DREAM INTERPRETATIONS.

'Tis right here, ladies and gentlemen; step up and have your dreams interpreted. Here you are now; don't lose the opportunity. True meaning of your dreams and their significance explained to you whether they promise you good or fortune, whether you are to be healthy, wealthy and wise, or whether you are to be poor, forlorn and despaired. And also you shall know how to use them to your financial advantage.

OLD LADY PINGREE.

It was almost dark at half-past four. Nancy Pingree stood staring out of one of her front windows. Not a person was passing on the wide country road; not one came out of the old brick wall between the two black bushes to the house.

The young woman accepted the egg with reserved thanks, then, and Nancy went stilly back downstairs. 'I guess Jenny Stevens hadn't looked that egg it would have been the last thing I'd ever offered her sitting room. I don't see how she ever got the idea that I'm so awful poor.'

she had gone. Nancy took up the fifty cents on the window-sill. 'Guess she took this now, an' more satisfaction. Even now, in her little heaven of pride. There was no mistaking the fact that it gave her some comfort in this harsh charity, which was almost like giving a piece of her own heart. She inspected the neat, appointment of Mrs. Stevens' funeral with feelings not wholly of grief at her own deprivation of similar honors, nor yet of honest benevolence.

Maybe you dreamed last night some of the dreams mentioned here. If you did, take heed. Did you go to the theatre and dream of an actress afterward? If you did, beware, for 'Annie Sally' says that to see one play means misfortune. But if you dreamed that you talked with her you will have success in what you undertake, and if you make love to her your life will be joyful.

UNDER A CURSE. Bonner Springs, Kan.—There is a young woman in this town who believes that she is under the influence of a curse. She is a most estimable young woman, but some time ago, while suffering from a nervous attack, she was accosted by a tramp who came to her door and begged for something to eat. As the family had been so much bothered with dogs on the place she would set the dogs on him. The man insisted that he was starving, and when she shortly and told him to get out, she was to be a poor tramp.

MEXICO'S FORBIDDEN CITY. City of Mexico, December 11, 1891.—Mr. Juan Alvarez, who has just returned from an exploring expedition in the south western part of the republic, reports that he found a city which has never been entered by white men and which has evidently been in existence for hundreds of years, going back before the time of the conquest of the country by the Spaniards. It is an ancient city and is approached by a narrow trail and is guarded by nature that it is impossible to reach it if the inhabitants do not want the traveller to get in.

300 MINORITY TURNED INTO MAJORITY.
GREAT LIBERAL VICTORY.

ARGUS FLAG DONT FLOAT THIS WEEK.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Complete returns from the Richelieu election show a tremendous victory for the county went Tory last March by over 300. Premier Abbott is inclined to blame Chapeau for the result and the Tory workers do not know what to say.

The Tory leaders are disgusted over the returns from the Richelieu election. They blame Oulmet for the defeat and say it is most extraordinary that with himself in charge of the campaign and after spending two weeks in the county he could not carry Richelieu which gave 300 majority last March.

HIGH LINERS.

The season of 1891 has closed very successfully for the Provincetown fishing fleet. Only one vessel has been a total loss and no lives were lost. Two new clipper schooners are now being built, which will be added to the fleet in the spring. The fleet number 32 sail which belong to Georges Bank, South Channel, and off the Cape Shore, and employ 300 men. The gross stock of the entire fleet is about $444,750, which the crews received $220,000, the balance going to the owners and to pay expenses. Among the high liners are the Julia Costa, $25,000 gross stock, her crew of 22 men sharing $675 each; Rosa Cabral, $23,000 stock, crew 18 men sharing $700; Isaac Collis, $16,228, crew of 22 sharing $675; I. J. Merritt, Jr., $23,000, crew of 18 men, sharing $700; Susan R. Stone $22,400; Joseph P. Johnston $22,000.

The above is an extract from the Cape Ann Advertiser of last week. It shows big sharing. How is it that our fishermen take the sharing of our high liners and compare it with that of the Provincetown fleet and then ask themselves this question: "Why such a vast difference? This is a question that every Lunenburg fisherman should investigate for himself. Let it be done. Progress columns are open to a discussion on this point.

