EXCURSIONS TO ANNAPOLIS

June 3rd, the King's Birthday, is being set by the Band for a grand outdoor sports day in Annapolis Royal. It is expected that there will be excursions here from other towns and everybody will join in to make a big event.

THE FLOOD IN THE ANNAPOLIS VALLEY

Water Reached the Highest Point Ever Recorded. Queen and South Streets Covered From Mrs. Fisher's Block to Mrs. R. L. Lessel's Residence. D. A. R. Tracks Under Water, Just the Top Arms Showing on the Telegraph Poles. Traffic Bridge Destroyed.

Sunday, March 14th, 1920, will go down as an important date in not only the history of Bridgetown, but the entire Annapolis Valley.

About four o'clock in the morning the ice broke in this portion of the Annapolis River and in a few minutes almost the entire river overspread its banks and by 7 a. m. had reached the highest point ever recorded and continued at this high level up to Monday morning when it began to recede and is now at tidal level.

Rain began Friday afternoon and the main crossing the river which deprived all the people from water who reside on Queen and South Street.

The town was also in darkness Sunday night with no means of communication with the power house, the private telephone line being broken. At Middleton the water was over the first floor of several houses on Bridge street and dozens of cellars were flooded. At Brickton and all along both sides of the river, including Lawrencetown and Paradise, people were compelled to move from the houses on the low levels, and quite a number of cattle were drowned in the barns.

The new D. A. R. station yard was flooded at Bridgetown and the water was up to the cars on the sidings.

Quite a large quantity of timber was floated from Beeler & Peters' factory yard and a quantity of cordwood from Mr. R. J. Messinger's yard, Granville street, but considerable of the latter washed ashore and was picked up by the owner, assisted by Mr. Charles McLaughlin, of the MONITOR staff.

At Bear River, the traffic bridge was destroyed and people are compelled to around the head of the tide to get from Digby to Annapolis counties.

At Digby the basement of H. T. Warner's large business block was flooded and about $2,000 worth of goods destroyed.

The dredging plant and all shipping at Digby rode out the gale in safety; the south west wind making it smooth along the harbor front.

Saturday night's Yarmouth-Halifax "Sleeper" remained at Weymouth, the Yarmouth-Middleton freight was stalled at Bridgetown and Saturday night's Halifax-Annapolis express at Lawrencetown.

The Western Union Telegraph wires went out of business Saturday night. The Maritime Telephone and Communication, except by telephone, was soon cut off Sunday morning between the north and south sides of the town. Queen and South streets being under water from Mrs. Fisher's business block to Mrs. R. L. Lessel's residence, and all along the water front at that level. Dozens of cellars were also flooded.

Mr. J. T. Foster's loss is about $1500 worth of flour, feed and sugar.

Along Granville street west, the water rose to above the first floor in Mr. S. C. Turner's residence. Of course the water either reached or went above the first floor of all the buildings in the flooded district including the St. James Hotel.

A large number of people visited the edge of the tide on both sides of the river in the town, but the greatest view of all was from Bridgetown east where for more than a mile the D. A. R. track was under water. Just the cross arms showing on the telegraph poles.

This portion of the Valley resembled St. Mary's Bay, with the exception of the top of apple trees showing in several places.

Among the houses on the South side of the river which were flooded were Mrs. Louis Ricketson's and Mr. Parker Whitman's.

The town water was turned off Queen street owing to the bursting of Telegraph Co. were on the job as usual and telephone connections east and west were maintained without interruption, but Middleton was cut off from the South Shore, the break being where it could not be repaired until the freshest subsided.

Of course telephone communication was cut off from the south side of the town and from all western points when the bridge went out.

The Bridgetown night telephone operator kindly gave the public extra service Sunday morning and the MONITOR is indebted to Mayor Geo. F. Freeman, of Middleton, the popular and efficient telephone superintendent of this division, and Mr. R. E. Feltus, of Lawrencetown, for special favors extended the press.

The main road was under water between Bridgetown East and Paradise and also the Paradise Bridge, thus cutting off all communication with places east of this town, except by telephone.

The traffic bridge at Brickton has gone out and is floating down the river. At Lawrencetown the power house is flooded and that town was also in darkness Sunday night.

Mr. Wm. A. Howse's loss of flour, feed and groceries, and damage to his buildings, will exceed $500.00.

LATER
The telephone lines which had been working east and west until the bridge went out at Bridgetown was soon repaired Monday afternoon, but was out of commission west of Bridgetown again yesterday morning.

Monday's west bound express from Halifax reached Port Williams and the track is practically clear from Halifax to Kentville.

The power plant at Lawrencetown was under water Sunday but stood the test without a break. It will be running as soon as it can be dried out.

Working trains from Kentville were running yesterday as far west as Bridgetown East, and the regular train service will be resumed much sooner than it was expected by many of our residents.

