MR. FRASER'S MEETINGS.

Largo and Enthusiastic Gatherings throughout the Riding.

THE CONSERVATIVES ABSENT FROM THE PLATFORMS.

During the past week Mr. Fraser has held meetings at Mallorytown, Escott, Caintown, Farmersville, Lyu and Addison. He was most enthusiastically received at all these places. The Conservatives, following their usual tactics did not oppose Mr. Fraser on the platform. They acted wisely; for it is certain they have no arguments to advance in opposition to his candidature.

The meeting at Farmersville was held in the Methodist Church, kindly opened for the purpose by the trustees, R. B. Aigue, vice-President of the local R. form Association, filled the chair in an able manner.

The audience was very large, and the legend "no standing room" might have been appropriately displayed. A large number of ladies graced the auditorium, and it is not necessary to add that perfect order and decorum prevailed. Messrs. De Wolfe, Bristow and Kincaid rendered several musical selections at intervals.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. W. H. Fredenburg, J. B.
Saunders, S. A. Taylor, A. A. Fisher, G. Derbyshire, E. T. Comstock and J.
M. Gill, each of whom delivered a brief and telling address. Our limited space prevents our reporting, the remarks of these gentlemen.

The chairman then introduced the candidate for the evening, and while doing so presented him with a memorial from the W. C. T. U. of Farmersville, praying him to exert his influence on behalf of the Temperance cause.

The Hon. C. F. Fraser, on rising to speak, was greeted with a round of tremendous applause. He expressed regret that the onerous duties of his Department prevented him from holding annual meetings in the various local centres of the Riding, and by that means keeping him en rapport with his constituents. He had hoped that an opponent would have met him on the present occasion, so that there might have been a presentation of the views of the opposite side and a friendly discussion of the points at issue. But in this he was doomed to disappointment. He was delighted at the presence of so large a number of the fair sex, and was especially gratified at the interest the young men were taking in public affairs, as evinced by their attendance in numbers.

He was grateful to the authorities of the Methodist Church, who had granted the use of their building, and he thanked the orchestra for their contribution to the success of the meeting.

The present contest was being conducted on different lines from former political battles through which he had passed. In former times the Conservatives endeavored to arouse the animosity of the Roman Catholic electors against Liberal candidates.

was a Catholic, with the exception of the warden. He did not know the exact proportion of the Catholic to the other officials of the prison, but it was a fact that out of the $20,000 paid annually in salaries in that institution, Catholics only received $4,000.
He had also been accused of proposing a monument to Riel. He had actually never thought of such a thing. When the Riel question was brought up in the Local Legislature, he announced that he deprecated its introduction there. His only reference to a monument was the one to Sir Geo. Cartier, which had been unveiled amid Tory eulogies of the man they had declared to be a rebel at one point in his career.

In the same connection he said that he would not be surprised to see his Tory friends, if it suited the exigencies of their party, delivering eulogies over a monument to Riel.

He next referred to the so-called Central Prison question. The facts were that the charges against Warden Massie, a Presbyterian, of ill-treating Catholic prisoners, were made by the Tory press and party, with the object of gaining favor with the Catholic electors. Although the members of the Government personally disbelieved these charges, they were compelled to investigate, when the Opposition demanded it from the floor of the House.

The charges not having been sustained at the enquiry, the Tory scheme failed. A little time elapsed, and the whole Tory camp awoke to the alleged fact that Archbishop Lynch and the speaker had conspired to remove a Presbyterian and fill his office with a Catholic, and that Protestantism was in danger! Such was the grand twist of the Conservative party made, for the sake of gaining office. Then it was charged that he had appointed a Catholic under-constable to act as a spy upon Warden Massie. A necessary official had been appointed, and he was Catholic; but the appointment took place without his interference or knowledge, and indeed the patronage of the Central Prison was not in his Department. So much for this question, which his opponents made so much of, first as a bit to the Catholic electors, and now to show that the Government was controlled by the Archbishop, to the great danger of civil and religious liberty!

It was alleged that he had, at the instance of the Catholic Church, secured a change in the Separate School laws, whereby Catholic ratepayers' taxes went to the support of separate schools, even when no separate school existed in the sections, to the loss of the public school revenues. The fact was there had been no change in the law in this respect, and Catholics who did not reside within three miles of a separate school paid their taxes to the public schools.

The speaker then read a ridiculous worded paragraph from the Morrisburg Courier, which contained the information that Archbishop Lynch had dissolved the Legislature in order to retain his hold upon the Province, and much more in the same strain. The public would be surprised to see such stuff in a respectable journal, but he did not wonder at it when a paper of the pretensions of the Mail published columns of just such unreliable trash.

He then referred at length to the article in the Mail referring to his candidature, and bristling with false accusations against him. It was all the more imperative upon him to reply to these charges because there had been a free distribution of the Mail throughout the Riding.

