond Street, Dom. Sav. Bldg.
Phone 6180.

FINE PEARL STRANDS
So nearly like the genuine are the pearl strands that Barnard gets from the best laboratories of Paris one can scarce tell the difference.
30-Inch Strands at...$35

BARNARD'S
Diamonds and Pearls.
399 Richmond St.

WASH THE ELECTRIC WAY.
Beatty White Cap Electric Washer.....$115.00
Cornell Electric Washer.....$210.00
Phone 4071 for free demonstration.
Taylor-Campbell Electric Co.
237 Dundas St.

DOWN ON WALTHAM OR ELGIN WATCHES
Balance Easy Terms.
374 RICHMOND STREET, JEWELER, GREEN, JEWELER, STREET.

WILL CARRY ON DESPITE REPORT OF COMMISSION

"We Have Done Our Best," Says Sir Adam Beck.

"I could make an interesting statement if I said what I thought," was the comment of Sir Adam Beck Saturday afternoon, when interviewed by an Advertiser reporter on the Southern commission's report regarding hydro-electric radials issued Friday night.

"Did you know that Premier Drury stated this morning that the Government has confidence in you?" began the scribbler. "He did? What do you think of that?"

"What do you think of the report?" Sir Adam countered, when asked his opinion by the reporter.

"It is adverse to electric radials," was the reporter's reply.

"Would you consider the London and Port Stanley Railway a failure?" asked Sir Adam.

"Hardly so," replied the scribbler, who began to feel that the interview had been switched.

"Must Accept It."

"The public will have to accept the report," that's all," continued Sir Adam.

"Have you made any statement on the report?"

"I have made no statement to any paper. As a matter of fact, I have been away all day and have not seen the report. I do not know whether I will make any statement. I know I have done my best. I could make an interesting statement if I said what I thought."

"Before we electrified the London and Port Stanley Railway we had the advice of the best engineers available. There was a surplus in the estimates, and seeing our chance we purchased steel coaches instead of wooden ones. We doubled the estimated revenue, despite this report."

"Our books are open and were inspected by Arnold & Company, reputable engineers of Chicago. The only criticism they could bring forward was that our construction costs were high."

"I would not consider the report a slap in the face, as you say has been suggested. It does not cast any reflection upon me, but it hits at my organization."

"It does not affect the local situation," concluded Sir Adam Beck. "The London Railway Commission is employed by the city of London, and is responsible only to the city council and taxpayers of the city. We consulted the best engineers before electrifying here, and their advice has proven sound, as the London and Port Stanley Railway proves."

"Oh, well, we will keep at it, despite the report," was Sir Adam's parting shot.

Not Disappointed.

"I am not at all disappointed by the report," said Mr. Philip Pocock of the London Railway Commission to The Advertiser Saturday. "I expected the report would be adverse to radials. I think the Government is more or less opposed to electric radials and generally against commissions to favor the Government view."

"I do not think it affects the issue very much. It does not affect the London and Port Stanley Railway. There are hundreds of electric roads that are made by the London and Port Stanley Central Railway. There is no doubt that that is the proper thing there. The electric lines in Chicago have been a wonderful success."

Says It Will Come.

"They may be a little in advance of public opinion, but it will come. You know the condition of the national railways at the present time is bad. There is no question in my judgment of the advantages of electricity over steam. It is as far ahead as electricity is over gas for illumination."

"Electricity is much more economical when you take into consideration the frequency of the trains and the facilities. This has been proven on the London and Port Stanley Railway."

"It is just what I expected," commented E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the public utilities commission, Saturday. "I don't think it is the end of radial lines. In fact it is the beginning. From the way the commission was taking evidence I expected a report of this nature."

"In a cold country like Canada, with no coal of its own, and an abundance of hydro-electric power, the only way to run the railways is by hydro-electric power. This is the first principle. Conditions in Norway and Sweden are almost identical with ours, and they are out for electric railways, but long hauls there are not near so favorable."

"In a short haul, such as between London and Toronto, with trains almost every minute, overhead maintenance charges would be reduced in comparison to the heavy expense where there are one or two trains daily."

NO FROST AT MOOSE JAW.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Aug. 14.—The report of frost in the Moose Jaw district is without foundation. The lowest registered temperature by the thermometer at the meteorological station was 42 degrees.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

THE LONDON ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1921.