The railway line is said to be clear from Yarmouth to Annapolis and that the regular express reached Annapolis yesterday.

When the sad intelligence came saying she had passed away. Her sudden death was a great shock to her parents who were looking forward to her coming home in a few months on a visit. The station (H. S. W.) is the busy scene of a temporary saw mill for pulp wood, which brings the "Weekly Express" here almost daily to take away the wood. It is something out of the ordinary to have so much excitement here, but when we see two trains in the station at once as happened last week we begin to think the days of exile are nearly over.

HOW MRS. BOY AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. I tried it and from my troubles I was freed. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. Marie Boyr, 1422 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Of interest to Farmers

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

An Act to Encourage the Improvement of Live Stock

Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Assembly as follows:

1.—In this Act "Scrub Bull" means an uncastrated male calf or bull, the progeny of parents either of which are not registered or eligible for registration in a Herd Book recognized by the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture.

"Pure Bred" means a bull registered or eligible for registration in a Herd Book recognized by the said Department of Agriculture.

2.—Except as in the Act otherwise provided no person shall own, keep or harbor any "Scrub Bull" more than nine months old without obtaining a permit from the provincial department of Agriculture and not even then unless such bull is kept in a stable or paddock or pasture with walls or fences of such construction that he cannot get out.

3.—The fact that a bull has broken through such a wall or fence shall be prima facie evidence that such walls or fences were not of proper construction.

4.—In the case of a bull kept in a paddock or pasture one or more stiles of which constitute boundary fences, the cost of construction shall rest upon the owner of the bull.

5.—Any person may castrate any "Scrub Bull" which he finds unaccompanied by an attendant on any public highway or common or trespassing on any field not securely fenced to prevent the passage of such bull, or other wise not under proper control.

6.—Any Agricultural Society may appropriate out of its funds a sum not exceeding twenty five dollars in any one year to pay for the services of any person or persons whom they may employ to castrate any "Scrub Bull" unaccompanied, trespassing or not under control as aforesaid.

7.—In any case where it is impractical for an owner of a cow to procure the services of a pure bred bull such person may on a statement to this effect sworn to before a Justice of the Peace and on approval of the Superintendent of Agricultural Societies, or an officer appointed by him, obtain from such Superintendent a permit to keep a scrub bull for a time fixed by such permit; in any such case the Superintendent of Agricultural Societies may, pending further enquiry, issue a special permit.

8.—The Act shall come into force by a proclamation by the Governor-in-Council on January 1st, 1920.

9.—Every person violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this Act shall be liable to penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Should Alfalfa be Grown Alone or in Mixture with Grasses?

(Experimental Farms Note)

So far, alfalfa is generally grown alone. The difficulty to secure a good stand experienced in the past is to quite an extent responsible for this practice, as it has become a sort of a hammered in rule to "give alfalfa every possible chance to establish itself." On this account it is generally deemed unwise to sow any grass with the alfalfa because it is considered that, in doing it, there may be a certain danger of the alfalfa not getting the best opportunity to gain a firm foothold. This view is undoubtedly correct in the majority of cases, especially where, on account of climatic and soil conditions, the starting of alfalfa may meet with some difficulties.

On the other hand, experience has shown that, in sections where alfalfa can be grown easily, some admixture of certain grasses may give excellent results. In Western Canada mixtures of alfalfa and Western Rye grass yield excellent crops providing that the mixture are so balanced that the alfalfa and the Western Rye are given equal chances to establish themselves. In Eastern Canada several grasses, have been tried in mixture with alfalfa, and the results so far obtained certainly seem to indicate that such mixtures may profitably be grown providing that the right varieties of grasses are chosen.

When choosing the grasses to be used in mixture with alfalfa, it should be kept in mind, in the first place, that such grasses as are apt to choke out the alfalfa on account of their inclination to spread out must be avoided, and secondly, that only those which are early are of any particular value. Timothy, for instance, which reaches full development comparatively slowly, is rather unsatisfactory in mixture with alfalfa. When the latter is ready to cut for hay, the timothy is hardly more than half ready, the consequence of course being that the full benefit of it is not being realized. To defer the cutting of the mixture until the timothy is at its best, can of course not be recommended, for, by doing so, a poorer quality of hay will be secured as far as the alfalfa is concerned. It will also check the prompt development of the second crop.

The grasses which go best with alfalfa are those which are ready to be cut at the same time as the alfalfa. There are three grasses of this type that deserve to be mentioned, viz: Tall Out Grass, Orchard Grass and Meadow Fescue.

The Tall Out Grass is comparatively susceptible to cold winters and should therefore not be used in districts where the winters are severe. Where it can be grown without losses on account of winter killing, however, it goes excellently with alfalfa.