The first point taken up was the Mail's statement that he had appointed an opponent to the Scott Act, in the person of Inspector Philips, in opposition to the prayer of a numerously signed petition. The facts were that the Scott Act was not in force when Inspector Philips was appointed; that he (the speaker) was in England when the appointment was made, fighting the battles of the Province before the Privy Council; and that Inspector Philips has never been accused of incompetence by any section of the community, and was in fact doing his duty efficiently. For this latter reason he was willing to assume all the responsibility of the appointment.

Then the organ asserted that because Mr. Philips would not bestir himself the Scott Association of the county had been forced to retain a lawyer to conduct prosecutions. This was false.
The Association had engaged a legal adviser of its own free will.

He then took up the organ's charge, formulated also by the Prescott Independent, that Inspector Chapman neglected his duty, and that he had been appointed on his recommendation solely because he was a Reformer. Up to the present the Government had received no charges against Inspector Chapman, and if there were charges he could not be held blamable, for he had nothing to do with the appointment. He would prefer to fill a vacant office with a Liberal, in preference to a Conservative; but he and his colleagues in the Cabinet never appointed an officer solely because he was a Reformer, and never appointed an incompetent Reformer to office.
Then it was charged that he had recommended the appointment of magistrates who were devoid of legal training. This was simply both

The magistrates were selected from among prudent and common sense men. Legal training, as a rule, they could not have; but if they did make an occasional mistake, they were only following the example of that great legal luminary, Sir John A. Macdonald.

He had been accused of favoring a criminal of his own creed by securing the dismissal of a License Inspector who secured his conviction under the Scott Act. This was cited as an instance of his religious bigotry and opposition to the temperance cause.
The story was false in every respect.

It was alleged that he refused to appoint a police magistrate for Kemptville, in spite of the petitions of the people, until a clergyman threatened to stomp the county against him. His answer to this was that the delay was necessary because of important considerations—not because of reluctance to make the appointment. No threats had been made. The accusation that he had "cunningly" restricted the village was false, as the appointment was lawfully made strictly in accordance with the application.

He thought he had disposed of the Mail's slanders in a sufficiently crushing manner. He would be out of the Riding throughout nearly the whole of the campaign, and he wanted his friends to remember that their slanders were but samples of what they might expect his opponents to circulate during the next few weeks, when he would not have an opportunity of denying.
Reformers should turn a deaf ear to all such lying reports.

He referred to the senseless cry of Protestantism being in danger through his machinations, and thought that from a Catholic standpoint such a course would be the most "extreme only."

The speaker then took up the subject of religious instruction in the public schools. It was not true that Catholics had brought about, or even suggested, the recent changes. Under the old regulations, which were permissive, fifty per cent. only of the public schools had religious instruction. The Protestant Churches and the teachers of the Province suggested that an effort be made to improve this state of things. The consequence of a conference between representatives of the Protestant Churches and the Minister of Education was the adoption of the present regulations, and the compilation of scripture readings for the use of public schools. The extent of Catholic interference with this compilation lay in the fact that after all had been decided upon, professors of the selections were sent to Archbishop Lynch, a courtesy which finds ample justification in the fact that out of the 80,000 Catholic children of the Province, 52,000 attend the public schools. The archbishop suggested the substitution of "who" for "which," in the Lord's prayer, and that was simply all he had to do with this change, which Tory politicians aver was brought about by a Catholic plot to "kill the bible out of the schools."

That the scriptures readings are now used in about 90 per cent. of the schools of the province. He then read the Rev. Dr. Dewarts letter to the Globe on this question, a letter which should be in the hands of every elector.

The speaker continued that, like Dr.
Dewart, the government was satisfied that the people should judge them by their record. He then read the Mail's editorial approval of the biblical selections at the time the volume was issued. He then took up in detail a number of Tory cries to the effect that the government had repeatedly amended the Separate School Act to the advantage of the Catholic religion and to the injury of Protestantism.
Each of these cries the speaker showed to be either entirely without foundation or perverted statements of half-truths twisted to suit the party victuars. In conclusion he said he would make no pledges whatever as to his future course, but would allow his past record to be his only recommendation. He depended upon the Liberal party to stand by him, and he was confident that his friends would give a good account of themselves on the 25th inst. (Prolonged applause.)

After the usual votes of thanks, the meeting dispersed.

Mr. Butler, Rathburn & Co.'s engineer, having about completed the survey on the Napanee & Tamworth railway, will commence, about the 1st of December, the survey of the Gas-sard & Perth railway. The company holds to have all arrangements made to commence operations early in the spring, and to have the road completed to Perth at an early date.

Mr. Hamilton Diston, of New York, had a church in his neighborhood completely renovated at his own per-pardonable pride, showing an irreverent, but enthusiastic, friend through

Mr. Diston quietly observed, "Well, that is what churches are built for."

COUNTY NEWS.
Events of the Surrounding Townships, Gathered by Our Own Wide-awake Correspondents.

Elbe Mills.

