Full oft from my house I've driven them out,

The electric bell in the porter's closet sounded merrily while Arnold was making his toilet. When he returned to his section the porter had just finished with it, and was astening toward the other end of the car "Then we'll get the brakeman in an' have in response to a somewhat petulant call of 'Porter!" coming from that direction. It was a feminine voice, and it aroused

Arnold's attention when he heard it con plain, "Porter, I can't find my shoes! What have you done with them?" "That voice sounds familiar somehow," he thought, "as well as the complaint." A florrid face framed in a rampart mass of reddish hair, and a curly beard of the same color emerged from the curtains opposite him, and looked up and down the aisle and finally at Arnold. "I can't find my boots," marked, laconically, pointing to his shoeless "What seems to be the matter anyway?"

The train was glidlng by a collection of red railroad buildings and board houses with imposing false-fronts built across the gables, which stood in painful contract to the beauty of the mountain vale. As the train stopped the brakeman threw open the door and called, "Leadville! Leadville!" and a group of men with hammers and wrenches gathered around the rear truck of the sleeper. He came hopping down the aisle, using the ome time, he put his head out between the backs of the seats as crutches, and dropping into his corner began nursing one foot in both hands, his face screwed into a comical expression of agony. "What's the matter?" asked a sympathizing friend. "I stepped on a cinder," he replied, woe-

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11TH, 1896.

—THE announcement, recently made in the St. John and Halifax papers, that Mr. Leckie of the Torbrook iron mines, associated with some American capitalists, contem-plate establishing smelting works at some convenient point, has doubtless been read with interest by the people of the eastern part of this county. The three points mentioned as being suitable places for locating such an enterprise are Halifax, St. John and Annapolis, and we observe that the papers of all three of these places have been endeav oring to persuade the promoters that the advantages which each place had to offer were greater than those of the others. An enterprise of this kind, giving employment as it would to a large number of men, and re quiring the expenditure of a large amount of ey yearly, would of course prove a great benefit to any community where it is situated. It is therefore but reasonable that the people of any community should be grati-fied at the prospect of securing such an enterprise in their midst.

As all of the places mentioned have papers of their own to push their claims, and otherwise boom them, we feel strongly inclined to say a word in favor of a fourth place which has no home paper to speak for land is cheap, labor is cheap, and an abundance of water could be secured at a trifling expense. It is but a few miles from the iron mines, while coal could be procured from just across the bay in Cumberland county at a very little above its cost at the mine. So also could the lime and other material used in smelting. The construction of a railway of eight or nine miles only is all that would be required to connect it with the railways of the province, and this together with a deep water pier would complete all the shipping facilities needed. Both these works, viz., the railway and the nier, have been long mooted and it would expense. It is but a few miles from the pier, have been long mooted and it would nly need a vigorous move on the part of the promoters of this enterprise to secure them It seems but reasonable that works for smelting iron ore should be established as near the place where the ore is mined as sible, in order to avoid the expense of hauling the ore so far as has hitherto been the case with that mined at Torbrook. With cheap land and cheap labor, free water and little or no taxation, with coal and lime procurable at little more than the first cost, and with such an abundance of ore as is to be found at Torbrook and in the vicinity of Nictaux it ought to be possible to smelt ores at Margaretville as cheaply as it can be done

But whatever site may be chosen we trust the enterprise will be pushed to a consummation and that smelting works will ere long be established somewhere in direct connec tion with these mines. Since they were opened up some years ago the mines at Torbrook have been a great benefit to the eastern section of the county. Besides furnishing a large amount of freight for our railways they have brought into the county a large amount of money every month which has helped the school question. Mr. Laurier who followed moved the six months' hoist. His speech, which is reported as being an exceedingly eloquent one, dealt largely with the speech, which is reported as being an exceedingly eloquent one, dealt largely with the moral aspect of the case, and the effect which such legislation was likely to produce upon the social, political and religious life of the dominion. Mr. Dickie, the minister of justice, discussed the legal side of the question, while Mr. Martin of Winnipeg followed in a similar argument from the opposite point of view. A good many very able speeches have since been delivered from both sides of the House. It seems now to be conceded that the second reading will be carried, without opposition aid, by from a strength of a majority. Every fifteen to twenty of a majority. Every member of the opposition who votes for the bill will increase that majority by two, and it is announced that quite a number are like-

