CANADA GETS HER PLACE ON THE GOVERNING BODY

Regarded as Triumph at International Labor Conference

STRUGGLE OF THREE WEEKS

Eight Hour Day Report to be Before Conference Today—Proceedings to be Brought to a Close Likely This Week

Washington, Nov. 24.—(By Canadian Press Limited Correspondent)—Canada has been elected to the governing body of the international labor office, and her election is regarded here as a remarkable triumph. It came after a struggle which has lasted now for several weeks. The first phases were unfavorable.

The organizing committee of the conference declined to include the dominion among the eight nations of "chief industrial importance" and therefore entitled to direct representation on the governing body. The dominion government filed a formal protest for consideration by the council of the League of Nations. There still remained a chance, although considered slight, that Canada might be nominated to one of the four remaining seats for governmental representatives. By the peace treaty, nomination of these is placed in the hands of the governmental delegates to the international labor conference, excluding delegates from the eight nations already selected by reason of their industrial importance.

During the week-end government delegates from thirty-four nations held election of the four under consideration. The matter was discussed in the situation at length, but came to no decision. Again on Friday evening they met without result. For several days Saturday afternoon they discussed the situation once more and eventually took a ballot. The result was the election of the four following:

Canada, Spain, Poland, Argentina.

In actual voting, Canada came third, a victory generally conceded to be a tribute to the fervent plea which the Canadian delegation has taken at the conference.

This above affects representation of the dominion. Canadian workers have won similar success. The governing body consists of twenty-four persons. Twelve represent government, six, employers and six workers. The employers and workers' representatives are nominated by the unions, employers and labor groups respectively. After discussions as protracted as those of the governmental delegates, the labor group has selected P. M. Draper, Canadian workers' delegate, as one of its nominees. The other five countries nominated to send a labor delegate are: France, Holland, Great Britain, Denmark and Germany.

Mr. Draper took fourth place. Should the United States join the international labor organization, Mr. Draper will vote with Mr. Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

In nomination of governmental and labor delegates to the governing body, there is a distinction drawn. In the case of government, it is the country that is nominated, in the case of employers and workers, it is the delegate himself who is chosen.

Eight-hour Day. The eight-hour day special committee of conference made its report public yesterday. This afternoon it will come to the conference in plenary session. The report generally follows previously telegraphed convention recommendations.

The draft convention recommended is confined to industrial workers, although among industrial workers are included those engaged in the transport of passengers or goods by "sea or inland waterways." In the original draft of the organizing committee these were excluded. The special committee refers to the change as one of "basic" importance and as prescribing limitation of the hours of work on ships and boats. The committee adds, however, that the provisions of the proposed convention in this instance are merely to confirm a principle. It recommends a special conference be called to determine the limitation of hours, in regard to sea transportation, shall be put into effect. No recommendations are made by the committee in regard to tropical countries or countries claiming special treatment in view of their backward industrial development. A committee now has these countries under consideration.

The conference expects to terminate its work by the end of the present week and with this in view will begin morning sessions on Tuesday.

Delays in ratification of the peace treaty have resulted in a curious situation.

The international labor conference meets under the aegis of the League of Nations. But until the necessary ratifications have been deposited and the peace treaty comes into effect the league itself does not formally exist. When the conference opened, it was expected that the peace treaty would be in operation before any decisions of importance were reached by the labor conference. This expectation has not been realized. The question is now asked how far decisions of the conference will be binding. The situation, it is understood, is under careful consideration. Although no official announcement has yet been made, it is likely that the conference, after voting on the proposed convention, will adjourn to meet again in London or Paris early in the new year for formal confirmation of decisions reached in Washington.

MINISTERS' MEETING. The Methodist ministers of the city met this morning in the Centenary church school room. Rev. George Morris presided. Only routine matters were dealt with.

Fire Fiend Invades Dance Hall; 28 Die

Some Burned to Death; Life Crushed Out of Others

THREE HUNDRED IN PANIC

Score of Babies, Brought by Mothers, Rescued; Some Thrown to Arms of People in Street in Louisiana Village

Ville Platte, La., Nov. 24.—Twenty-eight persons, most of them women and girls, lost their lives here on Saturday night in a fire which quickly destroyed a frame building in which 300 of the village folk were making merry at a dance. Fifteen others were seriously hurt, and search of the ruins was expected to add to the list of the dead.

Ten of the dancers were burned to death and others were crushed in a wild stampede to reach the street down a narrow stairway while the flames were sweeping rapidly from the lower floor. More than a score of babies, tucked safely away in a little nursery on the same floor with the dance hall, were rescued by mothers who had taken them there along with their children of dancing age. Some of the youngsters were picked up and hurried bodily into the outstretched arms of people in the street below.

The fire started in a grocery store and a tongue of flame reared out and started a crowd in a moving picture theatre in the same building with the grocery and the dance hall. A man standing near the door shouted to the audience to move out quietly, and none was hurt.

The flames spread so rapidly that the whole lower floor was a roaring blaze before the dancers in the big hall above were aware of their danger.

Instantly there was a panic and the whole crowd, men, women and children, made a mad rush for the single exit, the narrow stairway leading down the side of the burning building. Many of those who were trapped escaped through windows to the roof of an adjoining building. Many of the victims were burned beyond recognition and bits of jewelry were the only means of identification of the bodies.

TRAGIC LOSSES TO AUSTRALIAN RANCHMEN

Sheep and Cattle Dead in Thousands in Drought and Wheat Harvest Very Light

London, Nov. 23.—Indications of tragic losses to stockmen and farmers are given by the Daily Mail's Sydney, N. S. W., correspondent in a despatch in which he cites instances of dwindling stock as a result of the drought. Of 27,000 sheep on one farm, he says, only 5,000 have survived, while on another farm 6,000 sheep have dropped to 900, and elsewhere 80,000 herd of beef cattle have dwindled to 15,000.

"These losses," the correspondent continues, "are typical of the large estates, but the losses of the small farmers are commensurate and their cases are pathetic. An official estimate of the coming wheat harvest for the whole commonwealth is 40,000,000 bushels, as compared with 178,000,000 bushels last year."

SIR GEO. E. FOSTER AT CANADIAN CLUB, NEW YORK, BANQUET

Devotes Speech to What Canada Has Done For Returned Soldiers

New York, Nov. 24.—The Canadian Society of New York held its annual banquet on Saturday night in the ball room of the Biltmore Hotel, with the usual large attendance of members of both sexes. British and American flags were the sole decorations of the hall, room and on the tables. Arthur Knowlson, president of the society, presided.

Toastmaster Knowlson introduced Sir George E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce. Canada's methods of showing gratitude to her demobilized soldiers was related by Sir George. He said the dominion government had paid out more than $150,000,000 in gratuities, had spent $37,000,000 for re-establishment of disabled soldiers, and would spend $50,000,000 more in putting disabled soldiers in a position to earn a living. He said that the generous response of Canadians to their liberty loans was proof of the solidarity and unity of the population.

The war was not over, he added, until the blessings of peace and good government had been established. "Away with all our petty strifes and national controversies," he said.

Other speakers included George W. Wickham, former attorney-general of the United States; R. B. Laylor, principal of Queen's University, and Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Eaton.

TIGER'S DAUGHTERS IN BOSTON

Mme. Clemenceau—Jacqueline Speaks of Devastation in France After War—Naval Observers Bring Home News of Scientific Expedition's Troubles

(Special to Times.) Boston, Nov. 24.—The Republican Club of Massachusetts, 2,700 strong, through its executive committee officially declares for Governor Coolidge for president of the United States, on "the overshadowing issue of the hour, the maintenance of established government," and calls upon all "to whom the ideals and purposes of American institutions are dear to join in this undertaking."

President Ellis said in making the declaration that the supreme issue today was the maintenance and maintenance of the government. Calvin Coolidge today was the foremost champion of government by the people as against any special interests in this country. He had tested along these lines, his acts were shown him to be a friend to all classes so long as they respected the laws that the people had made. He was an inflexible defender of such laws when they were attempted to be tampered with by anybody.

Clemenceau's Daughters. The daughter of the "Tiger" is in town. Mme. Clemenceau-Jacqueline arrived here yesterday and like her noted father was all smiles for the newspaper men. "There is so much to be done in France," she said, "that my countrymen and women are not yet ready to carry on the great reconstruction work alone. In Verdun alone there were more than 3,000 villages which came back to their native haunts, even though they were in ruins. The desolation and ruin in France is awful and we need the help of the world. To the American nurses, France owes a debt of gratitude for the wonderful care and attention they have given to our wounded soldiers. But for their care and constant supervision, thousands of our young men would have died, and many of those who have survived would not have survived under the dreadful conditions they endured. The work of the American Red Cross was wonderful. The soul of France is not dead."