The delivering agent of "Picturesque Canada" was around last week.
There was one victim here, but only to the extent of six numbers.

One of the stage drivers on the B. and W. route has, it is said, been picked up stray dogs along the road.
He took one from here a few days ago when the owner was close by, and now has the alternative of restoring the dog or of being arrested for theft. As the stage driver lost the dog near Delta, the owner's prospects of recovering his property are poor.

Greenbush.

The great question is, "How will you cast your ballot on the 25th inst.?" for prohibition or against it." Let there be no traitors in the field.

There has been quite a stir in building operations this season. John Olds has built a handsome new residence, and has taken the cage ready for birds.
She is expected to fly in a south-eastly direction.

O. A. Willoughby has exchanged his property with Richard Codd.
Thomas Smith, Esq., has built a large commodious double house for himself and son Edward.
John Forsythe has made extensive improvements in his residence, and is forming a joint stock company to work the Sudbury mines in hopes of discovering gold. John is an enterprising man.

Our village blacksmiths and carriage makers never were as busy at this season of the year as now, filling orders for cutters, etc.
[Arrived too late for last week.]

Delta.

The finishing touch to our new brick block is apparent, Mr. J. E. Brown having put plate glass front in, thus making a vast improvement.

We had the pleasure of listening to some very nice music rendered last Sabbath evening by the choir of the evangelical church, composed almost entirely of dutiful young ladies and gentlemen, under the leadership of Mr. Percival. They have only been together a short time, but, we think, show great improvement.

Much anxiety is felt here concerning the railroad.

There is a revival going on at Harlem, carried on by the Rev. W. Barnett, assisted by the Salvation Army, and a great deal of good is being done. That is what we want here.
[Received too late for last week.]

CONCLUSION OF REPORT
The next clause
Committee's Report
the appointment
treasurer for the county.
Mr. Simpson did
pointment of an officer.
A large amount of money vote from the fund, and he think that the counties should be saddled with a salaried police magistrate.

Mr. Bradley also favored this view.
Mr. Earl understood that a magistrate had no jurisdiction outside his own municipality. It was simply a one-man power, and we had plenty of justices who were capable.

Mr. McCrea (Wolford) moved that a police magistrate be appointed for the counties, at a salary not to exceed $600.
Mr. Beecher rose as the question was being put, but the chairman ruled him out of order. The motion was lost.

A lengthy discussion on the same question ensued, in which the Rev.
Mr. Chown was again allowed to address the Council. He cited instances in which a failure to secure a conviction was brought about by the fact that two magistrates had to sit on a case. At an adjourned sitting one of the magistrates did not put in an appearance, and consequently the case had to be dismissed. There was a large amount of money now in the hands of the county treasurer, and with an efficient police magistrate he hoped to see several hundred dollars more sent in a short time.

Mr. Richardson took exception to the hope of the reverend gentleman.
For his part he wished that not another dollar would have to be paid in.
He hoped there would be no more necessity for imposing fines.

Mr. Richardson's misinterpretation by saying that there were now some 14 cases pending, and he naturally expected conviction.

On the motion on concurrence in the report as a whole, it was moved by Mr. Richardson, seconded by Mr.
Saunders, that the clause relating to the claim of the Scott Act Association be struck out. The yeas and nays being taken, the vote resulted as follows:—
Yeas—Richardson, Saunders, Earl, Dewar, Elliott, Shepherd, Smith, Murdock—8.
Nays—Daily, Landon, Roddick, Gallagher, Gray, Simpson, Thompson, McGe, Rorison, Percival, Bradley, Mallory, Rutherford, McIntyre, Gillies, Bush, Clark, Bennett, Keeler, McCrea (Wolford), Keating—21.

SATURDAY'S SESSION.
The Warden took the chair at 9 a. m.
Mr. Mallory moved that a special grant be given to assist in building a bridge across McElhiney's creek, front of Yonge provided said bridge is completed by 15th Jan. at a cost of $232.
$300 to be paid by county, balance by township. Lost.

A By-law was introduced and passed authorizing the payment of certain sums of money.

On motion of Mr. Halladay the Clerk was authorized to amend by-law 584 to place non-resident hawkers and pedlars on the same footing as resident pedlars.

Mr. Halladay moved that this council purchase a stove for the Farmers-ville lock-up. Withdrawn.

The committee to whom was referred the communication of W. H. Cole, Registrar for Leeds, reported that as the late registrar had not done his duty properly and as the work had to be done over again, they had authorized the present registrar to do the work, for which he was entitled to the sum of $2,000. Report adopted.

Several money by-laws were passed after which the Council adjourned.

The tallest tree in California which is known as the "Father of the Forest," is 450 feet high.
World-wide is the reputation of West's Cough Syrup, the truly marvellous remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, asthma and consumption. All druggists.

The 125 steamships plying between the United States and Europe cost $100,000,000, employ 18,750 men, spend $1,000,000 a month for coal, carry 500,000 passengers a year, and earn $22,000,000 for passage money exclusive of what is paid for freight.