Mr. Laurier's motion to give the bill the six months' hoist, if carried, would defeat the bill for this session only. It could and of course would be brought up again at the next session, so by carrying his motion the vexed question would only be postponed for a year. On the other hand if the direct motion for the second reading is defeated the question would be more directly and defiitely settled for all time. For this reason nearly all government supporters who oppose the bill are likely to vote against Mr. Laurier's amendment as well as against the main motion. This makes it quite certain that his amendment will fail to carry by a pretty large majority, as every opposition member amendment. The leader of the opposition appears therefore to have taken a weaker ion than if he had moved for a Commission of Inquiry, as was expected he would —During the past few weeks a severe epidemic of pneumonia, scarlet fever and kindred other diseases have been quite prevalent at Petite Reviere, Lunenburg county, so much so that both churches and schools were closed and a strict watch was kept by the health officers to prevent the diseases from spreading. A correspondent writing to the condition in which the fruit was landed. The state of the market was fairly good, and the apples were in first-class condition when shipped at Halifax. But the boat was overloaded, had little or no ventilation, and sank so deeply in the water that the hatches had to be battened down to prevent the waves, which broke over her, from getting in. Then she was nearly three weeks in making the voyage, and as a result of such conditions the apples were partly cooked on the way, and did not sell for much more.

than enough to pay the freight. On a good part of that cargo shippers lost about two dollars a barrel, and on none of it less than one dollar per barrel. being suitable for that trade. Again, a good many of our shippers are beginning to become a little suspicious of the treatment they receive from certain commis-sion houses in London, and a project is now on foot to send a trustworthy man to the other side next season to superintend, or at least to be present at, all auction sales. These commission houses profess to ask but five per cent. commission as their remuner ation, while they give back to the shipping Births, deaths and marriages inserted free of harge.
Address all business letters or correspondence of Montron Office, or a-half per cent. In addition to this several houses employ general agents in this provinc to whom they pay a straight salary of from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. What our shippers are asking is this: Are all these expenses paid out of the five per cent commission paid out of the five per cent com which these houses profess to charge?

It is more than probable, we learn, tha some different arrangement will be made before another season's crop is shipped. The conditions could not be much more unsatis factory than they have been to our shipper this year.

Pastor Young's Donation.

Pastor Young's Donation.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather quite a large number of the friends of Pastor Young met at the parsonage, last Monday evening for the purpose of extending to Pastor and wife congratulations and presenting their annual donation. The evening was passed very pleasantly, young and old enjoying themselves together in the pleasant socialities of life.

After refreshments had been served, G. H. Dixon took the chair and called upon A. D. Brown to present the "purse." In a very pleasing address, assuring Mr. Young of the hearty sympathy and co-operation of the chutch, and continued confidence and esteem of his congregation and friends, the speaker presented the pastor with a purse containing about $50.00, with the assurance of "more to follow" from those who were unable to be present. After a suitable reply by the recipient, who expressed himself as happy to be able to feel that he was pastor of one of the best churches and finest congregations in the province, and hoping he would at least do them no harm, and closing with prayer, the company separated, happy in the privileges of the evening.

A vote of thanks was then tendered to the retiring President and Secretary for their successful efforts of the past year.

It is the intention of the present directors to maintain the good standing and to use every effort to secure the good will of the patrons of the track during the coming summer. In all probability there will be three important races, one on July 1st, the midsummer stake race, and a grand free-for-all in September. A meeting of the Directors is to take place this week, and then further details will be announced.