IN THE COILS.

The Halifax Mail is the evening edition of the Halifax Herald. Not long ago—only a few days since, in referring to an election case, the Mail said:
A more outrageous perversion of justice it would be difficult to imagine than the unseating of Mr. Gilles of Richmond by a court that had no jurisdiction to do so. Why was not the trial adjourned pending the decision of the supreme court on the question of jurisdiction? Why was the case tried at all, pending the decision? Was it due to the fact that Mr. Justice Graham was unduly anxious to earn his $100 fees? Or is this another illustration of the fact that the law is lacking in stability of character in private and professional life being nothing in moral fibre by being elevated to the bench?

Thus the Mail openly accuses Justices Wetherbe and Graham of selling their honor for $100 in fees and then insinuates things it dare not define. Knowing that Editor Hawke, of the Moncton Transcript, was sent to Fredericton jail for a lesser offence, and feeling that he had laid himself open to the wrath of the aforesaid judges, the editor of the Mail in the next issue of the Herald apologizes thus:
An editorial paragraph appeared in the last issue of the Mail respecting the Richmond election case, which we take this evening to regret very much. The duty which parliament has placed upon our judges of trying election petitions is an extremely delicate and difficult one, and in our judgment it is much more the duty of a patient in the discharge of that duty, than to embarrass them with criticism, too often the offspring of mere petulance.

This apology, though it fully admits the slander and loudly calls for mercy, will not, we understand, arrest the sympathy of the slandered judges, who, it is believed, have decided on prosecuting the editor of the Mail for malicious libel. This will make about the 20th libel suit in which the Herald crew has figured in their sorrow during the past few years.

PROF. SIMON BROWN.

The following correspondence needs no explanation—

Lunenburg, N. S., Dec. 10th, 1891
Hon. Mr. Justice Ritchie,
Halifax, N. S.

Dear Sir—Will you kindly inform me if any memorial respecting the case of "Prof. Simon Brown, sentenced by you in October last to 2 months imprisonment and 15 lashes was communicated to you? I have heard that a memorial of some sort was sent to Ottawa, but the document was never brought under my observation. I am informed to-day that Brown was discharged on 17th "awhipped of Justice."

Yours truly
S. A. CHESLEY.

Lunenburg, N. S., Dec. 10th, 1891
ROBERT SEDGWICK, Esq., Q. C.,
Deputy Minister of Justice,
Ottawa, Ont.

My Dear Sir—During the October term of Supreme Court in Lunenburg, one Simon Brown was indicted upon a charge of indecent assault on a little girl. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced by Mr. Justice Ritchie to two months imprisonment and fifteen lashes. I am informed to-day that Brown was discharged from gaol on 17th Oct., without receiving the whipping; the details of the case were disgusting, and that the accused took advantage of his position as teacher of music to induce the child to carry out his deliberate plans.

Will you kindly inform me as to the character of and authority for the representations which resulted in modification of Brown's sentence. Yours very truly
S. A. CHESLEY.

Halifax, Dec. 29th, 1891
Dear Sir—I know of no such memorial, but I will write the department and let you know the answer I receive.
Yours, etc.,
J. N. RITCHIE,
S. A. CHESLEY, Esq.,

Ottawa, 29th Dec. 1891
Dear Sir—In the absence of the Deputy Minister of Justice, I beg to state in answer to your letter of the 10th inst., relating to Simon Brown, that the whipping to which he had been sentenced was rescinded by the Governor-General, it having been established by three qualified medical practitioners that the application of the lash, or the whipping of the prisoner would, under the circumstances, in view of the impaired state of his health, be dangerous and improper, and that he could not, with any degree of safety, be subjected to such a shock.

Your obedient servant
A. POWER,
Acting D. M. J.
S. A. CHESLEY, Esq.,
Attorney at Law,
Lunenburg, N. S.

Halifax, 5th Jan., 1892.
Dear Sir—I received the enclosed in reply to my letter to the Deputy Minister of Justice, in re Brown. Please return it.
Yours truly
J. N. RITCHIE

New York, Jan. 8.—A special from Mobile, Ala., says that while Neel Sims and two other men and Laura and Beatrice Sims, daughter of Bob Sims, were on their way to Leake, Miss. Tuesday night, they were stopped by a posse searching for Neel Sims, who resisted arrest and was hanged and afterwards shot; also that the rest of the party attempted to take refuge in a tree on the roadside, the women as well as the men.