MOTHERS, TAKE NOTICE—West's Cough Syrup contains no opiates, opium or any minerals, and can be given to the youngest and most delicate child with perfect safety. It is an infallible cure for croup and whooping-cough. A bottle should always be kept convenient, as it is a certain cure for coughs, colds, consumption in its early stages, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. 25c., 50c. and $1 per bottle. All druggists.

A couple of Kingston confidence men says the Napnews Standard, visited our town last week and played their little game on some of the insophistical residents and trusting formers. On Thursday the police were notified that the men were in town, and a close watch was kept for them, but without success, the men being lost lest they might be nabbed.

On Saturday they succeeded in beating a couple of innocents in a hotel yard on the three shell racket—one out of $3 and the other out of $2.50—and realizing that the temperature in that vicinity was rising rapidly, they made a hasty exit, and made a bee line for the hotel where their lazy stroll ended. Jumping into a taxicab they drove off towards Kingston, but just as they turned the corner at Herring's foundry they were seized by their victims, who started in hot but vain pursuit.
The dead beats had a good horse and they soon got away from their pursuers.
On their way home they stayed at Odesa long enough to give a curious villager $10 worth of experience in the outlet of three shells.

Two flocks of turkeys met on a railroad track near Salisbury, Mo., and engaged in a combat. A train came along and killed twelve, which were fighting so busily that they had no time to get out of the way.

MR. FRASER'S MEETINGS.

Large and Enthusiastic Gatherings throughout the Riding.
THE CONSERVATIVES ABSENT FROM THE PLATFORMS.

During the past week Mr. Fraser has held meetings at Mallorytown, Escott, Caintown, Farmersville, Lyle and Addison. He was most enthusiastically received at all these places. The Conservatives, following their usual tactics did not oppose Mr. Fraser on the platform. They acted wisely; for it is certain they have no arguments to advance in opposition to his candidature.
The meeting at Farmersville was held in the Methodist Church, kindly opened for the purpose by the trustees, R. B. Algire, vice-president of the local R-form Association, filled the chair in an able manner.
The audience was very large, and the legend "no standing room" might have been appropriately displayed. A large number of ladies graced the auditorium, and it is not necessary to add that perfect order and decorum prevailed. Messrs. DeWolfe, Bristow and Kneidal rendered several musical selections at intervals.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. W. H. Fredenburg, J. B. Saunders, S. A. Taylor, A. A. Fisher, P. Derby, J. E. Constock and J. M. Gill, each of whom delivered brief and telling addresses. Our limited space prevents our reporting the remarks of these gentlemen.
The chairman then introduced the candidate for the evening, and while doing so presented him with a memorial from the W. C. T. U. of Farmersville, praying him to exert his influence on behalf of the Temperance cause.
The Hon. C. F. Fraser, on rising to speak, was greeted with a round of spontaneous applause. He expressed regret that the onerous duties of his Department prevented him from holding annual meetings in the various local centres of the Riding, and by that means keeping him on a report with his constituents. He had hoped that an opponent would have met him on the present occasion, so that there might have been a presentation of the views of the opposite side and a friendly discussion of the points at issue. But in this he was doomed to disappointment. He was delighted at the presence of so large a number of the fair sex, and was especially gratified at the interest the young men were taking in public affairs, as evidenced by their attendance in numbers. He was grateful to the authorities of the Methodist Church, who had granted the use of their building, and he thanked the orchestra for their contribution to the success of the meeting.

The present contest was being conducted on different lines from former political battles through which he had passed. In former times the Conservatives endeavored to arouse the animosity of the Roman Catholic electors against Liberal candidates. Now all this was changed, and the whole Tory party, led by the Mail, was crying that the Mowat Government was unkindly favoring the Catholic minority of the Province, and that there was a plot between the Ontario Government and the Catholic hierarchy to rob Protestants of whatever they held sacred and dear. In another respect this contest differed from the contests which had preceded it, in the fact that the opposition to himself had taken the form of personal abuse and attacks upon his religious belief, and appeals to the electors to oppose him because of his religion. He regretted therefore that instead of taking up in self defence to occupy the time largely with a refutation of these false charges and sectarian cries.

The speaker then touched upon the Separate School question, one phase of which was the reckless statement that the Separate Schools of Brockville cost about $60,000 annually, when the fact was that the whole school system of that town cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, of which sum about $1,400 went to the support of the separate schools.
The speaker had been accused of so managing the Central Prison patronage that every official in the prison was a Catholic, with the exception of the warden. He did not know the exact proportion of the Catholic to the other officials of the prison, but it was a fact that out of the $20,000 paid annually in salaries in that institution, Catholics only received $4,000. He had also been accused of proposing a monument to Riel. He had actually never thought of such a thing. When the Riel question was brought up in the Local Legislature, he announced that he deprecated its introduction there. His only reference to a monument was the one to Sir Geo. Cartier, which had been unveiled amid Tory eulogies of the man they had declared to be a rebel at one point in his career. He would not be surprised to see his Tory friends, if it suited the exigencies of their party, delivering eulogies over a monument to Riel.

