SAUGEEN MINERAL WATER.

This celebrated magnetic mineral water is put up in quart, pint and half pint bottles, and can be obtained at the Central Drug Store and at Robert's Liquor Store. The demand has greatly increased within the past two years, and a short time ago a carload was shipped to M. C. Dillon, liquor merchant, St. Louis, and another carload was sent to Winnipeg. It is said to be a sure cure for all stomach troubles, and gives great relief to those troubled with rheumatism, and if fairly used is said to effect a permanent cure. Of all mineral waters it is the most pleasant to take, and it should be in every household.

MURDER MAY BE CHARGED.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Michael Hartnett, a drover, died at St. Michael's hospital to-day as a result of a fight in the Black Bull tavern on Friday night, and a charge of murder will probably be laid in connection with his death. Hartnett, who is a young man, got into an altercation with John Beers, the proprietor of the hotel and struck him. Ernest Beers, the son, and 18 years old, then struck Hartnett on the back of the neck with a baseball bat. Hartnett staggered away, and was afterwards found to be suffering from concussion of the brain. He was admitted to St. Michael's Hospital in an unconscious condition on Saturday, and died to-day, without being able to give his version of the affair.

ALL BOERS ARE WARNED

Delarey Issues a Counter Proclamation to Continue Struggle.

Col. Gordon's Condition Unchanged—Street Loafers as Yeomanry.

London, Aug. 25.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated at Pretoria, to-day:—"Delarey has issued a counter proclamation, warning all Boers against my latest proclamation and declaring that they will continue the struggle."

COL. GORDON'S CONDITION UNCHANGED.

London, Aug. 24.—The War Office reports that there was no change in the condition of Canadian Staff Officer Col. Gordon up to August 22.

THE YEOMANRY SCANDAL.

London, Aug. 24.—Commenting on and airing the scandal of the inefficiency of the yeomanry sent to South Africa, which was referred to in a report by Lord Kitchener a few days ago, in which he said many of them could neither ride nor shoot, the St. James Gazette this afternoon says:—"Many of those yeomen are street loafers who are physically unfit for service. Some of them have heart disease, some have varicose veins, some are cripples and some are nearly blind. Do the home authorities realize this? Are they going to punish officers who allow disease-ridden rascals to join the army?"

BOERS ACTIVE IN CAPE COLONY.

London, Aug. 25.—South African despatches show that the Boers continue active in Cape Colony. A skirmish has occurred near Undale, only a day's ride from the sea, while Commander Scheepers' command is threatening the important town of Outshorn, 30 miles from the Indian Ocean.

In Brussels it is asserted that Commandant General Botha has ordered the Boer commanders in future to retain all captured British as hostages in case Lord Kitchener carries out the threats of his latest proclamation.

NEAR HUNTSVILLE.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 25.—Sir Frederick Robinson, baronet, Osgoode Hall, and son of the late Lucern Robinson, was drowned to-day in Fairy Lake, near Huntsville, where he was summering.

NEGRO CONFESSED AND THEN DIED LIKE A STOIC

Told his Friends to Meet him in Glory and Calmly Faced the Ragging Flames of an Oil Soaked Pyre—His Crime was Murder.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 25.—Henry Noles, a negro, was burned to-day by a mob of citizens for criminally assaulting and shooting to death, Mrs. Charles Williams, wife of a prominent farmer near Winchester, Tenn., last Friday. Admitting his crime and asking his friends to meet him in glory, he met his fate without a groan. Noles was captured early to-day at a water tank near Cowan, Tenn., and was taken to Winchester and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to barricade the building and protect the prison. Soon an angry mob of several hundred men gathered, but Assistant Attorney-General Whitaker appeared and made a speech urging them to disperse and upholding the majesty of the law. He promised to ask the grand jury to indict the negro to-morrow and have Noles speedily tried at the special assize court, expressing the opinion that his guilt and execution were a foregone conclusion. His appeal was supported by Judge W. W. Lynch and others.

No sooner had these appeals been made than several hundred citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed, came up, and augmented the crowd. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies, took the prisoner and started at 10.15 a. m. for the scene of the crime, twelve miles distant. The mob was determined and it seemed that almost the entire population for miles around had turned out to see the fate of the wretch. Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime, the negro was placed upon a stump and given a chance to make a statement. He mounted the stump stolidly and laughed as he began. He said:—"Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home; tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

Noles was then asked as to whether anyone else was implicated in the crime. He said, emphatically, there was not. "Why did you kill Mrs. Williams," he was asked. "I just did that because I had nothing else to do," came the answer. Noles was taken from the stump, bound to a tree by chains, and his body saturated with oil. At 1.40 p. m. a match was applied, and instantly the quivering body was enveloped in flames. Fence rails were applied and soon life was extinct. At least 6,000 people witnessed the burning.

Noles worked for Mr. Williams on the farm, and his crime was committed Friday last. He also tried to kill one of two children in the house. He fled to the woods and citizens with bloodhounds tracked him. It is claimed that the murderer also robbed the house of $20. Mrs. Williams came of one of the most respectable families in the county.