Troubles of Scientists. How the Todd expedition to the equator turned into disaster and scientists and navy flyers barely escaped death in a harbor of Brazil in the first great storm in twenty years, the scientist and aviator E. G. L. Richards and Ensign W. H. Cassing, naval observers attached to the expedition, reached Boston on the United States shipping board ship.

Superstition and ill luck hovered over the ship from the time she sailed from New York until she was near the equator. The ship and the crew were in a state of panic. It roused played prominent part in the adventure of Professor David Todd of Amherst College, a famous astronomer, and his party of observers. They sailed on May 13 and thirteen sailors were assigned to four of the lifeboats, there were thirteen port holes on each side of the ship and the ship broke down totally astride the equator on Friday, June 18.

Professor Todd refused to proceed farther on the Elinor after the crew announced that the ship was in danger due to the unlikelihood of thirteen. He is now awaiting passage from Argentina, where he left the ship when the captain determined to set sail before the time for which the crew was shipped expired.

The homeward trip was thrilling. The observation point was charted as 100 miles off the west coast of Africa and it was at this particular point at a precise moment on May 29 that the eclipse would be visible in a way satisfactory to the scientists. The ship lost time which could not be regained and the eclipse had passed before the Elinor reached the equator.

After consultation, it was decided that Professor Todd and Ensign Richards would not attempt the flights previously planned for mid-ocean and they sailed to Bermuda. Ensign Richards, however, storm prevented an ascent in a hydro-aeroplane. The men predicted ill luck and the Elinor set sail for Boston. At Bermuda Ensign Richards, however, a smaller airplane was unslung and in it the United States naval ensign carried the first airship flights over the Bermudas.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I think I will ask the editor to take your picture out of my paper for a while. People talk about what Hiram says, but I don't see a word about what the reporter says—and I flatter myself he says some very clever things."

"There's nothing like hevin' a good conceit yourself," said Hiram, "and a woman struttin' up the aisle in church yesterday, out to Scitment, an' you'd think she was the Queen o' Sheba. Everybody looked at 'er an' felt like laughin'—even if it was Sunday."

"I didn't put it there," the reporter hoped to say. "I never boast about myself. But I do say clever things—now don't I? I don't if there's another person that can't think of them."

"Hiram gazed quickly at the reporter for some moments before he replied. 'Mistery' he said, 'every mornin' we spend thinkin' about how smart we be—or how good lookin' we be—or how much style we got—or how much better we be than other folks—is a mink' wasted that might be turned to some good use."

"The best lookin' face sometimes has a silly brain behind it—and the jills is all full o' people that thought themselves smart—than other folks."

"But you've got your picture in the paper," said the reporter.

"I didn't put it there," said Hiram. "An' Hanner says it makes me look like a scarecrow anyway. She's threatened to come in an' pull the editor's ears out o' times. She says the newspapers ain't got no respect for beauty at all when they'd stick a face like mine out there afore the public. As if they put your own face there."

"Excuse me," said the reporter hurriedly. "I have an important engagement."

"POLITICAL DEFENCE COMMITTEE" IN TORONTO

Demand For Amnesty For All Political Prisoners No Deportation Without Trial

Toronto, Nov. 24.—About 2,000 people attended a meeting in Massey Hall on Saturday night, called by the "political defence committee" to protest against orders-in-council and amendments to the immigration act. J. M. Connor, who presided, declared that the right of trial by jury in Canada had been practically abolished, and he said the government should go back to pre-war conditions.

Rev. Dr. Salem Bland said the orders-in-council prohibiting free speech were un-British and un-Canadian, and he demanded that the federal government should open the prison doors and set the political prisoners free.

J. G. O'Donoghue, a well known lawyer, who has defended several prisoners convicted of violation of orders-in-council, said they had in their possession literature contrary to the said orders, denied the police of this city to put their hands on any man who had been guilty of an overt act.

A resolution was passed asking the government to grant a general amnesty to all political prisoners in the country to repeal the amendment to the immigration act whereby a person could be deported without trial, and to return to a democratic government.

CONFIRMS NEWS OF DOMINION STEEL DEAL

London, Nov. 24.—Seen by the Canadian Associated Press representative today, Col. Grant Morden confirmed the news of the Dominion Steel deal announced in Montreal last Friday.

"The colonel is to go to Canada himself next morning, taking engineer experts with him to advise concerning the reconstruction of the company. 'Ten to fifteen million dollars' required for putting the plant straight," said Colonel Morden, "and with the financial backing now secured the company has a future before it. The London board will be appointed almost immediately."

Henry Steel, who is associated with the new group, is chairman of the United Steel Company and belongs to Sheffield. The Canadian Associated Press gathers that news of the deal was circulated rather earlier than some of the promoters desired.

HOSPITAL COMMISSION AND COUNTY COUNCIL WILL DISCUSS G.P.H.

Councillors Have Been Asked to Meet Commission on Wednesday Night.

Considerable interest is attached to an invitation by the board of hospital commissioners to the municipal council to meet with them on Wednesday evening when matters pertaining to the General Public Hospital conditions will be discussed. It has been announced that the medical men of the city have expressed the desire that an expert be procured to look into the existing conditions at the hospital and make recommendations that will improve conditions from the international spirit which has sickened the native hue of British patriotism.

It was said this morning by a member of the municipal council that the opinions expressed by some of those in close touch with the situation were that the chief causes of complaint lay rather in the matter of equipment than in the personnel feature of the institution, and although the facilities were being improved from year to year, this improvement was very small.

THE HARBOR FRONT SITUATION TODAY

No Freight Being Handled—City Hall Seeking to Assist Toward Settlement

There was no change in the situation between the C. P. R. and the Freight Handlers' Union, and as a result there is no freight moving about the harbor front. It was said that the city holds out all freights en route to this city for export shipping will be diverted to either Portland or Halifax.

The Montreal, the first winter port sailing from here to R. R. is due to arrive tomorrow, but she may be diverted as there is said to be no freight here at the present time.

Captain Blenheness went to Boston and New York as a representative of the C. P. R. and looked into conditions there and has reported that men doing the same work as the freight handlers in St. John are receiving forty-five cents an hour in New York, with time and a half for night work; that they do not work night work in either port except on rare occasions.

The agreement between the company and the union expired last Thursday night and the men have since refused to sign a new contract or continue work at forty-seven cents an hour. So far the freight handlers on the west side of the C. P. R. are in a state of contention.

There are three steamers in port loading grain. As this was placed in the elevators by the men prior to the expiration of their contract the longshore men are loading the steamers and they will be ready in a day or two to proceed to their destinations.

City Action. It is understood that the city will take some action in the matter of the deadlock now existing between the C. P. R. and the freight handlers on the west side. It has been pointed out that should the embargo on freight result in a diversion of freight to another port, there will be also considerable loss to the business and hotel people. That conditions may cause the permanent removal of some of the winter steamers from St. John to other ports is also a matter that will enter into this feature of the situation.

NO FURTHER WORD. No further message was received today from Calgary concerning the condition of Harold McGuire, recently operated upon there for appendicitis. It is believed that the lack of news indicates that he is out of danger.

PRESS VERY OUTSPOKEN

Keen Disappointment Over U.S. Senate Action on Peace Treaty—Talk of New Central Party—Led by Lloyd George—The Burden of Inflated Currency

London, Nov. 24.—Refusal of the United States senate to ratify the peace treaty comes as a sickening surprise to the mass of British people, more particularly since, despite the warning from those acquainted with actual Washington developments, the people here were absolutely convinced that senatorial opposition would not be pushed to the extreme. The press shows great moderation in its comment. There is no tendency to lecture America or try to teach her business, but equally the papers do not attempt to deny the seriousness of the situation created and our bitter disappointment. The public generally is enquiring what actual effects the senate's refusal will produce. Our statesmen are anxious that Americans should realize the enormous disproportion between the burden of the war, as the main cost of feeding the people of Central Europe is fallen upon us.

The nation is paying dearly both directly and indirectly for inflated currency. "England's currency is too heavy a load," says the Globe. "Every week we pile up our debt to America by buying goods at inflated prices, every week we sell about the same quantity of goods to continental countries which cannot pay for them. This system of doing business cannot go on. Strong as we are it will break up. If it does the Allied partnership in peace will be broken down." It appeals to America to come to the rescue of Europe now as it did in the rescue of the Allies during the war. International action alone can avert a crisis.