He next referred to the so-called Central Prison question. The facts were that the charges against Warden Massie, a Presbyterian, of ill-treating Catholic prisoners, were made by the Tory press and party, with the object of gaining favor with the Catholic electors. Although the members of the Government personally disbelieved these charges, they were compelled to investigate, when the Opposition demanded it from the floor of the House. The charges not having been substantiated, a little time elapsed, and the whole Tory camp arose to the alleged fact that Archbishop Lynch and the speaker had conspired to remove a Presbyterian and fill his office with a Catholic, and that Protestantism was in danger! Such was the grand twist the Conservative party made, for the sake of gaining office. Then it was charged that he had appointed a Catholic under-official to act as a spy upon Warden Massie. A necessary official had been appointed, and he took place without his interference or knowledge, and indeed the patronage of the Central Prison was not in his Department. So much for this question, which his opponents made so much of, first as a bait to the Catholic electors, and now to show that the Government was controlled by the Archbishop, to the great danger of civil and religious liberty!
It was alleged that he had, at the instance of the Catholic Church, secured a change in the Separate School laws, whereby Catholic ratepayers' taxes went to the support of separate schools, even when no separate school existed in the sections, to the loss of the public school revenues. The fact was there had been no change in the law in this respect, and Catholics who did not reside within three miles of a separate school paid their taxes to the public schools.
The speaker then read a ridiculous worded paragraph from the Morrisburg Courier, which contained the information that Archbishop Lynch had dissolved the Legislature in order to retain his hold upon the Province, and in much more in the same strain. The staff in the sections, to the loss of a respectable journal, but the non-provision of it in a paper of the Mail published just such unreliable trash.
He then referred to Lynch's candidature, and blistering with false accusations against him. It was all the more imperative upon him to reply to these charges because they had been a free distribution of the Mail throughout the Riding.
The first point taken up was the Mail's statement that he had appointed an opponent to the Scott Act, in the person of Inspector Phillips, in opposition to the prayer of a numerous signed petition. The facts were that Inspector Phillips was not in force when the appointment was made, and that the appointment was in England when the battles of the Province before the Privy Council; and that Inspector Phillips has never been accused of incompetence by any section of the community, and was in fact doing his duty efficiently. For this latter reason he was willing to assume all the responsibility of the appointment. Then the organ asserted that because Mr. Phillips would not bestir himself had been forced to retain a lawyer to advise of his own free will.
He then took up the organ's charge formulated also by the Prescott Independent, that Inspector Chapman neglected his duty, and that he had been appointed on his recommendation solely because he was a Reformer. Up to the present the Government had received no charges against Inspector, and if there were charges he could not be held blamable, for he had nothing to do with the appointment. He would prefer to fill a vacant office as a Liberal, in preference to a Conservative, but he had appointed an officer solely because he was a Reformer, and never appointed an incompetent Reformer to office.
Then it was charged that he had recommended the appointment of magistrates, who were devoid of legal training. This was simply base

COUNTY NEWS.

Events of the Surrounding Townships Gathered by Our Own Wide-awake Correspondents.

Elbe Mills.
The delivering agent of "Picturesque Canada" was around last week. There was one victim here, but only to the extent of six numbers.

One of the stage drivers on the B. and W. route has, it is said, been picking up stray dogs along the road. He took one from here a few days ago when the owner was close by, and now has the alternative of restoring the dog or of being arrested for the dog near the stage driver lost the dog near Delta, the owner's prospects of recovering his property are poor.

Greenbush.

The great question is, "How will you cast your ballot on the 28th inst.?" Let there be no traitors in the field. There has been quite a stir in building operations this season. John Olds has built a handsome new residence, and has taken possession. Abraham Horton has the cage ready for birds. She is expected to fly in a southerly direction.

O. A. Wiltoughby has exchanged his property with Richard Codd. Thomas Smith, Esq., has built a large commodious double house for himself and son Edward.

John Forsythe has made extensive improvements in his residence, and is forming a joint stock company to work the Sudbury mines in hopes of discovering gold. John is an interprising man.

Our village blacksmiths and carriage makers never were as busy at this season of the year as now, filling orders for cutters, etc.

Delta.

The finishing touch to our new brick block is apparent. Mr. J. E. Brown having put plate glass front in, thus making a vast improvement on it. We had the pleasure of listening to some very nice music rendered last Sabbath evening by the choir of the Methodist church, composed almost entirely of dute young ladies and gentlemen, under the leadership of Mr. Percival. They have only been together a short time, but we think show great improvement.

Much anxiety is felt here concerning the railroad.
There is a revival going on at Harlow, carried on by the Rev. W. Burnett assisted by the Salvation Army, and a great deal of good is being done. That is what we want here.