HOLLEIN'S VALIANT STRUGGLE TO SWIM ENGLISH CHANNEL

Swam Twenty-Six Miles in Twelve Hours ere Exhaustion Overcame him—McNally Will try Swim from Boston to New York.

Dover, Eng., Aug. 25.—Holbein, who yesterday, the anniversary of Capt. Webb's swim from Dover to Calais, started from Cape Gris-Nez, between Boulogne-sur-Mer and Calais, in an attempt to swim to Dover, narrowly escaped drowning. He covered the course to a point within six miles of Dover, and then collapsed, after having been in the water 12 hours and 45 minutes.

The tug which accompanied him took him from the water and brought him to Dover this morning. He was carried to a hotel in a semi-conscious, precarious state, and subsequently on the advice of his medical attendants, was removed to a hospital where he lay for some time in a serious condition. It was found that his eyesight had been badly affected by the salt water.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

To-night, however, he had recovered, and he announced his intention to renew the attempt. His exploit was very remarkable, considering the roughness of the sea, and has established a record.

Instructions to Holbein were shouted through a megaphone, and powerful acetylene lamps were lighted to guide him. In the middle of the channel the wind was fresh and the water very rough.

At the end of the sixth hour he was swimming, but he began to complain of an injury to his left hip, sustained on the rocks at Cape Gris-Nez, but not mentioned before. At this time he was about six miles off the British coast, and Capt. Lambert was of the opinion that he might reach Dover on the next tide. He continued to swim, mainly on his back. At 11 o'clock he was only lost for five minutes, a big wave having swept over him.

BEGAN TO WEAKEN.

He kept going steadily, but during the tenth or eleventh hours a westerly tide drifted him much out of his course, and it was evident heavy seas were having a bad effect. During the twelfth hour his stroke weakened considerably. He was swimming with head much down. He was making almost no progress, and seemed unable to grasp the directions given him. Twice he turned completely round making for the French shore.

At 4.20 a. m. a council was held on the tug, and it was decided to take him out of the water. He was turning like a top and hopelessly blind. If he had been left he might have gone down.

Allowing for the zig zag course it is estimated that he swam 26 miles. When he was taken from the water Dover was about five miles north-east. His next attempt he promises to make next year.

BOSTON TO NEW YORK.

Boston, Aug. 25.—To swim from Boston to New York is the feat that Peter S. McNally will attempt, making the start next Sunday. The distance to be covered within 30 days. Mr. McNally hopes to arrive at the Battery in New York, before noon, Monday, Sept. 30. The actual distance is 283 nautical miles, but the swimming course will be very little less than 400 miles.

SURRENDERS

Insurgent Officers and Men Give up the Fight in the Philippines.

Manila, Aug. 25.—Word was received to-day that the insurgent, Colonel Lott, with 17 officers and 18 men, surrendered yesterday to Captain Brown, of the 40th Infantry, at Talisay. The surrender of numerous other smaller contingents last week brings the total to more than 100.

Manila, Aug. 25.—In the city of Manila there are now fewer than 1,000 effective soldiers and it has been decided to increase that number by four companies of infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force. As a matter of fact, however, there is a feeling that, although there is no apparent prospect of trouble, nevertheless, in the event of an uprising in the future, such as is always possible among the Malays, it would be better to have a sufficient body of troops available for such an emergency. Gen. Chaffee says he considers the city of Manila to be perfectly orderly, and he can see no prospect of an uprising. Commissioner Wright thinks the people "extremely peaceable." He is satisfied that, although among a certain class there is some discontent on account of the land tax which is not yet understood, this class is not likely to foment trouble.

SHOT PRISONERS

Boths Executed Boers Who Had Surrendered to the British.

A Central News despatch, published in London, dated Standerton, Monday, August 12, says: A tragic affair occurred recently at a farm north of Volksrust, in the occupation of a number of Boers who had surrendered to the British, and who had been allowed to retain their rifles to protect their stock. During the absence of the British patrol from the neighborhood, a body of the enemy under Commandant Christian Botha surrounded the farm house and called upon the occupants to surrender.

On being refused, Botha's men opened fire. Koek, the owner of the farm, and his son and several other burghers were killed, and a number wounded. When their ammunition was exhausted the remainder surrendered. Christian Botha immediately formed a court-martial. Five men were ordered to be shot, and are said to have been executed without delay. Four were severely flogged and sent to Volksrust, while another was taken prisoner to Amersfoort. The column under Colonel Colville operating in the neighborhood of Waterval, has captured a Boer laager and twenty prisoners. Three Boers were killed.

MONDAY, AUGUST 26.

WHAT ABOUT CHATHAM?

"What's the matter with Chatham, anyway?" asks the Ridgetown Dominion in referring to the census returns from this rapidly developing industrial centre.

It is a question that the Dominion has a right to ask. It is a question that the press and people all over the country have a right to ask, and will ask, on the census showing. And it is a commenting query that is calculated to do the Maple City much injury in business and commercial circles.