The one English paper which actually supports the senate's action is the Morning Post, which declares its attitude worthy of freedom and of citizens of the great republic, and a refreshing change from the international spirit which has sickened the native hue of British patriotism.

Renewed proposals for a permanent coalition between the Unionist party and the Liberal party were made by Lloyd George control of the great political machine with an abundant reserve of party funds. The premier's old Liberal friends feel it would virtually mean his being swallowed up by the Unionist party. Unionists have really run the new parliament, absorbing opposition from the international spirit which has sickened the native hue of British patriotism.

It was said this morning by a member of the municipal council that the opinions expressed by some of those in close touch with the situation were that the chief causes of complaint lay rather in the matter of equipment than in the personnel feature of the institution, and although the facilities were being improved from year to year, this improvement was very small.

NOTED ALIENIST DEAD

Dr. A. McL. Hamilton Testified in Trial of Giteau and in Harry K. Thaw Case

(Special to Times.) Halifax, Nov. 24.—Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, one of the most noted alienists in the country, died at Great Britain yesterday. He had been in poor health for several years. Doctor Hamilton was the chief medical expert in the trial of Giteau, the assassin of President Garfield, and became better known because of his testimony in the case of Harry K. Thaw at his trial for the murder of Stanford White. He was born in Brooklyn on Oct. 6, 1848. His father was Philip Hamilton, youngest son of Alexander Hamilton, the first secretary of state of revolutionary times.

DISCUSS CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH SOME GIRLS WORK IN CITY

Matters pertaining to the work of girls in some of the local garment manufacturing plants were discussed on Saturday afternoon at a well attended meeting in the Oddfellows' Hall at which addresses were given by Mrs. Flewelling, Mrs. W. F. Hatheway and Mrs. Wilfred Gribble. W. F. Hatheway also gave an address. The duties of citizenship were dwelt upon and the rights of women to citizenship emphasized.

Regarding the conditions under which girls in some of the garment factories here are working it was decided to bring to the attention of the women's council or some similarly widely organized body of women, the report that girls were working in environments described as unsanitary and under a low wage scale, from $5 to $7 a week being all that was paid. It was reported that girls from two shops, numbering thirty-eight, had been threatened with discharge by their employers if they attended Saturday's meeting. It was decided to ask for a strict enforcement of factory act regulations regarding sanitation, when one of the girls present said that in the plant where she was employed there was not even a wash-basin or a towel, let alone a toilet or rest-room.

Liquor Cases Chief Features of The Docket Today—Eight Prisoners

Eight persons took part in the ten o'clock parade this morning before Sitting Magistrate Henderson, William J. Morgan was charged with supplying liquor to James E. Daley, and also with assaulting him and breaking his spectacles, valued at $22. This incident, it was said, took place in the Imperial Hotel last evening. The complainant did not appear this morning and the case was set over until this afternoon.

George Morrison and Wilfred McArthur were charged with being drunk and also with having liquor in their possession in their room in the Imperial Hotel last night. Morrison pleaded guilty to both charges and was fined $8, or two months for being drunk and was remanded for sentence on the other charge. McArthur pleaded guilty to being drunk but denied the charge of having liquor in his possession. He was fined $8 or two months for being drunk, and remanded for sentence on the other charge. Inspectors McFarland and Kerr gave evidence that they visited the Hotel and found the two defendants in their room drunk. They said they found a bottle and a half of gin under a mattress.

A case against Arthur Wright, charged with a statutory offense, was resumed. Some evidence was taken and the case postponed. J. A. Barry counsel for the defendant made application for bail and the matter will be considered on Tuesday. The accused was set up for trial. Wilfred Graham, charged with being drunk and also with having liquor in his possession, pleaded guilty and was remanded for sentence. Three men and one woman, charged with drunkenness, pleaded guilty and were fined $8 each or two months in jail.

G., as dean of the Medical Faculty of McGill University, called upon the acting dean of the medical faculty of Montreal (Laval) University, Dr. A. Foucher. Dr. Birkett expressed to Dr. Foucher the sympathy of McGill University to its sister institution in its great loss by fire, and offered to assist the medical faculty in any way possible, so that they might live over the difficulties occasioned by the fire and carry on the work of the university as far as this was possible.

LONDON LENGTHENING AND PARIS CURTAILING SKIRTS

London, Eng., Nov. 24.—While we are making longer skirts and are having a big coat and skirt winter season, Paris is making very short ones, and says there are good too," declares the leading West End ladies' tailor of this city.
"The great demand seems to be for our ankle length skirts and for coats that come down about four inches above the bottom of the skirt. The preference also is for skirts or the coat that are full about the hips, giving a hoop-like appearance. The actual skirt itself is tight and narrow as ever. The women will not buy anything else. Why? Because that is the only reason they give, if that can be termed a reason."

NASAL CATARRH

Though Very Common it is a Very serious Disease—Worse at This Season. It is an inflammation of the mucous membrane, causing a discharge, and is aggravated by colds and sudden changes of weather, but depends on an impure condition of the blood. When chronic it may develop into consumption by breaking down the delicate lung tissues and impairing the general health.

This is usually due to a defective formation of the eye ball, and not to a diseased condition. While glasses do not cure this defect, they correct it by restoring normal vision without strain.

Eye strain causes loss of nerve energy and physical disability. If bodily comfort is desired, together with ease in reading, glasses to correct this defect should be procured. If you are suffering from eye strain let us examine your eyes and fit you with the right kind of glasses.

London, Nov. 24.—Continued advances against Gen. Denekine and Admiral Kolchak's forces are claimed in a Russian Soviet communiqué.
The Bolsheviks are asserted to be fast approaching Tzaritsyn, on the lower Volga. They report the capture of nearly 600 prisoners in the region of Tzaritsyn and 900 in the vicinity of Omak. 800 prisoners were taken when Bistchenak was occupied.
Paris, Nov. 24.—(Havas)—One thousand copies of the newspaper L'Europe, which is published in Geneva and the circulation of which is forbidden in France because of its Bolshevik tendencies, were seized by the police yesterday according to the Presse de Paris. One of the articles printed in the newspaper stated there were signs that Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain was taking a more conciliatory attitude toward the Russian Soviet government. It held an inter-Allied conference would be held in London soon to study the Russian question, and expressed the opinion that peace between the Allies and Bolshevik Russia was not far distant.

DO AWAY WITH PROVINCIAL CENSORS OF THE PICTURES

One Federal Board is Desire of Unions Expressed at Montreal Convention

Montreal, Nov. 24.—Abolition of the various provincial boards of moving picture censors and the substitution of one federal board is desired by the unions of District No. 11 of the Theatrical Stage Operators and Moving Picture Machine Operators, who concluded a convention yesterday, holding three sittings on Saturday and two on Sunday.
It was the feeling that the present system of each province having its own board was not desirable, that it caused unnecessary expense and trouble. A committee was appointed to take the matter up with the governments concerned.

MENTAL HYGIENE.

To the average person mental hygiene is a phrase that does not arouse much interest because most people are not familiar with the strides that have been taken in the matter of treating mental disease.

We are just beginning to appreciate the value of medical inspection in schools, and similarly we shall in time and it should be soon—recognize the value of mental clinics, and the arrangement of pupils in classes in conformity with their mental ability to master the subjects of study.

When we are told that fifty per cent of the crimes committed are the acts of mental defectives, and when we measure the cost of the institutions to which so many of these unfortunates have eventually to be committed, we see at once the economic aspect of the question, even if we are not moved by the humanitarian motives.

They are having trouble in England with the unemployment allowance granted by the government. It was not large, but the decision to discontinue it has raised a storm of protest.

This whole question has been brought forcibly to the attention of the people of this province by the visit of Dr. Hincks to St. John in connection with the coming survey of the feeble-minded in New Brunswick.

the uniform of a Canadian soldier. His reply was—"The United States and Germany." Asked about England and Canada, he said—"Oh, I guess they'll get into it after a while."

THE STANDARDS VIEWS. The best way to answer the Standard is to let the Standard answer itself. Today it assails the Times and poses as a friend of harbor commission, but on Aug. 23 last—just three months ago—it said:

Everyone who has looked into the matter knows that St. John cannot in competition with Halifax continue to do business under the commission plan without going bankrupt. It is utterly impossible for this port to receive a client rental from top wharves, from side wharves, from tugboat privileges or from any other source whatever, to meet the interest charges on the purchase price, on money expended for extensions, improvements and repairs, on salaries to commissioners, on ordinary maintenance, without putting our rates at such a figure as will absolutely prohibit successful competition with other ports on this side of the Atlantic.