The Orchard Grass is especially well adapted to well drained soil and, on such land, it may to great advantage be used in mixture with alfalfa. Its nutritive qualities are excellent and, besides, it has reputation of being one of the best weed checking grasses known.

The Meadow fescue which is universally recognized as one of the most valuable grasses, especially for dairy cows, has the advantage over both Orchard and Tall Out Grass in that it is hardier. It may therefore be used with alfalfa in districts where the former grasses many suffer from lack of winter hardiness. It also comes on quicker after cutting, contributes more to the bulk of the second hay crop, provides more pasture, in case the field should be used for that purpose, and yields better results on land which is somewhat wet on account of imperfect drainage. On the whole, the Meadow Fescue may be universally recommended in mixture with alfalfa.

M. O. MALTE, Dominion Agrostologist.

ROADS AND RAINY DAYS

Ever live on a farm? Know anything about farms and farm life? If you have, you know the answer to this question.

When does a live and industrious farmer prefer to run into town to attend to business there?

In stormy weather of course.

The wise farmer takes advantage of good weather to keep his farm going on a paying basis.

He isn't a loafer. He makes capital out of fair weather. He knows that sunshine is worth as much to him as his acres, his tools and his knowledge of the farming science. He will no more waste sunshine than he will waste fertilizer, grain or money.

This is true because the modern farmer is a first class business man.

He does on a rainy day those things he can do then as well as on a bright day, in order that he may have the bright day for the big and important job of making his farm produce its share of the world's necessities.

And on rainy day he can go to the city to do his buying, market his produce, and do any manner of business which he has been putting off during good weather. That is, he can do so provided the roads permit.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, $ for $1.25.

DO NOT NEGLECT THE BEES

(Experimental Farms Note)

The present high price of sugar reminds us that Canada produces natural sugars that are still more valuable than the product of the refineries. Fortunate are those who not only possess bees at this time, but understand them and have supplied their needs.

The early spring months are the most critical period of the year in the life of the bee colony. At the same time, the pressure of spring work of cultivating, seeding, etc on every fine day on the farm too often leaves the bees forgotten.

There are several reasons why the bees are more liable to be neglected than other things on the farm. Hidden away in their hives they do not require daily feeding like other animals. Such attention as they need is in the nature of a surgical operation, and the opening of the hive is not always anticipated with pleasure on account of the risk of receiving stings. Yet, on many farms, the bees have been found to pay better than anything else, considering the small amount of capital and labour expended.

The principal danger to avoid at this time of year is starvation. If each colony went into the winter strong, with a good fertile queen and a plentiful supply of stores in the combs, the first examination of the hive had better be deferred until the weather is warm and nectar is being gathered. But if the stores are running short, a cake of lee candy or a comb of honey laid over the combs if the bees are still in the cellar, or if spring is opening, a superficial examination of the hives on the first favourable day, combs of honey from heavy hives being then given to those that are light, may save the loss of colonies and increase the value of the honey crop by many dollars.

A bulletin on the care of bees may be obtained on application to the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

THE OLD APPLE TREE

The advertisement in the MONITOR for apple tree wood has met with a ready response from the farmers in Granville and elsewhere in this vicinity and our railway yard bids fair to be blocked with the knurly and crooked trunks of the old apple trees that are being hauled in various lengths and breadths for exportation at what seems a fairly good price.

The apple tree wood is very heavy and solid and properly sawed, quartered and finished will no doubt make very pretty stock that can be utilized for many purposes in finish for buildings, furniture and other art. The industry may just be at its beginning.

It is interesting to recall the years of these old landmarks now being removed; if they could speak, like grandfather's clock what tales they could tell. Some of them no doubt came from France fully two hundred years ago and were put out by the French settlers who occupied the farms on both sides of the Annapolis river at that period; others were planted by the New England settlers who came soon after the removal of the French Neutrals, and for 150 years have brought forth their fruit in due season and helped to lend charm and encouragement to these pioneers even if they were sour in flavor and small in size compared with ours of to-day. From the reference to the fruit industry in those early days as found in their literature and letters, our ancestors seemed to have grown them more for their medicinal properties and as thus early a trading commodity, and lent cheer to the early homes in Granville and Annapolis during the long winter months of long ago.

It has been said that Nature did not give to man an apple fit to eat; and it took long years of development, grafting and culture too, before we have the luscious and fragrant beauties we now find on our tables and by the hundred thousand barrels in our markets; so the trees now passing were planted more for domestic comforts and luxury rather than for commercial purposes and for the first hundred years of their long life their fruit was wholly consumed by our worthy forebears of the farm from generation to generation.

Our old men tell us that previous to the opening of the railway in 1867 apples were brought to Bridgetown for shipment, by vessels, from the whole upper part of the County and even from Aylesford. Oxen were largely used for this work.

It is rather interesting to note that these trees are now being returned to the States after a 100 years or more growth and life here in fruit raising and are to still serve man and are not even yet to be cast into the fire, because of no use.