Calcutta, Jan. 8.—The government has pardoned the leader and shortened the terms of a band of female convicts at the settlement at Port Blair Andaman Islands for heroic conduct on the 22d of November last. The women on that day formed a band on the beach and, by almost from superhuman efforts, rescued the ship from the hands of a cyclone. These six were the only members of the crew saved.

Amapolis, Jan. 8.—The barn of Handy Bishop, constable, near Clements was burnt down, the building last night with its contents, including two horses and five head of cattle. Indemnity is supposed to be the cause. E. C. Sanford was arrested this morning on board the train after leaving Clementsport, on suspicion of setting fire to the building. He was taken to Amapolis and lodged in jail.

An investigation will be held into the case of the Amapolis fire. The great American Tower, as it will be called, to be erected on the World's Fair grounds, will be 1,120 feet high. Its base will be 440 feet square. The tower will be capable of entertaining 40,000 persons at one time.

Last Saturday as Mr. John Lockhart of New Ross road, was coming out of the woods with an axe on his shoulder he slipped on the ice, and the axe cut a terrible gash in the back of his head, four inches in length. Dr. Webster, of Kentville, was sent for at once. The patient just considerable blood but is now doing fairly well.—Kentville Star.

The Halifax Herald, of 5th inst. says:—A car of brick was loaded yesterday for Toronto, Ont., from Halifax a few days ago. By mistake the cars were wrongly ticketed, and the Eastern Railway Company received the whiskey, and Toronto received the brick. The Eureka people, who are much to be pitied, were satisfied with the mistake.

A supposed practical joker went into the Staten Island ferry slip on Saturday, and exhibiting a black bag declared it contained dynamite, and that he intended to blow up the building. Everybody made a break for the door except a policeman in citizen's clothing, who knuckled the man down and captured the bag, which was found to contain nothing but a few sticks of dynamite. The practical joker had his jaw broken by the policeman's blow.

The news comes from Berlin that Dr. Engels has discovered in Africa a remedy for blood poisoning caused by the bites of snakes and rabid dogs. This remedy is the "wild growing black nabia palm." It is stated that 500 negroes bitten by poisonous snakes were treated with the extract of the palm and 487 were cured in five days. Of sixty rabid dogs all but two were saved. The extract is injected under the skin and causes a moderate fever. On the third day the fever and inflammation disappear and on the fifth or seventh day the patient is cured.

A Michigan despatch says: Twelve of the most popular young ladies in Minden society engaged to contribute $1 each of money earned by themselves to fund for buying Christmas presents for the poor. Tuesday they appeared at the drug store of Edward Gross and asked for the job of sewing and splitting five cords of wood that lay at his door. The druggist consented and they went to work. They collected a crowd in short order, but despite the crowd, tired muscles and blistered hands the girls persevered for two days until the job was finished, and the $1 each turned in for the poor.

Springfield, Kings, N. B., has oldest resident. Andrew Somerville, Deceased was born in Perthshire, Scotland, on July 13th, 1787, where he lived 29 years. In 1816 he and his family came to Amapolis, and settled on Grand Manan Island, where he lived four years. In 1820 Yarmouth Telegram.

he left his island home and moved to West Scotch settlement, Kings, N. B., and lived there the remaining 71 years of his life and died at the advanced age of 103 years, five months and 13 days. Mr. Somerville was always a very healthy man, and was never affected by disease; yet he became somewhat feeble the last few years of his life. This aged gentleman left a large circle of relatives and friends, consisting of 11 children (nine of whom survive him), 51 grand-children, 123 great grand-children and four great great grand-children.