Revising Court. The three revisors appointed for this district, viz., Messrs. Oliver Ruffee, Alexander Fraser and Stanley Marshall met in the Court House on Thursday and Friday of last week to revise the voters' list for polling divisions Nos. 4, 5, and 19. The usual interest taken in matters political was manifested on this occasion and many were the exchanges of a sharp nature that passed because of the strength of the points of the government that there are now nineteen inmates in the Tracadile lazeretto, thirteen males and six females. Three are in the final stages of the disease, three died during the year and three new lepers were admitted.

—J. W. Beckwith & Son's new goods for the spring and summer trade are arriving daily, exchanges of a sharp nature that passed between the irate voter, who claimed to have his name enrolled, and the counsel who disputed his privilege. Although the revisors generally gave good satisfaction, yet so strong is the desire to have one's name on the list or to have an opponent's name struck off, that we understand a number of appeals will go before the sheriff's court at Annapolis, which meets the 21st inst.

Shipping Disasters.

During the storm of Thursday last the schr. Roland, Capt. Taylor, bound from Parrsboro to St. Martins, ran ashore at Margaretville at eight o'clock in the evening, after having lost both anchors, chain, jib and topsail, and beached up to high-water mark. A survey was held last week and the vessel ordered to be taken alongside the pier. Captain Anderson, of Halifax, visited the disaster on Monday, and returned on the following day.

—At a meeting of the Coastal Steam Packet Co. was held at Bridgewater on Tuesday, 3rd. The balance at the credit of profit and loss account, including balance carried forward from 1894, was $3,265.78, and the directors recommend that $1,600 of this amount be applied to reduce the book value of the steamer Bridgewater, and that a dividend of 6 per cent. be paid to the shareholders. The former directors were re-elected.

Sensation in St. Luke's Cathedral.

A demented woman made a sensation in St. Luke's Cathedral, Halifax, during the service last Sunday morning. She occupied a front seat with her four children. One of them talked so as to disturb Rev. E. P. Crawford, whe was preaching a sermon on envy. Mr. Crawford asked the woman to keep the child quiet or remove it from the church. This caused the woman to rise from her seat and shout to the preacher: "This child is not one hundred years old and can't appreciate your preaching; no wonder she talks." The woman then moved into the aisle with her children, and slowly put on her street apparel. This done, she walked backward down the aisle towards the door, keeping up the tirade against Rev. Mr. Crawford, who remained silent in the pulpit with his arms crossed till the poor woman reached the street.

Up to the year 1881 the Russian navy was not a very formidable force. It had, indeed, a considerable flotilla of small coast defence ironclads, capable of rendering good service in the confined waters of the Baltic, but was weak in sea-going ships. In 1881 the council of the Empire decided upon a twenty years' programme, which was to include twenty-three battle-ships, ten cruisers, and a large number of smaller crafts. In the execution of this programme very great progress has now been made, and the proposals of 1881 will probably be exceeded before the year 1900 is reached. Russia as a naval power stands third to-day in the world. She has passed Italy and Germany, and shows some intention of rivalling England.

How vast are England's foreign possessions

some intention of rivalling England.

How vast are England's foreign possessions in different countries may be gathered from the fact that in Central Africa alone she claims about two million square miles of territory, having a total yearly trade of about $50,000,000. The Congo Free State has about the same area, but its general trade may be set down as not more than £700,000 in all: The area of German Central Africa is about 90,000 square miles, or, excluding German Southwest Africa, of which only a small part lies to the north of the line of the Zambesi, about 550,000 square miles, with a trade value of about $1,500,000 yearly. Portugal and Italy have large possessions there, but Great Britain takes the lead in every way, in extent of possessions, in total trade value, and in yearly volume of trade per square mile of territory.

