The Toronto World, with head office at Toronto, will, according to the Shareholder, seek incorporation next session.

THE SYMPATHY of the entire world has gone out toward the United States in the loss of their president in a manner never before experienced in human history.

ONE GREAT GOOD that has followed the Garfield tragedy is that it has drawn the different nations closer together, and brought them to see how much they have in common.

WITHIN A YEAR the ruler of the most autocratic and the chief magistrate of the most democratic country in the civilized world have been assassinated on political grounds.

As a SET-OFF to the libels of Labouchere and Yates in French, and the World is the article in the London Times recommending the Canadian Northwest to the British farmers as a place where to emigrate. It describes our new country as a splendid world!

The Home district mutual fire insurance company is being wound up after a career of forty-four years. Its headquarters were in this city, and Hon. John McMurich its president for twenty years.

Is Toronto to have a big hotel? The Windsor of Montreal is expected to pay $200,000 this year above all expenses. A new large house is to be built in Quebec by a company the Russell house at Ottawa is being rebuilt; and a company is forming in St. Thomas to put up a large hotel for that rising city.

THE USE OF ORO is being discouraged in the English navy. The daily allowance has been reduced, and of 38,000 seamen one-sixth are total abstainers. But some of these make a practice of selling their allowance to their mates at an advance on the price.

MISSOURIERS are rarely so bad as not to possess some element of consolation. The death of President Garfield, deeply as we all lament it, has done good in that it has revealed, as perhaps nothing else could, the unity of the English-speaking people of the world over, and shown them that they love each other more than even themselves believed.

after, still there is a school among them that dream of seeing all North America subject to the government at Washington.

The Verite defines its position thus: "We share the opinion of our conferees that Canada independent would be less exposed to annexation than colonial Canada, and it is for this reason that we do not consider the colonial bond as a protection for us, but rather as a danger."

The Universe says if Canada were annexed the provinces would have the right to be constituted independent states. La Verite answers, we would if we entered the union of our own free will, but if we entered as the result of a war between the United States and England onerous conditions would be imposed on us.

La Verite sees in the United States a tendency to augment the central power and the suppression of state rights. The struggle against this tendency may lead to a rupture of the union and the formation of a new republic out of New England and Canada.

La Verite is all astray in closing its article when it says there is no real national sentiment in Canada outside Quebec. "Canada" it is the province of Quebec; it (Quebec) alone has a history, has traditions; it alone is a country. The other provinces, with the exception of the Acadians and the French settlements in the Northwest, are only British possessions, rich and prosperous if you will, but inhabited by men who consider it not as their home."

Outside of Quebec a greater Canada than our French-Canadian compatriots ever dreamed of is fast taking form. This new Canada is the home, the country of her sturdy children, who for this new Canada have an affection, a loyalty that no other land can claim, and who are day by day drawing a wider distinction between the fealty they owe her and any connection that may exist between them and the mother country.

Among the names mentioned in connection with the three vacant Ontario senatorships occurs that of Mr. John Riordan. If service to a party is a ground on which to base a claim, then Mr. Riordan has a good case.

THE HONORABLE JOHN Riordan is a man who has distinguished himself in many ways. He has given the Conservative journal which is his building and facilities for turning out a paper is, in the opinion of those competent to know, the equal, if not the best, of any in the country.

ORDINATION AND CONFIRMATION. Ordination and confirmation services were held at St. James' cathedral yesterday. Morning prayer was read at 8.30. The ordination service took place at 11 o'clock, and the confirmation at 3.30 in the afternoon.

There was a very large congregation present at the ordination service. Both deacons were S. Weston Jones, C. H. Marsh, E. Ribbald, J. Lindsay, P.E.D.S.; C. H. Short, R. A. J. White, B.A.; Trinity; C. L. R. Beylages and G. B. Motter. The priests were Rev. E. Ransford, L.L.B.; Rev. W. C. Farnow, Rev. Bernard Bryan and Rev. G. D. Dobbs, M.A. The candidates for holy orders having been presented by the archdeacon, the bishop read the litany and then proceeded to ordain the deacons and priests.

The confirmation service, at which all the newly ordained communicated together, was held at 3.30. The reverend gentleman assisting in the distribution of the spoils are to be two or three journals of a certain kind, but in Quebec the whole French press has half the time nothing else to talk about except "the getting of a lion's mane." How long is civil service reform to be delayed?

INDEPENDENCE OR ANNEXATION. The Catholic University of Cleveland has been discussing the question of Canada's future. It takes the ground that Canada ought not to be brought under the rule of a foreign nation, but it does not say more than that it is independent of the neighboring republic never attacked us. The location of the Cleveland Journal points out that while the people of the United States are not of unlike character, the ex-Empress Eugenie is said to have never recovered from the loss of her son. She lives quietly and almost alone, taking no interest in external events or persons. She passes most of her time in a darkened room, and of French politics she never speaks. Her income is $250,000 a year.

At Osgoode Hall, Saturday, Mr. O'Brien had the pleasure of taking the Queen or Royal Family, but he takes great pleasure in showing the citizens of Toronto what was the wonderful success that will compete with any work made in Toronto at the present time. STANLEY HEARD FROM. At the Congo River—He was at the Gates of Death last night. LONDON, Sept. 24.—A letter from Stanley, the African explorer, dated Congo river, July 4th, says the writer was seriously ill all through May. On the 15th day of his illness he gave, as he thought, his last orders to his European companions, but they passed, and he is now strong and hearty.

The briefs and barristers, law students who had their eyes on the case, to move for bills of costs to tax, and other matters which had just been discontinued by the postponement of the trial on Saturday.

A World reporter, speaking to a hotel clerk, was informed by that distinguished and polished individual that the jolly singers ought to try their own trice.

The Jewish which celebrates the inauguration of a new Jewish year is celebrated in solemnity only by that of the Abolitionists.

Further evidence was taken, and after the evidence of counsel and the judge's charge the jury retired. After being out some time they returned, saying that they could not agree to a verdict.

A World reporter dropped into the synagogue yesterday forenoon, and out of habit took of his hat as he entered the door.

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.

Prominent Citizens Offer to Take Them in—Mr. Mackie of the American also anxious to accommodate them.

There is a good deal of discussion over the refusal of the Toronto hotels to receive the colored jubilee singers next week.

When the agent, Mr. Cushing, called at the American, young Mackie, son of the proprietor, was in charge, and refused to receive the troupe.