In other words, The Planet believes that the census returns for Chatham are, wrong—radically wrong. And this great home journal is of opinion, moreover, that the city should take steps to have them righted.

Ten years ago, before Chatham had donned the garb of cityhood, her population was proclaimed at 9,052, generally deemed a very accurate figure. Has there been any development—any enlargement—since that date? Ask the Chatham old boy who returns home after a decade. He will open his eyes in admiration and wonder at the progress and extension of its people. Ask the business man, the manufacturer, the citizen, who have grown up with Chatham, and they will tell of its splendid progress and the excellent development of its industries. Think of the town as it is now. Is there any question as to its growth—growth, at least, by hundreds?

The present census places Chatham's figures at 9,075—an increase of but 43 in the time alluded to. Does anyone believe, then? The Planet emphatically does not. This journal has too great a faith in this city, and has seen and experienced too much of its success and development to stand silent under such a census slander. The whole Province of Ontario generally seems to have suffered a very raw deal at the hands of the Messieurs who managed and manipulated the figures, and it is the emphatic duty of the Ontario Government, which has been appealed to by the press and people, to demand investigation and justice. Whether the Ross administration has sufficient loyalty to its constituents and the Province to do so, remains to be seen. This should not be a paltry matter of politics. It is a great problem that confronts every steward of the people and their rights in the Legislative halls. It must be undertaken and solved.

And in Chatham, emphatic protest should be registered. This splendid industrial city cannot afford to be maligned in the manner in which, we sincerely believe, it has been. Where the error lies this journal cannot say—it is for the authorities to ascertain. But The Planet does know this. That census slips were left at certain houses and never again called for, and consequently never entered, and that the local commissioner informed this

General Debility

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It vitalizes the blood, gives vigor and tone to all the organs and functions, and is positively unequalled for all run-down or debilitated conditions.

Journal that the census reports for this city forwarded to the Government showed a total of 9,083, while the Government reports it as 9,075. These may be small matters in themselves, but they are serious ones. They serve to show that omissions and reductions have occurred. The most thorough investigation alone can show to what extent.

In justice to our city let us have that investigation.

ANOTHER LIBERAL OPINION.

The Liberal Windsor Record prints an article which reveals a rather refreshing indifference as to whether Hon. John Dryden should remain Minister of Agriculture or not. The Record says:

"In Canada, where most men have to earn their living, it is not always easy to draw the line for men holding public positions as to how they should regulate their investments or speculations. In reference to the act of Hon. John Dryden in purchasing a cattle ranch in Dakota, we think it is hardly consistent with his position as minister of agriculture for this province. If he feels it is necessary to engage in cattle ranching in Dakota it is not absolutely necessary that he should also remain minister of agriculture in Ontario. He should make a choice."

The Planet is not in the confidence of Mr. Dryden. We are inclined to believe that he is not disposed to accept advice from this great home journal. Were he so disposed, and were we in the humor to give him a pointer we would tell John to hang on to his ranch. His career as Minister of Agriculture is drawing to a close in any event and he will have lots of time in the near future to attend to his Dakota enterprise.

CROP FAILURES AND FAMINE.

While in Canada we are rejoicing over the certainty of more than ordinarily good crops, and in some parts of the Dominion difficulty is being encountered in getting a sufficient number of men to gather in the harvest, reports from other grain-growing countries indicate that the wheat crop of the world is likely this year to fall below the average. In Russia, which usually has a large quantity of wheat for export, the outlook is particularly gloomy, and advices from Moscow go so far as to predict another famine. Nearly a third of the provinces of European Russia are officially declared to have produced "insufficient," and out of the seventy provinces only two have had good harvests. Among the "insufficient" are the best wheat growing districts, and the population of an area of half a million square miles is face to face with starvation. Russia has been in the habit of drawing on the resources of Siberia when the crops failed elsewhere, but this year Siberia is little better off than other parts, though even if it had a surplus the lack of roads leading into the rural districts would greatly minimize the help it might be. Over an enormous extent of the country, the only roads are the railways, and during the former famines thousands of people actually perished because it was found impossible to get food to them though they were within two hundred miles of a railway.

As Great Britain imports a large quantity of wheat from Russia, the failure in this source of supply is bound to increase the price, and the farmers of Manitoba will benefit by the misfortune of those of Eastern Europe. It ought, moreover, to impress on the British public the advantage which it would be to them were Manitoba fully settled and producing to its full capacity. When that time comes Great Britain will not require to go outside of her own Empire for food for her people, and will be no longer dependent on the countries which sell her bread and at the same time would like to see her downfall. It is as much in the interest of the British to encourage emigration to the wheat fields of Canada as it is in the interests of Canada, and if the Imperial authorities are wise they will do their best to direct the tide of emigration to this country in the future.

This Chatham census is really about to incense.

Laurier's letter is "open" enough!—Hamilton Times.

Yes. "Open and empty" as 'twere.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's forte is evidently not letter-writing. His friends ought in charity to him hide his pens and keep him far away from pencils or type-writers.