ANOTHER GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

The Paradise Athletic and Dramatic Club put on a good show to a big audience, in the Primrose theatre Friday night, considering the steady down pour of rain and the freshets on our streets. The people of Bridgetown are always pleased to greet this Club with a full house whenever opportunity permits. We wish them continued success with their various plays.

KING'S COLLEGE

The townspeople of Windsor have subscribed about $12,000 towards the rebuilding of King's College; other large sums are promised when the decision has been reached to rebuild. About $200,000 is needed altogether. Great efforts are being made by the "Friends of King's" to put the college on the old site, and it would appear that their enthusiasm will be crowned with success.

LOSS OF STRENGTH THROUGH INDIGESTION
The Stomach Can Only Do Its Work When the Blood is Rich and Red

Indigestion means loss as well as suffering to many people. Loss of strength, loss of time and loss of money follows indigestion and debility continues as long as the indigestion remains. Workers suffer from indigestion because their hours are long, and often cannot give proper time to meals. Then the appetite becomes feeble, digestion becomes imperfect and the blood becomes impoverished. So the general health suffers; languor, nervous troubles and often sleeplessness follows. It is well to remember that the whole system relies upon good blood, and that good blood is impossible unless the digestion is good.

The stomach cannot do its work unless the blood is made rich and red, and so new blood alone can cure indigestion. It is for this reason that a remedy like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which makes new, rich blood, cures indigestion and builds up the whole system. The great value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is proven by the statement of Mr. R. E. Small, Wingham, Ont., who says:—"The truthfulness of my statement can be proven by scores of my friends and acquaintances. I am a glove cutter by trade and for six long years, have at times been a great sufferer from complication of ills chiefly due to indigestion. Gas would accumulate on the stomach causing me great pain. I would build up at times and almost suffocate, and often when at work would be overcome by a drowsy oppression which was almost insupportable. Finally I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking seven boxes I feel like a new man. The transformation they have made in me is simply remarkable, and while using them I gained thirteen pounds in weight. I may add that I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a result of what they did for a niece, who underwent a critical operation, and who did not regain her strength until she started using the pills. In her case they fully restored her health and this encouraged me to begin their use, with, as I have already said, a complete restoration of health in my own case."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ANALYZING DIFFERENCES IN NEW YORK'S PAYROLL

The New York World shows graphically the amazing differences in the payroll in different callings in that great city.

Bank clerks, to whom is entrusted the handling of millions, get $30 or less a week.

Bricklayers, with experience enough to hold a union card, get $12 a day.

Firemen, who keep the city safe, and pass civil service examinations start with $35 a week.

Waiters, if they know their business, can easily get $90 a week.

Bookkeepers on whose accuracy the city's business depends, gets $35 a week.

Truck drivers are now making $50 a week.

Mail carriers who tramp streets in all weather, with heavy packs, draw only $34 a week.

Painters get $1 an hour, double for overtime, averaging $72 a week.

Policemen, the city's guardians, pay for their uniforms, get $36.00 a week.

Tailors and cutters, many can't speak English, are making $45 to $125 a week.

School teachers after 3 years' training, start at $18 a week and after three years get $1000 a year.

Window washers get $50 a week, whether work or not, and in rainy weather paid just the same.

A WARNING TO POSTMASTERS

A Quebec postmaster was fined $150 and costs the other day for handing back a letter dropped in the post office. Judge Cannon pointed out that the laws were very severe on this matter and that as soon as a properly stamped letter is deposited with the postal authorities it no longer belongs to anyone, even the sender, but to the person it is addressed to.

A woman can hold a baby in each arm easier than she can hold her tongue.

FROM A MEDICAL MISSIONARY IN INDIA
Anna S. Kugler, M. D.

One of the chief difficulties is the single handed way in which we missionary doctors have to carry on our work. To illustrate out of my experience, I would say that for five years my only assistant has been a young Indian woman of the grade of an assistant surgeon. During this time I have had charge of the largest mission hospital for women in South India, with 1,023 in patients and 9,200 out patients, and 34,000 visits at the dispensary. During three and a half months my assistant was absent, part of the time on sick leave. A young American doctor helped a little in the dispensary work but she was just out, and spent the greater part of her time in the study of the language. I need hardly say that to see 150 to 180 patients daily in the dispensary, 70 to 80 in the hospital, attend to a large office practice, be responsible for the evangelistic work, and look after a part of the teaching of the Training School for Nurses, was more than enough work for a doctor who has had no vacation for eighteen months. To take a vacation would have meant to close the work.

To us who see the great influence that medical work has in removing prejudice, unlocking closed doors to other forms of mission work, inviting the friendliness of the people, it seems distressing that in the great Christian Church of America it should be so hard to get Christian men and women to give themselves to a work so rich in its rewards and to fill in its opportunities.