The Delta news in last week's Reporter reminds us of an incident that amused our villagers last spring. A fox-lorn swain from the same class-shades of one Sabbath evening in an equipage that might remind one of Lord Byron in his palmist days, our hero strolled along one of the principal streets humming "Down, down where the lilies bloom so fresh and fair." But, alas, there was not a "maid and man" to greet him, but "the first and nobody to get tea; so this gay young Lothario returned toward the Orient inwardly bemoaning the duplicity of all that is feminine and little deploring that in a few short months circumstances would be again disappointed, for this time only "Dad and Mam," bade him welcome. Our advice is "Young man go west" again, he not discouraged, but remember to let "The sweet warbler" sarker swing. She will stop when she has tired her wing.

Ask your friends to subscribe for the Reporter. Only $1 to January 1st, 1887. Twenty years ago in Cherokee county, Ala., Calvin McFee and Joseph Hardwick quarrelled over a tract of land, and the latter was killed by the former. McFee fled, and until a few days ago nothing was known of his whereabouts. Immediately after McFee's disappearance a brother of Hardwick's started in pursuit, and after twenty years in searching for the murderer. He obtained traces of McFee at various places, but was unable to locate him until recently, when he found him at Southwest City, Mo., and had him arrested. The arrest caused great excitement among the cowboys of that region, and it was feared that an attempt to rescue would be made, but it was finally decided to send two of his number with McFee to see that justice was done. The prisoner, his revengeful pursuer, deputy marshal and the two cowboys, reached Hillsdale last night, and passed on to the south. At Harwick's request he was handcuffed to McFee.

Two flocks of turkeys met on a railroad track near Fallsbury, Mo., and engaged in a combat. A train came along and killed twelve, which were fighting so busily that they had no time to get out of the way.

The Walden took the chair at 9 a. m. Mr. Walden moved that a special grant be given to assist in building a bridge across McElhiney's creek, front of Yonge provided said bridge is completed by 15th Jan. at a cost of $202,500 to be paid by county, balance by township. Lost.
A By-law was introduced and passed authorizing the payment of certain sums of money.
On motion of Mr. Halladay the Clerk was authorized to amend by-law 584 to place non-resident hawkers and pedlars on the same footing as resident pedlars.
Mr. Halladay moved that this council purchase a stove for the Farmersville lock-up. Withdrawn.
The committee to whom was referred the communication of W. H. Cole, Registrar for Leeds, reported that as the late registrar had not done his duty properly and as the work had to be done over again, they had authorized the present registrar to do the work, for which he was entitled to the sum of $3,000. Report adopted.
Several money-by-laws were passed after which the Council adjourned.

A couple of Kingston confidence men says the Napnews Standard, visited our town last week and played their little game on some of the unsophisticated residents and trusting farmers. On Thursday the police were notified that the men were in town, and a close watch was kept for them, but with out success, the men finally low last night they might be nabbed. On Saturday they succeeded in beating a couple of innocents in a hotel yard on the three shell racket - one out of $5 and the other out of $2.00 - and realizing that the temperature in that vicinity was rising rapidly they made a hasty exit, and made a bee-line for the hotel where they had their story ready. Jumping into the taxi they drove towards Kingston; but just as they turned the corner at Herring's laundry they were spied by their victims, who started in hot but vain pursuit. The dead heat had a good base and they soon got away from their pursuers. On their way home they stayed at O.essa long enough to give a curious villager $10 worth of experience in the latter's three shells.

The next clause in the committee's Report was the appointment of a Justice for the counties. Mr. Simpson did not want the appointment of an officer. A large amount of money was voted from the fund, and he thought that the counties should be saddled with a salaried police magistrate.

Mr. Bradley also favored this view. Mr. Earl understood that a magistrate had no jurisdiction outside his own municipality. It was simply a man power, and we had plenty of justices who were capable.

Mr. McCrea (Wolford) moved that a police magistrate be appointed for the counties, at a salary not to exceed $600.

Mr. Beecher rose as the question was being put, but the chairman ruled him out of order. The motion was lost.

A lengthy discussion on the same question ensued, in which the Rev. Mr. Clow was again allowed to address the Council. He cited instances in which a failure to secure a conviction was brought about by the fact that two magistrates had to sit on a case. At an adjourned sitting one of the magistrates did not put in an appearance, and consequently the case had to be dismissed. There was a large amount of money now in the hands of the county treasurer, and with an efficient police magistrate he hoped to see several hundred dollars more secured in a short time.

Mr. Richardson took exception to the hope of the county gentleman. For his part he wished that no another dollar would have to be paid in. He hoped there would be no more necessity for imposing fines.

Rev. Mr. Clow wished to correct Mr. Richardson's misinterpretation by saying that there were now some 14 cases pending, and he naturally expected convictions.