UNEMPLOYMENT ALLOWANCES. They are having trouble in England with the unemployment allowance granted by the government. It was not large, but the decision to discontinue it has raised a storm of protest.

HIGH CREDIT. If you've kept your credit spotless, it's may trail you in a bunch, but bad luck is rendered swifter, evil fate has lost its punch.

LIFE IN GERMAN PRISONERS' CAMP

Montreal Man Tells of His Three Years Experience as War Prisoner

(Montreal Gazette)

After having passed three years in a prison camp in Germany, Jean Penverne, law student, who in 1914 went to join the French colors, and was captured by the Germans at Verdun, came home to Montreal, and before his old friends at the Young Liberal Association, assembled at their eleventh annual dinner at the Reform Club, gave decidedly interesting glimpses of life in the German prison camps.

Mr. Penverne spoke at length, expressing varied opinions on many other subjects connected with the war, but it was his story of how the rank and file of the French Poilus lived when a prisoner which aroused interest.

NEWFOUNDLAND PREMIER.

Mr. Penverne gave three reasons for the collapse of Germany. It was not due to military efforts, he said, for Germany had not been conquered, in the military sense. It was noted by the audience that, contrary to the majority of speakers, Mr. Penverne was very far from glorifying the French military effort, he throwing in pungent and hazardous criticisms at times.

LOOKS LIKE HIS DEAD WIFE, SO HE WEDS HER

Allentown, Pa., Nov. 24.—Because Miss Linda A. Wotring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wotring, of Fourteenth and Turner streets, looked like his dead wife she became the bride of John Kohler, of Kutztown.

The marriage was the result of an unusual romance. Ten weeks ago they had never heard of each other. Then a friend of Miss Wotring told her she was the exact image of the first wife of Mr. Kohler, who was a young widower, he had also told Mr. Kohler that in Miss Wotring was a young lady who was a duplicate of his deceased wife. He became curious and sought an introduction. He found the resemblance true as to looks, figure, voice and even gesture. The young people fell in love at first sight, and in a few days their engagement was announced.

IRISH CLERGYMEN ON MISSION TO U. S.

Belfast, Nov. 22.—William Coote, member for parliament, accompanied by a deputation of six prominent clergymen, is sailing for America today from Liverpool for the purpose of "putting before their churches in America, the true position and the dangers which threaten their churches in Ireland by the adoption of the Sinn Fein program."

The party comprises: Presbyterians, Rev. Wylie Blue and the Rev. William Corkey; Methodists, the Rev. F. E. Hart; Rev. Edward Hazleton and Rev. C. W. Maguire; Episcopalians, Rev. Louis Crooks.

The delegates will not confine their attention to the Ulster question, but will present the case of the Protestant minority throughout Ireland, which includes a great number of the professions and industries. The belief among Protestants that America might be influenced in favor of Professor Hammon De Valera created by the reports of his reception has caused great comprehension among the Irish Unionists, who therefore decided to present the other side of the case.

SEE FINANCE MINISTER

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—Claiming that the taxation imposed upon the moving picture industry in Canada was excessive and burdensome, a deputation representing the moving picture exhibitors of Canada held a conference with Hon. Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, yesterday.

The chief request of the delegation was for the repeal of the fifteen cents per day on each reel of motion pictures which, it was claimed, had become a burden on the industry and especially on the small exhibitor in the country town. Film censorship was also discussed. The film censorship situation in Ontario and Quebec was referred to as being unsatisfactory, and Sir Henry Drayton, while pointing out that censorship was entirely a provincial matter, thought that some steps should be taken for an inter-change system of censorship whereby acceptance of a picture in one province would mean its acceptance in other provinces.

As a result of the request of the deputation, the motion picture men hope to have the fifteen cents a day reel taken off. The finance minister intimated that the government did not intend to maintain a burden upon any person.

The Women's Shop
Presents the New and Exclusive in
Evening Gowns

Of marked distinction in an assemblage of dazzling evening frocks, is one of Black Brocade Satin, with shoulder straps of black jet; the low bodice is shimming with bands of sequins and at the belt is ostrich trimming—a new touch of French origin; the skirt is draped up one side and here again appears the French touch—by rows of black ostrich.

One black satin evening gown has the skirt overdraped with black silk net while the bodice is of silver net which is toned down by a covering of black silk net; the shoulder straps are of silver ribbon, while the sleeves are of black silk net with a trimming of shadow lace, and as a final touch this charming gown carries a bouquet of American beauty roses at the belt.

Many other evening gowns of such charming exclusiveness that a worded description fails to do them justice.

PROTECTION OF MIGRATORY BIRDS IN THE MARITIME PROVINCES; NEW OFFICIAL R. W. Trafts, of Wolfville, N. S., has recently been appointed by the Civil Service Commission to the position of game officer in charge of the administration of the Migratory Birds Convention Act in the maritime provinces.

Under this act the open seasons for migratory game birds are limited to a period of three or four months, and migratory and insectivorous birds and many birds other than game birds, are protected throughout the year. In addition many of the species of shorebirds and the other ducks are protected throughout the year.

Any person having these protected birds in their possession is liable to a heavy penalty, and any equipment used in capturing them illegally may be confiscated.

As Mr. Trafts will be supported by an able staff of deputy officers, any person who goes armed with a gun should be sure of the provisions of this federal law.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE (BY APPOINTMENT)

Fake Piano Scheme Unearthed in Louisville

Not only did the Better Business Bureau obtain a complete confession from a "warehouse" piano dealer who recently advertised illegally in Louisville newspapers, and an agreement from him to repeat such advertisements, but it also has obtained the co-operation of the Louisville newspapers so that such advertisements cannot be placed in question or any one else.

This advertiser had stated in the classified columns of two Louisville newspapers that he had a "brand-new piano" which he will sell "for balance due."

An investigator for the bureau was informed that a major, recently returned from the army, had ordered the piano but that when it arrived the soldier had failed to keep his agreement, with the result that the man who inserted the advertisement was selling the piano for the balance due, the major having had the piano for $865. The advertiser offered the piano for the $865 which supposedly remained due.

In large gold letters inside of the case the price, $850, was scented.

Investigation showed that this advertiser was selling the piano for $850 to a local freight or express office, then advertised them in a manner similar to the procedure which resulted in this investigation, selling them off the floor of the express or freight office. The bureau's attorney reported that the Kentucky truth-in-advertising law had been violated and that the bureau was possible to make a case against the advertiser.

A consultation with the advertiser, in the course of which the facts and the opinion of the attorney of the bureau were submitted to him, brought forth a confession and a plea for clemency. The advertiser gave up the piano, and the bureau's attorney witnessed, in which his past performances were acknowledged and in which he made a written pledge as to his conduct in the future. The advertiser agreed that all his advertisements would, in the future, be submitted to the bureau before they were inserted.

Investigation has also shown that three or four other men have been operating in a somewhat similar manner in Louisville and all of these cases are under investigation by the bureau, and are co-operating with the Better Business Bureau toward the elimination of all advertisements inserted by any "gyp" advertiser until the methods of such dealers, as well as the advertisements, are brought up to the standards prescribed by the Better Business Bureau of Louisville.

INDIANAPOLIS FINDS Farm Market a Failure.

Like St. Louis, Indianapolis has been forced to abandon the idea of the farm market. The result of a campaign born of the hope of lower prices to the consumer, was needed to prove that the plan would not work.

The result of the campaign did not live with the public. It lay with the farmers, who promptly took advantage of the situation to stick both the profit of the retailer and that of the wholesaler in their pockets, without lowering the price to the consumer at all. As a matter of fact they took even greater profit than they did in the very nature of curm market until the methods of such dealers, who of wholesale and retail merchants, and this difference, too, went in their pockets.

Before the city finally abandoned the idea, however, Harry R. L'Beau, city market master, made an investigation of the farm market experience of St. Louis, Seattle, Columbus, Detroit and Lancaster. In each case the experience was virtually the same. A painfully small number of farmers came to the market, regularly with their produce, so small was this number that there existed virtually no competition at all among them, and it was an established custom to base their prices upon the prevailing schedules of the retail stores.

THE HARBOR.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir, - In reply to questions asked me recently as to the purpose of the resolution which I had moved in the council relative to the sale of the harbor, I desire to say that acceptance by the dominion government of this resolution, granted under charter by our late Majesty King George the Third, have been exercised and enjoyed by the citizens of St. John since the year 1788.

As will be seen by the above statement of facts the council has submitted to the people by the answer "yes" or "no" shall be given.

JOHN B. JONES, Commissioner.

THE BEST CHRISTMAS AD WE EVER USED.