BERWICK'S GREATEST NEED
(Berwick Register)

Berwick's greatest and most urgent need at the present time is more housing accommodation. Many people are knocking at Berwick's doors. They want to come to Berwick and make their homes here, but they cannot do so for the reason that houses are not available, either to buy or rent. Not only that but board and lodging are very difficult to secure either at a reasonable figure or at all. Facing a situation like this, what is to be done? Are we going to fold our hands and deplore the absence of houses or are you going to build a house or a number of houses during the coming summer? It is up to you. Talk may be fluent and continuous but it is deeds that count. If you want to see Berwick forge ahead, then you must do your part. If you have money then build a house. If you don't prove a good investment for you and then you are buying a share of Berwick stock. You are betting on your home town; you are saying in effect, Berwick must grow and I am going to put my money into Berwick and Berwick enterprises. Begin to plan right away what you are going to do next summer in the way of building.

THE SLACKERS OF TODAY

The labor slacker is as truly a slacker as was the one who was a slacker in war days. There can be no prosperity for labor except through full production. Short production and high wages and high living costs can result in nothing but disaster. Sooner or later prices go to the point where consumption is curtailed. Then the demand falls below the supply, and there comes a smash which is expressed in the term hard times or panic. In such periods labor suffers most. Prices today have been driven to heights previously unknown. Foolish men who are leaders among labor see profit if immigration to this great and growing country is curtailed further. They are ignorant of economic law. They are riding to a fall and do not know it.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

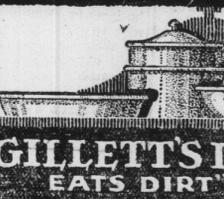

NON SENTENCED TO PRISON AND THE DEVIL WON'T ADMIT THEM

The Prison Mirror, Published in the penitentiary, says:

Why is it that from the first inception of our paper to the present time we have never had an editor to sojourn in our midst? Other professions have been well represented. Of preachers we have had enough to furnish subsistence to an African chief for a year; of doctors sufficient in number to depopulate a state and of lawyers, enough to establish a good sized colony in hades. But editors—none.

CLEAR OF HADES, TOO!

An exchange says that an editor once applied at the door of Hades for admission. "Well," replied his sable majesty, "we let one of your profession in here many years ago, and he kept up a continual row with his former delinquent subscribers, and as we have more of that class of persons than any other we have passed a law prohibiting the admission of editors."

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:
"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.
Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."
"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. PLANS TO CUT COST OF LIVING

Goyeaor Smith, of New York, Says Hoarding Will Be Made Unlawful

ALBANY, N. Y., March 3.—Proposals designed to control and reduce the high cost of living were outlined by Governor Smith in a message to the Legislature today. The Governor declared investigations showed there had been an increase in living costs during the past six months. Here are the main points in the statutes which are to be introduced with the object of bringing prices down, as stated in the Governor's message:

Hoarding will be made unlawful in order to prevent the withholding from the market of necessary foodstuffs and the destruction of foods for the purpose of enhancing prices.

Food dealers are to be licensed, so that the State may control dealings in foodstuffs, and gradually eliminate dealers "who bring discredit on the trade."

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor of The MONITOR

DEAR SIR: Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to make a few remarks.

An article in The Montreal Daily Herald cites the need of further production to reduce the H. C. L. "No wonder the people cry out in threat and protest when even their increased salaries fail to provide their families with the bare necessities of life."

The farmer has got to pay it WHY? What about all those big interests who are denuding our forests, lumber companies who are making immense profits. Paup. wood for which the farmer gets six or seven dollars a cord (about a ton and a half) which when manufactured into paper brings an enormous sum per cord (tell the editor tell us just what he has to pay?) There are manufacturers of textiles such as the Dominion Textile Co who admitted at the enquiry into the H. C. L. that June that their earnings had risen from 65% in 1914 to 72% in the case of the former and a profit of 200% on the part of the latter and this after every possible deduction including income tax had been made.

Such Service is seldom given outside of the large city shoe stores and this exclusive feature has won us many customers from other towns.

At the H. C. L. inquiry last June a manufacturer was asked if he did not think it was due to the people to lower his prices! His cynical retort was, "Our mill was not built for the glory of God or anybody else, but for the benefit of the shareholders."

TWO RELIGIONS

"A woman sat by a hearthside place Reading a book with a pleasant face, Till a child came up with a childish frown

And pushed the book, saying, "Put it down."

Then the mother, snapping his curly head, Said, "Troublesome child, go off to bed;

A great deal of God's book I must know To train you up as a child should go."

And the child went off to bed to cry, And denounce religion—by and by.

"Another woman bent o'er a book With a smile of joy and an intent look,

Till a child came up and joggled her knee, And said of the book, "Put it down—take me."