On the motion of concurrence in the report as a whole, it was moved by Mr. Richardson, seconded by Mr. Saunders, that the clause relating to the claim of the Scott Act Association be struck out. The yeas and nays being taken, the vote resulted as follows: -

Yeas - Richardson, Saunders, Earl, Dewar, Elliot, Shepherd, Smith, Murdoch - 8.
Nays - Daily, Landon, Roddick, Gallagher, Gray, Simpson, Thompson, McGee, Rorison, Percival, Bradley, Mallory, Rutherford, McIntyre, Gilles, Bush, Clark, Bennett, Keeler, McCrae (Wolford), Keating - 21.

The tallest tree in California which is known as the "Father of the Forest," is 450 feet high.
World-wide is the reputation of West's Cough Syrup, the truly marvelous remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, asthma and consumption. All druggists.

The 125 steamships plying between the United States and Europe cost $100,000,000, employ 18,750 men, spend $1,000,000 a month for coal, carry 500,000 passengers a year, and earn $22,000,000 for passenger money exclusive of what is paid for freight.
MORRIS, TAKE NOTICE - West's Cough Syrup contains no opium, opium or any minerals, and can be given to the youngest and most delicate child with perfect safety. It is an infallible cure for croup and whooping-cough. A bottle should always be kept convenient, as it is a certain cure for coughs, colds, croup, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. All druggists.

A couple of Kingston confidence men says the Napnews Standard, visited our town last week and played their little game on some of the unsophisticated residents and trusting farmers. On Thursday the police were notified that the men were in town, and a close watch was kept for them, but with out success, the men finally low last night they might be nabbed. On Saturday they succeeded in beating a couple of innocents in a hotel yard on the three shell racket - one out of $5 and the other out of $2.00 - and realizing that the temperature in that vicinity was rising rapidly they made a hasty exit, and made a bee-line for the hotel where they had their story ready. Jumping into the taxi they drove towards Kingston; but just as they turned the corner at Herring's laundry they were spied by their victims, who started in hot but vain pursuit. The dead heat had a good base and they soon got away from their pursuers. On their way home they stayed at O.essa long enough to give a curious villager $10 worth of experience in the latter's three shells.

Don't mean to tell you to mar-possible, you are already if not you are quite likely that matter without any

sa. But we want you to our circulation this sea-

hope you take a pride in one of the Reporter family, and you rejoice in the past success of this paper and desire to aid us in extending its field of usefulness. And then remember that we furnish the Reporter and the Weekly Globe from now until the end of 1887 for only one dollar and seventy-five cents. Just a little effort on the part of each subscriber will accomplish what we are aiming at, viz. to increase our cir-ulation to double its present number.

And remember, too, that we pay a

THE REPORTER.

FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Our Reporter's Note Book Turned Inside Out for the Benefit of the Public.

The Weather.

The Thermometer registered 12 degrees below zero on Saturday and 15 on Sunday night and it has been slowly getting warmer since.

Farmersville Cemetery.

The first body placed in the new Cemetery Vault, was a 13 year old daughter of Justus Robeson, of Hard

Island, who died of Thursday last, of spinal disease.

West's Cough Syrup, a certain and speedy cure for coughs, croup, and all throat and lung diseases.

Tea Meeting.

The annual tea-meeting of the Chantry Church (Bastard centre) will be held on the 22nd inst. Arrangements have been made to have this meeting a grand success.

Electric Light at Gananoque.

The Electric light was turned on for the first time in Gananoque on Wednesday evening last. The light is strong and steady and secured in every way satisfactory.

Not Accepted.

The communication from "Ness" on

Mr. Fraser's meetings is not considered, because the writer omitted to send his name, and also because our report fully covers the ground.

West's Liver Pills, the standard remedy for liver complaint, dyspepsia, indigestion and sick headache. Thirty sugar-coated pills, 25c. All druggists.

The B. W. & S. S. M. Railway.

We understand that it is the intention of the promoters of this railway to call a meeting of those having contracts, or who are in any way connected with the road, to try to come to soms arrangement whereby the work may be pushed to completion as speedily as possible. We are not at liberty to state what the propositions are, but we believe that the arrangements will be such as will secure the early completion of the line.

Dedication.

The new Methodist Church at New

Dublin will be dedicated on Thursday, the 16th inst. Rev. Geo. McRitchie will preach the dedicatory sermon at 10.30 a. m. At 12 o'clock there will be a dinner service, and at 2.30 there will be a platform meeting addressed by a number of prominent speakers.

At 6 p. m. there will be an organ service, followed by a lecture and address. The proceedings will be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

The public are cordially invited. The tickets to the dinner or supper are fixed at 40 cents.

West's Cough Syrup instantly relieves and speedily cures bronchitis, sore throat and all throat diseases. Try it and be convinced. All druggists.

Personal.

R. G. Murphy, Esq., Elgin, pas ed through here on his way to visit his brother, Dr. W. W. Murphy, at L. S. Angelo, California.

Miss M. E. Boyd, teacher in Victoria school, Brockville, spent Sunday with her sister Miss M. Boyd, at the residence of B. Lovin.