According to George W. Reese, advertising manager of the D. H. Holmes store, in New Orleans, the best and most profitable Christmas advertisement ever used by the Holmes Company was a page devoted entirely to photographs.

"This page," says Mr. Reese, "pulled like a team of army mules, and the reason, as we figured it, was these: 'The page commanded attention by its size and established the line which we featured for what it is - high-class, finished, construction and appearance.'

"I made home selection' easy because it gave all the details of size, finish, price, construction and appearance.

"I invited immediate action by laying up the complete outfit which could be made boxes."

RENEW INTEREST IN STAMP COLLECTION.

The War Has Given Boom For The Philatelists

Some of The Famous Collections of The World - King George's Worth Probably $1,000,000 - Some That Bring as High as $1,500

Stamp collectors throughout the world are taking fresh interest in their hobby and are being kept on the move adding the many new issues to their collections. The postage stamp market is now storm-tossed by the greatest boom since the first "issue" was sold for an English penny about eighty years ago. The number of collectors has increased six-fold in Britain, France, Italy and many other parts of Europe since the outbreak of the great war. The demand for old and rare stamps is ten times what it was in 1914, says a writer in the New York Evening Post, and the value of these issues has doubled or even tripled that of pre-war days. Among these joyful possibilities the philatelist will learn with mixed emotions that the largest and most costly stamp collection in the world, and also a less notable gathering, have been seized by France and the United States respectively, for the reason that each of these collections was bequeathed a short time ago to the German nation.

A Great Philatelist.

The story of the collection which has been seized by France, provides one of the striking tales of postage and the war. The world's most eminent collector was Philip von Ferrary, of Paris. Baron von Ferrary's mother was the Duchess de Galliera of Genoa, and some called her "the richest woman in Europe." Her husband was an Austrian. Much of her wealth descended to Philip. Although the duchess owned a splendid residence in Paris, she willed that this Galliera palace should be conveyed to the imperial Austrian government for its use as an embassy, provided that one wing of the structure should be preserved and her son's life as his own home. It was here that he had gathered throughout half a century, the most wonderful museum of philatelic treasures, both as regards size and richness, in the rarest stamps. Eight years ago the collection was appraised by conservative judges at about $1,500,000, but now is said to be worth twice that sum.

Notable Collections.

Antipathy to the French republic was shown by the baron's mother when she left large bequests to chiefs of the French Royalists. But the son, though known by intimate friends as "the collector," was a man of broad sympathies, maintained close relations with both French and English society that all of his associates were amazed when he bequeathed to Germany the possession that had most adorned his name. This great collection has not yet crossed the Rhine. Quite possibly it never will be preserved in Germany. For there is reason to suppose that Ferrary's philatelic monument will be retained to offset part of the vast debt of Waller's soldiers to the Empire. Germany was the disposal of a famous collection, when its owner, a Mr. Waters, died long ago at Honolulu. Although his home was in the United States, this collector was born in Bremen, Germany. After he had left his native city, they were seized by the alien property custodian, and their future ownership will be determined by the American courts.

At present some of the most notable collections in addition to Ferrary's are the Tappin collection, bequeathed some years ago to the British Museum by Thomas Key Tappin, King George's collection, the Duveen collection, and finally, the collection made at Lakeview by Charles Lathrop Pack. The king is the most advanced collector of old British and British colonial stamps, and has the finest known collection of war issues. His stamps must be worth at a moderate estimate $1,000,000. The Prince of Wales displays great interest in his own considerable collection.

Ban on Enemy War Stamps.

Philatelic developments of quite another sort have followed the antipathies arising from the war. Enormous numbers of stamps were printed by Germany in occupied territories, but also in the German colonies, despite the fact that all of these stamps had been printed by the Allied Powers. But the Austrians, Bulgarians, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey have added their several shares of war-time postage to the issue stamps collected by the Allied nations, as well as the stamp dealers, with few exceptions, state in the most positive manner that they will not buy or sell a single stamp issued during the war by Germany, Austria, Bulgaria or Turkey. Despite the position generally taken in Europe, quite a number of German war stamps are being sold in America.

New Stamp Issues.

One of the main factors which were to exercise a marked influence upon philately was the issue of war stamps in almost all parts of the world. First, there was the stock of stamps which had been seized by the Allies in the former German colonies, such as the Cameroons, German East Africa, the Marshall Islands, German New Guinea, Samoa, Tonga, etc. Certain of these stamps are now almost unobtainable, and single copies have been sold as high as $1,500. Next came such issues as were made by various territories occupied by British forces, including Baghdad, Bushire, Mesopotamia, Palestine, Salonica, etc. Most of these stamps are also rare, having been printed in very small quantities. Among the numerous war issues of the Allied countries, the stamps that Belgium printed at Havre, when nearly all of her own land was in possession of the Huns, have deservedly enjoyed great vogue. Among United States war stamps, the most interesting is confined to a single sheet. This group of 100 24-cent airplane stamps was so engraved by accident last year as to turn the pictured airplane upside down. Few of the misprinted stamps have yet been circulated. One, however, has been sold lately for $450.

THE CALL FOR YOUNG MEN.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir - Give the young men a chance. Is it not requisite and timely that the young men of St. John were given an opportunity to take hold of the helm of the civic ship? Could not some young business men, men trained in our large and prosperous business houses, be induced to sit in the seats of civic power? Men who through their business knowledge and experience are capable of surveying the business of St. John, and can recognize its wants, not only of itself but what is equally as important, the town's relation to the outer world.

These are the men St. John wants, men who walk as the lion - with strength, poise and courage. The men who are anxious to see their home town going ahead, and instead of hearing the phrase all the time "Look at Moncton," they want to hear someone saying "Look at St. John."

Yours

FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS

Weakness And Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women become run-down and worn out on either side of the middle age. They are strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ontario, writes: "I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully. I have improved very much."

Price 60c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely - Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill. - "During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying grippe never returned. I had a very good appetite and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life." - Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues," should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

All Washington Captured by Edward, Prince of Wales

His Visit Pleased Hosts And Guest Alike—Diaries Will Record That Dames of Fashion Learned to Curtsy Anew

(Special Correspondence of The N. Y. Evening Post.) Washington, Nov. 18.—The Prince of Wales has captured Washington, boot and garter, and the tales of his prowess and charm are growing already into those limitless yarns that eventually become rose-colored traditions.

Only in fiction has the oldest inhabitant ever expected to read or behold such heralding, nor too much pomp; not too much of the dignity of years nor too much of the sophistication of a great traveler.

He came with a crowd of correspondents from the United States, Canada and England at his heels. Some had been with him for all of his 9,000 mile journey, having just laid off officiating at the taking of Jerusalem and the triumph of Allenby; others having merely flown into their spats and crossed the border with the nonchalance that they ordinarily assume for so familiar a jaunt.

But the fact was that all the thriving tribe who accompanied His Highness paid him a compliment which he himself may never have heard. That was that the longer they were with him the more fun it was, and the more interesting and profitable.

What happened to the Prince, however, is only second in dramatic interest. What turned the old capital took is a prominent thing which cannot yet be judged with the sober side of the face to the front. Picture, if you can, staid members of Washington "society" of the opposite sex settling aside the crowning reservation to Article X of the League of Nations to determine whether the occasion of the Prince's visit called for gloves or no gloves. This question has hardly been settled yet. It is controversial in the best circles.

But nothing in the annals of the Prince's visit to the capital equal the phosphorescent memories that he has left in the "schools for young ladies" in Washington. A consensus of opinion among the little mothers of the rich seems to be that the best course is to let the miss of the hour continue the temperamental fireworks until the last gasp.

On another occasion Miss Betty Baker, daughter of the Secretary of War, in her school clothes, "think of it!" was out with about twenty, she said, of her chums at the Prince's school, when her father said—this goes with bated breath—her father said, would they like to go into the British Embassy and see the Prince.

After rushing the rather brusque guards on the sidewalk—these guards were as sharp as their bayonets, it seems they had just bought to the marine at the door and approached. Straight in a line stood the two hundred, for according to their tales they seemed then to see each other greatly multiplied, with and without gloves and with the worst wishes.

So they gathered their balloons from the marine at the door and went home. But "you ought to have seen his face, the marine," when he stood there with his gun on one shoulder and the bunch of balloons bobbing in the wind on the other—when we had just been in to meet the Prince of Wales!