Viewing it from the most generous standpoint, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's letter to R. L. Richardson, does not rise above the level of the "you're another" grade of reply.

It may be true that Millionaire Schwab's uncle is in jail because he could not pay a fine for drunkenness, and yet the fault and the shame of it may not all be on the head of the millionaire nephew, as some of our exchanges seem to think! The uncle cannot escape part of the blame.

The members of the City Council and the School Board at Guelph played a game of baseball on Saturday. The score was 27 to 19 in favor of the School Board at the end of the fifth innings. The full casualty list has not yet come to hand, but the papers say the Mayor, who was playing third base, "played out" in the second innings. If those newspapers in Guelph only got at it the South African war wouldn't be a circumstance.

Every editor has received those third notices, says a writer. The postmaster sends them to the editor, but the postmaster is not to blame. For instance, there was a man named Tim Short who sent us three notices to stop his paper, he didn't want it any longer. We wondered what was the matter. Upon investigation of our subscription list we found Tim was short $2.50. He had never paid a cent and he stopped the paper as a matter of economy to us. A few evenings ago we stepped into a church and Tim's melodious tenor rang out clear in that soul-stirring hymn, "Jesus Paid It All." He might have been mistaken, but his earnestness impressed us. The next day we sent him a receipt in full, begging his pardon for not knowing that he had made an assignment of his liabilities to the Lord.

The opening attraction at the local theatre will probably be Roland Reed's famous comedy, "Humbly," with Walter Hodges in the leading role. This attraction is playing at the Grand Opera House, Boston, all this week.

Negotiations are under way for a production of "The Brownies in Fairyland," by a hundred local children under the direction of Malcolm Douglas, who was in charge of "The Brownies" production which packed the Grand to the doors some few years ago. Mr. Douglas is also to stage Klaw and Erlanger's great spectacle, "The Sleeping Beauty," which will be put on in October. This production of "The Brownies in Fairyland" is the same that packed Massey Hall in Toronto for three performances last season, and also filled the Detroit Opera House to the doors with most enthusiastic audiences. The costumes and scenic effects are said to be very fine.

Consumption

Is a disease of civilization. When the Indian was a stranger to the white man he had no name in his vocabulary for this dreaded malady.

Without arguing as to the curability of consumption, it may be stated positively that Doctor

Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures weak lungs, hemorrhages, bronchitis, deep-seated and stubborn cough, and other diseases which if neglected or un-skillfully treated and a fatal termination in consumption. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Persons suffering from chronic disease are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, for all correspondence is conducted under the seal of sacred secrecy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

In a little over thirty years, Dr. Pierce, has assisted in the medical staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated over a score thousands of men and women who have been given up as incurable by local physicians.

"Your medicine is the best I have ever taken," writes Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Rapid City, S. D., "Last spring I had a bad cough; got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had come to the end of my life. He had given up all thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I had taken one bottle when the cough stopped and I have since had no sign of it."

box, and you drop your vote. Right after you comes a libertine or a sot, the disfiguring of the street, and he drops his vote, and his vote comes a mother, a daughter, a sister, or of home life a daughter by her Christian demeanor, a wife by her industry, a mother by her faithfulness, and she drops her vote in the right direction, and then nothing can resist it, and the influence of that vote will troth through the eternities.

My chief ancestor, then, is not that woman of olden rights accorded her, but that she, by the grace of God, rise up to the appreciation of the glorious rights she already possesses, and only have time to speak of one and another absorbing right that every woman has, and thus to make her life a life of usefulness and one has ever disputed with her. Men may come home at noon or at night, and they carry a comparatively little while of their day, but when they get home, it beautifies it, sanctifies it. It is within her power to make it the most attractive place on earth. It is the life of this world.

It is home. Whenever we hear the word "home" hovering around it. The ladders of heaven are let down to this house. Over the child's rough crib there are the chantings of angels and those of the angels of Jerusalem. It is home. These children may come up after awhile, and they may win high position, and they may have an affluent residence, but they will not forget the dingy day forget that humble roof under which their father rested and their mother sang and their sisters played. They would grow up to be men of memories and of lights and shades of the heart and of all banquetings and reunions, all fraternal, paternal and conjugal affections, and you would be glad to see them grow up that height and depth and length and breadth and magnitude and eternity of meaning, you would, with streaming eyes and trembling lips, look out that height and depth and length and breadth and magnitude, out in these four live, moving capitals, H-O-M-E.

What right does woman want that is greater than to be queen? Use the word, "queen," as the eagles of heaven capture, fly across that dominion

Horses, panting and with lathered flanks, are not swift enough to get to the outpost of the sun never sets upon the English Empire, but I have told you that on this realm of world-man's influence eternal day is shed from the Spanish throne pursued by the nation's anathema, but she who is the queen in a home with no throne, the throne of herself itself will only be the annexation of heavenly principles.