IRISH PICNIC TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

Original Program of Postponed Outing To Be Staged At Port.

Having been temporarily balked by the weatherman last Thursday, the members of the Irish Benevolent Society have reorganized their forces, and everything is again in readiness for the 4th annual Irish picnic, to be held at Port Stanley on Wednesday.

Present E. C. Killingsworth, Secretary Harry Bennett and the executive officers announce that the full program originally devised to insure the greatest of Irish celebration is to be carried out with a series of big added features that will be certain to attract a record-smashing crowd.

The fact that the date now chosen is a regular half-holiday in London, and the surrounding places will mean much to the success of the picnic, which has long since gained front rank as the classic of the summer season in Western Ontario.

Prizes Worth Winning.

The program of sports arranged by a committee presided over by P. H. Rannahan is filled with laugh-making novelties for men, women, and children, and the cash prizes offered are so generous that the average competitor stands at first-rate chance of winning not only the expenses of a day's fun, but a balance worth pocketing.

Extraordinary prizes have also been secured by Fire Chief Altken, chairman of the baby show, who has an array of gold rings, gold and silver cups and other prizes that will arouse a spirit of mothers. Chairman "Bill" Moore of the dancing committee is the most enthusiastic man in the land over the Irish picnic. His program includes the gold and silver medals and other prizes are sure to attract a big field of competitors.

All Irish Concerts.

Music, always one of the big features of an Irish picnic, will be expected this year, brass bands having been engaged to give all-Irish concerts on the beach and heights both afternoon and evening. Miss Winifred Evans, a London soprano, whose popular singing has gained her fame across the continent, will sing with the R. C. R. Band on the heights in the afternoon, and at the free movie show on the beach in the evening.

The annual banquet of the Irish Benevolent Society is to be held at the L. and P. S. Cafeteria in the evening. The speakers include American Consul Taggart, who is to reply to the toast to the United States.

Games of Chance Are Closed at Springbank.

Games of chance were cleared out of the amusement park at Springbank on Saturday night, when Provincial Police Officer Arthur Palmer arrested proprietors of several concessions. Some of the games were known as "House of Cards," "Roll Down," "Spindles," etc.

The pastimes have attracted crowds of people and are said to have been profitable to the operators. They are, however, considered by the police as gambling games.

Those who will appear in the county court this morning.

I. L. P. DECIDES TO RETAIN ITS NAME

TORONTO, Aug. 13.—At the Labor Temple this afternoon the executive committee of the Independent Labor Party of Ontario decided to retain its present name. The resolution adopted concludes with:

"Therefore, we, the executive of the party, deem it would be inexpedient and probably fatal to the success of the political movement to relinquish our permanent position until such time as the Canadian Labor Party is properly organized."

From a little hamlet of sheep-herders away up in the highland of Scotland, the cleanest, the softest and the whitest wool used to find its way to the market.

There was a little Scotch laddie who lived among these sheep-herders, and while other laddies were playing he was watching the sheep-herders getting their wool ready for the market.

He noticed that they used a washing wool that brought the dirt from the wool without harming the texture.

Years after, grown to a man, and in a large, new country, he had great reason to remember his experiences. The work that he engaged in had made him an expert in chemicals—and when the world war came a little Allied power sought his aid to solve a great problem. What chemical process was there through which the clothes of the boys in the trenches could be passed to rid them of "botches" and germs without harming the clothes?

After much research he was soon in possession of a formula for a washing cream built and perfected upon the basic principles that had been used for generations to wash the sheep. This he used as a basis for his washing cream that was used so successfully by the army of the country he represented.

The war over, the chemist realized his commercial value because of his highly antiseptic and disinfecting powers, his cleansing powers and because it in no way harmed the garments on which it was to be used.

Under the name "Miracle Washing Cream" it has been marketed and now housewives can enjoy the benefit of this chemist's research.

That man is C. J. McLennan, president of the Miracle Manufacturing Company, Detroit, and president of the McLennan Chemical Company, Limited, of Windsor, Canada.

CAMLACHIE

CAMLACHIE, Aug. 13.—Little Miss Freda Lockyer entertained a number of little folks to a party on the occasion of her fourth birthday yesterday afternoon.

Among the names of successful candidates who passed the entrance to normal exams, Jean McFarlane's appears with honors.

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Optometrist. F. STEELE Expert Work.

210 DUNDAS STREET. PHONE 4414W

Opt