Halifax Chronicle of Monday morning says:—The schooner Henry M. Stanley, Maggie and May, Flora Dillaway, Amy Hanson, William E. McDonald and five others, arrived at Gloucester from Newfoundland Monday, bringing large fares of herring. The last two named have artificially-frozen herring; the others have cargoes of salt herring. Capt. Isaac Eaton, of the schooner Henry M. Stanley, reports that he has secured a cargo of frozen herring in a trip of frozen fish from the coast of Maine. The fleet are equally divided between Fortune and Placencia herring. The fleet were very full of herring at both places. Last year the Stanley was the first vessel to arrive at Sound Island in the second. The other vessels also have 350,000 artificially-frozen herring of fine quality. The salt herring trips average 1,100 barrels.

It is announced that Sir John Thompson is coming down to Nova Scotia to take a hand in the bye elections. Liverpool Advertiser.

A Halifax physician stated Saturday that he knew of 300 cases of grippe in the city, and he thought the total number of cases might be double that.

A wonderful strike of herring took place at Sound Island, Newfoundland, last week. Between 12,000 and 15,000 barrels were secured in one night.—Gold Hunter.

A pig picker at Buds Post, Huxley, found a large lot of bread which was examined and found to contain fragments of an infant's body. The whole mass had been baked. Western Chronicle.

A Quebec despatch to the Montreal Star, Saturday, says: "The Post men in Halifax, who are everywhere, Martin River, and the Post men in Noisic Anticosti; no ice, no snow on ground."

A number of longshoremen who went to Portland, Me., to work on the pier of the Allan and Dominion steamship lines there have been notified by the American government under the Alien Labor Act to go home.—Western Chronicle.

Grip has been spreading and increasing since our last issue. Yesterday it was estimated that there were from 500 to 600 cases within the limits of the town. Some of them were quite severe, but as yet none have proved fatal.—Yarmouth Telegram.

A few days ago Manager Wade, of the Melrose Gold Mining Co., caught a gold miner sneaking off a quantity of gold from the mine, and at once secured it. We were informed that the gold was from the premises of the Boston Gold Mining Co.—Bidgewater Bulletin.

Mr. George H. Harlow, of Brookfield, informs us that his son plowed half an acre of land on Wednesday, 6th January, which is an occurrence hitherto beyond his recollection in this country. There was no frost in the ground, and the weather was mild.—Gold Hunter.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Margaretsville was held on the 31st Dec., to press their claims for a branch Railway to Margaretsville from the N. S. Central terminals. Some of the speakers urged if the N. S. C. did not speedily move in the matter, they would try and induce St. John's to cooperate with them.—Gold Hunter.

The schooner Florence Christie, of Bear River, went ashore at Redbank, near Beaver Harbor last Wednesday and went to pieces two hours after striking.

The schooner Canning Packet was on its way from the bay, but the ice was so bad that she was put into Beaver Harbor. She arrived at Annapolis safe on Thursday.—Western Chronicle.

As a result of the united efforts made by a Roman Catholic priest and a Church of England layman in Woodstock, the liquor dealers of that town, without any legal proceedings, have agreed to strictly observe the provisions of the Crooks act, binding themselves to give $200, if ever and when ever convicted of a violation of the terms of the act, to an approved charitable institution.—Toronto Mail.

Lake Umbagog's old man, Mr. Lanchin McPhail, who has seen his 105 winters, is at present unwell. Mr. McPhail is certainly one of the oldest men in the province; he is father to a family of 15, a grand-father of 25, which makes a total offspring of 58, which makes a total of 108. If there are any in our own island who can beat this we should like to hear from them.—Island Reporter.

The Dartmouth laker are yet open. Mr. Thos. Farrell, who lives near the first wharf, in his boat the other day up to Port Water, at upper end of the second lake, an incident which never happened before at this time of year in the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." One of the Dartmouth ice dealers is now using ice stored the year before last, last year's crop being exhausted and this year's crop is still in the hay stacks.

Lowell, Mass., Dec. 29.—Ada Crosby, aged 25 years, 5 feet in height, black hair and eyes has been missing from 7 Hurd St. since Christmas day. The missing woman has a scar on chin. Mrs. Crosby is a native of Yarmouth, N. S., and has been in New England two or three years. She is a good dress-maker. She has been dependent of late because her mother and father have been in Nova Scotia, did not answer her letters. Mrs. Crosby has an aunt in Boston.—Yarmouth Telegram.