When you want to get your grandest idea of a queen, you do not think of Catherine of Russia, or of Anne of England, or Maria Theresa of Austria, but when you want to give your grandest idea of a queen, you think of the plain woman who goes opposite your father at the table, and walked with him arm in arm down life's pathway, who has been the backbone and bouquet sometimes of the grave, but always together.

BAD MAN

Harris Proves to be a Difficult one to Arrest—Will be tried for Theft.

Quite an exciting affair took place Saturday, when Constable Peters attempted to arrest a colored man named Harris. It was thought for a time that it would be a repetition of the Freeman affair, which happened a few years ago.

It appears that Harris has been working for some time for Robert Cummings, of Chatham Township. Lately Mr. Cummings has noticed that his grain bin has been gradually becoming smaller and smaller. He was at once on his guard and soon found out that the grain was being stolen by his colored employee. As soon as Harris saw that he was found out he left Mr. Cummings' employ, who immediately swore out an information. The information was given to Constable Peters who, accompanied by Mr. Cummings, set out to make the arrest.

They found Harris, along with a number of other colored men, moving a barn on his own premises. Peters at once arrested him and handed him over to a man who had charge of the barn moving, and who was to hold him until Cummings and Peters examined the house in search of stolen goods. After making a thorough search they returned and found that Harris' friends had armed themselves with picks, axes, spades, etc., and were prepared to defend their friend until the last.

They were overpowered, however, and the man Harris was safely brought in to Chatham and will be arraigned before the county magistrate to give an explanation of his actions.

WRITTEN FROM THE WEST

The Planet's Correspondent has Reached Portage La Prairie.

His Impressions of that Rapidly Developing Country—Other Incidents.

At White River J. M. McGovern, Dominion Government Immigration Agent, boarded the train. Mr. McGovern, who lives at Port Arthur, was appointed 20 years ago, under the late government, and is well acquainted with the promised land, otherwise known as the west country. Mr. McGovern's duties are to get a record of all the people coming into the country, so that the government can keep a directory of the people in the North-west. Emigrants know little about certain where each person is going and give all necessary information about the country, trains, etc. He is practically a reception committee of one. He must be an encyclopedia of information in regard to the west and must have the patience of Job. In cases of sickness he provides the doctor. There has been a great deal of contention in reference to the information secured, but Mr. McGovern says that it is as near correct as it is possible to get it. Each new comer is personally interviewed, and a record taken of name, etc. Each emigrant can be traced up separately, and they can be located at any time by the government. When the emigrants come in large parties, special men are sent from Ottawa with them. It is surprising how grateful the emigrants are for the assistance given to them.

Mr. McGovern says that the possibilities of the west are enormous. North of Lake Superior the country is rich in mineral wealth which will some day be developed. This section of the country requires capital to develop its great resources, while the prairies only requires farmers to till the soil and reap bountiful harvests. At Nipigon, 60 miles east of Port Arthur, rich iron ore has been located, and is being mined. Two American companies are also doing some prospecting 60 miles up the Nipigon river. Through the country at various stations, the stores of the Hudson Bay Co.—that commercial association so closely associated with the history of this country—begin to appear. Occasionally, too, we catch sight of Indian teepees, showing white amidst the green foliage on the side of a stream. At Heron Bay, we get our first sight of the great inland lake, Lake Superior. From this place onward for many miles the C. P. R. is carried along the rugged shore line of Lake Superior and the traveller is enamoured with the many pretty sights.

The first sight of Lake Superior was truly magnificent. The railway here runs along the high cliffs that line the shore and it has a charming panorama opened up to view. The islands covered with grass rising a hundred feet out of the water, the white caps sparkling on the lake, the cliffs and the little cove revealed on one of the islands with a fisherman's white shanty nestled in it, all these contributed to make a scene of grandeur and beauty. At Port Colwell, J. F. Hodder, Indian agent at Port Arthur, boarded the train. He had just returned from paying the Indians up the Pigeon river. The Government gives every Indian man, woman and child four dollars a year to live on such lordly munificence. Mr. Hodder says that P. R. is one of the largest tracts of farming land in Ontario. It has never been tilled, however, and never is it seen by white men except explorers, and this great tract of virgin soil awaits the hardy pioneer. A Hudson Bay post up the little Pigeon river the trader had let his water run down and had set it by the sun. On comparison with Mr. Hodder's timepiece it was found that the trader was only out seven minutes. Mr. Hodder was very enthusiastic over the fishing in Lake Nipigon. This fishing is described as being alive with fish, and he stated that after an hour and a half trolling he had thirteen trout and picked up one of these fish weighing over 30 pounds. He also caught a speckled trout on a trolling spoon that weighed 15 pounds, that is the fish did not weigh as much as the one he had. Mr. Hodder said that these fish were like the fish that made me think of home and a C. McKay, Vital Goudreau, L. F. Wilson, Chas. Hicklin, Thos. Guttridge and other Maple City fisher-folk. What opportunity these last named renowned nimble rods are missing by staying away from Nipigon and what wonderful stories Chathamites are spared.