Delegates were present from the north and east, as well as from the west, and lumberers, miners, fishermen and ranchmen were represented, as well as farmers and merchants. A clear note was sounded by the Governor of Manitoha, when he said that Canadians do not seek to fill up their country with workingmen from the cities of Southern Europe, whose socialistic ideas are a menace to peace, as they have proven to be in the to peace, as they have proven to be in the United States. An Alarming Sight,

An Alarming Sight,

Recently the people of Madrid and other sections of Spain were greatly alarmed by the sudden appearance in broad day of a very brilliant meteor. It is estimated as having been 20 miles above the earth's surface. There was a tremendous explosion, and a concussion, which did much damage to houses. The meteor was perhaps half a mile in diameter, rushing at the rate of 20 miles a second. The moment it reached the atmosphere its face became white hot and the heat caused the explosions which terrified the people. None of the fragments have been discovered. Had the meteor struck Madrid not a shred of the city would be left,

America Act which governs it, and he ridicules Mr. Ritchie for disputing it. There would, therefore, appear to be a serious difference of opinion between Mr. Ervin on the one hand, and the Supreme Court of Canada and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of Great Britain on the other.

A Commission of Ioquiry might therefore be appointed to ascertain whether Mr. Ervin is right and these two courts wrong, or vice versa. Where such eminent authorities differ on these points it is very difficult for those of us not so learned in the law as Mr. Ervin to arrive at a sound conclusion in regard to them. In the meantime his friends might very profitably put an interim injunction upon him restraining him from writing any more letters for the press, or making any more speeches in public on the Manitoba School Question until he has read over the various decisions which the courts have given respecting it. If he has any difficulty in understanding any of the hard places, no doubt there are plenty of laymen among his neighbors who would be pleased to help interpret them for him.

To the Editor of the Monitor: Canon Dumqulin, in his Lenten midday sermon at Toronto last Sunday said; "This is a church going city and bears a favorable comparison in that respect with other large centres of population. But I must take exception to the bicyclists, who number fifteen thousand. Early in the morning of the Sabbath they set out. They ride all day and come back at night with a feeling of pleasant exhaustion. They have had pleasure and recreation, but they have forgotten God. I do not say that a man shall rest and shall not ride on the Sabbath. If a man must ride a bicycle on Sunday, let him ride it to church first."

Beath of Col. Benwell.

By a private letter received from an officer of the 100th Regiment in England it is learned that Lieut Col. F. W. Benwell, whose son was murdered by Reginald Birchall, near Woodstock, Ont., six years ago, died at Bournemouth recently. The 100th Regiment, of which Col. Benwell was an officer, is the old Royal Canadian regiment which was organized and recruited in Canada and which it is now sought to have repatriated here. Of the original forty-five officers in the regiment at the date of its formation, 1858, only eleven are now known to be living.

Gold Royalties, 7.724.36

It is stated in the Colliery Guardian that a noticeable feature in the returns is the increased number of tons of crushing material which has to be mined year by year to obtain a given quantity of gold. The cause of this is the growing tendency to develop the low grade ores in preference to those of nuggety, but more uncertain nature. The chauge has necessitated more extensive underground works. The mine which formerly showed but little increase in the extent of ground annually excavated is gradually becoming a thing of the past, and the Nova Scotia gold mines of the future will become larger in area and require greater skill and more systematic methods in their working and development. In the same way the handling of the ore on deck, the milling, and the treatment of the amalgam and concentrates will call for nicer methods to save the largest percentage of bullion. The Euglish of this is that the work of mining is partaking more and more of a scientific character, and that in order to obtain satisfactory results there will have to be steadily used greater skill and greater scientific knowledge, that to make the business a success the managers of the mine must use system, must economize, study the geology of the district and the nature and peculiarities of the belt itself as well as the associated strata, just as a farmer considers the chemistry of the soil from which he hopes to obtain the highest quantity and quality of produce.

To the Editor of the Monitor:
SIR.—I would like to call the attention of Mr. John Ervin, barrister, to two important points of law which the Supreme Court of Canada and the Privy Council have decided respecting the Manitoba school question. Evidently they have escaped his notice. The case that was prepared on the subject for submission to these two courts contained, among others, the following question:
"No. 4. Does sub-section 3 of section 93 of the British North America Act, 1867, apply to Manitoba?"

Answer of the Supreme Court of Canada to question No. 4: "No."
Yet Mr. Ervin, in his letter published in your last issue, says it does. BAPTIST CHURCH, PARADISE CHEUTE.