Then the mother sighed as she stroked his head, Saying softly, "I never shall get it read;

But I'll try by loving to learn His will, And His love into my child instil."

That child went to bed without a sigh And will love religion—by and by."

Five Years Trouble Ended and He Works Every Day Since Taking Tanlac

"I have gained fifteen pounds in weight since I began taking Tanlac, and if I had known about this medicine three years ago I would have saved many a dollar to say nothing of the suffering I went through," said Joseph E. Clattenburg, Brenton street, Dartmouth, Canada, recently. Continuing Mr. Clattenburg said:

"My trouble started five years ago with occasional attacks of indigestion, which kept getting worse until I could hardly eat anything at all. For the past three years now I had no appetite and the little I did manage to eat would bloat me up and keep me feeling miserable for hours. I had sharp cramping pains all through my stomach, which would nearly draw me double and I was constantly all the time, my liver was sluggish and I had no energy. My tongue was badly coated and my skin had a yellow, sallow appearance. I could get but little sleep and always felt so bad in the mornings it was all I could do to get up. I was so badly run down that some days I had to quit work and go home and I have often had to lay off from work seven or eight days at a time. Added to my other troubles I had an attack of jaundice and was unable to work for two weeks. I lost considerable weight and my strength was just about all gone. I tried many different treatments and medicines without being benefited but when I heard so many people praising Tanlac I decided to try it. At the time I started taking it I had been off from work for over a week, but before I had finished the first bottle I was back on the job and haven't lost a day since. I have taken six bottles in all and my appetite has improved until I eat as much at one meal now as I did all day before and am never troubled with pains, gas, sour or upset stomach or any other bad feeling. I am not constipated and my liver is in fine shape again. My tongue is never coated and my skin has cleared up to a good healthy color. I sleep well at night, tired sluggish feeling is all gone. In fact, I haven't felt better in years than I do now, but I don't believe I would be able to Tanlac to day if it hadn't been for Tanlac and it is a pleasure for me to make this statement."

Tanlac is sold in Bridgetown by S. N. Wear in Middleton by Clifford Mumford and in Bear River by L. V. Harris.

NO ROOM TO WALK

Chug-Chug! Br-r! br-r! Honk! Honk! Gilling-gilling-gilling!

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy cross streets.

He looked about. A motor car was rushing at him from one direction, a motor cycle from another, a steam truck was coming from behind, and a taxi-cab was speedily approaching. Zip zip! Zing-zing!

He looked up, and saw directly above him an alship in rapid descent. There was but one chance. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it, he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole just in time to be run over by an underground train.

BEAR RIVER

(From the Church Chronicle)

All three churches participating in the Interchurch Forward Movement, namely the Episcopalian, Methodist and Baptist went over the top of their objectives. A spirit of mutual friendship prevailed throughout.

The artists responsible for keeping the pictorial phase of the movement before the public deserve praise.

Our hustling Bank manager, Mr. Romans, did much to keep up the enthusiasm by an ingenious arrangement of three cars representing the three churches on a large placard in the Bank window. These cars kept pace with the movement and were a centre of interest during the days of the campaign.

Probably one of the happiest weeks in the history of Bear River was the week ending February 15th. Smiles and good cheer was the order of the week. Let us keep it up.

Bear River suffered in common with other communities from the violence of Thursday's storm. The top was blown off one chimney, the end blown out of a barn, big branches were wrenched from the trees and one or more telephone posts put out of commission. To add to the din and danger at least half a dozen chimneys burnt out. Fortunately there was neither loss of life or other serious damage done.

The steamer Bear River has been ice bound for a number of weeks and by the appearance of the river at present a few weeks more must elapse e'er she proceeds on her way. In the meantime the crew are having a good time. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.

With the exception of a broken collar bone and a few untimely collisions with terra firma by some members of our community the boys and girls coasting season has passed without any serious consequences. The young people have had a rattling good time.

For the last two months sleigh parties have been the order of the day or night. The B. Y. P. U. went to Digby for their drive Monday evening Feb 9th. The Methodist League went to the same place Wednesday, 18th.

Smith's Cove and Deep Brook Divisions visited Bear River Division Monday, Feb 23rd. They were treated to a splendid programme and abundance of eats. They went away with a good opinion of the Bear River folks.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CHURCH

J. Campbell White, LL. D.

I heard one of the most prominent of the missionary secretaries in this country make a speech a few weeks ago in one of our national conventions, a very fine speech, and I heard one of the most prominent laymen of this country say after it was over that speeches of that kind would not lay any burden of Missions upon the Church in a thousand years. We must feel this burden before we communicate it; and if we give the impression, the idea, that the Church is doing very well by giving seventy cents a year for the redemption of the world, it will go on sleeping until we all sleep in death. We are not doing the thing, and that is the first thing we ought to realize; and when church boards give any impression by any appropriation they ask, or any quota they ask, or any assessment they ask, that the churches by giving that are doing their duty, I am very much afraid that it is educating them in falsity unless we ask them for many times what we have asked them yet.