Mr. Hodder says that for the last four or five years there had been a slight decrease in the number of Indians, but there is a slight increase this year. Wednesday afternoon we were treated to a sight of one of the prettiest bits of scenery on the C. P. R. line. Jack Fish Bay is only half a mile across, yet it takes the railway seven and one-half miles to pass this point. The shore line is high cliffs deep indented with bays and the nature of the shore has to hug the shore line. The result is that the traveller has some exceedingly charming views. The country continued to afford many pretty sights till dark. It was seven o'clock when I awoke. Shortly afterwards, the train pulled into Rat Portage and I lunched at that point. Rat Portage is quite a place on the Lake of the Woods, and from the C. P. R. a delightful view of the Lake and islands can be had. This is the mining centre of Ontario. From here on the country is rough, rocky and rolling. At 10.30 a. m. Thursday we reached Whitesmuth, and from here westward wheat fields began to show up, and the borders of the great agricultural west had been reached, and by noon I had arrived in Winnipeg, the Chicago of Western Canada.

—JOHN W. YOUNG.

CHINESE DELAY

Procrastination in Signing the Protocol Causes Uneasiness.

Pekin, August 23.—The delay of the Chinese plenipotentiaries in signing the protocol is causing some uneasiness in the foreign community here, although the ministers of the powers do not think that China intends to defy the powers by ultimately refusing to sign. Indeed they believe China is anxious to wind up the negotiations speedily. Decees reciting one punishment and suspending the examinations will be issued before the Chinese signatures are affixed. Prince Ching at the request of the Empress Dowager, telegraphed to her verbatim the restrictions as to the importation of arms.

Li Hung Chang, having practically conducted all the active negotiations, has retired into the background, leaving to Prince Ching the responsibility of consummating the work. Earl Li finds himself in the same precarious position that he occupied at the close of the negotiations following the war with Japan. The Chinese press is in a violent denunciation of him for what is called his surrender of the foreigners, and a number of officials have petitioned the Emperor to punish him for betraying his country.

YOUNG CIGARETTE FIEND.

New York, Aug. 23.—Yesterday 13-year-old Ann, of East Thirty-third street, a thin, pale-faced child, with only one arm, was arraigned in court by the Children's Society which charged that she had smoked a cigarette. Annie's fingers were deeply discolored by the yellow stain, and the case only came to light when the child got a sore throat, necessitating medical treatment. The child's parents are tailors and work at home, and the mother has been summoned several times for alleged neglect. About a year ago Ann was run over by a surface car and lost her arm. She said a young married woman taught her to smoke and she spent every cent she got for cigarettes. The authorities are now looking for the "young married woman" and for those who sold cigarettes to the child.

CARRIE IN NEW YORK.

New York, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, whose crusade among the saloons of Wichita, Kas., put the price of intoxicants far above par, passed through this city on her way from Atlantic City to Rochester. Her hatchet was locked up in one of her trunks. The Kansas "joint smasher" arrived at the Twenty-third street ferry of the Pennsylvania railroad at 8 o'clock, in the company of the manager of her lecturing tour. From the ferry house she glanced about her and her eyes fell on numerous gilt signs, which indicated the presence of barrooms. Straightway she evinced much interest, but made no hostile demonstration. Instead, she consoled herself by exclaiming to her manager: "My, but there's a lot of saloons in this town." As she crossed the city in an electric car, she glanced at every saloon sign she saw, but made no comment.

"LOVE THY NEIGHBOR."

Montreal, Aug. 22.—As the result of a quarrel lately, T. A. Costello, of Griffintown, threw a neighbor, Edward Madden, over a gallery to the ground, 30 feet away. T. A. Costello was sentenced to one year in jail for the deed.

Prostrated by Excessive Heat

Seldom, if ever, has Canada been visited by such excessive and continuous heat, and the result have certainly never proven so alarming. The work people in factories and workshops, the clerks in stores and offices, business and professional men, the farmer in the field, the woman at her household, all are suffering, many are dying, unable to withstand the weakening, debilitating and enervating effect of such unusual weather.

What can be done to prevent prostration and collapse? Many have found an answer to this question in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great system-builder and nerve restorative. It renews the wasted vitality in a surprising manner, keeps the action of the bodily organs regular and active, and fortifies the system against the attack of weakness and disease.

She Felt Tired and Listless.

"Mrs. Henry Clarke, Port Hope, Ont., states:—'I have used seven boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for nervousness and a completely run down system, and can heartily recommend it as a wonderfully effective treatment. Before using this remedy I had been in very poor health for some months. I seemed to have no energy or ambition, felt tired and listless most of the time, and could scarcely drag myself about the house. I was weak, irritable and nervous, could not sleep well, and felt discouraged about my health. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has taken away these symptoms and given back my usual health and vigor, consequently I endorse it fully.'"

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD, The Great Restorative.