SPENT MOST OF HER TIME IN BED

J. V. Redquist Praises Tanlac For Restoring Wife to Perfect Health.

"My wife had suffered with stomach trouble for eight years before she began taking Tanlac. But I believe she is in as good health now as she ever was in her life," said J. V. Redquist, who resides at 52 Grand Lake Road, Sydney, Nova Scotia, while in Turnbull's drug store recently. Continuing he said:

"Everything she ate would sour and ferment and cause gas that made her miserable and would press against her heart so she could hardly breathe and she would have sharp pains in the region of her heart. She would get very dizzy at times and I have often seen her go to get up out of a chair. She had severe headaches, too, that would keep her in bed for several days at a time. Her appetite was very poor and she would very often only drink a cup of tea for her breakfast. She never slept well at night and complained of a tired worn-out feeling all the time. Toward the last she spent most of the time in bed, and I really began to think she would have to give up entirely as she continued to grow weaker.

"She had tried lots of different sorts of medicines, but none of them did any good. Well, one day I saw a statement about Tanlac in a newspaper and went right into town and got her a bottle, and I guess she has to give me the credit, for I sure found the right medicine this time. Tanlac began to act to relieve her of her troubles and she now has a good appetite and can eat anything she wants and everything agrees with her perfectly. She never has the least trouble from gas and the indigestion and headaches have stopped and she is never troubled with shortness of breath. In fact, she is enjoying the best of health and it gives me great pleasure to speak a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and E. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

PASO DOBLE AND TANGO VALSE ARE NEW DANCES

London, Nov. 24.—Experts think that the two favorite dances of the coming season which promises to outdo every dancing record since 1913, will be the Paso Doble and the Tango Valse. A characteristic of the former, is the double-time beat with slightly bent knees. Beginning with a glide it merges into a fandango movement, finishes with a movement in double-time from which it derives its name. The Tango and the Hestition Valse are combined in the Tango Valse, and its feature is that the individuality of the dancer has wide play, as in the case with a good deal of the modern dancing of the moment. People who do not care for the Jazz will be relieved to learn that the Tango Valse "must be kept quiet or its charm is lost."

For Coughs, Colds, and the relief of inflammatory conditions of the throat arising from Bronchial, Asthmatic affections and derangements of the Respiratory Organs. Prepared from Spruce Gum and other medicinal agents. Successfully used for 60 years.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region generally means you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region generally means you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

Face Paint Tabooed—Remove Skin Instead

"A few years ago only one class of women painted their faces," says Dolly Madison. "It was a sign of social ostracism and was tabooed in refined circles. The custom has become so universal we must admit it is to be deplored and to be shelved as soon as possible."

How foolish to seek artificial "beauty" of this sort, obnoxious from artistic and moral standpoints, when it is so easy to obtain a truly natural complexion by the use of ordinary mercolized wax, which may be had at any drug store in original one-ounce packages. This mercolized wax is so effective and so harmless, no one need think of using anything else for the purpose. Applied like cold cream at night, and washed off in the morning, it at once begins to show its remarkable rejuvenating effects. It gently absorbs the lifeless surface skin in tiny particles, gradually showing the fresher, livelier, beautiful under-skin. Naturally it takes with it all surface defects, like freckles, pimples, chaps, moth patches and liver spots.

HOW TO CATCH RATS

London, Eng., Nov. 24.—A Herts farmer declares that the best way to catch rats is to place a thirty-six gallon barrel containing food in the farmyard. The rats go up a ladder, at the top of which is a balance stick which tumbles them into the barrel. He says he has caught fifty in one day this way.

DOG DECIDES A LAW SUIT

New York, Nov. 24.—In the Harlem court Magistrate Raphael Tobia was called upon to decide the ownership of Daisy, a little white poodle dog, Daisy which raised a great rumpus in the court room, was claimed by Charles Irovitch and Harry Rothstein and all Silesians are to settle the affair, the magistrate placed the disputants on opposite sides of the room and had them each call Daisy. Rothstein called first and the dog came nonchalantly. When Irovitch called the dog came running, apparently overjoyed. So Daisy was awarded the latter. Both men left the court fast friends.

DEPOSED MONARCHS NEVER TO RETURN

This is Opinion of Prince of Pless—Was Orderly Officer to The Kaiser

London, Nov. 23.—"Chance threw me into contact with Prince Henry of Pless, whom I knew before the war," the Daily Telegraph's special correspondent in Berlin wires. Much has been written and many stores are current in England as to what part the prince played before the outbreak of hostilities and throughout the war. The former American ambassador, Mr. Gerard, has had something to say about him. I found Prince Henry quite unconscious of what was thought of him abroad and he had not seen Ambassador Gerard's book. I made no disguise about his prejudice against him in England as the close associate, if not one of the evil geniuses, of the emperor, whose secret and sly agent in England he had supposed to be. He smiled at my reference to the emperor. "Far be it from me to apologize for or to minimize my personal relations with His Majesty, but to suggest that, politically, I played any part or was in any way seeking information at any time with or without authority, is grotesquely untrue. During my father's lifetime the emperor was a regular guest at Pless. After I succeeded, those visits were continued and with them my personal contact with the emperor practically became an ended. For I was seldom in Berlin."

"How was it, then," I inquired, "that you were, according to the American press, a prominent member of the headquarters staff in close personal contact with the emperor?"

"I see now how a molehill has been made into a mountain," Prince Henry replied. "The actual fact is that when war was imminent I expressed a desire to serve in my old regiment in which I had been a sub-altern. The secretary of war said it was impossible for a man of my age to rejoin my regiment, and that I had been too many years away from all regimental training."

Attended Mr. Gerard

"As a result I was attached as orderly officer to the emperor, during his turns of duty. My work was limited to military routine. I held no confidential or responsible post, and as political affairs were rigorously kept secret from all aides-de-camps, I had no chance of knowing or influencing anything political. Indeed, ignorance of what was going on was the irritating feature of my daily life."

"So it came to pass that, as I spoke English fluently, I was ordered to attend the American ambassador when he visited general headquarters. I did my best to minister to his wants and his desire for sightseeing, and I am somewhat tickled to learn that some Machiavellian scheme underlying my uninteresting and somewhat menial association with him and the general staff."

Changes Made by War

"The moment I could I returned to my home. Since then I have been unceasingly absorbed in restoring the life-time life around me, and I have had little time to give to the political hot-pot of today. My views of the situation as it affects me and all Silesians are unaltered, and require no qualification. In my judgment, no country which has lost its monarchy because of recent events has the slightest chance of reverting to it. The changes made by the war seem unalterable, and especially so in the case of Germany, on account of her complicated composition.

"This is the opinion of all and sundry, except of a few, unimportant in number and influence, who are doubtless inspired by praiseworthy personal loyalty. The paramount duty of all in Germany is to help any government which will establish and preserve order, and respect individual rights."

PRINCE STAYED ON THE RENOWN ALL MORNING

Visited by Governor-General and Nova Scotia's Lieutenant Governor—Big Shore Features

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 24—H. M. S. Renown, bringing the Prince of Wales from New York to Halifax, arrived at eight o'clock this morning. His Royal Highness' arrival was greeted with a salute of twenty-one guns from the citadel and a tremendous tooting of steamer sirens and factory whistles. At ten forty-five His Excellency the Governor-General went aboard the Renown to pay his respects to the prince. His Royal Highness breakfasted on board and then remained quiet, doubtless storing up his energy for a round of games that will mark his brief stay in Halifax. At a quarter to ten, His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, governor-general of Canada, who arrived in Halifax last evening to officially say farewell to the prince, was ferried out to the Renown from the dockyard. As the vice-regal tender drew near the prince's vessel, the guns of the Renown boomed out in a salute. His Excellency remained in close conference with the prince for nearly an hour, listening with pleasure to the incidents of the latter portion of the historic journey of the heir apparent. At a quarter to eleven, Lieutenant-Governor Grant, of Nova Scotia, went on the Renown to welcome the prince in the name of the province. The salutes were repeated. Grant also enjoyed a prolonged conversation with His Royal Highness, who expressed extreme pleasure at once more visiting Halifax before returning to England. At half past four Mrs. Charles Archibald, wife of the president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, will give a dance in honor of the prince, at her residence, 72 Inglis street. The function will be comparatively small and it is believed that there will not be more than 100 guests. This evening the dominion will give a dinner in the prince's honor at the Halifax Club. The details are in the hands of Sir Joseph Pope, under-secretary of state. At ten o'clock will come a state ball at Government House. It is believed that 600 people will be present and arrangements are to be made that only seventy-five couples are to be permitted on the adjoining floor at one time, a number which would just comfortably fill the Government House ball room. Tomorrow the prince will probably come ashore in the morning and he may possibly indulge in a round of golf. The luncheon on the Renown will be the only formal incident of the day and the Renown will leave for England at sunset.