I believe we are confronting today the biggest responsibility that ever rested upon mortals and the greatest opportunity, if we can only see it in the large, and if alongside of the responsibility we can see our Lord with His resources and take the whole task in His name. However big it is, we ought not to be afraid to ask for 25,000 missionaries instead of 10,000. In the presence of standing armies of 25,000,000 of men to-day, we ought not to be afraid to ask for 100,000 missionaries if we really believe they are necessary in order to carry on Christ's world campaign.

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Rev. Isaac Brindley passed through town on Saturday on his way from Granville (where his late charge has been) to St. John, where he is to take up work with the Tabernacle Baptist Church.

The Annual Donation Social held in the Methodist Hall on Thursday evening last was one of the most successful ever held. The one regret was that the recording steward, John O. Turnbull, was unable to be present. For many years he has presided at the annual gathering, but his place was ably taken by Ross C. Smallie.

An old fashioned pie social arranged by a number of ladies of the Baptist Church was held on Tuesday evening, in the vestry, and was a decided success. A goodly number were present. M. C. Mr. Archibald Higgins, of Alaska, arrived in Halifax on Thursday morning. He was on his way home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Higgins, of Middle Musquodoboit. Digby Courier: Mrs. (Sheriff) Smith has received word of the very serious condition of her son, Fred May, now in a hospital in Boston. He went over a few weeks ago and entered the hospital for treatment to his foot. It was found necessary to amputate it, but the disease with which he was afflicted was of such a virulent nature that his leg was affected and on Tuesday was taken off at the hip. A despatch yesterday said he possibly had one chance in fifty of pulling through, but local authorities say that is giving him long odds.

A PLEASANT EVENT

Third Annual Convention Nova Scotia Gray Dart Dealers Held at Kentville

The third annual convention of the Nova Scotia Gray Dart dealers, operating under A. L. Pelton and Company, distributors for Nova Scotia, took place Wednesday afternoon at the head office, Kentville. Among those present were W. E. Finnigan, general sales manager from the factory, Chatham, Ontario; J. E. Doane, eastern representative, and twenty dealers from different parts of the province including Mr. Fred E. Bath, of Bridgetown. A business session was held in the afternoon when matters of importance were discussed. Twice as many cars it was stated were being produced this year as during 1919, but dealers were finding it difficult to satisfy demands even with this increased production.

One of the features of the business session was a speech dictated by William M. Gray, vice president, at his office in Chatham and brought to Kentville by Mr. Finnigan and reproduced on the dictaphone. During the afternoon the convention was photographed by A. L. Hardy. In the evening a banquet was tendered by A. L. Pelton and Company at the Cornwallis Inn.

A. L. Pelton was toast master and excellent speeches were made by J. E. Doane, W. E. Finnigan, L. E. Andrus, H. S. Pelton, and others. The delicious menu served was also a feature of this pleasant and very successful convention.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

EMILY MORRISON JOHNSON

The community of Lower Granville was shocked and saddened Friday morning the 5th, when the news came announcing the passing away, of little Emily Johnson, aged twelve years and eleven months. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Johnson of this place. She had been sick for over a year. In August a consultation of doctors had been held and it was deemed advisable to remove her to Victoria General Hospital where she might have surgical treatment since then she had been slowly but steadily progressing and it was hoped that she might soon be able to return home. But on Saturday her father was summoned to Halifax by a telegram saying that she had developed pneumonia, and on Friday morning in spite of medical skill and loving care, her sweet spirit took its flight to her heavenly home. She was a general favorite, loved by young and old. Her bright, beautiful life and her cheerfulness throughout all her suffering will not soon be erased from the memory of her friends.

She was a faithful member of the Lower Granville Baptist Church having been baptized at the early age of eleven years. She was a Life member of the Mission Band, and was active in Sunday School and all branches of church work.

She was a bright, clever child in school passing a mentality beyond her years.

Interment took place at Port Wade Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Patterson (Methodist) of Granville Ferry.

The floral tributes were beautiful and included the following:

Wreath, Rev. Canon V. Harris Halifax.

Wreath, Alice Thorne, Halifax.

Cut Flowers (White Carnations), Mrs. Chester Wade, Halifax.

Sheaf (Calla lilies) S. E. Primrose Elliott, Granville.

Cut Flowers, (Roses) Father and Mother.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Carey and Ernest Thorne, Lloy Shaffner and Ralph Litch.

She leaves to mourn their loss one grief stricken father and mother, one brother, Bertram, aged 15 and two little sisters, Marjorie and Pauline aged respectively seven years and twenty months.