Too many yield to the temptation to use stimulants when the body is tired and exhausted. The action of the heart is quickened, the tired nerves are whipped up to overexertion, temporary relief is obtained, but the result is an excessive waste of nerve force and a hastening of fatal collapse. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food owes its wonderful success to the fact that it naturally and gradually restores, wasted nerve force and builds up the system. It cannot possibly fail to be of benefit to anyone who uses it because it actually forms new healthy tissues, makes the blood rich and pure, and restores the pale, weak and nervous to health, strength and vigor. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmansson, Bates & Company, Toronto.

A man talks about owning his business. But as a matter of fact his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business. The time at which he rises, his meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he "can't spare the time from business" to eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business. The results which follow this slavishness, are to be seen on every hand. Men are drawn faces, and hollow eyes, sit at the desk or stand behind the counter until they collapse in a fit of sickness, or are taken away by heart failure. The actions of business will find a friend in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, increases the action of the blood-making glands, increases the vitality and physical vigor. It makes men strong and prevents those business breakdowns which so often terminate fatally.

French Foreign Office Officials delighted Over Settlement.

Dispute Ended—The Other French Claims Admitted—Manner of Their Payment Will be Arranged.

Paris, Aug. 24.—The Foreign Office officials do not conceal their delight at the settlement of the Turkish difficulty. During the last few days it was evident that some anxiety was felt less the affair, mar the festivities on the occasion of the Czar's visit. The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that M. Constant's despatch was very brief, but it leaves no doubt that the Sultan has yielded all that was wanted in the matter of the quays by issuing an irade recognizing the full rights claimed by the French company, to extend its operations, buy land, and a war restriction, also removing the annoying restrictions hitherto imposed by the customs and police officials. This not only ends the dispute, but also ends all question of the purchase of the company's concession by the Porte at the present time. Regarding the other French claims, as their amount has been admitted by Turkey, the negotiations only turn on the manner of payment. It is believed this will be arranged very quickly.

Constantinople, Aug. 25.—M. Constant, the French ambassador, sent a note to the Porte last Thursday saying that he would leave Constantinople August 26, unless the French claims were settled. Thereupon Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish minister of foreign affairs, called at the French embassy, and informed M. Constant that the Porte had abandoned the idea of purchasing the quays, first, because convinced that the purchase would be a bad speculation for Turkey, and second on account of the financial difficulty involved, as the Ottoman government had no hope that the Paris market would take up a loan to cover the purchase. M. Constant then gave the Ottoman government until Monday (to-morrow) to issue an irade granting the Quays Company full rights, and indemnity for two years during which the company had been deprived of these rights.

A despatch to the Associated Press from Constantinople Saturday, stated that an imperial irade had been issued ordering the Quays Company should be allowed to exercise freely all the rights granted by the concession.

MINISTER'S MUDDLE

Ottawa Newspaper Man Investigates the Syracuse Escapade of Rev. Mr. Sanderson.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—[A Journal reporter was sent to Syracuse to look into the Sanderson-McAmmond case. In a special to the Journal he says:—The more the story of the adventures of Rev. Foster McAmmond and Rev. David Sanderson are investigated here, the more complicated do the facts appear. The court records show that the stories Messrs. McAmmond and Sanderson tell in the interview published yesterday are not in accord with the facts sworn to before Judge Thomson here last Tuesday morning. Before the court and according to the records, Mr. Sanderson swore that he had gone into a saloon with two men to have a glass of ginger ale. These men and the reverend gentleman had two or three drinks together. After that he remembered but little. In an interview with Mr. Sanderson published in a daily paper here, Mr. Sanderson denies being a Methodist minister, but claimed that he was an actor from Ogdensburg. However, the afterwards admitted in the same interview that he was a clergyman.

The woman, Pearl Ashley, was hunted up by a Journal reporter and interviewed. She made the following allegations:—"Monday night I met these two men. We were in Michael McAmmond's saloon, near my room, and had four drinks. McAmmond was with a woman who lives with me, Marie Dunn by name. The Sanderson man came to my room and stayed there till eight o'clock next morning. His friend left early, saying he was going back to the hotel. Next evening about 11 o'clock, (Tuesday) I again met Sanderson. He was with two young men, and was apparently drunk. He took my arm and said he was coming to my room. That night about one o'clock there was a rap at my door and I found Sanderson there. He was very drunk, wanted to send for a bromo-seltzer, but he said no. "I know nothing about his watch," the woman added. At the police station Acting Sergeant Fleming said that he was in the station Wednesday morning at 4.10 a. m., when Mr. Sanderson was brought in. Policeman Haley arrested him. McAmmond stayed in the station all night with his friend, but he was not in a cell. The men at the station agree in the assertion that Mr. Sanderson was drunk. They say they see no reason to disbelieve the statement of the Ashley woman. In court Mr. McAmmond stated that the story of the Ashley woman was a lie from beginning to end. He had known Sanderson for twenty years, and he did not believe he knew what a disorderly house was.

BIG BUILDINGS WERE WRECKED

Violent Storm in Jersey City did Damage of Hurricane.

Church and Theater Completely Destroyed—Other Damage Done—Many Narrow Escapes.