FARMERS MAY HAVE CO-OPERATIVE STORE IN PROVINCE CAPITAL

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 24—The United Farmers of New Brunswick have under consideration the opening of a retail co-operative store and warehouse in Fredericton, according to a statement made by a prominent official of their provincial organization. So far the proposal has not been definitely decided one way or the other, but it probably will be at a meeting in Woodstock this week. It has been suggested that the United Farmers and labor council might under the local co-operative store proposal. It had already been announced that the labor council had under consideration starting a co-operative store in Fredericton. United Farmers now have thirteen stores in New Brunswick and at a meeting last week a dividend of seven per cent on the stock was declared on last year's operations.

THE MINTO STRIKE HAS BEEN DEFERRED

Men Will Not Go Out Tonight—Meeting Here in Hope of Settlement

Fredericton, Nov. 24—The miners of the Minto Coal Company's mines at Minto will not go on strike tonight, but will meet here tonight to discuss the possibility of a settlement. The directors of the company have agreed to meet with the directors of the labor department of labor to discuss the possibility of a settlement. Another meeting of the members of the United Mine Workers of America at Minto will be held tonight when William Hayes of Springhill, N. S., board member of the U. M. W., will instruct the miners to continue at their work tomorrow instead of striking, and explain the latest developments. Meanwhile the minister of labor has sent E. McG. Quirk of the labor department to New Brunswick to endeavor to arrange an adjustment, and Mr. Hayes will reach St. John tomorrow night to go into conference here. R. B. Hanson, K. C., solicitor for the Minto Coal Company, said today that there was no law in this country whereby an injunction could be secured to prevent the strike being carried on. Mr. Hanson said the directors of the Minto Coal Company at an informal meeting held at Montreal had determined to adhere to the majority report of the conciliation board. Sir Thomas Tait, of Montreal, is president of the Minto Coal Company.

MORE PLANTS CLOSE DOWN FOR LACK OF COAL TO RUN THEM

Chicago, Nov. 24—Industrial plants all over the middle west continued to close down today, fuel supplies to public utilities were curtailed further and regional coal committees advised individuals to save coal as the nation-wide strike of bituminous miners entered its 24th day. The only large producing center reporting an improvement during the last twenty-four hours was West Virginia, where the output in the non-union districts of the southern part of the state was said by the operators to be normal. The operators also asserted that additional organized mines in the New River and Kanawha districts in that state were expected to open today. In the great bituminous fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, the miners apparently were determined to remain idle until a settlement of the controversy over wages and hours is reached by the conference at Washington of operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

AT INDIANAPOLIS MANUFACTURERS AGREED TO CLOSE THEIR FACTORIES THREE DAYS A WEEK BEGINNING TODAY, UNTIL THE COAL SHORTAGE IS RELIEVED.

FUNDS FOR NEW CHURCH HALL

On Saturday afternoon the Comrades Club of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, held a country fair in the church hall, which was very successful. A vegetable booth presided over by Hiram Hornbeam and his wife Hannah, proved very popular. Two home-made candy tables, a home cooking booth, a fish pond and various guessing propositions were all liberally patronized. Light lunches were also served to a large number. The financial returns were very gratifying. The money will go toward the payment of Victory bonds for which the club subscribed at the beginning of a fund to build some time in the future a new church hall as a soldiers' memorial. A chicken which was put up for drawing was won by Miss Theo McKiel. Those in charge of the amusements were: Country store, Miss M. Guphill, Daniel Shaw and Ivan Nelson; fish pond, Mrs. Arbo, Mrs. Baxter and Miss Edith McKiel; home cooking table, Mrs. W. B. Meynell and Miss Theo McKiel; candy table, Miss Bertha Nelson and Miss B. BIG SURVEY WORK WAS DONE DURING SUMMER

Hundreds of Miles of New Brunswick's Timber Lands Cruised—The Football Mix Up

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 24—The forest section of the Department of Lands and Mines has covered a large area of the crown lands of the province during the last summer in surveys for the purpose of classification. J. M. Gibson, B. S. F., chief of one of the forest survey parties, will return to Fredericton tonight after spending the entire summer on the Little Soul West Miramichi River in charge of an eighteen-man cruising party. Since early in May this party cruised upwards of 500 square miles of timber and covered 100 square miles during October. Gustav Kuhring, who was a member of the same party, is also returning. Samuel R. Weston, D.L.S., who is in charge of one of the land surveying parties for the department, returned last week. Mr. Weston ran 290 lineal miles of block lines between the timber limits, establishing the lines for the purposes of the forest survey. The lines are properly blazed, and every quarter of a mile a post or tree is properly marked with block numbers and the numbers of chains to the corner, so that a cruiser or lumberman can easily locate themselves when they come in contact with any of the posts. A new feature of the survey is the placing of location posts, where portages cross the block-lines, to facilitate the work of the cruiser. Mr. Weston himself on the map when traveling a portage. P. M. Harrison, a returned soldier taking a vocational course, and who has been employed on one of the survey parties in Charlotte county, will go to Bathurst to work on growth study at the Experimental plot. The Football Tangle. The latest development in the U. N. B. Acadia Football situation is that Acadia has wired U. N. B. to replay the game or forfeit the Clark Trophy emblematic of the Western Intercollegiate League Title now in the custody of U. N. B. The reply wired by U. N. B. was that the matter is under consideration by the faculty. No steps have been taken locally to apprehend Ivan Parks, a soldier, who recently left the Military Hospital here and who is charged with committing bigamy by marriage to the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stairs of Southampton, while his wife and family were alleged to be living in St. John. Parks' whereabouts are unknown, but it is supposed that he left for the west. Miss Exca A. Lehr died this morning at her home, 668 Charlotte street, after a lengthy illness. Three brothers survive. They are: Dr. Andrew B. Lehr, of St. John's, Nfld.; Wilbert Lehr, of Bangor, Me., and Henry Lehr, of Hanover, N.H. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. Elva Case, of Minola, Mont., and Mrs. David Essensa, of Harvey.

IN WALL STREET

New York, Nov. 24—Stocks manifested no definite trend at the dull opening of today's session. Traders were more favorably inclined to the long account but commission houses continued to emphasize the need of further caution. General Motors and Crucible Steel, features of last week's final session, soon strengthened the general list at gains of five and three points respectively. Food and copper issues also contributed to the greater breadth and activity of the market at higher prices within the first half hour. Noon Report. Many accessions to early gains were made by motors, steels, equipments, shippings, tobaccos and oil shares, but rails remained sluggish. In several instances signs that the shorts were having further difficulties were again apparent. Pierce Arrow added five points to last Saturday's sharp rally and United Fruit and Atlantic Gulf were very strong. Demands for sugars were based on excellent trade conditions and the favorable annual report of the Cuba Cane Company. Coppers eased toward noon and moderate reactions set in elsewhere. Call money opened at seven per cent, the lowest initial rate of the month.

BRITISH FREE TRADES RALLY THEIR FORCES

(Continued from page 1) and, in the expressive phraseology of the machine "lie up the premier to the Unionist chariot." This line of reasoning, adds the Post, does less than justice to the peculiar qualities of Lloyd George, which would probably enable him to slip out of any knots the political makers might contrive. The commonly called anti-dumping bill makes a great new departure in the recognized commercial policy of Britain. Under this measure the board of trade is given power to prohibit importation of goods at prices below the selling prices in the country in which they are manufactured, and it also gives power to prohibit importation in fifteen key industries, including coal-tar products, dyestuffs, synthetic products, certain fine chemicals, optical glasses, scientific glassware, illuminating glass-ware, laboratory porcelain, scientific and optical instruments and magnets. With goods competing unfairly with home industries because of depreciated foreign currency, the board is given power to fix maximum prices for similar goods in the United Kingdom. Power is taken to prohibit the exportation for three years from the end of the war of gold and silver coins, fuel, new wheat, sugar, opium, cocaine and edible fats. The board is allowed to grant an amount not exceeding twenty million pounds for export trade credits, also to undertake insurance of goods where normal risks are involved. Free traders are already up in arms, declaring it makes a permanent emergency, and declaring it unlikely that the bill will pass through the house in its present form without raising most violent opposition. If only because there is no provision for the protection of British industry and labor against the products of underpaid labor abroad. The Daily News declares the whole scheme of this measure is protectionism of the worst and most arbitrary description. "It seems on cursory review to be one of the very worst experiments on protection that has ever been submitted to a modern parliament." The parliamentary correspondent of the Westminster Gazette indicates every possible parliamentary effort will be made to impede the bill, and a campaign will be carried into the constituencies. The Star, like the Daily News, is full of anger. If the coalition Liberals follow this bill, they will, it says, swallow anything. The Manchester Guardian declares the bill conceived in a spirit of narrow-minded commercialism and distrust, and that British industry never stood in less need of restrictive control or in more need of competitive stimulus.