MILDRED MESSENGER

(Middleton Outlook)

The entire community was very greatly saddened on Saturday afternoon when the word went round that Mildred Messenger had passed away. Early in the day it became known that her condition was serious, yet her death came as a great shock. On Wednesday she returned from a visit to Boston, seriously ill, her condition quickly grew worse, double pneumonia developed and at the early age of twenty-four she was called home. It is not too much to say that the commanding interests of Mildred Messenger were religious and as a member of the Middleton Baptist Church she will be deeply missed. Since last summer she has been teacher of the primary department of the Sunday School and the increasing attendance showed how completely she had won the children. She was also Superintendent of the Home Department and by her diligent and faithful service she had built up this department beyond all anticipation. To an unusual degree, for one of her years, she was interested in Foreign Missions and through attendance at Conferences and personal letters she kept in close touch with Missionary effort. Only recently a personal letter of hers from a missionary friend was read at a service of the Young People's Society. As often as the members of the Baptist Church think of her and the service which she rendered they will always recall the devotion with which she kept the pulpit supplied with flowers and the pains she took to have the church suitably decorated for all special occasions. The higher life of the young people of Middleton has suffered a distinct loss in her early death. On account of the quarantine the funeral was private, prayer being offered at the door of the home and a short service conducted at the grave where many friends had gathered, by her pastor Rev. Dr. Hutchins. The pall bearers were Ingis Phinney, Harold Goucher, Fred Cummings and Harold Langille. The many beautiful floral tributes were at once a token of respect and an expression of the deep sympathy which goes out to Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Messenger and the two brothers in the hour of heavy sorrow.

MARION BIRD

A despatch from Montreal announces the death of Miss Marion Bird, who passed away in a hospital in that city at an early hour yesterday morning while being operated on. She is a daughter of Mr. Thos. Bird, of Windsor, a former jeweler in this town, and besides her father, is survived by two brothers, one of whom is Mr. Harold Bird, of St. John. The deceased was 39 years of age and had many friends in this town. The remains will be brought here for interment in the Riverside cemetery.

ANGUS DOUCETTE

The death of Angus Doucette occurred at his home in Saunierville, Digby County at the age of 18 years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Doucette, three brothers and five sisters, among whom is Mrs. Herbert Ramey, of Bridgetown. He had been ill but a short time with pneumonia and his death has cast a gloom over a large circle of friends. Interment took place at Saunierville.

Mr. Floyd Banks returned to Morristown on Wednesday.

Rev. A. M. McNitch, of Clementsport, visited friends here during the week.

Mrs. Alvin Starratt is visiting at the home of Mrs. George Dixon, in Bridgetown.

Rev. F. H. Bone, of Bear River was the guest of Rev. I. A. Corbett on Tuesday and Wednesday last.

Miss Vera Longley, of Halifax, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Longley. Mrs. O. P. Covert and Miss Mamie Beeler, Bridgetown, and Miss Millett of Clementsville, were guests of Mrs. C. S. Covert on Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening the Paradise Dramatic and Athletic Club presented the three act comedy drama "And Home Came Ted" in Longley's Hall. The hall was packed to its capacity and many who came were unable to find even standing room. All the parts were well taken and the play reflected much credit upon the members of the cast.

- The characters were
- Skeet Kelly (the Clerk)
 - Mrs. George Wilson
 - Diana Garwood (the Heiress)
 - Miss Nina Starratt
 - Miss Loganberry (the Spinster)
 - Mrs. Clarence Longley
 - Doctor Stone (the Villain)
 - Mr. Grant Messenger
 - Aunt Jubilee (the Cook)
 - Mr. Ewart Morse
 - Mr. Man (the Mystery)
 - Mr. Kenneth Brooks
 - Jim Ryker (the Lawyer)
 - Mr. Max Saunders
 - Mollie Macklin (the Housekeeper)
 - Miss Bessie Durling
 - Miss Henrietta Derby (the Widow)
 - Mrs. Ewart Morse
 - Ted (the Groom)
 - Mr. Anthony Banks
 - Elsie (the Bride)
 - Miss Eleanor Longley
 - Senator McCorkle (the Father)
 - Mr. Clarence Longley

On Friday night the drama was repeated in Bridgetown but owing to the unfavorable weather the audience was not as large as was anticipated. At this performance on account of the illness of Miss Eleanor Longley the part of Elsie was taken by Miss Sara Longley who filled it very creditably indeed. The members of the Club also wish to express their thanks to the Bridgetown orchestra who assisted them on both occasions and to all who in anyway were of assistance to them.

SERVICE

Words without action mean nothing to you. Talk, promises and excuses cannot take the place of definite results. You pay for Good Service and are entitled to it.

We back our statements with the most definite and sweeping guarantee ever known in the tailoring industry.

Any time our fit, style, workmanship and SERVICE are not up to every requirement you set, you are the judge. We never argue.