New York, Aug. 24.—A most violent and protracted storm of rain, accompanied by wind which at times in some sections approached the proportions of a hurricane, swept over New York city, West Chester county, and the north-eastern portion of New Jersey this afternoon. The most damage so far as reported was at Jersey City, where buildings were wrecked, including a church and a theatre.

Rain had been falling intermittently all morning, and about 1 p. m. the low-hanging clouds began to discharge torrents of water, and this was kept up until 5 o'clock. About three o'clock the wind increased mightily in violence, and at 3.30 Jersey City began to have the worst storm experienced in its history. Blasts of wind carried widespread destruction. Two wind storms seemingly met in the neighborhood of Newark avenue and Barrow street. A cyclonic condition resulted. Houses standing in Newark avenue and the wagons to which they were hitched were blown over. Telegraph poles and wires fell.

A moment or two later the steeple of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, the largest in the city, fell backward upon the church, striking the roof of its apex at the middle of the church. Piles of brick from the spire crashed through the roof and down upon the pews. The tin roof was uplifted, and fragments of it fell in the street. Two blocks south of St. Mary's Church, and nearly on a line with it, on Newark avenue, is the Bijou Theatre. The rear is a brick building five stories high. The "Man Who Dared" Company was rehearsing for an opening of the theatre for the season. The lions used in the play were in their cages on the stage when a terrific rush of wind made the building tremble. The roof lifted at the first street end. The wind rushed up from under the stage. Warning cries caused the performers to leave the stage not a second too soon. Bricks came down from the high walls, ruining the stage and bending in the lions' cage. The lions roared in terror. As the performers rushed out a shout was raised in the street that the lions were loose, and the crowd which had sought shelter in the corridor fled panic-stricken. The lions did not escape. Their cages were hit and the lions were cut by the bricks, but the bars held them. On the south side of Newark avenue, opposite the theatre, the roofs of twelve three-story buildings were stripped off. Great pieces of the tin fell in the street or landed on the wires. The roofs were so completely ruined that the rain soon deluged the buildings to the ground floors which were occupied by small stores.

The storm in New York city was confined to a heavy downpour of rain, with a violent wind.

WARM TRIBUTE

W. J. Kenny Pays it to Mr. Woods, of the Gordon-McKay Cricket Club.

Editor Planet.
 Sir,—The Chatham representatives on the eleven of those chosen to represent the west of Ontario, returned to the city to-day, and all sing the praises of Mr. Woods, of the Gordon-McKay Co., Toronto.

Nothing was left undone to make the time in Toronto but one continuous round of pleasure. A thorough sportsman and kind hearted gentleman, he spared neither time or expense to make us feel at home. As far as the matches were concerned I might say that with the team we had I hardly thought to take a game at all; but for the sportsmanship of Mr. Woods, the match with Gordon McKay would have been drawn, as they played out time, but he said to finish the game, which we did.

Our fielding was of a very bad order, and was very discouraging to the bowlers. The only regret I have is that we did not have a good reserve team of the west. It is very difficult to gather a team from different clubs and expect to do much against those who are playing all the time together.

If I can't help speaking of the good cricket displayed throughout, Toronto has beautiful grounds and all the advantages. There is more interest displayed, better feeling toward outsiders, and as a consequence you feel you ought to play better even if you don't.

I might state that our last match, with Gordon McKay, had been gone to bat rather than putting us to bat, they and not us would have won, but here, again I must speak of Mr. Wood's consideration seeing that we were worn out by the two former hard days' work against Rosedale and Toronto, and thinking we might be discouraged, used his influence and allowed us to bat. That he is the prince of good fellows goes without saying, and his consideration for the feelings of others is proverbial, wherever he is known. We were simply unable to compete with the team we had, but with the prospect of a Western Cricket Association next year will see very different results. All we can say is we did the best we could with the material we had.

Respectfully, W. J. KENNY.

Indiana Visitor Pays a Glowing Tribute to Them and Their Work.

Muncie, Ind., Times.

E. H. Bath, of Muncie, who is now in the east on a business and pleasure trip, writes to Dr. G. R. Green, of this city, upon the hospital question. Mr. Bath's former home was in Chatham, Ontario, where he has been spending some time. Extracts from the letter follow: "I arrived in New York Saturday from my old home in Chatham, Ontario, where I spent a few days. While there I took one entire day in looking through the hospitals of the town. They have two fine ones that would be a credit to a city of 40,000 people. One they have had to enlarge twice and the other is now building a new operating room. I am very well acquainted with the doctors and the directors of both hospitals and they told me that they have a hard time accommodating the people that come for treatment. I have to think of a town of 10,000 people with two fine hospitals and Muncie with three times that number and not one public hospital. It is a shame and the people of Muncie will some day realize it. They talk about libraries, parks, etc. The fact is they do not need anything half as badly as they need a public hospital. Think of the railroads and factories we have where men are being injured every day and no place to care for them. If I were blessed with the means that some of the men in Muncie have I would have a self-supporting hospital in Muncie before winter. I have some booklets bearing on the establishing of the Chatham hospitals that I will have with you upon my return home."