HE BECAME HELPLESS AND SUFFERED DOCTORING WITH SPECIALISTS WITHOUT TO THE RESCUE WHEN OTHER MEANS

The many virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have so often been published in the columns of this paper, that they are widely known to the residents of Norfolk County, and it is as widely conceded that household, and their merits are spoken of facts are brought directly home to the residents of Simcoe, a gentleman who is glad to the use of these pills being a resident of this town. Mr. Wm. Elwood, sr., a resident of Simcoe for about two years, and for years a resident of Fort Erie, a carpenter by trade, is loud in his praise of the benefits he derived from the use of Pills. In an interview with tacked with ulcerated catarrh of the head and throat, and was obliged to quit work and since that time has not been able to rethe lower limbs, from which he suffered tervices of specialists in both Toronto and Buffalo, as well as those of local physicians both in his former home and Sim called into requisition, but all to no purpose

WAS UNABLE TO WALK AROUND. So bad did he become, and so great were the pains that shot through his limbs, that at imes Mr. Elwood had to be held down on his couch. His stomach and bowels were seriously affected and he was indeed in a deplorable condition. About a year ago he lost the use of a good home, but so long was he ill that he spent all his property in the hope of regaining his health. Last fall Mr. Elwood commenced taking Pink Pills and shortly after he began to feel an improvement in his condition. He continued the use of pills until he had taken thirteen boxes when he regained the use of his foot and ankle and thought he was about cured and discontinued their use. So long had he been a sufferer, however, that it was impossible for him to become convalescent in so short a time. An attack of the grip again brought on the disease, but not by any means so terrible as formerly. Mr. Elwood again commenced taking the pills and is fast regaining his Pills will exterminate all traces of disease from his system. He feels so gratified at

How Hall Caine Wrote "The Deemster."

"A Son of Hager," Hall Caine's second novel, produced three hundred pounds (fifteen hundred dollars), and has now achieved an immense success, but its reception at the time was a feeble one. Hall Caine ground his teeth and clenched his fist and said: "I will write one more book; I will put into it all the work that is in me, and if the world still remains indifferent and contemptuous, while he had decided to follow Rossetti's advice, to write a Manx novel; and having thought out the plot of "The Deemster," went to the Isle of Man to write it. It was written in six mouths, in one of the lodging houses on the Esplanade at Douglas, in a fever of wounded pride. "I worked over it like a galley-slave; I poured all my memories into it," he says. In the meanwhile maintained his family by journalism being now connected with the best papers in England. Peterboro: "For four months I endured rheumatism in every part of my body, during which time I was blistered by doctors ten different times in as many different places, and am now covered with deep white scare, the result of action of fly-blisters. My hands were drawn out of shape and fingers almost destroyed, and all the time the pain was most excruciating. My left leg had to be encased in a plaster of Paris cast for four months in order that it might not be drawn out of shape, and now hear the statement that can be vouched for by physicians and sitizens of Peterboro." Precaution Against Premature Burial. The danger of premature burial arises from that semblance of death which is popularly termed suspended animation, or trance, and scientifically known as catalepsy. Per-sons of nervous temperment are more liable to this than others, and women more than sometimes present, save the one infallible sign of incipient decomposition. Even ex-perienced physicians are deceived. A cele-brated case in the last century was that of minister in New Jersey, who revived after a ook, "The Law of Psychic Phenomena," refers to a lady now at the head of a public institution, who "has been twice pronounced dead by the attending physicians, twice prepared for the grave, and twice resuscitated by her friends." The London Spectator re-

The convenience of the living generally dictates the disposal of the dead. It never should, until the reality of death has been of error. In the great majority of cases this evidence can be given only by signs that the Munich plan of a well-watched public waitthe opportunity of due precaution which it offers should be made available for the multitude, who lack the means to secure similar advantages by their private arrangements. In view of the possibilities of premature burial, which, however, slight, are certainly likely to survive them to run no risk.