Hon A. N. Richards, ex-Lieut. Gov.

of B. Col., who has been on a visit to friends in Brockville, left on Monday last for British Columbia. It is reminded that he will enter the political arena in that Province.

Next Week.

Next week we propose devoting three or four columns of our first page to a description of Farmersville and especially to noting the improvements made in the village during the past season.

We shall call on owners of all the new buildings erected or rebuilt during the season, sometime during the next few days, and hope that they will kindly assist us in this undertaking by being prepared with such information as to the size of buildings or contractors' names, etc., as will enable us to prepare a correct and interesting article. The following week we propose strolling around amongst our business centres and giving the public the benefit of our observations. We shall probably get out an extra edition of from 800 to 1,000 copies which will be pleased to sell to our business men and others for advertising purposes, at reasonable prices.

West's Cough Syrup, the most reliable remedy for all throat and lung diseases.

For safety keep it always in the house.

All druggists.

Our Poultry Fair.

On Saturday next our annual poultry fair will be held. All the leading buyers have signified their intention of being present, and as we have quite a number of local buyers here, who are apprehensive on their own account, it is likely that there will be a keen and lively competition. The Farmersville poultry fair has become an event which is looked for with interest by hundreds of the surrounding country, and this year is expected to be a big day for the ### farmers and poultry raisers, who often i-

They will sell their poultry for ready cash, when they will be in a position to buy the commodities they require.

Our merchants will be prepared, with all the newest and best goods in the market, to supply their wants. We believe that our merchants are in a position to give as good value for the money as can be obtained in any town in the country. From what we can learn there is a prospect of a large increase in the quantity brought here for sale, as poultry raisers are satisfied that they can do better here than at any other point. Prices are expected to be fully as high, if not higher, than last year. We hope all our readers living within reasonable distance of Farmersville will make a note of the date and be sure to come here with their poultry. We ask all those contemplating killing poultry for this market to carefully study the rules for dressing poultry found on hand bills put out by the buyers. Remember that poultry dressed according to instructions will bring from one to two cents per pound more than that which is poorly dressed, and slovenly taken care of.

W. C. HAYES.

We employ no travelling agents, but ask all our subscribers to assist us by getting their friends and neighbors to subscribe. Anyone sending us nine new subscribers will be given a copy for one year free.

Scott Act Cases.

W. C. Hayes was up before P. M.

Deacon last week and fined $50.00 and costs for violation of the Scott Act.

Dr. Mosier was also fined $50.00 and costs, or 30 days in jail. He offered some chattels in payment which were placed under execution and will be sold in a few days.

After our forms were made up last night we learned that the case against

Fred Pierce, of the Ganbrie House, had been dismissed. No particulars have reached us this a. m.

Plain Hollow Cheese Factory.

The patrons of this popular factory met at the residence of Mr. J. Knapp one evening last week, to receive a statement of the season's business.

Between fifty and sixty patrons were present. Mr. Ambrose Derbyshire, the efficient sec-treas, read the financial statement for the year, from which we make the following extracts:

Total amount of milk received at the factory, 2,133,225 pounds.

Amount of cheese manufactured, 212,- 001 pounds.

Number of boxes, 3,163.

Amount of money received for cheese, $19,090.35.

Price per pound, 6 cents.

Net price to patrons, 7 1/2 cents.

Pounds of milk to pound of cheese, 10.

A resolution receiving and adopting the report, as well as thanking the sec-treas, was carried unanimously. As a fitting sequel to the successful showing for the year, we understand that nearly every patron signed the milk contract for another year. Mr. Jos.

Knapp, the popular proprietor, is to be congratulated upon the successful termination of the season's business, showing as it does that the patrons have every confidence in his ability to run the business of the factory to the mutual benefit and satisfaction of all the patrons.

The Reporter from next

Monday January 1st, 1888, for only one dollar.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor Reporter: The public may wonder why the members of the W. C. T.

U. have not gone to Brockville to day.

We got legal advice on the question and found the subpoena were not binding upon us as they were not legally issued. Then we received a letter from

Mr. Pierce, saying he would withdraw them, and apologizing for having issued them. We will give full particulars next week.

W. C. T. U.

Farmersville, Dec. 7th

Editor Reporter:

Will you kindly allow me, through the columns of the Reporter, to thank my many friends for a very beautiful con skin coat and a fine, large robe which through their consideration and generosity, came into my possession last Saturday evening.

And let me say further, that it is not for the useful and valuable articles alone that I am thankful, but also for the good wishes and kind feelings that prompted these friends to do so much for me. May the Lord himself reward them and make my labors a blessing to them.

Yours Sincerely,

S. SHERIDON.

Farmersville, Dec. 6th.

CORNER FOR EVERYBODY.

In order to give the public a cheap mode of advertising, we will insert advertisements in this column at 25cts for the first or under, first insertion, and 10cts for each subsequent insertion.