THE POUND CLIMBS

New York, Nov. 24—Foreign exchange rates were considerably improved in the early trading in the market here today. Demand sterling, which had dropped to $3.99 1/2 for the English pound last week, was quoted today at $4.05 1/2, an increase of 2 3/4 cents over Saturday's final quotation. Franc checks were quoted at 9.59 for the American dollar as compared with 9.65 Saturday. Lire checks were listed at 12.02 for the dollar, 12 centimes above Saturday's prices.

The withdrawal of the American troops from Coblenz, in occupied Germany, is not considered in American peace conference circles as necessary in consequence of the failure of the United States senate to ratify the German peace treaty. It is contended that the United States is still one of the Allied and associated powers, and that the postponement of final action on the treaty does not change its relation to either the associated powers or to Germany.

CATHEDRAL AND ST. JOHN BAPTIST TEAMS WIN

Opening of The Catholic Church Basketball League at The Y. M. C. I.

The first game of the Catholic Church Basketball League got away with a good start in the Y.M.C.I. on Saturday evening, when a team representing the Cathedral defeated the St. Peter's boys by a score of 22 to 4, and the St. John the Baptist quintette made the Holy Trinity team bow to defeat to the tune of 13 to 7. that many problem plays and pictures were against Christianity.
Referring to the school question, the lecturer said that "the school is the fountain head of the stream. If the fountain head is poisoned should we be astonished to see that the stream is polluted and its waters contaminated. The church everywhere and always would stand for religion, in education as the basis of private life, and public thought."
Going back to the antagonism which he said existed between public opinion and the Catholic church the speaker said that it was caused by distorted vision born of misrepresentation of doctrine and practice, and urged that it was the duty of Catholics to enlighten others by clear thinking, by concerted action and individual effort, to abate prejudice, by participation in public life, by the distribution of literature and by the continued repetition of truth and persevering refutation of falsehood, thus throwing a barrier over the current. On the part of non-Catholics he asked a responsiveness of mind and a spirit of fairness and fair play. He felt that the persistent statement of principles and union of all true conservative forces were never more necessary than now to bring the world through this agonizing period if it was to be a time of reconstruction and not of continued destruction.

TO CONFER TODAY.
In the office of the C. N. R. terminal agent, L. R. Ross, this afternoon a meeting will be held between Superintendent Devenish, who came in from Moncton at noon, and members of the Great Marsh Branch, J. P. Clayton, J. Donovan and E. S. Carter, secretary to the premier. The question to be considered is as to the dumping of ashes into the Marsh Creek and just what the jurisdiction of the railway is—whether it has rights to the centre of the creek or not.

CONDUCTOR STRICKEN.

PROTEST TO CITY.
Commissioner Bullock announced this morning that the Trades and Labor Council had complained that the contractors engaged in building houses for the St. John Housing Commission were not living up to the fair wage scale. The matter is now being investigated by the housing commission. The contractors say that they are paying union wages and in some cases more than union wages on account of the fact that because of delay in the arrival of materials the workmen are not able to put in full time. The point in dispute seems to be the difference in the interpretation of the union scale and the fair wage schedule.

ARE SENT UP IN CONNECTION WITH SHOOTING POLICEMAN

The two men whom the police suspect were connected with the shooting of Policeman William Stinson in Fairville last week were taken in at St. George by Marshal L. M. Goodill and Constable James S. McKay on Saturday. Their names are given as Thibodeau and Melanson. They were working in a lumber camp at Crazy Lake, seven miles from St. George. They were driven to St. John and spent the night in the central police station.

A preliminary hearing was conducted this morning before Magistrate Ailingham. The prisoners were in charge of Sergeant Detective John T. Power, County Secretary J. King Kelley handled the prosecution.

The court room was crowded with spectators and standing room was at a premium.

The official from St. George testified that he heard Patrick Feeney had hired two men to work in the woods. He told of interviewing the men, their telling disconnected stories and then of placing them under arrest. The prisoners were asked if they had any questions to ask and said no.

The two were then taken to the home of Policeman Stinson, whose testimony was taken.

Both men were sent up for trial by Magistrate Ailingham at the close of this morning's hearing. Melanson pleaded guilty to firing the shot which wounded Policeman Stinson.

REV. R. P. MCKIM IN HALIFAX

Halifax Echo—Rev. R. P. McKim, M. A., rector of St. Luke's church, St. John, N. B., who arrives in the city today to conduct a ten days' mission at Trinity church has had great success in this work in many parts of Canada and is an earnest, impressive and eloquent speaker. He is especially noted at St. John where he conducts a bible class at the Y. M. C. A. every afternoon for city Sunday school teachers, and a great uplift for christian people of this city is anticipated. Some years ago he attracted considerable attention by the novel use of lantern slides in christian work. He has built up a very strong church at St. John and is greatly beloved wherever known. Rev. Mr. McKim will take both services at Trinity church tomorrow, opening the mission, and will address the young men of the congregation at Trinity hall at 2 o'clock. ### COMPROMISE IN EXPRESS MATTER

Terms of Agreement Which, It Is Reported Today, Has Been Arrived At

H. C. Creighton, superintendent for the Canadian Express Co. here, has not yet returned from Montreal. It was said today that the matter of an agreement between the employees and the company has not yet been definitely arranged but it was understood that a proposal in the nature of a compromise submitted will be accepted by the employees.

Under the present arrangement the employees are supposed to make runs totalling 6,000 miles a month with one-quarter cent for all extra mileage. They are asking that the basis of mileage be reduced to 5,000 miles a month with one-quarter cent a mile for additional mileage, or a flat rate of fifty cents an hour for over-mileage. The schedule of their demands also asked for an increase of twenty-five per cent. on all present wages.

This was refused by the company but a compromise offer was made whereby all men receiving less than $100 a month would receive a fifteen per cent. increase, those getting from $100 to $110 a month, a twelve per cent. increase and all employees getting more than $110 a month a ten per cent. increase. The two weeks' trial clause was agreed to. This offer, it is understood, will be accepted by the employees.

COUNCIL MEETING

Plans for Brussels Street Fountain—Mayor Hayes is Away

The common council met in committee this morning, Commissioner Bullock presiding in the absence of the mayor, who is in Halifax attending the reception to the Prince of Wales.

Tenders were opened for a new tail shaft for the ferry steamer Governor Carleton to replace that damaged a few days ago. The figures were as follows: Lin Foundry and Machine Co., $450; Phoenix Foundry, $410; St. John Iron Works, $380. It was decided to recommend the St. John Iron Works tender. A resolution was passed instructing the comptroller to pay to the local vocational committee $5,000, the city's grant.

Commissioner Fisher brought up the matter of the placing of the fountain donated by the Women's Institute in Brussels street. The city engineer, he said, had recommended that the fountain be placed at one side of an "island" forty feet long and twelve feet wide running parallel with Union street, at the junction of Brussels street. The horse fountain was to be on the Brussels street side and placed so that vehicles stopping there would not interfere with street car traffic. The island was to be raised the same height as an ordinary curb. He said that this suggestion would be placed before a meeting of the ladies this week and the public works and water departments were prepared to go ahead with the work so soon as the ladies had decided on their plans. The work of setting up is to be done at the expense of the city. A bubble drinking fountain and two tables for tea to drink are also included in the fountain arrangement.

SALE TODAY.
The Ladies' Aid of St. Matthew's church held a rummage sale this afternoon in the school room of the church under the direction of Mrs. Leggett, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Edgear. The sale was well patronized and a substantial sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

UNION WITH WEST INDIES
A correspondent in Toronto who has been taking up actively the matter of confederation between Canada and the British West Indies, has written to the local board of trade asking that they give consideration to the matter and assist if possible in bringing about the union. The writers enclosed clippings of West Indian and Canadian papers advocating the proposed federation.

The lamp is the first thing you see when you enter the room. In daylight hours it provides the touch of color and variety of proportion which make for effective furnishing. Lighted, its soft glow dignifies and lends elegance to the surroundings. It should be chosen with thoughtful consideration for its effectiveness under both conditions.

This store has lamps of all types—Floor Lamps, Piano Lamps, Library Lamps, Reading Lamps, and wonderful shades of individual creation for each and every purpose.

When you contemplate the selection of a lamp to contribute to the beauty and comfort of your home, we sincerely believe you will find it to your best interest to come and see our comprehensive showing.
